I takes 'em into the feller what sold 'em to me and says "I wanta trade these for a flock o' sofy pillars." He asks me has they been on the ice much and I says they ain't and believe me I don't tell no lie either. Them skates was in the air most of the time. Well, I gets the pillars all right and they was welcome too.

Oh, I most forgot to tell you something. If you wanta get a good laugh go up to one of them rehearsals for that play what them Lion fellers is goin' to give, "That's It." I think they calls it. They asked me to be in it. They was goin' to give me the part of a tuff girl but seein' how I ain't tuff I says no. Maybe if I was tuffer I might have learned to skate. Well, that play's goin' to be a scream, if you know what I mean. They is a lotta fellers in it what I knows and they is funny. They is a feller what's supposed to be a hick and although he comes from the East Side you'd think he come from Baltic. Then they's a tuff guy in it. He's a feller what sells paper so I guess he was picked 'cause that paper sellin' business is a tuff business anyway. No that feller what you knows, Geo. Madden, ain't in it, but I seen him up there.

Them choruses is the cat's boudoir cap. If they dance the night of the show like they did when I see 'em they's goin' to be more falls than I took on the ice. I never saw so many legs goin' in so many directions before in all my life, everybody thinks everybody's outta step but she. They tell they is better now so I should hopes so. I'm going to see it if I can sit down in one of them hard seats by that time, but if I don't maybe I can stand up. Well I gotta stop now and massage myself with linament and ointment.

Painfully I remain your black and blue.

SUSIE.

THUNBERG AGAIN BEATEN BY MOORE AND GORMAN

NEW YORK, Jan. 13—(AP)—Clas Thunberg, of Finland, Olympic speed skating champion, met defeat for the second time in this country in a three-cornered match tonight against Joe Moore, of New York, and Joe Gorman, of Canada, finishing a poor third in a race of one and one-half miles. Moore led Gorman over the finish in a sensational sprint by two yards.

As in his initial appearance here last week, Thunberg made the early pace, leading Moore, the indoor champion, until the seventeenth lap of the 21 lap event. At this point the New York skater dashed to the front with Gorman at his heels. Moore set a terrific pace but Gorman hung on tenaciously to the end with Thunberg almost half a lap behind. The winner's time of 4 minutes, 37 seconds was twelve seconds slower than the record which is held by the veteran Edmund Lamy.

The race, marking Thunberg's last appearance here during a North American invasion which will take him next month to St. Johns, N. B., for the world's championship, found the Finnish marvel again unable successfully to cope with turns without slackening their pace, while the Olympic champion was compelled to slow down at the corners perceptibly. Although Thunberg had established a record at two miles in his three mile race here last week, he failed to display sprinting ability when Moore cut loose with the great finish which swept him to victory.

NO DISEASED TONSILS OR BAD TEETH ON MAJOR CLUBS

NEW YORK, Jan. 13—(AP)—The theory that healthy tonsils, or their removal, is essential to successful ball playing seems to be gaining ground.

Last year Connie Mack had several of the stars of his Athletics undergo operations for removal of their tonsils and credited it with being responsible for their improvement. Now the Boston Braves and Red Sox have given even further and issued instructions to their athletes to have their tonsils, as well as their teeth, examined before reporting for spring training.

Officials of both the New York Giants and Yankees, on the other hand, attach no special importance to the matter quirements for players to report in and say that their regular contract rerood condition cover the situation.

The theory of clubs taking special tention, however is that rheumatism, sore arms and similar ailments have their origin in diseased tonsils or infected teeth.

JUDGE LANDIS GUEST OF EWING ON COAST

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13—(AP)—Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, baseball commissioner, accompanied by Mrs. Landis and his secretary, Leslie O'Connor, arrived in San Francisco today for a few days of rest and visiting with baseball and other friends. He will be the guest of J. Cal Ewing, owner of the Oakland club in the Pacific Coast league while here.

SHARKEY KAYOES LAWSON IN THE SECOND ROUND

HARTFORD, Jan. 13—(AP)—Jack Sharkey, of Boston, New England heavyweight champion, tonight knocked out Mexican Joe Lawson, of Columbus, Ohio, in the second round here.

The first round was comparatively tame, although Lawson twice connected with his left and once crossed his right to Sharkey's head.

The New England titleholder opened up in the second round and whipped terrific lefts and rights to Lawson's head and body. He threw Lawson to the floor early in the round and the Mexican stayed down for the count of nine. When he arose, Sharkey was on top of him and a hard left followed by a right put him down and out for ten minutes.

Jim Stone, of Montreal and Clem Johnson of New York, fought a rugged eight round semi-final, Stone getting the verdict through effective use of a stiff left hand. Johnson punished the Canadian about the body, especially in the fifth and sixth rounds, but Stone rallied to win the fight. They are heavyweights.

Jack Horner, of New York and Young Emmons, of Waterbury, fought a furious preliminary, Horner winning the decision. They are welterweights. Frank Zenk, of Springfield, outpointed Frankie O'Brein, of Hartford in another bout. They are also welterweights.

N. E. CONFERENCE TEAMS SPLIT EVEN IN WEEK'S GAMES

STORRS, Jan. 13—(AP)—Outstanding among the basketball games of the New England state colleges last week were the 20-12 victory of Massachusetts Aggies over Brown at Amherst on Friday, the defeat Friday of Maine by New Hampshire at Durham, N. H., 18 to 29, and the 38-23 victory of Connecticut Aggies over Tufts at Storrs on Saturday.

Rhode Island met defeat on a two-day trip to Boston, losing 44-30 to Boston university on Friday, and 30-26 to Massachusetts Tech on Saturday. Maine split even by virtue of a 30-29 victory over the Portland A. C., at Portland, Me., on Saturday.

In defeating Brown, the Massachusetts Aggies won their third straight game.

New Hampshire marked up its first game of the season as a win with the defeat of Maine, conquerors of Dartmouth earlier in the season.

Kaplan Signs for Bout

NEW YORK, Jan. 13—(AP)—Louis (Kid) Kaplan, world's featherweight champion, signed today for a 10-round bout with Billy Murphy of Lowell, Mass., at Boston January 25. Kaplan's title will not be involved under the articles of agreement which call for the boxers to make 126 pounds, nine pounds over the feather limit.

Jewett City vs. Danielson Tonight

The Jewett City Free class with the Danielson Town team tonight at Danielson in what is expected to be a fast encounter. This will be the first game of any note for the Danielson team which to date has been playing only Danielson teams.

TODAY'S SPORTS

RACING

Meeting of Louisiana Jockey club at New Orleans.

Meeting of Tia Juana Jockey club, at Tia Juana.

Meeting of Havana-American Jockey club, at Havana.

GOLF

Annual Mid-January tournament opens at Pinehurst, N. C.

St. Augustine championship opens at St. Augustine.

SKATING

World's championship speed races begin at St. John, N. B.

CURLING

Annual bonspiel of Northwestern Curling Assn., at St. Paul.

BOXING

Basil Galiano vs. Phil McGraw, 10 rounds, at New York.

Morrie Schlaifer vs. Al Mello, 10 rounds, at Boston.

RED CROSS LIFE-SAVER HAS HAD VARIED EXPERIENCES

Much interest is being manifested by local swimmers in the coming of Captain Carroll Bryant, of the Red Cross Life Saving corps, who is scheduled to conduct a first aid and life saving course in this city beginning Wednesday and continuing through Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Captain Bryant has had a wide experience in the swimming and physical education field. He served as swimming instructor to 16,000 sailors at Newport R. I., Naval Training station. After the armistice he was sent to Siberia as athletic instructor with the American forces there. At Vladivostok, he organized the Russian Boy Scouts and established a large camp attended by Russian refugees. From Siberia, he went to the Philippines to teach the prone pressure method of resuscitation to the 3,000 troops stationed at Manila. During the past few wyears Captain Bryant has been serving the American Red Cross service as first aid and life saving expert.

CARROLL BRYANT

Captain Bryant's programme in Norwich, will consist of coaching swimmers in advanced swimming and life saving, as well as meeting with various groups interested in resuscitation work. The life saving instruction work will be conducted in the Y. M. C. A. swimming pool, and the classes have been scheduled at hours that should prove convenient to most swimmers. All men and boys interested in this popular activity are urged to enroll for the course, which is offered entirely free of charge, and they may do so by registering at the Y. M. C. A., or with members of the committee.

The committee in charge of Captain Bryant's programme are: E. J. Fritz, of the local Y. M. C. A.; F. E. Benton, of the Boy Scouts; Harold Desainger, Plainfield Community house; Prentice Chase, of the Ashland Cotton company; R. Holden, Willimantic Y. M. C. A. and John Williams, of the Norwich Free academy.

LIVELY GAMES MARK VOLLEYBALL LEAGUE

Some lively volleyball took place in the businessmens' volleyball league games at the "Y" yesterday afternoon, when, with the largest attendance of the season, the teams jumped into the game to make it a real tussle. The Bears, under the careful guidance of Team Coach Harwood, succeeded in emerging from the battle with three games to their credit, followed by the Yellow Jackets, who stung their friendly rivals for two wins. After the stoke of the Steam Rollers had cleared away, it was discovered that the league top-notchers had lost three games.

Standing of Teams

	W.	L.	Pct.
Steam Rollers	6	3	.667
Yellow Jackets	5	4	.556
Bears	5	4	.556
Giants	2	7	.223

Standing of Junior Boys League

Triangles	147
Crescents	109
Circles	98
Squares	50

WINSLOW IS ELECTED CAPTAIN OF PUTNAM ELEVEN

(Special to The Bulletin)

PUTNAM, Jan. 13—At a recent meeting of the 1925 football squad Gordon Winslow, star quarterback of last season, was unanimously chosen captain of the 1926 Putnam High school football team. Winslow well deserves the honor as he made a brilliant record last year and will succeed Bill Valentine, who lead Putnam last season without a single defeat. Coach Smith awarded the football letters to the deserving members of the squad who played in at least two-thirds of the scheduled games. After receiving the letters, the team, as a taken of their appreciation of the work of Coach Smith, presented him with a gold pen and pencil set on which was engraved his name and that it was presented by the championship eleven.

The following players received their letters: Valentine (retiring captain), Winslow (captain elect), Elliott, Hanlan, Arnold, Dupre, Caffrey, Wheaton, Thompson, McGarry, Colburn, Pominville, Farquhar, Cody, Donovan and Scott.

GLICK GETS TECHNICAL K. O. OVER RUBY STEIN

NEW YORK, Jan. 13—(AP)—Joe Glick, of New York, won a technical knockout over Ruby Stein, of New York in the seventh round of a 10-round bout here tonight. Stein's eye was closed tight and bleeding when the referee stopped the bout. Glick weighed 132, Stein 133.

In another ten rounder Eddie Anderson, of Wyoming, knocked out Spencer Gardner, of Newport, R. I., in the first round.

In another 10-round bout Harry Wallach, of New York, won a decision over Billy Kennedy, of New Orleans. Wallach weighed 136, Kennedy 130 1-2.

Whirlwinds vs. Y. M. H. A.

This evening at the Y. M. H. A. hall, the Whirlwinds five of this city, will form the opposition for the fast traveling Y. M. H. A. quintet of this city. This contest bids fair to be fast and exciting throughout as some of the best known talent in this section is included in the rosters of the two clubs. The game will get underway promptly at 8:15, with dancing to follow.

INTERNATIONAL ENTRIES MAKE THE INDOOR TRACK SEASON ONE OF INTEREST

NEW YORK, Jan. 16—(AP)—While lacking any such spectacular personality as Paavo Nurmi gave to indoor foot racing a year ago, the season now gathering headway on the boards promises to witness not only unusually keen competition but another revival of international rivalry.

Distance racing, with Nurmi, his countrymen, Willie Ritola and Joie Ray as prominent figures, held the spotlight last season and will not be devoid of interest once more but the main sensations of 1926 are expected to be supplied in sprinting and middle distance running.

There will be a touch of international color in both races, for Hubert Houben, of Germany, is here to seek sprint honors against Loren Murchison, Frank Hussey and Dehart Hubbard, among others, while Charley Hoff, of Norway, is training for tests with American middle distance men as well as for competition in his other specialty, pole vaulting.

Houben and Hoff, it developed today, both have had training difficulties but they expect to be ready for their debuts in the K. of C. meet at Boston, January 30. A slight touch of tonsilitis has bothered Houben the last few days. Hoff, training at Dartmouth college, Hanover, N. H., has found the absence of a board track a handicap to his workouts and Amateur Athletic union officials here have suggested he shift his preliminary activities to the University of Maine to remedy this.

Hoff will step into a hotbed of Metropolitan rivalry when he essays middle distance competition. This spirit was heightened Saturday when Alan Helffrich, of the New York A. C., was disqualified for "cutting corners" after finishing first in the half-mile feature of the Fordham meet. The race was awarded to "Pinkie" Sober City college track captain who was on Helffrich's heels at the finish and leading such redoubtable veterans as George Marsters and Johnny Holden ex-Georgetown runners. The same quartet may have it out again next Saturday in the Brooklyn college games.

International features will have their fullest play in the Millrose A. A. carnival at Madison Square Garden, Feb. 6. Hoff is entered in three events and Houben in a sprint series against Hussey, Murchison and Hubbard. In addition, Adrian Pealen, Holland's star quarter-miler and George Goodwin, English walker, are slated to make their first appearances.

There was prospect that Sten Pettersen, Swedish hurdling ace, would join the invading band but the Wilco A. A., which invited him, received word today he could not make the trip. Pettersen expressed a desire to come here in the summer or for the 1927 indoor season.

Relay racing promises to provide additional thrills. Georgetown whose two-mile team smashed both indoor and outdoor records last year, is grooming a one-mile quartet for fresh honors. With Jummy Burgess and Vernon Archer as its stars, the Georgetown team probably will make its first record-breaking attempt in the Crescent A. C. games, Feb. 11, when Syracuse, Yale, Princeton and Harvard also have been invited to compete.

In the distance field, Ritola and his countryman, Stenroos, who won the Olympic marathon for Finland in 1924, have flashed fine performances already with Willie Goodwin, of the New York A. C., looming as Ritola's most dangerous rival at distances around two miles.

REXS OF NEW LONDON BEATEN BY NORWICH C. F. C.

(Special to The Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Jan. 13—(AP)—The Rexs of this city, a basketball five of sterling reputation were the victims of a fast quintet from Norwich, the C. F. C., here tonight the visitors winning by a score of 47 to 35. The game was fast and although the local team outweighed the Norwich boys the visitors proved a fast and accurate passing team. Leffingwell, Lambert, and Brown starred for the visitors while Hutchinson was the stellar performer for the locals. The summary:

C. F. C.

	G	F	Pts
Leffingwell, lf	8	2	18
Jackson, rf	2	0	4
Lambert, c	6	1	13
Brown, lg	5	2	12
Armstrong, rg	0	0	0
Totals	21	5	47

Rexs of New London

R. Mortensen, lf, rg	1	0	2
Hutchinson, rf	14	0	28
Cutler, c	0	0	0
Sullivan, lg	0	0	0
E. Mortensen, rg	4	0	8
Totals	19	0	38

AGGIES HAVE TWO TOUGH GAMES FOR THIS WEEK

(Special to The Bulletin.)

STORRS, Jan. 18—Playing Wesleyan at Middletown Wednesday, and Union at Schenectady Saturday, the Connecticut Aggie five will have its work cut out for it this week.

Tufts, who the Aggies easily defeated here Saturday night, downed Wesleyan a week ago at Middletown, which would seem to indicate that the Aggies have the advantage. Despite this, however, Connecticut does not view the approaching contest with the Red and Black with any degree of over-confidence.

During the past five years, Connecticut has not once defeated Wesleyan in basketball. They have been picked to win more than once, but Wesleyan has always been on the long end of the final score. This has gone on to such an extent that here at Storrs one hears no small amount of talk concerning the so-called "Wesleyan Jinx," though in the minds of the superstitious, the "jinx" was broken one afternoon last fall when the Aggies defeated the Red and Black in football. Whether or not the "jinx" will assert itself in Wednesday's game remains to be seen.

BALTIC INDEPENDENTS WIN THEIR FIRST GAME

Saturday afternoon, on the Baltic gym surface, the newly formed Independents of Baltic, defeated the South Windham Stars by the score of 54 to 21. The feature of the game was the good teamwork of the home club. For the visitors Holden and Blanchette put up a good game.

The score and lineup:

South Windham Stars

	G.	F.	Pts.
Holden, rg	3	1	7
Oman, lf	1	0	2
Healy, c	3	1	5
Smith, rg	1	1	3
Blanchette, lg	2	0	4
	9	3	21

Baltic Independents

	G.	F.	Pts.
Wilcox, rf	8	0	16
Ridgeway, lf	4	1	9
Andrews, c	9	1	19
Ashworth, rg	4	0	8
Rood, lg	0	0	0
Lumpy, lf	1	0	2
	26	3	54

Referee Walter Robitaille.

Scorer H. Collins.

For games with the Independents write to Benny Ridgeway, care of the Social club, Baltic.

AMERICAN BIKE RIDERS TAKE LEAD IN BERLIN

BERLIN, Jan. 13—(AP)—The American team in the six-day bicycle race, McNamara and Horan, are again in the lead. After a break-neck spurt they forged to the front and at the end of the 97th hour had covered 1,566 miles, 980 yards, scoring 201 points.

Georgetti and Rieger are in second place, 195 points; Hahn and Tietz, third, 94 points; Perayn and Debaets fourth, 72 points.

Two of the teams have abandoned the race, but ten teams remaining.

Bass Knocks Out Corbett

CLEVELAND, Jan. 13—(AP)—Benny Bass, Philadelphia, knocked out Al Corbett, Cleveland, featherweight, in the first round of their scheduled 12-round bout here tonight.

Marty Burke, New Orleans, won the referee's decision over Tony Stevenau, Buffalo, in the eight round semi-final.

Eagles Want Games

The Eagles basketball team of Taftville would like to arrange a series of games with the Valiant Juniors and would also like to meet any other of the junior teams. For games write to Leodore Phaneuf, Box 43, Taftville.

Great Umpire Calls Out Many Famous Players

The year 1925 now at its close has seen the passing of many men whose names are written large in the history of organized baseball. Players who were without a peer in their day have heard the cheers of the crowd for the last time, others almost unknown to the present-day fans but who were bright stars in the early days of the game have made their final exit, but more especially has the Grim Reaper during the past 12 months found harvest among the club owners and high officials of the game.

Christy Mathewson, baseball's 'Big Six," one of the greatest pitchers of all time, and loved and honored wherever the game is played, passed away at Saranac Lake on October 7. Gassed in the war in France, where he served with distinction, Mathewson returned from overseas to coach the Giants, the club with which he won his fame, but the illness which finally took his life forced him to retire for recuperation in 1920. Showing marked improvement after several years he returned to baseball as president of the Boston Braves and it was in the line of duty with that club that he suffered a fatal setback.

John B. Day, popular with the baseball fans of 30 years ago as the first owner and president of the New York Giants, died at his home in New York on January 25, aged 78 years.

Charles H. Ebbets, president of the Brooklyn club of the National League for a quarter of a century, and one of the best-known figures in the major leagues, died in New York on April 18 after a protracted illness.

Edward J. Mickelover, who succeeded to the presidency of the Brooklyn club on the death of Mr. Ebbets, survived his old partner scarcely more than a week, his death occurring on April 29 as the result of an attack of influenza.

Arthur H. Soden, who was president of the Boston National league club from 1877 to 1907, a period of 30 years, died at his summer home at Sunapee, N. H., on Aug. 13, aged 80 years. Mr. Soden was one of the group of pioneers who nursed the National league through its infancy.

John M. Ward, known as the "no-hit pitcher" 45 years ago, one-time captain of the New York Giants and later president of the Boston Braves, passed away at Augusta, Ga., on March 4. In 1890 it was Ward who led the great war of the Player's League against the old organization.

Charles A. Farrell, one of the most popular players of his day, and for the past two years scout and coach for the Boston Braves, passed away in Boston on Feb. 15.

Samuel N. Crane, veteran baseball writer and at one time considered the best second baseman of his day, died of pneumonia in New York on June 26.

Patrick T. Powers of Jersey City, a former president of the Eastern league, which later became the International league, died August 27.

Edward Holland, for many years president of the Three-I league, died at Joliet, Ill., June 7.

"Gus" Schmelz, who had managed no fewer than half a dozen major and minor league clubs from 1884 to 1897, died at Columbus, O., Oct. 14, aged 75 years.

Joseph O'Brien, for ten years an umpire in the major and minor leagues, died at his home in North Troy, N. Y., Nov. 5.

Ad Bumbert, for ten years a prominent pitcher, playing with the Boston, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Brooklyn clubs, died in Pittsburgh on April 23.

Jack Mullin, a former pitcher of the Washington Americans and later with the New Orleans Southern league team, died in Philadelphia on January 26.

BOSTON BOXERS CLINCH VICTORY IN TRI-CITY BOUTS

BOSTON, Jan. 13—(AP)—Boston boxers were assured of victory over Montreal and Cleveland in four of seven classes in the amateur tri-city contest held tonight by the Massachusetts Veterans of Foreign Wars. At the end of the semi-finals Cleveland had failed to score a victory. The Boston men scored knockouts in three classes and a technical knockout in one.

Wells Wins on Foul

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 13—(AP)—Billy Wells, British welterweight, won on a foul from Sailor Friedman, of Chicago, in the sixth round of their scheduled 10-round bout here tonight.

White Elected Captain

STORRS, Jan. 13—(AP)—John T. White, of Bristol, was today elected captain of the Connecticut Aggie freshman basketball team. He is a forward.

The late Queen Alexandra, like all members of the English royal family, was a great lover of dogs and at one time or another showed Chows, Skyes, Japanese Spaniels, Basset hounds, Borzois and Pekingese. The two last-named breeds seem to have been her favorites, as she was many times photographed with them

ON TAFTVILLE ALLEYS

Nutmegs

Archambeau	90	84	87	261
Burrell	91	96	77	264
Ray	77	89	76	242
Adams	86	96	84	265
R. Dugas	81	83	83	247
	424	414	407	1281

Olympic Jrs.

Boenig	85	77	80	240
Cohen	91	86	81	258
Chip, Jr.	80	81	82	243
Fontaine	84	104	84	272
Savigny	96	108	100	304
	436	456	433	1317

Cardinals

Comtois	92	94	89	275
Gaudette	88	77	87	247
Mish	92	95	100	287
Duke	82	98	104	278
Lemon	96	97	94	284
	448	451	472	1372

Cyclone

Preston	77	93	79	259
P. Savard	99	81	89	269
Wiseman	84	88	78	250
Guertin	83	102	84	268
L. Savard	96	83	100	277
	439	447	421	1314

Nomads

Yerrington	84	84	82	250
Labarre	83	89	84	256
Lurrette	93	98	104	295
Paquette	91	97	95	283
Oulmet	88	80	92	260
	439	448	454	1341

Pirates

M Lucier	85	102	108	295
A. Lucier	90	93	91	273
Pepin	89	103	89	286
Bedard	82	96	93	271
Landry	80	101	88	269
	427	501	457	1395

Indian Wizards

Bedard	86	93	95	274
Bouley	84	89	101	274
Bazinef	93	115	106	313
Brown	90	95	87	272
Marien	87	96	88	281
	449	493	464	1413

Crescents

Burrelle	81	78	86	245
Lavallee	94	97	99	290
Freseau	85	79	79	243
Fitz	97	85	90	272
Lurrette	97	82	86	265
	457	421	446	1318

Tierney Stars

Tierney	97	106	83	286
Coleman	88	81	85	254
Wadja	97	97	79	273
J. White	101	93	83	276
F. White	100	107	102	309
	483	478	432	1393

Battling Gore's

R. Coleman	85	100	105	290
R. Archambeau	91	80	101	273
R. Paquette	79	102	92	273
R. Molleur	86	80	80	246
R. Geer	102	99	94	295
	441	461	485	1387

Olympics

Wiseman	77	93	96	266
Lambert	84	89	98	270
Savigny	101	80	88	269
Boenig	88	101	74	263
Dugas	116	108	94	318
	466	475	443	1384

Orients

Kendall	72	84	71	227
Guerard	92	109	88	289
Preston	92	88	94	274
Savignac	89	84	99	272
Bouley	89	81	88	258
	434	456	440	1330

AT THE AETNA ALLEYS U. S. FINISHING LEAGUE

Print Room

Nelson	79	95	98—	272
Frazier	93	77	79—	249
Burelle	91	101	82—	274
Marien	115	104	112—	331
Dunman	89	91	92—	272
Totals	467	468	446	1401

Block Print

Gagnon	101	80	75—	256
Dean	83	79	79—	241
Mileski	88	85	73—	246
Fitzgerald	94	83	93—	260
Guyon	84	88	85—	257
Totals	440	415	402	1257

Engraving

Olson	80	93	79—	252
Kohanski	79	80	90—	249
MacDougall	73	82	86—	241
Gvonski	96	110	116—	322
Purdon, Jr.	91	96	94—	281
Totals	419	461	465	1345

Can Room

E. LeBlanc	79	64	85—	228
Turcotte	91	78	77—	246
Moumblou	74	95	86—	255
A. LeBlanc	91	85	81—	258
Bobsun	81	111	96—	288
Totals	416	434	425	1275

Print Calendar

Farrell	113	78	92—	283
Rydholm	74	91	76—	240
Banfield	93	86	77—	256
Harrington	85	83	99—	267
Chestnat	87	92	89—	268
Totals	442	430	432	1304

Office

Crooks	96	93	105—	294
Gray	91	109	103—	303
Pierson	81	89	72—	242
Cousins	85	91	85—	261
Enright	109	93	110—	312
Totals	456	475	480	1411

Color Calender

Cooker	90	83	97—	270
Lynch	75	86	90—	251
Chilmotte	74	74	99—	247
Bellaire	91	86	85—	262
McCarthy	92	98	91—	276
Totals	422	427	462	1311

Color M. U.

Yank	75	85	101—	261
Harris	96	87	80—	263
Gromko	89	85	81—	255
O'Rourke	80	80	98—	258
Simcox	79	94	96—	269
Totals	419	426	456	1309

Print M. U.

Coughlin	79	86	83—	248
Kane	79	90	86—	255
Segoda	79	85	92—	256
Ellison	111	88	114—	313
Langlais	86	92	93—	271
Totals	434	441	468	1343

Black Room

Gaudette	86	95	83—	264
Mott	92	80	84—	256
Stubelict	83	93	87—	263
Plant	86	103	88—	277
Lewk	95	87	112—	294
Totals	442	457	453	1352

Nutmegs-Wheel Club Game Later

The Nutmegs-Pequonnah Wheel club basketball game that was postponed last Friday evening, will probably be played later in the season.

A Challenge

The Taftville Terriers would like to play the Y. M. H. A. boys if possible this week. If this challenge is accepted please answer through this paper.

PODBUBNY THROWS ZBYSZKO IN 50 SECONDS OF WRESTLING

NEW YORK, Jan. 13—(AP)—Ivan Podbubny of Russia, scored his fourth successive wrestling triumph in a finish match tonight at the 71st Regiment armory, hurling Wladek Zbyszko, Polish heavyweight, to the mat after 50 seconds of grappling.

Lifting his opponent with a body hold Podbubny hurled Zbyszko down so heavily that the latter was unconscious for several minutes.

Garcia Beats Tommy Herman

BALTIMORE, Jan. 13—Bobby Garcia, local lightweight, outpointed Tommy Herman, of Chicago, in a twelve round bout here tonight. Garcia weighed 129 and Herman 131.

Basketball Results

At Ann Arbor, Mich.: Illinois 31; Michigan 22.

SPORT WORLD BRIEFS

The Royal Henley regatta will be held this year, June 30, to July 3.

Frank Judson, well-known professional wrestler, is a graduate of Harvard.

Tommy Burns was the smallest pugilist who ever held the world's heavyweight championship.

Finland has the reputation of producing the greatest long-distance runners the world ever knew.

Rocky Kansas, the new lightweight champion, is an Italian-American. His real name is Rocco Tozze.

The leader of university athletic teams in England is called the president of the team, and not the captain, as in America.

The ann

WESTERLY

NEW FIRE ALARM BOXES LOCATED IN WESTERLY

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WESTERLY, R. I., Jan. 18—Since the annual meeting of the Westerly Fire district last August, the bounds of the Westerly Fire District have been extended, which has necessitated the increasing of the number of fire alarm boxes by about twenty-five.

Westerly fire alarm boxes in the enlarged district are thus numbered and located:

Westerly: Bell alarm on fire department headquarters, Union Street. Box numbers:
21 Granite street and Newton avenue.
23 Park Avenue school.
24 High street and Grove avenue.
25 Narragansett and Newton avenues.
26 Park avenue and Spruce street.
27 Highland avenue at Bathbun's Drive.
28 Granite street and Chester avenue.
29 Ledward avenue, Granite Works.
32 Cross and Spring streets.
33 Outside of the Fire District.
34 Elm street, at Calvary Baptist church.
35 School and George streets.
36 Chestnut street, near school house.
37 Cross and Hobart streets.
38 Granite and School streets.
39 Granite and John streets.
41 Main and School streets.
42 Cross and Elm streets.
43 Main and Beach streets.
45 Beach and Elm streets.
46 Beach and Clark streets.
47 River Bend cemetery.
48 Elm Street school.
49 Greenman avenue and Margin street.
53 Main and Union streets.
53 High school, Broad street.
54 Industrial school, Union street.
56 Dixon Square.
57 Hich and Canal streets.
62 Railroad avenue and West street.
64 High and Pleasant streets.
65 Tower street, near Vose Pond.
66 Oak and Haswell streets.
67 High and Pierce streets.
68 Oak and Tower streets.
71 Canal and Pleasant streets.
72 Varietyville, White School road.
75 Canal street, near gas house.
74 Pleasant street and Marriott avenue.
75 Dayton and Pierce streets.
77 Riot call for the militia.
81 Pond and Pierce streets.
82 High and Pearl streets.
83 Brendan and Service streets.
84 Perkins avenue.
92 John street and York avenue.
124 East avenue and State street.
125 East avenue, Gavitt's farm.
126 East avenue, Milner's Drive.
127 East avenue, Bethel Chapel, near Thompson's Corner.
128 Watch Hill road, near Stillman's Dahlia Gardens.
214 Post Road, near residence of George Dolan.
215 Post Road, near Dobridnia's Greenhouses.
325 Westerly Road, Mt. Pleasant Farm.
326 Westerly Road, at Jolly's Ice factory.
327 Avondale, Riverview Road, at residence of Vivian Spencer.
328 Avondale, Riverview Road, at residence of Horace Burdick.
334 Westerly Road, near Broad View Farm.

(A general box is located in the Central office of the Westerly Automatic Telephone company from which any number on the Westerly side can be rung. In emergency or extreme haste, call Central, tell the operator your telephone numb and and the number of your nearest firealarm box, and it will be rung.)

Pawcatuck, whistle alarm on C. B. Cottrell & Sons Co., Printing Press factory, Mechanic street. Box numbers: (Authentic revision by courtesy of Mr. Pierce A. Morison, Chief of the Pawcatuck Fire Department.)
7 Mechanic street, Cottrells' shops.
26 Mechanic street and Mystic avenue.
41 Clarkville.
42 Mechanic street, near oil tank.
43 Mechanic and Palmer streets.
46 West Broad street, near Bridge.
51 West Broad street and Lincoln avenue.
52 West Broad and Moss streets.
53 Moss and Palmer streets.
54 West Broad and Morgan streets.
56 Williams and Field streets.
62 Liberty street and Stillman avenue.
63 Liberty and Smith streets.
64 Garden and Dower streets.
65 Stillman avenue, near brick mill.

Joseph Savona, 25 Cherry street, Pawcatuck, on Monday morning in the session of Stonington town court, before Judge William A. Wilcox, was fined $100 and costs amounting to $32.31 for the illegal sale of intoxicating liquors. He was also committed to New London county jail for a period of 60 days. State Trooper E. W. Kennerson of the Groton barracks took Savona to New London, for committment. Angelo Patti, 34 Mechanic street was found guilty of unlawfully neglecting to pay his personal tax bills from 1916 to 1925 when demanded by Tax Collector D. Everett Hoxie. Only $4 had been paid and after sentenced to leaving a balance of $20.0 committed trial of the case he was on his plea pay the same or to stand of Stonington committed to New London county jail "until the total bill with interest, costs and fines amounting to $41.20 had been paid. Joseph Martino of Stonington borough, charged with breach of the peace and assault on Joseph Fratus, had his case continued one week for trial of "not guilty" John Vieria of Stonington, becoming surety for his appearance in the sum of $200 bonds.

The first trial was the tax case of Angelo Patti who entered a plea of "guilty." The first witness called was Stonington Tax Collector D. Everett Hoxie who produced his rate books to show the balance due $22.10 back taxes. He testified that demand had been made a dozen times on the defendant who shrugged his shoulders and said: "I don't care." Paul H. Reitzel, assistant to Collector Hoxie, also testified to Patti's taxes not being paid.

Patti, in his own behalf said that he had been sick and could not pay. He denied that he had been asked for payment and repeatedly questioned the veracity of Collector Hoxie as to drawing a severe censure from Judge Wilcox before he found him guilty.

Joseph Savona was tried on the complaint of selling intoxicating liquors to Charles Laskey, a sailor, and when put to plea entered one of "nolo." Prosecuting Attorney George R. McKenna directed the entry of "not guilty," when he found that Savona was to plea his own case, not being represented by a lawyer.

Elias Jennings, a painter of New London, testified that in company with two others he had visited Savona's place, saw four drinks paid for and saw others in the party pass money in payment to Savona.

George Hoyle, a truck driver of New London, testified that he was in Savona's place of business and bought the small bottle of liquor brought in as evidence. He also saw the sailor buy liquors.

Savona, told the court how the four "hi jackers" the sailor, truck driver and painter "guys" had entered the place and demanded $50 and $20 and then the State Trooper's Giles Watson and B. W. Kennerson, without showing their badges, had come in and poked their guns into his stomach.

Recorded in the office of the Westerly town clerk appears the following transfers: Jan. 15. David Smith and Mary Smith of Hartford to Jane W. Loewenthal of Middletown, an undivided one-half interest in a certain track or parcel of land on the beach between Pleasant View and Weekapaug with buildings an dimprovements on lots Nos. 101 and 102 bounded northerly by Atlantic avenue, westerly by land of Thomas A. Lynch southerly by the Atlantic ocean and easterly by land of Horace W. Porter.

Jan. 18. Mendall Block of Worcester, Mass., to Max Novogroski of Westerly, the transfer of mortgage given Oct. 30, 1916, to Frank S. Robbins of Worcester.

George Heath Berry, son of the late Oscar E., and Elizabeth Ryley Berry, of Norwich and Miss Mabel Eveling Vaughn, both residents of North Kingstown, R. I., were united in marriage on the 12th at the parsonage of the Broad Street Christian church, by Rev. Arnt L. Schoning, pastor.

A union meeting of the congregations of Westerly churches was held Sunday evening in the Grace Methodist Episcopal church, in observance of the sixth anniversary of the passage of the 18th amendment. Rev. Norris G. Wood, assistant superintendent of the Rhode Island Anti Saloon league, of Providence, under the auspices of the Westerly Pastors' association and Westerly W. C. T. U., told his hearers that prohibition had not been a failure but was becoming stronger daily. Rev. Byron U. Hatfield, pastor of the First Baptist church and Pastors' association president, presided. Scriptures were read by Rev. Lewis A. Walker, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, and prayer was offered by him. Other interested workers present were President Mrs. Jennie Parker, of the Westerly District W. C. T. U., and Pastor Marvin S. Stocking. A solo was rendered by Mrs. Ethel Whitaker of the Methodist church.

Mrs. Ann E. Steadman returned by automobile to her home in Westerly Sunday afternoon, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur N. Steadman, both of Providence, with whom she has been visiting since returning from an extended visit with her son in New York.

George E. Phillips, of Providence, was a visitor Monday with associates in Westerly and Pawcatuck.

Adolf L. Leon, engineer of the Westerly Highway commission, returned home on Sunday from Chicago, Ill., where he has been in attendance with the Rhode Island party at the annual meeting of the National Highway Builders' association, also the Accessories exhibition held for the past week or ten days. A largely attended and instructive session was reported by Engineer Leon.

John W. Neild, Jr., returned to his duties in Norwich Sunday evening, after being the week end guest of relatives and friends in Westerly and Pawcatuck.

Max Reithel returned to his home in Westerly Monday morning from New York, having been a member of the party of New England Dodge Automobile dealers which left Boston by special train a week ago to visit the Dodge Bros., plant in Detroit, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur N. Steadman, after visiting Mr. Steadman's brother, Charles E. Steadman, in Westerly, the past week end, returned to Providence Sunday night, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Clark.

For the past two Sundays a sergeant of New Haven railroad police has been stationed in the waiting room of the Westerly station to warn all loiterers "to move on" as the practice of men and boys gathering there has been growing. New "Dangerous" heavy metal signs have arrived and will be erected at points along the roadbed where trespassing is common.

MYSTIC

The fifth of the series of district meetings of the Sons of Veterans of the Civil War, which is composed of Danielson, Putnam, Norwich, North Grosvenordale, Clinton, New London and Mystic camps, was held with A. C. Latham camp in G. A. R. hall on Pearl street Saturday evening. There was a large attendance, 78 being present, including six grand army men. The two local G. A. R. members present were Horace Clift and Amos Hancox. When supper was ready a line of march was formed into the dining hall which was lighted only by candles on the tables. After all were seated the lights were turned on. The Williams Woman's Relief corps served a turkey dinner. After the feast the meeting was called to order by District Chairman Charles R. Brow of New London and Commander W. G. Mooney. District Secretary Mrs. Ellery Burdick gave humorous readings that put all in a good moved for the speeches that followed. The first speaker was District Commander Storrs of Hartford. He spoke interestingly along many lines and made plain the need of closer relationship, unity and better understanding of what the order stands for and that the district meetings are a great aid in accomplishing the purpose desired and have added interest to the cause they represent.

Past Division Commander McGarr of Meriden was the next speaker and he emphasized the danger of unpreparedness. Peter Harris of New London followed with more useful information as did Superintendent Frank Hobart of the Groton and Stonington Traction company, Superintendent Ernest Saunders of the County Public Service company of Westerly and Horace Clift of Mystic. The many addresses gave every one a message to carry home with them. A pleasant incident occurred in the meeting when brothers Wills of Danielson, in behalf of the ladies of Danielson presented Commander Mooney a spray of pink carnations, he having been there recently to install the Danielson officers. Others from out of town not included in the list of speakers were Past Division Commander Alcorn and Past Division Commander Gage, of Hartford, State Division Senior Vice President Wadsworth of Meriden, Past Commander Cook, Commanders Potter and Chapman of Danielson. One grand army veteran represented Nathan Hale camp, No. 1 of New Haven. The next meeting will be in New London, at which time degree work will be conferred on a class of candidates.

At the Baptist church Sunday morning the notices for the week included: Topic of the evening sermon by the pastor, Rev. J. G. Osborn was Earthquakes and Eruptions. Mrs. D. M. Bennett was leader of the Y. P. S. C. E. service. It was announced that on next Friday evening there is to be held in the Central Baptist church, Norwich, a mass meeting for this section of Connecticut at which time Dr. George A. Huntley of China is to speak.

Ernestine A. Menge died Saturday night at her home, 25 Greenmanville avenue. She was the daughter of Fernand and Ernestine Hofferman Schumann and was born in Uhlans, Germany, March 7, 1858. She is survived by her husband, Julius Menge, and two sons and three daughters, Charles Henry, Mrs. James Connery, Miss Annie Menge, all of Mystic and Mrs. George, Dictor of Norwich; three brothers and two sisters, Richard, Otto and Maurice Schumann, Mrs. L. Mina and Mrs. E. Gudel all of Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hewitt of Washington, R. I., visited James W. Pollard and family Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. J. G. Osborn was confined to the house with a bad cold the past week.

At the regular meeting of Mystic Grange, No. 171, P. of H., this week the officers will be installed by State Master C. Palmer Chapman of Rhode Island, assisted by National Pomona, Mrs. Isabelle O. Chapman.

Henry Wilson, sexton of the Baptist church, is seriously ill at his home on Starr street.

Miss Geneva Rathbun of Milford spent the week end at her home here.

Judge Samuel E. Hoyt of New Haven was a caller in Mystic Sunday.

Mrs. Henry R. Noyes, Sr., is ill at her home on Willow street.

William H. Noyes has returned to New York after spending the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Noyes.

Miss Lavinia Bridgham has been confined to her home on Bank street several days.

The D. A. E. have planned a whist at the country club later this month. Mrs. Ida Crandall is chairman and her assistants are Mrs. J. R. Maxson, Mrs. Arthur Perry, Mrs. Jennie Breed, Mrs. Oscar Pendleton, Mrs. George Costello and Miss Emeline Fish.

Mrs. Emeline Allyn is confined to her home in Quambaug by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Dickinson of Guilford spent the week end here with relatives.

William J. Davis is a surgical patient at a hospital in New London.

The steamer Elias F. Wilcox that has been at the Wilcox dock, is now engaged in freighting fertilized to customers along the coast.

Charity and Relief lodge, No. 72, F. and A. M. will confer the fellowship degree on a class of candidates this week.

Francis Allanach and family of New London visited friends here Sunday.

NOANK

Coast guard boat No. 25 was at the town dock on Saturday, getting supplies.

Mrs. Harry Park has returned home from New Bedford, Mass.

Many local people attended the automobile show in New York, last week.

A night gang of ice men has struck on at Chesebro pond trying to get in the ice crop before bad weather comes. One house is full and the other one-half full.

Daniel Campbell, of Medfield, Mass., is visiting on Prospect Hill.

Frank McDonald, of West Haven, visited his family over the week-end.

John Robertson, of Stamford, was home over Sunday.

Roy Lowell has resigned his position at the Sea Sled Co.

Rollin Rathbun has returned from Buffalo, N. Y.

O. Jensen has returned to Watch Hill, after a short visit at his home here.

Kenneth Butson, of Point Judith Life Saving station, is home for a few days furlough.

Barnard Carson, of Fishers Island, was a caller in town over Sunday.

Cowley George Adams, of Texas, who is visiting his uncle, Alfred Crowell, for a few weeks, gave an exhibition at the riding school Sunday afternoon. He showed some tricks with the rope and some fine riding.

Edward Babcock spent the week-end in Plainfield.

John Bowers, of New York, was recently in Noank, calling on friends.

Paul Sullivan, of Ledyard, was a recent caller in the village.

The high tide one day last week, flooded the lower road to Groton Long Point. Automobiles could not get by and one fellow who tried it nearly drove into the river. Many row boats were washed ashore at different places in town.

Fred Rathbun is able to be around again after being sick for a few weeks.

Frank Chester has gone to New York, for a few days.

Edward Mahoney has returned to Montville, after a visit in the village.

Miss Margaret Mahoney is visiting in New London, for a few days.

George White is visiting relatives in Chesterfield.

Clothes do not make the man, yet a man may owe a great deal to his tailor.

Doesn't feel double pain—pain of the cause

RHEUMATISM AND NEURITIS GIVEN AMAZING RELIEF

Everyone who has suffered with rheumatism or neuritis knows what real pain is.

And when they get relief from pain they want to give the benefit of their experience to other sufferers.

Here is a letter from a man in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., who tried numerous remedies without relief, and then got genuine help from a simple home treatment.

"I had neuritis in my arm and shoulder, and the treatments I took did me no good. A friend told me to try Sloan's Liniment, and in less than ten applications my affliction was gone."

What is the magic of this amazingly effective remedy? Sloan's sends an increased supply of healing, germ-destroying blood right to the spot that hurts. That's what conquers the pain. No need to rub. Sloan's does the whole job. Just pat it on. Quickly and surely, it kills pain, reduces swelling and inflammation, drives out stiffness and pain. Get a bottle today and have it on hand. All druggists—35 cents.

THE PORTEOUS & MITCHELL CO.

January Clearance Sale

These are remarkable days at this Store—offering once a year opportunities to save on seasonable and staple merchandise for person and home. In this announcement we call special attention to the

CLEARANCE SALE OF SILKS

Natural Color Pongee Silk, 59c

Natural Color Pongee Silk for Dresses, Blouses, Slips and Lingerie—Sale price 59c a yard, regular value $1.00.

Yard-wide Sesc Silk, for Slips, Dresses and Lingerie, all shades, light and dark, value 89c Sale price 45c

Yard-wide "Rayola" Silks, for Slips and Lingerie, all shades, light and dark, value 89c Sale price 69c

Yard-wide Printed Silk and Cotton Crepe — Silk check Crepes, Brocades, etc., for Dress, or Blouse, value $1.00 to $1.19—Sale price 88c

Yard-wide Rayon Stripe Tub Silks, white ground, for Dresses, value $1.25 to $1.50—Sale price 98c

Yard-wide Black Satin Charmeuse—also Black and Navy Taffeta for Dress or Slip, value $1.50 and $1.75—Sale price ... $1.29

Yard-wide Silk Radium for Slips and Lingerie, light and dark shades, value $1.69—Sale price $1.35

40-inch Silk Crepe de China for Blouse or Dress, dark shades, value $2.00—Sale price $1.69

40-inch Silk and Wool Crepes, for Dress or Blouse, light and dark shades, value $2.50—Sale price $1.69

40-inch Printed Crepe de Chine, new designs, for Scarfs, Sleeves, Dress or Blouse, new designs, light and dark effects, value $2.00—Sale price $1.29

Yard-wide Skinner's Silk and Satins, for Dresses, in black and colors, value $2.75—Sale price $2.29

40-inch Flat Crepes for Dresses in black, navy, rose, Poudre blue, etc., value $3.00—Sale price $2.49

40-inch Brocaded, non-crushable Crepe, for Blouse or Dress, in pencil blue, golden brown, wine and navy, value $4.00—Sale price $3.49

40-inch Brocaded Velvet or chiffon, for Dresses, Sleeves, Vestings, etc., plain and two-tone effects, value $10.50—Sale price $8.29

Yard wide Velvetees for Blouse or Dress, in rose, brown and phantom red, value $3.00—Sale price $2.29

Printed Dress Patterns of Radium Silk and Crepe—54 inches wide, with borders, regular values $5.00 and $6.95—Sale Prices a pattern, $3.98 and $4.95.

Clearance Sale of Dress Goods

Yard-wide Linonette stripe, light and dark shades, for Lingerie, Linings, etc., value 50c—Sale price 39c

Yard-wide Granite Cloth, for Dresses, in dark shades, value $1.00—Sale price 69c

54-inch, All Wool Storm Serge, for Dress or Skirt, in navy and black, value $1.50—Sale price $1.09

54-inch Wool Jersey in Poudre blue, Copenhagen, pansy, brown, coral, green, henna and navy, value $2.25—Sale price . $1.69

52-inch, All Wool Crepe for Dresses in black, navy, sand, rose-de and Copenhagen, value $2.00—Sale price $1.39

54-inch Poiret Twill, in black, pigeon blue, cocoa, reseda, pansy and Epinaud, value $3.50—Sale price $2.79

54-inch Repp Sheen for Dresses in old blue, green, rosewood, tan and navy, value $4.00—Sale price $3.39

54-inch Flannel in navy, tan wine, etc. value $4.00—Sale price $3.29

54-inch Bordered Repps and Flannels, a good assortment—all at January Sale Prices.

Children Cry for

Fletcher's CASTORIA

MOTHER:— Fletcher's Castoria is especially prepared to relieve Infants in arms and Children all ages of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and, by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep.

To avoid imitations, always look for the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher Absolutely Harmless—No Opiates. Physicians everywhere recommend it.

EVERYTHING GOES WRONG FOR US—WE PLANNED A FINE VACATION LAST SUMMER, BUT WE COULDN'T AFFORD IT—
—AND THIS YR PLANNED TO SAIL UP THE RHINE, THIS FALL—BUT THEY FELL THROUGH!
ALL OUR PLANS FAIL—SAME OL' REASON! WE NEVER HAVE THE MONEY!
BUT, MY DEAR, WE HAVEN'T PLANNED WISELY! WE'VE NEGLECTED TO PLAN OUR EXPENDITURES IN THE FIRST PLACE!
WELL, NOW, IT REALLY HAVEN'T BEEN SO BAD! MANY ABOUT THAT!

—This drawing was contributed by J. P. Alley of the Memphis Commercial Appeal to the cause of Success and Happiness.

If You Never Have The Money for The Things You Want

The proper care and education of children, music, recreation, good books to read, comfortable furnishings in the home—these are necessary to the success and happiness of normal, intelligent men and women.

And you'll find it much easier to have these things if you plan your expenditures. Use common sense in spending by getting the things you really want and need. Use common sense in saving. Keep a budget. Know in advance how much you should spend and how much you should save. Then follow your budget. Be sure to end each year with more money than you had at the beginning.

Today is Budget Day—the third day of National Thrift Week for Success and Happiness

Avoid Imitations

Safe Milk and Food For Infants, Invalids, The Aged

—No Cooking.

For All Ages

GALES FERRY

Rev. George Smith Brown, continued on the theme, What is a Christian? for his sermon, at the Sunday morning service, in the Methodist church. A solo, There is a Green Hill Far Away, was sung by Miss Viola Riley. At the Sunday school session at noon, Assistant Superintendent, Dudley C. Perkins was in charge in the absence of Superintendent C. E. Colver. The banner for attendance was awarded Mrs. George Smith Brown's class, and for offering, D. C. Perkins' class of boys.

At the Sunday evening service, the third chapter, in the study book, Looking Ahead with Latin America, was reviewed by Rev. Mr. Brown, with stereopticon slides, illustrating Mexico, operated by Alfred Erickson and Paul Miller.

The Girls' Cooking club gave a dinner at the home of their leader, Mrs. Walter T. Clark, on Friday afternoon. Miss Em-Beth Bennett was the hostess of the class and the girls cooked and served the following menu: Fish loaf, creamed peas, stuffed onions, bread and butter and vanilla ice cream and pineapple sauce for dessert. The guests of the hostess were Mrs. Emma S. Bennett and Miss Evelyn E. Whipple, teacher, of the grammar school. During the instructions of the past year, given by Mrs. Clark, the girls have been taught to cook and serve a breakfast, a luncheon and a tea. Two girls of this club were the prize winners, in the bread making contest, held at Storrs Agricultural College some weeks ago in competition with 19 contestants from New London county. This meeting was the last one of the club, with Mrs. Clark. The leadership will now be taken by Mrs. Nelson Parker and Mrs. Joseph De Rusha.

Mrs. John Harold of the Submarine Base entertained in honor of the 16th birthday of her daughter, Matilde, Friday evening. The guests were Mrs. R. Irving Hurlbutt, leader, with members.

Mrs. Harold was assisted in entertaining the Queen Esther Girls and several of their girl friends. Supper was served consisting of chicken salad, rolls, peas, cake, ice cream and cocoa. Two birthday cakes, each with sixteen pink lighted candles, one at either end of the table, made the table attractive and the favors were various colored paper caps, which were worn by the guests. Miss Harold received many pleasing gifts of money, books, handkerchiefs, and candy. The following were the guests: Mrs. Hurlbutt, the Misses Helen and Margaret Colver, Marjorie Gates, Em-Beth Bennett, Ethel Main, Dorothy Bandro, Lucy Spellman, Margaret Parker, Carol Norman, Gertrude Allen, Ida Erickson, and Miss Harold.

Mrs. George Smith Brown was a guest over Friday night of friends in New York city. Mrs. Brown attended an alumni meeting of Reed college of Portland, Oregon. She was a guest at luncheon for Dr. Thomas Gallagher of Brooklyn, N. Y., formerly a minister in Portland, Oregon.

Mrs. Joab Rogers closed her home here last week and left for Norwich where she is a guest at the home of Mrs. John Hull of Scotland road.

Mrs. Joseph Davidson of the Stoddard district left Sunday to spend a week with friends in New Jersey.

Mrs. Monett A. Lawson and young daughter, Virginia of Long Cove, were guests of Mrs. Lawson's mother, Mrs. Harmon L. Perkins, at her home here Saturday.

The Long Cove auxiliary of the Ladies' Aid society held its regular meeting last week with Mrs. Everett Bruce. This week the meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Nielson.

Nelson Parker went to Philadelphia Monday on a business trip of several days.

MANSFIELD CENTER

The Christian Endeavor social, Friday evening, was in charge of Miss Doris Tittle. The program included readings by Mrs. A. E. Hahn; piano and violin solos by Miss Lois Cole and Rexford Crane; piano solos by Viola Hobby and Betty Loranger and vocal solos by Viola Hobby and Mae Loranger. Cocoa and cake was served.

The leading event for this week will be the concert to be given at the church by the Troubadors, the male quartet from Boston, under the auspices of the Mansfield Library.

The basketry class meets at the parsonage with Rev. Mrs. Jones Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. A. Lauder entertains the Ladies' Aid society at her home Thursday afternoon.

Devil Dances Still Given

Despite the revolution and internal disturbances in China, the devil dance is still popular in Tibet. The towns in the interior periodically forget their troubles, and beteck their streets and buildings for a pageant. This dance has been an annual custom among the Tibetan people for years and the populace enjoys itself during the festival as if nothing of serious nature was happening around it.

Rich in Flavor

delicious

"SALADA" TEA

satisfies the most discriminating taste. A trial will convince you.

NORWICH DOINGS 75 YEARS AGO

A number of Norwich men organized the Merchants Transportation company in 1851. The company was to run boats between Norwich and New York, for passenger and freight service.

Items of 1851 taken in part from The Norwich Courier are as follows:

Tuesday, January 14, 1851—The committee of 40, appointed to solicit subscriptions for the completion of the Willimantic Railroad to Providence, report that the proposition recently received from the Hartford, Providence and Fiskill railroad to unite their road now in successful operation, from Boston to Willimantic, a distance of fifty miles, with the proposed road from Providence, through Plainfield, to Willimantic, is a favorable proposition, and that we earnestly recommend it to the consideration and acceptance of the citizens of Providence.

A letter from an officer aboard the U. S. Ship St. Mary's, the first to sail under the U. S. under the new act abolishing inhuman practice of flogging, on board American ships, states that this ruling is having an effect on the crew. Since the ship left only three cases of violation of discipline have been reported to the captain, these being of a minor character.

A Germantown, Pa., paper has published an article concerning an invention which is destined to drive all steam propelled vessels off the sea, but what power this ship is to have is not mentioned.

Thursday, January 16, 1851—A number of Norwich men have formed the joint stock corporation, known as the Merchants Transportation Company, the offices of which are to be located in this city. The company is organized to transport passengers and freight between Norwich and New London and the Port of New York. The capital stock of the company is $14.00, divided into 560 shares of $25 each. All shares have been purchased, the heaviest holders being George W. Geer, J. C. Geer, Charles Osgood, 7 shares each, William Prentice, 30 shares, Julius Webb, 40 shares, and a number of others having over 10 shares.

Charles Osgood is president of the new corporation and the directors are William Prentice, Julius Webb, William W. Avery and J. C. Geer.

All eyes are on the Massachusetts legislature at the present time. People are hoping that Charles Sumner's chances for preaching and practicing disunion in the senate of this country, shall be shattered. Three ballots have been taken and he is gradually losing in Winthrop, the whig candidate.

Savannah people, remembering Barnum's tricking them with a wooden mummy several years ago, stormed the theatre where he was staying, in readiness for Jenny Lind's appearance. The mayor of the city could not quiet them and they threatened to burn down the theatre. Jenny Lind appeared on the stage as the mob was getting out of hand and there was immediate quiet the audience listening with respect and heartily applauding her numbers.

Saturday, January 18, 1851—A local man now in France writes the Courier concerning the testing of a recent remarkable invention, the progress of making pure gas from water. Proofs of the value of gas for heating as well as lighting were given, the light being about as brilliant as that produced by fifteen candles.

He writes that there was a small affair, resembling a fireplace having a bar about a foot long within, pierced with small holes. When the gas was turned out a bluish flame appeared and there was immediate heat. This invention, he writes, is destined to spring into use all over the United States, especially in New York, where gas is now expensive and poor. He regrets that an American could not have invented the machine but hopes that it will be adopted in this country.

From the complexion of latest advices from Washington it seems likely that three cent letter postage will carry the house of representatives. We would like to see two cent postage pass by law, but must remain satisfied with the three cent rate.

The steamer Atlantic left Liverpool on the 12th but nothing has been heard from her since and she is long overdue.

Stockholders of the New Haven and New London railroad are to meet at the office of James Brownell, in New Haven, the 27th and plan to build the railroad.

HOPKINTON

Daniel Crandall, ill for some time with pneumonia is somewhat more comfortable though suffering from a weak heart.

Everett Brown butchered hogs for John S. Cole Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Haggett left town recently for New York city.

Walter F. Mills ploughed ice Sunday on the pond at Clark's Falls, planning to fill the ice house of Alfred Clarke Monday.

A bonfire on the east side of the river at Ashaway caused some speculation as to its location, Saturday evening. On investigation it was found to be in a large tree back of the grange fair grounds and was probably set by hunters to drive out the game.

The body of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Covey Carpenter, 79, was brought from Alfred, N. Y., Saturday afternoon and buried in the First Hopkinton cemetery. Rev. A. L. Davis conducted the burial ceremony. Mrs. Carpenter died in Alfred, Jan. 13th after a long illness. She was the widow of George S. Carpenter, a veteran of the Civil War.

After the death of her husband, Mrs. Carpenter sold out his property holdings in this town and removed to Alfred to spend the remainder of her life. She is survived by a son, Edwin D. Carpenter of Zanesville, Ohio, and three daughters, Mrs. Theodore Van Horn of Dunellen, N. J., Mrs. Curtis T. Randolph and Miss Ruth Marion Carpenter both of Alfred, N. Y., also by one brother, Eugene Covey of Los Angeles, Cal. At the burial, Frank Hill, John S. Burdick, William H. Burdick and Curtis F. Randolph acted as bearers.

Nero a Spendthrift

Students of ancient history agree that Emperor Nero was the outstanding spendthrift of his day, literally threw his money to the winds in many ways, as, for instance, in honoring his guests with roses after they had partaken of one of his royal feasts and were reclining on the couches and floors.

The historians agree that at many of these feasts the cost of producing the roses thus strewn over the guests by servants must have been in excess of $150,000, and the rose strewing was one of the customs Nero established and maintained to the last, having the highly developed ideas of a royal entertainer.—Pittsburgh Sun.

Eskimos Ship as Sailors

So far as there is any record the first Eskimos ever to ship as sailors were those who went aboard the schooner Jean Revillon in Northern Canadian waters last summer. They cruised with the schooners into fur producing ports. When spring comes they will return to their homes in the north. The Eskimos' trip to Halifax was their first time out of the frigid zone. The captain said he probably would have been unable to sail on schedule except for the fact that the four Eskimos signed on as sailors for the voyage down.

BUILDING OPERATIONS IN NORWICH

Good progress has been made on three of the largest building projects in Norwich during the last week and work has been rapidly pushed along although the weather was not ideal for outdoor work.

At the Sheltering Arms at the corner of McKinley Ave. and Rockwell street, the exterior work has been completed and the contractors are at work on the interior. The windows of the building have been set in place and the building is now being heated by a temporary arrangement so that work can go on unhampered by cold weather. The workmen are engaged in the partitions and getting ready for the plasterers.

The new St. Joseph's school is rapidly nearing the completion stage the exterior and the greater part of the interior work having been completed. The contractors are now engaged on the interior finish.

The new ward building at the Norwich State Hospital is expected to be complete within the next three weeks, everything except some interior work having been completed.

Other buildings have made equally as good progress during the past week. At Quaker Hill, Ellsworth S. Grant is erecting a five-room bungalow. The building is 24x28 feet and will be finished in red cedar shingles on the exterior and the interior will be finished in oak and hard finish plaster. The house is of the Dutch colonial type and the owner is having it done by day labor.

REAL ESTATE SALES AND MORTGAGE LOANS

In Norwich during the past week there were five sales of real estate as compared to 18 sales for the corresponding week in 1925. The mortgage loans for the respective weeks were $33,250 and $296,150.

There were 13 sales of real estate in New London last week an increase of four sales over the same week a year ago. The mortgage loans for the respective weeks were $38,300 and $80,650.

Lumber and Brick Report

Reports to the National Lumber Manufacturers' Association from the chief softwood and hardwood mills of the country for the week ended January 2 showed a decrease in production and shipments and an increase in new business, when compared with reports for the previous week. The seven lumber manufacturing associations showed the following totals for 1925: Production, 12,548,851,829 feet; shipments, 12,468,954,090 feet; orders, 12,315,462,746 feet. The Common Brick Manufacturers' Association of America say, as of January 1, 1926: "The close of 1925 finds the common brick industry in the most consistently prosperous condition of its history. Since the closing months of 1921 there has been a steadily increased production and consumption of common brick in practically all of the larger construction centers of America."

State Building Permits

Building permits for the week in the several towns of the state reported in The Commercial Record numbered 172, as against 143 in the like week of last year and 180 in the same week of 1924. The cost of new construction for the current week was $451,532, while in 1925 the cost of new buildings was $491,871, and in the like week of 1924, $707,452.

New London

Plans are being prepared for alterations to the dwelling at 76 Golden street for Joseph Birenbaum. The present frame house will be remodeled to provide seven three and four-room apartments. The interior will be extensively altered with new stairways, new floors and partitions. There will be a new steam heating system, new plumbing and electric wiring.

Preliminary plans are being prepared for a residence for Theodore Bodenwein, 42 Nathan Hale street, to be erected on Pequot avenue, on the site of the former Pequot hotel, which was destroyed by fire. The site was recently acquired by Mr. Bodenwein from State Treasurer Ernest E. Rogers.

The permit has been issued to Silas Marson, Jr., 232 Bank street, for a dwelling on Squire street, the cost of which will be about $4,000. From private plans, the house will be frame construction, arranged for one family. The usual improvements will be provided.

Stonington

The contract has been awarded to H. R. Douglas & Son, for interior repairs to the Second Congregational Church in Stonington. The work consists of strengthening the rafters and making roof repairs.

HEBRON

The Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church held its annual meeting at the home of Mrs. E. G. Lord. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. E. T. Smith; vice president, Mrs. W. O. Seyms; treasurer, Mrs. F. H. Raymond; treasurer, Mrs. E. A. Raymond.

The annual whist for the benefit of the Library is to be held in the Library building this week.

Miss Alice Whitney spent the week end with her sister, in Franklin.

Fred Burnham is seriously ill and Miss Sullivan, of Colchester, is caring for him.

Roger W. Porter of Springfield and Herbert W. Porter spent Sunday with their mother, Mrs. Della Porter, in Waterbury.

The Young Woman's club meets Wednesday with Mrs. Clifford Perry, of Gilead.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Burnham, of East Hampton, were callers, Sunday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Seyms.

Callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Raymond, Sunday, were Sherwood Raymond, of New Britain and Mr. Coles and nephew, of Glastonbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hilding and Miss Victoria Hilding were in Willimantic Friday.

The officers of Hebron Grange are to be installed by Past Master Corbin of Glastonbury. The officers to be installed are: Master, J. Banks Jones, overseer, W. O. Seyms; lecturer, Mrs. E. T. Smith; chaplain, Mrs. H. E. Buell; steward, A. H. Post; assistant steward, Homer Hills; lady assistant, Laura Hills; organist, Mrs. W. O. Seyms. Supper will be served following the installation.

Miss Merteile Goodwin and Miss Dorothy Foster spent the week end in Manchester, the guest of Miss Esther Lord.

ITALIAN NEWS VENDERS BADGERED BY FASCISTI

Lives of news venders in Italy are far from happy. For 18 months groups of zealous Fascisti have snatched their copies of opposition newspapers, with the remark, "Amendola will pay you." The papers are either torn up or burned in the street. Confiscation squads regularly patrol the streets seising all editions condemned by the government censor. One frail woman of 70 years has a stand in the Piazza San Silvestro, the center and starting point of all the riots Rome has seen in the last year and a half. Uncomplaining she has seen her newspapers snatched and burned, frenzied crowds surging about her swinging clubs shrieks and curses reverberating and finally platoons of police with drawn swords or fixed bayonets approaching to clear the street. Yet she continues to sell papers impartially to those who demand them. Now the news venders face a new difficulty. If they fail to display the Fascist papers prominently enough to suit the authorities they are punished with temporary or permanent revocation of their licences.

NO AFTER EFFECTS FROM WAR GAS, OFFICIALS SAY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17—(AP)—Armed with a mass of statistics and scientific data, the Army Chemical Warfare Service has launched a campaign to slay a ghost that came back with the army from France.

War has been declared against the haunting spectre that lingers in the minds of thousands of those who got a whiff of gas "over there," that some day, because of lasting injury done by gas to their lung tissues, they will fall victim to the dread white plague—tuberculosis.

This spectre is a pure figment of fancy, said Major General Amos Fries, chief of the Chemical Warfare Service. Exhaustive scientific investigation during and since the war, General Fries maintains—and he marshaled casualty figures and the verdict of British, French and American doctors to sustain his assertion—has failed to disclose any case whatever of evil after effects of gassing.

Gassed men, he declared, either died or got well; there was and is no middle ground; no army of maimed and crippled sufferers such as bullet and bayonet and shell left in their wake.

General Fries admitted the task he and the regular and reserve officers of the Chemical Service have undertaken is a titanic job. He did not attempt to deny that the overwhelming verdict of public opinion is against his settled judgment that gas is the most humane and at the same time the most effective weapon of war yet devised by man.

"It is a big job to convince 110,000,000 people, nearly all of whom think otherwise," General Fries said, "but that is what we are trying to do."

In the judgment of the chemical officers, fear of the after effects of gas in the minds of veterans is the most difficult obstacle to overcome in changing the views of these millions of people on the general question of using gas in war. Almost everybody, General Fries pointed out, has talked with veterans who sincerely felt that they had been forever impaired physically by reason of a touch of gas.

On the possibility that gassing induces subsequent tuberculosis, the war casualty reports of the surgeon general are illuminating. They show that 73 cases of tuberculosis occurred in 1918 among the 70,552 men in the army who had been gassed, the rate per 1,000 being 2.45. The annual rate for troops in Europe that year, other than the gassed men, was 3.50 and in the following year 4.30.

"It would seem apparent," the surgeon general commented, "that tuberculosis did not occur any more frequently among the soldiers who had been gassed than among those who had not been gassed."

"Deaths from gas are at least lower than one to ten compared with other war weapons, permanent disabilities are practically negligible and after effects are of no moment," General Fries contended, adding that compared to older methods, gas warfare "must be commended instead of being condemned."

A budding genius doesn't always turn out to be the flower of the family.

POETRY

Two Towns

There was a mighty city
Upon the Isle of Crete,
Its palace had a thousand rooms,
The Captains of its fleet
Took tribute from all lands that lay
About the narrow seas;
The merchandise of half the world
Was piled upon its quays.
It stood for twice a thousand years,
Then passed in night and flame—
This much the scholars' spades have shown;
But no man knows its name.

There was a town called Ilium.
A village on a hill,
Where yellow-haired barbarians came
To barter wool and fill
Their open boats with beads and bronze
And oily skins of wine,
A little place, a humble place,
With nothing great or fine—
But Ilium's name is ringing still
Like one clear bugle blown,
And all the Chiefs of Ilium
Still walk beside our own.

O great, forgotten city,
Sleep in your nameless tomb!
Nor ships, nor gold, nor fighting men
Could turn aside your doom.
O little town of Ilium,
You live among the dead
Because a blind man made a song
With which to win his bread,
Take warning, mighty cities,
And Kings of splendid lands,
Be good to singing beggars;
Your fate is in their hands.
—The Palms.

Sleep

In a tangled, scented hollow,
On a bed of crimson roses,
Stilly now the wind reposes;
Hardly can the breezes borrow
Breath to stir the night-swept river,
Motionless the water-sedges,
And within the dusky hedges,
Sounds no leaf's impatient shiver,
Sleep has come, that rare rest-giver.

Light and song have flown away
With the sun and twilight swallow;
Scarcely will the unknown morrow
Bring again so sweet a day.
Song was born of Joy and Thought;
Light, of Love and her caress;
Nothing's left me but a tress;
Death and Sleep the rest have wrought—
Death and Sleep, who came unsought.
—Lewis Frank Tooker.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

Son: What's the Golden Fleece, Dad?

Dad: A college diploma.—Denison Flamingo.

"Is it true that your father was a policeman?"

"No, but he went with them a lot."—Ohio Sun Dodger.

Nellie: Marion is always borrowing my powder-puff.

Bertha: She must have a lot of cheek.—Good Hardware.

We are told that the small-print near motor sign. "If you can read this you are too darn close," is now engraved on gold pins worn by the flappers.—Boston Transcript.

"—And as she stepped into the car," read the professor, "a hundred pairs of eyes were upon her."

Voice, incognito: "She must be some potato."—Texas Ranger.

Actress: "Does my new part give me a chance to please my dear public?"

Fed-up dramatist: "Yes. You die in the first act!"—Passing Show, London.

Stranger—"Can I get a room for three?"

Clerk—"Have you got a reservation?"

Stranger—"What do you think I am, an Indian?"—Washington University Birge.

Peck—"Aren't you master in your home?"

Pecked—"Well, my wife and I have divided it. She looks after the money, the children, the servants, the dog and the cat, and I look after the canary."—Amherst Lord Jeff.

KALEIDOSCOPE

Square-shaped half penny pieces are minted in Australia.

In Switzerland there is only one divorce to every sixteen marriages.

Thirty-nine per cent of the women employed in laundries in Washington, D. C., are married.

At the hight of 1,000 feet one may see an object 36.36 nautical miles at sea.

Chemistry has become a badly overcrowded profession in Germany. Of the 10,000 chemists in that country about 1,000 are unemployed.

Grenola is the "brass band town" of southern Kansas. It maintains two bands, each having fifty members. The town's population is only 626.

A bequest of $10 is given Carrie Safford, of Reading, in the will of her aunt, Mary I. Pousland, of Portland, Me., to pay for dishes broken by the testatrix while on a visit to the Safford home.

Swedish churches hold a national fortune of about $27,000,000 in art treasures. A general art inventory of church property was taken as part of a movement to preserve the national's cultural inheritances and the antiquities that are representative for each province. The average value of the contents of each church was estimated at $10,800.

Soviet Russia will recognize the attainments of Leo Tolstoy, the famous novelist and social reformer, with the issue of a centenary edition of his works at the celebration, September 19, 1928, of the writer's hundredth anniversary. The Tolstoy Museum in Moscow will be made a permanent edifice. All the buildings at Yasnaya Polyana, Tolstoy's home and birthplace, near Tula, will be repaired and the village made over into something of a national shrine and educational center. Already a Tolstoy museum has ben established there, the curator being Tolstoy's daughter, Alexandra.

How the humble peanut is closely allied with American history is told in the United States department of agriculture educational film, "Peanuts—$30,000,000 Worth." This vegetable, which is not actually a nut but a ground-pea, is a native South American plant and found its way to North America by way of Africa as food for prisoners on board slave ships, in early Colonial days. Up to the time of the war between the states the plant was neglected by the southern planters and was grown mainly in small patches by the slaves. During the war Union soldiers foraging for food came upon the "gopher pea" and found it palatable and nourishing. After Appomattox many of them carried the pods home with them, and the peanut won immediate favor in the north, and its culture has undergone great development in the south.

Cake Makes Town Famous

Nuremberg is one of the best known towns in Germany so far as American readers are concerned, probably because of Wagner's opera, The Meistersinger of Nuremberg, but the fact remains that in Europe Nuremberg is more famous for its cake known as the Lebkucchen. The cake is made from a remarkable old recipe, and furthermore is made in animal shapes or, as in the case of the more ambitious bakers, in human types, one of the best known being that of a country squire out walking. The cakes are shipped to all parts of the world.

Doughnuts, Crullers and Muffins are easy to make—no trouble at all. They do not soak fat, are crisp, tender and have fine texture when made with RUMFORD. Everyone will enjoy them and all other hot breads and cakes when made with

RUMFORD
THE WHOLESOME
BAKING POWDER
Good for Everybody's Body

Ford

Years Of Unused Mileage

A guaranteed used Ford car, purchased from any Authorized Ford Dealer, is a good investment.

Ford cars accepted in trade by Authorized Ford Dealers and offered as guaranteed used cars are thoroughly reconditioned and backed with a liberal guarantee.

You can buy a used Ford car from an Authorized Ford Dealer with assurance that it will give you thousands of miles of good performance. His knowledge of Ford value and his interest in Ford cars and Ford owners makes him the best man in the community with whom to deal.

A small cash payment will get you immediate delivery of a guaranteed used Ford. The balance can be paid in small monthly payments. And when you are ready to buy a new car, you are assured a fair trade-in allowance from your Authorized Ford Dealer.

Ford Motor Company
Detroit, Mich.

GUARANTEED
Ford used cars

SMITH'S
Annual Mid-Winter
SHOE AND HOSIERY SALE
STARTS WEDNESDAY A. M., JANUARY 20th
Prices on our ENTIRE STOCK greatly reduced for this sale.

Here are a few price cuts—just for sample.

Men's Shoes and Oxfords ..... $1.95 to $6.95
Women's Oxfords and Pumps .... $1.95 to $5.95
One lot Women's High Cut Lace Shoes 50c
98c Women's Mercerized Hose 50c
$1.95 Women's Silk and Wool Hose $1.00
$1.75 Women's Daniel Green Comfy Slippers $1.00
$3.00 Men's 1 Buckle Arctics, Ball Band $1.95
$1.50 Men's Ball Band Rubbers $1.00
One Child's and Misses' Jersey Leggins 25c

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY
10 per cent off on all Rubber Footwear.
15 per cent off on all other goods for two weeks only
IT WILL PAY YOU TO COME EARLY.

SMITH'S
Shoe Store
28 BROADWAY.

HAROLD TERHUNE, FOR SWINDLING, GOES TO JAIL AT NEW LONDON

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Jan. 19—Harold Terhune, who represented himself to be a bond salesman when he was about New London last fall, is today, a bond seeker, for he is in jail for having swindled Robert A. Rutherford, of Old Lyme, out of $35 by means of a check that was worthless as a security for the cash which Terhune gathered in and on which he is said to have sported a bit in New London. Harold picked out the best hotel in the city and there met friends and posed as a prosperous business man. But the time came when the check he gave to Mr. Rutherford, was offered to be cashed and then the swindle was exposed. During his stay here, Terhune married a New London girl. She has not deserted him in his crookedness but sticks by him yet. He was arraigned in the police court this morning and Terhune was self-possessed and smilingly Terhune was self-posed and smilingly declared that he could meet his obligations if he did not have the costs of his arrest and trial to meet. Then the prosecutor let it be known that Terhune had been arrested for a crime similar to that which he was now accused of in Hoboken, and in Baltimore, and told the court that Terhune had been in jail in Washington. "The case in Hoboken amounted to nothing," said Terhune, "for I was discharged." He neglected to state the circumstances under which he was discharged. He admitted that he had been incarcerated in Washington. This little colloquy brought the sentence for the New London offense. Judge Prince ordered Terhune to be committed to the New London county jail and to pay a fine of $50 with the costs attending Terhune's arrest in Washington and his presentation in the local police court. So Terhune became the seeker of a bond rather than the seller of bonds. It is understood that Terhune's father is possessed of considerable means, but that he does not propose to continue to pay the expenses that his son brings upon himself.

THIEF ABANDONS SEDAN AFTER BATTERY TROUBLE

(Special to The Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Jan. 18—The Buick sedan public service automobile owned by Tony Caldrella, 40 Pearl street, which was stolen from in front of the owner's residence Saturday night, was recovered early this morning. State Police Officer Ringrose, Centerbrook barracks, found the car abandoned beside the highway near Centerbrook. The battery and clutch were out of commission and this condition of the car caused the thief to abandon it. Caldrella went to Centerbrook this forenoon to take charge of the machine.

Residents of Colt street have lodged a written complaint with the police because of a resident of Reed street harboring a vicious bull dog. The complainants declare that a dog, a brindle and known as Firpo, has a mania for attacking and killing cats and dogs, so much so that the owners of dogs and cats that have been attacked declare that the dog should be kept on a chain or a leash and not allowed liberty. The matter was referred to Dog Warden John Sweezy, who stated that he had received previous complaints against the owner of the dog.

The United States Housing corporation has sold the southeasterly one-half interest in a dwelling in the housing corporation plat, off Jefferson avenue, to Marie M. Grove.

Alfred Clausen and George Bourbe, of United States coast guard patrol boat 187; Mrs. George McGugan and infant daughter, of Groton Long Point, James Hubbell, United States coast guard destroyer McCall; Mrs. Fred Bass, 31 New street, and Gardner Starrett, United States coast guard, state pier, patients at Lawrence-Memorial Associated hospital, were dismissed Sunday and today.

Albert W. J. Samuelsen, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl H. Samuelsen, 34 Mercer street, died this morning at Lawrence hospital, where he had been under treatment a short time, for an affection of the heart.

Mrs. Ellen Murray Burke, 80, widow of William Burke, a former member of the New London police department, died this morning at her home, 16 Richards street. She is survived by a son, Pierce Burke, and a daughter, Mrs. Alfred Rudd, both of this city. Mrs. Burke suffered a shock several weeks ago and since that time her health had declined rapidly.

The funeral of Constance, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Armstrong, 104 Howard street, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock, at 62 Washington street, the services being conducted by Rev. George R. Atha, pastor of Groton Heights Baptist church. Burial was in Groton cemetery.

Charles E. Schall, a real estate promoter in the Pequot section, got snarled up with a policeman last week when the officer represents that Schall drove past the corner of State and Meek streets at an estimated speed of 30 miles an hour. The policeman is Clarence Martin, a calm and considerate officer, who does not see things except as they actually are. He gave Schall a signal to stop and to get within the laws of the city and state in the operation of his car, but Schall paid no heed. He continued on to the railway station, with Martin in pursuit. The greeting of the officer was in derision and questions were hurled at him as to what he desired. The officer was equal to the occasion and gave respectable answers. This seemed to impress Schall with the idea that he had subdued the officer and the inquisitor became more aggressive.

Officer Martin got on the running board of the Schall car, so he says, and ordered Schall to go to the police station. This he would not do and boasted that he had $500,000 behind him. Officer Martin would not be embarrassed by that statement and told Schall that he might just as well have five cents behind him. He was going to the police station, nevertheless. Words and pushes followed and Schall was struck on the head with the officer's blackjack. Policeman William Riordan went to the assistance of Martin, and Schall was on the way to the police station in a jiffy. Schall has not since been able to appear for trial. His case has been put over till the 25th, inst., and he is at liberty on a bond of $200.

Patrick Mallon, an employe in the lighthouse service, has not been providing for his wife and two children, so the wife complained to the prosecutor and that official took steps to see that Mallon lived up to his promises when he married. He arranged to give his family a portion of his wages every week, and with that understanding a complaint of non-support was nolled today. He has been paying the money for a brief time while the complaint has been in the court.

Louise Brook-Mallett was fined $50 today in the police court as a person of lascivious conduct and behavior. She was in the court on the 9th of the month and then was ordered to leave the city or pay the fine imposed today. She did go away but she came back and appeared at the Diocesan Mission asking assistance. Then she was turned over to the police again. She represented to the court today that she came back to get belongings and said she intended to leave town, but was delayed. That explanation did not serve to keep her from jail.

A marriage of interest to New London society, took place at Ardsley-on-Hudson, New York, Saturday, when Miss Helen Mitchell Havemeyer daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Havemeyer, of that place, was united in marriage with Henry Sanford Thorne, son of Mrs. Tracy Farnham of the Pequot, New London, and Dr. Victor Thorne, of New York. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. Dr. Francis Erwin, pastor of Irvington Presbyterian church. Miss Alice Havemeyer, a sister of the bride, was her only attendant and William Walling of New York, was best man. The bride attended Rosemary hall, Greenwich. Mr. Thorne is a graduate of Yale in the class of '20. Mr. and Mrs. Thorne will sail Wednesday for South America, and on their return will be at home at 266 East Sixty-first street, New York.

At St. Mary's Star of the Sea church at 9 o'clock, Monday morning, Miss Dorothy Sylvia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Sylvia, of 156 Bayonet street, became the bride of Wilfred Lemos, of Boston. Nuptial high mass was celebrated by Rev. Dr. Timothy M. Crowley, pastor of the church. A feature of the ceremony was the singing of Ave Maria by Miss Mildred Bayes, of Providence. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Emily Sylvia as maid of honor, and her bridesmaids were Miss Anna B. Lemos and Miss Lucinda Lemos, of Boston, sisters of the bridegroom, Miss Palmyra Brown, of Providence, and Miss Helen Enos, of New London. George Lemos, of Boston, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man, and the ushers were Attorney John A. Enos, of Providence, Attorney Samuel C. Rosa, of Taunton, Mass., and Washington D. C., Frank M. Sestra, Fred D. Brown and Edmund Sylvia, all of Providence. Lawrence Lemos and Clarence Lemos of Boston, brothers of the bridegroom and Theodore Sylvia of New London brother of the bride. The bride was gowned in white satin and wore a veil of tulle caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Her maid of honor was dressed in peach georgette with hat to match and carried an arm bouquet of sweetheart roses. The bridesmaids were attired in honeydew georgette with hats of matching colors and carried arm bouquets of sweetheart roses. Following the ceremony, a reception for 300 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. Guests were present from New Bedford, Mass., Providence, Boston, Cambridge and Haverhill, Mass., Somerville, Mass., Stonington and New London. After a wedding trip to Washington, D. C., St. Petersburg, Fla., and Niagara Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Lemos will make their home in Boston, where the former is a musician.

Charles Palmer, Mystic, was in Groton town court this morning, charged with passing a worthless check in the sum of $49.50. The case did not get to trial as Palmer desired to obtain counsel. Judge Cornelius C. Costello continued the case until Monday morning and Palmer furnished a surety on his bond of $1,000 for his appearance at that time.

The continued case of Albert Burrows, Mystic, charged with non-support was again continued, this time for a fortnight.

Samuel Rutberg, New London, was arraigned on a charge of violation of the automobile laws in failing to grant right away, but the case was nolled following Rutberg being given some sound advice by Judge Costello.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Rogers, Norwich, spent Sunday as the guest of friends in this city.

Mrs. Alice M. Chapman, 66, a well known resident of Groton, died at Lawrence hospital this morning, having been a patient at the institution for three months. She is survived by two nieces, Mrs. Emma Moses and Mrs. Virginia Wadham, Groton. Mrs. Chapman was born in Groton and was a member of the Groton Congregational church. She was also a member of the Ladies' Aid society of the church and a member of Anna Warner Bailey chapter, D. A. R.

Tony Caldrella, public service operator residing at 40 Pearl street, was taken into custody this afternoon by Patrolman Augustus Ray, charged with breach of the peace in attacking and beating Walter Hyman. He will be arraigned in the police court tomorrow morning.

It is alleged by Hyman that Caldrella entered a house in the Fort Neck section several nights ago and finding Mrs. Caldrella there, the accused set up and beat Hyman, who Caldrella alleged, was responsible for Mrs. Caldrella being in the house.

FACE BADLY CUT WHEN SLASHED BY RAZOR

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Jan. 18.—Mamie Williams Downey, colored, proprietress of a resort at 28 Hill street, is a patient at Lawrence hospital suffering from an extensive laceration of the face, as the result of having been slashed with a razor tonight by Sylvia Wells, colored, one of the girls until a day or two ago a resident at the Downey place. The Wells woman is a prisoner at the police station charged with assault with a dangerous weapon and will be arraigned in the police court tomorrow morning.

The Wells woman went to the dwelling at 111 Potter street this evening to make a call and the Downey woman, when she became acquainted with the whereabouts of the former, went to the Potter street house. The Downey woman had been drinking and immediately upon arriving at the house she started to upbraid the Wells woman for leaving the Hill street house. Harsh words between the two women followed and finally the Wells woman seized a razor she had in her possession and started to carve the Downey woman. In this respect the Wells woman was highly successful for she swung the razor with telling effect, the keen edge of the weapon finding its mark several times on the Downey woman's left cheek and as a result the face was terribly slashed. William Matthews, also colored, who was a witness to the fight, attempted to take the razor from the Wells woman and in doing so she was cut several times upon the arm.

The police were informed of the fight and Patrolmen Clarence Martin and William Riordan were sent to the Potter street house. There the officers found the Downey woman bleeding from the series of wounds, but the Wells woman was missing. A search of the house, however, found her hiding in the attic. Both women were taken to the police station, where the Wells woman was made a prisoner because she could not obtain a surety on her bond of $500 and the Downey woman was placed in the patrol speed automobile and rushed to the hospital, where surgeons took several stitches in order to close the wounds. Matthews did not go to the hospital, his wounds being treated by a physician.

VOTE TO ESTABLISH BANK ST. BUILDING LINE

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Jan. 18.—At the meeting of the city council this evening the matter of the establishment of building lines on Bank street and the widening of that thoroughfare came up on report from the city manager and a communication from the directy of law, Attorney Troland. The latter reviewed the case in the light of records and papers submitted to him from his predecessor in office. It was shown that the board of compensation had met to consider the fixing of a building line on that street. It was decided that the director of law might arrange with property owners that law suits might be avoded, but no such arrangements as contemplated had been made.

Property owners and representatives of property owners had met with the compensation board and some had assisted upon one concession and some upon others. The owners of the Capitol theatre insisted upon being allowed to retain coal holes in the sidewalk and a refrigerating plant in the cellar under the sidewalk. The City National bank insisted upon the right to have its door swing outward, to maintain a clock at the corner of Bank and Golden streets and to continue the eaves of the building where they were. Others insisted upon payment in cash for any land the city should assume to take. The result of the presentation of the matter to the council this evening was to the effect that the compensation board should take up the matter and go forward with it to the end that the proposed improvements should be effected and that a building line should be established.

On a report from the committee on public works, submitted by Councilor Woodruff, the council adopted a resolution authorizing the rounding of the corner of Pequot anveue and Lower Boulevard and the changing of the tracks of the street railway at that point.

SNAPPY WORD BATTLE AT CITY COUNCIL MEETING

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Jan. 18—Councilor May and Mayor Fox had a lively tilt in the meeting of the city council this evening over a vote of thanks to the fire department for their services to the city. The councilor in a prepared statement declared that the firemen had responded to thirteen calls for their services since the 1st of January, 18 days. He desired that official recognition of the good work of the department should be given, saying that the firemen had risked life, health and clothing in responding to the summons for aid. There was no second to the motion, so it did not get to a vote. Mayor Fox expressed the opinion that the action was superfluous and reminded the councilor that he and the city manager and members of the council had often and frequently publicly expressed appreciation of the good work rendered. He did not understand that another and official recognition of the services was necessary. Councilor Scott expressed much the same opinion and said that he was a fireman himself as was the city manager and that all the firemen recognized that the splendid work of the department was appreciated and fully recognised by the granting by the council of every request made for the provision of apparatus and equipment. Councilor May insisted that the council should either adopt the motion or go on record as refusing to sanction it.

The presiding officer told the councilor that he was disrespectful in not recognizing the chair when he arose to speak, but the councilor apologized and said he did recognize the chair and addressed the chair. Then followed a colloquy as to what was the standing of the disputants. Councilor May insisted that the chair should be vacated by the mayor if the latter was to discuss the question at issue. He told him that Cushing's Manual prescribed the method of procedure in debates in deliberative bodies.

The mayor expressed the opinion that the council had heard enough nonsense. "The matters to be here discussed are serious" he said.

Councilor May insists that his motion was not nonsense and expressed the opinion that his intelligence was quite as obvious as was that of the mayor.

The mayor insisted on his right to discuss the matter from the chair and asked the council where he (the councilor) would have the mayor go to state his position. "You continue to read Cushing," he told the councilor. Then came a hot retort that the councilor would read the Manual, but he was sure of his position. He insisted upon a vote being taken, but no councilor would second the motion and it failed right there.

EVERYBODY fears YOUR COUGH

—and so should you, for it is often infectious and dangerous to those around you.

A safe and agreeable way to relieve coughs is to take PERTUSSIN, which has been used for twenty years in the successful treatment of all types of harsh or painful coughs—even the most severe. PERTUSSIN is entirely free from "dope" or harmful drugs, yet it brings quick relief by helping Nature to expel the sticky phlegm that often clogs the air passages.

Sold by all druggists in large and small bottles.

PERTUSSIN
Safe for Every Cough

Fine for Lumbago

Musterole drives pain away and brings delicious, soothing comfort. Just rub it in gently.

It is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It will not blister like the old-fashioned mustard plaster.

Jars & Tubes

MUSTEROLE

Better Than a Mustard Plaster

What Is Going On Tonight

Shetucket lodge, No. 17, I. O. O. F., meets in Odd Fellows hall.

Norwich Nest, No. 1096, O. O. O., meets in Owls hall.

Ionic camp, No. 7264, M. W. A., meets in Steiner hall.

St. James lodge, No. 94, F. and A. M., meets in Masonic temple.

Rose of N. E. lodge, No. 2364, G. U. O. of O. F., meets at 30 West Main street.

Clara Barton tent, No. 7, D. of V., meets in Buckingham memorial.

Mercier assembly, No. 13, C. L. C., meets in T. A. B. building.

White Cross council, No. 18, K. of C., meets in K. of C. home.

TODAY'S EVENTS

Observance of the birthday anniversary of General Robert E. Lee.

Greetings to Dr. David Starr Jordan, eminent educator and peace advocate, on his 75th birthday anniversary.

Dr. William W. Keen, of Philadelphia, whose reputation in the surgical profession is world wide, today enters upon his 90th year.

Waco, Texas, today votes on a proposal to change from the present commission-manager plan of city government to the aldermanic form.

The annual mid-winter business meeting of the National Association of Real Estate board opens in New Orleans today for a three-day session.

Governor A. Harry Moore and other state officials chosen at the election in New Jersey last November will be formally inducted into office today.

Colonel Hanford MacNider, assistant secretary of war, is scheduled to speak in Richmond today at the laying of the cornerstone of the Virginia State War Memorial.

Prize winning girls in the Stone Mountain Memorial coin campaign in the different states are to be guests of honor at a great All-Southern confederate costume ball to be given in Atlanta tonight.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Our Motto.

"Best Photographs, Lowest Prices." Desmarais studio, 328 Main, Norwich. Tel. 564.

Broadway Theatre Anniversary Programme.

And now comes an anniversary programme to that popular local play house, The Broadway Theatre. Not one person in Norwich, who is at all interested in vaudeville and pictures can afford to miss this vaudeville combination.

First: there are six acts of B. F. Keith-Albee vaudeville with:

Batty Washington, the sweetheart of her violin and her bow. A real sensation in Europe and now local music lovers will be grateful for having heard her.

De Mont and Gracia, in Nonsensicalities of "Dis and Dat" followed with vivid splashes of humor that blend perfectly with narrative songs.

Howard Blair, the famous Exponent of feminine characterizations in "Artistic Moments," created no slight sensation at the conclusion of his offering. Just what the surprise is, we leave it to you to find out. Walter Buckley is at the piano.

Jimmy Barr and Oden La Marr did just what their billing suggests, "Make You Forget Your Troubles." It's a sure fire laughing and applause hit on any bill, radiating "pep" and speed from start to finish.

Quinn, Binder and Roy were a real hit in fifth spot. They specialize in holdem comedy, song and dance, all of which brought forth real laughter and spontaneous applause.

Dare and Yates, "Showing Off" have a happy skit of songs and quibs which topped off a real worth while bill.

It is the first time within our recollection that the conclusion of a feature picture was greeted with applause and cheers, for this is just what "The Plastic Age" did. It is from the novel of flaming youth, by Percy Marks. See beautiful Clara Bow reach the pinnacle of success with Donald Keith. A positive sensation and a picture that is alone worth the admission price.

At the Breed

$3,000,000 or a human life!

Or enough insurance for 1,500 people, considering that the average insurance policy seldom exceeds the $2,000 mark.

This is the value placed on the life of Ramon Novarro, star of The Midshipman, which is now on view at the Breed theater.

The largest insurance policy ever written on the life of a movie star was applied for by the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Pictures Corp., to protect the enormous investments centering around Ramon Novarro, who is under contract to that organization.

The reasons for insuring Mr. Novarro so heavily are based on the fact that the star undertook many hazardous stunts in the air and on the water in the picturisation of The Midshipman, the first official photoplay sanctioned by the Bureau of Navigation and produced at the U. S. Naval Academy.

A fatal mishap to Novarro at that time would have meant a loss of nearly $4,000,000 to his company. An investment of over $3,000,000 was tied up in Ben Hur alone, and the picture was not then completed. Production on Ben Hur had to be deferred in order to do most of the filming at the Naval Academy about graduation time.

Previous to that an insurance policy for approximately half a million dollars was held by M-G-M, but the sum was not deemed as commensurate with the vast investment represented by the star. Personal insurance carried by Novarro, his mother as the beneficiary, amounts to $75,000. This makes a total of more than three and a half million dollars on the life of Novarro.

The Midshipman was written by Carey Wilson and directed by Christy Cabanne. Harriet Hammond, Wesley Barry, Harold Goodwin, Kathleen Key and William Boyd are in the cast.

HOTEL ROYAL BUILDING THREATENED BY FIRE

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Jan. 18—The Hotel Royal building, Bank street, owned by Frederick H. Gavitt, was threatened with serious damage this evening, when flames were discovered in the clothing store of Hirsch & Co., occupants of the entire ground floor. The fire was confined to the store and but little damage was occasioned. Smoke made its way to the hotel, but no damage resulted there.

The fire is believed to have originated from wires used in automatically operating the illumination of the show windows of the clothing store. The fire broke out where the wires are located and when the blaze was extinguished the lighting system failed to function, although the other lights in the store illumined.

The fire was discovered about 7:30 o'clock by pedestrians, who observed a lively blaze inside the northerly show window near the store entrance. An alarm was rung in from Box 33, corner of State and North Bank streets, summoning a half dozen fire apparatus. The fire was attacked with chemicals and was quickly extinguished.

The only damage to result is to the show window and it is believed that this will not exceed $200.

Has No Gas Now!

Once a woman of her age had to be careful. Today, she eats anything she wants! A Stuart tablet—and after-eating distress vanishes.

Chew a Stuart tablet after the heartiest meal, and you, too, can smile at indigestion. Stops all "ifs and belches. Ends sour things, belching. A little alkaline is all your stomach needs!

Full Box FREE!

Every druggist has Stuart's tablets, 35c and 60c. Or, a full box free if you write the F. A. Stuart Company, Dept. Y, Marshall, Mich. Get a metal box of Stuart's for the pocket—and keep it filled! Hearty eaters—hard smokers—high livers—find Stuart's a boon and blessing!

STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS

RADIO

Tuesday, January 19.

WJZ—NEW YORK CITY—455

6:30 p. m.—N. Y. University course.
7 p. m.—"Peklingese," by Frank Dole of the Herald Tribune.
7:15 p. m.—Anne Tyndall, soprano.
7:30 p. m.—U. S. Marine Band.
8:30 p. m.—New York Edison Hour.
9:30 p. m.—Massachusetts Institute of Technology dinner.

WJY—NEW YORK—105

7:30 p. m.—Ambassador Trio.
8:10 p. m.—A. J. Bellenoit, tenor.

WEAF—NEW YORK CITY—492

6 p. m.—Dinner music.
7 p. m.—Warren Scofield, baryton.e
7:10 p. m.—Columbia French lecture.
7:30 p. m.—Myrtle S. Mason, contralto.
7:45 p. m.—Leah Brown, pianist.
8 p. m.—Male quartet.
8:30 p. m.—"The Twins."
9 p. m.—"Everready Hour."
10 p. m.—Radio Auction Bridge Game.
10:30 p. m.—Quartet.
11:12 p. m.—Ross Gorman's orchestra.

WGBS—NEW YORK CITY—316

6 p. m.—Uncle Geebee.
6:35 p. m.—Interview with Paul Born.
6:50 p. m.—Charles Jones, "Salesmanship."
7 p. m.—Concert orchestra.
8 p. m.—Y. M. H. A. vocational forum.
8:15 p. m.—Walter Eidelman, tenor.
8:40 p. m.—Kittredge Players, "The Marriage Shall Not Take Place!"
8:50 p. m.—Auction Bridge.
9 p. m.—Dance orchestra.
9:35 p. m.—Soprano.
9:45 p. m.—Theodore Lassoff, violinist.
10 p. m.—Michael Revello, baryton.e
10:15 p. m.—Theodore Lassoff, violinist.
10:30 p. m.—Dance orchestra.

WHN—NEW YORK—361

6:30 p. m.—Everglades Orchestra.
7 p. m.—Vincent Lopez's orchestra.
7:30 p. m.—Clutsen Shanley.
8 p. m.—Robert Leland, talk.
8:10 p. m.—Isabel Henderson, soprano.
8:30 p. m.—Josephine Gillis, pianiste.
8:50 p. m.—Versatile Serenaders.
9 p. m.—Josiah Free, baryton.e
9:15 p. m.—Volly Endrias, contralto.
11 p. m.—Ciro's orchestra.
12 midnight—Dance orchestra.

WIP—PHILADELPHIA—509

7 a. m.—Setting-up exercises.
1 p. m.—Organ recital.
3 p. m.—Artist recital.
6:05 p. m.—Al Lentz's Entertainers.
7 p. m.—Roll call; birthday list.
8 p. m.—Elliott Lester, critic.
8:15 p. m.—"Shakespeare in Music."
9:15 p. m.—Piano recital.
10:05 p. m.—Movie broadcast.
10:30 p. m.—Pagoda orchestra.

WCAU—PHILADELPHIA—278

7:30 p. m.—Recital; talk.
8:10 p. m.—Three Brothers; theater digest.
8:35 p. m.—Playlet.
9 p. m.—Songs by artists.
10:30 p. m.—Billy Hayr's orchestra.

WFBG—ATLANTIC CITY—360

1:30 p. m.—Luncheon music.
6:30 p. m.—News flashes; organ recital
7 p. m.—Dinner music.
8 p. m.—Fashion flashes.
8:15 p. m.—Plaza artists.
9 p. m.—Trio.
10 p. m.—Studio program.
10:30 p. m.—Karl Bonawitz, piano.
11 p. m.—McKnight's Dance orchestra

WHAR—ATLANTIC CITY—278

2 p. m.—Seaside Trio.
8 p. m.—Seaside Trio.
11:15 p. m.—Organ recital.

WGY—SCHENECTADY—380

3 p. m.—Music; address.
3:30 p. m.—Organ recital.
6:30 p. m.—Dinner program.
7:30 p. m.—Address, "The Drama."
7:45 p. m.—Marine Band.
8:30 p. m.—Edison Hour.
9:30 p. m.—Phantom dinner program.
11:30 p. m.—Mayflower orchestra.

WHW—TARRYTOWN—278

9 p. m.—Mamaroneck Entertainers.
10 p. m.—Clan Stewart orchestra.
10:30 p. m.—Joseph Hanratty, pianist.
10:45 p. m.—Albert West, songs.
11 p. m.—Symphonic orchestra.

WOR—BUFFALO—419

6:30 p. m.—Dinner music.
8-11 p. m.—Program same as WEAF.

WHAM—ROCHESTER, N. Y.—278

3:30 p. m.—Eastman Theater orchestra.
8 p. m.—Recital.
7 p. m.—Theater orchestra.
7:30 p. m.—Weather; market report.
8:15 p. m.—Program from WGY.

WJAR—PROVIDENCE—305

1:03 p. m.—Concert orchestra.
7:30 p. m.—Ivy Whitehead, soprano; Willard Amison, tenor.
8 p. m.—Safety Council speaker.
8:30 p. m.—"The Twins."
9 p. m.—"Everready Hour."

WEEI—BOSTON—476

5 p. m.—Eugene's Singing orchestra.
6:35 p. m.—Lost and found; weather.
6:45 p. m.—Big Brother Club.
7:40 p. m.—Harvard Observatory talk.

WBAL—BALTIMORE—246

5:30 p. m.—String Trio.
7:50 p. m.—Male quartet.
8-9 p. m.—Musical program by artists.

KDKA—PITTSBURGH—309

6:20 p. m.—Dinner music.
6:15 p. m.—University address.
6:30 p. m.—Tamburitza orchestra.
11:35 p. m.—Theater concert.

WCAE—PITTSBURGH—461

6:30 p. m.—Dinner concert.
7:30 p. m.—Saxophone octet.
8-11 p. m.—Program from WEAF.
11 p. m.—Ralph Harrison's Sons.

WADC—AKRON, OHIO—268

6:30 p. m.—Dinner concert.
8 p. m.—Studio concert.
10 p. m.—"Times-Press" hour.

WTAM—CLEVELAND—390

6 p. m.—Dinner music.
7 p. m.—Theater vaudeville and music.
8:30 to 11 p. m.—Program same as WEAF.
11 p. m.—Wormack's Singing Syncopators.

WSAI—CINCINNATI—326

6:30 p. m.—Twilight musicale.
8 p. m.—Orchestra.
9 p. m.—Program same as WEAF.
10:30 p. m.—Music.
1 a. m.—Dance music.

WLW—CINCINNATI—422.3

8 p. m.—Musical series; talks.
9 p. m.—Old time revue.
9:45 p. m.—Musical handshakes.
10 p. m.—Formica orchestra.
11 p. m.—Address; dance music.

WSRO—CINCINNATI—423

11 p. m.—Dance music.
12 midnight—Songs; Alvin Boehr's orchestra.

WCX—DETROIT—517

9 p. m.—Michigan Night.
10 p. m.—Red Apple Club.
11 p. m.—Red Apple Club.

WJR—PONTIAC, MICH.—517

7 p. m.—Orchestra; soloists.
7:30 p. m.—Dance music.
9 p. m.—Michigan Night.

WWJ—DETROIT—353

6 p. m.—Dinner concert.
8 p. m.—Program from WEAF.

WBBO—LANSING, MICH.—256

6 p. m.—Dinner concert.
8:15 p. m.—Band; glee club; artists.

WHT—CHICAGO—400

7 p. m.—Classical recital.
3:45 p. m.—(238 meters)—Alamo orchestra.
10:30 p. m.—Hawaiian Trio.
11:10 p. m.—Dance music.
1 a. m.—"Your Hour" League.

WMAQ—CHICAGO—448

7 p. m.—Organ; La Salle orchestra.
9 p. m.—Book talk; travel talk.
10 p. m.—University of Chicago lecture.
10:20 p. m.—Thrift program.

WLS—CHICAGO—536

7 p. m.—Bell program; organ; story.

KYW—CHICAGO—536

8:25 p. m.—American farm speeches.
9 p. m.—Musical program.
10 p. m.—Hour of music.
11 p. m.—"Evening at Home."
3 a. m.—Insomnia Club.

WEBH—CHICAGO—370

8 to 9 p. m.—Dinner concert; songs.
10 p. m.—Theater bits; news.
12 to 1:30 a. m.—Dance music; songs; features.

WOK—CHICAGO

5:30 p. m.—Concert and dance music.
11 p. m.—Studio concert.

WIBO—CHICAGO—226

7 to 9 p. m.—Songs by artists.
1 a. m.—Midnight jamboree.

WENR—CHICAGO—266

7 p. m.—Dinner concert.
9 to 11 p. m.—All-American Pioneers.

WQJ—CHICAGO—148

8 p. m.—Dinner concert.
11 p. m.—Rainbow Skylarks.
3 a. m.—Ginger hour.

WBBM—CHICAGO—226

9 p. m.—Radio service; concert.
10 p. m.—Glee Club concert.
11 p. m. to 1 a. m.—Artists and orchestra.

Aspirin Gargle in Sore Throat or Tonsilitis

Prepare a harmless and effective gargle by dissolving two "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" in four tablespoonfuls of water. Gargle-throat thoroughly. Repeat in two hours if necessary.

Be sure you see only the genuine Bayer Aspirin, marked with the Bayer Cross, which can be had in tin boxes of twelve tablets for few cents.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

PALACE

EXTRA! EXTRA!

A BIG TREAT FOR MUSIC LOVERS

WILLIAM GIULIANI

The baritone of the San Carlo Grand Opera Company, who sang here with Mme. Muzio in "Madame Butterfly," is here for the next two days with THE GIULIANI TRIO. Don't miss hearing this wonderful artist.

OTHER GOOD ACTS

And Griffith's Wonder Picture, with W. C. Fields and Carol Dempster

"THAT ROYLE GIRL"

GET READY FOR THREE DAYS OF LAUGHTER —THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY—

SYD CHAPLIN in "THE MAN ON THE BOX"

Funnier Than "CHARLEY'S AUNT".

COMING—SUNDAY, MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY

RUDOLPH VALENTINO in "THE EAGLE"

NOTE: Valentino's pictures have not been up to the standard looked for by his fans, but this is a real good picture.

BROADWAY

Matinee, 2:15—NOW PLAYING—Evening, 7 to 10:30

A TRULY WONDERFUL ANNIVERSARY PROGRAM

6—GREAT ACTS—6

—AND—

THE GREATEST PICTURE OF ALL—PERCY MARKS'

"THE PLASTIC AGE"

With CLARA BOW and DONALD KEITH

To the millions who read this vital story, we confidently say, "GREATER THAN THE BOOK."

CHEERS AND APPLAUSE GREETED THE FINISH!

THE LIONS CLUB

—PRESENTS—

THE ULTRA-MODERN MUSICAL COMEDY

THAT'S THAT

A JOHN B. ROGERS PRODUCTION

Broadway Theatre — Jan. 26 and 27

Tickets now on sale at: Engler's, Fagan's, Cranston's, Smith Pharmacy, Madden's, Ethier's, Shea's News Store, Sicks Drug Store, by members of the cast and members of the Lions Club.

DANCE

Given by L. H. D. Club

Odd Fellows Hall

Wednesday Eve., Jan. 20.

THUMM'S ORCHESTRA

DANCING AT 8:30 P. M.

BREED THEATRE

TODAY — WEDNESDAY

At 2:15, 7 and 8:45

Ramon Novarro

—in—

"The Midshipman"

With WESLEY BARRY, HARRIET HAMMOND, KATHLEEN KEY

The film play you've heard so much about! Made at Annapolis Naval Academy with co-operation of the U. S. Navy.

Packed with fun and action!

EDUCATIONAL COMEDY—NEWS

SHELBY

AND

His Radio Band

Wednesday Night

January 20th

AL-PIERRE TABARIN

WILLIMANTIC

A Real Dance Orchestra

DANCE

TONITE

At the Y. M. of H. A. HALL

Olympic Building, Water St.

DANCING—8:30-12:00

ALWAYS A GOOD TIME AT THE Y.

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

DANCE

At Pulaski Hall

Wednesday, Jan. 20, 1926.

MUSIC BY D'ATRI'S WAUREGAN HOTEL ORCHESTRA

Admission—Ladies, 35c; Gents, 50c.

"Uncle Joe" Shippee

CHAMPION OLD TIME FIDDLER OF NEW ENGLAND

AND HIS ORCHESTRA

OLD TIME DANCE MUSIC

—For—

OLD TIME DANCES

NOW OPEN FOR ENGAGEMENTS.

JAMES WALKER, Manager.

PLAINFIELD.

Tel. Meecup 27-12.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

BORN

SANFORD—In New London, Jan. 17, 1926, a daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Sanford of Mystic, formerly of Westerly.

PAINE—In New London, Jan. 16, 1926, a son, Robert Douglas, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Paine of Mystic.

MARRIED

THORNE-HAVEMEYER—At Ardsley-on-Hudson, N. Y., Jan. 16th, 1926, by Rev. Dr. Francis Erwin, of Irvington, Henry Sanford Thorne, son of Mrs. Tracy Farnum, of New London, and Miss Helen Mitchell Havemeyer, of Ardsley.

LEMOS-SYLVIA—In New London, Jan. 15th, 1926, by Rev. Dr. Timothy M. Crowley, Wilfred Lemos, of Boston and Miss Dorothy Sylvia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Sylvia, of New London.

BOURQUE-DARCHE—In Webster, Mass., Jan. 18, 1926, Wilfred Bourque of North Grosvenordale and Miss Claire Darche of Perryville.

DEVITO-RAINSVILLE—In Occum, Jan. 18, 1926, by Rev. Frederick R. H. Dessureault, Peter DeVito of Norwich and Miss Eva Rainville of Occum.

CONLIN-SHEA—In Norwich, Jan. 18, 1926, by Rev. Myles P. Galvin, Thomas Downes Conlin and Mrs. Marie Shea, both of 104 Asylum street.

BERRY-VAUGHN—In Westerly, R. I., Jan. 13, 1926, by Arnt L. Schoning, George Heath Berry, formerly of Norwich, and Mabel Eveling Vaughn, both of North Kingstown, R. I.

DIED

DOLBEARE—In Norwich, Jan. 18, 1926, Lydia M. Bushnell, wife of the late C. Raymond Dolbeare.
Funeral notice later.

MENGE—In Mystic, Jan. 16, 1926, Ernestine A. Shumann Menge, aged 57 years.

SAMUELSEN—In New London, Jan. 18, 1926, Albert W. J., son of Karl H. and Marie S. Samuelsen, in his 13th year.

BURKE—In New London, Jan. 18, 1926, Ellen Murray, widow of William Burke, aged 80 years.

BOSWORTH—In Bozrah, Jan. 18, 1926, Mary Stark, widow of the Rev. Q. M. Bosworth, in the 86th year of her age. Notice of funeral hereafter.

FUNERAL NOTICES

PECKHAM—In Mystic, Jan. 16, 1926, Phoebe E. Williams, of Ledyard, widow of Stephen H. Peckham, aged 80 years. Funeral service at the Ledyard Center Congregational church, Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 19th at 2 o'clock. Burial in Ledyard Center cemetery.

OLSEN—In Norwich, suddenly, Jan. 17, 1926, Joseph H. Olsen, aged 31 years. Funeral services at the home of his brother, John O. Olsen, 12 Town street, Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 20th at 2:30 o'clock. Burial in Maplewood cemetery.

COUGHLIN—In this city, Jan. 18, 1926, Ellen, widow of the late John Coughlin, of 27 Roath street. Funeral from her late residence Wednesday morning, Jan. 20, at 8:15. Solemn requiem mass in St. Mary's Memorial church at 9 o'clock. Burial in St. Mary's cemetery.

RANDALL—In Dayville, Jan. 18, Hattie E. Randall, aged 61 years, widow of Edgar M. Randall.
Funeral services at the home in Dayville, Wednesday, at 1 p. m.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Church & Allen
16 MAIN STREET
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Lady Assistant
HENRY E. CHURCH
WM. SMITH ALLEN
Telephone 628-3

Shea & Burke
Funeral Directors
41 Main Street

The Henry Allen & Son Co.
38 MAIN STREET
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Lady Assistant Telephone 410 2
DAVID H. WILSON

GAGER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER
PROMPT SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT

CUMMINGS & RING
Furs at Directors and Embalmers
322 Main Street
Phone 238 2 Lady Assistant

HOURIGAN BROS.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Norwich and Jewett City

CENTRAL VILLAGE

F. W. Tillinghast & Sons
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
CENTRAL VILLAGE, CONN.
Tel. Mescup 382-2

Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
86 Union Street, Willimantic, Conn.
Phone 290. Lady Assistant

DANIELSON

LOUIS E. KENNEDY
DANIELSON
Undertaker and Embalmer
Special Attention to Every Detail.

WILLIMANTIC

Avery & Van Zandt
Succeeding JAY M. SHEPARD
Established 1870
Funeral Directors, Embalmers
Sixty and Sixty-Two North Street
Willimantic Conn

POULTRY

FOR SALE—R. I. Red Baby chicks and hatching eggs from stock tested free from bacillary white diarrhea. H. J. Larkham, Norwich Town, Phone 462-4. Jan5d

FOR SALE—S. C. R. I. Reds. Day old chicks from stock tested for white diarrhea. Hatches weekly. W. W. Service, Lakeview Farm, R. D. 1, Norwich. Tel. 1698-3. Jan14d

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public there is no better medium than through The Bulletin.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—A knitting machine in good condition. Reasonable price. Inquire 365 Main St., top floor. Jan19d

A gink from Yantik sez he always gets up early cus he always tells his son to wake him when the kums in. Boys must stay out prity late in Yantik. Rubber pouch and pipe all for 50c. Noble, Old Coon Pippin 5 for 30c. Manila Cigars special 10 for 35c. Murad, Melachrino cigarets 20 for 20 c. Fagan's Smoke Shop, Opp Woolworth.

FOR SALE—Police puppies. F. Thetreault, Hanover. Phone 1571-5, Norwich, Div. Jan18d

FOR SALE—Underwood No. 5 Typewriter, good as new, will sell cheap. Cash or time. Apply, 49 Franklin St. Jan15d

CABLE PIANO—$3 note with fine tone and action. Mahogany case. Can be bought for $135 on convenient payments. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. tf

CHOICE TWO GOOD PIANOS $90—Reputable New England make in excellent condition as to tone, action, case and finish. Terms if desired. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. tf

A man wus tellin me a friend of his called up the fire dept and ast them where the fire alarm box wus cus he had a fire in his house. Wusn't he dum. Noble Old Coon Pippin 5 in a pack, 30c., Murad 20 for 30c., Helmar 20 for 20c. Fagan's Smoke Shop, Opp. Woolworth's.

FOR SALE—1 cook stove, No. 7, 1 iron bed spring, mattress, 1 parlor set, 5 pieces. Cheap if taken at once. 1 kitchen table. 845 Boswell Ave. Jan16d

USED PIANOS $65—Two excellent makes taken in exchange. In good condition, suitable for beginner. Terms arranged if desired. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. tf

ORTHOPHONIC VICTROLAS—Available here in all styles from $85 up on convenient payments. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., only exclusively Victrola dealers in Norwich and Eastern Conn. tf

30 acres, state road farm 5 minutes' walk to stores, church and bus line, 40 acres level tillage land, dark loam soil very productive, two story colonial house, large stock barn, 125 ton silo; buildings all good and the price only $5,500, including 14 cows, 1 pair horses, and a complete line of farming implements. Tryons Agency, Willimantic, Conn. Jan16d

FOR SALE—Brand new Gulbransen Player Pianos on terms as low as $2.50 weekly, Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St.

FOR SALE—Police puppies. F. Thetreault, Hanover. Phone 1571-5, Norwich, Div. Jan18d

FOR SALE—Underwood No. 5 Typewriter, good as new, will sell cheap. Cash or time. Apply, 49 Franklin St. Jan15d

WASSERMAN $8 note piano like new. Cheap to the first buyer. Hanover-Curland Co. 24 Franklin St. Jan14

FOR SALE—A brand new Victrola, Model 80. Regular price $110. Our Price $52.50. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St tf

FOR SALE—A brand new $285 Brunswick Phonograph for $98.50. Hanover-Curland Co. 24 Franklin St. tf

FOR SALE—Orthophonic Victrolas on Easy Terms at the Cash price. We are factory agents of genuine Victrolas for town of Norwich. Hanover-Curland Co. 24 Franklin St. tf

$165 buys Wasserman $8 note Player piano, in good condition. Hanover-Curland Co. 24 Franklin St. tf

FOR SALE—A 5 Tube Chelsea Radio set. Regular price $50. Special Price for cash, $25. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. tf

FOR SALE—House, 15 Elm St., belonging to est. Oscar L. Brown. Inquire Dr. N. B. Lewis, Adm. 314 Main St. J9d

FOR SALE—6 room bungalow with water in house, electric lights, 7 acres of land with 40 young fruit trees, 1 3-4 miles from Franklin Sq. on Middle road to Pequetanuck, price very attractive. For particulars call at A. Hagberg & Son Tailor Shop, 310 Main. Jan12d

FOR SALE—3 tenement house, 6 rooms each flat, with all modern improvements. Large lot. Also 3 tenement 5 room each flat, all modern improvements with 2 car garage. Large lot, located near Golden St. Also 9 room house with stone located in 70 Boswell Ave. For full particulars, see A. V. Covello, Real Estate and Fire Insurance. 198 Cliff St. Tel. 1093-3. Jan11d

FOR SALE—Second hand ranges with gas attachment and some without. We guarantee every range that goes out of our store. Some Crawfords and some Glenwoods. 107 Franklin St Phone 559. dec24d

FOR SALE

A very choice piece of property desirably located on Williams st., large double lot. House can be very economically put into a two apartment. This property must be sold at once and who it fits, can secure a big bargain. Can have easiest of terms.

For further particulars inquire of

JOHN A. MORAN
REAL ESTATE BROKER

OFFERING
6½% FIRST MORTGAGES
FULLY GUARANTEED
JAMES L. CASE
Investment Department
40 Shetucket Street

FOR SALE

Well Established Grocery Business, on State Road. Just outside of city limits. Bargain for quick buyer.

For particulars inquire of

Joseph K. Panek
AGENT.
301-302 Disco Bldg.,
Norwich, Conn.

FOR RENT.

No. 52 Williams street. Newly decorated nine-room dwelling, with garage for one car. Inquire of

Thos. H. Beckley
Agent.
278 MAIN STREET PHONES

FOR SALE

IN NORWICHTOWN

7 room house with large plot of ground, near Backus Hospital. Low price for quick sale. Owner leaving town.

FRANCIS B. DONOHUE
Rooms 5 Block, Norwich.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE
Six-room Cottage on East Side. Price $3,000. Easy terms.
New modern six-room semi-bungalow in Thamesville. $1,000 cash payment. Balance, easy terms. Low price for quick sale.
New modern two-apartment on West Side, near school and trolley. Price $6,500. Cash payment, $500. Balance, easy terms.
Six-room modern cottage in Greeneville. Best location. Reasonable price.
New six-room cottage, large lot and garage, on Boswell avenue. A real constructed house at a reasonable price.

INQUIRE OF
NORWICH LAND TITLE & INSURANCE COMPANY
Sellas Building Norwich, Conn.

WANTED—Female

WANTED—Woman desires position as bookkeeper. Has thorough knowledge of this branch of office work having had considerable experience. Can furnish references. Call 2594J. tf

WANTED—Housekeeper for two adults on farm. Lock Box 2, Central Village. Phone 28-3 Moosup Div. Jan19d

WANTED—Stenographer. Give experience. Also girl for chemical laboratory. Address Chemical, Bulletin Office. Jan19d

WANTED—Young girl for general housework. Call 104 No. Main St. Jan19

WANTED—Work by the day. Inquire 79 School street. Jan18d

WANTED—Woman to represent six popular magazines in Norwich and nearby towns. Excellent opportunity for woman desiring to build up a business from home. Private telephone essential. Leads furnished; commission basis. Write P. R. Lasher, 191 Cannon street, Bridgeport, Conn. Jan18d

WANTED—Position as nurse to adults, or housekeeper. Good references. P. O. Box 205, Norwich. Jan18d

WANTED—Protestant housekeeper in good home. Tel. 126-3 Jewett City.

WANTED

Ambitious young lady as bookkeeper and stenographer. Write giving experience, references and salary expected.

T. N. M. LATHROP INC.
84 No. Main St. Norwich

COAL AND WOOD

FOR SALE—Sawed oak wood, one cord $11, 1-2 cord $6, 1-4 cord $3.50. Delivered anywhere. O. H. Main. Phone 489. tf

FOR SALE—Sawed slab wood or thick yard wood. Try a load. Tel 1852 2 dec24

FOR SALE—Wood, stove length. G. A. Bullard. Tel. 1076-4. dec22d

FOR SALE—Best Quality hard dry wood. H. S. Beard & Son. Ye Old Homestead Farm. Tel 615-4. nov26d

FOR SALE—Best hardwood and slabs. Try a load. John R. Lyman. Tel 2617W nov7d

COAL, seasoned wood and kindlings delivered anywhere. 6 baskets for $1.00. Phone 729. Park Wood Yard 401 Franklin St. 23d

COAL—Seasoned wood and kindlings in large or small quantities delivered anywhere. Phone 516 or 1353 4. M. Sheehan, Willow street. nov27d

WANTED—Miscellaneous

WANTED—An 8 or 10 room apartment, centrally located suited for a rooming house. Apply at 3 E. Main St., or the Marguerite Bldg. Jan19d

FOR SALE—A very fine Hallett & Davis piano in perfect condition; will sell very reasonable. Also several talking machines of leading makes at half price. Easy terms if desired. Schwartz Bros., Inc. 76-82 Main St. Norwich. dec29d

LOUIS D WARD pays us prices for used furniture and antiques. Box 389, Norwich. Phone 361-13, Norwich; 806 Willimantic. TuThSSmay14

WANTED—One bag cement mixer. State price. Box 444, Bulletin. J18d

WANTED—Dead horses and cows removed and live ones disposed of. George Mattern, Phone 1564-21. Jan16d

WANTED—Furniture repairing, Refinishing and Odd Jobs in Carpentry. Phone 1203-4. Jan12d

WANTED—Second hand antique furniture. Best prices paid. A. Bruckner, 102 Franklin St. Phone 589 nov17d

WANTED—Cash paid for old furniture. H. Ward, 16 Water St. Tel. 34. nov11d

WANTED—To buy poultry and calves highest prices paid. Call 1495. nov17d

MIRRORS resilvered and glass for every purpose. Norwich Glass Co., 9 Main St. Tel 1483 nov17d

FOR SALE—Automobiles

FOR SALE—1921 Ford Coupe, $135. First class condition. Call 692-5 between 5 and 9 p. m. Jan18d

FOR SALE—1924 Buick Coupe, 1921 Packard Small Six Sedan, 1924 Studebaker Sedan, 1925 Ford Coach, 1923 Dodge B. Sedan, 1923 Dodge A Sedan, 1924 Ford Coupe, 1924 Maxwell Coupe, 1921 Ford Coupe. 15 open cars all late models. Cash or Terms. Adams Tavern Garage. Jan16d

FOR SALE—Dodge, four door sedan, nice condition, extras. Price $325. Would consider terms. Tel. 1554. Jan16d

FOR SALE—1925 Hudson Coach, 1925 Ford Coupe, 1924 Jewett Sport Roadster, 1924 Maxwell Touring, 1924 Durant Sport Sedan, 1924 Ford Touring, 1924 Ford Coach. Jones & St. Germain's, 62 Shetucket street. Jan14d

FOR SALE—1921 Buick coupe, good condition, West Side Garage, 194-196 West Main St. tf

YOU can order a new or used Harley-Davidson motorcycle for immediate or spring delivery through our Club Plan. $5.50 down. New models are now on display. Jim Donovan, 135 N. Main St. Phone 769. dec2d

FOR SALE—1926 Chevrolet Sedan, 1924 Ford Coupe, 1924 Chevrolet Touring, 1923 Dodge Touring, 1923 Maxwell Touring, 1922 Buick Touring. Krieger Motor Sales Co. 191 No. Main St. Tel 646 dec3d

PERSONAL

SUFFERERS of Heart Trouble, Dropsy, Angina, High Blood Pressure, Paralysis, Asthma, I will gladly tell you free how you can get quick and lasting relief without using drugs, medicines, serums. Address R. V. Walden, Box 1260, New Haven, Conn. Jan14d

FOR SALE—Horses

NOTICE!

Am in the west after a carload of Horses. Will arrive about February 1. Watch this paper.

FRANK L. LATHROP
YANTIC

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

TO RENT

FOR RENT—Furnished room, steam heat, use of phone, private family. Phone 349-4. Marion Bldg. Jan19d

TO RENT—3 furnished rooms for light house keeping. Steam heated. Tel. 638-5. Jan19d

TO RENT—4 room flat with bath. Laurel Hill Ave. Phone 2691J. Jan19d

TO RENT—Lower Tenement, 6 rooms and bath. Inquire of J. Bradford, 108 Broadway. Jan19d

TO RENT—7 room flat. All modern improvements at 35 Cliff St. Tel. 2252 Jan19d

TO RENT—6 room tenement, all improvements. Mohegan Park Rd. Brook Bldg. Phone 1473-3. Jan19d

TO RENT—Second apartment on Raymond place. nov17d

TO RENT—House of eight rooms and garage. Tel. 859. oct17d

TO RENT—An apartment, 130 Washington St. 6 rooms with or without a garage. Apply 130 Washington St. Phone 1132-2. Gilbert Bowers. dec24d

TO RENT—Corner Tenement, 6 rooms and bath. Inquire of J. Bradford, 108 Broadway. Jan18

TO RENT—Six room apartment. Steam heat furnished. Reasonable rent. All modern improvements. Phone 2356. J16d

TO RENT—3 or 4 rooms. Light housekeeping. 27 McKinley Ave. tf

TO RENT—Select 6 room apartment. Greene Ave., tile bath, garage included. $45 a month. Call 2474-2. Jan14d

FOR RENT—3 rooms, pantry, gas, lights; School St., $10 a month. Call 2474-2.

TO RENT—Furnished rooms for light housekeeping, the heater of which is equipped with a Combustion Tube Device. Tel. 1341-6. Jan12d

TO RENT—6 large rooms, $13. Near the Thermos. Tel. 1463. dec30d

TO RENT—Small heated apartment with hot water, furnished or unfurnished. Garage space at 175 Broadway. Phone 1506 or 1811. dec24d

TO RENT—4 modern room apartment. Inquire Brookins Outfitters.

FOR RENT—Fine modern apartment. All improvements. 37 Perkins Ave. Inquire Adelard Morin. The Plaut-Cadden Co. dec9d

TO RENT—Garage at 50 Broad St. Inquire Hanover-Curland Co. dec4d

TO RENT—Dead storage for 50 cars. Hartley & Gallup. 363-365 Hamilton Ave. Phone 701-3. nov24d

TO RENT—Apartment 197 Laurel Hill Ave., with or without garage. Phone 2179. nov11d

TO RENT—Furnished rooms for light housekeeping also garage. 11 Elm street. city nov4d

WANTED—Automobiles for storage. $4.00 per month. Garage, 475 N. Main St. oct30d

TO RENT—Cottage of 6 rooms, all improvements. 36 Grove St. oct29d

TO RENT—A fine modern apartment in best residential section of Norwich inquire of Shea and Burke 41 Main St. oct16d

WANTED—Male

WANTED—Single man, handy with tools, for steady position, room and board. Tel. 311, 332 West Thames St. Jan13

WANTED—Position as bookkeeper by young man with several years' experience. Also has thorough knowledge of expert accounting and auditing. Can furnish the best of references. Address 14 Nelson place or call 2594 J, during the evening. tf

WANTED—Experienced timber cutters. James C. Adams. 122 Prospect St. Tel 2587J. Jan19d

WANTED—Middle aged man for outdoor position. Could be profitably worked with insurance or Real Estate. No investment. Pay weekly. Heath Nurseries, Manchester Conn. Jan1d

WANTED—Foreman for dairy farm. James H. Hyde, North Franklin, Tel. Lebanon 30, Conn. Jan13d

WANTED—Young man. Ambitious young man over 21 now employed but dissatisfied with future prospects who desires to follow overseas and South American shipping export, and foreign trade as a life career must be willing to devote some spare time acquiring thorough knowledge of this work. Write for interview giving age and present employment. Confidential. Address Box 1220, Bulletin. Jan18

WANTED—Handy man on farm with good pay. J. Begal. Phone 1076-5. J18d

WANTED—Salesman for Elden Shoes. Direct to consumer. Complete line. No charge for samples. Apply giving references to Service Shoe Corp. 65 Franklin St. Boston, Mass. Jan16d

WANTED—Position by experienced electrician. Address, H. E. Tubbs, R. D. No. 7, Norwich. Jan13d

AMBITIOUS MEN AND BOYS—$5 wanted at once to learn the barber trade; we pay you while learning, tuition $35; we are open from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m. Vaughn's School of Barbering, 14 Market St., Hartford, Conn. Nov14d

Sales Manager

One, who has managed direct salesmen on lines like hosiery, brushes, aluminum ware, etc., wanted by large manufacturer of entirely different line for this city and surrounding territory. Products are actual necessities that bring steady repeat business. Manager not expected to do any field selling. Position requires ability to hire salesmen. We pay office rent and advertising. No investment necessary on your part other than your time and efforts. We want a manager who wants a permanent connection. If qualified you should make $75 to $150 a week. You must have good references. Write giving full particulars concerning yourself, past record, experience, etc. All applications held confidential. Address General Sales Manager, 2700 Broadway Avenue, Dormont, Pittsburgh, Pa. Jan19

WANTED

Salesman in Norwich and Outside. Good Opportunity.

NORWICH USED CAR EXCHANGE, INC.
95 Lafayette Street. Phone 2260.

TREES AND SHRUBS

Fruit, Ornamental Trees and Shrubs
MAPLEWOOD NURSERY CO.
East Great Plain Tel. 986-2

UPHOLSTERING

CALL 2021W. Upholstering, crating, carpet and linoleum laying. George H. Sanders, 3 Boswell Ave. Jan15d

FOR SALE—Cows

FOR SALE—Holstein Cattle, either sex, young bulls from A. R. O. dams. Herd under Federal and State supervision. Last test 100 per cent. clean. Also low down milk wagon in good running order. Thos. W. Wood, Camp View Farm, Waterford, Conn. Tel. 1706-12. Jan18d

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

Business Notices.

AUTOMOBILE REPAIRING

AUTOMOBILE REPAIRING
General Repairing. Day and Night Service
JONES' GARAGE
East Great Plain Tel. 2171-2

"JOE" MOORE'S GARAGE
Mechanical, Electrical and Body Repairs
PHONE 2388
95 Chestnut Street

AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES

OVERHAULING and REPAIR WORK
OF ALL KINDS
Automobiles, Carriages, Wagons, Trucks and Carts
Mechanical Repairs, Painting, Trimming, Upholstering and Wood Work. Blacksmithing, in All its Branches

Scott & Clark Corp.
807 TO 815 NORTH MAIN STREET

STAR GARAGE
NOW FOR SERVICE!
We are now carrying a complete line of new auto parts such as—
WEL-EVER PISTON RINGS
BUTLER SPRINGS
AMERICAN GEARS
TIMKEN BEARINGS
BUTLER DRIVE SHAFTS AND AXLES
and other popular auto replacement products, accessories and Tires.
Try us. We can save you money!
Plainfield 196. Danielson 213-2.
Wholesale and Retail.

Keep the Money Circulating in Norwich

500 OLD CARS WANTED

Any condition. Cash waiting. Large stock of Gears, Axles, Bearings, Wheels, Springs, Starters, Generators, Batteries, Windshields, Radiators, Motors, Rear Ends and all parts. Bargains in Used Tires and Tubes.

HODES AUTO PARTS
Formerly the
NATIONAL AUTO WRECKING CO.
381 West Main St. Cor. Mt. Pleasant.
Tel. 1391

OFFICIAL
RAYBESTOS SERVICE STATION
FACTORY JOB OF BRAKE RELINING DONE WHILE YOU WAIT
FREE BRAKE INSPECTION
OVERHAULING AND REPAIR WORK
Lumis & Bennett
191 N. MAIN ST. TEL. 646

AUTO PARTS—TELEPHONE 1600
Replacement parts for all cars
WILLIAMS TIRE & SUPPLY CO.

Battery Service
The Best 1-Day Battery Charging
Radio Rental Batteries
75c Week.
Capacity, 40 Batteries every 8 to 10 Hours
VULCANIZING
The only shop in the city equipped to repair all sizes of REGULAR and BALLOON Tires.
The KE HAW KE System
ALL REPAIRS GUARANTEED.

Lane Motor Supply
170 Franklin Street.
PHONE 1570.

BIRDS

FOR SALE—Canaries also cages and supplies at Anthony's, 193 Central Ave. Tel. 2454-3. Jan16d

CHIROPODIST

A. G. THOMPSON, F. S., Chiropodist Foot Specialist (protect your feet) Suite 7-8 Alice Bldg. 321 Main St. Norwich, Conn. Phone 735. dec2d

J. GROSVENOR assisted by J. Dawson, 13 Cliff St., will conduct a children's free clinic Thursday evenings from 7-9. Office hours 9-12 and 1-5. Tel. 524. Jan12d

CASTINGS
Grey Iron and Semi-Steel Castings
Pattern Making and Machine Work
—ALSO—
Daily Trucking Service Between Norwich, New London and Vicinity
BABCOCK PRINTING PRESS MFG. CO.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

Business Notices.

CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS

P. F. SWEENEY
GENERAL CONTRACTOR and BUILDER
25 Chestnut Street.

Doors, Windows, Frames
Inside Finish.
Mill Work of All Kinds.
THE PECK-McWILLIAMS COMPANY.
Central Wharf.

CIGARS

Whitestone cigars are $70 per thousand. J. F. CONANT. 11 Franklin St.

INSURANCE

J. L. LATHROP & SONS
Insurance of All Kinds
28 Shetucket Street

MUSIC.

WANTED—Pupils. Drums, Bells, Xylophone. Drums and supplies for sale. Room 6 Central Bldg. Jan19

ERNEST E. BULLARD
Teacher of the Violin
Phone 127-4
Bliss Place
I Have a Few Outfits to Lend

FRANK DRAGO of Hartford
TEACHER OF VIOLIN & THEORY
Room 213 Disco Building

MACHINISTS

M. A. BARBER
Machinist and Engineer
Steam Engine Repairs

MONEY TO LOAN

LOANS
THE PUBLIC'S LOAN SERVICE
We loan money for emergency needs, featuring prompt, courteous and confidential service. Monthly payments of principal and interest arranged to suit the borrower's convenience. Legal interest on unpaid balances is our only charge. Detailed information furnished by personal representative upon request. Phone 1470.
New England Equity Corp.
Members of Chamber of Commerce
ROOM 206 THAYER BLDG.
16 FRANKLIN STREET

NEWSPAPERS AND PERIODICALS

HANDY NEWS STAND
Thayer Building Franklin St.

PRINTING

PRINTING of all kinds promptly and neatly done. Estimates promptly and cheerfully given. The Bulletin Co., 48 Franklin St.

TRUCKING

Hartley & Gallup—Truckmen. Local and long distance furniture and piano moving a specialty. High grade sand and loam for sale. Storage of any description. At 363 and 365 Hamilton Ave. Telephone 701-2. nov24d

Long Distance Moving and Expressing. Zimmerman, 17 Boswell Ave. Tel. 1341.

G. D. JOSLYN, 293 West Main street. We move everything anywhere. Special attention given to moving boilers and machinery. Telephone 1582-3

Established 1873 Telephone 175
ARTHUR H. H. LATHROP
Auto trucking, Teaming and Expressing
Furniture and Piano Moving
Shetucket Street

WALL PAPER

WALL PAPERS—7 1-2 c to $5 Roll. Many new numbers at half and less than usual prices. Norwich Chain Wall Paper Co., cor. Willow and Chestnut Sts. T. H. McClenathan, Mgr.

MRS. A. M. LONG FINED FOR RECKLESS DRIVING

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Jan. 18—At a session of the Waterford town court this evening Mrs. Annie M. Long, widow of George M. Long, formerly of Groton, was fined $25 for reckless operation of a motor vehicle. Mrs. Long attempted to pass a truck at Quaker Hill and her car was sideswiped. Officer Sisson made the arrest. Fred James of East Lyme was presented for operating a car without registration, the case was nolled on payment of costs. Officer Brigham apprehended James. Peter Biscetti was fined $5 for operating a car without a license. Gordon F. Spooner of Groton was prosecuted for parking his car on private property. He was fined $5 and then the fine was remitted. Frank Sheehan of Norwich was fined $5 for parking his car without lights.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE!

The Board of Relief of the Town of Montville, Conn., will meet in the town hall, in said town, four days, as follows: On February 1st, 10th, 17th, and 27th, 1926, from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M. to listen to appeals from the doings of the Assessors, and to transact any other business proper to be done at said meeting. Dated at Montville, Conn., Jan. 18, 1926.

JOHN A. COGGESHALL,
DWIGHT O. KELSEY,
JOHN B. HOME,
Board of Relief.

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 18th day of January, A. D. 1926.

Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

Estate of Anna Schneider, late of Norwich, in said District, deceased.

John B. Rogler of Norwich, Conn., appeared in Court by counsel and filed a petition praying, for the reasons therein set forth, that an instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, be admitted to probate.

Whereupon, it is Ordered, That said petition be heard and determined at the Probate Court Room in the City of Norwich, in said District, on the 22nd day of January, A. D. 1926, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and that notice of the pendency of said petition, and of said hearing thereon, be given by the publication of this order one time in some newspaper having a circulation in said District at least three days prior to the date of said hearing and that return be made to this Court.

NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.

Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk.

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 18th day of January, A. D. 1926.

Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

Estate of Mary O'Connell, late of Norwich, in said District, deceased.

Patrick J. O'Connell of Norwich, Conn., appeared in Court and filed a petition praying, for the reasons therein set forth, that an instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, be admitted to probate.

Whereupon, it is Ordered, That said petition be heard and determined at the Probate Court Room in the City of Norwich, in said District, on the 22nd day of January, A. D. 1926, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and that notice of the pendency of said petition, and of said hearing thereon, be given by the publication of this order one time in some newspaper having a circulation in said District at least three days prior to the date of said hearing and that return be made to this Court.

NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.

Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk.

NOTICE!

The Eighty-sixth Annual Meeting of the Policyholders of the New London County Mutual Fire Insurance Company will be held at the Home Office of the Company at Nos. 50-52 Broadway, Norwich, Connecticut, at 1:30 P. M., Tuesday, January 19, 1926, to take action as follows:

(1) To hear and act upon the Annual Reports.

(2) To elect four Directors for a term of three years each.

(3) To do any further business proper to be done at said meeting.

W. F. LESTER,
Secretary.

CITY COUNCIL VOTES TO IMPROVE CHURCH STREET

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Jan. 18—The city council this evening voted to improve Church street from Main street to Huntington street, by widening, the re-laying of sidewalks where it was deemed to be necessary, the removal of trees, catch basins, etc., and the re-establishment of the latter. The benefits and damages are to be assessed to or against the property benefitted or damaged. The expense will not estimated so no figures can be given.

SOUTH KILLINGLY

Mrs. John Potter, of Danielson, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Fred Shippee.

Arthur Terwilliger and family and Henry Tewgood and family were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Randal Law, of East Putnam.

Mrs. A. E. Phillips was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Kent, of Brooklyn, Friday, while on an automobile trip to Providence.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tetreault entertained friends from out of town Sunday.

Jacob Spaulding and family have returned home, after spending several weeks with relatives in Boston, and vicinity.

A social and dance was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Adams Saturday evening. Several local people attended.

Mrs. Fred Shippee has had a relapse and is seriously ill at her home.

J. Franklin Eldridge dressed a seven months old pig last week which tipped the scales at 300 pounds.

William Ducat moved to Providence Wednesday. Mr. Breault, who has been living on the Spaulding farm, has moved into the house vacated by Mr. Ducat.

Mrs. Albert Phillips entertained Beatrice Coffey Saturday.

Ruth Coffey spent Saturday with Mrs. Raymond Gates.

A. E. Hall and A. B. Phillips were in Waverly, Mass., on business Friday.

The man who waits to make sure that he is right before going ahead often finds himself distanced by a less conservative individual who was willing to take chances.

AT A SACRIFICE!
$5,000 STOCK FOR SALE
—OF—
CAPITOL THEATRE CORP.
WILLIMANTIC, CONN.
HOW MUCH IS OFFERED?
Apply A. DAVIDSON, Manager
BROADWAY THEATRE, NORWICH.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

MARKETS AT A GLANCE
New York

Stocks strong; Norfolk and Western at year's high; motor shares rally.

Bonds firm; Serbian 8s rise on loan reports.

Foreign exchanges steady; sterling firm.

Cotton barely steady; firm spot markets.

Sugar steady; Cuban buying.

Coffee lower; commission house selling.

Coffee lower; commission house selling.

Chicago

Wheat firm. Better export demand.

Corn higher; unfavorable weather.

Cattle steady.

Hogs higher; good demand for light weights.

MARKET WAS IRREGULAR

NEW YORK, Jan. 19—(AP)—Stock prices made irregular recovery from recent weakness in today's market. Closing quotations disclosed a long list of net gains ranging from fractions to 3 points in the active issues. The volume of trading was the lightest of any full session this year, total sales falling below 1,400,000 shares.

The rally, like the reaction which preceded it, was not associated with any news developments. It received its impetus from short covering operations presumably based on the theory that last week's sharp decline had temporarily corrected the weakened technical position of the market.

Commission houses reported that trading was largely of a professional nature, public buying being restricted by the uncertainty over the forthcoming steel meetings and the trend of spring business.

Commodity markets were irregular. Wheat futures advanced a cent or more a bushel in reflection of the bullish interpretation placed upon the weekly visible supply figures. Cotton was 8 points higher to 3 points lower; a better business in cotton goods being reported. Coffee closed 5 points net higher to 4 points lower. Raw sugar was unchanged but raw sugar futures were 1 to 4 points net higher on buying by houses with Cuban connections.

United States Steel common rallied 3 points to 135 1-4 and then lost half it again some of the buying being influenced by unconfirmed reports that directors would raise the extra dividend from 50 to 75 cents at the meeting next week. Sloss-Sheffield jumped 5 points to 125 and Republic closed a point higher, but the other steels showed only fractional changes.

Heavy accumulation of Norfolk and Western, which advanced 4 1-4 points to a new high record at 156 1-4, revived rumors of an early lease of that property to the Pennsylvania. Trading in the other rails was featureless although moderate gains were recorded by Chesapeake and Ohio, Lackawanna and Frisco common and preferred.

Buoyancy again developed in a number of specialties. California Packing soared over seven points to 138 3-4, the highest price ever recorded, and net gains of 2 to 5 points were recorded by Air Reduction, American Brake Shoe and Foundry, Continental Insurance, Foundation company, Oppenheim Collins, and United States Cast Iron Pipe.

The retirement of short contracts was particularly noticeable in the motor group. Pierce Arrow rallied over four points to 106 3-4 and then eased to 106. General Motors closed 3 points higher at 118 7-8, and Chrysler, Willys Overland, Jordan, Pierce Arrow common and Hudson showed net gains of 1 to 2 points.

Despite the large surplus in reserve shown in last Saturday's clearing house statement, call money held steady at 4 1-2 per cent., although a shading of that figure was again reported in the "outside market." Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged.

Foreign exchanges held steady in quiet trading. Demand sterling ruled around 4.85 3-4 and French francs at 3.76 cents.

STOCKS

Sales in hundreds.	High.	Low	Close
1 Abitibi P & P .	72¾	72¾	72¾
1 Adams Express	107	107	107
4 Adv Rumely ..	58¼	57	57
9 Ahumada Lead .	8	8¼	8¼
41 Air Reduc .	112¾	109½	111¾
1 Ajax Rubber .	10¼	10¼	10¼
10 Alaska Jun G.	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
1 All Am Cable .	13½	13⅜	13⅜
35 Al Ch & Dye ..	116¼	114½	115
15 Allis Chalmers.	92¾	91½	92¼
14 Am Ag Chem .	32⅝	32¼	32⅜
6 Am Ag Ch pr .	94	94	94
6 Am Bank Note	41½	41	41
1 Am Beet S pr .	32½	32½	32½
17 Am Bosch Mag	30¼	29⅝	30
15 Am Brown Bo.	46	45¾	45¾
16 Am Br Sh Fdy.	168¾	166½	168¾
118 Am Can ..	284¾	281½	281⅝
153 Am Can wi	47⅝	47	47
1 Am Can pr	121	121	121
13 Am Car & Fy..	111½	110½	11
Am Car & F pr.	35	125	125
1 Am Chain A ..	25	25	25
3 Am Chicle p pr	90	90	90
4 Am Drug Syn ..	5¼	5	5
16 Am F Power .	41¾	40½	40⅝
1 Am For P pr .	91½	91½	91½
1 Am H & Leath	14	14	14
10 Am Ice	129¾	127	127
19 Am Int Corp..	44¾	43⅝	43⅝
17 Am La Fr F E	13⅝	13½	13⅝
1 Am La Fr pr ..	98	98	98
17 Am La Fr rts..	¼	⅛	⅛
10 Am Loco	117	115½	116¾
2 Am Metals	53⅛	52¾	53½
5 Am Radiator ..	113	112¾	113¾
4 Am Saf Razor.	58	56¾	58
5 Am Ship Com .	6⅝	6	6⅛
61 Am Smelting .	127¾	126	127
7 Am Smelt pr ..	115	114	115
19 Am Steel Fdrs	45⅞	45¼	45¼
20 Am Sugar Refin	76¼	75	75
4 Am Sug pr	102¾	102¾	102¾
5 Am Sum ToB ..	12¾	11⅝	12¼
1 Am Tel & Cab	40¼	40¼	40¼
16 Am Tel & Tel.	143	142⅜	142⅞
9 Am Tob	116¼	115⅞	116
12 Am Tob B	115⅝	114½	115
10 Am Wat Wks..	69⅝	68	69
6 Am Wool	40⅝	40½	40¾
1 Am Wool pr ..	83	83	83
1 Am W Paper pr	8¾	8¾	8¾
1 Am Z L & S..	9	9	9
5 Am Z L&S pr..	40	39¼	39¼
30 Anaconda Cop.	47	46⅝	47
2 Armour Co Del p	97⅝	97¾	97¾
26 Armour Co Ill A	24½	24¼	24½
14 Armour Ill B .	16¾	16	16¼
2 Arnold Constab	15	14⅞	15
10 Arnold Con nw	30	30	30
1 Ara Const ctfs	14⅛	14⅛	14⅛
5 Art Metal	30	30	30
1 Artloom Corp.	58	58	58
18 Asso Dry Gds .	53¼	51¾	51¾
4 Asso D Gds 2 pr	101½	101¾	101½
124 Asso Oil	53	51¾	52¾
55 Atchison	132¼	132⅝	132¾
7 Atchison pr	95¼	94¾	94¾
6 Atl Bir & Atl .	7¾	7⅝	7⅝
33 Atl Coast Line	250⅞	246¾	246¾
33 Atl G & W I stp	64¾	62¼	64
1 Atl G & W I pr	55¼	55¾	55¼
1 Atl Ref pr	116¼	116¼	116¼
3 Atlas Tack	15½	15⅝	15½
1 Austin Nichols.	36	36	36
4 Aus Nichols pr	90¼	90	90
40 Baldwin Loco .	129¼	128	128
1 Baldw Loco pr.	111¾	111¾	111¼
62 Balt & Ohio ..	91¾	91	91
3 Balt & O pr ..	69	69	69
20 Barnsdall Cp .	30¼	30	30
11 Barnsdall Cp B	27	26	27
2 Barnsdall rts ..	¼	¼	¼
20 Beth Steel	48	43¾	48¾
7 Beth Stl 7 pr ..	101⅝	101⅝	101⅝
1 Beth St 8 pr....	116	116	116
4 Booth Fish	8½	8½	8½
1 Booth F 1 pr ..	50	50	50
20 Briggs Mfg Co	34¼	33⅝	34
3 Br Emp Stl	3	2⅞	3
1 Br Em St 3 pr..	9⅜	9⅜	9⅜
4 Bkyn Edison ..	136	135	135
12 Bkyn Man Tr .	57⅜	57	57¼
2 Bkyn Man Tr pr	82⅝	82⅝	82⅝
5 Bkyn Un Gas .	77⅛	77¼	77¼
1 Br Shoe pr	109	109	109
4 Brown Shoe wi	46½	46¼	46½
1 Brun Balk Col.	28½	28⅛	28⅛
4 Burns Bros A.	37⅝	37⅛	37⅜
1 Burr Add Mch .	93	93	93
1 Bush Ter 7 deb	89½	89½	89½
10 Butte & S Cop.	15	14⅝	14⅝
5 Caddo Oil	⅝	⅝	⅝
33 Calif Pack	138⅝	136	137½
43 Cal Petrol	31⅞	31½	31⅞
1 Callahan Zc Ld	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝
1 Cal & Ariz	59	59	59
6 Can Pacific ...	148⅝	148½	148½
94 Case Thresh. ..	71⅛	70½	70½
4 Case Thresh pr	100	99	100
1 Cent Leather .	19⅛	19⅛	19⅛
2 Cent Leath pr.	64½	64	64½
1 Cent of N J ...	295	295	295
2 Cent Rib Mills.	30½	29¾	29¾
6 Cerro de Pasco	59¾	59	59⅛
2 Certainteed P.	46¾	46¼	46¾
6 Chandler Motor	46¾	46¼	46⅝
27 Ches & Ohio ..	131½	118¾	120
15 Ches & O pr..	120⅝	119¾	120⅝
4 Chi & Alton ..	8	7⅞	8
7 Chi & Alt pr ..	12¾	12¼	12¼
32 Chi Gt West ..	11⅜	11⅛	11⅛
35 Chi Gt W pr .	37⅞	36	37
12 Chic M&St P.	13	12½	12½
1 Chic M&St P ctf	12¼	12¼	12¼
33 C M&StP pr..	19½	19	19½
20 Chi & N West	75¾	75	75½
268 C R I & P	60¼	59	60
3 C R I P 6 pc pr	87½	87½	87½
1 C R I P 7 pc pr	99⅜	99⅜	99⅜
1 Childs Co	62⅛	62⅛	62⅛
23 Chile Copper .	34	33⅝	33⅝
241 Chrys Cp pr A	50⅝	48½	49½
3 Christie Brown.	59	58½	58½
1 C C C & St L..	106	106	106
1 Cluett Peabody	67	67	67
4 Coca Cola	150	149¼	149½
1 Colo Fu & Ir ..	35¼	35¼	35¼
3 Col & South	64¼	64	64⅜
96 Colum G & E .	87⅝	85½	87
7 Colum G&E pr.	114⅞	114½	114⅝
10 Col Carbonzd.	56⅝	56⅜	56½
13 Com Cred xd xr	37⅝	37¼	37⅜
79 Cono Credit rts	⅝	⅝	⅝
2 SCom Inv Tr pr	00	99½	100
2 Com Solv A ..	127	127⅝	127⅝
1 Com Solv B ..	123⅜	122½	123½
5 Cong Nairn ...	16⅞	16⅝	16⅝
30 Cons Cigar	61	60	60
6 Cons Cig rts...	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
2 Cons Distrib ..	4⅜	4⅜	4⅜
35 Cons Gas	98⅜	97½	97⅜
21 Cons Textile	3	3⅜	3⅜
25 Cont Can	86¼	85¾	86¼
1 Cont Ins	142¾	142¾	142¾
25 Cont Motors	12⅜	11⅞	12
37 Corn Prod	41¾	40⅜	40⅞
16 Coty Inc	58⅞	58⅝	59½
1 Crex Carpet ..	63	62	63
2 Cruci Stl pr ..	100	100	100
6 Cuba Can Sug.	9⅞	9½	9½
3 Cuba Can S pr.	44¼	43½	44½
4 Cuba Co The ..	47⅜	47	47
8 Cub Am Sug ..	26⅞	26¼	26¾
2 Cuba Am Su pr	99¾	99¾	99¾
3 Cub Dom Sug .	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛
2 Cudahy Pack ..	92	92	92
2 Cush Sons In...	95⅞	95⅝	95⅝
2 Cushman rights	95⅞	95⅝	95⅝
7 D Boone W M .	1	1	1
6 Davison Chem.	40⅝	40⅛	40⅜
13 Del & Hud	158⅛	157½	158⅛
10 Del L & W	147	147	147¾
1 D R G & W prof	43¼	43¼	43¼
5 Det Edison ..	13½	13⅛	13⅛
10 Dev & Rey A..	96¼	95¾	96
27 Dodge Bros A..	43¼	42¾	43⅛
3 Dodge Bros pr.	86	85¾	86
11 Dome Mines ..	16⅞	16⅝	16⅝
5 Doug Pectin	20	20	20
1 D S S & A pr..	8¼	8¼	8¼
34 DuP de N	224¼	220½	221½
4 East Kodak ..	109	108½	109
5 Eaton A & S ..	28	27¾	28
73 El P & L of ..	31⅜	30¾	31
7 El P & L pr of..	91½	91⅛	91½
1 El P&L 40 pr..	106¼	106¼	106¾
6 El St Bat	73⅜	73	73
6 Endicot John..	68¾	68¼	68¾
18 Erie R R	35¾	35	35
11 Erie 1 pr	43½	42¾	43⅜
2 Erie 2 pr	40	40	40
4 Eureka Vac Cl .	51½	50¾	50¾
7 Fairb Mor & Co.	54¾	54	54
2 Fam Play Las.	107¾	107¾	107¼
1 Fam Play Pr ..	117½	117½	117½
30 Fed Lt&Tract.	38	37	37¾
1 Fed Min & Sm.	103	103	103
6 Fed M&S pr...	96⅞	96¾	96⅝
8 Fifth Av Bus ..	18	17½	17¾
10 First Nat Cts .	41⅞	41	41
5 Fisher Body ..	98	97½	98
92 Fisk Rub	25⅝	24⅝	24⅝
6 Fisk Rub 1 pr .	118⅝	118½	118½
113 Fleischman Co	52½	52	52
182 Foundation Co	176¾	174¼	175½
1 Fox Film A	81	81	81
411 Freeport Texas	24⅞	23	23⅝
8 Gabriel Snub ..	38	37½	37⅞
4 Gardner Motor.	9	8¾	9
6 Gen Am Tank .	53¼	52½	53½
57 Gen Asphalt ..	69⅝	65	69⅝
38 Gen Electric ..	338	35	335¾
28 Gen Elec spl ..	11¼	11⅛	11⅜
420 Gen Motors ..	118⅜	117	118⅞
2 Gen Mot 7pc pr	114⅞	114½	114⅞
5 Gen G & E A .	57	56¼	56⅞
2 Gen Outd A A .	53⅞	52½	52⅝
27 Gen Out A cfs	31⅜	30	30
97 Gen Pet	56⅛	55⅝	56
5 Gen Ry Sig	104	104	104
2 Gimbel Bros ...	72⅝	72	72⅝
10 Glidden Co ...	24½	24	24⅜
26 Gold Dust	47⅜	46¼	47
15 Goodrich BF Co	63⅝	62	62
3 Gdyr T&R pr..	104¼	104	104⅜
1 Gdyr T&R p pr	105½	105½	105½
8 Gotham Hos ..	40⅛	39⅞	41
7 Gould Coup A .	20⅞	20⅜	20⅞
3 Granby Min	20⅛	20⅛	20⅛
22 Gt North pr	75⅝	74⅝	75
3 Gt Nor I Or P.	25⅝	25⅛	25⅛
8 Gt West Sug .	96⅝	96⅛	96⅜
7 Gulf M & N ..	33⅛	32	32⅜
2 Gulf M & N pr.	101⅝	101⅜	101⅜
16 Gulf Sts Steel .	89⅞	88½	88½
5 Hartman Corp .	34	33¾	34
10 Hayes Wheel ..	44½	44	44
1 Homestake	51	51	51
12 Household Pr ..	45	45⅝	45½
1 Houston Oil ..	68¼	68¼	68¼
73 Howe Sd Co ..	30⅞	30½	30½
23 Hud & Manh ..	37⅜	37	37⅛
3 Hud & Manh pr	73¾	72½	73
387 Hud Motors ..	111⅞	108⅜	109½
42 Hupp Motors .	26½	26¼	26½
13 Ill Cent	119⅞	118⅝	119⅜
54 Ind Oil & Gas.	27⅜	26	27⅛
1 Ind Motorcy ..	19¾	19¾	19¾
1 Ind Ref	11¾	11¾	11¾
5 Ind Ref ctfs ..	11½	11½	11½
Inger Rand	100	100	100
3 Inland Steel ..	42⅛	42⅛	42⅛
21 Insp Cop	24	24	24
16 I R T	27⅞	26	27
35 Int Ag Corp ..	23½	22	2 2
3 Int Bus Mch ..	140¾	140	140
1 Int Cement pr.	104⅝	104⅝	104⅝
188 Int Comb Eng.	56⅝	55⅞	56
23 Int Harv Co ..	128½	127	127⅝
3 Int Harv pr ...	119⅛	119⅛	119½
4 Int Mat Part p	57¼	56½	57
23 Int M M pr ...	40⅝	40	40¼
160 Int Nickel	43⅞	42¾	43
38 Int Paper	59⅝	57	58⅛
6 Int T & T	121¾	119½	121
2 Jewell eTa	27	26¾	26⅝
86 Jordan Mot ..	51	48¼	49⅝
17 Kan City Sou .	37¾	46½	47
1 Kan City S pr.	61⅞	61⅛	61⅞
1 Kans & Gulf ..	½	½	½
3 Kayser J & Co .	47	46¾	47
1 Kay J & Co pr	104	104	104
15 Kelly Spr	18⅛	17¾	17⅝
4 Kelsey Wheel .	112¾	112	113
86 Kennecott Cop.	56⅞	56⅛	56½
3 Keystone Tire ..	2	2	2
2 Kresge Dp Str .	30	30	30
1 Lee R & T ltd .	12⅞	12⅞	12⅞
39 Lee Rub rites .	⅜	⅜	⅜
2 Lehigh Valley .	83	83	82
3 Lehn & Fk Pr	38⅝	37¾	38¾
1 Lig & My Tob .	92	92	92
7 Lig & M Tob B	92½	92¼	92¾
2 Lig & My pr ..	118¾	118¾	119¾
3 Lima Loco	66¾	66¾	66½
13 Loew's Inc ...	39½	38½	38¾
1 Loft Candy .. .	7¼	7¼	7¼
2 Long B Lu A .	47½	47¼	47¼
1 Lose W Sufxd..	138¾	138¾	138¾
17 Lorillard Co P	86⅝	86½	86½
7 Louis O & R..	17⅞	17⅝	17½
9 Louis & Nash.	133½	133	133½
20 Louis G & E A	25¼	24¾	25
5 Ludlum Stel .	53	52⅛	52⅜
43 Mack Truck ..	148½	145⅝	146⅝
26 Mack Tk rts 4	7½	7	7⅜
6 Magma Cop ...	42	41½	41½
38 Manh El Sup .	66¼	64	65¾
6 Man Ry md gtd	40⅛	39⅛	39⅝
1 Manh Shirt .. .	31¾	31½	31½
6 Mara Oil Ex ..	25⅞	25	25⅜
2 Mkt St Ry pr p	42⅜	42⅜	42¼
6 Mkt St Ry 2 pr	16⅛	18⅛	16½
137 Marland Oil ..	56	55	55⅝
3 Marl Rockwell.	29½	28⅝	29½
2 Martin Parry .	20⅝	20⅜	20⅝
8 Mathie A W ..	93¾	93	93⅜
9 May Dept St ...	130¾	130	130Q
1 May D Strs pr.	124½	124½	124½
2 Maytag Co	22	21⅞	21⅞
6 McCr Strs B ..	116½	116	116
2 McInt Pore M .	23⅝	23½	23½
2 Metro Goldw pr	22½	22¼	22½
1 Mex Seab Oil .	10½	10¼	10¼
49 Miami Cop ...	12⅝	12	12
30 Mid Cont Pet .	34⅝	34¾	34⅝
6 Mid Sts Oil	1⅝	1⅝	1⅞
2 Minn & St L	3¼	3⅜	3¼
46 Mo K & T	42¾	41¾	41¾
2 Mo K & T pr ..	92¼	92	92
29 Mo Pacific	38⅞	38⅜	38½
13 Mo Pac pr	87⅞	87	87
63 Montana Pow.	82½	81½	82¾
33 Montg Ward .	77¼	75½	76¼
15 Mor Motors ..	33⅝	33⅜	33⅝
8 Mother Lode ..	7⅛	7	7⅛
12 Motion Pic Cop	20½	20½	20¾
5 Motor Meter A	40⅝	40⅜	40⅝
6 Motor Wheel ..	31⅞	31	31⅞
2 Mullins Body .	17¼	17	17
3 Munsingwear ..	36	35	35
122 Murray By Cp.	13½	12¾	12¾
5 Nash Motors ..	514	510½	510½
4 Nat Acme stpd	12¾	12¾	12¾
14 Nat Bis	76¾	75⅜	76
78 Nat Cash R A	50½	50⅛	50½
3 Nat Clk & Suit	54	54	54
8 Nat Dai Pr .. .	77¼	76⅞	76⅞
4 Nat Dept Strs .	41¾	41¾	41¾
3 Nat Dnst Prod	30	29½	29½
1 Nat Dist Pr pr	67¼	67¼	67¼
3 Nat En & St...	38½	36⅞	36¾
2 Nat Ry 2 pr ...	3½	3⅜	3⅜
11 Nat Supply ...	51	51	51
1 Nat Surety ...	222	222	222
1 N Or T & M ..	129⅞	129⅞	129⅞
3 N Y Air Br ..	39⅝	39¼	39¼
6 N Y Air Br A	56	55⅞	55⅞
24 N Y Canners .	78¼	77¾	77⅞
55 N Y Central ..	130⅝	129½	130
24 N Y Canners .	78¼	77⅝	77⅞
65 N Y Central ..	130⅝	129½	130
3 NY Ch & St L.	177	175	175
3 N Y C & St L pr	97	97	97
1 N Y Dock	35½	35½	35½
54 N Y N H & H.	43	42½	42½
2 N Y Ont&W ..	26⅝	26¼	26¼
1 Nag Falls P pr	28⅜	28⅜	28⅜
235 Nor & West ..	156¼	151⅝	156¼
1 Nor & W pr ..	85	8	85
103 North Amer ..	66⅞	65¼	66
2 North Am pf ..	50⅝	50¾	50½
2 No Am Edi pr.	92½	92¼	92¾
5 North Pac	73⅝	73½	73½
3 Norwalk T&R.	14⅞	13¾	14½
2 Nor T&R pr...	89	85⅞	89
5 Nunnally Co ..	17	17	17
36 Oil Well Supply	33⅛	31½	32⅞
1 Onyx Hois pr .	98	98	98
39 Oppen'm Collins	57	56½	57
1 Orpheum Circuit	30⅜	30⅜	30⅜
4 Otis Elevator .	125⅛	125⅛	125¼
20 Otis Steel pr .	98	96	96
1 Outlet Co	49¼	45¾	49⅝
2 Outlet Co pr ..	101¾	101⅛	101⅝
16 Owens Bottle .	64⅜	63	64⅛
4 Pac G & El ...	127⅛	127⅛	127⅛
51 Pacific Oil	76⅝	76¾	76⅝
33 Packard otor..	39⅝	39¼	39⅝
21 Paige D M Co.	26	25½	25⅞
5 Pan Am Pet ..	69⅝	69	69
67 Pan Am Pet B.	71⅞	69¾	70⅞
4 Pan Am West B	42¼	41⅜	42
3 Park Utah C M .8		7⅛	8¼
7 Pathe Exch	79⅞	77	79⅛
2 Penick & Ford	19	18⅞	18⅞
2 Penn C & Ln ..	16½	16¼	16½
42 Penn R R	53⅝	53¼	53⅛
37 Penn Seab Stl.	2	1⅞	2
1 Peop G Chi	118	118	118
1 Peoria & East.	25	25	25
4 Pere Marq	85½	85½	85½
18 Philadel Co ..	64½	63⅞	64
14 Ph Rdg C I Iron	42½	42	42
5 Philip Mor Co.	19	19	19
53 Phil Petro L.	44⅜	43¾	44
189 Pierce Ar	40¾	39¼	39¾
16 Pierce Ar pr ..	106⅞	103	106
2 Pierce Oil	1½	1½	1½
10 Pierce Petrol .	5⅝	5¼	5⅝
5 Pitts Coal . ..	40	39¾	40
1 Pitts St pr	96	96	96
1 Pitts Tm Coal .	61⅜	61¼	61½
4 Pitts Util pr .	15⅝	15⅜	15½
44 Postum Cereal	110⅜	109	109
14 Press St Car .	76¾	74½	76
3 Press Stl Car pr	91½	91½	91½
3 Prod & Ref	14½	14½	14½
1 Pub Sr El P pr	106	106	106
165 Public S N J .	89¾	87½	89
2 Pub Sh NJ pr..	105⅞	105⅝	105⅞
23 Pullman Co ...	171½	169½	170⅞
3 Punta Al Sg	43	41⅞	43
38 Pure Oil	29⅝	29¾	29¼
32 Radio Corp	44⅛	43⅜	43⅞
4 Rad Corp pr ..	42	42	42
1 Rail Stl Sp ...	169½	169½	169½
1 Rail St Sp pr..	120¾	120¼	120¾
1 Rand Mines ...	33¼	33¼	33½
20 Ray Cons Cop.	11⅞	11⅝	11⅞
16 Reading Co ...	86	85½	85¾
16 Read rts	20¾	20⅜	20⅝
3 Read 1 pr	40¾	40½	40⅝
4 Reil Ice Cream .	52	52	52
8 Reming Type ..	120	118⅞	120
1 Rem Ty 1 pr ..	106	106	106
4 Replogle Steel .	14⅞	14½	14½
13 Rep Ir & Stl ..	59⅞	58½	59
1 Rep Ir & St pr	94	94	94
4 Rey Spr	9	9	9
8 Reyns Tob B .	96½	96	96⅛
3 Rossie Ins Co ..	90¾	90½	90½
34 Royal Dut N Y	53¾	53¼	53⅛
18 Safety Cable ..	52⅝	52	52⅝
5 St Jos Lead	44	43⅝	44
17 St L & S F ...	97⅝	96¾	97⅝
1 St L & S F pr.	87	87	87
3 St L S'west ...	66⅜	65⅝	65⅝
10 savage Arms ..	89⅞	88⅝	89
26 Schulte R Strs	136⅞	135	135
13 Seab Air Line.	46	45½	45⅞
1 Seab A Line pr.	45⅞	45⅝	45⅝
1 Seagrave Corp	13⅞	13⅞	13⅞
8 Sears Roeb	228¼	226	227
2 Seneca Copper .	8⅝	8½	8⅝
4 Shattuck F G Co	65	63	63
27 Shell Un Oil ...	26¼	25⅞	26
3 Shubert Theat	56	56	56
2 Simms Co	53⅝	53⅜	53⅝
32 Simms Pet ...	25⅝	25⅝	25½
62 Sinclair C Oil	22	21⅝	21⅞
2 Sinc C Oil pr.	93¼	92½	92½
18 Skelly Oil	30⅜	30½	30⅝
27 Sloss Sh S & I	125	125	125
1 Sl Sh &I pr....	100⅝	100⅝	100½
27 oo Pac	101	100⅝	101
14 Southn Ry ..	114⅝	113⅜	114
5 Southn Ry pr .	80⅝	80¾	80¾
4 So P Ri Sug pr	118½	116⅜	118½
6 Spicer Mfgw ..	28¾	27½	27⅝
3 Spicer Mfg pr..	101¼	101¾	101½
189 Std Gas & El..	59⅞	58⅝	59½
2 Std Gas & El pr	56	56	56
19 Std Oil Cal ..	57⅞	57½	57⅞
50 Std Oil N J ...	44½	43¾	44
4 Std Oil N J pr.	117

CLOUDY FOLLOWED BY RAIN OR SNOW

Norwich Bulletin

1799 1926

NORWICH, CONN., TUESDAY, JAN. 19, 1926

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DESPATCHES

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Tuesday, Jan. 19, 1926

THE WEATHER

Conditions.

The disturbance that was over Arkansas Sunday night has advanced to the upper St. Lawrence with slightly increased intensity and a secondary which developed over the south Atlantic states is over southern New England, whence it will move northnortheastward with increasing intensity.

The lowest temperature reported tonight is 30 degrees below zero at Le Pas, Manitoba.

The outlook is for light snows in northern New England on Tuesday and for snows and rains over northern districts on Wednesday. Elsewhere the weather will be mostly fair in the states east of the Mississippi river Tuesday and Wednesday. It will be colder Tuesday night and Wednesday in New England.

Storm warnings are displayed on the Atlantic coast from Delaware breakwater, to Eastport, Maine.

Winds

North of Sandy Hook—Strong south and southwest, shifting to west and northwest, probably reaching gale force at times and weather overcast with rain over extreme north portion Tuesday.

Sandy Hook to Hatteras—Fresh to strong west and northwest and weather partly overcast Tuesday.

Forecast

Eastern New York: Partly cloudy and colder with snow flurries in north portion Tuesday; Wednesday increasing cloudiness followed by snow or rain.

Northern New England: Snow and colder Tuesday; much colder Tuesday night; Wednesday increasing cloudiness followed by snow or rain at night.

For southern New England: Partly cloudy and colder Tuesday; Wednesday, increasing cloudiness, followed by snow or rain in afternoon or at night.

Observations

The Bulletin's observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Monday:

7 a. m.	40	30.30
13 m.	50	29.50
6 p. m.	50	29.40

Highest 50, lowest 40.

Comparisons

Predictions for Monday: Rain.

Monday's weather: Foggy followed by rain, southerly wind.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES

Day	Sun Rises	Sun Sets	High Water	Moon Sets
	a. m.	p. m.	a. m.	p. m.
18	7.11	4.45	1.00	10.16
19	7.11	4.47	1.58	11.24
20	7.10	4.48	2.57	mor
21	7.09	4.49	3.58	0.29
22	7.09	4.51	4.59	1.34
23	7.08	4.52	5.58	2.37
24	7.07	4.53	6.53	3.38

Six hours after high water it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

GREENEVILLE

The Ladies' Mission circle of the Third Baptist church, held their regular monthly meeting with Mrs. James Spicer of Prospect Stret recently. The president, Mrs. Herbert I. Peckham was in charge of the devotional exercises and Mrs. Irving Larkin had charge of the program and had for her subject "The Indians." Interesting literature was read regarding the life of the Indians and of the missionary work which is being done in their behalf. Mrs. James Spicer read a very grateful letter from Mather school, Beaufort, South Carolina, thanking the society for a large barrel of clothing sent them in December. The reading contest was reported as coming along well and plans are underway for a missionary play to be given jointly by the Mission Circle and World Wide Guild some time in February. The next meeting is to be held in the chapel, and a supper will be served to the members and their friends.

The Community Workers held their January meeting with Mrs. John MacDougall of Park street. A large number of the members were present and the president, Mrs. Chas. F. Sears, presided. After the business session the women sewed on patch work provided by the work supervisor, Miss Nellie Hayes. A letter of thanks was read from a former member who now lives out of town, for a gift of five dollars, sent as a Christmas greeting from the workers, as there had been a great deal of sickness in her family. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Lucy MacDougall, at a very prettily decorated table, the colors being yellow and white. One new member was initiated into the Workers and a pleasant and profitable afternoon was spent. The December meeting was held with Mrs. Chas. F. Sears and a program appropriate to the Christmas season was carried out. After music and readings by the members they were invited to the dining room, where a miniature Christmas tree graced the centre of the table and dainty refreshments were served. Much enjoyment was caused by mystery packages, each of which contained a unique Christmas gift. A rising vote of thanks was given Mrs. Sears for the enjoyable afternoon spent. The February meeting is to be held with Mrs. George A. Howard of Central Ave.

The annual meeting of the Third Baptist church will be held next Thursday evening, when reports will be given by the different societies and committees and officers will be elected. The church is in a very prosperous condition at the present time and is being ably supplied by Rev. Chester L. Persing, a student at Yale divinity school.

The Girls' Friendly society, of St. Andrew's church held a very successful variety supper on Friday evening. A delectable menu consisting of salad, baked beans, relish, rolls, cake and coffee was served to a large number of patrons and a goodly sum will be added to the treasury.

The many friends of Mrs. Matilda Haisch will be pleased to know that she has returned to her home on Daniel street, aftering having spent the past two months at the Backus hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Ramage of Waterbury spent the week end with Mrs. John Ramage of Thirteenth street.

Mrs. William H. Sweet will be hostess on Thursday afternoon to the Ladies' Aid of the Third Baptist church.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 15c and 30c.

NORWICH TO TRY TO FILL BOX CAR WITH CLOTHING FOR NEAR EAST

A plea that the people of Norwich make every possible effort to help fill the car which on Friday, Jan. 22, will take old clothes from this section to the people of the Near East was made Monday night by Dr. John Evans, of this city, who has just returned from four years' service in the Caucasus.

"These old garments actually mean life to the refugees and orphans in the Near East," declared Dr. Evans, who has been in charge of the great area at Alexandropol in Russian Armenia where at first 35,000 children and now 10,000 are under the care of America. "Can you imagine a young girl," he said, "in such a winter climate as we have here going about in a bran sack with a cotton sheet about her shoulders? Can you picture talking to a group of people outside your door, blue with cold and shaking so that you can hardly understand them? Can you imagine your own youngsters going to school over the snow wearing just scraps of clothing? Try living with the furnace fire out for one day—continual living without a fire is the lot of many in the Near East. No matter what produced these conditions, without regard to race, class or creed the people are cold. Surely we can look through our trunks, our closets and see what we can spare to keep the people and little children warm."

Fire Chief Stanton volunteered to route the trucks which will pick up the old clothing in Norwich and surrounding towns from the various public and parochial schools and take it to the freight car which it is hoped this city and vicinity can fill. All clothing should be at the school houses by 1:30 on Friday, Jan. 22, it was stated by local members of the committee arranging the collection.

PARISH ROSARY SOCIETY PLANS WHIST FOR POOR

At a largely attended meeting of the Rosary society of St. Patrick's parish, held after vespers Sunday in the society's room in the chapel, the president, Miss Annie G. Stanton presided. In the absence of the chaplain, Rt. Rev. Msgr. M. H. May, who is in Florida, Rev. Myles P. Galvin addressed the society, warmly commending its charitable work during the year.

It was decided to hold a whist party early in February for the benefit of the parish's poor, meeting in the assembly hall. Mrs. John Fitzgerald was made chairman of the committee, the other members being Mrs. Jeremiah Lynch, Mrs. James J. Casey, Mrs. Charles F. Lee, Mrs. Daniel J. McGillicuddy, Mrs. Patrick Coleman, Mrs. John A. Moran, Mrs. Bernard M. Coyle, Mrs. Martha Wenzel, Mrs. Patrick O'Neill, Mrs. Margaret McCaffrey, Mrs. Nellie Murphy, Miss Catherine Connell and Mrs. Nellie O'Neill. Mrs. Frederick LaFontaine was made prize committee.

This was to have been the annual meeting of the society, but because of the absence of Monsignor May the election of officers was deferred until after his return.

RABBI FROM PALESTINE TO BE SPEAKER HERE

Rabbi Nathan Mileikofsky, rabbi of Safed, Palestine, is to address the Norwich Jews on January 31 at the Community house. Rabbi Mileikofsky who was formerly rabbi of Lodz, Poland, is one of the foremost Jewish scholars and one of the greatest Jewish orators. He visited the United States last spring for a short stay and while he was here the Zionist organization sent him to address about a dozen meetings in the eastern states. He soon had to return to Palestine, but the demand throughout the country became so insistent that the Zionist organization had to call him back here for a half year's stay. The Norwich Zionists have been trying to get him here since last November and he was to address the Norwich Jews on January 24th but on account of the local I. O. B. A. lodge which is to celebrate its 25th anniversary on the 24th this important meeting has been postponed to Sunday, January the 31st.

BERRY DEFENSE WILL HAVE MANY WITNESSES

In the criminal superior court in this city this (Tuesday) morning before Judge Allyn L. Brown, the trial will be continued in the case of Eugene J. Berry on the charge of second degree murder for having chloroformed his two little sons on Oct. 20, last, at their home at 324 Boswell avenue.

Testimony for the defense will be offered today (Tuesday) and it is understood that over twenty witnesses will be called upon by Berry's attorneys, Edward G. McKay and William H. Shields, Jr. A number of these will be character witnesses and others will be medical experts to support the claim of insanity that will be offered by the defense. It is expected that the trial will probably run over into Wednesday.

ENTERTAINED FOR THEIR GRANDCHILDREN'S BIRTHDAYS

Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Kingsley of School House hill, Yantic, entertained Sunday afternoon in honor of the birthdays this month of two of their little grandchildren, Jason H. and May Adelle Kingsley, who are seven and two, respectively. A fine turkey dinner with all the fixings was served. Mrs. Kingsley being assisted in serving by her daughter, Miss Marjory Kingsley. Musical selections were enjoyed during the afternoon. Those present included Miss Nellie Ahearn, Mr. and Mrs. Jason Kingsley and four children, Jason, Wesley, Kingsley and May of Franklin, John Curry of Willimantic, Miss Marjorie Kingsley, Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Kingsley and Frederick W. Kingsley.

NORWICH COLLEGE CLUB MET WITH MRS. SHENK

The January meeting of the American Association of University Women and the Norwich College club was held at the home of Mrs. Frederick Shenk at the state hospital Monday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. After a brief business session Mrs. Franklin S. Wilcox gave a most interesting account of her three months in Florida. Tea was served and a social hour was enjoyed.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine has been successful in the treatment of Catarrh for over forty years. Also as a Blood Purifier it gives wonderful results. All Druggists.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio

At the first sign of skin trouble apply

Resinol

Delay in the proper treatment of skin troubles is dangerous. Every day spent in trying unproved remedies may only let the disorder spread.

The value of Resinol Ointment is known! For thirty years it has been used as a soothing, healing remedy for the skin. If applied in time, it usually reduces the eruption promptly, but even in stubborn, long-standing cases it is surprising how quickly this gentle, yet effective ointment brings the desired results. At all druggists.

CONNECTICUT PASSES KENTUCKY ON EXPORTS

(Special to the Bulletin)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 18—By exporting products valued at $9,870,541, during the three months ended September 30, 1925, Connecticut forged ahead of Kentucky to rank twenty-first among all of the states in the value of their exports for that period, according to statistics made public today by the department of commerce. This figure represents a million dollar increase over the state's overseas shipments during the corresponding quarter of 1924, when they amounted to $8,819,147, and more than $500,000 over the total for the second three months of 1925—$9,328,194.

The total volume of shipments was largely due to the exports of iron and steel manufactures and machinery and vehicles. Of the former products, $2,588,679 worth was dispatched to foreign buyers, while machinery and vehicles valued at $2,572,413 were sent abroad from the state during the three months. Third place among Connecticut's exports was occupied by ruober and rubber manufacturers, with a valuation of $782,565. Copper, brass and bronze, with a combined value of $750,324 came next in importance, followed in order by: Textiles, amounting to $717,822; ammunition and fireworks, $532,024; clocks and watches, $284,851; and wood and paper, $217,677.

Total exports from the United States for the third quarter of 1925 amounted to $1,116,917,102. This is contrasted with $1,014,675,892 for the corresponding three-month period of 1924, an increase in the 1925 term of over $102,000,000. Lend with $1,069,915,075 for the second three months of 1925, reflecting an increase of more than $47,000,000, this latter difference representing somewhat seasonal fluctuations.

United States exports for the first nine months of 1925 showed an increase of $382,432,54 over the value of those for the first three-quarters of the preceding year as seen in the comparative totals of $3,437,077,073 and $3,054,644,269.

The first ten states in the order of their importance and the values of their foreign shipments for the third quarter of the year 1925, were: New York, $307,296,257; Texas, $134,422,573; Pennsylvania, $73,726,781; Illinois, $63,579,126; Michigan, $57,898,527; California, $57,864 086; Louisiana, $56,478,684; New Jersey, $54,327,461; Ohio, $39,647,750, and Minnesota, $30,753,459. Compared with the corresponding third quarter of 1924, Texas dropped from leading position to second place, exchanging with New York, Michigan jumped from eighth place to fifth, and Minnesota from eleventh to tenth, while California dropped from fifth place to sixth, New Jersey from sixth to eighth and Massachusetts from tenth to eleventh place. Pennsylvania, Illinois, Louisiana, and Ohio retained their third, fourth, seven and ninth places, respectively.

In releasing these quarterly statistics, Dr. Julius Klein, director of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, under whose charge they are compiled, again calls attention to the fact that the figures are based primarily on through-bills-of-lading, and, therefore, in the case of some states reflects but a part of their total foreign trade and for others includes goods produced elsewhere.

AGREEMENTS APPROVED FOR WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION

Workmen's compensation agreements as follows have been approved by Commissioner J. J. Donohue and filed at the office of the clerk of the superior court:

James C. Adams, Norwich, employer, and John Adams, South Windham, employe, bones in wrist dislocated, Nov. 23, at rate of $12.50.

Atwood Machine Co., Stonington, employer, and Charles Souza, employe, finger cut, at rate of $21.06.

Go Gas Company, Norwich, employer, and Frank Blinderman, 19 West Main street, employe, sprained wrist, Dec. 6, at rate of $21.

Amos D. Bridges Sons, Inc., Yantic, employer and Campbell White, Springfield, Mass., right ankle dislocated and leg bruised, Dec. 11, at rate of $10.50.

Columbia Leather Goods Co., New London, employer, and James Foullse, employe, finger lacerated. Dec. 19, at rate of $6.00.

Aspinook Co., Jewett City, employer, and William Rall, employe, thumb dislocated, Dec. 24, at rate of $10.26.

Norwich Plumbing Supply House, employer, and Andrew Stankowitz, White St., employe, lacerated scalp, Sept. 11, at rate of $14.

Ponemah Mills Co., Taftville, employer, and John Bellone, 141 Chestnut street, employe, finger cut, Dec. 23, at rate of $21.

Babcock Printing Press Mfg. Co., New London, employer, and Bernard Quigley, employe, foreign body in left eye, Oct. 23, at rate of $10.36.

New England Collapsible Tube Co., employer, and John Librizzi, employe, crushed index finger, Dec. 22, at rate of $7.23.

APPEAL FROM PROBATE IN COTTRELL ESTATE

Appeal by Leone Baile Cottrell, widow of Edgar H. Cottrell of Pawcatuck whose death occurred March 7, 1922, a former president of the printing press works of the C. B. Cottrell and Sons Co., has been made through her attorney, Charles L. Smiddy of New London, from the decisions of the Stonington probate court, Frank H. Hinkley, judge, in the estate of Edgar H. Cottrell. This estate has been the subject of much litigation in New London county courts and the records in the probate court of Stonington are of some length. Recent sessions of Stonington probate court when Cottrel estate matters have been considered were Oct. 19th when Attorney Charles B. Whittlesey of New London appeared for Mrs. Cottrell and on Dec. 1, 1925, when certain charges of administrators and Attorney Herbert W. Rathbun, representing the estate, were disallowed and smaller amounts entered. The appeal now on file with probate court clerk Elias B. Hinckley in Stonington borough is set down to be taken up at the session of New London county superior court for civil business at New London on the first Tuesday in next February.

GOVERNMENT WARNS OF NEW COUNTERFEITS

Discovery of new counterfeits has been noted by the treasury department, and warnings issued concerning them. A new counterfeit $5 United States note, series 1907, has been detected, bearing the check letter "A." The face of the plate number is indistinct but looks like 126; W. S. Elliott, register of the treasury; Frank White, treasurer of the United States; portrait of Jackson. The counterfeit should be readily detected owing to the poor workmanship displayed.

The second counterfeit is that of a $20 federal reserve note on the Federal Reserve bank of Cleveland, Ohio, series of 1914. The check letter is "C", and the face of the plate 164; back plate 915; A. W. Mellon, secretary of the treasury; Frank White, treasurer of the United States; portrait of Cleveland. This counterfeit is fairly well made, apparently printed from lithographic plates on a single piece of paper, red ink lines being used to imitate the silk fiber of the genuine. The fine lines of the lathework of this bill, both face and back, are not clearly defined, and in places the designs appear in solid color. The number at hand is D-24904691A, and the department warns that care should be taken in handling this bill.

EDITORIAL ASSOCIATION IS TO MEET IN NEW HAVEN

The thirty-eighth annual meeting of the Connecticut Editorial association, for the election of officers, the hearing of reports for the past year, is called for 3 p. m., Saturday, January 23, at the Hotel Taft, New Haven.

No formal program, other than business, has been planned for the afternoon, but there doubtless will be opportunity for discussion of matters of interest to the members. The officers hope for a substantial attendance of those who have the welfare of the association at heart.

The annual dinner will be at 6:30 in the hotel. The speakers are Wilson H. Lee of New Haven and the Rev. George B. Gilbert of Middletown. Mr. Lee, who is an honorary member of the association and well known to the members, has been one of the pioneers in an important all-New England movement started in the past year, and will speak on "Co-operative New England." He will be heard with pleasure and interest. Mr. Gilbert is known throughout the state as a community leader, a rural uplifter, an apostle of sane Christianity, and a speaker of rare wit and charm. His subject will be "Happy Hilltops of Connecticut."

NINE AUTOMOBILE DRIVERS SLATED FOR HEARINGS

Nine automobile drivers are to be given hearings in New London next Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the court house. The following are on the list, the first six from New London: John Bartolucci, 26 East street, speeding; John A. Heikel, Norwood avenue, evading responsibility; Rudolph Gulbe, 33 Mill street; Morris D. Cohn, Y. M. C. A., unregistered car; Gino Montali, 230 Shaw street, conference; John Connors, 21 Berkeley avenue, conference; Harold F. Lewis, Groton, evading responsibility; Joseph F. Flannery, Flanders, operating under the influence; Joseph A. Morse of Norwich, unregistered car.

RETURNING WITH DAUGHTER TO SOUTH AMERICA

Mrs. Osvaldo Repetto, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rush, of 109 West Thames street, is leaving for her home in Buenos Aires, Jan. 30th, on the S. S. Southern Cross, Munson Steamship line. Mrs. Rush will accompany her daughter, planning to remain in South America several months.

The Southern Cross reaches Rio de Janiero in time for the mardi gras. Other cities that will be visited are Santos, Sao Paolo and Montevideo.

Wins Harvard Medical Scholarship

The Medical School of Harvard university recently announced the award of the John Thomason Taylor scholarship of $300 to John B. Sears, of the third year class. Mr. Sears, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sears, of Ward street, won the John Foster scholarship during his second year, and is the brother of Lewis Sears, who is a member of the first year class of the same medical school.

LESTER & WASLEY CO. HAS ANNUAL MEETING

At the annual meeting of The Lester & Wasley Company Monday morning at the company's plant on Franklin street, directors were re-elected for the ensuing year, and at the meeting of the directors no change was made in the officers of the company.

Attended Jewish Campaign Conference

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Gilman and Mrs. George Gilman, all of Bozrahville, were in New Haven Sunday attending the state meeting under the auspices of the United Jewish campaign.

Death of Mr. Forschler's Mother

Mr. and Mrs. Walter U. Forschler, of Rockwell stret, were called to Rochester, Friday, on account of the serious illness of Mr. Forschler's mother, who passed away Sunday morning at her home on Mt. Vernon stret, in Rochester.

Sparks Caused Fire Call

At 2:54 o'clock Monday afternoon, the fire department was called out by telephone for a supposed fire at the so-called Cadillac hall, No. 30 Market street. Someone passing by, saw sparks coming from the chimney and thinking there was a chimney fire sent in the call. It developed that the janitor was lighting a fire in the furnace to heat the hall for the evening and threw a quantity of paper into the furnace which caused the sparks to fly from the chimney.

Delegates to Jewish Campaign Meeting

Among the delegates from Norwich at New Haven on Sunday to attend the state meeting of the United Jewish campaign were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Polsky, Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Land, Mr. and Mrs. Elkin Smith, J. Greenstein.

Those from New London included Nestor Dreyfus, Benjamin Kaplan, John Baritz, Julius Sheriff, E. Spitz.

Prompted At Shippee Reception

Gustave Czikowsky, of Taftville, who is known as the Pachaug prompter was one of those who prompted at the reception given last week at the Plainfield Community house, to Uncle Joe Shippee, New Englands champion fiddler.

The Geo. W. Kies Co.

60th ANNUAL SALE

SPECIAL ALL THIS WEEK

MEN'S 4-BUCKLE ARCTICS $3.95	LADIES' 4-BUCKLE ARCTICS $3.75	MISSES' 4-BUCKLE ARCTICS $2.95
MEN'S 4-BUCKLE GRAY SOLE $3.95	BOYS' 4-BUCKLE ARCTICS $2.95	YOUTHS' 4-BUCKLE ARCTICS $2.85

ALL ARCTICS FIRST QUALITY

PRICES FOR THIS WEEK ONLY

MEN'S HEYWOOD SHOES—Odd Lot $1.95	LADIES' QUALITY SHOES—Hi Lace $1.00	YOUTHS' SHOES Sizes 10 ot 2 $1.00
LADIES' PUMPS—OXFORDS—Queen Quality $1.95	CHILDREN'S SHOES Sizes 6 to 13 $1.00	LADIES' WOOL HOSE 95c
MEN'S HEYWOOD SHOES—High and Low Value $9.00 and $10.00 SALE PRICE $6.45	LADIES' QUEEN QUALITY OSTEO TARSAL OXFORDS. Value $10.00 SALE PRICE $6.45	LADIES' GROVER OXFORDS Value $8.50 SALE PRICE $4.95

20% Discount on all other shoes in stock

The Geo. W. Kies Co.

NORWICH, CONN.

CASH SALES NO EXCHANGES

NORWICH TOWN

At the home of Miss Mary E. Bacheler and Thomas H. Bacheler, of East Town street, an excellent chicken dinner was served Saturday noon in recognition of the ninetieth birthday of Mrs. Clementine Lane, a member of the household.

Mrs. Lane who has resided at the Bacheler home for the past twenty years was most happy on the anniversary, as her three nearest relatives came to Norwich Town, especially to be with her, and with others make the day a joyous one for her. These included her niece, Mrs. Emma Lange; her great-niece, Mrs. Gertrude Freer; nad her great-great niece, little Miss Clementine Freer, all of New Jersey.

Throughout the day, Mrs. Lane received many callers, and many sent cards and congratulatory messages.

Among the callers were several members of the First Congregational parish. In behalf of the Drop-in class of the Sunday school, Mrs. Charles P. Learned presented Mrs. Lane a large bouget of handsome carnations with a letter attached, bearing loving messages and signed by every member of the class in attendance at its last meeting. Among other gifts were several birthday cakes, choice candy and fruit, as well as flowers from other friends. Mrs. Lane was born in New Jersey, January 16th, 1836.

Ever Ready circle of the King's Daughters is to hold a meeting this (Tuesday) evening, at the home of Mrs. Philip B. Whaley of Mediterranean Lane.

"Benevolent Retribution," was the theme of the sermon at the Sunday morning worship at the First Congregational church. The pastor, Rev. Gurdon P. Bailey chose for his text, the third chapter of Genesis, eighteenth and part of the nineteenth verses. Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field. In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground. Regarding retributions, it is intended to reform and put a person back to where he was before. It is the object of the laws of God and the civil laws to accomplish this.

The January business meeting of the Young People's Christian Endeavor society was held at the Sunday evening service. Among the reports read was that of the Lookout committee, of which Burton Jopson is chairman, in the report which was read by Mrs. Jopson, mention was made that Miss Louise Hyde, a faithful member of the society since its organization, had requested that she be released from membership, she having previously resigned because of other duties that occupied so much of her time and much to the disappointment of the society. Miss Hyde always loyal in all things pertaining to the society's interests, was the one and only charter member at the time of her retirement. Her inspiring messages have been most helpful to the other members, and the society feels at loss, in complying with her request.

The topic for the meeting Sunday evening was, Great Ideas That Have Spurred People to Action. Isaiah 5, 6:1-8; II Samuel 7:1-3. There was an attendance of twenty-four. Irving Manning was leader. Four new members were received into the society, Miss Ayers, Miss Ruth Sterry, Kenneth Gimbel and Chauncy Chapman.

The retiring worthy master, of Norwich grange, No. 172, Arthur Avery, of West Town street, returned the latter part of the week, after several days' stay in Hartford, where he attended the three days' session of the state grange.

Following two weeks' stay at Backus hospital, where he underwent a surgical operation, Martin Durr has returned to his home on Lathrop avenue.

Mrs. George M. Long of Long Branch, N. J., who was the guest over Friday night at the Bacheler home on East Town street has returned.

Other guests who remained over the week end, were Mrs. Emma Lange, her daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Freer and grand-daughter little Miss Clementine Freer, of New Jersey, who were motor guests of Mrs. Lange en route to Norwich Town, Friday last.

Following a serious illness of four weeks, for the past two having received special treatment at Backus hospital, Mrs. George Fraser has returned to her home on Lafayette street. Although greatly improved, Mrs. Fraser is still under the care of a physician.

At the First Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning, the pastor, Rev. James B. Aldrich preached from Ecclesiates 9:10, Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device nor knowledge nor wisdom, in the grave whither thou goest. For his evening sermon, Rev. Mr. Aldrich spoke from the third chapter of John, chiefly upon The Life of Nicodemus. Miss Theodora Brown was in charge of the Young People's Christian Endeavor service preceding the evening sermon. The topic was Great Ideas That Have Spurred People to Action.

Ralph H. Marsh and Miss Jessie E. Hyde, members of the Norwich Town Congregational Christian Endeavor society, together with Howard Bushnell of Occum and Miss Elizabeth Houston of Taftville, comprising members of the Lookout committee of Norwich C. E. union, of which Miss Hyde is chairman, paid a surprise visit to the C. E. society of the First Congregational church of Griswold.

TAFTVILLE

Post Office hill was a nemesis for motorists all day Monday. Covered with a thin coating of glare ice, automobiles without chains, and some with them had a dangerous time getting up and down the grade. Early in the morning a big truck turned around several times before it reached the bottom. At 8 o'clock a closed car driven by a woman and having two women passengers skidded near the top of the hill, turned completely around and crashed into the curb on the left side of the street. With the help of several bystanders the car was pushed back to the top of the hill with much difficulty, where it was outfitted with chains. All day long cars slid around the street, and at noon a heavily loaded truck going up the hill almost reached the top when it slid all the way back to Norwich avenue.

Arthur Belisle of South A street has resigned his position with the weaving department o Ponemah mills.

Every man and woman

Should

Enjoy Life

Have Good Appetite

Be Attractive

But

Perfect Digestion and thorough elimination is necessary

TAKE

Beecham's Pills

THE NATION'S LAXATIVE

Norwich Bulletin

VOL. LXVIII—No. 17. POPULATION 29,865 NORWICH, CONN., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 20, 1926. TWELVE PAGES—82 COLUMNS PRICE TWO CENTS

COAL STRIKE A BOMERANG FOR ANTHRACITE REGIONS

Miners in the Small Towns Are Suffering Privation, While the Merchants Are Threatened With Bankruptcy—Two Hotels in Wilkesbarre Have Closed Their Dining Rooms, as Traveling Men Have Ceased to Enter the Anthracite Fields—Clothing Merchants Report a Virtual Cessation of Buying—Street Car Employes, Railroad Workers, Store Clerks and Waiters Have Been Thrown Out of Work.

SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 19—(AP)—The dark spectres, privation and bankruptcy, are walking through the hard coal fields as the miners tighten their belts and the merchants reinventory their wares for an indefinite prolongation of the anthracite strike.

Although keenly feeling the pinch of need, the miners at their mass meetings in the last three days voted unanimously to continue the strike, now in its fifth month, rather than accept arbitration of what shall go into a new wage contract.

The merchants, some of them already faced with bankruptcy, are carrying on because they have no alternative. Tied by circumstances to dependence on the same industry, there appeared to be little lack of sympathy between the two classes in their present adversity.

Inquiry of the miners' sentiment at the mass meetings revealed that the workers feel that merchants, business and professional men of the region have failed properly to support the miners in the strike.

They feel that the merchants by their telegrams urging acceptance of arbitration have weakened the striking cause at the conference table and thus helped to prolong the struggle. They feel that, as the merchants, clergy and professional men of the region depend upon the wages earned by the miners for their actual prosperity, these elements should have stood squarely behind the strikers in their demand for an increase in wages.

Inquiry among merchants and business men of Scranton and Wilkesbarre showed that these people, hit by the collapse of the buying power of the region, are anxious only for a resumption of work and a return to normal conditions. They censure both the miners and the operators, for what one merchant described as "this perpetual state of uncertainty in this region of a single industry."

Two hotels of Wilkes-Barre have closed their dining rooms for the period of the strike. Stores and hotels report traveling men have almost ceased to come to the anthracite fields, thus eliminating a considerable transient trade.

Clothing merchants report a virtual cessation of buying. Drug stores are making few sales, even of those preparations and medicines considered as necessities in the home.

Nearly added day of idleness at the mines increases the unemployment in other industries and subtracts from the region's buying power. Hundreds of street car employes, railroad workers, store clerks, waiters and others who depend upon the mines for prosperity and their jobs have joined the miners in enforced idleness.

CHILDREN ARE HUNGRY AS RESULT OF STRIKE

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Jan. 19—(AP)—Hunger and distress, as a result of the anthracite strike, now in its fifth month, probably are more widespread in this vicinity than any other section of the hard coal belt.

Nearly 3,000 persons have received aid from the Chamber of Commerce relief station, recently established here, and the Salvation Army supplies noonday meals to scores of hungry children, and other welfare organizations are feeding hundreds of children and adults affected by the suspension.

So great was the demand for food at the relief station here today that a crowd of 100 persons stormed the doors of the building occupied until recently, by a bank. Five hundred families have already appealed for help. Four hundred of them are being cared for, with the number growing.

BILLS IN PENN. ASSEMBLY DEALING WITH COAL INDUSTRY

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 19—(AP)—Action on all measures affecting an thracite mining and the present coal strike was held up by the Pennsylvania general assembly today when it sent to committee bills dealing with the industry and resolutions proposing various forms of governmental intervention to end the suspension.

At the same time the house committee on mines and mining to which the resolutions were sent and which now has in charge administration measures to control and regulate the industry, announced a public meeting for ten a. m. tomorrow to consider everything before it.

In the senate a bill by Senator Woodward proposing repeal of the two-year experience section of the miners' certificate law was given second reading and sent to the committee on mines for a public hearing January 27. In the house a similar measure, introduced last night, together with a bill by Rep. Stavitski, a United Mine Worker, from a Luserne county district, proposing stricter provisions in the same law, went to committee for consideration with the administration bills tomorrow.

Three resolutions dealing with the strike also went to the house committee. Two of these were put in last night, and the third, sponsored by Rep. Franklin E. Edmonds, Philadelphia, was presented today.

Representative Edmonds' resolution opposed any hasty action and had as its purpose, a move to bring about a resumption of negotiations and in case of failure to agree to mediation or arbitration to settle the dispute. One of the other resolutions proposed a presidential commission to investigate the industry and make an award that would be binding on miners and operators. The third provides for a state commission of six legislators and three members to be named by the governor to call miners and operators together again.

SENATORS DO LITTLE BUT ENGAGE IN PERSONALITIES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19—(AP)—The senate was entertained today with a world court oratorical skit on the subject of southern democrats and their strange bedfellows.

Attacking Senator Blease, democrat, South Carolina, who is opposing the court, Senator Heflin, democrat, Alabama, said he had been "utterly astounded at this senator who claims to be a democrat from South Carolina when he eulogized Henry Cabot Lodge who introduced the force bill that would have permitted negroes, drunk with freedom and influenced by carpet-baggers and scalawags, to overthrow the civilization of the south."

Senator Blease was absent, but a little later Senator Reed, democrat, Missouri, came back at Senator Heflin with this one:

"One of the strangest sounds ever heard in this chamber of strange sounds was the voice of the senator of Alabama declaring that Calvin Coolidge had said certain things and that therefore they must be true."

AMUNDSEN VISITED COOK IN FEDERAL PENITENTIARY

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., Jan. 19—(AP)—Recalling the days when together they fought ice packs in the polar wastes, Captain Roald Amundsen today visited Dr. Frederick A. Cook in federal penitentiary here. Dr. Cook, who claimed to have discovered the north pole, is serving a 14 year sentence for using the mails to defraud.

The two arctic explorers spent three quarters of an hour together. Captain Amundsen telling Dr. Cook of his recent airplane dash for the north pole, and renewing the old friendship.

Dr. Cook and Captain Amundsen were companions two years. Amundsen was mate of the Belgian antarctic expedition in 1897-99. Doctor Cook was the ship's surgeon. On their return, both were decorated by the Belgian king.

Captain Amundsen gave no inkling that he knew of the tragedy in his friend's life and when he arose to go clasped in his rugged hand the hand of a friend which already is beginning to be touched by the prison pallor. Amundsen promised to come back and see him again if he returned alive from his next polar expedition.

FLOORS OF BREWERY WERE COVERED WITH RUBBER

NEW YORK, Jan. 19—(AP)—Prohibition agents raiding a brewery in Brooklyn today found the floors of the building covered with rubber to make them resilient, and the walls painted with phosphorescent paint to permit search at night without attracting attention. Alleged beer seized at $35,000 was seized in the raid.

GILPATRIC MADE NIGHT VISITS TO TREASURY DEP'T

HARTFORD, Jan. 19—(AP)—Visits to the state treasury department at night by Former State Treasurer G. Harold Gilpatric, were recalled today by Patrick J. Callahan, of 16 Hungerford street, retired capitol watchman, who patrolled the state house during the entire time the Putnam bank defaulter was a state official.

Gilpatric, according to Callahan, had a key to the front door of the capitol, and he remembers having come upon him in the state treasury on different occasions while making his rounds of the building. The treasurer was usually accompanied on these trips by a well dressed young man of about Gilpatric's stature, Callahan said, and Gilpatric invariably carried a large brief case. What the men did in the treasury department after office hours the veteran watchman made no effort to notice at the time, Gilpatric always greeted him cheerily, he said, and Callahan, with his lantern, was on his way to ring up his next box after passing a few pleasantries.

MEETING OF CONNECTICUT DAIRYMEN'S ASSOCIATION

HARTFORD, Jan. 19—(AP)—"In taking the wild cow from the prairie and making her into the wonderful piece of machinery she now is, dairymen have done the most artistic piece of work the world has seen," Hugh G. Van Pelt, of Waterloo, Ia., told members of the Connecticut Dairymen's association, during a talk on 'selection and development of the dairy herd" at the forty-fifth annual convention of the association here today. "Artists are rewarded with fame for their work with paints and brushes on canvas and some day the world will reward those men who have created the most efficient machine known, which is vitally essential to the perpetuation of the human race," he said. He also outlined qualifications of a good dairy co and urged good care of them, "the hardest worked animal of the farm." Officers will be elected tomorrow.

WOMAN SUICIDE JUMPED INTO CONNECTICUT RIVER

MIDDLETOWN, Jan. 19—(AP)—Jumping from the dock of the Standard Oil company here into the Connecticut river this afternoon, Mrs. Winifred Conroy, 37, of 7 Frissell place, South Farms, was drowned. Several school children who saw the woman leap from the dock summoned employes of the oil company, one of whom recovered the body which was buoyed on the surface by clothing.

Mrs. Conroy had been in ill-health for several months. Separated from her husband, Joseph Conroy, she had been living with an unmarried sister whom she told shortly bfeore her death that she was going to visit another sister.

CABLED PARAGRAPHS

Anglo-Italian Debt

LONDON, Jan. 19—(AP)—A non-committal official communique on the progress of the Anglo-Italian debt negotiations was issued at the close of today's conference. It was announced that Winston Churchill, British chancellor of the exchequer, Count Volpi, the Italian minister of finance, and their experts had considered the fundamental points at issue and made considerable progress. The two ministers will resume their discussions Friday.

CARDINAL MERCIER IS SINKING SLOWLY

BRUSSELS, Jan. 19—Cardinal Mercier is sinking slowly, but with the end not yet imminent. He is devoting what apparently are the last hours of a great life to furthering the cause of the union of churches at which he has been working ever since the war.

Gently declining to yield to the doctors' entreaties, the cardinal spent a goodly portion of the afternoon discussing the prospect with Abbe Portal, missionary priest of Paris, who took part in the famous "Malines conversations" between Catholic and Anglican church ecclesiastics in May 1925.

Other visitors were also received today, among them Baron Beyens, Belgian ambassador to the vatican, although the patient has been able to take no nourishment since yesterday and his weakness was becoming more marked.

When not sleeping, the cardinal prays and reflects. The faithful monk Brother Hubert, who watches by the bedside night and day, says that the cardinal is meditating on Christ's suffering and is happy in the feeling that he is joining in those ordeals. The mother superior in charge of the clinic pressed a cup of bouillon upon the prelate, but he returned it, thanking her, and saying that he wished first to finish the rosary.

Union of the Church of England and the Church of Rome was advocated in resolutions at the Lambeth conference in 1920. The archbishop of Canterbury in a Christmas letter in 1923, to dignitaries of the Angelican communion, disclosed that private conversations had been held at Malines, Belgium, initiated by Cardinal Mercier and a few Angelicans.

Cardinal Mercier, when questioned about the matter refused to discuss it, fearing that public discussion might impede the progress of the negotiations.

The Vatican announced it was not consulted and referred to precedents holding that the Catholic church desires nothing more than a union.

The negotiations were resumed at Malines in May, 1925. The meeting lasted five days and the conclusions were not made public. Cardinal Mercier, who presided, left for Rome to report to Pope Pius and the Anglicans returned to England to report to the archbishop of Canterbury.

MILITARY SURVEY OF THE AIRCRAFT SITUATION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19—(AP)—The house military committee began a new survey of the aircraft situation today, and at the same time the war department made public an outline of legislation it considers necessary to carry out recommendations of the president's air board.

The committee took up first the Hill bill to supplant the war and navy departments with a department of national defense in which under secretaries would have charge of war, navy and air divisions.

Colonel William Mitchell, under court martial sentence because of his attacks on the air service administrations, attended the hearing, and was asked by the committee whether he would be willing to testify and whether the war department would give him permission. He replied that he was still on duty in Washington, would be glad to appear and was sure the department would offer no objection.

Chairman Morin said if the Colonel appeared voluntarily, it would be up to him to obtain the consent of the department, but if the committee subpoenaed him, it would request authorization.

TOLEDO IS AROUSED BY AN ASSAILANT OF WOMEN

TOLEDO, Ohio, Jan. 9—(AP)—Toledo armed itself today against recurrence of a terror that has preyed upon the city for eight months while police sought the slayer of Miss Mary Handley, who was found beaten to death early today in a back yard adjacent to her home.

The scene of the slaying is the center of the district in which three women have been killed and four injured by a clubber since last May.

While Safety Director Hill made the murder the basis for a plea for 25 additional policemen, detectives expressed the opinion the attacker of Miss Handley was hiding behind the identity of the slayer of the other Toledo woman by imitating his methods.

Miss Handley was the divorced wife of Thomas Kelly, a contractor, and had been living with her two brothers for some time. She had been absent from her home for two days when her body was found.

The Handley brothers told police of a man discovered peeping in the windows of their home Monday night. They made no effort to apprehend him, they said.

EUROPE AND ASIA TO DEVELOP OIL INDUSTRY

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Jan. 19—(AP)—Europe and Asia are about to undergo a development in the oil industry comparable with the phenomenal strides made in America, leaders of the industry in America declared here today at the opening of the American Petroleum Institute convention.

The key to the great European and Asian expansion in oil rests, institute officials said, upon the automobile trade.

Many of the oil executives here have just returned from abroad and expressed opinion that the dawn of world expansion is near.

Approximately two thousand leaders in oil activities in the United States are here.

Vacancies on the board of directors were filled at the afternoon session.

ESTIMATE $22,900,000 GOV'T AID FOR ROAD PROJECTS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19—(AP)—Supplemental estimates of $22,900,000 for the government's share in federal aid road projects and $3,775,000 for construction of forest roads were sent to the house yesterday by President Coolidge. The larger amount is to reimburse states that have participated in the projects.

Luther Names New German Cabinet

Taken After President Hindenburg Had Rebuked Several Reichstag Leaders.

BERLIN, Jan. 19—(AP)—A straightforward political lecture by President von Hindenburg to half a dozen of the Reichstag leaders on the subject of patriotic duty was responsible for bringing the parliamentary crisis, which has been running wild for six weeks, to a dramatic conclusion tonight.

Impatient over the protracted exhibition of partisan politics and political barter, as well as his failure to bring about a government coalition a basis which would include the socialists, the president summoned the leaders of the middle parties to the executive mansion and told them plainly that the interests of the fatherland urgently demanded the re-establishment of a duly authorized ministry, failing which the nation's economic and social interests would be gravely menaced.

The deputies listened to the presidential admonition with an outward display of decorum and were then escorted by Dr. Luther to the chancellery, where a list of cabinet members was drafted by the chancellor and submitted with the request that it be ratified by ten o'clock.

Eventually the ministry was constituted as follows:—

Chancellor—Dr. Hans Luther.
Foreign minister—Gustave Stresemann.
Interior—Wilhelm Kuelts (democrat).
Finance—Peter Reinhold (democrat).
Economics—Julius Curtius (German Peoples' Party).
Labor—Heinrich Brauns (centeist).
Justice—Dr. Wilhelm Marx (centeist).
Defense—Dr. Otto Gessler (non-partisan).
Post and Telegraphs—Karl Stingl, (Bavarian Peoples).
Transports—Dr. R. Krohne (German Peoples).

The portfolios of agriculture and occupied areas will be temporarily taken over by the other members of the cabinet.

Excepting the democrats, the proposed ministers were approved by the centrists, the German Peoples' party and the Bavarian Peoples party. The democrats, still chafing under the humiliation imposed upon them by the Bavarians through the rejection of their leader, Dr. Erich Koch as nominee for the ministry of interior, requested time for further deliberation. After a heated party caucus, they, too, fell in line, thus enabling the chancellor to inform President von Hindenburg of the formal acceptance of his ministerial slate.

The new ministry has the parliamentary backing of the four middle parties, but does not command a working majority in the Reichstag.

NEGOTIATIONS FOR WORLD COURT VOTE IN SENATE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9—(AP)—Laying aside the plan to invoke the rule under which the senate debate on the world court would be limited, proponents of American membership in that tribunal opened negotiations today with the opposition looking to an agreement for a date on which a vote may be had.

Leaders on both sides said the discussions still were in the preliminary stages. Protagonists expressed the hope, however, that an agreement could be reached so that it would be unnecessary to undertake enforcement of the cloture rule.

One difference of opinion developed between the two sides in the fight is whether the date for a vote shall be fixed before or after the tax reduction bill is taken up. Some of the opposition forces want the date put off until after the revenue measure is passed, so that free discussion can be assured.

Negotiations for an agreement were inaugurated after the opposition had brought forward two of their biggest guns, Senators Johnson, republican, California, and Reed, democrat, Missouri, both vigorously assailed the court before crowded galleries.

POKER GAME IN THE CITY COUNCIL CHAMBER IN BOSTON

BOSTON, Jan. 19—(AP)—Discovery of a poker game in the city council chamber of the city hall has led to the installation of new locks on all rooms on the fourth floor of the building, it became known today. The new city council president, Charles G. Keen, ordered the new locks after finding a group of men, none of whom he said he knew, engaged in a stiff game in his office.

"I am no prude," he declared, "but I believe the city hall is for the purpose of transacting the city's business. I do not believe that when the members of the council retire to their rooms they should find them occupied by strangers and non-officials,—gambling.

"I don't know where these hangers on got their keys. How the situation developed is not of importance to me, but what is important is that the practice must stop. I have taken the first step and ordered all locks changed and the keys to them issued, only to those who have a right to them."

TO GATHER MATERIAL FOR NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM

NEW YORK, Jan. 9—(AP)—Three groups of Americans, including one woman, will make a joint exploration trip into Africa within the next four months to gather material for the American Museum of Natural History, it was announced today by Carl Akeley who, with his wife, will leave this country on January 20. Later, in Africa, they will be joined by one party including George Eastman, Kodak manufacturer of Rochester, N. Y., Daniel B. Wents of Philadelphia, Dr. Samuel Pomeroy, and another including William B. Leigh and Arthur G. Jonsen, of New York.

ESSAY WINNER ON "WHAT A WOMAN DESIRES IN DRESS"

NEW YORK, Jan. 19—(AP)—A woman does not like to hear, "How pretty that dress makes you" as well as she does, "How pretty you make that dress".

The discovery of that subtle fact won a $1,000 prize today for Miss Rosamond Cook, a student in New York teachers college, it was set forth in her essay on "What a woman desires in dress," which was adjudged the best of those submitted in an essay contest conducted for the past four months by a New York women's store among girl students in schools and colleges. Miss Cook's home is in Leominster, Mass.

Troubles of Finance Minister in France

Either M. Doumer or His Opponents Will Have to Yield Before the End of Week.

PARIS, Jan. 19—(AP)—How to keep together his cabinet, made up of a majority of radicals, while the radical group in the chamber of deputies is fighting the government's financial measures and doing all it can to bring about the downfall of the minister of finance, is Premier Briand's problem this week.

The political tension over the financial situation was not decreased by Finance Minister Doumer's meeting with the finance committee of the chamber of deputies this afternoon. M. Doumer went into a long criticism of the measures proposed by the left cartel, and many members of the cartel openly showed their dissatisfaction on leaving the meeting.

The premier's radical colleagues now hesitate to repeat the threats made just before the Christmas holidays that they would step out of the government, because they are afraid they would be taken at their word and allowed to retire in favor of members of other groups. Nevertheless the radical leaders in the chamber continue to show the determination to force the resignation of Doumer, behind whom the premier has continued to stand steadfast.

It is generally admitted in all parliamentary circles that this situation cannot last long, and that either the finance minister or his radical opponents will have to yield before the end of this week. Premier Briand, according to those close to him, still is determined to resist the radical efforts to drive any of his ministers out of the cabinet, and is even unwilling to accept as final an adverse vote in the chamber without giving the senate a chance to have its word.

The indications now are that the issue will come before the chamber on Friday and that if the vote is against the cabinet it will be brought before the senate either Saturday or the beginning of next week.

VALENTINO TO ENDEAVOR FORGET MARITAL TROUBLES

SOUTHAMPTON, England, Jan. 19—(AP)—Rudolph Valentino, who sailed for the United States today on the Leviathan, said that he would go immediately to Hollywood and try to forget his domestic troubles in work. A decree of divorce was granted to his wife in Paris today.

The Leviathan sailed with a passenger list which included an unusually large number of theatrical and film stars, Raquel Meller the Spanish vaudeville and motion picture star, at the last minute changed her decision not to sail on the American liner. Mlle. Meller had declared she would not board the Leviathan because the company would not give her eight dogs de luxe cabin accommodations.

Sophie Tucker, who has been a headliner in London music halls for the last two years, sailed to visit her mother who is ill at Hartford, Conn. Miss Tucker's farewell at London was the occasion for the Irving Berlins' breaking their seclusion.

Other passengers included the Duchess of Norfolk and her daughter, Lady Rachel Howard, the marquis and marchioness of Huntely and Lord and Lady Camoys.

MOORE INAUGUATED AS GOVERNOR OF NEW JERSEY

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 19—(AP)—Hudson county, led by Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City, today overwhelmed this staid old revolutionary capital in acclaim of A. Harry Moore, who at 12.15 o'clock became the 52nd governor of New Jersey.

With bands and flags and all manner of insignia and designation they came by special train, automobile and bus. The delegation was everywhere in testimonial to the new chief executive and in support of his inaugural declarations for restoration of state rights, modification of prohibition restrictions and a program of general state economics and cooperation with every citizen.

Guns boomed and many bands blended Auld Lang Syne and Annie Laurie with the airs of today. On every side were the solid throngs of upstate democracy waving the familiar pennants "Hud County, 103,997" in evidence of the majority by which the former commissioner of revenue and finance of Jersey City, was supported in his contest against Senator Arthur Whitney, republican.

AIR ROUTE WILL LINK BIG CITIES OF NEW ENGLAND

BOSTON, Jan. 19—(AP)—Announcement that the leading cities of New England will be linked in an air route next summer was made today at a joint meeting of the aero club of New England and the Boston chapter of the National Aeronautic association. Operating centers already have been established in Boston and Portland, Me., it was said and negotiations are under way for connections at Hartford, Conn.

Under the plan passengers would be carried from any part of New England in the same type of planes; operators would not have to send their ships more than two hours from their home base; and passengers would not be delayed for refueling en route.

Prof. Edward P. Warner of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, who presided, said the year 1926 would see a great increase in commercial flying in New England. A resolution was adopted uring the extension of the state lease of the Boston airport by 15 years and a state appropriation of $10,000 for runways maintenance at the airport this year. The war department also was asked to remove the present regulation which restricts the flying of New England reserve pilots to 12 hours in three months.

THEFT OF ETCHINGS AND PAINTINGS VALUED AT $100,000

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—(AP)—Thieves working with precision stole 200 etchings, valued at $50,000 from the Schwartz Galleries in Madison avenue last night, selecting their loot by aid of a catalogue, etchings and paintings valued at $100,000, but which were not listed, were left on the walls.

The theft was discovered this morning when a clerk opened the galleries and found the rooms in disorder. The thieves are thought to have worked for several hours, selecting and packing the etchings.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

William R. Burwell, dean of freshmen for the past four years at Brown University, has resigned to enter business.

William A. Webster, of Shelton, was one of 12 members of the class of 1923 who were elected to the Cloister club of the Sheffield Scientific school.

New life insurance in the United States during the last year totalled $15,600,000,000, exceeding the previous high record of 1924 by $2,400,000,000.

The Franco-Russian financial negotiations will be resumed as soon as M. Rakovsky, soviet ambassador to France, returns to Paris from Moscow.

Governor Trumbull ordered the transfer of Sedrick Kennett, an inmate at the Cheshire reformatory, to the Connecticut state hospital at Middletown.

A reception to Mayor J. B. Tower, for thirty years in the stationery business in New Haven, was given by the Connecticut Valley Stationers' association.

Investigation by a special house committee of the sinking of the navy submarine S-51 was proposed yesterday in a resolution by Representative Griffin, democrat, New York.

A. J. Alexander, Waterbury grocer, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in the United States District court in New Haven, listing liabilities of $2,547 and assets of $1,333.

Former Mayor James M. Curley's bill providing for the annexation of all cities and towns within 15 miles of Boston was rejected by the house committee on metropolitan affairs.

The directors of the Travelers Insurance company, at a meeting, voted to increase the capital from $12,000,000 to $15,000,000 subject to ratification by a special meeting of the stockholders.

First sessions of the commission created for the settlement of claims between the United States, Austria and Hungary, which grew out of the war, will be held in Washington, January 25.

Work on a sixty-five story building which will be eight feet taller than the Woolworth building, and consequently the tallest building in the world, was begun at 122nd street and Broadway, New York.

Examination of the head of the Southington dog, killed in Wolcott, Sunday after it had bitten at least nine other dogs, at the state laboratories, Hartford, proved a positive case of rabies.

While Paris is rapidly recovering from the effects of the heavy snowfall and cold weather of last week, the provinces, notably in Normandy and the upper Rhine and Vosges regions, are still suffering.

A gift of six acres of land on the summit of the most southerly peak of the Three Notches or Tri Mountain, in Durham, near the Wallingford town line, has been made to the state by John B. Kendrick of Wallingford.

Only 11 survivors of the Mexican war remain on the pension rolls of the United States pension bureau records disclosed yesterday, six of their fellow veterans having died between July 1 and Jan. 1.

William Alling, 6, son of Levi E. Alling, clerk at the Connecticut company office in Bridgeport, fell off a bridge in front of the First Congregational church yesterday afternoon in Milford and was drowned.

Ralph Onofrio, 25, was sentenced to state's prison for not less than five nor more than seven years by Judge A. F. Ells in superior court in New Haven after being found guilty of an assault upon a little girl.

The secrecy which surrounded a special meeting of the executive committee of the St. Louis-San Francisco railroad in New York gave rise to reports of impending important developments affecting that property.

An order directing a jury trial to decide whether Marjorie Rambeau, actress and William K. Manton, an actor, were guilty of misconduct in a New York hotel on August 29, 1925, was signed by Supreme Court Justice Levy.

It is learned authoritatively, although not officially announced, that the Mexican government has decided to suspend diplomatic relations with Nicaragua following the inauguration of General Chamorro as president.

After pedalling 35 miles on a stolen bicycle over the muddy roads from Westboro, Mass., Alfred Jullenne, 15, of Lawrence, was too tired to run fast or far when a policeman recognized him as an escaped inmate of the Lyman school.

Captain Nelson M. Holderman, who was wounded seven times as a member of the famous "lost battalion" in France, asked for retirement to allow him to become commandant of the state soldiers home in at Youngsville, Calif.

After negotiating for cooperation of land radio stations, ships at sea, and finally even of rum runners, plans for the international radio broadcasting tests next week seemed completed with the announcement of the London program.

A Stout all-metal three-engined airplane, which had just been completed for use in the Detroit-Arctic expedition, was destroyed early Sunday morning, when fire wrecked the experimental laboratory at the Ford airport at Dearborn, a suburb of Detroit.

The Grand Orient of Italy, which is recognized by the grand lodge of Masons of the state of New York as the only legitimate branch of the order in that country, has cabled a denial of published reports in America that it obstructed approval of the Italian-American financial accord.

A string of pearls lost recently by Mrs. Mitchell Harrison of Philadelphia, who valued them at $100,000 were turned over to the Fauquier National bank in Washington by George Freeman, negro newspaper carrier. He received a reward of $1,000. Freeman picked up the pearls from the frozen snow while making his rounds several days ago.

DRY LAW MAY CALL FOR CHEMISTS ON RAILROADS

Three Boston and Maine Officials Indicted For Conspiracy in the Alleged Shipment of Beer—Counsel Protests That Three Carloads Had Been Scheduled Incorrectly as Automobile Bumpers and "Liquid Oil"—Decision of U. S. Commissioner May Be Rendered Today.

BOSTON, Jan. 19—(AP)—Whether or not three officials of the Boston and Maine Railroad should be taken to Chicago to stand trial for conspiracy to violate the national prohibition law in connection with alleged illegal beer shipments may be determined tomorrow. Arguments were made today before U. S. Commissioner Edwin G. Jeney, who reserved decision in the cases of the three. They were indicted recently in connection with an alleged "$800,000 a month" beer syndicate operating in the middle west and the east.

Five carloads of beer said to have been shipped from the Gilt Edge Brewery in Lawrence were seized at Morton Grove, Ill., last fall.

In addition to the Boston and Maine officials, the Chicago federal grand jury brought indictments against a Chicago police lieutenant, the Boston and Maine Railroad, three prohibition agents and a score of others, including officials of the Gilt Edge Brewery. The case of Martin J. Hart of Lowell, said to have been the head of the syndicate controlling the brewery, whose removal to Chicago is also asked, will come before the commissioner tomorrow.

Removal hearings in the cases of David J. Allen, Thomas A. Mowen, and possibly others, are scheduled to begin in Newark, N. J., on Friday. The latter were employes or officials of the Gilt Edge Brewery.

A general denial of guilt was entered today on behalf of the defendants by counsel for the Boston and Maine Railroad. All three testified that they had protested when they found that three carloads of "cereal beverage" shipped from the Gilt Edge Brewery had been billed incorrectly as automobile bumpers and "liquid oil."

Two special agents associated with the intelligence unit of the internal revenue bureau in Chicago asserted all three defendants had disclaimed responsibility in failing to report any suspicions they might have had concerning the shipments. They said that the railroad men had met their questioning with the explanations that they were not chemists.

HENRY FORD PURCHASES LITTLE RED SCHOOLHOUSE

WINCHENDON, Mass., Jan. 19—(AP)—"The Little Red Schoolhouse" on the Gardner-Winchendon road here has been purchased by a representative of Henry Ford and will be added to the manufacturers' collection of early American buildings surrounding Wayside Inn at Sudbury, built in 1801 and still bearing much of the traditional coat of red paint, the school is believed to be one of the oldest left standing in New England.

The interior remains much the same as when the last class occupied it immediately after the Civil war. The old-fashioned pulpit-rostrum still stands in one corner and the lines of ancient, knife-scarred desks still remain. The dunce's bench is there, close by the master's seat, and a frazzled bunch of witch hazel switches still hangs from its nail by a throng.

Beyond the fact that the building probably will be removed to Sudbury, nothing of Mr. Ford's plans for its disposition could be learned.

CESSATION OF RAILROAD WOULD JEOPARDISE ESSEX

BOSTON, Jan. 19—(AP)—Residents of the town of Essex said today their little municipality, famed as a shipbuilding center, might as well go out of business if the Boston and Maine Railroad decided to stop running trains to it. For two hundred years, ships have been built there, the town folk towns the public utilities commission, first with the aid of ox-teams, then horses which drew the lumber to their wharves. The railroad today is hauling lumber to men whose ancestors started the work. Without lumber ships cannot be built, and the residents painted a gloomy future for their town.

The commission will report its finding to the interstate commerce commission which will decide whether the branch shall be abandoned. The railroad contends the financial burden is too heavy to continue it.

WOMEN IN ENGLAND KEEP HAIRDRESSERS BUSY

LONDON, Jan. 19—(AP)—Although England's unemployed total well over the million mark, no barbers or coiffeurs are included among these drawing the government's dole for the jobless. This was revealed in statistics just published, showing that women of this country are spending approximately $100,000,000 a year more with the hair dressers of various kinds than they did before bobbing and shingling became fashionable.

It is estimated that about 7,000,000 women and girls more than 16 years old, about half the female population of England and Wales, are now wearing short hair. This has been given employment to all native hair dressers and led to the importation of other "artists" from abroad.

SHOT AT TRAINS WHEN DENIED EMPLOYMENT

CHICAGO, Jan. 19—(AP)—Richard Rogan, Racine, Wisconsin, farm hand, confessed today to Wisconsin authorities that he last night fired shots at two Chicago, Milwaukee and North Shore Electric Railway trains, wounding one person in each train.

He said he had been refused employment by the railroad and after consuming a quantity of liquor, evolved the plan of firing on the trains for revenge and to frighten the road.

He committed a score of burglaries and the malicious shooting of a number of cattle and dogs that had puzzled authorities for months.

MAN DISAPPEARED FROM UNITED FRUIT CO. STEAMER

BOSTON, Jan. 19—(AP)—Edward L. Wheaton, 33, of Manchester, has disappeared from the United Fruit company steamer LaPerla, bound from Boston to Havana. His disappearance was reported in a radio message received by the company today from the captain of the steamer.

Wheaton was the son of Postmaster Samuel L. Wheaton of Manchester. He was graduated from Harvard in 1913 and from the Harvard law school in 1916. He had been employed until recently by the Chase National bank of New York, but gave up his work on account of ill health.

MRS. COOLIDGE GUEST OF HONOR OF MRS. DAWES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—(AP)—President and Mrs. Coolidge were guests of honor tonight at a dinner given by Vice President and Mrs. Dawes at their home. It was the first of a series of dinners President and Mrs. Coolidge will attend away from the White House, their various members of the cabinet planning to entertain them the next few months, as is the custom.

FALL FOREST FIRE RECORDS WERE LOW

HARTFORD, Jan. 19—(AP)—One of the lowest fall forest fire records since statistics have been kept by the department is reported for 1925, by State Forester Austin F. Hawes. During the last four months of the year there were only 47 fires, four in September, 9 in October, 26 in November and 6 in December. In 1924, there were 313 fires in the same period, in 1923, 90, and in 1922 there were 121.

April is consistently the worst month for forest fires, the records show, this month averaging above 350 fires for each of the past four years. Last years there were 423, in 1924 there were 351, in 1923, 358, and in 1922 there were 526.

The number of fires in each month of last year were as follows: January, 3; February, 5; March, 138; April, 425; May, 152; June, 23; July, 3; August, 2; September, 4; October, 9; November, 28 December, 6.

SENATE COMPROMISE ON TAX BILL DOUBTFUL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19—(AP)—The senate compromise tax reduction bill was looked upon with hopeful but skeptical eyes today at the white house and at the treasury.

It was stated at the white house that while President Coolidge was in favor of retirement of the federal government from the field of inheritance taxation in favor of the states, he was not prepared to state whether the time had come for repeal of the federal levy as proposed by the bill.

Compilation of estimates on the total reduction provided for in the bill, meanwhile, brought a quick alarm from the treasury when it was disclosed that the measure would make a slash of almost $400,000,000 in the nation's revenues this year. The senate finance committee was immediately called into session, and, dividing on party lines, the republicans voted to increase the corporation tax to 13 1-2 per cent, effective upon enactment of the bill into law.

NEW BOMBING PLANE TO HAVE 1,200 H. P. MOTOR

NEW YORK, Jan. 19—(AP)—Details of a giant new bombing plane to be powered with a 1200 horsepower motor and now under construction, were disclosed by Thomas H. Huff at a special meeting of the Aeronautics Executives association.

The new bomber, known as the "Cyclops" will be the largest single engined plane of the bombing type ever constructed in this country, Mr. Huff, who is president of the Huff Daland Airplane company of Bristol, Pa., said. It is now under construction in the Bristol plant and will be tested out shortly.

The plane will be capable of making a non-stop flight from New York to London, Mr. Huff asserted. It will weigh approximately 17,000 pounds and will carry a load of 9,000 pounds.

SMUGGLERS OF CHINESE HID THEM IN COFFINS

HONOLULU, Jan. 19.—(AP) — The eleven Chinese discovered two months ago hiding in coffins in the hold of the President Lincoln, when it stopped here en route to San Francisco from China, pleaded guilty today in federal court to conspiracy to violate the immigration laws.

Tong Nam, Honolulu resident, alleged ring leader of the conspiracy to smuggle the Chinese into the United States, charged with facilitating illegal entry of Orientals, pleaded not guilty and his trial was set for next Monday.

PROVIDENCE LAUNCH HELD AS RUM-RUNNER SUSPECT

NEW LONDON, Jan. 19—(AP)—The coast guard patrol boat 128 returned to its base here today with the 8-25, sixty-foot gasoline launch of Providence, R. I., which was seized on January 15, off Breton's Reef, for violating the navigation laws. Rough weather had prevented the 128 from making port sooner with the launch which was found running without lights.

Although there was no liquor on the craft, coast guardsmen believed it was a rum-runner. Three men who were aboard gave their last names as Chapman, Sullivan and Tucker. Their first names were not learned.

SLAYER OF POLICEMAN GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER

WATERBURY, Jan. 19—(AP)—Ernest Bercier, was found guilty of manslaughter by a jury in superior court this afternoon. The jury found that he killed Patrolman William J. Stetser during a fight in the Bercier apartment on May 2, 1925. Sentence will be imposed tomorrow.

WILLIMANTIC

Office, 264 Main St. Telephone 1321-5.

WILLIMANTIC'S NEW THEATRE OPENS THIS WEEK

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WILLIMANTIC, Jan. 19—Willimantic's beautiful new theatre will be formally opened to the public next Thursday evening, with a special program of vaudeville and motion pictures, giving the public the duo opportunity of inspecting the edifice and witnessing what might be termed a "sample" of the type of entertainment made possible by the acquisition of a modern theatrical building.

The Capitol theatre ranks as one of the most beautiful and modern in the state. Distinguished for architectural design it stands as a monument to the American art of beauty of construction. It is superbly decorated in the colorful nature tones which give it at once an air of distinction and reserved dignity. The decorative work was done by Michael J. Farrell, of this city, after a careful research of the more popular colors used in modern playhouses. Its simplicity will serve well to give it everlasting attractiveness.

In construction the building compares favorably with any theatre of its size in the country, and it ranks as one of the finest in New England. The brick work was started in September 1924 and work has been rushed sometimes day and night, to completion. A. R. Sharpe was the architect and the design of the entire interior is credited to Valentine L. Murphy, one of the company.

Manager George A. Bartlett stated Tuesday that the management would adhere to the policy of giving the public the best in entertainment features. It is planned to conduct motion pictures three days and vaudeville three days weekly and secure such desirable legitimate stage productions as are available. Metro-Goldwyn and United Artists pictures will be shown exclusively at the playhouse and A. N. B. Dow of the Paramount Vaudeville Exchange, of New York, has been engaged to book the vaudeville performances. This exchange acts in the same capacity for many leading theatres in New England. It has been arranged for Manager Bartlett to supervise, previously, any show booked to appear here and, with the recognized ability of Mr. Bartlett, this is generally accepted as a guarantee of the highest type of performance.

George A. Bartlett, who is manager of the Capitol theatre, has had years of experience in directing and presenting amateur theatricals in this state and he has had much experience in booking vaudeville attractions for local and out-of-town entertainment under private auspices. He recently rejected an offer from the Travelers Insurance company, of Hartford, to stage a minstrel performance for its employes. George is deservedly popular and all appreciate his ability in his new capacity.

Charles VanZandt, who has twelve years of experience in theatres in Northampton, Easthampton and Springfield, Mass., has been secured to act as stage manager. John Moran will be his assistant. John Shea will be stage electrician and Herman Lavoie motion picture operation. Edward Trudeau will be head usher and Miss Rose Bergeron and Mrs. William Robarge ticket sellers. F. Rudolph Laramee, of the local police department, will be theatre officer.

An eight-piece orchestra, composed of local musicians, carefully selected for their ability, will furnish the music, with Clinton C. Helmold as leader. Director Helmold is not a novice in the theatrical world. For several years he was director of a theatre orchestra in Clinton, Mass., and later accepted contracts to appear in vaudeville in a musical offering on the Keith, Proctor, Cole and Castle circuit. After locating in this city in 1920 he organized Helmold's Concert orchestra which enjoyed spendid success and was in constant demand in this section for many seasons. At one time he led a string orchestra which had the distinction of being reputed as the leading musical organization in the city.

The Capitol theatre will seat 1,200, with 800 seats in the orchestra and 400 in the balcony. The seats in the parquet are upholstered in leather and so set that one person is looking over the shoulder of the occupant of seat directly ahead. There are two boxes, each seating twelve people.

The stage is one of the largest in New England and the various appurtenances, such as the props and curtains, are of a design in keeping with the modern atmosphere of the entire structure. The proscenium arch is 36 feet wide and 28 feet long. From wall to wall the stage is 80 feet wide and 36 feet deep from the front apron of the stage to the rear wall. There are twelve dressing rooms and a large chorus room underneath the stage, all fully equipped with modern conveniences. There are three furnaces in the building furnishing heat by steam to the theatre and the four stores and several office suites facing the front.

Leading from the mezzanine on the second floor are two elaborate rest rooms. Mrs. Cora Stanley will have charge of the ladies' rest room.

The Capitol Theatre Corporation is owned by the public. The stock which was successfully sold by W. J. Lavaude, of Willimantic, and his assistants, was distributed throughout Windham county. Credit must be given to the financing parties for the capable manner in which the distribution of the stock was made.

In a talk, Tuesday, members of the corporation were inclined to give a great deal of the credit for the success of the achievement, other than the sale of the stock, to Charles A. Gates, president of the corporation, through whose integrity the will to continue and to accomplish was imbued in members of the corporation. Other officers of the corporation are: Aime J. Martineau, vice-president; Valentine L. Murphy, secretary; V. A. Quinn, of Norwich, assistant treasurer; George A. Bartlett, assistant secretary and manager; Charles A. Gates, treasurer; directors, J. Francis Keon, Abe Davidson, P. J. Hinds, T. J. Hinds, P. P. Twomey, Patrick Gribbon, of Waterbury, and A. Covey, of Plainfield.

SUDEN DEATH OF JOHN FREDERICK WRIGHT

(Special to The Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Jan. 19—John Frederick Wright, 61, of 374 Pleasant street, died suddenly form heart trouble early Tuesday afternoon, while he was alone in the garage owned by William E. Clark, at 384 Pleasant street, where he had gone to look at his automobile. When his body was discovered about 3 o'clock it was in a sitting position on the running board of an automobile owned by Myron Childs, Mr. Wright having apparently sat there to look over his own machine. The deceased man had been in failing health, due to heart disease, for over one year. He had been employed by the Southern New England Telephone company for 35 years and one year ago last October he resigned his position as construction foreman because of his health. He appeared in unusually good spirits Tuesday. Shortly after luncheon at noon, at said that he would go to the garage, a few houses away. His condition was such that his continued absence occasioned no worry. When Mr. Childs went to get his car he noticed some one sitting on the running board. He started the motor and sounded the horn as a warning that he was about to drive. Receiving no response he investigated and found that death had overtaken the man. Medical Examiner Dr. Louis I. Mason was summoned and after viewing the remains gave permission for the removal of the body.

J. Frederick Wright was born July 2, 1865, in Beekman, N. Y. He came to this city with his family from Long Island in 1906. Surviving him are his wife, Mary Eva Lee Wright, two daughters, Mrs. William Turnbull and Miss Almeda Wright, both of Hartford and two brothers, Theodore Wright, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., both of Hartford and two brothers, Theodore Wright of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and Nelson Wright of Great Barrington, Vt. He was a member of the Telephone Pioneers and up to recently was affiliated with the Odd Fellows.

EASTFORD STORE BURNED TO GROUND, LOSS $10,000

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WILLIMANTIC, Jan. 19—(AP)—In one of the worst fires in the recent history of the village of Eastford, the general store conducted y Archie Walker, in the one story wooden structure, was totally destroyed, along with a large stock of merchandise, about 5 o'clock Tuesday morning. The entire neighborhood responded t on call for volunteers, but lack of equipment prevented any attempt to check the flames, which had already broken through the roof and sides of the building when discovered. Within a few minutes the interior of the structure was a roaring furnace and the one hour later the building, which measured about 50 by 80 feet, had been entirely consumed. The loss of building contents is estimated at $10,000. The conflagration created considerable excitement when the high wind carried burning embers to the roofs of neighboring houses. Fortunately none of these took fire. The destroyed structure was erected several years ago by John J. Youngs, who conducted the store for some time. Mrs. Mary Kennedy then took over the business and she in turn disposed of it to Mr. Walker three years ago. The origin of the fire was not determined.

TO MEET AND DISCUSS THE ASHFORD FOUNDATION

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WILLIMANTIC, Jan. 9—Allan B. Lincoln stated today that plans were being completed for a big meeting of citizens at the Knowlton Memorial hall, Warrenville, on Friday evening, Jan. 29. At this time plans will be presented on a proposition made by C. A. Hammond-Knowlton, relative to the permanent maintenance and use of the memorial hall by the community. Mr. Knowlton's offer will be known as the Ashford Foundation, and, when accepted, will go into history as one of the many generous gifts made to the town by the Knowltons. A supper will be served at 6:30 o'clock. The business meeting will follow and a dramatic entertainment and dance will conclude the program.

A luncheon meeting of the Social Workers' Council of New London and Windham Counties was held in this city Tuesday afternoon. Miss Betsey Mitchell, the president, presiding. After the business meeting a paper on Rural Social Work was read by Rev. F. Stanley Selleck of Lebanon. The paper was written by James L. Hypes, who was unable to be present because of illness. It was a report of the survey of the town of Lebanon, which was made by Mr. Hypes, under the direction of the faculty of Storrs Agricultural college. There was a large attendance at the meeting.

A high-speed wind and severe rain storm which swept this city Monday night, causing only the more courageous to venture out of doors, had its effect on the electric light system in this section. Houses and streets on the "Brooklyn" side of the city, across the Willimantic river, were thrown into darkness for several hours when trouble developed in the circuit leading to that section. Employes of the Rockville-Willimantic Lighting company were also called to Windham Center where a pole had blown down taking the feed wire along with it and shutting off all lights in that village. The blowing down of a pole disrupted about a dozen lines of the Southern New England Telephone company, in Andover.

A program on Rotary Education, in charge of Chairman Harry W. Standish of the education committee, was conducted at a largely attended meeting of the Willimantic Rotary club, held Tuesday noon, in the Y. M. C. A. with President John F. Ahern presiding. The program was entertaining and as intended, educational. The subjects and the speakers were: Introductory Outline, Harry W. Standish; Rotary International and, its History and Possibilities, Past President James P. Mustard; History of the Local Club, Raymond A. Parker; Classification and Attendance, President John Ahern. Following a ten minute forum, with Chairman Standish presiding, Herbert W. Huber, treasurer of the club gave a talk on Thrift, the Friend of All, in observance of national thrift week. The invitation to attend the charter night of the newly organized Rotary club in Danielson, on February 4th, was accepted and President Ahern appointed the following "On to Danielson committee": Harry S. Gaucher, chairman, James P. Bath, Harry W. Standish, A. Linn Weatherhead and Roland B. Jordan. The local club's stunt to be put on as part of the entertainment, will be in charge of a committee composed of Secretary Gerard E. Loisell, Dr. R. Bullock Jones and Rev. Arthur S. Wheelock.

In compliance with a vote taken at a previous meeting President Ahern appointed as a commission to make a survey with a view of furthering supervised play in Willimantic: Albert A. Smith, chairman, James P. Mustard, George H. Shafer William A. Dawson and Dr. Michael D. Riordan.

Mrs. Mary Smith, widow of Edward Smith, former resident of Hampton and Willimantic up to 15 years ago died at her home in West Hartford at ten o'clock Monday night. She was 79 years of age and a native of County Tyrone, Ireland. Five children survive.

Daniel L. Sheehan died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Ward Wood, of 10 Sullok street, Cambridge, Mass., Monday. He was a resident of this city up to recently and a member of San Jose Council, No. 15, K. of C. Besides Mrs. Woods he leaves two other sisters, Mrs. John Spencer of Willimantic and Mrs. Nelson Roborge of Providence, R. I., and several nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Abbie E. Buell, 82, born in Hebron and a religious leader in Gilead for many years, died at the home of her son, Robert E. Buell in Bedford Hills, New York, last Sunday night. She was affiliated with the Congregational church in her native community and was the widow of John R. Buell. She leaves two sons, Elton W. Buell of Gilead and Robert E. Buell of New York; one daughter, Mrs. Edith Bailey of Manchester, two sisters, Miss Mary and Hattie Ellis of Gilead and nine grandchildren.

District Deputy Grand Chancellor Latting Caverly and staff of Manchester installed the following newly elected officers at the regular meeting of Natchaug Lodge, No. 32, K. of P., in Castle hall, Monday night: Chancellor commander, Samuel S. Anthony; vice chancellor, Dixon B. VanZandt; prelate, Otto B. Robinson; master of work, Charles A. Gates; keeper of records and seals, Jerry J. Lennihan; master of finances, J. Raymond Smith; master of exchequer, John A. Bowman; master at arms, Philip Baudert; inner guard, John H. Wilcox; outer guard, George Tanney.

Funeral services for Mrs. Ida P. Abbe were held at the late home in Windham at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Arthur W. Clifford officiated and was assisted by Rev. James G. Graham. Burial was in the Greenwich cemetery. New York. Avery and VanZandt were in charge of the arrangements.

Prayer for Mrs. Josephine W. Chase was held at the family home in North Coventry at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon with Rev. J. R. Atwood officiating. Burial was in Center cemetery, North Coventry. Arrangements were by Avery and VanZandt.

Bertram Prentice of Hartford, state inspector of public buildings, was in the city Tuesday forenoon and investigated the construction of the new Capitol theatre building. As he concluded his work Officer Prentiss stated that he was highly satisfied with his findings and he extended his compliments to the builders for their painstaking care in making the building safe and at the same time beautiful. In his opinion, the booth containing the motion picture machines was of a construction well worth being emulated by other theatres. The safety devices, including fire exits and the like, he acclaimed as most desirable.

The exterior brick walls of the Hotel Hooker are being improved noticeably in appearance by sand blasting, a process which removes dirt and stains and gives the walls a new appearance.

A letter received Tuesday by City Clerk James S. Donahue, Jr., from Miss Lida Alex of Nashua, N. H., asked for information of her step-sister from whom she has not heard in 50 years and who is now between 70 and 73 years of age. Her maiden name was Esther Gravel and she married to one Residor or Potter Lambert and may now be living with her son. The woman being sought is said to have been a milliner in former years.

At a banuet and entertainment held in G. A. R. hall Tuesday evening A. C. Tyler Auxiliary, No. 14, U. S. W. V., observed its fifth anniversary with members of Tyler Camp No. 8 present as guests. Past Department President Mrs. Minnie Flynn, of this city, installed the new officers previous to the banquet.

The bearers for the funeral of Samuel Mellen, held Saturday were Patrick A. Connor, James M. Tighe and Clarence Moriarty, representing San Jose Council, No. 14, K. of C. and Michael J. English, William E. Jackson and Jeremiah McCarthy representing A. C. Tyler Camp, U. S. W. V.

Miss Irene Rendall is in charge of a committee of the Sorority of the Methodist church to secure the services of J. Pratt Jones, humorist of Boston, Mass., and local talent, to furnish an entertainment in the future.

Mrs. Irving Botham of Mansfield Depot is resting comfortably after undergoing an operation in a Stafford hospital.

Frances the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wells Wilcox, a pupil at the Model school, is ill at her home.

Officers of Violet Rebekah lodge were installed at a meeting Tuesday by the District Deputy and staff of Jewett City. The meeting was held in Odd Fellows' hall.

Brief Notes

Mrs. Charles B. Lamb has been entertaining Mrs. Lyman W. Whiting of Norwich.

Mrs. George F. Taylor is spending the week end with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hills of Westbrook, Me.

James P. Bath, Harry W. Standish and James P. Mustard were Hartford visitors Monday.

C. Harry Branch was in New York city on business Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert C. White leave today (Wednesday) by the southern route to California to be away for several weeks.

Mrs. Julian Boville has returned to south Coventry, after a visit with her cousin, Mrs. G. C. Stanley of Andover.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Foote entertained over the week end, Mr. and Mrs. Philip L. Veeiker of Providence, R. I.

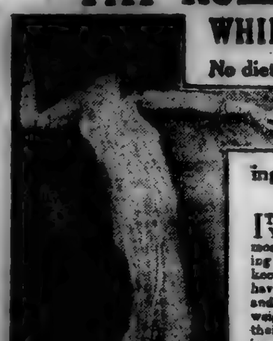
Mrs. Daniel Shea and two daughters Betty and Eleanore of Providence, R. I., are spending the week with Mrs. Shea's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Moriarty.

Mrs. Mary L. Turner entertained Mrs. H. C. Barlow of Hartford Tuesday.

Mrs. Arthur W. Gates was hostess at the meeting of the Monday Bridge club.

If a man avoids scraping acquaintances he misses a lot of scraped that acquaintances get a man into.

How Beautiful New York Actresses Get Slender With SILPH REDUCING GUM —FAT ROLLS OFF WHILE YOU CHEW



No diets—No exercises—No dangerous drugs—3 pieces of delicious and refreshing chewing gum a day and gone is the FAT!

IT IS no secret today that New York's most beautiful actresses, models and chorus girls are chewing SILPH Gum to reduce and keep trim and slender because they have found it the easiest, safest and cheapest way to get their weight down without having to ruin their health or looks with weakening diets or strenuous exercises.

SILPH Gum works while you chew—Nothing to do—Nothing to take internally—It is better than eating candies—It's just as pleasant and it tones up your entire system while it reduces you. SILPH Reducing Gum contains the extracts of sea plants and herbs which have a specific and wonderful effect on eliminating excess fat. At the same time SILPH is remarkable in relieving indigestion and stomach troubles.

"SILPH Reducing Chewing Gum keeps me slender and well," says Tyska, beautiful actress from Lost Control Vaudeville.

If You Are Too Fat Chew SILPH

IF YOU ARE TROUBLED WITH STOMACH TROUBLES AND INDIGESTION CHEW SILPH, and think of course you can afford to lose weight as SILPH reduces those fat rolls more than 2 or 3 lbs. a week.

You chew SILPH as you would any ordinary chewing gum. SILPH is an agreeable, pleasant and refreshing treat. You will like to give it up after you have obtained the results it produces.

For those who are only pleased, but fear the dreaded enemy FAT coming on use three of SILPH a day until down it will keep those rolls of FAT away and you'll be able to eat all the sweets—SILPH is positively absolutely harmless—DOES NOT CONTAIN THYROID OR ANY DANGEROUS DRUGS—it is the ideal way to reduce besides it is so cute and clever! Try it today.

Mrs. M. S. Howe of Troy, Ohio says, "I have taken one dollar's worth of SILPH and lost 10 pounds."

"The first order of SILPH has helped me wonderfully—I lost 7 pounds in a week." Miss C. Collins, Gonzon, Ill.

"Chew SILPH and be SYLPH-LIKE"

SILPH is for sale at 25c a package. Don't wait another day but get a box enough for one week. Be thrilled to look SLENDER and graceful. Write Sylph Laboratories, West 56th Street, New York City.

On sale at 25c a package. Drug Co. and Morgan Drug Stores.

THE PORTEOUS & MITCHELL CO.

TOMORROW—We will announce a Special Sale of Dress Linens—the most remarkable offering we have ever made. For particulars see our advertisement in Tomorrow's Bulletin.

GREAT JANUARY SALE VALUES IN

WOMEN'S and MISSES' COATS

Four Extraordinary Price Groups

GROUP 1—Women's Coats that sold up to $30.00, in a good range of sizes and styles— Clearance Price $19.75

GROUP 2—Women's Coats, all high grade Fur-Trimmed Coats, in a good assortment of styles and colors, former price $45.00 and $49.75— Clearance Price $35.00

GROUP 3—Women's Coats, plain tailored and beautifully Fur-Trimmed, finest materials and excellent workmanship, former prices up to $65.00— Clearance Price $45.00

GROUP 4—In this group are our finest Fur-Trimmed Coats, that formerly sold at $75.00 and $89.50— Clearance Price $65.00

432 Pairs of WOMEN'S HOSIERY

Full-Fashioned or "Three Seams"

Silk and Wool

These are the well known "Phoenix" make and represent a Clean-up of this style—a few amongst them are subject to slight irregularities. All the leading colors, including black, beaver, beige, blonde, gray, etc.

$1.29 Pair

regular value $1.65.

Always a Wise Investment Now Better than ever before

Dodge Brothers, Inc. have announced astonishingly low new prices.

They have announced important refinements in their product. Always building an exceptional car, they are now building better than ever.

Better in many ways—in beauty, comfort, driving vision, engine smoothness, snap, elasticity and getaway.

The simultaneous offering of lower prices and vital improvements is made possible by a gigantic expansion of buildings and equipment.

Ten million dollars so invested permit great savings through vastly increased volume and efficiency.

Part of these savings goes into further betterment of the car. The other part goes directly back to the buyer—in the form of a price reduction that staggered the industry.

Those who chose Dodge Brothers Motor Car in the past invested their money wisely.

Today they invest more wisely than ever before.

	Old Price	New Price
Touring Car	$875	$795
Roadster	855	795
Type-B Sedan	1045	895
Special Type-A Sedan	1280	1075
Coupe	960	845
Panel Commercial Car	960	885
Screen Commercial Car	885	810
Chassis	730	655

F. O. B. Detroit

JORDAN AUTO CO.

1029 MAIN ST., WILLIMANTIC PHONE 353

410 MAIN ST., NORWICH PHONE 1246

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CARS

STONINGTON

Mrs. Mary Mellow sustained a sprained wrist a few days ago when she fell on the icy steps of her home, No. 3 Omega street.

The Stonington town board of assessors has completed tabulating the taxable property in town. The board of relief commence their work the 1st of February. J. H. Hammond's resignation from this board leaves only two members. Messrs James Cooper and Paul Pietzel to do the work this year. A. H. Williams of Old Mystic has tendered his resignation as registrar of voters in the Fifth District.

The Stonington town council met Monday at 9 a. m. in the council chamber in Bow hall.

Miss Esther B. Fowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wells Fowler, of Westerly, spent the week end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Paul Bindloe, of Water street.

Rev H. M. Thompson preached his morning and evening sermons at the First Baptist church Sunday. The Bible school met at noon with four perfect classes and an attendance of 87 recorded.

Mrs. Arthur McCombe of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., attended the funeral of her grandmother in Stonington recently.

Fulton Lewis was painfully injured Friday while tending the hook used to guide cakes of ice from the Vargas Pond to the ice house. The cakes of ice broke away from the hook and fell on his leg, bruising and spraining it. He is now resting as comfortably as can be expected, at his home on the North road.

Mrs. Harry Babcock Noyes was a caller in Westerly Saturday.

Mr. Edgar F. Wood of Alton was in town Sunday.

Frederick Bliss of Lebanon spent Friday in Stonington visiting relatives.

Edward Botell of Hope Valley was here on business Friday.

The "Bessie D." of Greenport is to be in charge of Capt. B. C. Chesebro from now on, having been brought here from Greenport to join the local fishing fleet.

Many from Stonington enjoyed the vaudeville and picture performance at the new United theatre, in Westerly, on the opening night, Monday evening.

Repairs are being made to the bench and chairs in sections of Boro hall.

The W. W. G. of the First Baptist church is to meet Wednesday evening with Miss Laura Brown at her home on Gold street. The guild members are planning to give a play.

NORTH LYME

J. L. Raymond is able to be around the house a little. He was recently kicked in the leg by a horse, causing a painful wound.

Mrs. H. A. Rogers of Salem visited Mrs. W. M. Simon Sunday.

Miss Emily Stark was in Middletown Friday.

N. S. Strong is able to be out again having been confined to his bed a couple of days last week.

The Farmers' Cooperative NEW GRAIN STORE AT PLAINFIELD

WILL OPEN FOR BUSINESS EVERY WEEK-DAY, FROM 7 A. M. TO 6 P. M., STARTING SATURDAY, JAN. 16.

WE HANDLE ONLY FIRST CLASS FEEDS AT THE LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICES. WELCOME!

LOCATED AT NORTH PLAINFIELD NEAR THE CEMETERY.

DANIELSON

REAL BEAR HURT NOW ON AT NORTH STERLING

(Special to The Bulletin.)

DANIELSON, Jan. 19—A bear hunt was on Tuesday over in North Sterling, and will be continued today. The quarry is a black bear, about half-grown, and there is no question at all about its being a bear or about its being in the vicinity of the territory mentioned.

Charles Rounds saw the animal Tuesday morning at 7:45 when he was engaged with morning chores about his place. The bear was in an open field just across the mill pond from the Rounds' barn and grist mill, close to what is known as the Brown barn. A bit startled and very considerably surprised, Mr. Rounds watched the bear as it ambled across the field. He was leading a cow at the time and was so handicapped that he did not have the time to get a gun or have the opportunity to make anyone hear who might have a weapon.

As Mr. Rounds watched, the bear made his way southward toward the highway and soon was lost to sight behind some buildings. Within a few minutes Mr. Rounds called Hay Smith a neighbor, on the telephone, and they sought to track the animal, but without success, for the heavy rain had washed away the snow and tracking isn't too good on grass land.

Frank Corey, a crack shot, who lives in the vicinity, was appraised of the bear's presence and went on a hunt for him, but without success.

One may well believe that North Sterling people are a little perturbed over the presence of the bear. That a bear was in that vicinity was first reported early last fall, by F. O. Plummer, a Danielson business man, who lives over that way. He was driving home with his car one night when he saw what he was certain was a bear crossing the highway near the foot of Sawmill hill. On another occasion, Mrs. Plummer saw the bear, this also being at night. Now comes Mr. Rounds with the story of seeing the animal in broad daylight, in an open field and less than 100 yards away. No question exists that there is a bear over there.

Time and again in the past few weeks, a strange noise has been heard in swamp land north of the Rounds place. Numbers of people over that way have heard it. The belief is that this bear, evidently not given to hibernating in a climate no more severe than that of southern New England, was the source of the strange noises of the night.

There is plenty of rough and wooded country about where the bear is believed to prowl. Getting him may not be so easy as would appear at first thought. The effort is to be made. It is possible the bear was heading when seen Tuesday morning, for the Blanchard slaughter house, where calves are butchered, on the south road from the Line store, the assumption being that Mr. Bear was in search of food of some kind.

No bear has been known to live in territory hereabouts for a great many years, so worried North Sterling people may rest assured that hunters galore will be on Bruin's trail from now on.

KILLINGLY'S GRAND LIST INCREASED BY $182,498

(Special to The Bulletin.)

DANIELSON, Jan. 19—If all the automobiles in Killingly stalled at the same time and a horse for each was needed to tow them somewhere, what a jam the motorists would be in. The assessors have just completed their grand list. Among other things shown in the recapitulation is that there are 1,451 motor vehicles owned in this town and only 386 horses. So it will be observed, there would not be near enough horses to go around for towing purposes.

The total of motor vehicles owned here has steadily mounted from year to year, while the number of horses has steadily decreased. The new list shows that the assessed valuation of Killingly's motor vehicles is $471,600, and the cars probably represent original investments well in excess of $1,000,000.

For the first time in the history of Killingly its grand list, gross, is in excess of seven million dollars. The exact figures are $7,107,864. From this deductions of $115,636 are made for soldiers and sailors exemptions and $3,000 for the blind, leaving the net grand list $6,989,228, just a shade under seven million dollars. The net of last year's grand list was $6,836,730 so a net gain of $152,498 is noted this year, a very pleasing fact for all who are interested in the town's revenue.

Interesting figures in the grand list show that there are 1,550 dwellings in Killingly, 1,313 barns and outbuildings, 2,206 lots, 161 stores, 28 mills. Cattle number 868. The area of the town as shown by the list is 25,478 acres.

There are many facts and figures in the grand list pointing to the prosperity of Killingly and recording its steady, if not marvelous growth. Numbers of new houses have been erected during the time since the last grand list was compiled and other structures completed or enlarged.

The number of motor cars and their assessed valuation is of special interest. They do represent a large sum of money invested and a great deal more for upkeep and operation. But there is another side of the picture—a very pleasing one. Killingly is one of the few towns in the east, at any rate, that gets more out of the automobile industry than it puts into it. The payrolls of the Connecticut mills and the Goodyear mills, Inc., will, every year, far more than offset the total assessed value of motor cars owned in the town. And the fact is not to be overlooked that hundreds of the town's cars are engaged in useful and profitable service for their owners—that they are used for other things than pleasure.

Killingly may contemplate the figures in its new grand list with satisfaction. The tendency is upwards in no inconsiderable degree, as it has been for a number of years. One large new industry and accompanying developments would put Killingly close to the $10,000,000 class of towns. It is not too much to expect that this will come about within the next few years.

PLAN MANY CHANGES IN ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH

(Special to The Bulletin.)

DANIELSON, Jan. 19—St. Joseph's church at Dayville, is to be redecorated interiorly to make it one of the most beautiful of Catholic churches in the smaller communities of the state. The work will be undertaken during the coming week and it is hoped, will be completed for Easter Sunday.

Rev. Ignatius Kost, the pastor, said Tuesday, that he has contracted with a Fort Wayne, Ind. firm to do the work. They are to build all the necessary staging and execute the entire contract with the exception of a series of 25 or 28 oil paintings that are to adorn various parts of the interior.

The chancel and nave in their entirety, including the ceiling, will be very beautifully decorated. The designs selected are particularly fitting for a church of the type and size of St. Joseph's. The decorations will be completed with what is known as a "fe" time finish, a smooth glass-like surface that may, as the tints of age appear, be cleansed by washing and the original brilliancy or richness of the colors restored.

The cost of the decorations will be in the neighborhood of $3,000. In addition individuals, families and societies of the parish are to donate the oil paintings. Many of these will be 4 by 8 feet, depicting religious subjects. Many of these paintings will cost the donors of them $100 each. New electric light fixtures and ornaments are to be installed in keeping with the general and extensive renovation planned, and new vestments purchased.

Only the stations of the cross will remain of the present interior appointments of the church. These stations are very handsome and skillfully wrought, so that with certain renovation, they will harmonize perfectly with a church interior that will be a jewel.

Parishioners of St. Joseph's which serves the people of Dayville and Goodyear, as well as including the mission field at Attawaugan and Ballouville, with the chapel of the Five Wounds, at Ballouville, are enthusiastic in support of their pastor's programme for the beautifying of the church. Various organizations of the church have affairs planned to raise funds for oil paintings and other expenses.

St. Joseph's parish has a debt of less than $900. During the pastorate of Fr. Kost, many important improvements to the parish property have been made. Exteriorly the church is in splendid condition. The rectory also is in excellent repair, and the grounds well ordered.

With the work now contracted for completed, St. Joseph's parish will be outstanding among places of the size in Connecticut, for the quality and appearance of its church property.

A man down in Plainfield, who says he is more or less interested in the chatter that goes on in this column about weather affairs and an occasional reference to the Cloud Dugger and his prognostications, probably knows that Tuesday was about as sweet a January day as one can recall, going back even to 1815, which few of us can do out of our own minds and remember clearly. But the Plainfield man may not know and probably will be interested to know that both robins and seagulls were seen in this immediate vicinity Tuesday. The birds were reported by Game Warden Gurdon E. Withey. The gulls may have been blown in on the wings of the heavy southerly gale of Tuesday night. Then again they may not have been. Gulls have appeared regularly, each year, about this time, for several years past, at Quinebaug lake and along reaches of the Quinebaug river between Wauregan and Goodyear, and have remained for weeks at a time. Robins are not infrequently reported here in January, but it is always good news to repeat the tale of their presence—suggesting thoughts of spring. And, by the way, Mr. Plainfield Man, there's a good bear story elsewhere in the column this morning. Evidently heading south from out of the reach of that predicted blizzard—not the Cloud Digger's.

The state board of equalization, assessing, as it does each year, the value of national bank and trust companies of the state, for purposes of taxation, this year rates the stock of the Windham County National bank, of Danielson, at a higher valuation than any national bank in the state outside of the cities of Hartford and Waterbury. The par value of the stock, none of which is for sale, is $100. The value placed on it by the state board of equalization is $310. This is a matter of very great interest here in view of the fact that the stock gets a higher rating than that of any national bank in such cities as New Haven, Bridgeport, Norwich, New London, Meriden and New Britain.

Recently elected officers of Killingly grange, the list previously printed in this column, were installed Monday evening by Mrs. Lillian Frink, of Canterbury grange, No. 70. Another feature of the evening was a report on the recent meeting of the State grange as presented by Lecturer Charles A. Downs, who, with Mrs. Downs, attended the sessions in Hartford. Mrs. L. E. Kennedy was chairman of a committee in charge of the serving of refreshments. Dancing interested the members for a time after the business of the meeting was over.

Vincent Kenneth Cobb, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Cobb, of Goodyear, and born April 6, 1923, died at their home Tuesday morning. The child fell Sunday while walking about in the home, striking on his nose. The incident was regarded as no more than one of the many bumps of childhood days, but it developed into something far more serious. Through about during Monday, the child appeared dull and partly stupified. Its condition grew steadily worse until death came Tuesday. Dr. George M. Burroughs, medical examiner, who invested the case gave as the cause of death, a fracture at the base of the skull.

A temperature of 60 degrees was recorded on many thermometers in Danielson, Tuesday afternoon.

A regular drill of the Service battery was held Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Theresa Halemans, a widow, for a number of years housekeeper at St. James' rectory, died recently in Hartford. She was of advanced age.

The rush of water during the heavy rain of Monday night ploughed a gulley across one of the fields of the Ezra Burgess farm, on upper Reynolds street.

Samuel Anderson, of the Connecticut company, was a visitor here from Norwich, on Tuesday.

State highways on Tuesday, following the rain, fog and high temperature of the previous day, were as free from ice and snow in this territory, as in June.

PUTNAM

JOS. LACROIX OF BALTIC WINS PUTNAM BRIDE

(Special to The Bulletin.)

PUTNAM, Jan. 19. — Miss Bella Louise Bonneville, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bonneville, of Woodstock avenue, united in marriage with Charles F. Lacroix, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lacroix, of Baltic, at a nuptial high mass at nine o'clock this morning at St. Mary's church, by Rev. Charles F. Bedard, the pastor. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Annette Gagne, of Bridgeport and Noe J. Lacroix, brother of the groom, was the best man.

A special musical programme was given by St. Mary's choir, of which the bride has long been a member. Mrs. Antonia Parent sang Guonod's Ave Maria as an offertory. The bride wore a gown of silver and gold lace over rose satin with hat to match. The bridesmaid wore peach georgette over nile green satin, with hat to match. Both carried bouquets of tea roses. The bride's gift to her maid was a silver bobbed hair set and the best man received a pair of gold cuff links from the groom.

After a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lacroix left for a two week wedding trip. The bride's traveling suit was of black satin trimmed with brocade and a hat to match. The bride received many useful and costly gifts.

Mrs. Lacroix is a graduate of St. Mary's parochial school and Putnam High school. After her graduation she lived at home with her parents. Mr. Lacroix was born in Baltic and received his education at St. Joseph's school in that village. He is now employed in the weaving department of the Waterman Worsted company.

After their return Mr. and Mrs. Lacroix will make their home, temporarily, with the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bonneville, on Woodstock avenue. They will be at home to their friends after January 28.

At the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Willis, Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, Miss Alice Mae Willis was united in marriage with Stanley E. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Johnson, of North Grosvenordale. Rev. H. Goring Allder, rector of St. Philip's church officiated. The double ring ceremony was used.

The bride was attended by Miss Marion Daboll of New London as bridesmaid and a brother of the groom, Knute Johnson of New York city was best man. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Clarence E. Willis. Miss Elnora played the wedding march from Lohengrin. The bride wore pink georgette over peach satin and the bridesmaid was dressed in grey georgette over pink satin. The bride's traveling suit was of blue crushed crepe with a coat of lipstick red trimmed with grey fur.

The bride's gift to her bridesmaid was a silver vanity case while the groom presented his best man with a pair of gold cuff links. Miss Fisher was given a necklace.

The bridal arch under which the ceremony was performed was made of pink roses and evergreens with streamers of pink ribbons. The color scheme of all the decorations was pink.

Mrs. Johnson is well known in the city having lived here the greater part of her life. She is a graduate of the Putnam High school and prior to her marriage was employed at the Hemingway Silk company. The groom was born in North Grosvenordale and attended the Tourtelotte Memorial High school.

Many beautiful and costly presents were received and there was a large number of out of town guests from New York, Providence, New London, Worcester and North Grosvenordale.

Following a wedding trip to New York city they will be at home in their newly furnished house at 79 Woodstock avenue.

Miss Sophie Ann Borski, aged 25 years, died at the Memorial hospital, Pawtucket, R. I., Saturday night, where she had been a patient for only a week. Besides her parents she is survived by six brothers and two sisters, one of the sisters being Mrs. Walter Chaffee of Putnam.

Rolla Kolton, of Holyoke, Mass., has been appointed executor of the estate of the late Henry Comings, also of Maria E. Comings, who died four years ago, but whose estate has never been probated.

On March 15, H. L. Tatem of East-ford bought twenty-six Rhode Island Red day old chicks and fifteen of them proved to be pullets. The first egg these pullets laid was August 10 and up to January 1 these fifteen pullets laid 1,157 eggs. This is Mr. Tatem's first attempt at poultry keeping and as he has had such good luck he is now ready to try on a larger scale.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Sherman and daughter are the guests of relatives in Worcester, Mass.

Miss Nellie Flanagan has returned to New London after a visit of two weeks with her parents on the West Thompson road.

Miss Sherman, of Thompson, has left Guilford, where she had been with her sister, Mrs. Phinney, and is now at the Hotel Judson, New York city, where she expects to remain for the balance of the winter.

Mrs. Walter Lindeman of Wilkinson street, has been the guest of Mrs. William Lindeman of Woodstock Hill.

Miss Lydia Taber of Providence, has been spending a few days with her grandmother and her father, Mrs. Charles Taber and Clarence Taber.

Mrs. James Converse has been the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Eugene Lincoln of Willimantic.

Miss Leosa Magnant, a student nurse at St. Vincent's hospital, Worcester, Mass., has been visiting her parents on Brodge street for a few days.

Mrs. Emory Munyan and little son of Worcester, Mass., are guests of Mrs. Munyan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Rose, of Main street.

Samuel Simmons of Webster, has been the guest of friends in Putnam.

Francis Curran of Worcester, Mass., has been visiting relatives in the city.

James Kelly, of Main street, has returned from a visit with friends at Norwich.

Judge Frank F. Russell and daughter Miss Constance Russell, left this week for Tarpon Springs, Florida, where they will spend several weeks.

Miss Marietta Reid, of South Main street, has been visiting friends at Webster, Mass.

This six challenges comparison

Side by side, with any Six within several hundred dollars of its price, this big, oversize, extra-powerful Overland Six Sedan will win your enthusiastic approval hands down!

In beauty of color effect, in lustrous finish, in body lines, in room, in equipment . . . between this and other Sixes in the $1000 group there is no possible comparison. In performance it will out-pull, out-run, out-accelerate any car in its class you want to test against it. Step in and see it.

The New* WILLYS FINANCE PLAN

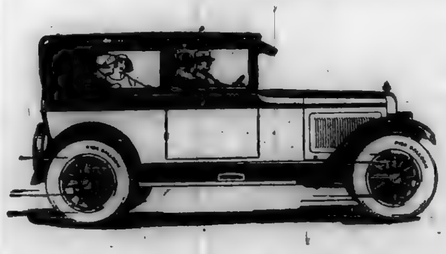
offers easy time-payment terms at the lowest cost at which an automobile can be purchased. Why pay more?



Six Sedan $895 f.o.b. factory

Overland Six

H. H. Starkweather Danielson, Conn.

Fontaine Bros. 175 North Main Street.

Overland Sales & Service Plainfield, Conn.

JEWETT CITY

BOROUGH TAX RATE FIXED AT TEN MILLS

(Special to The Bulletin.)

JEWETT CITY, Jan. 19—The annual borough meeting was held on Monday evening at the town hall, Warden Matthew Geary presided. The call was read by the borough clerk, Edwin M. Gray. The annual reports were distributed and were voted accepted. A correction should be made in the health officer's report, which states that the district nurse is under the head of the Red Cross. She is partly supported by the Red Cross and the town, Metropolitan Insurance Co., and fees recived by outside calls, but is under the jurisdiction of the town of Griswold. A town nurse committee, of which the health officer himself is chairman, is directly in charge of her work. It was voted to lay a tax of ten mills. The decrease in the bonded debt last year was six thousand dollars. The recapitulation of expenses shows:

Streets	$ 5,957.57
Police	1,932.46
Fire Department	1,468.19
Street Lights	2,594.90
Election Expenses	100.20
Insurance	327.46
Printing	207.05
Miscellaneous	1,296.10
Clerk and Treasurer	404.79
Interest	5,400.00
Water	1,976.50
Garbage	1,264.57
Park	87.83
Bonds and Sinking Fund	11,997.33
Electric Light Plant	18,471.57
	$53,537.42
Deduct am't. paid for Bonds and Sinking Fund	$11,997.33
Actual running expenses	$41,540.09

Receipts

Balance from 1924	$ 7,311.87
Received from
L. E Boucher, levy 1923	355.43
L. E. Boucher, levy 1924	22,358.21
J. C. Elec. Light Plant	21,134 91
Town Griswold, streets	2,500.00
Peddlers and licenses	166.50
Sinking Fund, J. C. Bank	5,997.33
Telephone tolls	20.80
Sale crushed stone	17.20
All other receipts	178.78
	$80,541.02
Expenditures by Departments	$53,537.42
Balance Treasury Jan. 11, 1926	$7,003.60

The electric light commissioners report was as follows:

Earnings

Street Lights	$ 2,592.50
Commercial Lights	20,709.47
	$23,301.97

Expenses

Salaries	$ 2,060.44
Electrical Service	11,555.94
General Repairs	327.06
Supplies	539.15
Interest	1,125.00
Depreciation	2,888.64
	$18,396.23
Net Gain	4,905.74
	$23,301.97

During the year there has been new construction amounting to $4,068.04, as follows: Rebuilding line, $1,582.60; new construction, $1,952.53; Tadpole extension, $532.91.

The commissioners are George J. Moeller, Lloyd G. Buckingham, Daniel F. Finn. The superintendent is Earl S. Hiscox. The inventory of the plant includes:

Building	$ 1,900.00
Swithboard and Instruments	1,682.30
Meters	8,635.63
Transformers	5,025.64
Street Lights, Wires, Fixtures, Etc.	11,224.50
Line Tools	418.30
	$28,886.42
Less 10 per cent. Depreciation	$ 2,888.64
	$25,997.78

CHILD PLAYING WITH TOY BALLOON RUNS INTO AUTO

(Special to The Bulletin.)

JEWETT CITY, Jan. 19—Little Corrine Zegeer, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Zegeer, was knocked down by an automobile near the post office Tuesday afternoon but apparently was not seriously injured. She was with her mother, and, had a toy balloon in her hand. Without any warning, she darted across the street, and a Rhode Island machine's rear wheel knocked her down. Chester Stafford picked her up and ran with her to Dr. McLaughlin's, but no injury could be found. The leather was torn from one shoe around the bottom, and her ankle is lame and a little swollen. It was a narrow escape, but no blame was attached to the driver.

The Ladies' society of the Congrega-tional church meets at Mrs. J. D. Ballou's Thursday afternoon.

Elmer Campbell was taken to Backus hospital Monday with a broken leg. He was working at Downing Bros., in Plainfield getting in ice, and fell from the run, about 25 feet high, breaking both bones below the knee. The leg was set at the hospital, and he will be brought to his home in Pachaug today (Wednesday.)

Albert Dawley, who lives in the section of the town known as the Canterberry Bog, was operated upon for appendicitis Sunday, at Backus hospital.

Miss Clara Wells is at her home in Danielson, where she is improving slowly. She is a teacher in the Riverside school, and her father is substituting for her. She greatly appreciates the flowers, cards and messages she receives from her Jewett City friends.

Basketball tonite, Bijou hall, Jewett City vs. Manchester.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. John McBrooms celebrated their first wedding anniversary Sunday, by entertaining a family party of twelve at a turkey dinner.

MOHEGAN

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schultz called on friends in New London Saturday.

Miss Gladys Tanta Quidgeon, who has been home for several weeks has returned to Philadelphia.

Ralph McGarren, who is on the U. S. S. Pequot is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. McGarren.

Mr. and Mrs. John Quidgeon and all of the family who have been ill with grip colds are somewhat better.

Julian Harris of Hartford was in this place Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nonsuch, of Grton, were callers at the Matthews home on Sunday.

The people of this place are greatly pleased to have street lights.

Ten leaders in aviation, engineering law and finance have accepted positions as directors of the Daniel Guggenheim fund for the promotion of aeronautics, to which Mr. Guggenheim will contribute $2,500,000 during the next ten years.

THE BOSTON STORE

THE REID & HUGHES COMPANY
NORWICH CONNECTICUT

Women's Knit Underwear

Warm, practical undergarments, made for service and priced for thrifty pocketbooks. Be wise and stock in, for we don't know when prices will imitate these again.

WOMEN'S COTTON VESTS AND PANTS
"Merode" make
$1.00 and $1.25

WOMEN'S FLEECED VESTS AND PANTS
$1.35 and $1.50

WOMEN'S COTTON UNION SUITS
$1.50 and $2.50

WOMEN'S SILK and WOOL VESTS and PANTS
$1.65, $2.25 and $4.00

WOMEN'S SILK and WOOL UNION SUITS
$2.75 to $4.25

CHILDREN'S COTTON VESTS and PANTS
CHILDREN'S COTTON UNION SUITS
50c to $1.50

CHILDREN'S COTTON VESTS AND PANTS
WOOL MIXTURES
$1.25 to $2.00

TOILETS

HENNAFOAM SHAMPOO—It cleanses, brightens and imparts a natural lustre—50c size for 32c

ST. DENIS BATH SALTS, regular $1.25—Special 89c

TRACY POWDER PUFFS. Regular 25c—For 15c

JEWELRY

One Lot of LINGERIE PINS, BAR PINS, BEAUTY PINS, Etc. Regular 39c—Special 25c

NOTIONS

ATLAS and GEM SNAPS and HOOKS and EYES. Regular 5c—Special, 2 for 5c

Surprise Special No. 63

Only exceptional merchandise values featured in these one-day specials. To properly identify these unusual values we have named them

Surprise Specials

MEN'S FANCY WOOL SOCKS

INCLUDING ALL WOOL and SILK and WOOL

We were able to buy a quantity at half the ordinary price. Every pair worth $1.00 and some of them worth much more.

SURPRISE SPECIAL

49c Pair

Your doctor likes THIS breakfast,

The "Ideal Breakfast Food" because it is so rich in nourishment and yet so appetizing.

In Heckers' Cream Farina is nothing but the very hearts of wheat. Pearly bits of vitality hidden by nature in the center of each grain—the part richest in nourishment and full ripened flavor.

A smooth, creamy breakfast dish that the whole family will enjoy day after day.

FOR MORE THAN SIXTEEN MAKERS OF QUALITY PRODUCTS

H-O HORSEY'S OATS
H-O QUICK COOKING OATS
BECKER CREAM BUCKWHEAT FLOUR
OLD HOMESTEAD PANCAKE FLOUR

For Finest
Lemon Sauces and Icings use WILLIAMS' LEMON EXTRACT
15 other Flavors
The Williams & Carleton Co.
EAST HARTFORD CONN.

"JOE" SHIPPEE

Champion Fiddler of New England, and His Orchestra
Playing for Old Fashioned Dancing
State Armory, Danielson,
WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 20th
Popular Admission Prices Everybody Come.

Norwich Bulletin and Courier

130 YEARS OLD

Printed every day in the year except Sunday.

Subscription price 12c a week; 50c a month; $6.00 a year.

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich, Conn., as second-class matter.

Telephone Calls:

Bulletin Business Office, 480.
Bulletin Editorial Rooms, 35-3.
Bulletin Job Room, 35-4.

Willimantic Office, 854 Main St. Telephone 1151-2.

Norwich, Wednesday, Jan. 20, 1926

Member of The Associated Press

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

All rights of republication of special despatches herein are also reserved.

Daily Average Circulation

WEEK ENDING JAN. 16, 1926:

12,720

STRIKE CONTINUANCE

Having gone back into the coal fields and talked to the coal miners, Mr. Lewis, president of the miners' union, makes the statement that there will be no settlement of the strike until the miners get what they want, whether they have to stay out for a week, a month or a year. He is absolutely opposed to anything which savors of arbitration.

In the nearly five months in which the coal mines have been idle those who have suffered the most have been the miners and their families. They have lost much money. They have been obliged in some instances to go to soup kitchens for food. They have sent out, or had sent out for them, appeals for their assistance. Others who have been injured by their idleness are those who are expected to extend them credit. By their acts they have demoralized business. To some extent they have disturbed the coal consumers. They have forced them to use substitutes and in the case of anthracite have required those who could get it to pay higher prices. They have not, however, been able to create such a situation in connection with fuel that a shortage became menacing or fuel was not obtainable. Because of that they have not been able to get that additional pressure from a strike which has formerly characterized the refusal to produce coal.

Thus in the threatened continuance of the strike it appears that no one promises to be hurt as much as the miners themselves and those depending upon them. They are placing themselves in a position which is making it more and more difficult to command public sympathy. They have created the existing situation and are proposing to continue it. With no condition as yet to call for interference with the continuation of this self inflicted injury President Lewis can expect to get little help from the coal consuming public. If the awakening which he promised the public has long since been discounted and is now actually due to the miners it should be remembered by them that there is no one to blame but themselves for tolerating and supporting such leadership.

AIDING AVIATION

When Daniel Guggenheim made a gift of a half million to New York university to promote the study of aviation it was quite evident that he was not only interested in flying but that he believed it had a future and deserved encouragement.

By his additional gift of $2,500,000 for the purpose of pushing research work in connection with aviation, he has given further expression to his convictions. This fund is to be administered by responsible parties outside of control by the government but working in close cooperation with the department of commerce.

In view of the part which this country has played in the development of the heavier than air machine, it is unfortunate that interest in aviation in this country has not kept pace with that shown in other countries. We have lagged far behind and instead of private capital getting busy it has for the most part been left to the development that has taken place in the war and navy department.

Recently new steps have been taken to obtain legislation that would give encouragement to the development of commercial aviation, and it seems likely to succeed. Mr. Guggenheim, however, understands the handicaps which were experienced in dealing with underground conditions and knows what assistance such a fund would have been to his enterprise in its early days. With that in mind he has been prompted to make a generous provision for giving help to aviation which is seen to be greatly needed.

Aviation should profit greatly from this new source of aid and encouragement. Directed by a board of trustees which is to be guided by fundamental science and his views for putting this fund to the best possible use for the nation's industrial, economic and social advancement much can be anticipated from this fund. The gift represents the sentiment of the donor relative to aviation and its future, and the results should justify his expectations.

SCHOOL STRIKES

Just now Washington is experiencing one of those strikes by high school pupils that create an extremely bad impression. It is of course a cropping out of that deplorable conduct which is manifested in too many directions. In this particular instance it appears that the board of education has seen fit to remove a school principal. Because of this change, but without the implication or encouragement of the deposed principal, the pupils left school and have refused to return. It is a matter, of course, in which parental encouragement to a certain degree is indicated, but it is a case where no such interference with the conduct of the school can be countenanced.

However much it might be desired by many, the time has not as yet come when the pupils are captivated with the school regulations. They may become attached to certain teachers and regret their departure. That is no more than their experience in going from one grade to another. There is no reason to suppose that a board of education is going to act in a manner detrimental to their interests. The fact is that the board is charged with large responsibilities and it is expected to live up to them even though there are times when their judgment goes contrary to the coming generations. The board of education can no more permit the children to run the schools than the parents would tolerate any such thing in the management of the homes.

There is a matter of discipline involved which cannot and should not be overlooked by the parents. The compulsory education law will probably furnish the school authorities with the means of ending the situation, but it doesn't reflect favorably upon the parents if they make it necessary to resort to any such method. The responsibility for such a thing as a strike among school children must rest first, last and all the time upon the shoulders of the parents. They should know better than to think of lending encouragement to any such conduct to say nothing of aiding and abetting it.

HIGHWAY SAFETY CONTEST

Considering the importance of highway safety in this day and generation, there cannot fail to be widespread interest in the purpose of the highway education board in its endeavor to plan a solution of the traffic problems for the future by the conduct of an essay campaign in the schools of the country.

Great numbers of children are victims of the automobile, and the children of today are the fathers and mothers of tomorrow. By the guidance of thought and by the stimulation of effort in behalf of the known dangers that are to be found in the highway today highly commendable prevention work is bound to result.

The children who can be interested in writing essays on what their schools have done to increase the safety of the highways are going to get their thoughts centered upon a matter which vitally concerns them. The mere fact that such a competition is underway means that increased attention will be given to highway conditions. They will be pointed out and others will be urged to avoid danger. What is made a matter of common effort is sooner or later going to be dealt with in a manner that will reduce the hazards. Those who are contributing to the serious traffic conditions today will give heed to what they can do to prevent them, children will have a greater regard for their own safety and by the examples set others will be guided away from danger.

Not only is the nationwide essay contest a most commendable step, but it would be an excellent thing if it could be participated in by every child able to write an essay, whether there was any chance for a prize or not. It will never be possible to get too much thought developed along such a line.

THE RIGHT ANSWER

When the debt funding commission left Greece for this country it was apparently directed to obtain an additional loan of $32,000,000 before it would agree to the funding of the existing 15,000,000 loan. Further than that it was evidently without authority to go. That at least is the inference to be gained from the manner in which the commission has acted and the postponement of negotiations until further instructions can be obtained from Greece.

When such a proposition was placed before this government it required but a short time in which to inform the commission that such was impossible. This country's reply was to the point and final. There is no authority by which it can do as Greece desires even if there was the disposition.

There is no denial of the fact that Greece has obtained $15,000,000 or that it owes it to the country, and there is no claim so far as known that it is unable to pay what it owes. When it endeavors to base its promise to pay upon the extension of a further loan more than twice as large it could hardly have anticipated success. It would certainly make a more favorable impression and come much nearer getting what it seeks if it came to an agreement concerning the funding of the debt and then set out to obtain a loan through private financial channels. Greece hasn't profited from the experience of others. It has endeavored to accomplish the impossible and in that effort it has received the only answer to be expected. Further negotiations must proceed along other lines.

EDITORIAL NOTES

A liberal amount of thrift is an excellent thing for every family.

The next big decision is to be rendered by the ground hog. He never refuses to review a case.

As time goes on new evidence piles up in the senate to prove that Dawes was right in his contentions.

The weatherman certainly knows how to contribute handsomely to the water supply in the winter time.

The man on the corner says: It looks as if January was trying to staff an epidemic of spring fever.

Don't by any means think that the snow shovel can be laid aside for the winter. We are not out of the drifts yet.

Taken in time and employing drastic treatment will break up many an infection of criminality that promises serious results.

Many people have had experience with Ponzi propositions and yet he doesn't appear to have any trouble in interesting others.

It wasn't so much what was told about George Washington as the way in which it was told and the inference it was intended to carry.

If everyone would heed the advice of the National Safety council to "play safe" there would be no need of spending billions to remove grade crossings.

HOPELESS VICTIM

"I know where I can get a genuine early American applewood kitchen dresser!" triumphantly related the wife of the saturnine business man. She was suffering from the craze for antiques.

"Indeed!" growled the saturnine man. "But there isn't an inch of room in our kitchen——"

"Oh, my goodness!" cried the antique-crazy wife, "when you have a colonial kitchen dresser you never put it in the kitchen—the idea! But there is no room in our living room, either, nor in the dining room! I am going to get it tomorrow with my birthday money!"

"Don't tell me the human race isn't descended from monkies!" the saturnine man proclaimed bitterly. "Or jackdaws! Maybe crows, too! I knew tame crow back home that used to fly into school windows and steal chalk and pencils, rings and money, and into houses snitching thimbles, coins, silver and bright knickknacks for which he had no earthly use. He just liked the looks of 'em.

"You just carry the idea a little farther with your kitchen dresser! You'll stick it in some place where it doesn't fit and forever after we will be barking shins and cracking crazybones on it. You won't let me lay my pipe down on it or stack books on it.

"You go to an auction and arrive home breathless with a Grecian oil jar four feet high designed to sit in a garden, although we have no garden, a Benares brass bowl too big to repose on the mantel or table and looking like heck if it does; some colonial whiskey bottles that cost 10 cents a hundred when new and now sell for $10 each and impossible to fill nowadays.

"A moth-eaten sampler with a busted frame sends you into raptures and maybe you have likewise a footstool or two which are always directly in front of me when I start hastily to go somewhere. There is nothing on earth so all-prevalent as a footstool. For a small article it is decidedly speedy as well as malicious. I never knew anybody to use a footstool, either. It is kicked out of the way either politely or energetically to make room for the person who chooses to sit down.

"One up-and-coming, well-glued footstool with a malicious turn of soul can do more damage in five minutes than a war tank in action. Why, a footstool wrecked the life of my best friend in college.

"He had gone to call on the daughter of the most prominent family in town, a family who owned two banks, a butler and a Russian wolfhound, and he was firmly resolved to propose that evening. He forgot the footstool stationed before his easy chair, and when he arose, tall and handsome, pale and intense, and strode toward her with outstretched hands, saying, 'Helen, darling,' the footstool tripped him and he went headlong into his mother's rock-crystal aquarium, which was then the latest wrinkle.

"Away past midnight the butler and the family were plucking fan-tailed and exhausted goldfish out of picture frames, bookcases and rugs, extracting seashells from father's tobacco jar and lifting water greenery off the upholstery and wall paper, where it clung mucilaginously. The young lady was so annoyed, especially as her share of the excitement had been the aquarium castle, which hit her on the shin in its flight, that she was permanently not at home to Tod from then on.

"I'd like an honest-to-goodness chair, made in Grand Rapids not later than three months ago, in which I can twist around without having the whole affair crash into kindling as did your cherished antique Windsor which I mistakenly thought was to sit in instead of to look at. Why put a Pilgrim Father's early colonial love seat into a modern kitchenette apartment where there's nobody to make love to, as your friend Mrs. Pinwheel has just done? It is inappropriate! What she should have purchased is a polychrome cigarette stand and a new card table——"

"I think I can set it over in that corner," said the antique-mad wife, dreamily, having been enjoying her thoughts while he was talking. "I can move your chair out and the dresser will look just grand! My, but Estelle will be mad when she sees it!"—Chicago News.

Today's Anniversaries

1870—Congress accepted a statue of Nathaniel Greene, placed in Statuary Hall of the National Capitol by the State of Rhode Island.

1876—A convention of the temperance associations of Iowa met in Des Moines.

1882—Twenty lives were lost in a railroad disaster in Tehachepi Pass, California.

1887—The emigrant ship "Kapunda," from England to Australia, was wrecked off Brazil, with a loss of nearly 300 lives.

1894—William Gilpin, bodyguard to President Lincoln and first governor of Colorado, died in Denver. Born in Newcastle county, Del., Oct. 4, 1814.

1900—Richard D. Blackmore, the author of "Lorna Doone," died in England. Born there, June 9, 1825.

1917—British government called for 4,000 more munition workers.

1924—Traffic was almost entirely suspended in England by a strike of 50,000 railway engineers and firemen.

1925—Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson was inaugurated as first woman governor of Texas.

Stories That Recall Others

Block and Tackle Gin

There was a discussion going on concerning prohibition enforcement. A colored laborer was the spokesman and he lead off with:

"Say, man, we 'all got a new kind of liquor down heah."

"What kind is that?" asked the listener.

"Why, it's that block and tackle gin. Ain't yer never hurd about it?

"What kind of gin is that?"

"Well, it's the kind that yer take one drink, then walk a block, and by that time you'd tackle anything."

Not Abreast of Times

He had written an essay in the English class in which he had described the appearance of a certain young high school pupil and he used the phrase, "wearing his Oxford bags." The English teacher criticised the youth for the phraseology of "wearing" since, she said he would "carry" them. And the best part of the story lies in the fact that the English teacher told the joke on herself.

IN THE PUBLIC EYE

Those who can turn back their memories to the time, not so many years since, when the first visit of Richard Le Gallienne created quite a stir in American literary and social circles, may find it somewhat difficult to realize that the then youthful poet and critic is today celebrating his sixtieth birthday anniversary. Mr. Le Gallienne was heralded as the leader of a literary cult in London—a bold young man who dared to say that there was no saner writer in the world than Emile Zola, and that Walt Whitman was the most original man since the beginning of the Christian era. Since those days the poet-critic, who long ago became an adopted American, has ceased to be a literary sensation, though still occasionally he "rape's his lips" to speak new things. His latest work, prose and verse, has been written not so much for his cult as for the world at large.

Today's Birthdays

Mischa Elman, one of the most celebrated of living violinists, born in Russia, 37 years ago today.

Thomas N. Hart, Boston's oldest ex-mayor, born at North Reading, Mass., 97 years ago today.

Prof. James F. Norris, recently re-elected president of the American Chemical society, born in Baltimore, 55 years ago today.

Dr. Leonard S. Klinck, president of the University of British Columbia, born in York county, Ontario, 49 years ago today.

Josef Hofmann, the celebrated pianist, born in Cracow, Galicia, 49 years ago today.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Pensions

Editor: In reference to my article on pensions in the Bulletin a mail clerk informed me by letter that I misunderstood the proposed postal bill. He wrote that the mail clerks were to pay the costs,—$ 1-2 per cent of wages, in their first proposition they agreed to pay the costs,—2 1-2 per cent. of their wages—but they went into congress shortly afterward and got their 2 1-2 per cent back and about $350 yearly on the side.

Last year, 1925, they put another across for one dollar a day each, barring the first class postmaster.

Now they are receiving from $1200 to $1500 more than they could get outside the government service.

Suppose business men were sent to Washington to put the United States government on a business basis and took these excesses in pay away from the clerks, their $ 1-2 per cent. would not pay more than 1-3 the costs; then the United States would have to keep the barrel full at the wrong end of the game while the pensioners would draw $100 per month at the faucet.

W. DEE.

Willimantic, Jan. 18, 1926.

Old Almanac Weather

Mr. Editor: I read with much pleasure the weather predictions in 1815 from Nathan Dudoit's Almanack for January and February. Now I have several almanacks which have been in my family since the year 1812 and we will compare the weather of January and February of 1812 with 1815 for the Cloud Digger.

Jan. 1st to 7, wind and cold nights; Jan. 7 to 9, moderate with some snow; Jan. 9. to 12, this morning clear and pleasant again; Jan. 12 to 15, now comes on a snow storm; Jan. 15 to 22, high winds with falling weather; Jan. 22 to 26, pleasant for January; Jan. 26 to 31, now look out for some snow and rain.

February 1 to 4, very cold again; Feb. 4 to 8, some snow with big winds; Feb. 8 to 13, pleasant for some days; Feb. 13 to 17, falling weather followed by wind; Feb. 17 to 22, more agreeable weather; Feb. 22 to 25, some rain and snow; Feb. 25 to 29, fine again to the end of the month. The moon fulled on the 27th day of this month, which would make me believe the cause of the mild days at this date.

Very Truly Yours,
EDWIN L. BURNAP.

Norwich, Jan. 19, 1926.

Prayer

Mr. Editor: In answer to a Believer in the Efficacy of Prayer, if he will read my letter again he will find that I did not say prayer is futile, but, "Prayer on the whole is futile." Thus if a person feels a conflict between desire and the sense of duty and prayer fortifies and strengthens his or her spirit to do right, then prayer is efficacious.

I said "the place to pray is at the pumps." Now I can understand that some people would pump the better if their spirits were fortified by prayer either before or while at the pumps. If there same people, instead of manning the pumps, remained in the scuppers praying, their prayers would be futile, except as they acted as a dope, to allay their present distress of mind. Too many people use prayer as a dope. St. Paul must have had much the same thing in mind, when he said, "Faith without work is vain." (Futile).

Prayer to me is futile, for I either know what to do, or know that what cannot be cured (if it cannot) must be endured.

ALBERT BOARDMAN.

Norwich, Jan. 19, 1926.

From Small Beginnings

John Harrison, a Great Clock Maker

Whenever you look at one of those great clocks that have a pendulum made up of several bars of different metals, so that when the temperature changes the pendulum remains unaffected and thus maintains accurate time, think of John Harrison, the English clock maker who designed it. Back and forth, back and forth, thousands upon thousands of those pendulums swing, and every movement is a tribute, as it were, to the cleverness of an uneducated man. Education is only a help to success. Any man may develop the intelligence that he has.

Let no one complain that he fails in life because he has had no opportunity to go to school or college. He has had every opportunity to train himself and to develop his talents to the full. "John," said John Harrison's father, "you're a clever carpenter. You make your joints true every time. You lay your shingles straight. I never have to do any of your work over again. You'll be a master carpenter some day as sure as I'm born." John Harrison never became the master carpenter that his father had predicted. He became something much better—one of the most noted of all clock makers. He was one of those active young men who "like to see the wheels go round." Whenever he saw a bit of machinery he wished at once to find out all about it; to study it; to take it apart and put it together again.

"What you making, John?" his father asked him once when the inventor was a youth just arrived at manhood.

"A clock," John Harrison answered, and went on with his work.

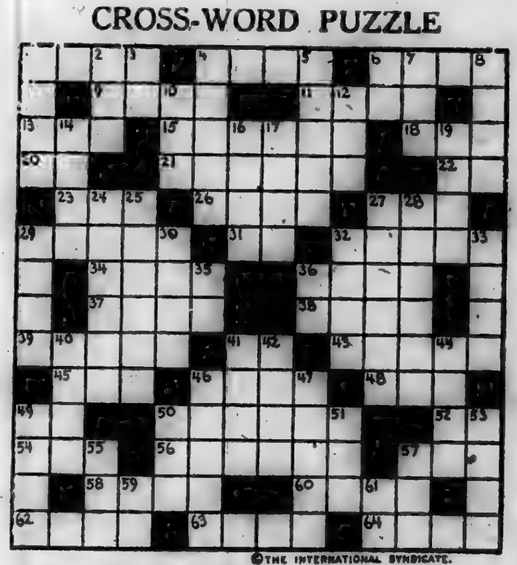
He used hard wood, worked carefully, worked accurately and actually made a clock of new design, and all of wood. There were many such clocks a few years ago, but ther had neveranother such clock as the one that John Harrison made in his early manhood. Finally he left the carpenter work, by the side of his father, and became a maker and designer of clocks. He lived to be 83, and made some of the most marvellously accurate timepieces ever made up to his time. He thought about the movement of every wheel and lever, and made every part a marvel of accuracy. He succeeded because he was insistent on every detail.

Rats Catch Crabs With Their Tails

Travelers from New Guinea have discovered a small coral island, bare of vegetation, which harbors a number of lean, hungry-looking rats. As there is apparently no food, the rats go down to the edge of the reef and tangle their tails in the water. Suddenly a rat gives a violent leap and lands with a crab hanging to its tail. Turning round, the rat grabs the crab and devours it, and then returns to the reef edge, where it repeats the operation.

Rats on Samson, one of the uninhabited islands of the Scilles, also live on crabs. They capture them on the shore and bit off their claws. Then, helpless but still alive, the crabs are deposited in the rats' larder and consumed at leisure.

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE



©THE INTERNATIONAL SYNDICATE.

HORIZONTAL

1-Excepting
4-To-it
8-That is here present
9-English river flowing into Humber
11-River in N. E. Spain
13-Firearm
15-To draw in the breath
18-Girl's name
20-Upon
21-Frightened
22-Chopping tool
23-Possessive pronoun
26-To balance
27-Preposition
28-To strike against an obstacle
31-Prefix—same as "ex"
32-Ridiculous proceeding
34-French parish priest
36-Dark brown
37-Partly fermented grape-juice
38-Trim
39-Described in writing
41-Thus
43-Tree dwelling animal
45-Some
46-To cover with pavement
48-Point of compass (abbr.)
49-Exists

HORIZONTAL (Cont.)

50-A picture-taking apparatus
52-Within
54-Article
56-A British island, Mediterranean Sea
57-Crafty
58-A supernumerary (Theat. abbr.)
60-Sacred language of eastern India
62-A cryptogamous plant
63-A way or passage out
64-Part of automobile

VERTICAL

1-A feed from palm trees
2-Of; from; in many German family names
3-Prefix—"good"
4-Away from this place
5-Wife of Menelaus (Hist. of Trojan War)
6-Trustee (abbr.)
7-Interjection
8-A river of the lower regions (Class. Myth.)
10-Short for "sister"
12-Foundation
14-One

VERTICAL (Cont.)

16-To possess
17-Greek god of war
19-In wine-making, solid refuse from grapes
24-Town in S. E. Arizona, U. S.
25-Black
27-Essy of performance
29-Western State of U. S.
29-Chopped cabbage
30-Girl's name (short)
32-Skins of animals
33-Every
35-A letter
36-A measure of capacity (abbr.)
40-A skin eruption
41-Coarse, hulled Indian corn
43-Up; above
44-Small river-duck
46-Person to whom money is paid
47-To burst forth
49-A separate entry in an account
50-Court of Common Pleas (abbr.)
51-Man's name
53-Emblem
55-Ending of feminine nouns
57-A number
59-Personal pronoun
61-A musical note

The Plaut-Cadden Company

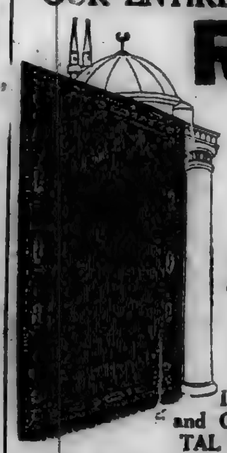
Now! Is The Time To Buy —AND— During Our Great SAVE Drive For 5000 New Customers

The Inducements Offered During This Drive Are Greater Than We Have Ever Offered Because We Are Better Prepared Now Than Ever Before to SHOW More, to SERVE More, to SAVE You More and to Offer More LIBERAL CREDIT TERMS.

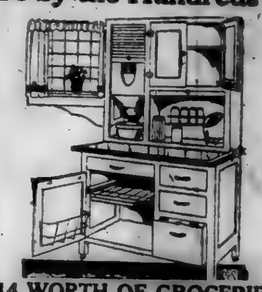
Here Are Some Reasons

Why People Are Buying Now — Good Reasons Why New Customers Are Coming to Us by the Hundreds

OUR ENTIRE STOCK OF RUGS 25% OFF



Included are Whittall's and GENUINE ORIENTAL RUGS. A great opportunity that hundreds should profit by.



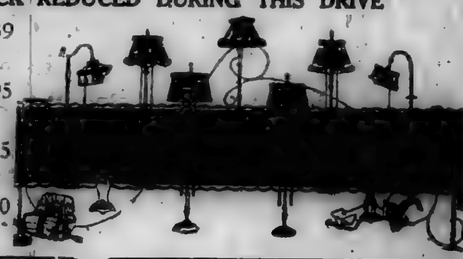
$14 WORTH OF GROCERIES, DISHES, CUTLERY and GLASSWARE FREE

WITH EVERY SELLERS' KITCHEN CABINET SOLD DURING THIS DRIVE

Now Is The Time To Buy Lamps!

OUR ENTIRE STOCK REDUCED DURING THIS DRIVE

Reg. $1.90 Parchment Shade Boudoir Lamps... $1.39
Reg. $7.75 Parchment Shade Bridge Lamps.... $4.95
Reg. $10.90 Silk Shade Junior Floor Lamps.... $6.95
Reg. $20 Silk Shade Floor or Bridge Lamps $13.90



Upholstered Parlor Suites

Settee, Arm Chair and Arm Rocker with backs and spring seats upholstered in blue velour. Frames finished in mahogany. Our special Drive Price for the three pieces .. $55

Walnut Dining Suites

These suites are regular $150 values. In the Queen Anne style. Consist of Oblong Extension Table, China Closet, Buffet and six genuine leather seat chairs (one with arms). DRIVE PRICE $89

Wonder Values in Home Needs of Every Kind

WALL MIRRORS—Reg. $13.50 ..... $9.65
FEATHER PILLOWS—Reg. $3.90 Pair $2.29
100-Piece DINNER SETS—Reg. $20 .. $10.90
PARLOR TABLES—Reg. $17.50..... $14.90
Cotton Mattresses—Regularly $12.00... $8.75
Reg. $40 6-Pc. BED OUTFITS $28
END TABLES—Reg. $5.50 ..... $2.69
METAL BEDS—Reg. $10.90 ..... $7.90
$28 LEATHER ARM ROCKERS. $17.50
$5.50 HOT POINT ELECTRIC IRONS.. $3.90
$20 MAHOGANY PARLOR TABLES $14.90
$27 MAHOGANY GATELEG TABLES $19.50
$12 MAHOGANY ARM ROCKERS ... $9.50
$30 THREE-PIECE BED OUTFITS $23
$12.90 SELLERS KITCHEN TABLES.. $8.95

AND DON'T FORGET TO SHARE IN THE DISTRIBUTION OF THE $2200 IN MERCHANDISE TO BE GIVEN AWAY

The Plaut-Cadden Co.
ESTABLISHED 1876
Two Big Stores Linking One Big Buying Organization
Everything for the Home and Everything in Music

Interest in History Grows.

A marked rise in interest in history since the World war is shown by the increased enrollment in correspondence courses of the extension division of the University of Wisconsin.

Two hundred and twenty-six students completed history courses in the two years from 1923 to 1924, as compared with 832 who completed their courses in the 12-year period from 1906 to 1920.

"The popularity of the course reflects public opinion decidedly," said Miss M. L. Edwards, in charge of the extension history department, according to the New York Times.

"After the war the demand was chiefly for a general European history course. After the Egyptian tombs brought the King Tut craze our ancient history courses swelled in enrollment. The demand for American history is constant."

Hushed is the conversation of men when money talks.

Hodnett FLOUR

FOR Bread
Rolls
Biscuit
Cakes
Pies

ALL home bakings.

Blemishes and Irritations Quickly Disappear

When Cuticura is used. Bathe with the Soap and hot water, dry gently and anoint with the Ointment. This treatment not only soothes and heals up slightly and annoying pimples, rashes and skin irritations but tends to prevent such conditions.

Soap 25c. Ointment 25 & 50c. Talcum 25c. Sold everywhere. Samples free. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. 19C, Malden, Mass." Cuticura Shaving Stick 25c.

Demand

"PHILLIPS" MILK OF MAGNESIA

Accept only genuine "Phillips," the original Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years as an antacid, laxative, corrective.

25-cent bottles, also 50-cent bottles, contain directions—any drug store.

FORTUNES IN FUR FARMING

$5,000 to $10,000 yearly now being made with little effort raising fur bearing animals in spare time. Tremendous demand for pelts. Good breeders bring $1,000 to $4,000 per pair. Animals hardy and multiply rapidly. You, too, can share in enormous profits derived from fur farming. Ranch facilities provided by us if desired. Details and illustrated booklet FREE. Write Information Bureau 1039, Nottingham Bldg., Boston, Mass.

SCHOOL OF NURSING

The school of nursing connected with the W. W. Backus Hospital, Norwich, Conn., is now registering applicants for the February classes. This school is registered in Connecticut and the course of instruction is two years and four months given in a general hospital of 90 beds. Students must be graduates of grammar school and have one year of high school work. Students have the advantage of a new residence for nurses where every comfort and convenience is afforded them. For circular of information address Supt. of the Training School.

ICE SKATES

With or Without Shoes.

KEEN KUTTER

AXES

With or Without Handles.

THE HOUSEHOLD

Bulletin Bldg., 74 Franklin Street.

Carry Rain Insurance for the Family

Take out health protection—from snow, sleet, ice, and slush. Get it in the right company—ask for

HOOD RUBBERS

AT YOUR DEALER'S

Norwich, Wednesday, Jan. 20, 1926.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 5:13 this evening.

The Cycle show in New York will attract several from this city.

Somerset Lodge No. 34, F. & A. M. works the E. A. degree tonight.—Adv.

Temperature in the 40's, with bright sun, made Tuesday seem like an advance spring day.

A large quantity of birch has been hauled to the mill at Clark's Falls. The mill is to begin operation soon.

Additions will be made to all unpaid water bills after today. Water office open tonight until 8 o'clock.—Adv.

Additions will be made to all unpaid water bills after today. Water office open tonight until 8 o'clock.—Adv.

Whist bridge and dancing at Waureagan House Thursday, Jan. 21st, eight sharp. Catholic Woman's club.—Adv.

The Spicer Ice company has harvested a crop of more than 5,000 tons from its ice ponds, at Center Groton and Poquonoc Bridge.

A whist being arranged at Andover in charge of Mrs. Harry Milburn, is for the purpose of securing new chairs for the town hall.

From Uncasville Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Hewett leave this (Wednesday) morning for Tryon, N. C., to spend the remainder of the winter.

Mrs. Alfred G. Kay of Pittsburgh and Watch Hill has opened her villa on Ocean Boulevard, Palm Beach, for the balance of the winter.

The leader of the weekly prayer meeting of the women of the Central Baptist church, Tuesday afternoon, was Mrs. William H. Whitman.

An indication that Spring draws near is the fact that orders for baby chicks are being sent owners of brooders. The average price is $20 per hundred.

Edmond Rogers, scoutmaster at Montville and his boy scouts went on a hike to Gardner Lake and spent the week-end in a very enjoyable way.

William Morgan, of the Plain has been laying in ice during the past cold weather in the store house on his farm in District No. 5, North Stonington.

At the First Baptist church this (Wednesday) evening the teachers and officers of the church school plan to meet for a supper and conference.

Buyers returning from the cities announce that the Spring style of brassiere is showing more fullness, the flat, boyish effect passing out somewhat.

Employes of the state highway department were busy Tuesday, repairing damage done along the military highway by the previous day's heavy rain.

At Rockville, plans are under way for the thirtieth annual firemen's fair in February. Delegations of fire companies from all parts are expected to attend.

It is mentioned that Victor Bassette and family who have been living in Westerly will for the present reside with Mr. Bassette's parents, at North Sterling.

The first ice of the season harvested at Carolina this year was taken from the American Ish Culture Co.'s pond. It was of excellent quality and eight inches thick.

Dealers say that the better grades of carpets and rugs are in steady demand, while road men declare orders much better than those taken in at this time last year.

Already plans are being made for social affairs in celebration of St. Valentine's day, which this year comes on Sunday, but of course will be observed the day before.

Today, Demonstration, Combusto Draft System, for coal burning boilers, at the shop of Thomas F. Burns, Franklin St. You are invited to see this device in operation.—Adv.

Friday evening, at Trinity Methodist church, Mrs. Clara Turner-Hammond of New London is to give a reading of Madam Butterfly, at a public meeting of the Wesleyan Guild.

News has been received at Willimantic Camp Ground of the marriage of Miss Charlotte Cady of Oxford, Mass., and Walter Woodward of Montreal, Canada, formerly of Willimantic.

Willard Gardiner, near Mount Misery, Voluntown, who lost his farm house by fire in the fall has finished a new bungalow on the same site and held a housewarming at the week end.

Installation of officers of Thames lodge, No. 12, A. O. U. W., of Groton took place Tuesday night in Odd Fellows' hall. District Deputy John Trant of Hartford was the installing officer.

A Norwich tourist in St. Petersburg, Fla., tells of a visitor and his wife who last week received over 200 pieces of Christmas mail—although the post office there had 25 extra clerks at the holidays.

Buying of women's wear worsteds continues to gain in volume, mill men find. The cutters-up are described as more interested in these goods than in several weeks past, with quick delivery stressed.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Nulman and two children, of Moosup have been attending a housewarming party at the home of Mrs. William's brother Mr. Zass in Fall River, where they remained for a few days.

Much attention is being given blue in the sample lines of overcoatings which selling agents are preparing for the coming fall. Confidence is expressed on many sides that that season will again favor this color.

It was given out Tuesday that the big bequest to the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, by the late Frank A. Munsey will not be available for five years. Meantime, the Museum has a deficit of $432,957.

Prominent men in Connecticut have been invited to attend a dinner in conjunction with the 50th anniversary of the organization of the National League of professional baseball clubs at the Hotel Astor, New York, February 2.

There is to be a United States Civil Service commission examination for physical director to fill vacancies in the Indian Service at $1,200 to $2,040 a year. The duties will consist of giving exercises in physical culture and remedial gymnastics.

Miss Mary Bulkley of Hartford, president of the Connecticut League of Women Voters has left to attend the four-day national women's industrial conference at Washington, D. C., called by the women's bureau of the U. S. Department of Labor.

Private J. E. Carlen, of Central Village, now stationed at Fort Wright recently qualified as marksman with the pistol. A score of at least 420 of a possible 700 is required to get the rating and Private Carlen scored 478, according to a bulletin from the fort.

Miss Perkins at Hospital.

Miss Emily Perkins of Norwich, who has been boarding at Windham inn for several years, has been taken to Backus hospital suffering from an infected foot.

PERSONALS

Miss Mabel Scott, of Norwich, has been the guest of Miss Agnes Allen, of Plainfield.

Mrs. Annie A. Ladd and Mrs. Stella Brooks of Willimantic spent Saturday in Norwich Town.

Mrs. Hinman Lord, who lives with Mrs. Gertude Hugh, of Hebron, reached her 98th birthday Jan. 15th.

Miss Dorothy Herbert, of New London, spent the week-end as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Groven of Norwich.

Rev. William S. Beard has returned to New York, following a visit with his aunt, Miss Caroline Parker, of Montville Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph P. Stillman, of Saybrook, have been guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Stillman, in Norwich.

Harry Schmuckler, of Colchester, who is in Paris, has visited the French battlefields and expects to spend the remainder of the winter in London.

Mr. and Mrs. Waterman Brown, of Montville entertained early in the week Clark Hummel and family and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hummel, from Norwich.

Leonard Partridge, Alice Wolfe, Edna Hastedt and Madeleine Wright, represented Trinity Episcopal church, Norwich at the diocesan young people's fellowship in Middletown, Saturday and Sunday, when 200 delegates attended.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Mary Smith.

Mrs. Mary Smith of No. 192 South Quaker lane, West Hartford, widow of Edmund Smith, died at her home Monday night, aged 78 years. Mrs. Smith was born in County Tyrone, Ireland, and lived in Hampton and Willimantic until going to Hartford fifteen years ago. She was the mother of nine children, five of whom are now living, Mrs. W. F. Rafferty of Putnam, Miss May Smith of Hartford, Miss Caroline Smith of Atlantic City, Miss Harriet Smith and Mrs. A. B. Lincoln of West Hartford.

M. A. Barber

Michael Angelo Barber, of No. 259 Laurel Hill avenue, died this (Wednesday) morning about 1.30 o'clock after a long illness. Mr. Barber was born in New London, June 19, 1854 but for many years had been a resident of this city, where he was proprietor of a machine and engineering shop on Chestnut street. His father, John Elliott Barber, formerly conducted a machine shop in Norwich and his son learned his trade with his father, having a natural mechanical turn of mind.

Mr. Barber received his education in the public schols of New London and succeeded to his father's business in this city, where the elder Barber had opened a shop in 1857. Mr. Barber was a staunch supporter of the republican party, a member of the Norwich Chamber of Commerce and of the Arcanum club. He attended the Church of the Good Shepherd, Universalist. In 1880 he married Fanule Burnett whose death occurred in 1892. For his second wife he married, in 1894, Theodore A. Hill, of this city. He is survived by his wife and one son, Clarence E. Barber.

Mr. Barber was widely known throughout the city and had numerous friends who will be deeply grieved to learn of his death.

Mrs. Q. M. Bosworth

On Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock the life of Mary Stark Abel Bosworth, widow of Rev. Q. M. Bosworth, of Bozrah came to a peaceful close following an illness of one week.

Mrs. Bosworth was born in Bozrah, June 26, 1840, the daughter of Lathrop and Fannie Stark. She was united in marriage with Capt. Elijah H. Abel at Bozrah, Nov. 15th, 1865 and three sons were born to them Elijah S., Edward E., and Louis H. Abel.

On March 21, 1891 she married Rev. Q. M. Bosworth and moved to Lisbon where he was pastor of the Lisbon Congregational church until the fall of 1898 when they returned to Bozrah, to make their home with her son, Elijah, where she has made her home except for 15 years which she spent in White Plains, N. Y., with her son, Louis. Mrs. Bosworth united with the Bozrah Congregational church at the age of 14 years and always took a deep interest in the welfare of the church. She was a woman of kindly and lovable disposition.

She is survived by her son Louis H. Abel, seven grand children and ten great grand children.

WEDDINGS.

Yietz-Falcone

Monday morning at 8 o'clock at St. Mary's Memorial church James Yietz and Miss Amelia Falcone, both of this city, were united in marriage by Rev. W. A. Keefe. Nearly 150 guests were present at the wedding.

The bridesmaid was Miss Rose Yietz and the best man was John Paride. The bride was charmingly gowned in crepe de chine with gold lace trimming and carried a shower bouquet. The bridesmaid was also fashionably gowned and carried Columbus roses and sweet peas.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents. The bride's gift to the groom was a gold watch and chain. The groom's gift to the bride was a flexible bracelet. The bride received many beautiful gifts, including money. Mr. and Mrs. Yietz will be at the home of the groom's parents for the winter and will furnish their own home in April.

Mr. Yietz is employed as salesman of the Shetucket Coal and Lumber Co. The bride is employed at the Norwich Paper Box Co., and is the daughter of Mrs. Frank Falcone and has always resided in Norwich where she has many friends.

Beebe-Hopkins

Sherman C. Beebe, residing on the Old Canterbury turnpike, Norwich Town, and Miss E. Mabelle Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hopkins, of 16 Julian street, were married Tuesday, Jan. 12, by Rev. Gurdon E. Bailey, at the Congregational parsonage at Norwich Town.

Mr. Beebe has been engaged in the milk business with his father and is now in business in Boston, where the newly married couple are to reside. The bride has been employed as bookkeeper for T. N. M. Lathrop, Inc., the Studebaker agency in this city.

Bundle Day For Near East

Winter is winter in Armenia! By the first of December there is likely to be ten feet of snow on the ground with the thermometer registering 25 degrees below zero! Except in the school rooms, the Near East Relief orphanages are unheated. Does that make you think of those warm old coats put away in the trunk, of the heavy underwear and the wolen stockings you are going to give away when you find the people who will wear them? Well—here are the people, men and women, boys and girls. Get out what you have and next Friday morning join the procession to your nearest school house. At 1:30, on that day, a fleet of trucks, loaned by interested Norwich merchants, will collect from all the school houses in and near Norwich, including Miss Suck's private school, the Norwich Free academy and the Parochial schools.

In South Africa, native doctors blow in the ears of their patients to drive out devils.

NEW LONDON COUNTY MUTUAL FIRE HAD BIG PREMIUM YEAR

A year in which the premium income has been the largest which the company has ever received was reported at the 86th annual policy holders' meeting of the New London County Mutual Fire Insurance Co., held at its home office building on Broadway on Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

The company has at present 45,000 policy holders throughout the state of Connecticut and its estimated assets on Dec. 31 were $650,000 with a surplus of $400,000.

After the annual reports had been presented at the policy holders' meeting, showing a very satisfactory year in fire underwriting, four directors were elected for the term of three years each as follows: Henry L. Bailey, Groton; Otto E. Wulf, Putnam; Shepard B. Palmer and Walter F. Lester, Norwich.

At the annual meeting of the directors, the officers were reelected as follows:

President, Henry H. Gallup, Norwich; secretary, Walter F. Lester; treasurer, Arthur L. Peale, Norwich.

The committees are the following: advisory, Otto E. Wulf, Putnam; S. Alpheus Gilbert and Shepard B. Palmer, Norwich; finance, H. H. Gallup, Norwich; James K. Guy, Middletown; Edwin A. Tracy and Walter F. Lester, Norwich; auditing, Otto E. Wulf, Putnam.

HIS FORMER WIFE SUES HENRY SANFORD THORNE

The son of Mrs. Tracy Farnum, of New London, Henry Sanford Thorne, who married Saturday at Ardsley, N. Y. Miss Helen Mitchell Havemeyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Havemeyer, was sued in the New York supreme court Monday by his former wife, Mrs. Bel Bacon Thorne, now said to be living in the west, said Tuesday's New York Times.

The complaint, signed by Mrs. Thorne, in Indiana, says she was induced by fraud and duress to agree to an inequitable settlement for the benefit of herself and her daughter, Rosalie, 6 years old.

The first Mrs. Thorne says she was married to the defendant at Lake Charles, La., Feb. 16, 1918, and that her husband abandoned her not long afterward. They made a separation agreement on Jan. 5, she says, under which she was to have $1,200 a year alimony and her husband was to set aside for their daughter $25,000 of a trust fund of $100,000 created for his benefit by his great grandfather, Oliver Wilmot Sanford.

After the separation agreement was made, Mrs. Thorne says, she obtained a divorce in Reno, the decree embodying the financial terms of the separation agreement.

Because Mr. Thorne failed to make payments as agreed, Mrs. Thorne continues, she consulted lawyers with the intention of starting proceedings. Her former husband met her in St. Louis in May, 1924, when, she says, he told her if she did not consent to his terms he would sue to set aside her divorce and annul their marriage. She was thus coerced, she says, into making the agreement to accept $4,000 for herself in full settlement, with $70 a month for her daughter's support and education until she reach the age of 9, and $100 a month thereafter until she became of age. Of the $4,000, Mrs. Thorne, says, only $260 was paid.

Mr. Thorne is the son of Dr. Victor Thorne of New York and Mrs. Tracy Farman of New London, Conn. He is a grandson of Samuel Thorne, for twenty years Dean of the Yale Music school, and a descendant of William Thorne, who landed at Lynn, Mass., in 1638. His present wife is a great-granddaughter of William F. Havemeyer, thrice mayor of New York, and through her mother, who was Miss Polly Mitchell, she is a descendant of Mary Chilton, who came over in the Mayflower. The Thornes plan to leave for a honeymoon in South America Wednesday and to live at 206 East Sixth street on their return.

The complaint filed yesterday says that Mr. Thorne is interested in Kellogg Service, Inc.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY MASONIC TEMPLE CORPORATION

Directors, officers and committees were elected at the annual meeting of the Masonic temple corporation, which was held Monday evening at the Masonic temple as follows:

Directors—Charles B. Lee, Howard L. Stanton, Albert S. Comstock, Herbert M. Lerou, James C. Macpherson, E. Allen Bidwell, Guy B. Dolbeare, Arthur M. Brown, Nathan A. Gibbs; president, Howard L. Stanton; vice president, Albert S. Comstock; treasurer, Guy B. Dolbeare; secretary, E. Allen Bidwell; counsel, Arthur M. Brown; auditor, Albert S. Comstock; trustee for bondholders, Nathan A. Gibbs; finance committee, Howard L. Stanton, Guy B. Dolbeare, Charles B. Lee; house committee, James C. Macpherson, E. Allen Bidwell, Herbert M. Lerou; ways and means committee for new building, James C. Macpherson, E. Allen Bidwell, Guy B. Dolbeare, Arthur M. Brown, Nathan A. Gibbs.

FUNERALS

Mrs. Stephen H. Peckham

The funeral of Mrs. Stephen H. Peckham, whose death occurred in Mystic where she was visiting, was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Ledyard Center Congregational church with a large attendance of relatives and friends. The service was conducted by Rev. C. F. Goodenough and burial took place in Ledyard Center cemetery. The bearers were Charles Gray, Samuel Holdridge, Joseph Clark and Earl Geer. Among the many mourners present were people from Mystic, New London and Norwich. There was a wealth of very beautiful floral forms. Undertaker C. A. Gager had charge of the funeral arrangements.

During the funeral service Mrs. William I. Allyn sang two hymns. Nearer, My God to Thee, and Asleep in Jesus. Mrs. Allyn was accompanied by Fred Burton, at the piano.

Sunday Music at Hospital

The music at the Backus hospital Sunday afternoon was provided under the auspices of the Swedish Lutheran church. The orchestra included the following: Piano, Mrs. Laura Pellerin; violin, Frank Benson; clarionet, John Kukla; cornet, Frank S. Galligan; cello, Fred Bunce.

The excellent program rendered was greatly enjoyed and appreciated by those at the hospital and those in charge of the afternoon's music.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

Latest messages from Miss Hannah M. Crowell, of "Oldelme", and Miss Mary Converse, of Philadelphia, came from Port Said, at the entrance to the Sues Canal, on their cruise to India.

Mrs. Charles B. Chapman, of Sachem Terrace, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Chapman, at Plandome, L. I., is now established at Hotel Albemarle, St. Petersburg, for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin A. Armstrong, of Balboa Heights Canal Zone, who were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adams P. Carroll, of Broadway, left Monday for New York. They plan to sail Saturday for their home at Panama.

Mrs. Witter R. Tingley, of Broad street, entertained as luncheon guests, Tuesday, Mrs. Hibbard R. Norman, Mrs. Barry E. Higgins, Mrs. George L. Ingalls, Mrs. Frank W. Clapp and Mrs. E. T. Phillips. Later her guests motored with Mrs. Tingley, to Connecticut college for the afternoon convocation.

FIVE ORGANIZATIONS IN UNION AGRICULTURAL MEETING

The union agricultural meeting, which is to include the Swine Growers Sheep Breaders, Guernsey Breeders, Poultry association and State Department of Agriculture, will have the following programme when it is held at the Hotel Garde, Hartford, Jan. 28 to 29:

Swine Growers association, Tuesday, January 6th., 11:30 a. m., business meeting; 12:30 p. m., luncheon, followed by speakers: Better Returns from Our Hogs, Prof. H. B. Hinman, Cornell university, Ithaca, N. Y.; Short Talks members of the association.

Sheep Breeders association, Wednesday, January 27th., 10:30 a. m., business meeting, report of secretary, report of treasurer, election of officers; 11:15 a. m., The 1925 Wool Pool, C. L. Gold West Cornwall, Conn.; intermission; 1:30 p. m., address, A Forward Look into the Sheep Industry of New England, J. G. Watson, Springfield, Mass.; 2:15 p. m., address, Greater Profits for the Eastern Sheep Man, Prof. R. B. Hinman, Cornell university, Ithaca, N. Y.; 3:15 p. m., some plans for 1926.

State Department of Agriculture. Thursday, January 28th., 10:00 a. m. formal opening, Philo T. Platt, commissioner of agriculture; 10:15 a. m. address, Results of Pasture Experiments at Storrs, B. A. Brown, Storrs Experiment station, Storrs, Conn.; 10:30 a. m., address, Results of Field Trials for Pasture Improvement, J. S. Owens, Connecticut Agricultural college, Storrs, Conn.; 10:45 a. m., address, Beef Production in New England, A. W. Reynolds, Newtown, Conn.; 11:15 a. m., address, Practical Be Growing, Dr. K. L. Seulke, Jefferson, Maine; 11:45 a. m., address, Cement and Its Use on the Farm, J. Edwin Brainard, Branford, Conn.

1:30 p. m., address, Poultry as an Adjunct to Dairy Farming, Mrs. W. B. Whitlock, Somers, Conn.; 2:00 p. m., address, Winter Feeding of Poultry, A. W. Richardson, Durham, N. H. Following each address, an opportunity will be given for discussion.

6:00 p. m., union agricultural banquet. (Connecticut food products will be used.) Speakers will include: Rev. Oliver W. Means, toastmaster, Hartford, Conn.; His Excellency, Governor John H. Trumbull, Plainville, Conn.; Lieutenant-Governor J. Edwin Brainard, Branford, Conn.; Mayor Norman C. Stevens, Hartford, Conn.; Dr. A. W. Gilbert, commissioner of agriculture, Boston, Mass.; Dr. E. Scott Farley, Suffield, Conn. Music by the Connecticut School for Boys, Meriden, Conn.

Guernsey Breeders association, grill room, Thursday, January 28th., 12:30 p. m., luncheon; 1:30 p. m., meeting called to order, President George M Hendee, Suffield, Conn.; 1:45 p. m. address, What Other State Organizations are Doing, R. L. Holden, American Guernsey Cattle club, Peterboro, N. H.; 2:15 p. m., address, How can we Get the Most Good from Our Association, J. G. Watson, livestock editor, New England Homestead, Springfield, Miss.; 2:45 p. m., address, A Project Which Should Receive the Support of the State Association in 1926, Prof. G. C. White, Connecticut Agricultural college, Storrs, Conn.

Connecticut Poultry association, Thursday, January 28th., meeting of executive committee will immediately follow the union agricultural banquet. Friday, January 29th., 9:30 a. m., business meeting, report of secretary, report of treasurer, report of auditing committee, reports, of committees, unfinished business, election of officers. 1:00 p. m., address, Growing Winter Broilers, Prof. A. W., Richardson, Durham, N. H.; address, Marketing, Frei Newbury, Torrington, Conn.; address, Facing the Future, Prof. William C. Monahan, Amherst, Mass.

7:30 p. m., address, subject to be announced, Prof. A. W. Richardson, Durham, N. H.; address, Growing Healthy Chickens, Prof. R. E. Jones, Connecticut Agricultural college, Storrs, Conn.

PLAINTIFF FAILS TO SECURE HIS DIVORCE

The divorce suit of Joseph Zdancewicz against Veronica S. O. Zdancewicz, both of Norwich, in which a counter-suit had been entered by the wife but previously withdrawn, was on trial here Tuesday morning in the superior court before Judge C. L. Avery. The plaintiff alleged intolerable cruelty. Following the evidence, Judge Avery gave decision for the defendant to recover her costs.

The plaintiff gave his evidence through an interpreter. He said that he was married May 16, 1921, and he and his wife separated March 27, 1923. There was trouble six months after they were married when his wife began throwing dishes at him, he said. At times she would not get the meals and he had to leave her.

Casmire Stazuklewicz testified to a Sunday in September, 1924, when she was at the Zdancewicz home, and heard the wife cursing her husband. Joseph Peofulitza also testified for the plaintiff and Judge John H. Barnes, attorney for the defendant, moved for a non-suit, but the motion was denied by Judge Avery.

The defendant in the case testified that she had four children by a former marriage, but none by this one. She was not seeking a divorce, she said.

Dr. E. J. Brophy testified to two calls he had made at the defendant's home when he found her in a hysterical condition. She had a cut on her face. Adelia Prekowski, who lived across the street from the home of the couple on North Cliff street, testified to being called there and finding Mrs. Zdancewicz on the bed with cuts on her face. Dr. W. J. Callahan was the final witness.

Judge Avery rendered his decision without hearing arguments from the attorneys in the case.

MERCHANTS NATL. BANK OFFICERS ARE RE-ELECTED

At 10 o'clock Tuesday morning the adjourned annual meeting of the stockholders of the Merchants National bank was held at the banking house. The following were elected directors for the ensuing year: Frank L. Woodard, James C. Henderson, L. Henry Saxton, Joseph P. Connor, Herbert W. Gallup, John T. Almy, Alexander Jordan.

The directors at a later meeting re-elected the officers as follows: President, Frank L. Woodard; vice president, James C. Henderson; cashier, Henry F. Powers; assistant cashier, William Manley Eastwood, Jr.

NEW BEAUTY CREAM QUICKLY REMAKES YOUR COMPLEXION

Gives it the texture and appearance of a wild rose petal. You can't help but notice a striking difference the moment you put it on! Nourishes while it beautifies—whitens, cleanses. Should be left on all night. Also makes wonderful powder base. Not sticky or greasy. Get this new, wonderful beauty cream, called Mello-glo and try it. At all toilet goods counters.

FAMILY GATHERING FOR 88TH BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

A company of relatives and a few friends assembled Tuesday afternoon from three to five o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Byron H. Evans, of Court street, in observance of the eighty-eighth birthday anniversary of her mother, Mrs. Rebecca Smith Moraty, of Worcester and Norwich.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. William Moore, (Lottie Vander Pyle) of Worcester, the latter a granddaughter of Mrs. Moraty; and Mrs. Evans' son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. John H. Evans, also Harry Hall of Patterson, New Jersey, the last mentioned a guest at the Evans' home, who, with Dr. and Mrs. Evans, returned to America a few weeks ago from the Near East Relief (Russia).

Mrs. Moraty was the life of the company and took great delight in displaying to her guests her many beautiful and costly gifts. These consisted of elaborate articles from Rhaeta, Armenia, Turkey, Italy and Cuba, as well as many choice and useful gifts from Los Angeles, Cal., New York, Worcester and Norwich. Included in the collection was a profusion of beautiful cut flowers, also potted plants in bloom. Besides about fifty birthday cards bearing congratulatory messages from relatives and friends, Mrs. Moraty received telegrams from grandchildren who are located in Memphis, Tenn., Boston and Worcester. A box of pressed figs and dates sent from California was arranged among the gifts which filled a large table.

MRS. REBECCA SMITH MORARTY

The house decorations were pink and green, long festoons of pink and green crepe paper were suspended from the chandeliers to the corners of the tables with a large bow at the end of each, which with the flowers intermingled, was most effective.

Mrs. Byron H. Evans was assisted by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. John H. Evans and her niece, Mrs. William Moore, also Mrs. Arthur F. Wyman, in serving chicken salad, saltines, fruit cake, caramel cake, and coffee. Preceding the luncheon a large birthday cake made by her daughter, Mrs. Evans, and decorated with pink frosting and 88 pink candles which had been lighted, was brought forth for Mrs. Moraty to extinguish the candles. This also was cut and passed around. During the afternoon Mrs. John H. Evans entertained with beautiful piano solos.

Because of being unable to attend the festivities Tuesday, Major and Mrs. Lafayette E. Evans and daughters, Miss Lucretta and Miss Lorena Evans, of Bridgeport, paid a birthday visit to Major Evans' grandmother over the weekend.

Mrs. Moraty is the mother of two children, Mrs. Byron Evans of Norwich and Mrs. Adrian Vander Pyle, of Worcester. There are twelve grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren. The two eldest, Dr. Evans and Mrs. Moore, were the only ones present at the gathering Tuesday.

Mrs. Moraty was born in Norwich Town, January 19, 1838, one of eleven children of the late Gardner and Nancy Case Smith. A brother of Mrs. Moraty, the late William Henry Smith of St. Louis, Mo., was grandfather to one of the guests present, Mrs. Charles H. Lamb of Norwich Town.

The picture of Mrs. Moraty shown herewith indicates her remarkable physical vigor for her years as it was taken during the Thanksgiving season, 1925.

WHIST AND PINOCHLE BY NEVINS-CARVER CIRCLE

The Nevins-Carver Circle held a very successful whist and pinochle at Buckingham Mem. Monday eve. Those taking prizes were: Whist, Ladies' 1st Miss Irene Wholey; second, Mrs. C. Prodell; third, Mrs. C. Burke; gentlemen's, first, Mr. Webber; second, George Morse; third, C. Prodell; pinochle, first ladies Margaret Shelly, 8,310; second, Mrs. Hallissey, 7,210; third, May Danehy, 5,390; gentlemen's, first, Mr. Medlo, 7,840; second, Frank Jay, 7,210; third, Ray Bolduc, 4,710. The door prize was awarded to Mrs. Busch.

SOMERS

At the meeting of the church school Sunday, several were given pins for the past four years.

Last Thursday evening the Woman's club gave a reception at Piedmont hall. Club members invited husbands and friends. The programme consisted of readings by Miss Rita Welch of Hartford and vocal and instrumental music by Mrs. William Heine and Mrs. Charlotta Allen Westphal, of Thompsonville. After the programme a delicious collation was served.

The Child Welfare club of Somersville will entertain the local Woman's club at Somersville, Thursday.

The Woman's club is to hold a whist party at the library later this week.

The subject of the C. E. meeting Sunday evening was Temperance.

Miss Mabel Gager has recovered sufficiently to leave the hospital where she has been a patient for sometime. Miss Gager is spending the week with Mrs. Ernest Fuller before returning home.

Work of harvesting ice has been rushed during the past week.

Mrs. Ensign Kibbe is suffering with neuritis in her arm and shoulder.

A pair of wood-carved deer, more than 100 years old, are on exhibition at Bath, Me. The carving is perfect down to the minutest detail, even to the ruffed hair on their backs. They are the work of an artist possessed with an abundance of patience.

Sensible Advice About Piles!

No girl should suffer with piles—ever. Most doctors know what to advise! A Pyramid suppository relieves the most stubborn case—a simple, but certain solution of an otherwise embarrassing and painful condition.

Don't let piles worry any member of your family. The instant relief Pyramid always brings is yours for the asking. At any drug store, and only sixty cents. Thousands could tell you of its magic! Bleeding, even badly protruding hemorrhoids are assuaged immediately by these wonderful little comforters.

Would you like a free trial to prove it? Just write for it (postpaid in plain wrapper) to the makers. Pyramid Drug Co., 1200 Pyramid Bldg., Marshall, Michigan.

VITAMINS

Many grown people do not realize the importance of the right selection of vitamin-rich foods to assure a sound body and health.

Scott's Emulsion

is the food-tonic rich in vitamins that helps solve nutrition problems. It supplies vitamin-nourishment to build health.

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. 25-31

Watch Your Frail, Puny Child Grow Strong—Take on Weight—Quick

Take Cod Liver Oil, the New Tasteless Way—In Sugar Coated Tablets

In just a few days—quicker than you ever dreamt of—these wonderful flesh making tablets, called McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets will start to help any weak, thin, undernourished little one.

After sickness and where rickets are suspected they are especially valuable. No need to give them any more nasty Cod Liver Oil—these tablets are made to take the place of that good, but evil smelling, stomach upsetting medicine and they surely do it. They do put on flesh.

Ask Lee & Osgood or any druggist for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—as easy to take as candy—and not at all expensive—60 tablets 60 cents.

Be sure and get McCoy's, the original and genuine and give the child a chance for 30 days. If you aren't delighted with results your druggist is authorized to give you your money back. Millions of boxes sold yearly—so beware of imitations.

For Skin Tortures

Zemo, the 'Clean,' Antiseptic Liquid, Just What You Need

Don't worry about Eczema or other skin troubles. You can have a clear, healthy skin by using Zemo.

Zemo generally removes Pimples, Blackheads, Blotches, Eczema and Ringworm and makes the skin clear and healthy. Zemo is a clean, penetrating, antiseptic liquid, that does not show and may be applied day or night. Ask your druggist for a small size 60c or large bottle $1.00.

THUMM'S HOME MADE PORK SAUSAGE

TRY THEM FOR YOUR NEXT BREAKFAST.

Thumm's Delicatessen Store

40 Franklin Street.

WINTER COLDS ARE DANGEROUS

The serious diseases that develop from simple coughs or colds make them dangerous and they should not be neglected. There is no better remedy for quick relief from coughs and colds than Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. "My grandchild could get no relief whatever from a very bad croupy cough, until I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar," writes Peter Landis, Meyersdale, Pa. Keep a bottle on hand for any emergency. Lee & Osgood Co.

In Clark Glee Club

Lorain C. Macpherson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Macpherson of Stetson street, who is a student at Clark university, Worcester, is one of those selected for the Clark Glee club, which is to compete in the intercollegiate meet at Boston, Feb. 13. Young Mr. Macpherson sings first tenor in the club.

DIED.

BARBER—In Norwich, Jan. 20, 1926, Michael Angelo Barber of 259 Laurel Hill avenue, aged 72 years.

THUNBERG DOES NOT LIKE AMERICAN RUBES GOVERNING SKATING RACES

NEW YORK, Jan. 19—(AP)—Clas Thunberg, of Finland, recognized as the world's amateur speed skating champion, does not like the American style of skating with its "jockeying," "stalling" and "sharp-curved" tracks. He said so today before leaving for St. Johns, N. B., to participate in the international outdoor championships, January 26, 27, and 28.

"I am not mourning the loss of my two first races against Joe Moore or Charlie Gorman," said Thunberg, through his interpreter-manager, Hugo Quist, "but everybody agrees, even Moore and Gorman, that I am under a greater handicap skating under American rules than the American skaters were at the last Olympics in competing under European rules.

"There is too much 'jockeying,' 'stalling' and 'pace-making' in the American style of racing. The sharp curves of the American track also are difficult for me to negotiate. They break up my long stride and impede my momentum."

"In Finland, all standard tracks are quarter-mile ovals with turns which a locomotive could take at full speed without endangering its center of gravity. We skate against time and not directly against any one opponent. Two skaters start in different lanes and on each lap the skaters change lanes, thereby making each skater negotiate an equal distance.

"But I am not discouraged. I believe I can become accustomed to the American style with a little more practice and show my critics that I am not over-rated."

Thunberg will go to Binghamton, N. Y., from St. Johns, to compete in the national outdoor championships there, January 30 and 31. His itinery after this meet depends upon his success in the two championships.

JEWETT CITY PROS TO PLAY SO. MANCHESTER TONIGHT

(Special to The Bulletin.)

JEWETT CITY, Jan. 19.—This (Wednesday) evening at Bijou Hall, Jewett City the Cheney Silk Mill team will be the opponents of the Jewett City Pros. The silk towners come to Jewett City with an enviable reputation of clean, fast playing, having defeated some of the best teams in the state, in the South Manchester line-up Norris of the crack Plainfield five is one of the best players ever to appear in Jewett City and if his playing tonight equals his performances in the Plainfield games fans will be given a real treat. The Pros still remain undefeated on their own floor and are out to keep that record clean.

The South Manchester team is confident of beating the locals but one can name numerous other clubs that boasted openly of their ability to trounce the locals but all were forced to taste the bitter dregs of defeat. Carl Benjamin, old Jewett City standby, has been once more persuaded to don the spangles of the town team and if in proper condition can be relied upon to score often, for his shooting in other years has caused many a rival guard nervous prostration. Benjamin's should more than offset the appearance of Norris in the rival lineup.

To the delight of local fans Harry Mills, demon center and stellar performer of the first order has recovered from a leg injury and will rejoin the Pros immediately. With Mills back at his old position and the rest of the team playing the same brand of basketball that has featured the last few games Jewett City's chances for a victory appear very bright. Mills has been out a month and was missed a lot but now everything is O. K. again and the Pros are off,—try and stop 'em! Bub Benjamin, Mondi Normandin, Joe Faber, Porky Blake and Beau Barry complete the Jewett City line-up.

At present outside of Norris the South Manchester lineup is unavailable but it is guaranteed that their most formidable five will work for them. Gordy Willis, known throughout eastern Connecticut for his squareness and ability as a referee, will hold the whistle and can be depended upon to keep the game moving at a fast clip. "Gordy" does not tolerate rough or dirty playing for a single second and the clean fast game that will result should please all lovers of good clean sport. In addition to the big game there will be a fast preliminary game when the Jewett City 2nds and the Fisk Red Tops meet to renew their feud and quest for the town Junior championship.

AGGIE VARSITY MEETS WESLEYAN AT MIDDLETOWN

(Special to The Bulletin.)

STORRS, Jan. 19—The Connecticut Aggies will play their third game of the season tomorrow night, meeting Wesleyan at Middletown. It is the Aggies first game off the home court, and playing on the narrow Wesleyan surface the team's play is likely to be slowed considerably.

Despite this, however, Connecticut's decisive victory last week over Tufts, who earlier in the season downed Wesleyan at Middletown, should give the Aggies any advantage that may exist.

Yale Plays Penn Tonight

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 19—(AP)—The Pennsylvania basketball team comes to New Haven tomorrow night for an intercollegiate league game with the Yale quintet. Penn defeated Yale on January 2.

Basketball

TONIGHT

—AT—

Bijou Hall, Jewett City

Jewett City Pros. vs.

South Manchester Club

FAST PRELIMINARY GAME.

GAME CALLED AT 8:15.

Admission—Men, 50c! Ladies, 35c.

BERLENBACH-M'TIGUE BOUT IS PRACTICALLY ASSURED

NEW YORK, Jan. 19—(AP)—Negotiations for a light heavyweight title bout between Paul Berlenbach, present champion, and Mike McTigue, former titleholder, at Madison Square Garden, February 12, are virtually complete, Jess McMahon, Garden matchmaker, told the state athletic commission today.

After taking the title from McTigue last May, Berlenbach promised to give the Irishman an early return bout and the commission has been instrumental in forcing Berlenbach to fulfill this promise. Arrangements for the title match revealed abandonment of an elimination test between McTigue and Georges Carpentier.

Matchmaker McMahon also announced that arrangements for a match betwen Johnny Dundee and Joe Glick, Junior lightweights, have been completed and that contracts will be signed within a few days. The tentative date has been set for January 29.

The license of Johnny Reisler, lightweight boxer and son of John Reisler Sr., familiarly known as "John the Barber," one of Jack Dempsey's first managers, was revoked today as a result of his attack on Patsey Haley, veteran referee in the commission's offices last week.

The younger Reisler punched Haley after being suspended for 60 days on charges preferred by the referee, growing out of a disputed decision. The suspension of the elder Reisler for 60 days was not increased when Haley reported that he had not participated in the assault.

Frank Judson, former wrestling instructor at Harvard university, was suspended indefinitely for failure to appear to fulfill a wrestling contract here on January 11.

MANY CHALLENGES FOR KANSAS AND ROSENBERG

NEW YORK, Jan. 19—(AP)—Challenges for the lightweight fistic crown held by Rocky Kansas of Buffalo, and the bantamweight title possessed by Charley (Phil) Rosenberg, of New York, have become so numerous that elimination tournaments are being considered to determine the logical contender in each division.

Each of these champions has five rivals in hot pursuit of title honors, a situation which has prompted Jess McMahon, matchmaker at Madison Square Garden, to take up the elimination tournament idea. Public opinion, he feels, would compel Rosenberg and Kansas to meet the winners of such tests.

The challengers of Kansas are Sid Terris, of New York, Sammy Mandell, of Rock Island, Ill., Solly Seaman, of New York, Stanislaus Loayza, of Chile, and Jack Bernstein, of Yonkers, N. Y., while in the bantam division Bushey Graham, of Utica, N. Y., Chick Suggs, of New Bedford, Mass., Bud Taylor, of Terre Haute, Ind., California Joe Lynch and Carl Tremaine, of Cleveland are ambitious for a shot at Rosenberg's crown.

Tex Rickard, in his 1925 boxing ratings, put Kansas third in the lightweight division, with Mandell and Terris ranking first and second, respectively. In the bantam list, Rosenberg was rated fourth, with Suggs, Graham and Taylor ahead of him in that order.

THREE NEW TROPHIES GOOD FOR FIGURE SKATING

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Jan. 19.—(AP)—Three new trophies, in addition to those usually in competition, will be awarded at the annual figure-skating competition on the Lake Placid Club rink January 22 and 23.

Contestants from the leading eastern and Canadian skating clubs are entered and among those coming are three skating club presidents, Henry W. Howe, of the New York Skating Club; Heaton R. Robertson of the New Haven Skating Club, and A. E. Kirkpatrick of the Toronto Skating Club. Cecile Eustace Smith of Toronto, Canadian women's amateur figure skating champion, will enter this year for the first time.

The United States Figure Skating Association sanctions the competition, approves the judges, and furnishes the program of figures.

McNAMARA FIGURES IN SPILL IN BERLIN RACE

BERLIN, Jan. 19—(AP)—While making a furious spurt in the international six-day bicycle race this evening McNamara, of the American team, collided with Debaets of the Belgian team. Both falling heavily, McNamara was only bruised, and was able to continue, but at a late hour Debaets was still unconscious. The Americans lost a few points by the accident.

At the end of the 121st hour Georgetti-Rieger, were leading with 1,888 miles, having scored 264 points. McNamara and Horan were second with 253 points.

TEAMMATES OF HINKEY DIES IN HOSPITAL

NEW YORK, Jan. 19—(AP)—John C. Greenway, member of the same Yale football team on which the late Frank Hinkey played, died today after an operation in Roosevelt hospital.

Greenway, who was 53 years old, also caught for the Yale baseball team having been an All-American choice in 1894 and 1895. He was an official in the Calumet-Arizona Mining company at Bisbee, Arizona, where he lived prior to coming here for the operation.

AGGIE FRESHMAN FIVE PLAYS SUFFIELD TONIGHT

(Special to The Bulletin.)

STORRS, Jan. 19—Connecticut Aggie freshmen will play their second basketball game of the season here tomorrow night, meeting Suffield school on the Hawley Armory court.

Coach Alexander will start Captain White and Cross, forwards; Hewitt, center; Schildgen and Sahagian, as guards. Others likely to get into the contest are Anderson at forward, Callahan at center and Dall at guard.

COULON HAS CHANCE TO REGAIN LOST TITLE

Promoter Joe (Tex) Grills, has arranged a championship bout for his next show at the Lyceum theatre, in New London, on the night of Feb. 3rd. Ruby Bradley, of Holyoke, Mass., the present holder of the flyweight title of Conn., will box his most dangerous rival, Young Coulon, of Norwich, in the star bout of ten rounds.

Ruby Bradley is better known as Dard Cloud and is rated as one of the best little fellows around at the present time. He defeated Young Silverberg last week at Hartford, winning the boy, who defeated Young Coulon, former holder of the flyweight championship.

Young Coulon has been after a return match with Silverberg, for a long time, he, Coulon, claiming that he was not in the best of shape when he fought Silverberg, in Ansonia, a few months ago. Promoter Grills, after seeing Dark Cloud in his last two fights in Hartford, decided that he would like to show Dark Cloud to the fight fans of this part of the state. He has finally succeeded in bringing them together for his next show. This is bound to be a great fight as both of these little fellows are known for their willingness to mix things from the tap of the gong.

MISS WILLS PROVES TO BE FAVORITE WITH FRENCH

CANNES, France, Jan. 19.—(AP)—Miss Helen Wills, the California girl who has come to Europe to strive for still further championship honors, is already a great favorite with the Riviera tennis followers, although she has been here only three days and has played only one match.

The popularity of the youthful and graceful American champion is due as much to her modest and unassuming demeanor as to her initial victory in the Metropole tourney today over Miss E. M. Green, of England, whom she defeated in two love sets, 6-0, 6-0.

The attendance was composed nine-tenths of American and English and the American girl was given a great ovation as with a tremendous smash, she scored the last point of her match.

"It comes rather hard, after several weeks' absence from the courts," said Miss Wills after the match. "But I hope to show you a better game than this before the tournament ends."

Miss Wills' rival, Mlle Suzanne Lenglen, did not come from Nice today, but, nevertheless, the stands were packed as never before.

SEVERAL FAVORITES ARE ELIMINATED AT MIAMI

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 19.—(AP)—Several favorites were eliminated while other players of lesser prominence forged to the front in the first day's play of the Miami annual mid-winter amateur golf tournament here today over the Miami Country Club course.

Lee Chase of Buffalo, N. Y., who led the field yesterday in the qualifying rounds was slightly off form in his opening match, but defeated William Wallace of Chicago, 4 and 3.

DANIELSON TOWN TEAM DEFEATS JEWETT CITY IN FAST ENCOUNTER

(Special to The Bulletin.)

DANIELSON, Jan. 19.—The Danielson Town team in their first professional engagement of the season defeated the Jewett City Pros here tonight 32 to 23 in a game replete with good basketball from whistle to whistle. One of the outstanding features of the game was the brilliant work of L. Poirier who was pitted against Normandin rated as one of the best forwards in the state. Poirier held Normandin completely at bay the flash being only able to score 2 baskets and one foul. On the other hand Poirier was able to score four baskets from the floor.

T. Reeves, local forward, was the heavy scorer for the locals and the entire Danielson team played a clean and accurate passing game. For the Pros Benjamin was the high scorer.

In the preliminary game the Radios trimmed the Statics in a fast engagement. The summary:

Town Team	G	F	Pts
T. Reves, rf	5	1	11
Blakeley, lf	2	0	4
Keach, c	3	2	8
L. Poirier, rg	0	0	0
Meunier, rg	0	0	0
Godreau, lg	1	0	2
	15	3	33
Jewett City
Normandin, rf	2	1	5
Benjamin, lf	4	2	10
Faber, c	1	2	4
J. Benjamin, c	1	0	2
Blake, rg	1	0	2
Barry, lg	0	0	0
	9	5	23

Referee, Littleworth.

PECK AND RUEL TO BE BENCHED BY SENATORS

TAMPA, Fla., Jan. 19—(AP)—Roger Peckinpaugh and "Muddy" Ruel, veterans of the Washington American League champions, are to be benched this coming season to make room for youth and speed, Clark Griffith, president of the club, announced here today.

Charles "Buddy" Myers, who substituted for Bluege last year after the third sacker sustained injuries, will succeed Peckinpaugh and Tate will be Griffith's first-string catcher, supplanting Ruel, Griffith said.

The "Old Fox" does not censure Peck because of his errors in the 1925 world series.

"I think in Myers we have a better player than Peck, a better shortstop than any who ever came up to the American League," Griffith said. "I think he is a better player than was Sewell when he first came to Cleveland."

WHIRLWINDS BEAT Y. M. H. A. IN FREE SCORING GAME

Tuesday evening at the Y. M. H. A. hall the Whirlwinds five of this city defeated the Y. M. H. A. basketball team by the score of 50 to 40. The game was very fast and hard fought at all times. During the first half the losers had an advantage, the score at half time being 19 to 16. However, in the second half the winners came strong and pulled the game from the fire.

The stars for the Y. M. H. A. team were Segal, Brauman and Blinderman while Brown, Carden and Pingree shone for the winners.

ZACH WHEAT HOLDS OUT FOR $18,000 FOR SALARY

NEW YORK, Jan. 19—(AP)—Zach Wheat has put a price tag of $18,000 on his services for 1926, his eighteenth season with the Brooklyn Nationals and accompanied his demands with an ultimatum that he won't play for less.

The Dodger captain's hold out figure is $7,000 more than his 1925 contract called for, $3,000 beyond the stipend of Brooklyn's highest salaried performer, Dazzy Vance, smoke ball king.

Schedule 162 Days of Racing

NEW YORK, Jan. 19—(AP)—Racing schedule makers have drawn up a tentative calendar of 162 days of thoroughbred sport for the Jockey club's New York tracks, beginning April 27 at Jamaica and closing October 30 at Empire City. Intervening dates will be awarded to the Belmont, Saratoga and Aqueduct courses.

Groh and McNamara Sign

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—(AP)—The New York Giants today received signed contracts from their veteran infielder Heinie Groh, and from the former Boston Braves Pitcher Tim McNamara.

Tigers Beat Eagles

Saturday afternoon, the Jewett City Tigers defeated the Taftville Eagles by a score of 37 to 24.

Army-Middlebury Game Postponed

WEST POINT, N. Y., Jan. 19—(AP)—The Army-Middlebury hockey game scheduled tomorrow has been postponed until February 17.

It doesn't take a woman very long to discover the defects in a mirror.

Chatterer Loses His Voice

Some folk I know I wish no ill,
But gladly would their voices still.
—Old Mother Nature.

Chatterer the Red Squirrel likes cold weather. He is naturally frisky, and cold weather makes him more frisky. He doesn't have to worry about his food, because he has several storehouses well filled. If he cannot find food elsewhere, he can always get it from one of these storehouses.

Now, when people feel good all over, they are very likely to want to make a noise. Chatterer is like that. He is very fond of the sound of his own voice anyway. I don't know any one who likes the sound of his own voice any better, unless it is Sammy Jay. Between them Chatterer the Red Squirrel and Sammy Jay can make more noise than all the other little people in the Green Forest together.

This morning Chatterer was frisking about and chattering as only he can. With every word he jerked that little red tail of his. It was a wonder he didn't jerk it out by the roots. But he didn't. And the Green Forest sang with the sound of his voice. Chatterer didn't have a worry. Terror the Goshawk hadn't been about for so long that Chatterer had forgotten that he even existed. There was no one else in the Hawk family about this time of the year. So Chatterer felt free to make as much noise as he pleased. He had discovered Prickly Porky in a poplar tree and he was having great fun calling Prickly Porky names and making fun of him. Prickly Porky didn't pay any attention to him whatever. He just went on about his business, which was filling his stomach with poplar bark. The fact that he wouldn't pay any attention to Chatterer made Chatterer provoked. You know there is nothing in the world so provoking as to try to attract attention and fail. So Chatterer scolded harder than ever.

Then something queer happened. Chatterer lost his voice. Yes, sir, he lost his voice. He lost it with his mouth wide open. He was just in the middle of saying something most unpleasant. And had you been looking at him when he lost his voice you would have thought his eyes were going to jump right out of his head. You would so!

Chatterer didn't move. If he had been frozen stiff there he couldn't have been more motionless. You have no idea how quiet it seemed after all the noise he had been making. Even Prickly Porky noticed it and turned his head to look at Chatterer. Chatterer was staring down below. There was fright in those popping eyes of his. Prickly Porky's eyes are too dull for him to see far or much. He turned back to his eating. Already he had ceased to wonder what ailed Chatterer.

Prickly Porky didn't pay any attention to him whatever.

Still Chatterer did not move. He did not blink an eyelash, nor did he make the smallest sound. Below, looking up at him, was a small person all in white. He was smaller than Chatterer. The tip of his tail was black and it was that moving tip that had caught Chatterer's eyes. Had it not been for that black tip it is probable that Chatterer would not have seen that small person at all. Of course, you know who it was. It was Shadow the Weasel. When Mother Nature gave Shadow that white coat, but left the tip of his tail black, she must have had in mind the other little people who have reason to so greatly fear Shadow. Shadow sat up and glared up at Chatterer. Then he bounded over to the foot of the tree and began to climb. Then, and not until then, did Chatterer move. With a smothered little cry he raced out to the tip of the branch on which he was sitting and jumped. It was a long jump, a desperate jump, but it succeeded. Chatterer landed on one of the lower branches of another tree and raced up that and jumped from that tree to another; and his tongue was still. Yes, indeed, his tongue was still. Not for the world would he have made a sound.

Copyright, 1925, T. W. Burgess

The next story: "One in White and One in Black."

Tie a tin to trouble

A TIDY red tin of Prince Albert, to be exact. There's the greatest little trouble-chaser in the known world. P. A. and trouble don't speak the same language. But trouble understands when P. A. says: "On your way!" Pipe-grouches choose the nearest exit.

Yes, Sir, P. A. is right there with the Pollyanna stuff. Sunshine, gladness, the light heart, the bright smile. Because Prince Albert is the cheeriest, chummiest tobacco that ever tumbled into a briar or corncob. A pal to count on, no matter how the battle goes. A friend in fair weather and foul. Good old Prince Albert!

Smoke P. A.—and smile. Cool, comfortable P. A. Fragrant, friendly P. A. Not a tongue-bite or a throat-parch in a ton of it. The Prince Albert process hung the "No Admittance" sign on Bite and Parch the day the factory opened. That means you can hit P. A. hard and fast—with no regrets!

Men who gave up trying to smoke a pipe have tried again . . . with Prince Albert! That proved to be their password to jimmy-pipe joy. They're P. A. fans today . . . joyous, contented, glad they've found their tobacco. Buy a tidy red tin before you do another thing.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

PRINCE ALBERT

—no other tobacco is like it!

©1925, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, N. C.

Norwich Building and Loan Association

Holds Annual Meeting and Launches Campaign for Membership in 22nd Series.

OFFICERS OF NORWICH BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION

ALEXANDER SHARP
Assistant Secretary

HENRY D. JOHNSON
Secretary

DANIEL T. SHEA
First Vice President

ERNEST O. RODIER
President

JOHN M. LEE
Second Vice President

JAMES F. FLEMING
Assistant Treasurer

THE NORWICH BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING, ELECTS BOARD OF OFFICERS, AND OPENS MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN FOR A NEW SERIES.

The Norwich Building & Loan association re-elected its entire board of officers and directors at the association's 11th annual meeting held Tuesday evening at Odd Fellow's hall, Main street. Following the business session the 100 share holders present heard a stirring and very enthusiastic address on the activities of building and loan associations by J. C. Barry, president of the Connecticut League of Building and Loan associations and president of the Building and Loan association of his home town, Portland, Conn.

Preceding the annual meeting a banquet was served at 6:30 o'clock, and during the menu there was community singing and music by an orchestra. The business meeting was called to order about 7 o'clock by President Ernest O. Rodier. He said it was a great pleasure to see so many of the shareholders present. We planned tonight to have the largest gathering of share holders that we have ever had at a meeting, he said.

Secretary Henry D. Johnson then read the minutes of the previous meeting and was followed by Treasurer Charles L. Smith who submitted his report. In making his report Treasurer Smith called attention to the fact that the money of the share holders is protected by a two-name order and a two-name check, signed by the president and treasurer and that the money is kept in two banks.

Secretary Johnson presented two applications for loans and these will be referred to the board of management, according to the usual procedure. The nominating committee, submitted the names of the old board of officers and directors for re-election and the secretary was instructed to cast one ballot in favor of their re-election.

Urges Effort For New Members

The secretary has outlined very nicely the purpose of our meetings, said President Rodier. We have a field in which to do a great work, he continued. The demands upon us are greater than our income at present. Therefore we need more income. This is your association, managed by Norwich men and the money is invested right here in Norwich. At the present time we are receiving applications for the new shares. We need more applications. We ask you to tell your friends how the money is invested and see if they won't become members.

Chamber of Commerce Letter

This week we are observing National Thrift Campaign Week. Each day of the week has a special purpose. Thursday will be Own Your Own Home Day. President Rodier then read the following letter from James L. Case, president of the Norwich Chamber of Commerce:

Mr. Ernest O. Rodier, President,
Norwich Building & Loan Association,
Thayer Building,
Norwich, Connecticut.
Dear Mr. Rodier:

I acknowledge with thanks the receipt of your invitation to be present at the annual meeting of the association to be held January 19th at 6:30 p. m.

Inasmuch, however, as I plan to be in Ohio at that time, it will be impossible for me to accept, but may I extend to you my congratulations upon the very successful year's business you report.

You and your associates are entitled to the thanks of every share holder for the manner in which you have cared for their interests.

Yours very truly,
JAMES L. CASE.

Address by Mr. Barry

The principal address of the evening at the annual meeting and banquet of the Norwich Building and Loan association, was made by John C. Barry of Portland, Conn., vice president of the Connecticut Building and Loan association. In introducing Mr. Barry, the toastmaster said: "He is one of Connecticut's successful business men, being president of Strong & Hale Lumber Co., and has had a broad experience in building and loan affairs. Mr. Barry said in part:

Those of us who are familiar with and have benefitted by the building and loan idea know that there is no other agency in the country which can equal it in offering the opportunity for a mutual exchange of money between those seeking a safe investment and those requiring aid in the building of a home.

The strange thing is that the idea is so little known throughout the land, especially in this state of ours, which has always been a leader in thrift. A few comparative figures will easily show that the light of the building and loan is hidden under a bushel. For the year ending June 1, 1925, there were nearly 12,000 associations in the United States with a membership of approximately 5,500,000, and assets of upwards of $5,000,000,000, every state in the union being represented to a greater or lesser degree. Pennsylvania leads all the states with 4,300 associations, 1,600,000 members and assets of $860,000,000. At this time Connecticut has but 37 associations with a membership of about 32,000 and assets of only $14,000,000. The population of Pennsylvania is about seven times that of ours, but the former has 100 times as many associations. New Jersey with three times the population of Connecticut, has 1,364 associations, with 239,900 members. And coming nearer to home Massachusetts which is also about three times as large in population as Connecticut, has 217 associations with 400,000 members.

Connecticut Noted For Thrift

From these figures it can readily be seen that Connecticut, with a population noted for its thrift along other lines, has been very backward in its building and loan development. Several reasons could no doubt be advanced for this lack of progress, but the outstanding reason, to my mind, is the lack of proper publicity and propaganda. The public is sadly lacking in information regarding the workings of the building and loan association, and the advantages to be gained by this method of so-called compulsory saving. The Connecticut State League of Local Building & Loan Associations, of which I have the honor to be a vice president, fully realizes the need of a concerted plan of publicity but no funds of any great amount are available for extension work, as the dues paid by the member associations are nominal.

Therefore, until such time as an organized effort can be gotten under way, it is the duty of every member of a building and loan association, to familiarize himself with its workings and spread the good work among his friends and acquaintances. The demand for money for the building of homes far exceeds the funds available, and all of the associations now in existence should do their utmost to increase their membership, and the holdings of the present members.

Association Fosters Character

It is very much in order, also that the business interests of the country should give more attention to the building and loan associations, which are doing the most basic of all work—putting people in a position to own their own homes, thereby making possible the production of th emost needed crop, character and stability. The Connecticut Lumber Dealers' Association, of which I am a director and former president has given some attention to the matter and several of its members are active in the various associations in the state, and have taken part in the formation of new associations. While it might be said that the lumber dealers would profit more directly than others in any movement stimulating the construction of new homes, it is a recognized fact, that there is no progress in which every element of a community does not share. The fact that the family, who owns its own home, makes better citizens is unquestioned, and therefore any agency that helps to make it possible for the average man to acquire a home is doing a national service.

In June 1924, I attended the 32nd annual meeting of the United States League of Building & Loan Associations held at Cleveland, Ohio. Over 300 delegates were present from 36 states. Many important matters were discussed and the convention was addressed by some of the leading economists of the country. Among those who spoke was George V. McLaughlin, the recently appointed police commissioner of the city of New York. Some of the statements he made were: "I believe and I have stated many times that the savings and loan association is the only institution I know of that offers to the individual seeking to acquire a home, a complete plan of financial assistance. There is no other banking or loaning institution that I know of that can offer the same plan or does offer the same plan under the same conditions. There is no institution that has the selling arguments that compare with the savings and loan association. I don't think the time is very far distant when membership in the savings and loan associations will be regarded as just as necessary as life insurance."

Perhaps the greatest service, however, is to the borrower—the man who wants to build a home for himself and his family, and has not the means to do so. The building and loan can give him a loan as high as eighty per cent. of the value of his home. This money is advanced as the building is in process of construction and it has been figured out that the interest rate is less than it would be if the money was received from other sources. The savings bank is limited by law to loaning 50 per cent of the appraised value of a property. The average man would not be greatly benefitted under this plan, and would find it necessary to pay a high bonus for a second mortgage in order to finance his home.

The building and loan association offers a splendid opportunity for public service. Most of the officers and directors, as you know, receive no compensation, except one or two, who handle the routine office work, and these only nominal salaries. There are no preferred shareholders, all receiving the same dividends, as the associations are mutual institutions in the highest sense of the word.

The Norwich association has showed its progressiveness by getting together this splended gathering of its stockholders, and I am sure that this meeting will result in a large and immediate expansion of your association. The statements of the savings banks of your city indicate that this is a city of progressive and thrifty citizens and a wonderful field is offered for the extension of the building and loan work."

Officers Elected

This being the annual meeting of the association, the following board of officers were elected for the year 1926: Ernest O. Rodier, president; Daniel T. Shea, first vice president; John M. Lee, second vice president; Henry D. Johnson, secretary; Alexander Sharp, assistant secretary, Charles L. Smith, treasurer; James F. Fleming, assistant treasurer. Directors, H. M. Lerou, L. M. Crandall, Robert McNeely, George S. Powers, J. J. O'Rourke, Earle M. Wood, Edward J. Graham, William S. Elliott, Herman Stelzner, M. L. Bergstresser, Charles F. Wells, John W. McKinley, attorney, Charles V. James, Auditors, Frederick H. Topliff, Charles D. Foster, James E. McCormick.

Outstanding Facts Brought Out at Annual Meeting of Norwich Building and Loan Association

The Norwich Building and Loan Association was incorporated under the laws of the state of Connecticut, April, 1915.

The main purpose of the Building and Loan Association is to increase the number of home owners. Pay rent to yourself instead of the other fellow—you'll be surprised how easy it is.

It has grown in ten years to a membership of 690, holding 5,368 shares, with assets of more than a quarter of a million dollars.

The association is carrying 73 mortgage loans which means that there are 73 homes that have been built or bought through the agency of the Building and Loan Association.

Public-spirited citizens have given their services freely to build up the association, as a valuable asset to the city.

For five years, previous to 1925, the association has paid interest to its members at the rate of 5½% per annum—for 1925 it paid 6%.

Connecticut building and loan associations are under the strict supervision of the State Banking department, and are thoroughly examined, at least once a year, by the bank examiner of the state.

A $6,000 loan is the largest negotiated. All real estate loans are secured by first mortgage. The association does not accept second mortgages for security.

The officers and directors of the Norwich Building and Loan Association are all local men, prominent in every civic enterprise. The directors are elected by the members, every member having one vote at the annual meeting.

NORWICH BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION ELECTS BOARD OF OFFICERS, COMPOSED OF PUBLIC-SPIRITED CITIZENS, WHO HAVE ENLISTED FOR COMMUNITY SERVICE.

Plan of Building and Loan Association

A Clear Explanation of Its Workings by President E. O. Rodier. Recognized as a Community Asset of Geat Value to the City.

BULLETIN REPRESENTATIVE INTERVIEWS PRESIDENT OF NORWICH BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION ABOUT PLAN AND PURPOSE OF THE ORGANIZATION.

Inasmuch as the Norwich Building and Loan association is performing a great public service in encouraging home ownership and is generally recognized as a community asset of great value to the city, it is of public interest to readers of The Bulletin to learn about the plan and purpose of the organization and what it can do to help its members and the community in general.

President Is Interviewed

A representative of The Bulletin called upon E. O. Rodier, president of the Norwich Building and Loan association, at his office in the Thayer building to get some information as to how the building and loan association proposed to solve the vexatious housing problem. Although Mr. Rodier is a very busy man, yet he was quite willing to give any information that could be considered of public interest about the organization of which he is president, and to the upbuilding of which he has devoted much of his time and abilities for several years. In fact, once he gets started on the association, its accomplishments and its possibilities, he becomes enthusiastic and his enthusiasm is rather contagious.

Plan and Purpose

In answer to the question "Just what is the plan and purpose of the building and loan association?" Mr. Rodier said: "Briefly stated, a building and loan association is a mutual, co-operative society organized primarily to furnish persons of limited means a place to invest their savings or to enable them to borrow money for the purpose of buying or building a home. Building and loan associations lend money to their members, and the officers and directors of the association are not preferred shareholders in any way. The wage earner who owns but five shares is entitled to the same rate of dividends and to the same consideration in all matters as any other member.

"Building and loan association are in their very nature co-operative and have a two-fold purpose—to encourage the saving of money and to promote the ownership of homes. They encourage thrift and economy and make better citizens, and enable many persons to own homes who would not otherwise be able to do so. The advantages of a well managed building and loan association to a town cannot be overestimated. Home building should be encouraged, and there is no better way to increase the number of home owners than through membership in the building and loan association. In other states these institutions have played a large part in the upbuilding of towns and cities. It is an almost invariable rule that a man with a home is a valuable citizen, and perhaps when the time comes that a great majority of citizens own their own homes the good government millenium will have been reached."

What About Safety?

"What about the safety of the money which the shareholders pay into the association?" said the writer. 'How are the funds safeguarded?' To this Mr. Rodier replied: "The safety and solidity of any financial institution is in the character of its assets. A building and loan association has mainly but two kinds of assets. One kind is real estate mortgages on property usually worth double the amount of the loan; the other kind consists of share loans amply protected by a good margin on the value of the share. The Norwich Building and Loan association was incorporated under the laws of the state of Connecticut in April, 1915. Many safeguards have been thrown around the borrower and investor in this state. All building and loan associations and similar institutions are under the supervision of the state banking department. Every association is examined thoroughly at least once a year by the bank commissioner, and if every detail of the business is not being conducted along sound lines, the necessary changes must be made."

"The man or woman who has small sums to deposit regularly is able to secure a much higher rate of interest from a building and loan association than from a savings bank. The Norwich Building and Loan association has earned 5 1-2 per cent for its shareholders for several years past, and in 1925 earned and paid its shareholders 6 per cent, and our splendid laws make the investment as safe as any form the human mind has been able to devise.

Borrower and Investor

"I find," said Mr. Rodier, "that there exists a wrong impression among people who do not fully understand the building and loan plan as to the relation the borrower stands to the investor. Nine out of ten persons will tell you a building and loan association is a good thing for the investor but bad for the borrower. The question arises, how can an association pay its investors 5 and 6 per cent dividends unless they come from the borrower? They do not seem to realize that every borrower is an investor also, and receives the same dividends on the share he carries in connection with his loan as the person who deposits as an investment.

"The income of a building association comes largely from loans, it is true. The building and loan actuary will show you that this profit is augmented largely by reloaning the payments made monthly by the borrower, together with the monthly interest he pays on his loan. Under such conditions the interest is compounded every month. It is a great benefit to a borrower to be permitted to reduce his loan by regularly monthly payments and in addition receive dividends on those payments. Some people forget that the building and loan association is strictly mutual and that borrowers and investors are treated exactly alike.

Moral Risk of Loans

"A leading financier was once asked the question: 'Is is not commercial credit based principally upon money of property? He replied, 'No, sir; the first thing is character.' 'Naturally character must be backed up by security, but without character a man is up against an almost insurmountable obstacle.'

"Credit extended by a building and loan association is, to a certain extent based upon the theory that character is the basis of credit. This is especially true when money is furnished for the purpose of building a home. It is a principle of good business and followed by all ordinary loan companies not to lend more than 50 per cent of the actual cash value of the property offered as security. A building and loan association may go further than this; if the prospective borrower is of good character, and is the owner of a vacant lot, it will furnish him with the full amount necessary to build his home. The laws of the state allows building and loan associations to lend up to 80 per cent of the appraised value (note the term, "appraised value") of the property. The association can well afford to do this if the person is of good character, for the monthly payments on shares carried in connection with the loan are constantly reducing the principle and increasing the margin of security."

How the Plan Works

"Let us suppose, for instance, that a member wants a $4,000 house and has $1,000 and the association furnishes the balance, which is $3,000. The borrower takes out 15 shares which when matured will equal the amount of the loan. His payments will be as follows.

$15.00 monthly dues on 15 shares say for 12 years	$2160 00
$15.00 monthly interest on $3,000 say for 12 years	$2160 00
Subscription fee on 15 shares at 50 cents	7 50
Legal services in connection with taking over real estate	15 00
Total	$4342 50
Less loan	$500 00
	$1842 50

$1842.50, therefore, is the total interest paid in 12 years, an average of $111.87 a year, equal to 3 and 70 one hundreths per cent, a year simple interest, as against the regular 6 per cent usually charged borrowers. And at the end of that time (shares will mature approximately in twelve years) the borrower will be given a quit claim deed by the association and become the owner of his own home, free from incumbrance.

"A $6,000 loan is the largest negotiated. All real estate loans are secured by first mortgage. The association does not accept second mortgages for security."

How to Become a Member

"To become a member a person has only to sign an application form, and pay a fifty cent membership fee for each share subscribed to."

"Dues are paid at the rate of $1.00 per share per month, 25 shares or $25 a month is the maximum that can be taken by one person in one series. A person may have from one to 25 shares in a series."

"For safety, convenience, and sound business principles the business of the association is conducted on the series plan. Twice each year, January and July the association may issue new series. That is, shares taken in any particular series will mature, or reach their full value, when that particular series has earned enough by interest, in addition to the monthly dues paid, to equal the sum of $200.00 per share. This period of time is usually 12 years. The shares having reached their full value of $200.00 must be withdrawn. Reinvestment of the whole or part of the matured shares is permissable.

"When the shares, with dues and earnings, have reached the value of $200.00 they will pay the member the full amount of matured value of all shares held."

Single payment shares are issued upon the payment of $110.00 a share (matured value $200.00) and mature at the same time that the monthly payment shares do, of the same series, and at the same time.

Withdrawals and Share Loans

"If change of circumstaces or other contigencies make it advisable or necessary for a shareholder to discontinue payments, he may withdraw his money from the association, at any time, upon 30 days notice in writing to the secretary."

"It is not, however, necessary to withdraw from membership or to surrender in order to obtain money. A member may borrow on the accumulated value of pledged shares at the current rate of interest, and allow his share to continue their earnings."

Shares Act as Sinking Fund

"The question is sometimes asked why the interest does not decrease as time goes on and money is paid in on the shares. The answer is that the money paid on the shares is not credited directly on the mortgage but is treated just the same as payments made by members who have no mortgage loan. The association receives from the borrower these payments on shares each month, credits dividends on them regularly, and when the payments and dividends have made a fund large enough to equal the mortgage, which they will at the end of about twelve years, then both the shares and the mortgage are canceled and the property is clear."

"The arrangement is, in principle, the same that a city or town makes when it issues bonds. The city or town pays interest on the bonds without change until they are due, but at the same time it each year pays money into a sinking fund that takes care of the bonds when they mature. Your shares are really a sinking fund that eventually provides the money to take up your mortgage."

Own Home While Paying

"When you place your mortgage with the building and loan association it cannot be called or disturbed as long as you make the regular payments, but, on the other hand, you can if you wish, pay up the loan and cancel the mortgage at any time. If you follow the regular course in about 12 years your shares will mature and the mortgage be canceled. You will then own the place clear of debt, and besides this, will have had the privilege of living for 12 years in your own home."

Mr. Rodier Becomes Reminiscent

"If the Bulletin wants information for its readers as to what the Norwich Building and Loan association can do for the man of average means, who desires to stabilize his job, his home and his future by accumulating a stake in the community, I feel," said Mr. Rodier, "that the facts that I have given should prove conclusively that this association is able and willing to render a great public service to the community which it serves."

About that time Mr. Rodier became reminiscent and proceeded to enumerate the number of homes that had been acquired, either built or bought, through the agency of the Norwich Building and Loan association and the satisfaction which the owners had frequently expressed with the opportunity which the association had given them to pay rent to themselves instead of to the other fellow.

"Another feature of the building and loan association," said Mr. Rodier, "which I think is deserving of consideration, is the fact that the money which the association receives from its shareholders, either in the form of monthly dues or in interest or loans, is all used here. It goes out again in the form of wages to mechanics or to local builders for materials for construction work, thereby doing a double duty in providing homes for its members and work and business for the citizens of Norwich."

How Earnings Are Apportioned

"A question that is sometimes asked is "how are the earnings apportioned?" In answer to that I would say that the rate of semi-annual apportionment to savers depends upon the earnings. We believe the rate is of secondary importance, for the reason that the first consideration in the conduct of all properly managed institutions is safety. These facts concern all members and prospective members, whether borrowers or investors, because safety—that is, security—is the first consideration in the conduct of this business; and in order to get the best security, we must loan our funds at a reasonable rate of interest."

"The officers and managers of this association believe that the interests of the saver who leaves his savings with us, and the interests of the borrower to whom we loan these savings are coordinate and interdependent. The saver is entitled to reasonable earnings on his funds, but the borrower also has his rights and if he offers high-class security for a loan is entitled to such a loan at a reasonable rate of interest."

The by-laws of the association provide that those that have the handling of money shall be under bonds of a surety company and the present officers are so bonded.

Has Assets of $253,000

There are 690 members of the association, with assets of $253,006.33. The association is carrying 73 mortgage loans which means that there are 73 homes in Norwich that have been built or bought through the agency of the building and loan association. That in itself is something worth while, and illustrates better, perhaps, than anything else, what the association is doing for its shareholders.

WESTERLY

CLARENCE A. VARS ELECTED MASTER OF FRANKLIN LODGE

(Special to The Bulletin)

WESTERLY, R. I., Jan. 19—Franklin lodge, No. 29, F. & A. M., of Westerly, Frederick Nelson Robinson, worshipful master, held its 69th annual communication in the Masonic hall, High street, Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Annual reports read were those of the secretary, of the finance committee and of the trustees of the permanent fund, which showed the lodge to be in a flourishing condition.

Right Worshipful Sylvester M. Budlong, sixth district deputy grand master, assisted by Worshipful Clarence A. Griffin, as grand master of ceremonies, both of Pawtuxet, R. I., were present to preside at the election and installation of officers.

CLARENCE A. VARS
Worshipful Master

Clarence A. Vars was elected and installed as worshipful master.

Other officers elected and appointed, who were installed were: Senior warden, Raymond H. Hiscox; junior warden, Lewis R. Greene; treasurer, Albert H. Spicer; secretary, W. Albert E. Barber; chaplain, W. Harry L. Bolles; senior deacon, J. Albert Pawson; junior deacon, Fred G. Kennedy; senior steward, James P. Campbell; junior steward, W. Harry Anderson; marshal, Fayette F. Freeman; sentinel, Raymond C. Vars; musical director, Raymond Mitchell; tyler, William A. Stillwell. Trustees of the permanent fund, W. Frank F. Dodge, (re-elected), other members being W. Arthur W. Coy and W. Albert H. Spicer. Finance committee, W. Lewis Stanton, W. Walter C. Hiscox and W. Fayette F. Freeman.

Following the business of the evening a buffet lunch of chicken salad rolls, coffee and cakes were served in the Commandery armory banquet hall.

Members who have died during the past year have been; Gilbert Smith, January 19th.; R. W. Albert H. Spicer, March 14th.; Andrew R. Kirk, March 14th.; Albert N. Buell, April 6th.; Andrew Smith, April 21st.; Frank C. Berry, June 7th.; James M. Blake, July 3rd.; Frank Larkin, September 16th; Charles F. Anderson, December 1st, and Horace P. Dodge, December 28th.

Past masters of Franklin lodge now living are: Peter Cahill, '84-'87; Everett A. Codlin, '94 '95; Albert E. Barber, '01 '02; William A. Burk, '03 '04; John H. Champlin, '05; Abel F. Randall, '06 '07; Lewis Stanton, '10; George E. Broughton, '11; Albert H. Spicer, Jr., '12; Harry L. Bolles, '13; Frank F. Dodge, '14; Robert F. L. Barber, '15; Walter C. Hiscox, '16; Daniel F. Larkin, '17; George H. Harper, '18; Carl E. Burdick, '19; Samuel H. Davis, '20; Harold D. Livingstone, '21; Fayette F. Freeman, '22; Arthur H. Coy, '23; William H. Clapham, '24, and Fred N. Robinson, '25. Past Grand Master Thomas McKenzie, of Pawcatuck lodge, is an honorary member of Franklin lodge.

Retiring Master Fred N. Robinson was presented with a past master's jewel by Secretary W. Albert Barber. A past master's apron, the gift of the officers who served with him was presented by W. Clarence A. Vars, incoming master.

While the Masonic work of Tuesday evening was in progress, the wives of the officers were entertained at a dinner party by Mrs. Clarence A. Vars, wife of the newly elected master, at her home on Summer street.

Many visitors from surrounding lodges attended the annual communication of Franklin lodge, and among officers were Earl H. Mason, master of Overseas lodge, No. 46, F. & A. M., of Providence, who formerly resided in Westerly.

The third rally of the Westerly district Council of Religious Education is to be held in the Pawcatuck Seventh-day Baptist church, Westerly, Monday evening, January 25th.

The service will be opened with devotionals led by Rev. Arat L. Schoning, pastor of the Broad St., Christian church, of Westerly. This will be followed by the roll call of the schools, of which the Westerly district has twenty-three. At the last rally at Ashaway, November 23rd, the Pawcatuck Seventh-day Baptist church and the Potter Hill union chapel tied with the largest delegation, with the Arcadia Baptist church second.

The address of the evening is to be delivered by Rev. William Sargent, D. D., pastor of the Elmwood Christian church, Providence, R. I., the subject being, "Trained for the Task."

This rally is primarily to enroll students for a Community Training school which opens Monday evening, February 1st., and will continue every Monday evening for six weeks.

Following the vote of the annual Westerly fire district meeting held in the Westerly town hall, on the 16th. of last August, at which a tax rate of fifteen cents was levied on each and every $100 of the real and personal ratable estate in the fire district, which although enlarged at the time of the last assessment of fire taxes did not become operative in the additions to the old district until this year, the assessors' notice is now given. The board of assessors of the Westerly fire district, consisting of Walter C. Hiscox, Oliver P. Crandall and D. Harold Rogers, have prescribed the 16th. day of February, at 12 o'clock, noon, as the time for the assessment of the tax, this date following the district meeting vote at the annual meeting which set the date one month earlier. The new date affords a longer time for the making up of the tax lists, which includes the added area. The date of payment, however, has not been changed at which the taxes are due and payable, namely on or before the 30th. day of April, 1926.

Westerly probate court, Edward M. Burke, judge, held its bi-monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the probate court rooms of the Westerly town hall when business was transacted as follows:

Estate of Jessie M. Gourlay. Final account received from Trust Officer Thomas Perry of the Washington Trust company, administrator, showing estate distribution and no balances left. Taxes all paid by the trust company have refund from the New England Granite company. There being no objection, the account was received, allowed and ordered recorded.

Estate of Adelia M. Burdick. Inventory received, alowed and ordered recorded.

Estate of Edgar Eugene Lanphere. Inventory received, allowed and ordered recorded.

The action of the Rhode Island State Board of Public roads in suspending the operator's license of an autoist without first being given a hearing was sustained in Providence the first of the week by the Rhode Island Supreme court, in a report prepared by Justice Elmer J. Rathbun. The opinion was handed down as the result of the refusal of Julian LaPlante, resident of Arctic, R. I., to surrender his operator's license when demanded by the R. I. state board. A Rhode Island state trooper was sent to pick up the same; and his appearance in court at East Greenwich, R. I., was followed by an appeal. Chief of Police Frank H. Brown of Hopkinton brought complaint against LaPlante last September, in Third District court in Westerly, before Judge Michael J. Turano, following his collision with an auto driven by Kenneth Hoxie of Westerly, on the new stretch of cement state highway beyond the Meeting House bridge. In Third District court a fine of $25 and costs was imposed by Judge Turano. The appeal was taken to the superior court for Washington county and the criminal complaint was certified to the supreme court of Rhode Island for the determination of the constitutional questions involved.

Miss Acsah Marie Chapman, daughter of late Commander Amos P. and Maria Maine Chapman, of Westerly, died at the home of her mother, 30 Grove avenue, at 1 o'clock Tuesday morning. Miss Chapman had been in ill health for the past three years and for nearly a year had been confined to her home. Her death was closely preceded by that of her father, a veteran of the Civil War and prominent Grand Army man, who died on Dec. 30, last.

Miss Chapman was born in Westerly, March 10, 1876, and had always made Westerly her home. She was employed for a number of years in the store of the P. H. Opie company until she was obliged to leave because of ill health. She was a member and enthusiastic worker in Christ Episcopal church and belonged to the auxiliary of Amos P. Chapman Camp, No. 6, Sons of Veterans.

Besides her mother she is survived by two brothers, Fred S. Chapman and Theodore S. Chapman, of Woodhaven, L. I., N. Y.

The marriage of Miss Theresa Crowley, of White Rock and William Stewart, of Westerly took place Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, the ceremony being conducted by Rev. J. F. Vincent, S. M. Fr. Vincent also celebrated the nuptial mass which followed the ceremony. The wedding marches and interludes were played by Mrs. Frank Ahern.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Julia Crowley, and James Sullivan was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Broughton, of Westerly, were in New London Tuesday afternoon, where they visited William Davey, of West Mystic, who is recovering from an operation at the Lawrence hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Bliven, of Westerly, were vistors Tuesday in Boston.

Palmer Chapter, No. 28, R. A. M., of Pawcatuck, Arthur E. Thompson high priest, held a stated convocation in the Masonic rooms on High street on Monday evening, when the Royal Arch degree was worked on a class of candidates.

John O. Mills and son, Olcott G. Mills, returned to their homes in Westerly Tuesday, after attending the furniture exhibition in Grand Rapids, Mich. A side trip through Canada was part of their homeward bound itinerary.

Westerly Rifle club held a meeting Monday evening at the state armory on Dixon street. Following the serving of refreshments adjournment was taken to next Monday when officers are to be elected.

Miss Clara Dodge and Alice Taylor Rathbun, of Westerly, were visitors in Providence Tuesday.

Frank S. Robbins and Attorney Frank Foley, of Worcester, Mass., were Westerly visitors the past week end.

NOANK

At the recent meeting of Connecticut Commercial Fishermen's association, held at New London, the election of officers took place. Among those elected was second vice president, Samuel Z. Chesebro, of the place. One of the matters taken up was favoring the reopening of the state lobster hatchery at Noank. Many fishermen from the village attended the meeting.

Harry H. Park has returned home after a brief visit to Providence.

Daniel Campbell of Boston is spending two weeks with Mrs. Campbell, who is at the home of her mother, Mrs. Jane Banks.

The regular meeting held at fire company hall Monday evening was well attended. The fair committee held a short meeting and voted to hold a fair sometime in April. Members of the committee are Foreman Walter Palmer, Chief H. H. Park, Leon Sistaire, Albert Banks, Peter Shandor, John Ellis and Fred Fitzpatrick. Another whist party will be held this week. It was voted to repair the pool table and Leon Sistaire was appointed to have this done. After the meeting Steward Edgar Ashly and Arthur McDonald served hamburg sandwiches and coffee.

The wind and rain Monday was the worst this winter. Large branches were blown across the road and some windows were broken in the village. The fishermen got out extra lines for their boats. The 8.45 o'clock trolley was over one hour late on account of water on the track at West Mystic. Freeman Rogers had a gang of men working on a boat that got struck on the ways during the day.

Nell Morrison was a caller at Mason Island on Monday.

Constable William McDonald has returned home from Dodge Island.

Michael Pacci is in New Jersey for a few days visit with relatives.

D. Thomas is visiting relatives in Boston, for a few days.

Walter Burbine of Fishers Island is home for a visit.

Augusta Thompson has secured work at the Chappell shipyard in New London.

At Haley farm ice pond Frank Schoonmaker has filled his ice house with 10-inch ice.

Capt. Henry Langworthy and Miss Ines Rathbun have returned from Norwich after a visit with relatives.

Albert Banks has returned from Pt. Judith.

Thomas McGown is in New York on a business trip.

Edward Morgan is working at Rogers' boat yard.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Brown and family have returned from New Haven, after visiting relatives.

Eugene Gillis of Groton is guest of his sister, Mrs. John Ellis for a few days.

Workmen are engaged in making necessary repairs to a chimney on the Lutrell cottage at Mason Island.

Rain Monday put a stop to cutting ice on Chesebro's pond.

William Franklin is in Providence for a brief visit with relatives.

George Moore has returned home from Edgartown, Mass.

MYSTIC

Mrs. Mary Etta Geer Corey, wife of Horace S. Corey, died in Dorchester, Mass., Jan. 13th. She was born in Stonington, May 4, 1863, the daughter of Joseph Abner Geer and Almeda H. Brown. Her mother died when she was two years old and her early life was spent with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Geer in North Stonington. She lived in Westerly for several years. Her aged father is living at 84 High street, Mystic. She leaves her husband and three sons Howard Abner, of Boston, Joseph Geer of Hartford and Horace Edmund Corey of Newark, N. J., three daughters, Mrs. Almeda Darling, Miss Juliette and Miss Ruth Corey all of Boston. The funeral was held in Westerly, conducted by Rev. Lewis A. Walker, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church. Interment was in River Bend cemetery. Relatives and friends sent many beautiful floral pieces.

Employes of the 5-B spinners and winding department at the silk mill had a few days off last week on account of stock on hand. They resumed work Monday morning.

The whist at St. Mark's parish house had six tables in play. Gentlemen's first prize was awarded John B. Grinnell; ladies, to Mrs. E. G. Cameron. Consolation, gentlemen, went to Fred Godfrey and Frank Clay who were a tie. Ladies consolation went to Mrs. L. Greenman. Refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed following the play.

Phebe Packer Rathbun tent, Daughters of Veterans will hold their meeting today (Wednesday) at which time the installation of officers will take place. A. C. Latham camp, Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil war have been invited to attend.

Mrs. R. A. Hodgson and little son, Charles Nelson, who are at present with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Staplins, at Burnett Corners, are visiting her cousin, Mrs. Herbert S. Corbin, Pearl street. Mrs. Hodgson expects her husband home soon from Panama, where he has been stationed in the navy.

Miss Flora Stanton of Norwich and Miss May Fiswick of Westerly, visited Mr. and Mrs. Ira F. Rathbun Sunday. Mr. Rathbun, who was injured by a fall last week is improving slowly. He has many friends who sympathize with him as he is deaf and blind.

Miss Jennie Denison has been confined to her bed more than a week with a grip cold. She was somewhat improved Tuesday.

Philip Watrous has closed his shop on Pearl street and has gone to Texas where he is to be employed for some time.

Rev. E. E. Knapp supplied the pulpit of the Old Mystic Baptist church Sunday at both services in the absence of the acting pastor, Rev. Francis Mitchell.

The Crusaders of the Baptist church meet with the president, Mrs. D. M. Bennett, 42 High street, this week.

Mrs. Malcolm Tennington and little son, John Spafford of Bayonne, N. J. are visiting her aunt, Mrs. B. L. Mull.

COMFORT IN OLD AGE CARRYING ON OF YOUR LIFE WORK
LIFE INSURANCE POLICY
SUPPORT OF WIDOWS AND CHILDREN
EDUCATION OF ORPHANS

—This drawing was contributed by E. W. Gale of the Los Angeles Times to the cause of Success and Happiness.

Bridging The Valley Of The Shadow

Make certain—now—that your thoughtfulness will bridge the valley of the shadow for those you leave behind.

Consult a reliable life insurance representative. Tell him your individual problems and ask him to suggest the policy best suited to your needs. You'll never regret the step you're taking.

Today is Life Insurance Day—the fourth day of National Thrift Week for Success and Happiness.

Now

$845

F.O.B. Detroit

Chrysler "58's" astounding new low prices deal a body blow to anything even remotely seeking comparison.

For months past Chrysler "58" has sold everywhere, as fast as demonstration proved its unmatched abilities of 58 miles per hour, 25 miles to the gallon of gasoline, and its pick-up of 5 to 25 miles in 8 seconds.

Such supreme performance, joined to characteristically Chrysler comfort and beauty, fix Chrysler "58", now at these new low prices more unmistakably than ever, the utmost value in its price class.

Touring Car	$845	Club Coupe	$895
Roadster	890	Coach	935
Sedan	$995

All prices F. O. B. Detroit, subject to Federal excise tax.

CHRYSLER "58"

JOHN J. HERBERT
196 North Main St.

H. R. HERBERT
Plainfield, Ct.

To kill MOTHS use FLY-TOX
Also kills ROACHES • ANTS • BEDBUGS •

For Headache

BAYER

ASPIRIN

Proved safe by millions and prescribed by physicians for

Headache, Pain — Colds, Toothache — Neuralgia, Neuritis — Lumbago, Rheumatism

DOES NOT AFFECT THE HEART

Safe — Accept only "Bayer" package which contains proven directions. Handy "Bayer" boxes of 12 tablets. Also bottles of 24 and 100—Druggists.

Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid

SYLVIA WELLS, COLORED, PROMISES TO TELL FACTS TO NEW LONDON POLICE

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Jan. 19.—Sylvia Wells, a young colored girl, was given a hearing in the police court this morning for carving Maxie Williams Dowsey with a razor at 111 Potter street last night. The latter is in the hospital where her face resembles a section of Hamburg steak. Sylvia did the job and made thorough work of it. William H. Matthews, also colored, at whose home the slashing was done, and John Lake, also colored, were held as witnesses and furnished a bond of $250 each by which they have agreed to be in the police court on the 2nd day of February to tell what occurred and to convince the court why it took place.

Miss Wells was represented by Attorney Connor, who intimated that when the time came Miss Wells would be of assistance to the police in disclosing conditions that should not be allowed to exist in this city. He said she had already assisted the officers and would render assistance to the court at the proper time. He didn't disclose enough to let the man on the outside looking in determine just what he meant, but it was assumed that Sylvia is to peach on something that is not to the credit of Maxie. It is barely possible that this will not be a difficult task, for Maxie's record is a bit spotted, as she has been often before the court and has frequently been penalized, even to the extent of going to jail. Some times Maxie has produced the money to settle her fines and then one who saw her produce might be of the opinion that she owned a bank somewhere because of the size of the roll it is claimed that Sylvia was a boarder at the home of Maxie at 28 Stony Hill but she was not altogether satisfied there, so she wanted to leave. She did finally quit, but her attorney represents that she sneaked away. From Stony Hill Sylvia went to the Potter street house and she was there domiciled when Maxie bolted in with fire in her eye. Sylvia disappeared when she realized that Maxie was at the door, but she only retired to a room whence she could hear all that was said by her former landlady. As listeners seldom hear good words spoken about themselves, what Sylvia heard led her to come from seclusion, she brought a razor with her and she used it at once. She trimmed the face of Maxie with slashes from chin to ear. The police declared that they never saw a face so badly cut. It was a foregone conclusion that Maxie would not be able to be in court this morning, so she was hurried to the hospital to remain until such time as she can safely come away. She will be in the hospital two weeks at least. Sylvia's crime is of such that she is charged with felonious assault with intent to kill. Her bail was fixed at $2,500, so high that there was no chance that she could obtain the money.

Miss Wells and the two witnesses were quizzed by police detectives during a good portion of the day. They are said to have told all they know as to what Miss Wells is to disclose that will show the animus of the attack last night. But what they can tell the police as to the reputation of Maxie that they do not know is not apparent.

Tony Calderille, a taximan, hasn't been just satisfied with the way his wife has absented herself from his home at meal times of late. So when she was not at home yesterday he started out to ascertain where she was. He came upon her and Vincenzo La Vanine on Howard and realising that the woman had done some work for him, Tony felt a little jealous. He inquired what the pair were doing together and in that section, but got a reply only that it was not his business what led the couple to be where they were overtaken in the street. The reply from Vincenzo brought a punch from Tony and he would have followed the blow up with another but he saw his combatant place his hand in his pocket. This he made up his mind was as indication that Vincenzo carried a weapon. When the latter fled to a yard nearby and into the dark, Tony declined to follow. He saw visions of shooting. The facts stated here were brought out from Tony when he explained to the court. That was no reason why Tony should carry his troubles into the street and there disturb the peace of the neighborhood so he was fined $10 and was taxed $9.80 for costs.

Charles Wilbur was accused of intoxication and charged with vagrancy. He admitted that he was rightly accused in the first count of the complaint, but he would not admit that he was without visible means of support. Officer Patrick Sheehan arrested the fellow on North Bank street when Wilbur had rum enough partaken of to feel that he was a good deal huskier than he was. He told the officer that he would take a shot out of him but for the fact that the policeman was a big fellow. That aroused Officers Sheehan's Irish and he marched Wilbur to the police station at a pace that nearly took his breath away. Wilbur disclosed that he had $5 when presented in court so he was allowed to use the money to go to his home in Pawtucket. He said he had been in the gang of Fisher's Island workers, which statement was undoubtedly true.

Charles E. Reed, a chief petty officer, was charged with intoxication. He is on sick leave and is to go to the U. S. ship Cummings at New York, so judgment was suspended that he might make a start. John Smith, charged with drunkenness, forfeited a bond of $15 rather than appear and take the penalty the court might impose.

Elizabeth Rogers has sold a building lot on Pacific street to Emma Spencer.

Mrs. Elias Labensky is confined to her home, Bilpman street, by a severe attack of grip.

Commissioner of Motor Vehicles Robbins B. Stoeckel today returned the operators' licenses of Philip Adel, 27 Denison avenue; Floyd Mitchell, 15 Atlantic street, and Byron Vine, 246 Howard street, recently suspended.

Miss Gertrude Kohler, 122 Ledyard street; Morris Roache, 42 Goshen street; Mrs. John Downing and infant daughter, 26 Raymond street; Willard Jones, United States Coast Guard destroyer McCall, state pier; Mrs. Matthew Willard, Gales Ferry; Miss Mary McCarthy, 901 Bank street; Mrs. Moses Goldfarb, Norwich and Frank Utz, 76 John street, the latter being a victim of severe burns about the face, hands and arms, which he sustained a week ago when flames damaged the City Dye Works, were patients discharged today at Lawrence hospital.

The funeral of Walter J. Morris was held this morning at 9 o'clock at St. Joseph's church and was attended by a large gathering of relatives and friends. A mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. William C. Fitzsimons and at the conclusion of the mass Edward F. Murray sang "Some Sweet Day." The bearers were Mr. Morris' three cousins, Allan Morris, Jr., Francis and Allan Day, and three cousins, Francis, Raymond and J. Harold Murray. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery, where the committal service was conducted by Rev. Fr. Fitzsimons.

Funeral services for Robert C. Mc Culloch, whose death occurred the 14th inst., at Colorado Springs, Col., were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McCulloch, 3 Brainard street. Rev. J. Beveridge Lee, pastor of the Second Congregational church, officiated. Burial was in Cedar Grove cemetery.

An Essex coach, one of five automobiles stolen in New Haven Saturday, was recovered by the local police late last night when the machine was found abandoned on Federal street, near Main street. The car was removed to a garage and the New Haven police informed of its recovery. This morning Charles Nolan, owner of the auto, came to New London and took charge of his property.

Capt. Butleman, master of one of the army mine planters that makes its berth at the government pier, Water street, has notified Captain of Police Charles A. Pinney that in the future should any member of the crew of the mine planter cause the police trouble and then secret himself aboard the craft, that if an officer will make this fact known to him the prisoner will be turned over to the civil authorities without delay.

The storm of last night did not cause a great deal of damage, but the greater amount of destruction resulted at Ocean Beach. At the shore resort the terrific gale caused the pavilion at the northerly end of the beach to be considerably damaged, while some damage was done to the Rudd bath houses. At a cottage, 10 Alewife avenue, owned by Mr. Asher, Norwich, a window was blown out and when the police inspected the place, the front entrance was found to be unlocked. Nothing had been moved from the cottage so far as is known.

In various parts of the city limbs of trees and swinging signs were felled during the height of the gale. During the heaviest part of the rain, Bank street at the corner of Truman street was flooded to a depth of several inches, so much so that trolley traffic was interrupted for an hour because of the cars being unable to pass through a switch at that point.

Every little while the public hears of the great work being done for the cancerous poor by a former New London resident, Mother M. Alphonsa Lathrop, the widow of George Parsons Lathrop, in the world, this gifted woman was known as Rose Hawthorne, and is the daughter of the country's famous novelist, Nathaniel Hawthorne. As a society woman she paid little heed to those outside her own set; but after she and her husband had become members of the Roman Catholic church, she was inspired to do charitable deeds and after her husband's death, she joined the sisterhood, devoting her life to ministration to the afflicted. Her's is no new effort; the New York papers have just published the following letters which indicate the exalted character of her ideals:

I have known about this lofty work of yours since long ago—indeed, from the day you began it; I have known of its steady growth and progress step by step, to its present generous development, and assured position among those benefactions to which the reverent homage of all creeds and colors is due; I have seen it rise from seedling to tree with no endowment but the voluntary aid which your patient labor and faith have drawn from the purses of grateful and compassionate men; and I am glad in the prosperous issue of your work, and glad to know that this prosperity will continue, and be permanent—a thing which I do know, for that endowment is banked where it cannot fail until pity fails in the hearts of men, and that will never be.

Sincerely yours,
S. L. CLEMENS,
"Mark Twain."

Your work is unique, and the comfort you give your poor sufferers is wonderful. I was so impressed by my visit that I have been brimming over with admiration. I have visited many hospitals and homes all over, here and abroad, but none can come up to your home. It is a wonderful piece of work. You deserve all the help you need for the building mentioned.

Very truly yours,
MRS. S. E. STANTON.

Sister Alphonsa's pitiable charges are housed in a wooden hospital and her aim is to obtain funds to build a fireproof home for them. The New York papers are assisting her, so that eventually she, as treasurer of the "Servants of Relief for Incurable Cancer", can have a secure home at Hawthorne, Westchester county, New York.

Sergeant John J. Cavanaugh reported for police duty today, having concluded his wedding tour. Sergeant Cavanaugh was married last week in New York to Miss Madeline McAulife. Mr. and Mrs. Cavanaugh are now "at home" to their friends on Montauk avenue, corner of Alger place.

Mrs. Elizabeth C. Hall Tucker, 79, widow of Dr. Augustus C. Tucker, died late yesterday at the home of her son, H. W. Tucker, 8 Waller court, death ending an illness of less than a week of heart trouble. Mrs. Tucker, who was born in Orange, N. J., is survived by two sons, H. W. Tucker, this city and Frederick H. Tucker, Boston, Mass.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Dr. Morris Rochlin, Passaic, N. J., and Miss Nellie G. Kosakow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kosakow, 35 Perry street.

Michael Enright, 9 Hope street, is spending a week in Grand Rapids, Mich., during which time he will attend the annual furniture exposition to be held there.

The condition of C. P. Barry, superintendent of the Groton post office, who has been confined to his home, Pleasant street, New London, a fortnight, is reported as being vastly improved and it is believed that he will be able to resume his duties within a few days.

Miss Dorothy Herbert has returned to her home, Connecticut avenue, after having spent several days as the guest of Mrs. Edward Grover, Norwich.

The condition of Daniel H. Troland, formerly of Norwich, who has been seriously ill at Lawrence hospital a fortnight, of pneumonia, has so far improved that he will be dismissed the latter part of the week.

The condition of Mrs. Gertrude Hepburn, 33 and her son, Theodore Champion, 12, who were partially asphyxiated by carbon monoxide poisoning from a hot water heater last night, is reported as being materially improved tonight at Lawrence hospital. The victims will probably be able to return to their home, 299 Huntington street, within the next two or three days.

Abraham Katz, Crystal avenue merchant, wants it understood that he was not prosecuted in the police court recently, for violation of the automobile laws, in driving his car on a one way street. The violator was Abraham Katz, a Shaw street drygoods merchant.

Powerful Engine

The engineering division of the Army Air Service has designed an experimental engine which is expected to develop 2,400 horsepoyer. The new engine is of the "X" type, with four banks of six cylinders arranged in the form of an X, and will be supercharged and geared down. It is to be built by the Ellison Engineering company of Indianapolis and if successful will be the most powerful aero engine in the world.

As Advertised in The Saturday Evening Post

Your old fixture and $17.62

for this Riddle Fitment

[Regular nationally advertised price $23.50]

Just think of getting the 5-light semi-ceiling Riddle Fitment illustrated, in Riddle color decoration (guaranteed permanent), for only $17.62. That is what you can do by taking advantage of our

25% trade-in allowance

And you can secure any other Riddle Fitment on the same basis—25% less than the regularly nationally advertised price—simply by trading in your old fixture. It permits you to have an entire new Riddle installation for your home and save 25% at the same time. Come in and see us about it now—or ask our representative to call.

PRICES DO NOT INCLUDE LAMPS

NEW YORK ELECTRIC CO.
18 Bath Street, Norwich, Conn.

Authorized Riddle Dealer

What is Going On Tonight

Division No 54, Ladies' Auxiliary A. O. H., meets in A. O. H. hall.

Somerset lodge, No. 14, F. and A. M., meets in Masonic temple.

Hope Rebekah lodge, No. 21, I. O. O. F., meets in Odd Fellows hall.

Mohegan tribe, No. 64, I. O. R. M., meets in Steiner hall.

Woman's Benefit Association, Maccabees, meets at Buckingham Memorial.

TODAY'S EVENTS

Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson today completes her first year as governor of Texas.

Richard Le Gallienne, celebrated American poet and critic, is 60 years old today.

One hundred years ago today was born Thomas N. Haskell, who founded the first college in the Rocky Mountain region at Colorado Springs in 1874.

Promotion of outdoor recreational interests is expected to gain impetus at a meeting of the national conference on outdoor recreation, opening today in Washington.

One of the greatest autograph sales of recent years will be held at the Anderson Galleries in New York today, when the splendid collection formed by the late James H. Manning of Albany will be dispersed. The collection includes a complete set of autographs of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Palace Theatre

Today is the last day that "That Royle Girl" with W. C. Fields and Carol Dempster will be shown and it is also your last chance to hear William Gruliani, famous baritone from the San Carlo Grand Opera. Mr. Gruliani has two very talented ladies with him and they offer an exceptional singing act with popular and classical numbers. Two very good comedy acts, James Kennedy & Company in an act called "The Squire Fixes It" and the Putnam Plata Trio offers a nonsensical bit of tomfoolery and between the both of them they keep the audience in good spirits. Niato does a very clever hand balancing act and offers some real difficult tricks. In addition there is an "Our Gang" comedy, Aesops Fables.

Coming to the Palace

Thursday, Friday and Saturday the laughpic of the season "The Man on the Box" with Syd Chaplin portraying a role that is funnier than the one he had in "Charley's Aunt" will be the feature attraction. As a novel, it is one of the gayest, defeat, smartest stories of a generation. Turned into a play with Henry Dixey in the title role it delighted everybody and as a photoplay with Syd Chaplin as the gentleman idler who gets disguised as a cabman and as a housemaid in the fast furious complications of a ribtickling force, it becomes one of the funniest pictures of any season. It won't get you anything but laughs. There's no use going to it unless you want to have a good time. You might possibly feel nobler if you sat home reading some instructive book. But if you want to laugh, if you want to have a whale of a good time, if you are looking for sizzling excitement, you've just got to see Syd Chaplin in "The Man on the Box."

Coming to the Breed

Featuring a cast in proportion and prominence seldom equaled in a single production, the Breed Theatre on next Thursday will display Frank Lloyd's adaptation of "Winds of Chance," a First National novel of the same title.

Anna Q. Nilsson, Viola Dana, Ben Lyon, Victor McLaglen, Hobart Bosworth, Dorothy Sebastian, Claude Gillingwater, Philo McCollough, Charles Crockett, Fred Kohler, John T. Murray and Wade Boteler are among the principal members of the company which has reenacted the thrilling struggles and romance of the Alaskan gold rush of 1897 and 1898 which Mr. Beach wove into an absorbing yarn.

"Winds of Chance" is said to represent the most accurate film play of its kind ever attempted, and, produced by the man who made the famous "The Sea Hawk" on the same pretentious scale, the pictorial story of our last frontier, with its wildness, its unique friendships, its quick fortunes and its failures, is reputed to be replete with thrilling incidents, surprises and tense dramatic scenes with unusual heart appeal.

Dyea, Chilkoot, the Summit, Linderman, White Horse, Miles Canyon, Sheep Camp and Dawson City as it was in boom days are among the backgrounds of the big drama, with all of the atmosphere of the rush preserved and enhanced in the filming.

Lyceum Theatre

Of all the younger theatrical producers there is probably none who has achieved a more enviable reputation than Carl Reed who offers New London theatre-goers "The Creaking Chair", a farcical mystery play at the Lyceum Theatre for Friday and Saturday evenings and a special Saturday matinee. Mr. Reed is one of our modern producers who is seeking to give the public the best in theatricals, both in the serious drama and in musical plays. His "Aloma of the South Seas" which he produced last spring and summer in New York, is one of the big hits of the year. Nance O'Neil in Dario Niccodemi's absorbing drama "Stronger Than Love" now at the Melaco Theatre in New York is acclaimed one of the outstanding dramatic successes of the year, while in preparation Mr. Reed has at least three ambitious musical and dramatic offerings.

"The Creaking Chair" is an English importation and it is one of the sensational successes of London where it ran for over eight months and is even now playing to capacity audiences in the English provinces. Its first presentation in this country was made at the Copley theatre in Boston about three months ago and despite the fact of this theatre being a stock house where the engagement of each presentation was limited to one week only, so great was the demand for this show that the management was forced to keep it on for six weeks, the business of the last week being the biggest of the entire engagement.

It was during its Boston run that Mr. Reed saw the piece and impressed with its dramatic qualities he secured it and prepared to produce it in a big way. To this end he engaged a company of players that is far above the average and he made a production that is the last word in scenic perfection. This splendid cast includes the following distinguished players: Ernest Lawford, Mary Carroll, Branden Peters, Eleanor Griffith, Gilbert Douglas, Beatrice Miller, James La Cuerta, Reginald Mason, Leona Harris, Tyrell Davis, Stanley Harrison and Robert Bennett.

Horace W. Ward, of Bath, Me., is the owner of a sedan as a result of finding it on the North Bath road early one morning last summer. Mr. Ward came upon the car, deserted, and with no clew as to the owner or owners. Taking possession of it, he attempted in every manner required by law to locate the owner, but to no avail.

RADIO

Wednesday, January 20.

WEAF—NEW YORK CITY—492

6 p. m.—Dinner music.
7 p. m.—Synagogue service; talk by Nathan Kraus; Myro Glaz, barytone.
7:30 p. m.—Genia Zielinska, soprano; Guiseppe di Benedetto, tenor; Symphonic Instrumental Quartet.
8:10 p. m.—Bornar Cramer, pianist.
8:30 p. m.—Davis Saxophone Octet.
9 p. m.—The Troubadours.
10 p. m.—"Roxy's Gang."
11-12 p. m.—Hughie Barrett's orchestra.

WJZ—NEW YORK CITY—455

6:30 p. m.—N. Y. University course.
7 p. m.—Levitow's dinner concert.
8 p. m.—Harriet Young, soprano.
8:15 p. m.—Zoological Society series.
8:30 p. m.—Lewisohn free chamber music concert.

WEBJ—NEW YORK—272

8 to 10 p. m.—Putnam County Chamber of Commerce dinner.

WOR—NEW YORK CITY—710

6 p. m.—Uncle Geebee.
6:30 p. m.—Jersey Collegians.
7 p. m.—Norbert Lusk, "Movie Sidelight."
7:10 p. m.—Jersey Collegians.

WHN—NEW YORK—361

5 p. m.—Knight's Orchestra.
7 p. m.—Dance orchestra.
7:30 p. m.—Akradyne entertainers.
8 p. m.—Dick Hughes, songs.
8:15 p. m.—Einar Hansen, violinist.
8:30 p. m.—Jack Smith, barytone.
8:45 p. m.—Mario Alvarez, tenor.
11 p. m.—Dance orchestra.
10:30 p. m.—Anatol Friendland.
11 p. m.—Dance orchestra.
10:50 p. m.—Anatol Friendland.
11 p. m.—Dance orchestra.
11:30 p. m.—Lew Brown, Sidney Claire.
12 midnight—Dance orchestra.
12:30 a. m.—Harry Richman's Entertainers.

WAHG—RICHMOND HILL—316

12:02 p. m.—Musical program.
7:30 p. m.—Dance orchestra.
8 p. m.—Augustine Jaquillard, soprano; Emery Deutsch, violinist.
9 p. m.—Jevva Bilk, Norwegian contralto.
9:15 p. m.—Sterling Male Quartet.
9:45 p. m.—Jevva Bilk, contralto.
10:03 p. m.—Fred Fisher, Bob Shafer.

WOR—NEWARK—405

6:15 p. m.—Words mispronounced.
6:17 p. m.—"Sports," Bill Wathey.
6:30 p. m.—Jacques Jacobs's Ensemble.
7:30 p. m.—Casino orchestra.
8 p. m.—"Topics of the Day."
8:15 p. m.—Ballin and Race, piano.
8:30 p. m.—Capt. George H. Wilkins.
8:45 p. m.—Sam Siegel, mandolin.
9 p. m.—William Lockwood, violinist.
9:15 p. m.—"Our Alphabet," Frank Vizetelly.
9:30 p. m.—William Lockwood, violinist.
9:45 p. m.—Horace Taylor, reader.
10 p. m.—Mabelanna Corbyn's artists; Alba Victor, Elizabeth Spencer, Janet Bushnecht, Howard Applegate, Genevieve Applegate.
11 p. m.—News bulletins.
11:10 p. m.—Katinka orchestra.

WCAU—PHILADELPHIA—278

6:45 p. m.—The Praodians.
8:10 p. m.—"Papa Bailey's Bunch."
9 p. m.—Lew Chapman's orchestra.
10:30 p. m.—D. Strickland, "Poetician."
10:45 p. m.—Frank Cook, songs.
11 p. m.—Artie Bittong's Cheer-ups.

WGY—SCHENECTADY—380

6:30 p. m.—Program for children.
6:45 p. m.—Eastman Theater orchestra.
7:30 p. m.—"Book of Knowledge."
8:05 p. m.—Musical program.

WRW—TARRYTOWN—278

10 p. m.—Eugene Farrell, songs.
10:15 p. m.—Regina Russe, songs.
10:30 p. m.—Galaxy orchestra.
10:45 p. m.—Eugene Farrell, songs.
11 p. m.—Galaxy orchestra.

WGR—BUFFALO—319

6:30 p. m.—Joe Armbuster's orchestra.
8:30 p. m.—Jointly with WEAF.
10 p. m.—Walther Chorus.
11 p. m.—1 a. m.—Supper music.

WHAM—ROCHESTER, N. Y.—278

7 p. m.—Eastman Theater orchestra.
8:05 p. m.—Concert by operatic quartet.

WMAK—LOCKPORT, N. Y.—266

7:30 to 10 p. m.—Musical program.

WJAR—PROVIDENCE—306

1:05 p. m.—Program.
1:35 p. m.—Howard and Harris.
7:30 p. m.—Army Band.
9 p. m.—Musical program.
10 p. m.—Roxy's Gang.

WCAC—STORRS, CONN.—275

7:20 p. m.—Music; reports; talk.
7:45 p. m.—Concert.

WTIC—HARTFORD CONN.—476

6:30 p. m.—Dinner concert.
8 p. m.—Studio program.
9 p. m.—Talk, Prof. Goodrich.
9:15 p. m.—Piano, organ recital.

WNAC—BOSTON—230

10:30 a. m.—WNAC Women's Club
12:15 p. m.—Noon service.
1 p. m.—Luncheon concert.
4 p. m.—Tea dance.
4:20 p. m.—Vocal and piano solos.
6 p. m.—Kiddies' Club.
6:30 p. m.—Dinner dance.
7:30 p. m.—Boston Federation of Churches.
8 p. m.—Scotch Night.

WEEI—BOSTON—475

3 p. m.—Johnnie Bowles' orchestra.
5:40 p. m.—Chet Frost's Bostonians.
6:45 p. m.—Big Brother Club; musicals.
7:45 p. m.—Peerless Tours.
8:30 p. m.—Radeco Trio.
9 p. m.—Troubadours.
10 p. m.—Roxy's Gang.

WBZ—SPRINGFIELD—338

6:30 p. m.—Little Symphony orchestra.
7:30 p. m.—Radio Nature League.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Rehearsing For Lions' Play

"Last night at the Elks' home," said Max Hanover, "I attended a rehearsal of the Lions' club show, "That's That," to be held in our city the last week in this month. I was very much impressed by the progress made by the leading characters and by the choruses. The entire cast goes through the show, not like amateurs, but like professional players.

"Watching the leading characters, I was filled with admiration for the sincerity of our men and women. It was very gratifying to see with what earnestness they are striving to help the Lions' club raise a fund for worthy charity in our city.

"The work is by no means easy, requiring close study of an elaborate plot and what makes it more difficult is the precision with which each character must fit into the play.

"Another phase which makes participation of the play so tedious, is the amount of practice necessary to attain proficiency. Night after night those fine young men and women of Norwich give up their social relations, leaving home and friends, and come to the Elks' home to perform strenuous work. Some of the performers have long distances to travel which makes the spirit of self-sacrifice for a civic and charitable purpose, one of the most beautiful demonstrations of fine character of our young people.

"The girls taking part in choruses and the dances, have to work equally as hard. Some of the dance steps are quite intricate and very difficult of performance. But our girls go through them again and again, never tiring until perfection is attained.

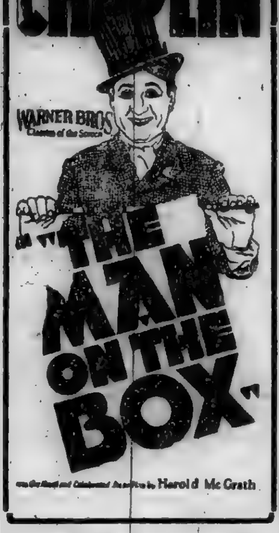
"The entire show is a revelation of efficiency and ability. It is going through with spirit, enthusiasm and zest and it bids fair to be the best amateur performance ever staged in our city.

"This noble interest in a worthy cause by the boys and girls of our city, deserves as reward, that every Norwich loving citizen should come to the show and bring his family. The receipts at the box office will not pay one cent to the performers but it will help the object for which they put forth such strenuous and sincere effort."

PALACE

IT'S YOUR LAST CHANCE TO SEE
"That Royle Girl"
AND HEAR
William Giuliani
The Baritone of the San Carlo Grand Opera.

AN ALL GOOD SHOW
NOW FOR THE BIG LAUGH!
—Thursday, Friday, Saturday—



From the Book and Celebrated Newspaper Series by Harold McGrath

BREED THEATRE
—TODAY—
Last Times—2:15, 7:00, 8:45
Ramon Novarro
—in—
"The Midshipman"
Made at the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, with cooperation of the Navy.

—Coming Thursday—
Rex Beach's
Romance of Klondike Gold Rush
"WINDS OF CHANCE"
The greatest epic of gold and glory your eyes have yet beheld, with ANNA Q. NILSSON, BEN LYON, VIOLA DANA, HOBART BOSWORTH, DOROTHY SEBASTIAN and a cast of 350 people.
"OUR GANG" and "WILD WEST"

LYCEUM
NEW LONDON, CONN.
FRI. and SAT. NIGHTS
JAN. 22-23
BARGAIN MATINEE SAT.

CARL REED WHEELS IN THE CREAKING CHAIR
A Farcical Mystery Play
By Allene Tupper Wilkes
As Played Eight Months in London, England.
WITH AN EXCEPTIONALLY FINE COMPANY OF NEW YORK
STAGE FAVORITES, including

Ernest Lawford	Reginald Mason
Mary Carroll	Eleanor Griffith
Brandon Peters	Leonore Harris
Gilbert Douglas	Tyrell Davis
Beatrice Miller	Stanley Harrison

ENTIRE PRODUCTION DESIGNED BY LIVINGSTON PLATT.
This Show and Company Positively Opens in New York Feb. 2nd.
PRICES—Nights, $2.88, $2.30, $1.73, $1.15, 50c.
Matinee, $1.73, $1.15, 87c, 50c, 25c
Seat Sale at Capitol Now. Mail Orders NOW.

BROADWAY
Mat. 2:15—LAST TIMES—Evening, 7 to 10:30
HAVE YOU SEEN THIS WONDERFUL PROGRAM?
You don't know what a great time you are missing.
6 ACTS KEITH-ALBEE VAUDEVILLE
IT'S GREAT — THAT'S ALL
And a Photoplay that has set the whole town a-talking
"THE PLASTIC AGE"
With CLARA BOW and DONALD KEITH
PERCY MARKS' NOVEL—IT FLAMES WITH THE SPIRIT OF YOUTH
THURSDAY 4 MORE WONDERFUL ACTS
OUR ANNIVERSARY WEEK

THE LIONS CLUB
—PRESENTS—
THE ULTRA-MODERN MUSICAL COMEDY
THAT'S THAT
A JOHN B. ROGERS PRODUCTION
Broadway Theatre — Jan. 26 and 27
Tickets now on sale at: Engler's, Fagan's, Cranston's, Smith Pharmacy, Madden's, Ethier's, Shea's News Store, Sisks Drug Store, by members of the cast and members of the Lions Club.

AT A SACRIFICE!
$5,000 STOCK FOR SALE
—OF—
CAPITOL THEATRE CORP.
WILLIMANTIC, CONN.
HOW MUCH IS OFFERED?
Apply A. DAVIDSON, Manager
BROADWAY THEATRE, NORWICH.

DANCE
Given by L. H. D. Club
Odd Fellows Hall
TONIGHT
THUMM'S ORCHESTRA
DANCING AT 8:30 P. M.

DANCE
FRIDAY NIGHT
Yantic Hall
Benefit Fire Engine Co.
SHELBY AND HIS ORCHESTRA

DANCE TONIGHT
OLD FASHIONED DANCES
—in—
YANTIC FIRE ENGINE HALL
Gents, 50c Ladies, 35c

DANCE
At Pulaski Hall
Wednesday, Jan. 20, 1926.
—Music by—
D'ATRI'S WAUREGAN HOTEL ORCHESTRA
Admission—Ladies, 35c; Gents, 50c.

SHELBY
AND
His Radio Band
Wednesday Night
January 20th
AL-PIERRE TABARIN
WILLIMANTIC
A Real Dance Orchestra

"Uncle Joe" Shippee
CHAMPION OLD TIME FIDDLER OF NEW ENGLAND
AND HIS ORCHESTRA
OLD TIME DANCE MUSIC
—For—
OLD TIME DANCES
NOW OPEN FOR ENGAGEMENTS.
JAMES WALKER, Manager.
PLAINFIELD.
Tel. Moosup 27-12.

8 p. m.—Dance orchestra.
8:15 p. m.—Aggie Radio Forum.
8:30 p. m.—Fitchburg Night.
10:20 p. m.—Leo Reisman's concert.

WTAG—WORCESTER, Mass.—395

10:30 a. m.—Musical selections; talk.
12:05-2 p. m.—Luncheon music.
4:45 p. m.—Talk, Robert Shaw.
7:15 p. m.—Story teller; talk.
7:45 p. m.—Spanish lesson.
8:30 p. m.—Davis Saxophone Octet.
10-11 p. m.—Roxy's Gang.

WRC—WASHINGTON—469

10 a. m.—Women's hour from WJZ.
12 noon—Lee House Trio.
4:15 p. m.—Meyer Davis's Band.
5 p. m.—"WRC's Foolish Entertainers."
6 p. m.—"Things Talked About."

WCAP—WASHINGTON—469

7-11 p. m.—Women's Industrial Conference program from WEAF.

KDKA—PITTSBURGH—309

6:30 p. m.—Dinner concert.
8 p. m.—News items; markets.
8:15 p. m.—University address.
8:30 p. m.—Symphony orchestra; quartet.

WCAE—PITTSBURGH—461

6:30 p. m.—Dinner concert.
7:30 p. m.—Children's period.
9 p. m.—Concert.

WAIU—COLUMBUS, OHIO—20

7-8 p. m.—Thrift week.

WTAM—CLEVELAND—390

6 p. m.—Dinner music.
8-10 p. m.—Cleveland concert.
10 p. m.—Orchestral selections.
11 p. m.—Dance music.

WEAR—CLEVELAND—390

7 p. m.—Dinner concert.

WKRC—CINCINNATI—422

9 p. m.—Book review.
9:15 p. m.—Orchestra.
10 p. m.—Classical hour.

WSAI—CINCINNATI—326

8 p. m.—Chime concert; art talk.
8:30 p. m.—Program from WEAF.
11 p. m.—University address.
11:15 p. m.—String quartet.

WLW—CINCINNATI—422.3

2 p. m.—Dinner concert; farm talks.
9:15 p. m.—Orchestra concert.
11 p. m.—"Pep" concert; readings.
12:15 p. m.—Musical news; piano.
1 a. m.—Stage frolic.

WJX—DETROIT—517

6-7 p. m.—Dinner concert.
8-9 p. m.—Studio concert.

WWJ—DETROIT—353

6 p. m.—Dinner concert.
8 p. m.—Orchestra and soloists.
9-p. m.—Dance music.
10 p. m.—Roxy's Gang.

WHEO—LANSING, MICH.—286

6-7 p. m.—Dinner music.

WJR—PONTIAC, MICH.—517

8 p. m.—Goldkette's orchestra; soloists.
9-p. m.—Serenaders and soloists.
11:30 p. m.—Jewett Jesters.

KYW—CHICAGO—536

7 p. m.—Dinner concert.
8:05 p. m.—Bedtime story; music.
9 p. m.—Musical concert.
11 p. m.—Midnight Revue.
2-3 a. m.—Insomnia Club.

Some people are so miserly that one cannot ever have a joke at their expense.

NARROWLY ESCAPE DEATH WHEN CASTING HITS WALK

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WESTERLY, Jan. 19—Hurdling the Albert Sylvia block, corner of West Broad and Liberty streets, Pawcatuck, on Tuesday afternoon the red hot main "driving brass" was torn from the locomotive attached to the east bound Knickerbocker limited, as it passed through Westerly, landing on the curbstone on Liberty street with a meteoric crash. Within two feet of where it landed stood ten year old John LaPreston of Liberty street, who was scared stiff as the heavy casting passed over two women, one of whom was wheeling a baby carriage.

Albert Sylvia rushed out of his shop and attempted to lift the casting but found it was too hot to handle. The fifty pound collar, or bushing, which had its bolts cut off, functioned between the driving wheels and connecting rod to prevent the friction which would result from the rapidly revolving steel parts if it were not in place. The split collar is some 19 inches in diameter and when it cooled Mr. Sylvia picked it up and placed it in his show window where it attracted considerable attention.

The Westerly station of the New Haven road was notified and an attempt was made to communicate with Train No. 16 as the Knickerbocker is called, but by the time the East Greenwich tower had received the word the limited was much nearer Providence. It arrived at Providence before its loss had been detected.

It would seem as if this was a means taken by the locomotive to call attention to the West Broad street bridge which the Pawcatuck Board of Trade is now using every endeavor to have this underpass of the Boston Post road widened. The locomotive had just crossed the bridge and the resounding knock of the casting, when it struck the sidewalk beyond the intervening 2-story block, caused a crowd to gather in a short time.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

BORN

BUME—In New London, Jan. 19, 1926, a daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hume.

HILL—In New London, Jan. 19, 1926, a son, to Dr. and Mrs. E. Roland Hill.

DESHEFY—In New London, Jan. 18, 1926, a daughter, to Ernest L. and Heled T. Deshefy.

JAMES—In Westerly, R. I., Jan. 16, 1926, a daughter, Elsie Elizabeth, to Clifford Wood and Anne Therese Quinn James.

PUTNAM—In New London, Jan. 18, 1926, a son, to Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Putnam of North Lyme.

GRAY—In Plainfield, Jan. 16, 1926, a son, Arvine Cranston, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Gray (formerly Ethel Dawley of Jewett City).

MARRIED

LACROIX-BONNEVILLE—In Putnam, Jan. 19th, 1926, by Rev. Charles F. Bedard, Charles F. Lacroix, of Baltic and Miss Bella Louise Bonneville of Putnam.

JOHNSON-WILLIS—In Putnam, Jan. 16th, 1926, by Rev. H. Goring Allder, Stanley E. Johnson, of North Grosvenordale and Miss Alice M. Willis, of Putnam.

TIETZ-FALCONE—In Norwich, Jan. 18, 1926, by Rev. W. A. Keefe, James Yiets and Miss Amelia Falcone, both of Norwich.

BEEBE-HOPKINS—In Norwich Town, Jan. 14, 1926, by Rev. G. F. Bailey, Sherman C. Beebe and Miss E. Mabelle Hopkins, both of Norwich.

STEWART-CROWLEY—In Westerly, R. I., Jan. 15, 1926, by Rev. J. F. Vincent, S. M., William Stewart and Teresa Crowley, both of Westerly.

DIED

CHAPMAN—In Westerly, Jan. 19, 1926, Miss Acsah Marie Chapman, daughter of the late Cmomander Amos P. and Marin Maine Chapman of Westerly, aged 42.

DIXON—In Providence, Jan. 17, 1926, Sarah Agnes Dixon.

TUCKER—In New London, Jan. 18, 1926, Elizabeth C. Hall, widow of Augustus C. Tucker, in her 80th year.

CHAPMAN—In New London, Jan. 15, 1926, Mrs. Alice M. Chapman of Groton, in her 70th year.

GEE—In Putnam, Jan. 14, 1926, George Wallace, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George Gee, aged 2 weeks and 5 days.

FUNERAL NOTICES

OLSEN—In Norwich, suddenly, Jan. 17, 1926, Joseph H. Olsen, aged 31 years. Funeral services at the home of his brother, John O. Olsen, 12 Town street, Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 20th at 3:30 o'clock. Burial in Maplewood cemetery.

BOSWORTH—In Bozrah, Jan. 18, 1926, Mary Stark Abel, widow of Rev. Q. M. Bosworth, in the 86th year of her age. Prayers at the late residence Basbon Hill Wednesday afternoon, January 20, at 1 o'clock. Funeral services at the Bozrah Center Congregational Church at 2 o'clock. Interment in Johnson cemetery.

DOLBEARE—In Norwich, Jan. 18, 1926, Lydia M. Bushnell, widow of C. Raymond Dolbeare. Funeral services at her late residence, 25 Spring Garden avenue, Thursday afternoon, Jan. 21st, at 3:30 o'clock. Interment in Yantic cemetery.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Church & Allen
18 MAIN STREET
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Lady Assistant
HENRY E. CHURCH
WM SMITH ALLEN
Telephone 328-3

Shea & Burke
Funeral Directors
41 Main Street

The Henry Allen & Son Co.
38 MAIN STREET
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Lady Assistant Telephone 410-2
DAVID H WILSON

GEORGE G. GRANT
UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER
Phone 2729 Providence St. Taftville

GAGER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER
PROMPT SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT

CUMMINGS & RING
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
322 Main Street
Phone 238 2 Lady Assistant

HOURIGAN BROS.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Norwich and Jewett City

DANIELSON

ALBERTUS F. WOOD,
Funeral Director and Embalmer
PHONE 147 DANIELSON

CENTRAL VILLAGE

F. W. Tillinghast & Sons
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
CENTRAL VILLAGE CONN
Tel Moosup 282-2

Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
96 Union Street Willimantic, Conn
Phone 720 Lady Assistant

WILLIMANTIC

Avery & Van Zandt
Succeeding JAY M SHEPARD
Established 1870
Funeral Directors, Embalmers
Sixty and Sixty-Two North Street
Willimantic Conn

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—I offer for your inspection this 80 acre farm with good buildings, for $3,500. William M. McNicol, Maynard Bldg. Jewett City. tf

FOR SALE—2 apartment house on Franklin St., several building lots; also several good farms. Burton. Phone 1125. Jan16d

FOR SALE—A knitting machine in good condition. Reasonable price. Inquire 505 Main St., top floor. Jan19d

A pink from Yantik sez he always gets up early cus he always tells his son to wake him when he kums in. Boys must stay out prity late in Yantik. Rubber pouch and pipe all for 50c. Noble, Old Coon Pippin 5 for 30c. Manila Cigars special 10 for 35c. Murad, Melachrino cigarets 20 for 20 c. Fagan's Smoke Shop. Opp Woolworth.

FOR SALE—Police puppies. F. Theteault, Hanover. Phone 1871-5, Norwich, Div. Jan18d

FOR SALE—Underwood No. 5 Typewriter, good as new, will sell cheap. Cash or time. Apply, 49 Franklin St. Jan18d

CABLE PIANO—88 note with fine tone and action. Mahogany case. Can be bought for $125 on convenient payments. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. tf

CHOICE TWO GOOD PIANOS $95—Reputable New England make in excellent condition as to tone, action, case and finish. Terms if desired. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. tf

USED PIANOS $68—Two excellent makes taken in exchange. In good condition, suitable for beginner. Terms arranged if desired. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. tf

ORTHOPHONIC VICTROLAS—Available here in all styles from $85 up on convenient payments. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., only exclusively Victrola dealers in Norwich and Eastern Conn. tf

90 acres, state road farm 5 minutes walk to stores, church and bus line, 40 acres level tillage land, dark loam soil very productive, two story colonial house, large stock barn, 125 ton silo; buildings all good and the price only $5,500, including 15 cows, 1 pair horses, and a complete line of farming implements. Tryons Agency, Willimantic, Conn. Jan16d

FOR SALE—Brand new Gulbransen Player Pianos on terms as low as $2.50 weekly. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. tf

FOR SALE—A good upright Schubert piano in fine condition. Full plate and 88 note, $89. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. tf

WASSERMAN 88 note piano like new cheap to the first buyer. Hanover-Curland Co 24 Franklin St. Jan14

FOR SALE—A brand new Victrola, Model 6a. Regular price $110. Our Price $53.50. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. tf

FOR SALE—A brand new $285 Brunswick Phonograph for $83.50. Hanover-Curland Co. 24 Franklin St. tf

FOR SALE—Orthophonic Victrolas on Ease Terms at the Cash price. We are factory agents of genuine Victrolas for town of Norwich. Hanover-Curland Co 24 Franklin St. tf

$165 buys Wasserman 88 note Player piano, in good condition. Hanover-Curland Co. 24 Franklin St. tf

FOR SALE—A 5 Tube Chelsea Radio set. Regular price $50. Special Price for cash, $25. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. tf

FOR SALE—House, 15 Elm St., belonging to est. Oscar L. Brown. Inquire Dr. N. B. Lewis. Adm. 314 Main St. J30

FOR SALE—6 room bungalow with water in house, electric lights, 7 acres of land with 40 young fruit trees. 1 3-4 miles from Franklin Sq. on Middle road to Poquetanuck, price very attractive. For particulars call at A. Hagberg & Son Tailor Shop, 310 Main. Jan12d

FOR SALE—3 tenement house, 6 rooms each flat, with all modern improvements. Large lot. Also 2 tenement 5 room each flats, all modern improvements with 2 car garage. Large lot, located near Golden St. Also 9 room house with store located in 70 Boswell Ave. For full particulars, see A. V. Covello, Real Estate and Fire Insurance. 198 Cliff St. Tel. 1093-3. Jan11d

FOR SALE—Second hand ranges with gas attachment and some without. We guarantee every range that goes out of our store. Some Crawfords and some Glenwoods. 107 Franklin St Phone 559. dec24d

FOR SALE

A very choice piece of property desirably located on Williams st., large double lot. House can be very economically put into a two apartment. This property must be sold at once and who it fits, can secure a big bargain. Can have easiest of terms.

For further particulars inquire of

JOHN A. MORAN
REAL ESTATE BROKER

FOR SALE

IN NORWICHTOWN

7 room house with large plot of ground near Backus Hospital. Low price for quick sale. Owner leaving town.

FRANCIS D DONOHUE
Young's Block Norwich.

FOR SALE

Best Quality Seasoned Hard Wood Delivered anywhere within a radius of four miles of Franklin Square.

HARRY S. FORD
Phone 80 Disco Building

ATTENTION
JANUARY INVESTORS

WHY NOT CONSIDER AN INVESTMENT OF A PORTION OF YOUR FUNDS IN—

FORMAN & COMPANY'S
Guaranteed First Mortgage
6½% Bonds

THIS COMPANY HAS A RECORD OF FORTY YEARS WITHOUT A LOSS TO A SINGLE PURCHASER. MAY WE SEND YOU A DESCRIPTIVE CIRCULAR

James L. Case
INVESTMENT DEPARTMENT
40 SHETUCKET STREET

POULTRY

FOR SALE—R. I. Red Baby chicks and hatching eggs from stock tested free from bacillary white diarrhea, H. J. Larkham, Norwich Town. Phone 462-4. Jan6d

FOR SALE—S. C. R. I. Reds. Day old chicks from stock tested for white diarrhea. Hatches weekly. W. W. Service, Lakeview Farm, R. D. 1, Norwich. Tel. 1658-3. Jan14d

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—2 tenement house on Laurel Hill Ave. All in good repair. Rents well. Price low, and terms easy. Phone 1460. Jan20d

FOR SALE—14 room house with two garages and plot of ground 100 by 150 ft. Easily arranged in two or three apartments. In best residential section. Price low and terms easy. Call 1460. J20d

FOR SALE—8 room house in Broad St. school district in first class condition, arranged in five room and three room apartments. Price right. Call 1460. J20d

FOR SALE—Hard wood slabs, $9 per cord. Phone 152-2. Jan20d

FREE—Hose and 10 feet of piping with every Radiator Heater purchased during this month. Gas & Elec. Dept. Jan20d

FOR SALE—Rooming house, 12 large rooms full, all permanent roomers. Central location, rent $60. Price $1,000. Sickness the cause of selling. Income $40 per week. No brokers. A bargain. Mrs. C. King, 326 Washington St. Providence, R. I. Jan20d

FOR SALE—Remington Cash Register and Desk. Also Ford Touring car. Phone 301-5. Jan20d

FOR SALE—Two coal heaters, at a reasonable price. H. W. Clark, Scotland, Conn. Phone 293-4. Jan20d

FOR SALE

Two-apartment house, West Side, 5 rooms and bath. Built less than a year ago. Possession given by small payment.

J. A. CUNNINGHAM
THAYER BUILDING.

WANTED—Female

WANTED—Girl to assist in housekeeping, small family. Phone 2626W.

WANTED—Woman desires position as bookkeeper. Has thorough knowledge of this branch of office work having had considerable experience. Can furnish references. Call 2594J. tf

WANTED—Housekeeper for two adults on farm. Lock Box 2, Central Village, Phone 28-3 Moosup Div. Jan19d

WANTED—Stenographer. Give experience. Also girl for chemical laboratory. Address Chemical, Bulletin Office. Jan19d

WANTED—Work by the day. Inquire 79 School street. Jan18d

WANTED—Woman to represent six popular magazines in Norwich and nearby towns. Excellent opportunity for woman desiring to build up a business from home. Private telephone essential. Leads furnished; commission basis. Write F. R. Lasher, 181 Cannon street, Bridgeport, Conn. Jan18d

WANTED—Position as nurse to adults, or housekeeper. Good references. P. O. Box 205, Norwich. Jan18d

WANTED

Ambitious young lady as bookkeeper and stenographer. Write giving experience, references and salary expected.

T. N. M. LATHROP INC.
84 No. Main St. Norwich

Experienced Stenographer Wanted

Apply in own handwriting.

Address Box 555, Bulletin.

COAL AND WOOD

FOR SALE—Sawed oak wood, one cord $11, 1-2 cord $6, 1-4 cord $3.50. Delivered anywhere. O. H. Main. Phone 489. tf

FOR SALE—Sawed slab wood or thick hard wood. Try a load. Tel 1883-3 dec24

FOR SALE—Wood, stove length. G. A. Bullard. Tel 1076-4. dec23d

FOR SALE—Best Quality hard dry wood. H. E. Beard & Son. Ye Old Homestead Farm. Tel 615-4 nov25d

FOR SALE—Best hardwood and slabs. Five a load. John R. Lyman. Tel 2617W nov23d

COAL, seasoned wood and kindlings delivered anywhere 4 baskets for $1.00. Phone 729. Park Wood Yard 401 Franklin St. #3d

COAL—Seasoned wood and kindlings in large or small quantities delivered anywhere. Phone 504 or 1283-4. H. Shapiro, Willow street nov22d

WANTED—Miscellaneous

WANTED—To drill you a new well or your old well deeper. A. E. Earl, Contractor for artesian wells. P. O. Box 240, Willimantic, Conn. Jan20d

WANTED—Agents to sell complete line of Towels, Linens, Damask, E. Tattersall & Co., Clinton, Mass. Jan20d

HIGHEST prices paid for used furniture and antiques. Louis D. Ward, Box 359, Norwich. Phone 861-12 Norwich 406 Willimantic. sept7d

WANTED—An 8 or 10 room apartment, centrally located suited for a rooming house. Apply at 3 N. Main St., or the Marguerite Bldg. Jan19d

WANTED—Furniture repairing, Refinishing and Odd Jobs in Carpentry. Phone 1203-4. Jan12d

WANTED—Second hand antique furniture. Best prices paid. A. Bruckner, 102 Franklin St. Phone 559. nov12d

WANTED—Cash paid for old furniture. R. H. Ward 16 Water St. Tel 34. nov14c

WANTED—To buy poultry and calves highest prices paid. Call 1405 nov17d

MIRRORS resilvered and glass for every purpose. Norwich Glass Co., 5 Main St. Tel 2463 nov17d

LOST AND FOUND

FOUND—Black and white female hound. Dewey M. Taylor, N. Stonington, Conn. Box No. 46.

FOUND—Black and tan fox hound. Female. Arthur E. Waterhouse, Killingly, Conn. R. F. D. No. 1. Tel. Danielson 232-2. Jan20d

FOR SALE—Horses

NOTICE!

Am in the west after a carload of Horses. Will arrive about February 1. Watch this paper.

FRANK L. LATHROP
YANTIC.

FOR SALE—Cows

FOR SALE—Holstein Cattle, either sex, young bulls from A. R. O. dams. Herd under Federal and State supervision. Last test 100 per cent. clean. Also low down milk wagon in good running order. Thos. W. Wood, Camp View Farm, Waterford, Conn. Tel. 1706-12. Jan13d

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

TO RENT

TO RENT—Modern furnished apartment, 4 rooms and bath, including steam heat, radio service and other conveniences. Accommodations for two adults only. Central location. Phone 141-2. J30d

TO RENT—2 light housekeeping rooms furnished. Electric lights, heat. 172 Laurel Hill Ave. Phone 2631 R. J30d

TO RENT—Tenement, 5 rooms all improvements. 39 Greene Ave. Jan20d

TO RENT—Furnished rooms for light housekeeping, private bath room and private entrance. Tel. 1241-3 or inquire, Disco Bros. tf

TO RENT—4 room tenement. Inquire 152 Palmer St. J20d

TO RENT—6 room flat. Inquire 16 Carter Ave. Jan20d

TO RENT—Garage room for one car. Tel. 1484. 15 Oak St. A. Gardner. Jan6d

FOR RENT—Furnished room, steam heat, use of phone, private family. Phone 249-4. Marion Bldg. Jan19d

TO RENT—2 furnished rooms, for light housekeeping. Steam heated. Tel. 628-5. Jan18d

TO RENT—4 room flat with bath. Laurel Hill Ave. Phone 2691J. Jan19d

TO RENT—Lower Tenement, 6 rooms and bath. Inquire of J. Bradford, 108 Broadway. Jan19d

TO RENT—7 room flat. All modern improvements at 35 Cliff St. Tel. 2252 Jan15d

TO RENT—6 room tenement, all improvements. Mohegan Park Rd. Brook Bldg. Phone 1472-2. Jan19d

TO RENT—Six room apartment. Steam heat furnished. Reasonable rent. All modern improvements. Phone 2356. J16d

TO RENT—3 or 4 rooms. Light housekeeping. 27 McKinley Ave. tf

TO RENT—Select 6 room apartment, Greene Ave., tile bath, garage included. $45 a month. Call 2474-2. Jan14d

FOR RENT—3 rooms, pantry, gas, lights; School St., $10 a month. Call 2474-4. J13d

TO RENT—6 large rooms, $18. Near the Thermos. Tel. 1463. dec30d

TO RENT—Small heated apartment with hot water, furnished or unfurnished. Garage space at 175 Broadway. Phone 1506 or 1811. dec24d

TO RENT—4 modern room apartment. Inquire Brooklyn Outfitters.

FOR RENT—Fine modern apartment. All improvements 22 Perkins Ave. Inquire Adelard Morin. The Plaut-Cadden Co. dec9d

TO RENT—Garage at 50 Broad St. Inquire Hanover-Curland Co. dec4d

TO RENT—Dead storage for 50 cars. Bartley & Gallup. 363-365 Hamilton Ave. Phone 701-2. nov24d

TO RENT—Apartment 197 Laurel Hill Ave., with or without garage. Phone 2179. nov11d

TO RENT—Furnished rooms for light housekeeping also garage. 11 Elm street city nov4d

WANTED Automobiles for storage $4.00 per month. Garage, 473 N Main St. oct29d

TO RENT—Cottage of 6 rooms, all improvements. 36 Grove St. oct25d

TO RENT—A fine modern apartment in best residential section of Norwich. Inquire of Shea and Burke, 41 Main St. oct16d

WANTED—Male

WANTED—Large company 50 years in business has unusually good opening for active man with small car, as salesman in or near Norwich or Jewett City, supplying families with select line of teas, coffees, spices, extracts, baking powder, etc., permanent, profitable and healthful business. Write Box G 202, Bulletin Company, Norwich, Conn. Jan20

WANTED—Position as bookkeeper by young man with several years' experience. Also has thorough knowledge of expert accounting and auditing. Can furnish the best of references. Address 14 Nelson place or call 2594 J, during the evening. tf

WANTED—Young man. Ambitious young man over 21 now employed but dissatisfied with future prospects who desires to follow overseas and South American shipping export, and foreign trade as a life career must be willing to devote some spare time acquiring thorough knowledge of this work. Write for interview giving age and present employment. Confidential. Address Box 1220, Bulletin. Jan18

WANTED—Handy man on farm with good pay. J. Segal. Phone 1076-5. J18d

AMBITIOUS MEN AND BOYS—2o wanted at once to learn the barber trade; we pay you while learning, tuition $35; we are open from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m. Vaughn's School of Barbering, 14 Market St., Hartford, Conn. Nov14d

WANTED

Salesman in Norwich and Outside. Good Opportunity.

NORWICH USED CAR EXCHANGE, INC.
95 Lafayette Street. Phone 2260.

FOR SALE—Automobiles

FOR SALE—Cadillac, truck body, mechanically perfect. Sackett, Canterbury, Conn. Jan20d

FOR SALE—1921 Ford Coupe, $135. First class condition. Call 692-5 between 6 and 9 p. m. Jan18d

FOR SALE—1924 Buick Coupe, 1921 Packard Small Six Sedan, 1924 Studebaker Sedan, 1925 Ford Coach, 1923 Dodge S. Sedan, 1923 Dodge A Sedan, 1924 Ford Coupe, 1924 Maxwell Coupe, 1921 Ford Coupe. 15 open cars all late models. Cash or Terms. Adams Tavern Garage. Jan16d

FOR SALE—Dodge, four door sedan, nice condition, extras. Price $225. Would consider terms. Tel. 1964. Jan16d

FOR SALE—1925 Hudson Coach, 1925 Ford Coupe, 1924 Jewett Sport Roadster, 1924 Maxwell Touring, 1924 Durant Sport Sedan, 1924 Ford Touring, 1924 Ford Coach. Jones & St. Germain's, 63 Shetucket street. Jan14d

YOU CAN order a new or used Harley-Davidson motorcycle for immediate or spring delivery through our Club Plan. $2 50 down. New models are now on display. Jim Donovan, 155 N. Main St. Phone 709. dec3d

FOR SALE—1926 Chevrolet Sedan, 1924 Ford Coupe, 1924 Chevrolet Touring, 1923 Dodge Touring, 1923 Maxwell Touring, 1922 Buick Touring. Krieger Motor Sales Co 191 No. Main St. Tel 646 dec30d

FOR SALE

PRIVATELY OWNED
BUICK COUPE
In good condition. New tires.
Fully equipped
For further information address
BOX NO. 128 BULLETIN

PERSONAL

SUFFERERS of Heart Trouble, Dropsy, Angina, High Blood Pressure, Paralysis, Asthma, I will gladly tell you free how you can get quick and lasting relief without using drugs, medicines, serums. Address R. V. Walden, Box 1350, New Haven, Conn. Jan14d

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—Black silk watch fob with Knights Templar charm. Return to 319 Central avenue and receive reward.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

Business Notices.

AUTOMOBILE REPAIRING

General Repairing, Day and Night Service
JONES' GARAGE
East Great Plain Tel. 2171-2

"JOE" MOORE'S GARAGE
Mechanical, Electrical and Body Repairs
PHONE 2818
99 Chestnut Street

AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES

OVERHAULING and REPAIR WORK
OF ALL KINDS
Automobiles, Carriages, Wagons, Trucks and Carts
Mechanical Repairs Painting, Trimming, Upholstering and Wood Work
Blacksmithing in All its Branches
Scott & Clark Corp.
607 TO 615 NORTH MAIN STREET

Now is the time to have the radiator out in A 1 shape for spring work HERE is the place to have it done We remove scale, sediment, and rust: we stop PERMANENTLY those leaks We straighten the weak spots against vibration.
We recore or repair ANY TYPE of STYLE.
W. E. SHANLEY
499 MAIN STREET.

RADIATORS REPAIRED AND RECORED
Dents removed from bodies and fenders, running boards recovered, auto glass cut and installed, auto metal work and all kinds of soldering done.
WORK GUARANTEED.
Norwich Radiator Works
375 Main Street. Tel. 2215.

Keep the Money Circulating
500 OLD CARS WANTED
Any condition. Cash waiting.
Large stock of Gears, Axles, Bearings, Wheels, Springs, Starters, Generators, Batteries, Windshields, Radiators, Motors, Rear Ends and all parts.
Bargains in Used Tires and Tubes.

HODES AUTO PARTS
Formerly the
NATIONAL AUTO WRECKING CO.
381 West Main St. Cor. Mt. Pleasant.
Tel. 1391

PARTS THAT ARE STANDARD EQUIPMENT ON THE BEST BUILT CARS IN AMERICA ARE SOLD BY Norwich Auto Parts Co.
43 N. Main St. Phone 2118

Battery Service
The Best 1-Day Battery Charging
Radio Rental Batteries
75c Week.
Capacity, 40 Batteries every 8 to 10 Hours

VULCANIZING
The only shop in the city equipped to repair all sizes of REGULAR and BALLOON Tires.
The KE HAW KE System
ALL REPAIRS GUARANTEED.
Lane Motor Supply
170 Franklin Street.
PHONE 1570.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

Business Notices.

AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES

CARS BOUGHT TO WRECK and parts for all cars.
881 West Main St., Cor. Mt. Pleasant
HODES AUTO PARTS
Norwich, Conn.
Tel. 1391

STAR GARAGE
NOW FOR SERVICE!
We are now carrying a complete line of new auto parts such as—
WEL-EVER PISTON RINGS
BUTLER SPRINGS
AMERICAN GEARS
TIMKEN BEARINGS
BUTLER DRIVE SHAFTS AND AXLES
and other popular auto replacement products, accessories and Tires.
Try us. We can save you money!
Plainfield 196. Danielson 213-2.
Wholesale and Retail.

AUTO ACCESSORIES—TIRES, PARTS

AUTO PARTS—TELEPHONE 1600
Replacement parts for all cars
WILLIAMS TIRE & SUPPLY CO.

BOWLING AND BILLIARDS

HIGH GRADE BOWLING AND POCKET BILLIARDS
PALACE ALLEYS
Thayer Building Franklin Square
"Chip" Dugas and "Mike" Morin, Props. Phone 2104.

BOWLING
AND
POCKET BILLIARDS
AT THE
AETNA BOWLING ALLEYS
Majestic Bldg. Tel. 1912

BOWLING
HIGH GRADE BOWLING AND POCKET BILLIARDS AT
"CHIP" DUGAS
Telephone 753-12 TAFTVILLE

BIRDS

FOR SALE—Canaries also cages and supplies at Anthony's, 193 Central Ave. Tel. 2454-2. Jan16d

CASTINGS
Grey Iron and Semi-Steel Castings
Pattern Making and Machine Work
—ALSO—
Daily Trucking Service Between Norwich, New London and Vicinity
BABCOCK PRINTING PRESS MFG. CO.

CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS

P. F. SWEENEY
GENERAL CONTRACTOR and BUILDER
25 Chestnut Street.

Doors, Windows, Frames
Inside Finish.
Mill Work of All Kinds.
THE PECK-McWILLIAMS COMPANY.
Central Wharf.

CIGARS

Whitestone cigars are $70 per thousand
J. F. CONANT 11 Franklin St.

CHIROPODIST

A. U. THOMPSON, F. S., Chiropodist Foot Specialist (protect your feet) Suite 7-8 Allen Bldg, 321 Main St. Norwich, Conn. Phone 735. dec22d

A. GROSVENOR assisted by J. Dawson, 12 Cliff St., will conduct a children's free clinic Thursday evenings from 7-9. Office hours 9-12 and 1-6. Tel. 534. Jan12d

INSURANCE

ALL KINDS OF INSURANCE
HAROLD S. BURT
120 LAUREL HILL AVENUE
PHONE 2121.

E. J. YOUNG—Automobile Insurance a specialty. Travelers' Insurance. Prompt Service. Room 14, Central Bldg. Tel 2425-2. J20d

The other man's building may have been destroyed by fire within the last few weeks, while you have never had a fire—yet fire may break out on your premises tonight.

Isaac S. Jones
Insurance Agent
91 Main Street
Norwich, Conn.

MUSIC

WANTED—Pupils. Drums, Bells, Xylophone. Drums and supplies for sale. Room 6 Central Bldg. Jan19

HELEN L. PERKINS
TEACHER OF SINGING
Phone 2197 Studio, Alice Bldg.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

Business Notices.

MUSIC

THE CHRISTIANSON SCHOOL OF POPULAR MUSIC
MARY D. HODGE, 9 Grove Place.
Classical Phone 1156-4.

EDWARD BRENNAN
TEACHER OF VIOLIN
Tel. 1542-3 317 Main St.

FRANK DRAGO of Hartford
TEACHER OF VIOLIN & THEORY
Room 213 Disco Building

MONEY TO LOAN

LOANS
THE PUBLIC'S LOAN SERVICE
We loan money for emergency needs, featuring prompt, courteous and confidential service. Monthly payments of principal and interest arranged to suit the borrower's convenience. Legal interest on unpaid balances is our only charge. Detailed information furnished by personal representative upon request. Phone 1470.
New England Equity Corp.
Members of Chamber of Commerce
ROOM 206 THAYER BLDG.
16 FRANKLIN STREET

PHOTOGRAPHY

Wedding Photographs a Specialty
A present given to each bride.
DES MARAIS STUDIO
335 Main St., Norwich. Tel. 864.

NEWSPAPERS AND PERIODICALS

HANDY NEWS STAND
Thayer Building Franklin Sq.

PRINTING

PRINTING of all kinds promptly and neatly done. Estimates promptly and cheerfully given. The Bulletin Co., 63 Franklin St.

TRANSPORTATION

New York
Via
New London Line From Norwich
$3.38
Comfortable Staterooms Ready for Occupancy at 7:30 P.M.
Lv. New London Daily except Sunday 11:30 P.M.
Due N. Y., Pier 40, N. R., Houston St. 7:00 A.M.
Returning from New York, the New London Line Steamer leaves at 12:00 Midnight, from Fall River Line Pier 14, N. R., Fulton St., providing a fare service for theatre goers. Steamer due at New London 7:30 A.M.
Reduced rates on automobiles.
The New England Steamship Co.

TREES AND SHRUBS

Fruit, Ornamental Trees and Shrubs
MAPLEWOOD NURSERY CO.
East Great Plain Tel. 986-2

TRUCKING

Hartley & Gallup—Truckmen. Local and long distance furniture and piano moving a specialty. High grade sand and loam for sale. Storage of any description. At 363 and 365 Hamilton Ave. Telephone 701-2. nov24d

Long Distance Moving and Expressing. Zimmerman, 17 Boswell Ave. Tel. 1361

O. D. JONES, 293 West Main street. We move everything anywhere. Special attention given to moving boilers and machinery. Telephone 1583-3

Established 1873 Telephone 175
ARTHUR R. H. LATHROP
Auto trucking Teaming and Expressing
Furniture and Piano Moving
Shetucket Street

UPHOLSTERING

CALL 2921W. Upholstering, crating, carpet and linoleum laying. George H. Sanders, 3 Boswell Ave. Jan15d

WALL PAPER

WALL PAPERS—7 1-2 c to $9 Roll. Many new numbers at half and less than usual prices. Norwich Chain Wall Paper Co., cor. Willow and Chestnut Sts. T. H. McClenahan, Mgr.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE

The Board of Relief of the Town of Norwich, Conn., will meet in the City Hall Building in said Town each day, Sundays excepted, from February 1 to February 21, from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M., to listen to appeals from the doings of the assessors and to transact any other business proper to be done at said meeting.
Dated at Norwich, Conn., Jan. 19, 1926.
JAMES C. FITZPATRICK,
FRANCIS BEIQUE,
ROBERT G. SWANSON,
Board of Relief.

NOTICE!

The Board of Relief of the Town of Montville, Conn., will meet in the town hall, in said town, four days, as follows: On February 1st, 10th, 17th, and 27th, 1926, from 10 A. M. to 2 P. M. to listen to appeals from the doings of the Assessors, and to transact any other business proper to be done at said meeting.
Dated at Montville, Conn., Jan. 18, 1926.
JOHN A. COGGESHALL,
DWIGHT O. KELSEY,
JOHN B. HOME,
Board of Relief.

V. H. Sorlie, a farmer residing at Hartland, Minn., buried twenty-four sticks of dynamite he was afraid that his children might find them. Instead, his hogs uprooted the explosive and made a meal of it. Now Mr. Sorlie is treating his pigs will all gentleness and is wondering how long it will be before his porcine firecrackers can be classified as "duds."

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE

Taken by virtue of an execution to me directed, and will be sold at Public Vendue to the highest bidder, at 15 Cedar Street, in the Town of Norwich, Fourteen days after date, which will be on Saturday, the 23rd day of January, 1926, at nine o'clock, in the forenoon, to satisfy said Execution and my fees thereon, the following described property, to-wit:
24 rolls toilet paper, 3 doz. spa. noodles, 7 pkgs. borax chips, 30 cans malt, 3 doz. paris blue, 2 doz. shoe polish, 4 pkgs. cocoanut, 3 cans beets, 1 doz. toilet soap, 2 can c. beef, 7 raspberry jam, 3 doz. vanilla, 4 boxes pickle spice, 4 doz. herring, 3 bot. salad dressing, 3 bot. syrup, 18 cans tuna fish, 15 bot. salad oil, 12 pkgs. farina, 3 doz. wax paper, 28 cans coffee, 15 pkgs. Bon Ami, 12 cans clams, 32 pkgs raisins, 30 cans salmon, 50 cans mustard, 24 pkgs. spaghetti, 60 bars soap, 10 cans b. powder, 5 doz. pkgs tea, 6 pkgs. tapioca, 3 doz saleratus, 5 cans pears, 14 peaches, 5 bot. H. radish, 20 bot. pickles, 2 doz. cans spices, 12 pkgs pepper, 3 doz. ammonia, 1 doz. bot. cormond water, 3 lbs. cookies, 3 doz. ketchup, 2 doz. soup chips, 20 cans corn, 1 cheese box, 20 bbl. vinegar, 9 cans spinach, 10 doz. sunbrite cleaner, 15 cans peas, 6 lamp globes, 9 pkgs. Q. oats, 3 doz. corn starch, 20 pkgs. C. flakes, 10 pkgs. hops, 9 cans beets, 3 doz. cans tomatoes, 6 string beans, 6 pkgs. paper bags, 1 roll paper, 1 box paper trays, 1 part barrel sauerkraut, 1 part barrel vinegar, 1 small safe, 1 part pail apple jelly, 1 meat slicer, 1 grinder, 2 blocks, 1 cleaver, butcher knifes, 1 meat saw, 1 counter, 1 smoke house, 1 part keg herring, 3 small show cases, 1 paper rack and four smoked shoulders.
Dated at Norwich this 8th day of January, 1926.
O. H. MAIN, Deputy Sheriff.

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 19th day of January, A. D. 1926.
Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.
Estate of Joseph Bennetts, late of Norwich, in said District, deceased.
Ordered, That the Executrix cite the creditors of said deceased to bring in their claims against said estate within six months from this date, by posting a notice to that effect, together with a copy of this order on the sign-post nearest to the place where said deceased last dwelt, and in the same town, and by publishing the same once in a newspaper having a circulation in said district, and make return to this Court.
NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.
The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.
Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk.

NOTICE
All creditors of said deceased are hereby notified to present their claims against said estate to the undersigned at 81 W. Third St., Lowell, Mass., within the time limited in the above and foregoing order.
ANNIE M'ANDREWS, Executrix.

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 19th day of January, A. D. 1926.
Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.
Estate of Rose Connelli, late of Norwich, in said District, deceased.
Joseph Connelli of Norwich, Conn., appeared in Court and filed a petition praying, for the reasons therein set forth, that administration be granted upon the estate of said deceased alleged to be intestate.
Whereupon, it is Ordered, That said petition be heard and determined at the Probate Court Room in the City of Norwich, in said District, on the 25th day of January, A. D. 1926, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and that notice of the pendency of said petition, and of said hearing thereon, be given by the publication of this order one time in some newspaper having a circulation in said District at least three days prior to the date of said hearing and that return be made to this Court.
NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.
The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.
Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk.

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Montville, within and for the District of Montville, on the 18th day of January, A. D. 1926.
Present, DAN D. HOME, Judge

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

MARKETS AT A GLANCE.

New York.

Stocks heavy; high priced shares react 3 to 5 points.

Bonds firm; several foreign issues at new highs.

Foreign exchanges steady; sterling approaches par.

Cotton lower; bearish private ginning report.

Sugar higher; firmer spot market.

Coffee firm; European buying.

Chicago.

Wheat firm; poor quality Argentine.

Corn steady; sympathy with wheat.

Cattle steady.

Hogs dull and lower.

COLLAPSE IN STOCK PRICES.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—(By The A. P.)—Bear traders kicked the props from under today's stock market and prices collapsed 1 to 25 points throughout the list. The action which came with startling suddenness in the early afternoon followed a period of irregularly high prices which was featured by the strength of public utilities and a few industrial specialties. The volume of trading was on an increased scale, the day's sales aggregating 1,736,200 shares.

There was a tendency in commission houses to attribute the selling movement to the action of the federal reserve board in asking New York banks for more detailed information on brokers' loans, which was interpreted as another warning gesture against over-speculation. Other contributing causes were the apparent inability of operators on the long side to attract a public following, the announcement that the investigation of recent baking mergers would begin here next month and repetition of commission house advices to take profits on the rallies. Commodity markets lacked a definite trend. Wheat advanced about 1 1-2 to 3 cents a bushel in response to higher prices in foreign market and short covering inspired by areduction in the North American visible supply.

Cotton engaged 15 to 21 points on heavy Liverpool selling. Coffee rallied 20 to 29 points on short covering. Raw sugar advanced 1-32 of a cent a pound in reflection of a more active inquiry for the product.

Despite persistent rumors that directors of the United States Steel Corporation would increase the amount of the extra dividend at the quarterly meeting next Tuesday, that stock declined nearly 2 points to 132 3-8, closing just above that figure.

American Can broke over 5 points to 270, and American Locomotive, American Smelting, American Agricultural Chemical, American Express, Associated Oil, Baldwin, Coca Cola, Continental Can, DuPont, Famous Players, General Asphalt, General Motors, General Railway Signal, Hudson, International Harvester, Montgomery, Ward, National Lead, Pierce Arrow, common, Pullman, South Porto Rican Sugar, Spicer Manufacturing, United States Cast Iron Pipe, United States Industrial Alcohol and Woolworth all closed 2 to 5 points lower. Sears Roebuck broke 9 points to 214.

Ward Baking B was one of the first to crack, dropping nearly four points to 16 1-4, when the bear traders succeeded in touching off a number of stop loss orders below 20. Total sales in that issue exceeded 135,000 shares. Coca Cola dropped nearly 5 points to 90 3-4, but National Biscuit showed independent strength by climbing nearly 3 points to 78 3-4, and closing within a point of the top.

Public Service of New Jersey was heavily bought in the early trading on persistent rumors of a merger of that company with the United Gas and Improvement and Philadelphia Electric Companies, crossing 93 to the highest price ever recorded for the present no-par stock, and then falling back to 90, up 1 point on the day. International Business Machines, in which another stock split-up is expected, closed 5 points higher at 145, after touching 147 1-2.

Call money renewed at 4 1-2 per cent, and then dropped to 4, the first change in the official rate in a week with funds available in the outside market as low as 3 1-2. Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged.

The further advance in sterling exchange, cables selling at $4.86 3-8 or 1-8 of a cent below parity, was the feature of the foreign exchange market. French francs were slightly reactionary, ruling 2 1-8 points lower, around 3.73 1-2 cents. Other European rates showed only nominal changes.

STOCKS

Sales

In hundreds	High.	Low.	Close.
15 Abitibi P & P.	72¼	71⅝	71⅝
2 Adams Express	107½	105	106
1 Adv Rumely ..	17	17	17
8 Abumada Lead.	8	8¼	8¼
7 Air Reduct ..	112¾	109¾	109¾
2 Ajax Rubber ..	10½	10	10¼
1 Alaska J Gold..	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
56 Al Chem & Dye	117⅛	114	114¼
18 Allis Chalmers.	93	90¼	90¾
54 Am Ag Chem .	32¾	30½	30¾
20 Am Ag Ch pr .	94	91¼	91¾
10 Am Can ..	47¾	46	46
21 Am Bank Note.	41½	41	41
3 Am Beet Sug ..	32¾	32¼	32½
20 Am Bosch Mag	34	29	32
44 Am Br Co Efd.	45¾	44	44⅝
19 Am Br Sh Fdy.	166¾	166	167
95 Am Can ..	283½	276	277
1 Am Can pr ..	121¾	121¾	121¾
15 Am Car & Fdy.	112	110¼	110¼
31 Am Ch A ..	25	24¾	24¾
2 Am Chicle ..	47¼	47⅛	47⅛
4 Am Drug Syn..	6	6	6
16 Am Exp ..	134	132¾	132¾
2 Am & F P ..	41¾	40½	41¼
3 Am & F P pr ..	91¾	91¾	91¾
1 A & F Pef25pc	128	128	128
1 Am H & L ..	14⅝	14⅜	14⅜
1 Am H & L pr ..	80¾	80¾	80¾
6 Am Ice ..	127	126	126
1 Am Ice pr ..	83	83	83
21 Am Int Corp ..	44	42¾	42¾
1 Am La F P Eng	13¾	13¾	13¾
1 Am Linseed ..	47¾	47¾	47¾
1 Am Linseed pr.	84	84	84
23 Am Loco ..	114¾	114	114¼
1 Am Locopr ..	120	120	120
5 Am Metals ..	52¾	52¼	52¾
3 Am Metal pr ..	116¼	116¼	116½
1 Am Radiator ..	112¾	112¾	112¾
2 Am Saf Razor..	57½	57	57
2 Am Sh & Com	6¼	6¼	6¼
23 Am Smelting ..	133¾	132¾	132¾
10 Am Steel F pr	116¼	116	116
23 Am Sugar ..	115	115	115
25 Am Sugar Ref.	45¾	44¾	44¾
23 Am Sug Ref ..	75¼	74¼	75
2 Am Sug pr ..	102¾	102¾	102¾
20 Am & Fgn Tel.	143¼	142¾	143
4 Am Tobacco ..	116	115	115
1-6 Am Tob B ..	115¾	116	116
1 Am Type Fdrs.	116	116	116
25 Am Wat Wks.	72¾	69¾	69¾
Am W W 7 pc	111	108¾	105¾
20 Am Wool ..	40¾	38¾	39
5 Am Wool ..	40¾	38¾	39
5 Am Wool pr ..	87¼	86¼	86¼

6 Am Wtg Pa pr.	3¾	3¼	3¼
1 Am Z Ld&Sm ..	9	9	9
4 Am Z Ld&Sm pr.	40¾	39	39
77 Anaconda ..	47⅜	46¾	47⅛
1 Ann Arbor ..	44	44	44
2 Arnold Cons new	39¾	39¾	39¾
2 Archer D Mfd .	42¾	41¾	41¾
4 Arm&Co Del pr.	97½	97¼	97½
21 Arm&Co Il A ..	24¾	24	24¼
55 Arm&Co Ill B..	16¾	16	16¾
1 Arnold Cons ..	15	15	15
1 Arn Concttn...	14¾	14¾	14¾
3 Art Metal xd .	19¾	19½	19½
2 Artloom Corp .	88¾	88¾	88¾
18 Asso Dry Gds..	52¼	51½	51½
112 Asso Oil ..	52¾	50¼	50½
34 At T & S F ..	133¾	130	131¾
2 Atchison pr ..	95	95	95
23 Atl Bir & Atl..	7¾	7¼	7½
38 Atl Coast Line.	248	237¾	237¾
45 Atl G&W Istpd	62¾	61	61¼
16 Atl G & W I s	65	64¼	64¼
2 Atl Refining ..	105¾	105	105
1 Atl Ref pr ..	116½	116½	116½
1 Atlas Powder ..	58	58	58
1 Atlas Tack ..	15½	15½	15½
16 Austin Nichols .	26	25¾	25¾
46 Baldwin Loco .	126¼	124¾	125⅛
85 B & O ..	93	89¾	90
6 B & O pr ..	69	68¼	68¼
3 Bang & Arcos.	48¼	48¼	48¼
1 Bang & Ar pr..	99¾	99¾	99¾
3 Barnsdall rites	¾	¾	¾
40 Barnsdall Cp A	30½	30¼	30¼
1 Barnsdall Cp B	26¾	26¾	26¾
2 Bayuk Cigars..	43	43	43
5 Beechnut Pack	65¾	64¾	64¾
26 Belding Bros .	38¼	37½	38
48 Bethle Steel ..	48¼	47¼	47¼
5 Beth Stl 7 pr ..	101¾	101½	101¾
3 Booth Fish 1 pr	47	47	47
3 Booth Fish 1 pr	47	47	47
3 Briggs Mfg Co .	34¼	33½	33½
1 Brit Emp Steel	2¾	2¾	2¾
3 Bkyn Edison ..	136	135	135¾
32 Bkyn Man Tr .	57¼	56¾	56¾
7 Bkyn Un Gas ..	77	75	75¾
3 Brunsw B Col ...	28¾	28¼	28¼
10 Brown Shoe. ...	46½	45¾	45¾
4 Burns Bros B .	37¾	36	36
1 Bush Ter cf nw	21	21	21
2 Bush Ter 7 db	39	39	39
1 Bush Ter B 7 pr.	8	8	8
13 Butte & S C ..	14¾	14½	14½
2 Butterick ..	32¾	32¾	32¾
6 Caddo Oil ..	¾	¾	¾
97 Call Pack ..	141½	137¼	137¾
72 Cal Pet ..	31¾	31	31¼
36 Cal Zinc Lead ..	2¾	2¾	2¾
1 Cal & Ariz ..	59	59	59
14 Can Pac ..	148¾	147½	147¾
8 Case Thresh ..	70¼	68¾	68¾
3 Case Thresh pr	99¾	99	99
3 Cent Leath ..	18¾	18½	18½
4 Cent Leath pr .	64¼	64¼	64¼
6 Cent Rib Mls..	25¾	23½	23¾
17 Cerro de Pasco	59¾	58¼	58½
12 Certainteed P .	46¾	46	46
2 Certain t pr .	104½	104¼	104¼
11 Chandler Motor	46½	45¾	45¾
43 Con Credit ..	¾	½	¾
38 Ches & Ohio .	120¾	116¾	118¾
4 Ches & O pr ..	121	119	119
6 Chi & Alton ..	7¾	7¾	7¾
6 Chi & Alt pr ..	12	11¾	11¾
1 Chi East Ill .	34¾	34¾	34¾
7 Chi Gt West ..	11½	11	11
21 Chi Gt W pr ..	27¾	25¼	25¾
6 Chi M & St P .	123¾	123¼	123¼
1 Chrisele Brown.	58¼	58¼	58¼
1 C M & St P pr	12¾	12¾	12¼
9 C M & St P pr.	19¾	19	19
14 C M&StP pr cfs	18¾	18¾	18¾
32 Chi & N W ..	76½	73¾	73¾
3 Chi Pneu Tool .	113	111½	111½
100 C R I & P ..	60	58¾	59
5 C R I & P 5pc pf	87¾	87¼	87½
1 C R I & Pfpc pr	99¾	99¾	99¾
1 Chi Yel Cab ..	48	48	48
15 Childs Co ..	63¾	62¾	62¾
5 Chile Copper ..	84	83¾	83¾
393 Chrysler Corp.	50¼	48½	48¾
4 Chrys pr A ..	106¾	105¾	105¾
4 Cliett Peaby .	66¾	66	66
12 Coca Cola ..	150¾	147	147½
5 Col Fu & Ir ..	36	35	35
1 Col & Southern.	63	63	63
66 Col Gas & El ..	88¾	85¼	85¼
7 Col Carbon ..	56¾	56	56¾
17 Com Credit ..	37¾	36¼	36¼
1 Com Solv A ..	122¾	122¾	122¾
4 Com Solv B ..	122¾	119¼	119½
2 Cons Cigar rites	1½	1½	1½
7 Cong Nairn ..	17	16¾	16¾
18 Cons Cigar ..	60¾	60	60
5 Cons Cig pr ..	99	98¼	98¼
22 Con Distrib ..	4¾	4¼	4¾
72 Cons Gas ..	98¼	96¼	96¾
25 Cons Textile ..	3¾	3¾	3¾
32 Cont Can ..	86¼	84¼	84½
2 Cont Ins ..	142	141	141
44 Cont Motors ..	12¼	11¾	12
20 Corn Prod ..	41¼	40¾	40¾
10 Coty Inc ..	58¾	57	57½
1 Crex Carpet .	62	62	62
1 Crucible Steel .	78¾	78¼	78¼
1 Cruc Steel pr ..	99¾	99¾	99¾
1 Cub Can Sug ..	10¼	9¾	9¾
16 Cuba Cn Sg pr.	45¾	45¼	45¾
4 Cuba Co ..	5¼	5¼	5¼
14 Cushm rites ..	47¼	46¾	46¾
49 Cuban Am Sug .	27¾	26¾	27¾
1 Cub Am Sug pr	100	100	100
7 Cub Dom Sug .	3¼	3¼	3¼
2 Cub Do Sg pr.	18	18	18
1 Cudahy Pack..	92¾	92¾	92¾
12 Cush Sons In .	95¾	90¾	90¾
1 Cuyamel Fruit .	48	48	48
3 D Boon W M .	1	1⅜	1⅜
14 Dav Chemical .	40¼	39	39
1 De Beers Con..	28¾	28¾	28¾
8 Dela Hudson ..	157¾	156	156
18 Del Lack West.	148	144¾	146
2 Den R G pr ..	43¾	43½	43½
7 Detroit Edison.	135¾	134½	134½
13 Devoe Rey A .	96	95	96
402 Dodge Bro A .	44¼	42¾	43
9 Dodge Bros pr	86	85¾	85¾
23 Donie Mines ..	17¾	16¾	16¾
11 Drug Pectin ..	31½	30¾	31½
32 DuP de Nem s	223¾	218	218¾
2 Duquesne L 1 pr	113	112¾	113
8 East Kodak ..	169	168½	169
11 Eaton A & S .	28¼	27½	27½
5 El P & L ctfs...	31	30¾	30¾
5 El P&L pr ctfs	91¾	91¾	91½
15 Elec St Bat ..	106¾	105¾	105¾
1 Emer Brant ..	8	8	8
3 Endicott Johnson	68¼	68	68
46 Erie R R ..	34¾	34¼	34½
3 Erie 1 pr ..	43½	42¾	42¾
9 Erie 2 pr ..	39¾	39¾	39¾
5 Eureka V Cl ..	51	50¼	50¼
23 Fairb M & Co.	55¾	53	53
64 Fam Play Las..	106¾	103¾	103¾
11 Fed Lt & Tr ..	37¼	36¾	36¾
3 Fed M & Sm ..	103	100¼	100¼
2 Fed M & Sm pr	96¼	95	95
2 Fi Nat Pic 1 pr	105¼	105¼	105¼
84 Fisher Body ..	98¾	97	98
58 Fisk Rubber ..	24¾	23¾	24
6 Fisk Rub 1 pr .	113½	113¼	113½
7 First Nat Strs..	41	40	40
228 Fleischman Co.	52¾	50¾	51¼
193 Foundation Co	177½	173	173¼
14 Fox Film A ..	81¼	79¾	79¾
1 Franklin Sim pr	106	106	106
176 Freeport Tex.	24¾	22¾	22¾
14 Gabriel Snub .	38	37¾	37¾
8 Gardner Motor.	9	8	8
19 Gen Am Tank .	52¾	51¼	52¼
46 Gen Asph ..	69	66	67
6 Gen Asph pr ..	105¾	105	105
2 Gen Cigar ..	111¾	111¾	111¾
88 Gen Electric .	342	334¾	335
13 Gen Elec spl ..	11¾	11	11
439 Gen Motors ..	120¾	116¾	117
2 Gen Mot pr ..	114¾	114¾	114¾
4 Gen G & El A .	56¼	55¾	55¾
2 Gen G&E 7 pr.	98¾	98¼	98½
9 G Out Adv A .	53¼	52¾	53½
16 G Outd A cf ..	30¾	30¼	30¼
133 Gen Pet ..	57¼	55¾	55¾
23 Gen Ry Sig nw	79	76½	76½
3 Gen Ref ..	46¾	46	46
1 Gimbel Bro ..	72¾	72¾	72¾
1 Gimbel Br pr ..	111¾	111¾	111¾
19 Glidden Co ..	24¾	24	24
23 Gold Dust ..	47	45¼	45½
15 Glidden B P Co	63¾	60¼	60¾
1 Godrich B F pr	97	97	97
2 Gdyr T&R pr..	104¼	104¼	104¼
4 Gould Coup A .	20¾	20¾	20¾
1 Gotham Hos ..	40	40	40
11 Granby Min ..	20½	19¾	20
33 Gr No pr ..	75¼	72¾	73¾
1 Gt N I O Pr ..	25½	25½	25½

10 Gr W Sugar...	98	96¾	97
6 Gr Can Cop ...	13¼	13	13¼
1 G Mo & No ...	33	33	33
16 Gulf St Stl ...	38½	38	38¼
6 Hartman Cop .	34½	34	34
3 Hayes Wheel ..	44	44	44
1 Helme G W Co.	69½	69¼	69½
6 Hoe R & Co ...	34½	33	33
2 Homestake ..	50¾	50	50
15 Household Prod	45¾	45	45
13 Houston Oil ..	68¼	67¼	67¼
73 Howe Sd Co ...	31¾	30¼	30¾
33 Hudson & Manh	37¼	36½	36¾
3 Hud & Man pr.	75	74½	75
403 Hudson Motors	111¾	108½	108½
34 Hupp Motors .	26¼	25¾	25¾
10 Ill Central ..	120	118¾	118½
107 Ind O & Gas..	28¾	27¼	27¼
1 Int Mat pr pf .	87	87	87
1 Indian Motorcy	19	19	19
8 Indian Refin ...	11¾	11	11
1 Indian Ref pr .	111	111	111
1 Inland Steel ...	42¼	42¼	42¼
6 Inspir Cop ...	24	23¾	23⅞
14 Interb Rap Tr .	27½	26	26
32 Int Agri Cp ...	22¾	22	22¾
77 Int Bus Mach .	147½	140¾	146⅞
11 Int Cement ..	67¾	67	67
1 Int Cem pr ..	104¾	104¾	104¾
121 Int Comb Eng.	56¾	53½	54¾
22 Int Harv Co ...	127½	125	125¼
6 Int Mer Mar ..	9½	9¼	9¼
66 Int Mer Mar pr	40¾	38¾	38¾
94 Int Nickel ...	42	42	42¾
72 Int Paper ..	60¾	57¾	58¼
79 Int Tel & Tel .	123¾	121	121
11 Intertype Cp .	26	26	26
3 Jewell Tea ..	27	27	27
1 Jones Br Tea .	15	15	15
74 Jordan Motor.	61½	49¾	49¾
29 Kan City Sou .	47	44¾	44¾
13 Kayser J & Co.	47½	45¾	45¾
1 Kelly Springfd .	17¾	17¾	17¾
52 Kenne Cop ...	64¾	64¾	64¾
1 Keystone Tire ..	2	2	2
1 Kres Dpt Store	30	30	30
4 Laclede Gas ...	163½	160¾	160½
1 Lee Rub & Tr .	12¾	12¾	12⅝
1 Lehigh Valley .	32¾	31¼	31¾
23 Lehigh Prod..	38¾	37¾	38
9 Lig & My Tob.	92¾	92¼	92¼
7 Lig & M Tob B	92¾	92	92
18 Lima Loco	66¾	65	65
20 Loew Inc	39¾	37½	38
3 Loft Candy ...	7¾	7½	7½
2 Lng B Lum A .	47¼	47½	47½
9 Loose Wil Bis .	132	13	131
1 Los W Bis 1 pr.	112	112	112
25 Lor Co P ..	37	36½	36¾
25 Lou G & Ref .	17½	16¾	17
12 Luis G & E A.	26¾	24¾	24¾
11 Ludlum Steel .	53	52¾	53¼
38 Mack Truck .	148½	144½	145
33 Mack Trucks ..	7¾	6¾	6¾
2 Mackay pr ..	73	73	73
14 Macy R H Co .	101	98¾	98¾
3 Mallison & Co.	25	24¾	24¾
4 Mallison pr ..	43¾	43¾	43¾
21 Manh El Sup ..	66	64	64
3 Manh Ry m gtd	39½	39	39
7 Manh Shirt ..	31¾	30½	30½
7 Marc O Exp ..	25½	25	25¼
1 Market St Ry ..	7¾	7¼	7¼
2 Mkt St Ry p pr	42¾	42¾	42¾
153 Marland Oil ..	16	15	16
8 May Dpt Str..	57¾	55	55¼
14 Mathie Alk W .	130¾	130¾	126¾
3 Maytag Co	96¾	94	94¾
8 McCrory St B .	21¾	21¾	21¾
2 Metro Goldw pr	116	115	115
14 Mex Seab Oil .	10¾	9¾	10
2 Miami Cop	13	13	13¼
1 Mid St O cfs ..	1	1	1
85 Mid Cont Pet.	34¼	33¼	33¼
7 Mid St Oil	1¾	1¾	1¾
1 Mid St Pr pr ..	121¾	121¾	121¾
1 Minn St Louis .	3¼	3¼	3¼
2 Min St P&SSM.	48¾	48¾	48¾
46 Mo K & T	41¾	40¾	40¾
4 Mo K & T pr..	92	91¾	91½
46 Mo Pacific	38¾	37¾	37¾
39 Mo Pac pr	87¼	85¾	86
86 Monta Power ..	83¾	80¼	80¾
190 Mont Ward ..	76	72	73
75 Moon Motors .	33½	31¼	32½
15 Mo Pic Cap ..	20¾	20½	20½
5 Mother Lode ..	7¾	7	7
18 Motor Meter A .	41	40½	40¾
3 Motor Wheel ..	31¾	31¾	31¾
1 Mullins Body .	17	17	17
8 Munsingwear ..	35¾	35	35
50 Murray By Corp	13¾	12¼	12¾
3 Nash Motors ..	520	516	520
1 Na Chat & S L.	135	135	135
1 Nat Acme shpd	12¾	12¾	12¾
137 Nat Biscuit ..	78¾	77¾	77¾
191 Nat Cash Reg A	51¾	50¾	51
5 Nat Clk & Suit	53¾	53	53¾
1 Nat Clk&Suit pr	91¾	91¼	91¼
16 Nat Daird Prod	78¾	77¾	77¾
1 Nat Dept St ..	41¾	41¾	41¾
1 Nat Dpt Stlst.	97	97	97
1 Nat Dist Prod .	67	67	67
2 Nat Ru	222	222	222
2 Nat En & St .	36	35¾	35¾
15 Nat Lead ..	108	104	104
3 Nat Supply ..	57	57	57
3 Nevada Con Cop	12¾	12¾	12¾
3 New Or T & M	132	131¾	132
5 N Y Air Br ..	38¾	38¾	38¾
1 N Y Air Br A.	56	56	56
5 N Y Canners .	77	77	77
125 N Y Central ..	130¼	127¾	127¾
7 N Y Chi & S L	176	176	176
6 N Y Dok	35	34	34
1 N Y Dock	72	72	72
62 N Y N H & H.	42¾	41¾	41¾
10 N Y Ont & W.	26¼	25¾	25¾
5 N Y State Ry ..	26	24¾	26
1 Niag Falls P pr	28	28	28
3 Norfolk So	36½	36½	36½
103 Nor & West ..	157¾	152¾	154¼
1 Nor & West pr.	85	85	85
174 Nor Amer	66¾	64½	65
1 No Amer pr	50¾	50½	50¾
28 Nor Pac	73¾	72	72
3 Norwalk T&R .	14¾	13¾	13¾
5 Nunnally Co ..	17	17	17
12 Oil Well Sup ..	32¾	32	32
1 Onyx Hois pr.	98	98	98
86 Oppen Collins .	57	56¾	57¾
1 Orpheum Cir .	30¾	30½	30¾
1 Orph Cir pr .	101¾	101¾	101¾
5 Otis Elevator..	126¾	125	126
2 Otis Elev pr ..	105	105	105
97 Otis Steel	14¼	13½	13¾
17 Otis Stele pr .	97¾	96	96¾
17 Owens Bottle .	64¾	62¾	63¾
5 Pac Gas Elec .	128¾	127	127
176 Pacific Oil ..	76¾	75	75¾
49 Packard Motor	39¼	38¾	38¾
8 Park Cap Min.	7¾	7¾	7¾
1 Pub Serv 6 pr	98	98	98
28 Paige D Mot C	25¾	24¾	24¾
7 Pan Am Pet ..	69¼	68¾	68¾
129 Pan Am Pet B.	71¾	69¾	69¾
26 Pan Am West.	42¾	40¾	40¾
4 Panh pr	51¾	51	51
3 Park Tilford .	26¼	26¼	26½
12 Pathe Ex A ..	75¾	75¾	75¾
7 Penick Ford ..	18	18	18
1 Penn Coal Coak .	16¾	16½	16½
239 Penn R R	55	53¾	53¾
86 Penn Seab St .	2	1⅞	1⅞
2 Peo Gas Chicago	118	118	118
1 Peoria East	24½	24½	24½
3 Pere Marq	84	83½	84
1 Pere Marq pr .	78½	78½	78½
86 Philadel Co ..	65¾	63¾	63¾
1 Phil C 6pc pr.	48	48	48
20 Ph & Rdy C&I.	42½	42	42
1 Philip Mor&Co	18¾	18¾	18¾
1 Ph Jones Corp	82½	82½	82½
51 Phil Petrol ..	44¾	43¾	43¾
5 Phoenix Hos ..	42¾	42¼	42¼
99 Pierce Ar	39¾	37¼	37¼
19 Pierce Ar pr ..	106	107¼	107½
1 Pierce Oil	1½	1½	1½
67 Pierce Petrol .	6	5¾	5¾
21 Pitts Coal	40½	40	40
5 Pitts Util pr ..	15¾	15½	15½
9 Pitts St pr	96	96	96
1 Pitts Util pr ..	15¾	15¾	15¾
1 Pitts & W Va..	113	113	113
39 Postum Cereal	110	107½	108
6 Pr Steel Car ...	75¼	73	73¾
1 Pr Stl Car pr..	91½	91½	91½
356 Pub N J	92¾	89¾	90
1 P S N J 5pcpr.	117	117	117
1 P S NJ 7 pc pr	106	106	105
58 Pullman Co ..	170	165¾	166¼
16 Pun Ale Sug .	44¾	43	43
4 Pure Oil	29¾	29	29
1 Pure Oil pr	107¼	107¼	107¼
22 Radio Corp	43¾	43¾	43¾
10 Ry Stl Spr ...	170	166	166¼
15 Ray Cons Cop .	12	11¾	11¾
28 Reading Co	86¼	84¾	84¾
3 Reading 1st ..	19¾	19¼	19¼
2 Reading 1 pr ..	40¾	40¾	40¾
2 Reid Ice Cream	53¾	53¼	53¼
1 Reis & Co 1 pr	80	80	80

22 Rem Type	120¾	117¾	117¾
7 Replogle Steel .	14¾	14¼	14½
38 Rep Ir & St ...	59¼	57	57¾
3 Reynolds Sp ..	9¼	9	9
22 Reyns Tob B .	96¼	95	95
8 Rossia In Co...	95	94¾	95
22 Royal Dut N Y	54¼	53¾	53¾
1 Rub rites	⅛	⅛	⅛
14 Safety Cable .	52¾	51¾	51¾
2 Seneca Cop	8¾	8½	8½
6 St Jos Lead	44	43¾	43¾
11 St L & S F	98¼	96½	96¾
1 St L & S F pr.	86	86	86
28 St L S wtn....	66¾	65	65¾
32 Savage Arms ..	92¼	89¾	89¾
58 U Cig St

CLOUDY TODAY; COLDER AT NIGHT

Norwich Bulletin

NORWICH, CONN., WEDNESDAY, JAN. 28, 1926

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DESPATCHES

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Wednesday, Jan. 28, 1926

THE WEATHER

Conditions

The disturbance that was over southern New England Monday night is over New Foundland.

The outlook is for light rains or snows Wednesday in the lower lake region and northern New England. Elsewhere in New England the weather will be mostly fair Wednesday and Thursday. It will be colder Wednesday night in the middle and north Atlantic states.

Winds

North of Sandy Hook and Sandy Hook to Hatteras: Fresh northwest becoming west, weather partly overcast Wednesday.

Forecast

For Southern New England: Cloudy Wednesday: Colder at night; Thursday increasing cloudiness.

Observations

The Bulletin's observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Tuesday:

	Ther.	Bar
7 a. m.	50	29.70
12 m.	46	29.80
6 p. m.	42	30.00

Highest 50, lowest 42.

Comparisons

Predictions for Tuesday: Partly cloudy and colder.

Tuesday's weather: Fair, mild, northwest wind.

SUN MOON AND TIDES

Day	Sun Rises	Sun Sets	High Water	Moon Sets
	a m	p m	a m	p m
18	7.11	4.43	1.00	10.18
19	7.11	4.47	1.58	11.24
20	7.10	4.48	2.57	mor
21	7.09	4.49	3.53	0.29
22	7.09	4.51	4.53	1.34
23	7.08	4.52	5.58	2.37
24	7.07	4.53	6.53	3.34

Six hours after high water it is low water, which is followed by flood tide

NORWICH TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Avery of West Town street have been visiting in Hartford for a few days at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Bailey.

After passing several weeks at her home on Washington street, Miss Goodyear returned Saturday to Boston, to resume her work in art.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Thurston of Town street are passing part of the winter months in Mystic, at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John T. McGlone.

Mrs. Mary Huntington Douglass and her daughter Miss Ruth Douglass are at the home of Mrs. Douglass's sister, Miss E. B. Huntington, on Washington street. Miss Ruth Douglass is a pupil at Norwich Free academy.

A pair of winter wrens is about a home on Harland road. They are around a garden and have been busy near the entrance of a summer wren box. In this locality these wrens are rarely seen.

OFFICER LAMPHERE IS TO RETURN FROM HOSPITAL

Police Officer Albert M. Lamphere, of No. 2 Penobscot St., who underwent a serious operation a week ago Monday at the New Haven hospital, is steadily gaining and expects to be home in about a week. Officer Lamphere was accompanied to New Haven by his physician, Dr. David Sussler. Officer Lamphere was suddenly seized with illness while patroling his beat several weeks ago and was forced to give up his duties at that time.

WEALTHY MILL MAN DIES WITHOUT WILL

The late Joseph Hall, the wealthy woolen mill owner, of this city, whose death occurred a week ago Saturday, at a hospital in Hartford, where he had been for treatment, died without making a will, it was learned Tuesday when one of his sons applied in the probate court for administration upon the estate, alleged to be intestate.

Mr. Hall is survived by his wife and nine children.

Connecticut Patents

Patents issued to state inventors include: Fred S. English, New London, baking mechanism for presses. Stanley L. Fisher, Chester, music roll spindle. Patrick J. Fitzgerald, casket. Frederick A. Hart, New Britain, typewriting machine. Otto W. Heise, Bridgeport, retard gauge (three patents). Florence L. Herrington, Cigar wrapping machines. Fred and Isadore Himmel, New Haven, store front construction (two patents). Norman B. Hurd, New Britain, lark. Richard Liebau, of New Haven, air spring suspension. Ralph K. Mason, Bantam, motor starting switch (two patents). Joseph M. Merrow, sewing machine. Frank P. Prindle and R. H. Boardman, automobile steering connection. Oscar E. Richardson, safety and like pin. Arthur Robitaille, Putnam, automatic controlled liquid fuel burner mechanism.

Treat Colds 2 Ways

With ONE Treatment

WHEN rubbed over throat and chest for all kinds of cold troubles Vicks VapoRub does two things at once:

(1) Its ingredients are vaporized by the body heat and inhaled direct to the inflamed air passages, loosening the phlegm and easing the difficult breathing, and

(2) At the same time it warms and stimulates the skin like an old-fashioned poultice, "drawing out" the soreness and pain and thus aiding the vapors inhaled to break up the congestion.

This double action of Vicks usually relieves the most stubborn cold over night.

Acts 2 ways at once

VICKS VAPORUB

Over 21 Million Jars Used YEARLY

DEFENSE UNCOVERS REASON THAT DROVE BERRY TO HIS RASH ACT

Testifying in his own defense in the superior court here Tuesday morning, Eugene J. Berry, 32, revealed that what precipitated the climax in his married life was when he was told by a fellow employe in the mill that his wife had been seen getting into an automobile with a man on a night when Berry believed she was out calling on a girl friend. Berry is on trial for second degree murder for having chloroformed his two small sons, 4 and 5 years old, on Oct. 20, the night after he was told this about his wife who left home when he charged her with lying to him.

Berry was on the stand in the afternoon session of court and had not finished his testimony when court adjourned. His testimony had reached the point when his wife had left home. When he continues this (Wednesday) morning, it is expected he will cover what followed afterwards, including his recollection of how he administered the chloroform to the children and cut his own throat in an attempt at suicide.

At the request of counsel for the accused man, Judge Allyn L. Brown had spectators excluded from the court room while Berry was testifying Tuesday afternoon. This order may be continued today, at least for part of the session. Sheriff Sidney A. Brown had deputies stationed at the court room doors Tuesday afternoon, who allowed no one to enter except witnesses, attorneys or newspapermen.

When court opened in the morning, a large crowd was waiting for admission, but only enough were permitted to enter the court room beyond the capacity of the seats for spectators.

Attorneys Edward G. McKay and William H. Shields, Jr. opened the case for the accused man by calling character witnesses for Berry, who included First Selectman William S. Murray, Rev. W. A. Keefe of St. Mary's parish and several fellow employes of Berry in the United States Finishing Co. These were Frank H. Quinley, Thomas J. Lamb, George W. Maloney, Thomas J. Donovan, Bernard C. Coyle and Leadore J. Gladue. These all testified that Berry was a peaceful, law abiding citizen and a steady worker. Some told of the affection they had seen shown between Berry and his two small boys. Mr. Lamb and Mr. Maloney both told of the agitated condition of Berry on the morning of Oct. 19 when he was at work in the mill. Frederick Krohn, superintendent at Mohegan park and William J. Dunion, an old time friend of Berry, also told of his affection for his children and his care for them.

Doctor Testifies

Dr. E. J. Brophy testified to attending the Berry children when they were very young. That was about two or three years ago. Since then, the doctor said, Mrs. Berry's appearance had changed so much with the use of paint and powder that he hardly knew her.

Saw Wife With Man

Another employe of the bleachery, Edward J. McIntyre, testified to a conversation with Berry on Oct. 19, when McIntyre told Berry he saw Mrs. Berry getting into an automobile at the court house on the previous Sunday night. Berry asked how she was dressed and McIntyre told him. McIntyre also said he told Berry that a man named Harry was in the machine but he couldn't tell the man's last name, but he had formerly worked in the Bleachery. The witness said that Berry seemed to be in a daze when he learned this and his eyes seemed to bulge out of his head.

Heard One Quarrel

Mrs. Francesca Quastamachie was the next witness, testifying through Frank Peduce, Italian interpreter. She is owner of the house in which the Berry family were tenants, and she testified that Berry paid his rent and was a good tenant. The witness said that Berry stayed home nights but Mrs. Berry went out nearly every night and came home about 10 or 11 o'clock. Once Mrs. Berry came home about 1 o'clock in the morning. Berry seemed to love the children. The witness never heard him scold his wife or children.

On cross examination, the witness said the only time she ever heard any quarrel in the Berry tenement was when Mrs. Berry came home at 1 o'clock in the morning. That time there was a lot of noise and shaking the house until the witness thought the plaster was going to fall.

Berry's Mother Testifies

Mrs. Flavie Berry, who is Berry's mother, and gave her testimony in French, through her daughter, Mrs. Ora Malcolm, testified that their family consisted of thirteen children, of whom seven are living. The thirteenth child was the accused man in this trial, who is now 32 years old. The family is French-Canadian. Asked about the illness which Berry had had as a child, the witness said he had the ordinary child diseases and when he was 2 1-2 years old he had convulsions, but they were not severe. The family came to Greeneville when Berry was 3 1-2 years old, at that time the family, consisting of the mother and five children. Berry went to school from the age of 5 to 14 and then went to work at the United States Finishing Co. He was always a steady worker, and also worked at the Shetucket mill. He turned over his pay to his mother and lived with her up to ten months after he was married. He had no serious illness but he often complained of his head. He was in service during the World war, for seven months. The witness said her son was married April 5, 1920. He was always a good, obedient son. After the marriage, Berry and his wife came to live with the witness. The son's mother could not speak English and the son's wife could not speak French, so that there was little talk between them. The witness testified that her son's wife seemed dissatisfied. The wife talked about Berry looking at other women.

A month after the first child was born to the accused's wife, which was five years ago, the witness said she went to live with her daughter, Mrs. Malcolm, because she was tired of hearing Mrs. Berry nagging her husband. At that time Eugene Berry was living in Seventh street. Her relations with Eugene were friendly but she never discussed his family troubles with him. Berry and the children seemed to get on well together.

Had Fall On Ice

The witness said that when Berry was about 12 or 13 years old, he had a fall on the ice. He complained of his head and had to lie down right after supper. He seemed all right the next day. The witness first saw Berry's wife about 18 months before they were married. After the witness had left Eugene Berry's family to live with her daughter, Mrs. Malcolm, there was a big change in the personal appearance of Eugene's wife, her hair being bleached and her face painted and powdered. The witness said she didn't visit her son's home because she thought Berry's wife didn't want to see her.

The noon recess was taken just as Mrs. Berry concluded her direct examination.

Afternoon Session

At the opening of the afternoon session, Mrs. Berry was briefly cross-examined by State Attorney Brown, and the accused man was then put on the stand.

Accused Man Testified

He was asked to tell what he remembered about his life. He told of going to school for two years in Greeneville, and two years in Maine, when he was living there, and then to St. Mary's school in Greeneville, when he came back to Norwich, continuing in school till he was 14. He was then in the seventh grade. He had no trouble in school. He also went to St. Mary's church. He went to work in June, at the U. S. Finishing Co., after leaving school, continuing for 3 or 4 months, and then working at the Shetucket cotton mill for about a year. Then he worked for eight months in the paper mill, at Thamesville, then back to the cotton mill, until he went to Maine, and worked in a warp mill. Returning to Norwich, he resumed employment with the finishing company to May 1918, when he enlisted in the Naval reserve and was stationed at the submarine base, receiving an honorable discharge.

Berry identified the discharge paper which was shown to him by his attorney, covering the time from May to December, 1918.

Continuing his testimony, Berry said he returned to work at the finishing company. He never had any trouble or quarrels at school, or at his work, or in the navy. He was always a regular church attendant. He was married at Jewett City, April 5, 1920, to Ruth McKenna, of Jewett City, with whom he first became acquainted in 1917, at a dance in Jewett City. He told of calling on her at Jewett City, and once she telegraphed to him while he was in the navy because he had not answered her letters.

On their honeymoon they went to Providence, and then to Berry's sister's house in Maine, for a week. His wife appeared not to want to participate in the social gatherings that his sister arranged. Berry said he got married because he wanted a wife, a home and children like other people have. While living with his mother the witness said, his wife kept nagging at him about talking to girls, which she imagined. After the first few weeks she showed no interest in associating with the rest of the family. The first child was born in 1920, and the second child, Dec. 27, 1921. His relatives did not come to see him, he said. He thought it was because they thought they were not welcome. The witness told of one occasion after the birth of the first baby, when his wife said she wanted to go home. He bot a machine and took her to Jewett City, but when she got there some "chewing" came up and she declared she wanted to come back to Norwich. The outcome was that he got another machine and took her right back home.

Bleached Her Hair

Right after the second baby was born, his wife bleached her hair, the witness said. He told her he didn't like it. Before it was bleached, her hair was brown. She always used considerable paint and powder, but in the last year she had overdone it. The witness said this had brought comment from people, which were humiliating to him. When people passed her on the street he heard them, on several occasions, say: "Whew, did you see that?"

The witness said that it was in the past year that his wife began the habit of staying out later at night. She told him she was delayed by meeting a girl friend on the street and talking longer than she realized. At first it was on Saturday nights and afterwards on other nights. The witness said his suspicions were aroused but he tried to dismiss them from his mind because he wanted to believe that his wife was a good woman.

Had Wedding Ring Off

Berry told of one time when his wife came home after mignight and he noticed her wedding ring was off. He asked her about it and she produced it from her bag and told him she had been to a dance with a girl friend and had taken off the wedding ring because she thought she could get more dances that way than her girl friend. He told at one time, of mentioning his suspicions to his wife and her response was that he was insulting her.

Berry said that he got all the work he could and turned the money over to his wife. In the last year she had bought more clothes than he thought he could give her. He said he always wanted to pay cash for everything but she bought clothes on credit. She ran up a butcher bill once which he had to borrow money to pay off. The witness said that about all the spending money he had for himself in a week, was for about four packs of cigarettes and in the fall of 1924, he and his wife and the children used to go to the movies Saturday nights.

The witness told of finding a partly burned envelope in the stove one day which he thought had his wife's hand writing on it. There was also a Polish name on it. She denied it was her handwriting and said the envelope was one that she had picked up on the sidewalk. In the summer of 1925, Berry said, there was much argument about the way she was staying out late at night and once he told her he thought it would be better if he should jump into the river. He had no intention of doing this, but said it with the idea that it might wake her up.

Sunday Habits

In response to questions, Berry said that on Sundays he and his wife had gone walking with the children but in the four or five weeks before October 1925, she had not gone and also had not gone to St. Mary's church in that time. This bothered him, he said, and was on his mind. He had always tried to follow the church teachings himself. On Sunday, October 18, his wife did not go to church, but he went to the 10:30 mass. His wife was home when he got back. He stayed home in the afternoon, but his wife went out, saying she was going to see her girl friend who was sick. Berry said his wife never told him what the name of this girl friend was, saying that she couldn't exactly remember. That Sunday his wife did not come home to supper, and did not get home by the time the 10:30 car from the city reached Greeneville. He went to sleep and she was at home when he woke up in the morning. He found that the front door was unlocked, which was unusual. He went to work without breakfast. The witness told of the conversation at the mill with Mr. McIntyre, when McIntyre told him of seeing Mrs. Berry getting into an automobile at the city hall. McIntyre told him a man named Harry was in the machine, but he couldn't tell the man's last name. McIntyre said the man formerly worked in the carpenter shop at the bleachery.

Ran All the Way Home

The witness said he could hardly wait for the noon hour to come as he was so anxious to get home and find out about it. He ran all the way home. When he reached there his wife had just finished making the bed. He asked her why she hadn't come home to supper. She said she had been invited to stay to supper and had eft there at 9:55. Berry said he told his wife she lied and followed this by telling her what McIntyre had told him. She said it wasn't so. He told her he was going to find out the man's name and have him arrested, but she told him he'd better not as the man might beat him up. Berry testified that he does not know yet who the man Harry is. Mrs. Berry said that she wasn't going to stay any more and be accused of lieing. She got ready to go, and when she was ready, she asked about money. He had $22 and offered her half. She said that wasn't enough and he gave her $20. When she left the house she said she was going down street to get a bag. The witness said the children had lunch that day but neither he nor his wife had lunch.

His wife left the house and returned about 1:30, with a small bag and a hat box. She went straight into the bedroom and packed up. Just before she left she told him that she was going to a rooming house in the city and get work and make a laughing stock of him. She told him, that he could get a divorce as soon as he wanted and if he didn't she would. She said nothing to the children when she left, but walked past them, slamming the door as she went out.

"Heart Pulled Out."

Berry said he couldn't tell just how he felt when he saw her going down the street. "It seemed as if everything was gone, as if the heart had been pulled right out of me."

BERRY'S WIFE SEES HIM AT THE JAIL

Before the superior court session opened Tuesday morning in the trial of Eugene J. Berry, the wife of the accused man came to police headquarters with a male companion who inquired of Sergeant Myron O. Morgan if they could see Berry.

The sergeant told them to go to the jail where Berry was confined. They took his advice and Mrs. Berry had a short conversation at the jail with her husband.

She was not present in the superior court room during the trial Tuesday, as far as could be learned.

MERCIER ASSEMBLY SENDS LETTER TO CARDINAL

At its regular meeting held Tuesday evening, Mercier assembly, Catholic Ladies of Columbus, voted to send to Cardinal Mercier, of Belgium, a letter of sympathy in his severe illness.

The letter sent was as follows:

Norwich, Conn., Jan. 9, 1926.

His Eminence,
Cardinal Desirberspus Mercier;
Archbishop of Malines,
Brussels, Belgium.

Your Eminence:

The members of Mercier assembly Catholic Ladies of Columbus, No. 12, of Norwich, Conn., U. S. A., in meeting assembled, adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved: That the members of an assembly of the Catholic Ladies of Columbus, which have the honor of bearing the name of Your Eminence and always striving to copy your example and follow your teachings, having learned, with deep regret, of the illness which has befallen Your Eminence, we are constantly praying to our dear Lord to restore the wonted health of Your Eminence and the outspoken champion of Holy Mother church and the outstanding hero in behalf of suffering humanity during the great World war;

Resolved: That we shall eagerly await news of your convalescence and complete restoration of health to the great Cardinal Desirberspus. We are with deepest affection and loyalty, your children.

The Mercier assembly.

The state president, Catholic Ladies of Columbus.

Margaret M. Dutton, president of Mercier assembly.

Elinore Donovan, recording secretary.

Mary Hamill.

An invitation to attent the installation of officers at Rockville, on Jan. 31, was received by the assembly.

Condition About The Same

John T. Clark, 86, who fell and broke his hip in the Wauregan hotel lobby about two weeks ago and who has been a patient at the W. W. Backus hospital since, remains in about the same condition. He is showing little if any improvement.

BLIZZARD STRIKES HOME

Coughs and colds are a natural sequence to an unexpected blizzard, and should be treated promptly to offset complications. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is a pleasant and effective remedy for coughs and colds. Keep a bottle on hand for any emergency. "The children and I had colds and the first dose of Foley's Honey and Tar helped us right away," writes Mrs. Mather, Richwood, Ohio. Foley's Honey and Tar is a good remedy for the whole family. It contains no opiates. Lee & Osgood Co.

End A Cold

Within 24 hours

We paid $1,000,000 for this way to do it

You can end a cold in 24 hours in the right way. You can stop the discomforts, eliminate the poisons. All the threats of the cold will cease.

That way is HILL'S. It is so efficient that millions have come to adopt it. It is so superior to other methods that we paid $1,000,000 for it.

Get the HILL tablets, and at once. Stop the cold, and all its ill results. The sooner you begin the quicker the relief.

Don't wait an hour. At your drug store.

Be Sure It's HILL'S CASCARA QUININE Price 30c

Cuts Red Tape with purity

The Geo. W. Kies Co.

60th ANNUAL SALE

SPECIAL ALL THIS WEEK

MEN'S 4-BUCKLE ARCTICS $3.95	LADIES' 4-BUCKLE ARCTICS $3.75	MISSES' 4-BUCKLE ARCTICS $2.95
MEN'S 4-BUCKLE GRAY SOLE $3.95	BOYS' 4-BUCKLE ARCTICS $2.95	YOUTHS' 4-BUCKLE ARCTICS $2.85

ALL ARCTICS FIRST QUALITY

PRICES FOR THIS WEEK ONLY

MEN'S HEYWOOD SHOES—Odd Lot $1.95	LADIES' QUALITY SHOES—Hi Lace $1.00	YOUTHS' SHOES Sizes 10 to 2 $1.00
LADIES' PUMPS—OXFORDS—Queen Quality $1.95	CHILDREN'S SHOES Sizes 6 to 13 $1.00	LADIES' WOOL HOSE 95c
MEN'S HEYWOOD SHOES—High and Low Value $9.00 and $10.00 SALE PRICE $6.45	LADIES' QUEEN QUALITY OSTEO TARSAL OXFORDS. Value $10.00 SALE PRICE $6.45	LADIES' GROVER OXFORDS Value $8.50 SALE PRICE $4.95

20% Discount on all other shoes in stock

The Geo. W. Kies Co.

NORWICH, CONN.

CASH SALES — NO EXCHANGES

COUNTESS RUSSELL DEFENDS POULTNY BIGELOW'S WAYS

A London cable said Tuesday: The Countess Russell, who gave the now famous tea party at which Poultney Bigelow and H. G. Wells apparently did not fall in love with each other at first sight contributes to The Daily Express an addition to the growing literature on this subject.

The Countess, who herself is the author of "Elizabeth and Her German Garden," writes:

"Both H. G. Wells and Anthony Hope were at that tea party. I saw them. And now Wells is defending himself against what he regards an attack by Poultney Bigelow, but which, I assure from my knowledge of Bigelow is only his way of expressing his admiration.

"I would like to explain I, too, have suffered from that book (Bigelow's) I was going, however, to suffer humbly if I had not been encouraged by Well's example to do it out loud.

"Somewhere the author says, in effect, that I have only to come into a room for conversation to flag. Could anything be more damaging? I have been in many rooms and never has the conversation flagged in them except when the room is empty. What would Wells have said if this had been written of him?

"On the other hand, I would very much like to be described as having the appearance of a lucky stock broker. To me the terrible adjective is usually applied of dainty, as if I were lace or a frill. Perhaps Wells wouldn't mind being called dainty; I'm willing to exchange."

Bigelow, however, is full of generous admiration. He glids one with his own warm rays. And I'm persuaded that his anecdote about Wells was also meant as praise. It must have been, for Bigelow and his wife were staying with me at the time of that tea party and I heard his comments on it afterward and remember their appreciative quality.

"Americans sometimes express their admiration, and even, I'm told, their love differently from us, that's all."

NORWICH VETERANS AT NEW LONDON INSTALLATION

The installation of officers of Murphy-Rathbone post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, was held on Monday evening, Jan. 18th., at the post rooms State street, New London. District Deputy Harry Powers of Pawcatuck was the installing officer. He was assisted by Captain Elvin Byers, of Pawcatuck.

An interesting talk on "Comradeship," was given by Comrade William Baseley. He explained in detail the full significance of the Cross of Malta, the insignia of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Deputy Powers spoke to the comrades on "Organization." He urged every member to "carry on" and go "over the top" in 1926, as they did in 1918.

Following the meeting a social and smoker was enjoyed. The comrades from R. E. Hourigan post, of Norwich who attended, were: Com. Leo Jacques, Harry Richmond, Ord Leseman James Kane, John Pawelec, Arthur Fitzgerald, Ray Kavanaugh, Anthony Cook, Martin Burns, Clarence Briggs and Andrew Marchiel.

Mohegan Street Lights

The town of Montville has erected poles and has supplied street lights as far as the hill above Trading Cove. As soon as the new state highway is completed along the Hill south of Hall's mill, the city of Norwich will extend lighting service to Trading Cove. Residents in that section have been waiting patiently for this long needed improvement, which is held up pending completion of the new highway widening and the Trading Cove mill bridge.

S. Hussey Reed Recovers

S. Hussey Reed, of this city, state supervisor of rural schools, who recently underwent a surgical operation in Backus hospital, has recovered and is able to be about.

Women's Lives

are relieved of a great hygienic handicap in this way. Positive protection—discards like tissue

THERE is now a new way in woman's hygiene. A way scientific and exquisite that ends the uncertainty of old-time "sanitary pads."

It is called "KOTEX." Eight in every 10 better-class women have adopted it.

You wear sheer frocks and gowns without a second thought, any time, anywhere. You meet every day, every business or social demand unhandicapped.

NO LAUNDRY

Discards as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

Five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads, it banishes danger of mishaps.

Deodorizes, too. And thus ends ALL fear of offending.

You obtain it at drug or department stores simply by saying "KOTEX." Women thus ask for it without hesitancy. Costs only a few cents for a package of 12.

KOTEX

No laundry—discard like tissue

CENTRAL STORE

SPECIAL TODAY

CHICKENS TO ROAST OR FRICASSEE

4-pound average 45c

HAM (to fry) lb..... 40c

JAMES M. YOUNG & SONS

SIMON MANDELL

THE NEW WAIST SHOP

MAIN STREET AT 104

ONE DAY SALE

STARTING THURSDAY AT 9 A. M.

100 New Spring Dresses

In Satins, Crepes, Cloth and Georgette. All new styles. Sizes from 14 to 46. Values up to $49.50.

ONE DAY SALE PRICE

$14.95

100 New Balbriggans

LAST CALL

The better kind of Balbriggans in one and two-piece. All sizes.

ONE DAY SALE PRICE

$3.95

POETRY

The Chaperon

I take my chaperon to the play—
She thinks she's taking me.
And the gilded youth who owns the seat,
A proud young man is he;
But how would his young heart be hurt
If he could only know
That not for his sweet sake I go,
Nor yet to see the trifling show,
But to see my chaperon flirt.

Her eyes beneath her snowy hair
They sparkle youthful as mine;
There's scarce a wrinkle in her hand
So delicate and fine.
And when my chaperon is seen,
They come from everywhere—
The dear old boys with silvery hair,
With old-time grace and old-time air,
To greet their old-time queen.

They bow as my young Midas here
Will never learn to bow
(The dancing masters do not teach
That gracious reference now.)
With voices quavering just a bit,
They play their old parts through,
They talk of folk who used to be—
Of hearts that broke in fifty-two—
Now none the worse for it.

And as these aged crickets chirp
I watch my chaperon's face,
And see the dear old features take
A new and tender grace;
And in her happy eyes I see
Her youth awakening bright,
With all its hope, desire the delight—
Ah, me! I wish that I were quite
As young—as young—as young as she!
—Henry Cuyler Bunner.

The Morning-Glory

My life is but a little span,
I shall be gone ere noon;
Until the night the Rose may play,
The Lily's slimy beauty sway,
But I must go—how soon!
I shall not see the sunset glow,
For me no evening star will blow.

My life is but a little span—
And yet I do not sigh;
A laughing Dewdrop seeks my heart,
And, lovers twain, we never part,
We both, together, die;
And never shadowed by the night.
Our love, until the end, is bright.
—Samuel Minturn Peck in Boston Transcript.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

A thing of beauty keeps you broke forever.—Vanderbilt Masquerader.

"Aha" said the shrewd lawyer as he caught his housekeeper sampling his gin, "there's a woman in the case."—Hamilton Royal Gaboon.

Mother—Oh, Bessie, why do you wipe your mouth with the back of your hand?

Bessie—'Cos it's much cleaner than the front.—Boston Transcript.

"I noticed you were talking during my sermon this morning."

"I beg your pardon, sir, I do not recall it. I must have been talking in my sleep."—Tit-Bits.

Little Tommy—"Mother, is it true that there's cones on pine trees?"

His Mother—"Why, yes, dear."

Little Tommy—"Well, then, who fills 'em up with ice cream?"—Detroit News.

Aunt: And were you a very good little girl at church this morning, Alice?

Alice: Oh, yes auntie! A man offered me a big plate of money, and I said, "No, thank you."—The Progressive Grocer.

Subbubs (to passing hobo)—Hey! Dig up this garden for me and I'll give you a dollar.

Weary Walkins—Better keep it, boss; you'll need it to buy vegetables with.—Exchange.

Friend (admiringly)—Where did you get your amising knowledge of social and economic subjects?

Host (proudly)—From my daughter's graduation essay.—Boston Transcript.

KALEIDOSCOPE

The Spanish Armada was defeated by the English in 1588.

In olden days it used to be the custom for all horses to be bled and thoroughly washed on the day after Christmas. This was supposed to preserve them from harm through the ensuing year.

Henry Reymond, a Swiss musical inventor, has devised a system of musical shorthand. The system will enable any person who has mastered it to sit at a concert and note the full orchestrated score, just as an operator takes down the speech of an orator.

Dr. V. Popov, professor of physics at Saratov University, in Russia, has invented an apparatus which he asserts will transmit photographs of moving objects by wireless. He makes the assertion that his machine will transmit within a few seconds all details of such objects as moving military columns, naval movements, airplane concentrations, theatrical performances and similar spectacles.

After being imprisoned between floors in an automatic elevator in a Chico (Cal.) hotel in the early morning hours when the power was shut off in order that the electric company might make repairs, R. D. Lyon, of San Francisco, was freed only after a long distance telephone call was put through to Oakland. Switches at Oakland were thrown open only for one minute to permit the elevator to be run to the next floor.

Present day bottle filling machines have a capacity of automatically filling, sealing and labeling from 30 to 120 bottles a minute. They not only fill each container exactly to a predetermined height, but also automatically skip and refuse to fill bottles that are badly cracked or broken or have blowholes. They fill properly with any liquid and also with semi-liquids, such as sirups, catsup, chili sauce, salad dressing, horseradish, olives and so forth.

The sugar bill of the American people is more than $2,000,000 a day, according to a report compiled by Facts About Sugar, trade journal of the sugar industry. This figure is based on the present low price at which sugar is selling. During most of the time in recent years, the cost of satisfying the national sweet tooth has been higher than this. While the United States, including territories of Hawaii, Porto Rico and the Philippines, ranks third among the nations of the world in the extent of its sugar production the quantity of sugar supplied by home industry satisfies only about half the country's requirements and nearly $1,000,000 a day is expended for foreign grown sugar. As most of the imported sugar comes from Cuba, the bulk of this sum goes to that country and the production of sugar for the United States market is the basis of the greater part of Cuba's trade and industry.

Will Lecture On Germany

Under the auspices of the Bible class of the German Lutheran church an illustrated lecture by Rev. Herman Hunsinger, pastor of the church, is to be given at 8 o'clock Thursday evening in the church rooms. The City of Berlin and the cities of Northern Germany is to be the subject of the lecture and will precede delicious refreshments, which will be served by the young people of the class.

Norwich Bulletin

1796 1926

VOL. LXVII—No. 18. POPULATION 29,865 NORWICH, CONN., THURSDAY, JANUARY 21, 1926. TWELVE PAGES—88 COLUMNS PRICE TWO CENTS

PENN. GENERAL ASSEMBLY NEGATIVES GOV. PINCHOT

Bills Sponsored by the Governor For Control of Anthracite Mining Have Been Virtually Killed by the House Committee on Mines and Mining—Bill to Make Coal a Public Utility Was "Indefinitely Postponed" by the Committee.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 20.—(AP)—Proposed legislation for control of anthracite mining stuck an obstacle in the Pennsylvania legislature today when bills sponsored by Governor Pinchot were virtually killed by the house committee on mines and mining.

Action on one bill, proposing to make coal a public utility was "indefinitely postponed" by the committee, procedure that ordinarily ends the progress of a measure. By a vote of 60 to 200 members of the house the bill can be placed on the calendar after the measure has been in the committee for ten days.

The other bill, which provides for state compacts to regulate production and marketing of coal, was a given a "negative recommendation" and it can be placed on the calendar only by the vote of a majority of the house under a motion within five days after the committee makes its report. The committee action was not formally reported before the legislature adjourned today until next Monday night.

Other pending measures dealing with the anthracite situation are in committee and will come up for a hearing next Wednesday.

COAL SITUATION SUBJECT OF DEBATE IN CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20—(AP)—The coal situation again today became the subject of debate in congress and of additional conferences at the White House.

Retail coal dealers were charged by Senator Reed, republican, Pennsylvania, with profiteering in soft coal. He declared that producers had not increased prices but that retailers had doubled or more than doubled the usual price to consumers because of the anthracite suspensions.

Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, replied that he had information that profiteering was not confined to the retailers but that it extended to both the producers and railroads as well. He added that congress should take immediate steps to protect the public.

Representative Black, democrat, New York, declared in the house that the issue of the next republican national convention would be "freeze with Cal or melt but with Gift," referring to President Coolidge and Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania. He predicted that the next republican textbook would set forth Mr. Coolidge's message on the coal question and blame congress for not acting on it.

Laying that Congress clothe the president with power to act, Representative Boylan, democrat, New York, declared the house commerce committee was still "addling" with the investigation of foreign rubber monopolies when it should be giving its time to Coal and legislation.

"People can do without rubber," he said. "They now demand heat. The committee should rise and support the president."

President Coolidge discussed the coal situation with John Hays Hammond, chairman of the coal commission which submitted its report two years ago.

Mr. Hammond said afterward that he was in agreement with the chief executive that nothing should be attempted by the federal government toward ending the anthracite suspension until Governor Pinchot and the Pennsylvania legislature had demonstrated whether they could work out a solution.

Senate debate proceeded for an hour, during which Senator Copeland, democrat, New York, urged some action to relieve the fuel situation, which, he said, threatens the health and life of the nation.

SHORTAGE OF COAL PROVES BOTHERSOME IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Jan. 20—(AP)—The possibility that real tragedy may come from the idle mining districts to stalk the Metropolitan area was forcefully brought home to New Yorkers today, when Bellevue hospital, housing 1,377 patients, was forced to shut down its heating plant because of inability to obtain coal.

Tightening up of the supplies even of soft coal, together with the dense fog that has hindered the movement of harbor craft, prevented barges that were scheduled to reach the hospital from being delivered on time. Emergency measures, however, brought a fresh supply so that the furnaces were being operated again tonight.

Although the unusual warmth of the weather so far this winter has been hailed generally as the chief cause for the relatively small amount of suffering to date, belief has been expressed in various quarters that it may not prove to have been an unmixed blessing. Coal men say that because of the temperate weather, householders have in many instances made their supply of anthracite, bought before or soon after the strike, serve to carry them along and have hesitated to switch to the use of substitutes. As a result thousands of bins are almost empty and this will result, it is said, in case of a sudden cold snap, in such a rush on the coal companies that the demand could not be met.

For normal demands the large dealers say that they are equipped so far as anthracite substitutes go although they are almost unanimous in saying that there is not one ay Cable ton of anthracite in the city. Representative Sol Bloom yesterday telegraphed the president that he had been able to find exactly one ton for sale in the city and that was offered at $32. A resident of Long Island today reported that he had offered $40 a ton for anthracite but had been unable to get any.

Various projects are being considered in case a cold snap should bring about an emergency condition.

Barring a sudden rush of orders, the bituminous market is in good condition, Burns Brothers, one of the largest dealers, is bringing Welsh anthracite across the ocean in large quantities. They expect to receive 150,000 tons within the next month, but this coal sells for $24.50 a ton and an increase is considered likely.

BRITISH SCHOONER SEIZED WITH 500 CASES OF ALCOHOL

BOSTON, Jan. 20.—(AP)—The British schooner Oakles from Halifax with a cargo of 500 cases of alcohol, was brought here tonight by the coast guard cutter Red Wing and turned over to customs officers. The schooner was seized 10 miles off Cape Cod today by the coast guard destroyer McCall on a charge of bringing liquor illegally within the territorial waters of the United States.

As soon as the schooner had been made fast at the appraisers' stores, the captain and members of the crew were questioned by Deputy Surveyor Thomas F. Finnegan. Aboard the schooner were Captain A. S. Wentzell, William Hyson, E. A. Rowe, cook; and Seamen Louis Belong, Otis Keisler, Robert Norman and George Follen, all from Halifax and vicinity.

It was reported that Captain Wentzell contended the craft was carried off her course by contrary winds and tides during foggy weather. The schooner's hatches were securely fastened and apparently had not been opened recently. The Oakley will be detained until further investigation by the customs authorities, who will report to the United States attorney for a decision as to whether there is sufficient evidence against the craft to warrant formal seizure.

10 TO 15 YEARS FOR SLAYER OF WATERBURY POLICEMAN

WATERBURY, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Ernest J. Bercier was sentenced to from ten to fifteen years in state's prison by Judge Newell Jennings this afternoon. Bercier was found guilty late yesterday of manslaughter in connection with the killing on May 2, 1925, of Patrolman William J. Stokes.

Judge Jennings yesterday gave defense counsel the opportunity to present a motion to set aside the verdict and postponed any action on sentencing Bercier until today. The accused's attorneys did not care to present the motion, but pleaded for clemency.

Mrs. Bercier, whom the defendant met and married in France while he was serving overseas, may return to that country. She and her three small children have stayed in the court room corridors throughout the trial.

PLANNING FOR BRIDGE ACROSS LAKE CHAMPLAIN

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 20.—(AP)—With their preliminary investigation of a site for the proposed interstate bridge across Lake Champlain completed, New York state members of the joint New York-Vermont legislative bridge committee announced tonight that they would be unable to progress further in their work until the Vermont legislature reconvenes for its biennial session next year.

Without the consent of the Vermont legislature two appropriations proposals and other details, the New York state members believe it will be useless further to carry on their work.

G. HAROLD GILPATRIC OFFERS TO GIVE HIS ASSISTANCE

HARTFORD, Jan. 20—(AP)—A promise to "give any assistance that I can", in the effort to account for "unexplained transactions," confronting those engaged in untangling his affairs has been received from Former State Treasurer G. Harold Gilpatric by Judge Arthur E. Howard, Jr., trustee of his bankrupt estate.

A letter written by Gilpatric from the Atlanta penitentiary, where he is serving a fifteen-years' sentence for embezzlement from the First National bank, of Putnam, was transmitted to Judge Howard Tuesday by Lawyer Walter H. Gilpatric, of New York, a brother of the defaulter. The former state treasurer's willingness to talk made it practically certain that he will be brought back to Hartford on a habeas corpus writ to answer questions of his creditors and the Holcomb committee appointed by Governor Trumbull to investigate every phase of all Gilpatric's transactions as the state treasurer. The original plan was to send someone to Atlanta to question Gilpatric. "Whichever course is pursued," his brother, wrote Judge Howard, "my policy will be to cooperate with him to the end that every possible assistance be given in ascertaining the real facts."

SENTENCED FOR FLEECING DERBY DRUGGIST OF $1,300

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 20—(AP)—Pasquale Panico, 35, was sent to state's prison for not less than two nor more than four years, and his accomplice, Edna Folsum, alias Turner, 25, was fined $300 by Judge Arthur F. Ells in the superior court today for fleecing Alfonso Indozzi, Derby druggist, out of $1,300. Indozzi claimed the two sold him genuine diamonds and then substituted worthless stones.

Panico and the woman who had pleaded not guilty went on trial yesterday. After several witnesses had been heard today, they changed their pleas to guilty and sentences were imposed.

Indozzi testified today that Panico had claimed to know the druggist's relatives in Italy and that a cousin there needed money. The cousin had sent 14 diamonds over here to be turned into cash. Indozzi advanced $1,300 took the diamonds as security, first, however, ascertaining from a jeweler that the stones were genuine. A short time later Indozzi decided that substitutions had been made and his diamonds were worthless.

PIES WERE SHOWERED IN THE MIDST OF CHILDREN

NEW YORK, Jan. 20—(AP)—Early days of the motion picture industry were recalled today when a heavily laden pie delivery truck collided with a furniture moving van in the Bronx, knocking down three men and causing a shower of pies in the midst of passing school children.

The school children blocked the traffic for about an hour salvaging the pies for internal use.

CABLED PARAGRAPHS

Denial By Lloyd George

LONDON, Jan. 20—(AP)—With approach of the reassembling of parliament, February 2, the political guns are becoming active. Mr. Lloyd George, at Carnarvon, Wales, put the quietus on recent reports of a possible union of the liberal and labor parties, his idea being that both parties were in the wilderness for another three or four weeks. Mr. Churchill, speaking at Leeds, devoted himself to the urgency of economy in the administration, if further taxation was to be avoided.

TAX REDUCTION BILL LEAD BEFORE SENATE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(AP)—With the opposition promising "a long fight," the compromise tax reduction bill drafted by the senate finance committee was laid before the senate today in the midst of the world court debate.

Chairman Smoot of the committee told the senate he would call up the bill at "an early date" but would not ask for its consideration before Monday and if an agreement is reached meanwhile fixing a date not too far in the future for a vote on the world court, he would be willing to wait until that had been taken.

Announcing opposition to the bill's provision for repeal of the inheritance tax" as well as many other of its provisions," Senator Norris republican, Nebraska, author of the income tax publicity provision in the present law which the bill would repeal, declared there would be "a fight—a long fight" on these sections of the bill. His views on the inheritance tax are known to be shared by a considerable group of senators of both parties.

Hoping to prevent delay in final passage of the bill so that tax reduction might be taken advantage of by March 15, when first income tax installments are due, proponents of the measure asserted today they would like to have the world court voted on immediately so that opponents of this proposal could not use the tax bill for postponing a vote on adhesion to the court.

The compromise reached by the republicans and democrats of the committee, which increased the total amount of reduction voted by the house by more than $20,000,000, continued today to present a troublesome problem on how to meet the increase.

DENIED ASSOCIATION WITH GILT EDGE BEVERAGE CO.

BOSTON, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Denial that he was associated with the Gilt Edge Beverage Company when beer seizures were made last fall was made today by Martin J. Hart of Lowell in opposing his removal to Chicago for trial. Hart, a former president of the Gilt Edge Beverage Company of Lawrence, was indicted with the Boston and Maine railroad, three officials of that railroad, a Chicago police lieutenant, three prohibition agents and others. They are charged with conspiracy to violate the federal prohibition law.

United States Commissioner Edwin C. Jenney, who heard evidence yesterday in the cases of the railroad men, and today in the case of Hart, announced tonight that all four would be continued until January 27.

Indictments were brought in Chicago last fall after seizure of five carloads of beer from the Gilt Edge Beverage Company in Lawrence. At that time, it was announced that this was the first step in breaking up a beer selling syndicate doing a business of $80,000 a month in the east and middle west.

Hart today testified that he had sold out his interests in the Gilt Edge Beverage Company to David J. Allen, Thomas F. Walsh and Charles McCarthy on July 14 last. After that date, he contended, he had resigned from office from the directorate and had entirely severed connections with the company, which had been engaged in the manufacture and sale of "near beer" and ginger ale.

WHY MERIDEN SCHOOL SUPT. GIBBS BANNED DANCING

MERIDEN, Jan. 20—(AP)—Dr. David Gibbs, superintendent of schools of Meriden, who resigned his position last Monday evening because the board of education granted pupils of the high school permission to hold a trial dance in the school, contrary to a by-law of the board which provides that all social affairs and dances in the high school must have the sanction of the principal and superintendent, in answer to questions today said he did not know whether he would withdraw his resignation if the board of education rescinded its vote.

He further said he had not contemplated overriding the school board and continuing the ban on dancing, which has been in effect about three years, on the ground that the action of the board was illegal.

Reports of joy rides, petting parties and drinking in connection with high school dances, coupled with the superintendent's own contention that jazz music has a harmful effect upon school children, brought about the edict against all dances at the school.

He said he had already made plans for the future, but refused to state what they are.

A DECREE FORBIDDING THE HOWLING OF DOGS

TOULON, France, Jan. 20—(AP)—The courts have been called on to pass on the validity of a decree issued by the mayor of this city forbidding "all noise or repeated barking or howling of dogs" after 10 o'clock at night.

A woman was haled into court to face the charge that her dog "had jumped the wall of her premises and disturbed public tranquility by barking on the night on May 24-25, 1925, from 11 o'clock till 11.30 and from 1 o'clock till 1.45." The lower court denied the mayor's right to make such a decree, but an appeal to the court of cessation resulted in an order for retrial, the higher court ruling that the municipal authority extended to the preservation of order and quiet.

PLANS FOR INTERNATIONAL RADIO BROADCASTING TESTS

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(AP)—With the departure of two official observers who will tune in from specially chosen vantage points outside this country, plans for the international radio broadcasting tests next week, were completed today by the radio week committee.

One of the observers—Paul McGuinniss—sailed today on the liner Laconia, on a tour of the world in the interests of radio, while the tests are on, he will be passing through the Panama canal from which point he will study the effect of the equitorial static on radio waves from all parts of the globe.

The other is Frank Tower of Boston, who left today for Bermuda, where he will make similar observations.

Defense of Judge Harry B. Anderson

Many From His Home State, Tennessee, Defend His Acts and Moral Character.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Facing charges involving both his official acts and his moal character, Federal Judge Harry B. Anderson, of the Western Tennessee district, heard himself vigorously defended today before a senate judciary sub-committee, by attorneys, business men and congressmen from his home state.

Judge Anderson was given a recess appointment last September and his confirmation now is protested by a number of citizens of Memphis. Their counsel laid before the committee specifications in which it was charged that the judge "falsified" records in cases pending before him.

Other charges are that the judge failed to administer punishment "in the manner, grade and degree required by law." That "he is without legal training and is legally incompetent and morally incapable of properly discharging the duties" of a federal judge, and finally that he was not a resident of the district when he was appointed.

Because of a failure of the committee to supbpoena records of Judge Anderson's court at Memphis, the prosecution announced that it could not go on and the defense proceeded with its case by offering to contravert allegations in half a dozen affidavits filed with the committee.

S. E. Murray, district attorney at Memphis, took full responsibility for the action taken by court in a number of cases, which were inquired into, including a Mann act case and some bootleg cases. Murray still was on the witness stand when a recess was taken until tomorrow. Early in the day several members of congress and a number of lawyers testified that they had known Judge Anderson for many years and that his reputation for honesty and morality was of the highest.

FACTIONS IN SENATE FAR APART ON WORLD COURT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20—(AP)—Senate proponents and opponents of the world court found themselves far apart tonight as to the time for a vote on this issue.

At a conference late today, those opposing American adhesion to the court decided to propose that the vote be taken after the tax bill is passed, without a definite date being fixed.

This proposition is unsatisfactory to pro-court leaders on both the republican and democratic sides. They insist that the court question must be put out of the way before the senate takes up the revenue measure, with its highly controverted provisions for repeal of the inheritence tax and of the income publicity clause.

Negotiations between leaders on the two sides will be continued tomorrow. Meanwhile, a decision will be withheld as to whether efforts will be made to invoke the rule limiting debate to one hour for each senator.

Some pro-court leaders doubt now that even in the absence of an agreement to vote it will be necessary to resort to cloture. They say the opposition is hard pressed to carry on the debate continuously, which they must do if a vote is to be averted before the tax bill is taken up.

Senator Lenroot, republican, Wisconsin, leader of the pro-court forces, said tonight that the tax bill was not a basis for the negotiations. That Feb. 10, had been suggested on the senate floor by Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, leader of the opposition, as a date on which he would agree to vote.

Senator Borah said his understanding was that the court opponents were to decide whether they would agree to a vote after the tax bill was out of the way. He added that he had been authorized by them to negotiate as to the length of time to expire after the passage of the tax bill to vote on the court.

When the senate convened today an hour earlier than usual, Senator Reed, democrat, Missouri, took the floor and continued for three hours the speech against the court which he started yesterday.

CHILD RESTORED TO MOTHER THROUGH MOVING PICTURES

DETROIT, Jan. 20—(AP)—Moving pictures today delivered a four year old child to its foster-mother when Judge Vincent Brennan in circuit court awarded custody of little Mabel Irene to Mrs. Irene Goosen. In doing so, he denied the habeas corpus petition of the child's natural mother, Mrs. Julia Przybyla.

The child has been under Mrs Goosen's charge since a few weeks after birth. In an effort to arrive at a just decision on the petition of the natural mother for the return of her child, Judge Brennan had the women and the child stand before him last Saturday, when he announced that the child was to be sent to an institution. Concealed moving picture machines showed the reaction of the two women to this decision.

Judge Brennan and several psychologists yesterday viewed the film. He said today that he was giving custody of the child to Mrs. Goosen because the film showed "a much more biological emotional reaction on her part," and also, because of the willingness of the real mother to permit the child to be sent to an institution.

LONG TERM HARTFORD P. O. EMPLOYE ARRESTED

HARTFORD, Jan. 20—(AP)—Employed in the local post office for the past twenty-three years, Frank B. Smith, about 55 years old, of 319 Newbury street, was arrested today by post office inspectors after he was alleged to have opened a "test" letter containing less than $10 in bills. Smith, who was despatcher of first class mail in the outgoing mail section of the mailing division, was detained tonight in the Hartford police station at the direction of Assistant United States Attorney George H. Cohen. The arrest was made by Postal Inspectors E. A. Courter, of the Hartford office and J. J. Breslin, of Boston.

The "test" letter by which Smith was said to have been trapped was an ordinary special delivery letter mailed in Hartford and addressed to an out-of-town point. It contained several small bills, the numbers of which had previously been noted by the inspectors. The letter disappeared after Smith handled it and the post office inspectors found the bills on Smith's person. The envelop was not recovered.

Resents Attacks Upon Newspapers

Editor Sherman of the Springfield Union Tells Something Not Generally Known.

BOSTON, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Newspapers have remained quiescent under attacks upon their honesty, integrity and disinterestedness altogether too long, M. S. Sherman, editor of the Springfield, Mass., Union told the editors of Tech, the undergraduate publication of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, at their annual dinner tonight.

"Secure in their knowledge of their own rectitude they have treated with scorn and disdain the aspersions cast upon them. Without protest they have permitted all sorts of persons of varying degrees of influence to malign their character. A little judicious hitting back may well be in order," he said.

Mr. Sherman referred to a recent attack upon The Associated Press by a professor in a New England college in which the professor said "'in every international crisis since 1919 The Associated Press consisted largely of hireling wrong in its selection and chosing of the news. It is one of the most autocratically ruled institutions in the world."

"As the professor proceeded to develop this assertion, it was apparent that his grievance against The Associated Press consisted largely of hte fact it handled the Russian situation," said Mr. Sherman. "His obvious sympathy with the bolshevistic movement caused him to look askance at news from Russia that did not coincide with his preconceived beliefs in the ideals and aspirations of the communistic experiment.

"Had the professor been better informed, he would have known that the only selection of news The Associated Press makes has to do with the actual importance of events. Whether the events contribute to the upbuilding or destruction of the social order is not for the Associated to say. Its function is to supply the facts without color, leaving editors to retard the imaginative processes of our college luminaries.

"As for being an autocratically ruled institution, it would puzzle this critic of The Associated Press to set up a more democratic method of management than actually obtains."

Mr. Sherman explained that newspapers of every shade of political persuasion were members of the organization and that all received the same news report.

BODY OF J. C. GREENWAY SHIPPED TO AJO, ARIZONA

NE WYORK, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Following funeral services here, the body of John Campbell Greenway was shipped tonight to Ajo, Arizona, for burial, while efforts were made to have Hermann Hadgedorn, director of Roosevelt house, gather former comrades of Mr. Greenway in the rough riders to pay a final tribute to him.

R. W. G. Vail, acting director of Roosevelt house, represented that organization at the funeral services. Hilton wired Mr. Hagedorn, who is on his way to San Antonio, Tex., to gather material for a motion picture perpetuating the deeds of the rough riders, notifying him of Mr. Greenway's death. Mr. Hagedorn was asked to gather former rough riders living in and near San Antonio and with them attend the services in Ajo as representatives of the Roosevelt family.

Mr. Greenway was a mining man, a former Yale football player and a soldier who fought under Roosevelt at San Juan Hill and was decorated for gallantry in France during the world war. He was a trustee of Roosevelt house and an active member of the committee sponsoring the Roosevelt memorial project in Washington.

LIQUOR EVIDENCE AGAINST MORRISON HOTEL, CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Jan. 20—(AP)—Prohibition agents tonight said they had "evidence enough to close the $10,000,000 Morrison hotel." Whether they would use it none ventured to predict.

E. C. Yellowley in charge of prohibition enforcement here said that the government's plans had been spoiled by premature publicity. Captain R. Q. Merrick, Assistant Prohibition Director Hoowener, said that sufficient evidence already is in his possession to seek a padlock for the world's tallest hotel.

The evidence the prohibition authorities obtained was said to have been secured by two "dude" prohibition operators sent here from Washington. They registered at the hotel, posed as Englishmen, and said they were able to purchase liquor from hotel employes including a house detective, with the knowledge of the management.

Harry C. Moir, president of the hotel company, had a different story to tell. He declared that the hotel had been "framed" by its own employes and that if liquor had been sold by the employes it was without knowledge of the management, which at all times tried to stop any such practice.

WILL EXCLUDE BLUE LAWS FROM NATIONAL CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20—(AP)—Reformers who want to try out me laws on the national capital got a raking today at the meeting of the house district committee.

Clarence Darrow was announced as on a future bill of events to discuss abolition of capital punishment and Noah Webster Cooper of Nashville, Tennessee, chairman of the Southern Methodist Sabbath Crusade committee, was down to discuss a Sunday blue law for Washington.

Representative Underhill, republican, Massachusetts, declared the committee had no time for persons with experimental legislation "to give themselves publicity."

"We are here to legislate for the District of Columbia," said Mr. Underhill, "and not to suit the whims of the short haired women and long haired men who want to put something over on the District."

STATISTICS OF NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL CONFERENCE

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(AP)—The national industrial conference board announced today that a study made by it disclosed that a dollar in October, 1925, bought only 42.7 per cent. the amount of labor it would have commanded in 1914. The board points out that while the employe's dollar spent for wages had declined 56.3 per cent. since 1914, the employe's dollar, spent for general living expenses, has decreased only 40 per cent.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

A wreath, sent by President Coolidge, was laid on the grave of Benjamin Franklin, in Christ Church burial ground, Philadelphia.

Robert Palmer and John Jenuseitis, both of Waterbury, were appointed deputy sheriffs for New Haven county by Sheriff James Geddes.

Thirteen padlock decrees were ordered against concerns for prohibition law violations in one hour in New York, by Federal Judge Goddard.

Professor Gustav Kruger, of the University of Giessen, Germany, of which he was rector last year, has been appointed Ingersoll lecturer on the immortality of man at Harvard this year.

A third passenger local and express airplane service operating out of Hartford is planned that will link cities between New York and Portland, Me., in a local station to station service.

John Francis Beckwith, whose body was found hanging in his home at Troy, N. Y., was a poet and naturalist and a former resident of Riverbank, N. Y.

Successful development of the platea used by John A. Miller of the Swarthmore college eclipse expedition to Sumatra, was reported to the Sproul observatory.

Henry Wians Hiller, 80, United States consular agent for Eastern Siberia, during the administration of President Abraham Lincoln, died in Bellevue hospital, New York.

Mrs. Peter Thompson, 48, of West Haven, was fatally injured in New Haven, when she was crushed beneath the wheels of a mail truck in front of the railroad station.

The sesqui-centennial exposition in celebration of the 150th anniversary of the signing of the declaration of independence will open in Philadelphia, June 1, as originally planned.

Bodies of the last of 94 men who perished in an explosion in Degnan-McConnell mine No. 21, at Wilburton, Okla., a week ago, were located yesterday by rescue parties in the mine.

The Norwegian steamer Bjornst jern Bjornsen reached Boston, from Antwarp, a week late after encountering what the officers described as the worst weather in their experience.

The London Daily Express prints a Peking despatch that Marshal Chang Tso-Lin, the Manchurian military chief, has issued a proclamation declaring it illegal for foreigners to lease Manchurian land.

Ernest Mumsford, a taxicab driver, was struck over the head five times with revolvers and robbed of a wallet containing $280 by two unknown bandits in a lonely section of the River road at Derby, last night.

Driving home in a hard snowstorm after paying a professional call, Dr. Haines C. Thatcher, 63, of West Danby, N. Y., was instantly killed when his automobile was struck by a train which the blizzard had obscured.

Commander Ramon Franco and Captain Ruiz de Alda, who will attempt to fly from Spain to America, flew their seaplane Non Plus Ultra from Melilla, Morocco, to Huelva, without incident.

Constance Bennett, motion picture actress, who was married to Philip Plant in Greenwich, Conn., November 3, is through with a career and intends to devote the future to being a wife.

Stove coal which blew up, wrecked her kitchen stove and caused her personal injuries brought an award of $38,500 damages to Mrs. Harriett Munroe of Everett in court at Cambridge, Mass.

Embarkation in motor transport business by railroads and street railways was endorsed by the Massachusetts state department of public utilities in its report filed in the house of representatives.

Paul Bencos, seriously wounded when the broken blade of the foil of his opponent in a fencing match in New York, penetrated his right lung, was reported, by attending physicians, to be out of danger.

Talk in favor of world war debt cancellation has died away and "the ugly word repudiation is no longer used," Elliot Wadsworth, former assistant secretary of the treasury, said in an address in Boston.

A squad of state police from the Westport barracks swooped down upon three houses, a store and a cider mill in Easton, and placed five persons under arrest for selling liquor and keeping liquor with the intent to sell.

Bobbed heads will be "as scarce five years from today as they were five years ago," Archiband A. Smith, hairpin manufacturer of Buffalo, told the notion buyers' division of the National Wholesale Dry Goods association at their convention in New York.

The smallest American Legion post in the world came into existence in Geneva, when the league of nations Geneva, when the League of Nations post was organized with only four members, comprising all the American officials of the secretariat.

The American embassy in Mexico City received a note from the Mexican foreign office replying to Ambassador Sheffield's recent note, protesting the retroactive provisions of two Mexican laws known as the petroleum and anti-alien land law.

Former Mayor John F. Hylan, of New York, announced that he has entered in a law partnership with William A. Deford, John T. Sturdevant and Thomas E. McEntegart. The firm will open offices Feb. 1, under the name of Hylan, Deford, Studevant & McEntegart.

The romance which included an early morning elopement six years ago of Josephine Pancoast Widener Leidy, came to an end at Norristown, Pa., when it was learned that the Montgomery county court had granted her a divorce from her husband, Carter Randolph Leidy.

Inspector William Kane, of the Lynn, Mass., police announced that he would apply today for a warrant for the arrest of Ellwood B. Paige, who disappeared a week ago leaving shortages aggregating $50,000 in the accounts of the Friends Religious society of Lynn, and the Lynn home for children, of which he was treasurer.

FRANCE IS RESOLVED TO SETTLE DEBT CONTRACTS

French Ambassador Berenger Informs President Coolidge That France is Resolved Act as Promptly and as Liberally as Her Present and Future Possibilities Will Permit —Meanwhile the Finance Committee of the French Parliament Has Declined to Have Anything More to Do With Minister of Finance Doumer—Premier Briand Has Consented to Appear in Person Before the Committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Henry Berenger, the new French ambassador, told President Coolidge today that France is resolved to settle debt contracts for her defense, "as promptly and as fully as her present and future possibilities will allow."

COMMITTEE TURNS DOWN FINANCE MINISTER DOUMER

PARIS, Jan. 20.—(AP)—The battle between Premier Briand's government and the cartel of the left reached another critical point today when the finance committee of the chamber of deputies declared that it would have nothing more to do with Finance Minister Doumer.

This radical step was due to the sharp manner in which M. Doumer criticised the financial proposals but forward by the cartel and the methods of operation of the finance committee. A resolution demanding that Premier Briand come before it in person has been adopted by the committee.

The premier has accepted this invitation, and pending his appearance the committee today continued its discussion of the bills it proposed to offer as substitutes for the government plans. Premier Briand is understood to be in full accord with his finance minister, and it is believed he would welcome a vote in the chamber of the cartel's bills. A poll of the chamber made by friends of the cabinet indicates that a small majority could be obtained against these measures, since the whole moderate and conservative opposition would vote solidly against them.

It is believed, however, that the result would be more doubtful if the vote were to come at once on M. Doumer's bills without amendment. The minister of finance says that experts of his ministry have carefully examined the cartel's measures and estimate that they would yield only about 200,000,000 francs of additional revenue annually, while 4,500,000,000 francs are required to balance the budget. M. Doumer told the finance committee again today that something must be done to obtain additional resources immediately to avoid the issue of more paper money. He placed the responsibility for the present delay on the committee.

SUMMARY OF YESTERDAY'S EVENTS IN WASHINGTON

The tax bill was reported to the senate.

The house debated the naval appropriation bill and prohibition.

President Coolidge issued a call for a street and highway safety conference.

The Elliot $165,000,000 public buildings bill was reported to the house.

Negotiations for a voting date on the world court issue were begun in the senate.

Vice President Dawes' radio speech on senate tactics stirred up a rumpus in the senate.

Profiteering by retail soft coal dealers was charged by Senator Reed of Pennsylvania.

Secretary Davis reiterated the war department's aviation views before a house committee.

Hearings on charges against Federal Judge Harry B. Anderson, of western Tennessee, were begun.

Secretary Kellogg declared Mexico's new land law contained retroactive and confiscatory provisions.

French Ambassador Berenger told President Coolidge France proposed to pay its debt as promptly as possible.

RAILROADS TO BE ASKED RAISE PAY OF 250,000 MEN

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 20.—(AP)—Railroads will be asked to grant wage increases ranging from six to ten cents an hour for 250,000 railway clerks, freight handlers and station employes, it was announced t night at a meeting of general chairmen of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, Freight Handlers and Station Employes. Approximately one hundred railroads will be affected.

Voting of the wage requests followed the refusal today of the grand executive council of the brotherhood to comply with the ultimatum of the American Federation of Labor ordering the express drivers in its membership to be surrendered to the International Teamsters' union.

The proposal for higher wages is based, the general chairmen said, on increased cost of living in different sections of the country. The difference of living coats regionally, according to their statement, was taken into consideration as well as the class of work performed in fixing the amount of increases to be sought.

The general chairmen also decided to ask the American Railway Express Company to increase the wages of their employes represented in the brotherhood 11 1-2 cents and 12 cents an hour.

STEAMER BEING SEARCHED FOR RADICAL PROPAGANDA

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Under the watchful eyes of several treasury department and customs agents, the unloading of the Danish steamer Ivar from Copenhagen began today, while the agents searched each piece of cargo as it came from the hold for a supposed consignment of radical propaganda. At a late hour tonight the unloading was still in progress.

According to word received by the federal government from its European agents, a batch of soviet literature was mixed with a cargo of licorice roots destined for a tobacco factory at Camden, N. J., the literature was believed to have been placed on the ship at Copenhagen by soviet agents. It was further believed that the literature, in the form of pamphlets and circulars and printed in several languages, including English, was of an extreme radical nature.

WOULD PROVIDE PETTING PLACES FOR THE POOR

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Petting places for the poor were urged upon the National Recreational Conference today by Ethelbert Stewart, commissioner of labor statistics in the department of labor, who pleaded for the opening of public spaces in American cities to the "Blue Jeaned" workers in great industrial plants.

"Nellie from the shoe factory", he said, "can stand a little petting in a public park furnished by the city, even though Joe from the stockyards who spends his days cutting off the feet of sweep, does the petting."

Mr. Stewart assailed what he termed "the increasing rigidity and puritanical assinity of much that goes into the newer forms of parks rules and regulations."

NOTED CHICAGO CRIMINAL CAPTURED IN ST. LOUIS

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 20—(AP)—Trailed three months by department of justice agents, one of whose number he had slain, Martin J. Durkin, 26, notorious Chicago criminal, was captured here today. The much-sought slayer described in police circulars as "very dangerous," "quick to draw," fell into a trap prepared by department agents, city detectives and railroad employes and was overpowered in the drawing room of a Frisco-Katy train upon arrival at Webster Groves, a suburb, from San Antonio.

A revolver, an automatic pistol and a belt of cartridges were lying on a card table in the drawingroom.

"I would have shot it out with you if you had given me a chance," Durkin told his captors. "You got me too quick."

With Durkin was an attractive woman, his bride since Dec. 4. They were married in East St. Louis. She said she was formerly Miss Irma Sullivan, 21, of Cornell, Illinois, and had no idea her husband was wanted by the police. She did not become suspicious, she said, until he abandoned an automobile at San Antonio.

Durkin, who gave his name as James Durkin, of St. Louis, in applying for the marriage license, has been variously called the "Shiek Robber" and "Prince Charming." He continued to smile after his arrest and nonchalantly admitted his desperate escapades.

DRUGGISTS LOSE LICENSES FOR DRY LAW VIOLATIONS

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Pharmacists who purchased doctor's prescriptions and dispense liquor on these are being checked up and several more pharmacists in addition to the three whose licenses were revoked today may be forced out of business, P. J. Garvin, state pharmacist inspector, here for the meeting of the state pharmacy commission, said tonight.

Nearly 300 attended the state druggist meeting here today. The annual meeting of the association will be held in New London, in June, it was announced. At that time the golden anniversary of the organization will be celebrated.

The three druggists, all of New Haven, whose licenses were revoked today, were Joseph LoPinto, Bertram Dexheimer and Joseph Barshov. They were recently convicted for violations of the dry laws. Barshov denied that he had been guilty of violating the law when he appeared before the state pharmacy commission today. If his court appeal is upheld, his license will be returned.

The main address this afternoon was given by Dr. Jacob Diner, dean of the College of Pharmacy of Fordham university. He explained how New York state secured legislation limiting the ownership of drug stores to licensed pharmacists.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCEMENT WAS "JUST AS A JOKE"

NEW YORK, Jan. 20—(AP)—Wilda Bennett, actress, admitted today that the announcement of her marriage to Peppy de Albreau, cabaret dancer, had been made "just as a joke." The story she said, had been started by a friend and when Texas Guinan, night club hostess, asked the couple about it at a cabaret celebration Monday night they decided to "carry out the joke."

"But that doesn't mean we won't be married," said Miss Bennett.

Asked aout Charles E. Frey, turfman, whose wife recently won a judgment of $37,500 against Miss Bennett for alienation of affections, the actress said:

"Oh, that was all over at the time of the suit."

Frey was at the night club when the "marriage announcement" was made, but he said afterwards that he believed it was "just fooling."

READY FOR FLIGHT FROM SPAIN TO SOUTH AMERICA

HUELVA, Spain, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Two Spanish airmen are ready for their flight across the Atlantic from Spain to South America, and if to brave wind and weather. There will be only four intermediate stops, Las Palmas, Canary Islands; San Vincent, Cape Verde Islands; Pernambuco and Rio Janeiro, Brazil, and Shalle Buenos Aires. The start of the flight, one of relatively the other transports or day, is dependent on favorable atmospheric conditions which

WILLIMANTIC

Office, 864 Main St. Telephone 1121-2

GOYER CO. STOCK SALE WAS OVERSUBSCRIBED

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WILLIMANTIC, Jan. 20—The campaign for an increased stock issue for the Goyer Manufacturing company closed Tuesday evening and was over-subscribed, according to announcement made by General Manager James B. Fullerton. Stock to the amount of $31,175 was disposed of. The goal was $30,000. The drive started last week and was sponsored by the local chamber of commerce in accordance with the policy of the officers of that organization. The successful termination of the campaign is but the continuation of a new era here, which was for its aim a bigger and better Willimantic. The past year has seen the successful close of the drive for the Willimantic Industrial company, the realization of the new Capitol theatre and the successful stock sale for the new community hotel. The divisional leaders in the Goyer drive, J. E. Sullivan and James P. Bath, were credited with practically the same amount of sales. The success with which the movement was met by local people means that the company will be allowed to continue its plan of expansion.

Mrs. Mary Kathleen Huber has recently been granted a decree of divorce from her husband, Herbert W. Huber of this city, on the grounds of cruelty, according to a despatch received in this city Wednesday. The couple were married at Worcester, Mass., November 29, 1922. In granting the decree, the court at Reno, Nevada, gave Mrs. Huber permission to resume her maiden name of Anderson. A property settlement was effected by the couple out of court. Mrs. Huber told the court that she left her husband in September, 1923, for two months and then returned at his solicitation.

The cost of harvesting the ice crop at the municipal ice plant at the pumping station in Mansfield was $1,487.06, which amounts to 24 cents per ton. Close to 4,600 tons of ice were harvested. The work was recently completed. The men who were employed at the work were paid off on Wednesday.

Announcement was made Wednesday that the Willimantic Savings Institute building at the junction of Main street and Bank street would be given an exterior cleaning. Bank officials have contracted with a Boston concern to do the work. The Boston concern is doing a similar task on the Hotel Hooker building.

On Tuesday evening District Deputy Mrs. Louis Holmes and staff from Jewett City installed the officers of Violet Rebekah Lodge, No. 97 I. O. O. F., in Odd Fellows' hall. The meeting was preceded by a supper. Mrs. Holmes was presented five dollars in gold by the lodge. Announcement was made that the entertainment committee would stage a Valentine social and surprise entertainment at the next meeting. The following officers were installed: Noble grand, Mrs. Lillie L. Hersant; vice grand, Miss Sabra B. Stoughton; recording secretary, Miss Juanita Jackson; financial secretary, Mrs. Alice D. Stoughton; treasurer, Mrs. Eleanor T. Ford.

Irwin Doubleday, 16, of South Windham, sustained a dislocated knee cap, contusions over the knee and bruises on the leg when he was knocked down by a small truck owned by Willard H. Smith, Inc., and operated by Rollie J. Leonard, Wednesday afternoon at 3.10 o'clock, the truck passing over his left leg. The accident occurred at the intersection of Railroad and Main streets as the youth was engaged in crossing Railroad St. The injuries were treated by a local physician.

Funeral services for Miss Rhoda Dexter were held at the North Coventry chapel Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. J. R. Atwood officiated. Interment was in Center cemetery, North Coventry. Avery and Van Zandt were in charge of the arrangements.

The weekly meeting of the Willimantic Exchange club was held at the Tea Room with a dinner served at 6:30 Wednesday evening, President Egbert A. Case was in charge of the meeting. The speaker of the evening was Town Clerk Frank P. Fenton, who gave the first of his two talks on local government.

The Brotherhood of the First Congregational church holds its monthly session at the church house this (Thursday) evening. Supper will be served by the Ladies' society of the parish and then will follow a debate, the general topic of which will be The Place of the Church in the Problems of Today.

The salesmanship course at the local Y. M. C. A. opened Wednesday evening with several entrants. E. O'Brien of Ansonia was in charge. Mr. O'Brien is a Yale University graduate and is general manager of the Ansonia Novelty company. He has had an extensive experience in conducting sales groups.

A meeting of the Salvation Army committee, for the campaign in the interests of the local corps, was held at the Walnut street citadel Tuesday evening. Chairman P. S. Hills was in charge. E. J. McCabe of Hartford outlined the plan to be used in the campaign. Mayor John C. Tracy was a guest at the meeting. The goal is $2,150 and the campaign is to open next Tuesday. The preceding Monday, there will be a meeting of the committee, workers and guests in the town hall at 6.30 o'clock.

Joseph Lyons was in the city Tuesday evening and arranged for the appearance of Eugene Cote at a big round-up of old time fiddlers at "Lyonhurst", Marlboro, Mass. Wednesday evening next, which will decide the New England championship and which is being staged jointly by Arthur Lovett and Mr. Lyons, the former representing Henry Ford, famous automobile manufacturer. Mr. Cote will also fill another engagement when he takes part in the state fiddling championships in Hartford, January 25.

John L. Leonard of this city has in his possession a dance program, seventy-five years old, used at a Thanksgiving ball in the Franklin hall, Thursday evening, November 26, 1850. The dance music was furnished by Professor John Hazen's full cotillion band. Mr. Hazen was at the time a famous Norwich dancing teacher. He led the orchestra and prompted for the dances at the same time. Supper was served after the dance at the old Hebbard Inn, now a four tenement house on Pleasant street. The floor managers were J. B. Hebbard and E. H. Kelgwin. The committee, of arrangements, then called managers, included F. Cheney, H. Squier, L. Brainard, E. Stone, George Phillips, Jim Brainard, R. M. Bartlett, L. Hopkins, George H. Chase and W. Kinsbury. Eighteen years later, Franklin hall was destroyed by fire and a year or two following the present Franklin block was erected.

Word has been received in this city of the sudden death of Frederick T. Kellogg, Tuesday morning at his home in Springfield, Mass. Mr. Kellogg is a cousin of Mrs. Augusta Billings of Pearl street.

The X. L. L. sewing circle of the Sorority of the Methodist church held a meeting at the home of Miss Emma Perkins of North street.

The funeral of William Allen Pendleton was held at the home of his parents in West Hartford Tuesday afternoon. The deceased, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Pendleton, is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Pendleton of this city.

The rooming establishment in the Windham House, conducted for the past several years by Mr. and Mrs. Philip Dion, has been sold to Mrs. Marie Louise Varieur of Chaplin.

At the social in the town hall on Friday the Youths Welfare association will have as an attraction two old fashioned dance teams of four couples each, one from Eastford, captained by John B. Ethridge and the other from Scotland, captained by Harry N. Moseley. The teams will give an exhibition in old fashioned dancing including the quadrille, lancers, polka and contra. On Friday evening, February 5, these two teams, with others will contest for a silver loving cup under the auspices of the association.

The annual installation of officers of A. C. Tyler auxiliary, No. 14, U. S. W. V., was held in the town hall on Tuesday evening, with a banquet following. Guests of the auxiliary were the members of A. C. Tyler camp, No. 4. Mayor John C. Tracy and Michael Sullivan, the latter of Providence. The officers installed by Past Department President Mrs. Minnie Flynn follow: President, Grace Sweet; senior vice president, Catherine Joyce; junior vice president, Elsie Warren; chaplain, Gertrude Jackson; patriotic instructor, Laura Snow; historian, Mabel Peck; conductor, Mary Mathieu; assistant conductor, Dina Lavigne; guard, Mary Ashton; assistant guard, Margaret Sullivan; color bearers, Rachel Gallagher, Mary Benoit, Bertha Harris and Emma Snow; musician, Emma Doyle.

The retiring president, Wardy Hoey, was presented a beautiful gold past president's pin, and a handsome electric table lamp, gifts of the auxiliary. The installing officer was presented a pair of mahogany candle sticks. Ninety were present at the banquet. The toastmistress was Wardy Hoey. A program of entertainment was carried under the direction of Mary Mathieu and an excellent post prandial program was carried out.

Brief Notes

Mrs. Otto B. Robison and Mrs. J. L. Harroun were visitors in Hartford Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. Alford were Hartford visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. Henry Holbrook of Palmer, Mass., formerly Miss Katherine Buck, of this city left Wednesday morning to join her husband in Miami, Fla., where they will spend the remainder of the winter.

Mrs. James P. Bath, Mrs. William E. Hendry and Rev. and Mrs. Arthur S. Wheelock were visitors in Hartford Tuesday.

Gail Shamback, A. J. Girouard, Fred Delude and Alfred J. Laraviere attended a matinee performance of "The Student Prince, at Hartford Wednesday.

PLAINFIELD

Mrs. Hannah Sawyer of Westerly, R. I., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Winifred Gardiner, of Gallup street, for a few days.

At a recent whist party held in Moosup, Winifred Gardiner was presented a beautiful pearl handled knife, for winning first prize.

Edward Moffitt of Plainfield, who was arrested by Officer Vincent early Sunday morning, was arraigned before Judge Torrey at the Tuesday morning session of the town court at Central Village on a charge of intoxication. He was fined $10 and costs.

A wedding of local interest took place on Monday at the St. James' church in Danielson, when Joseph Lebreque of Plainfield street was married to Miss Mary Alexina Parent of Front street. A nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. Joseph Deschaux, pastor of the church. Many Plainfield friends were in attendance. Many beautiful gifts were received by the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Lebreque left after the ceremony on a honeymoon trip, after which they will make their home in Plainfield.

The dissolution of the organization of the Veterans of Foreign Wars (local post) is being considered as a result of the indifference on the part of the public and failure to assist at their numerous functions. Members are quoted as refusing to participate in the affairs of the organization under existing conditions. The only possible solution offered by those concerned, is reorganizing under the American Legion, whereas many of the local ex-service men who are not eligible under the restrictions imposed in the Veterans of Foreign Wars, requiring credentials of foreign service, may become members. Social memberships would have a large influence, and would enlarge the organization and create interest which is now lacking. Complications arising from the disposal of funds in the treasury and equipment on hand, is causing much discussion.

The Congregational church officials are planning to hold a social and entertainment next Thursday evening. The following committee has been chosen to take charge of the program, and other features for affair: Elmer Phillips, Walter Cleland, Edward Hall, Irving Flagg, Elmer Greene, Fred Jeffries, Clifford Marden, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lathrop, Mrs. Clifford Struther, Clarence Jeffers, Harry Hilton, Everett Dawley, Mrs. Arthur Moffitt, Miss Marjorie Winsor, Florence Wibberly, and Claude Leathers.

On account of the bad storm on Monday night, the meeting of the committees of the new Christian Endeavor society was postponed. The nomination committee of the new officers consists of the following, Alfred Royle, Harry Green, Miss Rose Beaudry, Alfred Lester and Miss Ruth Hall. The committee on constitution comprises Curtiss Phillips, George Inglis, Mrs. Percy Wilcox, Cecil Butler, Mrs. Kittie Pryor.

ROCKVILLE

Several from here attended the ordination services of S. C. Bucklin, pastor of the Arcadia Baptist church, to the gospel ministry, which took place in the Arcadia church, Wednesday evening Jan. 13th. Rev. Paul S. Burdick, pastor of the local Seventh Day Baptist church, participated in the ordination services.

Mrs. Carlton Irish and children and Mrs. Albert E. Babcock visited Mr. and Mrs. William Hammond, at Wickford, Saturday afternoon. Mr. Hammond is in very poor health, following an attack of pneumonia, early in the winter.

Mrs. Sheffield Douglas, who has been ill, is so much improved as to be out again.

Mrs. Annie B. Kenyon and son, Leslie Kenyon, and Miss Lena Saunders, called on Mrs. Mary F. Barber, and daughter, Miss Ella Barber, at Woody Hill, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fish, of Hope Valley, were guests, Sunday, of Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Woodruff.

George L. Barber, who has been confined to his home by illness for some time, is improving. He is able to be out some time each day.

Sure Relief

BELL-ANS FOR INDIGESTION

25¢ and 75¢ Pkgs. Sold Everywhere

THE UTMOST IN REFINEMENT

SCALE OF PRICES
Matinees 20c-35c
Evenings 35c-50c
SATURDAY MATINEE AND HOLIDAYS EVENING SCALE

SAME GREAT VAUDEVILLE EVERY THURS.

Capitol

WILLIMANTIC'S THEATRE BEAUTIFUL

METRO-GOLDWYN PHOTOPLAYS EVERY SUNDAY

THREE SHOWS DAILY
Matinees at 2:15
Evening, 6:45 and 8:30

THURSDAY EVENING JANUARY 21

GRAND OPENING PROGRAMME

3 TIMES DAILY FRIDAY-SATURDAY

5 GREAT ACTS

THE SENSATIONAL ENTERTAINERS
JEAN JACKSON TROUPE
"THRILLING WHIRLS A WHEEL"

DE WITT & GUNTHER
A CHATALOGIC COMEDY SKIT

EDDIE COOK AND SHAW SISTERS
IN AN ORIGINAL SMART OFFERING

KRAMER & GRIFFIN
ODD MOMENTS IN A VAUDEVILLE WAY

THE ACT FULL OF PEP AND PERSONALITY
THE SEVEN RAINBOW GIRLS
THE SPIRIT OF MUSIC, SONG AND DANCE
EACH ACT EMBELLISHED WITH SPECIAL SCENERY AND ELECTRICAL EFFECTS

A brilliant constellation of vaudeville artists, combining the best elements of every phase of the entertainment field here is a bill of all-star acts, each the Premier in its class. Succeeding announcements will convince the most skeptical that real treats will be offered patrons with a duplex form of entertainment changed weekly.

TO THE PUBLIC OF WILLIMANTIC AND ENVIRONS:—

Thursday evening, January 21st, theatregoers of our city and adjacent towns, together with the theatrical profession, unite in beginning a happy celebration to commemorate the gala opening of Willimantic's beautiful half million dollar theatre, The Capitol.

In presenting to you just the proper proportion of Vaudeville and Photoplays for our opening attraction, I do so with the sincere belief that they will prove worthy of the title "The Height of Refinement in Entertainment."

Much work has been done by Messrs. Charles A. Gates, Valentine L. Murphy and associates, many brilliant minds have labored to the end that Willimantic could arrive in a position claimed by its sister cities of the United States.

I take great pleasure in welcoming you to The Capitol which has risen as a fulfilment of a dream long cherished by our fellow townsmen. A casual inspection will show that we have a modern theatre with adequate exits to meet every possible emergency.

Our mission is to please and entertain you, and I trust that the combination of this beautiful theatre and the excellent list of attractions booked will provide you with many delightful hours in weeks to come. So in welcoming you I cannot refrain from expressing appreciation to my associates for the widespread interest and co-operation manifested in promoting, building and opening this beautiful playhouse.

Yours very truly,
GEORGE A. BARTLETT,
Managing Director.

A Powerful Array of Stars and Photoplays.

The introduction of METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER'S PICTORIAL PRESENTATIONS to our patrons mark a new epoch in the annals of motion pictures, locally.

Our pictures will include stories selected solely for their picture merit, and while great names are in the list of authors, the "story" will be the principal thing. A glance at the names of the following "Screen Stars" soon to appear in a selected list of productions which have met with the approval of press, public and leading theatres, discloses the entire absence of antiquated "stars" whose days have long since gone by. Mae Murray, John Gilbert, Norma Shearer, Lon Chaney Conrad Nagel, Lew Cody, Eleanor Boardman, Jackie Coogan, Buster Keaton, Renee Adoree, Lillian Gish, Claire Windsor, Mae Busch, Alice Terry, May McAvoy, Ronald Colman, Carmel Myers, Aileen Pringle Marion Davies, Ramon Navarro Douglas Fairbanks, Mary Pickford, Charlie Chaplin, Harold Lloyd, William S. Hart, Rod La Rocque, Vera Reynolds, Lillian Rich and Carrol Dempster show that casts of uniform excellence have been selected for the various photoplays by the producers. In a word, our Pictorial Presentations are being made and enacted by people who are really masters of the art and we offer them for your earnest consideration.

NORMA SHEARER with LEW CODY in HIS SECRETARY
The Romance of a Girl in Business

A HOBART HENLEY Production with WILLARD LOUIS
Story by CAREY WILSON
Scenario by HOPE LORING and LOUIS D. LIGHTON
Directed by HOBART HENLEY

HERE is the true story of a girl who sought romance in business. The most fascinating love adventure you ever thrilled at—with the throbbing world of business as its background.

You'll adore Norma Shearer as the secretary who forsook her plain tailor-mades for the lure of gorgeous gowns when she hit the love trail.

OTHER FEATURES

The Latest Pictorial News Events
Pathe Review
—AND—
Pathe News Weekly

MUSIC THAT HATH CHARM
CAPITOL CONCERT ORCHESTRA
C. C. HEMOLD, Conductor.

An Exceptionally Clever Comedy
ARE HUSBANDS HUMAN?
Featuring Jimmie Findlayson

WILLIMANTIC'S GREATEST Entertainment

4 DAYS
Starting Sunday

Special Atmospheric Presentation

DANIELSON

H. LORNE GREIG, PRESIDENT BUILDING AND LOAN ASSO.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

DANIELSON, Jan. 20—At the annual meeting of the Danielson Building and Loan association the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—President, N. Lorne Greig; vice presidents, James R. Walsh, Walter Anderson, A. M. Thompson, Obadiah Butler; treasurer, Burdette C. Hopkins; assistant treasurer, J. F. Gardner, Jr.; secretary, Clifford H. Starkweather; assistant secretary, Harry E. Back; board of management, W. Irving Bullard, D. F. Jette, John A. Gilbert, L. E. Young, Andrew E. Meech, F. E. Kennedy, D. Fred Kenworthy, Frank T. Preston, Alfred L. Reed, F. R. Bitgood, Harry Brearley, Dr. George M. Burroughs, Charles W. Young, Irving W. Wavis, John T. Ashworth; auditors, Charles E. Austin, Thomas A. Beckett, Miss Lillian Bailey; attorney, Harry E. Back.

The reports show that the association had a very satisfactory year during 1925, and that the assets have increased to $156,000. Applications for loans continue to exceed the revenue of the association. A new series of shares issued this month are being taken, 150 already have been subscribed.

The manner in which the grand list of the town of Killingly has increased in the past decade is a pleasing surprise to large numbers of Killingly's citizens. It is true that it costs more to run the town now than it did ten years ago, but, then, so does steak and coal and wood and a hundred other things cost more than they did back in 1915 and 1916. The fact is that the increase in the assessed valuation of the property of the town has brought increased revenues and will bring even greater revenue when taxes are collected the coming spring.

If one takes time to consider carefully the building operations undertaken here in the past decade and to check the structures erected during that period, one finds that collectively these new buildings would, by themselves make a very sizeable village.

An old wheeze has it that "the town has not changed much." That is far from the truth. Danielson has changed a great deal, if growth can be counted as change, and so have other communities of the town of Killingly. Count the houses built here and at Goodyear and Dayville and elsewhere in Killingly in the past ten or eleven years and count the other buildings—business blocks, etc. There are scores of them. Only those careless of speech say the town has not changed much. The great increase in the assessed valuation of property is proof of that, if there were not other visible and substantial proof.

Wednesday afternoon at her home in Dayville funeral services for Mrs. Hattie E. Randall, widow of Edgar M. Randall, were conducted by Rev. Leonard Richards of St. Alban's church. Burial was in the High street cemetery at Dayville. The bearers were Elbert L. Darbie, Harry Brearley, George Michie and Fred Burnett. Louis E. Kennedy was the funeral director.

For the first time since the cold weather set in the coal strike is becoming in numbers of homes more than just merely something to read about. Here in Danielson large numbers of householders obtained much of the coal they would use this winter during last summer and early fall. The coal strike has meant little to them. Other families bought all the fuel they could store, but not enough to carry to spring. In numbers of cases their coal is now running low. It is not a matter of great worry with them, however, as ample substitutes of one kind and another are available here.

The members of the Danielson Girls' club are to engage in a membership drive. Under Miss Kathryn Brennan and Mary Peters, who are captains, teams are to gather in candidates for membership. Recent annual reports showed the club to have had a very prosperous year. The new officers of the club are: President, Mrs. Hugh Caragher; vice president, Miss Helen Heath; secretary, Miss Doris Vachon; treasurer and financial secretary, Mrs. L. S. Ingalls.

Auditors of Killingly on Wednesday completed a check-up of the accounts of Attorney Louis A. Wolsard as collector of personal taxes, found them balancing to the last cent and turned the records over to Arthur A. Dean, the new collector of personal taxes. Attorney Wolsard made an excellent record in office. During his collectorship he handled 11,000 items. The auditors found his records in such excellent condition that the checkup was a matter of mere routine.

Men who fish through the ice have been making the most of their opportunity to indulge in a popular pastime during the mild weather of this week.

Mrs. E. H. Keach will have the members of Sarah Williams Danielson chapter, D. A. R., at her home for a meeting this (Thursday) afternoon.

Enclosed with forms for renewal of motor vehicle operators' licenses as sent out by the state motor vehicle department are pamphlets giving motorists some very good advice about exercising due care at grade crossings.

Members of the Methodist church and the Community club met in the church vestry Wednesday evening. There was a debate dealing with the subject of federal investigation and control of the anthracite coal industry.

Only a limited amount of hard coal is available in the town of Killingly. Many people are using substitutes, wood being a favorite, for it is available in quantities in this territory.

A few hunters from this section ventured into the North Sterling district during Wednesday, hoping to get the bear that has been seen roaming over that territory.

Prayer and Missions was the subject at this week's meting of the Woman's Board of Missions of the Congregational church with Mrs. A. J. Tillinghast of Academy street.

The assembly hall at the high school will be used for the demonstration of operating service to be given here next Wednesday evening by the S. N. E. Telephone company.

A word to the wise, go to Thomas Dry Goods sales, 10 days 30% off on entire line of stock. Some sale, some stock and some discount.—Adv.

Appreciation sale at Thomas. Our entire line 20% off and few days left. High grade beds. Just few days of Pep. Examine. We can convince you we are the peoples store.—Adv.

North Sterling is much in the news. One reads that Byron Pince, who lives over that way, recently purchased a cow that had an artificial tail.

Arthur C. Trainor of Worcester was a visitor with friends in Danielson on Wednesday.

Coasting has entirely given place with the young people to skating—for the time being. The weather man has seen to that.

Henry Pray of Ballouville will represent Killingly in the county fiddlers' contest that is to be held in Putnam at an early date.

William A. Pendergast of Lowell was a visitor with friends in Danielson on Wednesday.

Newly elected officers of Dorcas Rebekah lodge are to be installed on Friday evening.

Motor coach lines operating through Danielson do not carry a great burden of travel these days. Traffic appears to be at about the low ebb for the winter, as it also is as regards private owned machines, excepting week ends.

Skeptics are always with us. The man who said Wednesday that bear over to North Sterling is nothing more than a black dog" is the same fellow who declared last week that the deer that crashed through the windows at the Love Marble works was nothing more than a guinea-pig.

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Andrews, of Riverview, have made arrangements to leave Danielson and are to make their home in Cambridge, Mass.

Listeners on radio sets here got a kick out of what Vice President Dawes had to say Tuesday night at the Technology dinner in New York. He sounded as though he were firing on all cylinders.

The first session of the town court held in a number of days disposed on Wednesday morning of the case of a man charged with having been intoxicated—30 days in jail.

Danielson appears to be due for an epidemic of old-fashioned dancing, all induced by the fiddlers' contest and the publicity that has gone with it.

Carpenters are now engaged in taking out a partition in the quarters of the Danielson Trust company to enlarge the banking rooms to occupy practically the entire lower floor of the building.

Rev. John F. Quinn, pastor at Windsor, this state, is visiting with his sisters, Misses Katherine and Nellie Quinn, of Maple street.

Winter does not entirely stop long distance motoring. Cars from such distant points as Ohio, Indiana and Maryland have been observed here within the week.

Friends here have received letters from Captain Will Stone, operating the flagship of the Lykes line between New Orleans and Hamburg. Captain Stone formerly lived in Danielson.

The Danielson town basketball team is very good. Thosew ho saw the outfit defeat Jewett Clyt in the town hall Tuesday night were well pleased with the team, one of the best that has represented Danielson years.

In some of the country districts hereabouts highways were practically impassable during Tuesday and part of Wednesday on account of the heavy rain and warm weather. Numbers of motor vehicles became stalled in the mud.

Well appointed tenement to rent, Riverview, and Ford coupe for sale. Christopher Andrews.—Adv.

Lionel Fournier, badly burned on the face and hands a few weeks ago, has practically fully recovered and able to be out again.

If Ruptured Try This Free

Apply It to Any Rupture, Old or Recent, Large or Small and You are on the Road That Has Convinced Thousands.

Sent Free to Prove This

Anyone ruptured, man, woman or child, should write at once to W. S. Rice, 50 E Main St., Adams, N. Y., for a free trial of his wonderful stimulating application. Just put it on the rupture and the muscles begin to tighten; they begin to bind together so that the opening closes naturally and the need of a support or truss or appliance is often done away with. Don't neglect to send for this free trial. Even if your rupture doesn't bother you, what is the use of wearing supports all your life? Why suffer this nuisance? Why run the risk of gangrene and such dangers from a small and innocent little rupture, the kind that has thrown thousands on the operating table? A host of men and women are daily running such risk just because their ruptures do not hurt nor prevent them from getting around. Write at once for this free trial, as it is certainly a wonderful thing and has aided in the cure of ruptures that were as big as a man's two fists. Try and write at once, using the coupon below.

Free for Rupture

W. S. Rice, Inc.,
50 E Main St., Adams, N. Y.

You may send me entirely free a Sample Treatment of your stimulating application for Rupture.

Name .....

Address .....

State .....

How I Got Thin This Easy Way

French Discovery Works Wonders

If you are one of many who has tried everything to reduce without success—if you are suffering from a weak heart, high blood pressure, tired feeling, shortness of breath, all due to obesity, AT LAST YOU CAN BE RELIEVED—

If your figure is such that you are embarrassed to appear in public with your husband or your smart-looking slender friends, you can now entertain new hopes. Perhaps it is your bust, your thighs or your arms that you want to reduce, or maybe only one or two rolls of fat have lately appeared. Whatever your case may be, if you are ten pounds too heavy or one hundred pounds, you owe it to yourself to go today to any good drug store, ask for a package of "SAN-GRI-NA Tablets" (do not accept any substitute, as SAN-GRI-NA is the only thing which ever reduced me, I was a very stubborn case, and I had tried everything else advertised without any success). SAN-GRI-NA is the formula of a French physician, and until you try it, you cannot say that your fat cannot be removed. It is the simplest, easiest and safest way to reduce. Take two small tablets before each meal and watch your fat disappear. Its use should greatly improve your general health and appearance. SAN-GRI-NA is guaranteed absolutely harmless, and positively reduces you or money refunded. Sold at all good drug or department stores or you can send direct to the Scientific Research Laboratories, 1441 Broadway, New York City. On sale at Lee & Osgood's, Dunn's or Morgan's Drug Stores.

THOMPSON

Rev. Frank Fuller, of Putnam, is to preach here Sunday morning for Mr. Livingstone, who is indisposed.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ryan attended the funeral of a relative in Dayville, Wednesday.

At the grange meting Tuesday evening, Mr. Reardon, Mr. Kimball and Mr. Chandler spoke on What the Present Generation Must do to Achieve Success.

Lillian and Henry Amidon, of Westford, called at H. P. Amidon's one day last week.

PUTNAM

PROPOSE ENLARGING PUTNAM TRADE SCHOOL

(Special to The Bulletin.)

PUTNAM, Jan. 20—It has been stated by the town school committee that the State Trade school must relinquish the space that is used in the High school building by students of the Trade school or that an addition will have to be made to the building. A meeting of taxpayers and citizens generally has been called for Friday night in the study room of the high school to consider the matter.

The trade school authorities say that if the town will vote an appropriation to enlarge the trade school they can vacate the high school and will equip and maintain the addition. They propose that 12,000 square feet of floor space be added to the present trade school at an estimated cost of $25,000. This, they say, would give room for the constantly increasing number of students, and that the space vacated in the high school would be all that would be needed there for several years.

The equipment, which would cost $30,000, would be put in by the state and the maintenance would mean the expenditure of approximately $12,000 a year. This would be for salaries for additional instructors, and for other operating expenses, practically all of which would be spent in Putnam. The cost to the town, figuring interest at five per cent on the $25,000 would be $1,250 a year, and the town or its citizens would receive $12,000 a year in return. If an addition is made to the high school, the town, it is said, would have to pay for the cost of erection as well as for the upkeep.

A committee, appointed some weeks ago to look into the proposition is expected to make a report at this meeting.

DEATH OF J. E. TAYLOR IN RICHMOND, VA.

(Special to The Bulletin)

PUTNAM, Jan. 20—J. Eugene Taylor, former business man of Putnam, but for several years past manufacturers agent for furniture, refrigeration, etc., in Chicago, Ill., died Tuesday, in Richmond, Va.

The body will be brought to Putnam Friday for burial in the Grove street cemetery. The services are to be in charge of the local Masonic lodge.

SEEK REVALUATION OF PUTNAM PROPERTY

(Special to The Bulletin.)

PUTNAM, Jan. 20—The town and city officials and committees of the chamber of commerce and Rotary clubs who have been invited by the directors of the chamber of commerce to meet to consider the matter of revaluation of property on a more equitable basis for taxation purposes, expect to hold their first meeting next Wednesday evening.

Mr. deCoudres, president of the chamber of commerce, says that he has found general approval of the project. The Rotary club has selected the following committee: Judge M. H. Geissler, Samuel Reynolds, president of the Citizens National bank, and Walter J. Barrett, a prominent grocer. Mayor Chapdelaine will name a committee of three from the city council before the week is out, and Mr. deCoudres will name three from the chamber of commerce. The town assessors, Ernest B. Kent, Arthur Tourtellotte and Ulric Beausoleil, the members of the board of relief, F. W. Seward, Frank H. Smith and Oscar Dugas and the selectmen, Clarence E. Pierce, William P. Warren and Edward Girard, have all expressed their willingness to meet and confer on this very important proposition. The combined town and city tax rate is 33 mills on the dollars; with prospects of its going higher. One of the assessors recently made the public statement that a portion of the taxable property was down on the grand list at 75 per cent. of its value, a portion at 25 per cent. of its value, and the remainder ranging between the two figures.

Insurance adjusters were here Wednesday on their way to Eastford to estimate the loss caused by the burning of the general store of Archa S. Walker. No satisfactory explanation of the origin of the fire has been found. When Mr. Walker left the store on Monday night he said that the fire in the stove was safely banked. The blaze was seen soon after five o'clock Tuesday morning and gained such headway in a few minutes that it is doubtful if anything could have been saved even if the town had a fire department and water service.

L. Edward Hill of New Haven arrived here to assume his duties as Windham County secretary of the Y. M. C. A. He succeeds John H. Corbett, who is now engaged in selling real estate at Orlando, Florida. For the past few months the work has been looked after by Maurice S. Childs, principal of Woodstock academy.

Mr. Hill has been at the head of one of the larger Hi-Y clubs at New Haven. He has been engaged in Y. M. C. A. work for several years and is well equipped for his new position. One of the important features of this work is the conduct of the Y camp at Woodstock on which several thousands of dollars have been expended, and which is used during the summer by Y. M. C. A. members of three counties, Windham, Tolland and Hartford.

Dr. Catherine Peckham, who fell and broke he rhip Saturday night, at the home of her nephew, Whitman Danielson at Putnam Heights, has been removed to the Day Kimball hospital where she can be given closer medical attention. Dr. Peckham was graduated from the Women's Medical college, of Pennsylvania, in 1884, and practiced her profession for a few years in Boston. More than 30 years ago she came here and made her home with her sister, Mrs. Danielson, and since the latter's death, three years ago, has continued to live there with her niece and nephew, Miss Rosamond Danielson and Whitman Danielson.

At the regular meeting of the Mizpah Rebekah lodge, No. 33, I. O. O. F., the officers for the ensuing year were installed by District Deputy President Lillian R. McGarry and suite. The new district deputy's work was of high order and she was ably assisted by Mrs. James H. McCulloch, as district deputy marshal; Mrs. Lillie Leach, as district deputy secretary; Mrs. William Manson, as district deputy treasurer; Mrs. Ryder of Dorcas lodge, of Danielson, as district deputy warden; and Mrs. Fowle, Dorcas lodge, as district deputy chaplain.

The newly installed officers are: Noble Grand, Mrs. Susan W. Burt; vice grand, Mrs. Ethel Chadwick; secretary, James H. McCulloch; treasurer, Mrs. Gertrude Groves; warden, Miss Mildred Torrey; conductor, Mrs. Rhoda D. Moss; inside guardian, Mrs. Josephine Reeves; outside guardian, James Gifford. R. S. N. G., Mrs. Julia Dowe; L. S. N. G., Miss Chrystabel Gifford; R. S. V. G., Mrs. Mary Tourtelotte; L. S. V. G., Mrs. Pearl Farnham; chaplain, Mrs. Margaret McCulloch; organist, Arthur S. Chadwick.

Herbert A. Johnson, who has been the drill master of the Rebekah guard team, was given a suitable remembrance for his work.

At the annual meeting of the Canadian Athletic club 42 new members were taken in. This makes the membership now 135, the highest it has been since the war. The new officers are: President, Armand J. Brousseau; treasurer, James J. Charron; financial secretray, Aldor Guertin; recording secretary, Ray Lacroix.

At the regular meeting of the Oscar W. Swanson post, American Legion, of North Grosvenordale, the following members were appointed as the committee for welfare work: F. A. Pelletier, Anastasios Naum, Philip L. Duhamel, John E. O'Clare and Victor Blanchard.

At the recent church meeting at East Woodstock, Chester E. May was reelected as moderator; C. H. Conklin, cleark; Arthur G. Morse, treasurer; standing committee, Rev. H. D. Baker; deacons, Dr. Pike and M. B. Morse, Mrs. L. H. Linde, and Mrs. A. G. Morse; missionary committee, Dr. Pike, Mrs. Alton, Mrs. C. E. May and Mrs. Dodge.

Mrs. French, matron of the Woodstock town farm, is a patient at the Day Kimball hospital.

Joseph Vandais of Providence, R. I., has been the guest of relatives in the city.

Charles Lamphere of School street, is enjoying a two weeks visit with relatives at Philadelphia, Pa.

Patrolman John T. Ryan is back on duty, after an absence of several days because of sickness.

A number of members of Cargill Council, K. of C., of Putnam, were in Webster, Wednesday night attending the annual ball of the Webster lodge, which was held at Holden hall. Among those attending were, Grand Knight, Armand Montville, Deputy Grand Knight Michael L. White and Lecturer J. M. Hogan.

The Farmers' Cooperative

NEW GRAIN STORE AT PLAINFIELD

WILL OPEN FOR BUSINESS EVERY WEEK DAY, FROM 7 A. M. TO 6 P. M., STARTING SATURDAY, JAN. 16.

WE HANDLE ONLY FIRST CLASS FEEDS AT THE LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICES. WELCOME!

LOCATED AT NORTH PLAINFIELD NEAR THE CEMETERY.

JEWETT CITY

TWELVE HORSES UNABLE TO PULL BOILER OVER HILL

(Special to The Bulletin.)

JEWETT CITY, Jan. 20—A thirty-ton boiler for the Glasgo Finishing Co., was unloaded at the freight yard Tuesday, Wednesday morning twelve horses and a five ton truck, with a gang of men, started to draw the boiler to Glasgo by way of Hopeville. All day, an effort to get up Hawkins' Hill, known as the Croked Hill, was unavailing. The boiler will have to be tackled up the hill, a few feet at a time, as the horses cannot pull it. Joslyn, of Norwich, is in charge of the work. The steam boiler is three hundred horse power, upright, and when fully equipped, will weigh 64,600 pounds.

Mrs. John J. Mara, of Norwich, was a guest at Mrs. D. F. Finn's, on Wednesday.

Finn's tonight, Jack Holt in James Oliver Curwood's Ancient Highway.—adv.

The following item from the Boston Post, will interest many people in the six-church conference, who came to greatly admire Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Richardson, during their stay in Pachaug:

A friend of the Post writes, with reference to my recent remarks on the Centennial Exposition of 1876, wherein I said that "every bridal couple who could afford it made a honeymoon trip to that exposition. I wonder how many such couples are still both living, among my hearers."

"Here is one such couple, the Rev. John P. Richardson and Sarah, his wife.

"July 12, 1876, were were married at Dunkirk, N. Y., by the bride's father, the Rev. Cornelius D. Brooks, and, early the next morning we started for Philadelphia.

"The Exposition itself was a marvel to us.

"One thing stands out clear above all else and that was the great Corliss engine. How wonderful that a thing so great could move in perfect silence!"

But the Exposition was not all.

"John Wanamaker interested us about as much. His wonderful store, and his wonderful Sunday school, and the Christian orator at the head of both have held a place away up with the Exposition, in our memories, all these years.

"And the old Liberty bell had then and always will have, a place all its own in our affections.

"When July 12 comes and we hold our golden wedding, we shall bless the golden days we spent at the Centennial in Philadelphia."

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson have The Bulletin at their new home in Dorchester, Mass., and thus keep in touch with their former home town.

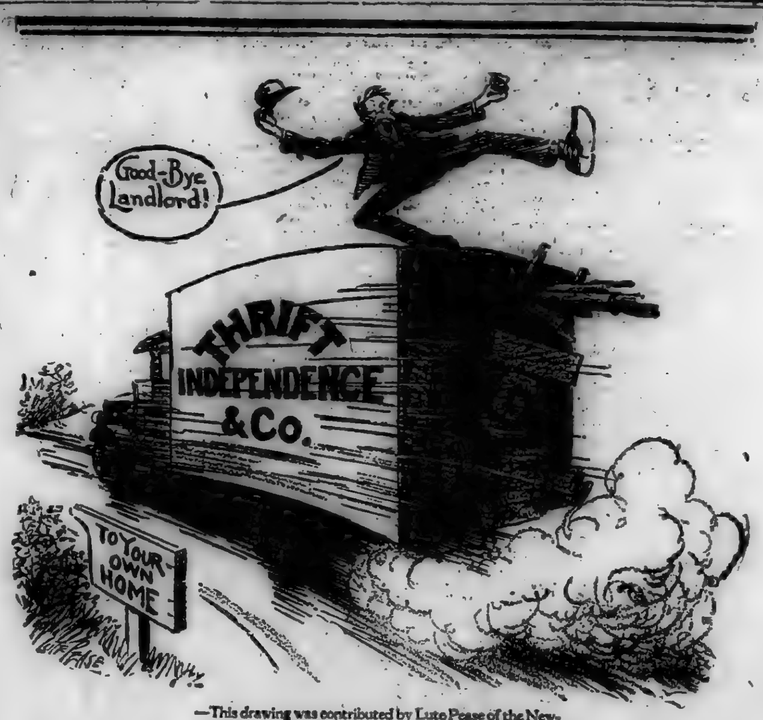
New books at Slater library include the following: The Seven Sleepers, by Francis Beeding; Meadow Lark Basin, by B. M. Bower; Philip Nolan's Friends, by E. E. Hale; Who Killed Cock Robin, by H. Hext; The Iron Horse, by E. C. Mill; One Increasing Purpose, by A. S. M. Hutchinson; A Bush That Burned, by M. B. McClure; Midshipman Easy, by Capt. Marryat. Little Ships, by K. Norris; The Elusive Pimpernel, by Baroness Oecsy; Red Ashes, by M. Pedlar; Confident Morning, by A. S. Pier; Keeper of the Bees, by G. S. Porter; Parade, by Emily Post; Pollyanna's Jewels, by E. L. Smith; The Beauty Prize, by Georgs Weston; Patricia Ellen, by Mary Wiltshire; A Son of His Father, by H. B. Wright; Warning, by P. Wynne; Channing Comes Through, by C. A. Seltzer; The Boarder up at Em's, by A. Terhune; Christina Alberta's Father, by H. G. Wells; Life and Letters of Walter Page, (3rd Vol.); South America, Observations and Impressions, by James Bryce; History of the Latin American Nations, by W. S. Robertson.

A runaway horse was stopped by William LaRue on Main street Wednesday afternoon. Ernest Loranger led the animal to its owner down on Main street.

Hector Sicilleand received word Wednesday morning, of the death of two aunts, the Duchess De Peau Delhaige and Mrs. Hdolph Delhaige, who died in Bruxelle, Belgium, on January 11th.

Miss Georgiana Beckwith, of Stafford Springs, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Tracy.

James C. Jennings, who has been a guest of his brother, Dr. G. H. Jennings, for five months, is now at the Masonic home in Wallingford.



—This drawing was contributed by Lute Pease of the Newark Evening News to the cause of Success and Happiness.

When The Van Pulls Out For Your Very Own Home

One thing is almost certain when you buy a home. A bank, a building and loan association or some other responsible financing organization has helped you realize a life dream.

Few homes are entirely paid for when they are bought. This is one time when going into debt is a good plan. Happy, contented men and women are buying homes, sacrificing for homes, paying for homes month by month—becoming better citizens by assuming property obligations.

No honest effort is too hard when you buy a home of your own.

Today is Own Your Home Day—the fifth day of National Thrift Week for Success and Happiness.

ANDOVER

The dance in the town hall Saturday night, given by Cecil Smith, was well attended.

Tony Nignone's family arrived here at his home Sunday from Italy, joining him after a number of years trying to get to this country.

The Benevolent Society is to meet with Mrs. Emily Cobb Thursday afternoon.

There was a public whist in the town hall, Wednesday evening. The proceeds will be used to buy new chairs for the hall.

Mrs. Janet Smith who is with relatives in West Hartford, was at her home for a short time Tuesday.

Several local young people attended the basketball games at Storrs Saturday.

Electric lights were all used for the first time in the Congregational church Sunday night.

The grange held its meeting Monday night and installed officers for the coming year, Mrs. Laura G. Loomis of Manchester, acting as installing officer. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

ROAD SOCIETY

Gilbert Billings has returned to Versailles, after being at home over the week-end.

Mrs. Seth N. Williams and Miss Grace D. Wheeler were recent callers in Westerly, to see their uncle, Charles S. Noyes, who is in his 92nd year, yet looking well and going about on pleasant days.

The grange meeting will be held in the church parlors Wednesday evening when the third and fourth degrees will be conferred upon a class of 25 by the degree team of Groton, Conn. after which a substantial supper will be served.

A birthday surprise party was given Mrs. Walter Morgan last Friday evening. Games were played and refreshments served.

Miss Carrie Cunningham, of West Mystic, is staying with Mrs. Emmeline Allyn, who has been having a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism.

Fernando Wheeler, Noyes Palmer and others in this vicinity, have been cutting ice during the past cold weather.

Mrs. M. Stanton Gates, of Pequotsepos, is in New York, for a stay of some weeks.

Mrs. S. R. Percy, who is with her brother, Allen W. Harvey and wife, had a bad fall recently and Drs. Maine of North Stonington, and Sullivan, of New London, have been in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fowler, of Westfield, Mass., spent Sunday with Mrs. Emmeline Allen, at her home in Quiambaug.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Langworthy and daughter, of Westerly, and Henry Mell, of Mystic, visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mell, on Sunday.

SOUTH WILLINGTON

Mrs. E. J. Mathews attended the meeting of the general cabinet of the State Council of Religious Education, at Hartford, last week.

The funeral of Adfer Potter took place from the Memorial church last Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Burial was in the Willington Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Lillian Smith, who has been quite ill with bronchitis, is slowly improving.

Miss Annie Farra and Arnold Haskell were united in marriage last Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at St Joseph's church, Willimantic, by the Rev. Father Quinn.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Snow, of Palm Beach, Florida, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Snow's parents, Mr. and Mrs F. Neidweld.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pokorski returned home last week, after spending three weeks at the home of Mr. Pokorski's parents, at Chicago, Illinois.

Mrs. E. J. Mathews was a recent guest of Mr and Mrs. George Wright, of Hartford.

Kind words never die except when killed by ingratitude.

UNUSUAL Relief

PERTUSSIN not only soothes a cough, it also helps to clear the air passages from germ-laden mucus which is usually the cause of the irritation. The relief it brings is more than temporary—as it helps Nature to bring about a speedy recovery.

Its freedom from narcotics, chloroform or any harmful drug—as well as its pleasant taste—have made PERTUSSIN the ideal cough remedy.

It has been well known to physicians and pharmacists for more than twenty years and is sold by all druggists in large and small bottles.

PERTUSSIN Safe for Every Cough

COLUMBIA

The engagement is announced of Miss Anna Schriefer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Schriefer, to Gerhard Blume, of New Rochelle, N. Y.

The old fashioned dance held at Bascom hall, Friday evening, was a great success. It is planned to hold another in two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George Champlin, who are living in Bristol this winter, were in Columbia, visiting relatives, Sunday.

The Sunday morning service at the Congregational church was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Victor Walz. His subject was "Love Leads to the Cross." The Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening, was led by Miss Marion Clough, and her subject was "Great Ideas That Have Spurred People to Action."

Erwin Collins filled his ice houses Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson, of Norwich, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Holmes.

NORTH LYME

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hewitt, of Groton were Sunday visitors at W. M. Sisson's.

Miss Ethel Maynard is in company with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Maynard, of Salem, attended a meeting of Pythian Sisters in Hartford last Thursday evening.

Unpaid bills are sometimes the source of a poet's best efforts.

PAIN, NEURITIS, ACHING JOINTS

"Heet" Relieves Instantly

With applicator attached to cork, just brush "Heet" over the pain area, whether in hands, elbows, shoulders, feet, knees, legs, back, neck or body. Instantly you feel this harmless, glorious, penetrating heat draw the pain, soreness and stiffness right out of the aching or swollen joint, muscle or nerve. Besides, "Heet" scatters the congestion and establishes a cure.

"Heet" contains two soothing, penetrating ingredients, too expensive to use in ordinary liniments or analgesics. "Heet" is a clean, pleasant liquid; doesn't stain, blister or irritate the skin and costs only 60 cents at any drug store.

1796 1926

Norwich Bulletin and Courier

130 YEARS OLD

Printed every day in the year except Sunday

Subscription price 12c a week; 60c a month $6.00 a year

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich Conn as second-class matter

Telephone Calls:

Bulletin Business Office 480
Bulletin Editorial Rooms, 35-2.
Bulletin Job Room 35-3

Willimantic Office 854 Main St. Telephone 1121-2

Norwich, Thursday, Jan. 21, 1926

Member of The Associated Press

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

All rights of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

Daily Average Circulation

WEEK ENDING JAN. 16, 1926:

12,720

THE HOUSE APPROVES

What must be regarded as a pretty good expression of sentiment is the action by the lower house of congress upon the request of the president for an appropriation of $50,000 to pay the expenses of participation in the conference on disarmament to be held at Geneva. With favorable action taken by the house concerning the expense there goes with approval of the participation in the conference.

In seeking the appropriation President Coolidge pointed out that this has nothing to do with participation in any subsequent conference. The gathering at which this government will be represented with other nations is for the purpose of considering what will be discussed when the second or main conference is actually held. The preliminary gathering is for the purpose of settling the program by deciding what subjects are to be considered when disarmament actually comes up for discussion and what are not, what limits are to be fixed, if any, and to do whatever is possible to open the way for a full, free and consrtuctive consideration of the various phases of the question.

Because the house has acted promptly and with only one dissenting vote does not necessarily mean that the senate will do likewise, although there is good enough reason why it should. It is a case where our assistance is being asked in connection with a matter in which we have demonstrated our interest. We have taken a leading part in the reduction of armies, for we are now practically down to the bone when it comes to our land forces. But with such an important change being contemplated it is inevitable that other countries should be interested in our attitude and our representation at the conference to plan the program shows that we are interested and ready to help in the good cause as far as possible. Participation will at least indicate that we are certainly not disposed to hinder a good movement.

COURT MARTIAL SUSTAINED

Referred to the war department, the verdict of the army court, which heard the case against Colonel William Mitchell has been sustained. It has been found that the court martial was properly conducted and that the penalty imposed was within its authority. The decision is accepted without change and the matter now goes to the president for such action as he may desire to take.

The action by the war department was no different than expected. There was no reason to suppose that it would upset the court martial unless it was found that it had exceeded its rights or imposed an excessive punishment. By sustaining the verdict of guilty and the sentence as imposed the war department indicates that Mitchell has received no more than he should have expected to get. It is at least unwilling to make any change in the penalty, and unless the president decides to act the former flying general must spend the next five years without pay and outside of active service. This doesn't mean that he has been dropped from the army, but as long as he remains under the sentence he must continue to be inactive armywise.

It is entirely possible for him to resign from the army, which would free him from the restrictions which surround an army officer, and which restrictions continue during his suspension. Such a course was open to him at the time he decided to disregard rules and make wild statements. Had he done that and severed all connection with the army there would have been no chance for the court martial. He would then have been beyond its reach. He chose to do otherwise however. He snapped his fingers at restrictions and was alone responsible for the position in which he now finds himself.

The loss of pay will not bother him, since he is reputed to be a man of wealth. The inactivity under restrictions is what may prove to be the real punishment for five years of it for one who is decidedly opposed to restrictions when they apply to him means a long time.

WOOD AND STEEL CARS

From time to time New York is aroused because of accidents and fatalities on its elevated system. The cause is not always the same but the demand for safety is quite the same as on the railroad systems.

Investigations have not as yet been completed concerning the recent rear end collision, which resulted in the death of one child and the injury of many others. According to the facts it appears that a train of wood and steel cars crashed into a steel train with the result that all the injuries were caured to passengers on the wooden cars, which it is claimed had steel frames. This of course results in a cry for the removal of all wooden cars and their replacement by steel at once, the feeling being that if both trains had been of steel there would have been less serious results inasmuch as those in the steel train were uninjured.

This is not a new cry since it invariably accompanies all accidents on the elevated lines, even though it is maintained by the officials that such a change would call for an outlay of $50,000,000 for new cars and $40,000,000 for the strengthening of the elevated structure in order to sustain the increased weight.

Until the investigators determine where the cause of the wreck lies judgment will have to be withheld but from the testimony of passengers on the wrecked train to the effect that someone was riding on the platform with the motorman and that they were conversing just previous to the wreck indicates that too little care may have been used in controlling the train of wooden cars until it was too late to stop them in time to avoid the collision. If such proves to be the cause it will be another one of those instances of the failure of the human agent, and where safety would have prevailed so far as equipment was concerned had the one who was operating the car been alive to his responsibilities. When such a condition prevails on the front platform it makes little difference whether the cars are of wood or steel as far as accidents are concerned. The steel cars, however, afford much greater protection to the passengers in case of trouble.

MERIDEN'S SCHOOL DANCES

There is an interesting case which has developed in Meriden through the resignation of Dr. David Gibbs, superintendent of schools. Dr. Gibbs has based his resignation upon the fact that the board of education has proceeded to overstep a rule which left certain matters to the judgment of the superintendent. In this instance the board has gone against the judgment of the superintendent concerning the holding of high school dances. They were formerly held but conditions became so bad that they were stopped. Now the board proposed to revive them again under more careful supervision.

Dr. Gibbs not only regards this as a mistake but will not continue to retain his office under such conditions. His experience in the past with such dances convinces him that they create dangerous conditions. He intimates that liquor is brought to such dances and maintains that much of the danger develops after the dances are over. In support of this he tells about phone calls received at two o'clock in the morning from parents asking where their daughters were, when the dances had closed a long time previous.

When D. Gibbs declares that he has spent his life working for the welfare of young people and that he doesn't intend to depart from such an attitude now he strongly presents his convictions concerning conditions which some apparently regard less lightly. It will be interesting to note what reaction his statements and attitude have upon the parents of Meriden. If it is solely the question of conditions surrounding the high school which actuates him Meriden cannot afford to lose his services and should sit up and take notice.

DEALING WITH CRIMINALS

In connection with his efforts to get greater respect for law in Massachusetts through a proper functioning of the officials and courts and the imposition of adequate sentences Motor Registrar Goodwin of the Bay State has received certain opposition from Sanford Bates, state commissioner of correction.

Mr. Bates doesn't stand for encouraging crime and declares he is as anxious to stop crime and protect society as Mr. Goodwin but he believes that most criminals should be treated as patients suffering from a disease and not as criminals.

It is because there has been too much of the Bates method of dealing leniently with some of the worse of law breakers that Mr. Goodwin has been prompted to take the position he has. Too many officials from the police official to the parole board seem to believe it is their special duty to be the doctor in many cases. The result is that the respect for law grows less and less.

In this connection it is interesting to note that the Rhode Island prison psychiatrist says "The average criminal is not born—he is made. * * * He is made negatively in the home and positively outside of it. * * * These young criminals have been talked at for years and they know in substance the laws they are breaking as well as the judges who sentences them."

This doctor believes that the parents are due for punishment more than their children in many instances, but when he says they know the substance of the laws they are breaking he understands that their actions are deliberate in so doing and that deliberateness would seem to be increased according to the amount of leniency and sentimentality displayed concerning their acts.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The ice crop has shown a sudden tendency to turn to water.

The snow and ice come and go much like the cabinets of foreign countries.

If you can't be thrifty be as thrifty as you can. It is a fine bit of self protection.

The milder the winter the greater will be the carryover of the fuel supply now in the cellar.

Getting a cabinet in Germany seems to encounter about as many difficulties as it does in France.

If you prepare your smoked glass now you may be ready for the 1932 eclipse if you don't forget where you put it.

It must make President Lewis of the coal miners angry to think that he hasn't a corner on anthracite substitutes.

Some people who go into a restaurant expect an overcoat to look out for itself regardless of the size of the other fellow.

The man on the corner says: Make the most of a mild January. If there is any worrying to be done about what's to come, wait until it gets here.

LUMMOX

Somebody in the crowd—it must have been an admirer of Fanny Hurst—dubbed her "Lummox," and the name described her exactly. Big, overgrown, awkward, she moved always at the same slow gait.

The girls were usually sitting on the porch when she went home from work, plodding down the walk in the ugliest dress imaginable, a dingy brown gingham, high neck, long sleeves and a long skirt that "hung" at the sides.

"If I looked like that huge sister-to-the-ox I'd jump into the river," remarked Aileen, whose simple but expensive blue linen was—well, you know—just what Aileen would wear.

"If she'd cut about nine inches off that skirt, and wear a brassiere, and stand up straight, and not try to make each step exactly three feet long, it'd help some," added Rosemary, who made an asset of her own charming plumpness.

"You can't make some people over," insisted Josephine. "They're born that way. What does she care, now, about the better things of life—are, music, literature?"

"She probably intends to teach out in the sticks next winter, and needs summer school credits," suggested Aileen. "I pity the kids. Here comes Harold. Cover up your knees, Rosemary."

The young women didn't find out much about Lummox. Aileen said she saw her going down the alley to the back door of the Blue Bowl, and they supposed she cooked. When the sandwiches were two inches thick they ascribed the cutting to Lummox, and when a heavy piece of china crashed to the kitchen floor they said Lummox was playing ninepins.

One night Adelaide was sitting in the porch swing when a storm came up. The rain simply poured for a few minutes, and Lummox stepped up on the porch.

"Too bad it had to rain," Adelaide said perfunctorily.

"Yes."

"But it will clear up pretty soon."

"Yes."

"Won't you sit down and wait till it stops?"

She sat down in the swing. For five minutes they said nothing, while the rain poured. Then, "Are you the girl who plays?" she asked.

"No, that's Aileen. She can play, but she's careless."

"Yes. Sometimes when she plays the 'La Paloma' I walk slow, to hear it all, and then there is a wrong note, and I want to cry. It makes me hurt so."

"You must like music. Will you play for your students next winter?"

"I can't play the piano. I pick chickens in the winter time, Packing house."

"Oh."

"I can't teach yet. No high school—I'll get it by going to summer school."

Four years of high school, to be made up in college prep, three months at a time!

The rain ceased abruptly, and as abruptly Lummox left, plodding down the wet walk.

Adelaide went inside. Aileen was lying on the davenport, near the window.

"Why don't you always play so beautifully, Aileen?" asked Rosemary. "I didn't want to interrupt 'La Paloma,' or I would have called you out. Lummox took her own slow time this evening. Had her mind on something terribly important, too. Wouldn't look at us for a thousand dollars."

"No?" Aileen's voice was as cool as the ink of ice in a thin glass. "Why should she? Cover up your knees, Harold's coming."—Chicago News.

Stories That Recall Others

Pretty Soft, Pretty Soft

He was a faithful carrier who, when delivering mail the day preceding Christmas, received greetings from everyone.

However he had one patron he regarded as a grouch, one he was never able to satisfy. As the carrier handed him a letter he wondered whether "old boy blue" was going to thaw out, as he seemed eager to know whether there would be any delivery next day.

When the letter carrier said: "Not this year on Christmas," the grouch settled back in his chair and replied: "And you get paid just the same? Pretty soft! I say, pretty soft."

He'll Know Better

Sam was a village character but he doesn't appreciate the joke that was played on him New Year's morning early. He had gone rather deeply into his cups in welcoming the New Year and he was approached by a man in plain clothes who claimed to be the constable.

"You'll appear before Justice X tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock," the supposed officer said. "And I will hold your overcoat as bail." Sam appeared as agreed to the surprise of the justice. No constable appeared and there was no overcoat. He was sure his experience wasn't a dream but it was some time before he regained his much needed coat.

Today's Anniversaries

1824—Gen. Thomas J. (Stonewall) Jackson, the great military leader of the Confederacy, born at Clarksburg, Va. Died at Guiney's Station, Va., May 10, 1863.

1831—Charter granted for the Paterson & Hudson railroad, now part of the Erie railroad system.

1856—Attack of the Indians on Seattle.

1876—Fourteen killed in two collisions on the Great Northern Railway of England.

1887—Henry M. Stanley left England for Zanzibar to head expedition to relieve Emin Pasha, governor of the equatorial province of Egypt.

1901—Elisha Gray, famous for his electrical inventions, died at Newtonville, Mass. Born at Barnesville, O., Aug. 2, 1835.

1910—Russia and Japan declined to participate in the Knox plan to neutralize the Manchurian railroads.

1924—Lee Christmas, said to have been the original of Richard Harding Davis' "Soldier of Fortune," died in New Orleans. Born in Louisiana in 1863.

1925—Girl students at Vassar college petitioned for a smoking-room.

IN THE PUBLIC EYE

The announcement from London that Sir Ronald Lindsay is to succeed Lord D'Abernon in the important post of British ambassador to Germany, is of particular interest to Americans since Sir Ronald married an American girl, Miss Martha Cameron, daughter of the late J. Don Cameron, who was United States senator from Pennsylvania. Sir Ronald is a younger son of the twenty-sixth earl of Crawford, and a member of one of the oldest and most historic of the great houses of the Scotch nobility. He has had a long and varied career in the British foreign service, beginning in 1898 with his appointment as attache to the embassy in St. Petersburg. From 1905 to 1907 he was second secretary of the British mission at Washington, under Sir Mortimer Durand. He has been stationed at one time or another in most of the capitals of Europe and has also had much experience in the foreign office in London.

Today's Birthdays

James J. Storrow, Boston banker, president of the Boy Scouts of America, born in Boston, 63 years ago today.

Harriet Backer, one of the greatest of woman painters, born in Holmestrand, Norway, 61 years ago today.

Rt. Rev. Frank W. Sterrett, coadjutor bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Bethlehem, Pa., born at Middleport, N. Y., 41 years ago today.

Oscar E. Bradfute, for several years head of the American Farm Bureau federation, born near Cedarville, O., 64 years ago today.

Ralph B. Howell, United States senator from Nebraska, born at Adrian Mich., 63 years ago today.

MAINLY ABOUT PEOPLE

For fifty years Sir William Soulsby has been secretary to London's lord mayors.

Pope Pius XI. usually confines his breakfast to a small cup of coffee and a dry biscuit, which he dips into the coffee.

Maj. Gen. B. Frank Cheatham, the new quartermaster-general of the U. S. Army, is 58 years old and a native of Tennessee.

Thomas A. Edison had only two months of regular schooling in his youth. Whatever else he knew as a boy he learned from his mother.

Eric Liddell, the Scottish athlete who so splendidly represented Britain in the last Olympic games, is now doing missionary work in China.

The Rt. Rev. Charles H. Brent, first Episcopal bishop of the Philippines and now bishop of Buffalo, will celebrate his episcopal silver jubilee this year.

Father Albert Negahnquet, an assistant priest at St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Cathedral in Oklahoma City, is the only full-blooded Indian priest in the world.

Gen. J. Warren Keifer, who was speaker of the U. S. House of Representatives in the 47th congress, is soon to celebrate his 90th birthday anniversary at his home in Springfield, O.

Richard V. Taylor, of Alabama, the new member of the U. S. Interstate Commerce Commission, comes to the duties of his new post with the advantage of 42 years of practical experience as a railroad man.

Once a newsboy in Montreal, Sir Edward M. Edgar, whose name has been prominent in the news of late, had risen to be head of companies, shipbuilding concerns, and oil corporations involving many millions of dollars before he was forty years of age.

On his recent Australian tour Sir Harry Lauder, the famous Scotch comedian, visited a small place and remarked to the mayor that nearly all the town officials were Scotsmen. "Yes," replied the mayor, gloomily, "but the main pest out here is rabbits."

William Ingram, who lost his sight at the age of six, is the first blind solicitor in Wales. Only twenty-six years old, Mr. Ingram has just passed his final examination in law, for which he studied no fewer than 1,600 volumes, nearly all of which were read to him.

The Rt. Hon. Alexander Montgomery Carlisle, who numbers among his personal acquaintances nearly all of the rulers and other leading men of Europe, rose from the position of apprentice to executive head of the great Belfast shipbuilding firm of Harland and Wolff. Although he is seventy-one years of age, he never has worn an overcoat.

From Small Beginnings

Sir Hugh Allan, a Great Canadian

Everyone knows the Allan Line of steamers that plies across the Atlantic, the boats that link Canada with the mother country. A fleet of magnificent modern steamers unites the new world and the old as though a friendly hand had reached out across the waves. It was a daring dream to bring Canada and the old world together, a dream worthy of the young new world of the north. That dream was first visioned by Hugh Allan, who came out to Canada when only a boy, hoping to make his fortune in the land of forest and snow. He not only made his own fortune but he made the fortune of Canada and of the world as well.

Hugh Allan was less than 16 when he stood on the boat that was to take him to America. He thought of the home that he had left behind him certainly for many years if not forever. Principally, however, he thought of the unknown America toward which he was sailing. It was then 1826. Quebec and Montreal were old-established cities, and beyond them were the settlements that dated back to the old French days, the rest was wild forest, unexplored, desolate, filled with beasts beset with fierce storms, covered with sheets of ice and snow for much of the year, and inhabited by roaming bands of Indians. To life in such a land that gave promise with both city and wilderness, the boy looked ahead eagerly.

The slender young clerk would have been aghast if he could have looked into the future and seen the work he was to do—planning and helping to bring about the great Canadian Pacific Railroad that reaches across the continent; opening up vast wheat lands to feed the world, building a great line of steamers that reached back to the old world; everywhere doing a work for Canada such as few other men had ever done before, bringing Canada into touch with the markets of the world. All that Hugh Allan accomplished before he died in 1832, at the age of 72. He was not plain "Hugh Allan" when he died for he had been raised to Knighthood for the untold services that he had performed for the land of his adoption. As a young clerk he had worked hard. With Scotch thrift he had used his money wisely. He entered business on his own account buying and selling on commission. Then, because his business led him to such an interest, he took steps to bring about better transportation of goods. He became a builder of ships and a planner of railroads. Just when his prosperity was in the ascendant, war came and he risked everything as a volunteer soldier. Once again he returned to his work, and was able to pick it up where he had put it down when he went to fight for his country. Thus, from his first day in Canada, Hugh Allan fought and worked, both for himself and for the land. He made others prosperous and he made himself prosperous. Canada did well to recognize his merit.

Thames Has Double Ebb

It is a rare thing that an interesting happening entirely escapes the eye of the press, but last week such an event was unrecorded: London river, the river of the empire, enjoyed a double ebb and flow of its tide and no one said a word about it. Such a manifestation is certainly a curious one and not always explainable. But before the Thames was embanked, its vagaries in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries were pretty frequent, for in 1658 it ebbed and flowed twice in three hours, and in 1662 three times in four hours—a sergeant major's allowance which has never been surpassed. And some old chronicler has left an account of the quite unprecedented freakishness of London river one winter day in 1641. "I wonder," he confesses, "that, all things considered, the oldest man never saw or heard the like."—Manchester Guardian.

Black Hawk Cave Found.

A new cave, believed to be even larger than either Crystal Cave or Wind Cave in the Black Hills, has been discovered on the ranch of W. H. Dardit, near Black Hawk, South Dakota, and now is being explored and platted. The cave is one-half mile west of the Custer Battlefield and Coast-to-Coast Highway; six miles northwest of Rapid City.

Wise moonshiners know when to keep still.

ZENITH RADIO
LONG DISTANCE
Selectivity

ZENITH gets the station you want—when you want it—without interference!

Our challenge: More stations in a given length of time, clearly and with volume, than can be got with any other receiving set on the market.

Call this evening for a demonstration.

Zenith—the exclusive choice of MacMillan for his North Polar Expeditions

ONIEL ELECTRIC CO.
3-15 Franklin St. Phone 86
Zewith Gets The Station
Costs More—but Does More!

One in White and One in Black.

Though you be black or you be white
The outside doesn't count a mite.
—Old Mother Nature.

What Old Mother Nature means is that it is what is inside, and not your appearance, which really counts, and she is quite right, too. Just take Shadow the Weasel in his winter coat of pure white and Black Pussy, Farmer Brown's cat, in a coat of pure black. Those two coats are as unlike as two coats possibly can be, but Shadow hunting for a Mouse and Black Pussy hunting for a Mouse are very much alike. So far as the Mouse is concerned it doesn't make the least bit of difference to him which catches him.

You will remember that Shadow had started to climb the tree in which Chatterer the Red Squirrel had been making fun of Prickly Porky the Porcupine. Chatterer had made a desperate leap to another tree. It had made Shadow grin. It always makes him grin to see other people afraid of him. Shadow kept on up for a look at Prickly Porky. He had no intention of attacking Prickly Porky. He knew all about the thousand little spears that Prickly Porky keeps hidden in his coat. So he took care not to get too near. He climbed over in front of Prickly Porky, arched his back and spat in Prickly Porky's face. Prickly Porky paid no attention to him whatever, but went right on with his eating just as if no one was about. Once more Shadow snarled and spat, then ran down the tree and continued on his way.

Presently Shadow came to the edge of the Green Forest where the Old Orchard begins. Along one side of the Old Orchard is a stone wall. Shadow ran along this stone wall, popping in and out between the stones. He rather hoped he might find some one hiding in there. But he didn't find any one hiding in there and so he began hurrying a little. He was bounding along when suddenly he almost ran into somebody in black. It was Black Pussy. Yes, sir, it was Black Pussy.

Now Black Pussy didn't see Shadow until after Shadow saw her. In fact, she really didn't see Shadow at all at first. Shadow was so white that against the white snow Black Pussy failed to see anything but the moving black tip of Shadow's tail. She gathered her feet under her and sprang. But as Black Pussy sprang Shadow sprang. His spring was to one side. Black Pussy had sprung at Shadow's black tail and of course she missed it. You should have heard Shadow spit and snarl. You would have thought that he felt himself to be quite as big as Black Pussy and trying to pick a fight. He told Black Pussy just what he thought of her. They were not nice things he said. Black Pussy did her best to catch him, but Shadow dodged in and out between the stones of that old wall and disappeared and reappeared so fast that Black Pussy must have thought she saw two or three Shadows instead of one.

At last, having told Black Pussy just what he thought of her, Shadow dodged out of sight and Black Pussy didn't see him again. That was because when he came up on top of the old stone wall again he was too far away for Black Pussy to see him.

"Chickens," said Shadow to himself. "It has just come to me what I want for breakfast." And he headed straight for Farmer Brown's henhouse.

(Copyright, 1926, by T. W. Burgess.)

The next story: "The Boldness of Shadow."

He climbed over in front of Prickly Porky

SAVE HIGH THIS A DUSE EGRET
GUN INHALE AMY
ON SCARED AX ITS EVEN FOR STUMPIES FARCE
L CURE PUCE A
A STUM TRIG C
WROTE SO SLOTH
ANY PAVE ENE IS CAMERA AT THE CYPRUS SLY
E SUPE PALI P
MOSS EXIT AXLE

©THE INTERNATIONAL SYNDICATE.

©Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

Hall's Catarrh Medicine has been successful in the treatment of Catarrh for over forty years. Also as a Blood Purifier it gives wonderful results. All Druggists.
F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio

Why BLONDE HAIR Needs a Special Shampoo!

BLONDEX, new shampoo for blondes only, prevents light hair from darkening and restores true golden beauty to faded discolored hair. Not a dye. Leaves hair soft, silky and fluffy. Get it at all good drug and department stores.

BLONDEX
The Blonde Hair Shampoo

CHILDREN NO LONGER NEED TAKE COD LIVER OIL FOR A BAD COUGH!

How you hated the fishy taste and smell of cod liver oil when you were a youngster! Yet your parents insisted upon your taking it to break up a severe cough or cold—for they knew of nothing better, or even equally as good.

Today, however, as a parent, you are not faced with the unpleasantness of trying to get cod liver oil down your little boy's or girl's throat. For there is a remedy in general use that is palatable, easy-to-take and even more efficacious in most cases than cod liver oil in the treatment of obstinate, deep-seated coughs.

ALLEN'S MULSICOF
(Formerly Called Allen's Lung Healer)

—is an emulsion free from cod liver oil, pleasant to take and perfectly safe and harmless for the smallest child. It puts a distressing cough to flight in short time, penetrating through the air passages of the throat and lungs, loosening the phlegm and healing the sore and inflamed tissues.

Generous sized bottles for 60c and $1.00. Most all New England druggists have it in stock. Made by H. J. Allen Co., Lynn, Mass.
Stop that tickle—ALLEN'S BRONCHO THROAT TABS—25c.

A Dependable Baking Powder that never spoils a baking. It is so easy to work with that you need not be an expert cook to make good, nourishing, delicious hot breads, cakes, etc., if you use

RUMFORD
THE WHOLESOME
BAKING POWDER

Flavor it does not Affect—Because Proportions are Correct.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Company, Atlanta Ga. (adv.)

BEAUTIFY IT WITH

"DIAMOND DYES"

Just Dip to Tint or Boil to Dye

Each 15-cent package contains directions so simple any woman can tint soft, delicate shades or dye rich, permanent colors in lingerie silks, ribbons, skirts, waists, dresses, coats, stockings, sweaters, draperies, coverings, hangings—everything!

Buy Diamond Dyes—no other kind—and tell your druggist whether the material you wish to color is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton or mixed goods.

Pile Sufferers

Can You Answer These Questions?

Do you know why ointments do not give you quick and lasting relief?

Why cutting and operations fail?

Do you know the cause of piles is internal?

That there is a stagnation of blood in the lower bowel?

Do you know that there is a harmless internal remedy discovered by Dr. Leonhardt and known as HEM-ROID, now sold by Lee & Osgood Co. and druggists everywhere, that is guaranteed?

HEM-ROID banishes piles by removing the cause, by freeing blood circulation in the lower bowel. This simple home treatment has an almost unbelievable record for sure, safe and lasting relief to thousands of pile sick sufferers, and saves the needless pain and expense of an operation. Don't delay. Try HEM-ROID today. It will do the same for you.

SCHOOL OF NURSING

The school of nursing connected with the W. W. Backus Hospital, Norwich, Conn., is now registering applicants for the February classes. This school is registered in Connecticut and the course of instruction is two years and four months given in a general hospital of 90 beds. Students must be graduates of grammar school and have one year of high school work. Students have the advantage of a new residence for nurses where every comfort and convenience is afforded them. For circular of information address Supt. of the Training School.

ICE SKATES

With or Without Shoes.

KEEN KUTTER

AXES

With or Without Handles.

THE HOUSEHOLD

Bulletin Bldg. 74 Franklin Street.

GAS ON STOMACH MADE MRS. COOK NERVOUS

"For years I had gas on the stomach and was nervous. Adlerika has done more good than anything." (signed) Lela Cook. ONE spoonful Adlerika removes GAS and often brings surprising relief to the stomach. Stops that full, bloated feeling. Don't waste time with pills or tablets but let Adlerika give your bowels a REAL cleansing, bringing out matter you never thought was in your system!—Engler's Broadway Pharmacy, Corner Broadway and Main, in Taftville at Benoit's Pharmacy.

SORE THROAT

Gargle with warm salt water—then apply over throat—

VICKS VAPORUB

Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

MARRIED

ROGERS-PENDLETON—At Norwich Town, Jan. 20th, 1926, by Rev. James B. Aldrich, John Morgan Rogers, of Wauwecus Hill and Miss Dorothy Josephine Pendleton, of 43 Church street, Norwich.

DIED

DE GENERO—In Norwich, Jan. 20, 1926, Samuel De Genero, aged 63 years.

Notice of funeral hereafter.

BORN

MERRITT—In Andover, Conn., a daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Merritt.

GREEN—In Norwich, Jan. 18, 1926, a son, to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Green, 328 Main street.

Norwich, Thursday, Jan. 21, 1926

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 5.19 this evening.

New London has a doll hospital, where dolls are repaired and missing parts supplied.

Over half an hour has been added to the day's length, which is now 9 hours, 37 minutes.

Mrs. Emily Gillette, of Dayville, who has been seriously ill since New Year's, is showing improvement.

Don't forget the $3.95 and $14.95 dress sale starts this morning at Mandell's.—adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Haig Iskiyan of Hampton, are to be at home to the townspeople this (Thursday) afternoon.

As the moon quartered Wednesday, the weather sharps did not like the omen of heavy frost in the early morning.

At Saybrook Point work on the south bulkhead at Fenwick has been temporarily discontinued, owing to the high tides.

Mild weather has spurred several owners of cottage property to visit their homes at the shore for mid-winter inspection.

Mrs. Arthur Dewberry of Stamford, Conn., has been spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Kenyon at Tomaquag.

An East Killingly correspondent states that Mrs. Elmer French of Malden, spent a part of last week with her sister, Mrs. H. S. Place.

Wednesday evening the orchestra of the Central Baptist Sunday school held a meeting with Earle Swan, 258 West Main street.

Postmasters are receiving from Washington a new issue of circulars describing in detail the handling of parcel post and fourth class matter.

The Parish Aid society of Bishop Seabury Memorial church, Groton, met Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. Frederick W. Haist at the rectory.

The week's rain and fogs have quite cleared the streets and fields of snow and ice, so that mankind has the comfort of getting about dry-shod once more.

Whist bridge and dancing Wauregan house Thursday Jan. 21st, eight sharp. Catholic Woman's club.—adv.

Miss Hazel Brackett has resumed her studies at Connecticut College for Women at New London after three weeks' vacation at her home in Willington.

Local coin collectors sat up and took notice Wednesday, when it was announced that a separate silver, nickel and bronze token coinage is talked of for Ireland.

A minute on the weekly calendar of the First Baptist church reads: The sympathy of the church goes to Mrs. Hurlburt and Mrs. Burke in the death of their brother.

The burial of Mrs. Walter Abbe, 76, who died Jan. 17th at her home in Windham, took place at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, in Greenwood cemetery, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The phrase of the Lord's Prayer to be considered by Rev. A. H. Abbott at the mid-week service at the United Congregational church this (Thursday) evening is, "Lead us not into temptation."

An anniversary high mass of requiem for Raymond LaRochelle was sung in St. Patrick's church Wednesday at 8 o'clock, by Rev. Myles P. Galvin, relatives and friends assisting at the service.

Today, demonstration, Combusto draft system, for coal burning boilers, at the shop of Thomas F. Burns, Franklin St. You are invited to see this device in operation.—adv.

A special effort is being made by government authorities to have systematic inspection of currant and gooseberry bushes, which do so much to spread the disastrous white pine blister rust.

Mrs. Coolidge heads the list of patronesses for a costume ball, January 27 at the Hotel Mayflower, Washington, for which Mrs. Henry F. Dimock of Washington and South Coventry, is chairman.

Miss Fannie Bishop, a former Central Village resident who has been spending three years at Los Angeles, California, has been visiting friends in Jewett City, where she was also a former resident.

Alfred F. Ludwig, a Rockville ice man, has started work on Mountain Spring pond, in Tolland, where he plans to harvest about 3,000 tons. Mr. Ludwig has installed new machinery this year.

At Mansfield Center, a former Norwich resident, Mrs. C. E. Perry, has begun additions to the rear of her home, Idylmanse, adding a two-story wing with a suite of rooms for the family and extra room for the maids.

There will be a United States civil service examination for surgeon's assistant (dental, eye, nose and throat) to fill vacancies in the United States Marine Hospital, Hudson street, New York city, at $1,140 to $1,500 a year.

A resolution was passed by the Notion Buyers' convention in New York, Tuesday, adopting the suggestion put forward for stimulating sewing in the home and urging manufacturers to inaugurate campaign to accomplish this end.

Friends in Moosup receive letters from Mr. and Mrs. Henry White of South Jacksonville, Fla., which express great satisfaction with life in their new home. Mr. White is employed in the office of the railroad company.

Venise, chantilly and colored novelty laces, including cutaparts, are types said to be in most demand at present. High shades are wanted in the novelty laces, with ecru a leading color in some of the gossamer varieties.

They are to have a big regimental show in New York in March and Governor John H. Trumbull and his staff are to go down and review the indoor parade. Governor Alfred E. Smith sent up the invitation and the governor accepted it.

Indestructible voile is one of the favored materials for the manufacture of the models contained in the new lines of lingerie. Because of their excellent laundering qualities, garments of that material have been well taken by buyers, it is said here.

Florence Work, known in theatrical circles, has purchased the Fred Huntley place in the Mile Creek section of Old Lyme. The house will be remodeled shortly. It is expected that eventually a theatrical colony will be formed in that vicinity.

Commander William F. Newton, commanding U. S. S. Camden, at the Submarine Base, who married Miss Harriet Saulnier, of Philadelphia, at Grace church, New York, just before New Year's, took his bride to Coco Solo for their honeymoon, the Base Newspaper notes.

He said he had already made plans for the future, but refused to state

PERSONALS

Miss Flora Stanton of Norwich was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ira S. Eathbun of Mystic.

Mrs. Charles Malona has resumed her duties in the Center school at Salem after a few days' illness.

Mrs. Albert Gessner of Montville has been a guest for a few days of Mrs. W. H. Smith, at Saybrook Point.

A Cheshire correspondent notes that Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Storrs entertained at dinner Sunday, Mrs. Jessie Hiscox of Norwich.

Miss Edith L. Boynton of Freeman avenue was a guest on Monday of New London friends and attended the concert of the Bishuco Trio at Bulkeley auditorium in that city on Monday evening.

W. Smith Allen, who for three weeks has been ill with pneumonia at his home, 26 Main street, is sitting up and will probably be able to leave his room today (Thursday).

Maitland Griggs of New York was a recent visitor at his place in Old Lyme. He purchased the residence of the late Henry Noyes at the Ferry, and has had it remodeled.

Charles A. Mahan of New London is on Alpha Sigma Pi committee at Norwich university, Northfield, Vt., which will have charge of the house party in Freshman week.

Rev. Myron E. Genter, district superintendent, is one of five members of the General Home Missionary Board of the M. E. church working in Maine, preaching at Rockport Wednesday. He will return to Norwich Monday next.

Miss Amey Denny, Watch Hill summer cottager, gave a luncheon at her home in New York this week in honor of Mrs. Lee Garnet Day (Nancy Sayles), daughter of Mrs. Frank A. Sayles of Pawtucket and Watch Hill.

Rev. John J. Keane, former assistant to Rev. John F. A. Quinn, pastor at St. Michael's church, Westerly, now of St. Joseph's church in New Britain has been appointed chaplain of New Britain Circle, Catholic Daughters of America, one of the largest organizations of women in that city.

OBITUARY

Cecelia Mary Glacken

Cecelia Mary Glacken, infant daughter of John and Margaret (McGowan) Glacken, died Wednesday morning at the home of her parents, No. 41 Golden street. The child was one year and five months old. Besides her parents, the child is survived by a brother seven years old.

Mrs. U. S. Baton

Lydia A. Baton, widow of Uriah S. Baton, died Wednesday morning at 6:45 o'clock at her home, No. 2 Church street, following an illness of about two weeks. Mrs. Baton was a native of Ryon, N. Y., and was born July 4, 1851, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Baton, February 19, 1872, she was united in marriage with Uriah S. Baton in Glenville, N. Y. About 42 years ago she came to Norwich and for years resided in Greeneville. She was a member of the Third Baptist church.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Joseph A. George, this city, Mrs. John T. Reid, Providence, R. I.; Miss Grace A. Baton, Providence, two grand children and five great grand children.

Mrs. Daniel Shields.

After a short illness Mary Murphy Shields, wife of Daniel Shields of No. 65 Cliff street, this city, died in Hartford, Wednesday. Mrs. Shields was the daughter of Michael and Rosanna Murphy and was born in Norwich. Forty years ago she was united in marriage with Daniel Shields at St. Patrick's church, Rev. P. T. Shahan performing the ceremony.

Surviving are her husband, one daughter, Miss May Shields of this city, two brothers, William Murphy of New London and James Murphy of New Haven, one sister, Mrs. Margaret Mara of Norwich Town and seven nieces and nephews. Mrs. Shields was a member of St. Mary's parish and a member of the Catholic Woman's Club.

Mrs. Cordelia Deroche

Mrs. Cordelia Deroche, who has been in Springfield for the past two weeks, died at the Springfield hospital on Friday evening, having undergone an operation there Tuesday. Mrs. Deroche has been a resident of Salem, Conn., for several years and leaves three daughters, Mrs. Alfred LaFrance and Mrs. Clyde Gates of Salem and another daughter in Springfield.

Samuel Wheatley

Samuel Wheatley, a resident of Salem, who had been employed in Hartford, died in St. Francis hospital after a few days' illness from pneumonia and was buried in Hartford last week. He leaves his widow, two sons, John and Arthur Wheatley and a Gladys, who is attending Norwich Free Academy.

FUNERALS.

Mrs. John Coughlin.

Wednesday morning at 8.15 o'clock the funeral of Mrs. John Coughlin was held from her home, No. 27 Roath street, followed by a solemn high requiem mass at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's Memorial church. Rev. William A. Keefe was celebrant of the mass, Rev. Frederick R. H. DesSureault, deacon, and Rev. Frederick M. Cohoian was the sub-deacon. Mrs. William Murphy presided at the organ and Edward T. Connelly sang Pie Jesu at the offertory, Face to Face as a waiting hymn and Nearer, My God to Thee as the recessional. The bearers were Timothy, George, Florence and John Driscoll and Daniel and John Coughlin.

Burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery, Rev. Father Keefe conducting the committal service. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends and there were many beautiful floral tributes. Cummings and Ring had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Q. M. Bosworth

Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, the funeral of Mary Stark Abel, widow of Rev. Q. M. Bosworth, was held from her home on Bashan Hill, with a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 2 o'clock a service was held at the Bozrah Center Congregational church, Rev. Mr. Webb officiating. During the service Mrs. Reuben Potter sang Safe in the Arms of Jesus and Saved By Grace. The bearers were Lawrence, Lloyd, Alfred and Theodore Abel, grandsons, and George Maples and Jabez Lathrop and burial took place in Johnson cemetery. There was a wealth of very beautiful floral remembrances. Among the many mourners present were people from Hartford, White Plains, N. Y., Willimantic, Putnam, Lebanon, Lisbon and Norwich. The Henry Allen & Son company had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Workmen's Compensation

The following workmen's compensation agreement has been approved by Commissioner J. J. Donohue:

Thames Towboat Co., New London, employer and William Patterson, New London, employe, loss of little finger at first joint of right hand Dec. 18, at rate of $16.35.

Will Hold Executive Meeting

The executive meeting of the Norwich C. E. Union which was to have been held last Monday evening but was postponed has been set for next Monday evening, January 25, at Miss [illegible] Washington street.

BERRY, CHANGING PLEA, SENTENCED TO STATE PRISON, 10 TO 15 YEARS

The trial of Eugene J. Berry, 32, which had occupied two days in the superior court here before Judge Allyn L. Brown, came to an end Wednesday afternoon, when the accused man changed his plea to guilty of manslaughter on two counts. He had been on trial on the charge of second degree murder for taking the life of his two sons, 4 and 5 years old, by chloroforming them on October 20 last at their home, 224 Boswell avenue.

Berry was at once sentenced by Judge Brown to from 10 to 15 years in state prison on each count, but the sentences to run concurrently. It will be possible for Berry, by good conduct while he is serving his term in prison, to cut off about two years from his minimum sentence of ten years.

A crowd that filled all the spectators' seats in the court room sat throughout the morning Wednesday, while his attorneys, Edward G. McKay and William H. Shields, Jr., were in conference with Judge Brown. State Attorney Brown and several physicians who had been summoned to testify in relation to the defense claim of insanity. Among the physicians were Dr. Franklin S. Wilcox, superintendent of the Norwich state hospital, Dr. R. N. Leak, superintendent of the Middletown asylum, Dr. W. H. Thompson, superintendent of the Hartford retreat for the insane, Dr. C. C. Glidersleeve, the local medical examiner, Dr. J. J. Donohue and Dr. A. C. Freeman of this city.

When the noon recess was declared, without any further evidence having been taken in court, the crowd of spectators filed out, but they were back at 2 o'clock. Shortly after that the result of the deliberations of the morning became apparent, for Judge Brown took his place upon the bench and Berry was brought into the court room in the custody of Deputy Sheriff James H. Casey, who has been in charge of the accused man in court during the trial.

State Attorney Brown announced that Berry was now ready to change his plea to guilty of manslaughter on two counts, which Berry did when Clerk George E. Parsons read the information to him.

State Attorney Brown at once moved for sentence and addressed the court with such evident sympathy for Berry that the accused man had difficulty to maintain his composure. Tears came to his eyes and his lips trembled but he succeeded after a struggle in regaining control of himself.

This case, said the state attorney, presented peculiar features that called for sympathy from everybody. From the testimony that had been produced and from the examination that had been made by the state attorney it was apparent that the accused had led an exemplary life and had had high ideals. This was evident when he said that faith and love were the important constituents of home life. Berry's life had been consistent with his ideals. Without doubt the conduct of his wife had driven him to distraction, but the question of whether he was legally insane did not now need to be determined. Berry loved his children and the action he took was in the mistaken notion that he was doing what was best for them. In view of these facts, the state attorney continued, the state felt that a plea of manslaughter was a proper plea to accept, and he recommended that a sentence of not less than 10 nor more than 15 years be given on each count, these sentences to run concurrently.

Attorney Shields, speaking for the accused man, said that he had nothing to say except to hope that the court would adopt the state attorney's recommendation as he felt that that would be the best disposition of the case.

Judge Brown Passes Sentence

In pronouncing sentence, Judge Brown spoke as follows:

Of course on the face of the conceded facts the state attorney was amply warranted, if not bound in the discharge of his duty to present to the grand jury a true bill of murder in the first degree in this case.

The grand jury, acting fairly and properly as a practical matter, has at any rate seen fit to reduce the charge to murder in the second degree.

The state attorney, after full investigation of the facts which he has made and to which he has referred, has seen fit to recommend to the court the acceptance of this plea of manslaughter so that I think you should feel, Berry, that in dealing with your case, the authorities upon whom the law has placed the duty to deal with it have dealt considerately. There is no question, I think in the mind of anyone as to your good record as husband and father before this tragedy occurred and of your own good intentions up to the time of the tragedy.

Unfortunately it seems equally clear that your wife had a distressing lack of appreciation of the responsibilities and the opportunities of a wife and mother. Without mitigating in any way the act that you committed certainly her blame morally, is not light.

I am satisfied from the evidence that has been presented and from the facts that have been brought to my attention that under the circumstances that existed you had reached a state of mind where you were practically in despair but under those circumstances you determined to take the matter into your own hands and you then did what seemed, perhaps best for you and your children and of course there is where you made a tragic mistake, in taking upon yourself the execution and decision of that conviction.

While, possibly, that is understandable under the circumstances which have been shown in this case it is of course in no sense justifiable and of course such an act has to be recognized and the penalty has to be paid.

I feel that the suggestion of the state attorney is a considerate one and I feel that in adopting that suggestion the court is going as far as it has any right to go to impose a sentence that is fair to the accused and fair to the public. Under all the circumstances I feel warranted in adopting that suggestion which I do. The sentence of the court is, on the first count that you be confined in state's prison for not less than 10 years nor more than 15 and on the second count that you be confined in state's prison not less than 10 or more than 15, but that these two sentences under the two counts are to run concurrently.

Held in Jail

After court adjourned Berry parted with the members of his family who were in the court room and was then taken to the local jail where he will be held until Sheriff Sidney A. Brown is ready to convey him to Wethersfield, which will not be until after he is ready to take Gabriel C. Berker at the same time.

Attorneys for Berker said Wednesday night that they could not say definitely then whether an appeal would be taken in the Berker case.

Court Takes Recess

The Berry case concluded all the immediate business for this term of the criminal court last night. Attorney Brown informed the judge that he would like to have the court kept open as there seemed to be some prospect that the bondsman of Gladys Lorraine, the fur coat thief, might be able to produce her in a few days, and there was also some other business that might come before the court.

Judge Brown declared a recess until further order of court.

AUTOMOBILE PARTY IS FINED IN CITY COURT

Charles Lehner, 27, this city, was fined $5 and costs for intoxication. Elias Jennings, 26, New London, got a similar fine and George Hoyle, 24, New London, drew a fine of $50 and costs for reckless driving when the trio was presented before Judge Arthur F. Libby in the city court Wednesday morning. Hoyle and Jennings have been employed as investigators in New London in the recent wholesale arrests for liquor law violations. They were arrested in Taftville Tuesday night by Constable Louis Paquette. The trio were riding in a machine driven by Hoyle. While the driver was making a turn in Taftville Constable Paquette noticed the condition of the men. He orderd the driver to stop and told the men they were arrested.

While Albert Cure who was with Constable Paquette went to get Constable Napoleon LaBarre, Constable Paquette stood on the running board. The driver suddenly started the machine and the car shot ahead about 35 miles an hour. The constable ordered Hoyle to stop and pulled his gun on him but Hoyle kept going. The car went off the road over an embankment and turned over on its side. The men were not hurt. The machine was only slightly damaged.

Arno Vogt, 18, 93 Truman street, New London, was fined $25 and costs for speeding. He turned the flashing beacon at Thames Square at a fast rate of speed, just scraping the right hand curb. He is employed as a baker in New London and had come to Norwich with three friends to attend a local theatre.

THRIFT POSTER DISPLAY AT CHELSEA BANK

A highly interesting exhibition of thrift posters made by school children is on display in the lobby of the Chelsea Savings bank and will be continued there for the rest of the week in order that the public may view it. The officials of the bank are extending a cordial invitation to the public to visit the unique poster display.

The display has been made in connection with a thrift week poster contest which has been fostered by Arthur E. Story, assistant treasurer and secretary at the bank. he has presented the idea in cooperation with the school supervisors in the rural district schools in which there are Chelsea thrift clubs. The posters represent the work of children of from 6 to 12 years in about 130 different class rooms.

About 50 of the best of the larger posters and as many of the smaller ones are displayed in an attractive arrangement on the walls of the lobby and on the tables attracting attention for their merit in coloring, designs and the thrift slogans that are used upon them. Prizes of $7, $5 and $3 are to be given by the bank, with five honorable mentions. The judges who have been asked to serve by the bank are Mrs. Edward Mann of North Stonington, who is much interested in school work, Mrs. James L. Case, a former school teacher, and Charles A. Dowsett, who is well known in art work.

On Saturday afternoon from 2.30 to 4 the time will be especially for the pupils and teachers from the outside schools to view the exhibit, but all teachers and the general public are welcome at all times while the exhibit is open.

There will be music during the Saturday hours and Miss May Bushnell who is in charge of the school accounts will be present to welcome the visitors.

The bank officials have been greatly pleased with the response that has been made by the schools in the thrift poster contest.

DAVIDSON TO MANAGE NEW WILLIMANTIC THEATRE

Manager Abe Davidson of the Broadway and Strand theatres in this city made the announcement Wednesday that he has resigned from these positions and the management will in the future be in the hands of his nephew, Max Levine, while Mr. Davidson is to go to Willimantic to take over the management of the new Capitol theatre there.

Mr. Davidson was the originator of the Capitol Theatre project in Willimantic, buying the land and erecting the theatre and becoming the president of the Capitol Theatre corporation, which has given him a ten year contract as general manager.

The change in Mr. Davidson's field of activities comes at the time of his seventh anniversary of his connection with theatre activities in Norwich and the fourth in his management of the Broadway theatre. His houses have maintained a consistently high standard and his experience in the theatrical business has resulted in satisfaction to his patrons at both Norwich houses.

Mr. Davidson is building another theatre in Winsted of 900 seating capacity. The building is now covered in and the interior finishing is proceeding. It will be run as a picture and vaudeville house and has a most promising outlook for doing a fine business.

NORWICH MAN'S NAME IN NEW BRITAIN WARRANT

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 20—(AP)—Warrants detaining for the New Britain police the three men caught last week after one of the trio had shot Policeman William Dietrick were received by New Haven police today. The three who are to be tried in the city court tomorrow are William Dwojokowsky, 30, of Norwich; Joseph Sudah, 18 and Stanley Miljeski, 19, both of New Britain. They are wanted by New Britain authorities on charges of hold-up and robbery.

The automobile in which the three were riding when the shooting occurred was stolen in Hartford. New Britain police believe that Dwojokowsky and Sudah several weeks ago robbed a store in Plainville of about $94.

BIG CLASSES INSTRUCTED IN LIFE SAVING METHODS

Two big classes were at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday afternoon and evening for the opening instruction in life saving methods under Capt. Caroll T. Bryant of the American Red Cross life saving corps.

In the afternoon from 4:30 to 5 there were 54 boys present and in the evening from 7:30 to 8:30 there were about 30 men who received the first instructions in rescue of drowning persons. The course will be continued on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and will without doubt give those who attended invaluable instruction along life saving lines.

NOTICE.

The annual meeting of the United Congregational Church, Inc., of Norwich, Connecticut, for the purpose of hearing reports and electing officers, will be held at the Community House, Church Street, Norwich, Connecticut, on Thursday, January 28th, 1926, at 8 o'clock p. m.

The following list of officers are to be elected: For three years—three Deacons, one Trustee, two members of the Executive Council and one member of the Church Committee. For two years—Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer.

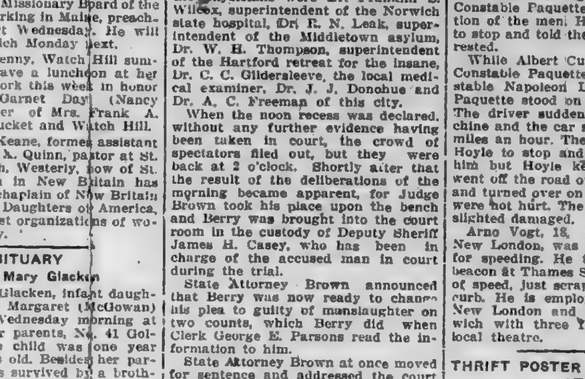
Any further business proper to come before the Annual Meeting will also be transacted at said meeting.

Dated at Norwich, Connecticut, January 16th, 1926.

JOHN TRANKLA,
HERBERT F. DAWLEY,
CHARLES F. WELLS,
Board of Trustees.

STILL AWAITING WORD OF THEIR MISSING SON

No word has yet been received by his anxious parents from Ben Covey, 23, who has been missing from his home, 42 Freeman avenue, since he left there at noon, Jan. 7, in his Ford coupe, presumably to return to work at The Bulletin job room where he was a pressman.



WILLIAM BENJAMIN COVEY

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Covey, are hoping that his automobile, which had Connecticut registration 67-253, will be seen and recognized somewhere by those who will send them word of their son.

Ben wore tortoiseshell glasses, was about 5 feet, 8 inches tall, and was wearing dark clothes, a light cap, and tan wolcen vest.

It has been suggested that he might have gone towards Providence, where he once went to school.

HELD SECOND MEETING AT WEST SIDE SILK MILL

The second of the series of noon meetings being conducted at the West Side Silk Mill by the local Y. M. C. A. was held Wednesday in the social hall of the plant. A large number of the employes were present and they evidently enjoyed the helpful innovation.

At 12:15 the orchestra began playing and rendered three selections, after which the popular song, "Three Cheers for the Red, White and Blue" was sung heartily after which the orchestra rendered another selection. The orchestra consisted of John Swahn, cornetist, Frederick Geer, pianist and Ralph Marsh, violinist.

A brief talk was given by Rev. E. C. Dunbar of the First Baptist church, who announced as his topic, "Our Opportunities and Privileges." The speaker told of the very limited opportunities our grandparents had in comparison to those we have today. The ox cart instead of the automobile and airplane suggest to an extent the difference between then and now. Mr. Dunbar stated that compared to the opportunity of learning in those days we have abundant opportunity today and that too for very little expense. The wonderful study of the heavenly bodies, the stars and planets, etc., is at once interesting and profitable. We should greatly appreciate the privilege of living in these days of real opportunity.

Secretary Edwin Hill had charge of the meeting and led the singing.

Clothing For Near East Relief

Every Rotarian, every member of the Lions' Club, every merchant, every housekeeper, every pupil in the schools, it is hoped, will be rallying forth on Friday morning with a bundle of old clothing under his or her arm for the Near East Relief. Arrangements are now practically complete for the collection of the clothing here Friday afternoon at 1:30, with the various school houses as the collection centers. The freight car in which the clothing will be shipped stands on a track of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad near the Laurel Hill bridge and when the loading is completed will be sent down immediately in order that the contribution from Norwich and vicinity may catch the boat sailing for the Near East on February 2.

PUBLISHES WEEKLY LIST OF SUSPENDED DRIVERS

The weekly list of operators whose licenses to drive automobiles in Connecticut, have been suspended for one year for driving while under the influence of liquor was given out Wednesday, at the state motor vehicle department as a part of the effort to reduce this highway menace. There are twenty-one names on the list. Two cases have been appealed.

Captures Three Coons

John Bentley, of Bashan Hill, with his dog, Tobey, has captured three fat coons that tipped the scales at 48 pounds, 2 ounces. It makes a fine start for the season for Bentley.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

The meeting of the Mah-Jegg club was held Wednesday with Mrs. Allyn L. Brown.

The Sandpipers met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Lewis M. Young, of 179 Broadway.

Mrs. Samuel E. Smiley, of Slater Avenue, is entertaining with three tables of bridge Saturday evening.

Mrs. Richard R. Graham, who was the guest of Mrs. Gardiner Greene while on a brief visit to Norwich, has left California with friends and is on her way to Japan.

Miss May H. Paddock has returned to her home on Washington street, after a visit of several weeks with relatives in Princeton, N. J.

THE AMERICAN PETROLEUM INSTITUTE RETAINS HUGHES

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 20—(AP)—Charles Evans Hughes will be retained by the board of directors of the American petroleum institute to represent the institute in matters before the federal oil conservation board it was announced by the directors in their meeting here today.

MOTHER!

"California Fig Syrup"

Dependable Laxative for Sick Baby or Child

Hurry Mother! Even constipated, bilious, feverish or sick, colic Babies and Children love to take genuine "California Fig Syrup." No other laxative regulates the tender little bowels so nicely. It sweetens the stomach and starts the liver and bowels without griping. Contains no narcotics or soothing drugs. Say "California" to your druggist and avoid counterfeits. Insist upon genuine "California Fig Syrup" which contains directions.

INDIGESTION!!! STOMACH UPSET

Chew a few Pleasant Tablets —Stomach Feels Fine

Instant stomach relief! Harmless! The moment "Pape's Diapepsin" reaches the stomach all distress from acid stomach or indigestion ends. Immediate relief from flatulance, gases, heartburn, palpitation, fullness or stomach pressure.

Correct your digestion for a few cents. Millions keep it handy. Druggists recommend it.

Mothers, Do This—

When the Children Cough, Rub Musterole on Throats and Chests

No telling how soon the symptoms may develop into croup, or worse. And then's when you're glad you have a jar of Musterole at hand to give prompt relief. It does not blister.

At first aid, Musterole is excellent. Keep a jar ready for instant use.

It is the remedy for adults, too. Relieves sore throat, bronchitis, tonsilitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, chilblains, frosted feet and colds of the chest (it may prevent pneumonia).

To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

Jars & Tubes

MUSTEROLE

WILL NOT BLISTER

Better than a mustard plaster

PISO'S for coughs

Quick Relief! A pleasant effective syrup. 35c and 60c sizes

And externally, use PISO'S Throat and Chest Salve. 35c

THUMM'S HOME MADE PORK SAUSAGE

TRY THEM FOR YOUR NEXT BREAKFAST.

Thumm's Delicatessen Store

40 Franklin Street.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

MISS WILLS GIVEN HARD BATTLE ON COURTS BY YOUTHFUL ENGLISH STAR

CANNES, France, Jan. 20—(AP)—Helen Wills received her first genuine tennis test of her Riviera season today in her second match of the Metropole tournament. The American woman champion's string of love games, started yesterday in her match against Miss E. M. Green of England, was ended after running to 45 straight, when Peggy Saunders, one of England's brightest youthful hopes for world tennis honors, captured the fourth and fifth games in her match against Miss Wills today.

Miss Saunders went so far in her tense majesty against the American queen of the courts as to win the fifth game at love, but Miss Wills, always playing well within her best game, won the hard fought match 6-3, 6-2.

Miss Saunders, only 18 years old, tutored by British experts as a second Joan Fry, put up a plucky struggle, but Miss Wills, apparently inspired by the beautiful weather, played a game much better than that of her match yesterday. She attained great pace, and her drives across court worked beautifully. The weakness she displayed yesterday in repeated double faulting was absent, and only once did she fail to get her service in.

Meanwhile the great rival of the American girl champion, Suzanne Lenglen, was having a busy day on the courts. She played in the women's double paired with Mlle. Vlasto and in the mixed doubles with Jacques Brugnon, winning both matches with ridiculous ease. At present Mlle. Lenglen appears to be in much better form than Miss Wills. She has been playing steadily for six weeks, while the California girl had not touched a racquet for the same length of time, until last Monday. The experts agree that if Suzanne and Helen were to meet tomorrow the American champion would have little chance of victory. However, two weeks of hard tournament play should improve Miss Wills' game tremendously, and a match between the two great rivals, which now seems assured in early February, should prove a sensational battle.

While Mlle. Lenglen was playing today, Miss Wills inconspicuous in a corner of the spectator's stand, watched her and took voluminous notes in a small note book. There was much to write about, for she saw Suzanne at her best.

"What do you think about her?" Miss Wills was asked after her rival's two matches.

"She is realy a wonderful player," was the reply. "I have seldom seen such tennis."

The two champions did not meet off the courts today although both were seen chatting to groups near each other.

The detailed scores of the Wills-Saunders match today were:

Miss Wills ..... 4 5 6 3 6 4 4 4—30—6
Miss Saunders . 2 3 4 5 4 2 0 2—22—2

Miss Wills ..... 4 4 4 4 7 4 6 4—31—6
Miss Saunders .. 0 2 1 6 5 1 0—15 1

TODAY'S SPORTS

RACING

Meeting of Louisiana Jockey club at New Orleans.

Meeting of Tia Juana Jockey club, at Tia Juana.

Meeting of Havana-American Jockey club, at Havana.

Meeting of Miami Jockey club opens at Miami, Fla.

GOLF

Dallas open championship tournament opens at Dallas, Texas.

St. Augustine championship tournament, at St. Augustine, Fla.

Annual Mid-January tournament at Pinehurst, N. C.

CURLING

Bonspiel of Northwestern Curling association, at St. Paul.

SKATING

World's championship speed races close at St. John, N. B.

WHIST

Northwest Whist association tournament, at Minneapolis.

SWIMMING

National A. A. U. junor 500 yards indoor championship, at Boston.

BOXING

Metropolitan A. A. U. championships, at Madison Square Garden.

SOUTH MANCHESTER QUINTET TAKES MEASURE OF JEWETT CITY PROS.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

JEWETT CITY, Jan. 20. — Fast basketball marked the encounter between the Jewett City Pros and the South Manchester quintet here tonight which was won by the visitors, 49 to 35. Although the score would indicate that the locals were outclassed, but such was not the case for the locals battled hard every minute of the game and it was the breaks that gave the visitors the edge.

The scoring was frequent on both sides, the forwards being very active on both teams, while the guard work was not so good. Pentland, playing right forward for the South Manchester team was a whirlwind on the offensive as his total of 13 baskets for 26 points clearly shows. Mullens with seven baskets from the floor also played a brilliant offensive game.

For Jewett City Harry Mills with 5 baskets and two fouls was the leading scorer while Normandin and Bud Benjamin tied for second place honors with 4 baskets each. The game was exceptionally fast and the fans were given a real treat, so much so, that the South Manchester team has been booked for a return engagement later in the season.

In the preliminary game the Jewett City Seconds doled out the Plainfield Buddies in a tough game the locals winning 32 to 30.

The summary:

Jewett City.	G.	F.	Pts.
Normandin, rf	4	1	9
Benjamin, lf	4	0	8
Mills, c	5	1	11
Barry, rg	3	0	4
Blake, lg	1	0	2
Faber, lg	0	0	0
	16	2	35

South Manchester.	G	F	Pts.
Mullens, lf	7	1	15
Pentland, rf	12	0	24
Stevenski, c	2	0	4
Cervini, rg	0	0	0
Willis, lg	2	0	4
MacDonald, lg	0	0	0
Anderson, rf	0	0	0
	24	1	49

NO SURPRISE TO TUNNEY AND DEMPSEY ABOUT MILL

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 20.—(AP)—Neither Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, nor Gene Tunney, light - heavyweight contender and aspirant for the former's crown, expressed surprise here today when informed that a tentative agreement for a title match between the two had been reached.

The date set in the announcement from New York was for July 4 and the bout to be staged at Boyle's Thirty Acres.

"I have received so many offers to meet Tunney that I am mixed a bit upon the dates," said Dempsey, "but so far as I can recall this is the first intimation that the match might be staged at Boyle's Thirty Acres."

Tunney said that he had not yet been advised by his manager, Billy Gibson, that a tentative agreement had been reached with Tex Rickard to promote the championship bout.

Dempsey said that he considered Tunney the logical contender for his crown adding that he did not believe any promoter would be willing to assume the financial risk of a bout between himself and Harry Wills, negro heavyweight challenger.

Doubt was expressed that the bout with Tunney could be arranged for Independence Day as Dempsey pointed out that a long period of training was necessary for a bout of such importance.

The champion had previously stated that he would not enter the ring in defense of his title before next September, when his contract with Jack Kearns expires.

Both Dempsey and Tunney are here on vacations.

NO COLLEGE FOR STRIBLING WIFE DISLIKES FRESHMAN CAP

SAVANNAH, Ga., Jan. 20—(AP)—Mrs. W. L. Stribling does not like the idea of a married man wearing a dinky little black and red freshman cap, so young Stribling, the light heavyweight boxer, will not enter the University of Georgia this fall as he had planned. The boxer's bride made this plain to newspapermen here today. She also said she will be a spectator at all her husband's future bouts. Stribling said he is not considering a bout with Georges Carpentier at this time.

BRADFORD D. A. TEAM BEATS DELTA A. C.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WESTERLY, R. I., Jan. 20—Close fast and interesting, although marred by personal fouls, was the first league basketball game played in Champlin hall Wednesday night, when the B. D. A. team defeated the Delta A. C., by the score of 24 to 22. For the Dyer-Spencer led his teammates with three field goals and three foul baskets and Sedwick made three field goals and one foul. The Delta team had for their shining star, Salimeno, who was fortunate enough to tie the game in the final quarter when the score was 22 to 22. Other good basketball shooters were: St. Turco, with two goals and one foul, equalled by D. Turco, Tassone, threw two good field goals.

Score by quarters:

B. D. A.	9	6	5	4—24
Delta A. C.	2	7	8	5—22

Referee—H. F. Driggs.
Timekeepers—J. Law and Visciglio

The standing of the Pawcatuck Valley basketball league including the game played Wednesday evening in Champlin hall, is as follows:

	W.	L.	Pct
B. D. A.	3	0	1.000
W. S. C.	1	0	1.000
St. Michael's	1	0	1.000
Delta	1	2	.333
A. V. A. A.	1	2	.333
Battery E	0	3	.000

College Basketball.

At Princeton: Princeton 32, Haverford 22.

At Syracuse: Cornell 30, Syracuse 35.

At Chicago: Purdue 24, Chicago 17.

At Pittsburgh: University of Pittsburgh 42, George Washington 30.

At Crawfordsville, Ind.: Notre Dame 41, Wabash 29.

At Middletown: Wesleyan University 49, Connecticut Aggies 26.

At Storrs: Connecticut Aggie freshmen 36, Suffield Prep school 14.

At Worcester, Mass.: Holy Cross 41, Tufts 37.

Pennsylvania 20; Yale 17.

At New Haven.: Yale junior varsity 22; Pensylvania junior varsity 20. (Extra period.)

WESLEYAN BEATS AGGIES IN ONE-SIDED GAME

MIDDLETOWN, Jan. 20—(AP)—Scoring 20 points before its opponents registered, the Wesleyan university basketball five tonight defeated the Connecticut Agricultural college team, 49 to 26. It was Wesleyan's third consecutive victory, while Connecticut Aggies suffered the first defeat this season having won the first two games played.

Umpleby scored eight field goals for Wesleyan. Schofield made five field goals and three from fouls for the visitors.

TWO UPSETS IN GOLF TOURNEY AT ST. AUGUSTINE

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Jan. 20—(AP)—Two upsets marked the first round match today in the St. Augustine amateur golf tournament. Two of the strongest contenders for the title were eliminated after close contests. The medalist, Kenneth M. Reed of New York, was defeated by T. L. Shockford of the local club on the nineteenth hole and Hal Sorensen of Philadelphia; another favorite, lost on the twentieth hole to A. M. Speer of Pittsburgh.

ROCKY KANSAS TURNS DOWN BOUT WITH SOLLY SEAMAN

NEW YORK, Jan. 20—(AP)—Rocky Kansas, of Buffalo, world's flyweight champion, has turned down a title match with Solly Seaman, of New York, at Madison Square Garden, March 1.

In answer to an offer for the match from Jess McMahon, matchmaker at the garden, Kansas' manager today replied that the champion was preparing for a tour of the west and could not at this time, consider any offer for a championship match in the east.

British Soccer Results

LONDON, Jan. 20—(AP)—Soccer football games played today resulted as follows:

English league, first division; Sunderland 4; Huddersfield 1.

English league, second division, Bradford City 3; Swansea 1.

Scottis cup, first round: Dundee 3; Inverness Caledonians 0.

AGGIE FRESHMEN SWAMP SUFFIELD SCHOOL QUINTET

(Special to The Bulletin.)

STORRS, Jan. 20—Connecticut Aggie Freshmen five won their second game here tonight by overwhelming the Suffield Prep five, 36 to 14. Capt. White, Crose and Hewit, were the stars of the evening, scoring 11 field goals between them. Capt. Kulas starred for the Prep team boys, scoring six points. Coach Alexander's men played a fast offense and was steady on the defense. The Freshmen ran away with the Prep school five in the first half, scoring 25 points to only four for Suffield in the second half. Coach Alexander sent in his second and third teams. Suffield was helpless against the second and third string men and the final score was 36 to 14. The score:

Aggie Freshmen	G.	F.	Pts.
White, Cap. lf	4	2	10
Garber, lf	0	0	0
Birmington, lf	1	0	2
Crose, rf	3	1	7
Anderson, rf	1	0	2
Alcorion, rf	0	0	0
Hewitt, c	4	2	10
Callahan, c	0	3	3
Moses, c	0	0	0
Sahencian, lg	1	0	2
Fassett, lg	0	0	0
Stone, lg	0	0	0
Schliecren, rg	0	0	0
Gall, rg	0	0	0
Wilson, rg	0	0	0
	14	8	36

Suffield	G.	F.	Pts
Kulas, Capt. lf	3	0	6
Jones, lf	0	0	0
Downes, rf	0	0	0
Hawkins, c	2	0	4
Zales, c	0	0	0
Perajom, lg	1	0	2
Snyder, lg	0	2	2
Cugulo, rg	0	0	0
	7	0	14

Referee, Callahan of Willimantic. Time, 4 8-minute quarters. Score in first half, 25 to 4.

AMERICAN TEAM WINS BIKE RACE AT BERLIN

BERLIN, Jan. 20.—(AP)—The American team, McNamara and Horan won a decisive victory in the international six-day bicycle race, which ended at 11 o'clock tonight. They covered 2,338 miles, 698 yards, and gathered in 569 points. In the sprints of the final hour they were placed fifteen times out of twenty four, including six firts.

Georgetti, the Italian, with his diminutive German partner, Rieger, was second, with 509 points.

Hahn and Tietz, the only all-German team among the leaders, finished third, 199 points. Tonani and Sawall were fourth, 179.

The Americans at the start of the final hour were tied with Georghetti-Rieger for points, but they were in better condition; and they pedalled their way to victory at astounding speed, McNamara alone won six firsts in the spurts. The crowd, though primarily partial to the Germans were soon won over by the Americans' furious riding.

"It was easy," said McNamara after the race. "We feared Georghetti most, but had plenty of steam left."

O'ROURKE MAKES BID FOR WILLS-DEMPSEY BOUT

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Tom O'Rourke, veteran boxing promoter, entered the field for a Jack Dempsey-Harry Wills heavyweight championship match today by wiring the titleholder at Miami, Fla., an offer of $500,000 to defend his crown against the negro challenger next summer.

O'Rourke said he was backed by a syndicate of wealthy sportsmen prepared to erect an arena near Greenwich, Conn.

FOOTE WINS BOWLING TITLE AT YALE

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 20.—(AP)—The individual big pin bowling championship of Yale university was won today by Alfred S. Foote, '28, of Washington, D. C., who defeated Charles A. Moore, '28, of Louisville, Ky., captain of the Yale bowling team, in straight games. The scores were 181 to 176 and 182 to 178.

Foote, the son of Arthur Foote, one of the ranking tennis players in the nineties, was on the varsity football team last fall. He caught for the freshman baseball team last year.

BLUE BEATS SANDS IN MATCH AT PINEHURST

PINEHURST, N. C., Jan. 20—(AP)—Halbert J. Blue, Aberdeen, today beat his way to a well earned victory over Astin Sands, New York, one up in the mid-January golf tournament. E. Rolfe of Chicago, defeated J. P. Hotchkiss, New Haven, 5 and 3. Donald Parson, Youngstown, O., who tied with Rolfe for the medal, eliminated Clinton Hall, New York, 5 and 3, and Robert A. Lyne, Pittsburgh, defeated John D. Chapman, Greenwich Connecticut, 2 and 1.

Putnam Girls Vs. Plainfield

PUTNAM, Jan. 20—At the gymnasium of the high school on Friday night, the girls' basketball team of the High school will play their first home game of the season. Miss Katherine Allard is captain of the team and has been working faithfully for several weeks, hoping to prove that the boys are not the only ones who can play the game. They play against the Plainfield girls.

Hawaiian Woman Swimmer Here

HONOLULU, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Mariechen Wehselau, champion Hawaiian woman swimmer, sailed today enroute to St. Augustine, Florida, where she will participate in the national women's indoor swimming championship. She expects to enter the hundred yard free style, the 220 yard free style and possibly other events.

Crescents A. A. Wants Games

The Crescents A. A., of Taftville, formerly the Taftville Five, would like to play Baltic, Jewett City, Danielson Town team or any other fast teams. The Crescents have such men as Jimmy Murphy, Rabbit Gauthier, Ecclestone, Eddie Murphy, Tom Colman, and Yerrington. Any teams wishing games with this fast combination write to Red Burelle, manager, Taftville, Conn., Box 12.

Yale Crews on River

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Taking advantage of the mild weather, Coach George Murphy of the Yale freshman crews took three boats to the harbor this afternoon for the first outdoor work an Eli crew has had during January in several years.

Tiger Mermen Win

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 20—(AP)—Princeton tonight defeated Pennsylvania 46 to 16 in an intercollegiate swimming meet in the Weightman hall pool.

Connie Mack, manager of the Athletics has denied a report that Fred Heimach, southpaw pitcher, has been decided upon for delivery to the Portland Club of the Pacific Coast League. "I have not made up my mind on his future," said the tall leader. "We would have to get waivers and there is no certainty that he will be passed up by all clubs. On the other hand, I may decide to keep him for my team."

BALTIC TO CLASH WITH DANIELSON FRIDAY NIGHT

A contest worthy of every basketball fan's attention will be seen on the St. Jean's court in Baltic when the Baltic team clashes with the Danielson town team on Friday evening. The Danielson management has obtained a fast aggregation of former high school and college stars. These are all Danielson men who have been playing together since their grammar school days. Teddy Reeves and Blakeley will hold down the forward positions, these two with the help of Keach who will jump center are part of the reason for Killingly High holding the championship of the Quinebaug high school league during the seasons of 1921 and 1922. Godreau, Poirier and Meunier who make up the remainder of the team are all Danielson Service Battery men and well known to local fandom.

The Baltic team seems to have hit its mid-season stride in the last week's game with the South Manchester Crescents. This game was the cleanest and fastest seen on the Baltic courts in years. No credit can be given to any one player for the Baltic victory. Not a sign of individual playing was seen throughout the game. Although dropping the previous game through the loss of Swanson at guard the locals have once more caught up with their winning streak. The lineup has been strengthened by the acquisition of the services of Gauthier and Eccleston of Taftville. Capt. R. Robertaille who sprained an ankle against So. Manchester will probably be back in the lineup with such stars as R. Robertaille, W. Robertaille, Red Charron, Coady, Gauthier and Eccleston lined up against the Danielson aggregation local fans will see a well contested game.

RICKARD SILENT ON PROPOSED DEMPSEY BOUT

NEW YORK, Jan. 20—(AP)—Plans for Jack Dempsey to defend his heavyweight championship against Gene Tunney at Boyle's Thirty Acres on July 4 may be under way but Tex Rickard won't admit it just yet, at any rate. Neither will he deny that this is his fistic objective for 1926.

The veteran promoter was non-committal today on reports, published by the New York Telegram, that Dempsey already has agreed to meet Tunney in the historic Jersey City pine bowl and that while no formal contracts yet had been signed, the match would be clinched as soon as "several important angles are straightened out."

The telegram, crediting its information to a "reliable source," went on to say that Rickard had received telephone assurances from Dempsey of the champion's willingness to make the match but added that if any hitch developed, the promoter would stage a bout between Tunney and Harry Wills, persistent negro title contender, on the same date.

To add to the general heavyweight "ballyhoo", reports were current that Jack Kearns, whose managerial contract with Dempsey lasts until September, had made a new agreement with Rickard on behalf of Dempsey. This was denied, however, by Kearns, who said the agreement he signed with the promoter some time ago for a Dempsey-Wills match still stood, although it is not recognized by the champion himself.

"If Jack does any fighting before next September, however, he'll have to do it under our contract," added Kearns.

Some significance in connection with Tunney's plans was attached meanwhile, to a statement by Pete Reilly manager of Jack Delaney, that Tunney had refused an offer to box the Bridgeport light heavyweight. Reilly quoted Billy Gibson, Tunney's manager, as saying that there was "no prestige to be gained by Tunney in meeting lighter men and that his program henceforth was definitely cast in the full-fledged ranks."

PENN BEATS YALE IN LAST MINUTE ATTACK

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 20—(AP)—Pennsylvania defeated Yale here tonight 20 to 17, in an intercollegiate basketball game. With the score tied at 17 to 17 a few minutes from the end of the game, Lindsay, forward of the visitors caged a shot from mid-floor to put his team ahead. A few moments later on a free try Captain Davenport added a point assuring the Penn team a victory.

Penn after getting off to a bad start came to the front towards the end of the first half when the long shots began to find the basket and led 13 to 9 at the end of the period. Yale rallied at the start of the second half and was ahead 16 to 14 until Captain Davenport of Penn, made a long shot to tie the score.

BRAVES TO PLAY EXHIBITIONS IN CUBA

BOSTON, Jan. 20.—(AP)—A series of exhibition games in Cuba will be part of the Boston Braves' spring training schedule, Judge Emil Fuchs, president of the club, announced tonight. Final arrangements and dates have not been settled yet, he said, but the games will be played during the latter part of the training trip, which starts late in February.

Combat Train vs. Faber's Stars

Next week Thursday night the Combat Train indoor baseball team will clash with Faber's Stars, late of the indoor league. The soldiers were scheduled to play in Taftville tonight but

When winter's snow is falling outside—and the wind roars through the trees—when the friendly logs blaze up in the fireplace —have a Camel!

WHEN it's a winter night and the day that was busy is done. And outside the snow is driving through the trees before the wind. When, inside, the crackling logs catch fire and burst into flames above the hearth—have a Camel!

For Camel is the tried and trusted friend of millions of experienced smokers. Whether your returning steps bring you home tired or jubilant, no sweeter, more mellow fragrance ever came to you from a cigarette. There's not a cigaretty after-taste, not a tired taste in a whole county full of Camels. Only mild and mellow flavor, deep-down contentment in your home or any home where Camels are lighted.

So this night, before your roaring logs of oak or hickory—have a Camel. Open up the famous package of Camels and know the fragrance, the contentment that brings happiness to millions. Put a Camel between you and a light and taste the mellowest, most delectable blend ever made into a cigarette.

Have a Camel!

No other cigarette in the world is like Camels. Camels contain the choicest Turkish and domestic tobaccos. The Camel blend is the triumph of expert blenders. Even the Camel cigarette paper is the finest—made especially in France. Into this one brand of cigarettes is concentrated the experience and skill of the largest tobacco organization in the world.

Our highest wish, if you do not yet know Camel quality, is that you try them. We invite you to compare Camels with any cigarette made at any price.

R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

— JUST RECEIVED —
"SINKING OF S-51"
—On—
COLUMBIA RECORD
No. 15,044
Price 75c.
Prompt attention to mail orders.

THE HOME OF SHEET MUSIC & RECORDS
The Hanover Curland Company
24-34 Franklin St. Norwich, Conn.
PIANOS PLAYERS VICTROLAS

What is Going On Tonight

Norwich lodge, No. 430, B. P. O. E., meets in Elks' home.

Canton Oneco, No. 2, I. O. O. F., meets in Odd Fellows' hall.

Victory lodge, No. 4, I. O. O. L., M. U., meets in Steiner hall.

Norwich Stationary Engineers' auxiliary, No. 7, meets in Buckingham Memorial.

TODAY'S EVENTS

Festival of St. Agnes, one of the four great virgin martyrs of the Latin church.

Twenty-five years ago today died Elisha Gray, famous inventor in the realm of electricity.

Nathaniel E. Harris, former governor of Georgia, celebrates his 80th birthday anniversary today.

The Manitoba legislature convenes today with no outstanding measures on the government legislative program.

Secretary of Agriculture Jardine and Ex-Governor Frank O. Lowden are scheduled as speakers at the annual meeting of the Illinois Agricultural association, which opens today at Urbana.

Gen. Lincoln C. Andrews, assistant secretary of the treasury in charge of prohibition enforcement, is to address 1000 members of the citizenship committee of New York at its annual dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria tonight.

The Home Mission council, in which are joined 28 Protestant bodies which do religious work in the United States, is to meet at St. Louis today for its annual convention. The program provides for a combination of a national missions conference with the annual meeting.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Our Motto

"Best photographs, lowest prices." Desmarais Studio, 325 Main, Norwich. Tel. 564.

Palace Theatre

Coming to the Palace for the next three days is a show full of merit. The five act vaudeville bill, will include such well known acts as Vargo and Knoll, vaudeville's greatest comedy, singing team; the three Banjo Monarchs, wizards on the banjo, Slayven & LaMong, in an entirely new and novel act, Faver & McCabe, will keep you laughing from the time they put their feet on the stage until they go off and last but not least the Hat Box Revue, a beautiful act, wonderful singing and fast dancing, together with Syd Chaplin in that riot of laughter picture "The Man on the Box" will make a show that nobody should miss.

Breed Theatre

"Winds of Chance," Rex Beach's story of the Alaskan gold rush, picturized for First National by Frank Lloyd, creator of "Black Oxen", "The Sea Hawk" and other memorable screen hits, will be the feature offering at the Breed Theatre, today, Friday and Saturday.

More than five months were required to obtain the atmospheric backgrounds of Alaska during four different seasons, and Lloyd and his players traveled more than 13,000 miles to reproduce the scenic splendor of our last frontier. The cameras obtained scenes in rain and snow storms, on river beds and frozen lakes and glaciers and even at the summit of snow-capped peaks high above the clouds.

"Winds of Chance," deals with the romance of Pierce Phillips, a boy who came to Alaska wholly unprepared for the rigors of the rush, and the Countess Courteau, who had been so close to the business of making a living against odds that romance had been shut from her life. Many unique friendships developed between their friends of the trail—Poleon, the big French-Canadian packer; Rousetta, the orphaned daughter of Sam Kirby, the gambler; Tom and Jerry, everlastingly arguing, but deeply devoted; and Lucky Broad, the shell game operator, who found the Arctic too hot for him.

A cast of unusual importance enacted the drama. Anna Q. Nilsson, Ben Lyon, Viola Dana and Victor McLaglen, the English movie star, have the featured roles, while the supporting cast of hardly less importance, includes Hobart Bosworth, Claude Gillingwater, Dorothy Sebastian, Philo McCullough, not to mention several thousand extras in the Alaskan background.

Who says
"It Ain't Goin to Rain
No More"

You'll get rain, sleet, or snow again—maybe tomorrow. So get ready today with a pair of

HOOD RUBBERS
AT YOUR DEALER'S

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

New General Manager

Mr. Abe Davidson, the general manager of the Broadway and the Strand Theatres in this city is giving up his duties in this city to take up his post as general manager of the new Capital Theatre of Willimantic, Conn.

The local theatregoers will be pleased to learn that Mr. Max Levine, who has for the past five years, been associated with these theatres in the capacity of assistant manager, is to take up the duties of general manager.

A host of patrons are personally acquainted with this energetic young man adn his untiring efforts are going to be devoted to the welfare of his old and many new patrons that he is sure to make.

New standards of excellence in entertainment is promised with many interesting novelties from time to time to be introduced.

The B. F. Keith vaudeville will be better than ever before and all will have a chance to see many big time offerings.

The picture program will not be neglected and all around perfect entertainment is going to be the rule—so patronize!

Palace Theatre

Warner Brothers outbid all other picture producers for the services of Syd Chaplin, because they believed they had the very story he needed to duplicate his phenomenal success in "Charley's Aunt".

"The Man on the Box," the celebrated novel and play by Harold MacGrath was the vehicle selected for Chaplin and it will begin a three day run today at the Palace theatre with Chaplin heading a cast that includes David Butler, Alice and Kathleen Calhoun, Theodore Lorch, Helene Costello, E. J. Ratcliffe, Charles F. Reisner, Charles Gerrard and Henry Barrowes.

The story concerns the adventures of charming Bob Warburton, who finds himself amusingly involved in a hornet's nest of intrigue that leaves him homeless and jobless, in the mysterious night, clad only in his pajamas. He has invested $50,000 in a new flying machine and two Russian spys are intent upon stealing the plans of the plane. Romance stalks unfettered throughout the picture, which is said to be a series of ridiculous misadventures.

Charles A. Logue adapted the novel to the screen and Julien Josephson wrote the scenario. Charles "Chuck" Reisner directed.

Capitol Theatre, Willimantic

Tonight, January 21st, Willimantic's beautiful new half million dollar theatre, "The Capitol" will embark on a new era of progress which will undoubtedly bring it years of great prosperity, and to theatregoers of our city and vicinity, a modern up-to-the-minute theatre where the best attractions in the amusement line will be offered.

Little did the general public realize the significance of the singular announcement made several months past by Charles A. Gates, Valentine L. Murphy, George A. Bartlett, Peter J. Hinds, Aimee J. Martineau, P. J. Toomey, P. H. Gribbon, J. Francis Keon, Alvin P. Corey, Abe Davidson and Virtune P. A. Quinn when they joined the Capitol theatre corporation that this city was to see the fulfillment of a dream that everyone has long cherished for an ultra modern playhouse that would put Willimantic in a position claimed by its sister cities of the United States.

A casual inspection will disclose many distinctive features. The exterior of this beautiful structure is of pressed brick in straight lintel construction with a handsome copper marquise surmounting the main street entrances to lobby. Over this is hung a large perpendicular electric sign with a horizontal multi-colored house sign also beautifying the flattened apex of the building. The lobby is a long and artistically embellished affair that takes on the dignity of a salon with its marble staircase and low hanging bronze lighting fixtures. From the main entrance rise the stairs to the promenade lounge that extends the length of the main street side of the building, and leads directly into the balcony. The lounge is a spacious rendezvous furnished and decorated in exquisite taste with deep cushioned divans, easy chairs and decorative lamps. At each side of the lounge is a ladies' retiring room and a gentlemen's smoking room. The lounge, like all the rest of the theatre, is carpeted on thick padding to lend an added touch of richness, and do away with all noise. The auditorium is a dream of beauty done in an appropriate style with a color treatment of soft grey, buff, tan and blue tones. Back of the seats on the orchestra floor is a well designed carpet.

The seating installation, as a whole, harmonizes in color and design with the rest of the interior combine durability and strength with beauty and comfort, while they provide the proper angle of vision for a performance on stage or screen. The orchestra has 800 seats while the balcony provides 400 more. The aisles are wide and adequate exits to meet every possible emergency. On each side of the proscenium arch is an illuminated announcement board for current vaudeville and other attractions. The stage settings is another evidence of the thoughtful attention to detail that characterized the entire construction of Willimantic's most beautiful amusement place. The accessories are such as to magnify the visual beauty of this extremely artistic conception of how best present day entertainment may be presented to the public.

The motion picture projection booth equipment, among the most important of all the features in which "The Capitol" stands preeminent, were designed by Nicholas Power company of New York, and installed by Louis Phillips of the Independent Movie Supply Co., New Haven. The projection booth will be in charge of Herman Lavoy. The steel and iron work, of which extensive use was made, was furnished by the Palmer Steel company, Springfield, Mass., tile and marble work by G. D. Tile Co., of Brooklyn N. Y., roofing by C. G. Bostwick Hartford, plumbing by Welch and McCarthy, Willimantic, heating by J. E. Fitzgerald, Norwich, electrical work, John T. Ashton, opera seats American Seating Company, through Martineau and Bacon company, local representatives, carpets, G. Fox & Co., Hartford, decorative furniture Martineau and Bacon Co., scenery and accessories were painted and installed by Morris Tuttle, scenery and decorative studios, Springfield, Mass., interior decorations were done by M. J. Farrell of this city. This new theatre, a supreme achievement in playhouse construction, was built by the firm of Doyle & Murphy, and beauty and comfort go hand in hand. While the plans were prepared by A. R. Sharp, the actual supervision and responsibility rested on the shoulders of Valentine L. Murphy who worked day and night to obtain the utmost in luxury. Mr. Murphy has not only built a beautiful playhouse but has created an atmosphere of charm and relaxation in every nook and corner of the Capitol Theatre.

The opening of the new Capitol theatre, tonight will be the big "event" in theatricals to start the year 1926. The management is proud to offer as the initial photoplay a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer feature, "His Secretary" starring Norma Shearer with Lew Cody. An amazing tale—full of surprises and thrills—of a girl who had thought sex had no place in business. And then, one day, she overhead the boss—the man she loved from afar—say—"I wouldn't kiss that girl for a thousand dollars!"

However critical one may be of motion pictures, and there can be no denying the fact that much of the criticism is justified, there is one producing and distributing organization to whom every vestige of praise and credit is due. That company is The Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, who during the past few years, has leaped to the very front ranks, as producers of better-than-standard photoplays. And when one sees a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer feature he may rest assured that nothing in the way of time or money has been spared to make it a production as near perfect as could possibly be expected. Metro Goldwyn-Mayer does not quibble at cost when it comes to staging a photoplay, as is evidenced by the truly wonderful settings that have figured in "Ben Hur" now current at the George M. Cohan Theatre; "The Big Parade" at the Astor Theatre, and "The Merry Widow", making records at the Embassy Theatre, New York. Furthermore, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer are far from stingy when it comes to cast. Instead of a one-star feature they usually use from three to five recognized "names," with the result that a finished production in every sense of the word, so far as direction and characterization, is the natural result. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer photoplays unquestionably are the "Hallmark" of the motion picture industry and are a credit to the Capitol theatre program where they will be shown exclusively in this city.

One of the most difficult problems to consider in presenting motion pictures satisfactorily is the music. Many good pictures have been spoiled by bad or unappropriate music and many inferior and lifeless productions have been saved when properly interpolated with good music. It requires natural, even extraordinary talent in music, in actina, and a wide knowledge with clear and quick perception of intrigue deceit and hypocracy in human nature, also a very sympathetic, appreciative and kindly disposition as well as proficiency and skill in the musician to cue and express the high and distinct art of musically interpolating the motion picture. Many earnest and ambitious musicians have tried to master this particular line of endeavor. In their chosen avocation, but ratio of success is about the same as that of aspirants for the stage, one in twenty. But when they do prove themselves capable, their services are in demand. When a manager has the entertainment and edification of his patrons at heart, he is constantly on the alert to secure for their enjoyment the very best in all departments possible, and he can not be justly blamed for rejoicing when he is so fortunate as to engage a musical director like C. C. Hemold who has won distinction in leading cities for unusual ability and accomplishments.

Just the proper proportion of vaudeville has been added to the grand opening program and includes the Jean Jackson troupe, of senational bicycle artists, De Witt and Gunther in a chatologic comedy skit, Eddie Cook and the Shaw sisters, in an original smart offering, Kramer and Griffin, present "Odd Moments in a Vaudeville Way" while the featured act The Seven Rainbow Girls offer a versatile act of music song and dance. All of the acts on this week's bill are embellished with special scenery and electrical effects.

The Capitol will be under the management of George A. Bartlett and no better choice could be made. He is familiar with the theatrical business, possesses a vigorous personality, is a keen business man, yet withal is kindly and easily approached. Mr. Bartlett is bound to make a big success of the Capitol and he has the best wishes of his legion of friends.

Poets have been known to make dollars out of lines that ordinary mortals couldn't make sense out of.

END ECZEMA, PAINS and ACHES
by the use of UROGEN
the most wonderful and efficient remedy.

Urogen
—URIC ACID SOLVENT—

It quickly drives out the dangerous poisons, cures the unsightly swollen joints and cracked hands, and enables him to do his work in the world.
YOUR DRUGGIST SELLS IT.

Order from Your Grocer
a trial package of
"SALADA"
TEA
ST16
The wonderfully rich and fragrant flavor never varies. Try it.

It's Here---The Big Event!
THE OPPORTUNITY YOU HAVE WAITED FOR.
The Schwartz Bros.' Greatest
February Furniture Sale

SALE STARTS TOMORROW FRIDAY AT 9 A. M.

20 TO 50% OFF

GREATER VALUES THAN EVER BEFORE SAVINGS FROM
20 TO 50% OFF

WATCH FOR ADVERTISEMENT IN TOMORROW'S BULLETIN

76-84 MAIN ST. SCHWARTZ BROS. INC. The big store with the little prices. NORWICH, CONN.

This woman's experience is typical of thousands. Ask any physician.

"And to think I was poisoning my own Baby!"

"I couldn't see why he didn't gain. I never dreamed that my constipation was responsible until the doctor told me.

"He explained that faulty or slow elimination of waste matter allowed poisons to form and be absorbed by the blood—and this meant tainted milk for baby.

"He prescribed the Nujol treatment and it made a world of difference to both of us. Now that I know how dangerous constipation is and how easily it is prevented, I'm never going to allow myself to get into that condition again."

Nujol helps Nature in Nature's own way

Mothers are the best friends of Nujol. When precious new lives are at stake they seek the remedy that medical authorities approve because it is so safe, gentle, and natural in its action.

Constipation is dangerous for anybody. Nujol is safe for everybody. It does not affect the stomach and is not absorbed by the body.

Nujol simply makes up for a deficiency—temporary or chronic—in the supply of natural lubricant in the intestines. It softens the waste matter and thus permits thorough and regular elimination, without overtaxing the intestinal muscles.

Nujol can be taken for any length of time without ill effects. To insure internal cleanliness, it should be taken regularly in accordance with the directions on each bottle. Unlike laxatives, it does not form a habit and can be discontinued at any time.

Ask your druggist for Nujol today and begin to enjoy the perfect health that is possible only when elimination is normal and regular.

Nujol
THE INTERNAL LUBRICANT
For Constipation

WESTERLY

TO ORGANIZE LIONS CLUB IN WESTERLY

(Special to The Bulletin)

WESTERLY, R. I., Jan. 20—A Lions club will be organized in Westerly in the near future, coming within the Bridgeport district, for which William Bent, of that city, is the district governor. The cooperation of the Westerly Chamber of Commerce and the Pawcatuck board of trade is assured, for Presidents Stanton and Furness, of each organization, will be active workers for the booster club which now numbers Newport, Providence, Pawtucket, the organization of the Westerly unit. Frank Page, of Providence, internal revenue collector of the district, accompanied by a committee of the Providence Lions club, met the interested Westerly men at the Colonial club at 8 o'clock on Wednesday night for the purpose of initiating the movement. Thomas Graham and S. A. Woodrow, international field director of the movement, was present, having been engaged for the past few days in the promotion of construction movements. At a previous short session, Lewis Stanton acted as temporary chairman and on Wednesday evening a nominating committee submitted a list of names for an organization. The following is a list of the 35 men of Westerly who have signified their intention of joining the Westerly Lions club: Lewis Stanton, S. H. Davis, C. B. Maxson, S. D. Fisher, Thomas Lenihan, Raymond F. Vars, Arthur L. Perry, Capt. John F. Dotson, Frank L. Furness, Willard H. Bacon, Dr. H. L. Johnson, Everett E. Whipple, Dr John Ruisi, George O. Murphy, Dr. Harold S. Doyle, Frederick M. Robertson, A. L. Cantrielus, Carl G. Stillman, C. H. Gavitt, W. Russell Dower, George B Utter, Samuel Nardone, William C. Clark, Andrew W. Fisher, Robert Duff, A. W. Bell, Isaac G. Smith, Edward Congdon, W. H. Chapman, Louis Solomon, Harvey C. Perry, Ralph LeR Segar, D. Everett Hoxie. Mr. Stanton acter as temporary chairman Wednesday night and appointed a nominating committee to bring in a list of officers at the next meeting, to be held next Tuesday evening, when the first dinner will be held. Where the banquet will be held will be decided by a committee consisting of Frederick M. Robertson, chairman, D. Everett Hoxie and Raymond C. Vars. The election will be attended by committees from the Lions clubs in Norwich, New London and Providence. Everett Starrett, a Providence banker, attended the meeting and was one of the speakers.

For the Westerly branch of the Industrial company, James M. Pendleton, manager, was reelected to the board of directors of the company at the annual meeting held in the banking rooms in Providence on Tuesday.

Firth B. Rollinson, of Wakefield, R. I., on Wednesday, purchased the manufacturing plant of the Pawcatuck Worsted company, located four miles up the Pawcatuck river, at Potter Hill. Mr. Rollinson is connected with the Wakefield Woolen company, of Wakefield, R. I., and it is understood that the new owner will operate the plant in the manufacture of woolen goods. The Pawcatuck Woolen mill has been operated and owned by Messrs. Batti and Trull, of New York, the personnel being Donald E. Williams and Earle Berry and Frank T. Trull, of New York.

The workmen who are tearing down the old Dr. J. Howard Morgan residence, 48 High street, formerly occupied by the Westerly chapter of the American Red Cross and the Westerly District Nurses association, had so far progressed with the work of demolition on Wednesday, that but few of the framed timbers at the front of the house remained standing. Architects are preparing plans for a new theatre to be erected at the site now owned by David Novogrod.

Employes of the Westerly Water works department were engaged on Tuesday, in repairing the Chestnut street water main, near the junction of Granite street, which became broken early Tuesday morning following Monday night's severe rain storm. That morning Police Patrolman George Madison set warning lights near the hole in the highway and the highway department was notified. The repairing of the break in the 13-inch main required the water to be shut off on Granite street between Elm and Spruce streets.

Westerly Ticket Agent George A. Golden, of the New Haven railroad, who went to a hospital in New London Tuesday, was operated on there Wednesday morning. His condition was reported as improved late Wednesday afternoon.

Walter Reith, G. B. Spargo and Edward Lindsey have returned to Westerly, after a several days' business trip to New York city.

Mrs. Elizabeth Martin, of Astoria, New York, arrived in Westerly Wednesday morning on a short business trip before returning to New York.

Repairs are nearing completion on the Frank N. Wilcox building on West Broad street, which was damaged on Thanksgiving eve, when the Eteiman clothing store was gutted by fire.

Charles E. Stewart, of Westerly and Providence, left Monday noon on a vacation trip to New Orleans, La., for the benefit of his health, having visited in Florida a year ago.

Joseph Rose, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rose, of Rose avenue, had a birthday celebration Tuesday evening at the home of his parents. Following a birthday dinner attended by relatives and friends, dancing was enjoyed to the music of a three-piece orchestra. The young man was the recipient of numerous gifts in honor of his anniversary.

Sergt. William P. Gaffney, of the Boston police department, was the guest, for a short time in Westerly, Wednesday, of Chief of Police Thomas E. Brown.

Rudolph DeSimone, 8, son of Amedio DeSimone, of 11 Pierce street, suffered a fracture of his collar bone, had one-third of his scalp torn off and sustained badly lacerated injuries when he was run over Tuesday afternoon, by an automobile driven by Virginia Riley, of District No. 6, near the Nardone residence. Dr. Henry L. Johnson gave the boy medical attention and he was taken to the Westerly hospital where he was reported in fair condition Wednesday afternoon.

NORTH STERLING

Fox hunters were out Saturday looking for the red and the gray.

Many are enjoying the sport fishing through the ice.

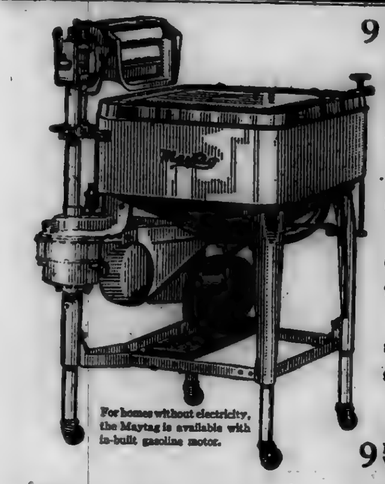
The local ice houses are being filled with clear 10-inch ice.

John Winther was in Danielson the past week.

Market wood is being cut for next season.

Local people attended the dance at the Community house at Plainfield, the past week.

What has become of the girl who used to blush at a bare statement of facts?



For homes without electricity, the Maytag is available with its built gasoline motor.

9 Outstanding Maytag Features

1 Washes faster.
2 Washes cleaner.
3 Largest hourly capacity. Tub holds 21 gals.
4 Most compact washer made—takes floor space only 25 inches square.
5 Cast aluminum tub—can't warp, rot, swell, split or corrode.
6 Easily adjusted to your height.
7 Clothes can be put in or taken out with the washer running.
8 Tub cleans itself.
9 All metal wringer. Self adjusting. Instant tension release.

9 Reasons for World Leadership

Until You Try the MAYTAG

YOU'LL never know how clean clothes can be washed—how easily and quickly they can be done. Big tubfuls in 3 to 7 minutes—50 pounds (dry weight) in an hour.

Every piece spotlessly clean—regardless of its weight—its texture.

Try the Maytag next week on that big—hard wash. No expense—no obligation. Phone any Maytag dealer. If it doesn't sell itself, don't keep it.

(Deferred Payments you'll never miss)

Maytag Aluminum Washer

Call one of the authorized Maytag dealers listed below

C. M. SHARPE
55 FRANKLIN STREET, NORWICH.
NORWICH 2820—TELEPHONE—PUTNAM 245-2.

MYSTIC

The monthly missionary meeting of the women of the Baptist church was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. A. Coates on Cliff street. In the absence of the president, Mrs. L. F. Allyn, who is in Florida, Miss Harriet Fish, vice president, presided. She read from the sixth chapter of Judges and offered prayer. Miss Wilbur read the minutes of last meeting and they were approved. Reports of the Golden Jubilee meeting held with the First Baptist church in New London last Friday were given by Miss Fish and Mrs. Wilcox. The program previously arranged had to be postponed owing to the illness of Mrs. Osborn and the absence of Mrs. B. F. Davis, chairman. In its place, Mrs. Davis sent a list of articles to be read as follows: Receipt for a Happy New Year, Miss Fish; New Frontiers, Mrs. E. C. Hall; Has the Missionary Motive Changed, Mrs. R. H. Hiscox; short readings from Home and Abroad by Miss Fish; short readings from Many Lands, New York City work, Mrs. C. H. Hyde; First Indian church in Ohio, Mrs. C. E. Newbury; Mormon Missionary Records, Helen Wilbur; Newfoundland Preachers, Mrs. W. Phillips; Moodys Memorial in Glasgow, Mrs. M. S. Brown. A devotional service and singing closed the meeting.

The Knights of Pythias lodge, No. 42, held their regular meeting in the hall in the Main block Monday evening at which time the district deputy from Norwich, installed the following officers: Chancellor Commander, C. J. Clendenning; vice chancellor, Fred Strickland; master of work, Zenas Snyder; keeper of records and seals, William Noyes; master of exchequer, Fred Bethel; master of finance, Anthony Arcangeli; master of arms, Ernest Erickson; inner guard, William Morris; outer guard, John T. Brooks. After the installation, Mrs. Ellery Burdick gave readings and supper was served.

Funeral services for Mrs. Ernestine Menge, wife of Julius Menge, were held at her late home, 25 Greenmanville avenue, Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 and were largely attended. The services were conducted by Mr. Vogt, speaker in behalf of the Herwegh lodge, Sons of Herman. The bearers were Paul Morgan, Eastern, of Stonington, William Monaghan of Westerly, William MacMullen and Oscar Sachs of Mystic. Interment was in Elm Grove cemetery. Floral tributes showed the love and esteem of relatives and friends.

The hall of Broadway school was filled to capacity on Tuesday evening for the demonstration arranged by Superintendent George D. Johnson of the telephone exchange. He introduced those who gave the demonstration work and each part of the everyday working in a telephone exchange was fully described. He had the switchboard, and in reality, a small exchange in working order on the stage. The moving pictures interested everyone and the one showing the numerous parts being assembled was most instructive. At present 1748 telephones are in the Mystic exchange.

The sudden and severe storm on Monday evening washed the streets badly. Sidewalks and driveways were washed out making traveling dangerous. The water from the West Side rushed down Baptist hill carrying sand onto the trolley tracks, delaying traffic and for a short time it was a small river on West Main street and needed rubber boots to cross it. A force of men were engaged in clearing the streets on Tuesday. Limbs were blown from trees and shingles from houses. Many cellars had water in them.

Mr. and Mrs. Witter of Brooklyn, Conn., are guests of Mrs. John K. Bucklyn.

Miss Clara Frink is visiting in Ekonk.

Miss Florence Allyn was a recent visitor in Providence.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church will meet this (Thursday) afternoon with Mrs. Leonard Allyn on Noank Road.

Henry Wilson was reported more comfortable Wednesday.

Mrs. Jennie Woodbury has moved from Park place to a tenement on Grove avenue.

WILSONVILLE

Mrs. R. Handy entertained friends from Webster, one day last week.

Mr. Daniels of Worcester, was in town on business one day recently.

Mr. Kerwin and family moved to Webster, Wednesday, having left the employ of L. Keegan.

Miss Anna and Emma Sobasik were in Webster Wednesday.

SOUTH COVENTRY

Karl Frans sails today (Thursday) on the S. S. Deutchland, Hamburg-American line, for the Province of Oldenburg, Germany, on a two months visit to his former home. Mr. Franz will also visit Mrs. Franz Reokle, at Bavaria, Germany.

Economy may be wealth, but you can't use it to much advantage in politics.

Women's Peace-of-Mind

under trying hygienic conditions is assured this new way. Gives absolute protection—discards like tissue

A DANCE, a sheer gown to be worn; a difficult hygienic situation. You need no longer give this complication a second thought.

The hazards of the old-time sanitary pad have been supplanted with a protection both absolute and exquisite.

It is called "KOTEX" . . . five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads.

Absorbs and deodorizes at the same time. Thus ending ALL fear of offending.

✓ You discard it as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

You get it for a few cents at any drug or department store simply by saying "KOTEX." Women ask for it without hesitancy.

Try Kotex. Comes 12 in a package. Proves old ways an unnecessary risk.

KOTEX

No laundry—discard like tissue

NOANK

Sidney Butson cut his hand badly, Tuesday at the Sea Sled Co., in West Mystic, Tuesday while getting out a plank for one of the sleds. His chisel slipped and inflicted a deep cut on his hand. A physician was required to dress the wound.

The roof of Bergman Ice Co., house was blown off during the last storm. It will take considerable money to repair it.

Mrs. E. Ruggett, of Boston, Mass., was a recent caller at Groton Long Point.

The town hall in Noank is being repaired inside and is also being painted.

Capt. Lawrence Ashcraft's New boat will be ready for a fishing trip this week. He has shipped his brother, Carl as mate.

Lewis Main, of New York, was home on Tuesday.

Mrs. William Hill is confined to her home with illness.

William Palmer is visiting in New York for a few days.

Roads on Mason Island are in bad shape. Two cars, one a truck, became mired on Tuesday and it was over an hour before they could get out of the mud and go on their way.

Ralph Lagerquist has returned to Providence after a visit in town.

Mrs. Lizzie Potter, of Riverside avenue has left for Waterford, to visit friends for a few weeks.

Samuel Veal has left for Florida to spend the rest of the winter.

Mrs. Annie Chandler has returned to her home in Norwich, after a visit with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Herman Webster.

Mrs. Edward Pinkman, Mrs. Dennis Welch and daughter, Marguerite, were recent callers on their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Angus MacLeod, of Prospect Hill.

The whist given Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Angus MacLeod was largely attended. The prize for high score was won by Mrs. Hanley of Mystic; low score by Mrs. Frank MacDonald; high man's, James Higgins and H. Bracci. The whists are given for the benefit of St. Joseph's church. The next whist will be in charge of Mrs. Lewis Main, assistant, Mrs. Charles Rogers and Mrs. John Tourjee.

The Fireflies club met at the home of Leo Harris, on Water street, Tuesday evening. It was voted to organize an orchestra and run dances next month. Those on the committee are Walter Willis, Leo Haris, J. Adams and Frank Conway. One new member was accepted. After the meeting a fish chowder was served by Steward T. Pacci.

Kenneth Steele has gone to Saybrook on a visit.

William Tourjee has returned home from New York.

William Burns is in Terryville for a week.

Toney Patsy is visiting relatives in New Jersey.

COVENTRY

Mrs. Josephine Chase, 66, wife of Fred W. Chase, died at her home Saturday noon. Mrs. Chase had a shock on January 5, and was almost completely paralyzed until her death. She had been a resident of this town for more than 30 years and is survived by her husband, one son, Rowell W. Chase, of Hartford, four daughters, Mrs. James Wood, of Talcottville; Mrs. Helen Gilnar, Bloomfield; Mrs. G. H. Storrs, of Coventry, and Mrs. Arthur Shepherd, now of Florida, and one sister, Mrs. Hattie Ten Eycke, Westville, N. J. Funeral services were held at the home on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. J. N. Atwood officiating and burial was in the family lot in the Center cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Spring has sold her farm with all stock and tools, to Charles R. Knight, of Norwich. This makes the third time in the past fifteen years that Mr. Knight has owned this place and he now declares he will never leave again.

Charles Perkins has sold his place to Mr. Fairchild of Ellington and will move to New Haven.

F. D. Hall has sold his house and lot to John Strack of Astoria, L. I., and will live in Manchester.

The 16 months old child of Mr. and Mrs. John Kingsbury drank a small quantity of ammonia on Friday last. A physician happened to be near and quickly administered antidots which saved the child's life, although it has not yet fully recovered.

Newell A. Hill and son, Lawrence, while coming to their home from Rockville, Saturday afternoon, ran into the Connecticut Co.'s work car at the East street crossing. The auto was damaged beyond repair, but neither occupant received any injury.

Rev. and Mrs. H. C. McKnight are spending the winter with their son in Wellsburg, Pa.

LIBERTY HILL

The weather conditions last week were ideal for gathering ice and most of the people who store ice were getting it in.

The Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening was under the leadership of Mrs. L. L. Haris, who substituted for Mrs. E. C. Payson, who was suffering from a severe cold.

Mrs. Milo S. Davoll, who has been ill with the grip, is slowly improving.

In his sermon Sunday morning, Rev. L. L. Harris gave a very vivid development of the thought of what the condition of the world would be if Jesus had not come. The theme of the sermon was, "If I had not come," John 15th chapter 22d verse.

At the Dog, Poultry, Pigeon and Pet show held in Willimantic, last week, Charles E. Goodrich won 1st prize with his police bitch puppy, "Douxcoeur Cheri. She is grandaughter of Wolfe, the $12,000 police dog.

Leslie P. Clarke is having lumber sawed at J. A. Choquette's saw mill for a horse barn.

Although E. C. Payson and family were detained from church, Sunday morning by sickness, their shepherd dog, Belle, attended church, lying on the steps during the service. In the absence of Mrs. Payson, as pianist at church, her sister, Mrs. C. B. Adams, substituted.

Mrs. Sarah Robinson of New Haven was buried in Liberty Hill cemetery Saturday, Jan. 16th at 1 p. m. Rev. L. L. Harris, pastor of Exeter Liberty Hill church, conducted service at the grave. She left two sons and five daughters, William and George Robinson, Mrs. Louis Wilson, Mis Georgia and Miss Laura Robinson, of New Haven, Mrs. Evarts, of Noank and Mrs. Edward W. Stiles, of Liberty Hill. Mrs. Robinson was the widow of George Robinson, former residents here.

At the Dog, Pigeon, Poultry and Pet show held in Willimantic last week The Luana Poultry Plant of Liberty Hill, won eight prizes out of ten entries in the Buff Plymouth Rocks class.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Choquette entertained their son, Leon and family, also P. J. Griffin and family, of Southington.

LEONARD BRIDGE

Funeral services for Mrs. Anna Porter Mills were held Friday afternoon at 1:30 p. m., at the Lebanon Center Congregational parlors. Rev. Stanley Sellick officiated. Burial took place in the family plot at Exeter cemetery, where, just a week before, her sister-in-law, Miss Mary Mills, was laid at rest. The committal service was conducted by Rev. Stanley Sellick.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Geer and daughter, Janice, have returned from a visit with friends in Hartford. While there they also attended the State grange meeting.

Miss Dorothy McCall, of New Britain, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McCall.

Mr. and Mrs. David Walsh were callers in Columbia, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Olive Baldwin, of New Haven has been spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. James A. Thomas, being called here by the death of her mother, Mrs. Anna Mills.

Mrs. Charles M. Geer and Miss Myra Geer spent a day, recently, with Mrs. C. S. Goodwin, at Lebanon.

Ralph Kenyon, of Salem, has been spending a week with his parents, Mr and Mrs. Albert B. Kenyon.

Rev. Miss Lydia M. Hartig went to Hartford, Sunday afternoon, to receive throat treatment. She has been unable to preach at the Goshen church for three Sundays. The treatments will be continued for at least a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Geer and Leroy Geer were in Norwich, Saturday afternoon.

Arthur Spencer is suffering with blood poisoning.

SCOTLAND

Mrs. Paul B. Sanger is at New Haven, where she is receiving treatments.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Haskins motored to Connecticut college, New London, Saturday and called on their daughter, Miss Arline Haskins.

Mr. and Mrs. William Savyster and children, of Brooklyn, were with Mr. Savyster's mother, here Sunday.

Miss Sadie Kimball has returned home, from Hampton.

Eugene Kimball is at F. N. Taylor's at Lebanon, for a few days.

Members of the choir and others gathered at the Amidon home Sunday at 3 o'clock, and sang hymns to R. S. Amidon, who has been confined to his bed for a long time.

The R. C. Rasen family is recovering from diphtheria.

Arthur Gager has been ill with diphtheria.

The grange meeting was held Friday evening; the programme being under the leadership of the new lecturer, Mrs. Maud Roberts.

Tuesday evening, the 26th., Shetuck et grange will visit Echo grange, at Mansfield, and present it the traveling gavel.

A number from here motored to Andover Saturday night, and attended an old fashioned social and dance.

Worthy Master Myra Perry and Lecturer Maud Roberts attended the State grange meetings at Hartford.

Mrs. Waldo Bingham has been ill for the past few days.

The local ice crop is nearly harvested, the Scotland Dairy Co., filling its ice house last Friday.

The Prudential committee of the church is to meet at the home of L. J. Moffit, Friday night.

WINDHAM

At the annual meeting of the Windham Players, Miss Emma Neale was elected president, Miss Dorothy Brown, vice president, Arthur Slate, secretary and Eden Cook treasurer. Mrs. F. G. Barber and Mrs. E. K. Leffingwell were chosen to serve on the executive committee and the directors of plays are Miss Brown and Mrs. John F. Woods. Five plays have been given during the year and there is about $100 in the treasury. The players are to commence rehearsals soon on three one-act plays.

Mrs. L. F. Lack of Lea Cliff, N. Y., were called here by the sudden death Sunday of her mother, Mrs. Walter Abbe.

Miss Mary Packer is in Willimantic assisting in the care of Mrs. Tickner.

The meeting and roll call of the Congregational church is to be held Thursday evening preceded by a supper for members and friends of the church.

An interesting C. E. meeting Sunday evening was led by Casalus Barstow. Mrs. Homer Wood and Mrs. Alfred Harvey sang a duet.

A bright Sunday was noticed about 8.15 Saturday a. m. forecasting the storm of Monday. The fog and rain removed the snow and ice and in the sunshine of Tuesday the grass was as green as in the summer.

BROOKLYN

Brooklyn Grange, No. 43 was well represented at the Connecticut State grange sessions in Hartford last week.

Charles Parker, Jr., has been ill with grip.

The Benevolent Society of the Congregational church met with Mrs. Leroy Pearl Wednesday afternoon.

The Brooklyn Men's Club meeting was well attended Monday evening, at the chapel. A bountiful supper was served by the Ladies' Aid Society.

William Sangster and family visited Mrs. Sangster's mother in Scotland Sunday.

J. D. Stetson had his ice house filled with a fine quality of ice, last Saturday.

The dance given by Herman Lathrop in the Town Hall Saturday evening was well attended. A large crowd gathered to hear Uncle "Joe" Shippee and his orchestra.

William Sangster was in New Haven on business recently.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. James, Roy A. James and Miss Dorothy Pearl visited in Burnside, Conn., Thursday of last week.

Straighten Up! Nicest Laxative, "Cascarets" 10c

Don't stay headachy, dizzy, sick. Nothing else relieves that "bilious, constipated feeling so nicely as candy-like "Cascarets." Take one or two of these pleasant laxative tablets any time, to gently stimulate your liver and start your bowels. Then you will feel fine, your head becomes clear, stomach sweet, tongue pink, skin rosy. "Cascarets" gently cleanse, sweeten and refresh the entire system. They never gripe, overact or sicken. Directions for men, women and children on each box, any drugstore.

THE BOSTON STORE
THE REID & HUGHES COMPANY
NORWICH CONNECTICUT

One-Day Opportunities In Ready-to-Wear

A LIMITED NUMBER OF ITEMS CAREFULLY SELECTED AND PRICED FOR ONE DAY ONLY. IN MOST INSTANCES LOTS ARE SMALL AND HIGHLY DESIRABLE, AND WE ARE OBLIGED TO SAY "NO MAIL OR TELEPHONE ORDERS."

WOMEN'S WINTER COATS
$15.00 and $20.00.

Women's Cloth Coats, divided into two groups for quick clearance. Remember, only 20 garments in all late models and materials, mostly fur-trimmed. This offer for one day only.

WOMEN'S SILK DRESSES, $10.00

Splendid assortment High Grade Garments, comprising all late winter models, in black and some colors, good looking Silk Dresses. Look them over. Perhaps you can find just what you are looking for. Remember, only 25 Dresses in this assortment.

WOMEN'S WOOL SWEATERS, $5.00

Splendid new assortment of strictly All Wool Sweaters, mostly coat style. Black, tan and navy, smart looking, good and warm, suitable for skating, dress or office wear. Values to $6.95. This is an exceptional offer for one day.

Surprise Special No. 64

Only exceptional merchandise values featured in these one-day specials. To properly identify these unusual values we have named them

Surprise Specials

1500 Yards OF 32-INCH
BATES' ZEPHYR GINGHAMS
Short lengths. Our regular price 29c..
SURPRISE SPECIAL
17c yd

PILES OF OYSTER SHELLS CRITERION OF BUSINESS

NEW YORK, Jan. 20—(AP)—Manmade mountains are changing the landscape in a dozen shore villages of eastern Long Island. Places that last year were smooth stretches of windswept beach now are the site of these synthetic hills.

Despite the fact that the mounds are neither artistic nor utilitarian in themselves, community pride of each hamlet appears to be in direct proportion to the size of its local mountain since the size of the heap measures the town's prosperity. So closely is the altitude of these mounds likened with good times that Long Islanders have come to speak of their piles of oyster shells as "financial ornaments."

At Greenport, Huntington, Oyster Bay, Blue Point and other villages, some of the heaps already have attained mountain size. The old theory that the work of a carpenter can be determined by the number of his chips finds confirmation among the oyster fishermen.

Oysters this year are plentiful and of fair size, fishermen say, so there is more than ordinary enterprise among those who go down to the sea in ships to make their living. Reports last year that the bivalve was a disease spreading agency cut the demand sharply last year, but this year it appears that confidence has been restored. Shippers of oysters this year are putting into effect every suggestion of health authorities.

In Greenport alone more than 30 power vessels are engaged in bringing the oysters from Peconic Bay, Fire Place Point and other oyster lands. Hardly a day passe but a carload of 1,500 gallons is shipped from the town.

As a result of the demand and supply this year every oyster shop is a hive of industry. Vessels arrive constantly from the oyster field to dump their cargoes into the containers that take them on long journeys west. As they arrive at the opening and packing house the oysters are handler almost exclusively by conveyors.

After being opened the bivalves are washed in different waters. In one process a strong current of air is used to remove particles of shells that might have been left behind in opening. Mainly, the stock is packed in five gallon iced tins, stored in refrigerator cars and shipped by fast trains. Oyster dealers say that it takes only five days to send shipments from Long Island to the Pacific Coast.

Localities vary in the matter of favoring various sizes of oysters for home consumption. Some wish the small oyster while others have a marked preference for the medium or large varities. Size alone is not necessarily an indication of oyster quality. However, in order that each community may have its preference, the oysters are graded as to size. The largest size runs about 200 oysters to the gallon.

There is no complaint when the heap of oyster shells in the various villages of Long Island grow to rather mountainous proportions.

AGRICULTURAL SCHOOLS FORM PART MEXICAN FARM PROGRAM

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 20—(AP)—The program of the Calles government for the agricultural improvement and development of Mexico is gradually being effected.

Already five Central Agricultural schools have been established, one in each of the states of Oaxaca, Hidalgo, Michoacan, Durango and Guanajuato. It is planned to eventually start such schools in every state.

The agricultural promotion projects also contemplate the creation of state or regional banks expressly intended to extend credits and loans to worthy farmers.

More than twenty Mexican students in United States agricultural schools are preparing themselves for professorships in the new Mexican schools.

All-in Every Evening? Beware of Chronic Fatigue

Thousands of men and women who come home exhausted, nervous and irritable every evening are really victims of—chronic fatigue.

TOO TIRED

Chronic fatigue is an unnatural tiredness—usually due to lack of sufficient organic iron in the blood. To conquer it you must restore this iron to your blood. For this purpose nothing equals organic iron—Nuxated Iron—which is like the iron in your blood and like that in spinach and lentils. It will not injure the teeth or disturb the stomach like old-fashioned mineral iron medicines.

Take Nuxated Iron for just 2 weeks and notice how much stronger and better you feel. Money back if not improved. At all good druggists.

NUXATED IRON
ENRICHES THE BLOOD AND BANISHES CHRONIC FATIGUE

FOR STRENGTH AFTER ILLNESS FATHER JOHN'S

OVER 60 YEARS OF SUCCESS AS A BODY BUILDER.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your questions before the people there is no better medium than the Bulletin.

REPORTED SALE OF MOORE ESTATE TO WALDO E. CLARK, NEW LONDON

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Jan. 20—It is reported this afternoon that Waldo E. Clark and other financial interests have acquired the valuable property on Parkway, Pequot colony, owned by Robert Moore, wealthy New Orleans resident, a summer visitor in New London for many years. Mr Clark could not be located at his office at the General Navigation company, state pier to confirm or deny the report, and Mr. Moore is in New Orleans. It is known, however, that Mr. Moore has been desirous of selling his property for some time. The property consists of a large mansion and garage and several acres of land, some of which front on Pequot avenue. It is understood that the syndicate intends to cut up the land for residential sites.

TOTAL OF $47,980 TO DATE TOWARD COMMUNITY CHEST

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Jan. 20—New London is endeavoring to fill a community chest with money that will aggregate more than $90,000 which money shall be apportioned for all the demands that charity shall make upon it during 1926. That money is also to be used for health purposes and for the needs in charity of nineteen constituent units. Up to the afternoon $47,980.33 had been raised, or contributed or pledged for the purposes of the chest. The first half of the amount came fairly easily, but nearly as much as has been contributed is yet to be raised.

OLD LYME MAN'S GOOD TIME ENDS IN LOSS OF $98 WAD

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Jan. 20—Harry G. Pierson, Old Lyme, visited New London yesterday and during the latter part of the day he started to take in the sights, much to his sorrow, if the story he related to the police early this morning is true, for Pierson declared that he had been robbed of $98. The police, however, are inclined to disbelieve Pierson's story of being robbed, being more inclined to the belief that he parted with his money during his Sporty trip.

Pierson, who had been drinking, appeared before Desk Sergeant James D. Gaffney at 2:30 o'clock and stated that he had visited a black and tan joint at 16 John street and that a woman resident of the place had relieved him of his money. Officers were sent to the John street house accompanied by Pierson, but the woman Pierson alleges took his money was not there. The only woman in the house was Nellie May Jones, colored, and she was taken to the police station, but she was not detained because Pierson insisted she was not the thief.

The fire department was called out at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon for a blaze at the Paquette bakery, 486 Bank street. The fire was discovered by an employe of the bakery and was located in the rear of the establishment among a quantity of flour bags. The burning burlap caused much smoke to issue from the place and the employe believing a serious fire had started caused an alarm to be sent in from Box 45, corner of Bank and Truman streets. On the arrival of the first of the fire companies a quantity of chemicals sufficed to extinguish the blaze.

The annual meeting of the New London Board of Fire Underwriters took place this afternoon at the Hotel Mohican, when a luncheon was served prior to the election of officers. The officers chosen are: President, Thomas S. McGinley; vice presidents James M. Graves and Arthur H. Shurtz; treasurer, Sidney H. Miner; secretary, Jennie L. Doyle; executive committee, James M. Graves, Arthur H. Shurtz, Sidney H. Miner, Jennie L. Doyle, Reginald Rowland, Augustus C. Stearns and James R. May.

The police department believes that it has obtained information that will in a short time break up some of the vilest places that ever existed in this city. They reached that conclusion when Sergeant Smith got Sylvia Wells, accused of attacking Mazie William with the intention of killing her a few nights ago in a house in Potter street just in the rear of the police station. The Wells woman, a comely looking person of about 25, brown of skin and with bright black eyes, is in the county jail where she is held in the absence of a $3,500 bond, to answer to a charge of felonious assault with a razor. She did an artist's job on Mazie's face. Mazie is in the hospital where she is receiving attention that it is expected will bring her into court a week hence. Sylvia was scared and she talked freely in the hope that what she said would free her with a light penalty. She told Sergeant Smith, it is claimed, that she was brought to New London by a negro named Robert W. Jackson. The police started out to find Jackson after they had "pumped" Sylvia and they succeeded in locating him. He was presented in court today and was held as a witness in the cutting scrape until the women appear in court to answer. The story which Sylvia told to the police was recited today as stating that she came here with Jackson and that she went to board with Mazie Williams. She didn't stay there long because the conditions did not suit her. She says she "sneaked" away and brought up at the house run by William H. Matthews on Potter street. Mazie located her and went to the Matthews house to interview her. Mazie is declared to have imbibed freely 'n booze before she started, so that when she reached there she was in fighting condition. Sylvia had left the room when Mazie arrived, but she was in an adjoining room whence she heard all that was said. She immediately confronted Mazie and the battle was on, the former using her razor with fierce effect. Then the police were called and the Williams woman was rushed to a hospital. Now Sylvia is understood to have claimed that she was brought here to be a boarder at the Williams house for immoral purposes, and if that is proven, the man who brought her to New London is apt to be punished under the Mann act. John Lane and Matthews were in the home of the latter when the cutting occurred and they too are held as witnesses. The Williams woman has a long and unenviable police record. It charges the keeping of a disreputable house and intoxication and breaches of the public peace. She has served time in jail and she has paid good-sized fines, but she still is active as a law violator. The Wells girl has been in the city but a short time, but the police say her stay has been quite as long as it should be permitted to be.

John Smith, an actor, stood up in the police court this morning and said he was guilty, when charged with intoxication last night. John didn't know what happened, he said. He had a hazy recollection that he had looked into glasses of booze, but after that he could not say what happened. He had never been in the court before so his offense was looked upon with leniency and he escaped judgment.

Police Sergeant John Cavanaugh, recently married, who was summoned home by his wedding tour because of the death of his sister, Mrs. Mary Skelsky, at New Britain, has resumed his duties in police work.

Funeral services for Albert W. J. Samuelsen, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl H. Samuelsen, 34 Mercer street, were held this morning at 9:30 o'clock at 48 Shapley street, Rev. J. Romeyn Danforth, pastor of the First Church of Christ, and Rev. Morton Olson, pastor of the Norwegian church, officiating. The body was forwarded to Perth Amboy, N. J., for burial tomorrow.

The funeral of Ellen Murray, widow of William Burke, was held this morning at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's Star of the Sea church and was attended by many mourners. A mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Raymond O'Callahan. The bearers were Edward N. Raymond, Frank and Harold Murray and Raymond Neilan and Frank Kelley, all grandnephews of Mrs. Burke. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery, where the committal prayers were read by Rev. Fr. O'Callahan.

Abraham Katz, recently penalized in the police court for violation of the city's traffic laws on Winthrop street, between Crystal avenue and the overhead bridge of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, is a Shaw street merchant and not a business man by the same name, located at Harrison and Tenth streets.

Joseph Sigal, of Hartford, today sold a small tract of land at Ocean Beach to Hyman Tanenbaum.

Mrs. Leroy Getchell, 231 Connecticut avenue, has lodged complaint with the police because of the theft of silk underwear from a clothesline of her home, yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Getchell stated that a man was seen to depart from the yard between 5 and 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The two story building, corner of Montauk and Willets avenues, owned by Margaret McCarthy, was sold today to Ambrose Casara for a price said to be $16,500. The building contains four stores and two dwellings. It is understood that the new owner will cause extensive alterations to the property to be made at once.

Patrolman Ernest Opperman in reporting off duty this morning made it known that a Ford automobile has been parked on Spring street for several days and that the owner of the automobile was not known.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Hall Tucker was held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of her son, H. W. Tucker, 38 Waller street, and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends. The services were conducted by Rev. J. Romeyn Danforth, pastor of the First Church of Christ. The body was forwarded to Boston, where the interment will take place Thursday in Mount Hope cemetery.

Mrs. Gertrude Hepburn and son, Theodore Champion, 13, of 229 Huntington street, victims of carbon monoxide poisoning at the Hepburn home Monday night, were able to depart from Lawrence hospital today. Other patients dismissed were Robert Walsh, Waterford; Charles Andrews, 336 Vauxhall street; Miss Margaret Condon, 99 Crystal avenue and Miss Viola Otis, 13 Tenth street.

Mrs. H. E. O'Neill, 121 street, is spending a few days at Atlantic City.

The condition of Miss E. Lillian White, employed by the Savings bank of New London, who has been confined to her home, Cleveland street, several weeks by illness, is reported vastly improved and it is believed that the patient will be able to resume her duties within a short time.

Mrs. George L. King, 268 Connecticut avenue, is confined to her home as a result of a severe attack of grip.

Funeral services for Mrs. Alice Eldridge Chapman, late of Groton, whose death occurred at Lawrence hospital several days ago, were held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Groton Heights Congregational church and were attended by relatives and friends. Rev. Henry W. Hulbert, pastor of the church, conducted the services. The bearers were Henry E. Marquardt, Henry L. Bailey, David Armstrong and David H. Seaman. Interment was in Groton cemetery.

Thomas T. Weymore, Jr., has sold to Thomas T. Wetmore, Saybrook, a parcel of land on Crocker street.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Teuthorn and Mrs. Elizabeth Teuthorn, Poquonoc Bridge, are spending a few days with relatives in Jamaica Plains, and Holbrook, Mass.

The semi-monthly meeting of Konomoc Grange, No. 41, P. of H., was held in Firemen's hall, Waterford this evening. The interesting feature of the meeting was the rendition of the report by the delegate, T. H. Hanney, of the state grange convention, which was held at Harford last week. Following the meeting refreshments were served and a musical program was rendered.

Local coal dealers have not a great quantity of coal on hand, but they have enough, they say, to keep their regular customers supplied. The mild weather thus far has enabled householders to resort to substitutes and thus the demand for coal has been lessened.

There have been fourteen fire alarms during the 20 days of this month thus far, a number that has not been exceeded in this city. All the fires appear to have been the result of accident or carelessness. The losses sustained have not been large.

Taximen declare that the weather of the winter has brought them more business than usually comes during the cold season. While the taximen have this story to tell the bus operators and the trolleymen say that business has fallen off for them as people will walk more when the weather is mild than in the stormy and cold season.

When the contemplated improvements are made at Pequot avenue and lower boulevard a space will be opened up that will enable a view north and south that is not now obtainable. The owners of the land have given a section to the city, but they ask in return the removal of the street railway tracks at the expense of the city or of the operating company and it has been agreed that such a change will be made.

More real estate has been bought and sold in New London in the past three months than has been acquired or disposed of in many months. But there has been little construction work done, in the heart of the city changes are being made on Golden street, by the removal of two dwelling houses to make way for a garage that will accommodate a large number of machines. That work is being hurried along so that it will be completed in about thirty days.

PRODUCTION ON INCREASE IN STORRS EGG LAYING

Production continues to increase in the contest, as the 1400 pullets laid 4510 eggs, or forty-six per cent., in the eleventh week of competition. This is 312 eggs more than were laid last week, and 1043 eggs more than were laid in the corresponding week a year ago. A grand total of 38,855 eggs have been laid to date.

Hanson's Leghorn Farm from Corvallis, Ore., winner of the fourteenth egg laying contest, had the high pen for the week, their entry laying fifty-one eggs. A pen of Rhode Island Reds entered by George B. Treadwell from Spencer, Mass., came a close second for the week with a lay of fifty eggs. Three pens were tied for third place, each with a lay of forty-eight eggs. They are the White Wyandottes owned by The Locusts, West Cornwall, Conn., the Rhode Island Reds entered by Deer Brook Poultry Farm, Short Falls, N. H., and the White Leghorns entered by Ernest Craze from Ramsey, N. J. A Connecticut pen of White Leghorns entered by Leo A. Crouten from Farmington, Conn., was fourth for the week with a lay of forty-seven eggs.

Three changes took place among the leading pens of the principal varieties, in the White Wyandotte class, the Locusts' entry from West Cornwall, Ct., went up into second position, displacing the entry of Thomas H. Matteson from Daviaville, R. I. In the Rhode Island Red class, the entry of George B. Treadwell from Spencer, Mass., went up into fourth position, displacing the entry of Hayes Hennery from Dover, N. H. In the White Leghorn class, the entry of Marquis Poultry Farm from Toms River, N. J., went up into fifth position, displacing the entry of Ruehle's Sunnyside Farm from Pleasant Valley, N. Y.

With a record of 562 eggs to date, a Connecticut pen of Rhode Island Reds entered by John Z. LaBelle from Ballouville leads the way for all other pens in the competition. Their nearest competitor is the White Leghorn entry of Mount Hope Farm from Williamstown, Mass., which to date have laid 510 eggs.

The leading pens in each of the principal varieties are as follows:

White Wyandottes

Obed G. Knight, Bridgeton, R. I.	350
The Locusts, West Cornwall, Conn.	347

Barred Rocks

Edgar Stoughton, Wapping, Conn.	371
Harriet Smith, Newburyport, Mass.	366
W. H. B. Kent, Cazenovia, N. Y.	364

Rhode Island Reds

John Z. LaBelle, Ballouville, Conn.	562
R. D. Sargent, East Ryegate, Vt.	443
Shell Crest Farm, Holliston, Mass.	436
George B. Treadwell, Spencer, Mass.	379

White Leghorns

Mount Hope Farm, Williamstown, Mass.	510
Dudley Poultry Farm, Webster, Mass.	501
R. W. Colman, Medina, N. Y.	476
Tolvonen Leghorn Farm, Girard, Pa.	460

All Other Varieties

F. M. Wistner (Anconas), Monroe, Mich.	355
A. T. Leuzen (White Rocks), North Attleboro, Mass.	248
S. Bradford Allyn, Holliston, Mass.	191

How effective way to treat sore muscles.

HOW TO GET RID OF MUSCLE-LAMENESS

Beach Patrolman Advises this Treatment

After exposure to dampness and cold, and after hard exercise, muscles will stiffen up and get lame.

A beach patrolman at Atlantic City writes that he has found this treatment the quickest and most effective way to take out the stiffness and pain:

"Just get on a little of Sloan's Liniment. Don't rub. It's the liniment—not the rubbing—that helps. You'll get relief right away. I've tried all sorts of other things, but nothing gets results like Sloan's."

Hundreds of letters like this tell of the wonderful relief from muscular pain that Sloan's gives.

Sloan's gets results because it doesn't just deaden pain, it gets at the cause. Right to the place that hurts it brings a healing stream of fresh, new blood. Quickly and surely it carries off the "fatigue-poisons," takes out stiffness and drives away the aches and pains.

Get a bottle today and have it on hand. All druggists—35 cents.

Freedom From Stomach Distress

Lee & Osgood Co. Has the Remedy and Guarantees it to End Indigestion or Gastritis. So Why Be Miserable?

You can get one bottle of Dare's Mentha-Pepsin and if after you take it you do not say it did your stomach more good than anything you ever used before, your money will be waiting for you.

This delightful and effective elixir not only gives instant relief from gas, fullness, heartburn and distress after eating, but taken regularly for a short time will turn your weak, run down stomach into a strong healthy one able to perform its duties without help.

It ends indigestion, gastritis, catarrh of the stomach and does it in a surprisingly short period of time.

Dr Wm. W. Morgan, a prominent dentist of Bridgeton, N. J., writes: "After suffering severely with gastritis and other stomach troubles, a friend gave me a bottle of Dare's Mentha-Pepsin. I had obtained little relief from other remedies, but four bottles entirely ended the trouble." Get it at Lee & Osgood and all regular druggists everywhere.

THE LIONS CLUB
—PRESENTS—
THE ULTRA-MODERN MUSICAL COMEDY
THAT'S THAT
A JOHN B. ROGERS PRODUCTION
Broadway Theatre — Jan. 26 and 27
Tickets now on sale at: Engler's, Fagen's, Cranston's, Smith Pharmacy, Madden's, Ethier's, Shea's News Store, Sisko Drug Store, by members of the cast and members of the Lions Club.

RADIO

Thursday, January 21.

WJZ—NEW YORK CITY—455

6:30 p. m.—N. Y. University course.
7 p. m.—Judge, jr.
7:15 p. m.—Madison Concert orchestra.
7:45 p. m.—U. S. Army Band.
8:15 p. m.—"Horses," James G. Harbord.
8:30 p. m.—Voice of the Silent Drama.
9 p. m.—Royal orchestra.
10 p. m.—"Political Situation in Washington."
10:15 p. m.—The Record Boys.
10:45 p. m.—Freddie Rich's orchestra.

WJY—NEW YORK—405

7:30 p. m.—Vanderbilt orchestra.
8:30 p. m.—Jerome Uhl, barytone.
9 p. m.—Henrietta Dougherty, soprano.
9:15 p. m.—Annual Church Club Dinner; speakers: The Rev. John G. Murray, Bishop William T. Manning, Dr. H. Goddard Leach, Rev. Ernest M. Stires and Governor George S. Silzer.

WEAF—NEW YORK—492

6 p. m.—Dinner Music.
7 p. m.—Mid-week Hymn Sing.
7:30 p. m.—"The Brothers."
8 p. m.—"The Larkinites."
8:40 p. m.—"The Harvesters."
9 p. m.—"Cliquot Eskimos."
10 p. m.—Silvertown orchestra.
11-12 p. m.—Vincent Lopez's orchestra.

WGBS—NEW YORK—316

6 p. m.—Uncle Geebee
6:30 p. m.—Lewistone Syncopators.
7 p. m.—"What the World Is Doing."
7:10 p. m.—Joe Gruss Syncopators.
7:30 p. m.—"Tour of the Galleries."
7:45 p. m.—Dance orchestra.
8:30 p. m.—Joseph Halligan, tenor.
8:30 p. m.—Book and play review.
9 p. m.—Violin virtuoso.
9:30 p. m.—"Musiconedette."
10 p. m.—Taussig, Agar, McCoy and Wright, songs.
10:30 p. m.—Dance orchestra.

WHN—NEW YORK—361

7 p. m.—Vincent Lopez orchestra.
7:50 p. m.—Ciro's orchestra.
8 p. m.—Oakland's Chateau Shanley.
8:30 p. m.—Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wood, songs.
8:45 p. m.—Weston Joyce, banjoists.
9 p. m.—Billy and Marie Van, singers.
9:15 p. m.—Hock and Jerome, songs.
10:30 p. m.—Kentucky orchestra.
11 p. m.—Swanee Entertainers.
11:30 p. m.—Everglades orchestra.
12 midnight-12:30 a. m.—Parody orchestra.

WNYC—NEW YORK—526

1:15 p. m.—Merchants' Association luncheon; address by Mayor Walker.
7 p. m.—"Market High Sports."
7:10 p. m.—Dance orchestra.
7:30 p. m.—Police alarms.
7:35 p. m.—Dance orchestra.
8 p. m.—New York Zither Trio.
8:30 p. m.—"The Bearing of International Law on the Further Limitation of Naval Armaments," Charles Hyde.
10 p. m.—Matilda Lindsay, soprano.
10:15 p. m.—"Trend of the Times."
10:30 p. m.—Police alarms; weather.

WLWL—NEW YORK—288

9 p. m.—Anne Wolcott, pianist.
9:10 p. m.—Songs.
9:30 p. m.—"Tolerance," Conde Pallen.
9:50 p. m.—Kreuter Trio.
10:15 p. m.—"Psychoanalysis," Rev. Bruehl.
10:35 p. m.—Irene Vivienne, soprano.

WBBR—STATEN ISLAND—278

8 p. m.—Carl Park, violinist.
8:10 p. m.—Vocal selections.
8:20 p. m.—Bible lecture, W. L. Pelle.
8:40 p. m.—Vocal selections; violinist.

WAHG—RICHMOND HILL—316

12:02 p. m.—Ghebe Matinee Trio.

WOR—NEWARK—405

2:30 p. m.—Maxine Brown.
2:45 p. m.—"Bull Terrier," George Little.
3 p. m.—Maxine Brown.
3:15 p. m.—Eugene Spier, pianist.
3:30 p. m.—Al Wilson's Playmates.
6:15 p. m.—Words mispronounced.
6:17 p. m.—Bill Wathey, "Sports."
6:30 p. m.—Jacques Jacobs's Ensemble.
7:20 p. m.—News bulletin.

WGCP—NEWARK—252

3 p. m.—Songs by artists.
4:20 p. m.—Melody Boys.
5:10 p. m.—Cylvia Schatz, pianist.
3:10, 4, 5 p. m.—Race results.
8:30 p. m.—Symphony orchestra.
9 p. m.—Piotto, Val and Lloyd.
9:15 p. m.—Piano; Judith Roth, soprano.
9:45 p. m.—Max Heitt, violinist.
10 p. m.—Ruby Cowan Entertainers.
10:30 p. m.—Strickland's orchestra.

WLIT—PHILADELPHIA—395

12:05 p. m.—Organ; religious service.
12:35 p. m.—Concert orchestra.
3 p. m.—Concert orchestra.
4:30 p. m.—Artist recital.
5 p. m.—"Auto Repairs."
7:30 p. m.—Dream Daddy.

WHAR—ATLANTIC CITY—274

2 p. m.—Seaside Trio.
7:20 p. m.—Book chat; trio.
9 p. m.—Studio concert.
11:30 p. m.—Dance orchestra.

WGY—SCHENECTADY—380

2 p. m.—Music; talk.
6:30 p. m.—Ten Eyck Concert Trio.
7:30 p. m.—"WGY Book Chat."
7:45 p. m.—Syracuse University program.
9 p. m.—Royal Salon orchestra.
10 p. m.—Rice String Quartet; Mrs. John E. Faulkner, contralto.

WRW—TARRYTOWN—273

9 p. m.—Boy Scouts program.
9:30 p. m.—Utopia orchestra.
10 p. m.—Songs.
10:45 p. m.—Utopia orchestra.
11 p. m.—Casper Dahlquits, tenor.
11:15 p. m.—Kent Thompson, barrione.

WGR—BUFFALO—319

6:30 p. m.—Dinner music.
8 p. m.—The Larkinites.
8:30 p. m.—Jack Little, songs.
9-11 p. m.—Jointly with WEAF.
11 p. m.-1 a. m.—Vincent Lopez's orchestra.

WJAR—PROVIDENCE—306

1:05 p. m.—Musical program.
8 p. m.—Power's orchestra.
9 p. m.—Cliquot Eskimos.
10 p. m.—Silvertown orchestra.

WTIC—HARTFORD—476

6:30 p. m.—"In Happyland."
7 p. m.—Travelers' Managers banquet; band; male quartet; speakers.

WNAC—BOSTON—240

10:30 a. m.—Women's Club talks
12:15 p. m.—Noon service.
1 p. m.—Concert orchestra.
1:50 p. m.—Ted Waterson, songs.
4 p. m.—Morey Pearl's Ramblers.
6 p. m.—The Smilers.
6:30 p. m.—Dinner dance.
8-10 p. m.—Musical program.

—WEEI—BOSTON—349

3 p. m.—Lou Klayman's orchestra.
6 p. m.—Dok Eisenbourg's Sinfonians.
6:45 p. m.—Big Brother Club.
7:30 p. m.—Violo B. Radio, pianist.
8-11 p. m.—Program same as WEAF.

WBZ—SPRINGFIELD, MASS.—333

6:30 p. m.—Little Symphony orchestra.
8 p. m.—Dance orchestra.

KEMP'S BALSAM

DANCE TONIGHT
OLD FASHIONED DANCES
—in—
YANTIC FIRE ENGINE HALL.
Gents, 50c Ladies, 35c

"Uncle Joe" Shippee
CHAMPION OLD TIME FIDDLER OF NEW ENGLAND
AND HIS ORCHESTRA
OLD TIME DANCE MUSIC
—For—
OLD TIME DANCES
NOW OPEN FOR ENGAGEMENTS.
JAMES WALKER, Manager.
PLAINFIELD.
Tel. Moosup 27-12.

TONIGHT
Rioux Hall, Jewett City
WHIST and DANCE
Auspices K. of C.

SHELBY
And His Orchestra
OLYMPIC HALL
Saturday Night, January 23.

4:30 p. m.—Salvation Army Band.
9:15 p. m.—A MacDowell program.
9:30 p. m.—To be announced.

WTAG—WORCESTER—268

10:30 a. m.—Music, talk, selections.
12:05-2 p. m.—Luncheon music.
4:30 p. m.—Entertainment; story teller.
6:45 p. m.—Nature talk.
8-11 p. m.—Program same as WEAF.

WRC—WASHINGTON—469

10 a. m.—Women's hour, from WJZ.
12 noon—Organ recital.
1 p. m.—Mayflower orchestra.
6 p. m.—Hamilton orchestra.
7 p. m.—Smithsonian talk.
7:15 p. m.—Shoreham orchestra.
7:45 p. m.—Concert by army band.
8:15 p. m.—"Horses," James G. Harbord.
8:30 p. m.—"Political Situation." Frederic Wile.
9 p. m.—Royal Salon orchestra.
10 p. m.—To be announced.
10:30-12:30 p. m.—Meyer Davis's orchestra.

WBAL—BALTIMORE—246

6 p. m.—Children's hour.
6:30 p. m.—Dinner program.
7:30 p. m.—Organ recital.
10 p. m.—"Castle Night," vocal and instrumental selections.

KDKA—PITTSBURGH—309

6:30 p. m.—Dinner music.
8:16 p. m.—Farm program.
8:30 p. m.—Symphony Orchestra.
8 p. m.—Little Symphony orchestra; Juliet Bartlett, soprano.
11 p. m.—"Post" Midnight Revue.

WCAE—PITTSBURGH—461

6:30 p. m.—Dinner concert.
7:30 p. m.—Children's period.
8 p. m.—Program from WEAF.
10 p. m.—Sivertown orchestra.

WTAM—CLEVELAND—390

6-7 p. m.—Dinner music.

WEAR—CLEVELAND—390

7 p. m.—Concert orchestra.
8:10 p. m.—Program same as WEAF.
12 p. m.—Organ solos.

WADC—AKRON, OHIO—278

6:20 p. m.—Dinner music.
9:30 p. m.—Artists' recital.
10 p. m.—Silvertown orchestra.

WSAI—CINCINNATI—326

7:30 p. m.—Orchestra.
8 p. m.—Studio concert.
9-11 p. m.—Program same as WEAF.

WLW—CINCINNATI—422

8 p. m.—Dinner concert; talk.
10 p. m.—Radio wedding.
11 p. m.—Doherty Melody Boys.
12 p. m.—Dance music.

WKRC—CINCINNATI—326

10 a. m.—Post-Wurlitzer classical series.
12 midnight—Two-man Jazz Band.

WCX—DETROIT—517

8-9 p. m.—Studio concert.

WJR—PONTIAC, MICH.—517

7 p. m.—Goldkette's orchestra; soloist.
9 p. m.—Serenaders and soloists.
11 p. m.—Dance orchestra.

WWJ—DETROIT—353

6 p. m.—Dinner concert.
7 p. m.—Program same as WEAF.

WKAO—LANSING, MICH.—286

6 p. m.—Dinner concert.
7 p. m.—Orchestra, quartet and artists.

DECREASE OF PASSENGERS AT SOUTH STATION, BOSTON

BOSTON, Jan. 20—(AP)—A decrease of more than 2,000,000 passengers passing through the South Station in 1925 than in 1924, was reported to the state department of public utilities today by the Boston Terminal company, owners of the station. The terminal which until a year ago, served more passengers than any other single steam railroad station in the world, handled 34,998,500 passengers last year as compared with 37,161,923 in 1924. The station serves the Boston and Albany and the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroads.

Railroad officials attributed the decrease, which has been steady in the past few years, to increased use of the automobile, automobile bus lines and subways.

Now Open
BROADWAY RESTAURANT
34 BROADWAY
Sanitary Kitchen
Quick Service
Popular Prices

BROADWAY
YOU TAKE NO CHANCES WHEN YOU SEE A BROADWAY PROGRAM
3 MORE DAYS OF QUALITY ENTERTAINMENT
Matinee 2:15—A NEW PROGRAM—Evening, 7 to 10:30
IT'S KEITH-ALBEE VAUDEVILLE
(1) CAPRICE SISTERS & CO.
The "TWIN STARS" with ROSS WRIGHT at the piano
(2) FREEMAN & MORTON
HARRY and BUDDY—TWO EXCELLENT COMEDIANS ARE "ALL RIGHT"—Direct from Keith's Palace Theatre, New York City.
(3) BOGERT & NELSON
THAT COMEDY COUPLE WITH A MERRY TWINKLE OF MIRTH
(4) WHEELER & POTTER
AND STILL MORE COMEDY TO CONVULSE YOU WITH LAUGHTER
(5) NAMBA BROTHERS
TAKEO and KOMA—Japan's representative entertainers—POSITIVELY ASTOUNDING FEATS OF BALANCING
(6) "THE UNNAMED WOMAN"
From the Stage Play and Novel by Charles E. Blaney
— WITH —
KATHERINE MacDONALD, HERBERT RAWLINSON, WANDA HAWLEY, JOHN MILJAN, LEAH BAIRD

—NOTICE!—

I TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY OF THANKING THE NORWICH PUBLIC FOR THE KIND COOPERATION AND PATRONAGE EXTENDED TO ME DURING MY ACTIVE MANAGEMENT OF THE BROADWAY AND STRAND THEATRES. I MUST NOW, HOWEVER, RELINQUISH MY DUTIES IN NORWICH AND DEVOTE MY TIME AS GENERAL MANAGER OF THE NEW CAPITOL THEATRE OF WILLIMANTIC.

PATRONS NO DOUBT WILL BE PLEASED TO LEARN OF THE APPOINTMENT OF MR. MAX LEVINE AS GENERAL MANAGER OF THE BROADWAY AND STRAND THEATRES OF THIS CITY, THE YOUNG MAN WHO HAS BEEN ASSOCIATED WITH ME FOR THE PAST FIVE YEARS. I CAN ASSURE THE NORWICH PUBLIC THAT HIS UNTIRING EFFORTS WILL BE DEVOTED TO THEIR WELFARE AND THE STANDARD OF ENTERTAINMENT HERETOFORE ESTABLISHED WILL RISE TO NEW EXCELLENCE.

(SIGNED) A. DAVIDSON.

Sunday Nite—2 GREAT PICTURES

PALACE
DON'T FORGET TONIGHT
BARNYARD NIGHT
SOMETHING ENTIRELY NEW AND NOVEL—TOGETHER WITH 5 — PARAMOUNT ACTS — 5
and a Picture That is Breaking Records Everywhere
A 100 PER CENT SHOW
(1) VARGO & KNOLL
Vaudeville's Greatest Comedy Singing Act
(2) BANJO MONARCHS
Banjoists Extraordinary
(3) LAXVIN & LA MONG
A Pair of Performers in "Something Different"
(4) FAVER & McCABE
A Riot of Fun
(5) HAT-BOX REVUE
Singing and Fast Dancing
A Beautiful Act
— Sunday Night —
Rudolph Valentino
—in—
"THE EAGLE"
NOW FOR A RIDE THROUGH LAUGHLAND
SYD CHAPLIN
IN THE MAN ON THE BOX

15,000 Feet of Entertainment De Luxe
BREED THEATRE
NO ADVANCE IN PRICES
TODAY—FRIDAY—SATURDAY
A Mighty Epic of One of America's Most Stirring Periods—
THE GOLD RUSH TO THE KLONDIKE
Frank Lloyd presents
WINDS of CHANCE
A First National Picture
With the Greatest Cast of Players Ever Selected for One Big, Thrilling Production—ANNA Q. NILSSON, BEN LYON, VIOLA DANA, HOBART BOSWORTH, VICTOR McLAGLEN, DOROTHY SEBASTIAN, CLAUDE GILLINGWATER, and a cast of 3,500 people.
WILD WEST | "OUR GANG" COMEDY | NEWS
—COMING SUNDAY—
"THE FOOL"
From the Great Stage Play by CHANNING POLLOCK
With EDMUND LOWE and an all star cast.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

BORN

BURGESS—In Westerly, R. I., Jan. 19, 1926, a daughter, Virginia May, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burgess.

CRANDALL—In Westerly, R. I., Jan. 12, 1926, a son, Louis Edgar, Jr., to Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Crandall.

RUMFORD—In Norwich, Jan. 14, 1926, a daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Rumford.

CRUTHERS—In Norwich, Jan. 7, 1926, a son, Gerald Milton, to C. Fred and Astrid Swanson Cruthers of 30 Hedge avenue.

MARRIED

SAULYS-VARDAMIS—In Norwich, Jan. 17, 1926, by Rev. Mark J. Kondilis, George Saulys and Miss Florence Vardamis, both of 5 Watercress avenue.

DIED

RYAN—In South Auburn, Neb., Jan. 19, 1926, Mrs. Ellen Ryan of Dawson, Neb., formerly of Jewett City.

SHIELDS—In Hartford, Jan. 20, 1926, Mary Murphy, wife of Daniel Shields, of No. 85 Cliff street, Norwich. Please omit flowers.

Notice of funeral hereafter.

FUNERAL NOTICES

NORTHRUP—In Westerly, Jan. 19, 1926, Henry James Northrup, husband of Edna C. Northrup, aged 55 years, 10 months.

Funeral services from his late residence, East avenue, Friday, Jan. 22, at 12 o'clock. Interment in Union cemetery, Moosup, Conn.

TAYLOR—In Richmond, Va., Jan. 19, 1926, J. Eugene Taylor, formerly of Putnam.

Burial will be in the Grove Street cemetery, Putnam, Friday, Jan. 22nd, immediately after the arrival of the 1:45 p. m. train. The Masons will have charge of the funeral.

GLACKEN—In this city, Jan. 20, 1926, Cecelia Mary, infant daughter of John and Margaret (McGowan) Glacken, of 41 Golden street.

Funeral from the home of her parents, Friday afternoon, Jan. 22, at 2 o'clock. Burial in St. Mary's cemetery.

BARBER—In Norwich, Jan. 20, 1926, M. Angelo Barber, aged 71 years.

Funeral from his late residence, 359 Laurel Hill avenue, Friday afternoon at 2:30. Burial in family lot in Yantic cemetery.

BATON—In Norwich, Jan. 20, 1926, Lydia A., widow of Uriah S. Baton.

Funeral services at Church and Allen's funeral parlors, 15 Main St., Friday afternoon, Jan. 22, at 2 o'clock. Burial in the family lot in Maplewood cemetery.

DOLBEARE—In Norwich, Jan. 18, 1926, Lydia M. Bushnell, widow of C. Raymond Dolbeare.

Funeral services at her late residence, 25 Spring Garden avenue, Thursday afternoon, Jan. 21st, at 2:30 o'clock. Interment in Yantic cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

For the many deeds of kindness shown us by our friends during our sudden bereavement in the loss of our dear brother, Joseph B. Olsen and for the many beautiful flowers sent to his funeral from the lodges and the churches with which he was affiliated, also other friends and neighbors we wish to extend our heartfelt thanks.

MR. AND MRS. WALTER KELLY.
MR. AND MRS. JOHN OLSEN.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Church & Allen
18 MAIN STREET
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Lady Assistant
HENRY E. CHURCH
WM. SMITH ALLEN
Telephone 328-3

Shea & Burke
Funeral Directors
41 Main Street

The Henry Allen & Son Co.
18 MAIN STREET
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Lady Assistant — Telephone 610-2
DAVID H. WILSON

GAGER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER
PROMPT SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT

CUMMINGS & RING
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
122 Main Street
Phone 238 2 Lady Assistant

HOURIGAN BROS.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Norwich and Jewett City

CENTRAL VILLAGE

F. W. Tillinghast & Sons
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
CENTRAL VILLAGE, CONN.
Tel. Moosup 282-4

Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
36 Union Street, Willimantic, Conn.
Phone 298 Lady Assistant

WILLIMANTIC

Avery & Van Zandt
Succeeding JAY M. SHEPARD
Established 1870
Funeral Directors, Embalmers
Sixty and Sixty-Two North Street
Willimantic, Conn.

POULTRY

FOR SALE—Hatching eggs $7 per 100. Trap-nested stock. Phone 1563. F. Tourtellotte, 8 W. Pearl St. Jan21d

FOR SALE—Baby chicks. The famous Smith Standard Chicks, at amazing low prices. 10 different breeds. 100 per cent. live delivery. Write for price lists. S. Wigrin. Box 551, Plainfield, Conn. J21

FOR SALE—R. I. Red Baby chicks and hatching eggs from stock tested free from bacillary white diarrhea. H. J. Larkham, Norwich Town. Phone 462-4. Jan6d

FOR SALE—S. C. R. I. Reds. Day old chicks from stock tested for white diarrhea. Hatches weekly. W. W. Service, Lakeview Farm, R. D. 1, Norwich. Tel. 1438-5. Jan14d

WHEN YOU WANT to sell your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—400 bundles cornfodder. G. Kleemann, Indian Town Road, near Preston Plains. Jan21d

FOR SALE—I offer for your inspection this 80 acre farm with good buildings, for $2,500. William M. McNicol, Maynard Bldg. Jewett City. tf

FOR SALE—A knitting machine in good condition. Reasonable price. Inquire 365 Main St., top floor. Jan19d

A gink from Yantik sez he always gets up early cuz he always tells his son to wake him when he kums in. Boys must stay out prity late in Yantik. Rubber pouch and pipe all for 50c, Noble, Old Coon Pippin 5 for 30c. Manila Cigars special 10 for 35c. Murad, Melachrino cigarets 20 for 20 c. Fagan's Smoke Shop, Opp Woolworth.

FOR SALE—Police puppies. F. Thetreault, Hanover. Phone 1871-5, Norwich, Div.

CABLE PIANO—88 note with fine tone and action. Mahogany case. Can be bought for $125 on convenient payments. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. tf

CHOICE TWO GOOD PIANOS $96—Reputable New England make in excellent condition as to tone, action, case and finish. Terms if desired. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. tf

USED PIANOS $65—Two excellent makes taken in exchange, in good condition, suitable for beginner. Terms arranged if desired. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. tf

ORTHOPHONIC VICTROLAS—Available here in all styles from $85 up on convenient payments. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., only exclusively Victrola dealers in Norwich and Eastern Conn. tf

90 acres, state road farm 5 minutes' walk to stores, church and bus line, 40 acres level tillage land, dark loam soil very productive, two story colonial house, large stock barn, 125 ton silo; buildings all good and the price only $5,500, including 15 cows, 1 pair horses, and a complete line of farming implements. Tryons Agency, Willimantic, Conn. Jan16d

FOR SALE—Brand new Gulbransen Player Piano on terms as low as $2.50 weekly. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St.

FOR SALE—A good, upright Schubert piano in fine condition. Full plate and 88 note, $89. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. tf

WASSERMAN 88 note piano like new Cheap to the first buyer. Hanover-Curland Co 24 Franklin St. Jan14

FOR SALE—A brand new Victrola, Model 80, Regular price $110. Our Price $52.50. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. tf

FOR SALE—A brand new $285 Brunswick Phonograph for $98.50. Hanover-Curland Co. 24 Franklin St. tf

FOR SALE—Orthophonic Victrolas on Easy Terms at the Cash price. We are factory agents of genuine Victrolas for town of Norwich. Hanover-Curland Co 24 Franklin St. tf

$165 buys Wasserman 88 note Player piano, in good condition. Hanover-Curland Co. 24 Franklin St. tf

FOR SALE—A 5 Tube Chelsea Radio set. Regular price $60. Special Price for cash, $35. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. tf

FOR SALE—House, 15 Elm St., belonging to est. Oscar L. Brown. Inquire Dr. N. B. Lewis, Adm. 314 Main St. J9d

FOR SALE—6 room bungalow with water in house, electric lights, 7 acres of land with 40 young fruit trees, 1 3-4 miles from Franklin Sq. on Middle road to Pequetanuck, price very attractive. For particulars call at A. Hagberg & Son Tailor Shop, 310 Main. Jan12d

FOR SALE-3 tenement house, 6 rooms each flat, with all modern improvements. Large lot. Also 2 tenement 5 room each flat, all modern improvements with 2 car garage. Large lot, located near Golden St. Also 9 room house with store located in 70 Boswell Ave. For full particulars, see A. V. Covello, Real Estate and Fire Insurance, 198 Cliff St. Tel. 1093-3. Jan11d

FOR SALE—Second hand ranges with gas attachment and some without. We guarantee every range that goes out of our store. Some Crawfords and some Glenwoods. 107 Franklin St. Phone 559. dec24d

OFFERING
6½% FIRST MORTGAGES
FULLY GUARANTEED
JAMES L. CASE
Investment Department
40 Shetucket Street

FOR SALE
Six-room Cottage on East Side. Price $3,000. Easy terms.
New modern six-room semi-bungalow in Thamesville. $1,000 cash payment. Balance, easy terms. Low price for quick sale.
New modern two-apartment on West Side, near school and trolley. Price $6,500. Cash payment, $500. Balance, easy terms.
Six-room modern cottage in Greeneville. Best location. Reasonable price.
New six-room cottage, large lot and garage, on Boswell avenue. A real constructed house at a reasonable price.
INQUIRE OF
NORWICH LAND TITLE & INSURANCE COMPANY
Selias Building Norwich, Conn.

FOR SALE
A very choice piece of property desirably located on Williams St., large double lot. House can be very economically put into a two apartment. This property must be sold at once and who it fits, can secure a big bargain. Can have easiest of terms.
For further particulars inquire of
JOHN A. MORAN
REAL ESTATE BROKER

FOR SALE
IN NORWICHTOWN
7 room house with large plot of ground near Backus Hospital. Low price for quick sale. Owner leaving town.
FRANCIS O DONOHUE
Vanny's Block Norwich

LOST AND FOUND

FOUND—Black and tan fox hound. Female. Arthur E. Waterhouse, Killingly, Conn. R. F. D. No. 1. Tel. Danielson 233-2. Jan20d

PERSONAL

SUFFERERS of Heart Trouble, Dropsy, Angina, High Blood Pressure, Paralysis, Asthma, I will gladly tell you free how you can get quick and lasting relief without using drugs, medicines, serums. Address R. V. Walden, Box 1386, New Haven, Conn. Jan14d

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—R. I. Reds and Barred Rocks. State Tested Chickens. The breeding flocks culled and tested by experts are absolutely free from disease. They are selected for egg production and are kept under ideal sanitary conditions. For descriptive catalogue and price list write Ray A. Shipple, Killingly, Conn., or Ardlock Hatchery, West Main Street, Webster, Mass. Jan21d

FOR SALE—A very fine Hallett & Davis piano in perfect condition; will sell very reasonable. Also several talking machines of leading makes at half price. Easy terms if desired. Schwartz Bros., Inc. 76-82 Main St. Norwich. dec29d

FOR SALE—2 tenement house on Laurel Hill Ave. All in good repair. Rents well. Price low, and terms easy. Phone 1460. Jan20d

FOR SALE—14 room house with two garages and plot of ground 100 by 150 ft. Easily arranged in two or three apartments. In best residential section. Price low and terms easy. Call 1460. J20d

FOR SALE—8 room house in Broad St. school district in first class condition, arranged in five room and three room apartments. Price right. Call 1460. J20d

FREE—Hose and 10 feet of piping with every Radiator Heater purchased during this month. Gas & Elec. Dept. Jan20d

FOR SALE—Rooming house, 12 large rooms full, all permanent roomers. Central location, rent $60. Price $1,000. Sickness the cause of selling. Income $40 per week. No brokers. A bargain. Mrs. C. King, 326 Washington St. Providence, R. I. Jan20d

FOR SALE—Remington Cash Register and Desk. Also Ford Touring car. Phone 301-5. Jan20d

FOR SALE—Two coal heaters, at a reasonable price. H. W. Clark, Scotland, Conn. Phone 293-4. Jan20d

FOR SALE.
Pierce Arrow Vestibule Sedan, A1 condition. Mileage 19,000.
E. B. PATTERSON, INC.
88-90 NORTH MAIN STREET.

WANTED—Female

WANTED—By young woman work evenings and Saturday. Write Box 920, Bulletin. Jan21d

WANTED—Woman desires position as bookkeeper. Has thorough knowledge of this branch of office work having had considerable experience. Can furnish references. Call 2594J. tf

WANTED—Housekeeper for two adults on farm. Lock Box 2, Central Village. Phone 28-3 Moosup Div. Jan19d

WANTED—Stenographer. Give experience. Also girl for chemical laboratory. Address Chemical, Bulletin Office. Jan19d

WANTED—Work by the day. Inquire 79 School street. Jan18d

WANTED
Ambitious young lady as bookkeeper and stenographer. Write giving experience, references and salary expected.
T. N. M. LATHROP INC.
84 No. Main St. Norwich

Experienced Stenographer Wanted
Apply in own handwriting.
Address Box 555, Bulletin.

COAL AND WOOD

FOR SALE—Hard wood slabs, $9 per cord. Phone 152-2. Jan20d

FOR SALE—Sawed oak wood, one cord $11, 1-2 cord $6, 1-4 cord $3.50. Delivered anywhere. O. H. Main. Phone 489. tf

FOR SALE—Sawed slab wood or thick hard wood. Try a load. Tel. 1883-3 dec24

FOR SALE—Wood, stove length. G. A. Bullard. Tel. 1076-4. dec22d

FOR SALE—Best Quality hard dry wood. H. E. Beard & Son, Ye Old Homestead Farm. Tel. 815-4. nov25d

FOR SALE—Best hardwood and slabs in a load. John R. Lyman. Tel. 2817W. nov27d

COAL, seasoned wood and kindlings delivered anywhere. 6 baskets for $1.00. Phone 729. Park Wood Yard 401 Franklin St. 23d

COAL—Seasoned wood and kindlings in large or small quantities delivered anywhere. Phone 504 or 1353-4. H. Sheldon, Willow street. nov22d

WANTED—Miscellaneous

WANTED—To buy pigs. 333 West Thames St. Tel. 311. Jan21d

WANTED—Work by day. $3.50 per day. Box 40, Bulletin. Jan21d

LOUIS D. WARD pays big prices for used furniture and antiques. Box 589, Norwich. Phone 861-3, Norwich; 806 Willimantic. TuThSMay15

WANTED—To drill you a new well or your old well deeper. A. E. Earl, Contractor for artesian wells. P. O. Box 240, Willimantic, Conn. Jan20d

WANTED—Agents to sell complete line of Towels, Linens, Damask, E. Tattersall & Co., Clinton, Mass. Jan20d

WANTED—Furniture repairing, Refinishing and Odd Jobs in Carpentry. Phone 1203-4. Jan12d

WANTED—Second hand antique furniture. Best prices paid. A. Bruckner, 102 Franklin St. Phone 559. nov17d

WANTED—Cash paid for old furniture. R. H. Ward, 16 Water St. Tel. 34. nov14d

WANTED—To buy poultry and calves highest prices paid. Call 1405 nov17d

MIRRORS resilvered and glass for every purpose. Norwich Glass Co., 4 Main St. Tel. 2463 nov17d

WANTED—Male

WANTED—A chef to take over a dining room, now in operation. All complete, in a hotel of 50 rooms, rent reasonable to right party. Across from New Theatre and depot. Westerly, R. I. Jan21d

WANTED—Foreman for dairy farm. James H. Hyde, North Franklin, Tel. Lebanon 30, Conn. Jan13d

WANTED—Large company 50 years in business has unusually good opening for active man with small car, as salesman in or near Norwich or Jewett City, supplying families with select line of teas, coffees, spices, extracts, baking powder, etc., permanent, profitable and healthful business. Write Box G 202, Bulletin Company, Norwich, Conn. Jan30

WANTED—Position as bookkeeper by young man with several years' experience. Also has thorough knowledge of expert accounting and auditing. Can furnish the best of references. Address 14 Nelson place or call 2594 J, during the evening tf

AMBITIOUS MEN AND BOYS—25 wanted at once to learn the barber trade; we pay you while learning, tuition $35; we are open from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m. Vaughn's School of Barbering, 14 Market St., Hartford, Conn. Nov16d

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

TO RENT

TO RENT—5 room tenement. All improvements. Near Thamesville School house. Phone 477-2.

TO RENT—4 room flat. All improvements. Also garage. 42 Park St. Jan21

TO RENT—Six room apartment. Steam heat furnished. Reasonable rent. All modern improvements. Phone 2396. J16d

TO RENT—3 or 4 rooms. Light housekeeping. 27 McKinley Ave. tf

TO RENT—Select 6 room apartment, Greene Ave., tile bath, garage included. $65 a month. Call 2474-3. Jan14d

FOR RENT—3 rooms, pantry, gas lights; School St., $10 a month. Call 2474-2.

TO RENT—6 large rooms, $18. Near the Thermos. Tel. 1463. dec30d

TO RENT—4 modern room apartment Inquire Brooklyn Outfitters

FOR RENT—Fine modern apartment. All improvements. 22 Perkins Ave. Inquire Adelard Morin. The Plaut-Cadden Co. dec9d

TO RENT—Garage at 50 Broad St. Inquire Hanover-Curland Co. dec4d

TO RENT—Dead storage for 50 cars. Hartley & Gallup. 363-365 Hamilton Ave. Phone 701-2 nov24d

TO RENT—Apartment 197 Laurel Hill Ave., with or without garage. Phone 2179. nov11d

TO RENT—Furnished rooms for light housekeeping, private bath room and private entrance. Tel. 1241-3 or inquire, Disco Bros. tf

TO RENT—4 room tenement. Inquire 152 Palmer St. J20d

TO RENT—6 room flat. Inquire 10 Carter Ave. Jan20d

FOR RENT—Furnished room, steam heat, use of phone, private family. Phone 349-4. Marion Bldg. Jan19d

TO RENT—2 furnished rooms, for light house keeping. Steam heated. Tel. 628-5. Jan19d

TO RENT—4 room flat with bath. Laurel Hill Ave. Phone 2691J. Jan19d

TO RENT—Lower Tenement, 6 rooms and bath. Inquire of J. Bradford, 108 Broadway. Jan19d

TO RENT—7 room flat. All modern improvements at 35 Cliff St. Tel. 2252. Jan19d

TO RENT—6 room tenement, all improvements. Mohegan Park Rd. Brook Bldg. Phone 1473-3. Jan19d

TO RENT—Six room apartment. Steam heat furnished. Reasonable rent. All modern improvements. Phone 2356. J16d

TO RENT—3 or 4 rooms. Light housekeeping. 27 McKinley Ave. tf

TO RENT—Select 6 room apartment, Greene Ave., tile bath, garage included. $65 a month. Call 2474-3. Jan14d

FOR RENT—3 rooms, pantry, gas lights; School St., $10 a month. Call 2474-2.

TO RENT—6 large rooms, $18. Near the Thermos. Tel. 1463. dec30d

TO RENT—4 modern room apartment Inquire Brooklyn Outfitters

FOR RENT—Fine modern apartment. All improvements. 22 Perkins Ave. Inquire Adelard Morin. The Plaut-Cadden Co. dec9d

TO RENT—Garage at 50 Broad St. Inquire Hanover-Curland Co. dec4d

TO RENT—Dead storage for 50 cars. Hartley & Gallup. 363-365 Hamilton Ave. Phone 701-2 nov24d

TO RENT—Apartment 197 Laurel Hill Ave., with or without garage. Phone 2179. nov11d

TO RENT—Furnished rooms for light housekeeping, private bath room and private entrance. Tel. 1241-3 or inquire, Disco Bros. tf

TO RENT—4 room tenement. Inquire 152 Palmer St. J20d

TO RENT—6 room flat. Inquire 10 Carter Ave. Jan20d

FOR RENT—Furnished room, steam heat, use of phone, private family. Phone 349-4. Marion Bldg. Jan19d

TO RENT—2 furnished rooms, for light house keeping. Steam heated. Tel. 628-5. Jan19d

TO RENT—4 room flat with bath. Laurel Hill Ave. Phone 2691J. Jan19d

TO RENT—Lower Tenement, 6 rooms and bath. Inquire of J. Bradford, 108 Broadway. Jan19d

TO RENT—7 room flat. All modern improvements at 35 Cliff St. Tel. 2252. Jan19d

TO RENT—6 room tenement, all improvements. Mohegan Park Rd. Brook Bldg. Phone 1473-3. Jan19d

TO RENT—Six room apartment. Steam heat furnished. Reasonable rent. All modern improvements. Phone 2356. J16d

TO RENT—3 or 4 rooms. Light housekeeping. 27 McKinley Ave. tf

TO RENT—Select 6 room apartment, Greene Ave., tile bath, garage included. $65 a month. Call 2474-3. Jan14d

FOR RENT—3 rooms, pantry, gas lights; School St., $10 a month. Call 2474-2.

TO RENT—6 large rooms, $18. Near the Thermos. Tel. 1463. dec30d

TO RENT—4 modern room apartment Inquire Brooklyn Outfitters

FOR RENT—Fine modern apartment. All improvements. 22 Perkins Ave. Inquire Adelard Morin. The Plaut-Cadden Co. dec9d

TO RENT—Garage at 50 Broad St. Inquire Hanover-Curland Co. dec4d

TO RENT—Dead storage for 50 cars. Hartley & Gallup. 363-365 Hamilton Ave. Phone 701-2 nov24d

TO RENT—Apartment 197 Laurel Hill Ave., with or without garage. Phone 2179. nov11d

TO RENT—Furnished rooms for light housekeeping, also garage. 11 Elm street city nov4d

WANTED—Automobiles for storage, $4.00 per month. Garage, 473 N. Main St. oct30d

TO RENT—Cottage of 6 rooms, all improvements. 26 Grove St. oct29d

TO RENT—A new modern apartment in best residential section of Norwich. Inquire of Shea and Burke, 41 Main St. oct16d

FOR RENT.
No. 52 Williams street. Newly decorated nine-room dwelling, with garage for one car. Inquire of Thos. H. Beckley
Agent.
278 MAIN STREET PHONES

FOR SALE—Automobiles

FOR SALE—One 1923 Willys-Knight sedan, 90 days' guarantee. One 1921 Chevrolet touring car for $60. Inquire Jewett City Service. Tel. 11-4. Jan21d

FOR SALE—1921 Ford Coupe, good paint, tires and battery; motor in good condition; terms if desired; $120. Tel. 692-5. Jan21d

FOR SALE—Cadillac, truck body, mechanically perfect. Sackett, Canterbury, Conn. Jan20d

FOR SALE—1924 Buick Coupe, 1921 Packard Small Six Sedan, 1924 Studebaker Sedan, 1925 Ford Coach, 1923 Dodge Sedan, 1923 Dodge A Sedan, 1924 Ford Coupe, 1924 Maxwell Coupe, 1921 Ford Coupe. 15 open cars all late models. Cash or Terms. Adams Tavern Garage. Jan16d

FOR SALE—1925 Hudson Coach, 1925 Ford Coupe, 1924 Jewett Sport Roadster, 1924 Maxwell Touring, 1924 Durant Sport Sedan, 1924 Ford Touring, 1924 Ford Coach. Jones & St. Germain's, 62 Shetucket street. Jan14d

YOU CAN order a new or used Harley-Davidson motorcycle for immediate or spring delivery through our Club Plan. $3.50 down. New models are now on display. Jim Donovan, 135 N. Main St. Phone 709. dec2d

FOR SALE—1926 Chevrolet Sedan, 1924 Ford Coupe, 1924 Chevrolet Touring, 1923 Dodge Touring, 1923 Maxwell Touring, 1922 Buick Touring. Krieger Motor Sales Co. 191 No. Main St. Tel 648. de30d

FOR SALE
PRIVATELY OWNED
BUICK COUPE
In good condition. New tires.
Fully equipped
For further information address
BOX NO. 128 BULLETIN

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Ledyard, within and for the District of Ledyard, on the 20th day of January, A. D. 1926.
Present, BILLINGS F. S. CRANDALL, Judge.
Estate of Augusta Caswell, late of Ledyard, in said District, deceased.
The Administrator exhibited his administration account with said estate to the Court for allowance; it is therefore Ordered, That the 26th day of January, A. D. 1926, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, at the Probate Court Room in Ledyard, in said District, be, and the same is, appointed for hearing the same, and the said Administrator is directed to give notice thereof by publishing this order in the Norwich Bulletin, a newspaper having a circulation in said District, and by posting a copy hereof on the public sign post in said town of Ledyard, nearest where said deceased last dwelt, at least five days prior to the date of said hearing, and make return to the Court.
BILLINGS F. S. CRANDALL, Judge.
The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.
Attest, BILLINGS F. S. CRANDALL, Judge.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE

The Board of Relief of the Town of Norwich, Conn., will meet in the City Hall Building in said Town each day, Sundays excepted, from February 1 to February 21, from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M., to listen to appeals from the doings of the assessors and to transact any other business proper to be done at said meeting.
Dated at Norwich, Conn., Jan. 19, 1926.
JAMES C. FITZPATRICK,
FRANCIS BERQUE,
ROBERT G. SWANSON,
Board of Relief.

NOTICE!

The Board of Relief of the Town of Montville, Conn., will meet in the town hall, in said town, four days, as follows: On February 1st, 10th, 17th, and 27th, 1926, from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M. to listen to appeals from the doings of the Assessors, and to transact any other business proper to be done at said meeting.
Dated at Montville, Conn., Jan. 18, 1926.
JOHN A. COGGESHALL,
DWIGHT C. KELSEY,
JOHN B. HOME,
Board of Relief.

NOTICE!

The Board of Relief of the Town of Preston, Conn., will meet in the town hall, in said town, three days, as follows: On February 1st, 13th and 20th, 1926, from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M. to listen to appeals from the doings of the Assessors, and to transact any other business proper to be done at said meeting.
Dated at Preston, Conn., Jan. 20 1926.
PHILLIP O. YERRINGTON,
CLIFTON DAWLEY,
HENRY BATES.
Board of Relief.

NOTICE!

The Board of Relief of the Town of Franklin will meet in the Town Hall on the 1st day of February from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M., to hear the appeals from the doings of the Assessors and to transact any other business necessary to be done at that time. Future meetings as the law requires.
ERNEST E. SMITH,
GEORGE A. MILLER,
C. B. DAVIS.
Board of Relief.
Franklin, Conn., Jan. 20th 1926.

NOTICE!

The Board of Relief of the Town of Lisbon, Conn., will meet in the Town Hall in said town as follows: Feb. 1, 13, 26, 27 from 9 A. M. until 5 P. M., and Saturday, February 6 at Blissville School house from 2 P. M., until 5 P. M., to listen to appeals from doings of Assessors and to do any business proper to be done at said meetings.
Lisbon, Conn., Jan. 19, 1926.
FRANCIS H. JOHNSON,
JESSE PHILLIPS,
RICHARD KRAUSE.
Board of Relief.

NOTICE!

The Board of Relief of the Town of Lebanon will meet at the Town Clerk's office in said Town on Monday, February 1st from 10 A. M. until 3 P. M. o'clock, to hear appeals from the doings of the Assessors also any other business legal to come before said Board, and adjourn from time to time as considered necessary by said Board.
W. W. PALMER,
E. W. JONES,
M. J. HOXIE,
Board of Relief.
Dated at Lebanon the 18th day of Jan. 1926.

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 20th day of January, A. D. 1926.
Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.
Estate of Ellen Spellman, late of Norwich, in said District, deceased.
The Executor exhibited his administration account with said estate to the Court for allowance; it is therefore Ordered, That the 25th day of January, A. D. 1926, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, at the Probate Court Room in the City of Norwich, in said District, be, and the same is, appointed for hearing the same, and the said executor is directed to give notice thereof by publishing this order once in some newspaper having a circulation in said District, at least three days prior to the date of said hearing, and make return to the Court.
NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.
The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.
Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk.

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 11th day of January, A. D. 1926.
Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.
Estate of James B. Bates, late of Preston, in said District, deceased.
Ordered, That the Administratrix cite the creditors of said deceased to bring in their claims against said estate within six months from this date, by posting a notice to that effect, together with a copy of this order on the sign-post nearest to the place where said deceased last dwelt, and in the same town, and by publishing the same once in a newspaper having a circulation in said district, and make return to this Court.
NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.
The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.
Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk.

NOTICE

All creditors of said deceased are hereby notified to present their claims against said estate to the undersigned at R. F. D. No. 1, Norwich, Conn., within the time limited in the above and foregoing order.
HENRY B. BATES, Administrator.

Business Notices.

AUTO ACCESSORIES—TIRES, PARTS

AUTO PARTS—TELEPHONE 1600
Replacement parts for all cars
WILLIAMS TIRE & SUPPLY CO.

AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES

STAR GARAGE
NOW FOR SERVICE!
We are now carrying a complete line of new auto parts such as—
WEL-EVER PISTON RINGS
BUTLER SPRINGS
AMERICAN GEARS
TIMKEN BEARINGS
BUTLER DRIVE SHAFTS AND AXLES
and other popular auto replacement products, accessories and Tires.
Try us. We can save you money!
Plainfield 198. Danielson 213-2.
Wholesale and Retail.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

Business Notices.

AUTOMOBILE REPAIRING

General Repairing. Day and Night Service
JONES' GARAGE
East Great Plain Tel. 2191-2

"JOE" MOORE'S GARAGE
Mechanical, Electrical and Body Repairs
PHONE 2358
95 Chestnut Street

AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES

Keep the Money Circulating
500 OLD CARS WANTED
Any condition. Cash waiting.
Large stock of Gears, Axles, Bearings, Wheels, Springs, Starters, Generators, Batteries, Windshields, Radiators, Motors, Rear Ends and all parts.
Bargains in Used Tires and Tubes.

HODES AUTO PARTS
Formerly the
NATIONAL AUTO WRECKING CO.
381 West Main St. Cor. Mt. Pleasant.
Tel. 1391

WILL YOUR BRAKES PASS
POLICE
INSPECTION? IF NOT DRIVE YOUR CAR TO 191 NORTH MAIN STREET AND LET US RE-LINE YOUR BRAKES WITH GENUINE SILVER EDGE RAYBESTOS BRAKE LINING, APPLIED BY OUR SPECIAL EQUIPMENT WHICH DOES A FACTORY JOB.
Lumis & Bennett
Tel. 646.

Battery Service
The Best 1-Day Battery Charging
Radio Rental Batteries
75c Week.
Capacity, 40 Batteries every 8 to 10 Hours
VULCANIZING
The only shop in the city equipped to repair all sizes of REGULAR and BALLOON Tires.
The KE HAW KE System
ALL REPAIRS GUARANTEED.
Lane Motor Supply
170 Franklin Street.
PHONE 1570.

OVERHAULING and REPAIR WORK
OF ALL KINDS
Automobiles, Carriages, Wagons, Trucks and Carts
Mechanical Repairs. Painting. Trimming. Upholstering and Wood Work. Blacksmithing in All Its Branches
Scott & Clark Corp.
607 TO 615 NORTH MAIN STREET

BIRDS

FOR SALE—Canaries also cages and supplies at Anthony's, 193 Central Ave. Tel. 2454-3. Jan16d

CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS

P. F. SWEENEY
GENERAL CONTRACTOR and BUILDER
25 Chestnut Street.

Doors, Windows, Frames
Inside Finish.
Mill Work of All Kinds.
THE PECK-McWILLIAMS COMPANY.
Central Wharf.

AT A SACRIFICE!
$5,000 STOCK FOR SALE
—OF—
CAPITOL THEATRE CORP.
WILLIMANTIC, CONN.
HOW MUCH IS OFFERED?
Apply A. DAVIDSON, Manager
BROADWAY THEATRE, NORWICH.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

Business Notices.

CASTINGS
Grey Iron and Semi-Steel Castings
Pattern Making and Machine Work
—ALSO—
Daily Trucking Service Between Norwich, New London and Vicinity
BABCOCK PRINTING PRESS MFG. CO.

CHIROPODIST

A. G. THOMPSON, F. M. Chiropodist Foot Specialist (protect your feet) Suite 7-8 Alice Bldg. 321 Main St., Norwich, Conn. Phone 735. dec22d

J. GROSVENOR assisted by J. Dawson, 12 Cliff St., will conduct a children's free clinic Thursday evenings from 7-9. Office hours 9-12 and 1-6 Tel. 524. Jan12d

CIGARS

Whitestone cigars are $70 per thousand. J. F. CONANT, 11 Franklin St.

INSURANCE

J. L. LATHROP & SONS
Insurance of All Kinds
28 Shetucket Street

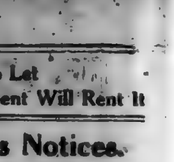
E. J. YOUNG
Automobile Insurance a Specialty
Travelers' Insurance. Prompt Service
Rm. 14 Central Bldg. Tel. 2426-2

MUSIC

Wanted—Pupils for trumpet and cornet. J. J. McGUINNESS
Broadway Theatre Orchestra

WANTED—Pupils, Drums, Bells, Xylophone. Drums and supplies, for sale. Room 6 Central Bldg. Jan19

ERNEST E. BULLARD
Teacher of the Violin
Phone 127-4
Bliss Place
I Have a Few Outfits to Lend.



FRANK DRAGO of Hartford
TEACHER OF VIOLIN & THEORY
Room 213 Disco Building

MONEY TO LOAN

LOANS
THE PUBLIC'S LOAN SERVICE
We loan money for emergency needs, featuring prompt, courteous and confidential service. Monthly payments of principal and interest arranged to suit the borrower's convenience. Legal interest on unpaid balances is our only charge. Detailed information furnished by personal representative upon request. Phone 1470.
New England Equity Corp.
Members of Chamber of Commerce
ROOM 206 THAYER BLDG.
16 FRANKLIN STREET

NEWSPAPERS AND PERIODICALS

HANDY NEWS STAND
Thayer Building Franklin Sq.

PICTURE FRAMING

THE PHOTO SHOP
159 Franklin St. Tel. 1322

PRINTING

PRINTING of all kinds, promptly and neatly done. Estimates promptly and cheerfully given. The Bulletin Co., 65 Franklin St.

TREES AND SHRUBS

Fruit, Ornamental Trees and Shrubs
MAPLEWOOD NURSERY CO.
East Great Plain Tel. 986-2

TRUCKING

Hartley & Gallup—Truckmen. Local and long distance furniture and piano moving a specialty. High grade sand and loam for sale. Storage of any description. At 363 and 365 Hamilton Ave. Telephone 701-2. nov24d

Long Distance Moving and Expressing. Zimmerman, 17 Boswell Ave. Tel. 1341.

C. D. JOSLYN, 293 West Main street. We move everything anywhere. Special attention given to moving boilers and machinery. Telephone 1583-3.

Established 1872 Telephone 175
ARTHUR R. H. LATHROP
Auto trucking Teaming and Expressing
Furniture and Piano Moving
Shetucket Street

UPHOLSTERING

CALL 2021W. Upholstering, crating, carpet and linoleum laying. George H. Sanders, 3 Boswell Ave. Jan15d

WALL PAPER

WALL PAPERS—7 1-2 c to 55 Roll. Many new numbers at half and less than usual prices. Norwich Chain Wall Paper Co., cor Willow and Chestnut Sts. T. E. McClenathan, Mgr.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

MARKETS AT A GLANCE
New York

Stocks irregular; Frisco advances on merger reports.

Bonds easy; Chesapeake & Ohio firm.

Foreign exchanges mixed; Japanese yen strengthened by gold shipment.

Cotton steady; improved spot demand.

Sugar lower; increased offerings of spot.

Coffee higher; favorable Brazilian markets.

Chicago

Wheat lower; bearish cables.

Corn barely steady; disappointing cash demand.

Cattle dull and lower.

Hogs weak.

INCREASE IN STOCK PRICES

NEW YORK, Jan. 20—(AP)—Stock prices turned abruptly upward towards the close of today's stock market after an early period of weakness resulting from heavy liquidation inspired by the decision to give publicity to brokers' loans. The rally heralded the return to active stock market operations of William C. Durant, motor car manufacturer, who distributed buying orders for thousands of shares from his sick bed in the Post Graduate hospital.

Closing quotations disclosed considerable irregularity, but United States Steel common, General Electric Du Pont, American Can, and a number of other popular industrials showed net gains of 1-- to 3 points. Trading showed a marked expansion in volume, the day's sales running over 2,000,000 shares.

Speculators for the decline hammered stocks in the early trading on the theory that the federal reserve board's request for more data on brokers' loans, coming within a relatively short time after an increase in the New York federal reserve rediscount rate was intended as a warning against excessive speculation in stocks. Scored of stop-loss orders, placed by nervous holders of long stock were touched off, but strong banking support soon made its appearance and kept the decline in check. The market had quieted down into a specialty affair in the early afternoon when it was suddenly stirred into activity by the execution of large buying orders in the standard industrials.

The commodity again lacked a uniform trend. Active futures sold off 1 to 1 1-2 cents a bushel on the lack of export demand. The cotton market was fast on by a rally in the distant options, based on government reports of increased boll weevil hibernation. Raw sugar was unchanged, but raw sugar futures sold 3 to 6 points net lower on China selling. Coffee futures closed 5 points net higher to 8 points lower.

The day's news developments were largely favorable, call money opened at 4 per cent., the lowest renewal figure in 30 days, and held steady at that figure, treasury of the Stewart Warner Speedometer raised the annual dividend rate from $5 to $6, an extra cash dividend of $1 and a stock dividend of 10 per cent., payable in Class B common, were declared on the common stock of the Liggett and Myers Tobacco company, and dividends were resumed on the preferred stock of the Consolidation Coal company. Another sharp decrease in the daily average of Crude Oil production was reported for last week.

The weekly steel trade review stressed the efforts of motor manufacturers to cut in present prices. Iron Age reports that "in all finished lines the call for steel booked before January 1 is on a scale that will keep mill operations slightly above the December average. "The Iron Trade Review" expressed the opinion that 'the immediate disturbances of the market is regarded as a passing phase, likely to be corrected in natural course within a few weeks." John A. Topping, chairman of the Republic Iron and Steel company stated that while no exact figures for fourth quarter earnings would be made, pending the annual audit, net profit applicable to dividends would exceed $1,-- as against $647,000 in the last quarter of 1924.

Special buying was apparent throughout the day in Associated Oil which advanced over 3 points to a new high record at 53 7-8. On reports that several companies were seeking control of that property. Other outstanding strong spots in the industrial list included Foundation company, Hudson Motors, National Biscuit, Pullman, Sears Roebuck, United States Rubber, Gen. Cole, Famous Players, United States Cast Iron Pipe and Ward Baking B, all of which showed net gains of 2 to 4 points.

Speculative interests in the rails was limited to a few issues. Frisco common closed nearly 3 points higher at 95 5-8 in response to reports that the executive committee was considering important developments affecting that property. The nature of which was not revealed. Southern Railway common moved up 2 3-4 on the announcement that preferred stockholders had been denied a writ of error by the Supreme Court of Virginia following the recent dismissal of their action. Atlantic Coast Line showed a net gain of over 12 points at 250.

The feature of the time money market was a shading in the rate on the shorter maturities from 4 7-8 to 4 3-4 per cent. Commercial paper rates were unchanged.

Foreign exchanges moved within rather narrow and irregular limits. There was a marked falling off in the inquiry for sterling bills today and the demand rate fell below $4.86 on selling by speculators in the New York and foreign markets. French francs were slightly firmer around 3.75 cents. Japanese yen, which have attracted a large speculative following by their recent advance, touched 44 3-4 cents, the highest price in three years.

STOCKS

Sales in hundreds.

	High.	Low.	Close
8 Abitibi P & P ..	72⅝	71⅝	72⅝
1 Adams Express	104	104	104
1 Adv Rumely pr	56½	56¼	56½
8 Ahumada Lead	8¼	8⅛	8⅛
11 Air Reduct	110⅝	108⅝	110⅝
13 Ajax Rubber .	10	9⅝	9⅝
74 Al Ch Dye	116½	112⅞	116
1 Al Ch & D pr.	120	120	120
9 Allis Chalmers.	91	90½	90⅝
38 Am Agr Chem .	32⅝	30⅝	30⅝
25 Am Agri Ch pr.	92½	89½	92½
3 Am Bank Note.	41	41	41
8 Am Beet Sug ..	32⅜	32¼	32¼
35 Am Bosch Mag	29	28⅛	28⅝
24 Am Br S E Cp.	44⅞	44¼	44⅞
15 Am Ex Fdy ..	165	163½	165
1 Am Brown B pr.	96⅝	96⅝	96⅝
146 Am Can	279⅛	275½	278¼
33 Am Car Fdy ..	111½	110	111¼
1 Am Car & F pr.	125	125	125
2 Am Chain A	24½	24½	24½
3 Am Chicle	46	46	46
4 Am Chicle ctfs	45	44½	45
1 Am Drug Syn .	5	5	5
6 Am Express ..	133	132	133
42 Am & F P	40¼	38¾	39½
8 Am & F P pr ..	91⅞	91½	91⅞
10 Am Hide & L ..	13¼	13	13¼
2 Am Hide & L pr	60⅛	60¼	60⅛
6 Am Ice	....	126	125⅝	125⅝
26 Am Int Corp ..	42⅞	42½	43⅝
7 Am L Ft F E .	13⅝	13⅜	13⅜
4 Am La Fr rites.	¾	⅝	⅝
1 Am Linseed . .	46½	46½	46½
1 Am Linseed pr .	84	84	84
74 Am Loco	114⅛	111⅛	113
1 Am Loco pr ..	120	120	120
18 Am Metals	52	51⅜	52
3 Am Metal pr ..	116⅛	116¼	116½
20 Am Radiator .	113	109⅜	110⅝
3 Am Saf Razor.	57	56⅝	57
4 Am Ship & Com	6⅛	5⅞	5⅞
205 Am Smelt	134	130⅛	133
3 Am Sm pr	115⅛	115⅛	115⅛
3 Am Sm pr	115⅛	115⅛	115⅛
31 Am Stl Fdrs	44⅛	44	44⅛
64 Am Sug Ref ..	76	75	75⅝
3 Am Sum Tob ..	11⅝	11⅝	11⅝
15 Am Tel & Tel.	143	142⅝	143
13 Am Tob pr	115⅞	115⅝	115⅝
7 Am Tob B	114⅞	114¼	114½
9 Am Type Fdrs.	115	114½	115
27 Am W Wks	70⅜	68⅛	70⅜
1 A W W Tpc 1 pr	105	105	105
1 Am Wh pr	100	100	100
45 Am Wool	39¼	38⅝	39⅛
4 Am Wt P pr ..	3⅝	3	3⅛
1 Am W P pr ctfs	2	2	2
3 Am Z Ld & Sm	8⅞	8⅜	8⅝
3 Am Z Ld& pr.	40	38⅜	38⅝
50 Anaconda Cop.	47⅜	46⅛	47⅜
5 Ar Dan Mfd ..	41⅝	41⅜	41⅜
1 Arm&Co Del p	97¾	97¾	97¾
31 Arm&Co Ill A	23¾	23¼	23¼
23 Arm&Co of I B	16⅜	15⅞	16
4 Ar&Co of I pr.	90⅝	90⅝	90⅝
5 Arnold Consta .	15	15	15
5 Arnold Cont new	28¼	28¼	28¼
1 Arn Const ctfs.	14⅜	14⅜	14⅜
40 Asso Dy Gds .	51⅝	51	51
1 Asso Dy Gds 1p	101¼	101½	101½
335 Asso Oil	53⅞	51	53⅞
56 Atchison	132⅜	130	131⅝
4 Atchison pr ..	95	95	95
32 Atl R & A	7¼	7⅛	7⅛
35 Atl Coast Line	250	236	250
40 Atl G & W I ..	63¼	61½	63
6 Atl G&WI 1 pr	54½	54⅛	54½
3 Atl Ref	105½	105	105
1 Atlas Powder .	57½	57½	57½
2 Atlas Tack . .	15⅝	15⅝	15⅝
2 Austin Nichols.	25	25	25
1 Aust Nich pr .	90	90	90
1 Auto Knit Hos	⅞	⅞	⅞
120 Baldwin Loco.	126⅝	123	126
5 Baldw Loco pr	111⅜	111	111
76 Balt & Ohio ..	90⅝	89⅛	90⅛
1 Bam Aroos	100⅜	100⅜	100⅜
1 Bang & Ar pr.	100⅛	100⅛	100⅛
78 Barnsdall A .	30½	29⅝	30½
4 Barnsdall B ..	27	26¼	27
1 Bayuk Cigar .	44	44	44
55 Beechnut Pack	65⅞	63	63⅝
27 Belding Bros .	37⅝	37⅜	37⅝
43 Beth Steel	47⅛	46	47⅜
1 Beth Steel 7pr	101⅛	101⅛	101⅛
8 Booth Fisheries.	8⅛	8	8
1 Both Fish 1 pr.	49	49	49
5 Briggs Mfg Co ..	33⅛	33¼	33⅛
5 Bkyn Edison .	135	134⅛	134⅛
8 Bkyn Man Tr ..	57⅜	56⅝	57⅛
13 Bkyn Un Gas.	75⅝	74⅞	75
1 Brown Shoe wi.	45	45	45
11 Burns Bros A.	134	131⅝	131⅝
12 Bruns Bal Col..	28	28	28
8 Burns Br B	36⅛	36	36⅛
1 Bush Terclfs new	21	21	21
8 Bush Ter 7pc pr	88½	88	88
1 Bush TB 5pc pr	99½	99½	99½
14 Butte & S C ..	14⅛	14¼	14⅛
1 Caddo Oil	⅝	⅝	⅝
73 Cal Pack	141¾	137	140¼
109 Cal Petrol	31½	30⅝	31⅛
4 Callahan Zc Lead	2⅝	2½	2⅝
2 Calu & Ariz ..	58⅜	58¼	58⅛
2 Calu & Hec	14⅛	14⅛	14⅛
3 Can Pacific	148¾	147¾	147½
8 Case Threshing	69	67⅞	67⅞
1 Case Thr pr	99⅛	99⅛	99⅛
4 Cent Leather ..	13½	12⅝	13⅛
16 Cent Leath pr.	64	63⅛	64
18 Cen Rib Mfg d..	27⅝	20	26½
39 Cerro de Pasco	58⅞	57⅞	58
5 Certainteed Pro	48	45⅞	46
4 Certainteed pr..	105	104⅝	105
15 Chandler Mot ..	46¼	45½	46⅛
121 Ches & O	117⅝	115	117⅛
4 Ches & O pr ..	119	119	19
Chi & Alt	7⅜	7⅜	7⅜
6 Chi & Alt ctfs	6	6	6
3 Chi & Alt pr...	11⅜	11⅜	11⅜
3 Chi Ea Ill	84½	84½	84½
6 Chi Gt West ..	10⅝	10⅝	10⅝
79 Chi Gt W pr ..	26	25	26
20 Chi M & St P ..	12⅝	12⅛	12½
6 Chi M&St P	12	11½	12
9 Chi M & St P ..	12	11⅞	12
3 Chi M&StP pr.	18⅛	18	18
40 Chi & N W	74	72½	73⅞
4 Chi & N W pr..	120	119½	119½
11 Chi Pneu Tool.	114¼	110¾	114¾
159 Ch R I & P ..	59	56¼	57⅝
C R I P 6 pc ...	87¼	87¼	87½
3 C R I P 7 pc ..	100	99⅝	100
14 Childs Co	63⅞	62	63⅞
83 Chile Cop	33⅞	33¼	33⅝
6 Christie Brown	59	58	59
397 Chrys Corp	49¾	47½	48⅞
2 Cluett Peaby...	67¼	66	67¼
31 Coca Cola	150	146½	150
4 Col Fuel & Ir ..	35½	35	35
1 Col & South ..	61½	61½	61¼
71 Col Gas & El..	85⅞	85¼	85¼
2 Cl & El pr.....	114½	114½	114½
10 Col Carbon ..	57	56	56¼
16 Com Credit	36	35	35
2 Com Credit pfr .	26½	25	52
2 Com Cr B pr ..	26⅝	26⅝	26⅝
8 Com Solv A ...	126½	125¼	125½
6 Com Solv B ...	121	120⅝	121
14 Cong Nairn	17	16¾	16⅞
20 C A I Cigar ..	60⅜	59¼	60⅛
1 Con Cig pr	98	98	98
30 Cons Cig rites .	1½	1½	1½
2 Consol Dist	4¼	4¼	4¼
75 Consol Gas	97¾	96⅛	97
19 Consol Textile .	3⅜	3⅛	3⅜
4 Cont Can	84⅝	83⅝	83⅝
4 Cont Insur ...	141⅝	140	141⅝
33 Cont Motors	12	11⅞	12
22 Cos Credit rites	28¼	28⅛	28¼
27 Corn Prod	41¾	40⅝	40⅝
8 Coty Inc	57⅛	57	57
3 Crex Carpet ..	61⅞	61	61
18 Crucible Steel .	78¼	77½	78¼
1 Cruc Stel pr..	99⅝	99⅝	99¾
26 Cub C S pr	45⅝	45	45⅝
30 Cuba Cn The .	46⅝	45½	46
21 Cub A Sug ...	27⅛	26⅝	27¼
1 Cub A S pr ..	100½	100½	100½
5 Cuban D Sug .	3¼	3	3
2 Cudahy Pack..	92	92	92
1 Cushm S Inc ..	92¼	92¼	92¼
26 Cushman rites .	⅛	⅛	⅛
1 D Boone W M ⅛		⅛	⅛
18 Davison Chem.	39½	38½	39½
14 Del & Hud	156⅝	153¾	153¾
22 D L & West ...	145	142	144½
4 D RG&W pr ctf	43	42	42
15 Detroit & Mack	134½	132½	134½
18 Devoe & R A ...	97	95⅛	97
152 Dodge B A	44	42	44
35 Dodge Br pr ..	85⅝	85⅝	85⅝
10 Dome Mines ...	17¼	16⅜	16⅝
3 Doug Pectin....	21⅜	21¾	21¾
1 Dutch S S & At	6	6	6
45 DuP de Nem ..	221	216½	221
1 DuP de N db .	103⅞	103⅝	103⅞
1 Duq Lt 1 pr...	112½	112½	112½
4 East Kodak ...	109	108¾	108⅞
18 Eaton Axle	27⅞	26⅝	27⅝
58 El Pw & Lt cfs	31	30¼	30¼
4 El P & Lt pr .	91⅞	91½	91⅞
8 Elec Stor Bat .	78⅝	78⅛	78¼
9 Endi Johnson .	68	67½	67⅝
47 Erie R R	24⅞	23⅝	24⅛
35 Erie 1 pr	42⅝	41½	42⅝
17 Eur Vac Cl ...	50¼	47⅝	47⅞
5 Fairb Mrs & Co	54⅝	52½	52½
39 Fam Ply Las .	106⅝	104½	106
2 Federal L&Tel ..	36⅝	36	36⅛
3 Fed Min & Sm.	99	98⅞	98⅞
11 Fed M & Sm pr	94	93	93⅛
1 Fifth Av Bus..	17	17⅛	17⅛
8 First Nat St ..	40⅝	39½	40⅛
19 Fisher Body ..	96⅝	95⅝	96
63 Fisk Rubber ..	24¼	23⅝	24¼
18 Fisk R pr exd .	113	111¼	113
130 Fleischman Co.	53⅞	50⅞	52⅞
126 Foundation Co.	176	171½	176
49 Fox Film A	79⅝	77½	79½
118 Freeport Texas	24	22	23¾
15 Gabriel Snub .	38	37½	37⅝
19 Gen Am Tank .	53	52¼	52¾
77 Gen Ahphalt .	67½	64½	67
4 Gen Asph pr ..	106½	105¾	105½
6 Gen Cigar	111	110¾	111
79 Gen Electric ..	338⅝	333	338½
1 Gen Elec spl ..	11¼	11¼	11¼
5 Gen G & E "A"	56½	55⅝	55½
347 Gen Motors /..	118¾	118¼	118¼
1 Gen Mot 7 pr ..	114¾	114⅝	114⅝
3 Gen Out Ad A .	62⅝	62⅝	62⅝
28 Gen Out A A cfs	30½	28½	29⅝
116 Gen Pet	56⅝	55¾	56
65 Gen Ry Sig new	78¼	75¾	77¼
3 Gen Refract ..	46	46	46
25 Gimbel Bros	72¾	71¼	71¾
38 Glidden Co	24½	23¾	24½
16 Gold Dust	46¼	45⅝	45⅞
28 Godgich B F Co	61⅞	60½	61⅝
3 Gould Coup A.	20¾	20½	20½
1 Goodrich BF pr	98	98	98
1 Granby Min	19⅞	19⅜	19⅜
9 Gotham Hos .	40	39⅝	40
50 Great Nor pr .	74¼	73¼	73⅜
3 Great N I Or ..	25⅝	25½	25½
4 Great W Sug ..	96⅝	96⅜	96⅛
10 Gulf Sts Steel	87	86	87
12 Hartman Corp .	84⅛	83½	84
16 Hayes Wheel ..	45⅝	42⅝	43⅛
2 Hoe R & Co ...	32½	32	32⅛
1 Homestake xd.	49	49	49
17 Household Prod	45	44⅝	44⅝
54 Houston Oil ..	67⅛	64	64⅝
31 Howe Sd Co ..	30⅜	29½	30⅛
8 Hud & Manh .	36⅞	36½	36⅝
306 Hud Motor ...	110¾	106½	110
106 Hupp Motor ..	25⅝	25	25
9 Ill Central .. .	119	118⅝	119
5 Ill Cent pr	119½	119	119½
61 Ind Oil & Gas	28⅝	28⅜	28⅝
8 Ind Motorcycle	19½	18½	19⅛
22 Ind Ref	10½	10	10
3 Ind Ref ctfs	10⅜	9½	9½
11 Inger Rand . .	97	93½	93½
12 Inland Steel ..	42	41	41½
2 Inland St pr ...	112	112	112
9 Insp Cop	23⅝	22¼	23⅝
110 Int Rap Tr	28	26¾	27½
133 Inter Ag Corp.	23⅞	21⅝	23⅝
18 Int Bus Mach...	144⅝	143¼	143⅝
7 Int Cement	66⅞	66⅛	6⅝6
73 Int Harv Co ...	126⅛	124	126½
4 Int Mat Par pr	56⅝	56⅛	56⅝
1 Int Mer Mar..	9¾	9¾	9⅝
70 Int Mer M pr..	39	37¾	37⅞
246 Int Nickel	42⅝	41¾	42⅝
62 Int Paper	58	56¼	56
5 Int Pap 7 pc pr	96⅛	96	96
19 Int Tel & Tel..	123	121	122⅞
6 Intertype Corp	26	25	26
6 Jewell Tea	27	26½	26¾
3 Jnes Brs Tea .	15	14⅝	15
27 Jordan Motors.	50⅝	49⅜	50
83 Kan City Sou..	45½	43⅞	45½
4 Kan City So pr	62	62	62
10 Kans & Gulf ..	½	½	½
15 Kayser J&Coxd	45½	44	44
1 Kayser J&C pr.	104	104	104
8 Kelly Spring ..	12¾	12¼	12⅝
7 Kelsey Wheel .	11⅞	10⅜	11⅝
62 Kennecott Cop	54⅝	54	54⅜
4 WKeystone Tire	2	1⅞	2
9 Kinney Co	81⅛	80	80
1 Kresge S S C..	775	775	775
1 Kresge DDp Str.	30	30	30
1 Kupr B & Co p	180	180	180
8 Lee Rub & Tire	12⅞	12⅝	12⅞
15 Lee Rub rites.	12⅞	12⅝	12⅞
33 Lehigh Valley .	81⅜	80	81
8 Lehn & Fing Pr	38⅛	37⅝	38
8 Lig & My Tob.	92½	91¾	91⅞
35 Lig & M T B .	91⅝	90¼	91⅛
2 Lig & My pr ..	122½	121	121
3 Lima Loco	65	64¼	64¼
26 Loews Inc	38	37½	38
6 Loft Candy	7¼	7¼	7¼
1 Long Bell L A .	47¼	47¼	47¼
11 Loose W Bis..	133	130½	133
34 Lorillard Co P..	36⅞	36	6⅝
25 Louis O & Ref.	17	16½	16½
20 Louis & Nash.	133	130⅛	132
8 Louis G & El	24½	24¼	24⅜
34 Ludlum Steel .	51½	48⅝	48⅝
78 Mack Truck .	146⅝	144	146⅜
2 Mack Tk 1 pr .	111½	111½	111½
45 Mack Tr rites.	6⅜	6¼	6⅜
14 Mack R H Co .	93⅜	97⅝	98
8 Mallleon & Co	24⅝	24¼	24⅝
5 Magma Cop	41⅝	41	41
12 Man Elec Sup.	64¼	63	63¼
12 Man Ry md gtd	40½	38⅞	40⅛
35 Man Shirt	30⅛	29	29
2 Manilla El Cor.	32½	32	32
17 Maraca Oil Ex.	25⅝	24¼	24⅝
25 Marland Oil	56¼	55	56¼
3 Martin Parry .	20¼	20⅛	20¼
13 Math Alk Wks	128⅜	126⅜	128⅝
9 Maytag Co . .	21⅞	21⅝	21⅝
4 McCrory St B.	115	114½	114½
4 McCr Stores B	115	114½	114½
1 Metro Gold pr	22⅜	22⅜	22⅜
10 Mex Seab Oil ..	10⅛	9⅝	10
17 Miami Copper .	12	11⅞	11⅞
86 Mid Cont Pet..	34	33¾	34
20 Mid States Oil.	1⅝	1½	1⅝
3 Mid Sts Oil	1⅜	1	1⅜
1 Midl St Pr pr.	122⅝	122⅝	122⅝
1 Minn & St L ...	8¼	⅛	8¼
5 M StP & S S M	47⅝	47¼	47⅜
64 Mo K & T	40½	39⅝	40⅛
3 Mo K & T pr ..	91⅞	91	91
70 Mo Pacific	37⅛	36⅝	37¼
60 Mo Pac pr	36	35	36
32 Montana Power	80⅝	79	80⅝
336 Montg Ward .	73⅝	71¼	73⅝
46 Moon Motors ..	32⅜	31½	32⅜
8 Mother Lode ..	7	7	7
3 Mot Pic Cap ..	20½	20	20⅛
10 Monto Meter A	40½	39⅝	40½
10 Motor Wheel .	31⅛	30⅝	31
1 Munsingwear .	35	5	35
45 Murray Body..	13⅛	12	13⅛
6 Nash Motors ..	530	524	530
3 Nat Acme stpd.	12	11⅞	11⅞
215 Nat Biscuit	82⅛	77⅛	83
9 Nat Clk & Suit	53	51¼	51½
14 Nat Cash Reg ..	50⅛	50	50⅛
47 Nat Da Prod..	75⅝	74⅝	75⅝
1 Nat Dpt Strs .	40⅝	40⅝	40⅝
7 Nat Dist P	29½	29	29
1 Nat Dist P pr..	86½	85¼	86⅛
2 Nat En & St ..	35⅝	35¼	35⅝
3 Nat Lead	166	164	166
1 Nat Lead pr ..	116	116	116
5 Nat Rys M 2 pr	3¾	3¼	3¾
2 Nat Supply	56½	56	56⅛
1 Nat Surety	227	226	227
3 Nat Tea	215	211¼	215
5 Nev Con Copp .	12⅝	12⅝	12⅝
2 N Y Air Brake.	38⅝	38⅝	38⅝
2 N Y Air Br A .	36½	36½	36⅝
74 N Y Canners .	77	76½	77
103 N Y Central...	138	136⅝	137⅝
3 NY Ch&StL pr	97⅝	97⅝	97⅝
5 N Y Dock	34½	34	34
96 N Y N H & H .	43	41¾	43⅛
12 NY Ont & West	25	25	25⅜
1 N Y State Ry .	25⅛	25⅛	25⅛
10 Niag Falls P pr	38⅛	38⅛	38⅜
1 Nia Lck & On.	109	109	109
3 Norfolk South .	36⅛	36⅛	36⅜
93 Nor & West ..	155¼	153⅝	154⅞
1 Nor & W pr....	86	85	86
147 North American	65⅝	65⅜	65⅝
1 No Amer pr A	60¼	60¼	60¾
75 North Pac	72⅛	71⅝	72⅝
1 Nor Am Edis pr	93⅛	93⅛	93⅜
3 Nor T & R	13⅝	13⅛	13⅝
10 Oil Well Supply	82	81¼	81⅝
1 Ontario Sil M .	10	10	10
15 Oppenheim Col	57	56	57
6 Orpheum C exd	30	29⅞	30
3 Orph Cir pr ..	101⅛	101	101¾
6 Otis Elevator .	125	124⅛	124½
25 Otis Stel	13⅝	13¼	13⅜
2 Otis Stl pr	95⅝	95½	95½
4 Owens Bottle .	63⅛	62⅝	63⅜
1 Pacific Coast .	39	39	39
1 Pac Cot 2 pr .	52⅛	52⅛	52⅛
2 Pan G & E	157½	127	127
454 Pac Oil	77¾	75	77
58 Packard Motor .	38⅝	38	38⅛
24 Paige D M Cr.	25	24⅝	24½
28 Pan Am Pet ..	67½	66⅝	67½
221 Pan Am Pet B	69⅝	67⅛	69⅝
37 Pan Am W Br..	45⅝	40⅝	41⅝
14 Park & Tilf ..	26⅛	26⅛	26½
20 Pathe Ex A	75⅝	74½	75⅝
1 Pen & Ford	17⅞	17⅜	17⅝
88 Penn R R	54¼	54⅜	54⅝
35 Penn Seab Stl .	3	1⅞	2
9 Peo Gas Chi...	118	117½	118
1 Pere Marq	88	88	8
6 Philadelphia Co	64	62⅝	63⅜
1 Phila Co 6pc pr	48	48	48
16 Phil&Rdg C&I.	41⅝	41½	41⅝
10 Phil Mor & Co	18¾	18⅝	18⅝
105 Philips Petrol..	43¾	42⅞	43⅝
2 Phoenix Hos ..	41⅜	41¼	41½
135 Pierce Arrow .	38⅝	36⅝	38
21 Pierce Ar pr ..	104	101	104
2 Pierce Ar pr	1¼	1½	1¼
18 Pearce Pet	6⅜	5½	5½
11 Pitts Coal	40	39⅝	40
2 Pitts Coal pr..	83½	83	83
3 Pitts Term Coal	61½	60	60⅝
3 Pitts & W Va..	113	112½	113
65 Postum Cereal.	109¼	107½	108⅝
30 Press Stl Car.	72⅛	70	72⅛
1 Press St C pr..	91	91	91
4 Prod & Ref	14⅛	14	14⅛
151 Pub Ser N J ..	91⅞	88⅞	90⅝
1 Pub S N J 7 pcp	105	105	105
87 Pullman Co ...	169	164¾	169
12 Pun Al Sug	43⅝	41⅜	43⅜
60 Pure Oil	29¼	28⅝	29¼
1 Pure Oil pr ...	108	108	108
61 Radio Corp	42	41	42⅜
3 Radio Cor pr .	46	45½	46
7 Rail St Spr	167	163	166
16 Ray Con Cop .	11⅞	11⅝	11⅞
7 Read Co	84½	84	84½
7 Read rts	19⅛	19

CLOUDY TODAY: RAIN AT NIGHT AND TOMORROW

Norwich Bulletin

1799 1928

NORWICH, CONN., THURSDAY, JAN. 21, 1926.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DESPATCHES

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Thursday, Jan. 21, 1926

WEATHER

Conditions

The disturbance that was over southeastern New Mexico Tuesday night has advanced to southern Texas with increasing intensity, with a trough extending northeastward through the Ohio valley to Maine. Pressure is relatively low over eastern Ontario. There will be snows in the interior and rain on the coast of New England late Thursday and on Friday. Elsewhere in the states east of the Mississippi river, the weather will be fair Thursday and Friday, it will be colder on Thursday in northern New England and colder on Friday in the Atlantic states.

Winds

North of Sandy Hook: Fresh west and northwest, weather partly overcast weather Thursday.

Sandy Hook to Hatteras: Fresh southeast and shifting to northeast and increasing; weather becoming overcast with rain Thursday night.

Forecast

Southern New England: Increasing cloudiness Thursday followed by rain Thursday night and on Friday, colder Friday night.

Observations

The Bulletin's observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Wednesday:

	Ther.	Bar.
7 a. m.	32	30.00
12 m.	48	30.00
6 p. m.	40	30.00

Comparisons

Predictions for Wednesday: Cloudy. Wednesday's weather: Fair, followed by cloudy, southwest wind, continued mild.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES

	Sun		High Water	Moon
Day	Rises	Sets		Sets
	a. m.	p. m.	a. m.	p. m.
21	7.11	4.48	1.00	10.16
22	7.10	4.47	1.58	11.24
23	7.10	4.48	2.37	mor
24	7.09	4.49	3.58	0.29
25	7.09	4.51	4.59	1.34
26	7.08	4.52	6.58	2.37
27	7.07	4.53	8.52	3.38

Six hours after high water it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

TAFTVILLE

The A-u-re-li-ya Camp Fire girls held their weekly meeting Friday evening at the home of Miss Lou Unsworth of North B street.

At a recent meeting of interested radio owners, it was suggested as next week is international test week, regenerative set owners observe two silent nights to allow neutralized and other types of sets more chance to hear Europe first hand. One or two stations agreed to remain silent all week, and if others owning regenerative sets would observe Wednesday and Friday, it would be an act appreciated by other set owners.

A meeting of St. Veronica's T. A. and B. society was held Wednesday evening at the society's rooms on Providence street. The new president, Miss Mary Hanlon presided.

Edward P. Dunn of Hartford has been a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harlo M. Wood of North Third avenue.

William J. Smith has been seriously ill at his home on Dion street.

PETTIS MAKES BIG JUMP IN PINOCHLE PLAY

E. H. Pettis jumped from eighth to first place in the standing of the West Side Pinochle club Wednesday evening, displacing Ellsworth who fell back to second place. Boynton dropped from second place to fifth, while Dr. N. B. Lewis retained third place. The scores made Wednesday evening follow:

E. H. Pettis, 4,855; C. Peckham, 7,-055; Unsworth, 6,385; Ellsworth, 7,-715; Lewis, 6,995; A. Jordan, 6,575; J. Jordan, 6,415; Boynton, 6,275; Bailey 6,005; Schuler, 6045; Parker, 5,580; F. Peckham, 5,310.

The standing to date: Pettis, 14,720; Ellsworth, 14,670; Lewis, 14,330; C. Peckham, 14,330; Boynton, 13,815; Unsworth, 13,505; J. Jordan, 12,750; Schuler, 12,540; A. Jordan, 12,555; F. Peckham, 12,300; Bailey, 12,245; Parker, 11,810.

PRETTY DANCE SOCIAL BY L. H. D. CLUB

A very successful dance and social was held Wednesday evening at Odd Fellows hall, Main street, by the members of the L. H. D. club. There was a large attendance and the programme was furnished by Thumm's orchestra. The hall was most artistically decorated in the L. H. D. colors, white and blue, and at each end of the room appeared the letters, L. H. D., and the club initials were suspended from the ceiling. Each of the club members wore the L. H. D. colors. A feature of the evening was a special moonlight dance.

The committee in charge comprised Misses Frances Kelly, Elizabeth Sullivan, Marie Desmond, Honor Furlong, Loretta Gadle and Catherine Finnegan.

Communicable Diseases Reported

The weekly morbidity report issued by the Connecticut State Department of Health shows the following cases of communicable diseases reported from towns in eastern Connecticut:

Diphtheria—Norwich, .

Whooping cough—Bozrah, 4; Preston, 4; Sprague, 7.

Scarlet fever—Groton, 1; New London, 3; Norwich, 1; Canterbury, 1.

Measles—Colchester, 31; Groton, 1; Jewett City, 5; New London, 3; Norwich, 14; Voluntown, 1; Andover, 1; Rockville, 4; Stafford Springs, 11 Willington, 1; Pomfret, 2; Putnam, 1; Thompson, 1; Woodstock, 1.

Comfort Circle Meets

Wednesday afternoon Comfort Circle of the King's Daughters held its fortnightly meeting with Mrs. William H. Geer of Washington street. Ten members attended and the leader, Mrs. Albert T. Utley presided. The usual devotions and business meeting were followed by readings and a discussion of the season's work to be done by the circle.

DISTURBED SLEEP

Caused From Bladder Weakness. Nature's Way of Telling You of "Danger Ahead."

No. 100

J. M. Hanford, 7155 Yale Ave., Chicago, Ill., says, "For two years I have been troubled with gravel. Many times it would cause me to get up eight to twelve times at night, and it was very painful. Lithiated Buchu cleaned me up in one week. I will be glad to tell or write my experience." Lithiated Buchu is not a patent medicine as the formula is on the label. It cleanses the bladder as epsom salts do the bowels, driving out abnormal deposits, neutralizing excess acid, thereby relieving irritation which causes disturbed sleep. It is not a "dope" medicine. The tablets cost 2 cents each at all drug stores. Keller Laboratory, Massillon, Ohio. Local agency, The Rexall Drug Store.

FEWER MARRIAGES, DEATHS AND BIRTHS IN NORWICH THAN YEAR AGO

Norwich fell off in vital statistics in the past year from what it had shown in the year before that, according to the annual record compiled by Town Clerk Charles S. Holbrook. There were fewer births, marriages and deaths in 1925 than there were in 1925.

The stork was a slacker to the extent of 57 on his job of bringing additions to the population in 1925. In 1924 there were 329 births, but in 1935 only 772. At the same time there were reports from other towns of ten babies born to Norwich residents.

Marriages in 1925 fell a little under the figure for 1924. There were 279 in 1925, but 286 in 1924. Besides these there were 58 marriages in other towns in which either the bride or the groom was a Norwich resident.

The deaths in Norwich were 22 less in the past year than in the year before. In 1924 there were 525 deaths and in 1925 the number was 503, with 49 additional deaths of Norwich people occurring in other towns.

June continues to be the favorite month for weddings with October a close second, while the births are most frequent in January, March, May, June and July; in each of which months there were over 70 new arrivals in town, an average of over two a day.

The most deaths occurred in January by a good deal, the number being 60, while November makes the nearest approach to that figure with 51.

The following is the detail of vital statistics for the past year in Norwich:

	B.	M.	D.	S.B.	Total
Jan.	76	16	60	2	154
Feb.	57	25	36	3	121
Mch.	75	9	46	0	130
Apr.	62	18	43	1	124
May	74	27	46	4	151
June	77	46	38	1	162
July	71	23	35	4	133
Aug.	66	23	37	1	126
Sept.	50	25	27	1	103
Oct.	60	36	46	3	145
Nov.	60	34	51	1	136
Dec.	44	9	38	3	94
Totals ..	772	279	503	25	1579
Received from other towns under law of 1903	10	53	49		12

GAVE INSPIRING ADDRESSES BEFORE ROTARY CLUB

One of the most enthusiastic and interesting meetings of the Norwich Rotary club was held Wednesday noon at the Wauregan hotel when there were two very inspiring addresses given, one by Rev. Alexander H. Abbott, who spoke on A-1 Work and the other by Charles A. Gager, who talked interestingly on the work being done by the Connecticut Agricultural college in educating the farmer to modern agricultural methods.

Rev. Mr. Abbott, in speaking on A-1 Work, said that one often hears the phrase "that is A-1". It is an apt phrase and when analyzed it means much more than we think it does. We hear that this piece of work is A-1, or that symphony orchestra is A-1 or that person is an A-1 American. What does this mean? It means that some quality of excellence has been taken and administered in an excellent manner. A-1 work is taking something of excellence that is at hand, either visible or invisible, and then creating some thing that stands out above all the rest. This, when we look at it is A-1 work.

But what goes into this A-1 work? There is a long period, some times it is years and some times it is generations, before we can say that we have A-1 work. There is a monotonous grind that, unless we have vision, becomes a drudgery. If we have this vision of super-excellence in the finished product then our work takes on a different meaning and we find joy in the work of creating. There is excellence all about us, but it is our task to give this excellence its proper administration before we can say that is A-1 work. Two or three centuries before the birth of Christ there was in Joppa a garden and this garden had to be irrigated. There was an abundance of excellent water in the earth even as there is today but it had to be administered to that garden in a way never before conceived. The wise heads of that time got together and a tank was erected and the water from the earth was conveyed to this reservoir by a chain of buckets on a revolving wheel. Then canals were built leading to various parts of the garden and the contents of the tank poured into the canals. This was the first of our irrigation systems. What had those men done? They had taken an excellent quality and administered it in an excellent way and thus had done A-1 work.

So it is with everything we do. We must find an excellent quality, be it in music, in character or character and then mold and administer it in an excellent manner before we have A-1 work. Forget the monotonous grind of work and look forward with clear vision to the finished product and we will find more joy in a task well done.

Mr. Abbott's talk was heartily received and left the Rotarians with a thought well worth considering.

Talks on Farmer's Life

The five-minute speaker of the day was C. A. Gager, who told of the work of the Connecticut Agricultural college as it effects the city-bred person. Mr. Gager said:

At last you've got me. I've been as elusive as a flea on an elephant when it comes to this five-minute speaking business but Ed Harris literally drove me into a corner and now I'm going to inflict upon you a full five minutes of talk.

In choosing a topic I ran into all sorts of difficulty. There's lots of things I could talk about but it wouldn't mean much as there are only a few subjects with which I'm really on speaking terms, one is the undertaking business and the other is farming. The undertaking business is more or less of a dead subject and our customers never kick, so why talk about it. The other is farming and here I'm on familiar ground so I'll dig in.

Now, just how much thought do you city-bred Rotarians give to the horny handed tiller of God's earth? Very little, I'm willing to gamble. You fellows that chase the elusive dollars along Norwich's streets little think of the tough time the fellow, known as a farmer, is having out in the great open spaces, chasing the same dollar that ducks and runs and holes up in the ground. The farmer has to dig it out of the ground while you simply take it out of somebody's pocket. How many of you could change places with the farmer and make enough to live on? If those war gardens that some of you fellows planted are any criterion you'd be as skinny as a rail.

You Rotarians get up in the morning and go down to breakfast. You have your fruit and cereal and your bacon and eggs but do you think of what has been done by the farmer so that you can have these things? You have your lunch and at night you come home and a real meal is waiting for you prepared by a cook, if she hasn't been stolen away from you by your neighbor during the day. After lunch those who are fortunate enough, may go down and lap the old cider barrel and then you say "ain't life a glorious thing?"

Now, how about the farmer? He gets up with the sun, milks the cows and if he has a milk route, goes to town with the milk. Then he comes back, grabs a bite to eat and then starts on his morning chores, and on a farm there are some chores. If it's planting time, he spends his day in the fields behind a plow or planter. In the early summer its with a hoe or cultivator and later comes the haying and in the fall the harvesting. Then, when the winter snows start to blow, its time to get in the wood supply. From dawn to dusk the farmer works to give you people what appeals to your appetite. Little thanks the farmer gets and the majority will say "give me the life of a farmer, his life is easy." Believe me, its more than just sticking seeds in the ground and waiting to reap the harvest. How about the drought that burns everything up, and the cold and wet spring that rots the seed in the ground? You don't hear about these. Oh, there's a hundred and one things that friend farm has to contend with that makes his life one of worry.

But, within twenty miles of Norwich is an institution that is making the farmer's life a little more enjoyable. This institution is the Connecticut Agricultural college at Storrs. How many of you have been to this institution to see what is being done in the line of experiments with agriculture? You who have been buying your farm products from one farmer for a number of years have noticed the improvement in them. The apples you have bought may be a little smoother and with hard firm flesh and no worms. The potatoes are probably smooth and mealy and free from scab. The green corn is of larger ears and the kernels are tender and milky. The dairy products that you buy from him are of better quality and there is a larger percentage of butter fat. Now all this can be traced directly to the agricultural colleges, either in our own state or in some other.

The farmer has read bulletins on apple spraying, on how to rid the soil of certain qualities that cause scab on potatoes, he has learned how to subdue the potato bug and the corn-borer and how to feed his cattle so that they will give better milk. This knowledge has been gained without a cent of cost to him and look how we city folks have been helped. All this because of the agricultural college.

Then the farmer's wife was benefitted. She has been shown how to can the products to the best of advantage; she has been told how to get her little flock of hens to lay a dozen eggs a day where they have been giving her only six; she has also been shown how to make over last year's hat and dress so that they look like the 1926 models. She has learned these things through the home demonstration agent that has held meetings in her neighborhood. All this through the Connecticut Agricultural college which has sent out trained people to assist in the work of the Farm bureau.

Then the boy has learned about sheep raising and perhaps he has his own little garden that he is caring for. He and sister may have gone with dad and mother to Storrs to attend the special lectures and courses during Farmers' and Junior weeks. This all for those who are not enrolled at the institution as students. Of course the student gets considerable more than just the best means of producing on the farm. He gets studies that fit him for the business life of the world and an education that is as good as any in the other colleges.

The Connecticut Agricultural college is an institution that deserves the support of everyone, an institution that is doing work which we of the city see every day in the way of better farm products. We benefit by it and we should become interested in anything that brings us benefit.

If any of you people want to see what is being done up there, go up and see Dick Dodge, of the Willimantic Rotary club, and he will gladly show you around and tell you the advantages of the institution much better than I. What they advocate is good for I have tried it out on my own place as Mohegan and I can see the results that I get.

Now I hope this will let me out of the five-minute speaking for at least another year and by that time you'll probably have forgotten this talk and like some of the ministers, I can give it over again.

Mr. Gager's talk was received with hearty appreciation and President Harris took occasion to compliment the speaker on his talk.

Business Session

At the business session at which E. A. Harris presided and Jim Rountree acted as song-leader, there were several matters pertaining to club policy discussed.

Edward A. Regan, president of the New London Rotary club, who was in Norwich on business, was a guest of the club and during the course of the meeting brought greetings to the Norwich club from the parent club, New London. Mr. Regan also, in his talk, stressed the importance of attendance.

One new member, Henry F. Lyon, new manager of the local telephone exchange and former secretary of the Putnam Rotary club, was cordially welcomed into membership by President Harris. Mr. Lyon expressed his appreciation of the honor of becoming a member of the local club.

President Harris also called attention to the amateur theatrical production "That's That" being given next week by the Lions club, for the cause of charity and urged that the Rotarians give it the support such an effort demanded.

Mention was made of the charter meeting on Feb. 4th, at Danielson, when the Danielson Rotary club, sponsored by the Putnam club, would receive its charter. A request was made that all members of the Norwich club attend.

The meeting closed with the singing of the Star Spangled Banner.

ANNIVERSARY REVIEW OF PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING

The committee and staff of the Public Health Nurse Department of the United Workers' Association were delightfully entertained on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Phillip T. Wells at her home at Norwich Town.

The occasion was to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the department. There were present the president and treasurer of the United Workers, most of the members of the committee and the staff of six nurses and the secretary.

Mrs. A. H. Chase, the chairman, made a few remarks on the nursing work prior to the reorganization of the Public Health Nurse Department, and Mrs. Harvey M. Briggs read a very interesting paper on the history of all nursing work done under the United Workers since 1887.

Refreshments were served in the dining room of the charming old house by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. F. T. Sayles and Miss Alif Stephens, Mrs. Chase and Miss Katherine Kent pouring tea.

In the review of work of the department, the paper by Mrs. Briggs was as follows:

In giving this resume of the ten years during which our Public Health Nursing department has been functioning, I will try to give some of the outstanding features of each year as I have been able to gather them from our yearly reports.

Our present department had a very strong background as visiting nursing in Norwich was not new, dating back some 30 or more years. In fact there was never any record of the final termination of the work. Then, too, Miss Lavina Dock, a pioneer in Public Health Nursing in this country and one standing very high in her profession was one of the first visiting nurses in Norwich. In 1887, ten years after the United Workers were organized, we find from records that a nurse from Bellevue hospital, New York, came for a period of three months to do visiting nursing work. This nurse was undoubtedly Miss Dock. In later years, nurses from the state hospital were sent up to do nursing work for The United Workers. But it was not until 1916 when Mrs. Richard Graham came to Norwich that the work was organized as the Public Health Nursing Department of The United Workers.

In that first year one nurse, Miss Elizabeth Culver, did all the work. Homes were visited where bedside nursing was needed and she had to adapt herself quickly to whatever conditions were found, such as stubborn fire to coax, a sink of unwashed dishes to do, or perhaps a floor to be swept. From the first it was felt that the work should not be passive, but that there should be, if all was accomplished that was intended, a steady growth in the work, a desire to go forward and fill a larger place in the community.

The following year, 1917, a second nurse, Miss Mary Lamb was added to the force allowing more time to be given to the work of prevention of disease. Lectures were given on infant welfare for girls from 10 to 14 in the parochial and certain of the public schools. The object was to teach the girls, by means of simple lectures and practical demonstrations, the proper care of baby brothers and sisters. These lectures were continued throughout the summer months and were successful far beyond the highest hopes. Over 1,100 were enrolled.

Because of increasing demands upon the nursing service by families willing to pay more than the cost price of 50 cents, it was decided to put this branch of the work upon an hourly basis.

Recognition of the nurses' work was shown by the action of the Norwich Medical association whereby nurses were empowered in cases of emergency to give baths and simple cathartics without a doctor's orders.

Follow up work in connection with the Backus hospital and dispensary was started. An increase of 681 in the number of visits over the previous year was reported.

In 1918 Miss Lamb having resigned after six months' service, Miss Kate MacKenzie came on as a second nurse.

As an outgrowth of work undertaken by the local Child Welfare committee under the State Council of Defense to which The United Workers' Public Health nurses had given a large part of their time, the Rock Nook Children's clinic became an established factor in our work.

The Tuberculosis clinic, for which a crying need had been felt, also became a reality, the State Tuberculosis commission encouraging this work by granting an appropriation of $500 to enable the United Workers to add another nurse. One-half of this nurse's time was to be devoted specifically to tuberculosis work.

The first Dodge coupe appeared this year, making no longer dreaded the calls from distant parts of the city "to come as soon as possible."

During 1919 the work necessitated taking on a third nurse, Miss May Maher. Much constructive work was done. The nurses were also to search out members in patient's families who it was thought might be on the verge of physical disaster. It would seem that the summer of 1919 must have been a very trying one. Over six tons of ice were distributed among families with babies and small children.

The report of the Public Health Nursing department, at the close of its fifth year shows that the work had increased nearly fourfold, a total of 5,410 calls in 1920 as against 1,443 in 1915. We find that in February, 1920, the number of calls made and the amount of fees collected equalled the whole of the first year's work.

The Tuberculosis nurse began her duties this year, staying, however, less than a year.

As an outgrowth of an instruction class, organized for underweight children and including those who had been exposed to tuberculosis, a day camp for these children was maintained during July. The old Grand View sanatorium was loaned for this purpose by its owner, Dr. John Donohue.

The nurses were asked to co-operate with the city health officers in safeguarding the community health. When a number of diphtheria carriers was found in a certain section of the city they were called upon to take the necessary throat cultures and to instruct mothers about proper quarantine methods. After the resignation of the Tuberculosis nurse it was decided to penalize the work by dividing the city into districts, a nurse being assigned to each district to care for all classes of patients. The wisdom of this plan appealed to the Tuberculosis Seal committee which decided to appropriate a definite sum to The United Workers for this particular work and to provide another car. This districting plan seemed to work out most successfully.

Pre-natal nursing with pre-natal clinics was started in 1921. The nursing service of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company was taken over by our nurses. The additional work, and the fact that this branch of the work bid fair from the first to pay for itself, made it advisable to add another nurse. Miss Murphy became the fifth nurse, Miss Reid having previously become one of the staff.

Miss Culver, the first superintendent, resigned in June, 1921, and Miss MacKenzie became acting superintendent, resigned in June, 1922, and Miss Gilbert, Miss Portelance joined the staff at this time, remaining into 1925 when she resigned and Miss Kilroy succeeded her.

Two well babies' conferences were started at No. 9 and at Yantic with immediate valuable results noted.

During the year 1922 11,848 calls were made, the largest number to date in the history of the department.

The outstanding event in 1923 was the opening in October of the Neuro-Psychiatric clinic, the purpose of the clinics being to diagnose mental disease early enough to prevent a serious mental breakdown. A need for just such diagnosis had been encountered by the Welfare and the Public Health Nursing committees of The United Workers, where abnormal mental conditions in their clients made their work inadequate and inefficient. Two members from the Family Welfare department and two from our own committee organized this work, the chairman of the nursing committee acting as chairman of the new organization. From the first it was endorsed by the Norwich Medical association, and it is interesting to note that our clinic was the first of its kind in the state and that Norwich was the first city in the country to establish such a clinic with state aid. (I should have stated, perhaps, that the clinic was established under the auspices of the Norwich State hospital, the State Department of Health and The United Workers of Norwich.)

Special effort has been made to aid the crippled children of Norwich, the Rotary and Lions clubs helping financially in securing hospital aid for several.

During the year just closed children have been admitted to Meriden, Newington and the Shriners' hospital at Springfield.

June proved a busy month with the nurses, due to heat prostration among the older people. In July one of the nurses gave a talk twice a week at a summer school for Italian children, most of whom were old friends of the nurses.

A well babies' conference was opened in Taftville in November and it is hoped later to start conferences in Greeneville and at Laurel Hill.

That the Public Health Nursing department has the kind of service that mills and factories need is shown by the American Thermos Bottle company which has offered nursing care to its 200 employes, and this through our connection with the Metropolitan Life Insurance company.

The record of these ten years shows that we have not been marking time but have been going forward year by year, filling a larger place in the community, and the success of the work is shown by the demand for it from the community and its corresponding development.

MISSIONARY FROM CHINA TO ADDRESS BAPTISTS

The Baptists of all this section of Connecticut are to unite in a mass meeting at the Central Baptist church on Friday evening at 7:45, when Dr George A. Huntley, returned missionary from China, is to speak. Dr Huntley will speak in the afternoon at 4 o'clock to the boys and girls of junior age. The afternoon meeting will be in the parish house and the evening address in the church.

Dr. Huntley addressed a gathering of men in Norwich about a year ago, and was acclaimed one of the most interesting speakers upon missionary work ever listened to by a Norwich audience. Everyone will be welcomed at the meeting who cares to attend.

A prize has been offered to the out-of-town delegation largest in number. It is expected there will be a number of such delegations.

JUDGMENT FOR ARCHITECT AGAINST DR. F. M. DUNN

Judge C. L. Avery of the superior court, has handed down a decision for George R. Beaudette, a New London architect, to recover $478.90 with interest from Sept. 1, 1924 from Dr. Frank M. Dunn, of that city, whom the architect sued for fees of $1,350 in drawing plans for a house. The case was recently tried before Judge Avery, both Frank M. Dunn and Gretta K. Dunn, his wife, being named as defendants. The judge finds against Frank M. Dunn but in favor of Gretta K. Dunn.

NORWICH TOWN

Since locating in Norwich Town in May, 1925, the firm of La Valley and Birdsey have had charge of the Norwich Town post office, until about a month ago when Postmaster La Valley tendered his resignation, to Post Master Casper K. Bailey at the Norwich office. During this time, Mr. Birdsey acted as assistant postmaster, while Mrs. Catherine Daniels has been the efficient helper. The Norwich Town office was taken over Saturday, January 16th by Mrs. John Kinney of 86 Town street, who will conduct the office in the small building formerly used as the post office adjoining the property of Mrs. Mary Durr, at 85 Town street. The courtesy and promptness of the retiring officials, have been much appreciated by residents of Norwich Town and vicinity.

At the Methodist parsonage Monday evening, the L. W. class of young women taught by Mrs. James B. Aldrich, re-organized with the following officers: President, Miss Ines Edmiston; vice president, Miss Effie Ladd; secretary, Miss Gertrude Brown; treasurer, Miss Ruth Lathrop. Lookout committee comprises Misses Elizabeth Gifford and Gladys Cruthers.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic H. Wyant of Town street, had as a dinner guest Sunday, George Berry, of Danielson.

Rev. Edwin G. Crowdis and choir of the Taftville Congregational church, are to have charge of the Sunday afternoon service at the Sheltering Arms.

WEDDING

Rogers-Pendleton

Wednesday evening at seven o'clock at the parsonage of Rev. James B. Aldrich, pastor of the Norwich Town M. E. church, Miss Dorothy J. Pendleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Pendleton of 83 Church street was united in marriage with John Morgan Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett M. Rogers of Wauwecus street. The bridesmaid was Miss Beulah M. Rogers, sister of the groom. The best man was Robert M. Avery.

The bride wore a turquoise blue satin crepe gown and a hat of gold lace.

The groom gave the bride a Roman gold locket and chain. The bride gave the groom a pair of green gold initialed cuff links and a gold piece to the maid of honor. The best man received a pair of green gold cuff-links.

Following the wedding ceremony a dinner was served to the immediate families at the bride's home at 83 Church street.

The bride received many beautiful and useful gifts including cut-glass, silver, money, linen, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers left for a honeymoon trip to Hastings on Hudson, N. Y., later in the evening. On their return they will make their home with the groom's parents on Wauwecus street, Norwich Town.

Funeral of Joseph H. Olsen

Funeral services for Joseph H. Olsen, were held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of his brother, John Olsen of Town street, Norwich Town, in the very large attendance were relatives and friends from Waterford, Jewett City, Fishers Island and other places.

Rev. Edward C. Dunbar pastor of the First Baptist church, conducted the service, assisted by Rev. James B. Aldrich, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church. During the service, Mrs. William Crowe, Jr., sang, Some Time We'll Understand and Abide With Me. The bearers were Lewis Aldrich, Andas Peterson, Robert McNealy and William Russell.

The body was placed in the vault at Maplewood cemetery, where the committal service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Dunbar and Rev. Mr. Aldrich, who during the services at the house paid a fitting tribute to the life of one who had been an earnest worker in both parishes.

Undertaker C. A. Gager was in charge of the arrangements. The flowers included a pillow marked "Brother," from Mr. and Mrs. John Olsen and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kelley; wreath of roses and carnations marked "Uncle," from his niece and two nephews; spray of roses from the Young People's society of the First Baptist church; wreath of carnations and roses from the First Methodist Episcopal church; sheaf of wheat with roses from Norwich Grange, No. 172; anchor of roses and carnations from the Ancient Order of United Workmen; wreath from the Neighborhood Whist club and other neighbors, including Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin L. Kennedy, Miss Alice H. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. David M. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Browning, Mrs. Jeanette Waldo, Miss Etta Walker, Miss Rose Matassa, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Buckley, Mrs. Frazier, Mrs. Elizabeth R. Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. William E. House, William Kinney, Edwin C. Gay and Charles Costules. Among others who sent beautiful pieces which included pillows, sprays, baskets of choice blossoms and standing wreaths were, Mrs. Cary Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Kelley Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hetherington Mr. and Mrs. John Beswick; Mr. and Mrs. Antone Jacobson and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Small; Mrs. Elsie Fielding and daughter, Miss Lucille Fielding; Mr. and Mrs. Archie Furbush, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tourjee and Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson; Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson and family; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Maynard and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Maynard, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Peterson and son, Andas Peterson; Mrs. Dwight Smith and Miss Ruth Allard.

"Catcher to Customer"

LOBSTERS, CLAMS, SCALLOPS, MUMFORD COVE, BLUE POINT, HADDOCK, ROE, SHRIMP. Strictly Fancy Fresh Caught Fish at POWERS BROS.

16 Bath Street. Phone 114.

THE PORTEOUS & MITCHELL CO.

Today—(When the Store Opens at 8:30 A. M.)

WE WILL PLACE ON SALE

2,500 YARDS OF 36-INCH SHRUNK

DRESS LINENS

100 PER CENT PURE LINEN

At 39c yd

PERFECT IN WEAVE AND FINISH

Outstanding Features of This Sale

1—All Regular Goods

Goods involved are our usual high grade merchandise in a complete range of colors—not goods bought for special Sale purposes.

2—Absolutely Perfect

The merchandise offered is absolutely perfect in weave and finish—we guarantee that.

3—Thoroughly Shrunk

Every piece is thoroughly shrunk, having been reduced to 36 inches from 46 inches, before finishing.

4—Strictly Fast Colors

Colors are absolutely fast. We have sold thousands of yards of this same grade without a single complaint.

This is a Manufacturer's Close-out, at a tremendous sacrifice—Dress Linens that are 36 inches wide, absolutely PURE LINEN and perfect in weave and finest.

The PRICE (39c yd.) is the LOWEST ever quoted in the history of our business for Dress Linens of equal quality.

The color range is broad and satisfying—white, rose, orchid, green, brown, Copenhagen, nickel gray, sunset, tobacco, etc.

On Sale when the Store opens at 8:30 This Morning, at 39c a yard

ACTUAL VALUE 95c and $1.00 A YARD

As quantity of some colors is limited, we advise an early selection so as to avoid disappointment.

(Linen Department—Down Stairs)

WRIGLEY'S P.K.

in the New Handy Pack is the biggest value in long-lasting flavorful enjoyment that you can buy.

It is the best Peppermint Chewing Sweet for any money.

Handy Pack fits hand, pocket and purse.

Look for WRIGLEY'S P.K. Handy Pack on your Dealer's Counter

Refuse Imitations

Take the Original Package Home

Safe Milk and Food

For Infants, Convalescents, the Aged, Nursing and Expectant Mothers, Children, etc.

For School Children

The school child requires proper nourishment, not only to upbuild muscle, bone and teeth, but also to maintain strength and vitality during the growing period. "Horlick's" is composed of clean, full-cream milk, combined with a nourishing extract of the grains. Prepared at Home in a moment. No cooking.

Norwich Bulletin

VOL. LXVIII—No. 19. POPULATION 29,865 NORWICH, CONN., FRIDAY, JANUARY 22, 1926. 14 PAGES—102 COLUMNS PRICE TWO CENTS

EARTH TREMOR REGISTERED AT HARVARD UNIVERSITY

Seismograph Indicated That the Disturbance Was Only a Short Distance Away—About the Same Time a Noise Like an Explosion Was Heard in the Somerville District —No Damage Was Reported.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 21.—(AP)—A slight earth movement was recorded on the seismograph at Harvard university today, indicating that the disturbance was only a short distance away. At about the same time three sounds resembling explosions were heard in the Somerville district, but no damage was reported.

Dr. Kirtley F. Mather, director of the Harvard observatory, said he was not certain whether the seismograph was awaken by an earthquake of slight intensity or whether the record had been made by blasting in some nearby quarry. Telephone calls to every section of Somerville and Cambridge brought no reports of damage, although several persons reported hearing the blasts. Professor Mather said if no evidence of an explosion was found, there undoubtedly had been a slight earthquake shock. It was explained that noise usually accompanies earthquakes of high vibration.

The seismograph recorded the disturbance at 2:57 p. m., at about the time the third "explosion" was reported to have been heard in Somerville.

The other two were heard an hour and an hour and a half before.

SHOCKS FRIGHTENED CITIZENS OF SOMERVILLE

SOMERVILLE, Mass., Jan. 21.—(AP)—A trio of jarring shocks that frightened citizens here and in neighboring towns and set houses quivering were still unexplained tonight. The seismograph at Harvard recorded a disturbance for three-quarters of a minute at 2:57 p. m., the time of the third shock, and authorities there said that unless information of a large explosion within about 10 miles of the Instrument came to light, the disturbance would have to be attributed to a slight earthquake. Extensive inquiry in this region revealed no such explosion.

TILSON DEFENDS THE CRUDE RUBBER INQUIRY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Secretary Hoover's action in bringing about an inquiry into foreign crude rubber monopolies was defended in the house today by representative Tilson of Connecticut, the republican leader, who replied to a number of recent attacks on the secretary by democrats. Hardly had Mr. Tilson concluded, however, before two democrats again took occasion to assail the secretary's course.

Mr. Tilson described the secretary's action as a "well directed effort" to protect the rubber industry from higher prices. He conceded that American business men might have shown more foresight in developing a supply of rubber, but asked if this "is any reason to fold our hands."

The present inquiry of the house commerce committee, he predicted, will bring about a better understanding among the nations interested in the rubber situation.

Representative Black, democrat, New York, said he was not surprised that the republican leader made a "defense of Hoover's activities on rubber," and charged that American rubber manufacturers were more guilty of speculation than British manufacturers.

Representative Shallenberger, democrat, Nebraska, asserted American rubber manufacturers should be investigated, charging that they had doubled the price of tires without just justification. He said a tire that cost $10 to produce was being sold at $44.

WHY PEARY TOOK NEGRO WITH HIM TO NORTH POLE

CHICAGO, Jan. 21—(AP)—The reason Peary sent back his five white companions and took a negro with him on the last leg of his trip to the North Pole was told by Commander Donald B. MacMillan, one of his companions, in a radio address tonight. The address was broadcast from station WJAZ.

"The rest of us were tenderfeet compared with the negro, Matt Henson, of New York," said Commander MacMillan.

"Henson is probably the best dog driver in the world today. He could talk the Eskimo language like a native. He could get along better with the natives than any of us; the Eskimos all liked him. He was the only man in the party who could build a snow house. He made every sled and cookstove used on the route to the pole. Henson was altogether the most efficient man with Peary."

Replying to skeptics who had questioned the authenticity of Peary's discovery, Captain MacMillan said Peary's veracity had been repeatedly proved.

"By Marvin and Bartlett's observations he was only 120 miles from the Pole when they left him, and he was stocked with food enough to go fifty miles beyond it. Peary, Henson and the four Eskimos said they traveled five long marches after we left them, sufficient to reach the Pole and go ten miles, further."

200 ARMED MEN GUARD GOLD AT FEDERAL RESERVE BANK

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Formation of a semi-military guard of 200 armed men for the vast store of gold at the federal reserve bank intended to make it the most impregnable financial fortress in the world, was announced tonight. The guard is under the leadership of Colonel Hiram Bearse who retired from the United States Marine Corps four years ago after 30 years of active service.

Colonel Bearse, who holds decorations for bravery from half a dozen governments, took charge secretly several days ago. His first act was to retire some of the older guards and to replace them by young, former service men whose military records he had personally investigated.

Pistols which have heretofore been hidden in coat holsters now appear ominously in belt holsters at the sides of the guards. The new organization is under the strictest military discipline and Colonel Bearse will hereafter be known as the "commanding officer" of the financial fortress.

When Colonel Bearse' reorganization is complete, the federal reserve bank will have the most complicated protective system ever devised by any banking institution in the world. It is already, by reason of the way it is constructed, almost impregnable.

MEETING OF CONN. SAFE DEPOSIT ASSOCIATION

MERIDEN, Jan. 21—(AP)—The Connecticut Safe Deposit association held its quarterly meeting here this evening, fifty-four bank officers and employes from all parts of the state attending. Only routine matters were discussed at the business meeting. The principal speakers were: Philip S. Malcolm, of the National City bank, of Bridgeport, president; O. Prather Knapp, of the Bankers Service corporation, New York, and Henry P. Freund, manager of the National City bank of New York.

CONDITION OF NEW YORK FEDERAL RESERVE BANK

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—(AP)—The statement of the condition of the Federal Reserve bank of New York at the close of business January 20:

Total gold reserves $1,031,200,000.
Total deposits 879,270.
Bills discounted secured by government war obligations $9,326,000.
All other 29,592,000.
Bills bought in open market 21,760,000.
Total U. S. government securities 52,749,000.
Total bills and securities 195,132,000.
Uncollected items 161,655,000.
Due to members: Reserve account $61,151,000.
Total deposits.
Federal reserve notes in actual circulation 363,657,000.
Ratio of total reserve to deposit and federal reserve note liabilities combined 86.0 per cent.

VISITORS NOT TIRING TO CARDINAL MERCIER

BRUSSELS, Jan. 21—(AP)—Cardinal Mercier, far from being fatigued by the earnest talks he has had with Viscount Halifax, president of the English Church union, and Queen Elizabeth, actually seems to thrive under the stimulus of such visits.

After Lord Halifax's departure today, the cardinal began to write for the first time in many days, presumably concerning the project of the union of Christian churches, which has been occupying his every waking thought.

The meeting of the cardinal and Lord Halifax this morning deeply moved all witnesses. The head of the English Church union kneeled at the prelate's bedside, grasping his hand, which he kissed fervently. Suddenly the cardinal in a supreme effort, sat upright, tendering both hands to Halifax, whose devotion during the mass said in the sickroom, inspired all.

SUMMARY OF YESTERDAY'S EVENTS IN WASHINGTON

Efforts to fix a date for a world court vote failed.

Hearings were begun on the Cummings railroad consolidation bill.

The Gooding long and short haul bill was approved by a senate committee.

Secretary Wilbur again gave his views on the national defense organization.

Attorney-General Sargent and Assistant Attorney-General Donovan in the aluminum inquiry.

The senate judiciary sub-committee continued its investigation of Judge Harry R. Anderson of Memphis.

ACQUITTED OF CHARGE OF DYNAMITING TRACKS

BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 21.—(AP)—Four men charged with participation in the dynamiting of the international Railway tracks during the carmen's strike of 1923 were found guilty by a jury in federal court tonight.

The men acquitted are: Clarence C. Conroy, vice president, State Federation of Labor, Arthur P. Jackson, David M. Kennedy, and William P. Launders all of Buffalo.

HELD FOR THE ALLEGED SMUGGLING OF LIQUOR

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 21—(AP)—Eleven members of the crew of the Canadian trawler Gemma were held in temporary bail today on charges of having smuggled 1,600 cases of liquor into the territorial waters of the United States. Commissioner Archibald C. Matteson gave them a preliminary trial here this afternoon.

TO MAKE FOURTH TRIP INTO HEART OF MONGOLIA

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 20.—(AP)—Expressing confidence that his newest expedition will yield important revelations concerning primitive man, Roy Chaman Andrews, explorer, announced today at a private lecture in the Dodge Brothers plant that he will sail March 6 from Vancouver or San Francisco on his fourth trip into the heart of Mongolia.

MARRIAGE OF WILLIMANTIC THREAD COMPANY OFFICIAL

GREENWICH, Jan. 21—(AP)—P. J. Hinds, general manager of the American Thread company at Willimantic, was married here this afternoon to Mrs. Nell Poindexter, of Dalton, Ga. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Baumeister, at St. Paul's rectory in Glenville.

MRS. ANICIA GLENDENNING IS RESIDING IN RENO, NEB.

RENO, Nev., Jan. 21.—(AP)—Mrs. Glendenning, an adopted daughter of Alfred I. Du Pont, whose mother was the second wife of Mr. Du Pont, has been a resident here for the last five months, it was learned today. She has with her a maid and companion and her little daughter.

CABLED PARAGRAPHS

New German Government

BERLIN, Jan. 21—(AP)—Leaders of the parties supporting the new Luther government agreed today to propose legislation creating a special federal court for settling all claims against the government and the states by the former royal [illegible] which have not yet been adjudged. It is proposed that this court shall apply not only legal but also economic principles.

Exitement in Serbia

BELGRADE, Jan. 21—(AP)—Intense excitement prevails among the syndicalist workmen in consequence of the arrest throughout Jugoslavia today of more than two hundred suspects, after the discovery of an alleged communist plot to overthrow the government. The police yesterday forbade demonstrations which had been planned, but the workmen were determined to hold them, and gathered in large numbers before the national assembly building. It required mounted troops to disperse the crowds, and numerous arrests were made at that time.

BANDITS FATALLY WOUNDED AN EXPRESS CO. MESSENGER

HACKENSACK, N. J., Jan. 21.—(AP)—Frank Brannon, of Paterson, an American Railway Express Company messenger was mortally wounded today by two young gunmen who looted the express office of a dum placed at $6,800 by company officials, and escaped.

Police tonight were practically without clues.

Brannon, who entered the service of the express company five months ago, had brought the money from the People's Trust and Guaranty company, and from the office of the New York Telephone Company for shipment. He placed it in the cashier's cage and stepped outside the door for a moment. Two men followed him in and shot him down as he stepped towards the cashier's cage.

Theodore E. Palmer, cashier, narrowly escaped the same fate, with L. M. Talmadge, office manager, he was backed into a corner by the shorter of the two bandits. When he made some slight motion the gunman pulled the trigger of his revolver but the gun jammed. Talmadge pursued the two from the office attempting twice to fire with a gun that lay on a nearby desk. The weapon missed fire both times.

ENGLISH RADIO PROGRAM FOR INTERNAL TEST WEEK

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—(AP)—English radio programmes for two of the three days that stations in that country are to broadcast during the international radio test week were received today by the radio week committee.

The stations which will participate are 2LO, London; 6BM, Bournemouth; 5WA, Cardiff; TXX, Daventry; and 2BD, Aberdeen. The programmes will be broadcast Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday nights, between 11 and 12 o'clock Eastern Standard time.

The programme for Thursday night has not been received, the message which brought the programmes revealed also that England has found its super-radio fan in the person of William Calvert Bramwell, 82 years old, formerly of Boston, Mass., who announced he plans to sleep all day and sit up all night to listen to the international broadcasting during the week. Bramwell lives at Reddington, England, and sent cable greetings from there to "America's octogenarian radio fans."

BUT TWO FATAL AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS IN CONN. LAST WEEK

HARTFORD, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Two fatal accidents, the lowest number in any week for more than eight months, were reported to the state motor vehicle department last week, occurring at Bridgeport and Southport. There were 295 minor accidents in the state in the period, 200 of these being reported from thirteen cities.

Hartford led all cities with 60; New Haven was second with 24, and Bridgeport third with 21. Other reports were as follows: Waterbury, 16; New Britain, 13; Meriden, 13; Norwich, 9; New London, 7; Norwalk, 5; Greenwich, 4; Stamford 4; Middletown, 2, and Danbury, 4. For the second week in succession Winsted has had a perfect record, no accidents occurring within the city limits.

TO MAKE FLIGHT FROM SPAIN TO ARGENTINA

PALOS, Spain, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Anchored in Domingo Rubio canal at Palos, the point from which Columbus set sail in 1492 for the new world, commander Franco and his crew are awaiting the signal to take off at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning on their flight to Argentina, and if possible, to New York. The short flight from Huelva to Palos was made today.

Premier Primo De Rivera, the rector of Madrid university and the press association have entrusted to the fliers a message for the government of each country they touch. The aviators will travel at a cruising speed of 180 kilometres (about 120 miles) an hour and expect to traverse the whole distance in about 56 actual flying hours.

COLD WAVE AND HIGH WIND IN MIDDLE WEST

CHICAGO, Jan. 21—(AP)—The middle west tonight shivered in the grip of another cold wave, brought here in the teeth of a high northwest wind and moving rapidly eastward.

Temperatures of five below zero were anticipated for Chicago by morning with zero temperatures expected in many sections of the middle west and northwest.

The weather bureau held out hope, however, that the extreme cold snap will be short lived and expected moderating temperatures by Sunday. Tonight the cold was general from the Rocky Mountains almost to the Ohio river and was moving on eastward with prospects for lower temperatures as far as the Atlantic seaboard by tomorrow.

AN ADDITION TO EGG HARBOR'S LIQUOR SCANDAL

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Jan. 21—(AP)—Egg Harbor's liquor scandal extended itself today with the seizure of 47,000 gallons of port, sherry and champagne, the arrest of George Oberst, alleged proprietor and the promise of a sensation when nine other prominent residents of Philadelphia, Camden and Gloucester are arrested.

Oberst, who was arraigned before United States Commissioner McGee, in this city, was held in $1,000 bail for a further hearing January 26, on charges of the sale and possession of liquor.

To Tire Out Senate World Court Filibuster

Administration Leaders to Lengthen Daily Sessions in an Effort to Bring Issue to a Vote.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21—(AP)—A war of attrition on opponents of the world court was begun today in the senate.

The campaign was inaugurated by administration leaders after negotiations looking to a consent agreement for a time to vote had failed with the two sides so far apart that further conversations were regarded by each as useless.

A seven hours' session of the senate tomorrow was arranged for, with indications that even longer hours would follow in the effort to wear down the opposition and bring about a vote at an early date.

While this warfare is being waged, the $352,000,000 tax reduction bill remains on the senate calendar. It became definitely involved in the court row and proved one stumbling block in the way of an agreement for a vote on the resolution of adhesion to the Geneva tribunal.

Opponents of the court have consolidated their forces and are determined to carry the battle along to the point where they believe the administration forces will be obliged to take up the revenue measure, which must be passed next month if taxpayers are to get the benefit of the reduction in the returns which they must make on March 15.

519 PILGRIMS BOUND FOR THE HOLY LAND

NEW YORK, Jan. 21—(AP)—With her masts gayly decorated with streamers the steamship Republic of the United States lines sailed from Hoboken today with 519 pilgrims bound for the Holy Land on an interdenominational pilgrimage. Many of the passengers had mortgaged their possessions to pay the fare for the trip, which will take 50 days.

Bottles were carried by the passengers to bring back water from the Jordan river. The pilgrimage is sponsored by the Christian Herald.

Letters and telegrams from all parts of the country poured into the pilgrimage headquarters when the trip was announced. One man wrote saying he had made up a poem on each of the important events of the Bible. He wanted to sing the verse about Jonah and the whale at the precise spot in the ocean where the whale is said to have swallowed Jonah, he wrote, he was aboard when the boat sailed today.

Another man wrote saying he wanted to make the trip so he could bring back an olive from the Mount of Olives.

One writer who said he was unable to leave his home in Danville, Ill., asked that special attention be paid at the River Jordan to the position of the 12 stones left after the crossing of the Children of Isreal.

"See if they are in the same position as they were after the crossing," he wrote.

Among those going on the pilgrimage were Dr. Charles M. Sheldon, of Topeka, Kansas, author and writer, and Dr. Francis E. Clark, of Boston, prominent in the founding of the Christian Endeavor movement in this country. The cruise will include stops at Madeira, Gibraltar, Algiers, Naples, Alexandria, Port Said, Haifa, Athens, Rome and Nice with side trips to Egypt and other nearby points of interest.

MUNICH HAS SOMETHING NEW YORK WOULD LIKE

NEW YORK, Jan. 21—(AP)—The chief executives of Munich and New York commented today that the Bavarian capital enjoys at least one "privilege" that the American city lacks.

Mayor Walker greeted Burgomaster Scharnagl shortly after the Bavarian had signed bonds representing a loan of $8,700,000 to Munich.

"I am satisfied," Mayor Walker said, "that we would be a healthier and a happier people if we could enjoy at least one of the privileges that our city has and that we have no longer since Mr. Volstead got busy."

"I hope," responded the burgomaster with a smile, "that the time soon will come when we may freely exchange goods."

HEALY BELIEVES STATE OFFICIALS ARE UNDERPAID

HARTFORD, Jan. 21—(AP)—Attorney General Healy made the statement in an informal speech at state police headquarters tonight that "Connecticut does not pay any of its principal public servants what it ought to to enable them to live decently." As a result, he pointed out, one after another of efficient state officials are hired by the Hartford insurance companies and other large corporations who offer them salaries so much in excess of the state's limit that they cannot afford to turn them down.

The highest salary allowed by the state is $9,500 paid to Chief Justice George W. Wheeler of the supreme court of errors. Beyond this limit, the state board of control recently refused to go when application was made by the state board of education for an increase in the salary of Commissioner of Education Albert B. Meredith, who receives $9,000 a year.

TO COMBAT LEGISLATION FOR BIRTH CONTROL

NEW YORK, Jan. 21—(AP)—The Episcopal and Roman Catholic church has agreed to join forces in combatting legislation at Washington which would encourage the practice of birth control in America. The Episcopal National Council announced today that it had authorized its president to protest in the name of the council "when and in such terms as it may deem best."

The National Lutheran Council, in annual executive session today, voted not to meddle in birth control matters.

INJUNCTIONS AGAINST MEX. PETROLEUM LAW DENIED

NEW YORK, Jan. 21—(AP)—Applications for injunctions recently filed by American oil companies against the new petroleum law in Mexico have been refused by the first supernumary court of Mexico, Guy Stevens, director of the association of producers of petroleum in Mexico, said he was informed today.

Bank Discount Clerk Arrested in Stamford

Mrs. Mary Hynes O'Meara of Fidelity Title and Trust Co. Held For Embezzlement.

STAMFORD, Jan. 21—(AP)—Mrs. Mary Hynes O'Meara, 23, discount clerk at the Fidelity Title and Trust company of this city, was arrested this afternoon on a charge of embezzlement preferred by the state bank commissioner, John B. Byrne, following discovery of irregularities in her accounts. One of two counts in the complaint charges embezzlement of $480 and the other charges false entries.

Her total peculations at the bank where she has been employed for five years are about $1,200, it was charged. Mrs. O'Meara at the discount window is alleged to have received sums on discounts which she kept after marking them as paid. Restitution of missing funds had been offered, it was stated at the bank.

On bonds of $5,000, furnished by her brother-in-law, Daniel O'Meara, Mrs. O'Meara was released for a hearing in city court next Monday. Her husband, Thomas O'Meara, is employed by his brother, a local florist.

The shortage was discovered during the annual auditing of the books by the state bank commissioner. The warrant for the arrest was asked for by Deputy Bank Commissioner L. E. Shippee, of Assistant Prosecutor Edward O. Jansen. Mr. Shippee and Chief Examiner W. M. Scott have been here several days.

DEADLOCK IN FRENCH FINANCIAL MEASURES

PARIS, Jan. 21—(AP)—The daily change in tactics on the part of the radicals and socialists in the fight with the government over financial measures has brought no change of front, both parties remain in their positions awaiting the next move by the adversary.

Premier Briand's policy seems to be to await the result of the cartel's deliberations in the finance committee, then demand a vote in the chamber. The debate on the question will probably come early next week.

M. Briand, speaking in the chamber lobbies today, let it be understood that he would not put a question of confidence on M. Doumer's project for a stamp tax if the chamber could furnish him with a solution capable of bringing in immediately receipts for the treasury. He emphasized that the treasury's position was becoming very difficult, and was trying to find a formula for an agreement between the viewpoints of the government and the majority.

LEGAL BATTLE OVER RIGHT TO USE THE WORD "KLAN"

INDNANOPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 21—(AP)—A legal battle over the right of any other organization than the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America to use the word "klan" in its corporation name began in United States district court here today.

Contending that the word "klan" is its own, the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America corporation is suing the Independent Klan of America for $300,000 damages for using it.

Membership and purposes of both organizations were read into the testimony.

S. H. Bemenderfer, Muncie, president of the Independent Klan of America, declared his organization was formed by persons dissatisfied with conditions existing in the older body. They left "because of the character of the membership and after it had been found that the organization had been commercialized," he asserted. The membership of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America in Indiana, he termed as "disreputable and not fit persons to associate with."

TO EXTEND FISHING RIGHTS ON PONDS AND LAKES

HARTFORD, Jan. 21—(AP)—A program to secure extensive fishing rights on pondsand lakes in the southern part of the state to offset the poor stream fishing advantages there because of pollution, bad shade and other unsuitable conditions is planned by the state board of fisheries and game, according to announcement today. Nearly 100 miles of trout streams have already been leased in the northern counties and the board desires to provide as adequate opportunities to the sportsmen of the other counties.

Approximately 20,000 brook trout from six to eight inches long are now available at the Burlington hatcheries for stocking purposes. In addition plans are under way to purchase 30,000 yearling trout in order to stock intensively the leased trout streams with legal six inch trout.

TEA SUBSTITUTED FOR WHISKEY IN 200 BOTTLES

PORTLAND, Me., Jan. 21—(AP)—A secret entrance to the customs-sealed liquor store room of the British steamer Melorehead was discovered by deputy sheriffs this afternoon, two hours after the captain of the ship had paid a customs penalty of $500 in behalf of the ship's owners because of somebody's alleged substitution of tea for whiskey in more than 200 bottles.

No evidence to connect the captain or the steward of the vessel, with the depleted condition of the liquor stores was found. Thomrson was arrested yesterday and released today. No further action will be taken.

Not only had the leakage of whiskey from wooden cases been concealed by substitution of bottles filled with tea or water, but bricks had been placed in cases to weight them, the deputies said.

ALLEGED ALCOHOL SEIZED IN MIDDLETOWN DRUG STORE

MIDDLETOWN, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Federal prohibition agents, raiding the drug store on Main street owned by Louis I. Peisner, this afternoon obtained 23 gallons of alleged alcohol, whiskey and wine. They claimed that Peisner had no permit to sell and that they had knowledge of an alleged sale. No arrest was made.

Max Dworkin, 55, Durham farmer, on whose place state police seized mash and still, was fined $600 and costs when arraigned beforeJustice of the Peace Bailey this afternoon and sentenced to 90 days in jail. He was convicted on three counts, manufacture, possession and sale.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

William S. Ward, former president of the Ward Baking company, is negotiating a merger of several food products companies.

The representative student council of Mt. Holyoke college has voted to repeal the rule forbidding smoking by students after the close of this college year.

Expenditure of $200,000 to purchase land for an artillery range at Fort Ethan Allen, Vermont, was proposed in a bill by Representative Brigham republican of that state.

A proposal to increase the capital of the Old Colony Trust company, Boston, from $10,000,000 to $12,000,000 will come before a special meeting of shareholders on February 2.

President Coolidge asked the governors of all states to appoint delegations to a national conference on street and highway safety in Washington, March 23, 24 and 25.

A portrait of the School of Rembrandt and the landscape painting, "the Woodcart," by Louis Paul Dessar, have been added to the collections of the Yale School of Fine Arts.

Rudolph H. M. Von Hacht, personal chauffeur to General John J. Pershing during the closing months of the World war, was married in Milford, yesterday to Miss Elizabeth Bristol.

Two young men arrested in Middletown, on charges of breaking and entering, are being held without bail pending investigation into their alleged operations in that vicinity.

William Waldo Chase of New York and Farmington, Conn., yesterday confirmed his engagement to Miss Constance Moody, a granddaughter of Dwight L. Moody, the evangelist.

Harold McCormick, husband of Ganna Walska, and president of the International Harvester company, sailed on the Deutschland for Europe. He will rejoin his wife in Paris.

The government of New South Wales has decided to send President Coolidge a large painting of the American fleet as it lay in Sydney harbor during its visit to Australia last July.

Merger of the Georgia Railway & Power company with the Sotheastern Power & Light company of New York was announced at Atlanta, Ga., by H. M. Atkinson, of the Georgia company.

A uniform apple grading and packing law for the New England states was agreed upon yesterday at a conference of agriculturalists at the Boston Chamber of Commerce.

A strike of about 700 employes in four men's clothing shops in Boston, has been ordered by the Boston joint executive board of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America.

President Coolidge was told by a committee arranging for the American Legion convention in Paris, in 1927, that more than 30,000 members of the organization would make the trip to France.

Bishop Charles Brent, of the western New York diocese, has been designated by Presiding Bishop Murray of the Episcopal church as bishop in charge of the Episcopal churches of Europe.

Seventy-two pint bottles, wrapped in golden paper and labelled "fine old whiskey," contained nothing but water, police found in Chelsea, Mass., after they had raided a house and arrested two women.

Governor and Mrs. John H. Trumbull and staff will be guests of honor at the third annual ball of the National Guard Officers' association in Waterbury. Guard officers throughout the state will attend.

A coyote has been killed within forty miles of Times Square. The animal was shot last week near Hicksville, Long Island, and Dr. George P. Engelhardt, curator of the Brooklyn museum, said it was a coyote.

The name of Dr. Lebaron R. Briggs, former dean of Harvard college and now professor emeritus heads a list of 15 candidates nominated for five vacancies which will occur in the Harvard board of overseers in June.

Robert Fulton Cutting, member of an old New York family and prominent in social, financial and artistic circles, scored his fellow members of society for their alleged failure to support the prohibition laws.

James Corbett, of Utica, N. Y., father of Miss Alice Corbett, missing Smith college student, has engaged the services of Frank J. Luckingham, veteran East Hartford riverman, to search for the body of the girl in the spring.

A separate state organization, possibly a commission with an able technician at the head, for control of aviation in Connecticut is favored by Commissioner of Motor Vehicles Robbins R. Stoeckel, who is also commissioner of aviation.

Governor Trumbull issued a requisition on the governor of New York for the extradition of Harry Cook formerly of New Haven, who is charged with non-support of his wife and two minor children. He is ow held at Long Island city.

Edward J. Swig, of Quincy, Mass., son of Simon Swig, former vice-president of the closed Tremont Trust company, pleaded not guilty in district court at Newport, R. I., to charges of passing worthless checks. He was held in $1,500 for hearing January 22.

Everett Victor Meeks, dean of the Yale university, School of Fine Arts, was engaged as architectural advisor to the building committee which has charge of the program for the construction of a new county building at Washington and Lafayette streets, Hartford.

Another universe, similar to our own, but inconceivably distant in space, has been photographed and measured by Dr. Edwin Hubble, he relates in the Astro-Physical Journal of the University of Chicago. It is 66,000,872,000,000,000 miles from the earth to the galaxy of stars which compose the other universe.

The right of railroad employes who are expelled from labor organizations to appeal to the federal courts to compel their reinstatement was argued in the supreme court in Washington, with strong indications from the bench that it would refuse to take jurisdiction.

BUSINESS AND INDUSTRIAL WELFARE OF NEW ENGLAND

Plans For Their Promotion Were Outlined to President Coolidge by John S. Lawrence of Boston, President of a Council Which Consists of Twelve Men From Each New England State.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21—(AP)—Plans of the New England council for promoting the business and industrial welfare of that section were putlined today to President Coolidge by John S. Lawrence, of Boston, president of the council, which consists of 12 men from each New England state, representing industry, agriculture, commerce, banking power and transportation. Mr. Lawrence was luncheon guest at the White House and previously had conferred with Secretary of Commerce Hoover on his organization's program.

"Already the organization of the council," Mr. Lawrence told the president, "has had a stimulating effect upon New England thought and has resulted in many suggestions for constructive and co-operative action being brought forward. The council already has initiated movements looking to the promotion of the further development of New England's power supply and the free flow of electrical energy throughout the entire New England area, developments of a constructive agricultural program and the study of our commercial and industrial assets and facilities with a view to developing the facts in the situation on which sound policies for the future may be based.

"It was New England was the cene of the beginning of American industry so now it is the first section of the United States to experience the condition of industrial maturity. New England is the first region in the new world to face old world conditions.

"We have the problems of crooked streets of cities and towns laid out before modern transportation was dreamed of and of conflicting and uneconomic laws, enacted, some of them, when we were not emerging from colonial conditions. For decades, because of the demands of the rest of the country for New England goods, New England genius was devoted largely to problems of production, whereas today distribution is the outstanding problem of our economic system.

"The pioneering in industry and commerce of our forefathers is represented today by accumulation of inherited wealth which sometimes acts as a check on ambitious young men and drives them elsewhere. Youth always has the pioneer instinct and today demands the right to conquer new frontiers in business."

Mr. Lawrence said that New England, through the council, was attempting to work out its own solution of its industrial problems and was seeking to create a state of public mind which would work to the benefit of all lines of business endeavor.

He told the president that business conditions in New England generally were satisfactory although profits were small, despite great volume of business but that conditions in the textile, shoe and paper industries could be improved. He said that to his knowledge no actual distress had been caused by the suspension of anthracite mining.

HEADLESS BODY OF WOMAN FOUND IN CLUMP OF BUSHES

MEDIA, Pa., Jan. 21. — (AP)—The headless and legless body of a young woman was found in a clump of trees today, about one and a half miles north of this place. An hour later the legs were discovered in high grass fifteen feet away. The head is still missing.

The arms were intact. On the left wrist was a gold watch, which furnished the chief clue on which the state police are working to identify the woman. It bore the initials "H. B. Z. To T. T." There was stamped near the initials the letter "H," followed by the numerals "6-16-23."

The body was found on the extensive estate of Samuel J. Henderson, a Philadelphia lawyer, and lay a short distance back from a road. The spot is near the club house of the Rose Tree Hint, whose members are socially prominent in and about Philadelphia.

The body was found by Mrs. Sallie Worrell, who lives nearby. Mrs. Worrell discerned what appeared to be a bundle near some trees. She hurried to the blacksmith shop of William L. Rowson. Rowson investigated and in the underbrush found a large brown paper package strapped with two heavy men's belts. Opening it he discovered the body covered with two newspapers. One bore the date of December 22 and the other of January 19.

Authorities were immediately notified. There was little blood found on the ground indicating, the police said, that the murder had been committed at a distance and the body thrown in the woods. Motor car tire tracks were found in the deep mud on the road nearby.

Examination of the body by physicians showed that it had been dismembered apparently by an expert, as the mutilations were clean cut.

GOV. PINCHOT IS PEEVED WITH HOUSE COMMITTEE

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 21.—(AP)—Gov. Pinchot tonight charged the house committee on mining with attempting "to kill administration measures for control of anthracite, now before the legislature, by adverse action on the measures yesterday.

The committee, after a brief hearing at which only opponents of the bills were heard, decided to "postpone indefinitely" consideration of one to make anthracite a public utility and to report negatively another providing for state compacts.

The action, the governor characterised as "a refusal to hear and consider on its merits the public's case for relief against the present intolerable situation in the anthracite industry." The failure of the committee to hear only those opposed to the bills he termed "a crime against the people of the anthracite region and the 40,000,000 anthracite users of America." He accused the committee of "sharp practice" in failing to notify friends of the bills that they were to be taken up.

The governor declared that under public regulation "all the facts concerning a monopolised industry" could be got at, that strikes would be less frequent, that fair trade practices would be provided for and that the properties and a fair return from them would be protected.

CHARLES CHAPLIN BRINGS SUIT TO RECOVER $82,147

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Charles Chaplin today filed in supreme court suit against First National Exhibitors, Inc., to recover $82,147, alleged to be due him as his share in the profits from the foreign distribution of his picture, "The Kid."

The complant, filed by Chaplin's attorney, claims that the foreign distribution netted the film corporation $337,947, and that Chaplin's share be $236,552, under the agreement. This total has not been paid, Chaplin avows.

BODY OF MISS EDWARDS WAS FOUND IN WOODS

LONDON, Jan. 21—(AP)—The body of Miss Victoria May Edwards, of San Francisco, who disappeared on December 19, from her aunt's home in Beckenham, a London suburb, was found today in the woods near Farnborough. Nearby was an empty bottle, supposed to have contained poison. Identification was made by the clothing and jewelry found on the body.

STRIKE OF MINERS HURTS LIFE INSURANCE BUSINESS

NEW YORK, Jan. 21—(AP)—The condition which striking miners are facing was indicated today in a statement by Frederick H. Ecker, vice president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, saying that there had been an "enormous loss of insurance business" in the anthracite regions. Only a small amount of new industrial insurance is being written and many life policies are being allowed to lapse, he said.

Mr. Ecker said no mathematical analysis of the situation had been made by his company, but that on the face of it, the strike was having a marked effect upon the so-called industrial policies. These are characterized by small, weekly payments, upon which the amount of insurance is based.

An official of the Prudential Insurance company of America, confirmed Mr. Ecker's statements, but added that the situation was alleviated by the liberal course which some of the companies were pursuing. Most of the policies provide for an automatic extension of time after premium payments cease. As a result many of the policies upon which payments have been suspended are still in force, he explained.

In addition, it is the policy of some companies to allow the policy holder to resume payments even after the time of extention has been exhausted, when suspension has been due to loss of work.

Even when death occurs after the period of extension has elapsed, it was stated, it is the policy of the Prudential to pay the full amount of insurance when the difficulty was due to a strike and the widow of a policy holder paid the premiums in default.

Both officials agreed that the condition gradually had become worse since the beginning of the strike and was continuing steadily to become more serious.

TRIBUTE TO AMERICANS BY MARSHAL FOCH

PARIS, Jan. 21—(AP)—Marshal Foch paid a tribute to American participation and cooperation in the last year of the Great war in a speech today before the American Club of Paris.

"I well remember General Pershing and General Bliss coming to me in the darkest days of March, 1918," the allied commander-in-chief said, referring to the period after the German break-through. "They said to me, 'We are here to fight; we are here at your disposal; why don't you put us to fighting? We cannot consider remaining in reserve.'

"All through the war it was like this. Up to the last minute the most complete intimacy and cordiality reigned between us."

Marshal Foch declared that France and America would stand together forever. "We think the same; therefore there can only be friendship between us," he said. "We work in the same spirit of loyalty toward the same cause, that of justice and liberty."

DISCOVERY OF MATERIALS FOR AUTOMOBILE BODIES

BERLIN, Jan. 21—(AP)—The discovery of a method for alloying aluminum with other metals, which will produce materials for automobile bodies which will not show scratches and will have both color and finish "built in," is claimed by B. Jirotka, a German electrical engineer. He has demonstrated his discovery to a commission of metallurgists of the German Institute of Chemical Technology.

He is said to have made alloys of aluminum and more than a dozen other metals, producing materials of many different colors, the color varying with the metal used for the alloy. These alloys have a surface resembling glazed porcelain.

The bureau for aluminum research reports that the alloying metals penetrate aluminum bars to a depth of four-tenths of an inch. Aluminum alloys made by Herr Jirotka include those with copper, manganese, cobalt, zinc, lead, chromium, tin, gold, silver and nickel.

DISPUTING THE AMERICAN PROTECTIVE TARRIF LEAGUE

NEW YORK, Jan. 21—(AP)—Wilbur F. Wakeman, for 25 years secretary of the American Protective Tariff league, resigned today because of a factional dispute within the organization. Out of sympathy with Mr. Wakeman, 13 employes resigned in a body.

Norwich Bulletin

VOL. LXVIII—No. 19. POPULATION 29,665 NORWICH, CONN., FRIDAY, JANUARY 22, 1926. 14 PAGES—336 COLUMNS PRICE TWO CENTS

EARTH TREMOR REGISTERED AT HARVARD UNIVERSITY

Seismograph Indicated That the Disturbance Was Only a Short Distance Away—About the Same Time a Noise Like an Explosion Was Heard in the Somerville District —No Damage Was Reported.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 21.—(AP)—A slight earth movement was recorded on the seismograph at Harvard university today, indicating that the disturbance was only a short distance away. At about the same time three sounds resembling explosions were heard in the Somerville district, but no damage was reported.

F. Mather, director of the observatory, said he was not sure whether the selamograph was recording an earthquake of slight intensity or whether the record had been caused by some nearby disturbance. Telephone calls to every section of Boston and Cambridge brought no report of damage, although several persons said they heard the blasts.

Others said if no evidence of earthquake was found, there undoubtedly was a slight earthquake which caused that noise unlike earthquakes of high intensity.

The seismograph recorded the disturbance at 2:57 p. m., at about the time the third "explosion" was supposed to have been heard in Somerville.

The other two were heard an hour and an hour and a half before.

SHOCKS FRIGHTENED CITIZENS OF SOMERVILLE

SOMERVILLE, Mass., Jan. 21—(AP)—A trio of jarring shocks that frightened citizens here and in neighboring towns and set houses quivering were still unexplained tonight. The seismograph at Harvard recorded a disturbance for three-quarters of a minute at 2:57 p. m., the time of the third shock, and authorities there said that unless information of a large explosion within about 10 miles of the instrument came to light, the disturbance would have to be attributed to a slight earthquake. Extensive inquiry in this region revealed no such explosion.

TILSON DEFENDS THE CRUDE RUBBER INQUIRY

[illegible]TON, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Secretary Hoover's action in bringing [illegible]uiry into foreign crude [illegible]olies was defended in the [illegible]y representative Tilson [illegible]ut, the republican leader [illegible] to a number of recent [illegible]ne secretary by democrats.

[illegible] Mr. Tilson concluded, [illegible]e two democrats again [illegible]ssail the secretary's [illegible]

[illegible]ose rallied the secretary's [illegible]well directed effort" to [illegible] industry from high[illegible]e conceded that American [illegible]en might have shown more [illegible] developing a supply of [illegible]asked if this "is any rea[illegible]t our hands."

[illegible]ect inquiry of the house [illegible] committee, he predicted, [illegible]about a better understand[illegible]ng the nations interested in [illegible]e situation.

[illegible]entative Black, democrat, [illegible]said he was not surprised [illegible]republican leader made a [illegible] Hoover's activities on [illegible]and charged that American [illegible]manufacturers were more [illegible]of speculation than British [illegible]ers.

[illegible]ntative Shullenberger, democ[illegible]raska, asserted American [illegible]facturers should be in[illegible]charging that they had [illegible]prices of tires without [illegible]ation. He said a tire [illegible]ld to produce was being

WHY PEARY TOOK NEGRO WITH HIM TO NORTH POLE

[illegible], Jan. 21—(AP)—The reason [illegible] took his five white com[illegible]took a negro with him on [illegible] of his trip to the North [illegible]ld by Commander Donald [illegible]n one of his companions. [illegible]ddress tonight. The address [illegible]ce from station WJAZ.

[illegible]s were tenderfeet com[illegible]e negro, Matt Henson, of [illegible]n and Commander Mac[illegible]

[illegible]enson is probably the best dog [illegible]in the world today. He could [illegible]almo language like a na[illegible]ld get along better with [illegible]than any of us; the Eskimos [illegible]s. He was the only man [illegible]y who could build a snow [illegible]e. He made every sled and cook[illegible]stove used on the route to the [illegible]enson was altogether the most [illegible]man with Peary."

[illegible] to skeptics who had ques[illegible]authenticity of Peary's dis[illegible]ain MacMillan said Peary's [illegible]d been repeatedly proved.

[illegible]son and Bartlett's observa[illegible]s only ten miles from the [illegible]left him, and he was [illegible]h food enough to go fifty [illegible]s at Peary. Henson and [illegible]s said they traveled [illegible]ast after we left them, [illegible]ch the Pole and go ten

200 ARMED MEN GUARD GOLD AT FEDERAL RESERVE BANK

NEW YORK, Jan. 21—(AP)—Formation of a semi-military guard of 200 armed men over the vast store of gold at the federal reserve bank intended to make it the most impregnable financial institution in the world, was announced today. The guard is under the leadership of Colonel Hiram Bearss who retired from the United States Marine Corps four years ago after 30 years of active service.

Colonel Bearss, who holds decorations and honors from half a dozen governments, will charge secretly several days a week. His first act was to retire some of the older guards and to replace them by young, former service men whose military records he had personally investigated.

Pistols which have heretofore been hidden in coat holsters now appear ominously in belt holsters at the sides of the guards. The new organization is under the strictest military discipline and Colonel Bearss will hereafter be known as the "commanding officer" of the financial fortress.

When Colonel Bearss' reorganization is complete, the federal reserve bank will have the most complicated protective system ever devised by any banking institution in the world. It is already, by reason of the way it is constructed, almost impregnable.

MEETING OF CONN. SAFE DEPOSIT ASSOCIATION

MERIDEN, Jan. 21—(AP)—The Connecticut Safe Deposit association held its quarterly meeting here this evening, fifty-four bank officers and employees from all parts of the state attending. Only routine matters were discussed at the business meeting. The principal speakers were: Philip S. Malcolm, of the National City bank, of Bridgeport, president; C. Prather Knapp, of the Bankers Service corporation, New York, and Henry F. Freund, manager of the National City bank of New York.

CONDITION OF NEW YORK FEDERAL RESERVE BANK

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—(AP)—The statement of the condition of the Federal Reserve bank of New York at the close of business January 20:

Total gold reserves $1,031,300,000.

Total deposits $79,370.

Bills discounted secured by government war obligations $9,326,000.

All other 29,592,000.

Bills bought in open market 21,760,000.

Total U. S. government securities 53,149,000.

Total bills and securities 105,183,000.

Uncollected items 161,688,000.

Due to members: Reserve account 361,191,000.

Total deposits.

Federal reserve notes in actual circulation 362,657,000.

Ratio of total reserve to deposit and federal reserve note liabilities combined 86.0 per cent.

VISITORS NOT TIRING TO CARDINAL MERCIER

BRUSSELS, Jan. 21—(AP)—Cardinal Mercier, far from being fatigued by the earnest talks he has had with Viscount Halifax, president of the English Church union, and Queen Elizabeth, actually seems to thrive under the stimulus of such visits.

After Lord Halifax's departure today, the cardinal began to write for the first time in many days, premising concerning the object of the Union of Christian churches, which has been occupying his every waking thought.

The meeting of the cardinal and Lord Halifax this morning deeply moved all witnesses. The head of the English Church union kneeled at the prelate's bedside, grasping his hand, which he kissed fervently. Suddenly the cardinal in a supreme effort, sat upright, tendering both hands to Halifax, whose devotion during the mass said in the sickroom, inspired all.

SUMMARY OF YESTERDAY'S EVENTS IN WASHINGTON

Efforts to fix a date for a world court vote failed.

Hearings were begun on the Cummings railroad consolidation bill.

The Gooding long and short haul bill was approved by a senate committee.

Secretary Wilbur again gave his views on the national defense organization.

Attorney-General Sargent and Assistant Attorney-General Donovan in the aluminum inquiry.

The senate judiciary sub-committee continued its investigation of Judge Harry R. Anderson of Memphis.

ACQUITTED OF CHARGE OF DYNAMITING TRACKS

BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 21.—(AP)—Four men charged with participation in the dynamiting of the International Railway tracks during the carmen's strike of 1922 were found guilty by a jury in federal court tonight.

The men acquitted are: Clarence C. Conroy, vice president, State Federation of Labor, Arthur P. Jackson, David M. Kennedy, and William F. Saunders all of Buffalo.

HELD FOR THE ALLEGED SMUGGLING OF LIQUOR

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 21—(AP)—Eleven members of the crew of the Canadian trawler Gemma were held in temporary bail today on charges of having smuggled 1,600 cases of liquor into the territorial waters of the United States. Commissioner Archibald C. Matteson gave them a preliminary trial here this afternoon.

TO MAKE FOURTH TRIP INTO HEART OF MONGOLIA

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 20.—(AP)—Expressing confidence that his newest expedition will yield important revelations concerning primitive man, Roy Chaman Andrews, explorer, announced today at a private lecture in the Dodge Brothers plant that he will sail March 6 from Vancouver or San Francisco on his fourth trip into the heart of Mongolia.

MARRIAGE OF WILLIMANTIC THREAD COMPANY OFFICIAL

GREENWICH, Jan. 21—(AP)—P. J. Hinds, general manager of the American Thread company at Willimantic, was married here this afternoon to Mrs. Nell Poindexter, of Dalton, Ga. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Baumeister, at St. Paul's rectory in Glenville.

MRS. ANICIA GLENDENNING IS RESIDING IN RENO, NEV.

RENO, Nev., Jan. 21.—(AP)—Mrs. Glendenning, an adopted daughter of Alfred I. Du Pont, whose mother was the second wife of Mr. Du Pont, has been a resident here for the last five months, it was learned today. She has with her a maid and companion and her little daughter.

CABLED PARAGRAPHS

New German Government

BERLIN, Jan. 21—(AP)—Leaders of the parties supporting the new Luther government agreed today to propose legislation creating a special federal court for settling all claims against the government and the states by the Tremer royalties which have not yet been adjusted. It is proposed that this court shall apply not only legal but also economic principles.

Excitement in Serbia

BELGRADE, Jan. 21—(AP)—Intense excitement prevails among the syndicalist workmen in consequence of the arrest throughout Jugoslavia today of more than two hundred suspects, after the discovery of an alleged communist plot to overthrow the government. The police yesterday forbade demonstrations which had been planned, but the workmen were determined to hold them, and gathered in large numbers before the national assembly building. It required mounted troops to disperse the crowds, and numerous arrests were made at that time.

BANDITS FATALLY WOUNDED AN EXPRESS CO. MESSENGER

HACKENSACK, N. J., Jan. 21.—(AP)—Frank Brannon, of Paterson, an American Railway Express Company messenger was mortally wounded today by two young gunmen who looted the express office of a dum placed at $6,300 by company officials, and escaped.

Police today were practically without clues.

Brannon, who entered the service of the express company five months ago, had brought the money from the People's Trust and Guaranty company, and from the office of the New York Telephone Company for shipment. He placed it in the cashier's cage and stepped outside the door for a moment. Two men followed him in and shot him down as he stepped towards the cashier's cage.

Theodore E. Palmer, cashier, narrowly escaped the same fate, with L. M. Talmadge, office manager, he was backed into a corner by the shorter of the two bandits. When he made some slight motion the gunman pulled the trigger of his revolver but the gun jammed. Talmadge, pursued the two from the office attempting twice to fire with a gun that lay on a nearby desk. The weapon missed fire both times.

ENGLISH RADIO PROGRAM FOR INTERN'AL TEST WEEK

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—(AP)—English radio programmes for two of the three days that stations in that country are to broadcast during the international radio test week were received today by the radio week committee.

The stations which will participate are 2LO, London; 6BM, Bournemouth; 5WA, Cardiff; TXX, Daventry; and 2BD, Aberdeen. The programmes will be broadcast Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday nights, between 11 and 12 o'clock Eastern Standard time.

The programme for Thursday night has not been received, the message which brought the programmes revealed also that England has found its "super-radio fan" in the person of William Calvert Bramwell, 82 years old, formerly of Boston, Mass., who announced he plans to sleep all day and sit up all night to listen to the international broadcasting during the week. Bramwell lives at Reddington, England, and sent cable greetings from there to "America's octogenarian radio fans."

BUT TWO FATAL AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS IN CONN. LAST WEEK

HARTFORD, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Two fatal accidents, the lowest number in any week for more than eight months, were reported to the state motor vehicle department last week, occurring at Bridgeport and Southport. There were 295 minor accidents in the state in the period, 200 of these being reported from thirteen cities.

Hartford led all cities with 60; New Haven was second with 44, and Bridgeport third with 31. Other reports were as follows: Waterbury, 25; New Britain, 13; Meriden, 13; Norwich, 9; New London, 7; Norwalk, 8; Greenwich, 4; Stamford 4; Middletown, 3, and Danbury, 4. For the second week in succession Winsted has had a perfect record, no accidents occurring within the city limits.

TO MAKE FLIGHT FROM SPAIN TO ARGENTINA

PALOS, Spain, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Anchored in Domingo Rubio canal at Palos, the point from which Columbus set sail in 1492 for the new world, commander Franco and his crew are awaiting the signal to take off at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning on their flight to Argentina, and if possible, to New York. The short flight from Huelva to Palos was made today.

Premier Primo De Rivera, the rector of Madrid university and the press association have entrusted to the fliers a message for the government of each country they touch. The aviators will travel at a cruising speed of 180 kilometres (about 120 miles) an hour and expect to traverse the whole distance in about 55 actual flying hours.

COLD WAVE AND HIGH WIND IN MIDDLE WEST

CHICAGO, Jan. 21—(AP)—The middle west tonight shivered in the grip of another cold wave, brought here in the teeth of a high northwest wind and moving rapidly eastward.

Temperatures of five below zero were anticipated for Chicago by morning with zero temperatures expected in many sections of the middle west and northwest.

The weather bureau held out hope, however, that the extreme cold snap will be short lived and expected moderating temperatures by Sunday. Tonight the cold was general from the Rocky Mountains almost to the Ohio river and was moving on eastward with prospects for lower temperatures as far as the Atlantic seaboard by tomorrow.

AN ADDITION TO EGG HARBOR'S LIQUOR SCANDAL

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Jan. 21—(AP)—Egg Harbor's liquor scandal extended itself today with the seizure of 47,000 gallons of port, sherry and champagne, the arrest of George Oberst, alleged proprietor and the promise of a sensation when nine other prominent residents of Philadelphia, Camden and Gloucester are arrested.

Oberst, who was arraigned before United States Commissioner McGee in this city, was held in $1,000 bail for a further hearing January 26, on charges of the sale and possession of liquor.

To Take Out Senate World Court Filibuster

Administration Leaders to Lengthen Daily Sessions in an Effort to Bring Issue to a Vote.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21—(AP)—A war of attrition on opponents of the world court was begun today in the senate.

The campaign was inaugurated by administration leaders after negotiations looking to a consent agreement for a time to vote had failed with the two sides so far apart that further conversations were regarded by each as useless.

A seven hours' session of the senate tomorrow was arranged for, with indications that even longer hours would follow in the effort to wear down the opposition and bring about a vote at an early date.

While this warfare is being waged the $253,000,000 tax reduction bill remains on the senate calendar. It became definitely involved in the court row and proved one stumbling block in the way of an agreement for a vote on the resolution of adhesion to the Geneva tribunal.

Opponents of the court have consolidated their forces and are determined to carry the battle along to the point where they believe the administration forces will be obliged to take up the revenue measure, which must be passed next month if taxpayers are to get the benefit of the reduction in the returns which they must make on March 15.

519 PILGRIMS BOUND FOR THE HOLY LAND

NEW YORK, Jan. 21—(AP)—With her masts gayly decorated with streamers the steamship Republic of the United States lines sailed from Hoboken today with 519 pilgrims bound for the Holy Land on an interdenominational pilgrimage. Many of the passengers had mortgaged their possessions to pay the fare for the trip, which will take 50 days.

Bottles were carried by the passengers to bring back water from the Jordan river. The pilgrimage is sponsored by the Christian Herald.

Letters and telegrams from all parts of the country poured into the pilgrimage headquarters when the trip was announced. One man wrote saying he had made up a poem on each of the important events of the Bible. He wanted to sing the verse about Jonah and the whale at the precise spot in the ocean where the whale is said to have swallowed Jonah, he wrote, he was aboard when the boat sailed today.

Another man wrote saying he wanted to make the trip so he could bring back an olive from the Mount of Olives.

One writer who said he was unable to leave his home in Danville, Ill., asked that special attention be paid to the River Jordan to the position of the 12 stones left after the crossing of the Children of Israel.

"See if they are in the same position as they were after the crossing," he wrote.

Among those going on the pilgrimage were Dr. Charles M. Sheldon, of Topeka, Kansas, author and writer, and Dr. Francis E. Clark, of Boston, prominent in the founding of the Christian Endeavor movement in this country. The cruise will include stops at Madeira, Gibraltar, Algiers, Naples, Alexandria, Port Said, Haifa, Athens, Rome and Nice with side trips to Egypt and other nearby points of interest.

MUNICH HAS SOMETHING NEW YORK WOULD LIKE

NEW YORK, Jan. 21—(AP)—The chief executives of Munich and New York commented today that the Bavarian capital enjoys at least one "privilege" that the American city lacks.

Mayor Walker greeted Burgomaster Scharnagl shortly after the Bavarian had signed bonds representing a loan of $8,700,000 to Munich.

"I am satisfied," Mayor Walker said, "that we would be a healthier and a happier people if we could enjoy at least one of the privileges that our city has and that we have no longer since Mr. Volstead got busy."

"I hope," responded the burgomaster with a smile, "that the time soon will come when we may freely exchange goods."

HEALY BELIEVES STATE OFFICIALS ARE UNDERPAID

HARTFORD, Jan. 21—(AP)—Attorney General Healy made the statement in an informal speech at state police headquarters tonight that "Connecticut does not pay any of its principal public servants what it ought to to enable them to live decently." As a result, he pointed out, one after another of efficient state officials are hired by the Hartford insurance companies and other large corporations who offer them salaries so much in excess of the state's limit that they cannot afford to turn them down.

The highest salary allowed by the state is $9,500 paid to Chief Justice George W. Wheeler of the supreme court of errors. Beyond this limit, the state board of control recently refused to go when application was made by the state board of education for an increase in the salary of Commissioner of Education Albert B. Meredith, who receives $9,000 a year.

TO COMBAT LEGISLATION FOR BIRTH CONTROL

NEW YORK, Jan. 21—(AP)—The Episcopal and Roman Catholic church has agreed to join forces in combating legislation at Washington which would encourage the practice of birth control in America. The Episcopal National Council announced today that it had authorized its president to protest in the name of the council "when and in such terms as it may deem best."

The National Lutheran Council, in annual executive session today, voted not to meddle in birth control matters.

INJUNCTIONS AGAINST MEX. PETROLEUM LAW DENIED

NEW YORK, Jan. 21—(AP)—Applications for injunctions recently filed by American oil companies against the new petroleum law in Mexico have been refused by the first supernumary court of Mexico, Guy Stevens, director of the association of producers of petroleum in Mexico, said he was informed today.

Bank Discount Clerk Arrested in Stamford

Mrs. Mary Hynes O'Meara of Fidelity Title and Trust Co. Held For Embezzlement.

STAMFORD, Jan. 21—(AP)—Mrs. Mary Hynes O'Meara, 31, discount clerk at the Fidelity Title and Trust company of this city, was arrested this afternoon on a charge of embezzlement preferred by the state bank commissioner, John B. Byrne, following discovery of irregularities in her accounts. One of two counts in the complaint charges embezzlement of $450 and the other charges false entries.

Her total peculations at the bank where she has been employed for five years are about $1,200, it was charged. Mrs. O'Meara at the discount window is alleged to have received sums on discounts which she kept after marking them as paid. Restitution of missing funds had been offered, it was stated at the bank.

On bonds of $5,000, furnished by her brother-in-law, Daniel O'Meara, Mrs. O'Meara was released for a hearing in city court next Monday. Her husband, Thomas O'Meara, is employed by his brother, a local florist.

The shortage was discovered during the annual auditing of the books by the state bank commissioner. The warrant for the arrest was asked for by Deputy Bank Commissioner L. E. Shippee, of Assistant Prosecutor Edward O. Jansen. Mr. Shippee and Chief Examiner W. M. Scott have been here several days.

DEADLOCK IN FRENCH FINANCIAL MEASURES

PARIS, Jan. 21—(AP)—The daily change in tactics on the part of the radicals and socialists in the fight with the government over financial measures has brought no change of front. Both parties remain in their positions awaiting the next move by the adversary.

Premier Briand's policy seems to be to await the result of the cartel's deliberations in the finance committee, then demand a vote in the chamber. The debate on the question will probably come early next week.

M. Briand, speaking in the chamber lobbies today, let it be understood that he would not put a question of confidence on M. Doumer's project for a stamp tax if the chamber could furnish him with a solution capable of bringing in immediately receipts for the treasury. He emphasized that the treasury's position was becoming very difficult, and was trying to find a formula for an agreement between the viewpoints of the government and the majority.

LEGAL BATTLE OVER RIGHT TO USE THE WORD "KLAN"

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 21—(AP)—A legal battle over the right of any other organization than the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America to use the word "klan" in its corporation name began in United States district court here today.

Contending that the word "klan" is its own, the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America corporation is suing the Independent Klan of America for $500,000 damages for using it.

Membership and purposes of both organizations were read into the testimony.

S. H. Bemenderfer, Muncie, president of the Independent Klan of America, declared his organization was formed by persons dissatisfied with conditions existing in the older body. They left "because of the character of the membership and after it had been found that the organization had been commercialized," he asserted. The membership of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, in Indiana, he termed as "disreputable and not fit persons to associate with."

TO EXTEND FISHING RIGHTS ON PONDS AND LAKES

HARTFORD, Jan. 21—(AP)—A program to secure extensive fishing rights on pondsand lakes in the southern part of the state to offset the poor stream fishing advantages there because of pollution, bad shade and other unsuitable conditions is planned by the state board of fisheries and game, according to announcement today. Nearly 100 miles of trout streams have already been leased in the northern counties and the board desires to provide as adequate opportunities to the sportsmen of the other counties.

Approximately 20,000 brook trout from six to eight inches long are now available at the Burlington hatcheries for stocking purposes. In addition plans are under way to purchase 30,000 yearling trout in order to stock intensively the leased trout streams with legal six inch trout.

TEA SUBSTITUTED FOR WHISKEY IN 200 BOTTLES

PORTLAND, Me., Jan. 21—(AP)—A secret entrance to the customs-sealed liquor store room of the British steamer Malorhead was discovered by deputy sheriffs this afternoon, two hours after the captain of the ship had paid a customs penalty of $500 in behalf of the ship's owners because of somebody's alleged substitution of tea for whiskey in more than 200 bottles.

No evidence to connect the captain or the steward of the vessel, with the depleted condition of the liquor stores was found, Thompson was arrested yesterday and released today. No further action will be taken.

Not only had the leakage of whiskey from wooden cases been concealed by substitution of bottles filled with tea or water, but bricks had been placed by cases to weight them, the deputies said.

ALLEGED ALCOHOL SEIZED IN MIDDLETOWN DRUG STORE

MIDDLETOWN, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Federal prohibition agents, raiding the drug store on Main street owned by Louis I. Feimer, this afternoon obtained 12 gallons of alleged alcohol, whiskey and wine. They claimed that Feimer had no permit to sell and that they had knowledge of an alleged sale. No arrest was made.

Max Dworkin, 35, Durham farmer, on whose place state police seized mash and still, was fined $600 and costs when arraigned beforeJustice of the Peace Bailey this afternoon and sentenced to 90 days in jail. He was convicted on three counts, manufacture, possession and sale.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

William S. Ward, former president of the Ward Baking company, is negotiating a merger of several food products companies.

The representative student council of All Saviours college has voted to cancel the rule forbidding smoking by students after the close of this college year.

Expenditure of $200,000 to purchase land for an artillery range at Fort Ethan Allen, Vermont, was proposed in a bill by Representative Bingham republican of that state.

A proposal to increase the capital of the Old Colony Trust company, Boston, from $10,000,000 to $12,000,000 will come before a special meeting of shareholders on February 2.

President Coolidge asked the governors of all states to appoint delegations to a national conference on street and highway safety in Washington, March 23, 24 and 25.

A portrait of the School of Rembrandt and the Inncepe painting, "The Woodcart," by Louis Paul Dessar, have been added to the collections of the Yale School of Fine Arts.

Rudolph M. H. Von Macht, personal chauffeur to General John J. Pershing during the closing months of the World war, was married in Milford, yesterday to Miss Elizabeth Bristol.

Two young men arrested in Middletown, on charges of breaking and entering, are being held without bail pending investigation into their alleged operations in that vicinity.

William Waldo Cheek of New York and Darmington, Conn., yesterday confirmed his engagement to Miss Constance Moody, a granddaughter of Dwight L. Moody, the evangelist.

Harold McCormick, husband of Ganna Walska, and president of the International Harvester company, called on the Deutschland for Europe. He will rejoin his wife in Paris.

The government of New South Wales has decided to send President Coolidge a large painting of the American fleet as it lay in Sydney harbor during its visit to Australia last July.

Merger of the Georgia Railway & Power company with the Southeastern Power & Light company of New York was announced at Atlanta, Ga., by H. M. Atkinson, of the Georgia company.

A uniform apple grading and packing law for the New England states was agreed upon yesterday at a conference of agriculturalists at the Boston Chamber of Commerce.

A strike of about 700 employes in four men's clothing factories in Boston, has been ordered by the Boston joint executive board of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America.

President Coolidge was told by a [illegible] arranging for the [illegible] Legion convention in Paris, in 1927, that more than 20,000 members of the organization would make the trip to France.

Bishop Charles Brent, of the western New York diocese, has been designated by Presiding Bishop Murray of the Episcopal church as bishop in charge of the Episcopal churches of Europe.

Seventy-two pint bottles, wrapped in golden paper and labelled "fine old whiskey," contained nothing but water, police found in Chelsea, Mass., after they had raided a house and arrested two women.

Governor and Mrs. John H. Trumbull and staff will be guests of honor at the third annual ball of the National Guard Officers' association in Waterbury. Guard officers throughout the state will attend.

A coyote has been killed within forty miles of Times Square. The animal was shot last week near Hicksville, Long Island, and Dr. George P. Engelhardt, curator of the Brooklyn museum, said it was a coyote.

The name of Dr. Leharon R. Briggs, former dean of Harvard college and now professor emeritus heads a list of 15 candidates nominated for five vacancies which will occur in the Harvard board of overseers in June.

Robert Fulton Cutting, member of an old New York family and prominent in social, financial and artistic circles, scored his fellow members of society for their alleged failure to support the prohibition laws.

James Corbett, of Utica, N. Y., father of Miss Alice Corbett, missing Smith college student, has engaged the services of Frank J. Luckingham, veteran East Hartford riverman, to search for the body of the girl in the spring.

A separate state organization, possibly a commission with an able technician at the head, for control of aviation in Connecticut is favored by Commissioner of Motor Vehicles Robbins B. Stoeckel, who is also commissioner of aviation.

Governor Trumbull issued a requisition on the governor of New York for the extradition of Harry Cook, formerly of New Haven, who is charged with non-support of his wife and two minor children. He is now held at Long Island city.

Edward J. Swig, of Quincy, Mass., son of Simon Swig, former vice-president of the closed Tremont Trust company, pleaded not guilty in district court at Newport, R. I., to charges of passing worthless checks. He was held in $1,500 for hearing January 22.

Everett Victor Meeks, dean of the Yale university, School of Fine Arts, was engaged as architectural advisor to the building committee which has charge of the program for the construction of a new county building at Washington and Lafayette streets, Hartford.

Another universe, similar to our own, but inconceivably distant in space, has been photographed and measured by Dr. Edwin Hubble, associate in the Astro-Physical Journal of the University of Chicago. It is 66,000,872,000,000,000 miles from the earth to the galaxy of stars which compose the other universe.

The right of railroad employes who are expelled from labor organizations to appeal to the federal courts to compel their reinstatement was argued in the supreme court in Washington, with strong indications from the bench that it would refuse to take jurisdiction.

BUSINESS AND INDUSTRIAL WELFARE OF NEW ENGLAND

Plans For Their Promotion Were Outlined to President Coolidge by John S. Lawrence of Boston, President of a Council Which Consists of Twelve Men From Each New England State.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21—(AP)—Plans of the New England council for promoting the business and industrial welfare of that section were outlined today to President Coolidge by John S. Lawrence, of Boston, president of the council, which consists of 12 men from each New England state, representing industry, agriculture, commerce, banking power and transportation. Mr. Lawrence was luncheon guest at the White House and previously had conferred with Secretary of Commerce Hoover on his organization's program.

"Already the organization of the council," Mr. Lawrence told the president, "has had a stimulating effect upon New England thought and has resulted in many suggestions for constructive and co-operative action being brought forward. The council already has initiated movements looking to the promotion of the further development of New England's power supply and to the free flow of electrical energy throughout the entire New England area, developments of a constructive agricultural program and the study of our commercial and industrial assets and facilities with a view to developing the facts in the situation on which sound policies for the future may be based.

"Just as New England was the scene of the beginning of American industry so now it is the first section of the United States to experience the condition of industrial maturity. New England is the first region in the new world to face old world conditions.

"We have the problems of crooked streets of cities and towns laid out before modern transportation was dreamed of and of conflicting and uneconomic laws, enacted, some of them, when we were not emerging from colonial conditions. For decades, because of the demands of the rest of the country for New England goods, New England genius was devoted largely to problems of production, whereas today distribution is the outstanding problem of our economic system.

"The pioneering in industry and commerce of our forefathers is represented today by accumulation of inherited wealth which sometimes acts as a check on ambitious young men and drives them elsewhere. Youth always has the pioneer instinct and today demands the right to conquer new frontiers in business."

Mr. Lawrence said that New England, through the council, was attempting to work out its own solution of its industrial problems and was seeking to create a state of public mind which would work to the benefit of all lines of business endeavor.

He told the president that business conditions in New England generally were satisfactory although profits were small, despite great volume of business but that conditions in the textile, shoe and paper industries could be improved. He said that to his knowledge no actual distress had been caused by the suspension of anthracite mining.

HEADLESS BODY OF WOMAN FOUND IN CLUMP OF BUSHES

MEDIA, Pa., Jan. 21, — (AP)—The headless and legless body of a young woman was found in a clump of trees today, about one and a half miles north of this place. An hour later the legs were discovered in high grass fifteen feet away. The head is still missing.

The arms were intact. On the left wrist was a gold watch, which furnished the chief clue on which the state police are working to identify the woman. It bore the initials "H. R. E. To T. T." There was stamped near the initials the letter "H." followed by a numerals "6-11-26."

The body was found on the extensive estate of Samuel J. Henderson, a Philadelphia lawyer, and lay a short distance back from a road. The spot is near the club house of the Rose Tree Hunt, whose members are socially prominent in and about Philadelphia.

The body was found by Mrs. Sallie Worrell, who lives nearby. Mrs. Worrell discerned what appeared to be a bundle near some trees. She hurried to the blacksmith shop of William L. Rowson. Rowson investigated and in the underbrush found a large brown paper package strapped with two heavy men's belts. Opening it he discovered the body covered with two newspapers. One bore the date of December 23 and the other of January 19.

Authorities were immediately notified. There was little blood found on the ground indicating, the police said, that the murder had been committed at a distance and the body thrown in the woods. Motor car tire tracks were found in the deep mud on the road nearby.

Examination of the body by physicians showed that it had been dismembered apparently by an expert, as the mutilations were clean cut.

GOV. PINCHOT IS PEEVED WITH HOUSE COMMITTEE

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 21.—(AP)—Gov. Pinchot tonight charged the house committee on mining with attempting "to kill administration measures for control of anthracite, now before the legislature, by adverse action on the measures yesterday.

The committee, after a brief hearing at which only opponents of the bills were heard, decided to "postpone indefinitely" consideration of one to make anthracite a public utility and to report negatively another providing for state compacts.

The action, the governor characterized as "a refusal to hear and consider on its merits the public's case for relief against the present intolerable situation in the anthracite industry." The failure of the committee to hear only those opposed to the bills he termed "a crime against the people of the anthracite region and the 40,000,000 anthracite users of America." He accused the committee of "sharp practice" in failing to notify friends of the bills that they were to be taken up.

The governor declared that under public regulation "all the facts concerning a monopolized industry" could be got at, that strikes would be less frequent, that fair trade practices would be provided for and that the properties and a fair return from them would be protected.

CHARLES CHAPLIN BRINGS SUIT TO RECOVER $62,147

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Charles Chaplin today filed in supreme court suit against First National Exhibitors, Inc., to recover $62,147, alleged to be due him as his share in the profits from the foreign distribution of his picture, "The Kid."

The complaint, filed by Chaplin's attorney, claims that the foreign distribution netted the film corporation $327,947, and that Chaplin's share be $236,563, under the agreement. This total has not been paid, Chaplin avows.

BODY OF MISS EDWARDS WAS FOUND IN WOODS

LONDON, Jan. 21—(AP)—The body of Miss Victoria May Edwards, of San Francisco, who disappeared on December 16, from her aunt's home in Beckenham, a London suburb, was found today in the woods near Farnborough. Nearby was an empty bottle, supposed to have contained poison. Identification was made by the clothing and jewelry found on the body.

STRIKE OF MINERS HURTS LIFE INSURANCE BUSINESS

NEW YORK, Jan. 21—(AP)—The condition which striking miners are facing was indicated today in a statement by Frederick H. Ecker, vice president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, saying that there had been an "enormous loss of insurance business" in the anthracite regions. Only a small amount of new industrial insurance is being written and many life policies are being allowed to lapse, he said.

Mr. Ecker said no mathematical analysis of the situation had been made by his company, but that on the face of it the strike was having a marked effect upon the so-called industrial policies. These are characterized by small, weekly payments, upon which the amount of insurance is based.

An official of the Prudential Insurance company of America confirmed Mr. Ecker's statements, but added that the situation was alleviated by the liberal course which some of the companies were pursuing. Most of the policies provide for an automatic extension of time after premium payments cease. As a result many of the policies upon which payments have been suspended are still in force, he explained.

In addition, it is the policy of some companies to allow the policy holder to resume payments even after the time of extention has been exhausted, when suspension has been due to loss of work.

Even when death occurs after the period of extension has elapsed, it was stated, it is the policy of the Prudential to pay the full amount of insurance when the difficulty was due to a strike and the widow of a policy holder paid the premiums in default.

Both officials agreed that the condition gradually had become worse since the beginning of the strike and was continuing steadily to become more serious.

TRIBUTE TO AMERICANS BY MARSHAL FOCH

PARIS, Jan. 21—(AP)—Marshal Foch paid a tribute to American participation and cooperation in the last year of the Great war in a speech today before the American Club of Paris.

"I well remember General Pershing and General Bliss coming to me in the darkest days of March, 1918," the allied commander-in-chief said, referring to the period after the German break-through. "They said to me, 'We are here to fight; we are here at your disposal; why don't you put us to fighting? We cannot consider remaining in reserve.'"

"All through the war it was like this. Up to the last minute the most complete intimacy and cordiality reigned between us."

Marshal Foch declared that France and America would stand together forever. "We think the same; therefore there can only be friendship between us," he said. "We work in the same spirit of loyalty toward the same cause, that of justice and liberty."

DISCOVERY OF MATERIALS FOR AUTOMOBILE BODIES

BERLIN, Jan. 21—(AP)—The discovery of a method for alloying aluminum with other metals, which will produce materials for automobile bodies which will not show scratches and will have both color and finish "built in," is claimed by R. Jirotka, a German electrical engineer. He has demonstrated his discovery to a commission of metallurgists of the German Institute of Chemical Technology.

He is said to have made alloys of aluminum and more than a dozen other metals, producing materials of many different colors, the color varying with the metal used for the alloy. These alloys have a surface resembling glazed porcelain.

The bureau for aluminum research reports that the alloying metals penetrate aluminum bar to a depth of four-tenths of an inch. Aluminum alloys made by Herr Jirotka include those with copper, manganese, cobalt, zinc, lead, chromium, tin, gold, silver and nickel.

DISPUTING THE AMERICAN PROTECTIVE TARRIF LEAGUE

NEW YORK, Jan. 21—(AP)—Wallace F. Wakeman, for 25 years secretary of the American Protective Tariff league, resigned today because of a factional dispute within the organization. Out of sympathy with Mr. Wakeman, 13 employes resigned in a body.

INTENTIONAL SECOND EXPOSURE

WILLIMANTIC

Office, 864 Main St. Telephone 1064-6

REPORTS ON WORK DONE BY SALVATION ARMY

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WILLIMANTIC, Jan. 21—E. J. McCabe, of the divisional headquarters of the Salvation Army, in Hartford, who has been acting as campaign director for the drive for funds for the local branch during the year 1926, after stating it as his opinion that the local people have not been acquainted with the accomplishments in the Army, he believes that much was done that never became generally known and out of fairness to the organization these facts should be made known. His report is taken from the book of the headquarters statistical department. Mr. McCabe stated what it was not unusual for the captain and associates of a branch to be so engrossed in their work as to neglect the publicity program to maintain the interest of the community.

One of the most valuable works of the Salvation Army, he said, was to visit the poor people in their homes and bring cheer and advice. Salvation Army lassies are often called out to visit during sickness and are often present to give comfort and assistance during the sad hours of death. The local captain has spent 1,533 hours in such work and has visited 672 families in Willimantic. Another great service is the one at the street corner, where the appearance of the singers and speakers looks like a foolish undertaking to the majority, but brings hope and renewed will to the discouraged ones who seek a friend. There were 593 such services conducted on the street here during 1925 and the total number of people reached in this means is estimated at 30,215. Mr. McCabe points out that this work is not in any way competitive to the churches and the worthiness of street services, he said, was well brought out by President Calvin Coolidge, when he said as part of an address: "It is a comfort and an inspiration to know that great as are the forces of evil, there is a power for good like the Salvation Army."

In its charitable work Director McCabe states, the Army aims not to do large but to co-operate with other social organizations. The local branch has been called upon to serve a total of 1,370 people with various forms of material aid in the past year. Clothing was given to 185 persons, many of them little children who would otherwise have suffered, perhaps severely, from the cold; 64 persons were given shoes and three medical attention. 145 families were given food and transient cases were cared for with meals. There were 40 persons given a night's lodging and eight people were given railroad transportation. During the Christmas season 150 children were made happy; 32 persons were given clothing and 75 were given shoes. In all the Salvation Army came in contact with approximately 24,940 people in Willimantic during the year.

Following two services at the home, 112 Quaker Lane, West Hartford funeral services for Mrs. Mary Smith were held at St. Joseph's church here Thursday morning, with a solemn high mass of requiem at eleven o'clock. Relatives and friends assisted at the first service at 8:30 o'clock and Rev. Father O'Callahan of West Hartford said a prayer at 9:15 o'clock. There was a large attendance at all of the services. At St. Joseph's church, Rev. Paul Bartlett Jones celebrant of the requiem mass, Rev. Charles M. Kelley, deacon and Rev. Fraser Ledwith, of Hartford, subdeacon. A quartet composed of Attorney Walter J. Costello, Mrs. Henry Matthieu and Mrs. L. Monica McKeon rendered Abide With Me as the processional. Mr. Roy and Mrs. Matthieu sang O Salutaris at the offertory and the elevation. Miss McKeon sang Hear Jesu. Mr. Roy rendered the beautiful solo, Farewell. Mrs. Elizabeth B. Portelance played a funeral march on the organ as a recessional. The remains were placed in the receiving tomb at St. Joseph's cemetery, where a committal service was conducted by Rev. Father Kelley. The bearers were Lt. George A. Andre, James Wall and George R. Flynn of Hartford, William Fortin, John Reilly and Lawrence S. Casey of this city. The honorary bearers were Edward McCarthy of Hartford and Walter J. [illegible] of this city. The casket was covered with a blanket of roses. Those present came from Atlantic City N. J., Chelsea, Putnam, Hampton, Jewett City and Willimantic.

The Congregation Sons of Israel have organized an educational department, with the aim of establishing a school, [illegible] children of the present [illegible] reading and writing their [illegible] Hebrew, and to teach [illegible] history of the race. The officers of the department are: President, [illegible] vice president, Abe Heiman; secretary, Abraham Glueklin; treasurer, Max Heiman. The board of directors are: Max Mandell, Jacob Kaufman, Simon Kentkhoff, Joseph Kaplan, Max Kensler, Hyman I rael, [illegible] Max Rabinowitz and Abe [illegible]. The committee of New York to secure the services of an instructor to teach the principles of the Hebrew [illegible] writing and history. The class will have an enrollment of about 40 pupils, including those of Willimantic and immediate vicinity. One of the rooms in the Union Bank street will be [illegible] to meet the requirements of a class room.

Town Clerk Frank P. Fenton was the speaker of the evening, delivering an address on The Local Town Government at the regular weekly dinner and meeting of the Willimantic Exchange club, held Wednesday evening. President Egbert A. Case presided over the session. Guests were Wilfred L. Lamarche, Charles A. Gates, William Becker of the city, H. L. Cyrus of Providence, R. I. and F. H. Dyer of the New York office of the American Thread company. Mr. Dunn was a guest of George F. Hills. Jack F. Carr was elected to membership.

In his address Town Clerk Fenton gave a review of the finances of the town government in Windham and gave the causes for the present bonded debts of the town. In a tabulation of figures he showed the increase of the town debt and expenses during the past 20 years. President Case presented several charts regarding the local tax proposition. Mr. Fenton stated that the increase in current debt was occasioned at town meetings when one mill was always cut, off the tax rate proposed by the town officers. Applying this proposed mill each year, to the tax rate, the current debt could be wiped out in 30 years. Town Clerk Fenton will give a second talk before the club next week.

All of the churches of the Ashford association met at the local Baptist church this week at a luncheon given in conjunction with the golden anniversary of the Woman's American Baptist Home Mission society, which event will be formally observed in 1927. The reception was held in the vestry of the church in charge of Mrs. C. L. Crane and Mrs. Charles W. Tryon. A large birthday cake adorned with 50 yellow candles had been placed in the center of the tables. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Ida Brown of Willington. Mrs. Fred Rosebrooks had charge of the menu, which was in keeping with the decorations executed by Mrs. E. S. Read, which carried the golden idea in colors. During the luncheon hour Mrs. Nichols rendered instrumental music. The program carried out at the close of the luncheon follows: Singing, Doxology; The 23rd Psalm in concert; prayer, Rev. Mrs. Jones of Spring Hill; singing Faith of our Fathers; reports of golden anniversary, Mrs. Sandi Willington; Mrs. Green, Mansfield Depot; Mrs. Jones, Spring Hill; Mrs. Crane Willimantic.

After a few words of welcome Mrs. Tryon introduced the first speaker, Mrs. D. W. Lovett, of this city. Mrs. Lovett gave an outline of the part which the state was to take in the golden anniversary program and she appealed to all women in the Baptist churches in the Ashford association to participate in the anniversary gift.

Miss Inez Paton was heard in two solos accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Nichols.

The second speaker was Miss Carrie Mastellar, of Boston, Mass., a worker among the Syrians of that city. The speaker asked for better equipment in the home-mission fields. The program closed with a hymn and benediction by Rev. Mrs. Jones. The luncheon was served by Mrs. Harold Storrs, Miss Bowen, Mrs. Edith Lapkin, Mrs. Pickneil and Mrs. Fox.

Rev. William A. Fenn, who performed the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Chappell, who recently observed their golden wedding anniversary, has replied to a letter sent by Allen B. Lincoln, to the last known address of Mr. Fenn in West Winfield, N. Y. There had been doubts in the minds of his many friends here as to the present whereabouts of Rev. Mr. Fenn and as to whether or not he was still alive. Mr. Lincoln was pleased to receive a grateful letter from Mr. Fenn, in which he stated that he was highly appreciative of the fact that his old friends still remembered him. He states that the happiest days in the ministry were those spent as pastor of the old Baptist church in Willimantic. Mrs. Fenn died in February 20, 1916, the letter states. In closing Mr. Fenn writes, "I am simply lingering on the shores of time with the infirmities of age pressing hard upon a well-preserved body." The marriage ceremony of former Mayor and Mrs. Chappell was performed by Rev. Mr. Fenn in the old Baptist parsonage, now the home of Mr. and Mrs. William N. Potter, on Church street.

The automobile machine equipment of the New England Sand Blast company, owned by Charles Burke, of Boston, Mass., and which has been towing work in this city for some time past, attached Wednesday night by Constable Joseph Peck, as the result of a civil suit for the recovery of damages of $100 instituted against Mr. Burke by William B. Looty, of Holyoke, Mass. Thursday morning according to Constable Peck, the machine equipment was taken from its place of custody and put into operation until the officer impressed on those responsible that this act was illegal.

With a communion breakfast in the Nurses Home, Thursday morning, the three-day retreat for the nurses of St. Joseph's hospital, conducted by Rev. Fraser Ledwith, S. T. D., of Hartford, came to a close. The graduate nurses who followed the exercises of the retreat with the pupil nurses, were present. The tables were tastefully decorated with the class colors, blue and gold. Rev. Father Ledwith left Thursday to open a retreat in New York. On January 28, a new class of student nurses for St. Joseph's hospital will begin study.

Wilfred Daigle, of this city, has been made defendant in a suit instituted by Comrie Genest, of Manchester, N. H., to recover an alleged unpaid bill of $49. The wages of the defendant at the local plant of the American Thread company were garnished by Constable Peck.

Ronald McCutcheon, well known piano player and composer of music, has accepted the position as pianist at the Gem theatre, to replace John T. Quinlan, who has resigned to accept a similar position at the new Capitol theatre. Mr. McCutcheon came here from New Britain.

Ralph Walesky, of Columbia, has brought civil proceedings against John Zmutaki, of that town, to recover damages of $1,000 in a claim that he invested $800 in a farm now occupied by the defendant. The civil action arose a the outcome of family trouble. Deputy Sheriff Allison L. Frink, of Andover, attached the farm Thursday afternoon.

Funeral services for Daniel L. Sheehan, were held Wednesday morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. Mary Welch, at 210 Suffolk street, Cambridge, Mass., with a high mass of requiem at St. Mary's church, Cambridge, at ten o'clock. There was a large attendance at the service. The funeral cortege arrived in this city at 3:11 p. m. and the remains were placed in the receiving vault at St. Joseph's cemetery. Killourey Brothers had charge of the local arrangements.

Miss Sarah Abbe, graduate of Windham High school, and niece of Mrs. George F. Stiles, of South Windham is the speaker on Current Events, at the meeting of the Society of Illinois Women, to be held at the Hotel Astor, this Friday.

Senior Vice President Alice Bentley was in charge of the meeting of Francis E. Long, Woman's Relief corps, No. 18, held Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Fred J. Williams, president of the Sorority of the Methodist church, entertained the Willing Workers at her home Wednesday afternoon. Sewing was done.

Brief Notes

Mrs. Frank P. Webb left Thursday to spend two weeks with her sister, Mrs. E. E. Sheets, of Providence, R. I.

Mrs. Florence Rogers Burns has returned her duties in Hartford, after assisting at her home for several days.

Dr. and Mrs. D. Everett Taylor have returned home, after a brief visit in Hartford.

W. H. Hickey, of New Haven, is spending several days in this city on business.

Hartford visitors Wednesday included Mrs. James H. Hurley, Mrs. E. C. Sharpe, Mrs. Richard Porter, Mrs. Frank B. Fenton, Mrs. George C. Moon, Mrs. W. E. Tryon and Miss John E. Lesure.

Mrs. George E. Elliott entertained the first of a series of D. A. R. whist parties, at her home, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Clifford E. Williams, Mrs. C. C. Dana and Mrs. George E. Hinman were guests.

At a meeting of the Hill club, with Mrs. Ralph U. Webber, Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. A. R. Sharpe won first prize at auction and Mrs. George W. Hickey second. Mrs. John O. Boss played as guest.

JEWETT CITY

ENTIRE TOWN MOURNS FOR DAVID HALE FANNING

(Special to The Bulletin.)

JEWETT CITY, Jan. 21—The death of no person outside the borough could hardly have caused such feelings of genuine regret, as were universally manifested when it was learned Thursday afternoon, that David Hale Fanning had died. Jewett City, as Mr. Fanning's native town, has been the recipient of his continued benefactions.

The beautiful park, which bears his name, extensive improvements at the Jewett City cemetery, and large gifts to the Slater library, are outstanding evidence of his interest in home-town welfare. When the park was dedicated, and the beautiful monument unveiled, he came to Jewett City to enjoy the festivities. His warm personal friends here are many, all of whom will now take especial pride in that they are reckoned among those who knew Jewett City's illustrious son. As Mr. Fanning advanced in years, so his interest in the little town where he was born correspondingly increased.

As his personal history will tell, it was among his chief delights to tell of the incidents connected with his starting out from Griswold with determination to succeed.

In past years he has made not infrequent visits here, and of the many things upon which his aid was sought, not once did he fail to express substantial interest.

His gifts and benefactions were of the sort to be classed out of the ordinary, in that from no other source would benefits been given with such munificent hand. In his passing, other localities will feel a great loss, but Jewett City is the only place that can truly say that Mr. Fanning lived in the house beside the road, and was a friend to man.

OFFICIAL DELEGATION TO ATTEND FUNERAL

(Special to The Bulletin.)

JEWETT CITY, Jan. 21—Warden Matthew J. Geary said late Thursday evening, that he would call a special meeting of the borough government, Friday, to take action relative to sending delegates to officially represent the borough at the funeral services of the late David Hale Fanning.

The board of trustees of the Slater Library corporation, George H. Jennings, Edward A. Faust, Lewis M. Carpenter, Alex McNicol and Arthur D. Tripp, will attend in a body the funeral of David Hale Fanning at Worcester.

BAPTIST CHURCH HEARS FINE ANNUAL REPORTS

(Special to The Bulletin.)

JEWETT CITY, Jan. 21—The annual roll call of the Baptist church was held on Wednesday evening with 194 present. At seven o'clock, a supper of potted beef and brown gravy, boiled ham; mashed potato and turnip, pepper relish, rolls, cake and coffee was served by the Ladies' Aid society. The president, Miss Ida Foster was in charge, and was assisted by Mrs. Emma Raney, Mrs. G. H. Prior, Mabel McBroome, Mrs. William Perry, Mrs. E. M. Grey, Mrs. Martin Davis, Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Champlain. Mrs. Francis Campbell was in charge of the dining room. The program was announced by State Attorney Arthur M. Brown, who was in charge of the program and also chairman of the board of trustees. Daniel L. Phillips and Mrs. G. H. Prior were the other members of the program committee. The program opened with a piano solo, Concert Fantasie, by Margaret Jordan.

The speakers of the evening was Rev. David A. Pitt, D. D., of Norwich. He spoke from John 3:16 giving a most inspiring and instructive talk on practical lines of church work. He spoke of the source of love, the scope of love, which is the world and the fact so often not believed, that God loves everybody in the world. If the human links of work with God did their part, the perishing need not perish. The pastor cannot do all the work alone. He asked each one to make a new year resolution to bring one person to Christ this year. He closed his talk with prayer. The audience gave him a vote of thanks.

A young women's quartet, composed of Verna Tarbox, Florence Quimby, Emma Dearnley and Doris Carpenter, sang I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say. They were accompanied by Ellen Prior. During the supper time every member of the church present signed their name on the program. Messages were read from absent members. There came the reports of the organizations. The pastor, Rev. E. E. Sheets told of his work during the year. He has charge of the Voluntown Baptist church and he has made 544 calls in the two Baptist churches, 438 in the Jewett City parish last year. The congregations in 1926 have been larger than in 1924. He also spoke of the pleasure the appearance of the church float in the Fourth of July parade gave him. I. E. Palmer reported for the trustees, speaking of the plans for redecorating the church, and G. H. Prior also spoke of the same prospect and plans. Mrs. C. F. Gardner read Miss Alice A. Brown's report for the Ladies' Aid society and reported a prosperous year. Monthly meetings, with enjoyable programs have been held, the anual outing being held at Mrs. F. H. Gilbert's summer home at Beach Pond. Refreshments for the father and son banquet were served, and the church given its usual cleaning, and the kitchen restocked with supplies. Money was given for easter flowers, the prize winning float, and Christmas tree decorations. A supper and sale was held in November. The parsonage telephone is under the charge of this society, and has been changed to a private line. There are 40 members, one having been called home. For several years the society has been accumulating a fund for the renovation of the audience room. This now amounts to $775. Tyler Gilbert, accompanied by Mrs. John Davis, played Simple Aveu as a violin solo.

Whatsoever Circle of The King's Daughters reported through Mrs. Gardner. The circle and missionary circle united in a mother and daughter banquet; it celebrated the birthday of the leader, gave the Red Cross money for two Christmas bags and invited Dorcas Circle to see the stereopticon views of the work of the international Order. The two circles had a float in the Fourth of July parade, which received honorable mention. An experience social brought in a goodly sum. Baskets of food and clothes, flowers and holidays remembered and many helpful deeds and words recorded make up the work of the circle. The death of Mrs. M. E. G. Wilson was noted.

Mrs. John Harris reported for the mission circle. The annual day of prayer was observed to which the other churches were invited; White Cross work has been accomplished; three barrels and a box valued at $113. were sent to the Mather school in South Carolina; 24 towels valued at $2.50 to Coleman University; one quilt valued at $3.50 to Storrer orphanage; one quilt valued at $5 and 12 dish towels valued at $1.35 to Florida Industrial school and a Christmas box valued at $10 to the Mather school; $10 was contributed toward the expenses of two girls attending Northfield conference; $3 to Stonington union $3 towards a new home at Mather school; $141.75 has been collected for the Golden Anniversary by the Kew woman. Miss Foster; a school of missions was held from April 16 to May 26. The regular meetings have been especially interesting, and the attendance increased.

The World Wide guild report was given by Ruby Thornton. They have held nine meetings, working on baby clothes, blankets and tiny cloths to be sent to hospitals in the south; reading contest books have been read, and missionary letters and clippins also; at Christmas dolls were sent to the Davenport house in New Haven; a play was given, Hallowe'en social held, two food sales conducted; from the proceeds money was sent to Hartford for red letter day, and to help pay the expenses of two girls who went to Northfield; $10 was voted to the contributing committee.

Ellen Prior reported for teh Sunday school. Concerts were held on Children's day and Christmas eve; decision day was observed; on rally day 211 were present, the largest number on record; the school has been represented at all conventions, and fine reports given. Miss Verna Tarbox sang Little Bit of a Fellow and Miss Susie told of her plans for the children's world crusaders.

The chairman called upon Mrs. G. H. Prior as The King's Daughters international president and she made a few "to the point" remarks. A message of sympathy, was voted to be sent to Mrs. O. C. Sarrent on account of the death of her daughter Beth in Concord, N. H., last Tuesday. Dr. Pitt extended an invitation to the rally at the Central Baptist church in Norwich Friday night. The exercises closed with prayer by the pastor.

Ideal Lunch reopens Sat. Regular dinners. Short orders. Fred Bellisle.—adv.

The recent meeting of the Very Reverend Michael J. McCabe council, Knights of Columbus held in the Legion rooms in the Finn block, was the introduction of a series of social gatherings which are planned for the coming year. Rev. J. J. Tyler, the official lecturer of the order, who always has something of interest and value to say, held the closest attention of the audience during his remarks. Rev. John Reilly, of Norwich, who was to have addressed the order, was unable to attend because of illness. Refreshments followed a memorable social evening. The council's local entertainers were the source of much pleasure.

Finn's tonight. Bessie Daniels and Rod LaRocque in Wild, Wild Susan.—adv.

The news of the death of Miss Beth Sargent, in Concord, N. H., on Tuesday, was received by friends here. Her father was a former pastor of the Baptist church.

Special today and Sat. Lean roasting pork, 28c. per pound. Fresh cut hamburg, 18, at Finn Bros.—adv.

Captain Carol T. Bryant, representative of the American Red Cross Life Saving and First Aid department, of Washington, D. C., gave a talk to 630 children at Riverside Grammar school Thursday morning. What they should and should not do in the water was plainly told. With only a subject he demonstrated "carries and holds" and told how to break them in the water. He asked how many could swim, and practically every hand went up. He said that in all his experience he had never known so many in an audience being able to swim. This is probably due to the unusually safe facilities for learning to swim provided at Ashland pond, by Ashland club by Prentice Chase, the welfare supervisor, is taking the Red Cross examiners course. Nine boys from the Grammar school are taking the test at the Y M C A., in Norwich. They are Lowell Shorey, Matthew Solenski, Louis Sfocylis, Antoine Bellisle, Stanley Kleital and Russell Carpenter. Three N. F. A. Boys from Jewett City, are William Stebbins, Roger Vachon and Lloyd Wechsler.

It is one thing to talk and another to say something.

Proved safe by millions and prescribed by physicians for

Rheumatism Colds Neuritis Neuralgia
Headache Pain Toothache Lumbago

DOES NOT AFFECT THE HEART

Safe — Accept only "Bayer" package which contains proven directions.

Handy "Bayer" boxes of 12 tablets
Also bottles of 24 and 100—Druggists.

Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid

PRESTON

A very pleasant surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ellis, at their new home, Friday evening, in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary.

At eight o'clock about 30 of their nearest neighbors went to the house in a body. During the evening a silver ladle was presented Mr. and Mrs. Ellis in honor of the event. A very appropriate presentation speech was made by Walter McClimon, to which Mr. and Mrs. Ellis responded in a very suitable manner. The evening was spent in singing old fashioned songs and playing games. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served. At a late hour the merry company broke up wishing the many more pleasant anniversaries.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Krug went to daybrook, Monday to visit Mrs. Krug's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Swan. They were accompanied by Mrs. Frank Krug and Mrs. Raymond Krug.

Mr. John Wilson, who has been confined to his home, is able to be out again.

The World Wide guild met with Cynthia Crary Saturday afternoon. Reports on the study book were given and White Cross work was done.

Mrs. Frederick Wilcox and Louise Ellis were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ellis on Saturday.

Mrs. Joseph Harrison was the leader of the Baptist C. E. Sunday night.

Clifford Crary was a recent caller at the home of his aunt, Mrs. William Crary.

Rev. Mr. Clark was the leader of the Congregational Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday night.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church met Wednesday for an all day's meeting. There were about 25 present. A quilt was tied and sewing was done. A delicious dinner was served at noon, it being the birthday of Mrs. Bennett, she was presented a sum of money.

Word has been received by local friends from Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Main and Mr. and Mrs. Irving Foote that they have reached West Palm Beach, Fla.

Mrs. Louise Boswell is slowly improving, after having been ill for the past two weeks. Her niece, Mildred Zabriskie, is with her.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church met Wednesday afternoon in the church vestry. Clothing was brought and mending was done for the Near East. Refreshments were served consisting of sandwiches, cake and coffee.

Raymond and Harold Muttart and Marion and Edith Pierce were guests, Sunday, of Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Muttart, in Hampton.

UNION

Mrs. John Krisko has returned from New York, where she had been the guest of relatives and friends since New Years' day.

George Bradway, with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bradway and their three children, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stanton in Brimsfield, Mass., last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Bower of Short Beach, are spending a few weeks with Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Lawson. Mrs. Bower was formerly Miss Helen Baldwin.

The well-child conference held at the town hall last week, was very well attended by the three schools that road conditions did not debar.

Road construction in the Bigelow Valley prevented the East school from attending. The Red school's attendance was one hundred per cent. Stephen Velgaska transported the children in his heavy wagon. Mrs. Nelson Horton helped the Mashapaug school children putting straw in her wagon and adding sleighbells to her team. The Rock Meadow school children with the teacher, Miss Young and other interested friends, walked to the hall. Dr. Haskins and Miss Vincent were the physician and nurse in charge of the conference. The children here are much interested in the periodical measuring and weighing, and, if they will faithfully work in cooperation with parents and teachers they will soon show a marked improvement in various ways.

Mrs. Sarah White Dimock, extension worker, was in town Jan. 15 starting health clubs in the schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robertson and daughter Helen of Monson, Mass., were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Horton.

Mrs. Abiel Towne who is in her 94th year recently fell in crossing her kitchen. The doctor thought there were no fractured bones, but the bruises were painful and she is confined to her bed.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Tucker of Rockville were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Barrows.

The meeting of the Union Parent-Teacher association held at the town hall on Friday evening, Jan. 15, was much enjoyed. E. E. Tucker, Tolland county agricultural agent, was the speaker for the evening. He held the close attention of his audience and brought out many points which will be of use. A lively and interesting discussion of subjects connected with farm life followed the address. The P. T. association added a few numbers to the program. Rev. H. A. Coolidge led a group of male voices in singing, "Never Turn Back" and "Stay On the Farm, Boys." Miss Mildred Millard accompanied at the piano. Thomas Reed gave banjo solos, and Mrs. Bradway and Miss Millard gave readings. Refreshments were served and the meeting closed by all joining in singing "Home, Sweet Home."

GOSHEN

Rev. Lydia Hartig, who is ill with a throat trouble, is in Hartford, receiving treatment by a specialist.

Miss Ruth E. Maynard, teacher in the 12th school district, was given a surprise party on her birthday, Tuesday evening. Miss Maynard was presented a handsome birthday ring, a very pleasing reminder of the occasion.

Friends and relatives from this place were in attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Q. M. Bosworth, in Bozrah, Wednesday.

During the present January thaws tons of jagged cakes of ice are piled on the banks of the Fantic river.

The warm spell brings to mind several years, when on January 20th peepfrogs were heard.

A pancake supper was enjoyed at the Community Club Wednesday evening. The committee in charge comprised E. H. McCall, Jr., and A. B. Kenyon.

A number from this place attended church service at the Bozrah Center church, Sunday, there being no service here.

262,564 MOTOR VEHICLES REGISTERED IN PAST YEAR

Final official figures of the state motor vehicle department show that there were registered in Connecticut, in the year just closed, 262,564 motor vehicles, an increase of 27,793 over the registrations for the previous year and that department receipts exclusive, of gasoline tax, increased from a total of $5,069,581.97, in 1924, to $5,644,346.88 in 1925. The increase in receipts amounted to 11.3 per cent. over those for 1924, whereas the 1924 receipts showed an increase of 17 per cent. over those of the previous year.

The number of operators licensed in the state during 1925 reached 366,-589, which was an increase of 34,913 over the year 1924. Registration fees of $4,341,188.65 accounted for the greater part of the 1925 receipts. Other large items were $506,184, from the licensing of operators, $220,226 from fines for violations of the motor vehicle law, $103,163 for examinations given by the department, chiefly to applicants for drivers' licenses, $54,-470, from transfer fees, $71,600, for extra markers of all classes, and $32,-497.50 from fees for the licensing of gasoline stations.

Of the 262,564 motor vehicles registered in the year, 211,067 were passenger cars, 24,648 commercials, 4,-034 motorcycles, 2,861 taxicabs, 470 interstate jitneys, 70 interstate jitneys 190 hearses, 34 cars of automobile manufacturers, 336 trailers, 110 repairers' cars, 23 tractors, 4,240 dealers' cars and 2,751 combination cars.

Thirty-three airships were registered in the state and thirty-seven pilots licensed. Four aircraft examinations were made, each for a fee of $5.00.

Only 1,242 motor vehicle registers were subscribed for, and the income from that source amounted to $4,977 for less than the cost of production, as a result of which the issuing of the register in printed form has been discontinued.

REPORT IMPROVEMENTS AT STATE FARM FOR WOMEN

The state department of public welfare was in session Wednesday afternoon at the capitol at Hartford. A report was made by Secretary Charles P. Kellogg on visits which he and Mrs. Martha C. Mitchell, a member of the welfare commission, recently made to various institutions. On a visit to the state farm for women at East Lyme they found that the institution had been greatly improved since their last visit. A new school teacher had been engaged and there were other additions to the staff of the institution which would improve its efficiency. The new cottages which would be ready for occupancy in the spring and for which the general assembly at the last session voted $42,-000, would add greatly to the facilities for carrying on the work of the institution. There are 160 inmates and twenty-one babies in the institution.

Secretary Kellogg and Commissioner Mitchell commended the occupational work carried on at the Norwich state hospital for the insane. The work includes the gearing of rugs and the making of dolls. There are more than 2,000 inmates in the hospital.

BEST BROS.' MARKET

Free Delivery to All Parts of the City. Phone 454. 38 Franklin Street.

Our well-paid specials in quality meats are bound to increase your savings. Buy here and save on every purchase. See our large display.

MONEY SAVERS FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Sugar Cured Smoked Shoulders, lb. . 20c

Prime Chuck Roasts, lb. . 15-18c
Ready for the oven

Boneless Rolled Roast BEEF, lb. 30c

Fancy Native FOWL, lb. 32c

Sperry and Barnes' Sugar Cured Boneless HAMS, lb. 28c

SALT PORK, lb 23c

Choice Cuts of Boneless CORNED BEEF, lb. 14c

Extra Fancy Pot ROASTS, lb. . . 25c
Boned and rolled

Honeycomb Pocket TRIPE, lb. . . . 17c

Legs of Genuine Spring LAMB, lb. 38c

Sugar Cured BACON, lb. . . . 33c

Meaty Fores of Genuine Spring LAMB, lb. 28c

Choice Cuts of Milk-fed Native VEAL, lb. . 16-25c

Sugar Cured Sliced HAM, lb. 35c

Home Made Sausage MEAT, lb. 32c

Fresh Native HAMS, lb. 30c
Cut from little pigs

Fresh Pigs FEET, lb. 14c

Pickled Pigs FEET, lb. 18c

Chamberlin's Sliced Dried BEEF, lb. 55c

Best Print BUTTER, 2 lbs 99c
in ¼-lb. Prints

Fresh Native EGGS, doz. . . . 55c

Fancy Selected EGGS, 3 doz. $1.00
Every egg good

Parkadale Farm EGGS, doz. . . . 40c

Swift's Silverleaf — LARD —
1 lb. package 19c
2-lb. Pail 50c

Sugar Cured HAMS, lb. . . . 29c

Best Shoulder STEAK, lb. . . . 25c

EASTERN CUT LITTLE PIG FRESH SHOULDERS AND PORK LOINS

SIRLOIN, PORTER-HOUSE AND SHORT STEAKS

THE SHACK

I have built myself a little shack a bit beyond the beaten track,
Beside a lake of liquid blue that mirrors Heaven's every hue;
A little cottage in a wood, where life is simple, sweet and good
A place where I sojourn content, akin to every element,
Where Summer zephyrs softly sigh and Winter winds go storming by,
Where rain or fair alike are one of Nature's sweet dispason
Brings soothing to the weary brain with harping of a tender strain—
A theme that tells of woodland things struck on a harp of countless strings.

I have built myself a little shack a bit beyond the beaten track,
Where one may view the distant hills and feel release from petty ills,
Or idly drift upon the lake and see the great bass rise and break
While widening ripples, one by one, are crimsoned by the westering sun;
And this is where through Summer days the birds sing lyrics in the praise
Of that High Power that made them all. And here, when comes the painted Fall,
The migrant duck finds food and rest upon the wild lake's placid breast,
While stately hemlocks on the shore chant soft their tunes of woodland lore.

I have built myself a little shack a bit beyond the beaten track,
A place of tranquil quietude, where I may learn from solitude
The peace that Nature gives alone to those whom she has made her own,
To those who love to spend their days in learning of her hidden ways.
I have built me more than just a shack beyond the known and beaten track;
I have fashioned myself a house of dreams, here in the wood where sunshine gleams
So goldenly down leafy aisles; I have built me a refuge from the trials
And the burdening care and the petty strife that assail all men on the road of life.

—Gordon Hawkins, in Springfield Union.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

Mother—"Nice little boys don't fight."

Darling Son—"Naw, they get the pants beat off'n 'em."—Life.

Son: Father, what is a beast of burden?

Father (a cross word fan): How many letters, son?—Stevens Institute Stone Mill.

"Now then," roared the boss to the stone-boy, "you will be on hand at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning. And when I say 7 o'clock I don't mean five minutes after, I mean five minutes before."—Good Hardware.

"They even have liquid soap at that frat house."

"Yeah, they drink anything; the janitor has to lock up his floor polish."—Denver University Parakeet.

Little Reggie: Mamma, where did you get this egg?

"From grandma's chickens, dear."

"Well," said Reggie, "how do granny's chickens know the size of our egg-cups?"—The Progressive Grocer.

Judge—Are you sure he was drunk?

Minion of the Law—Well, his wife said he brought home a manhole cover and tried to play it on the phonograph.—Denver University Parakeet.

"Rasts, I'll give you $10 to have your picture taken in the cage with that lion."

"No, suh, boss, not me."

"He won't hurt you. He hasn't any teeth."

"Mebbe so, but I ain't going to be crammed to death by an old lion."—Life.

"I don't know what I want, but it must be something suitable for a birthday present," said the customer.

"Well, sir," returned the clerk, "we say that this store can supply anything from a pin to an elephant."

"Perhaps you could show me something between the two."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

KALEIDOSCOPE

The German fleet at Scapa Flow cost about $300,000,000.

More than 165,000 divorces were granted in the United States in 1923.

The most important of Christmas' namesakes is Natal, in South Africa. The Portuguese discovered it on Christmas day, and named it Natal, since it was cited on the natal day of Christ.

In the city of Osaka, Buddhist service was lately held, to console the spirits of the thousands of cats whose lives had been sacrificed that their skins might be used in making the "samisen," a banjo-like musical instrument much used by the geisha girls of Japan.

The year 1926 will mark the seventy-fifth anniversary of the manufacture of ice cream as a commercial industry. It was in 1851 that ice cream was first manufactured and sold in Baltimore by Jacob Fussell, who is known as the father of the ice cream industry.

More than half the expenditures of the people of this country for foreign fruits in 1924 were for bananas. The value of banana imports reached $22,074,610, as compared with $19,-738,805 in 1923. Americans particularly Bostonians, own most of the banana plantations in this hemisphere.

That much Swiss cheese is now made in America, and that Roquefort cheese, formerly made only from the milk of sheep in the dark, natural caverns of the south of France, is now made from cow's milk in sanitary, up-to-date American dairy establishments, is revealed by two of the educational films of the United States department of agriculture: "Swiss Cheese — Made in America," and "American Roquefort Cheese—Made from Cow's Milk."

$1,000,000
Paid by us to stop
Colds

We paid $1,000,000 for Hill's Cascara-Bromide-Quinine because it is the best head ever found for a cold. Hill's stops a cold within 24 hours. It ends the fever and headache. It checks grippe in three days.

Its action is complete. It not merely stops colds, but removes their poisons. It opens the bowels—tones the entire system. It creates the force to restore your vitality.

A cold is a serious matter. Over 150,000 deaths yearly result from causes due to colds. One should start when the cold starts. Don't let the germ attack get a hold. Check it with Hill's. Have the tablets on hand. The sooner you start, the quicker the cold will end. All druggists sell Hill's.

Be Sure It's HILL'S Price 30c
CASCARA QUININE
Cas Red Box

CONQUER CONSTIPATION EASILY

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN relieves constipation because it is 100% BRAN

Mr. McEnery tried part-bran substitutes — but only ALL-BRAN brought complete relief. Here's what he says:

"For fifteen years I was constantly bothered with constipation. . . . About two years ago I tried oat mixed bran and corn flakes but did not get much relief. Some eighteen months ago, I began using Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. From the first week to this good day, I have never had to take a dose of any laxative medicine of any description."

JAMES D. McENERY,
R. F. D. No. 4, Alto, Texas.

Constipation is the enemy of health. The cause of more than forty diseases. Don't let this insidious trouble send its poisons through your body. Pimples, spots before the eyes, indigestion and headaches—are warning signs.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to relieve constipation or your money is refunded. Delicious with milk, fruit or with other cereals. Fine in cooking.

Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek, Michigan. Sold by all grocers. Served everywhere.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

DANIELSON

DANIELSON PEOPLE FEEL THAT RATE WAR HAS BEGUN

(Special to The Bulletin.)

DANIELSON, Jan. 21—Another slash in the Providence-Danielson motor coach fare was made Thursday by the Interstate line operating between Providence and Hartford through this community. That fare between Danielson and Providence has been made as even dollar on this line.

Up to within a few weeks the fare between the two places was $1.50. Shortly after the New England Transportation company, subsidiary of the N. Y., N. H. and H. R. R., took over the Barnett lines between Willimantic and Providence via Danielson that corporation cut the rate to $1.15. At that time the act was regarded as the beginning of a rate war between the Interstate and the New England lines, but the railroad people later explained that coach fares were being equalized with train fares on their various runs throughout southern New England. The $1.15 rate has stood since the early part of January.

That there is a rate war on gains additional credence through Thursday's act by the Interstate line, which is a big operator of motor coaches on lines radiating out of Providence to various points in southern New England. It has been selling a round trip between Providence and Danielson for some time, for $2.00, but now it allows the privilege of riding one way for $1.00.

The local public looks with complacency, if not a little glee, at the situation and is now sitting back waiting for the New England lines to match the Interstate or go them one better. It is not beyond the bounds of reason to expect this to happen.

There are many who recall the days when the trolley fare between Danielson and Providence over the old P. and W. road was as low as 50 cents. It may be too much to expect that the price cutting now underway will ever bring the coach fare down to that figure, but it is within the realms of possibility. Anything can happen to price schedules when competition gets keen enough.

An angle to the situation that is not so pleasant to Danielson business interests is the effect that low transportation rates may have on trade in this community. "Just going over for the ride" says many a person who boards a coach for the Rhode Island capital, and though this may be the main incentive, there is always the likelihood of one's buying something that otherwise might have been bought at home on such a trip.

However, Danielson's business interests have survived much competition and likely will continue to do so.

As to coach fares, one can ride from Providence to Hartford via Danielson under the new rates for $3.25, the distance about 73 miles. Round trip tickets between the cities mentioned are available on one day for $4.00.

Traffic on the east and west coach lines is not at all heavy these winter days, but it is growing steadily and great development is looked for during the course of the year.

It is no reckless prophesy to say that a few old-fashioned dances such as were held at the armory Wednesday evening, with Uncle Joe Shippee and his orchestra furnishing the music, would make money in Danielson for the promoters. Those who danced the old dances and those who sat and watched them dance seemed to be having more real fun than has been had at a dance here or hereabouts in a blue moon. It is often said as a matter of time-worn form that "a good time was had by all." Well, that could be said in all truth about Wednesday night's dance at the armory. People came from far and near. Old-timers proved to themselves and to all who watched them that they are rather nimble yet and capable of having a rousing good time if the occasion presents itself. There was all the vim and snap of years gone by in the manner in which many who have not danced for years danced at the armory. It was good, too, to witness the revival of many of the pretty dances of other days. People danced at the armory Wednesday night who have not danced in Danielson before in a score of years. The affair was a real treat to them. Many of the young people present seemed to be getting as much fun out of the affair as they do at a modern hop and while they might not like the old dances as a regular thing to replace the new, they found evidences that papa and mamma must have had a fairly good time at dances when they were young.

The armory dance attracted an unusually large attendance. "Uncle" Joe Shippee was a great drawing card and was splendidly received.

"We have just received a telephone call from North Sterling, Conn., telling us that there is a black bear at large in the vicinity of that place, that hunters are searching for it and that numbers of people over that way are fearful of encountering the bear and want to know if it would be apt to attack anyone."

So said a radio announcer at WBZ, Springfield, Wednesday evening during the course of a weekly nature talk.

The naturalist assured those listening in that there is no danger that the bear will attack anyone. "As I have said a number of times, a human being is the last thing that a bear will interfere with. He does not seek man's acquaintance and will go his way if left unmolested. A bear will not fight a person unless he is cornered."

Continuing he said "I trust the hunters do not get this bear. His presence will add interest to the woodlands where he roams and I hope no harm befalls this humorist of the forest."

So all may be reassured against being attacked by the bear. Those in this territory who happened to be listening to the nature talk, dealing with animals, birds, fish and their habits were given an interesting surprise by the discussion of the North Sterling bear. It added a special bit of zest to an otherwise highly interesting lecture.

This year's chronological calendars, issued annually by The Bulletin, for Danielson, have a good likeness of Old Trinity church, Brooklyn, as a special feature. This church, erected in 1771, is the oldest Episcopal church standing in Connecticut. It stands in what in the old days was known as Kingswood Manor, and is of great historical interest. The church is kept in good repair and services are held there each year on All Saints day and occasionally at irregular times, as occasion may demand, at other times in the year.

From the home of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Cobb, in Goodyear, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock the funeral of Vincent W. Cobb, age 2 years, was held. Burial was at St. Joseph's cemetery in Dayville. L. E. Kennedy was in charge of the funeral arrangements. The child died as the result of a fractured skull sustained in a fall at its home last Sunday.

A special town meeting attended by a corporal's guard of citizens was held in the town hall Thursday afternoon at 1:30, for the purpose of approving an agreement between members of a special committee of the town having in charge the plans for building additions to the high school and Moses H. Berthiaume, Jr. The meeting was relative to property lines between the high school and Berthiaume properties acted favorably on the proposal and validated officially for the town the agreement entered into.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Call left Thursday for their annual visit in the south. They are to be at White Springs, Fla., for three months.

Members of the Roundabout club are to meet with Mrs. Mabel Leavens, Main street, next Monday afternoon.

Michael Cronin, who has been ill at his home on Academy street for several days, was reported considerably improved on Thursday.

Dana Shippee, of East Killingly, is a good fox hunter and not a bad shot. This winter he has shot at eight foxes and killed eight foxes—a 100 per cent record.

W. Irving Bullard of Boston was in Danielson Thursday on a business trip.

Friends here have received word of the marriage at St. Cloud, Fla., of Mrs. Charles A. Potter, a resident here during the greater part of they ear.

Louis A. Tandler of Fall River visited with friends in Danielson on Thursday.

Rev. Leonard R. Richards addressed the members of Sarah Williams Danielson chapter, D. A. R., Thursday afternoon, at a meeting at the home of Mrs. E. H. Keach. The hostesses were Mrs. E. H. Keach, Mrs. Simeon Danielson, Mrs. H. L. Paine, Miss Helen Perkins, Miss Ada Danielson, Mrs. H. M. Blanchard.

Rumor has it that the New Haven road will withdraw all motor parking privileges at the railroad station, excluding even public service cars that now have rented space there.

Aerial mail service between Boston and New York, the route over Danielson, will begin in April.

A. P. Woodward was in Boston Thursday on a business trip.

Tenement on Riverview to rent; also Ford coupe for sale. Christopher Andrews.—Adv.

Continued warm weather during Thursday was responsible for mud conditions being so bad on numbers of country highways as to make them practically impassable for motor cars.

Mrs. P. C. Bliven, of South Killingly, was injured, her shoulder being dislocated, when she slipped and fell on the ice.

With the coming of February, Killingly's board of relief will begin its sessions, these extending through the greater part of the month.

The Danielson basketball team will play at Baltic this evening. A number of fans will go along with the team.

South Killingly and Brooklyn have at last broken into the timetables of the N. Y., N. H. and H. R. company. The new issue lists them in the time schedule of motor coaches operated by the N. E. Transportation company on the Providence-Danielson-Willimantic route.

Keep Slim
To keep love

All ideals of charm and beauty include steadiness today. A woman who carries excess fat does herself injustice.

Millions have learned an easy way to reduction. No abnormal exercise or diet is required. Just take a Marmola Prescription Tablet four times daily.

Marmola has been used for 18 years. You can see its results in every circle now. Users have told its results until people now are using a million boxes yearly.

This method is quick and pleasant. It is scientific. There are no secrets about it. Our latest book tells every ingredient used. It is so reliable that every user is now offered a guarantee.

The reduction is gradual—not over a pounds a day. So the body adjusts itself to the new conditions.

Every woman who suffers overweight should learn what Marmola does. A way so widely used so long used, deserves a test. Let it do for you what it is doing for people all about you.

Marmola Prescription Tablets are sold by all druggists at $1 per box. Send this coupon for a latest book, a 24-day sample free, and the guarantee. Clip it now.

The Pleasant Way to Reduce

MARMOLA
2-2356 General Motors Bldg.
DETROIT, MICH.

Mail for 24-Day Sample Free

The Farmers' Cooperative
NEW GRAIN STORE
AT PLAINFIELD

WILL OPEN FOR BUSINESS EVERY WEEK DAY FROM 7 A. M. TO 6 P. M., STARTING SATURDAY, JAN. 16.

WE HANDLE ONLY FIRST CLASS FEEDS AT THE LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICES. WELCOME!

LOCATED AT NORTH PLAINFIELD NEAR THE CEMETERY.

PUTNAM

PUTNAM INTERESTED IN GILPATRIC LETTER

(Special to The Bulletin.)

PUTNAM, Jan. 21—The announcement in this morning's Bulletin that J. Harold Gilpatric, writing from the federal prison to Judge Arthur L. Howard, of Hartford, trustee of his bankrupt estate, said that he was willing to tell all that he knew about and to help in untangling the affairs of the First National bank of this city and in tracing the purchase of certain Liberty bonds held by the state, was read with eagerness and satisfaction. Newspapers at the state capital for the past three days had been severely criticising him for what they declared was his persistent refusal to aid in this investigation, and were also blaming Walter H. Gilpatric, his brother, as well as his attorney, for advising him to pursue this course. Gilpatric's letter was written before these criticisms appeared. It was transmitted to Judge Howard by Walter Gilpatric who said that he agreed with his brother, the former state treasurer, in pursuing such a policy, and that he would cooperate in any way that he could.

Two days after the closing of the First National bank the family of G. H. Gilpatric, on the advice and with the help of Walter Gilpatric, turned over to the receiver of the bank all the property that he possessed, including everything that Mrs. Irene Gilpatric, the wife, owned in her own name. It is not believed here in Putnam that a single dollar was retained whether it was the property of G. H. Gilpatric or Mrs. Gilpatric.

In view of this letter it is now believed certain that Gilpatric will be brought to Hartford to assist in the investigation of the state treasury accounts. Assistant District Attorney George F. Cohen says that he will not oppose an application for a writ of habeas corpus to permit his being brought from Atlanta to Connecticut.

Attorney J. F. Carpenter, of this city, who represents a majority of the creditors, and to whose efforts are due the revealing of many important transactions, thinks that Gilpatric's return should be deferred at least a month. That amount of time is necessary, he said, to allow lawyers and accountants to make preparations.

Following a letter to Judge Howard the first personal statement from the former bank cashier and former state treasurer, that has appeared since his attempt upon his life, is of peculiar interest to Putnam people. He says under date of January 12.:

"My dear Sir: In reply to your letter of recent date, relative to your sending a representative to talk over my bankrupt estate, would say that I would be willing to give any assistance that I can.

"I note your reference to the statement made to those interested, as to my willingness to cooperate in the settlement of my affairs. The newspaper articles, purporting to come from your office, have not always suggested that such was my attitude, in fact it was only recently that 'The Courant,' while not quoting you, stated that I had at last consented, to answer certain questions, and had broken my silence, showing a disposition to assist. Now do not misunderstand me, Mr. Howard, I am not at all sore or agrrieved at any treatment that I have received for I fully realise that there is no one but myself to blame for my present condition, and I do not hold any bitterness against anyone but G. Her old Gilpatric, for if he had done as he should he would not have been subject to any of the criticism and punishment that he has received. But I have really been surprised that I have not been consulted more frequently in regard to the various claims filed against my estate, and have not been asked to approve or revise the list of assets held by you as purporting to be a part of my estate. I do feel that I have been misunderstood in regard to the publicity matter, or as the newspapers choose to name it, my prolonged silence. I have not wanted to inject myself on record as being willing to cooperate both with your office and the receiver of the bank in any way that I could, and have really had a desire to help rather than hinder, with the result that I feel that any misunderstandings, or unlawful claims or unexplained transactions, where I have not been consulted, are the fault or others rather than myself.

"I must ask you to address my brother, Walter H. Gilpatric, Woolworth Building, New York city, relative to your representative calling to see me. I feel sure that he will have no objection to our course of action, but because of my blinded condition, I promised that I would not sign any papers without first submitting them to him for his approval. I wish it might be you, yourself, who was coming here to question me, as I feel, through our mutual friend, Ernest C. Morse, that I know you. He speaks in the highest terms of you in all his letters to me, and I want you to understand my position in making the above statements. You must appreciate that I feel rather helpless in my present blind condition, and hope you will forgive me if I appear to have an undue amount of apprehension as to newspaper publicity.

Yours respectfully,
G. HAROLD GILPATRIC."

J. Eugene Taylor, who died suddenly at Richmond, Virginia, yesterday, and whose body will be brought here for burial, is the son of the late George ("Whistling") Taylor, and a brother of William H. Taylor. The latter whose death occurred a few years ago, was known throughout the state by reason of his persistent reminders in the way of postcards and other souvenirs to "Keep your memory green."

"Gene" Taylor was in Putnam on Armistice day when the Memorial bridge was dedicated and while here made arrangements about the care of the graves of his father and brother. He looked to be in excellent health and evidently had little thought that his own death was so near.

He was born in Putnam and spent the first half of his life here. For several years he was engaged in the hardware business in the block where the A. Gilman & Co. store is now located. His first wife was Alice M. Morse, daughter of George Milton Morse, one of the pioneers in the wool industry in this section.

The Morse house and furniture on Thomas Keyser, of Danielson, was destroyed on the Wednesday following. The building was located one mile west of North Grosvenordale. Mrs. Krevale and the children were at home when the fire was discovered but Mr. Krevale was at work at the Grosvenordale mill. Not the time that the alarm had spread and the neighbors reached the spot the fire had gained such headway that it was impossible to check it, or to save anything but a few articles of clothing. An attempt to salvage some of the furniture had to be abandoned. The fire is said to have started from an overheated chimney. Loss is estimated at from $4,000 to $5,000; partially insured.

Mrs. Frank O. Thayer had the highest score at the meeting of the East and West club, which met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. H. L. Pease, on Freeman street. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. William Richardson.

The annual Missionary tea of the Second Congregational church was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Elihu M. Wheelock, on Church street. There was an address of welcome by Mrs. Henry J. Thayer, president of the Missionary society, and an outline of plans for the coming year given by Mrs. James F. English, chairman of the programme committee. A feature of the afternoon was a vocal duet by Mrs. Walter P. Wheaton and Miss Alice Stevens.

The committee in charge of the affair consisted of Mrs. Howard Shirrefs, chairman; Mrs. Herman Wilkey, Mrs. Herbert J. Smith, Mrs. Karl T. Phillips, Mrs. Joseph Michel, Miss Elizabeth Wheelock, Miss Dorcas Bartlett and Miss Ruth Morrison.

Something new and novel in instructive entertainment will be given in the Putnam High school auditorium on Monday, January 25, and Tuesday, January 26, under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce, when an intimate insight will be given a large audience into the operation of a telephone switchboard. The demonstration is given by use of a real switchboard manned by train operators, and is arranged by the Chamber of Commerce with the cooperation of the telephone company.

The general public is cordially invited to attend. There is no admittance charge.

Exchange Manager Booth, of the telephone company, will address those present and will talk interestingly of telephone growth here and what his company is doing and planning to do to meet the constantly growing demand here for telephone service.

The entertainment includes motion pictures, a good comedy being in the programme and especially produced motion pictures showing the vastness of the telephone industry and an intensely interesting demonstration of actual telephone central office operation by young women of the operating force. Some amusing every day incidents of telephone happenings will be humorously portrayed by other members of the cast.

The central office operating feature of the programme will be conducted on an especially built apparatus in which switchboards are exactly duplicated, so that spectators can see the entire progress of a telephone call from one instrument to another. The purpose of the demonstration is to give users of the telephone the inside story of telephone operation.

The Junior Prom of the Putnam High school will be held at the armory this year. This is an innovation as heretofore these events have been staged in the high school auditorium. The constantly increasing attendance is the reason for the change to a larger hall.

The patronesses are Mrs. George Farquhar, Mrs. Eva Winslow, Mrs. Harry W. Thompson, Mrs. R. C. Jenkins, Mrs. E. L. Robinson, Miss Nolia Caplette, Miss Irene Bernier, Miss Sarn Tackaberry.

The members of the several committees are: Program, George Herrick, Thomas Elliott, Kermit Howe, George Farquhar, Miss Tachaberry, Miss Bernier; music, Samuel Harrison; refreshments, Helen Morse, Irene Gagne, Rachel Hurlburt, Mary Carpenter, Helen Woodin; decorations, Alta Hawkins, Jeanne Benoit, Bertha Chapman, Samuel Harrison, Lawrence Keith.

PLAINFIELD

Dorine Colburn, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Colburn, of 198 Community avenue, fell and broke her leg above the ankle while at play in the school basement Tuesday. She was a pupil in Miss Maisie Burke's room.

The Deborah Avery Putnam chapter, D. A. R., held its bi-monthly meeting at the community house Tuesday afternoon, with Miss Annie Tillinghast as hostess. The guest of honor was Mrs. Charles Bissell of Southampton, regent of Connecticut. She spoke on the patriotic work of the society and on the building of the Continental hall at Washington.

Appointments for delegate and alternate to attend the continental congress at Washington in April were made. Mrs. William Heywood was appointed delegate with the following as alternates: Mrs. Dr. W. W. Adams and Mrs. John G. Gallup of Moosup, Mrs. Clarence Adams of Danielson, Miss Annie Tillinghast of Plainfield, Mrs. Stuart Ellsworth of Central Village, Mrs. Wallace Payne of Jewett City, Mrs. Evelyn Cranska, Mrs. Alfred Hyde and Miss Gladys Tuckerman of Moosup and Miss Dorothy Atwood of Wauregan. The chapter was honored by the appointment of Miss Dorothy Atwood, by the state regent as a page, at the Continental congress, one out of four, allotted to the state.

Edward Hall and Steve Wilbur, of Plainfield, went to Easthampton, Ct., Wednesday to attend the funeral of a relative of Mr. Wilbur.

SUIT FOR $1,102,000 FILED AGAINST JOHN W. WEEKS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21—(AP)—A suit against John W. Weeks, former secretary of war, for $1,102,000 alleged to be involved in claims settled in 1921 in connection with the purchase by the United States of Austrian ships, was filed here today by Charles B. Brewer, former department of justice employe.

BILIOUS?

If you have bad taste in mouth, foul breath, furred tongue, dull headache, drowsiness, disturbed sleep, mental depression, yellow jaundiced skin—then you are bilious.

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS

quickly relieve this disorder, which is the result of liver derangement and severe digestive disturbance.

Purely vegetable. Plain or Sugar Coated. 60 YEARS' CONTINUOUS SALE PROVES THEIR MERIT.

Dr. J. H. Schenck & Son, Philadelphia.

STOP ITCHING SKIN

Zemo the Clean, Antiseptic Liquid, Gives Prompt Relief

There is one safe, dependable treatment that relieves itching torture and that cleanses and soothes the skin. Soon after the first application of Zemo you will find that irritations, Pimples, Blackheads, Eczema, Blotches, Ringworm and similar skin troubles will disappear.

Zemo is all that is needed, for it banishes most skin eruptions, makes the skin soft, smooth and healthy. It is a non-greasy, disappearing liquid that may be applied during the day. Trial bottle 35c, large size $1.00. Zemo Soap, antiseptic and healing, 25c.

ASHFORD

A number from here attended the dance held in Warrenville Saturday evening.

E. M. Grant and Sabor Kassa have filled their ice houses.

Friends here were glad to hear that Orrin Durree, who has been quite seriously ill, in the Worcester hospital, is on the gain.

Frank Greene was in West Ashford Wednesday, and purchased another cow.

Charles Frummar recently bought two heifers of Clayton Kendall, of South Ashford.

SALEM

Samuel Morgan, of Colchester, was a caller here, Wednesday.

Laurence Spencer was a caller in New London, Tuesday.

Louis Chapman and family were in North Stonington, Sunday.

Byron Ames was in Colchester, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gates were called to Springfield, Sunday, by the death of Mrs. Gates' mother. The funeral was held Tuesday morning.

Charles Kramer, of Colchester, was a recent called in town.

Arthur Holmes, of New London, was a visitor here Wednesday.

RADIO

Friday, January 22.

WJZ—NEW YORK CITY—454

6:30 p. m.—Y. M. C. A. University session.
7 p. m.—Concordia Orchestra.
7 p. m.—Financial Commentator; Bonds and Stocks.
8:15 p. m.—Canadian beauty harmony. Speakers—Dr. Hamil Howard, Robert Barden.
10:30 p. m.—Lorraine "Soft Lights."

WEAF—NEW YORK—492

7:30 p. m.—Irwin Abramson, violinist.
7:35 p. m.—Ruth Wheeler, soprano.
7:45 p. m.—"The Future of Movies."

WEAP—NEW YORK—360

6 p. m.—Dinner music.
7 p. m.—Stuyvesant Male Quartet.
7:30 p. m.—Beatrice Wickens, pianist.
7:35 p. m.—Story teller.
7:45 p. m.—Beatrice Wickens, pianist.
8 p. m.—The Happiness Boys.
8:30 p. m.—Eagle Trio.
9 p. m.—Manner Harmony Night.
9:30 p. m.—Adam Carroll, pianist; David Bernard, baritone.
10 p. m.—Chamber musical: Elvira Boni, soprano; Carl Rolling, baritone.
10:30 p. m.—International Instrumental Trio.
11-12 p. m.—Ben Bernie's orchestra.

WOR—NEW YORK—710

3:40 p. m.—Theory lessons; spirituals.
4 p. m.—Uncle Abebe.
6:30 p. m.—Peri House orchestra.
7 p. m.—"What's Your Radio Problem?"
7:30 p. m.—Dance orchestra.

WHN—NEW YORK—361

6 p. m.—Dinner music.
6:30 p. m.—Daddy Dingle.
6:45 p. m.—Dinner music.
7 p. m.—Harry Richman's Entertainers.
7:30 p. m.—Lew Brown, Sidney Claire.
8 p. m.—"Ruby Topsy Boys."
8:15 p. m.—Bernard Sharp.
8:30 p. m.—Evelyn Laske, soprano.
8:45 p. m.—June Lee, singing.
10 p. m.—Dance orchestra.
10:30 p. m.—Anatol Friedland.
12-12:30 a. m.—Dance orchestra.

WBZ—SPRINGFIELD, MASS.—333

6:30 p. m.—Little Symphony orchestra.
7:30 p. m.—Course in "Appreciation of Music."
8 p. m.—McEnelly's orchestra.
8:30 p. m.—Concert.
9 p. m.—Whatdoyoucallit Club.
10:06 p. m.—McEnelly's orchestra.

WTAG—WORCESTER—580

10:30 a. m.—Music; "Food Hints."
12:05-2 p. m.—Luncheon music.
3-5 p. m.—Tea dansant music.
7:10 p. m.—Story teller.
7:30-7:45 p. m.—Stories, Sanche Wade.
7:45 p. m.—Speech by Mrs. E. Wade.
8 p. m.—Travel talk.
8:30 p. m.—Current events.
8:45 p. m.—Concert.

WRC—WASHINGTON—469

10 a. m.—Women's hour from WJZ.
12 noon—Organ recital.
1 p. m.—Meyer Davis's orchestra.
3:30 p. m.—United States Marine Band.
4 p. m.—Lafayette Trio.

WCAP—WASHINGTON—469

6:45-7:45 a. m.—"Tower Health Exercises" from Metropolitan Tower New York City.
6-10 p. m.—Mozart String Quintet; market summaries; program from WEAF.
10-12 p. m.—Dance music.

WBAL—BALTIMORE—246

6:30 p. m.—Dance music.
7:30 p. m.—Male Quartet.
9-10 p. m.—Mandolin Club; soloists.

KDKA—PITTSBURGH—309

4:30 p. m.—Dance music.
6:15 p. m.—University address.
8 p. m.—Teaberry time.

WCAE—PITTSBURGH—461

6:30 p. m.—Dinner concert.
7:30 p. m.—Children's period.
7:45 p. m.—Address.
8:30 p. m.—Studio concert.

WAIU—COLUMBUS—294

8 p. m.—Musical concert.

WTAM—CLEVELAND—390

6 p. m.—Dinner music.

WEAR—CLEVELAND—390

7 p. m.—Auto show music.
7:30 p. m.—Children's hour; talks.
8:15 p. m.—Concert.
9 p. m.—RTL concert.
10 p. m.—Wormack's Syncopators.

WADC—AKRON, OHIO—319

6:30 p. m.—Dinner music.
8 p. m.—Studio concert.
10 p. m.—India Owls.

WJR—PONTIAC, MICH.—517

7 p. m.—Goldkette's orchestra, soloists.
7:30 p. m.—Trio concert.
8 p. m.—Musical program.

WBBO—LANSING, MICH.—286

6 p. m.—Dinner concert.

WWJ—DETROIT—353

6 p. m.—Dinner concert.
6 p. m.—Orchestra and soloists.
9 p. m.—Dance music.

WCX—DETROIT—517

9 p. m.—Studio concert.

WQJ—CHICAGO—448

11 p. m.—Orchestra.
2 a. m.—Ginger Hour.

KYW—CHICAGO—536

7 p. m.—Dinner concert.
10 p. m.—Hour of music.
11 p. m.—Midnight revue; organ solos.
2-3 a. m.—Insomnia Club.

WIP—PHILADELPHIA—508

6:45 a. m.—Setting up exercises.
1 p. m.—Luncheon music.
3 p. m.—Artist recital.
8:05 p. m.—Dinner music.
7 p. m.—Bedtime story; birthday list.

WOO—PHILADELPHIA—396

11 a. m.—Organ recital.
12 noon—Luncheon music.
2:45 p. m.—Grand organ; trumpets.
7:30 p. m.—Story teller.
7:45 p. m.—Address by Dr. Ed Strecker.
8 p. m.—WOO orchestra concert.
9 p. m.—Hohner harmony hour.
9:30 p. m.—Theater orchestra.
10 p. m.—Fife Brothers.
10:30 p. m.—Organ recital.
10:30 p. m.—Dance music.

WFO—ATLANTIC CITY—500

6:30 p. m.—News flashes; organ recital.
7 p. m.—Dinner music.
8 p. m.—Educational series.
8:15 p. m.—Novelty program.
9 p. m.—Concert orchestra.
10 p. m.—James Boys' Dance orchestra.
11 p. m.—Organ recital.

WMAK—ATLANTIC CITY—278

2 p. m.—Seaside Trio.
7:50 p. m.—Sport talk, John Budd.
8 p. m.—Seaside Trio.
11:15 p. m.—Strand organ recital.

WGY—SCHENECTADY—380

2 p. m.—Asia orchestra.
2:30 p. m.—Music; "Health Notes"; "The Code of Honor," play.
6:30 p. m.—Sunday School lesson.
7 p. m.—Dinner program.
7:30 p. m.—Health talk.
7:40 p. m.—"French by Radio."
8:15 p. m.—Tragedy, Shakespeare's "Hamlet."
10:30 p. m.—WGY orchestra; Ellsworth Page, bass.

WRW—TARRYTOWN—275

9 p. m.—Dick Tobin, pianist.
9:15 p. m.—Anthony Tassio, guitar.
9:30 p. m.—Gordon MacMunn, songs.
9:45 p. m.—WRW Trio.
10 p. m.—Sunnyside Serenaders.
10:30 p. m.—Songs.
11 p. m.—Sunnyside Entertainers.

WHK—CLEVELAND—319

6:30 p. m.—Dinner music.
7:30 p. m.—Program with West.
8:30 p. m.—Jack Little, songs.
9 p. m.—Hohner Harmony Hour.
9:30 p. m.—Melodette Ladies' orchestra.
10:30 p. m.—Hewitt Humorists.
11 p. m.—1 a. m.—Supper music.

WHAM—ROCHESTER—278

2:30 p. m.—Eastman Theater orchestra
5 p. m.—Recital.
7 p. m.—Eastman Theater orchestra.
7:20 p. m.—Weather; market report.

WJAR—PROVIDENCE—306

7:30 p. m.—Children's stories.
7:45 p. m.—Musical program.
8:30 p. m.—Speaker.
8:50 p. m.—Gorman's Jolly Hour.
9 p. m.—Hohner Harmony Hour.
11 p. m.—Dance music.

WCAC—STORRS, CONN.—275

7:20 p. m.—Music; markets.
7:30 p. m.—Poultry talk.
8 p. m.—Program of music.
10 p. m.—Dance music.

WTIC—HARTFORD—476

11:30 a. m.—Housewives' Forum.
12:05 p. m.—Luncheon music.

Bridge and Wulff
READY-TO-WEAR STORE
PUTNAM, CONN.

Dance Frocks

GET YOUR DRESSES FOR JUNIOR PROM AND OTHER DANCES HERE.

BEAUTIFUL, DAINTY, CHIC
EVENING DRESSES
in all the pretty evening shades fresh from New York $15.00 $16.75 $19.75

DANCING PUMPS
Gold and Silver Brocade, Black Satin and Patent Leather
SILK HOSIERY TO MATCH

MARK DOWN SALE
SILK and WOOL DRESSES and ALL COATS

Friday and Saturday Specials
Genuine "BEACON" BATH ROBE FLANNEL—69c
6 patterns to choose from (regular 85c)—a yard.
MEN'S and WOMEN'S SLIPPERS and MOCCASINS (regular $1.50 and $1.75)—Per Pair, $1.00

ICE SKATES
With or Without Shoes.
KEEN KUTTER
AXES
With or Without Handles.
THE HOUSEHOLD
Bulletin Bldg., 74 Franklin Street

WNAC—BOSTON—240

6:30 p. m.—Dinner concert.
8 p. m.—Medical talk.
8:15 p. m.—Musical program.
10:15 p. m.—Theater review.
10:30 p. m.—Popular program; dance music.

WEAF—BOSTON—340

10:30 a. m.—WNAC Women's Club.
12:15 p. m.—Noon service.
1 p. m.—Luncheon concert.
4 p. m.—Tea dance.
6 p. m.—Kiddies Klub.
6:30 p. m.—Dinner dance.
8 p. m.—Musical program.
10 p. m.—Dance music; vocal selections.

WBZI—BOSTON—340

2 p. m.—H. J. Broughton, talk.
2:40 p. m.—Joe Herlihy's Collegians.
6:45 p. m.—Big Brother Club.
7:30 p. m.—Four Merry Mikmen.
8 p. m.—Sager's Half Hour.
8:30 p. m.—Neapolitan Girls' Quintet.
9 p. m.—Hohner Harmony Hour.
9:30 p. m.—Carter's Incas.
10 p. m.—Orchestra; Marimba Band.

Every married woman travels under an assumed name.

Found at Last — A Real Hair Saver and Beautifier

Stops Falling Hair—Removes Every Sign of Dandruff—Makes Faded, Dry, Wispy Hair Lustrous, Soft, Fluffy and Abundant

Women Delighted—All Surprised by Quick Action of Parisian Sage

If your hair is falling out, or is faded, dry, streaked and straggly and new hair does not grow, the roots must be immediately vitalized and properly nourished.

To do this quickly, safely and most effectively, get a bottle of Parisian Sage from any druggist or toilet counter and follow the simple directions for home use.

Parisian Sage is guaranteed to quickly banish all dandruff, stop itching scalp and falling hair and stimulate new hair to grow or money refunded. It's in great demand by discriminating women because it makes the hair so soft, lustrous and easy to manage, and appear much heavier than it really is.

A massage with Parisian Sage is a real delight—easy to use, not sticky, a delightfully perfumed antiseptic liquid that does not change the hair's natural color.

If you want a clean, healthy scalp, and plenty of thick, good-looking hair, start using Parisian Sage tonight. Lee & Osgood or any drug or toilet counter will supply you and guarantee money refunded if not satisfactory.

ADVANTAGES TO USERS of Duplex-a-lites and Sol-Lux Luminaires

1—THEY SAVE EYESIGHT
Eyes do not strain and tire under the flood of comfortable, mellow light free from glare. You can read, write, sew, study or play cards without headache or that dull, burning pain back of the eyes.

2—THEY MAKE EVENINGS USEFUL AND CHEERFUL
You will not become drowsy and worn out early in the evening. Good light cheers and wakes you up.

3—THE LAMP CANNOT SHINE INTO YOUR EYES
from beneath the shade. There is no chance for glare.

4—THE ILLUMINATION BEAUTIFIES THE ROOM
No longer are there deep shadows in the corners. The soft and beautiful radiance literally "paints" the whole room, wonderfully enriching and enhancing its attractiveness.

5—THEY SATISFY PRIDE
There is a common human tendency to want to be one of the first to have something new—something that will be admired and talked about. This appeal is doubly strong when the article is beautiful in itself—and trebly strong when it is easily within one's means.

6—THEY CAN BE SEEN AND PURCHASED at
The Danielson & Plainfield Gas & Electric Co.

INTENTIONAL SECOND EXPOSURE

DANIELSON

DANIELSON PEOPLE FEEL THAT RATE WAR HAS BEGUN

(Special to The Bulletin.)

DANIELSON, Jan. 21—Another slash in the Providence-Danielson motor coach fare was made Thursday by the Interstate line operating between Providence and Hartford through this community. The rate between Danielson and Providence has been made an even dollar on this line.

Up to within a few weeks the fare between the two places was $1.50. Shortly after the New England Transportation company, subsidiary of the N. Y., N. H. and H. R. R., took over the Barrett lines between Willimantic and Providence via Danielson that corporation cut the rate to $1.15. At that time the cut was regarded as the beginning of a rate war between the Interstate and the New England lines, but the railroad people later explained that coach fares were being equalized with train fares on their various runs throughout southern New England. The $1.15 rate has stood since the early part of January.

That there is a rate war on gains additional credence through Thursday's cut by the Interstate line, which is a big operator of motor coaches on lines radiating out of Providence to various points in southern New England. It has been selling a round trip between Providence and Danielson for some time, for $2.00, but now it allows the privilege of riding one way for $1.00.

The local public looks with complacency, if not a little glee, at the situation and is now sitting back waiting for the New England lines to match the Interstate or go them one better. It is not beyond the bounds of reason to expect this to happen.

There are many who recall the days when the trolley fare between Danielson and Providence over the old P. and D. road was as low as 50 cents. It may be too much to expect that the price cutting now underway will ever bring the coach fare down to that figure, but it is within the realms of possibility. Anything can happen to price schedules when competition gets keen enough.

An angle to the situation that is not so pleasant to Danielson business interests is the effect that low transportation rates may have on trade in this community. "Just going over for the ride" says many a person who boards a coach for the Rhode Island capital, and though this may be the main incentive, there is always the likelihood of one's buying something that otherwise might have been bought at home on such a trip.

However, Danielson's business interests have survived much competition and likely will continue to do so.

As to coach fares, one can ride from Providence to Hartford via Danielson under the new rates for $3.25, the distance about 73 miles. Round trip tickets between the cities mentioned are available on one line for $6.00.

Traffic on the east and west coach lines is not at its heavy these winter days, but it is growing steadily and great development is looked for during the course of the year.

It is no reckless prophecy to say that a few old-fashioned dances such as was held at the armory Wednesday evening, with Uncle Joe Shippee and his orchestra furnishing the music, would make money in Danielson for the promoters. Those who danced the old dances and those who sat and watched them dance seemed to be having more real fun than has been had at a dance here or hereabouts in a blue moon. It is often said as a matter of time-worn form that "a good time was had by all." Well, that could be said in all truth about Wednesday night's dance at the armory. People came from far and near. Old-timers proved to themselves and to all who watched them that they are rather nimble yet and capable of having a rousing good time if the occasion presents itself. There was all the vim and snap of years gone by in the manner in which many who have not danced for years danced at the armory. It was good, too, to witness the revival of many of the pretty dances of other days. People danced at the armory Wednesday night who have not danced in Danielson before in a score of years. The affair was a real treat to them. Many of the young people present seemed to be getting as much fun out of the affair as they do at a modern hop and while they might not like the old dances as a regular thing to replace the new they found evidence that papa and mamma must have had a fairly good time at dances when they were young.

The armory dance attracted an unusually large attendance. "Uncle" Joe Shippee was a great drawing card and was splendidly received.

"We have just received a telephone call from North Sterling, Conn., telling us that there is a black bear at large in the vicinity of that place, that hunters are searching for it and that numbers of people over that way are fearful of encountering the bear and want to know if it would be apt to attack anyone."

So said a radio announcer at WBZ, Springfield, Wednesday evening during the course of a weekly nature talk.

The naturalist assured those listening in that there is no danger that the bear will attack anyone. "As I have said a number of times, a human being is the last thing that a bear will interfere with. He does not seek man's acquaintance and will go his way if left unmolested. A bear will not fight a person unless he is cornered."

Continuing he said "I trust the hunters do not get this bear. His presence will add interest to the woodlands where he roams and I hope no harm befalls this humorist of the forest."

So all may be reassured against being attacked by the bear. Those in this territory who happened to be listening to the nature talk, dealing with animals, birds, fish and their habits were given an interesting surprise by the discussion of the North Sterling bear. It added a special bit of zest to an otherwise highly interesting lecture.

This year's chronological calendars, issued annually by The Bulletin, for Danielson, have a good likeness of Old Trinity church, Brooklyn, as a special feature. This church, erected in 1771, is the oldest Episcopal church standing in Connecticut. It stands in what in the old days was known as Kingswood Manor, and is of great historical interest. The church is kept in good repair and services are held there each year on All Saints day and occasionally at irregular times, as occasion may demand, at other times in the year.

From the home of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Cobb, in Goodyear, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock the funeral of Vincent W. Cobb, age 2 years, was held. Burial was at St. Joseph's cemetery in Dayville. L. E. Kennedy was in charge of the funeral arrangements. The child died as the result of a fractured skull sustained in a fall at its home last Sunday.

A special town meeting attended by a corporal's guard of citizens was held in the town hall Thursday afternoon at 1:30, for the purpose of approving an agreement between members of a special committee of the town having in charge the plans for building additions to the high school and Moses H. Berthiaume, Jr. The meeting was relative to property lines between the high school and Berthiaume properties acted favorably on the proposal and validated officially for the town the agreement entered into.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Call left Thursday for their annual visit in the south. They are to be at White Springs, Fla., for three months.

Members of the Roundabout club are to meet with Mrs. Mabel Leavens, Main street, next Monday afternoon.

Michael Cronin, who has been ill at his home on Academy street for several days, was reported considerably improved on Thursday.

Dana Shippee, of East Killingly, is a good fox hunter and not a bad shot. This winter he has shot at eight foxes and killed eight foxes—a 100 per cent record.

W. Irving Bullard of Boston was in Danielson Thursday on a business trip.

Friends here have received word of the marriage at St. Cloud, Fla., of Mrs. Charles A. Potter, a resident here during the greater part of they ear.

Louis A. Tendler of Fall River visited with friends in Danielson on Thursday.

Rev. Leonard R. Richards addressed the members of Sarah Williams Danielson chapter, D. A. R., Thursday afternoon, at a meeting at the home of Mrs. E. H. Keach. The hostesses were Mrs. E. H. Keach, Mrs. Simeon Danielson, Mrs. H. L. Paine, Miss Helen Perkins, Miss Ada Danielson, Mrs. H. M. Blanchard.

Rumor has it that the New Haven road will withdraw all motor parking privileges at the railroad station, excluding even public service cars that now have rented space there.

Aerial mail service between Boston and New York, the route over Danielson, will begin in April.

A. P. Woodward was in Boston Thursday on a business trip.

Tenement on Riverview to rent; also Ford coupe for sale. Christopher Andrews.—Adv.

Continued warm weather during Thursday was responsible for mud conditions being so bad on numbers of country highways as to make them practically impassable for motor cars.

Mrs. P. C. Bliven, of South Killingly was injured, her shoulder being dislocated, when she slipped and fell on the ice.

With the coming of February, Killingly's board of relief will begin its sessions, these extending through the greater part of the month.

The Danielson basketball team will play at Baltic this evening. A number of fans will go along with the team.

South Killingly and Brooklyn have at last broken into the timetables of the N. Y., N. H. and H. R. company. The new issue lists them in the time schedule of motor coaches operated by the N. E. Transportation company on the Providence-Danielson-Willimantic route.

ASHFORD

A number from here attended the dance held in Warrenville Saturday evening.

E. M. Grant and Sabor Kassa have filled their ice houses.

Friends here were glad to hear that Orrin Durree, who has been quite seriously ill, in the Worcester hospital, is on the gain.

Frank Greene was in West Ashford Wednesday, and purchased another cow.

Charles Frummar recently bought two heifers of Clayton Kendall, of South Ashford.

SALEM

Samuel Morgan, of Colchester, was a caller here, Wednesday.

Laurence Spencer was a caller in New London, Tuesday.

Louis Chapman and family were in North Stonington, Sunday.

Byron Ames was in Colchester Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gates were called to Springfield, Sunday, by the death of Mrs. Gates' mother. The funeral was held Tuesday morning.

Charles Kramer, of Colchester, was a recent called in town.

Arthur Holmes, of New London, was a visitor here Wednesday.

Keep Slim

To keep love

All ideas of charm and beauty include slenderness today. A woman who carries excess fat does herself injustice.

Millions have learned an easy way to reduction. No abnormal exercise or diet is required. Just take a Marmola Prescription Tablet four times daily.

Marmola has been used for 18 years. You can see its results in every circle now. Users have told its results until people now are using a million boxes yearly.

This method is quick and pleasant. It is scientific. There are no secrets about it. Our latest book tells every ingredient used. It is so reasonable that every user is now offered a refund guarantee.

The reduction is gradual—not over a pound a day. So the body adjusts itself to the new conditions.

Every person who suffers overweight should learn what Marmola does. A way so widely used, so long used, deserves a test. Let it do for you what it is doing for people all about you.

Marmola Prescription Tablets are sold by all druggists at $1 per box. Read this coupon for our latest book. A 25-ct. sample free, and free guarantee. Clip it now.

The Pleasant Way to Reduce

MARMOLA 3-235 General Motors Bldg. DETROIT, MICH.

Mail for 25c Sample Free

The Farmers' Cooperative

NEW GRAIN STORE

AT PLAINFIELD

WILL OPEN FOR BUSINESS EVERY WEEK DAY, FROM 7 A. M. TO 6 P. M., STARTING SATURDAY, JAN. 16.

WE HANDLE ONLY FIRST CLASS FEEDS AT THE LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICES. WELCOME!

LOCATED AT NORTH PLAINFIELD NEAR THE CEMETERY.

PUTNAM

PUTNAM INTERESTED IN GILPATRIC'S LETTER

(Special to The Bulletin.)

PUTNAM, Jan. 21—The announcement in this morning's Bulletin that J. Harold Gilpatric, writing from the federal prison to Judge Arthur E. Howard, of Hartford, trustee of his bankrupt estate, said that he was willing to tell all that he knew about, and to help in untangling the affairs of the First National bank of this city, and in tracing the purchase of certain Liberty bonds held by the state, was read with eagerness and satisfaction. Newspapers at the state capital for the past three days had been severely criticising him for what they declared was his persistent refusal to aid in this investigation, and were also blaming Walter H. Gilpatric, his brother as well as his attorney, for advising him to pursue this course. Gilpatric's letter was written before these criticisms appeared. It was transmitted to Judge Howard by Walter Gilpatric who said that he agreed with his brother, the former state treasurer, in pursuing such a policy, and that he would cooperate in any way that he could.

Two days after the closing of the First National bank the family of G. H. Gilpatric, on the advice and with the help of Walter Gilpatric, turned over to the receiver of the bank all the property that he possessed, including everything that Mrs. Irene Gilpatric, the wife, owned in her own name. It is not believed here in Putnam that a single dollar was retained whether it was the property of G. H. Gilpatric or Mrs. Gilpatric.

In view of this letter it is now believed certain that Gilpatric will be brought to Hartford to assist in the investigation of the state treasury accounts. Assistant District Attorney George E. Cohen says that he will not oppose an application for a writ of habeas corpus to permit his being brought from Atlanta to Connecticut.

Attorney J. F. Carpenter, of this city, who represents a majority of the creditors, and to whose efforts are due the revealing of many important transactions, thinks that Gilpatric's return should be deferred at least a month. That amount of time is necessary, he said, to allow lawyers and accountants, to make preparations.

Gilpatric's letter to Judge Howard the first personal statement from the former bank cashier and former state treasurer, that has appeared since his attempt upon his life, is of peculiar interest to Putnam people. He says under date of January 12:

"My dear Sir: In reply to your letter of recent date, relative to your sending a representative to talk over my bankrupt estate, would say that I would be willing to give any assistance that I can.

"I note your reference to the statement made to those interested, as to my willingness to cooperate in the settlement of my affairs. The newspaper articles, purporting to come from your office, have not always suggested that such was my attitude, in fact it was only recently that 'The Courant', while not quoting you, stated that I had at last consented to answer certain questions, and had broken my silence, showing a disposition to assist. Now do not misunderstand me, Mr. Howard. I am not at all sore or aggrieved at any treatment that I have received for I fully realize that there is no one but myself to blame for my present condition, and I do not hold any bitterness against anyone but G. Harold Gilpatric, for if he had done as he should he would not have been subject to any of the criticism and punishment that he has received. But I have really been surprised that I have not been consulted more frequently in regard to the various claims filed against my estate, and have not been asked to approve or revise the list of assets held by you as purporting to be a part of my estate. I do feel that I have been misunderstood in regard to the publicity matter, or, as the newspapers choose to name it, my prolonged silence. I have not wanted to inject myself on record as being willing to cooperate both with your office and the receiver of the bank in any way that I could, and have really had a desire to help rather than hinder, with the result that I feel that any misunderstandings, or unlawful claims or unexplained transactions, where I have not been consulted, are the fault or others rather than myself.

"I must ask you to address my brother, Walter H. Gilpatric, Woolworth Building, New York city, relative to your representative calling to see me. I feel sure that he will have no objection to our course of action, but because of my blinded condition, I promised that I would not sign any papers without first submitting them to him for his approval. I wish it might be you, yourself, who was coming here to question me, as I feel, through our mutual friend, Ernest C. Morse, that I know you. He speaks in the highest terms of you in all his letters to me, and I want you to understand my position in making the above statements. You must appreciate that I feel rather helpless in my present blind condition, and hope you will forgive me if I appear to have an undue amount of apprehension as to newspaper publicity.

Yours respectfully,
G. HAROLD GILPATRIC.

J. Eugene Taylor, who died suddenly at Richmond, Virginia, yesterday, and whose body will be brought here for burial, is the son of the late George ("Whistling") Taylor, and a brother of William H. Taylor. The latter, whose death occurred a few years ago, was known throughout the state by reason of his persistent reminders in the way of postcards and other souvenirs to "Keep your memory green."

"Gene" Taylor was in Putnam on Armistice day when the Memorial bridge was dedicated and while here made arrangements about the care of the graves of his father and brother. He looked to be in excellent health and evidently had little thought that his own death was so near.

He was born in Putnam and spent the first half of his life here. For several years he was engaged in the hardware business in the block where the A. Gilman & Co. store is now located. His first wife was Alice M. Morse, daughter of George Milton Morse, one of the pioneers in the cotton mill industry in this section.

The farmhouse and furniture of Thomas Krevoic, of Thompson, were destroyed by fire Wednesday afternoon. The building was located one mile west of North Grosvenordale. Mrs. Krevoic and the children were at home when the fire was discovered but Mr. Krevoic was at work at the Grosvenordale mill. By the time that the alarm had spread and the neighbors reached the spot the fire had gained such headway that it was impossible to check it, or to save anything but a few articles of clothing. An attempt to salvage some of the furniture had to be abandoned. The fire is said to have started from an overheated chimney. Loss is estimated at from $4,000 to $5,000; partially insured.

Mrs. Frank D. Thayer had the high-est score at the meeting of the East and West club, which met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. H. L. Pease, on Fremont street. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. William Richardson.

The annual Missionary tea of the Second Congregational church was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Silas M. Wheelock, on Church street. There was an address of welcome by Mrs. Henry J. Thayer, president of the Missionary society, and an outline of plans for the coming year given by Mrs. James F. English, chairman of the programme committee. A feature of the afternoon was a vocal duet by Mrs. Walter E. Wheaton and Miss Alice Stevens.

The committee in charge of the affair consisted of Mrs. Howard Shirrefs, chairman; Mrs. Herman Willey, Mrs. Herbert J. Smith, Mrs. Karl T. Phillips, Mrs. Joseph Michel, Miss Elizabeth Wheelock, Miss Dorcas Bartlett and Miss Ruth Morrison.

Something new and novel in instruc-tive entertainment will be given in the Putnam High school auditorium on Monday, January 25, and Tuesday, January 26, under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce, when an intimate insight will be given a large audience into the operation of a telephone switchboard. The demonstration is given by use of a real switchboard manned by train operators, and is arranged by the Chamber of Commerce with the cooperation of the telephone company.

The general public is cordially invited to attend. There is no admittance charge.

Exchange Manager Booth, of the telephone company, will address those present and will talk interestingly of telephone growth here and what his company is doing and planning to do to meet the constantly growing demand here for telephone service.

The entertainment includes motion pictures, a good comedy being in the programme and especially produced motion pictures showing the vastness of the telephone industry and an intensely interesting demonstration of actual telephone central office operation by young women of the operating force. Some amusing every day incidents of telephone happenings will be humorously portrayed by other members of the cast.

The central office operating feature of the programme will be conducted on an especially built apparatus in which switchboards are exactly duplicated, so that spectators can see the entire progress of a telephone call from one instrument to another. The purpose of the demonstration is to give users of the telephone the inside story of telephone operation.

The Junior Prom of the Putnam High school will be held at the armory this year. This is an innovation as heretofore these events have been staged in the high school auditorium. The constantly increasing attendance is the reason for the change to a larger hall.

The patronesses are Mrs. George Farquhar, Mrs. Eva Winslow, Mrs. Harry W. Thompson, Mrs. R. C. Jenkins, Mrs. E. L. Robinson, Miss Nolin Caplette, Miss Irene Bernier, Miss Sara Tackaberry.

The members of the several committees are: Program, George Herrick, Thomas Elliott, Kermit Howe, George Farquhar, Miss Tachaberry, Miss Bernier; music, Samuel Harrison; refreshments, Helen Morse, Irene Gagne, Ithchel Hurlburt, Mary Carpenter, Helen Woodis; decorations, Alta Hawkins, Jeanne Benoit, Bertha Chapman, Samuel Harrison, Lawrence Keith.

PLAINFIELD

Lorine Colburn, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Colburn, of 198 Community avenue, fell and broke her leg above the ankle while at play in the school basement Tuesday. She was a pupil in Miss Maisie Burke's room.

The Deborah Avery Putnam chapter, D. A. R., held its bi-monthly meeting at the community house Tuesday afternoon, with Miss Annie Tillinghast as hostess. The guest of honor was Mrs. Charles Bissell of Southampton, regent of Connecticut. She spoke on the patriotic work of the society and on the building of the Continental hall at Washington.

Appointments for delegate and alternate to attend the continental congress at Washington in April were made. Mrs. William Heywood was appointed delegate with the following as alternates: Mrs. Dr. W. W. Adams and Mrs. John C. Gallup of Moosup, Mrs. Clarence Adams of Danielson, Miss Annie Tillinghast of Plainfield, Mrs. Stuart Ellsworth of Central Village, Mrs. Wallace Payne of Jewett City, Mrs. Evelyn Cranska, Mrs. Alfred Hyde and Miss Gladys Tuckerman of Moosup and Miss Dorothy Atwood of Wauregan. The chapter was honored by the appointment of Miss Dorothy Atwood, by the state regent, as a page, at the Continental congress, one out of four, allotted to the state.

Edward Hall and Steve Wilbur, of Plainfield, went to Easthampton, Ct., Wednesday to attend the funeral of a relative of Mr. Wilbur.

SUIT FOR $1,102,000 FILED AGAINST JOHN W. WEEKS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21—(AP)—A suit against John W. Weeks, former secretary of war, for $1,102,000 alleged to be involved in claims settled in 1921 in connection with the purchase by the United States of Austrian ships, was filed here today by Charles B. Brewer, former department of justice employe.

STOP ITCHING SKIN

Zemo the Clean, Antiseptic Liquid, Gives Prompt Relief

There is one safe, dependable treatment that relieves itching torture and that cleanses and soothes the skin. Soon after the first application of Zemo you will find that irritations, Pimples, Blackheads, Eczema, Blotches, Ringworm and similar skin troubles will disappear.

Zemo is all that is needed, for it banishes most skin eruptions, makes the skin soft, smooth and healthy. It is a non-greasy, disappearing liquid that may be applied during the day. Trial bottle 35c, large size $1.00. Zemo Soap, antiseptic and healing, 25c.

BILIOUS?

If you have bad taste in mouth, foul breath, furred tongue, dull headache, drowsiness, disturbed sleep, mental depression, yellowish skin—then you are bilious.

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS

quickly relieve this disorder, which is the result of liver derangement and severe digestive disturbance.

Purely vegetable. Plain or Sugar Coated. 60 YEARS' CONTINUOUS SALE PROVES THEIR MERIT.

Dr. J. H. Schenck & Son, Philadelphia.

RADIO

Friday, January 22.

WJZ—NEW YORK, CITY—455

6:30 p. m.—N. Y. University course.
7 p. m.—Commodore orchestra.
8 p. m.—Sundial Serenaders; Bonnie Laddies.
9:30 p. m.—Canadian society banquet. Speakers—Sir Esmé Howard, Robert Borden.
10:30 p. m.—Lorraine Grill orchestra.

WJY—NEW YORK—405

7:30 p. m.—Irwin Abrams's orchestra.
8:30 p. m.—Ruth Wagner, soprano.
8:45 p. m.—"The Future of Museums."

WEAF—NEW YORK—492

6 p. m.—Dinner music.
7 p. m.—Stuyvesant Male Quartet.
7:25 p. m.—Beatrice Wickens, pianist.
7:30 p. m.—Story teller.
7:45 p. m.—Beatrice Wickens, pianist.
8 p. m.—The Happiness Boys.
8:30 p. m.—Eagle Trio.
9 p. m.—"Hohner Harmony Hour."
9:30 p. m.—Adam Carroll, pianist; David Bernard, banjoist.
10 p. m.—Chamber musicale—Elvira Boni, soprano; Carl Rollins, baritone.
10:30 p. m.—International Instrumental Trio.
11-12 p. m.—Bon Bernie's orchestra.

WGBS—NEW YORK—316

3:40 p. m.—Theory lessons; spirituals.
6 p. m.—Uncle Geebee.
6:30 p. m.—Peri House orchestra.
7 p. m.—"What's Your Radio Problem?"
7:30 p. m.—Dance orchestra.

WHN—NEW YORK—361

6 p. m.—Dinner music.
6:30 p. m.—Daddy Dingle.
6:45 p. m.—Dinner music.
7 p. m.—Harry Richman's Entertainers.
7:30 p. m.—Lew Brown, Sidney Claire.
8 p. m.—"Hotsy Totsy Boys."
8:15 p. m.—Bernard Share.
8:30 p. m.—Evelyn Lasks, soprano.
8:45 p. m.—June Lee, singing.
10 p. m.—Dance orchestra.
10:30 p. m.—Anatol Friedland.
12-12.30 a. m.—Dance orchestra.

WBZ—SPRINGFIELD, MASS.—333

6:30 p. m.—Little Symphony orchestra.
7:30 p. m.—Course in "Appreciation of Music."
8 p. m.—McEnelly's orchestra.
8:30 p. m.—Concert.
9 p. m.—"Whatdoyoucallit Club."
10:05 p. m.—McEnelly's orchestra.

WTAG—WORCESTER—268

10:30 a. m.—Music; "Food Hints."
12:05-2 p. m.—Luncheon music.
3-5 p. m.—Tea dansant music.
7:10 p. m.—Story teller.
7:30-7:45 p. m.—Stories, Blanche Wade.
7:45 p. m.—Speech by Meta B. Wade.
8 p. m.—Travel talk.
8:30 p. m.—Current events.
8:45 p. m.—Concert.

WRC—WASHINGTON—469

10 a. m.—Women's hour from WJZ.
12 noon—Organ recital.
1 p. m.—Meyer Davis's orchestra.
3:30 p. m.—United States Marine Band.
4 p. m.—Lafayette Trio.

WCAP—WASHINGTON—469

6:45-7:45 a. m.—"Tower Health Exercises" from Metropolitan Tower, New York City.
6-10 p. m.—Mozart String Quintet; market summaries; program from WEAF.
10-12 p. m.—Dance music.

WRAL—BALTIMORE—246

6:30 p. m.—Dance music.
7:30 p. m.—Male Quartet.
9-10 p. m.—Mandolin Club; soloists.

KDKA—PITTSBURGH—309

6:30 p. m.—Dance music.
8:15 p. m.—University address.
9 p. m.—Pesaro Band.

WCAE—PITTSBURGH—461

6:30 p. m.—Dinner concert.
7:30 p. m.—Children's period.
7:45 p. m.—Address.
8:30 p. m.—Studio concert.

WAIU—COLUMBUS—294

8 p. m.—Musical concert.

WTAM—CLEVELAND—390

6 p. m.—Dinner music.

WEAR—CLEVELAND—390

7 p. m.—Auto show music.
7:30 p. m.—Children's hour; talks.
8:15 p. m.—Studio concert.
9 p. m.—RTL concert.
10 p. m.—Wormack's Syncopators.

WADC—AKRON, OHIO—275

6:30 p. m.—Dinner music.
8 p. m.—Studio concert.
10 p. m.—India Owls.

WJR—PONTIAC, MICH.—517

7 p. m.—Goldkette's orchestra, soloists.
7:30 p. m.—Trio concert.
8 p. m.—Musical program.

WREO—LANSING, MICH.—286

6 p. m.—Dinner concert.

WWJ—DETROIT—353

6 p. m.—Dinner concert.
8 p. m.—Orchestra and soloists.
9 p. m.—Dance music.

WCX—DETROIT—517

9 p. m.—Studio concert.

WQJ—CHICAGO—448

11 p. m.—Orchestra.
2 a. m.—Ginger Hour.

KYW—CHICAGO—536

7 p. m.—Dinner concert.
10 p. m.—Hour of music.
11 p. m.—Midnight revue; organ solos.
2-3 a. m.—Insomnia Club.

WIP—PHILADELPHIA—508

6:45 a. m.—Setting up exercises.
1 p. m.—Luncheon music.
3 p. m.—Artist recital.
8:05 p. m.—Dinner music.
7 p. m.—Bedtime story; birthday list.

WOO—PHILADELPHIA—396

11 a. m.—Organ recital.
12 noon—Luncheon music.
4:45 p. m.—Grand organ; trumpets.
7:30 p. m.—Story teller.
7:45 p. m.—Address by Dr. Ed Strecker.
8 p. m.—WOO orchestra concert.
9 p. m.—Hohner harmony hour.
9:30 p. m.—Theater orchestra.
10 p. m.—Fife Brothers.
10:20 p. m.—Organ recital.
10:30 p. m.—Dance music.

WFI—ATLANTIC CITY—396

6:30 p. m.—News flashes; organ recital.
7 p. m.—Dinner music.
8 p. m.—Educational series.
8:15 p. m.—Novelty program.
9 p. m.—Concert orchestra.
10 p. m.—James Boys' Dance orchestra.
11 p. m.—Organ recital.

WHAR—ATLANTIC CITY—275

2 p. m.—Seaside Trio.
7:30 p. m.—Sport talk, John Budd.
8 p. m.—Seaside Trio.
11:15 p. m.—Strand organ recital.

WOY—SCHENECTADY—380

2 p. m.—Asta orchestra.
3:30 p. m.—Music; "Health Notes;" "The Code of Honor," play.
6:30 p. m.—Sunday School lesson.
7 p. m.—Dinner program.
7:30 p. m.—Health talk.
7:40 p. m.—"French by Radio."
8:15 p. m.—Tragedy, Shakespeare's "Hamlet."
10:30 p. m.—WGY orchestra; Ellsworth Page, bass.

WRW—TARRYTOWN—273

9 p. m.—Dick Tobin, pianist.
9:15 p. m.—Anthony Tassio, guitar.
9:20 p. m.—Gordon MacMunn, songs.
9:45 p. m.—WRW Trio.
10 p. m.—Sunnyside Serenaders.
10:30 p. m.—Songs.
11 p. m.—Sunnyside Entertainers.

WGR—BUFFALO—319

6:30 p. m.—Dinner music.
7:30 p. m.—Program with West.
8:20 p. m.—Jack Little, songs.
9 p. m.—Hohner Harmony Hour.
9:30 p. m.—Melodette Ladies' orchestra.
10:30 p. m.—Hewitt Humorists.
11 p. m.-1 a. m.—Supper music.

WHAM—ROCHESTER—278

3:30 p. m.—Eastman Theater orchestra
5 p. m.—Recital.
7 p. m.—Eastman Theater orchestra.
7:30 p. m.—Weather; market report.

WJAR—PROVIDENCE—306

7:30 p. m.—Children's stories.
7:45 p. m.—Musical program.
8:20 p. m.—Speaker.
8:30 p. m.—"Gorman's Jolly Hour."
9 p. m.—Hohner Harmony Hour.
11 p. m.—Dance music.

WCAC—STORRS, CONN.—275

7:20 p. m.—Music; markets.
7:30 p. m.—Poultry talk.
8 p. m.—Program of music.
10 p. m.—Dance music.

WTIC—HARTFORD—476

11:30 a. m.—Housewives' Forum.
12:05 p. m.—Luncheon music.

Bugbee and Wulf DEPARTMENT STORE

PUTNAM, CONN.

Dance Frocks

GET YOUR DRESSES FOR

JUNIOR PROM

AND OTHER DANCES HERE.

BEAUTIFUL, DAINTY, CHIC

EVENING DRESSES

in all the pretty evening shades fresh from New York

$15.00 $16.75 $19.75

DANCING PUMPS

Gold and Silver Brocade, Black Satin and Patent Leather

SILK HOSIERY TO MATCH

MARK DOWN SALE

SILK and WOOL DRESSES and ALL COATS

Friday and Saturday Specials

Genuine "BEACON" BATH ROBE FLANNEL—6 patterns to choose from (regular 85c)—a yard.. 69c

MEN'S and WOMEN'S SLIPPERS and MOCCASINS (regular $1.50 and $1.75)—Per Pair. $1.00

ICE SKATES

With or Without Shoes.

KEEN KUTTER

AXES

With or Without Handles.

THE HOUSEHOLD

Bulletin Bldg., 74 Franklin Street

WNAC—BOSTON—230

6:30 p. m.—Dinner concert.
8 p. m.—Medical talk.
8:15 p. m.—Musical program.
10:15 p. m.—Theater review.
10:30 p. m.—Popular program; dance music.

WNAC—BOSTON—230

10:20 a. m.—WNAC Women's Club.
12:15 p. m.—Noon service.
1 p. m.—Luncheon concert.
4 p. m.—Tea dance.
6 p. m.—Kiddies Klub.
6:20 p. m.—Dinner dance.
8 p. m.—Musical program.
10 p. m.—Dance music; vocal selections.

—WEEI—BOSTON—349

2 p. m.—H. J. Broughton, talk.
3:40 p. m.—Joe Herlihy's Collegians.
6:45 p. m.—Big Brother Club.
7:30 p. m.—Four Merry Milkmen.
8 p. m.—Sager's Half Hour.
8:30 p. m.—Neapolitan Girls' Quintet.
9 p. m.—Hohner Harmony Hour.
9:30 p. m.—Carter's Incas.
10 p. m.—Orchestra; Marimba Band.

Every married woman travels under an assumed name.

Found at Last — A Real Hair Saver and Beautifier

Stops Falling Hair—Removes Every Sign of Dandruff—Makes Faded, Dry, Wispy Hair Lustrous, Soft, Fluffy and Abundant

Women Delighted—All Surprised by Quick Action of Parisian Sage

If your hair is falling out, or is faded, dry, streaked and scraggly and new hair does not grow, the roots must be immediately vitalized and properly nourished.

To do this quickly, safely and most effectively, get a bottle of Parisian Sage from any druggist or toilet counter and follow the simple directions for home use.

Parisian Sage is guaranteed to quickly banish all dandruff, stop itching scalp and falling hair and stimulate new hair to grow or money refunded. It's in great demand by discriminating women because it makes the hair so soft, lustrous and easy to manage, and appear much heavier than it really is.

A massage with Parisian Sage is a real delight—easy to use, not sticky, a delightfully perfumed antiseptic liquid that does not change the hair's natural color.

If you want a clean, healthy scalp, and plenty of thick, good-looking hair, start using Parisian Sage tonight. Lee & Osgood or any drug or toilet counter will supply you and guarantee money refunded if not satisfactory.

ADVANTAGES TO USERS of Duplex-a-lites and Sol-Lux Luminaires

1—THEY SAVE EYESIGHT
Eyes do not strain and tire under the flood of comfortable, mellow light free from glare. You can read, write, sew, study or play cards without headache or that dull, burning pain back of the eyes.

2—THEY MAKE EVENINGS USEFUL AND CHEERFUL
You will not become drowsy and worn out early in the evening. Good light cheers and wakes you up.

3—THE LAMP CANNOT SHINE INTO YOUR EYES
from beneath the shade. There is no chance for glare.

4—THE ILLUMINATION BEAUTIFIES THE ROOM
No longer are there deep shadows in the corners. The soft and beautiful radiance literally "paints" the whole room, wonderfully enriching and enhancing its attractiveness.

5—THEY SATISFY PRIDE
There is a common human tendency to want to be one of the first to have something new—something that will be admired and talked about. This appeal is doubly strong when the article is beautiful in itself—and trebly strong when it is easily within one's means.

6—THEY CAN BE SEEN AND PURCHASED at

The Danielson & Plainfield Gas & Electric Co.

1791 1926

Norwich Bulletin and Courier

130 YEARS OLD

Printed every day in the year except Sunday.

Subscription price 15c a week; 65c a month; $6.00 a year.

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich Conn. as second-class matter.

Telephone Calls:

Bulletin Business Office, 486.
Bulletin Editorial Rooms, 35-2.
Bulletin Job Room, 35-3.

Willimantic Office, 854 Main St. Telephone 1121-2.

Norwich, Friday, Jan. 22, 1926

Member of The Associated Press

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

All rights of republication of special despatches herein are also reserved.

Daily Average Circulation
WEEK ENDING JAN. 16, 1926:
12,720

A DANGEROUS PRACTICE

During the winter season if there is any work to be done about an automobile it is much more comfortable to do it under cover than it is out in the open. This is true whether it requires the running of the engine or not. Even those who are not using their cars during the winter like to start up the engines occasionally for the purpose of keeping the batteries up where they belong. The natural inclination is to go ahead and do it under the most comfortable conditions, and it is in so doing that too many are not disposed to recognize the danger that is involved. They are unmindful of the monster hiding as if behind a curtain and ready to jump out and kill.

The running of a car in a closed garage provides no chance for the engine exhaust to escape. In a short time and without realizing it the oxygen in the air is depleted and the deadly monoxide gas begins to get in its work. Before it is realized unconsciousness comes and under such conditions death is not far away.

Many are the instances where persons have been found dead, sitting in their machines in their garages with the engines running or lying on the floor where they have been stricken in apparent efforts to get to the door. They have unintentionally created conditions which ended their lives by running their cars in closed garages, all of which would have been overcome had they taken the precaution to have left the door open, or provided for good ventilation.

Under no circumstances should automobile engines be run in closed garages. The necessity of plenty of air for overcoming the effect of the poisonous gas needs to be taken into consideration before it is too late. No one who has ever had a narrow escape will have to be told a second time to be careful, but the warning cannot be too well understood for the prevention of fatal results. Even though there is no secret about the danger there continues to be too many close calls and too many instances where quick death has been the penalty.

STEAM LINE, OR HIGHWAY?

Even though it may do so reluctantly, there are times when Rhode Island seems to realize that there are no chances that the railroad from Palmer to Providence will ever be built. From time to time the legislature of the state to the east has extended the charter of the Southern New England road. This has been done without any sacrifice on the part of the state and for the purpose of getting the extension if by any chance there were changes in conditions which might warrant it. A large sum of money has already been spent in establishing grades and doing preliminary work, but under present conditions there is no reason to expect that it will be accompanied by more.

Some idea of the view taken concerning the possibilities of building the road is furnished by suggestions which have been made in Providence for the taking over of a part of the proposed line in that city for the purpose of developing it for vehicular traffic and thus provide some relief for highway congestion.

The mere suggestion of such a change neither means that it will be adopted nor that the building of the railroad has been abandoned but it seems quite certain that there would be no such talk if there was any possibility of the railroad being constructed.

In these days not much new rail construction is being done, and it isn't as if the Canadian railway system didn't have an outlet in southern New England. With the line in its control already crossing New Egland and terminating at a sound port much closer to New York and available to ocean steamships the logical step for the road is to put its money into the improvement of what it has instead of seeking another outlet.

When it gets so that layouts for proposed railroads or the existing lines of trolleys over private property are being discussed for highway purposes it is pretty good evidence as to what can be expected in the march of progress.

A SCRANTON STRIKE VIEW

Conditions in the coal regions are not what can be regarded as satisfactory. But it is not the miners alone who are feeling the effects of the five months standstill in the coal industry. They are suffering from depleted funds, from lack of food, clothing and even fuel, but they are not the only ones who are experiencing hardships from their refusal to work.

Some idea as to what the conditions are and what the feeling is regarding the strike in the coal region is to be gained from a statement which has been issued by the Scranton Advertising club, in which it says: "Our anthracite strike is a most colossal and disastrous failure. Both sides have been defeated and with them the whole 1,500,000 people of the anthracite producing regions. We've all been defeated by the $0,000,000 consumers of anthracite coal whose fighting spirit has been aroused by what has seemed to them a series of holdups in the strikes in quick succession which have boosted so high the cost of their winter fuel. Don't let us delude ourselves any longer. The operators have lost; the miners have lost, the whole people of the anthracite region have lost most cruelly, and every day the loss grows greater. It's a bitter pill for us to swallow, but we might as well take our medicine now. We might as well face the brutal truth."

That doesn't look as if there was a desire for the continuance of the strike for the week, month or year, if necessary, as called for by Mr. Lewis of the miners. It gives recognition to the fact that the consumers have entered on a strike for themselves and instead of getting red in the face over the lack of anthracite are turning to the use of substitutes and in a great many instances will continue to use them regardless as to what is done in the anthracite fields. Heretofore the consuming public has been relied upon to bring pressure to bear that would have its effect upon the strike but this time the consumers have been devoting their attention to their own welfare. They have grown sick of being the goat all the time.

PAROLE BOARD UNPOPULAR

On various occasions the acts of the parole board in the state of New York have directed attention to the apparent disregard for the welfare of the public which existed within that organization. Seemingly all that is necessary is to place a petition before the board in order to get a favorable result. Possibly a certain amount of pull is expected to go with it but when cases are acted upon with little or no investigation, and when men who have been indicted for murder in cases for which they have never stood trial are released on parole before the minimum period of their sentence on other charges has been served, there can be no surprise there is outspoken indignation.

Such action indicates that is the desires of the individual rather than the interests of the public that is the guiding influence. A change made in the board only a few months ago was pointed to as all that was required to effect the needed reform, but the recent release of a prisoner, who had sought parole, regardless of his record and with no investigation of a grand jury indictment that was made against him for murder, has prompted a demand for the abolition of the parole board.

The record of the board has been such as to condemn it. Whatever the conditions may be in dealing with criminals by those outside of the parole board, there will be no weeping and gnashing of teeth if and when it disappears. Likewise due consideration for board actions when duties are shifted to other shoulders.

GOVERNMENT BUILDINGS

There is such a thing as forever paying rent for the housing of certain government bureaus, and there is the possibility of throwing good money after bad in providing large expenditures for the maintenance of what were intended only as temporary structures, but in the appeal for handling government affairs on a business basis there is reason for giving attention to the building situation in the national capital.

Department bureaus in leased quarters are expensive and there is no telling when rents are going to be pushed up or the vacating of the buildings called for. For the purpose of meeting requirements during the war temporary structures were erected which are showing decay, and for the protection of those who work therein and the records kept there another large sum is sought now to repair them.

Under such a building plan as has been proposed for meeting the situation in Washington it is unfortunate that the money which is required for repairs cannot be employed for new and permanent construction. Such an outlay will of course be the cheapest and best in the end. Sooner or later additional repairs will be sought for the temporary structures which now need attention and this kind of treatment and expense can be contemplated as long as such buildings are relied upon to meet the requirements.

There are many times when government business is not as well directed as that of the private corporation, and yet the reason cannot always be charged to those directing government affairs. It remains to be seen what congress is going to do in the way of providing funds as to how much progress will be made in overcoming the existing expense account for rentals and maintenance of temporary structures.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Even though these are the days when it is easy to keep the walks cleaned, all sand on hand should be kept in reserve for those days when it is sure to be needed.

The man on the corner says: Why all this silence by the hard winter prophets?

Mr. Hoover deserves thanks for directing attention to the rubber situation. If what he had to say has been responsible for the drop in the price of raw rubber he should get additional thanks.

It must be a source of great satisfaction to some senators to think they have prevented the United States senate from taknig action which the country favors.

Those who think crime news ought not to be printed would accomplish more by directing their efforts toward less crime.

The Filipinos who will have nothing to do with producing rubber until they get their freedom don't seem to realize that they are their own worse enemies.

Because a person doesn't know how to spend money a Rhode Island judge says such a person ought to have more than a careful spender. Can't you increase your income under such circumstances?

MEN ARE QUEER.

"Oh-h-h!" cried the girl who was fishing from the bank. "Something bit the hook! Somebody come take it off!"

Barling and Lillian Raymond, both in rubber boots and knickers, standing out in the stream warily angling for trout turned at the call. Flushed of cheek and with her bright, bobbed hair, Alice looked prettier than ever, her attention in agonized excitement on her reel. When the catch swished from the water it proved to be a fighting three pound trout, bigger than any they had caught, for all their science and devotion.

"I'll say there isn't any justice," Lillian murmured in Barling's direction as she waded toward the bank, being nearer to it than he.

"Take that fish off yourself!" he called to Alice sternly. "You said you wanted to learn how to be a fisherman."

The amateur looked at him guiltily and surrendered with alacrity to the expert hands of Lillian Raymond, who perhaps put a little bravado into her skill, knowing that Barling eyes were watching her disengage the trout and toss it into the creel.

"I don't see how you can do it!" Alice said with a little shudder. "I guess I'll just sit here and read till you get through!"

Lillian waded back a bit triumphantly. "She gets very little out of a northern woods camp," she said to Barling. "Why, she doesn't enjoy doing a single thing you and I do. Absolutely helpless, that type!"

"She certainly is!" agreed Barling. Women, according to his theory, should be capable and athletic, well-poised, able to meet emergencies.

What Alice liked best was one of the long folding camp chairs in a bower of green with birds chirping about. With a book she was quite happy this way.

Lillian hoped he saw the futility of ever making anything sportsmanlike out of such poor material. She had begun to have hopes of Barling this summer, for she was clever with rod and gun and paddle and made a stunning picture in her woods outfit. She was tall and slim and dark and her lips were crimson.

Altogether she had nothing to fear from this little blond incubus for she simply had not a single point to attract a man like Barling who was a keen sportsman and athlete. He hardly spoke to the girl as they tramped through the woods back to camp and Lillian did not wonder.

She felt that Alice had put the crowning touch to her failure as a camper when supper time came and it was found that she was nowhere near, though she knew better than to wander off without a guide through the forest. The hot trout and biscuits and coffee were abandoned as the men divided into scouting parties carrying lanterns because the darkness comes early in the woods. Their distant shouts and calls echoed faintly back at the camp where the women waited, politely not voicing their sentiments before Alice's cousin.

"I wouldn't worry so if it was any of you girls!" said the cousin. "But Alice is so helpless and she hates the dark!"

Barling, as he stalked on, calling her name mechanically every few rods was absolutely disgusted, so he told himself. Why had she done such a fool thing? It became darker and his anger grew. He was seeing her cowering, petrified with fear in some shelter, her heart thumping madly at the crack of a twig the rustle of a treetoad.

He remembered how apologetic her blue eyes had been that afternoon over the trout. The sunlight flickering through the trees had made a perfect halo of her fluffy hair, he remembered also.

His voice as he called was getting rough and strained. He was walking so fast that his heavy shoe almost kicked the girl curled up in a little ball at the foot of the hollow tree. "Of course she'd pick out a bear's tree for shelter!" he thought harshly even while he stuttered "Alice!" and gathered her gasping and shaking as she was into his arms. She clung to him frankly as a lost child might.

"I—I've been so worried!" he got out as he held her close.

Up above the top of a tall pine a blue bright star glittered. Faint calls of the searchers came from a distance. There seemed no need for any further words, and after a while they went back hand in hand.—Exchange.

From Small Beginnings

Langdon Cheves a Master of Finance

Young Langdon Cheves had to work for a living and he had to work hard. South Carolina where he lived, was still an undeveloped land when he was born, in the same year in which the Declaration of Independence was signed.

He did a little of everything and he earned his way. One day one of his friends saw him reading a book. "What have you there, Lan?" Langdon Cheves looked up. "It's a law book." In a short time the other boys were calling Langdon Cheves "Judge" in derision, but he took their jokes in good spirit and stuck to his work. He had worked hard with his hands and he had all but taught himself to read and write. Now, a little older, he was teaching himself law. At 21 he was admitted to the bar—and that was a proud day for the South Carolina boy. He had a quick and ready tongue, and a keen mind. Added to that was a sort of force that made itself felt. He became prominent as one who never lost a case. In a little over 10 years he was the attorney general of his state. His gift as an orator made him a popular figure. He was sent to the state legislature and then to congress. The great political leaders of the day, especially Henry Clay, relied upon him. The boy who had so set himself to study had become one of the great leaders of the new America.

His greatest work came in 1819 when the affairs of the United States bank were in such a condition that it seemed impossible ever to reorganize them. Langdon Cheves grappled with the problem, and by the same intense energy and great determination that had marked him as a boy, he untangled the complicated matters, insisted upon the payment of money that was due, borrowed money from Europe, and accomplished a great work. He lived to the good age of 81. Determination had marked all that he ever did.

IN THE PUBLIC EYE

Peter Goelet Gerry, who has been chosen chairman of the democratic senatorial campaign committee, has been a United States senator from Rhode Island since 1917 and is the first democrat to represent that state in the higher branch of the national legislature for many years. He does not represent the old New England stock of his immediate section of the country, but rather the element from New York which makes Newport its place of residence. Mr. Gerry is a Harvard graduate of the class of 1901. His political experience began with service on the representative council which governs Newport according to a modified town meeting system. Then, in 1913, he won election to congress from Second District. He has wealth, social position and is disposed to do good with his fortune.

Today's Anniversaries

1561—Sir Francis Bacon, who possessed one of the greatest intellects the world has ever produced, born in London. Died there, April 9, 1626.

1788—Lord Byron, the famous poet, born in London. Died in Greece, April 19, 1824.

1815—The remains of Louis XVI and his queen taken up from the burial ground, and deposited with much solemnity in the royal church of St. Louis.

1850—The "Alta California" became the first newspaper in California.

1870—Organization of the Chamber of Commerce in San Diego, Calif.

1901—Victoria, queen of Great Britain and Ireland, and empress of India, died at Osborne, Isle of Wight. Born at Kensington, May 24, 1819.

1923—James L. Butler, joint founder with his wife of Tonopah, famous Nevada mining town, died in San Francisco.

1924—The Stanley Baldwin government in England resigned and was succeeded by a labor government under Ramsay MacDonald.

1925—British pound sterling reached par for postal money orders for first time since the war.

Today's Birthdays

Dr. Francis L. Patton, former president of Princeton University, born in Bermuda, 68 years ago today.

Edward S. Harkness, financier and director in many railroads, born in Cleveland, 53 years ago today.

Joshua W. Alexander, who was secretary of commerce under President Wilson, born in Cincinnati, 74 years ago today.

William H. Finley, late president of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway, born at Delaware City, Del., 64 years ago today.

Chase S. Osborn, the former Michigan governor who has offered to serve the prison sentence of ex-Governor Mecklem of Indiana, born in Huntington county, Ind., 64 years ago today.

The Boldness of Shadow

Fortune favors, we are told,
The brave, the fearless, and the bold.
—Farmer Brown's Boy.

Farmer Brown's Boy had gone out to feed the hens and collect the eggs, as is his way every morning. He opened the gate of the henyard and walked over to the henhouse door. There he paused for a moment. Sammy Jay was making a great fuss. He was crying "Thief, thief, thief!" from an apple tree that overlooked the henyard. Farmer Brown's Boy knew that when Sammy Jay cried "Thief" in that way he saw some one whom he regarded as an enemy. But though Farmer Brown's Boy looked this way and looked that way, and looked everywhere, even up in the air, he saw no one.

"What is the matter with you, Sammy Jay?" he demanded. "What are you making all of this fuss about? If I didn't know better, I would think that you were yelling at me."

Still Sammy Jay kept on screaming; and you know when Sammy sets out to scream he certainly can scream. Everybody in the Old Orchard, and even over in the edge of the Green Forest,

"What is the matter with you, Sammy Jay," he demanded.

knew that Sammy Jay had discovered some one he didn't like. But Farmer Brown's Boy couldn't see anybody, so finally he gave up, opened the henhouse door and stepped inside. Right at his heels somebody else stepped inside also. Perhaps I should say that somebody else jumped inside. But they didn't make any noise about it. Farmer Brown's Boy put down the food for the hens and started to look for eggs in the nesting boxes. Just as he picked up the first egg the hens began making a great racket. It was plain that they were badly frightened. Farmer Brown's Boy looked up with such a queer, puzzled look on his face. What was wrong with those hens?

Then he noticed down in a corner one hen not moving. He went to her at once. As he stooped over to pick her up he discovered that some one was holding her fast by the neck. It was a very small person, but a very determined one. It was Shadow the Weasel. And it was clear that Shadow didn't intend to let go, even for such a great big giant as Farmer Brown's Boy.

Farmer Brown's Boy picked up the hen, and when he picked her up he picked Shadow up, too. Shadow was holding on to the hen. Farmer Brown's Boy swung him against the side of the henhouse and then he dropped. But even then he didn't run away. Shadow is no coward. He arched his back and snarled and spat at Farmer Brown's Boy and called him a robber and a thief, which is exactly what Farmer Brown's Boy was calling him. Actually Farmer Brown's Boy had hard work to chase Shadow out of that henhouse. But he got him out finally, and then shut the door while he collected the rest of the eggs. Then, with the eggs and the hen Shadow had killed, he went back to the house. He didn't see anything of Shadow, but Shadow was watching him. And all the time Shadow was saying to himself, "That's my hen, that's my hen." You see, in Shadow's mind, he had just as much right to one of those hens as he had to any one else he could catch.

When he was sure that there was no chance for him to get another hen he headed toward Farmer Browns barn. "If I can't have a hen for breakfast I'll try a Rat," said he.

(Copyright, 1926, by T. W. Burgess.)

The next story: "Shadow Pays for the Hen."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Prayer

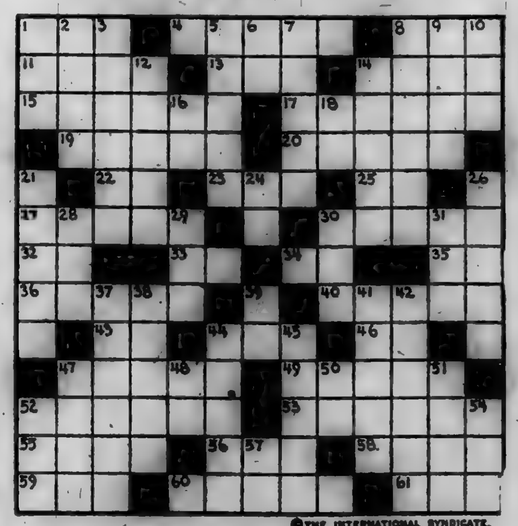
Mr. Editor: Mr. Boardman made the statement: "Prayer on the whole is futile." He may also need no physician, but that would not justify him to state: "Physicians on the whole are futile." Scientists have erred, but God never. Jesus Christ who, to my knowledge, is theg reatest interpreter of the will of God said: "Ask, and it shall be given you," and those who have tried it will testify: "There is a Great, Enormous Power in Prayer."

Respectfully,
THEODORE MOJE.

Norwich, January 30, 926.

Professor Stephen Leacock, of McGill university, noted writer, says the Toronto Telegram, moved by the death of his wife recently from cancer, has undertaken to forward with his fortune and his pen, a strenuous campaign in the research field for a cure for cancer or its prevention.

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE



©THE INTERNATIONAL SYNDICATE.

HORIZONTAL
1-Wager
4-12 dozen
8-However (short form)
11-English title
13-Annoy
14-Sheet of canvas
15-Hostlers
17-Associated
19-Ghost
20-Labors
22-Exists
23-Plead
26-Perform
27-Trials of speed
30-A small fish
32-Upon
33-Whether
34-You and I
35-Chess symbol
36-A president of the U. S.
38-Malicious burning
43-Test for shipping

HORIZONTAL (Cont.)
46-Exclamation
47-Dirt ground in
48-A spring flower
50-Ascended
52-Beast
53-Positive command
54-Feline
56-Give up
59-An explosive (abbr.)
60-Devil
61-Point of compass (abbr.)

VERTICAL
1-Implore
2-Auditory organs
3-Of the torrid zone
4-Hazards
5-Conjunction
7-Glide over ice
8-One who makes men's clothing
9-Hastens
10-Aged
12-Silicon

VERTICAL (Cont.)
16-Central State of U. S. (abbr.)
18-Behold
21-Foam
24-Upward
25-Glistened
28-Some
29-Title
30-Vegetable
31-Murmur
37-Lasso
39-Live
39-To an extreme degree
41-Souvenir
43-Marvelous
44-Enclosing structure
45-Famous Greek
47-Broad smile
49-Myself
50-Within
51-Low fellows
55-Actors
56-Sheltered side

THE BOSTON STORE
THE REID & HUGHES COMPANY
NORWICH CONNECTICUT

Specially Featured Savings For Friday

81x90 Full Sized Heavy Bleached Sheets, $1.69 value—For, Each $1.29

45x36 Bleached Pillow Cases, 45c value—For, Each 39c

39-inch Unbleached Cotton, 20c value—Friday, Yard 15c

32-inch Fast Color Gingham, 59c value—Friday, Yard 39c

66x80 Grey Cotton Blankets, $3.00 value—Friday, Pair $2.69

SILKS

36-inch Brocaded Silk, $1.98 value—Friday, Yard $1.19

Surprise Special No. 65

Only exceptional merchandise values featured in these one-day specials. To properly identify these unusual values we have named them

Surprise Specials

AN ASSORTMENT OF
HUCK TOWELS

That includes Cotton Towels, Cotton and Linen Mixed Towels, and All Linen Towels, ranging in price from 29c to 59c each.

Suprise Special 19c Each

FOOD SALE
Women's Auxiliary, Y. M. C. A., Friday, January 22nd, at 10 o'Clock.
(Downstairs Store)

Stories That Recall Others

English as Spoken

An eighth grade teacher recently gave her pupils several words to use in sentences. In some of the following results it is easy to find the words:

She went in a pulmonary coach to Boston.

The Red Cross is going to use the pulmonary when people nearly get drowned.

The child has a pulmonary expression in his face.

The man declined in his easy chair.

Willard is a boy that has tubular diseases.

Don't aggravate the dogs in front of the house.

The man's tubulars were stopped up.

The man was on a milk dialogue.

Real Economy

An interesting example of economy is disclosed in the experience of a chap who was spending the summer in the country. He accompanied one of the country acquaintances to the city, the friend being bent upon buying some stove pipe. After much searching the farmer friend returned to the wagon and declared his efforts were in vain. "I couldn't find any anyplace," he said.

"Well, did you look every place?"

"Yes, except one place, over at Soand So's."

"Well, let's go."

All this time they had driven about in the wood wagon. The farmer scratched his head and said: "Well, all they have is new stove pipe and what I want is second hand pipe. You pay ten cents a 'jint' for new pipe and you get old pipe for a nickel a 'jint'. So he decided they would have to get along without stovepipe because there was no second hand one to be had.

Two obliging officers arrested Margaret Gifford, 265 Morgan street, this city, when she walked into the Central Police station in Fall River, and requested that she be locked up as a drunk.

THUMM'S HOME MADE PORK SAUSAGE
TRY THEM FOR YOUR NEXT BREAKFAST.
Thumm's Delicatessen Store
40 Franklin Street.

Build your body back to Health

Tanlac is a great natural builder. It revitalizes the blood, stimulates the digestive organs, rejuvenates the liver and pops you up all over.

From the four corners of the earth we gather the roots, barks and herbs that go into Tanlac. We compound them after the famous Tanlac formula that has brought health to millions.

Our files are crammed with testimonials from men and women in every walk of life, who state gratefully that Tanlac has brought them back to vigorous strength.

If you suffer from indigestion, loss of appetite, can't sleep or rest; if rheumatism is making life a torture; if your liver is out of sorts and your body has run down to skin and bones, get a bottle of Tanlac at your druggist's and start taking it right away.

You'll be amazed to note the improvement that comes at once. For the first time in months you'll feel like eating some good solid food. You'll wake up in the morning rested and refreshed, ready for a good day's work. First thing you know you'll have some color in your cheeks and the sparkle of health back in your eyes.

Don't delay taking Tanlac. Begin now if you want to build your body back to health and vigor. Take Tanlac Vegetable Pills for constipation.

Thanks Tanlac for Good Health

"Severe stomach pains troubled me for over a year. One formed of my eating. My kidneys, too, bothered me, and severe backaches. Thanks to Tanlac my appetite and digestion are O. K. and all pains have disappeared."

Officer Wm. A. Bell
1944 So. Penrose St.
Tanlac Office: Philadelphia, Pa.
16th and Market Sts.

COLDS

"Pape's Cold Compound"

Breaks a Cold Right Up

Take two tablets every three hours until three are taken. The first dose always gives relief. The second and third doses completely break up the cold. Pleasant and safe to take. Contains no quinine or opiates. Millions use "Pape's Cold Compound." Price thirty-five cents. Druggist guarantees it.

People's Market

100 FRANKLIN STREET, CITY

FRIDAY and SATURDAY SPECIALS

SUGAR CURED HAMS, lb.	25c
SUGAR CURED BACON, lb.	32c
SUGAR CURED SMOKED SHOULDERS, lb.	22c
SUGAR CURED BONELESS HAM, lb.	34c
LEGS OF GENUINE SPRING LAMB, lb.	35c
BONELESS ROAST BEEF, lb.	25c
FRESH SHOULDERS, lb.	20c
FRESH PORK LOINS, lb.	27c
FANCY SELECTED EGGS, 3 doz.	$1
BEST BUTTER, lb.	50c
PURE LARD, lb.	19c

SIRLOIN, PORTERHOUSE and SHORT STEAKS.

BRIDGE AND WHIST BY CATHOLIC WOMAN'S CLUB

A very successful evening of bridge and whist, with 50 tables in play was held Thursday at the Wauregan hotel by the Catholic Woman's club of St. Patrick's parish.

Those to take the prizes in bridge were: R. L. Tarrant, E. Rich, Mr. Rincola, and A. Disco. Mrs. A. Lamatie, Miss Elinor Donovan, Miss Kilroy, Miss Anna Ward, Mrs. Roberts, and Mrs. F. T. Diggins. In whist the prizes went to J. Donohue, Henry Collins, W. H. Bresnehan, Joseph Lee, P. Coleman, E. R. Portelance and Charles Lee; also Mrs. R. Brown, Miss Anne Duffy, Mrs. R. J. Edwards, Mrs. Kafndl, Mrs. Julia Brock, Mrs. A. J. Wholey, Miss Winnie Clabby, and Mrs. C. Barry.

The evening concluded with dancing for which an excellent programme of the latest music was rendered by Shelby and his orchestra.

The committee in charge comprised Mrs. Thomas O'Rourke, president; Mrs. Frank J. Sisk, general chairman; Mrs. James J. Dutton, Mrs. Charles Lee, Mrs. John Gallivan, Mrs. William Farrell, Mrs. John J. O'Rourke; Mrs Maurice Melly, Mrs. Nelson Disco, Mrs. J. J. Hayes, Mrs. James L. Crawford Mrs. John Kennedy, Mrs. Thomas J. McVeigh, Mrs. Bernard Coyle, Mrs Frances Donohue.

The scorers were: The Misses Mary Winters, Alice McNally, Mary Sheridan, Mary LaFontaine, Mary Maclnnis, Helen Havenell, Madeline Clish. Pauline Kamp, Margaret Coleman Catherine Dutton, Miriam Sullivan, Helen O'Rourke, Irma Crawford.

Courtesies were extended by Scott the florist, Hawkins the florist, Cummings & Hine, Shea & Burke, & Hourigan post, Eagles, Foresters of America, Sciverus Bros., Ladies of Columbus, Knights of Columbus, Connecticut Council of Catholic Women. and the Wauregan hotel.

SAVARD'S

THE LEADING MEN'S STORE

Overcoats

—AT—

SALE PRICES

The time to buy overcoats advantageously is nearly over. We are offering some truly remarkable values at very attractive reductions.

SCHOOL OF NURSING

The school of nursing connected with the W. W. Backus Hospital, Norwich, Conn., is now registering applicants for the February classes. This school is registered in Connecticut and the course of instruction is two years and four months given in a general hospital of 90 beds. Students must be graduates of grammar school and have one year of high school work. Students have the advantage of a new residence for nurses where every comfort and convenience is afforded them. For details of information address Supt. of the Training School.

1726 1926

Norwich, Friday, Jan. 22, 1926

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 5:31 this evening.

Elliott Mosher of Hampton broke his thumb while at his work in Willimantic recently.

The temperature rose to 16 degrees during Thursday afternoon and the last traces of ice vanished.

Food sale today 10 a. m. Boston store, Y. M. C. A. auxiliary.—Adv.

Since her hundredth birthday, New Year's Day, Mrs. Emily Gillette has been seriously ill at Dayville.

The foreman of the gypsy moth scouts working in and about Thompson is Hale Towne, of Plainfield.

Henry Eager, employed in Central Village during the past summer is now with a well driving firm of Providence.

Owners of poultry in and around Moosup are bothered by thieves, the last place visited being at Greendale.

A class in gymnastics is being conducted as part of the evening school at the George Sykes Memorial school, Rockville.

At Quaker Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jerome of Lester, Mass., visited Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bingham during the week.

At Westford and in that vicinity, the track of some large animal, believed to be a wild cat, has been seen near poultry houses.

It is planned to have Rev. Charles H. Ricketts speak at Trinity Methodist Church Sunday evening, on "Prohibition in America."

Whist, pinochle, Buckingham Memorial, 8 tonight. Admission 30c.—adv.

At Niantic, Mrs. Fred Rohmeling gave a silver tea at the Morton House, Thursday afternoon for the benefit of the Sunshine society.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kauffman who have been spending three months in New York returned recently to their home in Voluntown.

At Phoenixville, men who were fishing during the recent cold weather had good luck, after getting to the water through twelve-inch ice.

The New York fur sale will begin Jan. 25, and will run for seven days. More than sixty varieties of skins are included in the general offering to be sold.

The Thames River and its coves have been left clear by the fogs and thaw of the week. Where snow has melted, green grass is showing along the river banks.

Because the noon train has been taken off, some of the New York papers failed to reach Norwich until Thursday afternoon, having missed the morning mails.

C. E. Society First M. E. church supper, Buckingham 35c. Saturday 5-7:30 p. m.—Adv.

Members of the Catholic Women's Club plan to meet in the hall of the parish school this (Friday) afternoon, to continue their winter's work of sewing for the poor.

Auto Business day Thursday was a blank for most of the local stores, although clerks kept active unpacking and inspecting new stock and getting ready to move the old.

Wesleyan University is this year reviving the custom of an alumni reunion on the campus over Washington's birthday week end. This will be the thirty-first annual Alumni Day.

Rev. and Mrs. Arnold von C. P. Huizinga and their daughter Faith Trumbull Huizinga, prominent summer residents of Thompson are in Florence, Italy until the end of the season.

D. A. R. chapters hereabouts are choosing delegates to attend the national convention in Washington, D. C., in April, also to attend the state convention in Stamford, March 18, and 19.

The German Hospital Fund at Rockville has steadily increased, according to the treasurer's report presented at the annual meeting this week. The report showed a balance January 1, of $6,402.51.

The Rosary society of St. Patrick's parish will meet at 7.45 this evening at the home of their departed member, Mrs. Daniel Shields, 85 Cliff St.—adv.

Mrs. Sarah Gardiner, the Saybrook nurse who was seriously injured Christmas eve in an automobile accident is recovering, but it will be several weeks before she can attend to her duties.

Word has been received at Saybrook Point of the death of Mrs. A. J. Post in Englewood, N. J. Mrs. Post is well known in Saybrook, having been one of the summer colony at Fenwick for many years.

It is good news for Eastern Connecticut mills that handlers of percales, wash goods, cretonnes and other printed cottons are apparently doing a land office business in this merchandise with the jobbing trade.

Foresters of America ladies night tonight.—All welcome.—Adv.

There is to be a United States Civil service examination for policewoman, to fill vacancies in the Washington, D. C. police department. Applicants must have reached their twenty-fifth but not their thirty-fifth birthday.

In china tea sets there is a distinct swing away reported from lustre; the sets being either of the solid flat color or else very dainty in patterns and fashioning. New "bridge sets" show a combination of two contrasting colors.

Cases of illness are greatly lessening the attendance in many of the districts in the Norwich school room during the week, only one girl and seven boys appeared, out of a total of about 30 pupils—the others having measles.

The west-bound passenger train due at Andover at 6:25 p. m., will stop for passengers and will also take the mail, railroad officials announced Thursday. On the timetable effective last Sunday the train was not scheduled to stop.

Reviving a sport in which it excelled in years past, Pioneer Hose company rifle team of Groton, is to hold its first indoor shooting contest in several seasons within the next week when it opposes the crack shots of the Woodchuck Club.

A former Norwich man, Supt. John F. Reardon, superintendent of the big Grosvenordale mills, spoke with Superintendent of Schools Kimball at Thompson grange meeting this week. Their topic was "What the young people of this generation must do to achieve success."

In poor health for many years William C. Reimuth of Rockville cut his throat while wandering about the outskirts of the town of Vernon, then repented of his rash act, and getting on his feet walked five miles until he reached a doctor, who fixed him up, and he is likely to live.

DIED.

STILLMAN—In Westerly, R. I., Jan. 21, 1926, Frances Banks Stillman, aged 89 years, widow of David Franklin Stillman, of Westerly.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Alfreda Phelps of Groton has been suddenly called to Cromwell, where her sister is critically ill.

Miss G. S. Beckwith of Stafford is visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tracey at Jewett City.

Mrs. Ada Wilbur, who has been visiting at Lime Rock, R. I., has returned to the home of her niece, Miss Jessie Bennett at Willington.

Carleton Wiggins, the Old Lyme artist, Mrs. Wiggins and daughter, Miss May Wiggins, were guests Tuesday of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Dunn in New London.

Mrs. Gurdon Perkins of Uncasville and Mrs. Minnie Fowler of Norwich were among forty friends attending a housewarming given by Mr. and Mrs. John Reynolds of New London, Wednesday evening.

OBITUARY

Mrs. David Franklin Stillman

The death of Frances Banks, widow of David Franklin Stillman, 89, occurred Thursday evening at 9:45 o'clock at her home, 16 Dixon street, Westerly, after a short illness. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. William Marr, of Millnocket, Me., and Mrs. John T. Johnson, who made her home with her mother. She also leaves a nephew, Henry G. Peck of Norwich and two grand children, David and James Marr.

Charles Henry Latham

Charles Henry Latham, 73, vice president and trustee of the Groton Savings bank of Mystic, and retired vice president of the Allen Spool Manufacturing and Printing Co., which has been out of existence for several years, died Thursday morning at his home in Latham street, Mystic, after an illness of only a few days. Death was due to pneumonia. Mr. Latham held memberships and offices in many fraternal organizations.

Mr. Latham was born in Mystic, Sept. 23, 1852, son of the late Hannah Eldredge and Capt. William H. Latham. His father was a Civil War veteran. Nearly all of Mr. Latham's life was spent in Mystic. He had been employed in various capacities with the Allen company in Mystic which he served more than a quarter of a century. At the time of his retirement four years ago, he was vice president and secretary of the firm.

He was an active member of several branches in the Masonic order and at the time of his death was a member of the Benevolent Chapter of Masons, Mystic; Mystic council, No. 29, R. and S. M.; Palestine commandery, No 6, of New London; Pyramid Shrine, of Masons, Bridgeport and of Charity and Relief lodge, No. 72, F. and A. M. He was secretary of the Masonic Charity and Relief corporation of Mystic.

For many years Mr. Latham was an honorary member of the Mystic Hook and Ladder company and secretary of the Mystic Industrial Corporation. He was also secretary and treasurer of the board of directors for the Mystic Oral school until that institution was taken over by the state several years ago.

His religious affiliations were with the First Church of Christ, Scientist of which he was past, first and second reader. He was also past president of the church corporation.

Mr. Latham is survived by his wife, Mrs. Eva Wood Latham; a son, Henry J. Latham, of Noank, selectman of the town of Groton, and prominent business man in Groton and Noank boroughs. He also leaves a granddaughter, Miss Dorothy Latham, of Mystic.

Rev. Percy Barnes

News has been received of the death of Rev. Percy Barnes, 67, at Middleboro, Mass. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. Waldo Randall, of Providence, R. I. Mr. Barnes was rector of St. John's church in Essex, for 18 years.

Mr. Barnes, who was a Brooklyn, N. Y., man, was an assistant at Grace church, New York, when he accepted the call to become rector of Grace church, Yantic, where he remained for a number of years. From Yantic he went to New Haven, and after two years there became rector in Essex. He married a Providence girl. While in Yantic he was very popular with his parishioners and did exceptionally good work for the church.

Samuel De Genero

Samuel De Genero, 63, died Wednesday evening in this city, following a long illness. He was born in Italy and came to the United States about 35 years ago. For 22 years he had resided in this city. For a short time he had followed the sea, as a sailor. Prior to coming to Norwich he had lived in Savannah, Georgia and Portland, Me. He was a member of the Guiseppe Garibaldi society and was well known among the Italian residents of the city. Mr. De Genero leaves no relatives.

FUNERALS

Mrs. C. Raymond Dolbeare

At 2.30 o'clock Thursday afternoon the funeral of Mrs. C. Raymond Dolbeare was held from her home, No. 25 Spring Garden avenue, with a large attendance of relatives and friends. There were many very beautiful floral tributes of esteem. The service was conducted by Rev. J. Eldred Brown, rector of Trinity Episcopal church. The bearers were Philip H. Sheridan, Frank I. Royce, Harold Green and George N. Beardow and burial took place in Yantic cemetery. Rev. Mr. Brown read the committal service at the grave. Undertaker C. A. Gager had charge of the funeral arrangements.

AWARD FOR DEATH OF HUSBAND WHILE WORKING

A workmen's compensation award for Mrs. Josephine Jenkins, of 41 High street, widow of Philip Jenkins has just been made by Commissioner J. J. Donohue, in which she is awarded $14.68 for 312 weeks for the death of her husband, besides payment of $100 towards funeral expenses.

Philip Jenkins was an employe of the Max Gordon & Son corporation and was engaged in unloading bales from a truck at Baltic, Nov. 23, 1925, when he was suddenly taken ill and died instantly. It was found that he had exercised unusual exertion at this work, which was enough to aggravate a heart condition and cause a dilated heart condition which brought about his death. He was survived by his widow and five children. The oldest daughter, 19, is married but the others are dependent minors, aged 10, 5 and 3 years and 4 months.

BERKER AND BERRY GO TO WETHERSFIELD

Attorneys for Gabriel G. Berker, sentenced to from 3 1-2 to 6 years in state prison on an embezzlement charge, abandoned on Thursday the possibility of taking an appeal in the case.

Berker was taken to state prison Thursday by Sheriff Sidney A. Brown, along with Eugene J. Berry, who on Wednesday was sentenced to a term of from 10 to 15 years for the murder of his two sons, 4 and 5 years old.

Speaker For Zionist Meeting

Notice has been received here from Dr. Louis I. Goldberg, regional director for Connecticut and Rhode Island, that a speaker at the Zionist gathering on Sunday, Dec. 31, is to be Pierre Van Passen, a Belgian diplomat, who has visited Palestine and has taken a great interest in the Zionist movement.

BEN COVEY IN TEXAS, ENLISTED IN U. S. ARMY AFTER LEAVING HOME

The mystery of where William Benjamin Covey, 23, son of Mrs. William H. Covey, Jr., of 43 Freeman avenue, had gone to when he left his home at the noon hour on Thursday, Jan. 7, was solved Thursday night when his mother received a telephone message from the recruiting officer at New London telling her that Ben had enlisted in the United States Army.

The recruiting officer told her that her son had enlisted for service in Texas and had been sent to Dallas in that state.

Mrs. Covey did not learn just when Ben enlisted, but was told it was a short time ago. She was given the further information that he had left his Ford coupe with the recruiting officer, and as the officer had not been able to operate it under Covey's registration numbers, the machine had not been on the road. It had been expected that if Covey were using the machine around the state, this would be a means of locating the young man, but his disposition of the car by leaving it with the army man destroyed the chance of locating him through the machine.

The recruiting officer in New London could not be reached by telephone Thursday night for further inquiries, but Ben's brother, Harry M. Covey, is to go to New London today (Friday) to learn any further details of his brother's enlistment.

Ben, who was a pressman at The Bulletin job room, was an interested member of the Central Baptist church and Sunday school where there has been much concern felt for him since it was known that he had left home so unexpectedly. News that word had been received of him was sent by Mrs. Covey to the church Thursday evening, where the annual meeting was being held. Rev. Dr. David A. Pitt, the pastor, read the message to the church meeting, bringing out a burst of applause that indicated the pleasure of the gathering in hearing that Ben had been located and that the anxiety of his parents had been relieved.

SUIT FOR TOWN TAXES SETTLED OUT OF COURT

An action brought by the town of Norwich, through Tax Collector Harold T. Robinson, against Donovan and husband, John Donovan, et al., of Norwich, was settled out of court Thursday. The case, which was brought by the town to collect back taxes totaling $1,256.90, was scheduled to come up for trial Thursday before Judge Christopher L. Avery in the superior courts here. The town asked in the writ for foreclosure on land on Roath street, North Cliff street and North Main street. The suit was started in March, 1924 for taxes due in 1918, 1919, 1920 and 1921.

John A. Moran, the Dime Savings Bank and the Norwich Savings bank were named as party defendants in the action. The defense of Mr. and Mrs. Donovan was that they had already paid the taxes but they could not produce receipts. The total amount of the taxes as they fell due was $915.88. It is understood they paid to the town through the town's counsel $1,339.46.

PLAUT-CADDEN MEN RETURN FROM FURNITURE MARKET

Adelard Morin and Herman Sears, vice president and assistant secretary, respectively of The Plaut-Cadden Co. of Norwich and New London, have just returned from the west, where they have been in attendance at the Grand Rapids Furniture Market and the Furniture Mart at Chicago. The Grand Rapids market is the largest exposition of furniture in the world and is visited every year during this month by thousands of dealers from all over the country. The Furniture Mart at Chicago, the largest building of its kind in the world, is a permanent year-round furniture exhibition and club for members of the industry. A visit to these two great expositions is always inspirational and educational and furniture dealers from everywhere visit them because of the opportunities offered to become familiar with the latest developments in the industry, to see the new furniture styles, to buy judiciously and to acquire such other information as will be of interest and value to the public. Messrs. Morin and Sears report that they had an enjoyable and profitable trip.

SURPRISE SHOWER GIVEN FOR MISS MOLLY DRISCOLL

A miscellaneous surprise shower was given Miss Molly Driscoll, Wednesday evening at the home of the Misses Mary and Hannah O'Donnell of 118 Central avenue. There were about thirty present. Bridge was played, the prizes being won by Miss Margaret Driscoll and Miss Margaret Counihan.

The table and diningroom were tastefully decorated with cut flowers and favors, and a golden-hued parasol covering the center light cast a beautiful color throughout the room. Salad, rolls, cake, coffee and bon bons were served.

The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Ernest White, Mrs. Edgar Ross, Mrs. John Whalen of Putnam, and Miss Margaret Driscoll.

Miss Driscoll was the recipient of many unusual gifts. Her marriage to P. Waldo McMaster of Worcester, Mass., takes place the early part of February.

BOY SCOUTS TO AID NEAR EAST BUNDLE DAY

Scout Executive Benton is in charge of the scout activities for Bundle day which is today. Boy Scouts of Norwich will assist in collection of old clothing for the Near East Relief, two scouts going on each of the trucks which are to make the collections Friday afternoon at the various public and parochial schools while other scouts will be at the freight car, which will be used to carry the clothing to New York to help with the unloading.

For several years past Mrs. Sarah I. Bonney and her daughter, Miss Jennie G. Bonney of Norwich Town, have made themselves responsible for the collecting of old clothes to go to the Near East from Norwich and in the course of that time have sent many hundreds of dollars worth.

RECEIVER COFFIN READY TO QUESTION GILPATRIC

HARTFORD, Jan. 21—(AP)—Receiver George M. Coffin, of the First National bank, of Putnam, wrecked by the defalcation of its cashier, G. Harold Gilpatric, conferred with Governor Trumbull today in the interest of expediting Gilpatric's temporary transfer to the Connecticut state prison to be available for questioning as to his "unexplained transactions."

Mr. Coffin was out of sympathy with the view of Lawyer John F. Carpenter, of Putnam, who had appeared before in Bankruptcy Saul Berman, Wednesday and objected to having Gilpatric brought north for questioning for the present on the ground that more than a month of continuous work by lawyers and accountants would be required, in his opinion, before they would be prepared to question Gilpatric.

Mr. Coffin told the governor that he is ready to question Gilpatric without further delay. He had already traced $109,000 out of the $200,000 paid to Gilpatric by the state for Liberty bonds and, according to Mr. Coffin, diverted to other purposes. Answers by Gilpatric to certain questions which Mr. Coffin wants answered, he said, would furnish him with the key to solve the mystery of the disappearance of enormous sums unaccounted for to date.

Governor Trumbull advised Mr. Coffin that, since he had turned over to his special commission the responsibility for the state's investigation of Gilpatric's transactions as state treasurer, he was reluctant to commit the state. He invited Mr. Coffin to meet his committee at a meeting which is to be held in the governor's office beginning at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

CLAIMS NORWICH MAN HEADED HOLDUP GANG

According to a confession made by Joseph Matulis, 17, a New Britain youth under arrest in that city, he has been a member of a gang of automobile thieves of which William Dwojakowski, 30, of this city, has been the head. He confessed to theft of automobiles in Hartford and the use of the machines in holdups in New Britain and Plainville.

Matulis named as chief of the gang William Dwoyakowski, 30, of Norwich, alias William Anderson, alias William Dwyer and also involved Joseph Snadack, 22, of New Britain, alias Richard S. Molyn, alias Joseph Suda, and also Stanley Maelzejewski, 22, of New Britain, alias Stanley Mielzeski. All three of these men were arraigned in New Haven police court Thursday on charges involving the shooting of a policeman there last week, and their cases were continued until next Tuesday.

$500 From Holdup, He Says

Matulis, who has no previous police record in New Britain, told Detective Sergeants George Ellinger and Patrick J. O'Mara, that he met Dwojakowski under the name of William Anderson, on December 6, in a New Britain restaurant. Anderson, with other members of the gang was rooming in a Church street boarding house and on December 7, about 10:30 a. m., Anderson, according to Matulis' confession, entered the Casino bowling alleys across the street from the boarding house, held up two employes of the place, single-handed, at the point of a gun and got away with $500 in cash. The police at the time had an excellent description of the man wanted, but he had fled from the boarding place after the crime.

Half Dozen Cars Declared Stolen

With this job successfully the gang turned to auto thefts, and then systematically began to take expensive cars which had been left on the streets of Hartford by their owners in all, it is understood, the gang took at least half a dozen machines but as far as could be learned, all of them were abandoned afterwards and eventually claimed by their owners.

Matulis told Detective Sergeant Ellinger and O'Mara, who have handled the investigation of the case, that on December 23, he and Anderson stole a new Nash coach in Hartford, drove to New Britain and then to Plainville and in the early evening held up an Atlantic and Pacific store in that town. Matulis said that he remained at the wheel of the car with the engine running, while Anderson brandished the gun at the store clerk and got away with $94. From there they went to Norwich where they "laid low" in haunts of Anderson until the search for them had quieted down.

December 29, Matulis said, they stole a Jordan sedan, going for a joyride and left the machine near his home in New Britain.

That was the extent of Matulis' confession, although he told the authorities that he had knowledge of other crimes committed by Dwojakowski alias Anderson, as he knew him. details of which Matulis indicated he would be willing to reveal when in the presence of Dwojakowski himself.

Matulis also is known to have told the detectives that Dwojakowski, alias Andersen, held up an Economy grocery store in New Britain, two weeks ago, levelling two guns at the manager and getting away with $49 in cash.

Willimantic Theatre Grand Opening

(Special to The Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Jan. 21—Twenty-five hundred people coming from this city and surrounding towns and cities attended the opening of Willimantic's new Capitol theatre tonight. Fifteen minutes after the opening of the doors at 6 o'clock, the 1,200 seats and all the available standing room had been taken and hundreds awaited the second show. Continuous performances were given from 6:45 o'clock until 12:30 a. m. There were five great acts of vaudeville and the feature picture was Norma Shearer in His Secretary.

MRS. MARY LEARNED ELY PLAYS IN BOSTON CONCERTS

A Norwich visitor in Boston has been greatly impressed by the fine quality of the work being done as pianist and accompanist, by Mrs. Mary Learned Ely, formerly of Norwich. The high grade of this is best indicated by programmes of concerts in which she has appeared of late.

Two of these follow:

Gertrude Ehrhart, soprano; Mary L. Ely, accompanist.

1—An eine Aeolsharfe, Brahms; Schwalbe sag mir an, Brahms; Maria Wiegenlied, Reger; Und gestern hat er mir rosen gebracht, Marx.

2—Jewell Song from the Opera "Faust," Gounod

3—Clair de Lune, Szulc; Nell, Faure; Que je t'oublie? Luckstone; Chanson Sarrazine, Jonciere.

4—He Loves Me, Chadwick; Moonmarketing, Weaver; When the Night Comes, Carpenter; Spring Henschel.

The Boston City club, concert by the Pierian Sodality orchestra, of Harvard university, G. Sidney Stanton conductor, assisted by Gertrude Ehrhart, soprano; Mary L. Ely, accompanist; Earl Weidner, organist.

Valse Espana, Waldteufel; Russian Folksongs, arr. by Jacchia, (a) Volga Boatmen's Song, (b) Dubinushka (with organ); soprano solos, Und gestern hat er mir rosen gebracht, Marx, O Mio Babbino Caro from "Gianna Schicchi," Puccini, Carnaval, Fourdrain, Miss Ehrhart; March of the Little Lead Soldiers, Pierne; Selections from "The Student Prince," Romberg;; soprano solos, May Magic, Stratton, Sylvelin Sinding, two Mexican songs, (a) Little Star, arranged by Ponce, (b) En Cuba, Frank la Forge, Folk song, Miss Ehrhart; suite for String orchestra (Fruhling) Grieg, xylophone solo, Scott Burbank; suite from Sigurd Jorsalfar (with organ) Grieg; Fair Harvard.

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH SHOWN ADDITION PLANS

Annual reports were presented Thursday evening at the annual meeting of the Central Baptist church, showing a year of great activity in all departments and societies, a net gain of 11 in membership and a satisfactory financial condition. The pastor, Rev. David A. Pitt, presided at the business meeting which followed supper served at 6:15 to about 350, the largest attendance on record at the annual business meeting of the church.

All the annual reports were presented in the usual printed form and were accepted by the church. The following officers and committees for the ensuing year were elected:

Treasurer, Edward T. Messinger, assistant treasurer, Gilbert S. Raymond; clerk, George A. Ashbey; assistant clerk, Joseph S. Adams; board of managers, (three to be elected each for five years) Mrs. Charles C. Gildersleeve, N. Eugene Smith, William S. Spencer; trustee, (for five years) Charles D. Noyes; printing committee, Charles F. Whitney, Helen B. Moore, Harrison D. Noyes; nominating committee, Henry H. Pettis, chairman, Mrs. Chas. A. Hagberg, Charles L. Stewart, Harry Kromer, Benjamin H. Palmer, Jr; board of religious education, for one year, Mrs. C. Edward Smith; for two years, Miss Ruth A. Hamilton; for three years, Miss Alif Stephens; for four years, Harold S. Burt; for five years, A. F. Wyman.

The list of officers was presented by the nominating committee consisting of Gilbert S. Raymond, Henry H Pettis, Charles L. Stewart, N. Eugene Smith, Richard Young.

An interesting incident of the meeting was the showing of tentative plans for an addition to the church that will connect the main church building with the parish house which is located in the so-called Gilbert property.

A vote of thanks was passed to John P. Post, retiring assistant treasurer for his faithful work in the office, and it was voted to appoint a committee of five to consider the development of the Gilbert property and another committee of five to consider the future of the Preston chapel property.

An excellent chicken pie supper was served by the domestic committee, consisting of Mrs. Henrietta Tefft, chairman; Mrs. Jennie Davis, Mrs James Parker, Miss Nellie Rathbun, Mrs. Herbert Rogers, Mrs. Milton Terry, Mrs. E. Walter Phillips and Mrs. Willis P. Hill. The hostesses at the tables were: Mrs. A. T. Utley, Mrs. J. H. Barnes, Mrs. J. H. Ford, Mrs. C. A. Hagberg, Mrs. A. F. Wyman, Mrs. C. E. Smith, Mrs. N. Eugene Smith, Mrs. B. H. Palmer, Mrs. S. B. Palmer, Mrs. G. S. Raymond, Mrs Frank Case, Mrs. G. A. Ashbey, Mrs. C. L. Stewart, Mrs. H. E. Church, Mrs. C. W. Burton, Mrs. H. H Pettis, Mrs. J. E. Hawkins, Mrs. W. S. Spencer, Mrs. Ida Richardson, Mrs. Henry Geer, Mrs. A. Thatcher Otis, Mrs. F. A. Mitchell, Mrs. E. T. Messinger, Mrs. W. R. L. Cranston, Mrs. John E. Post, and Mrs. J. C. Darby.

WHISKEY CAPITAL BACKS MUSH-ROOM DRUG STORES

HARTFORD, Jan. 21—(AP)—Capital made in the whiskey business is behind a mush-room growth of drug stores throughout the state which have been established solely for the sale of whiskies and other liquors, Herbert M. Lerou of Norwich, secretary of the state pharmacy commission, charged tonight. That the white aprons of former saloon-keepers have been changed for the white coats of druggists in many instances was his description of the matter.

"Lacking cooperation, the members of the commission have had to fight alone," he said. "We have been left high and dry. But we are certainly going to continue to suspend licenses of all druggists convicted of selling liquor without permits or the proper perscriptions."

Mr. Lerou's statement followed his learning of a raid on the drug store of Louis I. Peisner of 43 Main street, Middletown, this afternoon, where a quantity of liquors were seized. Peisner had no permit and has been arrested for selling several times, one arrest resulting in a conviction, October 23, 1923.

"We suspended Peisner's license at the time of his conviction two years ago," Mr. Lerou declared. "Several complaints of his liquor selling have been received, one of them from the then president of Wesleyan university who accused Peisner of selling liquor to the students there. We sent down for his license and he refused to give it up, saying that he did so on advice of his lawyer."

"The matter was taken up with Attorney General Frank E. Healy, who told us that we could take the license if Peisner did not appeal his case within ten days," Mr. Lerou continued. "Mr. Healy said that he'd act for us at that time but Peisner's case dragged in the courts and until a few days ago did not come up before the commission again."

ANNUAL MEETING BY PARK CONG. CHURCH

The annual meetings of Park Congregational Church society and of the church membership were held Thursday evening at the Hugh Henry Osgood Memorial parish house preceded by a supper served at 6:30 o'clock. Immediately following the supper the annual meeting of the church society was held. The meeting was called to order by the society chairman, Weston C. Pullen who asked for nominations for a presiding officer. Henry A. Tirrell was chosen to preside over the meeting.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the clerk, W. Manley Eastwood, Jr., secretary, and were approved as read. The annual report of the treasurer, Eben Learned was then heard, showing all bills paid and a balance on hand. Weston C. Pullen, chairman of the society committee, gave his annual report of the society's activities during the last year, calling attention to the various repairs made, repairs to the parish house heater and the installation of a brand new heater in the church.

The officers for the coming year were elected as follows:

Treasurer, Eben Learned; clerk, W. Manley Eastwood, Jr.; trust fund committee, Charles R. Butts, Oliver L. Johnson and Frank H. Pullen; member of committe for four years, Howard L. Stanton.

Following adjournment of the society meeting the annual church meeting was called to order in the parish house parlors.

Rev. Samuel H. Howe, D. D. pastor of the church, presided over the meeting. The church clerk, William H. Collins, in his report stated that the present church membership is 354. Other reports were given as follows:

Treasurer, Mrs. Allen Latham; Woman's Federation, Mrs. John S. Blackmar; treasurer of the Woman's Federation, Mrs. R. C. Jones; men's club, Frank W. Clapp; superintendent of the Sunday school, Jonathan L. Johnson; treasurer of Sunday school, John Evans; secretary of the Sunday school, Otis Fellows; scoutmaster, Mr. Woodman.

The report of the nominating committee was then read as follows by Henry A. Tirrell:

Deacons, Oliver L. Johnson, Frank W. Browning, Dr. William T. Browne, Henry A. Tirrell, William H. Allen, John P. Huntington, James M. Morton and George L. Ingalls.

Deaconesses, Mrs. Frank Hempstead, Miss Mary A. C. Avery and Mrs. Henry D. Johnson.

Church clerk, William H. Collins.

Church treasurer, Mrs. Allen Latham.

Church committee, pastor, deacons, clerk, Miss Adelaid L. Butts, Miss Hannah Crowell, Wallace S. Allis, Albert M. Van Wagenen.

Offertory officers, Henry D. Johnson, chairman, William L. Fletcher, Robert W. Perkins, Allen Latham, Arthur E. Story, Dr. William W. Leonard, Neville Blicq, Robert Cochran, Edward J. Graham, Hibbard R. Norman.

Sunday school superintendent, Samuel E. Smiley; assistant superintendent Sunday school, Jonathan L. Johnson; superintendent primary department, Mrs. George L. Ingalls; treasurer of the Sunday school, John Evans; secretary of the Sunday school, Otis Fellows.

The report was accepted and the officers duly elected after which the meeting adjourned.

The committee in charge of the supper comprised Mrs. Raymond B. Sherman, chairman, Mrs. Charles W. Taggert, Mrs. Joseph T. Hynd, Mrs. Howarth Collins, Mrs. William Eastwood, Mrs. James M. Morton, Mrs. Harry Rusworth, Mrs. Herbert R. Branche, Mrs. William Douglas, Mrs. John E. Vaughn.

Mrs. Robert A. Smith was in charge of the dining hall, and the waitresses were Mrs. Lyle Fillmore, Mrs. Webster D. Copp, Misses Evon M. Broadhurst, Ruth Loring, Janet Blackstone, Helen Tirrell, Beatrice Leonard, Gladys Blicq, Virginia Smith, Esther Evans and Helen Risley.

Getting Skinnier Every Day

Something Must Be Done and Done Right Now—Quick

Tens of thousands of thin, run-down men—yes, and women too—are getting discouraged—are giving up all hope of ever being able to take on flesh and look healthy and strong.

All such people can stop worrying and start to smile and enjoy life right now for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets which any druggist will tell you all about, is putting flesh on hosts of skinny folks every day.

One woman, tired, weak and discouraged, put on 15 pounds in five weeks and now feels fine.

We all know that Cod Liver Oil is full of vitalizing, flesh producing vitamines, but many people can't take it because of its horrible smell and fishy taste and because it often upsets the stomach.

McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets are as easy to take as candy and if any thin person don't gain at least 5 pounds in 30 days your druggist is authorized give you your money back—and only 60 cents for 60 tablets. Ask Lee & Osgood Co., or any live pharmacist anywhere.

But be sure to get McCoy's, the original and genuine, and bear in mind that for thin, sickly kids they are wonderful—a very sickly child—age 9, gained 13 pounds in 7 months.

FIELDS CONTINUES HIGH IN EAGLES PINOCHLE

At the weekly pinochle held by the Eagles Thursday evening five tables were played. The scores were exceptionally high, nine players having a score of 7,000 or more.

Thomas Fields still maintains his average of over 7,000 when he won first prize with a score of 7,560. The other prize winners were Fred Molls, 7,555; J. Leirich, 7,455, and James Dwyer 7,410.

Michael Shea, known to the boys as Duke was at the bottom of the list with 5,680. The scores were as follows:

Tom Fields, 7,560; Fred Molls, 7,555; J. Leirich, 7,454; Jas. Dwyer, 7,410; N. Petrone, 7,200; Jos. Mouzinski, 7,175; John Sautter, 7,150; E. J. Mullins, 7,085; J. Pizgoda, 7,065; W. Caughey, 6,920; E. P. Mullins, 6,770; M. Milchette, 6,750; Tim Fields, 6,295; H. Marcus, 6,235; W. R. Hastedt, 6,115; H. Herring, 5,970; R. A. Krohn, 5,925; A. Hastedt, 5,870; T. Coughlin, 5,860; M. Shea, 5,680.

DIRECTORS AND MANAGERS OF YANTIC GRAIN CO. MEET

The annual January gathering of the directors of the Yantic Grain Co., with the managers of the various stores was held Thursday evening at the Wauregan hotel. A business meeting preceded supper.

Daniel Polsky, secretary of the company, presided, and spoke interestingly upon grain products and the trend of the market. An instructive talk upon the manufacture of salt was given by J. Gould, of the International Salt Co., of Utica. All present brought gratifying news of the success of the Big Y products, especially the Big Y dairy ration and the laying mash.

There were fifteen present including representatives from the Norwich headquarters and the managers from the branches in Yantic, Greeneville, Baltic, Moosup, Mystic, Willimantic Westerly and Arlington, R. I.

New York papers note that Charles F. Noyes Company has leased for Natanson and Mandelbaum & Lewine, Inc., erecting the 35 story building on the former Delmonico site, Fifth avenue and 44th street, 1,400 square feet of arcade space to Hirsch, Lilienthal & Co., a New York Stock Exchange firm, for ten years at an aggregate rental of $120,000.

Stop Itching Skin

Zemo, the Clean, Antiseptic Liquid, Gives Prompt Relief

There is one safe, dependable treatment that relieves itching torture and that cleanses and soothes the skin. Soon after the first application of Zemo you will find that irritations, Pimples, Blackheads, Eczema, Blotches, Ringworm and similar skin troubles will disappear.

Zemo is all that is needed, for it banishes most skin eruptions, makes the skin soft, smooth and heal

RICKARD INTIMATES HE WILL STAGE DEMPSEY-TUNNEY BOUT IN SEPT.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Tex Rickard whose promoting hand is credited with maneuvers believed to be preliminary to matching Jack Dempsey for a heavyweight title with the ex-marine Gene Tunney, broke his silence today sufficiently to give the impression that he figures on staging this battle at his Jersey City arena, Boyle's thirty acres, next September.

Rickard refused to make any point blank admission that he already has negotiations for such a match near completion, as published reports have contended. Likewise he declined to deny them but at the same time he admitted holding a conference yesterday with Billy Gibson, Tunney's manager, expressed his conviction that Tunney is the champion's most logical contender and made it clear he has shelved plans to match Dempsey with the persistent negro challenger, Harry Wills.

The promoter refused even to reveal the subject of his conference with Gibson but boxing men gathered the impression that Tunney's manager, now on his way to Miami, Florida, has reached a full agreement with Rickard and will act for the latter in arranging final details with Dempsey in the southern city.

While July and August dates already have been suggested for a Tunney-Dempsey match, Rickard hinted that September would be preferable. The advantage of this to Dempsey, it was pointed out, is that his present managerial contract with Jack Kearns, expires about the first of September, after which the champion will not be obliged to split any boxing profits.

The Whitte situation, Rickard explained, "may be clarified within four of five days," a statement also interpreted to mean that his negotiations are nearing completion.

Asked about his status with the New York State athletic commission if he violated its rules against dickering with Dempsey, who is ineligible, Rickard said:

"Why shouldn't I dicker with anyone I want? I am not a licensed matchmaker, promoter, boxer, judge or referee and therefore the commission has no jurisdiction over me. I am a director in the Madison Square Garden corporation.

"Who do you think is the logical contender for Dempsey's title, Harry Wills or Gene Tunney?" Rickard was asked.

"Gene Tunney, positively," he answered. "Tunney has fought himself in a position which no other heavyweight occupied. Name a man he has refused to fight? He knocked out Georges Carpentier Tommy Gibbons, Ermino Spalla and holds the only knockout against Bartley Madden. In addition he has defeated Martin Burke, Harry Greb, Jimmy Delaney and Charlie Weinert.

"Then Tunney signed a contract to meet Mills, with the winner being guaranted a match with Dempsey. I offered Wills $150,000 to meet Tunney but he wouldnt even come near me, he elected to go over to Jersey to get $7,000 for a knockout over Floyd Johnson."

"The state athletic commission cannot insist that Dempsey fights Wills before he fights anyone else. Didn't Wills violate the rule of the commission by going out to Michigan and sign articles for match with Dempsey at South Bend, Ind?

"Didn't you say in your annual predictions, printed just a short time ago, that Dempsey would fight twice in 1926?" the promoter was asked.

"Yes, I did, but I don't think that now. If Dempsey meets Tunney in September I don't believe he'll have time to fight again in 1926."

RAIN GIVES MISS WILLS AN UNWELCOME REST

CANNES, France, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Helen Wills had an unwelcome rest from competition in the Metropole tournament today when rainy weather replaced the Riviera sunshine, causing the postponement of the American woman champion's quarter-final match with Mrs. C. F. Aeschlimann, formerly Miss Leslie Bancroft of Boston.

Miss Wills did not appreciate the lay-off, as she says she needs all the play she can get to improve her stroking. She feels that her form at present is below her best, and is anxious to practice every day possible before her expected meeting with Suzanne Lenglen next month.

Only two out of sixteen American, English and French tennis experts gathered here awaiting the meeting of Helen Wills and Susanne Lenglen favor the American champion's chances to defeat the French flash. This was disclosed by a straw vote taken today in the smoking room of the Metropole hotel, when a rainy day on the Riviera gave the experts an opportunity to play verbal indoor tennis.

Miss Wills supporters were one American and one Englishman.

The present tournament should give a line on the respective strength of Miss Wills and Mlle Lenglen against the same opponents. Miss Wills must defeat Mrs. Aeschlimann in order to reach the semi-finals. If she does this she will probably play Mlle Contostavos; they are in the lower half of the draw.

The finalist in the upper end of the draw is almost certain to be either Mrs. Satterthwaite or Mlle Valsto. Suzanne has met and defeated the latter players repeatedly, never losing a set to either of them. Thus Miss Wills' score in the finals will afford a basis for comparison.

ZIVIC FAVORITE TO BEAT MILLIGAN TONIGHT

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Jack Zivic of Pittsburgh is a favorite to defeat Tommy Milligan of England in their 10-round international welterweight match at Madison Square Garden tomorrow night.

The Pittsburgher, substituting for Mickey Walker, welterweight champion, is one of the hardest hitters in the 147 pounds division and his backers predict a decisive victory.

The other ten-round matches of intersectional flavor pit eastern favorites against California rivals. Willie Harmon, New York welterweight, faces Harry Dudley of California in one of the leading contenders for the title now held by Charlie (Phil) Rosenberg, will face California Joe Lynch.

Cowboy Jack Willis of Texas, squares off with Tony Lyaene of New York in a six-rounder.

WESLEYAN TRACK TEAM TO HAVE FIVE MEETS

MIDDLETOWN, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Five varsity and one freshman meets make up the 1926 schedule of the Wesleyan track team, as announced today by Manager George M. Brodhead of Philadelphia. The varsity schedule follows:

April 24, Connecticut Agricultural college; May 1, Williams; 8, Swarthmore; 14, Amherst, at Amherst; 21-22, New England intercollegiates at Boston.

Meriden high school will meet the Wesleyan freshmen May 15 at Middletown.

J. C. Tigers Accept Challenge

The Jewett City Tigers accept the challenge of the Taftville Terriers and will play them this coming Saturday at Bijou Hall in Jewett City. The game will be scheduled for 1:30 o'clock.

Basketball

—TONIGHT—

At St. Jean's Hall, Baltic

Baltic Five vs.

Danielson Town Team

FAST PRELIMINARY GAME

Admission—Men 50c, Ladies 35c.

Game Called at 8:15.

BASKETBALL

—TONIGHT—

Plainfield Community House

AT 8:15.

Plainfield Town Team

vs. JEWETT CITY PROS.

FAST PRELIMINARY GAME.

SEATS FOR ALL.

MAJOR LEAGUE SCHEDULES HAVE BEEN DRAFTED

PITTSBURGH, Jan 21.—(AP)—The National and American Baseball League schedules for the coming season have been drafted and are ready for submission to the club owners, who will meet to ratify them early in February, Barney Dreyfuss, the National League schedule maker announced here tonight.

The announcement came at the close of a two day meeting of the schedule committees, including Dreyfuss, B. B. Johnson, president of the American League and his secretary, William Hardridge.

The committeemen refused to discuss the schedules, other than to say that "they have been signed and sealed and are ready for delivery to the league," asked concerning the trouble encountered by the schedule makers in fitting the playing dates to the proposed shorter season, Dreyfuss said "we did the best we could. The schedules will be kept secret until they have been ratified. I cannot give you the opening and closing dates, other than that the beginning of the season for the Pittsburgh Club. The Pirates will open at St. Louis on April 13."

The National League Club owners are to meet in New York on February 2, when, it is expected they will ratify the schedule, the American League owners will meet at a later date to take similar action, probably on February 9.

The joint schedule committee labored for a week prior to the session here, in an effort to overcome difficulties growing out of the shorter season. At the joint league meetings Commissioner Landis cast the deciding vote to close on September 26, earlier than usual.

SECOND OF JEWETT CITY AND PLAINFIELD SERIES TONIGHT

(Special to The Bulletin.)

PLAINFIELD, Jan. 21.—After losing the first of a three-game series by an overwhelming score Jewett City will come to Plainfield Friday night with the intention and determination of putting the series on an even basis with the Plainfield Town team.

In fact, Manager Faber of the Jewett City team is so anxious for a victory that he has signed up the entire Steamroller outfit of Providence to turn the trick. Two weeks ago this same aggregation put up the most stubborn opposition that the Plainfield five has been called upon to face this season. After forty minutes of the fastest play ever witnessed on the local floor the Plainfield team emerged the victor by two points.

At the clip that the Plainfield team is traveling, Manager Salisbury has all the confidence in the world that the Jewett City fans are due for the biggest disappointment of their lives if they expect to walk away with an easy victory. The Jewett City team will be composed of Brouseau, Riopel, Walkenshaw, Golembski, and Garvey. Plainfield will use its regular lineup of Normandin, Dissinger, Norris, Benson, Madden and Thornton.

Tommy Pickett of Willimantic will referee the contest.

MAJOR LEAGUE SCHEDULE MEETING TO BE HELD FEB. 3

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—(AP)—The adjourned meeting of the joint scheduled committee of the major leagues will be held in New York, February 3, President John Heydler of the National League, announced today.

Mr. Heydler said he had exchanged telegrams with Ban Johnson, president of the American League, and Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburgh club of the National League, relative to the difficulties which arose at the last meeting and caused an adjournment without completing the playing program. And he believed the difficulties were now eliminated.

Mr. Heydler said he had asked Mr. Dreyfuss to meet him with Ban Johnson sometime before the schedule meeting and prepare the program to be submitted to the members in joint session. He said the pressure of work connected with the Golden jubilee dinner to be held February 2, made it impossible for him to leave New York.

The joint rules committee will also meet in New York either before or after the dinner, Mr. Heydler said.

LUKE SET N. E. RECORD FOR 500-YD FREE STYLE

BROOKLIN, Mass., Jan. 21.—(AP)—James Luke of the Yale university swimming team established a New England record in the men's national junior A. A. U. 500 yard free style race at the Brookline Swimming Club meet tonight, covering the distance in 6 minutes 24 1-5 second. Harold Florence of the Boys' Club of New York was second and William Sanford of Yale third.

Wesleyan vs. Amherst

MIDDLETOWN, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Wesleyan and Amherst will play the second game in the New England little three basketball championship at Amherst Saturday. Wesleyan won the first game of this series by a score of 41 to 13 against the Williams' quintet.

TODAY'S SPORTS

RACING

Meeting of Louisiana Jockey Club, at New Orleans.

Meeting of Miami Jockey Club, at Miami, Fla.

Meeting of Tia Juana Jockey Club, at Tia Juana.

Meeting of Havana-American Jockey Club, at Havana.

GOLF

Annual Mid-January tournament closes at Pinehurst, N. C.

Annual Halifax tournament, at Ormond Beach, Fla.

Dallas open championship tournament, at Dallas, Texas.

WHIST

Annaul tournament of Northwest Whist Association, at Minneapolis.

CURLING

Northwestern Curling Association bonspiel, at St. Paul.

MOTORBOAT

Opening of annual National Motor Boat Show, in New York.

BOXING

Tommy Milligan vs. Jack Zivic, 5 rounds, at New York.

California Joe Lynch vs. Bushey Braham, 10 rounds, at New York.

Ace Hudkins vs. Frankie Schaefer, 10 rounds, at Los Angeles.

LARGE GROUP ATTENDS LIFE SAVING INSTRUCTION

The second day of Captain Bryant's Red Cross Life Saving instruction took place in the Y. M. C. A. swimming pool yesterday afternoon, when possibly the largest group that ever responded to a local swimming effort, applied for the fun and training, with the result that there was considerable fun and splashing as the young men and boys endeavored to carry out the captain's commands. Owing to the large enrollment, the classes had to be divided into several sections, and many of the less experienced swimmers let go until they can develop more swimming practice.

The work given the swimmers thus far has consisted mainly of developing the strokes necessary for reaching and carrying drowning persons, how to rescue persons in danger and the like. In giving his instruction Captain Bryant, has given the swimmers much valuable information regarding swimming in general, and many spectators have turned out each night to see the work, as well as secure the instruction given.

In the enrollment of swimmers, there has been a wide representation of organizations, including the Boy Scouts, Y. M. C. A., N. F. A., while swimmers are attending each night from Jewett City, Willimantic, New London, and other surrounding towns.

Captain Bryant spoke at Riverside school, Jewett City yesterday morning, where he addressed four hundred children on the subject of "Water Safety." In his talk the captain gave many valuable hints, that will probably have a lasting effect on these boys and girls.

Some interesting work is scheduled for todays program, and persons interested in watching the classes being run through their interesting stunts are invited to visit the association."

VETERANS PLANNING AMATEUR BOXING TOURNAMENT

The Veterans of Foreign Wars of Rhode Island will hold their annual amatur boxing tournament in Infantry Hall, Providence, January 26 and 28, February 1 and 3. These tournaments for the past several years have been considered the best of their kind in New England. Many of the leading lights in the ring made their first appearance in former tournaments held under the auspices of this soldier organization.

The athletic committee is leaving no stone unturned to make this seasons tournament a banner affair. They are offering prizes for fourteen classes, as follows, 100 pounds—105 pounds—110 pounds—120 pounds—125 pounds—130 pounds—135 pounds—140 pounds—145 pounds—150 pounds—155 pounds—160 pounds—175 pounds, and the heavyweight class which includes all over 175 pounds.

There will also be classes for boxers who have never heretofore taken part in a tournament to be known as novice classes.

Any boxer in New England who has never taken part in a professional contest is eligible to enter this tournament.

The organization pays traveling expenses to all entries who enter from outside of the city of Providence.

Entries may be made by writing to J. E. Doherty, 40 Bainbridge avenue, Providence, R. I.

MANY ATTEND OPENING OF MIAMI JOCKEY CLUB

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 21.—(AP)—More than 30,000 persons attended the opening of the second season of racing at the Miami Jockey Club plant here today.

A large portion of the winter colony at Palm Beach came here on a special train. Coral Gables and Miami Beach added many celebrities to the list which Miami herself contributed to the crowds.

E. W. Howe, "the sage of Potato Hill," and his niece, Miss Adelaide Howe were guests of Mayor E. C. Romfh, of Miami, and Mrs. Romfh.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard (Abe Martin) and Mr. and Mrs. O. O. McIntyre, were among guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Shutts, of Miami at a box party.

Mrs. Florenz Ziegfeld (Billie Burke) came from Palm Beach in a special car with Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Frelinghuysen and Gurnee Munn.

BARNES AND FARRELL TO PLAY JONES AND ARMOUR

TAMPA, Fla., Jan. 21.—(AP)—Jim Barnes, British open champion, and Johnny Farrell, New York, will meet Bobby Jones, national amateur champion, and Tommy Armour, in a 36 hole match at Sarasota tomorrow.

Barnes and Farrell will be accompanied by Archie Compston of England, Arnaud Massey, French open champion. They will be paired with Jones and Armour Saturday.

BOSTON VS. NEW YORK IN BELLEAIR GOLF FINALS

BELLEAIR HEIGHTS, Fla., Jan. 21.—(AP)—New York will be pitted against Boston in the finals of the open golf tournament here tomorrow when H. K. B. Davis, of New York, meets A. M. Hoxie, of Boston. Davis defeated G. A. Hobart today in the semi-finals, while Hoxie triumphed over Grantland Rice.

Renault Kayoes Saavedra

TAMPA, Fla., Jan. 21.—(AP)—Jack Renault, Canadian heavyweight, tonight knocked out Clemente Saavedra, of Chile, in the second round of a scheduled ten-round bout. Renault knocked the South American almost through the ropes with a right hook to the chin.

Pirates Win Again

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 21.—(AP)—The rejuvenated Pittsburgh entry in the National Professional Hockey League tonight won its third straight game, defeating the St. Patricks of Toronto, 3 to 0.

RACE TRACK SUIT ENDS ABRUPTLY THROUGH LACK OF PARTICULARS

BALTIMORE, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Hearing of arguments on an injunction petition to restrain race tract betting in Maryland ended abruptly this afternoon when Federal Judge Morris A. Soper held the bill of particulars insufficient. Gwynn Gardner of Washington, counsel for Robert M. Williams, of Washington and New York, the petitioner, was given 10 days in which to amend it. Judge Soper announced there would be no more verbal arguments, and directed attorneys for both sides to submit briefs.

Mr. Williams who alleges that prosperity owned by himself near Laurel race track has been lowered in value by the proximity of the track, asks that race track betting be stopped on the grounds that the Burke law of 1920, under which Maryland tracks and the Maryland Racing commission operate, is unconstitutional and conflicts with the Maryland anti-lottery law. The petitioner alleges that the law shows class distinction in favor of Pimlico, Laurel, Bowie and Havre de Grace tracks by stipulating that tracks operating under it shall have had 100 days of racing during three years before the law became effective. The law countenances operation of parimutuel machines. Tracks starting since 1917, Mr. Williams alleged, are discriminated against.

Assistant Attorney General Herman Levy, in his argument, declared pique on the part of the Tri-County Fair association, near Laurel, over failure to receive betting privileges from the Maryland Racing association for a proposed race meet, to be the underlying motive for the injunction suit. He identified Mr. Williams as head of the association, which, when the privilege was refused, brought suit against the racing commission in St. George's county and lost.

DUWELL CLUB LEAGUE

Reds
Whitaker	80	78	89	247
C. Barber	102	101	91	294
J. Pedace	77	76	74	227
Patrick	67	72	69	208
Gross	92	83	87	262
Dom. Pedace	86	97	99	282
	504	507	509	1520
Whites
Woodmansee	78	88	85	251
Laradore	82	80	87	249
Murphy	67	78	69	214
T. John	76	72	70	218
Lynch	114	89	81	284
Coleman	95	100	78	274
	512	507	471	1490
Blues
Barber P.	95	86	82	263
B. Pedace	93	76	68	237
Hoelck	79	76	80	235
Riley	101	93	101	295
Boyens	85	100	84	269
P. John	90	86	91	267
	542	517	506	1566
Greens
Williamson	87	99	103	289
Cramer	72	85	77	234
W. Pedace	85	77	86	248
Spaulding	96	87	105	288
Clement	85	87	90	262
Shannon	93	93	83	267
	518	526	544	1588

NORWICH LEAGUE

Palace
Aldi	93	95	106	288
Jeralski	120	127	116	363
Lewk	80	87	85	252
Morin	105	97	105	307
Dugas	100	116	114	330
	498	522	520	1540
Peerless of New London
Sistare	107	92	90	289
Holt	103	1002	88	291
Sullivan	105	94	104	303
Smith	94	83	75	252
Campbell	100	89	96	285
	509	458	453	1450
Taftville Pin Boys
Adams	73	78	81	232
Gaudette	81	79	85	245
Chip, Jr.	83	90	77	250
Comtois	90	92	88	270
Mish	93	81	103	277
	420	420	434	1274
Peerless Pins Boys of New London
S. Traystman	89	82	81	252
S. Gaetano	97	92	85	274
F. Lewyant	112	110	114	336
A. Petchark	102	92	90	284
C. Petchark	95	108	92	295
	495	484	462	1441

THREE MAN LEAGUE

Athletics
Brown	96	83	93	272
White	78	85	88	251
Aldi	113	91	111	315
	287	259	293	844
Senators
Guyon	87	107	95	289
Bolton	84	88	94	266
Vounce	99	92	95	286
	270	287	284	841
Indians
Connell	90	79	80	249
Hammond	95	85	98	278
Simcox	109	116	86	311
	294	280	264	838
Red Sox
Rubel	113	115	91	318
Flynn	84	85	87	256
Busch	91	87	91	269
	287	287	269	843
Tigers
Mara	85	91	84	260
E. Morin	97	84	86	267
Scud	142	90	88	320
	324	265	258	847
Browns
Kane	86	80	84	250
Lynch	90	83	93	265
Lewk	115	93	101	309
	291	254	278	823

AT JEWETT CITY ALLEYS

Jewett City
La Fave	99	110	95	304
Gaudette	114	87	116	317
Gingrass	102	91	114	307
Gilbert	83	110	114	306
Harriss	85	148	129	357
Jarvis	107	117	97	321
	589	663	665	1912
Riverview
Dr. Agos	106	92	109	307
Chester	86	80	74	239
Zeke	87	90	82	259
Dr. Gaitz	94	107	94	295
F. Bryan	93	114	124	331
J. Moore	105	124	106	337
	570	609	583	1762

SPECIAL MATCH AT NEW LONDON

Palace, Norwich
Aldi	87	93	108	288
Scud	74	109	117	290
Sonny	106	85	96	287
Morin	106	93	103	300
Dugas	118	114	109	342
	491	494	533	1517
Lawrence, New London
Robinson	93	87	91	271
Holt	103	120	119	342
Marsters	100	111	113	324
Campbell	89	99	95	283
Belcher	97	96	110	303
	491	513	527	1531

Hockey

At Boston: Truro (N. S.) Hockey Club 6; Boston College 3.

American Basketball League

At Detroit: Detroit 38; Boston 14.

ON JEWETT CITY ALLEYS

Jew tt City
Elizabeth Budkowski	56	66	67	139
Grace Kobais	68	66	50	184
Agnes Dudkowski	89	79	71	233
Helen McGowan	87	83	83	252
Margaret McGowan	74	89	96	259
	374	383	346	1123
Ashland
Vosic Valiry	101	77	93	271
Wanda Salenski	85	77	72	234
Delima Lefave	79	83	94	256
Alma Perry	110	76	79	265
Mrs. Chase	99	88	83	261
	465	401	421	1287

DOUBLES MATCH FEATURES CANADIAN RACQUETS PLAY

MONTREAL, Jan. 21.—(AP)—The feature match of today's play for the Canadian amateur racquet title was the doubles event between C. J. Coulter, and C. Hutchins, of Boston, and A. R. Vickers and A. J. Hills of Montreal. The Americans won after five games, the score being 15-6, 9-15, 4-15, 15-7, 15-2.

A Challenge

The Jewett City Crescents, formerly the Fisk Red Tops, would like to arrange out of town games with any of the following teams: Taftville Celtics, Baltic Bantams, Plainfield Buddies or any other junior team in the eastern part of the state. Address all challenges to William Ambot, Box 1231, Jewett City.

Schaefer Beats Hoppe

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—(AP)—By winning the final block of their exhibition match tonight, Jack Schaefer, world's 18.2 balkline billiard champion, defeated Willie Hoppe former holder of the title, by a point score of 1,102 to 833. Four blocks of 300 points were played, Schaefer winning two and Hoppe two.

SPORT WORLD BRIEFS

Pete Behan, former Philadelphia National pitcher, has been signed by the Mobile club of the Southern League.

Carl J. Mierke of Rochester, N. Y., has accepted terms as an umpire in the Three I League. He has made a wide reputation as a semi-pro official.

George Whiteman, manager of Ardmore team of the Western association last season, is said to be seeking the management of the Okmulgee team of that league.

Everett Bankston, hard hitting outfielder of Columbia of the South Atlantic League, has been sold to Richmond of the Virginia league. The price was given out as $1,250.

Birmingham of the Southern League has obtained Pitcher Andy Rush from Waterbury of the Eastern League. Rush was the property of the Brooklyn Robins for some time.

Spartanburg of the South Atlantic League, has signed a shortstop named O'Brien, who was in the Three-I League a few seasons ago. He has been playing semi-pro ball in Kentucky.

Fort Worth has sent Catcher Wolgamot and Outfielder Stormy Davis to Waco in exchange for Pitcher Jim (Red) Bird. He is a lefthander and adds a whole lot of class to Jake Atz' layout.

Rochester of the International League, has signed Harvey Reese, a big righthanded pitcher, from Dayton. O. Burley Horn of the Tribe, was responsible for the contract being sent the youngster.

Harold Irelan, manager of the Decatur team of the Three-I league is already on the ground getting things shaped up for the season. He was manager of the Commies in 1920 until illness forced him out of the game.

According to announcement from Owner Comiskey of the Chicago White Sox, his team and the New York Giants will make a tour of South America at the close of the coming season. It is figured the trip will take at least two months.

Wichita Falls of the Texas League, has been offered the operation of the Austin club of the Texas association, if the Spudder officials will supply the players. The club was originally offered Fort Worth, but Business Manager LaGrave turned it down.

Allan Russell pitcher of the Washington Senators, has asked President Griffith for his release so that he can devote his attention the year round to his business in Baltimore. He is vice president of a company that operates a chain of drug stores.

Herbert R. Fish, a young first baseman and outfielder, has been signed by the Springfield club of the Eastern League. He is a home town product, who got a trial with the Ponies several years ago, when he was but 17 years old. Bill Phelan, another Springfield boy, is also a candidate for the first base job.

SUGAR

Is still advancing, but at the request of hundreds of our customers we have decided to repeat for Friday and Saturday of this week

18 Pounds Best GRANULATED SUGAR for $1.00

With each pound of Tea, Coffee, Cocoa or Baking Powder purchased at our store on Friday and Saturday.

DISCO BROS.

255 MAIN STREET.

—This drawing was contributed by J. F. Knott of the Dallas Morning News to the cause of Success and Happiness

Why Be A Sheep With Your Money?

"I'll take a chance," say the sheep. And millions of dollars each year fatten the pockets of the unscrupulous wolves who prey upon men and women—those who think that they are investors but who fail to realize that real investors first investigate.

"I'll ask my banker," "I'll consult a reliable investment house," say the real investors. And each year they receive millions of dollars in interest at fair rates on safe, sound securities.

Buy securities, of course. Make your money work and pay you reasonable returns. But don't be a sheep. It's just as easy to say, "I'll ask my banker" as it is to say "I'll take a chance."

Today is Safe Investment Day—the sixth day of National Thrift Week for Success and Happiness.

WESTERLY

ASKS POLICE TO HELP HIM FIND "MOVIE-MAD" WIFE

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WESTERLY, R. I., Jan. 21—Mrs. William E. Wiswall, of 58 Battery street, Providence, described by her husband as "movie-mad," who at one time resided in Pawcatuck, is being sought by the Providence police department at the solicitation of her husband. To the Providence police department the distracted husband made his appeal stating that his wife had left her home last August with the word that she was going into movies. The further description given of her was that she was 28 years old, weighed about 85 pounds and had dark brown eyes and hair.

During the short time she resided in Pawcatuck Mrs. Wiswall lived at the Metropolitan hotel on West Broad street and was employed as a waitress at the Biltmore lunch at the west end of Pawcatuck river bridge. Some time after Mrs. Wiswall's husband communicated with lunch room proprietors but they were unable to furnish any further information other than the fact that New York was claimed as her address at that time.

By deed recorded in the office of the Westerly town clerk it appears that the following transfer has been made:

Jan. 20—Frank Capalbo to Natale Corina and wife, Antoniette, of Bradford, a certain lot or parcel of land together with buildings and improvements at Bradford, on the east side of Main street.

At the Broad Street Christian church on Wednesday evening, there was a large attendance at the second fellowship supper, which was provided by a committee of which George E. Broughton was the chairman. The programme following the supper was given by several of the young people of the church. The topic for the evening, "Ideas that Stir Men to Action," was discussed by Tom Burdick, Miss Mary Whewell, Miss Ruth Patton, Mrs. Joseph Sicilian and Miss Frances Ayers. The pastor, Rev. A. L. Schoning, spoke on the subject of "The Great Ideas of Our Church," and Mr and Mrs. LeRoy Farnsworth told of their work as missionaries in Africa. The programme also included a violin solo by Miss Amy Eaton. Charles M. Webbe was master of ceremonies.

A fracture of the left arm was suffered by Miss Etta E. Randall, assistant librarian of the Westerly Memorial and public library, on Wednesday afternoon, when she slipped and fell from the curbing in front of her residence on Main street. The fracture was reduced at the Westerly hospital where she was taken for an X-ray.

Mrs. Emma E. Wilcox, of Pawcatuck, left Westerly Thursday morning for Boston and Quincy, Mass., where she will be the guest of her son, John B. Wilcox and family, before returning home.

Westerly Station Agent Earl S. Bavier returned to his duties Wednesday, after an absence of several weeks following an operation undergone at a New London hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Boiles left home Wednesday, for a visit of several weeks in Savannah, Ga.

Miss Irene H. MacKnight, of Pawcatuck, left Thursday morning for a visit in Providence.

Attorney Herbert W. Rathbun was a caller in New London, Thursday morning.

Mrs. David F. Stillman, who has been ill since January 1st., is again confined to her bed.

Westerly Town Solicitor John Ferguson, Jr., was a Providence visitor on Thursday afternoon.

Hugh McComb, a former Norwich resident, was a visitor in Westerly and Pawcatuck Thursday.

Mrs. Harold D. Livingstone left Thursday morning, for a visit in Providence.

George C. Moore has returned to Westerly, after spending some time in New Orleans, La.

George Corey has returned to duties at the Westerly freight station and Fred R. Wilcox has been transferred to the Westerly ticket office, during the absence of Ticket Agent George A. Golden, who is recovering from an operation.

Frank F. Dodge, of Stonington borough, was a Westerly visitor Wednesday afternoon.

MYSTIC

A New York paper of Jan. 17th had a notice of the death of Erastus H. Barnes at a hotel in Pasadena, Cal., where he had gone to spend the winter. He is remembered by many here as he was the son of the late Nathan W. and Harriet M. Way Barnes of Church street and spent his early life here. He was a regular visitor here as long as his parents lived.

William Davey, who is a patient at a hospital in New London, is improving.

The Sea Sled company of West Mystic is among the exhibitors at the annual New York motor boat show which opened Thursday at the Grand Central palace. Their latest models are on exhibition and as they are noted for speed will attract much attention.

The sewing society of Charity chapter O. E. S., held a public whist in Odd Fellows hall Thursday night.

In spite of the bad condition of the country roads a number are planning to drive to the Ledyard Grange hall tonight (Friday) to attend the entertainment given by the Get-Together club of the Congregational church.

Helen Starkey chapter of St. Mark's church met with Mrs. George D. Johnson on Willow street Thursday.

Cards received from Mr. and Mrs. Louis P. Allyn, Daytona, Fla., say they had a nice trip on the through train and found it colder than usual in Florida at this time of the year.

Mrs. Gurdon Allyn of West Mystic, called on Miss Jennie Denison Wednesday and found her recovering from a severe grip cold that kept her in bed more than a week.

Mrs. Francis Mitchell has returned to Old Mystic, after a few days visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. Elmer Newbury.

Mrs. Ettabelle Griswold, district deputy president, with her suite, were in New London Thursday evening and installed the officers of Orient lodge of Rebekahs.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Lathrop of Elm street left Jan. 9, for Daytona, Fla. She found it quite cold there and went farther south to spend the remainder of the winter.

At the regular service of the Baptist church, Wednesday evening letters were granted to Fred Rudd to unite with Pequonoc Baptist church and to Misses Olive and Nellie Caldwell to unite with the Williamntic Baptist church.

Jerome Bendett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Bendett was dismissed from the Home Memorial hospital Wednesday.

Miss Flora Kennedy of Old Mystic is visiting relatives in Hartford.

Capt. Jesse Wilcox is able to be out after being confined to his home for several weeks due to an injury to his hip.

Clark C. Allyn, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Allyn of Masons Island is home on a fifteen day furlough from his duties on the U. S. S. Galveston.

This is the first time he has been home in fifteen months.

The choir of St. Mark's Episcopal church will meet at the home of Miss Ethel Weir of Brugermais Place, for a rehearsal this (Friday) morning.

The annual meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion was held Thursday evening.

A Studebaker car driven by a local man and a Dodge sedan bearing a Rhode Island registration came together on High street Wednesday, damaging both cars. The state police were on hand for an investigation.

NOANK

The committee, Mrs. Gertrude Tourjee, Mrs. W. Fox, Mrs. Elizabeth Hobart, have arranged the following entertainment for the D. of A. meeting this Friday evening. Readings, Mrs. Abbie Brook ad Mrs. Esther Andrews, Mrs. Gertrude Sawyer; vocal solo, Miss Grace Rathburn; recitation, by Frances Goodwin; vocal solo, Mabel Carpenter piano duet, Mrs. Florence Eccleston and Mrs. Eunice Carpenter, vocal solo, Miss Marion MacDonald; piano solo, Caroline Smith; vocal solo, Lyle Chesebro, Audrey Brooks, Hazel Wolverton; piano solo, Elizabeth Daboll; a short sketch called Grandmother, Elizabeth Hobart, grandmother, son Jean Bentley; daughter, Aileen Bentley, Gertrude Tourjee, Hazel Wolverton, Ruth Shaffer; grandmother, Roberta Ashcroft, Kenneth Hodgson, Le Roy Hodgson, Dugah McDonald. Music will be furnished by Miss Bernice Smith.

The whist and pinochle series given by firemen in charge of Samuel Carson, Edward Schoonmaker and Neil A. Morrison, was largely attended. High awards in pinochle went to Mr. and Mrs. John Robertson, Men's low to Mrs. Robert Maynard and Rollin Rathburn. Whist, first prizes, Miss Abbie Porter and Mr. Powlock; consolation, Mrs. Delia Rathburn and Ada Banks.

Mrs. Lizzie Potter has gone to Waterford to spend the remainder of the winter with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. Fitch are to leave this week for their annual visit with their son, Herbert and family in Florida.

Jerry Sullivan has left for Newport to enter the hospital as a patient.

Mrs. George Sisson has returned from White Rock.

Mrs. Abbie Anderson has returned to New Jersey after visiting with local relatives.

One of the local icemen, while at work recently at Chesebro' pond breaking the cakes, missed the cake and fell into the pond. He has suffered no ill effects as the result of the ducking.

Avery Fitch has returned to Baltimore after a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. E. P. Fitch.

The fishing boats reported good catches on Wednesday. One boat got seven barrels of flatfish.

Mrs. W. Daboll was a caller in Hartford Wednesday.

Sore throats need this Double-Treatment

YOUR sore, aching throat probably needs the soothing, healing vapors that arise from Vicks VapoRub when it is rubbed over throat and chest at bedtime. And Vicks acts two ways at once:

(1) It is vaporized by the body heat and inhaled right to the inflamed air passages, loosening the phlegm and easing the difficult breathing;

(2) At the same time it warms and stimulates the skin like an old-fashioned poultice, "drawing out" the pain and soreness and thus helps the vapors inhaled to relieve the congestion.

Good for the colds of all the family.

Acts 2 ways at once

VICKS VAPORUB

COLCHESTER

Colchester Fire Co., No. 1, gave a banquet Wednesday evening in the parlor of the engine house and had as their guests, the wardens, burgesses and the fire commissioners of the borough. Tables were set in the parlor of the house and were loaded down with good things for the inner man. At nine o'clock the assemblage stood back of their chairs and Burgess Lucius C. Brown said grace, after which all were seated. The waitresses were Miss Rachael Friedman, Miss Bell and Miss Merrill. The menu consisted of clam chowder, cold meats, lobster salad, celery, pickles, cold slaw, cake, coffee and cigars.

The spread was made possible by contributions from the Cohen Brothers, who suffered the loss of their factory and Wooster lodge, F. & A. M., who occupied the top story of the Ransom school building, which building was saved without damage. Rev. Phillip Mooney donated a box of cigars. This is the first of a series of get-together meetings of the firemen and the borough officials, at which the wants and requirements of the company will be discussed. The warden and burgesses have pledged themselves to stand back of the company in everything which will be for the betterment of the company. They would like to see the company on a par with the volunteer companies in the state. Short speeches were made by the warden and burgesses and by members of the company. The warden gave a short history of the fire company, which was organized in May, 1884.

At its organization 40 of the young men of the borough enlisted and of 40 members there are but 8 left, the rest having passed away to answer the roll call above. The morning after the organizing, an alarm was given and the company answered immediately and by good work saved the building without much loss. The building belonged to Alfred Worthington, of Detroit, and for the good work done he sent the company a check for $50. The same night a heavy thunder shower passed over the village and a bolt of lightning struck a barn belonging to Walter Strong. An alarm was sent in and in spite of the storm the company turned out and the connecting buildings were saved. The company received a check for $25 for the good work done. This good work put a lot of pep in the company and the company held together for several years. But a number of the members left town when work in the shop gave out and for a number of years not much interest was taken in the company. The company was originally named Hayward Fire Co. But in later years it was changed to Colchester Fire Co., No. 1, which name is still goes under. The old engine, which was a Hunneman hand engine, built in 1854, was replaced about a year and a half ago, by a Reo chemical and pumper and is an up to date apparatus.

The company now consists of about 30 members, Gilbert J. Murray being the foreman. The following borough officials attended the gathering: Warden Baker, Burgesses Lucius C. Brown, Joseph Agranovitch, Dr. A. L. Stebbins, Frederick W. Holmes and Gilbert J. Murray, Borough Clerk William E. Adams and Fire commissioner Albert T. VanCleve.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Squires and Mrs. William Curgeven prepared the banquet under the directions of firemen's committee. Through the courtesy of Mr. Agranovitch his large radio receiver was installed and some fine programmes were listened to during the banquet. Fire Commissioner VanCleve gave a very interesting talk on what plans the commissioners have in view for furnishing the company with an adequate water supply. If the plans materialize the insurance rates in the borough will be lowered. It was nearly midnight when the affair broke up. The members have asked the cooperation of the citizens in carrying on their work and there is no doubt but what they will get it.

Oliver Woodhouse lodge No. 81, held their regular meeting in Pythian hall Tuesday evening.

Edward Hagan, of Salem, was a caller in town Wednesday.

Myer Levine returned Wednesday, from a few days' visit in New York.

The work on the Cohen Brothers factory is progressing rapidly and they expect to be able to move in about the first week in February.

GALES FERRY

Gales Ferry is left, at present, with but three incoming and two outgoing mails a day, owing to the many changes in the local time table of the New Haven railroad, which went into effect Sunday. The early morning mail will be thrown from the milk train leaving New London at 4:40 a. m., while the other mails are received and leave on the 12:06 and the 2:15 p. m. trains. The mails will close at the local postoffice half an hour before the trains are scheduled to arrive. As but one train, the 2:15 p. m., is scheduled to stop at Gales Ferry, the noon train being on a flag stop, all parcel post matter will leave at that time and be held over in Norwich.

During the tempest of wind and rain early Monday evening a section of the fence of the overhead railroad bridge, at the entrance to the village, was blown to the embankment below the bridge, taking the iron supports with it. Repairs were made Tuesday by workmen employed by the New Haven railroad.

Courtland E. Colver, who has been superintending the shipping of ice from the State Line ice plant, on cars consigned to the Central Vermont Railroad company the past week, arrived Tuesday to spend a short time at his home at the Submarine Base.

Mrs. Henry W. Huributt and Mrs. R. Irving Huributt motored to Groton Wednesday, to attend funeral services for Mrs. Alice Eldridge Chapman, at the Congregational church.

Friends are in receipt of cards from Miss Alice Satterlee who, with her mother, Mrs. Charles A. Satterlee, has been stopping in Washington, D. C., enroute to Jacksonville, Florida.

Rev. Allen Shaw Bush attended a Congregational conference for religious education in New Haven, Tuesday.

WILLINGTON

The funeral of Mrs. John Hemmeler was held last Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock at her late home. Burial was in the family cemetery on the farm, where many generations of ancestors are buried.

At the first annual meeting of the Ken's Civic club, the following officers were reelected: President, Dr. F. B. Converse; vice president, William Parizek; second vice president, Joseph Dimock; secretary, Frederick Tyler; treasurer, William Getchell. An entertainment committee was appointed for six months, with William Parizek chairman. Rev. Edwin Sundt presented Dr. F. B. Converse a large silver loving cup, suitably inscribed, the gift from the club. Messrs. Tyler, Nadivied and Safranek furnished music. There were wrestling and boxing matches. West Willington members will provide refreshments at the next meeting February 10th., with Edwin Carpenter in charge.

Miss Barbara Parizek, who has been visiting at her home, has returned to New York.

Mrs. Ada Wilbur, who has been visiting at Limerock, R. I., has returned to the home of her niece, Miss Jessie Bennett.

Julius C. Meyer, of New York, will spend the week-end at his farm.

George Wright, who has a large poultry plant of White Leghorns, has several hens laying two eggs a day.

Nelson Curtis, of Jewett City, visited Mrs. Nellie White and Mrs. Julia Clark this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Durian, who have been ill with pneumonia, are recovering.

The weekly "quilting party" was resumed Wednesday, by members of the Ladies' Aid society, after a recess since the holidays. Four quilts were tied. Lunch was served consisting of sandwiches, cake, cookies and coffee.

Lyman Squire, the father of Elmer Squire, the Hollow storekeeper, is confined to his bed with a cold and the infirmities of age. He will be 83 years old next month.

Every Saturday Mike Caver delivers nine cases of eggs to a large company at Hartford.

Mr. Kidder, who has been seriously ill, is convalescing.

Mrs. George P. Bugbee is suffering from grip.

Charles Parizek has filled his ice house with ice 12 inches thick.

Charles Lyon visited his sister, Mrs. Robert White, at Plainville, over Sunday.

SOUTH GRISWOLD

Miss Mabel Burdick has received a letter from Mrs. William J. Jameson, of Manipay, Ceylon, a former pastor's daughter, stating that she and her family are well and would like to be remembered to their friends in South Griswold.

Henry and Alfred Wimoth, of Glasgo, have been visiting their aunt, Mrs. R. H. Young.

Local friends of Elmer Campbell were sorry to learn of his recent accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Albertus C. Burdick, of Jewett City, were recent local visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Geer, Jr., of Hopeville, were recent business callers at Irving O. Burdick's.

Mrs. Peter Gravlin and children visited her sister, Mrs. Elmer O. Burdick, Tuesday.

Henry A. Guile, of Pachaug, was a recent business visitor at A. G. Greene's.

Several in this place are recovering from an attack of grip.

WEST KINGSTON

Everett E. Kenyon spent Sunday with his parents, at Auburn.

Clifford A. Woodmansee harvested his ice Thursday of last week.

T. T. Knowles is working in Providence Green.

dence Greene

Several of the young people here, spent Thursday evening of last week with the pastor, Rev. Mr. Champney, of Kenyon.

Dorothy M. Kenyon spent Sunday with her uncle, Amos and family, at Auburn.

R. H. Bristow and family, spent Sunday with relatives, in Westerly.

Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson spent Sunday afternoon with relatives, at Narragansett.

Mrs. Katherine Sherman is spending the winter with her daughters in Boston.

Benjamin Essex, 88, an old resident of Exeter, died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Reynolds, near Narragansett, last Friday. The funeral was held at Wakefield, Monday. Burial was in Usquepaugh cemetery by the side of his wife, who died several years ago. Mr. Essex leaves four daughters and one son to mourn his loss.

E. K. Wilcox attended the ball game at Newport Saturday.

Mrs. Richard H. Bristow and daughter, Annie, spent Wednesday with relatives, in Westerly.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Watson spent Wednesday in Providence.

William H. Dawley is repairing the road from his house towards the railroad station. The country roads are very muddy.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hatheway, of Exeter, were Tuesday callers here.

Mrs. F. K. Crandall, of Kingston, spent Sunday evening with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Kenyon.

Miss Mildred Tanner spent Tuesday with Mrs. C. D. Arnold.

The Girl Scouts held a meeting Tuesday evening with Miss Florence Brown.

February 1st., the school here will have another teacher, making three teachers. There are 50 or more scholars in the primary room.

Formal application for the admittance of Mrs. Laura Christy, confessed slayer of two of her eight husbands, to the state hospital for the criminal insane at Lima, Ohio, has been made

LEFFINGWELL

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Spicer were Mr. and Mrs. Gorton P. Spicer and Clarence Spicer, of Poquetanuck; Raymond Allen, of Norwich, and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Donovan and family, of Washington street, Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Beard were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Johnson, of Baltic.

Friday evening the Ladies' Aid society held a baked bean supper in the church vestry. The supper consisted of baked beans, brown bread, pickles, rolls, coffee, escalloped potato, pie, coffee and candy. Games were played after supper.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Bedat were Mrs. Justine Bedat, Mrs. Timothy Sullivan and Miss Patrica Sullivan, of Maple street, Norwich.

Recent callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John I. Ross were Mr. and Mrs. A. Frank Gardner, of East Great Plain.

The president of the United States, senators and magistrates should be bedecked in picturesque robes for the benefit of the country's artists, in opinion of Frank O. Salisbury of the Royal academy, of Great Britain.

New Discovery Banishes Sleeplessness, Quiets Nerves and Stops Headache

The most wearing-out process which could afflict a person is that which is caused by lack of sleep. Fitful, insufficient slumber tears the nervous system to pieces and causes much of the weakness, irritability and susceptibility to disease which is often blamed on other causes.

Lack of sleep ages one, destroys beauty and certainly shortens your life. And yet it is so easy to have the deep refreshing slumber of childhood.

A sleep that will make you feel like a new person and add five years to your life—a slumber that will banish the "blues" and give you the strong, healthy nerves which mean a sunshiny, cheerful outlook on life. And you can get all these benefits from a new, harmless, easy-to-take preparation called Neura.

Neura contains no opiates or habit-forming drugs. The results from the use of Neura have been so remarkable, however, that it is now dispensed by Lee & Osgood and druggists everywhere with a guarantee to return the small cost if you are not amazed and delighted with the results from the use of the very first package. Get a good night's sleep tonight by taking Neura today.

Pillsbury's pancake Flour

Made by the millers of Pillsbury's Best Flour

The Best Radio Value In Town!

A marvelous 5-tube Receiver, with high grade built-in speaker, in a beautiful mahogany cabinet, a Hartford 100 amp. storage A battery, 2 Yale 45 volt. B batteries, 5 Cunningham or R. C. A. tubes and aerial installation, delivered to home.. $149.50

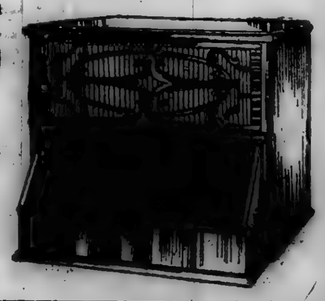
Terms, $25 down, $3.00 weekly.

No interest or extras of any kind.

A FINE 6-TUBE SET, complete with built-in speaker, 6 R. C. A. or Cunningham tubes, 100 amp. Hartford battery, 2 B batteries, completely installed $109.50

Terms, $20 down—$2.50 weekly

No interest charged.



Authorized and Exclusive Dealers in Norwich for Freed-Eisemann and Magnavox.

Everything Musical at Lowest Prices in Town.

A High Grade, Full 88-note PLAYER-PIANO, full Bell metal plate, copper bass strings, nice mahogany case, 15 rolls (your choice), duet bench, scarf and free delivery. Fully guaranteed for 5 years $398

An Honest Piano at an Honest Price.

THE HOME OF MUSIC

The Hanover Gurland Company

24-34 Franklin St. Norwich, Conn.

WE ARE THE ONLY ONE-PRICED MUSIC HOUSE IN NORWICH. BUY HERE AND BE SURE OF GETTING YOUR MONEY'S WORTH.

Specials for Friday and Saturday — 2-Hour Sale Both Days

EGGS SELECTED GUARANTEED To Poach or Boil FANCY 3 doz. 95c

MORRIS' Sugar Cured Hickory Smoked Skinbacks HAMS Whole or Shank Half lb. 20c FRESH CUT SLICES 39c lb.

BEEF Prime Cut of Chuck For Roasting 15c to 19c

MOHICAN ORANGES SWEET SUNKIST NAVELS 17 for 25c

Butter Finest Tub Creamery in the City—Why Pay More! 2 lbs. 97c

THE BIG TWO-HOUR SALE BOTH DAYS FRIDAY, 4 to 6 P. M. SATURDAY, 9 to 11 A. M.

STEAKS— All kinds—freshly cut, lb...	19c	SHOULDERS— Lean, Fresh, lb.	17c
POTATOES— Best A1 Natives, 15-lb. peck	59c	SPINACH— Fancy, Crisp, 3-lb. peck	29c
RAISINS— Fancy Seedless, 3 lbs.....	29c	SUGAR—5 lbs. Granulated 1 lb. Confectioners—Both for	37c
HADDOCK— Small (not dressed) lb.....	8c	SMELTS— Large, Fancy, lb.	25c
BUNS Frosted Cinnamon, 2 doz..	35c	DOUGHNUTS— Fresh Fried, 2 dozen	35c
BREAD Oven Fresh, 3-lb. size	20c	LARD— Best Pure White, 2 lbs.....	35c

PORK, lb..... 25c LEAN ROAST

FOWL, lb..... 29c FOR FRICASSEE

BEEF, lb..... 12½c LEAN POT ROAST

LAMB, lb..... 35c SPRING LEGS

Hamburg, lb. 12½c FRESH CUT

CHEESE, lb... 45c

FINEST GRADE BREAD FLOUR ..... $1.29 1-8-bbl. Sack

TOMATOES ..... 25c 2 LARGE CANS

CATSUP—3 for..... 40c PURE TOMATO

PEA BEANS, 3 lbs... 25c

BISCUIT, 2¼-lb. pkg. 35c ROYAL LUNCH

HOT OUT OF THE OVEN!

Baked BEANS, lb..... 10c

Brown BREAD ..... 8 and 12c

APPLES, 4 qts ..... 25c FANCY BALDWIN

MUSHROOMS, lb..... 49c

LETTUCE, each..... 10c HEAVY ICEBERG

ONIONS, 5 lbs..... 10c YELLOW GLOBE

TURNIPS, 4 lbs..... 10c YELLOW OR WHITE

BANANAS, doz..... 25c LARGE RIPE

OYSTERS, pint..... 39c SOLID MEAT

HADDIES, lb..... 18c SMOKED FINNAN

SHAD, lb..... 25c BUCK JACKS

CHEESE, lb..... 45c FANCY SWISS

SCHWARTZ BROS.
GREATEST
FEBRUARY FURNITURE SALE

20% TO

Free Delivery
Free Railroad Fares
Free Storage
During This Sale

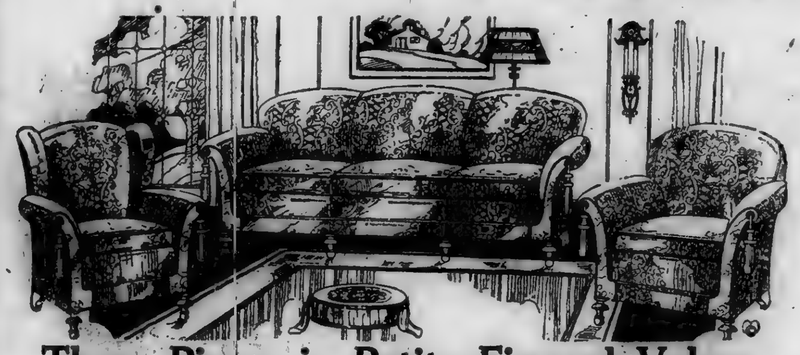
AXMINSTER SCATTER RUGS AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES

27x54 Axminster Rugs.... $2.95
36x63 Axminster Rugs.... $4.95
While the lot lasts only

SALE STARTING TODAY

Your Big Opportunity of All the Year to Save on Your Home's Furnishings!

WE'VE PLANNED THIS GREAT SALE FOR MONTHS. WE HAVE SOME OF THE MOST REMARKABLE "BUYS" THAT IT HAS EVER BEEN OUR PRIVILEGE TO OFFER YOU. WE INVITE YOUR EARLY INSPECTION, COMPARISON AND SELECTION. WE DON'T THINK YOU CAN POSSIBLY DO BETTER. COME THE FIRST DAY WHEN CHOICE IS MOST COMPLETE. SAVE!

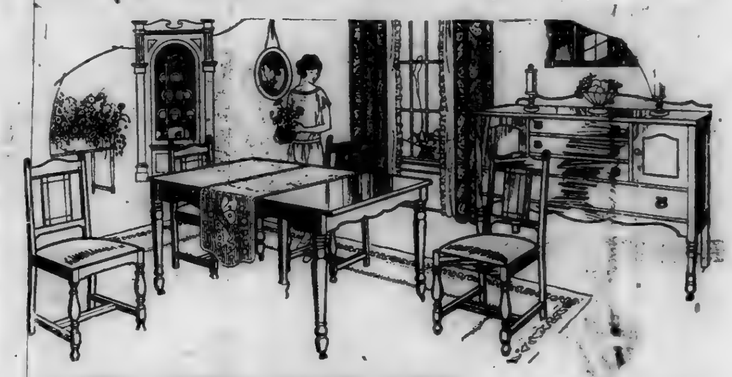


Three Pieces in Petite Figured Velour

This suite is one of the greatest values in this February Clearance Sale! Three luxuriously beautiful pieces, as pictured, are offered at a price almost unbelievably low, in order to quickly dispose of the limited number we have on hand.

This fine suite is upholstered all over in high grade, petite figured cut velour, including the outside backs and sides. Marshall spring construction and webbing buttoms feature each piece.

$95.00



A FINE DINING ROOM SUITE

A dining outfit that you can be proud to have in your home. Includes oblong extension table, buffet, host chair and 5 diners in walnut veneer. You'll go far to find a value to equal this! $79.50

HIGH GRADE 3-Pc. JACQUARD VELOUR LIVING ROOM SUITE

Who ever dreamed of such a remarkable value! Imagine! 3 massive pieces tailored in richly figured velour—roll arms and loose, spring-filled cushions. Built for long service and fine comfort. A tremendous value at this low price $145.00

"LANE" CEDAR CHESTS

Greatly Reduced in Our Great February Sale.. $9.75 up

9 Handsome Pieces in Walnut Veneer! Compare This Remarkable Value at $119.00

Simply gorgeous! And you will agree when you see this suite today! Includes oblong extension table, buffet, roomy china cabinet, host chair and 5 diners—all in choice walnut veneer with tapestry seats. A value that will make it worth your while to be here today.—early.

FERNERIES Dropped to.. $3.90

If you have been waiting for an unusual opportunity to secure a handsome fernery, wait no longer! Come down at once and profit by our low sale price.

CARD TABLES! A NEW LOW PRICE.. $1.89

Anticipate your winter parties by getting those badly needed card tables now when you can get several of them at a substantial saving

DAVENPORT TABLE $12.65

Finished in walnut or mahogany, as you prefer. Adds a touch of distinction in your home at a price that is surprisingly low in our great February Sale.

MIRRORS $2.95

What a world of beauty a handsome gold polychrome mirror adds to a room! We carry a number of the newest and most attractive styles Moderately priced for early buyers!

BASSINETTES Underpriced ... $3.95

Another saving for the home with a baby. Ivory enameled bassinette with rubber-tired wheels that make these easy to move about. The sale price is a low one.

3 Pc. Pullman Davenport Suites at $95.00

Included is a handsome davenport, armchair and rocker, attractively upholstered in beautiful Spanish leather. Stoutly constructed throughout. Frames finished in fumed or golden oak. A splendid saving!

PURE FEATHER PILLOWS

Covered in choice of attractive Coverings. Regular price $3.95—SALE PRICE, Pair ... $1.95

F. A. Whitney Baby Carriages. $18.90

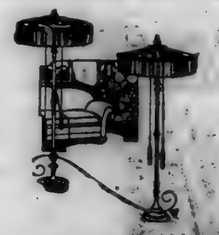
Well constructed Pullman Baby Carriages, made of fibre with rubber-tired wheels that insure baby's comfort. Go on sale today at this special price.

Comforters, $4.45

These heavy covered comforters are the kind that guarantee warmth and long service. A real reduction, too, at this unusually low price for our great February Sale.

Polychrome Junior Lamp $9.85

A special group of these handsome lamps on sale at this price today! Gorgeous poly-chrome effects, weighted bases and deep-fringed silk shades. Lamps you seldom see offered at such a low price.



Buy Your Hoosier Cabinet during this great February Sale and Save.

FREE! A 42-Piece Dinner Set and a 10-Piece Dexter's Steel Cutlery Set with every Hoosier during this sale. As low as $1.00 delivers a Hoosier to your home.

ALL RANGES

including the famous BARSTOW RICHMOND, greatly reduced during our great February Sale. A BARSTOW RICHMOND RANGE, completely set up in your home, as low as $69.50

WHERE YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD
SCHWARTZ BROS.
The BIG STORE with the LITTLE PRICES
76-78-80-82 MAIN ST.

SCHWARTZ BROS.

GREATEST

FEBRUARY FURNITURE SALE

50% OFF

SALE STARTING TODAY

VALUES THAT WILL AMAZE YOU! FURNITURE, ETC., OF SUCH SPLENDID STYLE, QUALITY AND FINISH THAT THE SALE PRICES REALLY MEAN SOMETHING! ANYONE CAN SELL A CHEAP ARTICLE AT A CHEAP PRICE, BUT IT TAKES REAL MERCHANDISING AND CALLS FOR A GENUINE SACRIFICE TO OFFER SUCH ASTOUNDING VALUES AS THOSE WHICH WE OFFER IN THIS SALE! HERE IS MERCHANDISE YOU CAN DEPEND ON! VARIETIES WERE NEVER BETTER, AND WE'RE OFFERING RECORD-BREAKING VALUES THAT WILL MAKE THIS SALE GO DOWN IN HISTORY AS THE GREATEST OF OUR ENTIRE CAREER! YOU'RE THE ONE WHO PROFITS BY IT! EARLY CHOICE IS BEST, SO ACT NOW!

CLOSING OUT ALL ODD SERVERS

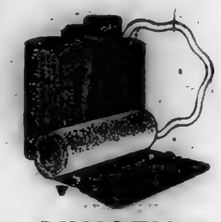
Just the thing for a Radio Cabinet. Variety of designs. Values to $35.00.

SALE PRICE—Your Choice $10

One of the Biggest Lamp Specials Ever Offered!

Large size Table Lamps, as illustrated, with beautiful silk and Georgette shades, all colors. A regular $8 value. While the lot lasts—Only

$5.95



LINOLEUM

per yard

95c

Many wonderful patterns of Linoleum remain in our stock and they're all priced at a sensational saving. Come early to get yours at this slashed price.

HOUSEWIVES! STOP! LOOK! READ!

THIS 5-Pc. TUDOR PERIOD BEDROOM SUITE — SPECIAL

The manufacturer of this suite co-operated with us! He knew we wanted something unusual for this great event! He offered this 5-piece suite at an astoundingly low price! We offer it to you today at the same great saving! All the pieces as pictured—not simply three or four—beautifully finished in a dull walnut effect! Don't let anything prevent you from seeing this super-bargain in our February Sale .....

$79.50

THIS SUITE EXACTLY AS PICTURED HERE

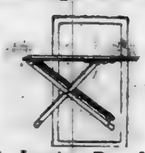
ANY PURCHASE WILL BE HELD UNTIL WANTED

OPEN AN ACCOUNT HERE TODAY USE YOUR CREDIT

Household Specials in Our February Sale

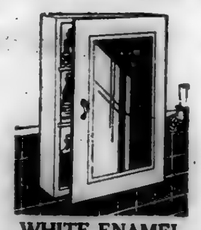
Clothes Hamper 79c

Large capacity, closely woven willow construction. Just a few — be early!



Ironing Board $1.49

Sturdy braces, folds conveniently to occupy the smallest possible space. Special today!



WHITE ENAMEL MEDICINE CABINET $1.00

Finished in sanitary white enamel, large mirror. A special value in this February sale.

Mixing Bowls 59c

Here's a set of five glass mixing bowls at a special figure today that represents a real reduction.

Mop 59c

Another big special in our housefurnishing department—oil mops at this low price.

Imported Japanese Tea Sets

Including 17 pieces — While they last—

$3.95

High Grade Electric Flat Irons

While they last — One to a customer $2.65

New Perfection Oil Heaters $4.95

They're smokeless, odorless and a few cents an hour operates them. Radiate heat to every corner of the room. A splendid value!

White Enamel Bathroom Mirrors

Like illustration— While they last 95c

Sacrificing $12.80 Dressers at Another outstanding value in this sale! A splendid dresser, with plenty of drawer space and good sized adjustable mirror, attractively finished, is in the sale at this extremely low price!

5-Piece Bed Outfit

$29.45

Note This One! Continuous Post Beds IN WHITE ENAMEL OR WALNUT FINISH

$6.85

Just one example of what we're doing to prices on beds during this sale. Big stock to choose from and every price slashed to the lowest possible point!

Reg. $225.00 SUITE NOW $139.00

4-Pc. WALNUT VENEER SUITE

Built in an attractively new design. Bow-end bed, dresser, roomy chifforobe and vanity dresser in choice walnut veneer—richly finished. A suite that you would ordinarily pay a great deal more for. A typical example of our sale $139.00

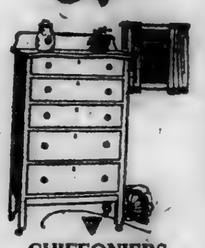
MATTRESS SPECIAL

Just arrived from the makers! A big special purchase of these comfortable cotton filled 45-pound mattresses, covered with heavy art ticking. Extra special at—

$7.90

A WONDER-VALUE!

A great saving opportunity for those who are in need of a new bed outfit. Includes steel bed with cane panel, a sanitary mattress and heavy link spring. All the this unusually low price.



CHIFFONIERS

$8.80

Every bedroom needs one of these fine Chiffoniers. They are finished in golden oak, each with five roomy drawers. A large saving at this price!

Note This One! Continuous Post Beds IN WHITE ENAMEL OR WALNUT FINISH

$6.85

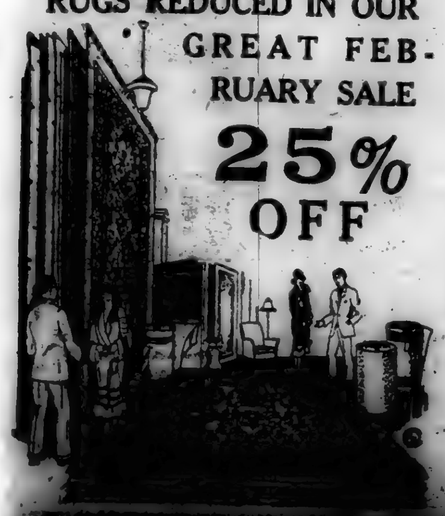
Just one example of what we're doing to prices on beds during this sale. Big stock to choose from and every price slashed to the lowest possible point!

Extension Couch Bed

Complete with mattress and valance. Extends to a full size bed—Special for our Great February Sale $14.65

OUR ENTIRE STOCK OF RUGS REDUCED IN OUR GREAT FEBRUARY SALE

25% OFF



GENUINE LEATHER SEAT DINING CHAIRS

A great special in our February Sale. Solid Oak throughout. Golden oak finish. Buy as many as you want at—

$2.90

HIGH BACK KITCHEN CHAIRS

Well constructed. February Sale Price $1.29

WHERE YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD

SCHWARTZ BROS.

The BIG STORE with the LITTLE PRICES

76-78-80-82 MAIN ST.

OUR REPUTATION BUILT ON QUALITY

Free Delivery
Free Railroad Fare
Free Storage

Welcome TO THE Greatest Values of Our Age!

We Invite You to Share in Them Because We Want You to Know What Thousands Have Discovered—The Wisdom of Becoming a Regular Plaut-Cadden Customer—and to Make it Worth While For You We Are Offering the Most Extraordinary Inducements in Prices and Terms and Every Facility for Service and Selection That Our Greater Organization Makes Possible.

Experience the Economy of Having This Great Store Serve You

Now At Plaut-Cadden's

Drive For 5,000 New Customers

Offering The Greatest Values and Easiest Terms On The Largest Stocks In Our History

GET A SELLERS CABINET NOW

With Every Sellers Kitchen Cabinet Sold During This Drive We Will Give 100 Coupons for the $2200 in Merchandise to be Given Away—AND

$14 WORTH OF GROCERIES DISHES, CUTLERY and GLASSWARE FREE

You Pay for the Cabinet Only and There is a Price to Suit Everyone—With the Privilege of Special Easy Payment Terms

ALL LAMPS REDUCED

Regular $2.00 BOUDOIR LAMPS, with ivory finished metal stands and frames and parchment shades $1.39

Regular $7.75 BRIDGE LAMPS with distinctive brass finished iron stands and decorated parchment shades $4.95

Regular $12.90 JUNIOR FLOOR LAMPS with brass finished iron stands and blue or rose silk shades $9.50

Regular $17.50 FLOOR OR BRIDGE LAMPS with polychrome stands and silk shades in varied colors with fringe $13.90

Regular $22.50 FLOOR OR BRIDGE LAMPS with polychrome stands and silk shades in varied colors with fringe $15.75

Regular $45.00 BRIDGE OR FLOOR LAMPS with very pretty hand made georgette shades with iron stands to match $27.50

Odd Pieces Sacrificed

Good quality American porcelain. The lot consists of Sugars, Creamers, Covered Dishes, Bakers, Platters, Pickle Dishes, Covered Butters, Saucers, Cups, Fruit Saucers, Soup Plates, 6-inch and 7-inch Plates, Bread and Butter Plates, Etc.

Were 75c to $3.50. Closing Out at From 10c to 75c

Arm Rockers

$12.50 Values — NOW. $9.50

Mahogany finished frames and comfortable spring seats upholstered in leather or tapestry.

100-Piece Dinner Sets

Reg. $20 Values

NOW $10.90

American porcelain of excellent quality, slightly touched. In choice of attractive designs.

We Are Now Prepared to Install a Few More Oil-O-Matic Burners at Once

If you want to solve your heating problem for all time let us install an OIL-O-MATIC now. This has proven to be the finest automatic oil heating device made. See it in operation at our store and learn why it leads them all in every way.

Only a Few More Days

Remain For You to Get an Opportunity With Your Purchase to Share in the Distribution of

This Merchandise

VALUED AT $2200 TO BE Given Away

Wassermann Upright Piano	$525	Floor Lamp	$45
3 Pc. Mohair Living Room Suite	$400	Mah Jongg Set	$40
Royal Herald Range	$185	Lady's Aquamarine Ring	$35
Grandfather's Clock	$125	Child's Automobile	$35
Lady's Diamond Ring	$100	25 Pc. Community Silver Set	$35
Oriental Wall Tapestry	$100	Mah Jongg Set	$35
String Pearl Beads	$75	100 Piece Dinner Set	$35
Sellers Kitchen Cabinet	$65	String Pearl Beads	$35
String Gut Rock Crystal Beads	$60	Tenor Banjo	$30
Lady's Wrist Watch	$50	Lady's Wrist Watch	$30
String Carved Ivory Beads	$50	4 Pc. Silver Tea Set	$25
Cameo Brooch	$50	Child's Arrowcycle	$15
Violin	$50		$2200

WITH EVERY PURCHASE MADE HERE NOW AN OPPORTUNITY IS GIVEN TO SHARE IN THE DISTRIBUTION OF THIS MERCHANDISE

25% Off All RUGS During This Drive

Now is the time to get those rugs you need! This big discount applies to our entire stock of rugs in every size for every room—including the famous WHITTALLS and GENUINE ORIENTAL RUGS.

EXTRA SPECIAL DRIVE VALUES

PARLOR TABLES— Reg. $17.50 ..... $14.90

END TABLES— Reg. $5.50 ..... $2.69

FEATHER PILLOWS —Reg. $3.90 Pair $2.29

COTTON MATTRESSES —Regularly $12.00 ..... $8.75

METAL BEDS— Reg. $10.90 ..... $7.90

$28 LEATHER ARM ROCKERS $17.50

$27 MAHOGANY GATELEG TABLES. $19.50

$12 MAHOGANY ARM ROCKERS $9.50

$5.50 GOLDEN OAK ARM ROCKERS $3.90

$13.50 LADIES' WRITING DESKS .. $10.90

$13.90 WINDSOR ARM CHAIRS $9.90

Arm Chairs and Rockers

Reg. $14 Values—Now $9.90

Large, comfortable wicker pieces, as shown, with backs and loose spring cushions upholstered in cretonne. In gray, ivory and brown finishes.

Art Mirrors

Reg. $13 Values—Now $9.65

Fine French plate mirrors set in handsome polychrome frames, 51 inches by 14 inches.

Six Pieces

Reg. $40 Values—Now $28

Continuous post metal bed, fine cotton mattress, good quality spring, cotton blanket and 2 feather pillows.

BLANKETS REDUCED

Our entire stock of cotton, wool mixed and all wool standard size blankets.

Reg. $3.50 Cotton $2.75

Reg. $5.25 Part Wool .. $4.25

Reg. $10.50 All Wool $8.50

$250 Cut Velour Overstuffed Suites

IN THIS DRIVE AT $169

Three large luxuriously comfortable pieces—Sofa, Fireside Chair and Club Chair—containing the finest spring construction and upholstering throughout. Each piece has reversible brocatelle and velour spring cushions and fitted with silk bullion tassels. This is a value that cannot be equalled anywhere!

3 Pc EMBOSSED VELOUR SUITES

Reg. $200 Values—In This Drive At

Large Sofa, Fireside Chair and Club Chair, upholstered in beautiful blue and brown embossed velour. Of fine quality spring construction throughout with loose spring cushions $129

3-Pc. Velour Upholstered Suites

Settee, Arm Chair and Arm Rocker with backs and spring seats upholstered in blue velour. Frames finished in mahogany. Our special Drive Price for the three pieces $55

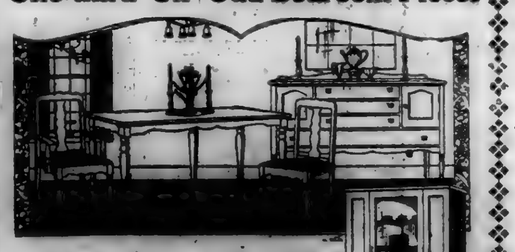
$225 WALNUT SUITES NOW ... $149

Four pieces, as shown, Bowfoot Bed, Dresser, Chifforobe and Three Mirror Full Vanity, embodying the best materials and fine workmanship. In a popular period design finished in a beautiful, durable walnut. Cannot be duplicated anywhere for less than $225.

$150 4-Piece WALNUT SUITES

Four handsome, well made pieces—Bowfoot Bed, Dresser, Chifforette and Triplicate Miror Dressing Table with two drawers. Attractive in design and well finished. Extraordinary value! $89

One-third Off Odd Bedroom Pieces



$150 8-Piece WALNUT SUITES $89

Oblong Extension Table, Buffet, Arm Chair and 5 Side Chairs with genuine leather seats—6 good looking, substantially built pieces in a popular design finished attractively in walnut or golden oak. (China Closet to match at slight extra cost.)

$200 10-Piece WALNUT SUITES

Comprising Oblong Extension Table, China Closet, Buffet, Server, and 6 Chairs (one with arms) with genuine leather seats. Carefully constructed and finished in choice of walnut or golden oak. $129

One-third Off Odd Dining Pieces

Big Savings On Pianos and Player-Pianos

NEW $550 PLAYERS

88 NOTE — FULLY GUARANTEED

With Bench, Scarf, Piano Lamp, Rolls and Delivery Free $369

High grade standard make instruments equipped with every modern improvement to insure easy playing and perfect reproduction. One of the greatest player values we have ever offered—a value that cannot be duplicated. Modern mahogany finished cases.

Values in Used Uprights and Players

Upright — Orig. $325.... $45	Upright — Orig. $400 .. $65	Upright — Orig. $400 .. $80
Upright — Orig. $375... $90	Upright— Orig. $385... $105	Upright— Orig. $400 .. $125
Upright— Orig. $425... $135	Upright— Orig. $425... $150	Upright— Orig. $425... $165
Player — Orig. $495... $179	Player — Orig. $650... $195	Player — Orig. $600... $295

MAKE YOUR OWN TERMS

Small First Payment Secures Immediate Delivery

Easy Weekly Terms No Interest or Extras of Any Kind to Pay

New 88-Note Jewel Players — Guaranteed $495

The Plaut-Cadden Co.

135-143 Main Street (Established 1872) Norwich, Connecticut.

Five Piece Dining Sets

Round Top Pedestal Extension Table and 4 genuine leather seat chairs. Colonial style in golden oak finish.

Reg. $40 Value Drive Price . $29.50

Kitchen CHAIRS

Reg. $2.00 Values ... $1.39

BELIEVE CHARGES AGAINST SERGT. MURPHY, NEW LONDON, WILL BE DROPPED

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Jan. 21—City manager William A. Holt has started an investigation into the alleged acts of Police Sergeant Patrick Murphy on the morning of the 17th inst. The city manager has been supplied with information, by Councilor Edward L. Streeter, that the officer was in a house of questionable reputation on Richards street at a time when he should be performing his duty as head of the night patrol.

The information provided, the city manager states, that Sergeant Murphy entered the residence of one Jackson, Richards street, early Sunday morning and that the officer was not observed to emerge from the place by those that saw him enter the house.

About last Saturday midnight a fire of a serious nature occurred in the commercial and dwelling structure, 363 Main street, the fire being one of three to take place in the building within a few weeks. After the fire was subdued, Chief Charles Rose informed the police that he was of the opinion that the fire originated from a torch. Acting on that information the police started an investigation. Sigmund Malashewski, a baker, employed by the American & European bakery, was suspected of committing arson and a search was made for him. Sergeant Murphy obtained information that Malashewski might be found at the Jackson house and he went to the place, but the man sought was not found there. He was later taken into custody on Main street by Patrolman John Foley.

City Manager Holt is continuing his investigation, but it is not believed that he will obtain information such as to warrant Sergeant Murphy being tried of charges for Murphy admits going to the house in question and rightfully so, because of the fact that no matter what the reputation of the house might be, he was seeking the apprehension of a supposed criminal.

Jean Lamone was in the police court this morning for the theft of a bed blanket valued at $7.50 from the steamer Richard Peck, of the New London line to New York. The blanket was taken from room 41 on the trip Y in New York to this port last night and was found in the possession of Lamone. He denied that he stole the blanket, but admitted that he had it in his possession. This was accounted for by Lamone by a statement that he hired room 25 and that he had drank considerable liquor. That deprived him of his intelligence and in taking the blanket he did not realize what he was doing. He declared that he had been at work in Jersey City and that he was on the way to Moodus to see his wife, a resident there. He said he was so muddled from the use of liquor that he did not realize what he did, nor could he account for having gone into room 41. He said he had no use for the blanket and that it was a burden to him. "I have served 17 years in the army and have a discharge that is as honorable as any man ever had, and I can bring certificates of character from Moodus that will establish my reputation," he represented to the court. Judge Prince was disposed to accept the statements of Lamone as being those of an honest man and to consider that liquor had led Lamone to do what he had done, so he suspended judgment and allowed the accused man to go to Moodus.

Lieut. Arthur E. Abbott, United States marine corps, stationed at New London, and Miss Margaret Marie Curran, a hairdresser at Providence have taken out a license to be married in that city.

All indications are for important changes in the vicinity of lower Pequot avenue and the Boulevard where it joins the avenue. Real estate in that section has been passed to new owners in considerable quantity of late and upon the sites disposed of it is likely that new and handsome residences will be erected. The Robert Moore, the Charles Guthrie residences and the Casino are among the properties recently sold there. The land surrounding these properties will be laid out in streets and in building lots and then will come a season of building construction that will bring a change to the entire section. There was a time when that section was the exclusive resort of the wealthiest people in the city, but that condition will be changed at an early date. That is not saying that the section will not be kept "exclusive" for care is now exercised in the sale of lots this far and that condition is apt to be continued so that section is likely to participate in the building boom that is anticipated. Pequot avenue north of the site of the old Pequot house has not kept pace with the rest of that sightly avenue, the water side of the highway having been especially neglected as to improvements.

This city is "putting on airs" with electric signs, so to speak, for some of the illuminated announcements are very handsome.

It is convincing as the years roll along that Montauk avenue must be laid with a cement or asphalt highway before long, unless the city desires to make large expenditures there for road repairs. The highway is showing hard usage now and the west side of the street is rapidly deteriorating. The expense of maintenance of that highway each year would go a long way toward permanently fixing the street.

William Golding, 541 Montauk avenue, complained to the police this afternoon that persons had caused a great quantity of rubbish to be deposited upon land on Pequot avenue, owned by complainant. Golding stated that if the persons placing the rubbish on the tract do not remove it he desires them arrested and prosecuted.

A Ford automobile reported by the police as having been parked on Spring street several days, was removed from the highway today by the owner.

Daniel P. Carroll has sold a tract of land on Orchard street to St. Joseph's Church corporation.

Eleanor A. Pflauger and Mary A. White have sold a house and lot on the southerly side of Bank street, west of Division street, to Joseph Mono. The price paid was $12,000.

Mrs. Everett Denison and infant daughter, of Willetts avenue; Ghenery Law, a member of the crew of the barge Pequot; Mrs. Thomas McGowan, Black Hall, and William McShane, Old Lyme, patients at Lawrence Memorial Associated hospital, were discharged today.

Mrs. Cornelia Kissam Palmer, widow of Elisha Loomis Palmer, died this morning at her home, 15 Broad street. Mrs. Palmer was of advanced years and had been ill for a long time. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Adelene Lee and Miss Gertrude Palmer and a son, Courtland Kissam Palmer, all of this city.

Ralph Q. Bump, 27, employee of several years as motor truck driver by The F. H. & A. H. Chappell Co., and residing at 10 Barrows court, died late yesterday at Lawrence hospital, where he had been under treatment for pneumonia since last Monday. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Grace Bailey, a nurse at the hospital and by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bump. He is also survived by three brothers, Charles, Herbert and William Bump and by eight sisters, Mrs. Gladys McKiernan, Mrs. Helen Lathrop, Mrs. William Babcock, and the Misses Frances, Edwina, Rosie, Marjorie and Ethel Bump, all of this city.

Edward Beckwith, 71, died late yesterday at his former home, Waterford, following a lingering illness. He is survived by several sons and daughters. Mr. Beckwith was born in Waterford and was a teamster by occupation, following that livelihood until several months ago, when illness caused him to abandon active work.

Ira M. Comstock and Charles M. Taylor, local druggists, were in New Haven yesterday where they attended a meeting of the state pharmacy commission. Plans were discussed for the state pharmaceutical association's golden anniversary, which will take place at the Hotel Griswold next June.

Clarence A. Hanford, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hanford, Danbury, and Miss Veronica Donohue, daughter of Mrs. Sarah Donohue, 127 Elm street, were married this morning at St. Mary's Star of the Sea church, the nuptial mass being performed by Rev. Timothy M. Crowley, in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends. The best man was William J. Donohue, brother of the bride. Mrs. Edwin Johnson, was the bride's attendant. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother following the ceremony and in the evening a reception was held at the Donohue home. Mr. and Mrs. Hanford, following their wedding tour, will reside in New York where Mr. Hanford is employed.

Announcement is made of the wedding New Year's eve of Elmer A. Abel, 36 Woodbridge street, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Abel, Bozrah, and Mrs. Emily Marra, also of 36 Woodbridge street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Chester H. Howe, pastor of the First Baptist church.

A marriage license was issued yesterday at Providence to Lieutenant Arthur Edward Abbott, United States Marine corps, state pier, and Miss Margaret Marie Curran, Providence.

Miss Curran has been employed as a hair dresser in Providence.

Announcement is made by Mrs. Alice Dreher, 46 Mountain avenue, of the engagement of her daughter, Miss Florence Wilcox, to Gordon F. Spooner, Newport, R. I.

Mrs. Gertrude Sawyer, this city, complained to Acting Prosecuting Attorney Perry J. Hollandersky, this afternoon, charging non-support against her husband, William F. Sawyer, originally a resident of New Havent, but who has been employed in New London of late. Mrs. Sawyer declared that her husband was employed regularly and earned good wages, but refused to contribute to her support. The condition of Mrs. Eliza Lebenayl, ill at her home, Blinman street, is reported as being greatly improved.

James Smith, 147 Bank shtreet, is a patient at a local hospital, where he recently underwent an operation. His condition is reported as being favorable.

NEW LONDON FIRES ESTABLISHING A RECORD

(Special to The Bulletin.)

New London, Jan. 21—Another fire occurred this morning when flames attacked the wooden structure, 6 Golden street, occupied by Samuel Rauch as a grocery store and residence.

The fire was caused by the overheating of a stove used to heat the store. Plenty of fuel had been placed in the stove and the drafts opened. Rauch in the meantime left the store and before he returned the stove had become overheated. Th stove is but about two feet from a series of shelves and on these was stored a large quantity of matches. When the stove became intensely hot, the matches ignited and a lively blaze resulted. Pedestrians observed the fire and caused the alarm to be sent from Box 318, corner of Green and Golden streets. With the arrival of the department the blaze was quickly extinguished. The damage, it is believed, will no exceed $200. Rauch it is understood carried insurance in the sum of $1400.

Today's fire was the fourteenth bell alarm in 21 days. There have been more bell alarm fires so far this month than during the entire year of 1925.

Better borrow from a pawnbroker than from a friend.

What is Going On Tonight

Norwich lodge, No. 980, L. O. O. M., meets in Moose home.

TODAY'S EVENTS

Centenary of the birth of Gen. Meriwether J. Thompson, a Missouri commander in the Confederate States army.

Twenty-five years ago today the British nation mourned the passing of Queen Victoria, who died at Osborne, Jan. 22, 1901.

Today is the 20th anniversary of the wreck of the steamship Valencia off Vancouver Island, with a loss of 129 lives.

Joshua W. Alexander, who was secretary of commerce in the cabinet of President Wilson, today enters upon his 75th year.

Commander France, Spanish military aviator, is scheduled to start from Palos today in an attempt to fly to Buenos Aires and thence to the United States.

A proposal to reorganize the entire legal profession of New York state as a corporation which every practicing attorney would be required to join, will be discussed today at the annual meeting of the New York State Bar association in New York city.

To exhort the Great Spirit to call off "ghosts," which have been visiting death upon Indians of the Tulalip reservation, in Washington, the Indian medicine men have decided on an old-time tribal Tamanawois dance today, as the only way to allay the scourge.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Breed Theatre

Rex Beach's thrilling novel of the Alaskan gold rush has finally been brought to the screen. Frank Lloyd, who gave us "The Sea Hawk" and other fine screen dramatics, was the producer as well as director, with First National sponsoring the production. It opened at the Breed theater yesterday.

Dealing with the romance and the struggle that was the gold rush to the Yukon in 1897 and 1898, "Winds of Chance" presents the first accurate and big conception of the event that brought thousands of eager men and women in to the Arctic to face untold hardships in their lust for the precious ore.

In giving life to the Beach epic Lloyd has provided not only the most pretentious out-of-doors screen play of the past decade but the most truthful picturization of Alaska, during the four seasons of the year, ever brought to the screen, and his production merits every right to be considered one of the supreme efforts of the screen.

Anna Q. Nilsson, Viola Dana, Ben Lyon, Victor McLaglen, Hobart Bosworth, Claude Gillingwater, Dorothy Sebastian, Charles Crockett, Fred Kohler, Philo McCollough, John T. Murray, Fred Warren, Tom London, J. G. Davis, Wade Boteler and Larry Fisher are among the principal members of the large cast and in some of the scenes several thousands of character extras, including more than 150 of the real Alaskan sourdoughs of gold rush days appear.

Scenes have been made in frozen river beds and atop a mountain range at an elevation of 9,500 feet and the scenic backgrounds for the exterior action are of unusual splendor.

Palace Theatre

Six great acts of Vaudeville featuring the Band Box Revue and George Cook the Radio Banjoist, Sutton and Jean in Just Off the Farm, Vargo and Knoll a singing comedy team, the Three Maniacs of the strings and Laxim Lamont the surprise novelty juggler makes up a good all around program.

If you laughed with glee when you saw Syd Chaplin in "Charley's Aunt," you'll howl yourself into hysterics when you see him in "The Man on the Box," the Warner Bros. Classic of the Screen with Syd scoring a tremendous hit in his first starring role for Warners.

Involved in a series of romantic adventures, and in political intrigue Syd is wildly amusing; but as the flirtatious ladies' maid, he is simply a riot. This is unquestionably the best of his excellent characterizations, and this picturization of Harold MacGrath's celebrated novel and play is ideally suited to the star's comedic talents.

The supporting cast includes David Butler, Alice and Kathleen Calhoun, Theodore Lorch, Helene Costello, E. J. Ratcliffe, Charles Gerrard and Henry Barrows, all giving consistently entertaining performances. Charles "Chuck" Reisner was the director and he made every gag good for a laugh.

Julien Josephson wrote the scenario and Charles A. Logue adapted the play to the screen.

Whether you like to laugh, or find it difficult to indulge in hearty guffaws, you'll find "The Man on the Box," will get you gurgling with glee. It gets everybody.

The second chapter of the Scarlet Streak is just as interesting and exciting as the first.

The Lyons Co.

WAUREGAN BLOCK

Norwich, Conn.

Last Two Days of Pre-Inventory Sale

SAVE MONEY BY PURCHASING THESE TWO DAYS

Children's Rompers (1 to 3 years) value $1.25 and $1.50 ..... 89c

Girls' Wash Dresses with Bloomers, sizes 2 to 6 years $1.49

Boys' Wash Suits, 2 to 8 years (Peter Pan styles) $1.49

Girls' Dresses, 7 to 14 years—At, Each $1.49

See these (Limited number).

Boys' Woolen Suits, sizes 3 to 8 years—at $1.75

All better grades 20 p. c. off.

Children's Woolen Gloves, value 50c, 75c to $1.25—Sale Prices.. 39c-59c

HATS, $1.00

Balance of our stock of Girls' Hats at this low price to close out and make room for SPRING MERCHANDISE.

Ladies' Muslin Gowns at ..... 79c and $1.19

Ladies' Pajamas at $1.19 and $1.49

Bloomers at 69c, 89c and 98c

OUR STOCK OF CREPE DE CHINE UNDERWEAR AT 20 PER CENT OFF.

Ladies $1.00 Ribbed Hose (popular colors)—at.... 79c

Limited number of CHILDREN'S COATS 2 to 6 years SALE PRICE, $5.00.

SIX COATS Sizes 8 and 10 years value $25.00 and $29.00 SATURDAY $14.50.

Clear Your Skin Of Disfiguring Blemishes By Using Cuticura

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Bought in Hartford

Real Estate Broker John A. Moran has sold to Francis Owsiak, of Norwich, for the Capitol Billiard and Bowling Alley Co., the spacious quarters occupied by them in Hartford, together with several tables, alleys and a gymnasium that occupies the entire second floor. Mr. Owsiak is to make his home in Hartford.

Broadway Theatre

Another great show came to the Broadway theater yesterday to please everyone in the capacity crowds that witnessed it.

Mr. Levine, the new general manager, is certainly going to accomplish something if this class of entertainment excellence is maintained, which he promises.

Of course it is B. F. Keith-Albee vaudeville that is still being shown and those who were so enthusiastic about the bill the first half of this week will have no cause for complaint on this bill, for it is every bit as good.

The Caprice Sisters "The Twin Stars" offered a routine of song and dance with Ross Wright at the piano. Beautiful costumes and scenery greatly helped this very good attraction. Bogard and Mitchell, a comedy couple, followed with a snappy routine of fun and song. Good humor was the predominating feature and made good.

Wheeler and Potter continued the fun in a cleverly arranged skit with many bright spots and full of laughable lines of patter.

Harry Freeman and Buddy Morton, who arrived here direct from the Keith's Palace theatre, N. Y. C., took the house by storm with their comedy punches. It is "All Right" as their billing states.

Takeo and Koma Namba, Japan's representative entertainers were a positive sensation.

The photoplay is from the story by Chas. E. Blaney, called "The Unnamed Woman," with a splendid cast of artists.

Schwartz Bros. February Sale

Their annual February sale is announced by Schwartz Bros., Inc., to start this morning at their colossal furniture store at 76-83 Main street. Values that will amaze their patrons are offered, varieties were never better and all the merchandise that is offered is of the kind that is dependable. Combined with the record-breaking values that are offered, this sale will go down in history as one of the greatest in the entire career of the Schwartz Bros. Co.

Free delivery, free railroad fare and free storage are offered during this sale. Every choice is the best choice. A word to the wise is sufficient.

EAGLEVILLE

F. M. Chadwick of Storrs spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. James Green.

The first meeting of the Temperance society was held Sunday morning immediately after the Sunday school session. Books from the Connecticut Temperance Union were distributed to every family present. It was voted to hold the meetings the first Sunday in every month.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lillibridge, of West Hartford and Mr. and Mrs. Goodman and family of East Hampton were guests over the week end of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Warren.

Mrs. Charlotte Easterbrooks and son and Mrs. Caroline Palmer of Willimantic were recent callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Marsh.

Louis H. Stevens, of Stafford Springs is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hamer.

Mrs. F. O. Vinton was a Hartford visitor Tuesday.

COMPLETED 169 MILES OF NEW ROADS IN 6 MONTHS

A total of 169.47 miles of new roads was completed by contractors and accepted by the Connecticut highway department during the six months ending January 1st, it was announced by the department Wednesday. This work brings to a completion the most productive six-month period in the history of the department. In no other similar length of time, its records show, has such an amount of mileage been constructed in Connection.

During the entire fiscal year ending last July 1st, an aggregate of 118 miles was completed by the department. This shows the comparative work done, although it is considered doubtful if the year's mileage will be double the amount of the first six months, or 218 miles, due to the winter weather and the length of time required for frosts to leave the roadbeds in the spring.

The cost of the work amounted to $5,535,737.45, the compilation of division engineers' reports shows.

Macadam and reinforced concrete surfacing were the chief types of construction employed on the roads both in new construction work and reconstruction. By types, the surfacing was divided as follows, with the cost of the total of each types:

Macadam—New construction, 47.35 miles, $1,617,350.86; reconstruction, 3.51 miles, $124,201.56; total, $1,714,552.42.

Reinforced concrete—New construction, 5.99 miles, $452,294.58; reconstruction, 26.44 miles, $1,995,616.66; total, $2,447,901.24.

Asphalt over concrete base, 1.42 miles, $101,959.46.

Bituminous macadam—New construction, 13.05 miles, $497,158.73; reconstruction 2.92 miles, $243,900; total, $741,058.73.

Widening and grading, 9.51 miles, $503,254.60.

This work also includes the construction of six new bridges at a cost of $146,286.24. The bridges were located as follows:

Danbury—Still river bridge, reinforced concrete, $13,201.57.

Sterling—Oneco bridge, 52 foot span, concrete girder, $36,078.51.

Putnam—Memorial bridge, 74 foot span, concrete arch, $41,545.15.

West Hartford—Bridge over Trout brook, $11,509.77.

Westbrook—Patchogue river, steel, $20,690.

New Haven—Middletown avenue, concrete, $22,961.24.

A tabulation of the roads completed, showing the location and cost of each contract is given below. It should be pointed out, however, that the cost in many cases vastly different, is regulated by the width of the road, amount of grading required and other circumstances, as is shown particularly on the Boston Post road where the highway is thirty-six feet wide.

Construction

Town	Type	Length	Cost
Roxbury	M.	2.10	61,803.44
Roxbury-Woodbury & Washington	M.	1.76	58,419.67
Newtown	M.	2.12	54,117.79
Roxbury	M.	1.10	30,744.45
N. Fairfield	M.	1.70	61,748.14
N. Milford	RC.	.40	36,934.60
Redding	M.	1.13	54,784.11
Kent	M.	1.13	59,990.83
Newtown	M.	2.46	73,841.74
N. Branford	M.	1.74	30,884.99
Branford	M.	.91	17,942.12
Norwalk	RC.	1.02	99,328.01
Westport	RC.	1.33	74,999.39
Windham	M.	.75	18,304.71
Lyme & Haddam	M.	4.20	148,258.14
Colchester	M.	1.52	87,990.30
Hebron	M.	2.26	49,095.06
Montville	M.	3.77	124,526.23
Hartford	AS.	1.36	94,188.44
Stafford	M.	3.73	131,811.23
Union	M.	3.55	130,319.70
E. Windsor	RC.	1.70	104,325.32
Wind. Wind. Locks, Suffield and E. Granby	BM.	7.68	234,448.85
Union	M.	4.16	173,742.10
Can-N. Cana	M.	4.65	161,532.83
Colebrook	M.	.97	33,041.71
Sharon	RC.	1.49	94,800.84
N. Hartford	BM.	5.37	262,709.88
Torrington	M.	1.55	49,151.39

M.—Macadam.
RC.—Reinforced Concrete.
BM.—Bituminous Macadam.
A C.—Asphalt over Concrete

Reconstruction

Town	Type	Length	Cost
Danbury	RC.	2.60	134,150.54
New Haven	M.	.45	39,912.31
Milford	RC.	1.46	77,002.84
Stamford	RC.	.34	75,607.22
Darien	RC.	.60	77,053.16
Westport	RC.	.62	110,877.37
Westport	RC.	.80	103,658.93
Shelton	AC.	.06	7,771.02
Milford and Orange	WG.	6.35	151,735.21
Greenwich	WG.	1.67	322,814.19
O. Saybrook	WG.	1.48	28,577.93
E. Lyme	M.	1.94	54,357.15
Bozrah	RC.	.82	30,452.51
Plainfield	RC.	3.65	138,951.99
Glastonbury	RC.	2.06	112,378.51
E. Hampton	RC.	3.80	245,000.00
Portland	BM.	3.39	310,900.00
Canton	M.	1.16	30,000.00
Millidale & Meriden	RC.	4.19	139,600.00
Simsbury	BM.	.44	32,000.00
No. Canaan	RC.	1.56	96,000.42
Canaan	RC.	1.51	111,663.04
Winchester	RC.	.49	71,517.16

M.—Macadam.
RC.—Reinforced Concrete.
BM.—Bituminous Macadam.
AC.—Asphalt over Concrete.

WORTH

"The Shop of Newest Creations"

Final Clearance

—OF—

Women's and Misses' Apparel
All COATS and DRESSES
At Most Drastic Price Reductions
Regardless of All Original Costs

COATS — Women's and Misses' Fur-Trimmed Coats — 50% Reduction off Original Low Prices

150 DRESSES for Street, Dinner and Evening wear $10.00 Values to $42.50 Satin — Chiffon — Georgette — Flat Crepe

100 DRESSES for all-occasion wear $8.75 Values to $29.50 Crepe Satin — Georgette — Twills and Jerseys

ONE LOT OF COATS—PLAIN and FUR-TRIMMED $14.75

74 Main Street Norwich

Opposite New Merchants Bank.

PALACE

A GREAT 6-ACT SHOW

2 GREAT PICTURES

"THE SCARLET STREAK"

"THE MAN ON THE BOX"

THE ACKNOWLEDGED LEADER OF ALL

BROADWAY

M. LEVINE, General Manager

—TODAY—
Matinee at 2:15
Evening ..... 7 to 10:30

A Program Every Bit as Good as the First Half This Week

B. F. KEITH-ALBEE

VAUDEVILLE

— NOTHING BETTER ANYWHERE —

CHARLES E. BLANEY'S STORY ON THE SCREEN

"THE UNNAMED WOMAN"

Katherine MacDonald, Herbert Rawlinson, Wanda Hawley

SUN. NITE—25c 2 FEATURES 2

MON. NITE ONLY 7 "TRY-OUT" ACTS VAUDEVILLE EXTRA! EXTRA! CHARLESTON CONTEST, Local People

EXCHANGE YOUR TICKETS

— AT —

Engler's Broadway Pharmacy

— FOR —

THAT'S THAT

THE LIONS CLUB MUSICAL COMEDY

A JOHN B. ROGERS PRODUCTION

Broadway Theatre — Jan. 26 and 27

Reservation Board Opens at 9 A. M. this Friday, January 22, 1926.

GET YOUR TICKETS EARLY

"Uncle Joe" Shippee

CHAMPION OLD TIME FIDDLER OF NEW ENGLAND

AND HIS ORCHESTRA

OLD TIME DANCE MUSIC

—For—

OLD TIME DANCES

NOW OPEN FOR ENGAGEMENTS.

JAMES WALKER, Manager.

PLAINFIELD.

Tel. Moosup 27-12.

DANCE TONIGHT

Yantic Hall

Benefit Fire Engine Co.

SHELBY AND HIS ORCHESTRA

Prize Masquerade Ball

GIVEN BY

Germania and Immergruen Lodges

At the GERMANIA HALL

32 MARKET STREET

SATURDAY EVENING JAN. 23

Music by CRESCENT ORCHESTRA.

PUBLIC HEALTH COURSES FOR NURSES

Unusual response is being shown to the announcement of the series of lectures on public health available to hospital training schools for nurses. These lectures are given by the staff of the state department of health to give the nurse a bird's-eye view of public health problems which she may later have to contend with in the field.

The lectures are all being given in the evening, so that local community health leaders as well as those from nearby towns may attend.

The following subjects are included in the course: Public Health Machinery, Public Health Nursing, Personal Hygiene, Preventable Diseases (3 lectures), Venereal Diseases, The Necessity for the Laboratory in Disease Prevention, Child Hygiene (3 lectures), Nutrition, Water Supply and Waste Disposal, Health Education, and How to Measure Health Results.

COMPENSATION AWARD FOR WIDOW OF EMPLOYE

A workman's compensation award for Mrs. Anne Marie Burnett of 27 Walbank street, New London, widow of Louis Burnett, an employe of the Babcock Printing Press Mfg. Co., has been made by Compensation Commissioner J. J. Donohue, by which the widow is to receive $10.26 per week for 312 weeks, besides $100 towards funeral expenses. The accrued payments are to be made in a lump sum and payments weekly thereafter. The dependents of the deceased are the widow and six minor children.

While unloading a car of coke in the yards of the employer on Dec. 16, a fellow employe of Burnett was covered by the coke and had to be dug out by Burnett and the men working with him. A few minutes after the employe had been dug out, Burnett collapsed and died before medical assistance could be secured. It was determined that Burnett died of acute dilation of the heart, aggravated by over-exertion in rescuing his comrade workman in the course of his employment.

The North Dakota Bar Association has named one lawyer in each county of the state on its Americanization committee, and each member of the entire bar association is pledged to stand ready at every call to give talks on Americanization for any organization or programme which may request aid and to assist in any other manner possible in furthering the work of Americanization in the state.

BREED THEATRE

—Today—Saturday—

REX BEACH'S

Thrilling Romance of the Klondike Gold Rush

The greatest epic of gold and glory your eyes have yet beheld! With ANNA Q. NILSSON, BEN LYON, VIOLA DANA, HOBART BOSWORTH and 3,500 others in the cast.

COMEDY—WILD WEST—NEWS

—Starting Sunday—

Channing Pollock's Stage Success

"THE FOOL"

With EDMUND LOWE and an all star cast.

DANCE

Given by H. H. Osgood Lodge

In Ponemah Hall, Taftville

Saturday Evening, Jan. 23.

MUSIC BY HEAP'S SILVER BELL ORCHESTRA.

Dancing, 8:30 to 11:30.

Gents 50c. Ladies 35c.

666

is a prescription for

Colds, Grippe, Flu, Dengue, Bilious Fever and Malaria.

It kills the germs.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

BORN

HUGHES—In Westerly, R. I., Jan. 19, a son, George Finley, to Mr. and Mrs. George Hughes.

DIED

BUMP—In New London, Jan. 20, 1926, Ralph O. Bump, aged 27 years.

PALMER—In New London, Jan. 21, 1926, Cornelia Kissam, widow of Elisha Loomis Palmer.

BARNES—In Middleboro, Mass., Percy Barnes, formerly of Yantic, Conn., aged 67.

BECKWITH—At Waterford, Jan. 20, 1926, Edward Beckwith, aged 71 years.

LATHAM—In Mystic, Jan. 21, 1926, Charles Henry Latham, aged 74 years.

FUNERAL NOTICES

SHIELDS—In Hartford, Jan. 20, 1926, Mary Murphy, wife of Daniel Shields. Funeral from her late home, 85 Cliff street, Norwich, Saturday morning at 8:20. Solemn high mass in St. Mary's Memorial church at 9 o'clock. Burial in St. Mary's cemetery. Please omit flowers.

DE GENERO—In Norwich, Jan. 20, 1926, Samuel De Genero, aged 63 years. Funeral from the rooms of Cummings & Ring Saturday morning, Jan. 23, at 8:15. Requiem mass in St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock. Burial in St. Joseph's cemetery.

BARBER—In Norwich, Jan. 20, 1926, M. Angelo Barber, aged 71 years. Funeral from his late residence, 359 Laurel Hill avenue, Friday afternoon at 2:30. Burial in family lot in Yantic cemetery.

BATON—In Norwich, Jan. 20, 1926, Lydia A., widow of Uriah H. Baton. Funeral services at Church and Allen's funeral parlors, 15 Main St., Friday afternoon, Jan. 22, at 2 o'clock. Burial in the family lot in Maplewood cemetery.

FANNING—In Worcester, Mass., Jan. 21st, 1926, David Hale Fanning, a native of Jewett City, in his 96th year. Funeral services Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, at First Unitarian church, Main street, Worcester. Burial in Rural cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

I take this means of publicly expressing my heartfelt gratitude for the many Good Samaritan acts of friends and neighbors during the illness and death of my mother, Mrs. Stephen Peckham, and I wish also to extend my sincere thanks to all those who sent flowers to the funeral.

CHARLES S. PECKHAM.

Norwich, Conn., Jan. 20, 1926.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Church & Allen
15 MAIN STREET
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Lady Assistant
HENRY E. CHURCH
WM. SMITH ALLEN
Telephone 328-3

Shea & Burke
Funeral Directors
41 Main Street

The Henry Allen & Son Co.
38 MAIN STREET
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Lady Assistant Telephone 416-2
DAVID H. WILSON

GAGER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER
PROMPT SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT

CUMMINGS & RING
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
322 Main Street
Phone 238-2 Lady Assistant

GEORGE G. GRANT
UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER
Phone 2729 Providence St., Taftville

HOURIGAN BROS.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Norwich and Jewett City

DANIELSON

LOUIS E. KENNEDY
DANIELSON
Undertaker and Embalmer
Special Attention to Every Detail.

CENTRAL VILLAGE

F. W. Tillinghast & Sons
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
CENTRAL VILLAGE, CONN.
Tel Moosup 282-2

Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
86 Union Street, Willimantic, Conn.
Phone 290 Lady Assistant

WILLIMANTIC

Avery & Van Zandt
Succeeding JAY M SHEPARD
Established 1870
Funeral Directors, Embalmers
Sixty and Sixty-Two North Street
Willimantic Conn

POULTRY

FOR SALE—Two 150 egg incubators, one brooder. B. G. Crandall, North Franklin. Tel. 53-5 Lebanon.

FOR SALE—Baby Chicks. Bred-to-lay. Popular breeds, free catalogue of chicks, brooders and supplies. Clark's Hatchery, East Hartford. Clark's Pet Shop, 50 Shetucket St. Norwich. J22d

FOR SALE—Hatching eggs. $7 per 100. Trap-nested stock. Phone 1658. F. Tourtellotte. 5 W. Pearl St. Jan21d

FOR SALE—R. I. Red Baby chicks and hatching eggs from stock tested free from bacillary white, diarrhea. H. J. Larkham, Norwich Town. Phone 463-4. Jan6d

FOR SALE—S. C. R. I. Reds. Day old chicks from stock tested for white diarrhea. Hatches weekly. W. W. Service, Lakeview Farm, R. D. 1, Norwich. Tel. 1633-3. Jan14d

PERSONAL

SUFFERERS of Heart Trouble, Dropsy, Angina, High Blood Pressure, Paralysis, Asthma, I will gladly tell you free how you can get quick and lasting relief without using drugs, medicines, serums. Address E. V. Walden, Box 1559, New Haven, Conn.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—I offer for your inspection this 80 acre farm with good buildings, for $2,500. William M. McNicol, Maynard Bldg., Jewett City. tf

A pink from Yantik get he always gets up early cus he always tells his son to wake him when he comm in. Boys must stay out prity late in Yantik. Rubber poush and pipe all for 80c. Noble, Old Coon, Pipple 2 for 90c. Manila Cigars special 10 for 35c. Murad, Melachrino cigarets 20 for 70 c. Fagan's Smoke Shop, Opp Woolworth.

FOR SALE—Police puppies. F. Theteault, Hanover. Phone 1871-5, Norwich Div. Jan18d

CABLE PIANO—$5 note with fine tone and action. Mahogany case. Can be bought for $125 on convenient payments. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. tf

CHOICE TWO GOOD PIANOS $90—Reputable New England make in excellent condition as to tone, action, case and finish. Terms if desired. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. tf

USED PIANOS $95—Two excellent makes taken in exchange. In good condition, suitable for beginner. Terms arranged if desired. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. tf

ORTHOPHONIC VICTROLAS—Available here in all styles from $85 up on convenient payments. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., only exclusively Victrola dealers in Norwich and Eastern Conn. tf

FOR SALE—Brand new Guilbransen Player Pianos on terms as low as $2.50 weekly. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St.

FOR SALE—A good upright Schubert piano in fine condition. Full plate and 88 note, $89. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. tf

WASSERMAN 88 note piano like new. Cheap to the first buyer. Hanover-Curland Co. 24 Franklin St. Jan14

FOR SALE—A brand new Victrola, Model 80. Regular price $110. Our Price $52.50. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. tf

FOR SALE—A brand new $285 Brunswick Phonograph for $98.50. Hanover-Curland Co. 24 Franklin St. tf

FOR SALE—Orthophonic Victrolas on Easy Terms at the Cash price. We are factory agents of genuine Victrolas for town of Norwich. Hanover-Curland Co. 24 Franklin St. tf

$165 buys Wasserman 88 note Player piano, in good condition. Hanover-Curland Co. 24 Franklin St. tf

FOR SALE—A 5 Tube Chelsea Radio set. Regular price $50. Special Price for cash, $25. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. tf

FOR SALE—House, 15 Elm St., belonging to est. Oscar L. Brown. Inquire Dr. N. S. Lewis, Adm. 314 Main St. J30

FOR SALE—6 room bungalow with water in house, electric lights, 7 acres of land with 40 young fruit trees, 1 3-4 miles from Franklin Sq. on Middle road to Poquetanuck, price very attractive. For particulars call at A. Hagberg & Son Tailor Shop, 310 Main. Jan12d

FOR SALE-3 tenement house, 6 rooms each flat, with all modern improvements. Large lot. Also 2 tenement 5-room each flat, all modern improvements with 2 car garage. Large lot, located near Golden St. Also 9 room house with store located in 70 Boswell Ave. For full particulars, see A. W. Covello, Real Estate and Fire Insurance. 198 Cliff St. Tel. 1093-3. Jan11d

FOR SALE—Second hand ranges with gas attachment and some without. We guarantee every range that goes out of our store. Some Crawfords and some Glenwoods. 107 Franklin St. Phone 559. dec24d

90 acres, state road farm 5 minutes' walk to stores, church and bus line, 40 acres level tillage land, dark loam soil very productive, two story colonial house, large stock barn, 125 ton silo; buildings all good and the price only $5,500, including 15 cows, 1 pair horses, and a complete line of farming implements. Tryons Agency, Willimantic, Conn. Jan16d

OFFERING
6½% FIRST MORTGAGES
FULLY GUARANTEED
JAMES L. CASE
Investment Department
40 Shetucket Street

FOR SALE

Well Established Grocery Business, on State Road. Just outside of city limits. Bargain for quick buyer.

For particulars inquire of

Joseph K. Panek
AGENT.
301-302 Disco Bldg.,
Norwich, Conn.

FOR SALE

A very choice piece of property desirably located on Williams St., large double lot. House can be very economically put into a two apartment. This property must be sold at once, and who it fits, can secure a big bargain. Can have easiest of terms.

For further particulars inquire of

JOHN A. MORAN
REAL ESTATE BROKER

FOR SALE

IN NORWICHTOWN

7 room house with large plot of ground near Backus Hospital. Low price for quick sale. Owner leaving town.

FRANCIS P. DONOHUE
Tenney's Block, Norwich.

WANTED—Miscellaneous

HIGHEST prices paid for used furniture and antiques. Louis E. Ward, Box 353, Norwich. Phone 361-13. Norwich 406 Willimantic. sept7d

LOUIS D. WARD pays big prices for used furniture and antiques. Box 389, Norwich. Phone 361-13, Norwich; 406 Willimantic. TuThSm16

WANTED—To drill you a new well or your old well deeper. A. E. Earl, Contractor for artesian wells. P. O. Box 240, Willimantic, Conn. Jan20d

WANTED—Agents to sell complete line of Towels, Linens, Damask. E. Tattersall & Co., Clinton, Mass. Jan20d

WANTED—Furniture repairing. Refinishing and Odd Jobs in Carpentry. Phone 1203-4. Jan12d

WANTED—Second hand antique furniture. Best prices paid. A. Bruckner, 192 Franklin St. Phone 569. nov17d

WANTED—Cash paid for old furniture of H. Ward, 15 Water St. Tel. 24. nov14d

WANTED—To cure poultry and calves highest prices paid. Call 1445. nov21d

Bicycles reclivered and glass for every purpose. Norwich Glass Co., 5-15 Cliff St.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Lot No. 34 Knollwood Beach Tract, Saybrook, Connecticut, overlooking Long Island Sound, owned by an estate which must be settled. Price below cost. Communicate with Charles W. Cramer, attorney, or Richard H. Deming, attorney, 36 Pearl Street, Hartford, Conn. Jan22d

FOR SALE—German Police dog. Female, spayed. 12 months. Apply evenings, 77 Franklin street. tf

FREE—Hose and 10 feet of piping with every Radiator Heater purchased during this month. Gas & Elec. Dept. Jan20d

FOR SALE—Remington Cash Register and Desk. Also Ford Touring car. Phone 201-5. Jan20d

FOR SALE—Two coal heaters, at a reasonable price. H. W. Clark, Scotland, Conn. Phone 293-4. Jan20d

ARCHA W. COIT

OFFERS FOR SALE

New modern 7-room house, excellent location, reasonable.

New two-family house, best residential section.

An exceptional 8% accumulative preferred stock guaranteed.

Real Estate Bonds, Life and Fire Insurance solicited.

Telephone 2288.

FOR SALE

Two-apartment house, West Side, 5 rooms and bath. Built less than a year ago. Possession given by small payment.

J. A. CUNNINGHAM
THAYER BUILDING.

FOR SALE

Best Quality Seasoned Hard Wood Delivered anywhere within a radius of four miles of Franklin Square.

HARRY S. FORD
Phone 80 Disco Building

PIANO BOXES $2
100 NEW BOXES WHICH MUST BE SOLD AT ONCE
The Plaut-Cadden Co.
135 Main St. Norwich.

WANTED—Female

WANTED—By young woman work evenings and Saturday. Write Box 920, Bulletin. Jan21d

WANTED—Woman desires position as bookkeeper. Has thorough knowledge of this branch of office work having had considerable experience. Can furnish references. Call 2594J. tf

WANTED—Stenographer. Give experience. Also girl for chemical laboratory. Address Chemical, Bulletin Office. Jan19d

Experienced Stenographer Wanted

Apply in own handwriting.

Address Box 555, Bulletin.

COAL AND WOOD

FOR SALE—Hard wood slabs, $9 per cord. Phone 152-2. Jan20d

FOR SALE—Sawed oak wood, one cord $11, 1-3 cord $6, 1-4 cord $3.50. Delivered anywhere. O. H. Main. Phone 489. tf

FOR SALE—Sawed slab wood or thick hard wood. Try a load. Tel 1882-2 dec24

FOR SALE—Wood, stove length. G. A. Bullard. Tel. 1076-4 dec22d

FOR SALE—Best Quality hard dry wood. H. E. Beard & Son. Ye Old Homestead Farm. Tel 616-4. nov25d

FOR SALE—Best hardwood and slabs by a load. John R. Lyman. Tel 2617W. nov7d

COAL, seasoned wood and kindlings delivered anywhere. 6 baskets for $1.00. Phone 739. Park Wood Yard 401 Franklin St. 23d

COAL.—Seasoned wood and kindlings in large or small quantities delivered anywhere. Phone 504 or 1283-4. R. Shanley, Willow street. nov23d

WANTED—Male

WANTED—Butcher to work in meat market. For particulars call at 44 Dunham St. Norwich. Jan22d

WANTED—Middle aged man for outdoor position. Could be profitably worked with Insurance or Real Estate. No investment. Pay weekly. Heath Nurseries, Manchester, Conn. Jan1d

WANTED—A chef to take over a dining room, now in operation. All complete, in a hotel of 50 rooms, rent reasonable to right party. Across from New Theatre and Depot. Westerly, R. I. Jan21d

WANTED—Large company 50 years in business has unusually good opening for active man with small car, as salesman in or near Norwich or Jewett City, supplying families with select line of teas, coffees, spices, extracts, baking powder, etc., permanent, profitable and healthful business. Write Box G 303, Bulletin Company, Norwich, Conn. Jan20

WANTED—Position as bookkeeper by young man with several years' experience. Also has thorough knowledge of expert accounting and auditing. Can furnish the best of references. Address 14 Nelson place or call 2504 J, during the evening. tf

AMBITIOUS MEN AND BOYS—25 wanted at once to learn the barber trade; we pay you while learning, tuition $25; we are open from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m. Vaughn's School of Barbering, 14 Market St., Hartford, Conn. Nov14d

LOST AND FOUND

FOUND—Black and tan fox hound. Female. Arthur E. Waterhouse, Killingly, Conn. R. F. D. No. 1. Tel. Danielson 283-2. Jan20d

Business Notices.

AUTO ACCESSORIES—TIRES, PARTS

AUTO PARTS—TELEPHONE 1600
Replacement parts for all cars
WILLIAMS TIRE & SUPPLY CO.

WHEN YOU WANT to sell for cash before the public there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

TO RENT

TO RENT—From Feb. 1, store and fixtures, rent reasonable. Inquire of A. J. Senft, over the store, 56 Boswell avenue. Jan25d

TO RENT—3 furnished rooms for light housekeeping. 201 Franklin St. J22d

TO RENT—Modern furnished apartment, 4 rooms and bath, including steam heat, radio service and other conveniences. Accommodations for two adults only. Central location. Phone 141-2. J22d

TO RENT—6 room flat. All improvements. Also garage. 42 Peck St. J22d

TO RENT—Furnished room, suitable for young lady. 161 Franklin St. J22d

TO RENT—50 acre farm, 2 barns, garage and 10 room house with water and electric lights, desirably located at Occum. Phone 2238-2. Frank B. Bushnell, R. F. D. 8, Norwich. J22d

TO RENT—Garage room for one car. Tel. 1484. 15 Oak St. A. Gardner. Jan6d

TO RENT—6 room tenement. All improvements. Near Thamesville School house. Phone 477-2.

TO RENT—Six room apartment. Steam heat furnished. Reasonable rent. All modern improvements. Phone 1299. J21d

TO RENT—Tenement, 5 rooms all improvements. 39 Greene Ave. Jan20d

TO RENT—Furnished rooms for light housekeeping, private bath room and private entrance. Tel. 1241-3 or inquire, Disco Bros. tf

FOR RENT—Furnished room, steam heat, use of phone, private family. Phone 349-4. Marion Bldg. Jan19d

TO RENT—3 furnished rooms, for light house keeping. Steam heated. Tel. 628-5. Jan19d

TO RENT—4 room flat with bath, Laurel Hill Ave. Phone 2691J. Jan19d

TO RENT—Lower Tenement, 6 rooms and bath. Inquire of J. Bradford, 108 Broadway. Jan19d

TO RENT—7 room flat. All modern improvements at 35 Cliff St. Tel. 2252 Jan19d

TO RENT—6 room tenement, all improvements. Mohegan Park Rd. Brook Bldg. Phone 1473-3. Jan19d

TO RENT—3 or 4 rooms. Light housekeeping. 37 McKinley Ave. tf

TO RENT—Select 6 room apartment, Greene Ave., tile bath, garage included. $45 a month. Call 2474-2. Jan14d

TO RENT—6 large rooms, $18. Near the Thermos. Tel. 1463. dec30d

TO RENT—4 modern room apartment. Inquire Brooklyn Outfitters.

FOR RENT—Five modern apartment. All improvements. 92 Perkins Ave. Inquire Adelard Morin. The Plaut-Cadden Co. dec9d

TO RENT—Garage at 50 Broad St. Inquire Hanover-Curland Co. dec4d

TO RENT—Dead storage for 50 cars. Hartley & Gallup. 863-865 Hamilton Ave. Phone 701-2. nov24d

TO RENT—Apartment 197 Laurel Hill Ave., with or without garage. Phone 2179. nov11d

TO RENT—Furnished rooms for light housekeeping, also garage. 11 Elm street, city. nov4d

WANTED—Automobiles for storage $4.00 per month. Garage, 472 N Main St. oct30d

TO RENT—Cottage of 6 rooms, all improvements. 26 Grove St. oct29d

TO RENT—A fine modern apartment in best residential section of Norwich. Inquire of Shea and Burke. 41 Main St. oct16d

FOR SALE—Automobiles

FOR SALE—1926 Willys Knight Sedan, 1926 Overland Tourings, 1925 Ford Coach, 1924 Jewett Roadster, #1924 Durant Sedan, 1924 Maxwell Touring. Small down payment. Bal. 12 months. 62 Shetucket St. Jan22d

FOR SALE—One 1923 Willys-Knight sedan. 90 days' guarantee. One 1921 Chevrolet touring car for $60. Inquire Jewett City Service. Tel. 11-4. Jan21d

FOR SALE—1921 Ford Coupe, good paint, tires and battery; motor in good condition; terms if desired; $120. Tel. 592-5. Jan21d

FOR SALE—Cadillac, truck body, mechanically perfect. Sackett, Canterbury, Conn. Jan20d

FOR SALE—1924 Buick Coupe, 1921 Packard Small Six Sedan, 1924 Studebaker Sedan, 1925 Ford Coach, 1922 Dodge B. Sedan, 1923 Dodge A Sedan, 1924 Ford Coupe, 1924 Maxwell Coupe, 1921 Ford Coupe. 15 open cars all late models. Cash or Terms. Adams Tavern Garage. Jan16d

FOR SALE—1925 Hudson Coach, 1925 Ford Coupe, 1924 Jewett Sport Roadster, 1924 Maxwell Touring, 1924 Durant Sport Sedan, 1924 Ford Touring, 1924 Ford Coach. Jones & St. Germain's, 62 Shetucket street. Jan14d

YOU CAN order a new or used Harley-Davidson motorcycle for immediate or spring delivery through our Club Plan $2.50 down. New models are now on display. Jim Donovan, 155 N. Main St. Phone 709. dec3d

FOR SALE—1926 Chevrolet Sedan, 1924 Ford Coupe, 1924 Chevrolet Touring, 1923 Dodge Touring, 1922 Maxwell Touring, 1923 Buick Touring. Krieger Motor Sales Co. 191 No. Main St. Tel 646 dec30d

FOR SALE.

Pierce Arrow Vestibule Sedan, A1 condition. Mileage 19,000.

E. B. PATTERSON, INC.
88-90 NORTH MAIN STREET.

FOR SALE
PRIVATELY OWNED
BUICK COUPE
In good condition. New tires.
Fully equipped
For further information address
BOX NO. 128 BULLETIN

BOWLING AND BILLIARDS

BOWLING
AND
POCKET BILLIARDS
AT THE
AETNA BOWLING ALLEYS
Majestic Bldg. Tel. 1912

CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS

P. F. SWEENEY
GENERAL CONTRACTOR and BUILDER
25 Chestnut Street.

Doors, Windows, Frames
Inside Finish.
Mill Work of All Kinds.
THE PECK-McWILLIAMS COMPANY.
Central Wharf.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE!

The Board of Relief of the Town of North Stonington will meet in the Town Hall in said town on Monday, February 1st, from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M. to hear appeals from the doings of the assessors also any other business legal to come before said board and adjourn from time to time as considered necessary by said board.

IRVING C. ECCLESTON,
Board of Relief.

Dated at North Stonington this 21st day of January, 1926.

NOTICE!

The Board of Relief of the Town of Columbia will meet in Yeoman's Hall Monday, February 1st, and Monday, February 8th, 1926, from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. to hear appeals from the doings of the board of assessors and do any other business proper to do done at said meeting.

FRED A. ABELL,
FRANK POTTER,
CHARLES PALMER,
Board of Relief.

Columbia, January 21st, 1926.

Board of Relief Notice

The Board of relief of the town of Bozrah will be in session at the town hall in said town as follows: February 1, 13 and 20 from 10 A. M. until 3 P. M. to hear appeals of the doings of the assessors and to transact any other business proper to be done at said meeting.

WILLIAM KILROY,
A. J. GRANDY,
JEREMIAH J. SULLIVAN,
Board of Relief.

Dated at Bozrah, Jan. 20, 1926.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 13th day of January, A. D. 1926.

Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

Estate of George W. Beckwith, late of Norwich, in said District, deceased.

Ordered, That the Administrator cite the creditors of said deceased to bring in their claims against said estate within six months from this date, by posting a notice to that effect, together with a copy of this order on the sign-post nearest to the place where said deceased last dwelt, and in the same town, and by publishing the same once in a newspaper having a circulation in said district, and make return to this Court.

NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record

Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk.

NOTICE

All creditors of said deceased are hereby notified to present their claims against said estate to the undersigned at R. F. D. No. 1, Killingly, Conn., within the time limited in the above and foregoing order.

ARTHUR T. TURNER, Administrator.

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 21st day of January, A. D. 1926.

Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

Estate of Henry J. Mueller, late of Norwich, in said District, deceased.

Catherine A. Mueller, of Norwich, Conn., appeared in Court and filed a petition praying, for the reasons therein set forth, that administration be granted upon the estate of said deceased, alleged to be insolvent.

Whereupon, it is Ordered, That said petition be heard and determined at the Probate Court Room in the City of Norwich, in said District, on the 26th day of January, A. D. 1926, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and that notice of the pendency of said petition, and of said hearing thereon, be given by the publication of this order one time in some newspaper having a circulation in said District at least three days prior to the date of said hearing and that return be made to this Court.

NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record

Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk.

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Bozrah, within and for the District of Bozrah, on the 20th day of January, A. D. 1926.

Present, WAREHAM W. BENTLEY, Judge.

Estate of Mary Abel Bosworth, late of Bozrah, in said District, deceased.

Louis H. Abel, of White Plains, New York, appeared in Court and filed a petition praying, for the reasons therein set forth, that an instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased be admitted to probate.

Whereupon, it is Ordered, That said petition be heard and determined at the Probate Court Room in Bozrah, in said District, on the 26th day of January, A. D. 1926, at two o'clock in the afternoon, and that notice of the pendency of said petition, and of said hearing thereon, be given by the publication of this order one time in a newspaper having a circulation in said District at least three days prior to the date of said hearing and that return be made to this Court.

WAREHAM W. BENTLEY, Judge.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Lebanon, within and for the District of Lebanon, on the 16th day of January, A. D. 1926.

Present, GEORGE E. BRIGGS, Judge.

Estate of Julius Fiegert, late of the Town of Lebanon, in said District, deceased.

Ordered, That the Administratrix cite the creditors of said deceased to bring in their claims against said estate within six months from this date, by posting a notice to that effect, together with a copy of this order on the sign-post nearest to the place where said deceased last dwelt, and in the same town, and by publishing the same once in the Norwich Bulletin, a newspaper having a circulation in said district, and make return to this Court.

GEORGE E. BRIGGS, Judge.

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.

Attest, ISABELLE HYDE BRIGGS, Clerk

NOTICE

All creditors of said deceased are hereby notified to present their claims against said estate to the undersigned at R. F. D. No. 1, Willimantic, Connecticut, within the time limited in the above and foregoing order.

LIDIA FIEGERT, Administratrix.

NOTICE!

The Board of Relief of the Town of Franklin will meet in the Town Hall on the 1st day of February from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M., to hear the appeals from the doings of the Assessors and to transact any other business necessary to be done at that time. Future meetings as the law requires.

ERNEST R. SMITH,
GEORGE A. MILLER,
C. B. DAVIS,
Board of Relief.

Frankin, Conn., Jan. 20th 1926.

NOTICE

The Board of Relief of the Town of Norwich, Conn., will meet in the City Hall Building in said Town each day, Sundays excepted, from February 1 to February 21, from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M., to listen to appeals from the doings of the assessors and to transact any other business proper to be done at said meeting.

Dated at Norwich, Conn., Jan. 19, 1926.

JAMES C. FITZPATRICK,
FRANCIS BERQUE,
ROBERT G. SWANSON,
Board of Relief.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

Business Notices.

BIRDS

FOR SALE—Canaries also cages and supplies at Anthony's. 193 Central Ave. Tel. 2454-2. Jan16d

CHIROPODIST

A. G. THOMPSON, F. S. Chiropodist Foot Specialist (protect your feet) Suite 7-8 Alice Bldg., 321 Main St. Norwich, Conn. Phone 735. dec23d

J. GROSVENOR assisted by J. Dawson, 12 Cliff St., will conduct a children's free clinic Thursday evenings from 7-9. Office hours 9-12 and 1-6. Tel. 524. Jan13d

CIGARS

Whitestone cigars are $70 per thousand. J. F. CONANT 11 Franklin St.

AUTOMOBILE REPAIRING

General Repairing, Day and Night Service
JONES' GARAGE
East Great Plain Tel. 2171-2

"JOE" MOORE'S GARAGE
Mechanical, Electrical and Body Repairing
PHONE 2358
95 Chestnut Street

AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES

Keep the Money Circulating
500 OLD CARS WANTED
Any condition. Cash waiting.
Large stock of Gears, Axles, Bearings, Wheels, Springs, Starters, Generators, Batteries, Windshields, Radiators, Motors, Rear Ends and all parts. Bargains in Used Tires and Tubes.

HODES AUTO PARTS
Formerly the
NATIONAL AUTO WRECKING CO.
381 West Main St. Cor. Mt. Pleasant.
Tel. 1391

OVERHAULING and REPAIR WORK
OF ALL KINDS
Automobiles, Carriages, Wagons, Trucks and Carts
Mechanical Repairs Painting, Trimming, Upholstering and Wood Work
Blacksmithing in All Its Branches
Scott & Clark Corp.
607 TO 615 NORTH MAIN STREET

STAR GARAGE
NOW FOR SERVICE!
We are now carrying a complete line of new auto parts such as—
WEL-EVER PISTON RINGS
BUTLER SPRINGS
AMERICAN GEARS
TIMKEN BEARINGS
BUTLER DRIVE SHAFTS AND AXLES
and other popular auto replacement products, accessories and Tires.
Try us. We can save you money!
Plainfield 196. Danielson 213-2.
Wholesale and Retail.

PARTS THAT ARE STANDARD EQUIPMENT
ON THE BEST BUILT CARS IN AMERICA ARE SOLD BY Norwich Auto Parts Co.
43 N. Main St. Phone 2118.

Battery Service
The Best 1-Day Battery Charging
Radio Rental Batteries
75c Week.
Capacity, 40 Batteries every 8 to 10 Hours

VULCANIZING
The only shop in the city equipped to repair all sizes of REGULAR and BALLOON Tires.

The KE HAW KE System
ALL REPAIRS GUARANTEED.
Lane Motor Supply
170 Franklin Street.
PHONE 1570.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Rent It

Business Notices.

INSURANCE

The other man's building may have been destroyed by fire within the last few weeks, while you have never had a fire—yet fire may break out on your premises tonight.

Isaac S. Jones
Insurance Agent
81 Main Street
Norwich, Conn.

E. J. YOUNG
Automobile Insurance a Specialty
Travelers' Insurance. Prompt Service
Rm. 14 Central Bldg. Tel. 2428-2

MUSIC.

Wanted—Pupils for trumpet and cornet
J. J. M'QUINNESS
Broadway Theatre Orchestra

WANTED—Pupils. Drums, Bells, Xylophone. Drums and supplies for sale. Room 3 Central Bldg. Jan19

FRANK DRAGO of Hartford
TEACHER OF VIOLIN & THEORY
Room 213 Disco Building

MONEY TO LOAN

LOANS
THE PUBLIC'S LOAN SERVICE
We loan money for emergency needs, featuring prompt, courteous and confidential service. Monthly payments of principal and interest arranged to suit the borrower's convenience. Legal interest on unpaid balances is our only charge. Detailed information furnished by personal representative upon request. Phone 1475.

New England Equity Corp.
Members of Chamber of Commerce
ROOM 206 THAYER BLDG.
16 FRANKLIN STREET.

NEWSPAPERS AND PERIODICALS

HANDY NEWS STAND
Thayer Building Franklin St.

PICTURE FRAMING

THE PHOTO SHOP
149 Franklin St. Tel. 1622

PRINTING

PRINTING of all kinds promptly and neatly done. Estimates promptly and cheerfully given. The Bulletin Co., 65 Franklin St.

TRANSPORTATION

New York
Via
New London Line
From Norwich
$3.38
Comfortable Staterooms Ready for Occupancy at 7:30 P.M.
Lv. New London Daily (Sun. Excepted) 11:00 P.M.
Due N. Y. Pier 40, N. R., Houston St. 7:00 A.M.
Returning from New York, the New London Line Steamer leaves at 12:00 Midnight, from Fall River Line Pier, 14 N. R., Fulton St. providing a late service for theatre goers. Steamer due at New London 7:30 A. M.
Reduced rates on automobiles
The New England Steamship Co.

TREES AND SHRUBS

Fruit, Ornamental Trees and Shrubs
MAPLEWOOD NURSERY CO.
East Great Plain Tel. 988-2

TRUCKING

Hartley & Gallup—Truckmen. Local and long distance furniture and piano moving a specialty. High grade sand and loam for sale. Storage of any description. At 363 and 365 Hamilton Ave. Telephone 701-2. nov24d

Long Distance Moving and Expressing. Zimmerman, 17 Howard Ave. Tel. 1341.

J. D. JOSLYN, 293 West Main street. We move everything anywhere. Special attention given to moving boilers and machinery. Telephone 1533-3.

Established 1873 Telephone 175
ARTHUR E. H. LATHROP
Auto trucking, Teaming and Expressing, Furniture and Piano Moving Sherlocker Street

UPHOLSTERING

CALL 1931W. Upholstering, crating, carpets and linoleum laying. George H. Sanders, 3 Bostwick Ave. Jan15d

WALL PAPER

WALL PAPERS—7 1-2 c to 35 Roll. Many new numbers at half and less than usual prices. Norwich Chain Wall Paper Co., cor. Willow and Chestnut Sts. T. E. McClenahan, Mgr.

CASTINGS
Grey Iron and Semi-Steel Castings
Pattern Making and Machine Work
—ALSO—
Daily Trucking Service Between Norwich, New London and Vicinity
BABCOCK PRINTING PRESS MFG. CO.

AT A SACRIFICE!
$5,000 STOCK FOR SALE
—OF—
CAPITOL THEATRE CORP.
WILLIMANTIC, CONN.
HOW MUCH IS OFFERED?
Apply A. DAVIDSON
BROADWAY THEATRE, NORWICH.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

MARKETS AT A GLANCE.

New York.

Stocks; irregular; several food issues set new records.

Bonds steady; many speculative rails advance.

Foreign exchanges mixed; Japanese yen at new high.

Cotton barely steady; southern selling.

Sugar steady; commission house support.

Coffee higher; trade buying.

Chicago.

Wheat weak; foreign competition.

Corn lower; increasing stocks.

Cattle; firm.

Hogs; active and lower.

MARKET WAS UNSETTLED.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Stock prices bounded upward at the opening of today's stock market, but the higher prices were met with a flood of bear selling and profit taking which carried a wide variety of railroad and industrial issues down one to nearly six points below yesterday's closing quotations. Trading showed a marked falling off in volume, the day's sales aggregating less than 1,500,000 shares, or more than 500,000 below those of yesterday.

The initial upturn, which ran from 1 to 5 points in many issues, was largely due to a continuation of the short covering movement which set in late yesterday, on the dramatic reappearance into the market of William C. Durant on the long side. Pool resumed aggressive operations and bears temporarily stepped aside, but when it became apparent that so-called public buying was not following up the advance short selling was resumed in large volume and quoted values rapidly melted away.

The principal commodity markets also were reactionary. Wheat futures dropped about 2 1-2 cents a bushel in sympathy with the lower prices in the foreign markets, and reports of increased offerings of the Argentine and Russian products. Cotton closed 10 to 15 points net lower after an early period of irregularity. Raw sugar was unchanged, but futures displayed a firmer undertone. Except for January options, which closed 25 points higher, coffee prices moved within rather narrow and irregular limits.

United States Steel common opened with a block of 5500 shares at 135, which proved to be the first high price of the day, the stock later selling down to 132 3-4, closing on that figure for a net loss of 2 points. Baldwin, known as one of the Durant stocks, and American Can, were among the few active industrials to show gains on the day. General Electric broke 7 1-2 points to 331, and then rallied 2 points. United States Cast Iron Pipe, which inaugurated dividends today at the rate of $10 annually showed a net loss of nearly 3 points at 192, after selling as high as 197.

Some of the other outstanding weak spots in the industrial list were Du Pont, General Motors, Hudson Motors, Mack Trucks, Sears Roebuck, United States Industrial Alcohol, American Smelting, Famous Players, General Asphalt, Stewart-Warner Speedometer and United Drug.

Independent strength was shown by a few specialties. Foundation Company was bid up to a new top at 178 but lost its gain on profit taking. Art Loom Corporation jumped five points to a new top at 69 1-2, and California Packing, Manati Sugar, Savage Arms, and United Fruit closed 1 to 2 points higher, Mack Motors jumped nine points.

Rails turned weak, despite reports of impending merger developments. Common stock of the Frisco, which is expected to make an important announcement tomorrow, showed a net gain of 1 1-2 at 86 1-8, after having sold as high as 101 1-4. Atlantic Coast Line broke 13 points to 235, cancelling yesterday's gain, and Atchison, Chesapeake and Ohio, Louisville and Nashville and Norfolk and Western declined 2 points or more.

Call money renewed at 4 per cent., and held steady at that figure. Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged.

A spirited advance of 30 points in Japanese yen, which crossed 45 cents to the highest price in three years, was the feature of the irregular foreign exchange market. The rally here followed a similar advance in London. Other rates moved within rather narrow and irregular limits, demand sterling yielding slightly to $4.85 2-4, and French francs sagging to 3.73 1-2 cents.

STOCKS

Sales in hundreds.		High.	Low.	Close
13	Allied P & P	73½	72½	72¾
3	Adv Rumely	16½	16	16¼
4	Adams Expres	107	104¾	104¾
1	Adv Rum pr	55¾	55½	55½
12	Ahumada Lead	8	8	8
47	Air Reduct	112¾	110½	111½
2	Ajax Rubber	10¾	10	10
2	Alas Jun G	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
45	Al Che & Dye	115¼	113	113¼
1	All Ch & D pr	120	120	120
3	Allis Chalmers	92	90½	90½
24	Am Ag Chem	32¾	30¾	31
7	Agr Ch pr	91¼	88¾	88¾
1	Am Beet Sug	32¾	32¾	32¾
13	Am Bosch Mag	28¼	25¾	28½
164	Am Brown B S	46¾	43¾	46
6	Am Brake Shoe	166½	164	164
1	Am Bos pr	96¾	96¾	96¾
90	Am Can	282¾	279½	280¾
5	Am Can pr	123	123	123
211	Am Can wi	47¼	46¾	46¾
2	Am Car&F rts	⅝	⅝	⅝
16	Am Car & Fy 113		110	110
2	Am Car & F pr	126	126	126
3	Am Chain A	24¾	24¾	24½
7	Am Cheese	46	45¾	45¾
3	Am Chicle ctfs	44	44	44
14	Am Drug Syn	5¼	5	5
3	Am Express	132½	132	132
3	Am & F P	39¾	39½	39½
5	Am & F P pr	93	91¾	91¾
6	Am H & Leath	13¾	13	13
6	Am Ice	127¼	126	126
2	Am Ice pr	83	82¾	83
32	Am Int Corp	43¾	42¾	42¾
9	Am La Fr F E	13¾	13½	13¾
21	Am La Fr rts	⅛	⅛	⅛
1	Am La Fr pr	98½	98¼	98¼
13	Am Linseed	46¾	46	45
13	Am Lime pr	53¾	53¾	53¾
46	Am Loco	114	111¾	111¾
9	Am Metals	52	51¾	52
6	Am Metal pr	116¾	116¾	116½
9	Am Radiator	111	109½	110
1	Am Rally Ex	77½	77½	77½
7	Am Saf Razor	58	57	57
1	Am Ship & Com	5¾	5¾	5¾
64	Am Smelting	134	130¾	131
2	Am Smelt pr	115¼	115¼	115¼
11	Am Steel Fdrs	44¾	44¼	44¼
90	Am Sugar Ref	75¾	73¾	74
1	Am Sumat Tob	11¾	11¾	11¾
13	Am Tel & Tel	143¾	142¾	143¾
4	American Tob	115¾	115¾	115½
12	Am Tob B	114½	114¼	114¾
40	Am Wat Wks	72¾	70	71¾
2	Am Wool	39¼	39	39
5	Am Wtg Pap	2¾	2¾	2½
1	Am Z L & S	39	39	39
42	Anaconda Cop	47¾	47	47¾
2	Ann Arbor pr	64½	64½	64½
11	Arch D Mfd	41	40¼	40¾
10	Arm Co Ill A	24¼	24	24¼
21	Arm Co Ill B	16	15¾	16
1	Arm Co Ill pr	91	91	91
1	Arnold Consta	14¾	14¾	14¾
1	Arn Const ctfs	14¾	14¾	14¾
5	Art Metal	20	20	20
20	Artloom Corp	63½	58¾	63¾
1	Art Cor 7 pc pr	110½	110½	110½
5	Asso Dy Gds	51¾	50¾	50¾
92	Asso Oil	54	52¾	53
40	Atchison	131¾	129¾	129¾
7	Atchison pr	95¾	95½	95½
10	Atl Bir Atl	7¾	7¾	7¾
5	Atl Coast Line	244¾	233	238¾
3	Atl Gulf W I	62¾	60	60
2	Atl G W I pr	54¾	54¼	54¼
1	Atl Refining	117	117	117
2	Atlas Powder	58	58	58
5	Aust Nich pr	90	90	90
1	Auto Knit Hos	⅞	⅞	⅞
154	Bald Loco	128	125¼	126¾
9	Bald Loco pr	112	111½	112
56	Bait & O	90¾	88¾	88¾
4	Bait & O pr	68	67¾	67¾
6	Bang & Aroos	43¼	43	43
1	Bang & A pr	100¾	100¾	100¾
13	Barnsdall Corp A	30¾	29¾	29¾
1	Barns Corp B	26¾	26¾	26¾
16	Barns rts	⅛	⅛	⅛
1	Bayuk Cigar	44¾	44	44
2	Beechnut Pack	64	62¾	62
2	Belding Bros	37½	37½	37½
18	Beth Steel	47¾	46½	46½
3	Beth St 7s	101¾	101¾	101¾
3	Blum pr	60	60	60
1	Booth Fisheries	8	8	8
9	Briggs Mfg Co	33¾	33¾	33¾
4	Bkyn Edison	136	135	136
23	Bkyn Man Tr	57¾	55¼	56
1	Bkyn Man Tr p	82¾	82¾	82¾
1	Brown Shoe wi	45	45	45
2	Bkyn Un Gas	56	56	56
1	Bruns Bal Col	28	28	28
1	Burns Br B	37¾	37¾	7¾
1	Burr Add Mch	91½	91½	91½
1	Bush T ctf new	21	21	21
1	Butte Copper	5½	5¾	5¼
4	Butte & S Cop	14	14⅛	14¼
75	Calif Pack	144¾	140½	142
2	Butterick	22¾	½	22½
75	Cal Pack	144¾	140½	143
62	Cal Petrol	31¾	31¼	31½
2	Callahan Z Lead	2⅜	2⅜	2⅜
1	Cal & Ariz	58½	58½	58½
4	Cal & Hecla	14⅜	14¼	14¼
5	Can Pac	147¾	147	147¾
5	Case Threshg	69¾	68	69
1	Case Thresh p	99½	99½	99½
6	Cent Leather	18¾	18½	18½
8	Cent Leath pr	64	62½	62½
1	Cent of N J	235	235	235
5	Cent R Mills	27½	26½	27
1	Cent R M pr	9	90	90
34	Cerro de Pas	59	58	58½
31	Certain P	46¾	46½	46¾
3	Certain T pr	105¾	105	105¾
15	Chandler Motor	48	46	46¼
43	Ches & Ohio	117¾	115	115
6	Ches & Oh pr	120	119	119
6	Chi & Alton	7¾	7¾	7¾
2	Chi & Alt pr	12	12	12
4	Chi Gt West	10⅞	10⅝	10⅝
9	Ch Gt W pr	26½	25	25
5	Chi M & St P	13	12¾	12¾
29	Chi M&St P ctf	12	11¾	11¾
26	Chi M&StP pr	19¾	18¾	18¾
20	Ch M&StP pr ctf	18½	18½	18½
30	Chi & N W	75	73¼	73¼
1	Chi Pneu Tool	113	113	113
59	C R I & P	58¾	56¾	56¾
4	C R I P 6 pc pr	87¾	87¾	87¾
1	C StP M&O pr	110	110	110
1	Childs Co	63	63	63
12	Chile Cop	33¾	33½	3½
1	Chino Cop	18¾	18¾	18½
1	Christie Brown	59¾	59¾	59¾
174	Chrysler oCrp	49¾	47½	47¾
5	Chrys Cp pr	106	106	106
7	Coca Cola	149¼	146¾	147
3	Col Fuel & I	35	35	35
1	Col & South	62¾	62¾	62¾
56	Col Gas & Elec	86¼	85	85
2	Col Gas & E pr	114¾	114¾	114¼
4	Col Carbon	57½	56¾	56¾
14	Col Carbon	57½	56¾	56½
19	Com Credit	35½	35	35
25	Com Credit rts	⅝	¼	¼
3	Com Inc Tr	68¾	67	67
5	Com Solv A	128	127	128
1	Com Solv B	125	125	125
12	Cong Nairn	17	16¾	16¾
30	Consol Cigar	60½	59¾	59¾
1	Consol Cig pr	98	98	98
32	Cons Cig rts	1½	1⅛	1⅛
4	Con Dist	4¾	4¾	4¾
108	Consol Gas	98¾	96¾	98¾
18	Cons Textile	3¾	3¾	3¾
26	Cont Can	85¾	84	84
18	Cont Insur	144¾	141	143
54	Cont Motors	12¾	11¾	12
19	Corn Prod	41	40¾	40¾
3	Coty Inc	57¾	56	56
1	Crex Carpet	62	62	62
1	Cruci St pr	99¾	99¾	99¾
61	Cuba Can Sug	10¾	9¾	9¾
123	Cub Can S pr	47	43¾	44¾
16	Cuba Co The	48¾	48¼	46½
134	Cub Am Sug	28	26¾	26¾
26	Cub Dom Sug	½	3	3
6	Cub Dom S pr	19¼	17½	19
1	Cudahy Pack	93	93	93
1	Cush Sons Inc	93½	92½	93½
14	Cush rts	⅛	⅛	⅛
1	Cuyamel Fruit	48	48	48
17	Davis Chemical	40¼	39	39
8	Del & Hud	156	155	155
17	Del L & W	144½	143½	143½
3	Edison Detroit	135	133¾	133¾
3	Dev & Ray A	97¾	97	97¼
57	Dodge Bros A	43¾	42¾	42¾
24	Dodge Br pr	85¾	85¼	85¼
6	Dome Mines	16¾	16¾	16¾
21	DuP de Nem	224	219	219
3	DuP de N deb	102¼	102	102
4	Duque Lt 1 pr	113	112¾	112¾
4	East Kodak	109	108¾	108¾
12	Eaton Axle	37¾	37	37
60	El Pow & Lt ctf	31¾	30¼	30¼
2	El P & Lt pr ctf	92	91	92
1	El P&L 6Dpd	106¼	106¼	106¼
15	Elec Stor Bat	74¾	73¾	73¾
3	Emers Brant	2¾	2½	2½
5	Endicot Johns	68¼	66	68
35	Erie R R	34½	34¼	34¼
12	Erie 1 pr	42¾	41¾	41¾
1	Euro Yac C	49	49	49
21	Fairb M & Co	55	54	54¼
74	Fam Play Las	106¾	106	106
10	Fed Lt & Tr	36¾	36¼	36½
1	Fed M & Sm	94	94	94
7	Fed M&Sm pr	94	92¾	93
7	Fidel Ph F I	196½	193	196
10	First Nat stfs	41	40¼	40½
6	Fisher By xd	92	93¾	93¾
114	Fisk Rubber	24½	23¼	23½
32	Fleischman Co	63½	62¾	62¾
64	Foundaton Co	178	174½	175
3	Fox Film A	78¾	78½	78¾
225	Freeport Texas	24¾	23¾	23¾
12	Gabriel Snub	38½	38	38½
18	Gen Am Tank	53¾	52¾	52¾
21	Gen Asphalt	67¼	65	65
2	Gen Asph pr	106½	104½	104½
1	Gen Cigar	110	110	110
58	Gen Electric	339	331	331
19	Gen Elec spl	11½	11	11
6	Gen G & E A	56	54¾	54¾
193	Gen Motors	119	116	116
5	Gen Out A A	53¼	52¾	52¾
21	Gen Out A cf	30¾	29¾	29¾
266	Gen Pet	57¼	56¾	56¾
266	Gen Pet	57¼	56¾	56¾
57	Gen Ry Sig n	79	75¾	76
8	Gimbel Bros	72½	72	72
36	Glidden Co	24¾	24	24
10	Gold Dust	45½	45	45
13	Goodrich BF Co	62¾	60¾	60½
2	Gdyr T&R pr	104	103¾	103¾
7	Gold Coup A	70¾	70¾	70¾
3	Gotham Hos	39½	39½	39½
10	Granby Min	19¾	18½	19
34	Gt Nor pr	74½	72¾	73¾
1	Gt N I O P	25¾	25½	25½
8	Gt. West Sug	97	97	97
3	Gulf M & N	32½	32¼	32½
1	G M & N pr	101¼	101	101¼
8	Gulf Sta Stele	88	86¾	86½
5	Hartman Cor	34¾	34¼	34¾
1	Hayes Wheel	43¼	43¼	43¼
1	Helme G W Co	69½	69¼	69½
1	Hoe R & Co	34¾	34¾	34¾
3	Household Pr	46	44¾	44¾
3	Houston Oil	65⅞	65	65
19	Howe Sd Co	30¾	29½	29½
34	Hud & Man	36⅞	36	36
384	Hudson Motor	111¾	107¾	107½
4	Ill Central	118½	118½	118½
1	Ill Cent pr	119	119	119
	Indian Motrcy	9¾	19¾	19¾
20	Indian Ref	10½	9¾	9¾
3	Ingers Rand	96¼	94½	94½
2	Inland Steel	64½	64½	64½
1	Inland St pr	112	112	112
3	Insp Cop	24	23¾	24
7	Int Rap Tr	28¼	27¾	27¾
91	Inter Agri Corp	24¾	24¾	24
6	Int Bus Mach	146¾	143¾	143¾
2	Int Cement	67½	67½	67½
87	Int Comb Eng	55½	53¾	54½
48	Int Harv Co	127¾	125¾	125¾
3	Int M P pr	56¾	56¼	56¼
1	Int Mer Mar	9¼	9½	9½
19	Int Mer Mar pr	39	37¾	37¾
71	Int Nickel	42¾	41¾	41¾
56	Int Paper	59¼	56	56
1	Int Pap 1 pr	58½	58½	58½
1	Int Pa 7 pr	96	96	96
1	Int Rys Cent A	29	29	29
76	Int Tel & Tel	124¾	122	122
4	Jewell Tea	27	26¾	26¾
2	Jones Bros Tea	14¾	14¾	14¾
38	Jordan Motors	50¾	49	49½
1	Kan Cy P&L pr	108	108	108
20	Kan Cy Sou	45¾	44½	44½
12	Kayser J & Co	45½	45	45
1	Kayser J Co pr	103	103	103
16	Kelly Spg	17¾	17½	17¾
5	Kelsey Wheel	111	111	111
2	Kresge Dp St	30	30	30
2	Kup B Co pr	29½	289½	29½
23	Lee Rub rites	⅛	⅛	⅛
2	Lee Rub & Tire	12¾	12¾	12¾
16	Lehigh Valley	81¾	80	80
5	Lehn & Fk Pr	38	37¾	37¾
2	Lig & My To	91¾	91½	91½
16	Lig & M Tb B	91¾	91½	91¾
3	Lig & My pr	122¾	122½	122¾
12	Lima Loco	65	64	64
11	Loew's Inc	38¾	38	38
1	Loft Candy	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛
59	Lorillard Co P	37¼	37	37¼
11	Louis O & R	17	16¾	16¾
6	Louis & Nash	133½	128½	128½
3	Louis G & El	29¾	29½	29½
33	Ludlum Steel	51¾	50½	50½
57	Mack Truck	146¾	143	143½
63	Mk Tr rites	6⅞	6¼	6¼
1	Mack Tk 1 pr	110½	110½	110½
5	Macy R H Co	98	97	97
8	Magma Cop	41¾	41¼	41¼
1	Mallison & Co	24½	24¼	24½
16	Manati Sugar	45	44	44
22	Man El Sup	64⅞	63¾	63⅞
1	Manh Ry m gtd	45¾	45¾	45¾
15	Manh Shirt	30⅜	30	30
5	Mara O Exp	24⅝	14¼	14¼
7	Mkt St Ry pr	42¼	42	42
7	Marland Oil	56¾	55¼	55¼
3	Martin Parry	20¼	20¼	20¼
31	Math Al Wks	96¾	95	95
19	May Dept Strs	130	128	128
2	Maytag Co	21¾	21¾	21¾
4	McCr St B	115½	114	114
5	Met Gold pr	23¾	22¾	22¾
28	Mex Seab Oil	10¼	9¼	9¾
28	Mex Seab Oil	10¼	9½	9½
4	Miami Cop	11¾	11¾	11¾
23	Mid Cont Pet	33¾	33¼	33½
11	Mid Sts Oil	1¾	1¾	1¾
3	Min StP & SSM	47¾	47¾	47¾
49	Mo K & T	41¾	40¼	40¼
4	Mo K & T pr	91	90¾	90¾
34	Mo Pacific	38¾	36¾	36¾
30	Mo Pac pr	86	84¾	84¾
17	Montana Pow	80¾	79¼	79¾
127	Mont Ward	74½	73¾	73¾
7	Moon Motors	32	1⅝	31½
14	Mother Lode	7	7	7
4	Motion Pic Cop	20	20	20
3	Motor Meter A	40½	40½	40½
5	Motor Wheel	30¾	30¾	30¾
1	Munsingwear	35	35	35
116	Murray By Cor	15¾	14	14¼
21	Nash Motors	547	535	539
1	Nat Acme stpd	11¾	11¾	11¾
210	Nat Biscuit	84¾	81	83¾
28	Nat Cash Reg A	50	49½	49½
3	Nat Clk & Suit	52½	52	52½
1	Nat C & S pr	90	90	90
20	Nat Dai Prod	75¾	75	75
7	Nat Dept Strs	41	40¾	40½
7	Nat Dst Prod	29	28¾	28¾
1	Nat Dis Pr pr	65	65	65¾
3	Nat En & St	36	35¾	35¾
1	Nat Lead	166	166	166
480	Nat P & Lt cf	38¾	35	35¼
1	Nat Ry M 1 pr	7¾	7¾	7¼
4	Nat Ry M 2 pr	3¾	3¾	3½
4	Nat Suply	56¾	56½	56¾
1	Nat Tea	213	212	212
2	Nev Con Cop	13¾	12¾	12¾
5	N Y Air Brake	38½	38¾	38¼
6	NY Air Bk A	57	56¾	57
5	N Y Canners	77	76¼	76½
118	N Y Central	129¼	127¾	127¾
1	N Y Chi & St L	173	173	173
3	N Y C & S L pr	97¼	97¼	97½
5	N Y Dock	34¾	34	34¼
63	N Y N H & H	42¾	40¾	41
1	N Y Ont & W	25½	25½	25½
1	NY Ry Par Corp	6¾	6¾	6¾
1	Na Fal Pw pr	28¾	28¾	28¾
80	Nor & West	156¾	151¾	152
99	North America	65¾	64½	64½
3	Nor Am pr	50½	50	50
1	Nor Am Edit pr	93¾	9½	93½
1	Nor Cen Ry	79¾	79¾	79¾
14	Nor Pacific	73	72¼	72½
19	Nor T & Rub	14½	14	14
5	Nunnally Co	16¾	16¾	16¾
2	Onyx Hois	34¾	34½	34½
13	Oppenh Col	57¾	57	57
4	Orph Circuit	30½	30	30
3	Otis Elevator	124	123¼	123½
23	Otis Steel	13¾	13½	13½
1	Otis Steel pr	94½	94½	94½
2	Outlet Co	48	49	49
4	Owens Bottle	63¼	63	63
2	Pan G & E	127	126½	127
205	Pac Oil	77½	76¾	76¾
18	Packard Motor	39	38¼	38½
21	Paige D M Car	25	24¾	25
9	Pan Am Pet	67½	67	67
31	Pan Am Pet B	69¾	67¾	67¾
3	Pan Pr & Ref	5	4½	4½
17	Park Utah C M	7¾	7¾	7¾
3	Pathe Ex A	77	70¾	70¾
18	Penick & Ford	18	17½	17½
57	Penn R R	54¼	53¾	53¾
24	Penn Seab Stl	2	1⅞	1⅞
4	Peo Gas Chi	118¼	118	118
6	Pere Marq	32½	83	83
8	Phila Co	66	63½	63¾
42	Phil &Rdy C&I	43¾	4⅛	43⅛
36	Phillips Petrol	48½	48	48
2	Phoenix Hos pr	99¼	99	99¼
91	Pierce Arrow	38¾	36½	36½
8	Pierce Ar pr	103	101¼	101¼
3	Pierce Oil	1¼	1¼	1¼
28	Pierce Petrol	5½	5⅝	5⅝
5	Pitts Cl pr	83	82	81
2	Pitts St pr	96½	96⅝	96⅝
1	Pitts Tm Cl	60	60	60
1	Pitts Util pr	15½	15½	15½
8	Pitts & W Va	113	113	112⅝
19	Postum Co xd	109	107½	107½
11	Pressed Stl Car	74	72	72
2	Prod Refn	15	14½	14½
1	Pub Se El G pr	98	98	98
60	Pub Ser N J	60¾	59¾	59½
93	Pullman Co	171¾	167¾	168¼
15	Punta Al Sug	44¾	342½	43½
15	Pure Oil	29¾	29	29
16	Radio Corp	42¾	41½	41¾
1	Radio Corp pr	46	46	46
1	Rail Steel Sp	163¾	163¾	163¾
81	Ray Con Cop	11¾	11¾	11¾
15	Reading Co	85¾	85¾	85¾
35	Reading rts	19¾	19½	19½
4	Reid Ice Cream	53	53	53
8	Reis & Co Roll	17½	16	17½
1	Reis & Co 1pr	80	80	80
4	Reming Type	118	115⅞	116
6	Replogle Stel	14¾	14	14
16	Rep Ir Steel	58	56¾	56¾
2	Repub I St pr	93¼	93½	93¼
1	Reyn Spg	9	9	9
13	Rey Tob B	96¾	95¼	95¾
21	Rossia Ins Co	99	97	97½
11	Royal Dut N Y	53¾	53¾	53¾
10	Safety Cable	51½	51	51
11	St Jos Lead	44	43¾	43¾
291	St L & S F	101¾	98	98¾
21	St L & S F pr	87	87	87
21	St L Southw	65¾	64¼	64½
1	St L Sou pr	75	75	75
41	Savage Arms	94¾	91⅞	93
5	Schulte Ret St	136¼	134½	135
55	Seab A L	46¼	43¾	43¾
10	Seab A L pr	45¼	44¼	44½
23	Sears Roeb	221	218	218
1	Shat F G Co	63	63	63
30	Shell Un Oil	26¼	26	26
2	Shell Un Oil pr	105	105	105
13	Shubert Theat	58¾	56½	56½
4	Simmons Co	53¾	53¾	53¾
70	Simms Petrol	25½	24	24
36	Sinc Con Oil	21¾	21	21
333	Skelly Oil	31½	30¾	31½
4	Sl Sh St & I	124½	121	121
70	Southn Pac	101¼	100	100
56	Southn Ry	116¼	113¾	114
15	Southn Ry pr	91¾	90½	90¾
28	So Por R Sug	123	119½	120
2	Spicer Mfg	27	26½	26½
49	Std Gas & El	59¾	58¼	58¾
2	Std G & E pr	56¾	56¼	56¼
50	Std Oil Cal	57½	56¼	56½
57	Std Oil N J	44	43¼	43¾
7	Std Oil NJ pr	117¾	117¼	117¾
4	Sterling Prod	81¾	80¼	80¾
66	Stewart W Sp	86¾	83¾	83½
1	Strom Carb	74	74	74
53	Studebaker	57	56¼	56¼
1	Studebaker pr	120	120	120
1	Subm Boat	3⅜	3⅜	3⅜
6	Sun Oil	87	86½	86½
2	Superior Oil	3⅜	3¾	3¾
14	Symington Co	13	12½	12¾
9	Syming Co A	20¾	20	20¾
3	Tenn C & C	14	13¾	13⅞
35	Texas Co	51½	51	51
43	Tex G

SNOW OR RAIN TODAY; FAIR TOMORROW

Norwich Bulletin

1704 1926

NORWICH, CONN., FRIDAY, JAN. 22, 1926

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DESPATCHES

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Friday, Jan. 22, 1926

WEATHER

Conditions

The disturbance that was over the lower Rio Grande Wednesday night has advanced to eastern Tennessee, with increased intensity, and a trough extending northeastward to New England.

The outlook is for snows on Friday in the north Atlantic states.

Elsewhere the weather will be fair Friday and Saturday in the states east of the Mississippi river. It will be colder along the Atlantic coast on Saturday.

Storm warnings are displayed on the Atlantic coast from Southport, North Carolina, to Sandy Hook.

Winds

North of Sandy Hook: Fresh possibly strong northerly and weather overcast with snow or rain Friday.

Sandy Hook to Hatteras: Fresh possibly strong southwest shifting to northwest and weather partly overcast with rains Friday.

Forecast

Eastern New York: Snow, followed by clearing and colder Friday; Saturday fair, continued cold.

Southern New England: Snow or rain Friday; colder at night. Saturday fair, continued cold.

Observations

The Bulletin's observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Thursday:

	Ther.	Bar.
7 a. m.	26	30.00
12 m.	48	29.70
6 p. m.	36	29.40

Highest 48, lowest 36.

Comparisons

Predictions for Thursday: Increasing cloudiness, followed by rain.

Thursday's weather: Cloudy and threatening, rain in afternoon and evening, northeast wind, continued mild.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES

Day	Sun Rises	Sun Sets	High Water	Moon Sets
	a. m.	p. m	a. m	p. m
18	7.21	4.45	1.00	10.16
19	7.21	4.47	1.58	11.24
20	7.19	4.48	2.57	mor
21	7.09	4.49	3.55	0.39
22	7.09	4.51	4.53	1.34
23	7.08	4.52	5.54	2.31
24	7.07	4.53	6.53	3.31

Six hours after high water it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

TAFTVILLE

Mrs. Alfred Linderson of North Third avenue is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Philip F. Linderson and family of Gurleyville.

The Thursday evening basketry class met last night in the Red Cross rooms in the Pomeriah building.

The annual business meeting and election of officers of the Ladies Benevolent society of the Taftville Congregational church was held Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors with the president, Miss Gertrude M. Young presiding. There was a very large attendance and the afternoon program was very interesting. Plans for a supper to be held by the society some time in February were discussed. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Miss Gertrude M. Young; vice president, Mrs. Charles T. Webster; secretary, Mrs. Adam Leupold; treasurer, Miss Anna M. Beardow; board of management, Mrs. Clarence J. Nagle, chairman; Mrs. Arthur E. Atkins, Mrs. Walter L. Barritt, Mrs. Edmund Hindle, Mrs. James Edwards, Mrs. George H. Young, Mrs. A. E. Pingree; lookout committee, Mrs. Edwin G. Crowdis, Mrs. Richard B. Snow, Miss Gertrude M. Young. At the close of the business session there was a social hour, refreshments being served by Mrs. Elsie Pingree, Mrs. E. Tracy Clark, Mrs. Edwin G. Crowdis and Mrs. Richard B. Snow.

A conclave of the knights, esquires and pages of Castle Perilous, K. O. K. A., was held Wednesday evening in the vestry of the Taftville Congregational church, with a large attendance. John Wood presided as king. Frank Moors was herald, and Edwin Troeger was sentinel. Curtis Hedler was acting seneschal, substituting for Oscar E. Mathewson, Jr., who is in Manchester.

Henry Leupold of South B street, Fred Seidel and Henry Seidel of Providence street, Terence J. Buckley of South C street and George W Weller, Jr., of Lisbon motored to Providence, Wednesday in the Seidel car, to attend the Providence radio show which is being held in the E'ks auditorium.

Mr and Mrs. Michael Mish of Lisbon are moving this week to the village.

Miss Elizabeth Sullivan, R. N., of Norwich spent Thursday with Mrs. Earle M. Wood of North Third avenue.

Today (Friday) bundles of old clothing are to be collected for the Near East at the Wequonnoc school. Children have been instructed to bring the bundle in the morning or at noon as a truck will call during the afternoon for the garments.

Rev. Edwin G. Crowdis of the Taftville Congregational church accompanied by the church choir is to have charge of the service at the Shetucket Arms in Norwich Town Sunday afternoon.

Ponemah Council, No. 34, Knights of Columbus, gave an enjoyable whist

Many professional men prefer rimless glasses — we can supply the right kind the first time.

Wednesday evening at their rooms on Providence street. Seven tables were in play. The ladies prizes were awarded first to Mrs. Joseph Laramie; second to Mrs. Louis Gregory and consolation to Miss Margaret Benoit. The first prize for gentlemen went to Ambrose Gregory, the second to Matthew Garvey and the consolation to George Gregory.

Frank J. Stennick of New Haven was a business caller in the village Thursday.

Wonderful New Face Powder

A new French process powder that is not affected by perspiration—will not let an ugly shine come through; stays on until you take it off; fine and pure; makes the pores invisible; looks like beautiful natural skin; gives a soft velvety complexion. Get this new wonderful beauty powder called Mello-glo. At all toilet goods counters.

MAKE REPORTS OF SUDDEN DEATHS IN TOWNS IN LAST 3 MONTHS OF 1925

Without the medical examiner's reports of sudden deaths in Norwich yet having been received at the office of sudden, violent and accidental deaths in the other towns of the county in the last quarter of 1925 was 49. Of these the largest number were in New London which had 21.

The following are the reports filed so far with the medical examiner:

New London

Oct. 3—Bartholomew Cunan, 67, acute indigestion.

Oct. 19.—William E. Lee, 50, acute alcoholism, suffocation.

Oct. 20.—Manuel Dias, 39, fracture of skull, laceration of brain.

Oct. 21.—Walter S. Calvert, 73, multiple injuries struck by train.

Oct. 23.—William Lewis Douglas, 53, angina pectoris.

Oct. 24.—Andrew Richards, 65, East Lyme, apoplexy.

Oct. 27.—Ella Howard, 73, acute cardiac dilitation, myocarditis chronic.

Oct. 27.—James Fraser, 63, apoplexy.

Nov. 2.—James H. Barry, 63, angina pectoris, chronic myocarditis.

Nov. 4.—Louis Olbrys, 17, laceration and amputation of left leg, septicemia, motorcycle accident.

Nov. 11.—James M. Lewis, 35, acute cardiac dilitation.

Nov. 11.—Hiram A. Crocker, 64, acute indigestion, acute cardiac dilitation.

Nov. 15.—Walter P. Buck, 67, angina pectoris, chronic myocarditis.

Nov. 23.—Meyer Boyer, 58, angina pectoris, chronic myocarditis.

Dec. 1.—Gus Olsen, 40, acute alcoholism, fracture of femur, ruptured bladder.

Dec. 10.—Michael J. Corcoran, 60, chronic myocarditis, angina pectoris.

Dec. 16.—Louis Burnett, 42, acute cardiac dilitation brought on by overexertion.

Dec. 19.—George W. Chappell, 56, broken neck, struck by train.

Dec. 21.—William Osborne, 60, New York City, apoplexy.

Dec. 26.—William Andrew Hamilton, 3 months, broncho pneumonia.

Dec. 31—Maud Gutherie, 44, Pawcatuck, third degree burns of chest and arms.

East Lyme

Oct. 16.—Otto Wilko Salmi, 44, suicide by hanging.

Griswold

Nov. 3.—William Elias Lord, 56, acute indigestion.

Dec. 25.—Margaret Benson, 50, Apponaug, R. I., lobar pneumonia with edema of lungs.

Dec. 26—Horatio Seymour Pierce, 62, myocarditis.

Stonington

Oct. 2—S. M. Rostad, 35, accidental drowning.

Nov. 1.—Frances H. Strott, 68, Mystic, cerebral hemorrhage.

Old Lyme

Dec. 25.—Herbert Willcut, 48, Chester, Conn., probable heart disease.

Waterford

Nov. 1.—William J. Ebersole, 39, multiple injuries, struck by train.

Montville

Oct. 5.—Andrew Philip Johnson, 41, heart disease.

Nov. 22.—Ray Nelson, 32, broken neck and fractured skull, automobile accident.

Nov. 27.—Myers Wilks, 60, heart failure.

Dec. 1.—Lenize Louis Burdo, 86, cerebral apoplexy.

Dec. 15.—Lena Williams Comstock, 55, cardiac embolism.

Dec. 16.—Melissa Morgah, 72, Massapeag, endocarditis.

Dec. 23.—Mrs. Samuel Escovitz, 50, Chesterfield, cerebral hemorrhage.

Dec. 25.—Frank D. Miner, 67, valvular heart disease.

Colchester

Oct. 27.—Robert Walter Lamphere, 10, fracture of skull, struck by automobile.

Groton

Nov. 4.—Mary Elizabeth Kirk, 69, New York City, acute indigestion.

Nov. 24.—Doris May Wydler, 2 months, influenza.

Dec. 6.—Margaret S. Caswell, 60, Noank, Bright's disease, heart complications.

Sprague

Nov. 9.—George Ashley, 55, probable cerebral hemorrhage.

Nov. 23.—Philip Jenkins, 43, heart disease.

NORWICH FEATURED IN RAILROAD TIME TABLE

The new time tables issued by the N. Y., N. H. & H. Railroad for the lines west of New London and Willimantic, devotes a full page to Norwich. A picture of the Wauregan corner taken in front of the Uncas Bank building and entitled A Busy Corner in Norwich, Conn., is accompanied by the following article, all of which was furnished by The Norwich Chamber of Commerce:

Norwich, by reason of its geographic location, commends itself as a growing municipality with the combined advantages of intense and varied industrial activities and an attractive New England atmosphere. It is situated about midway between New York and Boston and between Providence and Hartford, and enjoys a twenty-four hour mailing service to upwards of 3,000,000 people. Passenger and freight service is provided by the New Haven System with the complete passenger service of the Shore Line within easy reach.

The population of Norwich (1920 U. S. census) is given as 29,685. For a city of its size, it ranks among the leaders of its class for diversity of its industries, one of these being the textile industry which gives employment to a great number of Norwich citizens. It is the largest community in eastern Connecticut and is the trading center for nearly 100,000 people.

It is the banking and business center of eastern Connecticut. The total amount of business transacted in Norwich (located in New London county) for 1924 was $452,018,823. Norwich successfully operates a municipal gas and electric department and a water system, and is modern in all phases of civic activity.

The city is noted for its scenic beauty and was called by Henry Ward Beecher "The Rose of New England." Its situation on the banks of the stately Thames river does much to enhance its beauty. All information concerning Norwich and its industrial, residential and commercial activities will be gladly furnished by the Norwich Chamber of Commerce.

SUES FOR DIVORCE ON DESERTION GROUNDS

After 42 years of married life, Mrs Ida Bingham, married in New London in 1884, and since removed to Meriden, has started a civil action for divorce against her husband, Henry C. Bingham. She also requests alimony. The suit is based on alleged desertion and neglect since Feb. 10, 1922. The couple have seven children, all more than 21 years of age.

Five Uncontested Divorces

Five uncontested divorces are on the short calendar list for hearing in the superior court in this city this (Friday) morning.

They are the following: James Ennis against Emma M. Ennis; Bronislawa G. Hohowska against Walter Hohowska; Florence Spencer O'Neil against Maurice O'Neil; Rebecca Fraser LaPage against Arthur LaPage; Ella Pickett Dunlap against Frank Dunlap.

MOTION LIST MATTERS FOR SUPERIOR COURT

The following are on the motion list for the short calendar session of the superior court in this city before Judge C. L. Avery this (Friday) morning:

Witchewski against The Falls company and others, appeal from compensation commissioner; hearing on defendant's appeal.

Norwich Savings society against Smith and others; default of failure to plead.

Haraczkiewicz against Savitski; judgment of default for failure to plead.

Case against Fuller and others; disclosure of defense or judgment and limitation of time.

H. G. Craig & Co., Ltd., and others, against The Uncas Paper Board Co.; hearing on claim of J. E. Smith; hearing on claim of Kelly & Co.

Savings Bank of New London against Sweeney, administrator; judgment of foreclosure and limitation of time or order of foreclosure by sale. There are two similar motions in this case.

Smith and others against Automobile Insurance Co., of Hartford; judgment by default.

McNicol against Tenscar et ux.; default for failure to plead.

Smith and others against Automobile Insurance Co., of Hartford; argument of motion for more specific statement.

Assurance Co., of America, against New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Co.; motion for default.

Duratowicz, ex., against Dach and others; judgment and limitation of time.

Gagnon against New London Greenhouses and Nurseries, Inc.; approval of receiver's account to date.

METHODIST MEN'S CLASS ENJOYS SOCIAL EVENING

Wednesday evening the Everyman's Bible Class of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church met at the home of Charles R. Browning at East Great Plain. There were solos and readings by Miss Marion Browning and Prof. F. T. Maples entertained with impersonations and readings. Chief Occum (Lemuel M. Fielding), gave a historical sketch of the origin of the names of several villages in this vicinity. Archie Perry entertained with comic readings. A feature of the evening was a checker contest in which Ernest Newberry was the champion. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Browning, Mrs. Ernest J. Jones and Mrs. Ludwig Krumbols.

COMMITMENTS TO HOSPITAL MUST BE PROMPT

In an opinion given Thursday at Hartford, to Dr. Franklin S. Wilcox of the Connecticut State hospital, at Norwich, Attorney General Frank E Healy held that no person should be received at the hospital at any later time than the day following the date of commitment to the institution.

Dr. Wilcox had advised the attorney general that he had been asked if a commitment made last April was good at this time, and although the superintendent found nothing in the statutes relating to the point except what might appear to it mandatory on him to receive the person committed he had declined to receive the person involved on the ground that it was not a reasonable interpretation of the law. He said that such an interpretation would make it possible for an unwarranted detention of a person before actually taking them to the hospital, and in this contention the hospital superintendent is upheld by the attorney general.

REVERSES DECISION IN KOLB CARTON BANKRUPTCY

A mandate of the United States circuit court of appeals reversing the decision of Federal Judge E. S. Thomas of the district court in the case of Kolb Carton company, formerly of Norwich, against the Norwich Savings society, James E. Smith, the Uncas Paper Board company and John P. Huntington, was filed at New Haven Thursday. The case was one of bankruptcy. In January, 1923, the Kolb company declared itself to be bankrupt and Judge Thomas recognizing it as such, restrained the society and the paper board company from use of various assets, and also gave the bankrupts a verdict to recover the value of certain things used by the others prior to the restraining order, amounting to $479.70. The later appealed.

BACKUS HOSPITAL AUXILIARY

Though the holiday season seems long ago, it still lingers in the memories of the patients who spent those days in the Backus hospital. The festive days were made as cheerful as possible by the Woman's Auxiliary and many interested and generous friends. Besides the beautiful decorations of laurel, greens, and holly and the gaily decorated trees which adorned wards and corridors so many gifts found their way to the patients that the spirit of Christmas penetrated every corner of the institution, and brought courage and health to the seventy men, women and children whose Christmas could not be spent at home this year.

That it is a universal desire to make this season of the year as happy as possible was appreciated by the holiday committee of the Woman's Auxiliary. Without the generous donations of money and gifts that they received and the willing help of a splendid purchasing committee, their funds would have been inadequate to the pleasant task of decorating the building and of seeing that Christmas gifts were distributed through the wards. The flower committee helped in the decorations, and the experienced and clever buying was done by Miss Jane Bill, Mrs. Hall and Miss Mazie Caruthers. They were aided in making their money go so far as it did by the generous discounts given by Norwich merchants. On Christmas morning, thirty baskets of fruit and packages of gifts were distributed by Mr. Hutchins and Miss Dowd. To each man was given a pipe, tobacco, slippers and writing paper; to each woman, a nightgown, writing paper, talcum powder and stockings. Under the tree in the children's ward, the production committee of the Auxiliary had placed gifts of wrappers and dresses. There was candy for all. This work of making an otherwise lonely and sick Christmas a happy occasion is one appreciation by the hospital authorities this year, as in past years. Funds needed to carry on the actual work of running a big organization that will make sick bodies into well ones cannot be diverted to this work, however much it may mean to the morale of a patient and however much those in charge would delight to do this.

The Christmas dinner was the traditional one of turkey and its fixings and the ice cream and plum pudding made a delightful desert. The plum pudding with its sauce was given, as usual, by a generous friend of the hospital and the ice cream was the gift of the Connecticut Council of Catholic Women.

The nurses, in spite of a very busy season in the hospital, found time to enjoy their Christmas and their gifts. All the nurses and officers were remembered by the Auxiliary Nurses' Recreation committee. To the officers were given framed mottoes; to the entrance class, pretty pin cushions; to the second class, correspondence cards and to each nurse in the senior class, nurse's receipt books. To the Residence, the committee gave "The Mentor" for a year.

On New Year's Day the patients enjoyed the ice cream which was sent by the United Brotherhood Synagogue. Cake for the holiday season was generously donated by the ladies of the following churches: German Lutheran, St. Patrick's, St. Mary's, A. M. E. Zion, Mt. Calvary Baptist and the Grace Memorial. Among the other gifts which came to the hospital during the past month are money, food, including celery for the Christmas dinner, fruit, candy, jellies and pickles, fancy paper napkins given by the First Spiritual Union, books, subscriptions to magazines and the "Bulletin". Besides the annual grab bag by which Mrs. H. H. Osgood brings pleasure each New Year's to the nurses, the Residence has been the recipient of a long needed piano, a gift truly appreciated.

On January ninth seven probationers received their caps in the midst of one of the busiest seasons the hospital has ever known. Twenty-two ambulance calls have been answered and over eighty patients, including twin babies born on Christmas morning, have kept the whole staff and nurses busy. On account of this activity the dance that was planned by the Nurses' Recreation committee had to be postponed.

The production committee had a recess during the holiday season, but reports 667 dressings have been made. On December 24th, four wrappers were given to the children's ward. The garments were made from material given to the Woman's Auxiliary by the Red Cross association, two white flannel baby wrappers and ten baby bands were given at that time.

The finance committee is planning a bridge party for an evening in February at the Nurses' Residence. The chairman, Mrs. William Dawley, telephone 224, has already begun reserving tables and hopes that the forty tables will soon be taken by the men and women who will help raise needed funds in this pleasant way. The price of a table is four dollars and there will be a prize for each table.

The donation committee have had a busy fall and winter, so great has been the responses to the need for fruit and jellies, for old linens and cream jars and four ounce bottles. The list of donors is not yet completed but will be printed shortly. This need for donations is a constant one and, though grateful for the supply that has been received, the hospital can use all that the public can give.

For the children, have come books and fine scrap-books. Ice cream was given to the hospital by the Polish ladies and the Central Baptist church. The ladies of the First Spiritual Union, the Home Service Unit of Park church, Trinity Methodist church, the Women's Auxiliary, the Y. P. C. U. of the Universalist church, and Children from the Laurel Hill school have all given to the hospital this past month.

The children from the Laurel Hill school are: Betty Verba, Marie Spicer, Helen Spicer, Margaret Crooks, Eileen Baton, Myrtle Phillips. Other individuals to whom the hospital is indebted for their evidence of interest are: Mrs. Frederick A. Benton, Mrs. Tolson (Fitchville), Fred Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Ailis, Mrs. Frank Church, Misses Williams, Mrs. Tingley, Mrs. Lynch, G. W. Davis, Miss Randall, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. A. H. Chase, Mrs. Joseph Higgins, Mrs. O. L. Johnson, Mrs. F. Sayles, Mrs. Morin, Mrs. H. C. Collins, Mrs. Charles Stewart, Miss Helen Williams (New London), H. F. Dawley, Mrs. Lewis Geer, Misses Carpenter, Mrs. Dowsett, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Saxton, Mrs. L. O. Smith, Mrs. George Carroll, W. G. Park (Hanover), Mrs. Harold Robinson, Mrs. James Case, Mrs. H. H. Osgood, Miss Jane Bill, Mrs. W. Wilcox (Charleston, S. C.), Mrs. Otto Wulf (Putnam), Mr. and Mrs. Rudd, Miss Jane Aiken, Tyler Rogers, M. E. Purcell, Mrs. Joseph Adams, Mrs. Everett Hall, Mrs. Taft, Miss Grace Taft, Charles and Austin Hubbard, Miss Porteous, Dr. Cadle, Dr. Callahan, Dr. Driscoll, Austin Nichols Company.

This Store is the place to buy your Radiolas. RCA Loudspeakers and RCA Accessories

We are glad to announce that we have been selected by the Radio Corporation of America to sell and service Radiolas, RCA Loudspeakers and RCA Accessories.

Radiolas 15 to $575

RCA Loudspeakers $18 to $245

Convenient Time Payments may be arranged

FERGUSON'S

H. J. FERGUSON,

239 Main Street, Norwich, Conn.

NO CRIMINAL NEGLIGENCE IN DEATH OF FORSYTHE

Deputy Coroner John H. Barnes, who has been serving while Coroner J. J. Desmond has been kept from active business by illness, has just rendered a finding in the death of Joseph Forsythe, of Montville, in which he finds that there was no criminal negligence in the death of Forsythe, who was struck by a Montville trolley car on the night of Jan. 6.

The finding by Deputy Coroner Barnes is as follows:

That the said Joseph Forsythe died at the Backus hospital in Norwich, on the morning of Jan. 7, 1926, from the result of injuries sustained by him by being struck by one of the cars of the Connecticut company in the town of Montville on the night of Jan. 6, 1926, at about the hour of 10.30 o'clock, and which said car at the time was under the care and control of Motorman Winthrop A. Abell and Conductor Albert E. Vetter. It appeared from the evdience before me, that on the night of January 6, 1926, the said Joseph Forsythe boarded one of the cars of the Connecticut company at New London which said car was then under the care and control of Conductor James C. Foley. The said Forsythe at the time was under the influence of intoxicating liquor so much so that the conductor was obliged to remonstrate with him op account of his boisterous and offensive talk.

The decedent left the car at the stop post near Perry's garage, so called in the town of Montville, at about the hour of 10:12 p. m. and was then in an intoxicated condition. The conductor is borne out in this statement, by the testimony of one Norman Lachrop of Montville who was a passenger on the said car, and who had known the decedent for a long time. When the decedent left the trolley car he staggered and reeled and the last seen of him was when he started to walk up the highway to the north of Perry's garage. The south bound trolley under the control of Motorman Winthrop S. Abell left the Uncasville switch on the night of Jan. 6, 1926, at about 10:20 p. m. The night was clear and cool.

Shortly after the south bound trolley left the switch it passed an auto coming up the highway towards Norwich. The motorman, Abell, dimmed his lights in passing the auto, as required by the rules of the company, and after having passed the said auto, immediately turned on his lights. He then for the first time discovered a man on the tracks at a point about 60 feet ahead. The man was in a peculiar position according to the evidence of the motorman-to-wit; on his hands and feet with his back towards the ground. The motorman immediately threw the air over as quick as he could and also threw on the reverse. It appeared from the evidence before me that the brakes and other apparatus on the car were in good condition and that the motorman did all that could have been done under the circumstances. The fender of the car hit the decedent and pushed him along for a few feet. The scene of the accident was at a point about 275 feet north of Perry's garage.

When the car finally stopped the body of the man was under the fender of the trolley. When the conductor got on the car for the purpose of backing the same in order to remove the body of the decedent, he found the reverse handle set and the air handle in emergency. The injured man was removed in the ambulance to the Backus hospital where he died on the following morning. The accident appears to be attributable to the unfortunate condition of the man at the time.

After a careful investigation of the circumstances and review of all the evidence in the matter before me, I am satisfied that the death of the said Joseph Forsythe was not caused by the criminal act, omission, or negligence of any other person or persons.

TAKE PRIZES IN THURSDAY PINOCHLE CLUB

The Thursday Afternoon Pinochle club was entertained this week at the home of Mrs. W. S. Murray, Prospect street, and the prize winners and scores were as follows: first, Mrs. Henry Fukallus, 7,375; second, Mrs. John O. Peckham, 7,185; consolation, Mrs. George Brenn, 5,855. The next meeting of the club is to be at the home of Mrs. Roswell J. P. Brown of Oneco street.

The man who lives up to his opportunities is generally too busy to live up to his income.

DAVID HALE FANNING DIES FOLLOWING RETIREMENT

As was predicted by all who knew him best, David Hale Fanning did not long survive the relinquishing of his active business cares; having formally retired from the head of the Royal Worcester Corset Company at the week end, the aged philanthropist died suddenly Thursday morning, at his home, 150 Woodland St., Worcester. Mr. Fanning was 95 August 4th, last.

A native of Jewett City, he left home when he was sixteen to make his fortune. Writers have frequently referred to him as the "Dick Whittington of Griswold", for he went away hoping some day to come back rich enough to do something fine for the place and its people—which wish more than came true in the years after he had struggled up the hard heights to success.

DAVID HALE FANNING

Mr. Fanning's career was so well known to Norwich people that there is little to be added to their estimate of him. "Temperance in all things, cheerfulness, hard work," such was his rule for living long and happily. His tastes were simple, though refined he was most appreciative of worthy service or any kindness, none was quicker than he to reward any form of loyalty. The employes in his great factory, the maids in his household and the men on his beautiful estate stayed on contented and appreciated year after year.

Mr. Fanning was the son of Henry Wilson and Sarah Hale Fanning, the youngest of nine children. In 1859 he married Rosamond Hopkins Dawless of Sterling, Mass. They had three children, Agnes Maria (Mrs. John Lancaster), Helen Josephine, (Mrs. Suplee, who died a number of years ago in Philadelphia) and a son who died in infancy. His wife died Dec. 14th, 1901.

His development of his great corset plat into a model industry has been the happiness of his life and his administering of its affairs was almost patriarchal in its scope and dignity, for he was revered and deferred to until the very last.

Mr. Fanning was the first Worcester employer to make provision for restoring the health of any of his operatives inclined to tuberculosis; such employes were granted leave of absence and treated till cured, if that were possible. He had a completely equipped hospital room in the plant, provided a cafeteria where food was sold employes below cost, etc., etc. He gave the city of Worcester a $200,000 girls' trade school, gave the site for the Hahnemann hospital and liberally endowed it; established annual prizes to encourage school children in acquiring manual and domestic arts.

To Jewett City he gave its pretty park, its imposing soldiers' monument, aided its Slater Library, reclaimed its ancient cemetery where his parents are buried; also he had reclaimed and beautified the old Fanning burial ground in the town of Ledyard. For Windham Hall, Connecticut college, he provided a fund to furnish a room in memory of his wife, later, adding several gifts to this benefaction.

Mr. Fanning was ardent in his patriotism and frequently manifested this by defraying the expense of having patriotic utterances in prose or verse reprinted and distributed to the schools. In politics he was a republican. Although inclining to the Unitarian belief, he was broad and liberal in his thought, fellowship and charity, looking to worth and personality rather than to cult or creed or color. Some of the quietly benevolent deeds from which he derived the greatest satisfaction were those aiding the colored people of his adopted city in their church work and community service.

Mr. Fanning's only surviving child, Mrs. John Lancaster, returned recently from a lengthy stay in Paris and is now residing in New York. Her two sons are in business in Boston, and her daughter, Rosamond whose husband, Barclay Warburton, Jr., is grandson of John Wanamaker, resides in Philadelphia but this winter has taken an apartment on Park avenue, New York. Mr. and Mrs. Warburton have two children. Mr. Fanning has three nephews in the west and a niece who resides at Newton Upper Falls, Mass., Miss Emily Fanning, who has spent considerable time in his Worcester home. Much of his good health and vigor has long been attributed to the vigilant and intelligent care of his devoted nurse and supervisor of his household, Miss Lenora E. Huestis.

Worcester papers reaching Norwich comment upon the magnitude of the deal carried through by this former Norwich resident, Mr. Fanning, in disposing of his holdings in the Royal Worcester Corset company.

The Worcester Telegram states that the capital stock of the company, consisting of 24,000 shares, was valued at $2,400,000; as Mr. Fanning sold 12,000 shares his return must have been over $1,200,000. It is probable that never has it been recorded that a self-made business man in his 96th year has carried through such a transaction. It was announced in connection with the sale of Mr. Fanning's stock that it was liberally over-subscribed.

Worcester industrial, banking and mercantile interests are well represented on the voting trust which is to hold Mr. Fanning's 12,000 shares for a period of five years, to be administered by three leading Worcester men. The plant now selling its products in 90 countries, was begun by the aged philanthropist in 1861, in a single room, with a single girl assistant. Until his resignation and retirement as president and director at the last week end, Mr. Fanning was believed to be the oldest man in the country, if not in the world, engaged in active business.

J. B. Caron, of the Specialty Shop, who has long represented Mr. Fanning's Bon Ton and Royal Worcester interests in Norwich, saw the energetic president of the company, not so long ago at Worcester, finding him exceedingly vigorous mentally and surprisingly active physically. Mr. Caron was one of those most surprised when the news came Thursday of Mr. Fanning's death.

THE PORTEOUS & MITCHELL CO.

TOMORROW WILL BE 25c DAY IN THE JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE. FOR PARTICULARS SEE SATURDAY'S BULLETIN

TWO MORE DAYS OF THE

January Clearance Sale

IT WILL END WHEN THE STORE CLOSES ON SATURDAY NIGHT

These are remarkable days at this Store—offering once a year opportunities to save on seasonable and staple merchandise for person and home. In this announcement we call special attention to the

CLEARANCE SALE OF SILKS

Yard-wide Sece Silk, for Slips, Dresses and Lingerie, all shades, light and dark, value 69c Sale price 45c

Yard-wide "Rayela" Silks, for Slips and Lingerie, all shades, light and dark, value 89c Sale price 69c

Yard-wide Printed Silk and Cotton Crepe — Silk check Crepes, Brocades, etc., for Dress, or Blouse, value $1.00 to $1.19—Sale price 88c

Yard-wide Rayon Stripe Tub Silks, white ground, for Dresses, value $1.25 to $1.50—Sale price 98c

Yard-wide Black Satin Charmeuse—also Black and Navy Taffeta for Dress or Slip, value $1.50 and $1.75—Sale price ... $1.29

Yard-wide Silk Radium for slips and lingerie, light and dark shades, value $1.69—Sale price $1.38

40-inch Silk Crepe de Chine for Blouse or Dress, dark shades, value $2.00—Sale price $1.68

40-inch Silk and Wool Crepes, for Dress or Blouse, light and dark shades, value $2.00—Sale price $1.69

40-inch Printed Crepe de Chine, new designs, for Scarfs, Sleeves, Dress or Blouse, new designs, light and dark effects, value $2.00—Sale price $1.89

Yard-wide Skinner's Silk and Satins, for Dresses, in black and colors, value $2.75—Sale price $2.29

40-inch Flat Crepes for Dresses in black, navy, rose, Poudre blue, etc., value $3.00—Sale price $2.49

40-inch Brocaded, non-crushable Crepe, for Blouse or Dress, in pencil blue, golden brown, wine and navy, value $4.00—Sale price $3.49

40-inch Brocaded Velvet or chiffon, for Dresses, Sleeves, Vestings, etc., plain and two-tone effects, value $10.50—Sale price $8.29

Yard wide Velveteen for Blouse or Dress, in rose, brown and phantom red, value $3.00—Sale price $2.29

Clearance Sale of Dress Goods

Yard-wide Lingette stripe, light and dark shades, for Lingerie, Linings, etc., value 69c—Sale price 39c

Yard-wide Granite Cloth, for Dresses, in dark shades, value $1.00—Sale price 69c

41-inch, All Wool Storm Serge, for Dress or Skirt, in navy and black, value $1.50—Sale price $1.09

54-inch Wool Jersey in Poudre blue, Copenhagen, pansy, brown, coral, green, henna and navy, value $2.25—Sale price . $1.69

42-inch, All Wool Crepe for Dresses, in black, navy, sand, reseda and Copenhagen, value $2.00—Sale price $1.39

54-inch Poiret Twill, in black, pigeon blue, cocoa, reseda, pansy and Epinaud, value $3.50—Sale price $2.79

54-inch Repp Sheen for Dresses in old blue, green, rosewood, tan and navy, value $4.00—Sale price $3.39

54-inch Flannel in navy, tan wine, etc, value $4.00—Sale price $3.39

54-inch Bordered Repps and Flannels, a good assortment—all at January Sale Prices.

Just Received

A large variety of the

NEWEST GAMES

Bright and snappy FOR ALL AGES.

VALENTINES

are also on display at

CRANSTON'S

THE 40th ANNUAL MEETING OF THE UNITED WORKERS Will be held in Park Church Parish House on Tuesday Afternoon, January 26th, at 3 o'clock.

Everyone is cordially urged to attend as this meeting is of interest to the community.

Norwich Bulletin

1796 1926

VOL. LXVIII—No. 20. · POPULATION 29,865 · NORWICH, CONN., SATURDAY, JANUARY 23, 1926. · 14 PAGES—102 COLUMNS · PRICE TWO CENTS

ATTY.-GEN. SARGENT'S VIEWS ON THE RELATIONSHIP OF DRY LAW AND CRIME WAVES

Declares That Respectable Citizens Who Pay Bribes to Bootleggers Encourage Banditry, Murder, Bribery and Corruption—Asserts That Otherwise Respectable Citizens Engage in Bribery Because They Believe That They They Have an Inherent Right to Drink Whiskey or Any Other Liquor if They Choose—Maintains That the Wisdom of Prohibition is No Longer Open to Discussion, That It is Law and Should Be Observed.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23—(AP)—Attorney General Sargent has studied the relationship of prohibition and crime waves, and has reached the conclusion that there is logic in the position of the person who, paid a bribe by respectable citizens for breaking the liquor laws, continues with a career of crime.

In his first public discussion of prohibition enforcement since taking charge of the department of justice, Mr. Sargent asked the members of the New York State Bar association to ponder whether "it is any wonder that banditry, murder, bribery and corruption flourish," when decent citizens consistently are paying the criminals inclined to take the risk of violating other laws.

The eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act, he said, are settled laws of the land and must be enforced, and he urged the lawyers to give thought to the problem how enforcement may be accomplished.

His discussion had nothing to do with offenses against the law committed from motives of jealousy, anger, revenge, passion and ill will toward society, he continued, since every citizen had come to regard it as a duty to aid in the detection and punishment of such offenders, and in correcting the conditions which make them offenders.

"But no one engages in the liquor traffic from any such motive," he declared.

"Every person who sells liquor does it solely and only because some one will pay a price high enough to make a profit sufficient to offset the chance of detection, conviction and punishment. To put it differently, every such sale is the direct result of the offer and payment by the purchasers of a bribe to commit the offense. Is there any escape from this as a logical conclusion engage in such bribery?"

"Now, why do otherwise respectable

"Because, they say, the law interferes with their personal liberty, in that they have an inherent right to drink whiskey or any other liquor if they choose. That it is nobody's business but their own whether they shall or shall not injure themselves," and therefore no one may decide for them whether the use of liquor is or is not injurious x x x.

"Whether the policy of invoking and exercising the power in this particular matter when and as it has been exercised was wise or unwise is no longer open to discussion. It has been done. It is an accomplished fact, not only in the law settled, but to all appearances, if we can judge the minds of the people by the votes of their representatives in congress the determination that it shall remain settled and be obeyed is hardening day by day.

"Now, what are the portions of the community who would prefer a different policy, a different law, going to do about it? When I ask this question I refer to that portion of the substantial, self-respecting, decent citizenry, who in all other things are law abiding; the citizenry who in all other matters—and indeed in many things which flow from their conduct in this respect—demand the protection of the law and its agency.

"Can any such citizen say, 'I will pay a bribe to any one who will violate this law of my country?'

"Let us carry the matter a little further. If he does say that or saying or not saying or thinking it, does offer and pay the bribe, and so induces some one to violate the law and make a forbidden sale to provide what he desires to drink, can that citizen logically find fault with the man he has bribed, when that man in turn offers and pays part of his bribe to some to violate another law to get something he wants, or to enable him to escape the consequences of the unlawful act the citizen has paid him to do?"

MORE EARTH SHOCKS EXPECTED IN BAY STATE

BOSTON, Jan. 23—(AP)—Inhabitants of Middlesex county cities who felt slight earth shocks yesterday may expect recurrences of the phenomenon, the Engineering Economics Foundation engaged in a study of earthquake hazard, said today. Dr. Kirtley F. Mather, professor of geology at Harvard, described the earthquake as of "No. 3 intensity," and expressed the opinion that it centered not more than 10 miles from Cambridge.

The Engineering Economics Foundation said the disturbance, while not causing damage, was important because of the fact that there was no case in history in which a similar record of earthquake was behind an area that shocks have not continued. Instances were pointed to in which series of slight intensity were followed by shocks of greater magnitude, and the foundation stated that earthquakes in this area will continue to occur in the future.

The foundation urged the public to acquaint themselves with the facts concerning earthquakes and not to be led into fear and probable panic by positive predictions that earthquakes would or would not occur at given times. Those who make such predictions are "stating opinions" not facts and are providing a direct stimulus to panic.

FOUR MEN SENTENCED TO HANG IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—(AP)—Four men today were sentenced to hang for murders committed during robberies.

Henry J. Vernekes "The Midget Bandit," and two co-defendants, Daniel Meisenheimer, and John Flannery, were ordered executed on February 19. They were convicted a few weeks ago of the murder of Michael Swiontowski, cashier of the Pulaski Building and Loan association, who was shot down during an $110,000 holdup last March.

The fourth man was Campbell McCarthy, 19 year old negro, whose execution was set for January 29. After an all-night deliberation, a jury today reported judgment that the negro was guilty. His previously set execution had been delayed on an insanity plea.

The three men were under heavy guard in solitary confinement today, following discovery yesterday of an elaborate plot for their escape from the county jail.

NATIONAL MOTOR BOAT SHOW OPENS IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—(AP)—The Grand Central Palace became the center of attraction for devotees of speed and pleasure travel on water, with the opening of the twenty first national motor boat show tonight. The exhibit in which 125 firms are participating will continue throughout next week. Among the exhibits is a 62 foot boat said to be the largest ever mounted for indoor display. Three noted racers also are to be seen, the Teaser winner of the International trophy last summer, and Baby Gar IV and Baby Gar VI.

NEGOTIATIONS ON GREEK DEBT HALTED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22—(AP)—Negotiations with the Greek debt commission came to a sudden halt today and Secretary Mellon announced that one member of the foreign delegation would return to Athens immediately for consultation with his government concerning funding the $15,000,000 obligation.

OPERATORS REFUSE A NEW PLAN TO SETTLE COAL STRIKE

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 22.—(AP)—Another effort to end the long-drawn out coal strike was shattered today.

This time it was the anthracite operators who refused to go along after the mine workers had consented to go into another conference to consider a plan of settlement as a basis for negotiations.

All through the hard coal regions, which have been suffering from progressive paralysis of business due to the long suspension the joyous report that a settlement was about to be reached, swept like wild fire only to have the high hopes of all concerned dashed by the declaration of the mine owners that the latest peace plan was not acceptable.

The new plan was offered by the Scranton Times. The invitation by the newspaper to Major W. W. Inglis, chairman of the operators negotiating committee, to comment on the proposition brought a response from him which was construed by mine workers and others as favorable to a renewal of negotiations.

President John L. Lewis, of the United Mine Workers, in a letter to E. J. Lynett, publisher of the Times, made public today, expressed his willingness to re-enter joint negotiations at the earliest possible moment.

When the inormation was flashed out of Scranton, there was a general impression among those not thoroughly versed in the ways of anthracite wage negotiations that the strike was as good as settled.

CHARGES BY HUSBAND OF FORMER MILLICENT ROGERS

NEW YORK, Jan. 23—(AP)—A long list of charges against his wife, formerly Millicent Rogers, were contained in an affidavit submitted today by Count Ludwig Salm Hoostraeten on a petition to have his young son Peter brought to New York state.

The motion will be heard before Supreme Court Justice O'Malley Monday. The son is now in custody of the countess in Florida.

The count's affidavit stated that his hasty marriage to the Rogers heiress January 3, 1924, was performed secretly at his bride's request, to the jeopardy of his relations with her family.

When she married him, he alleged, she knew he could not support her as her father had, yet while they were in Europe she objected to his acceptance of offers to act in motion pictures. The Rogers family's opposition to the marriage, he said, barred him from obtaining other employment.

He also charged that the countess has $30,000 worth of his family's jewelry. His petition stated that he wishes his son baptized a Catholic and reared in that faith.

INDUSTRIAL ALCOHOL PERMITS ANNUALLY

NEW YORK, Jan. 22—(AP)—Federal Judge John C. Knox today upheld the constitutionality of the regulation issued by General Lincoln C. Andrews, chief of prohibition enforcement, declaring that all industrial alcohol permits should expire on December 31, last, and should be renewed annually thereafter.

Judge Knox's decision was handed down in a test case brought by Giacomo Iannano against Prohibition Administrator John A. Foster. Mr. Foster had refused to renew permits, expiring Dec. 31, for new New York firms which had been buying pure grain alcohol at the rate of 500,000 gallons a month.

CABLED PARAGRAPHS

Approves Treaty of Locarno

ROME, Jan. 22—(AP)—The treaty of Locarno, commonly known as the "security pact," was approved by the chamber of deputies today virtually without discussion. Italy signed the pact as co-guarantor with Great Britain of the inviolability of the German-French and German-Belgian frontiers as fixed by the Versailles peace treaty.

HOUSE VOTES AGAINST NEW AIRCRAFT CONSTRUCTION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22—(AP)—The navy department appropriation bill encountered a choppy sea in the house today, and was stripped by points or order of sections carrying approximately $9,000,000 for new aircraft construction during the next fiscal year.

Those steering its legislative course were unable th guide the measure to part before adjournment, and tomorrow face a vote on an amendment to eliminate another section to provide $300,000 for the navy to contract with the Aircraft Development corporation, backed by Ford interests, for an all-metal airship.

Mr. Butler led the fight against the appropriations for new aircraft on the ground that thet expenditure had not been authorized by his committee, which, under house rules, has original jurisdiction in such matters.

SLAIN BY MAN WITH WHOM SHE KEPT TRYST

MEDIA, Pa., Jan. 23.—(AP)—Miss Anna May Dietrich, of Norwood, Pa., whose dismembered body was found in a wood plot near here yesterday, is believed by state and municipal authorities to have been slain by a man with whom she kept a secret tryst in Philadelphia Tuesday evening.

This theory was strengthened today by information collected by state police from known acquaintances of the slain woman that she had confided to friends Tuesday that she was going out that evening with "a big man from the west." During the meeting, detectives said, developments occurred which led to the murder of Miss Dietrich, following which her body was cut to pieces andell but the head carried to the lonely woods where the torso and legs were found yesterday, the head was disposed of in some other way to prevent identification, it was thought. No trace of it has been discovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander L. Schuht, brother-in-law and sister of the young woman, positively identified her body today. This afternoon police dragged a creek near where the body was found in the hope of finding the head.

SUMMARY OF YESTERDAY'S EVENTS IN WASHINGTON

The Greek debt negotiations were halted.

The house commerce commission completed its rubber inquiry.

Federal trade commissioner, Huston Thompson, testified in the aluminum inquiry.

The Haugen co-operative marketing bill was given privileged status by the house.

World court advocates obtained the necessary signatures to ask for senate cloture.

Erroneous reports of a settlement of the coal strike disturbed congress and the capital.

The report of the senate finance committee on tax reduction was submitted to the senate.

The department of justice accepted as final the dismissal of the indictment here against Senator Wheeler.

Disapproval of forcing railroad consolidation was expressed by Chairman Esch of the interstate commerce commission.

MEASURES TO CONTROL THE COAL INDUSTRY

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 22—(AP)—The state administration today continued plans to press for action by the legislature upon measures to control and regulate the industry.

The move launched by E. J. Lynett, of The Scranton Times, to bring the operators and miners together on a new plan put forth by him drew further attention to resolutions now before the legislature with this same purpose behind them.

There are three of these, all in the house committee on mines, which took adverse action on the Pinchot bills to make coal a public utility and to permit state compacts to regulate production and sale, the resolutions are due to receive consideration by the committee next week. One proposes that the miners and operators get together again and if unable to agree submit to mediation or arbitration; the others propose either federal intervention by a commission to be named by the president or state action by a committee of legislators and three persons to be named by the governor.

GANNA WALSKA SILENT ON MARITAL RELATIONS

PLYMOUTH, England, Jan. 22—(AP)—Ganna Walska, wife of Harold F. McCormick, arriving from New York on the liner Paris today, said she refused "to discuss her marital relations with any journalist." She said she would remain on the liner Paris and go to Havre and from there to Paris.

Passengers on the liner said Mrs. Walska had told them that Mr. McCormick's failure to sail with her on the Paris was due to his brother's sudden illness, which caused him to leave the boat at the last moment after he had reserved accommodations. She expressed no surprise on learning that he is now aboard the Deutschland bound for Europe with the expressed intention of meeting her in Paris.

Fellow passengers said Mme. Walska had been gay and happy throughout the voyage.

SPEAKERS FOR UNION AGRICULTURAL MEETING

HARTFORD, Jan. 22.—(AP)—Speakers scheduled for the four-day union agricultural meeting to be held in this city, January 26 to 29, include some of the best known men connected with agriculture. They include R. B. Hinman, of Cornell university; B. A. Brown, Storrs experiment station; Professor J. S. Owens, of the Connecticut Agricultural college, and Dr. K. L. Seulke, of Maine. At the union banquet on the evening of the 28th among the speakers will be Governor Trumbull, Lieutenant-Governor Brainard, Mayor Stevens and Commissioner of Agriculture Dr. A. W. Gilbert, of Massachusetts.

Paris Bourse Balks At Increase of Tax

Reduced Its Operations Almost to Zero Yesterday as a Warning to Government.

PARIS, Jan. 22—(AP)—The bourse dealt a strong blow today against the finance measures proposed by the radical and socialist parties in the chamber of deputies by reducing its operations almost to zero as a protest against the cartel's plan for an increase of taxes on stock operations.

The general strike of bourse traders and employes, ordered this morning, was carried out with strict discipline, and the only orders executed were those received before the strike command was given.

"This was only a warning," one leading broker said, "but we are ready to repeat it if the chamber makes it necessary." Today's business was limited to just enough small transactions to furnish quotations on 17 different securities and on French three per cent. bonds before the suspension. Brokers of both the official bourse and the curb joined hands aiming to show what will happen if stock transactions are taxed according to the financial measures reported to the chamber by its finance committee, 10 of one per cent. on foreign shares and 1-10 of one per cent. on domestic shares. This tax, brokers say, would mean that foreign stocks would have to rise three francs before the purchaser would break even, while domestic shares would have to advance one franc.

Leaders on the bourse assert that business would be impossible under these conditions, and predict that if the law is passed stock speculation on the Paris bourse will be transferred to Brussels, as happened once before when official brokers and curb brokers struck and went to the Belgian capital to operate.

In such case the state would lose a large revenue which it now receives from the bourse. It is pointed out that Finance Minister Doumer already had informed the radicals and socialists on the finance committee that their project would kill business on the bourse.

It is understood that business will be resumed Monday, today's manifestation being intended merely as a warning.

MAY DEVOTE DAWES RECEIPTS TO PAYMENT OF WAR DEBTS

PARIS, Jan. 22—(AP)—France's expected receipts from the Dawes plan re-entered the financial problems today, when it developed that the radical and socialist members who dominate the finance committees of the chamber of deputies are counting on these resources to help building a sinking fund to pay the war debts.

The Dawes receipts, however, would be applied to debt payments only by an indirect route, and in official circles tonight it was said the result achieved if parliament adopts the left parties' plan would differ but little from proposals of previous finance ministers.

The socialist-radical plan is considered not to differ materially from what Finance Minister Caillaux and Painleve had in mind, while it is understood that the present finance minister, M. Doumer, also considers the Dawes plan receipts as resources for meeting the war debts, since no other application for them has been mentioned. It is recalled in official circles that the American debt funding commission refused to make the payment of France's debt contingent on Germany's payment of reparations, so whatever application France makes of these receipts does not enter into the question of payment to America.

Premier Briand continues to keep secret his intentions regarding the financial debate, which is expected to reach the floor of the chamber on Monday. He said in the lobbies of the chamber today that while there was great interest as to whether he would make the government financial proposals a question of confidence, "that is for me to decide when the time comes."

SEARCHING FOR BANDITS WHO SHOT FRANK BRANNAN

HACKENSACK, N. J., Jan. 23—(AP)—Search for the three men who yesterday shot and killed Frank Brannan, American Railway Express messenger, after robbing the office of $6,300 today led detectives on a fruitless trail to Highland Falls, N. Y. Police said that two men held there on suspicion last night night were not the men wanted for the crime. After the shooting the fleeing car was headed toward the New York state line.

RECEIVERS APPOINTED FOR DENT WOOLEN COMPANY

BRIDGEPORT, Jan. 22—(AP)—The slackness of the textile industry in New England was reflected in superior court this afternoon when Judge Leonard J. Nickerson confirmed as receivers of the Dent Woolen company, owner of a large plant at Mianus, Attorney Frank L. Wilder Bridgeport, and Attorney Adelbert Skene, Stamford. The co-receivers will post a joint bond of $25,000.

May Curb World Court Debate in the Senate

Senator Lenroot Has Presented a Cloture Petition Signed by 48 Senators.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22—(AP)—The long threatened move for cloture on the world court was made tonight in the senate, it was followed by a bitter debate of an hour with signs at the end that some sort of an unanimous consent agreemnt to limit debate without resort to cloture might yet be reached.

Bearing the signature of 48 senators—24 from each side of the aisle—the petition for cloture was presented by Senator Lenroot, republican, Wisconsin leader of the pro-court forces. Under the rules it must lay over for one calendar day, so in no event can a vote on it be had until next Monday.

Administration leaders declared they could muster at least 72 votes for cloture which upon its adoption would limit each senator to one hour in the court debate. This number is more than the necessary two-thirds majority to invoke the limitation rule.

The petition was presented after an effort to bring about an unanimous consent agreement to limit debate to thirty minutes for each senator on each reservation, beginning February 19, had been blocked by Senator Blease, democrat, South Carolina.

Winding up the eight hours of the debate which made up the senate's hectic day, however, Senator Blease said tonight that after conference with some of his friends he might consent to an agreement. He added that he had objected today because he had not been consulted and did notp roposed to be driven by a lash."

DEM. SENATORS WOULD NURSE THE TAX BILL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22—(AP)—The report of the senate finance committee on the tax reduction bill was submitted to the senate today by Chairman Smoot, with assurances from him and Senator Harrison, democrat, Mississippi, that it would be enacted before the March 15 income tax installments are due.

Senator Norris, republican, Nebraska, however, objected to haste.

"Will any harm result?" he asked, "if this bill is not passed by March 15? Can't taxes be rebated as they were two years ago? It is absolutely unfair and unjust and almost unheard of to force a condition that will make us pass this bill almost at once."

"The American people want this bill passed now," Senator Smoot replied. "They've demanded it from one end of the country to the other."

"The senator hasn't heard from the people," Senator Norris retorted. "He has just heard from the corporations, the millionaires and the dead people's families, who are the chief beneficiaries of this measure."

Senator Harrison said the democratic members wished to offer some amendments and wanted time to debate, but favored early action.

CARDINAL MERCIER, DYING, SHOWS CHRISTIAN FORTITUDE

BRUSSELS, Jan. 23.—(AP)—The tide of life is ast ebbing from Cardinal Mercier, and it is now plain to all those watching at the bedside that the great Belgian churchman will not see another dawn, the prelate himself has no illusion as to his condition.

A great change became apparent in the cardinal at 4 o'clock this afternoon. One of the assisting physicians found him to be sinking rapidly, but he indicated that he did not want a hypodermic injection. Shortly afterward he asked that prayers for the dying be read. This was done in the presence of Monsignor de Waechter, Canon Denaln and members of the Mercier family.

The cardinal, his mind continuing clear joined fervently in the prayer, but his voice was faint.

BURBANK PROCLAIMS HIMSELF AN INFIDEL

SAN FRANCISCO Jan. 22—(AP)—The San Francisco Bulletin, in a copyrighted article says today that Luther Burbank, the famous horticulturist, of Santa Rosa, Cal., has announced that "he is an infidel in the true sense of the word; that he does not believe in a personal resurrection and that science disproves popular theories of reincarnation and life after death."

ARGENTINE BATTLESHIP MADE TRIAL TRIPS IN STORM

ROCKLAND, Me., Jan. 22.—(AP)—The Argentine battleship Rivadavia made seven of her standardization runs over the Rockland course today and was reported unofficially to have exceeded 20 knots. Conditions were favorable due to zero temperature, high winds and heavy seas in the wake of the snow storm which delayed the start of the trials.

Clarence Biakeslee, a fellow of the Yale Corporation was elected president of the New Haven Gas Light company to succeed C. H. Nettleton at a meeting of the directors. Several offers to buy part or all of the stock of the local company, made by large companies, were discussed.

WHAT ADVERTISING DOES

Advertisements have given you flashlights, telephones, typewriters, automobiles, cold creams, motion pictures. They have given you new eyes, new ears, new hands, new feet, new faces, new emotions. They have urged such wide use, so lowered prices, that almost wishes are autos, almost beggars can ride. Through advertisements you've laid down the shovel and the hoe. You can buy a whole harvest ready-to-eat in cans. You've hung up the fiddle and the bow for the radio. There's little old time work left in this age of amazing shortcuts.

You keep to the fore of modern life by reading the advertisements. Do not fail to make the most of the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

During the past week the following news matter has appeared in The Bulletin's columns:

Bulletin		Telegraph	Local	General	Total
Saturday	Jan. 16	125	154	422	701
Monday	Jan. 18	178	115	348	641
Tuesday,	Jan. 19	96	127	324	547
Wednesday	Jan. 20	102	88	305	495
Thursday	Jan. 21	109	112	350	571
Friday	Jan. 22	91	92	321	504
Totals		701	683	2070	3459

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

Representative Baker, democrat, California, died in Washington last night.

Soviet Russia Thursday commemorated the second anniversary of the death of Nikolai Lenin, the "father of bolshevism."

Voters of South Norwalk last night decided to float a bond issue of $450,000 to improve the town's water works in Wilton.

Madge Carrington Laidlaw, 9 years old, of Cos Cob, Conn., is heiress to personal property totaling approximately $600,000.

A new wage and working agreement calling for an increase in wages was adopted by local number 126 Taxi Drivers' Union, Boston.

Dr. Alexander Meiklejohn, former president of Amherst college, will become professor of philosophy at the University of Wisconsin.

The lowest temperature recorded in New Haven officially was at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon when the mercury stood at 15 degrees above zero.

Thomas N. Dart, mayor of Boston a quarter of a century ago, has entered upon his 98th year with the title of "honorary mayor" for life.

The waltz, two-step, pplka and Boston fancy triumphed over the Charleston in a dancing contest between two teams of Emerson college girls in Boston.

A disbursement of $11,200,000 in cash and common stock from the employes savings fund to 8,700 employes was announced by the General Motors Corporation.

Anthracite bootlegging, a new industry which sprung up as a result of the hard coal strike, is growing rapidly, particularly in the mining regions.

"I shall not knock my neighbor," is the motto of the National Order of Loyalty, to promote neighborly love, just founded in New York. There are no dues.

Gifts to Phillips Andover academy totaling $70,000 from anonymous donors, were announced. A gift of $50,000, is to prove an organ for the new auditorium.

The king and queen of rumania, says a Bucharest despatch to the London Daily Express are ill and have gone to one of their castles for the rest cure.

The sixty days' suspension of the charter of the Pawtucket lodge of Elks was followed by the voluntary resignation of Exalted Ruler William W. Woodcock.

Frank O'Keefe, 42, who conducted a barber shop in Winsted, died suddenly in a room in the Hotel Winchester in Winsted where he was visiting a brother.

Colonel William Mitchell can testify, if he wants to, before congressional committees, in the opinion of Major General John A. Hull, judge-advocate-general of the army.

The department of justice will accept as final the decision of the District of Columbia supreme court dismissing the conspiracy indictment here against Senator Wheeler, of Montana.

A deranged mind was believed by the authorities to have causes Mrs Charles W. Dyer to strangle her nine-year-old son, Cecil, and hang herself in her home, in Dexter, Me., yesterday.

Many American artists and sculptors believe that because of the national character of the Cathedral of Saint John the Divine, New York, only American sculptors should be employed in its art work.

Approximately one half, or 175 of the 353 water supplies for the rural schools in 75 towns of the state are unsatisfactory, unfit or unsafe for use, according to an investigation conducted by the state department of health.

In order that President Coolidge might hold conversation with his father, Col. John C. Coolidge, who is bedridden at the Coolidge homestead, a telephone was installed in the old farm house at Plymouth Notch, Vt.

The new glass invented by Austrian chemists, which bends, bounces and breaks without splintering, is soon to be manufactured in England. Experts declare it can be made at the same cost as the ordinary brittle glass.

After a session of seven days the parole board completed its January term at the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kas., making favorable recommendations for 130 of the 491 prisoners who appeared for hearings.

The International Telephone and Telegraph corporation announced yesterday that a new company, the Standard Electrica Sociedad Anonima, had been organized in Spain for the manufacture of telephone apparatus and equipment.

Nancy Lane, daughter of the late Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior under President Wilson appeared at New York in an important role in the case of "The Lost of Mrs. Cheyney," for which she has been general understudy.

A favorable effort was ordered by the senate interstate commerce committee on the Gooding bill, which would prohibit the present practice of the railroads charging a greater freight rate on a short haul than on a long haul.

Having already received a thrashing at the hands of Mrs. James T. Norris, whose age was given as 53 years, Nicoccio Napisa, a husky 27 year old, was sentenced in police court in Washington to pay a $250 fine or go to jail for six months.

Gertrude Kingsley French, Stamford, was granted a decree of divorce by Judge Isaac Wolfe in superior court at Bridgeport from Ira S. French, Norwalk, a newspaperman who was formerly employed in Bridgeport and who now is in New York state.

The Danish Ivar, in the hold of which was supposed to be a large batch of socket propaganda, secreted in a cargo of licorice roots, sailed from Philadelphia for Portland, Me., without it becoming known whether the literature had been found.

COLD WAVE PREVAILS ALL EAST OF ROCKY MOUNTAINS

New York Weather Bureau Predicts a Steadily Falling Temperature Throughout New York, New Jersey and New England, With No Relief in Sight Until Sunday—New England is Blanketed With Snow Varying From One to Six Inches.

BOSTON, Jan. 22—(AP)—New England tonight was gripped by another cold snap which gave promise of being the most severe of the winter. Springlike conditions of the past week were routed early today by a shortlived snowstorm which passed up the coast before a 60-mile gale leaving clear and much colder weather in its wake.

The snow fall, varying from one to six inches, was not enough to hinder transportation or cripple communication on land, while the gale caused little delay to shipping. No regular sailings were cancelled, and ample storm warnings gave small craft plenty of time to reach shelter.

Early tonight the mercury had plunged 30 tho 40 degrees from yesterday's high, with indications that subzero readings would be recorded from Boston northward before morning.

Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont cities reported zero, to six degrees below, with much colder conditions prevailing in the open country. Outside of Boston the Blue Hills observatory tonight reported a 54-mile gale and a temperature of 4 above, with the glass still falling.

NEW YORK EXPECTS NO RELIEF UNTIL SUNDAY

NEW YORK, Jan. 22—(AP)—Ice-laden winds from the northwest, which routed today the balmy weather of the past week, will continue to drive down the temperature throughout the northeastern states tonight and tomorrow.

One man died of exposure today in Perth Amboy, N. J., and two others were taken to New York city hospitals after they had collapsed in the cold.

The New York weather bureau tonight predicted a steadily falling mercury throughout New York, New Jersey and the New England states, with no relief in sight until Sunday. The temperature in New York city tonight is expected to fall to 10 above zero.

The freakish changes of the past twenty-four hours began with a comparatively warm rain yesterday, which was succeeded early this morning by snow flurries driven before a stinging gale. In parts of the cold-gripped regions, orchards were budding yesterday, and a few robins had returned.

Temperatures plunged precipitately from 20 to 25 degrees downward during the day. In New York the mercury dropped 25 degrees between midnight and 1 o'clock this afternoon, when it stood at 17 degrees. The gale reached a velocity of 56 miles an hour in New York city during the early afternoon. Most of the snow fell in the early morning and fled before the wind. It was no more than a flurry in New York city, but was heavier through New England, varying from 1 1-2 inches around Boston to 5 inches at Eastport, Me.

16 STATES ARE IN FOR BELOW ZERO WEATHER

CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—(AP)—From the Rockies, east to Ohio, and from Saskatchewan to the Gulf of Mexico, the country is shivering today under a cold wave. Tonight the mercury will stay below the zero mark, but weather forecasters promise the beginning of relief tomorrow morning. The cold area is creeping east and south, and the entre Atlantic seaboard will next feel its effects.

Huron, South Dakota, was the coldest spot in the United States last night, with a temperature of 26 below zero, the twin cities reported the season's coldest night of the year with 37 below.

In Chicago, the mercury dropped to five below.

Freezing temperatures were reported from as far south as El Paso, Tex., today, and they will advance over the other gulf and southern state tonight, forecasts say. Sixteen states are in for below zero weather tonight, and numerous others will watch the mercury hover around the zero mark or a little above.

Little snow or wind is predicted over the greater portion of the affected area, but storm warnings have been issued for the region of the Great Lakes.

One man died in Chicago today as the result of the cold, and there were numerous appeals to local welfare agencies for clothing and fuel.

PRESIDENT OF GOODYEAR COMPANY DROPPED DEAD

AKRON, Ohio, Jan. 22—(AP)—George M. Straddeiman, president of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company, dropped dead at his home here at 8 o'clock tonight.

He had been in ill health for nearly a month but his condition caused his family and friends no alarm.

Mr. Stadelman was 54 years old and a pioneer in the American rubber manufacture. He was vice president of the Rubber Association of America and at its meeting last week was offered the presidency but declined on account of his health. He became head of Goodyear in 1923.

His condition is believed to have been aggravated by a robbery at his home about six months ago.

Mr. Stadelman entered the tire business in 1894 with Morgan and Wright of Chicago. He resigned in 1921 to become Goodyear manager of carriage tire sales, becoming general sales manager and secretary. In 1906 he became vice president in charge of sales in 1915, serving in this capacity until April 12, 1923, when he succeeded E. G. Wilmer as president.

CHARGED WITH PRACTICING MEDICINE WITHOUT LICENSE

MERIDEN, Jan. 23.—(AP)—The Rev. Dr. Amedeo Pasciuta, pastor of the Italian Baptist church, here, who is also listed in the city directory as a physician, was arrested today by a state policeman on a charge of practicing medicine without a license, and was later released in $300 bail for appearance in the local police court tomorrow morning.

Complaint had been made to the state department of health that he was illegally practicing medicine, and the state police made an investigation. When the police presented the matter to Henry Dryhurst, city attorney, a warrant was issued.

The minister-doctor has a diploma from the St. Louis College of Physicians and Surgeons, where he took a four years course. He also has a diploma from the Kansas City College of Physicians and Surgeons, where he took a post graduate course. He also claims to have a license from the state eclectic board, granted him in New Haven, and explains that the only trouble is that the license was not recorded with the state department of health.

GIRL RESEMBLING MISS CORBETT WORKED IN FACTORY

WATERVLIET, N. Y., Jan. 22—(AP)—A girl resembling Alice M. Corbett, missing Smith college student, worked in the factory of Forman and Clerk company during the Christmas holidays, John Dux, foreman, told a detective.

John C. Rohn, chief of police, received a request from the girl's father in Utica this afternoon, asking that the foreman be questioned. Special investigators, the father said, had reported that a girl resembling his daughter had worked in the Gatervliet factory.

The foreman said that several girls had been hired for the holidays but that the one resembling Miss Corbett had left the factory before January 1. He was unable to identify her positively from photographs.

A Cohoes newsboy is said to have seen the girl about the same time.

FIRE IN THE CENTER OF EAST BROOKFIELD, MASS.

EAST BROOKFIELD, Mass., Jan. 22.—(AP)—Fire is reported threatening the center of this town. A boarding house and a factory have already been destroyed according to reports and it is said to have spread to the court house building. Apparatus has been summoned from Spencer, North Brookfield and Brookfield.

MADE FIRST LEG OF SPAIN TO ARGENTINE FLIGHT

LAS PALMAS, Canary Islands, Jan. 22.—(AP)—The Spanish seaplane Ne Plus Ultra has successfully completed the first part of its journey from Spain to South America landing on the waters of the harbor here at 3 o'clock this afternoon—the time almost to the minute, at which it was expected. The plane left Palos, on the southwestern tip of Spain, at 7 o'clock this morning, and except for a fog near the end of the journey, the aviators encountered no difficulties.

As the Ne Plus Ultra made a perfect landing, great crowds lined up along the waterfront cheered and shouted a welcome. Sirens were let loose on beflagged vessels of all kinds in the harbor.

Commander Franco reported that the first stage of the flight was favored with ideal weather, while the motors functioned perfectly.

REPRIEVE GRANTED FOR BANK ROBBER ROSS

OSSINING, N. Y., Jan. 22.—(AP)—Governor Alfred E. Smith by telephone tonight issued a reprieve for Ambrose Ross, bank robber, who was to have gone to the electric chair otnight.

Speaking to Superintendent of Prisons James L. Long, from New York, Governor Smith said, "Put off the execution. I will communicate with you tomorrow morning."

When told by Superintendent Long of his reprieve, Ross said only, "I am awfully glad." He had just finished his dinner, the second he has eaten in two days under the impression that it was his last. His execution had been set for last night, but a last minute stay of 24 hours was granted.

Ross had been convicted of slaying Ernest Whitman, a bond salesman, in a holdup of the First National bank at Belmore, L. I., in April 1924.

PRESIDENT'S ATTITUDE ON LOANS TO FOREIGN GOV'TS

Washington, Jan. 22—(AP)—President Coolidge looks with disfavor on loans by American bankers to foreign governments for the support of trade monopolies in materials which enter into American consumption.

The attitude of the president was made clear today at the white house without reference to any particular government or monopoly. The government has no control over foreign loans by American bankers, but generally is asked for advice when they contemplate such transactions. Each loan is considered on its merits, and the government's advice usually is followed. The president recognizes that under special circumstances, the government might find aid to a foreign trade monopoly advisable, but he regards such a contingency as improbable.

GOV. TRUMBULL AND STAFF AT BALL IN WATERBURY

WATERBURY, Jan. 22.—(AP)—A brilliance which eclipsed that of any social event hitherto conducted in the state armory of this characterized the third annual National Guard Officers' Association ball held tonight. About 500 persons danced in the brilliantly illuminated and gaily decorated hall. Among the guests were Governor and Mrs. John H. Trumbull, Mayor and Mrs. Francis P. Guilfoile, Brig.-General George M. Cole, of Hartford, Colonel J. Wilder Gilson, of Hartford, and Colonel C. H. Allen of Rockville.

As Governor Trumbull appeared, the bugle corps of the Second Battalion, 102nd Regiment, sounder four flourishes and then the "Generals March." Rifs orchestra of Bridgeport, led by William Malone, played "Hail to the Chief" as the governor was escorted to the box of honor by the reception committee.

WILLIMANTIC

Office, 864 Main St. Telephone 1331-2.

BOY FINDS MAN'S BODY HANGING FROM TREE

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WILLIMANTIC, Jan. 23—The body of a man, believed to be a resident of Vermont, was found hanging from the limb of a tree on the farm of Charles Korner, West Willington, about 300 yards from the state highway by Clifford Korner, the sixteen year old son of Mr. Korner, about 12:55 o'clock this afternoon, as the boy was returning to school.

The man is believed to be between 30 and 37 years of age, and to all appearances had taken his own life by tying the belt of his sheep-skin coat about his neck and looping the other end of the belt about the limb of the tree.

A Ford coupe, bearing the Vermont registration 30-139 was found parked on the state highway and the state police from the Stafford barracks made a search of the car and found a suitcase and articles of male apparel and a Bible, which bore the name Paul Broughton.

A search of the man's clothing, after Medical Examiner Dr. F. B. Converse had given permission for the body to be taken to Stafford Springs, revealed an operator's license, issued to Armand Broughton, of Perkinsville, Vt., a bank book showing over $700 on deposit in the Springfield Savings bank of Perkinsville, Vt., a gold watch and other articles. A bill of sale found indicated that the automobile had been purchased in Deerfield, Mass.

It is believed that the man first tried to commit suicide by drowning, for a complete change of clothing was found, soaking wet, in the car, while those on the body were dry, indicating that the man had hung himself after the storm of the early morning had ceased.

The police are making endeavors to get in touch with the Perkinsville authorities to establish the man's identity. The automobile is now being held in a Willimantic garage.

A finding of suicide will probably be returned by Coroner John E. Fahey of Rockville, who was notified of the finding of the body.

POTTER BOY DIES AS RESULT OF BULLET WOUND

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WILLIMANTIC, Jan. 23—Arthur Stewart Potter, the sixteen year old Windham Center boy who has been lingering between life and death at St. Joseph's hospital since he was accidentally shot with a .38 calibre bullet on the evening of October 9, 1925, died at the hospital at 1:30 o'clock Friday morning. The revolver from which the fatal shot came was held by Thomas Lewis, a neighbor. The bullet entered the boy's neck on the right side and lodged on the left side after penetrating the spine and partially severing the spinal cord. The youth's body has been completely paralyzed from the shoulders down since the unfortunate mishap. No hope had been held for his recovery.

Arthur was a student at Windham High school and a member of the sophomore class. He was born in Windham, January 1, 1910, the son of Charles H., and Louise Stewart Potter who survive him. There are also three brothers, Russell W. Potter, of this city; Everett and Nelson Potter, and one sister, Harriet Potter, of Windham Center.

Losing his bearings as he was returning from his daily trip to the business section of this city, John D. Sullivan, blind broom maker, fell over Prentice block fence, a stone wall to the rear of the Elmer Auto company, some 40 feet from his home at 20 schoolhouse lane, late Thursday afternoon. He sustained a fractured rib and bruises about the chest. Mr. Sullivan has groped his way almost daily from Schoolhouse lane to High street and down Main street. His only guides are his keen sense of distance and his cane. He explains that there is a particular stone which he touches with his cane as he approaches his home. He believes that he came in contact with the wrong stone causing him to lose his bearings. An employe of the Southern New England Telephone company saw him wandering toward the high wall which drops twelve feet from the level of Schoolhouse lane to a yard below. Before a warning could be given the blind man had stepped off into space. Chief of Police McArthur and Captain Grady assisted by others, took the man to his home. He was in a dazed condition at the time but was about the house Friday.

Peter J. Minda, general manufacturing superintendent for the American Thread company, whose marriage to Miss Kettie Poindexter, of Dalton, Ga., was announced in Friday's issue of The Bulletin, has been a resident of this city for several years. He has been connected with the American Thread company for fifteen years and the three years past has been general manufacturing superintendent, supervising plants of the company in this city, Westerly, R. I., Fall River and Holyoke, Mass., and Dalton, Ga. While on a business trip to the Dalton plant he became acquainted with the pres-no longer imperiled under hygienic handicaps—new way offers true protection; discards like tissue

Women's Allure

FRESH, charming, immaculate under ALL conditions. Sheer gowns worn without a second's fear, any time, any day!

If you seek this added charm, stop employing old-time "sanitary pads," insecure, uncertain.

Right in 10 better-class women now employ "KOTEX" . . . a new way, 5 times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads.

Absorbs and deodorizes at the same time, thus ending ALL danger of offending.

You discard it as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

You ask for it without hesitancy, at any drug or department store, simply by saying "KOTEX."

To introduce to yourself, try this modern way. Costs only 5 cents. Mail coupon today for a package.

KOTEX

ent Mrs. Hinds, about one year ago. Rev. C. S. Beaumister, of Glenville, who performed the ceremony, is a former assistant pastor of St. Joseph's church, this city, and an intimate friend of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Hinds were attended by Miss Mary Hinds, daughter of the groom and Miss Bettye Poindexter, of Dalton, daughter of the bride. Mr. Hinds has a large circle of friends in this city. He is the father of six children, Mrs. James S. Donahue, Jr., the Misses Mary and Virginia Hinds, and John, Joseph and Henry Hinds. Mrs. Hinds' daughter is attending the Brenau college in Gainsville, Ga.

The twelve-room residence owned and occupied by Byron Wilson, on Carey Hill, about midway between Scotland and Windham Center, and, in the town of Scotland, was completely destroyed by fire, along with a large portion of the contents, early Friday afternoon. Shortly before noon Mrs. Robert Browning, a relative of Mr. Wilson, who makes her home with the family, discovered smoke issuing from an ell section of the building. It is believed that the blaze had been smouldering for some time. The cause is unknown. Residents of the section volunteered their services and organized a fire brigade but the water supply and apparatus was not sufficient to materially check the flames which were rapidly spreading throughout the large wooden structure. Efforts were devoted to saving the furniture on the lower flood. Assistance calls were sent to the Bank street engine house in this city and to the South Windham fire department headquarters. The local company was unable to respond due to the fact that the fire was about seven miles away and nothing could have saved the building after the fire had secured a headway in the face of a strong wind. The residences had recently been extensively improved and the loss will run into several thousand dollars although an estimate could not be given by the owner Friday. Insurance is carried on the property according to a member of the family.

The Willimantic Industrial company stockholders met in the Chamber of Commerce rooms recently and elected as directors: Ernest Rossie and Arthur Silberman, of New York, George F. Taylor, Frank Larrabee, W. B. Knight, M. E. Lincoln, and Roland B. Jordan, of Willimantic. The stockholders in turn chose for officers: President, George F. Taylor; vice president, W. B. Knight; secretary, M. Eugene Lincoln; treasurer, M. E. Lincoln; assistant treasurer, Frank M. Lincoln; auditors H. D. Pollard and A. W. Buchanan, Jr. The summary of the reports read showed a gain of $2,413.39 during 1925, this despite the fact that a number of bills were carried over from 1924 and paid during the past year. The outstanding stock on January 1, 1926, was $178,325, with part payments amounting to $4,276. On January 1, 1926, the company was receiving eight per cent. on $210,573.14 and paying six per cent. on $178,325, which, with some increase on construction not completed, should net an income in the future of better than $4,000 annually which can be used to further enlarge the plant or retire some of the stock.

A highly interesting discussion on the place of the church as an institution in the problems of today, with descriptive problems presented by five-minute speakers, made up one of the best meetings of the Brotherhood of the First Congregational church held this year. Supper was served by the Ladies' society with Mrs. William A. Buck chairman. President Clifford E. Williams presided over the business meeting. It was voted to cooperate with the Ladies' society and Committee on Religious Education in securing a trained woman worker for the Sunday school. The five-minute speakers who were introduced by Albert B. Smith, chairman of the entertainment committee, who had charge of the programme, were: Racial, Egbert A. Case; capital and labor, M. E. Lincoln; inter-church, President Williams; youth, Frederick Noble; international, J. Zalmon S. Hunt, and civic, Frank P. Fenton. A definition of the church by Rev. Arthur S. Wheelock, the pastor, followed. A. Wilson Greer classified the problems as presented.

Mary, the ten month old daughter of Carmelo and Carmela Buscemi Insalaco, died Friday morning, at the home of her parents, on Windham road.

Prayer for John Frederick Wright was conducted at the First Congregational church house at one o'clock Friday afternoon with Rev. Arthur S. Wheelock officiating. Burial was in the Cedar Hill cemetery, Hartford. The bearers were Fred Wood, Thomas White, Allen Hayward and Raymond Williams. Avery and Van Zandt had charge of the arrangements.

Deputy Sheriff Allison L. Frink, of Andover, served a warrant on Mortimer Smith, of Andover, Friday, charging Smith with breach of the peace, using abusive language and assault on John Hunt, also of Andover, and notifying him to appear in the Andover town court today (Saturday). The early part of this week dogs owned by Smith and Hunt engaged in a battle and Smith's dog came out second best. The allegation is that Smith later went to Hunt and started an argument about the dogs and that he assaulted the complainant. Grand Juror W. H. Platt issued the warrant for Smith's arrest at the instigation of Hunt.

Prizes were won by Mrs. William Crane, Mrs. T. E. Sullivan, Miss Annie Kelley, Mrs. Frank P. Lombardo and Mrs. Michael Moriarty at the whist given by the Catholic Daughters of America, for the benefit of St. Joseph's church, in the hall Thursday evening. The gentlemen's prizes were won by W. J. Andrews, Harold Lester, James F. Twomey, Frederick Roy and Alfred Cloutier.

The suit of Luigi Rosalie against Mrs. Nicolena Melo, for the recovery of $100, will be heard before Justice of the Peace Dean today (Saturday). Rosalie has brought suit on the allegation that on September 20, 1925, the defendant committed an assault on him. Rosalie is fifteen years of age and a student at Windham High school. Over a dozen witnesses have been summoned.

Local people went to bed Thursday night enjoying mild temperature and a dripping rain, which serves so well to bring on sleep. But during the night, Old Man Winter, who had been off visiting on parts unknown, arrived home apparently furious to find that his previous visits had been forgotten. Friday morning was extremely cold and a sharp wind whipped up flurries of snow. In less than four hours the weather had change dfrom spring to winter.

Engine company, No. 1, answered to a still alarm for a chimney fire in the residence at 126 Union street, occupied by Joseph King and owned by Charles Milligan, at 1:20 o'clock Friday afternoon. Three gallons of chemicals were used.

Norman B. Cawley, of Boston, Mass., conducted a free demonstration of the public speaking course which will be started at the Y. M. C. A., Friday evening.

Engine company, No. 1, was called at 3:45 o'clock Friday morning, for a chimney fire at the home of James Dimarchi, at 1009 Main street. Nine gallons of chemicals were used.

Brief Notes

Mrs. Frank E. Guild, of Windham Center, entertained the D. A. R. circle of which Mrs. George F. Stiles is leader, at her home Thursday afternoon.

At the home of Mrs. William A. Arnold the second of a series of charitable whists was given Friday afternoon for the Women's Charitable fund. Some 50 guests were in attendance and twelve tables of whist were in play.

Mrs. Walter Taylor, of Lee, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dow, of New York city, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Bartlett for the opening of the new Capitol theatre, Thursday evening.

Mrs. Frank M. Lincoln has been entertaining her niece, Mrs. Jennie Rose King, of Waterbury.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Latham, of Yonkers, N. Y., are the guests of friends in this city.

James E. Curran, of Hartford, visited at his home, here, Friday.

LEBANON

Rev. Stanley Sellick's sermon subject was "What Lebanon Most Needs."

Rev. A. G. Littlefield took for his subject The Worth and the Worthlessness of Music; text 1 Samuel 16-23.

The Foreign Mission Society of the Congregational church met at Buckingham chapel Thursday afternoon.

The League of Woman Voters met with Mrs. Chas. Wetmore Monday afternoon. Miss Edna L. Tyler, president of the New London league spoke on the Machinery of Politics. Tea was served by the hostess.

The Ladies' Aid society held an all-day meeting Tuesday in the parlors of the First Congregational church. A quilt was tied and other sewing was done. Dinner was served.

The Mission Circle met with Mrs. Clinton Goodwin Tuesday afternoon. After sewing, light refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Ella Foster spent Thursday with Mrs. A. G. Littlefield.

Wm. Harvey of New London spent Friday and Saturday at his home in Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dewey, of East Hartford, were guests Sunday of the former's sister, Mrs. John Kneeland.

Mrs. George Martin is visiting her nephew in New Haven.

Miss Clarice Melvin, of Norwich, was a week end guest of Miss Beatrice Littlefield.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Peckham, of South Manchester, are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Ella Foster and their uncle, C. H. Foster on their wedding trip.

Funeral services for Mrs. Anna Mills were held at the first Congregational church Friday afternoon at 1:30. Rev. Stanley Sellick conducted the services.

BLACK HILL

Miss Cook of Nova Scotia, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Thomas Moore, has left to enter one of the Boston hospitals as a student nurse.

Mrs. Charles Pellett has been visiting her niece, Mrs. H. Beecher Brown.

Stanley Brown has been confined to the house for several days with tonsilitis.

Mrs. Louis Buckley has returned from a stay at Backus hospital with a son, Bertram Calvin.

PLAINFIELD

With the able skill and veterinary knowledge of George Goldstein, a horse's life was saved on Thursday morning. The horse is owned by John Jarvis, of Bradford Hill and was seized with a bad attack of colic, and but for the able assistance of Mr. Goldstein, would have been dead in a short time. Mr. Goldseton has lived among horses most of his life and attributes his knowledge of them, to a study of animal life he made a few years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Melady entertained a party at their home, The Oakes, at Bishop's Crossing on Wednesday night. Whist was played and prizes awarded to Mrs. Lucien Maucaurelle, of Jewett City, Mrs. John McElliott, Joseph Herbert, and Phillip Melady. Refreshments were served and a radio dance was enjoyed.

Miss Violette, head of the English department at the Plainfield High school, was presented a beautiful wrist watch by the class of 1926, in recognition of her valuable services in coaching the senior play, "Penrod." At the same meeting James Foy was elected president of the Freshman class to succeed Wallace Burke, who recently moved with his parents to Unionville.

Miss Joan Kirby gave the Girl Scouts an examination in Red Cross Work recently, at the Community house. It is planned to hold a competition in comedy sketches, between the Pioneer Girls, Girl Scouts, and a selected group of employes from the Lawton mills, about the middle of February. Cash prizes will be awarded to the group presenting the best sketches. [illegible] of this novel competition is to organize a dramatic club and [illegible] talent. The members of the cooking club held a meeting at the Community house recently, to decide on a suitable menu for the supper which they will serve next week.

The Odd Ladies, M. U., held their monthly meeting Thursday evening at the Community house.

Several Plainfield members attended the installation of officers of Protection lodge, No. 19, at their lodge rooms in Central Village, Thursday evening.

Owing to the illness of the Rev. George L. Drowne, pastor of the Episcopal church, he was unable to attend the meeting of the Boys' club, held at the home of Eugene Currier on Wednesday evening.

Miss Jessie Currier, of 233 Ninth street, entertained a number of friends at her home Thursday evening to celebrate her fourteenth birthday. Games were played and refreshments were served.

The annual meeting of St. Paul's Episcopal church officers and societies is to be held next Wednesday evening in the parish hall.

Francis Kelly and Harold Mercer have been business callers in Worcester several days this week, negotiating with a firm of Pullman Lunch wagon people. Kelly and Mercer plan to start a high class lunch business in the town of Plainfield the exact location not yet being decided upon.

A party was given in honor of Arnold Ignatius Adams Friday evening at the home of his sister, Mrs. Walter Clark, on Plainfield street, to celebrate his 24th birthday. Many friends were present and an enjoyable evening was spent. Refreshments were served by th hostess.

The Farmers' Cooperative
NEW GRAIN STORE
AT PLAINFIELD

WILL OPEN FOR BUSINESS EVERY WEEK DAY, FROM 7 A. M. TO 6 P. M., STARTING SATURDAY, JAN. 16.

WE HANDLE ONLY FIRST CLASS FEEDS AT THE LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICES. WELCOME!

LOCATED AT NORTH PLAINFIELD NEAR THE CEMETERY.

BIFOCALS SAVE YOUR EYES

The modern eyeglass lenses of the bifocal, or double vision type, do away with all the annoyance of indistinct sight and permit the eyes to do the natural, the youthful thing of passing instantly from near to distant objects and back again repeatedly, without strain or fatigue and with sharp, clear vision.

Bifocals are made in several types all of which have their special advantages. Let us show you.

J. F. MARCH
Optometrist and Optician
Disco Building, Norwich, Conn.
Rooms 201-204. Phone 1312.

—This drawing was contributed by Grover Page of the Louisville Courier-Journal to the cause of Success and Happiness.

Pay Your Bills On The Minute And You'll Never Miss Credit

Credit is a convenience—a courtesy extended to you so long as you pay your bills promptly.

But—always remember this. A store does not have to give you credit and, usually, will not give you credit if you delay and do not pay bills when they are due. The persons from whom you buy have their own bills to pay; it is not right for you to expect them to "carry" your bills.

Pay bills promptly—and you'll find credit a convenience. Establish a reputation as a last minute bill payer and credit soon will pass you by.

Today is Pay Bills Promptly Day—the seventh day of National Thrift Week for Success and Happiness.

STAFFORDVILLE

Mrs. Jubin, who was ill last week, has returned to her duties as teacher at the Springs school.

J. H. Clark, who was a barber here for several years, has been calling on friends.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Hullet have a new radio in their home.

The son born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark of Glastonbury is grandson of Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Puffer, of Stafford.

Rev. and Mrs. Puffer have returned to their home after spending several days in Glastonbury with Mr. and Mrs. Clark and family, Shirley Clark returned with them.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rhodes, who have been ill with grip have recovered.

To err is human; ability to conceal it is unusual.

Pheasants From Asia.

Although pheasants were hunted in England in 1299, the bird is not British in origin. This fine game fowl came from Asiatic countries originally, including both Japan and China. Some of the pheasants are purposely, and therefore are not popular. The Mongolian type is one of the most beautiful, though the golden pheasant is said to be the most beautiful. The Reeves pheasant has a tail sometimes five feet long.

for Economical Transportation

CHEVROLET

Improved!

A Revelation in Low Priced Transportation

A type of performance never before approached in any low priced car—a new smoothness of operation—new flexibility—new swiftness of acceleration—new beauty—new comfort—these have been added to its already world-famous power and economy to make the Improved Chevrolet a revelation in low-priced transportation.

Just take one ride in this remarkable car—and you will be amazed to find that qualities heretofore the chief advantages of owning costlier cars are now obtainable in a car of very low price.

The introduction of the Improved Chevrolet marks an outstanding achievement in the automobile industry.

New Low Prices!

Touring	$510	Sedan	$735
Roadster	510	Landau	765
Coupe	645	½ Ton Truck (Chassis Only)	395
Coach	645	1 Ton Truck (Chassis Only)	550

All Prices f. o. b. Flint, Michigan

ROSOFF MOTOR MART
321 MAIN ST. NORWICH, CONN.

ASSOCIATE DEALERS
WOLF'S GARAGE, Jewett City, Conn.
JOHN PARADIS, Taftville, Conn.

QUALITY AT LOW COST

DANIELSON

PLEASED AT SELECTION OF SNAKE MEADOW BROOK

(Special to The Bulletin.)

DANIELSON, Jan. 22—The state fish and game commission has made known at Hartford that Snake Meadow brook, running through the eastern section of this town and on the easterly part of the town of Plainfield, is one of the streams that has been leased under a new plan of the department for stocking with large trout.

Approximately 20,000 trout from 6 to 8 inches in length, are now available for release from the hatchery at Burlington. Several thousand of these trout are destined for release the coming spring in the waters of Snake Meadow, rated one of the very best trout streams in southern New England. The department also has plans for releasing thousands of what are termed yearling trout, and many of these, too, will come to Snake Meadow.

It is understood that these trout will not be released until very late in March, probably the last of the month because there is apt to be so much ice in the brooks prior to that time and other unfavorable conditions. These trout are nearly or quite tame, so it felt by the commission that they should have time to become acquainted with the waters in which they are released, and in view of that fact the commission has in mind keeping Snake Meadow brook closed to fishing until April 15. The same rule will apply to all other leased brooks in which trout are released—large trout. The regular trout fishing season opens April 1, so it is planned to give the released trout about two weeks in which to become familiar with their new surroundings.

Snake Meadow is one of a very few brooks in Connecticut that are included as yet within the state's new leasing programme. It has been ascertained by the commission that the brooks in the northern parts of the state are better suited for stocking with trout than brooks in the southern port of the state. This is because they are far more free from pollution, have colder water and more shade, all of which are important considerations in trout propagation. To date only a half-dozen brooks have been selected by the state for such an arrangement as will prevail at Snake Meadow. From property owners through whose land the leased brooks run, leases of stripe of land each side of the brook are taken. When releases of large trout are made, a patrolman is placed on duty to see that there is no abuse of the fishing privileged or violations of any regulation in the interest of law and good order. Such brooks are open to all licensed fishermen.

Trout fishermen all through northeastern Connecticut will hail with delight, the selection of Snake Meadow for heavy stocking with trout. It always has been a great stream and exceedingly popular with the fishermen. The new arrangement will make it even more so.

It is not unlikely that someone here will take it upon themselves to seek through the United States postoffice department some protection from firms who, unsolicited send merchandise through the mails with an enclosed postage stamp and a request that the shipment be returned if not wanted or unsatisfactory.

Being bothered with such mail matter is nuisance enough in itself, according to local people, but it appears that the return of it does not end unpleasant relations with such firms. Cases came to light Friday of demands made for payment of goods sent back promptly on receipt of a number of weeks ago. A New York state concern is a principal offender in this respect and it would appear that the postal department might do something to check the pestiferous operations of this concern.

People who have been pestered say that it isn't at all pleasant to receive a package of junk merchandise that has not been ordered and is not wanted, be required to send it back, and so and then, within a few weeks, get a demand for payment. And over and above all of this, they let you know they would appreciate the return of the 4 1-2 cent stamp, when as a matter of fact their enclosures were in each instance 3 cent stamps.

People here feel that possibly the postal department may be powerless to check such effrontery as these vendors are exercising through the mails. There are those in this town who are now being pestered with dunning letters and who have sent back the merchandise they did not order and did not want who will spend more than one good $10 bill before they will ever pay such a concern a single penny.

At a session of a justice's court held in the town of Sterling, Justice Edith Kennedy, of the town of Plainfield, presiding, and C. B. Montgomery, acting as grand juror, Earle Abbey and Edwin Teffts, both of Wyoming, R. I., were fined and made to pay costs for operating overloaded motor trucks. The fine in each case was $50, the total including costs, being $151.14. Joseph Girard, owner of the trucks, explained to the court that the loads were overweight probably because they had been wet in the hard rain of the first of the week. This explanation would hardly account, however, for overweight of 5,000. The truck drivers were ordered to court by State Officer Ross Urquhart of the Danielson barracks.

Something new and novel in instructive entertainment will be given in the Danielson High school auditorium on Wednesday, January 27, 8 p. m., under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce, when an intimate insight will be given a large audience into the operation of a telephone switchboard. The demonstration is given by use of a real switchboard, manned by trained operators, and is arranged by the Chamber of Commerce with the cooperation of the telephone company.

The general public is cordially invited to attend. There is no admittance charge.

Exchange Manager Booth, of the telephone company, will address those present and will talk interestingly of telephone growth here and what his company is doing and planning to do to meet the constantly growing demand here for telephone service.

The entertainment includes motion pictures, a good comedy being in the programme and especially produced motion pictures showing the vastness of the telephone industry and an intensely interesting demonstration of actual telephone central office operation by young women of the operating force. Some amusing every day incidents of telephone happenings will be humorously portrayed by other members of the cast.

The central office operating feature of the programme will be conducted on an especially built apparatus in which switchboards are exactly duplicated, so that spectators can see the entire progress of a telephone call from one instrument to another. The purpose of the demonstration is to give users of the telephone the inside story of telephone operation.

From Miami, where he is spending the winter, A. W. Daugherty, of Plainfield, has sent cards to friends in Danielson.

Members of the Men's club of St. Alban's church, held a meeting Friday evening at the parish house to discuss plans for a supper.

Back from a brief vacation, winter brought another light snow storm Saturday morning.

James N. Tucker, Edwin P. Lawrence and William J. Young, members of Killingly's board of relief, have given the usual notice that they will begin holding sessions on February 1.

Members of the council of the S. N. E. Telephone company held a meeting in G. A. R. hall, Thursday evening. A social session followed the transaction of business.

Edgar Poitras is captain of the ice hockey team at the school he is attending at Sharon Heights, Mass.

The body of Miss Jane Sprague, a former resident of Danielson, who died in Providence, was brought here for burial in Westfield cemetery.

Anna M. Napoleon has brought suit for divorce from Anthony Napoleon. It is probable that the case will be heard during February.

One hears that Walter Turner, resident near Oneco and a farmer selectman of Voluntown, severely injured his shoulder when he fell from a tree he had climbed to await the coming of a fox, he was hunting.

Linemen of the S. N. E. Telephone company were engaged Friday in running a 200-pair underground cable in Academy street. A 50-pair cable is in use through this street at the present time.

Arthur A. Langevein, of New Bedford, is spending the week-end with relatives in Danielson.

J. Carl Witter acted as announcer Friday evening at an old-time fiddlers contest held in Wauregan.

Ice-coated walks came back during Friday to plague all who have to walk about and are fearful of slippery footing.

Another divorce action of local interest is that of David W. Jasmin vs. Helen Jasmin, a matter for the February term of the superior court.

Miss Alice Monohan entertained a number of her friends at her home on Riverview street, Friday evening.

Next week Wednesday, Thursday and Friday will bring mid-year examinations for students at Killingly High school.

George R. Dawson, of East Providence, and Walter A. Rawson, of Worcester have been named as administrators of the estate of their father Royal C. Rawson, who died a few weeks ago.

The installation of the Danielson Rotary club has been set for February 4. This is an event that will bring Rotarians here from various sections of eastern Connecticut.

WESTMINSTER

Saturday, Jan. 16th the 6th anniversary of the prohibition amendment was celebrated for its larger success. Pastors, very generally, preached in line with the anniversary with its lessons for the future. This was done at Westminster from the text, "Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people."

Guests at Charles Barstow's, Jan. 10th included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weeks and three children formerly of Attawaugan, now of Dayville, Mr. Floyd Mitchell and Mrs. Mitchell, his mother and Miss Emma Mitchell of Attawaugan. Also Miss Marjorie Brigner of Dayville.

At the holiday season, Fred Oates, of Danielson, who has returned to spend the winter at the M. P. Parsonage and Mr. St. John presented a very large star to the church school the work of the former as was a large and handsome winter bouquet in front of the pulpit, both greatly appreciated.

A small number gathered for the W. C. T. U. meeting of Buell Union with Mrs. Henry Williams at Canterbury Plains last Wednesday afternoon. The report of the last meeting was read and accepted including a letter from each Connecticut U. S. senator and each pledging to work for the world court of international justice in accord with the Hughes-Harding-Coolidge provisions. Important plans were launched for more active work in somewhat new lines. In the absence of the superintendent of evangelism the president Mrs. Bernice Bliven conducted the devotions. One new member was received. The press superintendent was requested to add Canterbury's share of a projected moving picture to appear in the Banner at an early date. The meeting closed with the W. C. T. U. benediction.

Raymond Green is employed in Jersey City in the same establishment where Dick Jones is. Both board with a sister of the latter, mother of Selma Hoffman, whose home was here with her grandparents for many years.

The call has been issued for the meeting of Westminster church at the parsonage, Monday, Jan. 25th. This service is usually well attended by the resident church membership.

It has occasioned considerable comment because no special article has appeared about the late Columbus Smith undre Westminster where he was born, spent the greater part of his life and was greatly loved by all where his church membership was from the time he first united with the church, early in the present pastorate to his death and where his remains were laid by those of his wife and an infant son. Such an article was sent but the obituary and funeral notices had already appeared in the Norwich local papers.

LISBON

Tuesday morning several blue birds were flying about the parsonage grounds.

Guests at the Hyde homestead, Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Randall of Lebanon. Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Whitford and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hyde of Jewett City.

Frank E. Hyde, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hyde and Miss Clara Hyde were in Bozrah, Wednesday to attend the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Mary A. Bosworth. Mrs. Bosworth will be remembered in this town as the wife of Rev. I. M. Bosworth, pastor of New ent church from 1886 to 1892. She came to Lisbon in 1891 and during the seven years of her residence here endeared herself to old and young alike.

Roads have been in bad condition for a week past, some marshy places on the cross roads being almost impassable.

PUTNAM

NEW MASONIC CLUB GAVE OPENING DANCE

(Special to The Bulletin.)

PUTNAM, Jan. 22.—The new Masonic club, which now has more than 100 members, gave a dance Friday evening in Odd Fellows' hall. The affair was largely attended and proved very enjoyable. The music by Dick Sharpe's Serenaders featured a number of old dance tunes which were danced to in the old-fashioned way. They included Money Musk, the Virginia Reel, and other melodies which were old at the middle of the last century.

Miss Anne Hogan, of Tatem street, has attained national honors in the monthly typing contest conducted by the Gregg Publishing Co. of New York city. For the month of December, Miss Hogan's composition received the highest possible award in the country—that of honorable mention, which is granted to but three in the United States for each month. For her work, she received a certificate admitting her to the Order of Accurate Typists and a gold pin for a reward. She is bookkeeper for the J. B. Tatem Co. and is also a teacher of the commercial department of the evening school.

The Putnam Buick Sales Co., Inc., of Putnam, settled the claim of Arthur E. Howard, Jr., trustee of the bankrupt estate of S. Gilpatric for $1,772.50. Attorney C. L. Torrey represented the company.

The payment was in settlement of the trustee's suit for recovery of the amount paid on an automobile bought by Gilpatric. A bill of $2,002 was sent to Gilpatric and was paid by him with a cashier's check on the First National Bank of Putnam in the summer of 1924, but the car was not delivered.

The Buick Sales had a repair bill of $350 against Gilpatric and contended that Gilpatric authorized the use of part of the amount paid for the car in settlement of the repair bill. The Buick Sales took the view that the car was never fully paid for and later sold it for $1,800. The settlement comprised the conflicting claims of the parties.

The annual meeting of the Cargill Trust company was held Wednesday evening in the banking rooms on Union street. The old board of directors was re-elected as follows: N. A. Ballard, C. A. Boyce, G. S. Bradley, B. D. Bugbee, H. F. Carpenter, J. R. Carpenter, Willis Covell, George E. Dresser, Dyer S. Elliott, John Gaston, John P. Grosvenor, L. M. Keith, Louis E. Law, George E. McClellan, N. D. Prince, Leon N. Walker, S. M. Wheelock.

The treasurer's report, which contained items of great interest to the stockholders, showed that the year 1925 had been most prosperous. The gain in the depositors' account for the year was $16 per cent.; total resources showed a gain of $413,000 or 87 per cent. and deposits a gain of 212 per cent. over December 31, 1924.

The earning power of the bank was graphically shown by the statement that on Dec. 31, 1924 the earnings showed a deficit of $1,154; the earnings for 1925 were not only sufficient to wipe out this deficit but to pay all organization expenses, three dividends totaling $5,500, a charge-off of $600 on furniture and fixtures account, a reserve for taxes of $500, leaving a profit and loss account of $10,126.

After the meeting of the depositors the directors re-elected the following officers: President, B. D. Bugbee; vice president, Luther M. Keith; secretary and treasurer, C. A. Boyce.

Charles E. Sheldon, aged 78 years died at his home on Mechanics street on an 14th, after a five days' illness of acute indigestion. He had been a resident of Putnam 20 years. For the first half of that period he was a painter and paper-hanger but for several years past had been a successful dry-goods salesman. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Orrin J. Whiting of East Thompson, and Miss Edna, who lived with her father. Funeral services were held last Sunday from the home, conducted by Rev. N. B. Burton. The bearers were: Horace Whiting, Warren Lacee, John Logee, and Louis Converse. Interment was in the East Putnam cemetery.

There are now six old fiddlers signed up for the championship of the county contest to be held at the Bradley theatre. They are Jonathan Whitford, Eastford; Henry Pray, Ballouville; George O. Ross, Gus Tetreault, John Suprenant and Jerome Shippee, all of Putnam.

It is announced that there will be at least eight contestants. One of these in all probabilities will be Wallace Aldrich, of this city, who is not only a very capable artist with the fiddle and the bow, but uses the latter with the left hand. Among all of the contestants who have taken part in these old fiddlers' concerts since Henry Ford brought them into prominence a month ago Mr. Aldrich is the only one who is left handed. It is very possible that the challenge on this part to play left handed fiddlers whether confined to the state or the country would bring very little response.

The house in Thompson owned by Thomas Krovoic which was destroyed by fire, as told in yesterday's Bulletin, was 150 years old. It was two and one half stories in height. The rafters were held by wooden pins and the nails that were used in the original construction were of wrought iron. A small barn that was close to the house caught fire and was destroyed but a large barn on the place was saved although burning embers blown from the house set it on fire several times.

The body of J. Eugene Taylor who died at Richmond, Va., Tuesday, arrived here on the two o'clock train Friday afternoon. A delegation from Quinebaug Lodge of Masons was awaiting its arrival and it was taken to Grove street cemetery where interment took place. The committal services of the order were conducted by Charles Richardson, master of the lodge, and his suite. The bearers were George P. Miner, William E. Moss, Ralph E. Thurston, and Lucius P. Merriman. Mr. Taylor was the manager of the Richmond branch of a Chicago Furniture Co. He leaves a wife and two daughters.

Kid Kaplan, featherweight champion of America will be in Putnam next Tuesday as the star attraction of the benefit performance for the Holy Name Society of Pomfret.

The first evening of the Winter Chautauqua at the High school auditorium was largely attended. A very excellent program, well balanced and with numbers that would appeal to everyone was presented. The principal feature of the evening was a cornet solo by Herbert Pechie, director of Pechie's quartette, which called forth several encores.

James H. McCulloch of Putnam, district deputy grand master of the I. O. O. F. and his suite, installed the new officers of Danielson lodge Tuesday evening. Mr. McCulloch is very highly regarded for the impressive way in which he and the members of his suite confer the degrees.

The annual Valentine Tea of the Woman's Board of the Day Kimball hospital will be held in the Elks hall on Main street. The entire floor of the Elks building including the grill room will be turned over to them for that date.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Smith, mother of Mrs. W. F. Rafferty of this city, took place at West Hartford, Friday. Services were held at St. Joseph's church. Mr. and Mrs. Rafferty and their children, Miss Elizabeth Rafferty, of the clerical staff of the Day Kimball hospital and Ensign W. J. F. Rafferty, of the U. S. S. Utah, now stationed at the Charleston Naval yard were in attendance.

JEWETT CITY

PROMINENT PEOPLE PAY TRIBUTE TO MR. FANNING

(Special to The Bulletin.)

JEWETT CITY, Jan. 22—The following tributes from prominent Jewett City people, serve to prove in their spontaneous character, some measure of the love and esteem, that existed for Mr. Fanning in his native town.

"In common with all citizens of Griswold, I am deeply grieved to learn of the demise of David Hale Fanning, an illustrious son of Griswold. We are justly proud of his success, but we glory far more in the heritage of his patriotic benefactions. The park and soldiers' monument, his gift to Jewett City, will ever be a lesson to future generations of the debt of gratitude they owe to their patriotic dead. His deep religious character, generosity and patriotisms, are a priceless heritage to posterity." Rev. John J. McCabe, pastor of St. Mary's church.

"Jewett City not only appreciates Mr. Fanning's generosity, but it is inspired by the memory of his industry and integrity." Alice Phillips Prior, president of International Order of The King's Daughters and Sons.

The borough will feel keenly the passing of Mr. Fanning. In the park, library and cemetery gifts, his interest in his native town are lasting memorials." Matthew J. Geary, warden of the borough of Jewett City.

"We worked together in Mr. Fanning's interest in the purchase of the monument, which was set to beautify the park he gave to Jewett City, and shall always consider him as second to no other of the town's benefactors." Everett H. Hiscox, secretary, Daniel F. Finn, Fred D. Ballou, Soldier's Monument committee.

"With vision broad and liberal hand, David Hale Fanning has wrought an imperishable memorial in the hearts of the citizens of his native town." John E. Phillips, president of the Jewett City Cemetery association.

"The Riverside Grammar school deeply regrets the passing of Mr. Fanning. His keen interest in child welfare will long be remembered in Griswold his place of birth." Frank H. P. Clement, supintendent of the Schools of Griswold.

"It is with much grief that we learn of the death today of David Hale Fanning, one of the town's most wonderful benefactors." Frank E. Robinson, treasurer Jewett City Savings bank.

"David Hale Fanning, was interested in humanity in all walks of life as he found them. He will be greatly missed in Jewett City, by all with whom he became associated." Lewis M. Carpenter, president of the Jewett City Trust Co.

Hon. Arthur M. Brown, Connecticut state's attorney, one of Mr. Fanning's warm personal friends, could not be reached late Friday evening. Yet none could mistake his esteem and regard for Mr. Fanning, which he has often expressed.

William E. Hiscox, 71, died suddenly late Thursday night at his home in Griswold. He seemed to feel unusually well during the evening, but after he retired, complained of pains in his head and heart. The family finally made him more comfortable, and he said he was better. Sometime later, they found him dying, and he passed away in a few minutes. Mr. Hiscox was the son of John Henry and Emily Maine Hiscox. He was born in North Stonington, March 17, 1854, and was educated in Stonington public schools. After finishing school, he became a farm worker, employed by others, until 1890, when he leased the Billings farm in North Stonington, and remained there until 1908. He then bought the farm of 175 acres in Griswold, known for more than 50 years as the Deacon Smith farm, later owned by Phillip Kahn. There Mr. and Mrs. Hiscox have conducted a prosperous farming business having an established cream, butter and egg route in Jewett City. In politics Mr. Hiscox was a democrat, and he was a Methodist in faith. Mr. Hiscox married Hannah Worden of Utica, N. Y. Mr. Hiscox was a kindly, genial man, and with his wife who survives him was held in high esteem by neighbors and friends.

The officers elected to serve the Congregational Ladies' Aid society at the meetnig held Thursday at the home of Mrs. F. D. Ballou are: President, Mrs. E. A. Faust; vice president, Mrs. C. D. Wolf; secretary, Mrs. F. E. Robinson, treasurer, Mrs. Walter Marshall. Mrs. Walter Richardson and Mrs. E. H. Hiscox were appointed auditors. The president will appoint the directresses later.

Rev. E. C. Baskevill, B. D. Archdeacon of Charleston, S. C., stopped over night Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Fields, returning from a business trip to Boston.

Wednesday evening, Everett Whipple gave a dinner party in Voluntown to a number of his Jewett City friends. The party was in honor of Carleton Fiske, who is visiting his mother in Jewett City.

Finn's today mat. and eve., Richard Barthelmess in Shore Leave.—Adv.

Ruby Gray nee Thornton gave the World Wide guild report at the annual meeting of the Baptist church.

David Hale Fanning of Worcester leaves two cousins in Jewett City, Edward Fanning Burleson and Frederick H. Fanning. A few years ago, Mr. Fanning gave to the late George A. Haskell, a large oil painting of himself, suitably framed and engraved, to be placed in a public building. It was hung on the walls of Slater library, where it will serve as a lasting memorial to all its patrons.

Walter and Edward Richardson and John Parrish are three more boys who started to take the Red Cross swimming test Thursday night at the Norwich Y. M. C. A.

On account of bad weather and soft ground, the big 30 ton boiler bound on its long trip to Glasco, is still at the foot of Crooked Hill. With freezing weather attempt to negotiate this, the worst rise to be encountered, will be resumed.

Following a young blizzard, that lasted for a few hours Friday morning, the mercury dropped away below freezing again, and a half gale kept up all day.

Rev. William A. Prentiss of Plainfield was a caller in the borough Friday.

WOLFE BOY EVIDENTLY PARTY TO AUTO THEFT

(Special to he Bulletin.)

WESTERLY, R. I., Jan. 23.—Further developments late Friday night tend to prove that Francis Wolfe, who told the Westerly police that he had received hard usage at the hands of two men who forced him into an automobile in East Weymouth, Mass., was not as innocent as he would have led them to suspect. He has been connected with the finding of an abandoned Tudor sedan auto, 25179, Mass., which was discovered abandoned in the Riverbend cemetery, late Friday afternoon, and which is now at a local garage at the direction of Westerly Chief of Police Thomas E. Brown.

At 8 o'clock Friday night Ernestine R. Canning, 159 Crune street, East Dedham, Mass., a teacher in the East Weymouth High school, arrived in Westerly by automobile accompanied by her brother, Thomas, and quickly identified her automobile. She told Westerly Police Officer George H. Champlin, who was investiating the case, that two young men of an adjoining town, who are thought to have been known by Wolfe and who were seen near the school, are suspected by the Massachusetts town police, to have been the guilty parties. She said that there might have been a falling out in the party of three young men and that Wolfe might not have cared to proceed further. When found in the cemetery the automobile was frozen, the cylinder head cracked and a clock torn from the dash, but found on the rear seat. A tire had apparently been changed and an iron crowbar was found in the auto. Miss Canning returned to her home Friday night and planned to come to Westerly again today (Saturday) to drive her machine home. She reported to the Massachusetts police working on the auto theft.

BRINGS $25,000 SUIT AGAINST AMUSEMENT CO.

(Special to The Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Jan. 22—The Walter T. Murphy Amusement company has been made the defendant in a $25,000 damage suit brought by George W. Babcock, formerly employed as janitor by the James Hislop & Co. The action is returnable before the next term of the civil superior court. While the action is brought against the theatre company, the amusement company is protected through liability insurance.

Babcock was an attendant at a picture performance at the Crown theater on the evening of June 24, 1925. While seated in the balcony a section of the ceiling collapsed and the falling debris struck Babcock on the head. He sustained cuts and lacerations, besides abrasions and contusions and for several weeks was a patient at Lawrence hospital. Babcock alleges that he is permanently injured as a result of the accident and also declares that he has been compelled to expend large sums of money for treatments.

WIND BLOWS DOWN SIGN, HIGHWAY BLOCKED

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WESTERLY, R. I., Jan. 22.—The large wooden billboard on the old Potter Hill road, advertising Rocky Point, was blown into the highway by the high winds Friday night. Engineer A. L. Leon of the Westerly highway department was notified and he sent a force of men to clear the highway of the wreckage.

EAST HADDAM

Albert G. Hall, master of East Haddam grange, attended the State grange sessions in Hartford last week.

Clark S. Gates is undergoing treatment for blood poisoning at the Middlesex hospital, in Middletown.

Florence Brockway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Brockway, who has been ill with pneumonia, is very much improved.

A local coal and lumber company received nine carloads of coal the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Brooks, who have been in Ithaca, N. Y., this winter, are visiting Mrs. Brooks' parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Champion.

Assistant Postmaster Bride has been confined to his home the past week by illness. Miss Mildred Ventres has been assisting at the postoffice.

Miss Helen Wind, who is employed in the office of a Hartford newspaper, has been visiting at her home here.

STAFFORD SPRINGS

PAUL GENHOLT APPEALS FROM JAIL SENTENCE

(Special to The Bulletin.)

STAFFORD SPRINGS, Jan. 22.—Paul Genholt, who ten days ago was convicted on three counts in the borough court, two for violation of the liquor law and one for allowing minors to loiter in a pool room, paid his fine of $125 for keeping liquor with intent to sell and $25 for allowing minors to loiter in his pool room. On the charge of reputation for which he was fined $125 and sentenced to ten days in jail, he has taken an appeal to the superior court.

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Moore have gone to Miami, Florida. They expect to be gone about a month.

Silvia French, age 12 years, died on Thursday night from pneumonia. He was a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fuoli, who adopted him some time ago.

Miss G. S. Beckwith is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Tracy in Jewett City.

Charles Kellogg, of West Stafford, is visiting relatives in New York.

Mrs. J. A. Mix has returned from a visit with relatives in the west and south.

Parley Patten has leased the Henry Fisk place on Stafford street, and will take possession at once.

Mrs. James J. Grover of Brooklyn, N. Y., was a recent guest of her aunt, Mrs. T. F. Jordan.

DEATH OF OLD GRAY MARE A DELICATE CASE FOR LEGION

BROWNWOOD, Tex., Jan. 23 (AP)—A small brown mule may take the place of the Old Gray Mare in the affections of Texas legionnaires. Sarah, for five years mascot of the Old Gray Mare Band, died suddenly and left as her heir and offspring, a mule colt.

Sarah's death came in the midst of a controversy bptween the Oklahoma and Texas departments as to which had prior rights to the use of the Old Gray Mare tune. Just after the Texas legion had agreed to permit a membership contest to decide the question, Sarah was found dead in her pasture near here, her little brown colt standing mournfully beside her. She was buried there with full military honors.

The Old Gray Mare attended the American Legion conventions in San Francisco and St. Paul, besides numerous conventions in Texas. She reached the climax of her career when she bore May Peterson, former prima donna of the Metropolitan Grand Opera Company up the steps of the Texas capitol at Governor Miriam A. Ferguson's inauguration.

Sarah was one of the most travelled animals in America. She usually rode in a specially constructed box car. Once, while enroute to San Francisco, the band stopped at Denver for a rest, leaving Sarah loose in the car. Then band struck up the Old Gray Mare tune just outside the car, and Sarah, thinking it was her cue, jumped from the car and placed herself in her customary position at the head of the band.

When a man knows that he is a fool he knows more than some people give him credit for.

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause.

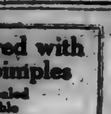
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results. Millions of boxes are sold annually at 15c and 30c.

Face covered with ugly red pimples

Resinol healed the trouble

Valley Centre, Va., Feb. 14:—"Some time ago my face became covered with little pimples which were red and ugly looking. I tried various remedies, but nothing did me any good until I used Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment. I applied this treatment about five times every day and in a remarkably short time I was rid of the trouble. There is nothing like the Resinol treatment!" (Signed) Mrs. M. L. Crickenberger.



While You Have Vigor

Make part of what you earn work for YOU—SAVE!

While the iron is hot—the smithy strikes and forms it into the necessary shape he wishes to make.

While you are vigorous—virile, full of the joy of living and working—that is the time to "Put away" a part of your earnings.

Make your SAVED money work while you are working. It will work longer hours than you; will never be tardy; never lay off. Money works for interest in our bank—YOUR INTEREST.

"Put Your Money in a Savings Bank."

The Brooklyn Savings Bank

DANIELSON, CONN.

Who says This Country's Dry?

You'll get rain, snow, sleet and slush! Put real prohibition on wet feet and colds! Wear

HOOD RUBBERS

AT YOUR DEALER'S

CUTICURA HEALS ECZEMA IN RASH

On Scalp, Later on Limbs. Caused Much Suffering.

"I had eczema which made its appearance on my scalp in a rash. It itched terribly and when I scratched it blisters broke out. Later the eczema broke out on my limbs, which were badly swollen and very red. It kept me awake at night and caused much pain and suffering. When I washed or went near the hot stove it was very painful.

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. I purchased more and in two or three months I was completely healed." (Signed) Mrs. Emma C. Gibson, R. 1, Box 71, Island Pond, Vt., Oct. 26, 1925.

Use Cuticura for all toilet purposes.

Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c. Talcum 25c. Sold throughout the world. Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. M, Malden, Mass. Cuticura Shaving Stick 25c.

This Store is the place to buy your Radiolas. RCA Loudspeakers and RCA Accessories

We are glad to announce that we have been selected by the Radio Corporation of America to sell and service Radiolas, RCA Loudspeakers and RCA Accessories.

Radiolas $15 to $575

RCA Loudspeakers $18 to $245

Convenient Time Payments may be arranged

GEO. P. MADDEN CO.

FRANKLIN SQUARE NORWICH, CONN.

1760 1926

Norwich Bulletin and Courier

130 YEARS OLD

Printed every day in the year except Sundays.

Subscription price 12c a week; 50c a month; $6.00 a year.

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich Conn., as second-class matter.

Telephone Calls:

Bulletin Business Office 480.
Bulletin Editorial Rooms, 35-2.
Bulletin Job Room, 35-3.

Willimantic Office 234 Main St. Telephone 1121-2.

Norwich, Saturday, Jan. 23, 1926

Member of The Associated Press.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

All rights of republication of special despatches herein are also reserved.

Daily Average Circulation
WEEK ENDING JAN. 16, 1926:
12,720

THE SHIPPING PROBLEM

Because there is a plan for establishing a federal shipping council in the place of the present shipping board, the feeling has been expressed in one quarter that the government ought to sell the ships and get out of the business.

The shipping board was created to deal with a war situation and it was expected that it would make greater progress than it has in disposing of the ships and eliminating the country from the operation of the merchant marine. It has not done so. Some ships have been sold but a great number of them remain and of that number too many are still idle.

Also under the present shipping board it has been demonstrated that the results which the country desires are not being obtained. The board has shown itself to be out of joint with the administration, and being responsible to congress it takes full advantage of the situation especially when congress is not in session.

It is for the purpose of ending the existing undesirable conditions and bringing about the sale of the ships and the ending of the government's competition with private capital in the operation of steamships that the change in the control of the government's vessels is sought.

A huge sum was involved in the construction of the merchant fleet. Large losses have been incurred and only slight progress been made in getting rid of the vessels. In the operation of the fleet the government has sustained big deficits each year. This on top of the fact that the shipping board is responsible to no department of the government makes it desirable that a change should be made. The board as it now stands has not worked out as it was thought it would when it was created. It has been demonstrated that there is good reason for a change. There is no doubt about the desirability of having the government get out of such business, and the government would welcome such a change, but there seems little prospect of much headway being made until the present board is replaced by another which will be responsible to some department of the government, or answerable to the president.

SAFETY BY STRIVING FOR IT

As we look back at certain efforts which are made in behalf of prevention and safety there are those who are prone to declare that they get no where. Their judgment is based upon the fact that accidents and losses from one cause or another continue even though efforts to stop them have been made.

It is through a study of conditions over a period of years, however, that the real situation is revealed, and certainly it is a satisfactory showing when it can be said that travel on the railroads of this country is twice as safe now as it was a dozen years ago. Railroads have been in existence a longer period than that, but there was a time when much greater danger was involved in rail transportation than there is today and, inasmuch as the change for the better has taken place, within the period of greater safety effort it is only fair that credit should be given where it belongs. This doesn't mean that safety campaigns can be abandoned, so far as railroads are concerned. Rather does it mean that they should be continued and their good results kept before the country, for there are plenty of other directions where the lesson of increased safety needs to be learned.

If accidents on the road of steel can be reduced they can also be cut down on the road of cement or macadam, and it is because they are for the most part preventable that there is such a great opportunity for keeping attention centered on being careful. There is a responsibility in this matter which rests upon the shoulders of all highway users. There is the matter of a proper enforcement of highway rules and regulations but in addition to that the driver of a vehicle, or the pedestrian must do his part.

In these days safety is not going to be obtained by ignoring conditions. Neither by defiance, by recklessness nor by chance taking are autos going to keep from hitting persons or other machines, while the same holds true of the individual. It is a time for looking out for No. 1, for respecting the rights of others and observing the common rules of safety.

FUTURE OF DIRIGIBLES

Prior to the days of the Shenandoah there were experiences with the dirigibles which gave the impression that they were of questionable value. They had been dealt some severe blows by the collapse of the English airship and they had failed to create as much favorable sentiment as expected during the early years of the world war. Germany has not demonstrated that the dirigibles are of invaluable service either in war or during times of peace.

Nevertheless with the construction of the Shenandoah, and the demonstrations that had been made with it, it was felt that a decided improvement had been made, that airships of that type had been bettered and offered greater promise for future development. The Shenandoah up to the time of its destruction had done much to restore confidence.

In view of what happened last September it is not surprising that there are differences of opinion concerning the advisability of continuing experiments with dirigibles of that type. There is a feeling of increased uncertainty regarding such airships, and it is perhaps unwise to rush into too hasty a decision as to whether experimentations along such a line will be continued or abandoned.

Congress is faced by the advocacy of the secretary of the navy that there be no further appropriations for such a purpose and his plea is backed by the advice of the general naval board. On the other hand the chief of the bureau of aeronautics maintains that proof has not been provided by which the lighter-than-air craft should be abandoned. He views it from a military standpoint and believes that with past experiences in mind that the development of dirigibles should be continued.

In this case where doctors disagree congress has good reason for reaching its decision after a careful consideration of the facts and the weighing of the reasons advanced on both sides. In any enterprise an accident does not necessarily call for the abandonment of all efforts.

GILPATRIC WILL HELP

Because Harold Gilpatric has failed to tell what he did with the funds he was convicted of embezzling the impression has been gained that he had refused to talk and assist those who are endeavoring to straighten out the tangle that he left. This has been increased by the understanding that has been gained that he could give no further help than he has already done, but his recent communication to the effect that he is willing to give any help that he can and that he feels that he should have been called upon before indicates that some additional unraveling may yet be accomplished through his assistance.

In the new investigation which is being undertaken by the special committee named by the governor there is a strong probability that there will be much assistance that he can give. That the accounting firm which has been engaged to go over the Gilpatric accounts desires to acquaint itself with the situation before there is a questioning of Gilpatric is logical. By so doing the probe can proceed to the best advantage, and through the combined efforts of the investigators and the information which Gilpatric can impart it should be possible to get at the bottom of the whole crooked financial tangle. That Gilpatric is ready and willing to talk should result in the elimination of guesswork and the clearing up of some uncertainties as to just how his operations were carried on. It will not be an easy thing for Gilpatric to come back and face such a quizzing but he takes the right view of the situation when he agrees to do it. The legal obstacles in the way should be easily eliminated.

A BAD PRACTICE

When the American Defense society attacked Colonel W. A. Haskell, recently appointed to command the militia of New York state, and claimed that he held dangerous ideas and was inclined to communism it stated that it was acting upon information that had been furnished it. When it attacked his fitness for the office it was guided by some outside influence else it would not have been inclined to withdraw its charges so quickly when exception was taken to its allegations.

Be sure you are right, then go ahead, is pretty good advice but it doesn't appear that it is the motto of this organization. Colonel Haskell is a man who is widely known because of his service in the army and because of the work he did in connection with the administration of relief to the destitute people of European countries. He served under General Bullard during the war and the latter declares his record to be one of the best in the United States army.

When it was realized that the charges could not be proved there was a quick retreat and a withdrawal of the objections. That was the proper thing to do under the circumstances, but it would have been much better for all concerned could there have been some sort of an inquiry made by the society in order to determine whether it was justified before proceeding to claim something which wasn't so and which had to be retracted.

The affair hasn't probably injured Colonel Haskell, but the American Defense society can hardly lay claim to the fact that it has benefited itself or its cause by its experience.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The man on the corner says: It isn't every January that has two thaws.

It is a noble effort the weatherman is making to fill up the reservoirs.

Cheer up, the penalty for a few mild days in January may not be as severe as you expect.

Sand isn't the only thing that is needed to make the streets safer during this day and generation.

Cole Blease is creating about as much disgust as a senator as he did when governor of South Carolina.

Have you prepared your bundle of clothing that will help to relieve the distress of those living under less fortunate conditions in the near east?

An interesting statement for Thrift week is that it is costing women $100,000,000 more a year for hair dressing since bobbed hair became fashionable.

A Boston holdup man is given 12 years in prison. When he gets out there may be some other form of crime that is enjoying greater popularity.

Princess Bibesco daughter of ex-Premier Asquith of England, who was thrown from her horse while riding in California must have been taking lessons from the Prince of Wales.

THE MAN WHO TALKS

There are somethings that scientists used to speak about with considerable dogmatism that are now open to grave doubt; things that were once regarded as fixed as the law of gravitation. While other things that did not seem to yield to investigation are now apparently settled. Among the former things supposed to have passed the last analysis was the uses of snow especially that part of it that related to vegetation. The final word was supposed to have been said in regard to its fertilizing value. It was called the "poor man's manure." Agriculturalists thought that in some measure and in some manner it communicated the ammonia in the air to the ground and kept it from evaporation. Many years ago this was a sort of agrarian gospel that was taught in all the farm journals, and the rank and file took it for law and gospel. That theory is now completely exploded, and the fertilizing value of snow has completely "fallen from grace."

It was also contended with much cocksureness that snow was very valuable as a contrivance of nature to keep the ground warm. But this theory also has been scientifically assailed. In the first place is it necessary to keep the surface of the ground warm? If so why should there be such a thing as frost? Is not the frost of incalculable value in killing harmful insects, bugs, and all sorts of germs that are enemies of vegetation? If anything the snow helps the frost in functioning along this specific line, in the higher latitudes it is natural for the soil to freeze in winter, and freezing is a part of the chemical process that enters into the coming season's productivity. If snow is sent for its warmth it is a most dismal failure in that part of the temperate zone where it rarely attains a depth of a foot, and very soon melts.

When this wonderful exhibition of scientific learning appears in print we shall be in the final stage of "Thrift week." Of course we shall keep in mind that the idea is not to be thrifty for one week only—although this is about as long as some people can put up with the inconvenience. Most of us could be righteous for the period of one week without serious injury. The idea is to cultivate the habit that shall make thrift an organic part of our activity. To observe such a week is the best possible way to honor the memory of Benjamin Franklin, a man who will forever stand in the front rank of America's greatest gifts to the world. It would be difficult to name another man of any age or country who surpassed him in versatility. He was the first to influence this continent with the idea that thrift was the foundation of both individual and national wealth. To be successful financially one must always save something out of his earnings. That is the only way of keeping ahead of the game.

It was very appropriate that "Thrift week" should begin on Jan. 17th the 220th birthday of this remarkable man. His broadmindedness was never seen to greater advantage than in his insistence that a prime element of thrift was in sharing one's savings with others. This shows Franklin to have been as great a psychologist as he was financier. A small man would have said, "get all you can and cling to it like grim death." But Franklin was big enough to see the glaring gulf between penuriousness and thrift. He evidently believed in the philosophy of the Book of Proverbs which says: "There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; there is that withholdeth more that is meet, but it tendeth to poverty." Helping another man to be thrifty increases one's capacity for thrift.

One of Franklin's ten points, however, makes one pause a moment to reflect. That point is this: "Invest in safe securities." Of course no one would invest in unsafe securities if he knew it. So the question arises, what are safe securities? If one will run over the list of securities held by many of our largest colleges and universities he will be surprised to find how much stock is held that has returned no dividends for years. Some of them are loaded down with paper apparently worthless that was once regarded as gilt-edged. This is particularly true of railroad stocks. Probably what Franklin meant was, put your savings into what seems to be safe investment, rather than to gamble with the rise and fall of the market. In this he was evidently right. He believed and emphasized that the first thing is safety. He knew that nothing was absolutely safe, but with care and caution one could be as safe here as in anything else.

The Bible has not a word to say against the accumulation of worldly goods. It never speaks disrespectfully of riches or rich men—as such. It never praises poor men simply because they are poor. With God men are simply men quite irrespective of their worldly circumstances. It is never the color of his skin, the size of his pocketbook, the social position he occupies nor the nation he hails from, but rather what he is and the use he makes of the opportunities that counts with God. To be sure the Bible has something to say about the "deceitfulness of riches," and the difficulty that a rich man has in getting into heaven; a condition which results when a man lets his riches master him, rather than he mastering his riches. As a thing in itself the Bible treats money with a strict and impartial neutrality. Let us keep in mind then the scriptural position that money is to be rated by how it is gotten and how it is used.

A sane thinker must lose all patience with the silly babble of the bolshevists, communists, and the radical socialists: who rant against riches and rich men without any intelligent discrimination. They are usually a set of people who have neither the ability, enterprise, nor persistent activity for climbing up the financial ladder themselves; but they are so rascally and thoroughly inconsistent that they would not hesitate one moment to rob those whose foresight and energy had been richly rewarded. And they would not hesitate to resort to the most unfair measures to accomplish their dastardly purpose. One has only to look at poor Russia to see what bolshevism has done! Their manner of collecting revenue is contrary to the moral philosophy of any moderate nation. Nothing but anarchy can result when the fruits of legitimate toil are exposed to wilful robbery. No nation can succeed that crushes honesty.

The Apostle Paul teaches with emphasis that we are not to be "slothful in business." In modern speech that means that we "are not to fall down on our job." We are to be active, energetic, resourceful, showing to the world that we are live wires and are meeting with more or less success. To conduct business successfully means to make money. Business success is impossible without it, and if the Apostle Paul urges the Romans to be active businesswise, he means that they ought to apply themselves to their occupations with such diligence as to reap the natural rewards of their industry, and that is to make money. Nothing in the world is more logical and reasonable than that honest and intelligent toil of every character should be rewarded with a just compensation. To make money is not the only object to be kept in view, but it is one legitimate purpose from which we cannot escape.

Another Dunham has come to the fore as a fiddler, in an old timers contest in Bangor, Me., Charles Dunham, 67, of Kenduskeag took first prize. He's no relation of Mell's.

PUSHING NORTH THROUGH THE AIR.

The question of Arctic exploration by air continues to be of the liveliest interest, with at least four expeditions being actively planned to start within the next year or two. Of the four it appears that two intend to use airplanes, while the others will depend on lighter-than-air craft, and that two, or possibly three, will seek to attain the north pole and to strike out to a great distance from their bases of operations, their rivals contenting themselves with using the aircraft as auxiliaries and making relatively short trips.

The relative advantages of the various types of airplanes for use in the Arctic have been discussed, but at that time the possibility of using airships had not received the attention that has been given it since both MacMillan and Amundsen returned from the north declaring the inadequacy of the present-day airplane for general Arctic use, writes Edward P. Warner, professor of aeronautical engineering at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The airship has certain distinct advantages in the north. First and most important is of course the ability to take off from any kind of a surface, as the ship rises vertically without preliminary run over the ice, water or land. Certainly of no less importance, however, is the complete freedom from danger of forced landings. It is unlikely that all the power plants of an airship will fail, and even if they should do so the ship merely becomes a free balloon while the engineer is getting things in order again. Even if there are only two independent engines and they both break down, a mechanic should always be able to count on building one engine that will continue to give service out of the remains of the two that have gone out of action. The possibility of having to land on the ice and walk home then disappears. The airship scores heavily, too, in that it can be held motionless in the air and so serve as a base from which to make observations at leisure, or it can cruise at reduced speed and a low altitude over any terrain which is to be examined in detail.

Judging the airship for itself alone, again, Arctic conditions are found in some respects peculiarly favorable to the operation of lighter-than-air craft. This is most notably true in the increase of life of the gas which results from the low temperatures prevailing. Hydrogen, under service conditions in the temperate latitudes, can only be relied on to lift about 64 pounds per thousand cubic feet of volume. At a temperature of 32 degrees Fahrenheit the same gas will carry about 70 pounds per thousand cubic feet, and at 10 degrees below zero the figure is further increased to about 76. Since the weight of the structure and power plants would not be appreciably affected, the difference between sixty-four and 76 pounds in total lift is equivalent to a difference of about 20 per cent. in the useful load that can be carried and to an increase of something more than a third in maximum range of operation. Another advantage offered by the Arctic regions is the comparative constancy of sunlight conditions and the consequent reduction of the superheating of the gas in the airship. One of the gravest practical problems in airship navigation is the control of gas temperature and the restraining of its variations of temperature with respect to that of the outside air. Such variations should amount to comparatively little in the Arctic.

Against all this, of course, must be set the difficulty in handling an airship in the north, where the construction of a hangar would be a necessity for any long expedition. The building of a hangar to house even the smallest of non-rigids under the conditions attending an engineering project in Greenland, for example, would offer difficulties of considerable magnitude.

Whatever the type of aircraft used, the problem of a base of operation arises, and on the selection of that base will depend both the nature of the subsequent work and the probability of its successfully attaining the desired result.

Looking at a map of the Arctic three general possibilities appear—Spitzbergen, Greenland and Alaska. There are of course other islands, such as Grant Land and Axel Heiberg land, which approach even nearer to the Pole, but they are so barren and so inaccessible to ships as to seem out of the question.

If the aim were simply to reach the geographical north pole, to fly over the spot where Peary planted the American flag on April 6, 1909, Alaska would be out of the question, for it is 1,300 miles from Point Barrow, the northernmost point of the Alaskan peninsula to the pole, while Etah, the base of so many Arctic expeditions, leaves but 500 miles to be covered, and the northernmost point of Spitzbergen only 700.

There could be no more striking evidence of the difference between the geographical north pole and what Stefansson terms "the pole of inaccessibility." Point Barrow is in almost exactly the same latitude as the North Cape of Norway, yet Point Barrow is icebound and virtually uninhabited, while great liners are run on tourist cruises to the North Cape each summer as a matter of course. Before the war tours were even conducted to Spitzbergen, of which the southernmost point is almost as far north as Etah and some four hundred miles farther north than any part of the North American continent.

As points of departure for a polar flight, the choice would be made between Spitzbergen and Etah, and the former would have some advantage in that it is the headquarters of a mining company, and machinery and mechanical assistance are far easier to secure there than on the Greenland coast.

If the object be not to reach the geographical pole but to penetrate the unexplored area north of Alaska in the search for a possible polar continent, Point Barrow would be a better starting place, with a reserve base of supplies at Nome. Once established at Point Barrow it would be an easy matter to fly five hundred miles to the north and back again, penetrating far into the zone at present unknown, but the establishment of a base satisfactory for take-offs and landings would itself be a matter of great difficulty, and a jump into the unknown with a single-engined airplane or one incapable of continuing in flight after the stoppage of any one engine would be an undertaking fraught with the greatest hazard. Neither the army air service nor any other organization or individual would be justified in trying to hold a venture for a long flight, the precedent of Amundsen's amazing leap into the north and ultimate return to the contrary notwithstanding. With a three-engined airplane the attempt could be made in comparative safety as after the flight was half finished, the machine would be able to fly on any two engines, while if an engine failed in the earlier stages, it would only be necessary to slip one of the gasoline tanks, so reducing the load and power required, and turn about and return home on the remaining two-power plants.

A still more reckless project is the flight from Point Barrow to Spitzbergen, or vice versa, directly across the pole, a distance of two thousand miles. There are airplanes which have that range, and even greater distances have been flown without stop, but to take off for such a flight from an ice field of limited extent, and imperfectly smooth, and knowing that the exhaustion of the fuel before reaching the destination would be almost surely fatal, is more than anyone is likely to care to attempt in the near future. Two thousand miles is too near the limiting range of the aircraft. It would be better to make for a particular part of the Arctic, with the object of going there and returning, starting from that one of the three bases already suggested which offered easiest access to the desired goal. Aircraft of the proper type and properly used are capable of being a great asset in Arctic explorations. The attempt to make ultra-hazardous stunt flights across the polar sea is unlikely to lead to any good end.

Today's Anniversaries

1795—Gen. John Sullivan, one of the best and bravest of the American commanders in the Revolution, died at Durham, N. H. Born Berwick, Me., Feb. 17, 1740.

1813—George Clymer, signer of the Declaration of Independence and a framer of the Constitution, died at Morrisville, Pa. Born in Philadelphia, March 16, 1739.

1853—Dedication of the first Methodist church in Salem, Ore.

1865—Gen. John B. Hood, the noted Confederate leader, was relieved of the command of the department of the Tennessee at his own request.

1901—Accession of King Edward VII to the British throne.

1902—William LeRoy Brown, president of Alabama Polytechnic Institute, died at Auburn, Ala. Born in Loudoun county, Va., October 1, 1827.

1907—Harry K. Thaw was placed on trial in New York for the murder of Stanford White.

1924—United States and Great Britain concluded a treaty designed to prevent smuggling of liquor into the United States by sea.

1925—Gen. Alexi Kuropatkin, famous Russian soldier and former commander of the army, died, aged 80 years.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

On the Whole.

Mr. Editor: Many of your readers are puzzling over cross-word definitions, and some have become experts in obtaining correct solutions. Perhaps one of these can give us the correct implication intended to be conveyed by the phrase "On the whole." Of course this is a grammatical question, and may be better understood by grammarians than by those who frequently use the phrase to express their opinions.

What we want to know is, does "on the whole" mean "completely," or only "partially." Does it mean—in the majority of cases, or exceptionally—occasionally as we would say; only once in a while?

The impression apparent on the whole is that the wording means absolutely, although users seem to contract rather than to expand their meaning, on the whole.

If a man had an accident, we will assume by auto, and broke a rib, but did not break his neck; is it proper to say, "On the whole he was lucky? or on the whole unfortunate?"

Although many failures have attended the use of aeroplanes, is it proper to say navigation of the air has, on the whole, been successful or on the whole, it has been futile?

Which is correct? We pause for a reply.

A STUDENT.

Norwich, Jan. 22, 1926.

FLOCKS OF ROBINS

Mr. Editor: Last week Thursday and Friday, Jan. 14th. and 15th., there were large flocks of robins here. Hundreds of robins. Today, Jan. 21st., near night, I saw large flocks of them flying north. Are they really coming from the south at this season of the year?

I wish some of your bird-wise and weather-wise readers would tell us what it means.

Truly yours,
EDWARD A. WALKER.

Gurleyville, Jan. 21, '26.

IN THE PUBLIC EYE

Luxemburg today will celebrate the thirtieth birthday of the Grand Duchess Charlotte, one of the two women now occupying thrones in Europe, the other being the queen of the Netherlands. Charlotte became the ruler of Luxemburg in 1919, following the abdication of her sister, the Grand Duchess Adelaide, who retired to a convent in Bavaria, where she died in 1924. The grand duchy of Luxemburg, which is the original of Anthony Hope's "Zenda," has an area about equal to that of Rhode Island, and lies between Germany, France and Belgium. It became an independent state in 1830, but was united dynastically with Holland until 1890. The present reigning family is of the House of Nassau, one of the richest of the royal families in Europe. The Grand Duchess Charlotte, present occupant of the throne, is married to Prince Felix of Bourbon-Parma.

A woman who refuses to divulge a secret is called a mean stingy thing by other women.

"JULIET"

THIS has proved to be the most correct, new idea in WEDDING RINGS

—the exquisite new design —just now perfected

MISS Bride-to-be: It is now the correct thing, that you aid in choosing the ring.

And now, there is just perfected, a ring of new loveliness that has not been known in the past. At recent weddings it has been the favorite.

It is made by BOWDEN .. Bowden Wedding Rings, standard since 1843. The design was created by leading artists, craftsmen. Each ring is by hand—every bit of tracery carved out by the skilled fingers of master artisans. It is named, in keeping with its beauty, after the greatest of all lovers . . . Juliet.

Your favorite jeweler, in your own city, is showing today.

Matrons: Ask about having your plain gold band remade, in the new manner. Or exchanged (at full value) for one of these lovely new rings.

BOWDEN WEDDING RINGS
Standard since 1843
John & Geo. H. Bliss, 126 Main Street, Norwich.

Sunday Morning Talk

Light

"And God said, Let there be light, and there was light," Gen. I, 3. This is the very first expression which the Bible contains of the Divine Will. It is according to the conception of the sacred writer, the first voice which broke the silence of eternity. It is a tribute to the paramount greatness, the inestimable value of light over darkness, for all coming ages of the world, ever first struggling into existence.

This Divine command is the keynote of the whole Bible. False religion says "Let there be darkness!" They have their refuge not in light but in darkness. But true religion has always said "Let there be brightness and warmth and cheerfulness, let there be openness and knowledge, and enlightment." No doubt as long as we linger in this "valley of the shadow of death," we must see "as through a glass darkly," but the object of Revelation is to diminish the shadow, to illuminate the darkness as far as possible.

Christ was the light as well as the life of the world. One main purpose of His work in the midst of men was to make them not children of the mist, but children of the light. The last words of the Book of Revelation agree with the first words of Genesis, describing the perfection of the blessed. It says, "And there shall be no night there, and they need no candle, neither light of the sun, for the Lord God giveth them light and the Lamb is the light thereof."

The good die young and the other kind when they can't help it.

THUMM'S HOME MADE PORK SAUSAGE
TRY THEM FOR YOUR NEXT BREAKFAST.
Thumm's Delicatessen Store
40 Franklin Street.

Today's Birthdays

Grand Duchess Charlotte Adelgone, the ruler of the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg, born 30 years ago today.

O. E. Weller, senior United States senator from Maryland, born at Reistertown, Md., 64 years ago today.

Hulbrook Bilin, a popular actor of the stage and screen, born in San Francisco, 54 years ago today.

Dr. Erza S. Tipple, president of Drew Theological Seminary, born at Camden, N. Y., 65 years ago today.

A man who lives on hope will spend his old age on somebody's else's expense.

Stories That Recall Others

C-O-D is God.

Little Sarah happened over to her married sister's home just after the coal man had delivered some coal. She noticed the coal bill on the table with these letters at the bottom, C. O. D., and said: "Well, the same man must have delivered your coal that delivered ours, because his name was God, too."

Good Lesson, Good Fee.

It isn't often that an attorney is urged to make his fee as high as possible, but the exception is encountered occasionally.

After a store had failed to collect a rather large bill from a man reputed to be wealthy, the case was turned over to a lawyer who called the man into his office to straighten out the matter.

"I will pay that bill on only one condition," the man told the lawyer, "and that is that you charge a large fee. Make it excessive if you desire, but if you keep it down to a nominal fee for your services this will be taken to court."

While the conditions were not exactly displeasing the lawyer called for an explanation.

"It is to teach my wife a lesson," was the reply. "I have tried to show her that it is good business to pay cash. She insists you get better service if you let bills run, and I am very much opposed to careless and extravagant shopping. Now if I show her that her refusal to heed my advice has caused me to pay a big attorney fee, it may cause her to be more considerate in the future. So you put your figure high, or I won't settle."

The bill was paid.

Who gets in debt can always pay,
If earnestly he seeks a way.
—Old Mother Nature.

Sometimes folks pay their debts without knowing it. Sometimes they pay their debts without meaning to. It happened just so with Shadow the Weasel. In the first place, Shadow didn't know that he was in debt. He had killed one of Farmer Brown's Boy's hens, but he considered that that was his hen and not Farmer Brown's Boy's. He considered that Farmer Brown's Boy owed him for that hen. You will find that people are just like that all through life. That is why we have lawyers. But, of course, this has nothing to do with the story.

As you have already discovered, Shadow is something of a philosopher. If he couldn't have chicken for breakfast, he would be satisfied with Rat. As a matter of fact, a nice young Rat would suit him quite as well as a tough old hen. There is no accounting for tastes.

Shadow went over to Farmer Brown's barn and there was no trouble getting inside. There were dozens of places Shadow could get through. You know, Shadow is so slim that he can go through a very small hole. The moment he had got inside that barn he was glad he had come. He forgot all about hens. You see, the very instant he poked his head inside that barn he heard a young Rat squeal. He cocked his head to one side and listened. He heard the scampering of little feet behind the grain bin. He darted over there and put his nose to the floor. He smelled Rat. His eyes began to glow red. He licked his lips. "I hear a Rat, I smell a Rat, pretty soon I'll see a Rat, and then I'll taste a Rat," said Shadow, and started off with his nose to the floor, just as Bowser the Hound follows the trail of Red Fox.

It didn't take Shadow long to get his breakfast after that. You see there were a great many Rats in that barn. Farmer Brown had done his best to get rid of them, but they had been too much for him. Robber the Rat believes in big families and plenty of them. There is very little of the time that Robber and Mrs. Robber haven't a lot of babies in their home. Rat babies grow up very fast. The result is that it doesn't take very long for the Rats to become numerous that they do a great deal of damage and become very, very bold. It was this way when Shadow the Weasel arrived in Farmer Brown's barn.

It wasn't more than a day or two before Farmer Brown's boy discovered that something was happening in the barn. He heard squeaks of terror and a great racing about. He wondered what it meant; and then for just a second he caught a glimpse of something white. It disappeared in a rat hole. But that glimpse told Farmer Brown's Boy all he needed to know. "Shadow the Weasel!" he exclaimed. "He wasn't welcome in the henhouse, but he certainly is welcome here. I have an idea that he has paid already for that chicken he killed, especially as we had the chicken to eat. If he hasn't paid for it already, he will pay for it many times over. I hope he'll stay a while. Yes, sir, I hope that little scamp will stay a while."

Though, of course, Farmer Brown's Boy didn't know it, Shadow had already made up his mind that he would stay quite a while. It all depended on how the supply of Rats held out. This was good hunting, the best hunting that Shadow had had all winter.

(Copyright, 1926, by T. W. Burgess.)

The next story: "Danny and Nanny Meadow Mouse Get a Great Shock."

It didn't take Shadow long to get his breakfast after that

B	E	T		G	R	O	S	S		T	H	O
E	A	R	L		I	R	K		S	A	I	L
G	R	O	O	M	S		A	L	L	N	E	D
	S	P	O	O	K		T	O	I	L	S
F		I	S		S	U	E		D	O		S
R	A	C	E	S		P		P	E	R	C	H
O	N		I	F		W	E			O	O
T	Y	L	E	R		S		A	R	S	O	N
H		A	X		F	O	R		E	M		I
	S	H	R	I	M	E		L	I	L	A	C
A	R	I	S	E	N		A	N	I	M	A	L
F	L	A	T		C	A	T		C	E	D	E
T	N	T		D	E	M	O	N		S	S	E

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Company, Atlanta, Ga. (adv.)

FORTUNES IN FUR FARMING

$5000 to $10,000 yearly now being made with little effort raising fur bearing animals in spare time. Tremendous demand for pelts. Good breeders bring $1,000 to $4,000 per pair. Animals hardy and multiply rapidly. You, too, can share in enormous profits derived from fur farming. Ranch facilities provided by us if desired. Details and illustrated booklet FREE. Write Information Bureau 1040, Nottingham Bldg., Boston, Mass.

THE 49th ANNUAL MEETING OF THE UNITED WORKERS

Will be held in Park Church Parish House on Tuesday Afternoon, January 26th, at 3 o'clock.

Everyone is cordially urged to attend as this meeting is of interest to the community.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY TRINITY MEN'S CLUB

The men's club of Trinity Episcopal church held its annual meeting on Thursday evening in the church social room. The reports of the past year were read and accepted, the treasurer's report giving a substantial balance on hand. The officers were elected as follows:

President, Clarence R. Messinger; vice president, Henry F. Parker; secretary, Alexander P. Williams; treasurer, Leonard G. Partridge.

A talk on current topics was given by the rector, Rev. J. Eldred Brown, and a discussion followed. Refreshments were served after which the meeting adjourned.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

Mrs. Allyn L. Brown gave a tea Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Henry Saxton, of 327 Broadway are at Miami to pass the season.

The Thursday afternoon sewing club was entertained by Mrs. Edgar H. Allen, of Elmwood avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Turner Welles are giving a tea today (Saturday) at their home at Norwich Town.

Mrs. Phillip A. Johnson entertained at bridge Friday afternoon at her home, 407 Washington street.

Mrs. Gerard Parker, of Brookline, Mass., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Parker, of McKinley avenue.

Mrs. Henry H. Vignot entertained the Thursday Afternoon Auction Bridge club, the prize being won by Mrs. Frank A. Sisk.

Mrs. G. Morgan Browne has returned to New York, following a visit at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. Tyler Browne, on Broadway.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. John F. Rogers, of Washington Street entertained with two tables of auction, a number of friends coming in afterwards for tea.

The Benefit Whist club was entertained this week by Mrs. Thomas M. Shields of Crescent street. There were five tables, a guest prize and a club prize being given.

Judge and Mrs. Allyn L. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Briggs were guests at dinner Friday evening of Captain and Mrs. E. J. King, at the Sub-Marine Base, later attending one of the assemblies.

Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson Norton and their daughter, Miss Louise Tyler Norton, while in Rome have been entertained on several occasions by Mr. and Mrs. Traver Briscoe, who are now residents of the Eternal City, where Mr. Briscoe has established a law business.

MARRIED

PERRY-MANWARING—In Niantic, Conn., Jan. 21st, 1926, by Rev. J. R. Danforth, of New London, Joseph M. Perry, Jr., and Miss Edith Lillian Manwaring.

HEWLITT-SMITH—In Greenwich, Conn., Jan. 21st, 1926, Harold Hewlitt and Miss Jennie Smith, both of New London.

HINDS-POINDEXTER—In Glenville, Conn., Jan. 21st, 1926, by Rev. O. S. Beaumister, formerly of Willimantic, Peter J. Hinds, of Willimantic and Mrs. Nellie Poindexter, of Dalton, Ga.

DIED.

BLAIR—In Detroit, Mich., Jan. 22, 1926, Charles Edwin Blair, aged 38 years.

Funeral from the parlors of the United Congregational church Monday afternoon, Jan. 25, at 2:30.

ANDREW—In Baltic, Jan. 22, 1926, Jane Higgins, widow of James Andrew, aged 71 years.

Funeral from her late home, Depot Hill, Baltic, Monday, Jan. 25th, at 1 o'clock. Burial in Lowell, Mass. at convenience of the family. Please omit flowers.

HISCOX—Suddenly, in Griswold, Jan. 21, 1926, William E. Hiscox, aged 68 years.

Funeral at his home Monday afternoon at half past twelve. Burial in Rixtown cemetery.

NOTICE!

My wife, Armina Senecal, having left my bed and board without just cause, I hereby give notice that I will not be responsible for any bills or charges contracted by her after this date.

ALBERT SENECAL.

Westerly, R. I., Danielson, Conn., January 31, 1926.

1726 1926

Norwich, Saturday, Jan. 23, 1926

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 5.12 this evening.

Daboll's Almanac promises warmer weather for today (Saturday).

The First Baptist church reports a contribution of $42.41 toward the Near East Relief.

A herd of tan deer was recently seen on the premises of Mrs. Nellie Anthony, in Scotland.

Mrs. Floretta Yeager, of Rocky Hill has been a guest of Mrs. Annie B. Andrews in Rockville.

Buckingham Shop, $1 novelties 85c; $4.50 scarfs at $2.95.—adv.

James E. Lord has sent three entries of corn to the Hartford Show, which is to be held Jan. 26, to 29.

Arrivals at the Poinciana at Palm Beach include Miss Glenna Collett who has played on the local golf links.

Two new books in the history section of the Otis Library are Gwynn's "Ireland" and Von Hanstein's "The World of the Incas."

The mercury fell rapidly after noon Friday, temperature readings showing an average of 18 degrees at various points about town.

While crossing the railroad track at Shannock, John T. Barber caught his foot and was thrown heavily upon the road bed, injuring his leg.

A post-season for furs and fur coats has started in and with garments attractively priced, there should be some satisfactory sales today.

Dry goods men learn that there is a new and increasing demand for staple ginghams and that activity in this line is looked for from now on.

Lieutenant (jg) Jennings Courts, one of the new student officers at the Sub-Base has been ordered to the U. S. Naval Hospital at Brooklyn, N. Y.

Hear Rev. Charles H. Ricketts on "Prohibition" Sunday at 7.30 at Trinity Methodist church.—adv.

Traffic Officer Michael J. Carroll felt that Greenland had nothing on the Shannon Corner fixed post, during the keen wind of Friday afternoon.

Exposed places in the suburbs got the full force of Friday's gale, the wind being piercing, working great hardship to those obliged to be out of doors.

When the walks were cleared, after Friday's snow, Supt. John C. Donovan, had his men out sanding, as walking on many streets was a hazardous proposition.

The heavy rain early Friday morning was followed by hail which began about 6 o'clock. Later snow fell, so that the city was Spotless Town by breakfast time.

There is to be a civil service examination nfor second class steam electric engineman to fill vacancies in the custodian service, Newark, N. J., at $1,500 a year.

A Lebanon resident, George E. Martin was taken to the state hospital at Brewster's Neck Wednesday by Deputy Sheriff George Hoxie and Charles Perkins for observation.

Mrs. Otto Motsom of New York spent a day in Ashaway recently with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Miller. Mrs. Motsom left this week for Miami, Fla., to spend the winter.

At West Stafford, Mrs. L. V. Dimock is getting the names of those interested in rug weaving, because that community can have the use of the Farm Bureau loom in the spring.

"How Christ Helps Men Today" will be the Pastor's subject at the Central Baptist Church on Sunday evening.—adv.

The sudden cold Friday spurred up merchants to bring forward their remaining strictly winter stocks, especially of apparel, so that shoppers today are certain of genuine bargains.

Printed silk dresses are headed for a record breaking season, costume salesmen declare. The early demand for these dresses has been tremendous and is far ahead of last year at this time.

The January White Ribbon Banner says: "Already our state officers are looking forward to the state convention of 1926. One of the events desired for the program is a Grand Gold Medal Contest."

An Exeter, R. I., correspondent states that Mrs. Herbert Knight has returned from Moosup, Conn., where she visited for several days, also that Mrs. Emma Baton is visiting her sister, in Danielson.

The collection of rare Americana sold in New York this week from the library and effects of the late A. R. Turner, Jr., and Charles A. Munn included autograph letters of a native of Norwich, Benedict Arnold.

Private Raymond T. Ellis, Battery K, 11 Coast Artillery of Toland now on duty at Fort Wright as an enlisted man of Coast Artillery, Regular Army, was awarded fifth prize of .44 for his efforts in the small arms competition.

The Old Lyme Parent-Teachers' association, held a benefit card party Friday evening, Jan. 22, in the Memorial building. Miss May Wiggins was chairman of arrangements and Mrs. N. L. Sheffield chairman, of refreshments.

At Lord's Point during the storm early in the week the wind suddenly rose and burst like a hurricane, but lasted only a short time, while the rain came down in torrents. Some trees were broken and buildings damaged at Lord's Hill.

A nephew of the late David Hale Fanning who resides at the family home on Queen street, Worcester, is Walter Frederick Brooks, a former treasurer of the Royal Worcester Corset Co., who wrote the History of the Fanning Family.

The pupils of the eight rooms in St. Patrick's parish school contributed Friday a large truckload of clothing to be sent toward the Near East Relief, the Sisters who are their teachers encouraging them to special effort in this work.

Harvey Colburn of Westford had his leg severely bruised by getting it pinched between two logs while driving his load to the mill. The log being a large one, he was unable to move it, so he had to keep still until the next team came along.

The Vernon-Ellington Farmers' Exchange has elected these officers: President, E. S. Edgerton; secretary, Luther C. Skinner; treasurer, John T. McKnight; manager, H. H. McKnight; directors, George Webster, George Simpkins, Albert Newmarker, R. A. Sykes and R. E. Hyde.

Rev. Francis J. Kuster, formerly at St. Mary's church, Jewett City, now pastor of the Catholic church at Chester, has also under his charge the mission at Essex. His annual report shows that the revenue at Essex for the year was $1516.46 with an expenditure of $1127.32, leaving a balance of $389.14.

PERSONALS

Arthur Gager of Scotland, who has been ill with diphtheria is recovering.

Mrs. Amos J. Lillie of South Manchester, is visiting relatives in Lebanon.

Harold Martin of Uncasville is a surgical patient at the Backus hospital, Norwich.

Mrs. Luella T. Gager of Stonington, formerly of Norwich, is visiting relatives at Jackson Heights, L. I.

Rev. Myron E. Center, of Norwich, District Superintendent, is to hold the last quarterly conference at South Coventry, Feb. 3rd.

Mrs. Wilfred Scott and son, Allen, of Flanders, are to spend the week end with Mrs. Scott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Bruce, of Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Skinner, Mrs. John Kilroy and Mrs. Jennie Stanton of Norwich Town were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Northup in Stonington early in the week.

Mrs. William Augustus Leonard of Brooklyn, a summer resident at Gales Ferry, has sent friends an announcement of the marriage of her daughter, Laura Clarissa and Charles Bainbridge McKenzie, at Holy Trinity church, Brooklyn.

OBITUARY

Miss Anna Gyr

Following an illness of but a few weeks, Miss Anna Gyr, 26, of Colchester, died Friday morning, in this city. She was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., on Sept. 28, 1896, but for the past three years she has made her home in Colchester. She is survived her father, Martin Gyr of Colchester.

Charles Edwin Blair

Word was received in Norwich on Friday night of the death in Detroit, Mich., that evening at 8.20 o'clock of Charles Edwin Blair, a native of Norwich. He had been ill about two years. Mr. Blair was born in Norwich, May 24, 1887 and was the son of James and Mary Alice Hatfield. For sometime he was employed at the old Hopkins and Allen shop in this city, being a tool maker by trade. For the past 18 years he had been employed in Detroit, much of that time as a tool maker by the General Motors company. Mr. Blair was a member of the Odd Fellows, a Mason and during his residence in this city, a member of the former Broadway Congregational church, now the United church. He was unmarried.

He is survived by his parents, who reside on Sunnyside avenue, three sisters, Mrs. Raymond Snow of Springfield, Mrs. Alfred G. Bliven of this city, Mrs. Henry Roelfs of Lebanon, Colo., and three brothers, James Blair of Lynn, Mass., and John and William Blair of Norwich.

News of his death will be received with much regret by his many friends in this city.

Mrs. Elisha Loomis Palmer

Mrs. Cornelia Kissam Palmer, 82, widow of Elisha Loomis Palmer who died at New London Thursday was born in New York, the daughter of the late James and Adelene Kissam. In 1866 she married Mr. Palmer and came to Montville. Her charities were many. She leaves two daughters and a son.

FUNERALS

Mrs. Uriah S. Baton

With relatives and friends present the funeral of Mrs. Uriah S. Baton was held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the funeral parlors of Undertakers Church and Allen, No. 15 Main street. Rev. Edward C. Dunbar, pastor of the First Baptist church, conducted the service and burial took place in the family plot in Maplewood cemetery. The bearers were Charles F. Smith, Hugh Berryman, Robert S. Woodmansee and A. DeForrest Lincoln.

M. Angelo Barber

The funeral of Michael Angelo Barber was held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his home, No. 259 Laurel Hill avenue, with a very large attendance of relatives and friends. There were many beautiful floral remembrances. Rev. A. N. Foster, pastor of the Universalist church, conducted the service and burial took place in Yantic cemetery. Rev. Mr. Foster read a committal service at the grave. The bearers were Louis Guertin, Anthony Guertin, Frank Decker and S. W. Armstrong. Undertaker C. A. Gager had charge of the funeral arrangements.

For a number of years Mr. Barber has been in failing health and since October has been confined mostly to the house, an attack of acute Brights disease was the cause of his death. He was 73 years old.

Mr. Barber had been in business in this city for over fifty years and has been recognized as a mechanical expert and also as a man of unquestioned integrity. His kindly disposition won him a large circle of friends and he has always been ready to serve those needing a friend when ever that was possible. He was a member of the Arcanum club also for many years a member of the Church of the Good Shepherd in which he held the office of deacon.

Besides his widow he leaves the son by the first marriage, Clarence E. Barber, also a grandson, Sherman Barber and a brother, Rev. Elliot B. Barber, of Danbury.

WEDDING

Jencks-De Monte.

Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Miss Elaine Lovell De Monte of East Hartford, daughter of Ruth Lovell and the late Louis M. De Monte and Charles Edgar Jencks of East Hartford, son of the late Charles and Marie Jencks, were united in marriage in Hartford by Rev. Herbert J. White, pastor of the Central Baptist church. The couple were unattended. The bride was charmingly gowned in ashes of roses satin with hat to match and carried brides roses and lilies of the valley.

A buffet lunch was served at the home of the bride's mother to members of the intermediate families. The couple received many beautiful and useful gifts.

After a short honeymoon to New York, Atlantic City and Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Jencks will reside with the bride's mother at 14 Village street, East Hartford.

The bride formerly resided on Fairmount street this city.

POLICE RECOVER CAR STOLEN IN PROVIDENCE

Police investigation revealed the fact that a Chandler coach, 1924, found abandoned on a cross walk at Summer street and Laurel Hill avenue, Friday morning, had been stolen in Providence, R. I., Thursday night. The machine bears Rhode Island marker, 6-959. Its presence on the crosswalk was called to the attention of Policeman Daniel O'Neil and he notified Sergeant Myron O. Morgan, who was detailed to have the machine driven to a local garage.

Chief Linton immediately started an investigation and learned that the machine had been stolen Thursday night. The car is being held in this city pending instructions from the Providence police or the owner of the machine.

On Amherst Glee Club

B. Courtney Andrews and Russell Storms, of this city, and Capen Abbott, formerly of this city, are among the thirty-eight selected as the final choice of those to be on the Amherst College Glee club.

NORWICH MORE THAN FILLS CAR IN NEAR EAST BUNDLE DAY RESPONSE

Norwich made a magnificent response to the appeal for the bundle day for the Near East relief and more than reached the goal that had been set by the local committe, that of filling at least one box car with clothing and articles of wearing apparel that could be sent to the Near East where there is destitution in the way of warm clothing for this winter.

When the work of packing the car at the Laurel Hill freight yard of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad was ended late Friday afternoon, the car was crammed full to the limit, and it was known that there were still three or four truck loads to be collected from some of the schools.

The work of receiving and packing the car with the clothing as it was brought in by motor trucks was in charge of Henry Cutler Wolfe, who came here from the Hartford Near East headquarters to take charge of the shipment. Mr. Wolfe said Friday night that it was probable that the clothing which is yet to be collected would be made up into bundles and sent along in that form to the Near East Relief warehouse at the U. S. army base, Brooklyn, N. Y. The loaded freight car will be dispatched some time this (Saturday) afternoon. He estimated the receipt of clothing Friday at from 10 to 12 tons.

The first trucks began arriving at the freight car in the morning, the collection from Baltic being first to come in, followed by Jewett City, Yantic and Taftville. From 3 to 6 in the afternoon the clothing from the Norwich school collections arrived and at times there were three or four trucks waiting to be unloaded, Fire Chief Howard L. Stanton directed the routing of the trucks and a dozen Boy Scouts helped pack the clothing in the box car, jamming it in tight clear up to the roof. Three of the Scouts, John Cox, Anthony Kirker and Thomas Smith, stayed to finish and helped Mr. Wolfe put in the last and lock up the car just after 6 o'clock. They then went with Mr. Wolfe to fire department headquarters and were taken home by Deputy Chief Henry R. Taft in his automobile.

Mr. Wolfe commented upon the generally fine condition of the clothing that had been received, but said that shoes and clothing that was much worn was acceptable as these articles are all repaired or made over at the orphanages where the children learn a trade at the same time as they are preparing the material for use. Nineteen different trades are taught at the orphanages, including tailoring and shoemaking.

The clothing contributed from Norwich will be sent to Batum on the Black Sea, which is in Armenia.

Transportation of the contributed clothing from the school houses in the city was arranged by Charles F. Wells, motor trucks for this work being contributed by O'Neil Electric Co., Schwartz Bros., Fred S. Crowell, Hawkins the florist, Norwich Gas and Electric department through Earl Taggart, and Eastern Connecticut Power Co. through Edward A. Harris.

A member of the local committee expressed the thanks that is felt by them for the generous response to the appeal as follows:

"As often comes to pass Norwich and surrounding towns have again gone over the top. Thanks as often in the past to the school children and teachers, the ministers and priests, the Scouts and the business firms who loaned trucks and to the many friends of the Near East children and refugees who have contributed clothing and helped in the work of collecting and transporting it, to the car. It was hoped it might fill a box car. When darkness fell Friday afternoon one car was already full to overflowing and Norwich had gone over the top.

NEWSPAPER PUBLICITY LOCATED BEN COVEY

Developments on Friday revealed the fact that William Benjamin Covey, 23, of this city, who mysteriously disappeared from Norwich, Jan. 7th., enlisted the same day in New London and was sent to Fort Slocum, N. Y., where he is awaiting transfer to Texas February 11th. It was Corporal George R. Carroll, recruiting officer in New London, who solved the disappearance of Covey. He read a newspaper account of the young man's disappearance and recognizing him as a recruit he had signed up, notified his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Covey, of Freeman avenue, this city.

Acording to Corporal Carroll, Covey appeared at the postoffice building about 2 p. m., Jan. 7th., the day he left Norwich. He inquired about enlistments in the army and left, returning a few hours later and signing up. Then he told the corporal he had his machine, a coupe, with him. Corporal Carroll told him he could postpone his departure for Fort Slocum until the following day giving him time to return to Norwich and settle up his affairs. He seemed reluctant to return to Norwich and said he wanted to go that night. He offered to sign the machine over to the corporal as he wanted to go to New York the same night.

Friday Mr. Covey, the young man's father, and his brother, Harry A. Covey, of this city, went to New London to see the recruiting officer. They learned that as the young man is of age and has no one dependent upon him that he will have to serve his enlistment. There is said to be some question as to the ownership of the coupe. Covey, it is understood, signed the machine over to the corporal, who not being able to use it, turned it over to another man. This latter man has had some repairs made on it and has been using it since, and it is said he feels reluctant to part with it. The question is whether the machine belongs to the U. S. government, the recruiting corporal or the man whose possession it now is in.

FORESTERS BEGIN SERIES OF SOCIAL EVENINGS

Court City of Norwich, No. 63, Foresters of America, held a successful ladies' night with whist and pinochle party Friday evening in their rooms. There was a good attendance at the card party and the prizes were won as follows:

Pinochle: Ladies, first, Mrs. Louis Mitchell, 6,450; second, Miss Mary Walz, 6,030; third, Mrs. J. Walz, 5,090; men, first, Francis Kohanski, 6,370; second, H. Clement, 5,710; third, Joseph Ryan, 4,810.

Whist: Ladies, first, Mrs. Lawrence Collins, 36; second, Mrs. Cobiens, 33; third, Mrs. Joseph Cormier, 14; men, first, Edward J. McNerny, 36; second, Hector Gaucher, 32; third, Charles Lash (won on the cut with Fred Lafreniere.)

The committee in charge comprised Stanley Kohanski, Michael Duggan and J. R. Portelance, Jr. Refreshments and a social followed the awarding of the prizes. The court is planning to hold similar social events once a month. The usual weekly pinochle contest among the members will begin next week.

DELIGHTFUL SOCIAL BY TRINITY WESLEYAN GUILD

A social evening conducted Friday by the Wesleyan Guild of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church was greatly enjoyed by the good number attending. The attractive decorations followed a Japanese scheme and the programme opened with a well rendered solo by Mrs. Walter M. Buckingham after words of welcome from the Guild president, Mrs. Albert Boardman. A dramatic reading of Madame Butterfly by Mrs. Clara Turner Hammond of New London was a most enjoyable feature of the evening.

Refreshments were served, Miss Lena Haglund, Mrs. Ludwig Krumholts, Miss Hannah Haglund, Mrs. Charles Browning and Miss Anna Haglund pouring tea.

The refreshments were in charge of Mrs. E. J. Jones and Mrs. Andrew Crowe and the decorations in charge of Mrs. Jones.

CARDS AND DANCING BY FOREIGN WAR VETERANS

A very successful card party was held by R. E. Hourigan post, V. F. W., at their post rooms on Main St., Friday evening. The whist was held from 8.30 to 10.30 o'clock and there were 35 tables in play. The winners were: Ladies: first, Mrs. C. Hulk 50, second, Mrs. G. Jarvis 47, third, Mrs. Leo Jacques 14. Men, first G. A. Turner 47, second, Tom O'Connell 46, third U. Cates 13.

There were 10 tables at pinochle and the winners were as follows: Ladies. Mrs. McCarthy 6925, second, Miss B. Dumurad 6980, third Mrs. H. H. Davenport 5950, men first, G. Nadolny, 6995, second, E. Seigal 6560, third J. Pawelec 6085.

After the cards 35 couples enjoyed dancing until midnight. The committee in charge were H. King, F. Rodman, J. Pawelec, R. Cavanaugh.

BIBLE STUDY CLASS HELD AT Y. M. C. A.

"From trouble to triumph" was the topic of the interesting session of the Y. M. C. A. Bible class for men at its session Wednesday evening, the Scripture used was Mark 4:35 to Mark 5:20, the story of Jesus stilling the tempest on the water and casting the devils out of the demoniac.

Among other points the following were brought out:

Jesus was a very busy man; he lived out the injunction, "Whatsoever ye do, do it with thy might;" he was most industrious. He was of course human as well as divine; his humanity is indicated in that he became tired and also hungry. This storm was doubtless one of many such storms that occurred in that region in the time of Christ, and much the same there today. The disciples being filled with fear at the terrible storm on the sea, hurried to wake Jesus, and what they said to him indicates their criticism of Jesus and also shows that they believed he could help them; they had much less faith than they should have had since they had seen the marvelous things Jesus had done. Some claim that the wind probably naturally subsided at this particular time, and therefore it was not a miracle, but nothing short of a miracle could possibly have made the waves become calm so soon. Jesus not only rebuked the waves, but he also rebuked the disciples for their lack of faith. No real Christian man is ever justified in complaining of God's treatment of him. On our voyage over life's sea we have the privilege of companionship of the great pilot Jesus Christ. The Master just as easily drove the devils out of the demoniac as he stilled the angry waves, both acts coming distinctly under the head of miracles. The man whom Jesus restored to normality at once proceeded to tell his friends what Jesus had done for him; likewise every Christian man should be only too glad to tell likewise what Jesus has done for him.

MUSICALE BY PUPILS AT FONTAINE STUDIO

Friday afternoon at four o'clock, twenty-five students, comprising the Academy and summer school piano classes of Henry LaFontaine gave an impromptu musicale in the studio.

Each played his own number with understanding and a sense of the musical content, evidencing application and earnest study. Melody playing, shadings, technical passages and interpretive ability were admirable points of the afternoon's music as voted by an observer. Mr. LaFontaine is to be congratulated on this portion of his class showing. Miss Mary Benly acted as hostess, assisted by Isabella Vignot in serving refreshments. Master Raymond Coyle was in charge of the cloak room. Sherrod Ingalis announced the numbers and introduced the performers. The affair is the first of three to be given, culminating in a public recital. Master Robert Tongren, the youngest student, was an interested spectator. Other members of this class include Misses Alice Brennan, Emily Bliven and Mary LaFontaine, who were prevented by various reasons from attending.

Following is the programme:

Purple Pansies	Fearis
Agnes Kilroy
Impromptu	Schubert
Dorothy Vergason
Told at Twilight	Huerter
Raymond Coyle
La Coqueta	Fowler-Judd
Barbara Taylor
Scarf Dance	Chaminade
Emma Thompson
Canzone Amoroso	Nevin
Isabella Vignot
Berceuse from Jocelyn	Godard
Mary Bentley
Nautilus	McDowell
Dorothy Harris
Polonaise in C Sharp Minor	Chopin
Anna Coleman
Western Romance	Huerter
Janice Richards
Country Dance
Catherine Dutton
Soldier March	Heller
Jean Leslie
Sonata Pathetique, 1st Movement	Beethoven
Frances Dembo
Seconde Valse	Godard
Blanche Lucier
Spring's Greeting	Jones
Miriam Sullivan
Evening Invocation
Sherrod Ingalls
Mountain Spring	Bohm
Mary Foley
Morning Prayer	Streabbog
Fannie La Pierre
Etude	Arensky
Ruth Drechser
Valse de Ballet	Williams
Anna Mahoney
Silver Elves	Heins
Hannah Ogulnick
Caprice	Huerter
Eileen Krauss

Truth is stranger than fiction—and lots of people are averse to associating with strangers.

Rub on Sore Throat

Musterole relieves sore throat quickly. Made with oil of mustard, it is a clean, white ointment that will not blister like the old-fashioned mustard plaster.

Just spread it on with your fingers. Gently but surely it penetrates to the sore spot and draws out the pain.

To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

MUSTEROLE

BETTER THAN A MUSTARD PLASTER

EDUCATIONAL EVANGELISM IS NEED IN CHINA

An address of Educational Evangelism in China, comparing China of the past with China of today, was delivered Friday evening to a gathering of Baptists from Norwich and vicinity at the Central Baptist church by Dr. George A. Huntley, returned missionary from China. Dr. Huntley has been delivering addresses throughout the east and this was the final lecture he will deliver in this part of the country. Early this (Saturday) morning Dr. Huntley left for New York, taking the 3:48 o'clock train from New York, whence he will go to Chicago where he is scheduled to speak next.

The meeting, with an attendance of about 50, was held in Bushnell Chapel and was opened about 7:45 o'clock by Rev. David A. Pitt, D. D., pastor of the church.

The singing was led by Rev. E. L. Neal of Uncasville and prayer was offered by Rev. J. F. Speerli of Fitchville. Dr. Huntley was introduced by Rev. Dr. Pitt. This is my last address in the east, he said. I have been here a month and I am leaving for Chicago early Saturday morning. I am going to talk to you tonight on Educational Evangelism in China. Very few nations have shown such profound respect for education as have the Chinese. The scholar in that country is the elite, the aristocrat. Then comes the farmer, the artisan, and at the very bottom of the list is the soldier.

Unless there is a very great change, China can never become a great military nation. A soldier in the Chinese opinion is one that could hardly command respect. It is the ambition of every Chinese family to have at least one scholar in the family. China has the reputation of being the most illiterate nation on the earth, only one in ten of the men and boys can read and about 3 in 1,000 women and girls can read. The illiteracy is therefore about 95 per cent.

One can hardly imagine the ignorance that existed in that country when I went there 35 years ago. In 1905 the most remarkable edict in the histroy of China was issued by the empress dowager. She consigned to the scrap heap the educational system that had existed 2,000 years. That brought about a great change. Before that time the Chinese schools taught that the Chinese empire was the center of the world and the other "minor" countries, such as the United States, England, France, etc., were in reality subject to China. Under the new edict temples were turned into schools for the new education.

In the old days the eclipse of the moon was thought by the Chinese to be the heavenly dog trying to eat up the moon. The opinion was that the heavenly dog was prevented from eating up the moon by the priests ringing bells through the streets and by the boys and girls yelling at the top of their lungs. Today you will see boys and girls watching an eclipse of the moon with note books and pencils in hand, gathering data to be discussed at a science class the next day.

These changes in the educational system have brought about a new era for the women of China. We are looking for material to educate the Chinese. Where are we going to get this material? From the home of the ignorant? No, we are going to get this education from the educated Christian homes.

It is right for the strong to help the weak. We are a strong nation and China is a weak nation. China has 65,000,000 children of school age and there are 60,000,000 children without schools. Here is a chance for us to help. China needs Jesus Christ. That is the greatest need of China today. Mere western education is not enough. It must have Christ in it through and through. In our mission schools we are teaching teachers, training them so that they can go out and teach in similar schools. China needs a million and a half teachers.

At the conclusion of his very instructive talk Dr. Huntley answered several of questions regarding the political and nationalistic situation in China today.

Just before the meeting closed announcement was made that the Preston City Baptist church had been awarded the prize for having the largest delegation present at the meeting. The prize, a book, The Pupil and the Teacher, was presented by Cleland Degrenier. The closing prayer was offered by Rev. Edward C. Dunbar, pastor of the First Baptist church.

During the afternoon Dr. Huntley addressed about 35 juniors at a meeting in Bushnell chapel.

LIQUOR VIOLATION CHARGE AGAINST YANTIC ST. WOMAN

Victoria Jusak, who resides on Yantic street, was arrested Friday night by the local police on a charge of violation of the liquor law. She was booked at police headquarters and was later released on bonds of $1,000. Her case will be taken up at the session of the city court this (Saturday) morning.

Hans Carl Gunther Von Jagemann

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 23—(AP)—Hans Carl Gunther Von Jagemann widely known philologist, and long widely known philologist, and long connected with the faculty of Harvard university, is dead at his home here. It was learned today. Death occurred last night after a several months' illness.

He was born in Grottkau, Germany, sixty-six years ago.

He was the author of many articles and text books on the Germanic and Romance languages.

Birds Great Travelers

The journeys undertaken by some birds are really marvelous. The tiny goldcrest—the smallest European bird—weighing but a dram, and some other avian Lilliputians cross the waters of the North Sea on dark November nights, while some species of sandpipers migrate from islands well within the Arctic Circle to New Zealand and Cape Horn. These wonderful aerial feats are undertaken by birds barely three months old. The Arctic tern, a common sea swallow, flies almost from pole to pole twice a year.

—From the London Discovery.

Don't measure your industry by the thing you are going to do to-morrow.

THIS WOMAN BEGINS MONDAY

with a telephone instead of with a wash tub

And she ends it with a smile instead of a backache. Because she is calling for our

ROUGH DRY SERVICE

which will return all her flat pieces; such as spreads, sheets, slips, etc., nicely washed and ironed; and all the body clothes washed in pure soap and water, and starched, fluffed and dried.

Only Costs 60c per dozen 50 pieces $2.00.

Smile With Over 1,000 Other Norwich Housewives Who Call 831 Each Week.

TROY LAUNDRY

282 FRANKLIN ST.

COMMISSION WARNS RICKARD THAT HE IS FACING TROUBLE IN PROPOSED BOUT

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—(AP)—The state athletic commission today took a hand in projected plans for a Dempsey-Tunney title match next summer and warned Tex Rickard, in effect, that he is "playing with fire" if, as generally believed, he is negotiating for the bout while Dempsey still is on the ineligible list here.

The commission took no formal action in the absence of any official confirmation of either Rickard's reported negotiation or his statement yesterday that he was not subject to the boxing rulers' authority in this respect. At the same time James A. Farley chairman of the commission, made it clear that he considered Rickard fully subject to the board's jurisdiction, that it frowned unqualifiedly on any negotiations for a Tunney-Dempsey match so long as Harry Wills is on record here as the champion's official challenger and that the promotor would find himself "in bad" if he takes any steps calculated to violate the commissions rulings.

The fact that Rickard is understood to contemplate matching Dempsey and Tunney for a battle at his Jersey City arena, Boyle's thirty acres, instead of in New York State, does not alter the situation in Farley's view, so long as the promoter is in business here.

Chairman Farley outlined the boards' stand on the Dempsey fight as follows:

"Dempsey is ineligible with this board because he ignored our demands that he answer a challenge from Harry Wills. We believe Wills to be Dempsey's logical challenger and we will not sanction a match between Dempsey's logical challenger and we will not sanction a match between Dempsey and any other challenger.

"And we demand that Dempsey meet Wills in a state where they can fight to a decision. We don't care where it is as long as a decision is rendered.

Asked what step the commission would take in the event I received official information that Rickard has been dickering with Dempsey, chairman Farley said: We'll cross that bridge when we come to it."

The commission announced that it had received a telegram from Billy Gibson, Tunneys manager, explaining that his conference with Rickard on Wednesday was for the purpose of matching Tunney with "a logical heavyweight" at the Garden, March 14. Following the receipt of this telegram the commission ruled that Tunney must fight in this state before March 15 or find himself classed with Dempsey among the ineligibles.

In this connection the commission announced receipt of a letter from Tunney himself, expressing willingness to fight Jack Sharkey of Boston at the Garden but explaining that difficulties over financial terms between Gibson and Garden officials had held up definite arrangements.

TUNNEY KNOWS NOTHING OF PROPOSED BOUT

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 22.—(AP)—Gene Tunney, heavyweight boxing contender, tonight denied knowledge of any contract matching him with Jack Dempsey for a championship bout at any time or any place.

When shown dispatches from both New York and Philadelphia by an Associated Press respresentative, Tunney laughingly remarked that he had not signed to meet the present titleholder, who is also enjoying a brief vacation here, but added that he was ready to step into the ring at any moment.

"During the past several weeks, I have received flattering offers from our well known promoters for a match with Dempsey. One of these bids, especially attractive, was made by a promoter who is prominent in the game, but it was not Tex Rickard," Tunney declared.

Dempsey, occupying a private suite at Miami Beach hotel, with his wife, was as inaccessible as ever tonight. His representatives steadfastly refused to comment on either the Philadelphia or New York reports and issued again the ultimatum: "We will not speak for publication."

QUAKER CITY PROMOTERS MAKE OFFER FOR TITLE BOUT

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 22—(AP)—Philadelphia promoters, with the approval of the Pennsylvania State Athletic commission, today offered Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, $500,000 to meet Harry Wills in this city or $300,000 for a bout with Gene Tunney. Either bout would be held during the coming summer in the new municipal stadium, which will have a seating capacity of 100,000 persons. The stadium is part of the Sesqui-Centennial building program and is now nearing completion.

The offer was wired to Dempsey in Miami, Fla., by Hermen Taylor and Robert Gunnis after a meeting in the offices of the athletic commission. The promoters announced that they were ready to post a certified check with any local bank and that if they received a favorable reply from the champion they would go to Florida to discuss details of the match with Dempsey.

Tunney to Become Officer

NEW YORK, Jan. 22—(AP)—Gene Tunney, challenger for the heavyweight title, will be commissioned a lieutenant in the United States Marine corps at the sports testimonial dinner in the Hotel Roosevelt on February 16, Governor Alfred Smith and Mayor James J. Walker are among the invited guests.

TODAY'S SPORTS

RACING

Meeting of Louisiana Jockey Club, at New Orleans.

Meeting of Miami Jockey Club, at Miami, Fla.

Meeting of Tia Juana Jockey Club, at Tia Juana.

Meeting of Havana-American Jockey Club, at Havana.

SKATING

Tenth annual Silver Skates Derbies, at Chicago.

New England amateur championships, at Worcester.

SWIMMING

National A. A. U. junior 300-yard relay for men, at Buffalo.

National A. A. U. women's indoor pentathlon, at Buffalo.

TRACK

Annual indoor games of Brooklyn College, Brooklyn, N. Y.

WHIST

Northwest Whist Association tournament closes at Minneapolis.

CURLING

Northwestern Curling Association bonspiel closes at St. Paul.

GOLF

St. Augustine championship tournament closes at St. Augustine.

Annual Halifax tournament closes at Ormond Beach, Fla.

GAS & ELEC. DEPT. LEAGUE

Meter Dept

Brown	93	97	73	263
O'Neil	95	81	90	266
Sullivan	69	78	89	236
Coughlin	74	89	73	236
Brummet	92	90	113	295
	423	435	438	1295

Sales Dept

Lee	57	75	75	207
Sheehan	67	71	77	215
Giver	84	79	87	250
Houlihan	71	64	74	203
Kilrow	64	81	84	229
	343	370	397	1110

No. 1 Station

Cannon	79	66	74	219
Avery	65	80	67	212
Willet	67	71	75	213
Filburn	67	74	88	229
Tubbs	88	98	68	248
	366	369	376	1100

Gas House

Irby	65	66	66	196
Sharples	87	87	79	253
Shanley	90	77	85	252
Devigman	87	91	93	271
Hoffman	93	78	75	246
	382	382	380	1145

Line Crew

Grady	69	70	81	220
Frisbie	82	72	70	224
Keenan	92	92	94	277
Filburn	88	105	92	285
Bowker	84	89	93	266
	425	425	431	1283

Office

Spaulding	77	88	90	255
Pierce	82	79	77	238
Taggart	91	91	78	260
Lawrence	81	82	73	216
Rich	106	90	83	283
	377	400	398	1175

AT JEWETT CITY ALLEYS

(Corrected Score)

ASHLAND

Lafeve	99	110	95—	304
Gaudette	114	97	116—	317
Gingras	102	91	114—	307
Gilbert	82	110	114—	306
Harris	86	143	129—	357
Jarvis	105	117	97—	321
Total	589	658	665	1912

RIVERVIEW

Mills	106	92	109—	307
Erickson	108	104	83—	295
Moore	107	85	107—	299
Gaudette	94	107	94—	295
West	92	114	124—	331
Wilcox	105	126	106—	337
Total	613	630	625	1868

BALTIC BEATS DANIELSON TOWNERS IN CLOSE GAME

Friday evening at the Baltic court, the Danielson Town team was defeated 22 to 17 in a fast game marked by exceptional teamwork on the part of the Baltic players. Red Charron was the scoring star of the game getting four baskets from the floor while Gauthier was a close second with three baskets and two fouls. Blakeley was the star man for the visitors.

In the preliminary game the Taft-Bantams 16 to 9 in a fast contest. The summary:

Baltic

	G.	F.	Pts.
W. Robertaille, rf.	1	1	3
W. Robertaille, rf.	1	1	3
Gauthier, lf.	3	2	8
Charron, c.	4	0	8
Condy, rg.	1	1	3
R. Robertaille, lg.	0	0	0
	9	4	22

Danielson

	G.	F.	Pts
T. Reeves, rf.	1	2	4
Blakeley, lf.	3	0	6
Keach, c.	0	1	1
Poirier, rg.	0	2	2
Godreau, lg.	3	2	8
	7	7	17

THREE AMERICANS STILL IN CANADIAN RACQUETS

MONTREAL, Que., Jan. 22—(AP)—With the competition for the singles in the Canadian amateur racquet tournament, down to the semifinals, a lone Canadian, A. S. Cassils remains to battle for the honors against three American players—C. J. Coulter and P. Wharton, of Boston, and C. C. Pell, of New York. Cassils, paired with A. Wilson, of Montreal, is still in the running for the doubles honors.

Cassils won his game in the singles this afternoon in rather easy fashion, defeating H. C. Clark, of Boston, three straight games, 15-1, 15-4, 15-12. Tomorrow he will play against Wharton, while Coulter will meet Pell.

The doubles match won by Cassils and Wilson against Coulter and C. Huthins was the outstanding contest of the day's play.

Ingram Resigns as Coach

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 22—(AP)—William A. "Navy Bill" Ingram today resigned as football coach at Indiana university, according to announcements made here tonight by Zora G. Clevenger, athletic director at a joint meeting of alumni and members of the athletic board here.

Boland Vs. Lyon

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Jan. 22—(AP)—James F. Boland of Rahway, New Jersey, and J. Herman Lyon, of this city, today won the semi-final matches of the St. Augustine amateur golf tournament. They will meet tomorrow in thirty-six hole final.

College Swimming

At Williamstown, Mass.: Williams 44, Boston university 8.

College Basketball

At Cambridge, Mass.: Colgate 33, Harvard 28.

PLAINFIELD BEATS JEWETT CITY BY TWO POINTS IN OVERTIME BATTLE

PLAINFIELD, Jan. 22—It took the Plainfield Town team an extra five minutes to beat the Jewett City Pros-Steamroller team here tonight in the second game of the series between the local five and the Jewett City team, the final score being 24 to 22. The largest crowd of the season saw the fast and most hard fought basketball struggle in many years. At no time during the game was either team in a commanding position.

Both teams played brilliant basketball and it was Mondi Normandin who in the fast waning minutes of the game saved the day. With less than a minute to play Mondi received the ball in mid-floor and not daring to take the time to pass the ball looped a beautiful basket for the tying point. Just as the ball dropped into the basket the final whistle blew ending the contest.

In the five-minute overtime period Norris dropped in a basket from the floor and then the locals played a defensive game that prevented the Jewett City team from getting possession of the ball. It was a game that will long be remembered by local followers of the sport and shows that the Plainfield team is the leading team in the eastern part of the state as this is the second time this season that the locals have beaten the Steamroller aggregation, each time by two points.

In the preliminary game the Plainfield Buddies won an easy victory over the Jewett City seconds, 24 to 13. Next week Plainfield plays the Purple Collegians of Worcester. The summary:

Plainfield

	G	F	Pts
Normandin, rf	1	0	2
Dissinger, lf	3	1	7
Norris, c	2	0	4
Madden, rg	1	2	4
Benson, lg	3	1	7
Totals	10	4	24

Jewett City

	G	F	Pts
Allen, rf	4	0	8
Butler, rf	1	0	2
Peirri, lf	0	0	0
Brousseau, lf	2	0	4
Walkenshaw, c	0	0	0
Garvey, rg, c	2	0	4
Golembesky, lg	2	0	4
Totals	11	0	22

HELEN DISPLAYS FINE FORM AGAINST MRS. AESCHLIMANN

CANNES, France, Jan. 22.—(AP)—Smiling for the first time since she began playing on the Riviera courts, Miss Helen Wills, American tennis champion, today smashed her way to victory over Mrs. C. F. Aeschlimann, formerly Miss Leslie Bancroft, after two hard-fought sets in the Metropole tournament. The score was 6-2, 7-5.

"At last I am coming into my own", said Miss Wills after defeating the ranking American player who won from her three times in 1922 and 1923. "This was a satisfactory match, but I can do better," she added.

The popularity of the American champion was exemplified when court No. 3, where Mlle Lenglen was playing in the mixed doubles with Jacques Brugnon as her partner was absolutely deserted as soon as Miss Wills and Mrs. Aeschlimann began their match.

Mrs. Aeschlimann started like a whirlwind, taking two out of the first three games. Miss Wills appeared to be puzzled by her opponent's slow-tantalizing game, but she soon got her spit-fire drive going and overwhelmed her.

Mlle. Lenglen declared that the American girl looked better today than at any time since her arrival on the Riviera. "But" she added, "I will give you my opinion after she has met Mlle. Vlasto." Mlle Vlasto, French player, was defeated by Miss Wills in the finals of the women's singles in the Olympic games in 1924.)

Miss Cadle, of England, is to meet Mlle. Vlasto in the semi-finals, while Miss Wills is to play against Mlle. Henriette Contostavros, and the tennis experts say that it looks like Miss Wills against Mlle. Vlasto in the finals.

CHICAGO PLEASED AT GETTING ARMY-NAVY GAME

CHICAGO, Jan. 22—(AP)—Announcement that the Army-Navy football game next Nov. 27 had been awarded to Chicago brought expressions of appreciation and enthusiasm from the mayor and the highest navy and army officers in this area.

"I know I speak the opinion of the people of Chicago when I say we appreciate greatly the fine courtesy extended to Chicago by the president and the army and navy departments in awarding the Army-Navy football game for next fall to Chicago," said Mayor William E. Dever. "I am sure the people of Chicago will show in a very definite way when the game is held their appreciation of this courtesy."

The game will be played at Soldiers' Field the new $3,000,000 municipal stadium, which now has a seating capacity of 60,000. A $2,000,000 addition, which would provide a seating capacity of several thousand more is planned.

BARBER WILLING TO BOWL BOZO AT DANIELSON ALLEYS

"Bozo" Bitunyac, who claims his home is in Pittsburgh and who is sojourning in these parts, said Friday evening that he would roll Frankie Barber at any time the Danielson boy was agreeable, Bozo, who has beaten Fido O'Brien, former state champion, wishes to roll Barber strings on the Danielson alleys and ten strings on a neutral alley.

Frankie Barber, when informed of Bozo's challenge, said that he would bowl Bitunyac in a ten string match at the Danielson alleys next Wednesday or Thursday night for a side bet of $100. In regards to giving Bozo a match on other alleys Barbar stated that O'Brien and Anderson or any of the other bowlers were not giving the Pittsburgh pin crasher a match on alleys out of town, so why should he. "If Bitunyac wants to bowl me he will have to come to my alleys the same as he does in other parts of the state," said Barber in closing.

BROTHER AGAINST BROTHER IN GAME AT STORRS TONIGHT

(Special to The Bulletin.)

STORRS, Jan. 22.—The Connecticut Aggie five will play its second hard game of the week tomorrow night, meeting Union at Schenectady, N. Y. in a contest that will bring the two Makofski brothers together on the same court as opponents.

William Makofski is captain and center on the Aggie five, while his brother Sigmund is forward on the Union quintet. Both are stars and high scorers on their respective teams, which should inject an added bit of interest into what promises to be a fast battle.

No Games For Nutmegs

The Nutmegs basketball team will not play this week-end as no game has been arranged for them. The Nutmegs would like to arrange an out of town game with any fast club to be played on the latter's court next week. Answer through this paper.

Hoxie Wins

BELLAIR HEIGHTS, Fla., Jan. 22—(AP)—A. H. Hoxie, golf editor of The Boston Post, won the annual January open tournament which closed here today, defeating H. F. B. Davis, of New York, 6 and 5.

SPORT WORLD BRIEFS

Willie Ritola, the "Flying Finn" is a carpenter by trade.

Johnny Weismuller smashed 50 swimming records before he was 20 years old.

Stanford university is financing three new dormitories from athletic profits.

Arne Borg, the great Swedish swimmer, is the son of a former chief of police of Stockholm.

St. Louis claims to have more of its residents in the major baseball league than any other city.

Joe Wolcott, the former welterweight champion, once offered to fight Jim Jeffries for the heavyweight crown.

Jack Dempsey made more money in one fight than did Jim Jeffries in his whole career as the heavyweight champion.

Herbert Houben, the German champion who has come over to test the speed of American sprinters is twenty-eight years old.

The annual relay carnival of the University of Pennsylvania attracts the largest number of entries of any set of athletic games.

It is said that students from Mercersburg, Pa., Academy have held more world's interscholastic track records than athletes from any other school.

Willie Keeler, one of the greatest baseball players of his day, always claimed that a scientific batter could outwit most of the so-called great pitchers.

The famous Aqueduct track, home of the Queens County Jockey club, which is soon to be closed permanently, is notable for having the longest straight stretch of any race track in the world.

Baseball men the country over will await with considerable interest the outcome of the experiment to be made by the Pacific Coast League the coming season in placing two clubs in each of the cities of San Francisco and Los Angeles.

It is not generally known that Knute Rockne, the great Notre Dame football coach, was seriously considered for the post at Columbia University when Haughton was engaged. In fact, it was not until the last ballot that the Columbia athletic board of managers decided on the former Harvard coach.

Adolfo Luque, veteran Cuban pitcher of the Cincinnati Reds, underwent an operation for appendicitis in Havana last week. Luque had suffered several attacks, but his case became acute this time and an immediate operation was declared necessary.

Shreveport of the Texas League, has sent Third Baseman Tex Westerzil and Infielder Comeaux to Texarkana of the East Texas League, for Shortstop Taylor Phelps. Westerzil will manage the Texarkana team, which is now a farm for Shreveport.

Buck Friel, business manager of the Tulsa Club of the Western League, has announced the sale of Pitcher Billy Bayne, southpaw, to the Atlanta club of the Southern League. Bayne was with the St. Louis Browns before being turned over to Tulsa.

Myles Thomas, pitcher, recently obtained from the Toronto club of the International League, by the Yankees, signed a contract last week. Walter Pipp, Herb Pennock and Babe Ruth were the only Yankees at the time known to have signed up for 1926.

Denver of the Western League, is understood to be negotiating for the purchase of Third Baseman Chester Fortier, Catcher Jack Banner, First Baseman Andy Anheier and Pitcher Dick Humphries of the Austin Club of the Texas Association. The players were recommended to Denver by Jack Ashton.

Jim Shidecker, a young first baseman from Columbus, O., has signed a contract with the Springfield Club of the Western Association. He is a six-footer who batted .480 in the Eastern Ohio independent league last year. Frank Caporal, a left-handed pitcher from Union, N. Y., is another addition to the Midgets.

Oscar Vitt, manager of the Salt Lake team of the Pacific Coast League, has announced the signing of Oscar (Snowy) Sandberg, young semi-pro pitcher of Oakland. He has the reputation of having fanned 30 men in a game last season. It is said to be a common event for him to strike out 15 batters in a game.

E. H. (Dutch) Zwilling, veteran outfielder, is in line for the management of the Lincoln team of the Western League. Secretary Charley Moon of the Links, has recommended him to President Larry Arnold for the job. Zwilling has been serving as coach of the Kansas City team, but is at liberty to make a change if he gets something he wants.

Catcher Ray Schalk of the Chicago White Sox, went to Madison, Wis., last week to confer with George Little, director of athletics at the University of Wisconsin, regarding coaching the varsity baseball players. If arrangements are made, Schalk will be with Wisconsin until such time as he is required to report to the Sox at the Shreveport training camp.

Outfielder Edgar C. (Sam) Rice of the Senators, walked into Clark Griffith's office last week and signed his contract. Rice has been with the Washington team since 1915 and has always paid a personal visit to the office to put his "John Hancock" on the document. Furthermore, he has never had any trouble about the terms. Nick Altrock also signed up during the week.

SUNDAY SUBJECTS

At the Church of the Good Shepherd—Universalist, Rev. A. N. Foster, minister. Morning worship at 10.45 o'clock. Sermon by the minister. Subject "The Essence of Cooperation." Music by the vested choir. Church school at 12. Subject in men's class, "Lessons from the Life of Benjamin Franklin." Young People's Christian Union at 6.30.

At the First Congregational church, Norwich Town, morning worship at 10.30 a. m., sermon theme, The Sacred and the Secular. Church school at 12. The Young People's service at 6.30 conducted by Missionary committee.

At the Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. J. Harlow Graham, pastor. Morning worship at 10.30 a. m. with sermon "Knowing Your Bible II" Church school at 12.00; Norwich Everyman's Bible class at 12.00; Edwin H. Floyd, president, topic "An Interpretation of Christ." Evening service at 7.30, Rev. Charles H. Ricketts will speak on "Prohibition in America."

At Mt. Calvary Baptist church. All day rally Sunday, preaching morning and evening by Rev. C. P. Powell of New York. Afternoon at 3 o'clock, preaching by Rev. D. A. Brown, pastor of McKinley avenue A. M. E. Zion church. Choir will be assisted by Zion choir. Sunday school at 12.15.

At the First Evangelical Lutheran church. Service beginning Sunday at 10.30 sharp. Singing by the choir. The topic of the pastor H. Hunsinger will be "The Victory of Faith." According to Matthew 8:1-13. After the service Sunday school and Bible class in the church parlors.

At the First Baptist church, Rev. Edward C. Dunbar, minister. 10.30 morning worship. Sermon "The Worth of Jesus." 12.00 Church school with graded Bible classes for all ages. 6.30 Young People's service. 7.30 evening worship with sermon. Topic, "The Way of Pleasantness and Peace."

At the McKinley Ave., A. M. E. Zion church, Rev. Dixon A. Brown, pastor. Prayer and praise service 10.45 church school at 12.15, evening service 7.45, subject, The Imperative of the Gospel.

At the Central Baptist church, Rev. David S. Pitt, D. D., pastor, 10.00 a. m. Italian morning worship, Rev. V. Panizzoli, pastor. 10.30 a. m. morning worship. Service of consecration for church school officers and teachers. 11.00 a. m. Italian Sunday school. 12.00 m. Church school. City Men's Bible class in auditorium. Main school in prayer meeting room. Juniors in parish house. 6.30 p. m. B. Y. P. U., "The Church Under Lock and Key." Leader, Earl Davey. Special speaker, Mr. Harold S. Burt. 7.30 p. m. Evening worship. Community sing "How Christ Helps Men Today."

At Christ church, Third Sunday after Epiphany. Holy eucharist omitted, junior church 9.15 a. m., morning prayer and sermon 10.30, church school 9.45 a. m. Young people's fellowship league 6 p. m. Meeting to be led by Clifford Moody.

At St. Andrews Episcopal church, morning prayer at 10.30, conducted by the lay reader, Sunday school at 12.

At the Spiritual Academy, Park St., Charles A. Dowsett, presiding officer. Mrs. Nettie Holt Harding, speaker and medium. Sunday 2.30-7.30 p. m.

At the Greeneville Congregational church, Sunday morning, the preaching service will be held as usual at 10.30 and will be conducted by the pastor. Sunday school will meet at 12 o'clock.

At Trinity Episcopal church, third Sunday after Epiphany, 9.30 a. m., holy communion, 10.30 morning prayer and sermon, 12 o'clock church school.

At Park Congregational church, sermon at morning service at 10.30 by the pastor. Sunday school at noon.

At Christian Science chapel, 218 Thayer building. Sunday service at 10.45, subject Truth. Sunday school at 11.45 open to pupils up to age of twenty.

At the United Congregational church Alexander H. Abbott, minister. 10.30 morning worship. Mr. Abbott will preach. Church school at noon. Home time for young people, community house, at 6.30, when James L. Case will speak on "What's Doing in Norwich."

NEW LONDON COUNTY

Pawcatuck, Congregational church, Rev. Ernest E. Morrill, pastor. Morning worship at 10.30 o'clock, subject, The Right of Way. Junior Christian Endeavor at 11.15 a. m. Sunday school at 11.45 a. m. Senior Christian Endeavor society at 6.30 o'clock. Evening service at 7.30 o'clock with sermon subject, Foundation and Superstructure.

Gospel Hall, West Broad street, Christians gathering in the name of the Lord. Morning worship at 10.30 o'clock. Sunday school and Bible class at 3 p. m. Evening worship and gospel service at 7.30 o'clock.

Mission, West Broad street, Saturday evening prayer and testimony meeting at 7.30 o'clock, leader Mrs. John Parker. Sunday school at 9 a. m.

Clarkeville, Chapel, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, speaker, Rev. Arnt L. Schoning, pastor of the Broad street Christian church.

Seventh day Adventist church, Lester avenue. Sabbath school Saturday at 3 p. m. Sabbath morning worship with preaching by Elder Charles Lillie.

Fitchville, Baptist, J. F. Speerli, pastor, 11 a. m. worship and sermon, The Peril of Drifting with the Current. 12 m. Bible school. 6.30 p. m. C. E. society. 7.00 p. m. Illustrated lecture, Seeking Goodly Pearls.

Leffingwell, Baptist church, Rev. W. B. Oakley, pastor, morning worship at 11 o'clock, subject, Lot's Choice. B. Y. P. U. at 7.30 p. m., leader Rev. Mr. Oakley, topic, The Church Under Lock and Key, 2nd Peter 3:14-18.

Hampton, First Congregational church, Rev. W. L. Muttart, pastor, morning worship at 11 o'clock, Sermon topic, The Genius to Recognize God. Church Bible school at 12.15 p. m. C. E. meeting at 7.30 p. m.

WINDHAM COUNTY

Wauregan, Congregational church, Rev. William Fryling, pastor, morning sermon subject "Taxes in Modern Life." Church school at 12:15 p. m.

WASHINGTON COUNTY, R. I.

Westerly, Broad Street Christian church, Rev. Arnt L. Schoning, pastor. Morning worship at 10:30 o'clock, sermon subject, The Light of the City. Sunday school at 11:45 o'clock. Young People's society of Christian Endeavor at 7:30 o'clock.

Calvary Baptist church, Rev. Lewis A. Walker, pastor. Morning worship at 10:30 o'clock with subject, The Finest Four-Square Man I Have Ever Known. Bible school at 12 m.

Christ Episcopal church, Rev. G. Edgar Tobin, rector, Holy communion at 8:30 o'clock. Morning prayer and sermon by the rector at 10:30 o'clock. Church school at 12 noon. Evening worship at 7:30 o'clock.

Grace Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. Marvin S. Stocking, pastor; morning worship at 10:30 o'clock with sermon by the pastor. Sunday school, at 12 noon. Men's class at 12 m. Evening worship at 7:30 o'clock, with sermon by the pastor, special instrumental music.

Pawcatuck, Seventh-day Baptist church, Rev. Clayton A. Burdick, D. D., pastor. Sabbath morning worship at 10:30 o'clock with sermon by the pastor. Sabbath school at 11:45 o'clock. Young People's Christian Endeavor society at 5 p. m.

First Baptist church, Rev. Byron U. Hatfield, pastor, morning worship at 10:30 o'clock, subject, The Value of a Man, Junior C. E. at 11, Bible school and Men's class at 11:45. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:30 p. m. Evening worship at 7:30 o'clock, Rev. LeRoy Farnsworth will speak, illustrated sermon.

Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ, 6 George street. Morning worship at 10:30 o'clock. Sunday school at 12:16 p. m. Evening services at 7 o'clock.

Trinity Lutheran church, Girl Scout hall, High street. Walter H. Heintze, pastor. Evening worship at 7 o'clock, sermon subject, Salvation, the Water that Forever Banishes Thirst. Saturday evening Bible Study class, 7 School street.

Society of Friends, Elm street. Morning worship at 11 o'clock. Midweek services at 7:30 p. m.

Union Baptist church, Canal street. Evening services at 7:30 o'clock.

Ashaway, First Hopkinton Seventh-day Baptist church, Rev. Alva L. Davis, pastor. Sabbath morning worship at 10.30 o'clock, subject, Three Ways of Dealing With Sin. Sabbath school, at 11.45 o'clock. Junior Christian Endeavor at 4 o'clock. Senior Christian.

Bradford, First Baptist church, Rev. Orlo M. Brees, pastor, Sunday morning worship at 10.30, sermon subject, The Christian's Road Map. Sunday school at 11.45 o'clock. Young People's Christian Service league at 6 p. m., leader, Evelyn Sturgeon. Evening worship at 7 o'clock with sermon subject, the second of the series on the Parable of the Sower, theme, The Divine Farmer.

Bradford, St. Jude's Episcopal Mission, Rev. G. Edgar Tobin, rector. Prayer and sermon at 3 p. m.

Quonochontaug, First Baptist church of Charleston, Rev. Alva L. Davis, pastor. Sunday morning worship at 11 o'clock, sermon subject, The End of the Trail.

Our Semi-Annual CLEARANCE
ENDS
TODAY
MANY EXCELLENT VALUES REMAIN IN SUITS AND OVERCOATS
Quinn & Desmond
283 MAIN STREET. PHONE 2240.

KILLINGLY HIGH WINS EASILY FROM TOURTELOTTE

(Special to The Bulletin.)

DANIELSON, Jan. 22—Killingly High played both her second and first team against the Tourtelotte High basketball five here tonight and won easily 38 to 23. The Killingly coach sent in the second team in the first quarter and the scrubs led at the close of the quarter 4 to 1. The second team was held in reserve in the second quarter, but the visitors took the lead and at half time were out in front by a 16 to 5 score. A combination of the second and first team took the floor at the beginning of the third quarter but after two minutes of play the entire varsity team took the floor and started to pile up a lead that completely swamped the visitors.

The scoring honors were captured by Brennan for Killingly with 6 field goals while Chubbuck was the mainstay of the visiting team, he getting 6 field goals and five goals from the foul line.

In the preliminary game the Freshmen-Soph girls' five was the easy victim of the Junior-Senior combination by a score of 45 to 24. The summary of the varsity game follows:

Killingly

	G	F	Pts
Potter, rf	0	1	1
Brennan, rf	6	0	12
Crosby, lf	0	0	0
Conklin, lf	4	0	8
Gallup, c	1	0	2
Barrett, c	3	0	6
Stoddard, rg	0	1	1
Fulton, rg	1	2	4
Allen, lg	1	0	2
Spencer, lg	1	0	2
Totals	17	4	38

Tourtelotte

	G	F	Pts
Sherry, rf	2	0	4
Rito, rf	1	0	2
Reardon, lf	0	0	0
Chubbuck, c	5	5	15
Johnson, rg	0	1	1
Smith, lg	0	1	1
St. Marie	0	0	0
Totals	8	7	23

SUZANNE AND PARTNER WIN IN MIXED DOUBLES

CANNES, France, Jan. 22.—(AP)—In the mixed doubles of the Metropole tournament today Mmle. Suzanne Lenglen and Jacques Brugnon defeated Mrs. O'Neill, and Pinkey, of Great Britain, 6-0, 6-2. Mlle Lenglen and her partner also beat Miss Bennet and Scovel, 6-1, 6-0.

Colgate Beats Harvard

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 22—(AP)—An aggressive Colgate basketball team broke up Harvard's fast passing game here tonight and won 33 to 28. The visitors led by 6 points at half time and were never in danger. Acting Captain Ray Clark was high scorer for Colgate, with three goals from the floor and four on fouls.

ARMY-NAVY GAME TO BE PLAYED AT CHICAGO

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Jan. 22—(AP)—Chicago today won the service football classic of 1926—the Army-Navy game on November 27.

The contest will dedicate Chicago's world war memorial stadium, Soldier's Field. The Great Lakes metropolis has agreed to transport and furnish sustenance and hotel accommodations for the midshipmen regiment and the West Point Cadet Corps from the time they leave their respective academies until they return. The Army and Navy athletic associations receive an allotment of 30,000 tickets a piece for their own use, and in effect the revenue from 10,000 more, the gross allotment to both being 80,000, of which number 20,000 are to be repurchased by Chicago.

The superintendents of the two academies, in a joint agreement, awarded the game to Chicago over the claims of Baltimore and Philadelphia, with the stipulation that the occasion of the Chicago dedication be not considerd a precedent for future games.

The Navy schedule now includes three games away from home, the maximum allowed under the regulations, the Navy-Michigan game on October 30, having been awarded to Baltimore stadium today, and the Navy-Princeton game on October 16, having previously been arranged for Palmer stadium, Princeton. The schedule complete to date lists the Navy to meet on Faragut Field, Purdue on October 2; Drake on October 9; Colgate on October 23; West Virginia Wesleyan on November 6, and Georgetown on November 13. November 20 remains open.

KNAPP TO BE REPLACED ON COLUMBIA COMMITTEE

NEW YORK, Jan. 22—(AP)—The New York World will say tomorrow that James R. Knapp, who figured recently in unsuccessful and embarrassing negotiations for the coaching services of Knute K. Rockne, of Notre Dame, is to be replaced as chairman of the Columbia football committee, according to information from a reliable source.

His place will be taken, the paper continues by Davis S. Smythe, prominent alumnus interested in athletics.

The term of the Columbia football committee, selection of whose members is made by the committee on athletics, automatically expires with the close of each gridiron season. Mr. Knapp had held the position of chairman for several years.

Valiant Juniors Win

The Valiant Jrs. defeated the Broadway school five Thursday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. The Jrs. completely smothered the school boys. The final score was 23 to 4. The Jrs. accept the challenge of the Taftville Eagles for a series.

French Hockey Team Wins

CHAMONIX, France Jan. 23—(AP)—The French team today won the international ice hockey tournament, the Canadien team was second, the Belgian third and the Spanish fourth.

ZIVIC GETS UNPOPULAR VERDICT OVER TOMMY MILLIGAN AT GARDEN

NEW YORK, Jan. 22—(AP)—Jack Zivic, of Pittsburgh, received a judges' decision over Tommy Milligan, English welterweight champion, after a sensational ten-round match at Madison Square Garden tonight, but the verdict was not popular with the 13,000 spectators.

Newspapermen at the ringside gave Milligan five rounds, Zivic four rounds and called one round even.

The decision was greeted with catcalls and boots by the spectators and it was several minutes before the Garden could be cleared.

Zivic did most of the forcing but Milligan landed some damaging blows to Zivic's face, displacing two teeth.

Both bled from the nose and mouth during most of the conflict.

Bushey Graham, Utica, N. Y., bantamweight, scored an impressive victory over Joe Lynch, of California, in a 10-round semi-final match, winning the judges' decision. Graham weighed 119 1-4; Lynch 118.

Willie Harmon, New York welterweight, won a judges' verdict over Harry Dudley, of California, in the opening ten-round match.

Cowboy Jack Willis, of San Antonio, Texas, scored a technical knockout over Tony Lyons, New York middleweight, in the first round of a six-round match. Lyons was floored four times before the referee stopped the bout.

In a four-round opener, Eddie Lord, of New York, won a verdict over Phil Goodstein, Pittsburgh featherweight.

IN NORWICH FIFTY YEARS AGO

Sedgwick Post, No. 1, G. A. R., held an annual masquerade in Breed hall just fifty years ago this week. The masquerade was the event of the week in Norwich. The same week another case of small pox was discovered at Bean Hill, and a Greeneville girl died from the dread disease. Interesting events of the week chronicled from the Bulletin files of 1876, are as follows:

Monday, Jan. 18, 1876—The masquerade of Sedgwick Post, G. A. R., takes place tonight in Breed hall. This ball is always one of the most popular of the season and the indications are that tonight there will be a very large party. Persons wishing to secure costumes will find a full line at the Post hall today.

The railroad bridge being now finished it is feared that the numerous superintendents of it will be thrown out of employment. A thoughtful gentleman suggests that one be stationed at each of the new fire alarm boxes to hold the key.

Henry Button's horse ran away on Water street last evening and turned into Main street. W. H. Hovey, who was driving, hearing the noise, whipped up to get out of the way and in turning breaking the shafts, his horse fell, reaking the shafts. The other horse kept on, and the wagon was somewhat broken.

Tuesday, Jan. 19, 1876—There was a great crush in the vestibule of Breed hall last night, before the doors were thrown open for the ball of the Grand Army. In the crowd was Mrs. Daniel Ladd, and when a rush was made up the stairs she was carried with it. She reached the hall very much excited and in a few minutes complained of being very ill. She was assisted into a carriage to be driven to her home on Boswell avenue. When the carriage stopped, the driver opened the door and asked her if she could get out without aid. She said that she could not, and he and a companion lifted her from the hack and carried her in, but when they laid her down she was dead.

Work was suspended at the shop of the Norwich Pistol company yesterday, owing to some misunderstanding between the directors and the treasurer. The financial standing of the company is considered sound and probably they will resume operations again within a few days.

Another case of small pox was discovered yesterday in the house of George F. Brooks on the Otrobando road near Bean Hill. One of the persons who is down with the disease in Greeneville has it in virulent form, but this is said to be the only severe case in town.

Wednesday, Jan. 19, 1876—The enumeration of the children in the Central and West Chelsea school districts has been completed. The number in the Central district is 1,481; in the West Chelsea, 925.

The engineer of the company which has built the new railroad bridge across the Shetucket, is expected to be in town today, when the work will probably be tested. It has not been decided whether the test will be made in the morning or the afternoon.

The rain of Monday night was followed yesterday morning by a dense fog, which materially interfered with navigation on the sound. In the city the day was dismal enough.

Thursday, Jan. 20, 1876—A young girl in the family of Mr. Campbell at Greeneville, died yesterday of the small pox. No new cases were reported, and as the almshouse have taken all necessary precautions to prevent the disease spreading, there is no cause for alarm.

There is strong probability that Norwich will soon have an institution novel, not only in this city, but in New England, except perhaps Boston,—a shooting gallery where gentlemen can practice with their own weapons. The gallery if decided on will be located in Franklin hall, and if successful, fencing and boxing facilities will be added.

Col. Hayward and G. C. Standish of Colchester had a race on skates, Saturday, in the presence of several hundred ladies and gentlemen, the conditions being that Mr. Standish should cross the pond twice and the colonel once. The latter won of course. Now that our genial friend has gone into athletics, we should like to see him try shinning up a liberty pole.

Friday, Jan. 21, 1876—The horse railroad company bought several large sleighs early in the winter, but are anxious now to open a correspondence with some reliable taxpayer in Venice, with a view to trading them off for a couple of gondolas.

Miss Nancy Beckwith of Bean Hill, a lady 37 years of age, who had been living for sometime in the family of Dr. J. H. Martin for treatment, jumped from an upper story window of his house on East Main street, yesterday, breaking one ankle and injuring her spine so that her recovery is considered doubtful. Miss Beckwith was suffering with a mental difficulty which rendered irresponsible for the act.

The mill of the Chaplain Paper company, about 8 miles from Willimantic, was burned yesterday morning. Loss and insurance unknown.

Commissioner Cole had a force of men at work on Main street yesterday and put the carriaged way in very good condition.

Saturday, Jan. 22, 1876—Did you ever see the end of Henry Smith's right thum? Because if you didn't you never will, as Mr. Smith very foolishly attempted to interfere with a buzz saw yesterday.

The Potter press works at Thamesville are building a stop-cylinder power press after their approved pattern for exhibition at the centennial. It will be finished early in February.

During a funeral yesterday, it was thought that signs of life were discovered in the deceased. All efforts at restoring animation failed however, but the burial was postponed and the body was put in charge of watchers.

It is proposed to cut up a portion of Fisher's island into small homesteads and lease or sell to market gardeners. The island is capable of sustaining a population of 5,000, and if developed would make a rich township.

GREATER DEMAND FOR MOTOR DEPT. BULLETIN

The circulation of the monthly bulletin of the state motor vehicle department increased in the past year to a point where more than 13,000 copies a month are now distributed, it is announced in the January bulletin issued Friday. It is being sent, in response to requests, into every state in the Union and some go so far as to the Philippines and Japan.

The department has been publishing the bulletin about two years as a part of its safety work. At first it was issued in mimeograph form and distributed quarterly for the use of police and enforcement officers to give suggestions or policy and interpretations of law, and later the department began issuing it in printed form. Less than 1,000 copies were published in the first year, but, by the beginning of 1925, the scope of the bulletin was widened, to cover subjects less technical and of wider interest, requests began to pour in upon the department in large numbers for copies of it, and the circulation increased considerably.

The policy of the state is to give it out freely without cost to any citizen or resident and to any municipality, but whenever a substantial number is requested for business organizations outside the state, a printing charge is made. There seemed to be little demand for copies for police officers and consequently the tendency has been to drift away from the educational field. The current issue announces that its future policy "will be directed for the use of the large percentage of persons who intend to obey the law in an effort to help solve the motor vehicle problems rather than, for the small percentage of law-breakers." Also that some authorities not connected with the motor vehicle department may be asked to contribute articles to the bulletin occasionally on general subjects "which help to attain successful driving of a motor vehicle."

The point is made that public sentiment is the strongest motor vehicle law, being "the driving wheel of the engine of enforcement." Motor vehicle law is described as being "about 95 per cent. regulation, or moral enforcement, and 5 per cent. discipline."

It is pointed out that 15 per cent. of all persons on the highways are yearly proving their mental unfitness to be in traffic, by the fact that things happen to them. "If each one would realize," the bulletin says, "that to have something happen is a proof of inferiority of mind, pride might make some correction. The first feeling when any accident or incident happens should be shame. The first reprimand by a police officer is always directed to the intelligence." Therefore it calls upon people to take pride in traffic ability.

Mention is made of excellent co-operation given by the press of the state in the fight to keep down accident totals.

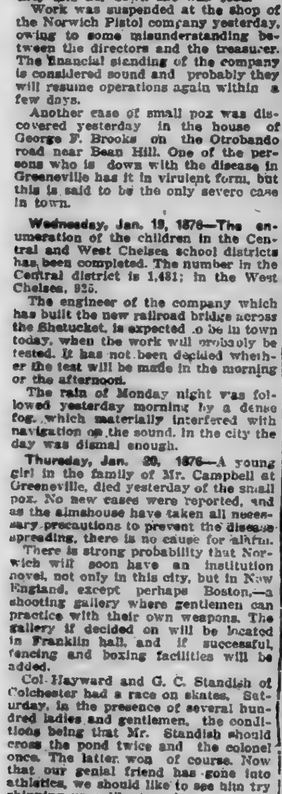
ADDRESS ON RADIO GIVEN BEFORE LIONS

Norwich Lions club held its weekly luncheon-meeting Thursday noon at the Wauregan hotel with President William A. Anderson presiding. Jean Keiffer was the song leader and a variety of group and club numbers were given. Louis Smith gave an interesting talk on Radio. He spoke of the great strides made in the improvement of radio reception in the past few years and explained many of the chief causes of interference today. During his address he extended an invitation to the Lions to the next meeting of the Norwich Radio club at the Community House next month, when J. O. Smith, research engineer of the Radio Corporation, is to be the speaker.

During the meeting there were several songs from That's That, the musical comedy to be given by the club. The songs were given under the leadership of Director Billy Hammill of the Rogers Production Co., assisted by several members of the club.

Tyler Stanton was awarded the contest prize, a silver pencil, donated by Lion Louis Hawkins. Dr. Clarence G. Thompson, chairman of the entertainment committee for this month announced that the speaker at next week's meeting will be Dr. Harrison Gray who will talk on The Prevention of Diphtheria.

Charles Parrell, a New York broker, was married to Mrs. Mildred Millicent Stokes Jackson by Justice of the Peace George Skene in Stamford on January 11, it was revealed. Both Parrell and Mrs. Jackson have been married once but both have been divorced.



What de-licious Chocolate Cake
An Old-fashioned Chocolate for a New-fashioned Generation
Baker's Chocolate
Premium No. 1
Is most satisfactory for cooking and drinking; the first choice of good housekeepers and cooks.
Walter Baker & Co. Ltd.
Established 1780
Dorchester, Mass.
MONTREAL, CANADA

PEROXIDE
16-OUNCE PEROXIDE — Regular 25c value— Saturday 17c

THE BOSTON STORE
THE REID & HUGHES COMPANY
NORWICH CONNECTICUT

SILK RADIUM
36-INCH PURE SILK RADIUM — value $2.00— Saturday, Yard $1.19

Saturday, The Boston Store Offers Values Which Eclipse Them All!

To make memorable this event in the history of the store, the Boston Store has provided a list of values which eclipse anything we have offered to you before. Every department will place on sale various groups of merchandise priced at figures far below any previous low price level. Take advantage of these bargain opportunities, which should not be passed by.

MILLINERY
SPRING HATS, $3.45
Special lot of early Spring Hats, in taffeta, satin and velours, fine assortment of colors—priced with the thought of profit entirely eliminated.

In the Men's Shop
MEN'S PERCALE SHIRTS—Neckband style, all new patterns, "Plymouth" make— Saturday $1.29

MEN'S PAJAMAS—Cut full and well made, regular $1.75—Saturday, each $1.59

MEN'S UNION SUITS—Now at prices way below the usual Men's Cotton Union Suits, regular $1.75 and $2.00 values—To Close, Each $1.49

MEN'S RAYON SILK AND COTTON UNION SUITS, $2.50 values—For, Each $1.69

Downstaire Store
PATHE PERFECT RECORDS—10-inch double disc, plays on all phonographs—(March numbers included)—Saturday Only 39c

SKOUR-NU—Removes grease, cleans carpets, rugs, upholstery as well as the finest fabrics, non inflammable, contains no acid—Saturday Only 39c

ALUMINUM PERCOLATORS — 6-cup size, paneled shape, has flame guard and spreader plate which is an unusual feature in a low priced percolator— Saturday Only 88c

WHITE ENAMEL WARE TEA KETTLES—They are the Cesco line, triple coated, all white ware, handles and trimmings are gas and electric welded and finished in blue enamel. A very attractive and durable kettle, capacity 3½ quarts, sells regularly at $1.45— Saturday Only 98c

Drapery Department
RUFFLED CURTAINS—These are made of a good quality cross-bar scrim, are hemstitched on edge and have tie-backs, value $1.19— Special for Saturday, Pair 89c

SUNFAST OVERDRAPERY SILKS—We have taken our entire stock of these materials that have sold for $1.39 to $1.59 a yard and marked them all at an extremely low price— Special for Saturday, a Yard $1.00

WINDOW SHADES—Opaque shades of good quality (no seconds), green, white, buff and cream colors. They are all full size, value 65c— Special for Saturday, Each 50c

IN THE BOYS' SHOP
BOYS' ALL WOOL OVERCOATS—Sizes 13 to 18 years, quantity limited, regular price $12.50 to $18.00—To Close, Each..... $6.50

BOYS' WOOL FLANNEL BLOUSES—Size 8 to 16, regular price $1.25 and $1.50— Saturday, Each 98c

BOYS' ALL WOOL SUITS—With two pair pants, also blue serge and corduroy, included in this lot, regular price $12.50, $15.00 and $18.00— Saturday, Choice $6.50

Domestic Department
25c 36-INCH LONG CLOTH— Yard 19c

24x48 TURKISH BATH TOWELS—Double thread, plain white, 85c value— Saturday, Each 59c

42x36 BLEACHED PILLOW CASES — Heavy weight, regular 45c value— Saturday, Each 39c

27-INCH BLEACHED OUTING FLANNEL— 25c value—Saturday, Yard 19c

BLANKETS—Size 70x80, Grey Wool Blankets, regular $7.50 value— Saturday, Pair $4.98

From the Ready-to-Wear Shop
Outstanding Values
SILK and WOOL DRESSES—In a variety of colors and sizes, all the latest models, all sales final, values up to $19.75— Saturday $9.50

ONE LOT OF CHILDREN'S DRESSES—Cotton and wool, size 7 to 14 years, late winter styles, splendid for street or school wear— Saturday $2.49

WOMEN'S WINTER COATS—Clean up; one or two of a kind, smart styles, splendid for street or general utility wear, some plain, others fur-trimmed—(all sales final)— Saturday $12.50

Toilets
SYKES' COMFORT POWDER—30c size— Saturday 19c

MENNEN'S TALCUM POWDER—Assorted odors, regular 25c—For 18c

BATHASWEET—Soften in hard water, regular 25c—For 19c

ST. DENIS SMELLING SALTS— Regular $1.25—For 75c

Neckwear — Handkerchiefs
WOMEN'S COLLAR and CUFF SETS—In linen, lace trimmed and satin, regular 75c set— Saturday, Set 50c

WOMEN'S ALL LINEN HANDKERCHIEFS—In white, with corded colored borders—and also wide hems, regular 25c each— Saturday, 3 for 39c

Silks
ONE LOT OF 36-40-INCH SILKS—Odds and ends of $1.50 to $3.00 value— Saturday, Yard 89c

Art Department
SALE OF HAND-EMBROIDERED DISCONTINUED MODELS OF APRONS, DRESSES, SCARFS, LUNCHEON SETS, ETC.— AT ONE-HALF THE REGULAR PRICE.

Leather Bags
ONE LOT OF LEATHER AND SILK UNDERARM BAGS—Fitted with purse and mirror, value $5.25 to $5.98—Saturday $3.19

One of Those Outstanding Sales
WOMEN'S SILK and WOOL STOCKINGS
89c a Pair
WOMEN'S SILK and WOOL SPORT HOSE—Fine assortment of colors, regular value $1.25, with smart clox 8½ to 10½.

Gloves
WOMEN'S CHAMOISETTE GLOVES—In a variety of colors, turn-over cuff, which is all the rage— Saturday, Pair $1.25

Lace and Trimming Department
ONE LOT OF COLORED MEDALLIONS and ORNAMENTS that retail from 50c to $1.25— Saturday, Each 25c

FLOWERS FOR HATS, COATS and DRESSES —75c value—Saturday, Each 50c

Children's Union Suits
ODD LOT CHILDREN'S UNION SUITS—2 to 8 years, value $1.25 to $1.75— Saturday Choice 98c

Women's Silk and Wool Vests
WOMEN'S VESTS and PANTS—Silk and wool, high grade garments, value $2.25 and $2.50— Saturday $1.98

Wash Goods
27-INCH, 19c STRIPED OUTING FLANNEL— For Yard 10c

59c to $1.00 COTTON SUITINGS and BROCADED RATINE — Saturday 39c

54-INCH BORDERED RAYON SUITINGS— $2.25 value—Saturday, Yard $1.39

Notions
ALLIANCE SPRING SNAP FASTENERS— Regular 10c—Saturday, 2 cards for 9c

DELONG CABINET HAIR PINS—Assorted sizes, regular 10c—For 7c

SANITARY APRONS—Full size, net top, white and pink, regular 50c—For 39c

ONE LOT OF COLLAR BANDS—Not all sizes— Saturday, 3 for 10c

SURPRISE SPECIAL No. 66
Only exceptional merchandise values featured in these one-day specials. To properly identify these unusual values we have named them Surprise Specials.

MEN'S COTTON SOCKS
Black, Brown and Grey, 25c value
Surprise Special
8 Pairs for $1.00

ECHOES FROM THE LODGE ROOMS

FORESTERS OF AMERICA

Chief Ranger Joseph C. Callahan presided on Tuesday evening at the regular meeting of Court City of Norwich, No. 64, Foresters of America, the attendance being the largest of the year. A communication from the grand court explained the detail of the membership campaign to be conducted before the convention.

Grand Chief Ranger William Dunlavey of Waterbury installed the newly elected officers and spoke on the good of the order. The grand secretary also spoke, as did several members.

The newly elected officers who were installed were the following:

Chief Ranger, J. R. Portelance, Jr.; sub. chief ranger, R. S. Chapman; Jr. p. chief ranger, J. C. Callahan; financial secretary, Edward McMerney; treasurer, Wm. H. Callahan; Sr. woodward, Stanley Kohanski; Jr. woodward, M. J. Duggan; Sr. beadle, Joseph Cormier; Jr. beadle, Elroy Bolduc; lecturer, Wm. Le Page; trustee, George B. [illegible].

EAGLES

Norwich Aerie, No. 867, F. O. E., held its regular meeting on Monday night, at the home on Cliff St. Worthy President George Nadolny presiding, the attendance being small owing to bad weather. The class initiation committee reported that the next class initiation will be held on Saturday Feb. 27th, with Judge O'Donnell of the organization department present at this initiation. Judge O'Donnell is a well-known speaker, and it will be well worth while for every member to be present on this occasion.

MOOSEHEART LEGION

A very successful whist and pinochle was held by the women of Mooseheart Legion, at Moose home Tuesday evening. Those taking prizes were:

Whist—Ladies' first, Mrs. McKelvey; second, Mrs. Thompson; third, B O'Connell; gentlemen's, first, Mr. Fields; second, Harry Collins; third, Mrs. Clement, 8,640; second, Mrs. Brown, 7,470; third, Mrs. Walz, 6,270; gentlemen's first, B. Wunderlich, 8,940; second, Mr. Krohn, 7,460; third, Mr. Montes, 6,450. The committee in charge comprised Mrs. Ethel Hosick, chairman; Mrs. Teresa Watters and Miss Pauline Wunderlich.

ODD FELLOWS

Shetucket Lodge of Odd Fellows held an open house for its members, their wives and friends Tuesday evening. A short business meeting was held under the direction of Noble Grand Frank Jones, after which the lodge rooms were thrown open to an audience of over 200 who were delighted by the interesting program put on by the entertainment committee.

A cordial welcome was extended to the gathering by Edward F. Kinney, a past district deputy grand master of the order, after which a delightful program was put on, consisting of music by Osborne's orchestra, songs and recitations by Chief Occum of the Mohegan Indians, in full Indian costume, delightful interpretive dancing by Miss Helena Crandall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. Crandall, and mystifying sleight of hand feats by Prof. Wm. Walmsley of Occum. A troupe of young men from the Y. M. C. A., consisting of Frank Hargreaves, Dewitt Parsons, Oscar Mossessian, Philip Plante, Frank Baxley, Frank D'Atri, Floyd Lambert, James Feltcorn, William Krohn, Matteo Pascouche, Arthur Armstrong, Howard Ludlow and D. Angelopoleos kept the audience in an uproar with their difficult athletic feats and mat work. The crowning event came when a prominent Odd Fellow was arrested by Constable Howard Bishop of Yantic, on suspicion of having stolen a cross-eyed rooster from a Brother Odd Fellow. His case was remanded until next Tuesday.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by the entertainment committe after which the meeting adjourned for dancing to music furnished by Osborne's orchestra.

JUNIOR AMERICAN MECHANICS

Buckingham Council, No. 14 met in regular session last Wednesday evening at Cadalac hall with Councilor George Faulkner presiding. The meeting was called to order at 7 p. m. and the regular routine of business was transacted, after which the entertainment committee had arranged for a Box Social and masquerade ball. This was enjoyed by a goodly crowd. At 10 o'clock those in costume was arranged in formation for the grand march, prizes being awarded as follows: Ladies', first prize, to George Gasser; second to Mrs. Gasser; third to Lucile Spaulding; men's first; Joseph Wellington; second, William Ellal; third, Sargent Martin. The consolation prize was awarded to Robert Angell. After the prizes were awarded dacing continued until midnight. A very enjoyable time was reported by every one present. The committee will arrange for a dance in the near future, the date of which will be announced in the papers.

PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY

Norwich grange, No 172, will have its officers installed at its meeting Wednesday evening in Steiner hall, the installation being performed by Louis Barstow, worthy master of Quinebaug omona grange. An installation supper will be served at 6:30.

At the previous meeting of the grange, the short business meeting was followed by a play put on under the direction of Lecturer Lewis E. Aldrich. The well chosen cast, which did very creditable work, consisted of Florence Brown, Lewis Aldrich and Mark Aldrich. The play was entitled "Trip to Murro."

W. B. A. MACCABEES

The Women's Benefit association held their regular meeting Wednesday night at Buckingham Memorial with Commander Eckstein in the chair, a large number of members being present. The officers were installed by Deputy State Commander Margaret Littleton of Hartford assisted by State District Deputy Emma Hans of Hartford as follows:

Commander, C. Eckstein; lieutenant commander, Grace Halliday; past commander, Rachel Peterson; record keeper, Louise Manchester; collector, Mary Pedace; chaplain, Mrs. Sensor; L. of A. Jane Farrell; sergeant, Bertha Schlinz; sentinel, Eva Shuberb; picket, Miss Buanowa; captain of guards, Irene Lapier; 1st color bearer, Marion Buanona; second color bearer, Lillian Delcarlo.

The guard team conducted the floor work in a very effective manner. Remarks for the good of the order were made by D. S. C. Margaret Littleton. After the meeting a baked bean supper was served. The menu was beans, salad, cold meats, rolls, coffee, pie and cake. A large birthday cake with 4 candles made and donated by Mrs. Rachel Peterson was in the center of the tables, it being the fourth anniversary of the lodge. The supper committee was Mrs. Louise Manchester, Mrs. Bertha Schlinz, Mrs. Jane Farrell and Mrs. Grace Halliday. During the supper Commander Eckstein was presented a beautiful table lamp, the presentation speech being made by Mrs. Bridget Mullens, who said, the officers and members of Norwich review have shown in a small part their appreciation of your services as their leader by reelecting you commander for a 2nd. year. In presenting you this token of their esteem I also give you assurance of their loyalty and support for another successful year under your guidance as lady commander."

A social time was then enjoyed several guests being present from Hartford.

CATHOLIC LADIES OF COLUMBUS

Mercier assembly, Catholic Ladies of Columbus, hald its regular meeting Tuesday evening.

Several members plan to attend the installation of officers at Rockville Sunday, Jan. 91. Any others who wish to attend will give their names to Miss Mae Riley, recording secretary.

Members are urged by the committee in charge to be present at the whist and dance to be given at the Waitregan.

DAUGHTERS OF VETERANS

The regular meeting of Clara Barton Tent No. 7, was held in Buckingham Memorial, Tuesday evening, with the president, Gladys B. Newbury, in the chair. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The mystery package was awarded to Mrs. Alice Brinkman. Two of the officers, Mrs. Elizabeth Mackey and Miss Dorothy Brinkham, who were unable to be present at the installation, were installed by the president at this meeting.

A letter from the Near East Relief Committee asking for contributions for Bundle Day was read. The members of the tent voted to make their contributions as large as possible. The members were reminded of the baked bean supper Jan. 30. The meeting closed in the usual form with the solute to the flag.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS

Sedgwick's Woman's Relief corps, No. 16, met at the Buckingham memorial Friday afternoon with the president, Mrs. Maude A. Moody in the chair. All reports were read and approved. The chairman of the sewing society announced that the year started with a bright outlook as the first meeting was very successful. After repeating the flag salute the session closed by singing America, having held a short meeting with a rather small attendance due to the severe weather.

GROTTO.

Nemrod Grotto held its regular meeting Monday evening in Grotto hall with Monarch Hinkle presiding. Routine business was transacted and plans were discussed for a whist, pinochle and dance to be held in the near future. The entertainment committee has plans under way, so that entertainment of some kind will be carried out every month for the benefit of the members. It was also announced that the Grotto will soon put on a ceremonial.

OVER QUARTER MILLION TELEPHONES IN STATE

The number of telephones operated by the Southern New England Telephone company has crossed the quarter million mark. That fact was made known Friday when it was officially stated that with the beginning of business on January 1, there were in the Southern New England system a total of 250,003 telephones, recording a net gain for the year of 16,380 within the state.

It is an interesting fact in connection with the new mark set for telephone development, that it was reached just a few months prior to the fiftieth anniversary of the invention of the telephone by Dr. Alexander Graham Bell. The first intelligible message heard over a telephone was passed in March, 1876, and while the telephone was used to a very limited extent for the two years following, the commercial switchboard was not set up and service offered the public, till January 28, 1878, in New Haven.

From the half hundred telephones in use when the New Haven exchange began service, the telephone has had a steady development, although it really is during the past ten years there has been a greater expansion in the business, a greater acceptance of the telephone as a time, labor and money saver, than during the preceding 34 years of its commercial existence. In practically every one of the larger cities of the state there are twice as many telephones in service today as there were ten years ago.

That telephone development will continue on a large scale is not doubted. The Southern New England company, as proof of its expectations of a larger demand for its service, is adding another large unit to its group of operating and office buildings in New Haven and has tentative plans for further building additions to house its equipment in that city.

The following figures show the number of telephones in use on January 1, 1926 and the net gain during the year 1925 in some of the principal cities of the state:

	In use	Gain
Hartford	43,148	3,685
New Haven	41,434	2,930
Bridgeport	23,603	1,078
Waterbury	15,119	1,026
Stamford	9,942	912
New Britain	9,374	821
New London	8,248	451
Meriden	6,462	479
Norwalk	6,424	419
Norwich	5,685	283
Middletown	4,843	246
Danbury	4,973	423

A woman's taste in purchasing neckties for her husband is on a par with a man's taste in purchasing hats for his wife.

SCHOOL OF NURSING

The school of nursing connected with the W. W. Backus Hospital, Norwich, Conn., is now registering applicants for the February classes. This school is registered in Connecticut and the course of instruction is two years and four months given in a general hospital of 90 beds. Students must be graduates of grammar school and have one year of high school work. Students have the advantage of a new residence for nurses where every comfort and convenience is afforded them. For circular of information address Supt. of the Training School.

ICE SKATES

With or Without Shoes.

KEEN KUTTER

AXES

With or Without Handles.

THE HOUSEHOLD

Bulletin Bldg., 74 Franklin Street.

Today Will Be 25c Day in the January Clearance Sale

THE PORTEOUS & MITCHELL CO.

Today Will Be 25c Day in the January Clearance Sale

TODAY WILL BE 25c DAY

And the Last Day In the January Clearance Sale

In addition to the regular Clearance Sale Offerings in every Department of the Store, there are hundreds of extraordinary offerings at 25c—goods which have been assembled and marked for quick clearance at 25c — making it one of the greatest saving occasions of the January Sale. Read carefully this list of offerings at 25c — then come prepared to find many more, not advertised, but which will be displayed on our counters.

Be Sure and Attend This 25c Sale Today!

YOUNG MEN'S SUITS, AT $19.50

Just 15 Young Men's Suits are marked for quick Clearance. These are mostly small sizes and suitable for Young Men—Many of them have two pairs of Trousers. In this size assortment:

	2	7	5	1
Sizes	33	34	35	36

On Sale Today. A splendid buying opportunity for anyone who can be fitted in these sizes. Remember—there are only 15 Suits in this offering—so act quickly.

BOYS' KNEE TROUSERS AT 25c

Just 50 pairs of Boys' Woolen Straight Knee Trousers, in sizes 3 and 4 only—Clearance Price 25c a pair, regular value 95c. All sales final—no exchanges.

Boys' and Girls' Toques and Caps, regular value 75c and $1.00—Clearance Price 25c

BOYS' SUITS and OVERCOATS AT CLEARANCE PRICES

Boys' Lined Knickerbockers, sizes 9 to 17, regular value $1.95—Clearance Price $1.25

Boys' Lined Knickerbockers, all wool, sizes 7 to 17, regular value $2.95—Clearance Price $2.25

Boys Norfolk Suits, with two pairs of Knickerbockers, dark mixtures, value $7.50—Clearance Price $4.25

Boys' Four-piece Suits, some with long and short Trousers, others with two pairs of Knickerbockers, value $13.50—Clearance Price.... $9.25

Boys' Four-piece Suits, in better grades, regular value $18.50 — Clearance Price $14.25

Boys' Overcoats, sizes 2 1-2 to 8, regular value $7.00—Clearance Price $4.25

Boys' Overcoats, sizes 3 to 7, regular value $8.50—Clearance Price.. $6.25

Boys' Overcoats, sizes 9 to 16, regular value $14.50—Clearance Price $9.25

Boys' Overcoats, sizes 14 to 19, regular value $18.50 and $24.50—Clearance Price $14.25

Boys' Mackinaws, sizes 11 to 19, regular value $14.50—Clearance Price $7.25

35 pairs Children's Ribbed Wool Hosiery, odd sizes, regular value 18c.

240 pairs Children's Hosiery, new Alligator rib, good assortment of colors.

180 pairs of Boys' Heavyweight Ribbed Hosiery, black only, good assortment of sizes.

58 pairs of Women's Silk (Rayon) Hosiery, all perfect, fair assortment of colors, value 50c.

342 pairs of Women's Wool-finish Burson Hosiery, assorted heather mixtures, value 50c.

252 pairs of Women's Burson Hosiery, regular and extra sizes, black only, value 39c.

1147 Pairs of WOMEN'S and CHILDREN'S HOSIERY

—Clearance Price

25c

PAIR.

25c SPECIAL VALUES IN KITCHENWARE DEPARTMENT

Liquid Veneer, 4-ounce size, value 30c—at 25c

Blue Bird Clothes Lines for indoor use, value 75c—at 25c

A few odd Cream Ladles (Tudor Plate), value $1.25—at 25c

English Decorated Bowls, regular value 35c—at 25c

Oatmeal Dishes, English Porcelain, blue edge line, regular value 50c—at 25c

Odd lot of Chinaware—plates, fruit saucers, meat dishes, etc—value up to $3.50 a dozen—at 29c

Imported Cream Pitchers, a variety of patterns, value to 45c—at.... 25c

Odd lot of Imported Chinaware—Ash Trays, Tea Tiles, Bon Bon Dishes, plates, egg cups, etc., value to $1.00—at 25c

25c SPECIALS ON THIRD FLOOR

Table Oil Cloth — Cretonnes — Mats

Just 200 White and Colored Valances, 1 3-4 yards wide, with double ruffles—Clearance price, each 25c

5-4 Table Oil Cloth, white and colored, value 49c a yard—Special price a yard 25c

Remnants of Cretonnes, Silk and Curtain Scrim, lengths 1 to 6 yards—Clearance price a length 25c

Nopenest Mats, size 18x36, value 49c—Special price 25c

INFANTS' BANDS, 25c

A small lot of Infants' Silk and Wool Bands, perfect in every way—Clearance Price 25c each regular value 39c.

(Knit Underwear Dept.)

25c CANDY SPECIALS

20c Mixed Hard Candies..... 2 lbs. for 25c

15c Spiced Jelly Strings..... 25c

15c Chocolate Covered Peanuts 25c

19c Austrian Candy with soft fillings 25c

TOILET GOODS 4 for 25c

10c Bath Soap, large size Cakes..... 4 for 25c

3 for 25c

Vivaudous Peter Rabbit Talcum Powder—.....3 29c cans for 25c

2 for 25c

25c Savon Cadum Toilet Soap, made in France—..... 2 for 25c

25c Shaving Sticks—.....2 for 25c

25c Palmolive Talcum Powder— ..... 2 for 25c

25c Tooth Brushes—.....2 for 25c

TOILET GOODS, 25c

50c Bath Salts, assorted jars.

50c Metal Powder Compacts.

40c Squibbs Dental Cream.

35c Palmolive Shaving Cream.

50c Cocoanut Oil Shampoo.

50c Vivaudous Face Powder.

35c D. & R. Cream.

35c Azurea Talcum.

35c Vicks Vaporub.

50c Toilet Water, assorted odors.

33c Whisk Brooms.

Hair Nets, 6 for 25c

Hair Nets, single or double mesh, perfect in every way—6 for 25c.

TOILET PAPER

15c Japanese Tissue, 1000 sheet packages—..... 2 for 25c

35c Gold Leaf Silk Tissue, 500 sheet rolls ..... at 25c

STATIONERY AT 25c

15c Linen Envelopes, letter size, in pink, blue, buff and lavender, to close out—..... 100 for 15c

29c Writing Paper, one-quire paper and envelopes—..... 2 for 25c

35c Writing Paper, one-quire boxes, white and colors—.....at 25c

50c Mechanical Pencils, gold plated—..... at 25c

One set of Games, were 35c to 50c—..... at 25c

LEATHER GOODS 25c

Women's and Children's Fabric Hand Bags, value to 50c—..at 25c

50c Leather Bill Folds and Change Purses for men and women—..... at 25c

SMALL WARES, 25c

5c Hall's Willington Thread, 200-yard spools, black or white, Nos. 40, 50, 60 and 70—...7 for 25c

8c Hall's Best Machine Thread, 200-yard spools, black or white, Nos. 40, 50 and 60—6 for 25c

12c Barbour's White Linen Thread ..... 3 for 25c

10c Button Thread, black—3 for 25c

One lot of Coat and Trimming Buttons, all colors and sizes, value to 50c—.....a dozen 25c

18c Richardson's Silk Thread, 100-yard spools—..... 2 for 25c

JEWELRY AT 25c

One lot of Jewelry—Bar Pins Brooches, Earrings, Bracelets, Cuff Links, Bead Necklaces Choker and longer length Beads—all at 25c, former prices 38c to 75c.

LACES — VEILINGS

Lace Edging in Ecru Filet—also Val Edging and Insertings—.....6 yards for 25c

Veiling in black and colors, value 50c a yard—..... at 25c

Boudoir Bands, value 59c—...at 25c

HANDKERCHIEFS AT 25c

MEN'S AND WOMEN'S

Boys' Woven Colored Border Handkerchiefs, value 12 1-2c each—..... 3 for 25c

Men's White Hemstitched Handkerchiefs, value 12 1-2c each—..... 3 for 25c

Men's Fine White Mercerized Handkerchiefs, value 15c each —..... 2 for 25c

Women's White and Colored Border Handkerchiefs, value 10c each—..... 4 for 25c

Women's White and Colored Border Handkerchiefs, value 12 1-2c each—..... 3 for 25c

Women's Hand-embroidered Handkerchiefs, value 25c each—..... 2 for 25c

WOMEN'S SAMPLE GLOVES, 25c

Ag odd lot of Women's Sample Gloves—Chamois Suede, in Strap Wrist, Etc.—Clearance price 25c a pair, value up to $1.00.

JUST 32 WOMEN'S ODD DRESSES

At $5.00

Formerly $15.00 to $45.00

6 Georgette Evening Dresses, formerly $25.00 to $45.00.

3 White Silk Crepe Dresses, plain tailored, beaded, pleated, etc., formerly $19.75 to $39.75.

2 Printed Crepe Silk Dresses, formerly $15.00 and $16.50.

2 Women's Baibriggan Dresses formerly $3.95 to $15.00.

4 Chinchilla Cloth, Two-piece Dresses, formerly $15.00.

TODAY CHOOSE AT $5.00

EXTRAORDINARY OFFERING OF $1.25 WOMEN'S SILK COSTUME SLIPS, regular value $3.98 to $4.98—At $2.29

ALL AT $2.29

Regular Value $3.98 to $4.98

This offering of Costume Slips represents a manufacturer's close-out They are made of Milo-Sheen, Baronet Satin and Heavyweight Trico-Soie—in every conciveable color and style, some with hip seams others with pleated flounces trimmed with contrasting colors. Some amongst them are subject to slight imperfections, but nothing that will impair their serviceability. While the assortment is very good, yet we would urge an early salection as the sizes in some cases is limited. (On Sale when the Store opens Today.)

OUR DOMESTIC DEPARTMENT

Many Extraordinary 25c Specials

Indian Head, Long Cloth, Pillow Cases

100 pieces of 36-inch "Cheese Cloth," just the thing for Dusters, Auto use, Etc. ..... 5 yards for 25c

500 yards of 36-inch Ideal Long Cloth, one of the best grades, value 39c a yard—at 25c

36-inch Indian Head, regular 35c grade—at 25c

280 "Pepperell" Pillow Cases, value 39c each—at 25c

42 dozen, size 18x50 Bureau Scarfs, these sell regularly at 39c each—at 25c

CRASHES, TOWELS, NAPKINS

250 yards of Union Linen Crash Toweling, very absorbent, value 19c a yard ..... 2 yards for 25c

500 yards of pure Linen Crash Toweling, brown and bleached, value 39c a yard—at 25c

250 yards of Glass Toweling, value 35c a yard—at 25c

20 dozen Wash Cloths ..... 3 for 25c

25 dozen Turkish Towels, value 19c each ..... 2 for 25c

12 dozen Huck Towels, value 19c each ..... 2 for 25c

12 dozen Dish Towels, all hemmed and taped, value 20c each....2 for 25c

10 dozen All Linen Huck Towels, good size, value 42c each—at 25c

12 dozen All Linen Glass Towels, value 39c each—at 25c

25 dozen Turkish Towels, Novelty Jacquard Striped design, heavy and absorbent, value 39c each—at 25c

12 dozen Union Linen Homespun Towels, ideal for kitchen or shop use—at 25c

20 dozen All Linen "Bridge" Napkins, splendid grade of pure Linen Damask, all hemstitched, value $5.00 a dozen—each 25c

12 dozen All Linen Napkins, a good Napkin for ordinary use, value 40c each—at 25c

58-inch Bleached Table Damask, assorted patterns—Special price a half yard 25c

25c SPECIALS — WASH GOODS

One lot of Wash Goods, including Voiles, Batiste, Crepes, Etc., values 29c to 39c a yard ..... 2 yards for 25c

27-inch Apron Gingham, blue and brown checks ..... 2 yards for 25c

27-inch plain White and fancy Outing Flannel ..... 2 yards for 25c

36-inch figured Challies, good selection of styles and colorings ..... 1½ yards for 25c

36-inch standard grade Percales, new designs and colorings ..... 1½ yards for 25c

36-inch plain White Outing Flannel, extra heavy weight—at 25c

Very finest quality, 36-inch Percales, good assortment of styles and colorings—at 25c

WESTERLY

THOMAS GOTIS GUILTY OF TECHNICAL VIOLATION

(Special to The Bulletin)

WESTERLY, R. I., Jan. 23—But one more session remains for third district court, with present court officials, Judge Michael J. Turano and Clerk M. Walter Flynn, Jr., before they are succeeded by Judge Oliver H. Williams and Clerk Herbert P. Clark at the Friday session week after next.

On Friday morning Clerk M. Walter Flynn, Jr., read the following criminal docket:

Howard W. Swan, deputy bird commissioner of Rhode Island, complainant vs. Alexander Hebereck. Marked ready, but later continued as defendant did not appear in court.

Thomas H. Barber vs. Edward C. Thornley. Continued one week.

State, James E. Norman, complainant vs. Charles Golden.

State, Chief of Police Elmer A. Smith of Richmond, complainant vs. Alexander Habereck. Continued.

State, Thomas E. Brown, chief of police of Westerly, complainant vs. Thomas Fiore. Continued one week.

State, Thomas E. Brown, vs. Thomas Fiore. Continued one week.

State, Thomas E. Brown vs. Antonio Fiore. Continued one week.

State, Thomas E. Brown, chief of police of Westerly vs. Thomas Gotis. Ready.

State, Frank H. Brown, chief of police of Hopkinton, complainant vs. Harry H. Ullman. Continued.

State, William L. Kay, deputy chief of police of Hopkinton vs. Thomas Golden. Continued one week.

Oliver P. Crandall, director of public aid, complainant vs. Edward O'Connell. Discontinued.

State, Thomas E. Brown vs. Angelo Turano, procuring complaint. Continued one week.

State, Thomas E. Brown vs. Henry F. Narrone, manslaughter charge. Continued two weeks.

Thomas Gotis, 40, proprietor of Oak Inn, shore road, was arraigned on complaint of Chief of Police Thomas E. Brown, charged with the illegal possession of intoxicating liquors. His arraignment followed the raid conducted by Westerly Chief of Police Brown and five police patrolmen on the afternoon of January 15th, when 50 bottles of alleged hard liquor were seized and brought to the Westerly police station by the officers, who were armed with a search warrant. Town Solicitor John Ferguson, Jr., said that he had nothing particular to say with the exception that somewhere about 50 bottles were seized.

Gotis was represented in court by Attorney John J. Dunn. He said that the Oak Inn on the shore road although he had never been there, was conducted in a first class manner and a high class of people patronized the place. Certain persons called there and had auto trouble and the car was taken to the garage for repairs, where it was necessary to unload some of its contents. He claimed that his client was guilty of a "technical violation of the statute."

Judge Turano said that in view of all the circumstances and the fact that the defendant had not gone to trial he would adjudge him guilty. He imposed a fine of $50 and costs which was paid and the defendant discharged.

Judge Turano asked if there was anybody in court to claim the bottled goods of Scotch and Old Smuggler whiskey, Benedictine, Gitka Kumel and Extra Chart Reux, seized in the raid at the Oak Inn. No one appearing, he declared it forfeited to the state and the court took a recess.

Following the recess Jacob Russian, alias John Zuzu, alias John Doe, 20, of Providence was arraigned on the complaint of obtaining 483 pullets valued at $600 on September 22, 1925, from Charles M. Hall of Hopkinton. His first plea was not guilty, and then changed to that of admitting sufficient evidence to convict. At the time of the transaction it was alleged that a worthless check in payment, $600 was left. Probable cause was found and the defendant was bound over to await action of the grand jury for Washington county, superior court, which convenes at West Kingston, on the third Monday in February. Hugo Ridell became surety for his appearance in the sum of $1500.

Recorded at the Westerly town clerk appears the following transfers:

Jan. 20. Eben S. Cleveland of Webster, Mass., to Gertrude O. S. Cleveland, two parcels or tracts of land at Weekapaug, together with the buildings and improvements thereon, the first on the southwest side of Winona avenue, known as Lot No. 71 on the tract of the estate of Eben S. Stevens; the second a tract northwest of the first.

21. Luigi Toscano to Thomas Toscano a parcel or plot of land north of Riverside Park on which was a reservation of life interest.

C. D. Havens to John J. Lenahan of Providence, a certain tract of parcel of land on the south side of Atlantic avenue, Pleasant View beach, it being the conveyance of the west 5 foot strip of lot No. 10.

John J. Lenahan and wife of Providence to Charles D. Haven of Westerly a certain tract or parcel of land with buildings and improvements, lot No. 13, Pleasant View Beach Tract.

A considerable change in climate and weather conditions was experienced in Westerly in the past 48 hours. Beginning with a hard rain on Thursday afternoon, a thick fog followed in the early evening and as the temperature dropped in the early hours of Friday snow began falling. With a hard driving snow the wind became northwest and a heavy blow followed when snow ceased to fall. Friday afternoon the sky cleared but the wind continued with unabated force. The deep mud of Thursday afternoon was frozen on Friday and the streets highways and sidewalks were slippery with ice.

Funeral services for Henry James Northrup, husband of Edna C. Northrup, whose sudden death occurred on Tuesday at his late home on East avenue, were held there on Friday noon. Rev. Lewis A. Walker, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church officiated. The bearers were Lloyd, Willard, Adrian R. Pierce, George Austin and James F. Campbell.

William M. Spencer returned to his home in Pawcatuck, Thursday night, from Boston, where he attended funeral services held for his brother, Harold C. Spencer, head master of Charlestown high school since last September, whose death from pneumonia occurred last Monday at the home of Dr. George J. Ott, 344 Commonwealth avenue, Boston.

Having served in Boston public schools since September, 1909, he had been in excellent health up to about two weeks ago, when he became suddenly ill with a heavy cold while conducting a bookkeeping class at Boston university. Taken in a motor car to his home 128 Beech street, Roslindale, Mass., pneumonia developed and he became a patient in the Peter Bent Brigham hospital. When his case seemed hopeless he was removed to the home of his close personal friend, Dr. Ott, who wanted to have him under his constant care and attention.

Born in England, 54 years ago, Mr. Spencer came to America when a child and passed his youth in Providence. He was educated in the Providence schools, Harvard, Columbia, University of Chicago, Rhode Island School of Design and Boston University, from the latter institution receiving degree of Master of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Business Administration and Master of Business Administration. He was a Mason, a certified public accountant and a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Beta Gamma Sigma scholarship societies.

He was appointed special instructor in commercial branches at the High School of Commerce and instructor in commercial branches and junior master on October 20, 1914 in Boston public schools. He became the head of the commercial department of the Jamaica Plains High school and was principal of the Girls' evening commercial high school for five years. He was also instructor in accounting and mathematics, Boston university, College of Business Administration and in Simmons College Summer school.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Agnes L. (Murray) Spencer of Roslindale; his mother, Mrs. Mary Spencer and a brother, Cyril Spencer, both of Lowell and a brother, William M. Spencer, of Pawcatuck. Interment was made Friday in Shamokin, Pa., former residence of Mrs. Spencer.

Being one of the last of the tribe of Narragansett Indians, Mrs. Fidilia Tanner Thomas, 84, died Friday morning at the home of her son, Charles F. Thomas, 30 Pierce street. She was the widow of Benjamin Thomas. With her passing the once great tribe of Narragansetts nears extinction, since only two or three other full-blooded descendants of the aboriginal residents of Rhode Island are now believed to survive.

Fidilia Tanner, the daughter of Stephen and Mary Ann (Brooks) Tanner, was born May 17, 1841, in Eastford Conn. Nearly all of her life was spent in Southern Rhode Island in the towns of Charlestown, Richmond and Westerly. She was the mother of 11 children, three of whom survive. They are Charles F., James G. and Marshall T. Thomas, all of Westerly.

A telegram received by relatives, announced the death of Mrs. Louisa A. Gardiner Stillman, widow of Rev. Horace Stillman, for many years an Ashaway resident, which occurred Friday morning in Plainfield, N. J. Following Plainfield funeral, the body will be brought to Westerly for burial.

In recent years Mrs. Stillman had resided with a daughter, Miss Anna Stillman, in Plainfield. She also leaves one other daughter, Mrs. Floretta Yaeger, of Rocky Hill, Conn.

Parents of Francis Wolfe, a member of the freshman class of the high school, at East Weymouth, Mass., visited the Westerly police at a late hour Thursday night and returned with him to their home, 1101 Pleasant street that city. Wolfe was found Thursday night in a dazed and exhausted condition near one of the entrances to Wilcox Park.

After being revived at police headquarters by Dr. Charles P. Crandall, the youth told the police that two men forced him to get into their automobile in East Weymouth, when he was on the way home from school at the lunch hour.

Wolfe said that he was ejected from the machine at a point not far from Westerly about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and that "they struck me over the head with something." Complaining of soreness about the head, Dr. Crandall examined the youth but found no bruises.

Communication with the boy's parents revealed that he left his home at the usual hour to go to school and that they had no ground for believing he would run away.

Arthur P. Cooley, president and manager of the newly organized textile firm of The Cooley Finishing Co., 28 Bayley street, Pawtucket, R. I., formerly superintendent of the Eastern Finishing Co., Kenyon, R. I., removes his family from Pawcatuck to Pawtucket, R. I. today (Saturday) where he will make his future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Hiscox of Westerly left town Friday morning for a visit in Boston.

Regent Mrs. Carrie E. Savage, of Phoebe Green Ward chpater, D. A. R., of Westerly, attended the board meeting of the Rhode Island State chapter, which was held at the Hotel Biltmore, Friday afternoon.

Jabez West, of Norwich, and Michael Kelley, of New London, in the employ of the New Haven railroad, were Westerly business visitors on Friday.

Only the first story of the brick chim-ney of the old Dr. J. Howard Morgan house, formerly occupied by the Westerly Red Cross and Visiting Nurse association, at 48 High street, remained standing above the first floor and foundation walls on Thursday afternoon when the wreckers completed work for the day.

Henry Davis of Groton, scale tester for the New Haven railroad, visited Westerly a short time on Thursday morning before returning to Mystic.

Next Thursday evening in the armory banquet room of the Masonic rooms on High street the defeated bridge team of Westerly Masonic club, No. 176, captained by George E. Broughton, will act as hosts to a turkey dinner for their victorious rivals of the club captained by Caleb Mudge. Other club members may attend the dinner.

E. Merle Crumb, formerly a resident of Pawcatuck, but now of Providence, is reported as recovering from an operation at the Homeopathic hospital in that city.

The Misses Edna M. and Mabel A. Saunders will be the hostesses at a tea to be held at their home on Granite street Sunday evening.

The turn of the tied is often toward the divorce courts.

STRENGTH-SAVING

Nowadays nearly everyone is impressed with the health-building and strength-saving merit of

Scott's Emulsion

of invigorating cod-liver oil. Millions of bottles are sold every year. A very little used regularly daily builds health and helps keep the body in strength.

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. 23-24

MYSTIC

The meeting of Mystic grange, No. 171, P. of H., was held in their hall in the Main block Thursday evening. The meeting was called to order by Worthy Master James W. Pollard. Four new members were added and one application received for membership. After business was transacted the officers for 1926 were installed by the Palmer, Chapman, state master of Rhode Island, assisted by Mrs. Chapman, National Pomona. After the installation Miss Florence Johnson presented Brother Chapman an envelope containing a gold piece and Sister Chapman a bouquet of pink carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman gave a talk on their trip to the National Grange held in Sacramento, Cal., last November, that proved most interesting. Brother Chapman also explained that Connecticut had voted to have the Grange monthly sent to every member at a cost of but 12 cents for the year. This will be tried out for three years. Worthy Master Maurice Fye of Westerly, was present and made remarks. The new master, L. O. Allyn, announced the committees as follows: Music, Clifford Desley, Ruth Wiemann, Emily Holmes, Hattie Allen, Eva MacAuslan; woman's work, Gertrude Reeve, Eva Stott, Emma Johnson; refreshments for the first four months, Nancy Desley, Grace Cook, Florence Johnson; charity, Sarah Spink, J. W. Pollard, Ines Steadman, Zenas Snyder, Almira Chesebro; public entertainment, Lucy Burdick, Margaret Morgan, Harry Cook, Louise Jones, Fred Wiemann. The new member of the executive committee is Joseph D. Austin. A message from W. L. Main, who is in Florida, was read. Chicken sandwiches, ice cream and coffee were served. Sixteen were present from Waterly, 18 from other granges and 82 from Mystic, making 114 present at the meeting.

Walter H. Lathrop, a graduate of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, class of 1903, is a member of the recently organized Alumni association in New London. He attended the banquet recently held by the organization.

Miss Adelaide E. Bucklyn, who has been ill with diphtheria, is out again and has resumed teaching in New London.

Miss Tausta Radiconi, of Washington, a student at Chapman Technical school, New London, is confined to her home with scarlet fever. Miss Mary Radiconi, a student at the New London Business college, has just recovered from diphtheria.

A card received from W. L. Main says the weather is ideal in St. Petersburg, Fla. He found the traveling very bad in Georgia. The mud was so deep he had to dig out twice. He found the hotels full at the nearest village, owing to a washout below there which caused the tourists to stop over night.

Howard E. Fuller of Main street, left Thursday morning for the motor boat show in the Grand Central Palace, New York. James W. Lathrop and Company has ten of their engines in the exhibition.

Frank C. Wheeler is confined to his home by illness.

James W. Pollard attended the Stonington Grange meeting Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morgan and S. J. Swallow of Stonington were here Thursday evening to attend Mystic Grange meeting.

STONINGTON

S. H. S. presented their annual play in Borough hall this week. This year's offering was entitled "Seventeen" and the amateur cast of students from Mystic, Westerly and Stonington took their parts well. The play was presented at the Broadway school and at the West Broad Street school in Westerly.

Dennis Dempsey, Dr. Owen J. Dempsey's father, returned here, Monday from Philadelphia, where he has recently been staying.

Mrs. Frank Stanton and Mrs. H. B. Noyes were visitors in New London Wednesday.

Mrs. Baton is spending the week end with her family in Moosup.

F. J. Connors and family were recent visitors in Westerly.

The Misses Caroline E. Ode and Hilda Gaynor were visitors in New London Wednesday.

Frank Raymond is visiting in Bridgeport.

The Girl Scouts took a long hike Sunday through the woods north of the town. They carried a food supply for the birds.

Charles Sonza, an employe of the Atwood Machine Co., who recently cut his finger in the Atwood plant, was awarded a compensation, at the rate of $21 by Commissioner Donohue.

SOUTH COVENTRY

A large circle of friends in this city was pained to learn of the death of Miss Rose J. Topliff, 77, at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. P. Palmer at South Hadley, Mass., Tuesday afternoon, after a long illness. Miss Topliff was born in South Coventry November 28, 1848, the daughter of Harlow and Sarah Topliff. For years she was a successful teacher in the public schools of Coventry. She was of an unusually sweet and sympathetic nature, accompanied by a strong Christian character, holding a warm place in the hearts of all. She was patient in her years of afflictions, interested to the end in both the private affairs of friends and public affairs of the day. She was an ardent worker in the church and Sunday school until health and declining years prevented. Funeral services and burial was held in South Hadley, Mass., Thursday afternoon.

Your doctor likes THIS breakfast,

The "Ideal Breakfast Food" because it is so rich in nourishment and yet so appetizing.

In Hecker's Cream Farina is nothing but the very hearts of wheat. Every bit of vitality hidden by nature in the center of each grain—the part richest in nourishment and full of good flavor.

A smooth, creamy breakfast dish that the whole family will enjoy day after day.

NOANK

Capt. Chester Hubbard Fish a former Noank boy, son of Mrs. Adam Fish of the village received two gold medals and seven members of the crew received $50 in gold from the Life saving Benevolent association of New York for brave work in saving 32 members of the crew of the Norwegian ship Siren a few months ago. President Coolidge also wrote Capt. Fish a letter of commendation on his brave work.

Many from the village attended the whist given by the O. E. S. at Mystic Thursday evening.

News was received in the village with regret of the death from pneumonia of Charles Henry Latham, 73, at his home in Mystic. He was the son of the late Hannah Eldredge and Capt. William H. Latham.

Philathea class of Noank Baptist church gave a birthday party to Dr. S. P. Fish, the faithful teacher. There were readings by Mrs. Carrie Fitch and Miss Eloise Rose, musical selections by Mrs. Hope Peterson, Mrs. Eunice Carpenter, Mrs. Julia Browning and Miss Ada Davis, games and refreshments were served. Dr. Fitch was presented a silk umbrella with amber and silver handle, among those present were Mrs. J. P. Brown, Mrs. Hope Peterson, Mrs. Wilhelmina MacDonald, Mrs. Helen Brown, Mrs. Bertha Ashcroft, Mrs. Eunice Carpenter, Mrs. Julia Banning, Mrs. Laura Hodgson, Mrs. Lena Croseman, Mrs. Alice W. Chester, Mrs. Bessie Palmer, Eloise Rose, Eleaner Scaplen, Anna Rathbun, Lottie Morgan, Gertrude Brown, Maude Fitch, Pearl Carson, Ada May Davis, and Irma Doughty.

The cottage at Mason Island built by Eugene McDonald for John Miller is completed. It is the largest one on the island.

Samuel Chesebro of Middletown was a caller in the village this week.

Boone Spink of Providence is at his home for a few days.

The dance given by the fire company was attended by a large crowd. Noyes orchestra played and Jack Donahue of North Stonington prompted for the old time square sets. The prize for the old fashioned waltz was won by Edward Schoonmaker and Miss Dorothy Baker, both from the village.

A birthday party given Roscoe Rocchicolhi at his home on Potter court Thursday evening was later turned into a fishermen's party. A prize was given the one who told the biggest fish story and Carl Ashcraft won. It was a picture of his boat. Games were played and there was dancing to music by Lesley Smith at the piano. Albert Hanks drums and Laurence Ellis cornet. He received many gifts, one coming from the fishermen at Wilbur dock who gave him a large picture of the duck.

Mrs. Lydia Chester is ill at her home on Main street.

Miss M. Manion of East Lyme is visiting in the village.

CAPTAIN HENRY GREEN

ROCKPORT CHURCH APPRECIATED GIFT

(Special to The Bulletin.)

An article of much interest to Canterbury people and others in this vicinity was published in the Rockford news of a Gloucester, Mass., daily of Dec. 28, 1925. This article gave a detailed account of the presentation to the first church of Rockport, which was founded by Ebenezer Cleveland, a native of Canterbury, of an ancient Windsor chair, from the church at Canterbury Green.

One day last summer, George W. Solley, a citizen of Rockport, being interested in seeing the birthplace of the Cleaveland, who had done so much for his home town, came to Canterbury. Besides the Cleaveland landmarks he visited the church, which he describes as "a very beautiful old white meeting-house." Here he discovered a Windsor chair, and, later in conversation with some of the people, expressed a wish that the chair might be given to the Rockport church as a memorial of their connecting associations. The matter was brought before the proper authorities. They decided favorably and the chair was sent to its new home accompanied by several photographs of the church and village streets.

The chair is described as being an old type of fan-backed Windsor, probably of about 1750, made by hand of pine, oak and maple. It had had three coats of paint of different colors. The wood, after the removal of the paint, was like polished brass, smooth and hard by use. No one could remember when it was placed in the church or where it came from. After being done over a small brass tablet was placed on the back inscribed as follows:

"This chair, from the church of Rev. Ebenezer Cleaveland, Canterbury, Conn., was presented to the First Congregational church of Rockport, Mass., December 25, 1925."

At the time of its presentation at the evening service, Dec. 27th., a speech was made by Mr. Solley, who told of finding the chair and gave a sketch of the life of Ebenezer Cleaveland, who was born in Canterbury, Dec. 25, 1735, of the same family as Moses Cleaveland, the founder of the city of Cleveland, Ohio. In 1753, as a young man, Ebenezer Cleaveland, a graduate of Yale, he went with his wife and two children, on horseback from Connecticut, to the settlement in Massachusetts called Sandy Bay, now Rockport.

There he established the first church and was ordained in 1755. He was a man of courage and daring and spent much of his life with the army in the French and Indian wars and the Revolution and was called the Fighting Parson. Though he was away from his parish much of the time the people would have no other settled pastor while he lived. He died on July 4, 1805 and was buried in a local cemetery.

At the close of the address and the formal presentation, the chair was placed by the deacons of the church under the memorial tablet to Mr. Cleaveland, the congregation singing America. The Canterbury photographs had been framed and placed in a conspicuous position near the altar.

An appreciative letter to the pastor of the Canterbury church, from Rev. Walter Campbell, of the Rockport church, was received in December and is here quoted: "I have just looked at the beautiful old chair which the people of the old First Congregational church of Canterbury, have given to the old First Congregational church of Rockport. The kindly fraternal spirit which prompted the gift touches us very deeply. The memory of Rev. Ebenezer Cleaveland is very highly cherished by the people of this church and now to have a chair from his boyhood home means much to us. We shall have the chair refinished and properly inscribed and then placed under the Cleaveland tablet in the church. I trust that you and other members of your church may sometime pay us a fraternal visit.

Rev. Mr. Payne, of Jewett City, is expected to supply at the church for the present.

Rev. George Clark, a former pastor here, with Mrs. Clark, were callers on in town this week. Rev. Mr. Clark is now pastor of the Preston City Congregational church, after spending several years in New Hampshire. His oldest son, George, is a jeweler in Providence, Warren and Walter are located in Orleans, Mass., and Harold, the youngest, is attending Colby college, Waterville, Maine. One son, Leslie, died while in the service during the war.

At the meeting of the grange Wednesday evening, the first and second degrees were given. Mrs. Lillian Frink assisted by Mrs. Emma Appley, have been busy this week installing the officers of neighboring granges.

Herbert Williams is away from home this week. Last week he attended the State grange at Hartford.

Nelson Lyon has been sick but is able to be out again.

A meeting of the Library association was held last Saturday at the home of Mrs. Clinton Frink. Officers are: President, Miss Lucy Baldwin; secretary and treasurer, Miss Grace Dagley; directors, Mrs. Lovell, Mrs Hawes, Mrs. Frink, Miss King, Miss Hadley and Mr. Miller. A visit from the state librarian and the establishment of a town library is looked for in the near future.

THE TEXTILE STORE

MAIN STREET, WESTERLY, R. I.

(A retail store operated by The Westerly Textile Company of Westerly, R. I., manufacturers of cotton and rayon materials for glass curtains, overdrapes and bed spreads)

ANNUAL SALE

50-inch RAYON CREPE DRESS GOODS, yard 98c
SUNFAST 50-inch REPPS, in all colors, yard 89c
MONKS CLOTH ..... 36-inch, 69c — 50-inch, 89c
SUNFAST RAYON OVERDRAPES—From, Yard .. 79c up
SUNFAST COTTON OVERDRAPES—From, Yard 44c up
SUNFAST RAYON GAUZES, in all colors, 36", 52c; 50", 71c
Rayon Crinkle Bed Spreads, in all colors, 81x108 ..... $5.49

MANY OTHER WONDERFUL VALUES. MAIL ORDERS SOLICITED.

UNCASVILLE

On Friday evening a sale called the peddlers parade, was given in the chapel by the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church. The sale was in charge of the president, Mrs. Richard Johnson; and the following members were the peddlers. Mrs. Jennie Potter, bread, Mrs. J. Y. Miller; baskets, Lewellyn Potter, bootblack; Mrs. Merritt Tooker, oranges Mrs. Reuben Bolles, bananas; Mrs. Weld, preserves; Mrs. Angie Chapel, candy; Mrs. William Spiers, ice cream; Mrs. Buck Hewett, popcorn; Mrs. Cousins, apple woman; Mrs. Cora Botham, doughnuts; Mrs. Illisleidl, fortune teller; Mrs. Lightowler, crullers; Mrs. Charlotte Hope, cookies; Mrs. Charles Hurlbut and Mrs. Gesner, coffee; Mrs. Ella Church, pies; Mrs. Albert W. Avery, fancy articles; Mrs. Nancy Rogers, cake; Mrs. Charles Ramage, peanuts; Mr. Beckwith, soldier Reuben Bolles, bell ringer; Hubert Dart, blind man; Morton Newton, hurdy-gurdy; Arzella Newton, tambourine; Mrs. Dart, auctioneer. The music was in charge of Mrs. Annie Newton.

Rev. M. E. Genter, district superintendent, who was expected to preach at the Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday morning, has been called to Maine on church business. He will preach here at some later date.

The Boy Scouts of Montville went on a hike to Gardner Lake, where they spent the week end and had a fine time. They were accompanied by Scoutmaster Edmond Rogers.

On the evening of January 12, Thames lodge, I. O. O. F., of Montville met and installed the following members: Noble grand, Truman Keyes; vice grand, Roger Bullard; warden, Earl Lathrop; conductor, Percy Allen; chaplain, Fred Hubert; recording secretary, Robert Kenneson; financial secretary, Dan D. Home; treasurer, Victor Roselund; inside guardian, Harold Cornet; outside guardian, Lawrence Lathrop; R. S. N. G., Robert Balon; L. S. N. G., John Home; L. S. V. G., Eugene Chapman; R. S. V. G., Carl Hurshal; R. S. S., David Crosby; L. S. S., David Estey.

Mr. Joseph Hicker who is with an insurance company in Detroit, is visiting his mother in Montville. He has been staying in Logan for his health, and as he had some difficulty in getting here from Montana, was too late to attend the funeral services of his father.

Mrs. Mabel Chapman entertained the members of the Ladies' Aid society of the Union Baptist church Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Gurdon Perkins of Uncasville, was one of the guests at the housewarming of Mr. and Mrs. John Reynolds of Vauxhall street, New London, on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Hewett left on Wednesday morning for Tryon, North Carolina, where they will spend the rest of the winter.

Miss Carrie Keeney, who has been quite ill at her home, is improving slowly. She is being cared for by Mrs. Capitola Burgess.

GURLEYVILLE

Mr. Leon Dimock and family of Springfield, Mass., were guests over the week end of Mr. Dimock's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Dimock.

George Taylor and family of South Coventry were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wood, the first of the week.

District Superintendent Rev. Myren E. Genter, of Norwich, will hold the Fourth Quarterly Conference here Wednesday, Feb. 3rd.

After seeing his wife we frequently can understand why a man has such decided views.

Good LOOKS-
Cosy COMFORT

Smart body lines, clean-cut, swagger, low . . . a quality polished lacquer finish . . . big, wide windows . . . one-piece windshield . . . extra wide doors . . . give this car the appearance of double the money. Full Sedan dimensions . . . the widest seats ever built into a light car . . . leg-room that will surprise you . . . make it as comfortable as any light car you ever rode in.

The New WILLYS FINANCE PLAN furnishes credit at the lowest cost in the industry. Investigate.

SEDAN $595 F. O. B. FACTORY

OVERLAND

with SLIDING GEAR TRANSMISSION

Fontaine Bros. 175 North Main Street.

H. H. Starkweather Danielson, Conn.

Overland Sales & Service Plainfield, Conn.

THE SOCIAL CORNER

WINTRY WEATHER GIVES NO EXCUSE FOR A WINTRY DISPOSITION

SOCIAL CORNER POETRY
Maud Muller Up to Date

Maud Muller, on a winter day,
Went and voted, so they say;
Beneath the brim of her jaunty hat
She gave her ear muffs a gentle pat,
Long ago she had left behind
The cares that deaden a woman's mind,
She hadn't a thought for the price of beans
Or the bargain sales at the great Stylejo's.
For domestic bliss not a whit cared she,
Here was Duty, with a capital D.
And she thrilled to the very finger-tips
At the splendid vision of man's eclipse
As, with all the fervor of ardent youth,
She tripped away to the voting booth,
And took her place in the waiting line
In bliss-ecstatic and mood divine.

Over the way, by the village green,
The Judge was parking his limousine,
And he took his place, with a cheery nod,
In line, just back of the lovely Maud,
But soon he left, with a bitter sigh,
For alas! her hatpin had pierced his eye.
And, as he muttered and shook his head,
They knew it wasn't a prayer he said.
Maud opened the ballot with trembling hand
And every word of it closely scanned,
Then said to herself, "What a perfect shame!
There isn't a single woman's name!"
And then and there made a mental note
"They'll all be women, when women vote.
But long have I waited for this day,
No selfish motive my hand shall stay."

So there in the booth at the old Town Hall,
With a generous hand she marked them all.
Wherever she found a vacant space
A neat and black little cross she'd trace,
And to prove that she knew the writing game,
With many a flourish she signed her name.
And the ballot counters, all of them,
Pronounced her ballot a perfect gem.
Then she said, on her homeward way,
"Well! this is the end of a perfect day."

—Katherine L. Daniher.
Sent in by GRANGER.

A New Year Vow

I vow, this year, I will be strong
To try each task.
A chance to help some other's need
Is all I ask.
I want to guide some weaker feet
From paths of wrong,
And prove the value of my life
By being strong!

I vow, this year, I will be kind
To all about.
That no unpleasant things shall make
Me fret and pout.
If tempted to be harsh and give
Someone "my mind,"
I'll strive to keep my temper in
And just be kind!

I vow, this year, I will be true
To every trust,
And not perform the easiest tasks,
But those I must.
And live so when this short, short
Year is through,
Though I have not been great nor wise,
I have been true!

I vow, this year, that I will work,
Love, laugh and lift,
And guide my boat with steady hand,
Nor let it drift.
I'll try to make this blessed year
My best—and then,
If I should fail in '26,
I'll vow again!

—John W. Holland in Progressive Farmer.
Sent in by E. M. R. C. P.

Your Mother

Of all the words, of mortal tongue
There isn't any other
That sounds one half as dear and sweet
As the precious name of mother.

She can lighten any burden
She can lift your load of care
And you never had a trouble,
That she wasn't there to share.

Tho' you often sorely grieve her
And follow paths astray
That cause you tears of bitter sorrow
She will kiss them all away.

Other friends may oft forsake you
And cause you woes, to thus increase
But your mother'll not forget you
Nor will her prayers for you e'er cease.

Sent in by GERALDINE.

Take a Tip From Father

Son, I haven't much to tell you,
I have learned that good advice is
A prescription which but few of us
Will take;
And my long and windy warnings might forsake you in a crisis—
And besides, you've got your own career to make;
I have just this bit of counsel which may help you go the distance
With no useless or unnecessary stop,
As you mingle in the melee of the struggle for existence,
Don't ever try to argue with a cop.

There are plenty of adventures which a man may get away with,
Though the world proclaim them hopeless from the start;
You may find a whirring buz-saw is a pretty thing to play with,
And times a Bengal tiger has a heart;
Youth is always doing wonders and forever more achieving
While the sages sneer and prophesy a flop;
But there are some final limits, it's a fact that's worth believing,
So don't ever try to argue with a cop.

You might swim the whirlpool rapids,
You might hit your way through granite,
You might set the Mississippi all
aflame;
But debating with Policemen— take a tip from Dad and earn it—
For the issue is infallibly the same:
You are licked before you've started with your futile protestations,
So just do the way he tells you, on the hop,
And unless you have a fancy for a jail's accommodations
Don't you ever try to argue with a cop.

—Written by A. E. C.
Sent in by Crimson Rambler.

ANSWERS AND INQUIRIES

LITTLE BENSTER: Letter forwarded as requested.

ARIES: Letters forwarded as directed.

GLEDA: Your name has been added to the Social Corner list.

SOME GOOD HOME HELPS

Dear Sisters of the Corner: I wonder how many branch stands. I would like to write a short letter on helps so here is how I fix my almonds. Shell the nuts and pour boiling water no them. Let them stand in hot water a minute, then throw them into cold water rub between hands.

As I have corned my own beef you may like to. I take 3 quarts of water to 12 pounds of beef, 1 pound salt, 1 cup brown sugar, 1-2 ounce saltpeter, 1 teaspoon soda. Put these ingredients on to boil, and when they boil, skim and put away to cool. When cold put the beef into it. I put a weight on it to keep it under the brine.

I find now that I can scrape my chocolate without getting it scattered all over. If only one square of chocolate is needed, I draw a line across the two squares at the end, dividing them with a sharp knife shave off the chocolate until I come to the line.

Here is another help. If your shoes slip at the heel, a small piece of thin felting 2 inches long and 3-4 of an inch wide, glued on the back of low shoes, one half inch from the edge, will prevent shoes from slipping up and down and wearing the socks at this point. If you will always keep this and another piece of thicker felting shaped to fit the heel of the shoe you will know what shoe comfort is, as the latter does away with the jar in walking. Stains are a source of annoyance. I have tried several times immersing my ink spots in melted tallow and then washing them out. After a couple of hours, soaking in the tallow wash out in good soap and water. For taking out blood stains ammonia has no equal even if they are old and dark. For burns it is a good remedy. If used in time will prevent the formation of a blister. It is both cooling and soothing. For bites of mosquitoes and other poisonous insects, it is equally efficacious and for restoring color to cloth, cotton or linen, or even woolen there is nothing better.

If you want to separate postage stamps that sometimes stick together in such a way that they are hard to separate, place them on a newspaper in a hot oven for a few minutes. As soon as the stamps get hot the glue dries and by pressing between the fingers it is readily broken and the stamps may be easily parted.

If you will put salt in your gasoline when cleaning, it will leave no ring after it. I want to suggest you keep upon your toilet table a bottle of borax solution, made by dissolving a teaspoon of powdered borax in a pint of hot water, when a suggestion of a spot appears on any of your light cloth gowns rub the spot with a piece of absorbent cotton wet with the solution. This simple operation will remove dust and spots and perspiration stains. It is really better than naptha or gasoline.

If your aluminum pans or kettles get scorched and black, just fill with water, add a heaping teaspoon of soda and boil for ten minutes. They will be as bright as new.

When you want to bake potatoes, soak the potatoes about three minutes in soap powder and water, then take a cloth and wash them, then rinse well, wipe, rub them in butter, place them on a wire rack in the oven with an asbestos mat under them and bake 45 minutes. This gives them a fine flavor and colors them an appetising brown.

KITTY LOU

GREETINGS FROM WHIRLWIND

Dear Editor and Social Corner Sisters: Hello Everybody.

If it is not too late I wish you all (editor included) a happy, and very prosperous New York. I presume St. Nick was good to you all. He surely was to me. Now the holidays are over and there is a breathing spell before house cleaning, it seems as if the Corner page should have more letters. I haven't much to say as I haven't written any either for a long time, but will try to do better in the future. There are some of the members who write so seldom. I wish to thank the sisters who so kindly remembered me with holiday greetings, also the sister who sent the very pretty calendar. I'll say you are some busy lady.

Jack's Wife—Your card and letter received. Will you write and send me your address once more as I have mislaid your letter with it. Thank you in advance.

Practical Polly: Am glad you like the gift. White Clover has the mate to it. You are to wear it to all Social Corner gatherings, White Clover also. You know the genuine flapper only wears one at a time. That is all I wear. Ha! Ha!

Olive and Jeanie: Am glad to have gotten a glimpse of you at State grange. Some class; 247 of them. The first two couple were from my subordinate grange, (Union No. 25.)

Dom Pedro: Sorry to hear you are sick again, but hope you will be entirely well when you read this.

Joan: Am looking for a nice long letter from you.

Catnip: Glad you are feeling better. Will write soon.

Calla Lily—Have reached the station of M. E. C. in the Pythian Sisters. Had about 150 at my first meeting coming from all over the state. We had a dandy turkey supper for all."

Foxglove: How do you like being a grass widow since Mr. Foxglove has left you?

Cretia: How are you these days. Foxglove and I have put up our busses for the winter and have no way to get to the meetings until spring. You will be interested to know that Mr. Foxglove has gone to Florida for the winter to improve his health, so Foxglove is a grass widow.

Well as I am going to the movies will have to hustle as I am to meet my side kick Foxglove. So wishing all the sick and shutins a happy New Year, will ring off.

WHIRLWIND.

UNCLE SAM

Dear Corner Folks: I am passing on a little article that was related to me recently. The origin of, "Uncle Sam," the popular title of the United States. In the year 1812, a large quantity of provisions for the army was purchased at Troy, N. Y., by Elbert Anderson, a government contractor. The goods were inspected by two brothers, Ebenezer and Samuel Wilson. The last named was invariably known among the workmen as "Uncle Sam." The packages were marked E. A.—U. S. On being asked the meaning of these initials a workman jokingly replied that he did not know unless they meant Elbert Anderson and Uncle Sam. So the title became current among workmen, soldiers and people, and the United States government is known now by those who affectionately call it Uncle Sam. If this is true, it is a good thing for the school children to make note of and remember. I myself often wondered where it first originated, but never heard until recently.

Yours for the good of the Corner,
CRIMSON RAMBLER.

HAD PLEASANT HOLIDAY SEASON.

Dear Editor and Social Corner Sisters: It is some time since I have written but look forward to the Saturday issue of The Bulletin as I get so much pleasure in reading the letters written by the members of the Social Corner. I, also, want to thank the sister for the lovely little calendar and want to thank all who so kindly remembered me with cards and those who sent me gifts. I did not send out as many cards as I intended to, as I left home before the holidays and spent Christmas eve at my daughter's home in Hartford and received lovely gifts which Santa Claus had put on the tree for me. Christmas morning I went to my son's home in Bristol, he having just returned from a trip to Italy for his health. The trip did wonders for him. They held up the Christmas celebration till I arrived and Santa had left some lovely gifts for me there. I surely had a wonderful time and on coming home found many cards and some gifts which I was not long in opening, and enjoying. I have so much to be thankful for. Both of my sons and a son-in-law who have been ill, for some time are much better.

My sympathy goes out to those who are sick and in sorrow and I hope the year 1926 will be bright for all.

LAVENDER.

INTEREST IN THE GRANGE.

Dear Sisters of the Social Corner: I presume many of the sisters and readers are members of the local grange. Some belong to Pomona, and others have been admitted to the court of Flora. It was a great pleasure to me to attend the sessions of the state grange, held in Hartford, last week. In company with Olive and Priscilla, we enjoyed meeting with a large company of people, mostly strangers. A limited number we had met a year ago, when we received the sixth degree of the order. We were glad to see the smiling face of Sister Whirlwind, but unfortunately, unable to speak with her; also to make the acquaintance of a sister granger from Putnam, whose mother is a Social Corner sister, and personal friend of Primrose. The reports from the various deputies, to the state grange, were very gratifying, regarding subordinate granges, 247 having been added to the state membership. The stage setting was very beautiful, and much admiration was expressed. It appealed to me that the grange work and its interest are on the increase. We had the honor of having the state master of Maine, also state master of Rhode Island at some of the sessions, both giving brief addresses. As the National grange will meet in Portland, Maine, next November, we were urgently invited to attend, and make a good showing from Connecticut. If we should all live up to the fine teachings of the grange ritual, observe the Golden Rule, and defend the flag, that never was defeated we could be model citizens.

I wish to thank A Social Corner Member for a very pretty calendar. I admire the poem that Joan sent in last week. It will do us good to read it every day. "Things happen which make us feel blue. But there's somebody worse off than you."

Kind wishes to all.

JENNIE.

CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME

Dear Editor and Social Corner Sisters: In one of our daily papers this past week was a request for old clothing for the poor people of the near east. We are all ready and willing to give where it is really needed, but I do think we should get busy in our own little home town, there are so many who need help right here in Norwich. One family I know of is in need as the mother is very ill and has a large family. The father is out of work and the care of the sick one and household duties falls on a very young girl. There are more families of worthy people who need help but are too proud to ask for help, that I know of. I think it would be nice for each Social Corner Sister to look around and see if she cannot find someone she could help, even though it is only a little. I know many of the Social Corner sisters do a lot of good work outside of their little home, but let us do more. How good it makes us feel when we lay our heads down at night to think we did a little act of kindness that day. Let us do give, whenever we are called upon, but let charity begin at home.

Maple Leaf: Thanks for the lovely rose; I still have it.

To a Social Corner member, many thanks for the lovely card.

Chocolate: I more than enjoyed your little visit; come again.

Hope to see you all on Feb. 6 at Odd Fellows Hall.

Best wishes to all Social Corner sisters.

WETONA.

REMEDY FOR SLEEPLESSNESS

Dear Editor and Sisters of the Social Corner: I suppose I am neglecting my duty as a member of the Corner but I seem to be short of new ideas worth passing on. I have received a very pretty calendar for which I send thanks. I hope the Christmas season was a happy one to you all and that the new year will prove to be one of prosperity and blessing. Let us think and do more for those shut-ins from the outside world. To those who have trouble getting to sleep I want to say, I have a remedy which any one may try—simple and free. Don't worry, be at peace with God and man and move one finger back and forth (I might call it wriggling it) and continuing to do it you will fall asleep. Try it. It has been tried by faithless ones and had the effect desired.

Iola: I would like to eat one of those quart bowl greenings you spoke of.

Spry Bird: I sympathize with you in the loss of a sister. I knew L. H. K. We were in the same Christian Endeavor society before she was married.

Aunt Jerusha: What is the matter with your pies? How many grandchildren spent Christmas with you? I hear you are to have some neighbors again.

I shall be glad to hear that remedy has helped some sleepless one.

SISTER BARBAR.

HOW WE CAN CHEER OTHERS.

Dear Editor and Social Corner Sisters: It has been such a long time since I contributed my mite to the Social Corner page, I did not know but I had been dropped from the Corner family, but a few days ago I received a lovely calendar from A Social Corner Member and I concluded I was not forgotten by all. I wish to heartily thank the sender and all others who sent me lovely cards and booklets during the holidays. I was away on a visit with my son and his family and on my return home found 30 cards and letters to cheer and make me happy. How much a little card can do to cheer and encourage us when we feel sad and lonely.

Let us remember this and send more of them to our friends when they are bereaved and broken hearted.

At the beginning of the New Year it is good for us to count our blessings and resolve to try and make those we associate with happy and in that way we shall be happier ourselves.

The Social Corner letters and poetry of late, and especially through the holidays, were fine and I enjoyed them very much. If we could only practice many of the suggestions and rules we read each week our work would be made lighter and our homes brighter.

Several sisters have been inquiring for the old members and why they do not write oftener. I am sure if I could write as interestingly as many of the sisters I should want to write every week.

Hope to be able to attend another Corner meeting in the Buckingham when the weather is better. I am shut in just now for a while.

I have never seen one of the Corner pins, but would like one of them are any left. I hope all the sick ones will be restored to good health and that 1926 will be a very happy year for all. Again thanking you I remain

Sincerely yours,
GRANDA GRAY.

TO OPEN A LOBSTER

Dear Corner Members: To open a lobster, separate the tail from the body, and shake out the tom-ally and, also the "coral," if there is any, upon a plate. Then by drawing the body from the shell with your thumb, and pressing the part near the head against the shell with the first and second fingers, you will free it from the stomach or "lady". Now split the lobster through the center and with a fork, pick the meat from the joints. Cut the underside of the tail open and remove the meat without breaking. On the upper part of that end of this meat, which is joined to the body, is a small piece of flesh which should be lifted; and a strip of meat attached to it should be turned back to the extreme end of the tail. This will uncover a little vein, running the entire length, which must be removed. Sometime this vein is dark, and sometimes almost as light as the meat itself. It and the stomach are the only parts not eatable.

The piece that covered the vein should be turned again into place. Hold the claws on edge, on a thick board, and strike hard with a hammer until the shell cracks. Draw apart and take out the meat. If you have the claws laying flat on the board when you strike, you do not smash the shell but you smash the meat and thus spoil a fine dish. Remember that the stomach of the lobster is found near the head, and, as near as I can explain, it is a small sack containing poisonous matter; and that is the intestinal vein that is found in the tail. These should always be carefully removed. When a lobster is opened in the manner explained it may be arranged handsomely on a dish—and each person can season it at the table to suit him or herself.

I was wondering what help I could send in this week. I refuse to write without sending some help and as I was reading The Corner, I read where one sister explained how to dress a goose, and as I have opened many a lobster I thought I would venture writing how I do it.

ETHELYN.

GREETINGS FROM 1492

Dear Sisters and Editor: First I want to thank A Corner Member for my dainty calendar. I couldn't have been better pleased with it if I had picked it out myself.

Hot tin biscuit: The fudge was fine Why don't you send in your recipe? If you have forgotten how to spell your name perhaps the editor will forgive you and let you choose another.

How many tried Eassy's marshmallow fudge? I can say it is dainty. Have used the marshmallow before but now with the brown sugar.

Made some of Peggy Alder's snicker doodles. Pretty good.

I think when the "Lone Man" visits club No. 4 again he had better bring his music box along and give us some music. We may not be so critical as Town Criers were.

Hollyhock: I think the danger is over, Haven't seen any notice on the sign post or in the papers.

I was glad Ethelyn sent in those recipes for using sour milk. I never could make good sour milk biscuits before.

How long have you studied French Votani? Didn't know they taught it in your school.

I wonder if any of the sisters singe their chickens over their oil stove? It is much better than using paper as it doesn't blacken the skin.

I was going to ask Old Mrs. Tibbitts why she didn't write but she got ahead of me and wrote first. Perhaps Tildy can stop weeping long enough to write a note.

I hope these high winds haven't blown Barbara out of the state. Haven't seen her since September. I know she feels the gales up there. Mr. Barbara told me about the gentle zephyrs up there. Yours for the Corner.

1492

THE SIGN OF AQUARIUS

Dear Editor and Social Cornerites: A glad New Year to all. Many thanks to all who sent me greetings and to a Social Corner Member for calendar. The picture is that of an open fire place with crackling logs. May we all have a cheery family fireside this 1926.

Balsam Fir, Potlatch and Sassy: Thank you for your wonderful letters to me. Hope to answer by letter soon.

How many of our members noticed the bow of colors in the west just before sunset on Jan. 13th. No rain, so we could not call it a rainbow. The colors were reversed in order also. Next day we had an eclipse of the sun. How many noticed the new moon and sparkling planet near it Jan. 15th.

This reminds me we are about to pass into the sign Aquarius (The water man which is the eleventh sign of the Zodiac and the negative pole of the air trinity. Aquarius begins January 20th and ends February 19th every year. All persons born in this period are Aquarius subjects. The sign is ruled by Uranus, which governs electricity, the unseen and mysterious forces of nature. Aquarius corresponds to the ankles in the body of humankind, and governs happiness and pleasure. The colors are Nile green, salmon-pink and blue. The gem is sapphire. The tribe is "Dan" meaning "a judge". April and August are favorable months. Saturday is the important day of week, and from Oct. 14th to 21st; and from May 27th to June 4th are fortunate weeks of the year for Aquarians.

Thoughts of health for the ill ones, thoughts of courage for the afflicted ones from

ARIES

SUGGESTS TRIP TO NORWICH

Dear Editor and Social Corner Friends: Am sorry I could not be with you at the Chamber of Commerce meeting the 13th, but I have been under the doctor's care for two weeks with bronchitis. I am better now and hope to be with you next time.

I want to thank a Social Corner member for the beautiful calendar. I am very fond of bluebirds, but never knew they meant happiness before.

Wiltwyck: Am sorry I couldn't be there with my pie the 13th.

Let's see next month is donation month isn't it?

Let's go to Norwich next month to the Social Corner, what say?

Lavender: I am coming up there soon. Do you believe it?

Huldy: How's the girl? I wish you didn't live so far, but I may get a chance to get there yet.

Aunty No. 1: Am waiting patiently to get that letter. Hope you all keep warm and well.

Grace: Thanks, you may hear from me more often for I write oftener than I did.

BIDDY.

BE MORE FRIENDLY TOWARD EACH OTHER

Dear Social Corner: Dr. Johnson said, "If a man does not make new acquaintances as he advances through life he will soon find himself left alone." And if we want to make the Corner a success we must be more friendly towards each other. Whenever a new member is admitted give her a welcome, especially when we have our meetings. It does not pay to be too self righteous. Have charity for all. We are not all made alike and the Lord did not want us that way. If he had we would have been alike.

Thanks for the calendar from a Social Corner Member. The little house reminds me of the house by the side of the road where I was born. The little birds haven't brought me health and wealth yet but there are eleven months more ahead. Maybe I'll get it next New Year. I am living in hopes.

Butterfly: I am glad you got the card. I was not sure of your address. Let me khow when you are coming over. I want to be here. I supposed you would not miss the meeting for you have a car and no hills are too high for it to climb. Did you get a taste of the baked beans? You will find my address in the telephone directory.

Dom Pedro: I do not know you but can sympathize with you for I am a shut-in most of the time, especially in the winter. I know what it is to be lonely. I hope you are better, and some time in the future hope to meet you face to face.

Dear Aries: So you did not get to the last meeting. Neither did I but hope to be able to accept Twice Twenty's invite to meet with her at Oakland beach when the weather is just right and the clams are just right. And I hope Mr. Twice Twenty will be there.

I know you are busy for you are one who is never idle. The verses you sent in please me. And Eve, how does she like the cold? But it is about the same at home. It depends on the part of the country she came from.

Bonie: You do send in the verse that is extra good.

How many of us can balance to partners, ladies change eight hands around? And who has danced with "All ready Mr. Cady," as prompter? We have gained in weight and no fat person can dance like a feather—no spring in their heels. If anyone wants to reduce try this stunt—pat your head and rub your stomach at the same time.

PISCES.

FREE AIR IN FLORIDA

Dear Social Corner Sisters:—Well, I've been having the time of my life. Going, going and goging some more. I wish I had kept tract of the number of miles I have traveled since I went to a Social Corner meeting. I am so glad that Florida is one of the United States. It is beautiful here. The flowers are blooming their heads off and our garden is coming along fine. Picked string beans today (Jan. 18th.) Tomatoes are starting to get ripe and although I've been to many of the cities around here I haven't seen Yankee in Cracker Land. There are so many Northerners around here I can hardly believe I am in a southern city.

At Christmas time a tree was strung with electric lights and as it stood on a park in the center of the city they erected a band stand and gave a concert. It seemed strange to me at a Christmas tree dressed in summer clothes and the children rolling on the grass.

We have wanted to see an alligator ever since we have been here so finally we went to St. Petersburg and paid a quarter to see some at an alligator hatchery. The alligators eggs are larger than ducks egg, and as to taste I dunno.

My family and I all took a ride up to Wekiwa springs. The water flows from this spring at the rate of 26,754 gallons per minute. The temperature of the water remains at 74 degrees the year round. A short distance away from the main flow we went out on a small pier and watched the fish which are very tame. Some, called cat fish or, as we call them in the north, mud pouts, would come to the surface and eat bread from our hands. I would not have believed it if I hadn't seen it.

We have great times going to land sales. Went to one over at Turkey lake one day and they served a fish fry dinner. A big iron kettle was placed over the fire and filled about half full of cooking oil. When the oil was boiling hot in went the floured fish. There was another kettle handy for draining purposes. It was half past two when we ate and I never was so hungry in my life. And I truthfully believe that fish tasted the best to me of anything I ever ate. There was bread to go with it and it was served on paper plates Some didn't get the plate but we all got plenty of fish and of course that was the main thing.

There are some of the names of places down here. There is a lake called Okahumpka, another Takopekalega. Cities are named Tavares, Ybor, Ocoee, Taft and Kissimmee.

It seems good to be rid of the oiled roads that we had in the north. Most of the roads here are paved with brick and so very clean.

Well, Rural Aunty, here is the letter which you longed for. Some day maybe, I'll get caught up on my correspondence. All of our windows are up today and the doors are open, the sun is shining after a little summer shower and everything is lovely and the goose hangs high with plenty of FREE AIR.

SOME CANDY RECIPES

Dear Corner Sisters: Here are some candy recipes you may like to try:

Dropped Fudge: Mix 2 1-4 cups sugar, 1-4 cup milk, and 1 1-2 squares bitter chocolate, cut or grated, and stir over the fire until the sugar is dissolved. Let boil exactly five minutes. Add the vanilla, remove from the fire, and place where it will grow cold, but do not stir it. When cold add 1 tablespoon butter and stir until thick. Drop by spoonfuls onto a buttered plate or pan, twisting the spoon a little when dropping to give the piece of candy a spiral top.

Fudge Sandwich: Spread the flat side of a vanilla cooky (the kind you buy are most satisfactory) with fudge, then place a second wafer on that so that the two flat sides are together. Drop a bit of fudge on the top and put a walnut meat on this.

Fruit Pudding Cake: Put 1-2 cup seeded raisins, 1-2 cup pitted dates, 1-2 cup layer figs, 8 pitted prunes and 8 cooked or canned apricots through a meat grinder and add 1-2 cup nut meats. Form into small balls and roll in powdered sugar.

Peanut Butter Coconut Candy: Mix to a paste 1 tablespoon corn or maple sirup, 1 cup shredded or grated coconut, 1 teaspoon vanilla, and 4 or 5 tablespoons peanut butter. Roll into small balls with the hands. Then roll in more coconut and put in a cold place.

Best wishes to the Corner members.

MAJESTIC.

KEEP HOME FIRES BURNING.

Dear Editor of the Social Corner: I was not aware when I was adopted into your family that every member, in order to be a member in good standing, was expected to write a letter at least once a month. I think that one of our good faithful sisters mentioned this in one of her letters a week or two ago. Now it seems perfectly right that we should be willing and glad to write home once a month. On the other hand if this is a rule of our home circle there must be a great many of our family who have wandered away to the far country for we have not heard from them for a long time. Now this seems just the time to begin and do our part in keeping the home fires burning.

Silent Partner: So you spent a week with Jack's wife? Well I can imagine just about what was going on most of the time, for I had the pleasure of a short visit at her home last summer.

I presume that Ormandine chimed in just a little during the evening: She never did like to see time wasted or lose a chance to put in a good word where she really thought that it would add to the pleasure of the evening. You have some memory. I am sure, when you mention the polish that I had on my shoes on one of my visits to P. I do remember it and I can go you one better, when you say that you do not remember the brand. I remember that it was "Bixby's best." I also remember that the stove did not suffer for the loss of the amount that it took to cover my shoes for Aunt's stove always shone like a glass bottle.

But never mind as I remember it we went to Sunday school just the same and returned in a good snow storm with some less polish than when we started out.

N. O. T.

CHANCE FOR HELPFUL ARTICLES

Dear Social Corner Friends: If it is not too late I would like to extend New Year greetings to the editor and members of the Social corner with the earnest wish that this may be the best year yet for us.

As I am very busy now caring for my shut-in I have little time for writing. Thanks to a Social Corner member for one of the daintiest of calendars.

Free Air: I have not yet seen a Corner letter from you, since you left old New England but I read the one in the "Journal" so characteristic of you in every line. Do, please, favor us, not just once but every now and then. Just at present our champion fiddler is putting old Plainfield on the map so we are a rival to Florida for a bit. Since having a shut-in in my household I have thought more than I formerly did about the shut-ins who are members of our Social Corner family. I believe there are quite a few of these and I remember reading some very bright and cheery letters from them. I think some interesting and helpful articles might be written about "How to be a successful Shut-in" or "How to be a Success though a Shut-in." Just at the present time my invalid and I would read any such articles most readerly and I am quite confident that we should receive much benefit from them.

Come on, Sisters, help us out with good suggestions both for the invalid and nurse.

How I miss the Corner meetings! I have not attended one for nearly two years, I believe, but enjoy reading about them so much.

Necia: Are you too, fully occupied keeping the home fires burning? I have thought of you often since leaving Norwich. Long may the Corner continue to scatter sunshine. With best wishes to you all.

EVELINE BURR.

BUSY MAKING QUILTS

Social Corner Sisters and all: Best wishes for the New Year. May you have health to enjoy its pleasures and strength to meet its troubles.

I thank A Social Corner Member for my darling calendar, I have it over the small desk in the guest room. What a wonderful person you are to remember this large family as you do.

Attended the meeting in Putnam Dec. 31 and enjoyed every minute. All were so cordial. Dinner was delicious and we were so well entertained in the afternoon.

Was so pleased to meet Rural Aunty in person. We had exchanged letters. And I found her even finer than her letters. Wish I could write and tell you al about it. But it would make too long a letter.

Crimson Rambler: I was never very much interested in piecing quilts—In fact never had done one. But this summer the patch work bug must have bit ten me, for I have made four, called the blazing star with eight points. Some had 25 diamonds to a point, and one had 40. They were very pretty. Three I have given away, one I will keep. One I gave to a sale and brought $12.30.

Iola: I hear we may be neighbors. Is that so?

Euchre: Welcome to the Corner. Am so pleased to have you join.

And welcome to all our new members, and try and write better and oftener than I can.

Catnip: I am sure you are having more than your share of trouble. Am sure you must have been so frightened at the fire.

Dear Lucy Acorn: Your letter has brought a response from one slacker, namely myself.

I want to thank all who sent me cards and gifts Christmas.

Savilla: Have not used my pretty gift yet. Will do so when I come down to a meeting.

Missed some meetings as was ill and shut in a whole month. Am all right again.

Cricket and Spry Bird: Was so sorry to hear of L. H. K.'s death. Did not know she was in such poor health.

She was a good Christian and has gone to her reward.

Maine Lover: My sympathy was with you in your loss.

OLGA.

MORE BLACKBOARD SPACE

Dear Social Corner Sisters: In every house there should be a blackboard and it is useful to help children with writing, reading at home and at school. It will get them more headway with their lessons. All through the year you can think of no more attractive way to teach patriotism, citizenship thankfulness and other virtues than by the use of the board, for picture stencils can be bought if one can not draw free hand. When the children are old enough hope it will be a delight to them to keep records, write quotations and make decorations.

Maple Leaf: How do you like those wax roses I sent you Christmas? Crimson Rambler thinks they are pretty. Will make more later.

Eca: I will remember you Easter with wax roses. U. C. E.: Have not forgotten you.

PAULA.

When Exposed to Air
tea loses its strength and flavor.
"SALADA" TEA
for that reason is never sold in bulk. Your grocer sells this delicious blend. Try SALADA.

ALWAYS LOOKS FOR CORNER LETTERS

Dear friends: You will think I do not appreciate the Corner page as I have written so seldom but the letters are the first thing I look for Saturday morning when the paper is left at our door. No matter how busy I am I just leave everything and look to see who has written and if I have met them. I have had an opportunity to meet with only No. 4 club but am looking forward to visit some of the others in the near future. Just now I am kept in the house most of the time nursing a lame foot and ankle caused by a sprain. I do manage to call upon my nearest neighbors one of whom is Roberta and her father. In the summer time we carry on many a conversation from my back porch and her living room window. If I go any distance at all have to depend upon my better half to take me in the auto.

Curt: Haven't seen your name among the writers in a long while. Why so silent?

The calendar sent me by a Social Corner member is lovely and fully appreciated. Please accept my thanks.

Best regards to all Social Corner Members.

ANNE D.

GREETINGS FROM U. C. E.

Dear Corner Sisters: A greeting to you all for the New Year.

I wish to thank those who sent me cards; also a Corner Member for the calendar.

I enjoy reading the nice letters from week to week and do wish I could write oftener but don't seem to make out very well when I take my pen in hand but mean to write and help fill the page once in a while.

Joan: Your verses were fine.

Crimson Rambler: Your pen doesn't ever get rusty. Glad to read your letters.

Country Sister: Hope we will meet again.

Eca: What has become of you? You would be good for sore eyes. Hope to see you soon.

Queen Elizabeth: Hope your family is well by now.

Hilltop: Hope to see you again soon.

Bumblebee: Come up and bring your friend and we will put the kettle on and all take tea.

Water Lily: How are you? Enjoyed your call very much.

Esmaralda: Was pleased to hear from you and Mr. Best wishes to all yours for the corner's success.

U. C. E.

JUST WHAT WAS WANTED

Dear Social Corner Members: I want to thank a Social Corner Member for the dainty calendar. It was so kind and generous of you, you send so many. Just wish I knew who you were.

Tatting: Am glad you are so much better. Too bad you had to miss the initiation with such a crowd.

Well! Well! Interested Reader, I think you suprised yourself when you wrote again to the Corner. Keep them coming. Was glad to hear you got in to see Tatting when she was sick.

Kochie: I make a cake by your recipe but it is called Dolly Warden cake and it's a good one too.

Crimson Rambler: Which road is it from P. C. to J. C. or from the city to P. C. or am I all off? Is it a good one in summer? I have a number and I have not, can you make that out?

Tatts: I do want to thank you for your brown bread recipe. I make the regular steamed kind but years ago I used to to a place where they made it, I think, as you do and it was good. I was thinking only last week I would write to the Corner and see if anyone had such a recipe and then came yours on Saturday. But wont you tell us just how much meal and flour to use?

E. L. M.

HELPING FILL PAGE

Dear Editor and Social Corner Sisters: I want to help fill up the Corner page. What lovely weather we are having! I just enjoyed the last meeting. Was so glad to see so many out. Although it was rainy outside the sun did shine inside. The best way to be happy is trying to make others happy that are with us.

Was sorry U. C. E. could not meet with us and also Ora. Hope every one of our members will try and come to the next meeting February the 3rd, and help fill in the social hour.

I want to thank the editor for my pin. I will ring off wishing every one health and happiness for the New Year.

HILL TOP.

GINGER CRISP COOKIE'S

Social Corner Page: I will now add my bit to the Social Corner and thank the sister from Norwich for the calendar. I only wish you had put your name on corner for now you have me guessing.

I think some of the sisters will like to try the Ginger Crisp Cookies: 2 eggs 1 1-2 cups sugar, 1 cup molasses, 1 cup butter, 7 cups flour, 1 teaspoon vinegar, 1 teaspoon ginger, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons soda in table spoon water. Roll thin bake quickly.

If any of the sisters has The Dying Californian, kindly send it to Corner Page.

SIS.

ANOTHER CORNER MEMBER

Dear Editor and Social Corner: Have you room for another member of the Social Corner? If so, I will sign my pen name as Gleda, and also hope there will be one pin to spare for me.

I have met with the sisters at Willimantic on two different occasions and enjoyed them very much. Yours in friendship.

GLEDA.

Three negro workmen were killed. David F. Coxwell, a white man, probably fatally injured and five negroes hurt when a box of dynamite exploded on an automobile truck at Coral Gables, Fla.

CUTS-SORES
Cleanse thoroughly—then, without rubbing, apply
VICKS VAPORUB
Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

BODY OF MISSING DOMESTIC FOUND LYING IN ALEWIFE COVE, NEW LONDON

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Jan. 23—Edith Larsen, about 30, a domestic in the employ of Vigno E. Bird, 1071 Ocean avenue, committed suicide by drowning herself in the waters of Alewife Cove early yesterday morning, it was revealed this forenoon when the body of the woman was found lying on the bottom of the cove. No reason for the woman committing her rash act can be advanced by either Mr. Bird or Medical Examiner Charles Kaufman except that she was apparently mentally unbalanced, a fact that is indicated by the scanty attire worn by the woman, for she was clad only in a nightdress and a pair of rubbers.

Miss Larsen retired as usual Wednesday night, but during the early hours of Thursday morning she arose and placing rubbers on her feet walked through Ocean avenue to Glenwood avenue and then to the new highway bridge which spans the cove. She then leaped from the structure and a short time later her desire to end her existance had been accomplished.

When the young woman did not appear about the Bird house yesterday morning a visit to her room revealed that the domestic was absent from the house, but her clothing was lying on a chair. Mr. Bird notified the police, but requested that no publicity be given the disappearance of his employe and for that reason the police kept the woman's disappearance a secret and did little, if anything, towards locating her.

This morning Benjamin Walker, colored chauffeur, employed by Mr. Bird started to search the immediate vicinity of the Bird home for the young woman as it was believed that she had ended her life. Going to the cove Walker went but a short distance before he observed the form of the woman lying in shallow water. Walker notified the authorities of the finding of the body. After Medical Examiner Kaufman had viewed the remains and rendered a finding of death by suicide, he ordered the remains removed to an undertaking establishment.

Frank May, 48 Prest street; George Hill, 8 Pratt street; Thomas McLaughlin, 24 Robinson street; Lillian Grace DeCosta, 9 Crocker street; Wallace Morgan, 7 South Ledyard street, and Mrs. John McKeon and infant daughter, 3 Morse avenue, Groton, patients at Lawrence hospital, were discharged today.

The funeral of Edward Beckwith, late of Waterford, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at 46 Shapeley street, the services being conducted by Rev. J. Romeyn Danforth, pastor of the First Church of Christ. Interment was in Jordan cemetery.

Frank A. Bragg, for several years employed at the plant of the New London Ship & Engine company, died this morning at his late residence, East Manor Lane, Waterford, following a brief illness. He is survived by his wife.

Commissioner of Motor Vehicles Robbins B. Stoeckel today returned the operator's license of Frank Campagna, 66 Jefferson avenue.

Believing that the law is being violated in two business blocks in the heart of the city, it became known today that Lieutenant James C. Sullivan has caused two patrolmen to maintain a continual watch of both places throughout the night. As a result of the edict of Lieut. Sullivan, officers have been stationed eight hours nightly, the past two nights, at the entrances of the places. One place, which was recently opened on Main street, is alleged to be a gambling resort. At this place Patrolman John Sullivan is on duty at the entrance. The other place is on State street and is alleged to be a dispensary of liquor. Patrolman George Perkins is stationed nightly at this establishment. Since the officers were assigned to watch the two places, each place has been in darkness.

James N. Kelley, Washington street, was in New Haven Friday.

A Dodge coupe, owned by Alton T. Miner, 188 Crystal avenue, was stolen from Union street, while Mr. Miner attended the dinner at the Hotel Mohican in connection with the Community Chest drive. The local police were notified of the theft of the auto and a request was made of the state police at Groton and Centerbrook, as well as the police at Norwich, Westerly, Hartford and New Haven to be on the lookout for the stolen car.

A stoker and a Spaniard, whose identity was not established by Medical Examiner Charles Kaufman, died suddenly of heart disease aboard the New London line steamer New Hampshire a short time before the craft arrived in port from New York this morning. Nothing is known of the man's residence, nor his relatives. The body has been removed to an undertaking establishment to await its being claimed.

The man went on watch at 2 o'clock and a short time later he complained of feeling ill. He finaly abandoned work and went to his bunk where he remained unattended. Death occurred when the steamer was between Bartlett's Reef lightship and this port. As soon as the steamer reached port the death of the stoker was reported to Medical Examiner Kaufman, who conducted an investigation and pronounced that death had been caused by heart disease.

James Kennedy was before the police court this morning charged with intoxication. He did not get to a trial as it was announced that he was to be represented by an attorney who desired a continuance of the matter until Saturday. The request was granted. Elmer Hanson was arraigned for intoxication. Judgment was suspended so that he might go to work.

The wicked walked in slippery places this afternoon, but for that matter even the righteous were no surer of their footing. A very little snow fell during the early morning hours, but when it was removed from the walks, or was trampled down, the walking became most treacherous. Indeed danger for pedestrians has rarely been greater. The city management sent a gang of men to scatter sand upon the walks in the principal thoroughfares and thus averted suits for damages by parties who might fall.

The plan for making improvements in Bank street, by the establishment of building lines and the widening of the street, is still in committee of the city council. It will remain there until the matter is thoroughly discussed in all its phases, including the legal aspect of the matter as it concerns the establishment of lines within the last owned if not occupied by buildings of taxpayers. It is understood that counsel for the property owners and the law officer of the city are not convinced that the changes can be made as planned. Some of the owners of property have been paying taxes on land out side the mark the city desires shall be established as a building line. It would seem clear that if owners are restricted in the use of that property that the land must be obtained by purchase or by condemnation. Either course would be one that would be very expensive for the city as viewed by the average observer. On no street in the city is property held at a higher valuation than on Bank street, unless the other street is State street. In front of some of the buildings where it is proposed to establish a building line, inside of the property line, there is a strip of walk some six to eight feet in width and extending along property perhaps a hundred feet. It is apparent that the owners of this land are not to consent to a restriction of their use of the land without compensation from the city. While it is true that the sidewalks are wider than absolutely is necessary that condition is such as has been established by deed of the property. It would be a desirable thing for the buildings to be lined up but to secure that condition is a difficult and costly undertaking. The property owners have attorneys to represent them in this matter and the situation is being studied carefully with a view to land and building owners making a determined effort to secure pay for any rights taken from them.

There are indications that ice dealers will get another "cutting" if the low temperature that prevailed today hangs on for about forty-eight hours. The ponds from which ice is harvested are shallow and they freeze over in a couple of nights, after which the ice increases rapidly in thickness.

H. A. Barnes, cashier of the Essex National bank, Essex, this afternoon communicated with the New London police in an endeavor to apprehend an alleged forger. Mr. Burns stated that last Tuesday forenoon, about 10 o'clock a telephone message was received at the bank and the speaker declared that he was an employe of the United Cigar company, this city, and that a man named James Taylor, colored, was in the store seeking to cash a check drawn on the Essex bank, for $60, by William Bond. The speaker desired to know if the check was a proper one to cash and was informed that the check was a forgery. This afternoon Sergeant John Cavanaugh was assigned to the case and upon visiting the United Cigar store determined that the telephone 2577 is one of the pay station phones in the place and that the clerk who was on duty last Tuesday morning had no knowledge of any attempt by anyone to negotiate a check and neither did he have any telephone conversation with the Essex bank officials.

Charles Williams, a stranger in this vicinity, is a patient at Lawrence hospital suffering from lacerations to his head and face. Williams was found lying alongside the tracks of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, Fort Neck yard, late this afternoon, by sailors stationed at the United States Coast Guard academy. Williams was sent to the hospital, where it was stated he appeared to be intoxicated. Williams, it is believed, slipped and fell while walking through the railroad yard.

Mario A. Musante, 382 Williams street, complained to the police this evening charging the driver of automobile bearing Connecticut registration, N-741, with reckless driving. Musante alleges that his car was damaged by reason of the driving of the operator complained against. Musante asserted that he was driving his machine through Huntington street and near Fremont street the driver of the other car drove his machine in front of Musante's auto, causing Musante to apply his brakes suddenly in order to avoid a crash. In doing so Musante's auto skidded on the slippery highway and crashed against a tree causing the windshield to be shattered and the machine to suffer other damage.

City Manager William A. Holt has practically completed his investigation of alleged acts of Sergeant Patrick Murphy, early last Sunday morning, as a result of Councilor Edward L. Streeter supplying the city manager with information handed him and purporting to supply the basis of charges against the police officer. The city manager interrogated several witnesses today and will, it is believed, conclude his investigation Saturday.

Because of the present and unanticipated cold spell, local ice dealers are preparing to harvest another crop of ice in the event that the cold snap prevails another two or three days. The dealers have harvested one crop and another will, it is stated, be sufficient to take care of the needs of New Londoners next summer.

Joseph M. Perry Jr., formerly of New London, now residing in Niantic, and Miss Edith Lillian Manwaring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Manwaring, Niantic, were married yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Romeyn Danforth, pastor of the First Church of Christ, this city. The bridal couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. James F. Lewis, this city.

Frank E. Dahlberg, 63, residing at the Nelseco hotel, Groton, died suddenly of heart trouble at the hotel yesterday. He was a native of Sweden and was employed as machinist at the plant of the New London Ship & Engine company. Mr. Dahlberg is survived by a son, Herman Dahlberg, Boston, and a daughter, Mrs. Robert Potter, Kittery, Me., formerly of Groton. Mr. Dahlberg was employed on the night shift of the engine company's force and went to the hotel as usual yesterday morning and apparently was in good health. Later in the day an acquaintance had occasion to enter Mr. Dahlberg's room and the occupant was found to be in a critical condition from a heart attack. A physician was summoned, but Mr. Dahlberg expired before medical aid arrived.

BANK STREET PROPERTY OWNERS GET NOTICES

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Jan. 23—The owners of property on the northerly side of Bank stret, where it is intended to establish a building line, the city council having passed a resolution to this effect nearly a year ago, have been notified that a meeting of the Board of Compensation will take place in the municipal building on February 5th. The session will be for the purpose of permitting the property owners to be heard in relation to the price of any land or interest therein proposed to be taken, or affected by the establishment of the proposed building line, or any assessment of benefits or damages resulting from the carrying on of the establishment of the proposed building line. There are about 25 property owners to be notified of the holding of the meeting. The city proposes to establish the building line on the north side of the street, between State and Tiller streets,

END RHEUMATISM PAINS AND ACHES by the use of UROGEN

Urogen

The effective remedy for Rheumatism, Sciatica, Eczema, Neuritis, Lumbago. ORDER THROUGH YOUR DRUGGIST.

TODAY'S EVENTS

Centenary of the birth of Thomas A. D. Wessenden, whom James G. Blaine succeeded in congress.

Dr. Enos B. Tipple, president of Drew Theological seminary, celebrates his 65th birthday anniversary today.

Rear Admiral John G. Tawressey, U. S. N., Construction corps, will be placed on the retired list today for age.

The annual convention of the Southern Fisheries association meets in Jacksonville, Fla., today for a two-day session.

The Chicago Civic Opera company, closing its local season tonight, will start on an extensive tour of the east and south.

Charles Garland, the young millionaire head of the April Farm colony in Lehigh county, Pa., is to be given a hearing in court today on a statutory charge in connection with the birth of the child of Bettina Hovey, member of the colony, on July 4 last.

SUNDAY.

Today is the 15th birthday of the Boy Scout movement.

Dr. R. J. Campbell, famous English pulpit orator, is to preach the annual Gordon Memorial sermon in Khartum Cathedral today.

Today begins the third International Radio week, when broadcasters of the United States, Canada, Mexico and Cuba will transmit experiment programmes for the benefit of European listeners.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Our Motto

"Best Photographs, lowest prices." Desmarais Studio, 325 Main, Norwich. Tel. 564.

For the Lions' Show

"There's strength in numbers" in as far as the Lion's show "That's That" is concerned may be reinforced by the saying there is strength and beauty in numbers. Over 100 beautiful Norwich girls take part in the play adding a color to the show which is both interesting and entertaining. What makes the play more interesting is because the performers are our own boys and girls—the boys and girls whom we meet every day and who make up our community.

Many Norwich mothers and fathers will delight in seeing their boys and girls impersonate their parts in the cast. And well may they be proud of the Norwich children; not only their talent and ability that merits commendation but it is the spirit in which this service is rendered to the community that merits praise. Taking part repeatedly in amateur shows for the benefit of some worthy cause in the community is not a service to be passed over lightly. To the casual observer it may appear that the boys and girls derive lots of pleasure from participating in the play. But the continuous grind from day to day, mostly after days of hard work in the office and place of business makes this pleasure a very hard earned amusement. Were it not for the civic incentive underlying the object of these amateur performances our boys and girls could not be induced to put in, under such strenuous conditions, so much of the time which they ought to employ for their own recreation.

Much is to be said in praise of our people for the kind and hearty support they give to these amateur performances. It demonstrates that the public heart is in the right place by the encouragement it gives it's children in the building of character. "That's That" is surely going to receive the support of the citizens. Those who have business elsewhere on the evening of January 26 and 27 ought to so arrange their business to make possible their attendance at the show on one of the evenings. The entertainment will be well worth the sacrifice and many times the cost of the ticket.

Indoor Carnival at Parish Hall

Without a doubt, the greatest carnival ever held in eastern Connecticut will open tonight in Parish hall, Taftville under the auspices of the Sacred Heart church and the Army-Navy Club, Inc. Plans that have been brought together for several weeks are now all completed and the committee in charge feel satisfied to let the public know that they expect to surpass anything ever held in the vicinity. Higher class attractions, out of the ordinary, are billed and will no doubt prove interesting to all attending.

Topping these will be several boxing bouts by such prominent mitt artists as Young Coulon, Frankie Busch, Kid Wagner, Martin Flaherty, Fighting Joe and others.

Fans who have been paying high prices to witness these men in action will no doubt flock to see their favorites. Young Coulon and Kid Wagner will be the attraction tonight, with other surprises in store. The carnival, which will run for seven nights, will surely give the public more for their money than anything ever attempted.

It's going to be a wow and then some, when that popular Army-Navy club orchestra starts their instruments going and anyone missing this carnival will never get another opportunity to see such an event again.

Palace Theatre.

Its your last chance to see Syd Chaplin in the Man on the Box, and you are going to miss a lot of good entertainment if you let it pass by. The picture is over nine reels in length, but there isn't one foot of padding or a single inch without a laugh. Advertised as better than Charlie's Aunt, it lives up to its advertising. Continuous performance today from 1.30 to closing time. Six acts of good paramount vaudeville with three outstanding features. The Band Box Revue is vaudeville. Five pretty girls and a clever juvenile. Unusual settings; fast snappy lines, good singing and comedy bits that are funny. Vargo and Knoll, the best singing team the Palace has had up to date continue to register just as big as they did on the opening day. A good all around bill.

Coming Sunday.

Rudolph Valentino in a picture that the critics claim is the first good Valentino picture that has been out in two years, comes to the Palace Sunday, in The Eagle. Valentino plays the role of the Eagle, a bandit, whose daring deeds stagle the countryside, but eventually the world's lover is captured by a woman and his love making is of the true Valentino style. This is Valentino's first picture since the joined the big four, Pickford, Fairbanks, Chaplin and Griffith. In other words the United Artist.

Breed Theatre

The much heralded screen version of Channing Pollock's greatest stage play, "The Fool," comes to this city on Sunday at the Breed theatre. Produced by the Fox company and with a year spent in its making, this film adaptation of "The Fool" is rated as one of the finest pictures of the season by critics and public alike who have seen it.

"The Fool," as many local theatregoers will remember who have read the play in book form, or who have seen its stage presentation, is the story of the adventures and romance of a young minister who believed that he could live like Christ in the twentieth century. It has been hailed as one of the greatest plays ever written for stage or screen, not only because of the significant moral message it contains but also for the sheer thrill and entertainment of its melodramtic action and climaxes.

All of the leading members of the cast were especially selected and Edmund Lowe, handsome young Fox screen star, scores the greatest success of his meteoric career in the role of the hero minister, Daniel Gilchrist. Another big part, one which Lowell Sherman made fame in on the stage, is that of Jerry, played by Ray Bloomer in the Fox screen version. Brenda Bond, a new and pretty face in motion pictures, but well known on the stage, has the role of Clare. Others among the leading members of the supporting cast are: Anne Dale, Riley Hatch, Mary Thurman, George Lessey and A. J Herbert.

Broadway Theatre

With patrons of motion pictures clamoring for new departures from the usual trite screen stories, Truart Productions has endeavored to fill the demand in their latest production, "Pals," which comes to the Broadway Theatre on Sunday.

Individual animal stars have been presented in certain productions in the past, but the filming of "Pals" marks a new departure in featuring two of the most intelligent animal stars ever brought before the camera.

Unlike other dog heroes of the screen, Rex, is not a highly pedigreed animal—in fact, it would be very hard to classify him as of any particular breed. Rather, he is just plain dog, full of life and quick to respond to any emergency that might arise.

Black Beauty, the horse, also demonstrated a natural ability or screen acting during the filming of "Pals." He was totally oblivious to the grinding of the camera when scenes were being "shot" and went through his paces like a veteran screen player.

The second picture features Buddy Roosevelt in "Action Galore" which is chuck-full of thrills mixed with comedy. A new comedy and Kinograms make up the remaining attractions. The admission price is only 25c for any seat.

GEORGE ARLISS IN PICTURE FEATURE AT Y. M. C. A. SUNDAY

At 3:30 o'clock on the coming Sunday afternoon, in the big gymnasium of the local Young Men's Christian Association, an unusual feature moving picture will be shown. Disraeli will be personified by the popular personage, George Arliss. The story was written by the well known English dramatist, Louis N. Parker. The story is based on the life of Benjamin Disraeli M. P. and prime minister of England under Queen Victoria, and will depict international intrigue, domestic devotion, the romance of youth and age and the conflict of brilliant minds in a struggle for an empire. In addition to the part taken by George Arliss the following will contribute their abilities to the impressive story: Mrs. George Arliss, Margaret Dale, Louise Huff and Reginald Denny. This picture is at once historic, intensely interesting, uplifting and deeply impressive, and is calculated to appeal to the best in human kind. On several occasions it has been used in churches with splendid effect.

In addition to the picture feature, there will be a brief address in line with the picture, and the usual good musical, both vocal and instrumental will be furnished by Hugh Kinder. Both men and women are invited. The doors will be opened at 3 p. m. and the service will begin promptly at 3:30.

Next Week at United Congregational Church

The Sodalitas will meet in the junior department rooms of the church school at half past seven on Monday evening, to begin work on the Valentine favors for the tuberculosis sanatorium.

All members of the church and parish are urged to attend the annual supper and church meeting to be held at the community house at half past six on Thursday evening.

The Junior Guild meets at the home of Mrs. A. C. Freeman, 89 Union St. at half past seven on Friday evening. Work will be started for the box to be sent to Miss Gertrude Avery, Ahmednagar, India.

The camp-fire will hold its monthly ceremonial meeting at the community house at 7:15 on Friday evening.

Sale of Sachem Street Real Estate

Archa W. Colt has sold for Mrs. Gurdon Huntington to Harry C. McNaught her residence, No. 34 Sachem street. This property was for years the property of the late Thomas Hubbard, it later being owned by the late Frederick L. Osgood, whose Washington street estate it adjoins. Mr. Osgood modernized the house and still further improvements were made after its acquisition by the Huntington family. Mr. McNaught purchased the property for his residence.

Fire Ruins Russ Timber

Ravages of Russia's vast timber resources by fire are so great that they can hardly be calculated. In three months last summer 11,000 fires were reported in the portion of the union within the boundaries of the Russian Socialist Federated Soviet Republic. The forests destroyed covered an area of more than 1,370 square miles. These great forests are practically unguarded and once a fire starts little can be done to check it course until it either burns itself out or nature intervenes.

PALACE | CONTINUOUS TODAY

6 GREAT ACTS TODAY

2 GREAT PICTURES

Syd Chaplin in "The Man on the Box"

"The Scalet Streak," — Second Chapter

—Sunday — Monday — Tuesday — Wednesday—

The world's lover as the suave—a resplendent bandit, whose daring deeds are heralded far and wide, but whose heart is finally turned to romance.

RUDOLPH VALENTINO in "THE EAGLE"

HARRY LANGDON COMEDY | AESOP'S FABLES

Coming Monday—NINE SUNSHINE GIRLS

THE ACKNOWLEDGED LEADER OF ALL

BROADWAY —TODAY—

M. LEVINE, General Manager — Contin. Show—2 to 10.30 Matinee, Children, 15c

GREAT KEITH VAUDEVILLE

Photoplay, "THE UNNAMED WOMAN"—KINOGRAMS

—SUNDAY NITE ONLY—

AN EXCEPTIONAL DOUBLE FEATURE PROGRAM

As out of the ordinary different photoplay

"PALS"

—Featuring—

LOUISE LORRAINE

REX, the Marvelous Dog

BLACK BEAUTY

The Wonder Horse

And here's the other—a book full of action and comedy

BUDDY ROOSEVELT

—in—

ACTION GALORE

It Will Thrill You.

COMEDY | KINOGRAMS | ALL SEATS 25c

MON. NITE ONLY 7 "TRY-OUT" ACTS VAUDEVILLE

EXTRA! EXTRA!

CHARLESTON CONTEST, Local People

COME ALONG AND JOIN THE CROWDS—GREAT FUN!

NOTICE STRAND THEATRE OPEN SUNDAYS ALWAYS A BIG SHOW—2 FEATURES

TWICE DAILY 2:15 and 7:30 Sunday at 7:30

BREED THEATRE

Matinee .... 30c Evening .... 35c Children .. 15-15c

FOR A LIMITED ENGAGEMENT OF 3 DAYS ONLY

SUNDAY — MONDAY — TUESDAY

THE FOOL

With EDMUND LOWE and an All-Star Cast.

A MIGHTY PICTURE FROM CHANNING POLLOCK'S GREAT PLAY

The Girl who ransomed real love for dollars—The Country Wife who tasted city sweets and found them bitter—and the man who fought a three-cornered battle with temptation—these are the dramatic figures in this great screen thunderbolt.

To the Public—You made possible the wonderful success of the stage play, "The Fool," by your word-of-mouth praise and your patronage. If you like our motion picture version of "The Fool," tell your friends and neighbors. Help the cause of clean picutres like this, which need neither censors nor play juries.

TOPICS | NEWS | IMPERIAL COMEDY | One Show Sunday at 7:30

TODAY—Continuous, 1:30-10:30; Children, Matinee 10c.—"WINDS OF CHANCE" with ANNA Q. NILSSON, BEN LYON, HOBART BOSWORTH and 3,500 in cast—"WILD WEST"—COMEDY—NEWS.

EXCHANGE YOUR TICKETS NOW

— AT —

Engler's Broadway Pharmacy

— FOR —

THAT'S THAT

THE LIONS CLUB MUSICAL COMEDY

A JOHN B. ROGERS PRODUCTION

Broadway Theatre — Jan. 26 and 27

GET YOUR TICKETS EARLY

OLD FASHIONED DANCE

Auspices Central Fire Co. No. 1

—TONIGHT—

Town Hall, Central Village

MUSIC BY BILL'S BAND ADMISSION 50c.

DANCE TONIGHT

PULASKI HALL

Music by Thumm's Orchestra

Dancing from 8 to 12.

A GOOD TIME FOR ALL.

Y. M. C. A., SUNDAY, 3:30

—FEATURE PICTURE—

GEORGE ARLISS

—IN—

DISRAELI

BRIEF TALK—MUSIC

Men and Women Invited

"Uncle Joe" Shippee

CHAMPION OLD TIME FIDDLER OF NEW ENGLAND

AND HIS ORCHESTRA

OLD TIME DANCE MUSIC

—For—

OLD TIME DANCES

NOW OPEN FOR ENGAGEMENTS.

JAMES WALKER, Manager.

PLAINFIELD.

Tel. Moosup 17-12.

Prize Masquerade Ball

GIVEN BY

Germania and Immergruen Lodges

At the GERMANIA HALL

32 MARKET STREET

SATURDAY EVENING JAN. 23

Music by CRESCENT ORCHESTRA

TONIGHT and Jan. 26, 28, 30; Feb. 2, 4 and 6

BIG CARNIVAL

by Sacred Heart Church Army-Navy Club, Inc.

BIGGEST AND BEST CARNIVAL EVER HELD IN EASTERN CONNECTICUT.

Dancing — Entertainment — Door Prize — Every Night

TONIGHT—YOUNG COULON vs. KID WAGNER.

MUSIC FOR DANCING BY ARMY-NAVY CLUB ORCHESTRA.

ADMISSION 10c. ADMISSION 10c.

DANCE

Given by H. H. Osgood Lodge

In Pocasnah Hall, Taftville

Saturday Evening, Jan. 23.

MUSIC BY HEAP'S SILVER BELL ORCHESTRA.

Dancing 8:30 to 11:30.

Extra Dance.

SHELBY

And His Orchestra

OLYMPIC HALL

TONIGHT

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

BORN.

DESHEFY—In New London, Jan. 8, 1926, a daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Deshefy (Helen Daniels of Franklin) of 310 Vauxhall street, New London.

JAMES—In Stonington, Jan. 16, 1926, a daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford W. James.

BARRY—In Camden, N. J., Jan. 22, 1926, a daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. David Barry of Westmont, N. J.

BILTCLIFFE—In Flanders, Jan. 20, 1926, a daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson Biltcliffe.

MARRIED

JENCKS-DE MONTE—In Hartford, Ct., Jan. 21, 1926, by Rev. Herbert J. White, Charles Edgar Jencks of East Hartford, and Miss Elaine Lovell De Monte, formerly of Norwich.

DIED

BRAGG—In Waterford, Jan. 22, 1926, Frank A. Bragg.

GYR—In Norwich, Jan. 21, 1926, Miss Anna Gyr of Colchester, aged 29 years.

THOMAS—In Westerly, R. I., Jan. 22, 1926, Fidilia Thomas, widow of Benjamin Thomas.

STILLMAN—In Plainfield, N. J., Jan. 22, 1926, Mrs. Louisa A. Gardiner Stillman, widow of Rev. Horace Stillman, formerly of Ashaway, R. I.

FUNERAL NOTICES

PALMER—Entered into rest at New London, Conn., Jan. 21, 1926, Cornelia Kissam, widow of Elisha Loomis Palmer and beloved mother of Courtland Kissam Palmer, Gertrude Palmer and Adelaide Lee.

Funeral services will be held at her late home, 15 Broad street, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Relatives and friends are invited to attend. It is requested that no flowers be sent.

IN MEMORIAM

In Loving Memory of CASSIUS M. ARMSTRONG,
who passed away Jan. 24, 1926.

Deep in our hearts you are fondly remembered,
Sweet happy memories cling round your name;
True hearts that loved you in deepest affection
Always will love you, in death just the same.
MRS. C. M. ARMSTRONG AND CHILDREN.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all our relatives, friends and neighbors for the many deeds of kindness shown us in the loss of our dear mother, and also for the beautiful flowers sent. These acts of kindness will always be remembered by us.
MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM H. BALDWIN,
MRS. CHARLES WILCOX,
MRS. MINNIE V. PAISLEY.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all our friends for their kindness shown us in our recent bereavement the death of our loving mother, especially to the City Line Dept., Eastern Conn. Power Co., Southern New England Telephone Co., Elks, the Dupont Co., and all those who sent flowers.
THE FAMILY OF THE LATE
MRS. JOHN COUGHLIN.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Church & Allen
15 MAIN STREET
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Lady Assistant
HENRY E. CHURCH
WM. SMITH ALLEN
Telephone 328-3

Shea & Burke
Funeral Directors
41 Main Street

The Henry Allen & Son Co.
88 MAIN STREET
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Lady Assistant Telephone 610-2
DAVID H. WILSON

GAGER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER
PROMPT SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT

CUMMINGS & RING
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
322 Main Street
Phone 238-2 Lady Assistant

HOURIGAN BROS.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Norwich and Jewett City

DANIELSON

ALBERTUS F. WOOD
Funeral Director and Embalmer
PHONE 147 DANIELSON

CENTRAL VILLAGE

F. W. Tillinghast & Sons
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
CENTRAL VILLAGE, CONN.
Tel Mossup 282-2

Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
86 Union Street Willimantic, Conn.
Phone 220 Lady Assistant

WILLIMANTIC

Avery & Van Zandt
Succeeding JAY M SHEPARD
Established 1870
Funeral Directors, Embalmers
Sixty and Sixty-Two North Street
Willimantic Conn

PICTURE FRAMING

THE PHOTO SHOP
159 Franklin St. Tel. 1335

TREES AND SHRUBS

Fruit, Ornamental Trees and Shrubs
MAPLEWOOD NURSERY CO.
East Great Plain Tel. 986-2

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—3 apartment house on Franklin St., several building lots; also several good farms, Burton. Phone 4138. Jan16d

FOR SALE—Baby chicks. The famous Smith Standard Chicks, at amazing low prices. 10 different breeds. 100 per cent. live delivery. Write for price lists. S. Wigrin. Box 551, Plainfield, Conn. J21

FOR SALE—I offer for your inspection this 801 acre farm with good buildings, for $2,500. William M. McNicol, Maynard Bldg. Jewett City. tf

A gink from Yantik sez he always gets up early cus he always tells his son to wake him when he kums in. Boys must stay out prity late in Yantik. Rubber pouch and pipe all for 50c, Noble, Old Coon Pippin 5 for 50c. Manila Cigars special 10 for 35c. Murad, Melachrino cigarets 20 for 20 c. Fagan's Smoke Shop, Opp Woolworth.

FOR SALE—Police puppies. F. Thetreault. Hanover. Phone 1571-5, Norwich, Div. Jan18d

CABLE PIANO—$8 note with fine tone and action. Mahogany case. Can be bought for $125 on convenient payments. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. tf

FOR SALE—Brand new Gulbransen Player Pianos on terms as low as $3.50 weekly. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St.

FOR SALE—A good upright Schubert piano in fine condition. Full plate and 88 note, $89. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. tf

WASSERMAN $8 note piano like new. Cheap to the first buyer. Hanover-Curland Co. 24 Franklin St. Jan14

FOR SALE—A brand new Victrola, Model 80. Regular price $110. Our Price $52.50. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. tf

FOR SALE—A brand new $265 Brunswick Phonograph for $98.50. Hanover-Curland Co. 24 Franklin St. tf

FOR SALE—Orthophonic Victrolas on Easy Terms at the Cash price. We are factory agents of genuine Victrolas for town of Norwich. Hanover-Curland Co. 24 Franklin St. tf

$165 buys Wasserman 88 note Player piano, in good condition. Hanover-Curland Co. 24 Franklin St. tf

FOR SALE—A 5 Tube Chelsea Radio set. Regular price $50. Special Price for cash, $35. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. tf

FOR SALE—House, 15 Elm St., belonging to est. Oscar L. Brown. Inquire Dr. N. S. Lewis, Adm. 314 Main St. J9d

FOR SALE—6 room bungalow with water in house, electric lights, 7 acres of land with 40 young fruit trees. 1 3-4 miles from Franklin Sq. on Middle road to Poquetanuck, price very attractive. For particulars call at A. Hagberg & Son Tailor Shop, 310 Main. Jan12d

FOR SALE—Second hand ranges with gas attachment and some without. We guarantee every range that goes out of our store. Some Crawfords and some Glenwoods. 107 Franklin St. Phone 559. dec24d

300 ACRE FARM
BORDERING TIDE WATER

Situated near Mystic, Conn. 100 acres stone free, 100 acres pasture and 100 acres heavy timber land; 12-room house, improvements, large barn, 50 stanchions; fruit and berries in abundance.
WILLIAM A. WILCOX
Tel. 2368. Westerly, R. I.
choice at 400.

FOR SALE

Six-room Cottage on East Side. Price $3,000. Easy terms.
New modern six-room semi-bungalow in Thamesville. $1,000 cash payment. Balance, easy terms. Low price for quick sale.
New modern two-apartment on West Side, near school and trolley. Price $6,500. Cash payment, $500. Balance, easy terms.
Six-room modern cottage in Greeneville. Best location. Reasonable price.
New six-room cottage, large lot and garage, on Boswell avenue. A real constructed house at a reasonable price.
INQUIRE OF
NORWICH LAND TITLE & INSURANCE COMPANY
Sellas Building Norwich, Conn.

FOR SALE
IN NORWICHTOWN

Com house with large plot of ground near Backus Hospital. Low price for quick sale. Owner leaving town.
FRANCIS D. DONOHUE
Young's Block. Norwich.

POULTRY

FOR SALE—R. I. Reds and Barred Rocks; state tested chickens; the breeding flocks culled and tested by experts are absolutely free from disease; they are selected for egg production and are kept under ideal sanitary conditions. For descriptive catalogue and price list write Ray A. Shippie, Killingly, Conn., or Ardlock Hatchery, West Main St., Webster, Mass. Jan23d

FOR SALE—Two 150 egg incubators, one brooder. B. G. Crandall, North Franklin. Tel. 53-5 Lebanon.

FOR SALE—Baby Chicks. Bred-to-lay. Popular breeds, free catalogue of chicks, brooders and supplies. Clark's Hatchery, East Hartford. Clark's Pet Shop, 59 Shetucket St. Norwich. J22d

FOR SALE—R. I. Reds and Barred Rocks. State Tested Chickens. The breeding flocks culled and tested by experts are absolutely free from disease. They are selected for egg production and are kept under ideal sanitary conditions. For descriptive catalogue and price list write Ray A. Shippie, Killingly, Conn., or Ardlock Hatchery, West Main Street, Webster, Mass. Jan21d

FOR SALE—Hatching eggs. $7 per 100. Trap-nested stock. Phone 1658. F. Tourtellotte. 5 W. Pearl St. Jan21d

FOR SALE—R. I. Red Baby chicks and hatching eggs from stock tested free from bacillary white diarrhea. H. J. Larkham, Norwich Town. Phone 462-4. Jan6d

FOR SALE—S. C. R. I. Reds. Day old chicks from stock tested for white diarrhea. Hatches weekly. W. W. Service, Lakeview Farm, R. D. 1, Norwich. Tel. 1638-3. Jan14d

WANTED—Female

WANTED—Women and girls desirous of earning money in their spare time at home (No Canvassing). Write Linnet Service, 40 Market St. Lynn, Mass.

WANTED—Women $6 daily taking orders sanitary belt and protector; pay daily; sample on approval. Jones, 304 No. Clark, Chicago. jan23d

WANTED—Woman for traveling companion; must be entirely unincumbered, with high school education, between ages of 25 and 40; salary, bonus and transportation; give full information first letter. c/o F. H. Compton & Co., Garland Bldg., Chicago. jan23d

WANTED—Woman desires position as bookkeeper. Has thorough knowledge of this branch of office work having had considerable experience. Can furnish references. Call 2594J. tf

WANTED—Stenographer. Give experience. Also girl for chemical laboratory. Address Chemical, Bulletin Office. Jan15d

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

FOR SALE

$8 NOTE PLAYER $295—Kramer player, a high grade make in good condition. Sold new for $600 and has been carefully used. Convenient terms without interest charge. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. Jan23d

FOR SALE—Three-tenement house, 6 rooms each flat, modern improvements, hardwood floors, large lot; also two-tenement house, 5 rooms each flat, with all modern improvements, garage for two cars, large lot, located near Golden St., 15 minutes' walk from Franklin square. For full particulars, see A. V. Covello, Real Estate and Fire Insurance, 198 Cliff St. Tel. 1093-3. jan23d

FOR SALE—Coal. High grade coal, $15 per ton delivered. Phone 2811-23. Jan23d

$80 FOR USED PIANO—This piano sold new for $400. It is a high grade make and is in good playing condition. Easy payments. Other fine values in good used pianos at $45, $65, $105 and up to $395. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich. Jan23d

FOR SALE — Kitchen stove, also heated room for rent. 287 West Main St. jan23d

FOR SALE—Two new milch Jersey cows. A. G. Gilbert, R. D. 7, Norwich. jan23d

FOR SALE—A very fine Hallett & Davis piano in perfect condition; will sell very reasonable. Also several talking machines of leading makes at half price. Easy terms if desired. Schwartz Bros., Inc. 76-82 Main St. Nrowich. dec29d

FOR SALE—German Police dog. Female, spayed. 12 months. Apply evenings, 77 Franklin street. tf

FREE—Hose and 10 feet of piping with every Radiator Heater purchased during this month. Gas & Elec. Dept. Jan20d

USED VICTROLAS CHEAP—$50 table model now $20; $50 portable model now $25; $35 table model now $15. The Plaut-Cadden Co., 135 Main St., Norwich, only exclusively Victrola dealers in Eastern Connecticut. Jan19d

175 ACRES, 2 MILES FROM VILLage and state road; milk or cream sold at door; two houses, two barns, silo, 10 cows, pair horses, farming tools. All for $8,500.
TRYON'S AGENCY
Willimantic, Conn.

ATTENTION
JANUARY INVESTORS

WHY NOT CONSIDER AN INVESTMENT OF A PORTION OF YOUR FUNDS IN—
FORMAN & COMPANY'S
Guaranteed First Mortgage
6½% Bonds
THIS COMPANY HAS A RECORD OF FORTY YEARS WITHOUT A LOSS TO A SINGLE PURCHASER.
MAY WE SEND YOU A DESCRIPTIVE CIRCULAR
James L. Case
INVESTMENT DEPARTMENT
40 SHETUCKET STREET

FOR SALE

Two-apartment house, West Side, 5 rooms and bath. Built less than a year ago. Possession given by small payment.
J. A. CUNNINGHAM
THAYER BUILDING.

PIANO BOXES $2

100 NEW BOXES WHICH MUST BE SOLD AT ONCE
The Plaut-Cadden Co.
135 Main St. Norwich.

WANTED—Miscellaneous

MARRY—Lonely hearts, join our club; we have a companion for you, many worth from $5,000 to $50,000; descriptions, photos, introductions, free; send no money. Standard Corr. Club, Grayslake, Ill. jan23d

EPILEPTICS write for free information on latest methods of treating this disease. Box 593, Lander, Wyo. jan23d

ATTRACTIVE YOUNG WIDOW, worth $25,000, will marry. Write Eva, B-1022, Wichita, Kansas. jan23d

BOYS AND GIRLS—Sell 24 packs of my new Licorice Chewing Gum and I will give you free a wonderful Eveready flashlight; send your name today. Charles David, 1422 Vine St., Cincinnati. jan23d

CATHOLICS wishing to marry, wanting introductions, write C. C. Club, Grand Rapids, Mich. jan23d

EARN MONEY at home, clipping newspapers, addressing postal cards; no experience or canvassing; particulars free. Zeno, Service, 60 W. Washington, Desk W70, Chicago. Jan23d

ADDRESSING ENVELOPES—Experience unnecessary; earn $15-$45 weekly during spare time at home; dignified work for honest, sincere persons. Franklyn Products, 1022 VanBuren, Chicago. Jan23d

WANTED—Foreman for dairy farm. James H. Hyde, North Franklin, Tel. Lebanon 30, Conn. Jan13d

WANTED—Vaults and cesspools to clean. H. L. Harris, R. F. D. 1, Box 139. apr3d

LONESOME?—Make desirable friends everywhere; join oldest, largest, most successful club; stamp. Elsa Thorpe, Box 42, Ridgewood Station, Brooklyn, N. Y. feb31S

LOUIS D. WARD pays big prices for used furniture and antiques. Box 339, Norwich. Phone 361-12. Norwich; 506 Willimantic. TuThSMay16

WANTED—To drill you a new well or your old well deeper. A. E. Earl, Contractor for artesian wells. P. O. Box 240, Willimantic, Conn. Jan20d

WANTED—Agents to sell complete line of Towels, Linens, Damask, E. Tattersall & Co., Clinton, Mass. Jan20d

WANTED—Furniture repairing, Refinishing and Odd Jobs in Carpentry. Phone 1693-4. Jan13d

WANTED—Second hand antique furniture. Best prices paid. A. Bruckner, 107 Franklin St. Phone 659. nov17d

WANTED—Cash paid for old furniture. H. Ward, 16 Water St. Tel. 34. nov14d

WANTED—To buy poultry and rabbits highest prices paid. Call 1405. nov17d

MIRRORS resilvered and glass for every purpose, Norwich Glass Co., 5 State St. Tel 2463. nov17d

SWEETHEARTS CLUB
Stamped envelope for proposal.
The Lily Club, Station H, Cleveland, O.

PERSONAL

SUFFERERS of Heart Trouble, Dropsy, Angina, High Blood Pressure, Paralysis, Asthma, I will gladly tell you free how you can get quick and lasting relief without using drugs, medicines, serums. Address R. V. Walden, Box 1360, New Haven, Conn. Jan14d

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

TO RENT

TO RENT—Furnished light housekeeping rooms. Improvements. 43 Union St.

TO RENT—3 furnished rooms for light housekeeping, heat, gas, electric lights. 172 Laurel Hill Ave. Tel 2691R.

TO RENT—Second apartment on Raymond place. nov17d

TO RENT—House of eight rooms and garage. Tel. 259. oct17d

TO RENT—An apartment, 130 Washington St. 5 rooms with or without a garage. Apply 130 Washington St. Phone 1132-2. Gilbert Bowers. dec24d

TO RENT—From Feb. 1, store and fixtures, rent reasonable. Inquire of A. J. Senft, over the store, 56 Boswell Avenue. Jan23d

TO RENT—2 furnished rooms for light housekeeping. 301 Franklin St. J22d

TO RENT—Modern furnished apartment. 4 rooms and bath, including steam heat, radio service and other conveniences. Accommodations for two adults only. Central location. Phone 141-2. J22d

TO RENT—4 room flat. All improvements. Also garage. 42 Peck St. J22d

TO RENT—Furnished room, suitable for young lady. 161 Franklin St. J22d

TO RENT—50 acre farm, 2 barns, garage and 10 room house with water and electric lights, desirably located at Occum. Phone 2338-2. Frank B. Bushnell, R. F. D. 3, Norwich. J22d

TO RENT—Six room apartment. Steam heat furnished. Reasonable rent. All modern improvements. Phone 1299. J21d

TO RENT—Tenement. 5 rooms all improvements. 39 Greene Ave. Jan20d

TO RENT—Furnished rooms for light housekeeping, private bath room and private entrance. Tel. 1241-3 or inquire, Disco Bros. tf

TO RENT—Furnished room, steam heat, use of phone, private family. Phone 349-4. Marion Bldg. Jan19d

TO RENT—3 furnished rooms, for light house keeping. Steam heated. Tel. 438-5. Jan19d

TO RENT—4 room flat, with bath. Laurel Hill Ave. Phone 2691J. Jan19d

TO RENT—Lower Tenement, 6 rooms and bath. Inquire of J. Bradford, 108 Broadway. Jan19d

TO RENT—7 room flat. All modern improvements at 35 Cliff St. Tel. 2262 Jan19d

TO RENT—6 room tenement, all improvements. Mohegan Park Rd. Brook Bldg. Phone 2473-3. Jan19d

TO RENT—3 or 4 rooms. Light housekeeping. 27 McKinley Ave. tf

TO RENT—Select 6 room apartment, Greene Ave., tile bath, garage included. $45 a month. Call 2474-2. Jan14d

TO RENT—6 large rooms, $18. Near the Thermos. Tel. 1463. dec30d

TO RENT—4 modern room apartment. Inquire Brooklyn Outfitters.

TO RENT—Fine modern apartment. All improvements, 23 Perkins Ave. Inquire Adelard Morin. The Plaut-Cadden Co. dec3d

TO RENT—Garage at 50 Broad St. Inquire Hanover-Curland Co. dec4d

TO RENT—Dead storage for 50 cars. Hartley & Gallup, 262-266 Hamilton Ave. Phone 701-2. nov24d

TO RENT—Apartment 197 Laurel Hill Ave., with or without garage. Phone 2179. nov11d

TO RENT—Furnished rooms for light housekeeping also garage. 11 Elm street. city. nov4d

WANTED—Automobiles for storage. $1.00 per month. Garage, 678 N. Main St. oct28d

TO RENT—Cottage of 6 rooms, all improvements. 36 Grove St. oct29d

TO RENT—A fine modern apartment in best residential section of Norwich Inquire of Shea and Burke. 41 Main St. oct16d

FOR RENT

THE OFFICES LOCATED AT 44 SHETUCKET STREET, NOW OCCUPIED BY ATTORNEY BABCOCK.
FOR FURTHER PARTICULARS INQUIRE OF
JOHN A. MORAN
REAL ESTATE BROKER.

FOR RENT.

No. 52 Williams street. Newly decorated nine-room dwelling, with garage for one car. Inquire of Thos. H. Beckley
Agent.
278 MAIN STREET PHONES

COAL AND WOOD

FOR SALE—Hard wood slabs, $9 per cord. Phone 152-2. Jan20d

FOR SALE—Sawed oak wood, one cord $11, 1-2 cord $6, 1-4 cord $3.50. Delivered anywhere. O. H. Main. Phone 488. tf

FOR SALE—Sawed slab wood or thick hard wood. Try a load. Tel. 1883-2 dec24

FOR SALE—Wood, stove length. G. A. Bullard. Tel. 1076-4. dec23d

FOR SALE—Best Quality hard dry wood. R. E. Heard & Son. Ye Old Homestead Farm. Tel 615-4. nov25d

FOR SALE—Best hardwood and slabs. Try a load. John R. Lyman. Tel 2617W. nov7d

COAL, seasoned wood and kindlings delivered anywhere. 6 baskets for $1.00. Phone 739. Park Wood Yard 401 Franklin St. 23d

COAL—Seasoned wood and kindlings in large or small quantities delivered anywhere. Phone 504 or 1383-4. R. Shapiro, Willow Street. nov22d

MONEY TO LOAN

LOANS
THE PUBLIC'S LOAN SERVICE
We loan money for emergency needs, featuring prompt, courteous and confidential service. Monthly payments of principal and interest arranged to suit the borrower's convenience. Legal interest on unpaid balances is our only charge. Detailed information furnished by personal representative upon request. Phone 1470.
New England Equity Corp.
Members of Chamber of Commerce
ROOM 206 THAYER BLDG.
16 FRANKLIN STREET

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

WANTED—Male

WANTED—Salesman by old established local company. A married man who can furnish recommendations as to ability and character and who desires a position with unlimited opportunities. State age. All replies considered strictly confidential. Write Bulletin, Box 100.

WANTED—Big Ohio corporation needs manager for unoccupied territory; $50 weekly commission; earnings start immediately; good for $5,000 yearly; we furnish everything, deliver and collect; capital or experience unnecessary. Fyr-Fyter Co., 889 Fyr-Fyter Bldg., Dayton, Ohio. jan23d

WANTED—Reliable man in every town and city to distribute free samples, advertising matter, etc.; no selling; experience unnecessary; outdoor work; average pay $3 per day; write quickly for contract. Supervisor Colombe, 5153 North Clark St., Chicago, Ill. jan23d

OLD ESTABLISHED MANUFACTURing concern requires services reliable man open office and manage sales force patented invention, exclusive territory; tremendous sales; $300 to $2,000 necessary to finance proposition; references required; state qualifications first letter. Mechanical Machine Works, Baltimore, Md. jan23d

I NEED AN AGENT to sell my candies, mints and gum to dealers; large profits; experience unnecessary; free samples; write today. Milton Gordon, Cincinnati. jan23d

SALESMEN—Guaranteed pure wool fit-to-measure clothes now $22.85; increased commission largest ever offered; we deliver and collect. Dept. 2431, Crane-Kent, Cincinnati. jan23d

$10,000,000.00 COMPANY wants man to sell food products, soaps, extracts, etc.; exclusive territory, established trade; pay every day; experience unnecessary. Write The J. R. Watkins Co., Dept. K-2, 64 N. Washington St., Boston, Mass. jan23d

WANTED—District salesman; must be reliable; prefer married man, 30 years old or over and permanent resident in his community; exceptional opportunity for good man. Address Sales Manager, 844 West Adams St., Dept. 239, Chicago. jan23d

AGENTS—$500 monthly easy selling Magic Gas; new discovery; $1 box equals 33 gallons gasoline; proven merits; your name on cans; 300% profit; write quick. P. A. Lefebvre & Co., Dept. S., Alexandria, Ont., Canada. jan23d

WANTED—Commence $142-$158 month Mail Carriers, Railway Mail Clerks. Men 18 up. Travel—see country. Sample coaching—Free. Write immediately. Franklin Institute, Dept. 31, S, Rochester, N. Y.

WANTED—Butcher to work in meat market. For particulars call at 44 Dunham St. Norwich. Jan23d

WANTED—A chef to take over a dining room, now in operation. All complete, in a hotel of 50 rooms, rent reasonable to right party. Across from New Theatre and depot. Westerly, R. I. Jan21d

WANTED—Position as bookkeeper by young man with several years' experience. Also has thorough knowledge of expert accounting and auditing. Can furnish the best of references. Address 14 Nelson place or call 2594 J, during the evening. tf

AMBITIOUS MEN AND BOYS—25 wanted at once to learn the barber trade; we pay you while learning, tuition $35; we are open from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m. Vaughn's School of Barbering, 14 Market St., Hartford, Conn Nov14d

EARN $70-$150 A WEEK
Selling suits made of nationally famous secret process SuperKloth, $12.50; resists sparks, snags and water; outwears 3 ordinary suits; sells on sight; free equipment; commissions daily in advance. Dept. K., Triple Wear Corp., 2014 Wabansia Ave., Chicago. jan23d

FOR SALE—Automobiles

FOR SALE—Nash Six five passenger touring. Extras. Price $225. Would consider terms. Tel. owner 1964. Jan23d

THIS is your last chance to buy this 1921 Ford Coupe. Must be sold by 2 o'clock this afternoon and the price is $100. Ask for A. C. Levitsky at the Norwich Belt Company in the morning or call 692-5 before 2 P. M. Jan23d

FOR SALE—1926 Willys Knight Sedan, 1926 Overland Tourings, 1925 Ford Coach, 1924 Jewett Roadster, 1924 Durant Sedan, 1924 Maxwell Touring. Small down payment. Bal. 12 months. 62 Shetucket St. Jan22d

FOR SALE—One 1923 Willys-Knight sedan. 90 days' guarantee. One 1921 Chevrolet touring car for $60. Inquire Jewett City Service. Tel. 11-4. Jan21d

FOR SALE—Cadillac, truck body, mechanically perfect. Sackett, Canterbury, Conn. Jan20d

FOR SALE—1924 Buick Coupe, 1921 Packard Small Six Sedan, 1924 Studebaker Sedan, 1925 Ford Coach, 1923 Dodge B. Sedan, 1923 Dodge A Sedan, 1924 Ford Coupe, 1924 Maxwell Coupe, 1921 Ford Coupe. 15 open cars all late models. Cash or Terms. Adams Tavern Garage. Jan16d

FOR SALE—1925 Hudson Coach, 1925 Ford Coupe, 1924 Jewett Sport Roadster, 1924 Maxwell Touring, 1924 Durant Sport Sedan, 1924 Ford Touring, 1924 Ford Coach. Jones & St. Germain's, 62 Shetucket street. Jan14d

YOU CAN order a new or used Harley-Davidson motorcycle for immediate or spring delivery through our Club Plan $3.50 down. New models are now on display. Jim Donovan, 135 N. Main St. Phone 709. dec2d

FOR SALE—1926 Chevrolet Sedan, 1924 Ford Coupe, 1924 Chevrolet Touring, 1923 Dodge Touring, 1922 Maxwell Touring, 1922 Buick Touring. Krieger Motor Sales Co. 191 No. Main St. Tel. 646 de30d

USED CARS
Free Interest — Free Insurance
Buy now at winter prices and save. Don't wait and pay high spring prices.
1922 F. B. Chevrolet Touring (tires like new) $130.00
1922 Chevrolet 4-pass. Coupe .. $165.00
1922 Nash Touring $190.00
1922 Essex Coupe $290.00
New cars coming in every day.
STAR GARAGE
PLAINFIELD, CONN.
Open Evenings. Phone 796.

FOR SALE.

Pierce Arrow Vestibule Sedan, A1 condition. Mileage 19,000.
E. B. PATTERSON, INC.
88-90 NORTH MAIN STREET.

FOR SALE

PRIVATELY OWNED
BUICK COUPE
In good condition. New tires. Fully equipped
For further information address
BOX NO. 128 BULLETIN

NEWSPAPERS AND PERIODICALS

HANDY NEWS STAND
Thayer Building Franklin Sq.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Wedding Photographs a Specialty
A present given to each bride.
DES MARAIS STUDIO
325 Main St., Norwich. Tel. 984.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

Business Notices.

AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES

RADIATORS REPAIRED AND RECORED
Dents removed from bodies and fenders, running boards recovered, auto glass cut and installed, auto metal work and all kinds of soldering done.
WORK GUARANTEED.
Norwich Radiator Works
375 Main Street. Tel. 2218.

DON'T TAKE CHANCES
THE HOSPITALS ARE FILLED WITH PEOPLE WHO DO.
Have Your Brakes Re-Lined with Genuine Silver Edge RAYBESTOS BRAKE LINING by experts in a shop fully equipped to do a factory job.
OVERHAULING AND REPAIR WORK.
Lumis and Bennett
131 NORTH MAIN STREET.
TEL. 646.

Now is the time to have the radiator put in A-1 shape for spring work HERE is the place to have it done We remove scale, sediment, and rust; we stop PERMANENTLY those leaks We straighten the weak spots against vibration
We recore or repair ANY TYPE of STYLE.
W. E. SHANLEY
499 MAIN STREET.

AUTOMOBILE REPAIRING

GARDNER SALES AND SERVICE
DAY AND NIGHT SERVICE
WILLIAM C. NOYES
317 Laurel Hill Ave. Tel. 221-2
General Repairing, Day and Night Service
JONES' GARAGE
East Great Plain Tel. 2171-2
"JOE" MOORE'S GARAGE
Mechanical, Electrical and Body Repairs
PHONE 2038
95 Chestnut Street

AUTO ACCESSORIES—TIRES, PARTS

AUTO PARTS—TELEPHONE 1500
Replacement parts for all cars
WILLIAMS TIRE & SUPPLY CO.

Keep the Money Circulating
500 OLD CARS WANTED
Any condition. Cash waiting. Large stock of Gears, Axles, Bearings, Wheels, Springs, Starters, Generators, Batteries, Windshields, Radiators, Motors, Rear Ends and all parts. Bargains in Used Tires and Tubes.

HODES AUTO PARTS
Formerly the
NATIONAL AUTO WRECKING CO.
381 West Main St. Cor. Mt. Pleasant.
Tel. 1391

BOWLING AND BILLIARDS

HIGH GRADE BOWLING AND POCKET BILLIARDS
PALACE ALLEYS
Thayer Building Franklin Square
"Chip" Dugas and "Mike" Morin, Props. Phone 2104.

BOWLING
HIGH GRADE BOWLING AND POCKET BILLIARDS AT
"CHIP" DUGAS
Telephone 753-12 TAFTVILLE

PRINTING

PRINTING of all kinds promptly and neatly done. Estimates promptly and cheerfully given. The Bulletin Co., 69 Franklin St

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

Business Notices.

BIRDS

FOR SALE—Canaries also cages and supplies at Anthony's, 193 Central Ave. Tel. 2454-2. Jan16d

CASTINGS
Grey Iron and Semi-Steel Castings
Pattern Making and Machine Work
—ALSO—
Daily Trucking Service Between Norwich, New London and Vicinity.
BABCOCK PRINTING PRESS MFG. CO.

CHIROPODIST

A. G. THOMPSON, F. S., Chiropodist Foot Specialist (Protect your feet) Suite 7-8 Shea Bldg. 321 Main St., Norwich, Conn Phone 725. dec27d

J. CROSVENOR assisted by J. Lawson, 12 Cliff St., will conduct a children's free clinic Thursday evenings from 7-9. Office hours 9-12 and 1-6. Tel. 524. Jan16d

CIGARS

Whitestone cigars are $70 per thousand. J. F. CONANT 11 Franklin St

CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS

P. F. SWEENEY
GENERAL CONTRACTOR and BUILDER
25 Chestnut Street.

Doors, Windows, Frames
Inside Finish.
Mill Work of All Kinds.
THE PECK-McWILLIAMS COMPANY.
Central Wharf.

PUKALLUS
BUILDER

INSURANCE

R. J. YOUNG
Automobile Insurance a Specialty
Travelers' Insurance. Prompt Service
Rm. 14 Central Bldg. Tel. 2432-2

WE GUARANTEE YOU THE MEANS TO KEEP A ROOF OVER YOUR HEAD
B. P. Learned & Co.
(Est. May 1846.)

J. L. LATHROP & SONS
Insurance of All Kinds
28 Shetucket Street

F. H. KENYON, General Agent.
G. N. DELAP, Special Agent.
JAS. F. COORD, Special Agent.
A. N. PREMO, Special Agent.
Hartford, Conn.
New York, New Haven

ALL KINDS OF INSURANCE
HAROLD S. BURT
120 LAUREL HILL AVENUE
PHONE 2121.

UPHOLSTERING

CALL 2021W. Upholstering, crating, carpet and linoleum laying. George H. Sanders, 2 Boswell Ave. Jan16d

WALL PAPER

WALL PAPERS—7 1-2 c to $8 Roll. Many new numbers at half and less than usual prices. Norwich Chain Wall Paper Co., cor. Willow and Chestnut Sts. T. H. McClenathan, Mgr

AT A SACRIFICE!
$5,000 STOCK FOR SALE
—OF—
CAPITOL THEATRE CORP.
WILLIMANTIC, CONN.
HOW MUCH IS OFFERED?
Apply A. DAVIDSON
BROADWAY THEATRE, NORWICH.

A Bulletin To Let
Advertisement Will Rent It

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE

The Board of Relief of the Town of Norwich, Conn., will meet in the City Hall Building in said Town each day, Sundays excepted, from February 1 to February 21, from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M., to listen to appeals from the doings of the assessors and to transact any other business proper to be done at said meeting.

Dated at Norwich, Conn., Jan. 19, 1926.

JAMES C. FITZPATRICK,
FRANCIS BEIQUE,
ROBERT G. SWANSON,
Board of Relief.

NOTICE
TO TAXPAYERS!

Notice is hereby given to all persons liable to pay the Personal Tax in the Town of Norwich that I have a warrant to levy and collect the personal taxes payable February 1st, 1926, each of such persons being assessed the sum of two dollars as their personal tax, and for the purpose of collecting the same I shall be at the Selectman's Office, in the Court House, in Norwich, daily from 9 o'clock a. m. to 12.30 o'clock p. m. and from 2 o'clock to 5 o'clock p. m. from February 1st, 1926, to March 2nd, 1926, both inclusive, except the following days:

On Monday, February 8th, I will be at the store of LeValley & Birdsey, Norwich Town, from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m.

On Tuesday, February 9th, from 10 to 11:30 a. m. at the Yantic Store.

On the same day at Sub Station, No. 3, 264 West Town Street, from 12 m to 1.30 p. m.

On Wednesday, February 10th, at the drug store of John A. Morgan, Greeneville, from 11 a. m. to 2 p. m.

On Thursday, February 11th, at the drug store of George M. Rathbone, West Side, from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m.

On Friday, February 12th, at the store of the Preston Public Market, East Side, from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m.

On Saturday, Feb. 13th, at the People's Store, Taftville, from 12 m. to 3:30 p. m.

On Saturdays, the Selectmen's Office at City Hall will close at 12 m., noon.

Personal taxes will be received on the dates mentioned above for the different sections of the town.

All persons neglecting this notice must be proceeded against as directed by the laws of this state.

NELLIE V. HARRINGTON, Collector.

Dated at Norwich, Conn., Jan. 9th, 1926.

NOTICE!

The Board of Relief of the Town of Franklin will meet in the Town Hall on the 1st day of February from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M., to hear the appeals from the doings of the Assessors and to transact any other business necessary to be done at that time. Future meetings as the law requires.

ERNEST E. SMITH,
GEORGE A. MILLER,
C. B. DAVIS,
Board of Relief.

Franklin, Conn., Jan. 20th 1926.

NOTICE!

The Board of Relief of the Town of Canterbury, Conn., will meet at the Town Clerk's office, in said town, three days, as follows: On February 1st, 8th and 15th, 1926, from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M., to listen to appeals from the doings of the assessors and to transact any other business proper to be done at said meeting.

Dated at Canterbury, Conn., Jan. 21, 1926.

GEORGE W. SMITH,
LEVI N. CLARK,
GEORGE BARSTOW,
Board of Relief.

NOTICE!

The Board of Relief of the Town of Salem, Conn., will meet in the Town Hall in said Town on February the first, also the 10th and 15th, 1926, from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Dated at Salem, Conn., Feb. 22nd 1926.

F. S. DEWOLF,
WM. R. DARLING,
B. BLOOM,

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 21st day of January, A. D. 1926.

Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

Estate of Charles H. Osgood, late of Norwich, in said District, deceased.

The Executory exhibited their administration account with said estate to the Court for allowance; it is therefore.

Ordered, That the 27th day of January, A. D. 1926, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at the Probate Court Room in the City of Norwich, in said District, be, and the same is, appointed for hearing the same, and the said executors are directed to give notice thereof by publishing this order once in some newspaper having a circulation in said District, at least three days prior to the date of said hearing, and make return to the Court.

NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.

Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk.

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 18th day of January, A. D. 1926.

Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

Estate of Patrick O'Connell, late of Norwich, in said District, deceased.

Ordered, That the Executor cite the creditors of said deceased to bring in their claims against said estate within six months from this date, by posting a notice to that effect, together with a copy of this order on the sign-post nearest to the place where said deceased last dwelt, and in the same town, and by publishing the same once in a newspaper having a circulation in said district, and make return to this Court.

NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.

Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk.

NOTICE

All creditors of said deceased are hereby notified to present their claims against said estate to the undersigned at 19 North Cliff St., Norwich, Conn., within the time limited in the above and foregoing order.

PATRICK J. CONNELL,
Executor with the will annexed.

A Bulletin Want
Advertisement Will Get It

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE!

The Board of Relief of the Town of Voluntown will meet in Union Hall, Voluntown, Conn., Monday, Feb. 1st, 1926, from 10 a. m to 4 p. m., to hear appeals from the doings of the Board of Assessors and do any other business necessary to be done at said meeting.

GEORGE C. BRIGGS,
GEORGE A. TANNER,
GEORGE A. DAWLEY,
Board of Relief.

Voluntown, Jan. 22nd, 1926. Jan23d

NOTICE!

The Board of Relief of the Town of North Stonington will meet in the Town Hall in said town on Monday, February 1st, from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M. to hear appeals from the doings of the assessors also any other business legal to come before said board and adjourn from time to time as considered necessary by said board.

IRVING C. ECCLESTON,
Board of Relief.

Dated at North Stonington this 21st day of January, 1926.

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 22nd day of January, A. D. 1926.

Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

Estate of Anna Schneider, late of Norwich, in said District, deceased.

Ordered, That the Executor cite the creditors of said deceased to bring in their claims against said estate within six months from this date, by posting a notice to that effect, together with a copy of this order on the sign-post nearest to the place where said deceased last dwelt, and in the same town, and by publishing the same once in a newspaper having a circulation in said district, and make return to this Court.

NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.

Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk.

NOTICE

All creditors of said deceased are hereby notified to present their claims against said estate to the undersigned at R. F. D. 3, Norwich, Conn., within the time limited in the above and foregoing order.

JOHN B. ROGLER, Executor.

Business Notices.

AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES

OVERHAULING and REPAIR WORK
OF ALL KINDS
Automobiles, Carriages, Wagons, Trucks and Carts
Mechanical Repairs. Painting. Trimming. Upholstering and Wood Work Blacksmithing in All Its Branches
Scott & Clark Corp.
507 TO 515 NORTH MAIN STREET

Battery Service

The Best 1-Day Battery Charging
Radio Rental Batteries
75c Week.
Capacity, 40 Batteries every 8 to 10 Hours

VULCANIZING

The only shop in the city equipped to repair all sizes of REGULAR and BALLOON Tires.

The KE HAW KE System
ALL REPAIRS GUARANTEED.
Lane Motor Supply
170 Franklin Street.
PHONE 1570.

MUSIC.

Wanted—Pupils for trumpet and cornet
J. J. M'GUINNESS
Broadway Theatre Orchestra

FRANK DRAGO of Hartford
TEACHER OF VIOLIN THEORY
Room 213 Disco Building

ERNEST E. BULLARD
Teacher of the Violin
Phone 127-4 Bliss Place
I Have a Few Outfits to Lend.

HELEN L. PERKINS
TEACHER OF SINGING
Phone 2197 Studio, Alice Bldg.

THE CHRISTIANSON SCHOOL OF POPULAR MUSIC
MARY O HODGE, 8 Grove Place.
Classical Phone 1159-4.

EDWARD BRENNAN
TEACHER OF VIOLIN
Tel. 1542-3 317 Main St.

TRUCKING

Hartley & Gallup—Truckmen. Local and long distance furniture and piano moving a specialty. High grade sand and loam for sale. Storage of any description. At 342 and 346 Hamilton Ave. Telephone 701-3. 20v24d

Long Distance Moving and Expressing
Timmerman, 17 Boswell Ave., Tel. 1371

O. D. JOSLYN, 293 West Main street. We move everything anywhere. Special attention given to moving boilers and machinery Telephone 1552-3

Established 1873 Telephone 175
ARTHUR E. H. LATHROP
Auto trucking Teaming and Expressing
Furniture and Piano Moving
Shetucket Street

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

MARKETS AT A GLANCE
New York

Stocks firm; coolers advance on peace rumors.

Bonds irregular; convertible rails higher.

Foreign exchanges steady; trading quiet.

Cotton lower; expected bearish ginning report.

Sugar higher; better spot demand.

Coffee firm; importers buying.

Chicago

Wheat lower; disappointing export inquiry.

Corn steady; light receipts.

Cattle easy.

Hogs firm; urgent shipping demand.

STOCK PRICES HIGHER

NEW YORK, Jan. 23—(AP)—Stock prices worked to higher levels today despite repeated attempts of bear traders to unsettle the list. Heavy buying of United States Steel common, which closed 1 5-8 higher at 134 after being hammered down to 131 5-4, and the strength of the eastern coalers on reports of an early resumption to anthracite peace negotiations were the day's principal features. Trading was in moderate volume, the day's sales falling below 1,500,000 shares.

Price movements in the commodity markets again lacked uniformity.

Wheat futures dropped 1 to 2 cents a bushel on selling by eastern speculators. Cotton also lost ground on selling in anticipation of a bearish government ginning report. Raw sugar was unchanged, but coffee futures advanced 14 to 40 points.

Bradstreet's Weekly Review says "Business can be described as 'satisfactory' adding that "trade is admittedly better than a year ago." Dun's reports that "not only is the stability of general business maintained, but there are accumulating signs of renewed activity in different direction."

Bullish operations in the stock market were encouraged by the improvement in the money situation reflected in the higher reserve ratios and the abundance of time money at relatively lower rates. Absence of public participation, which was attributed in some quarters to the belief that unusually heavy new financing since the first of the year had absorbed a major portion of surplus funds, acted, however, as a restraining influence.

Despite later reports that operators had rejected the latest proposal for a new coal parley, shares of most of the hard coal carrying roads showed substantial gains on the day. Delaware and Hudson and Lackawanna each closed over 3 points higher, Lehigh Valley moved up 2 1-4 and Reading 1 3-4.

Some of the outstanding strong spots in the industrial group were American Can, Fidelity Phenoix Insurance, Foundation Company, Savage Arms, Sears Roebuck, United States and Woolworth. International Agricultural preferred jumped 8 1-4 points to a new top at 91 3-4 on reports that the accumulated dividends would be paid up and the stock definitely placed on a $7 basis.

The mystery surrounding the recent meetings of Frisco railroad directors was cleared up after the market closed, with the announcement that the road has obtained a substantial interest through open market purchases in the Rock Island, which explains the recent strength of that stock. Frisco Common closed 3 3-4 higher at 103 5-8 and Rock Island showed a fractional gain at 57 1-4.

Call money held steady at four per cent. all day, with plenty of funds available at that figure. Time money was practically on a flat 4 3-4 basis, as compared with 4 3-4 to 4 7-8 earlier in the week. Commercial paper rates were unchanged.

Foreign exchanges were irregular with no important changes in the European rates. Demand sterling held steady at $4.85 2-4, and French francs were slightly firmer around 3.75 cents Japanese yen reacted about 1-4 of a cent to 44 3-4 cents on profit taking by speculators.

STOCKS

Sales in hundreds.

	Sales	High.	Low	Close
Abitibi P & P.	72¼	72¼	69½
Adams Express	104⅝	103	103
Adv Rumely ..	16⅝	16	16¼
Ahumada Lead	8	7⅞	8
Air Reduct ...	111⅞	109⅝	111
Ajax Rubber...	10	9⅞	10
All Am Cables	132	132	132
Allied Chem & Dy	114⅞	113⅛	114⅞
Allis Chalmers	91¼	90⅞	91¼
Am Ag Chem .	31½	30⅝	31
Am Agri Ch pf.	90⅞	88½	90⅞
Am Bk Note..	41	41	41
Am Beet Sug.	32½	32¼	32¼
Am Beet S pf .	80	80	80
Am Bosch Mag	28½	23½	28⅜
Am Br B El .	46⅜	44⅜	46¼
Am Brake Sh..	165⅝	165⅛	165⅝
Am Can .	264⅛	260½	263
Am Can wi ..	47⅞	46⅝	47⅞
Am Can pr	123	122½	122⅝
Am Car & Fdry	123	122½	122⅝
Am Car&F rts	1½	1	1½
Am Car & Fd	111½	110	111½
Am Chain A ..	24¾	24¾	24¾
Am Chain A ..	24⅝	24⅛	24⅛
Am Chicle ..	47	46	47
Am Chicle ctf.	44½	44½	44½
Am & F P ...	39	37¾	39
Am & F P pr...	91⅞	91⅝	91⅞
Am & FP ctf	25pc	127½	127½	127½
Am Hide & L .	12⅝	12⅝	12⅝
Am H & L pr.	60½	60	60
Am Ice pr	82⅞	82¾	82⅞
Am Int Corp .	43⅝	42⅝	43⅛
Am L Fr F Eng	12½	12⅜	12⅜
Am L F rites.	⅞	⅞	⅞
Am La Fr pr .	98	98	98
Am Linseed pr	83¾	83¾	83¾
Am Loco 1	12½	111⅜	112½
Am Radiator .1	10	109¾	110
Am Ry Exp ..	77⅛	7½	77⅝
Am Saf Raz .	59	56¼	58⅞
Am Ship & Com	5⅞	5⅝	5⅞
Am Smelt	132⅞	130⅝	132⅞
Am Snuff . ..	140½	140¼	140¾
Am Snuff pfnw	100	100	100
Am Steel Fdrs	44¼	44¼	44½
Am Sug Ref ..	75	74⅛	74¼
Am Tel & Tel.	143¾	143	143⅜
Am Tob 1	15¾	115⅛	115¾
Am Tob B	114½	114⅜	114⅝
Am Tob pr	107	106⅞	107
Am Type Fdrs.	14	14	14
Am Water W..	72½	71	72⅜
Am Wool	39	38⅝	39
Am Wool pr ..	86½	86⅜	86¼
Am Ze Lds. ..	30	28¼	28⅛
Anaconda ..	47¼	46⅜	46⅞
Ann Arbor pr .	67	65	67
Arch D Mfd	40½	39½	39½
Arm&Co Del pr	97½	97½	97½
Arm&Co Ill A .	24¼	24	24¼
Arm Co Ill B.	15	15	15⅞
Arnold Consta .	14½	14½	14½
Arnold Con ctfs	14½	14½	14½
Art Metal	21¾	19⅞	21¾
Artloom Corp.	63⅝	61¼	61⅝
Asso Dry Gds.	51	5½	51
Asso Oil	53⅝	53	53
Atchison	131	129½	130
Atchison pr ..	95⅝	95¼	95¼
Atl Blr & Atl.	7⅝	7⅛	7⅝
Atl Coast Line	242	238½	240
Atl Gulf & W I.	61	60	60
Atl G & W I pr.	54¼	54¼	54¼
Austin Nichols .	25¼	25	25
Aust Nich pr.	89⅞	89⅞	89⅞
Baldwin Loco .1	38	136¾	137⅝
Baldwin Loco pr	113	113	113
Balt & Ohio ..	90½	88½	89⅝
Balt & Ohio pr..	68¾	68½	68⅝
Bang & Aroos.	42	42¾	42¾
Bang & Aroos pr .	92¾	92½	92½
Barnsdall rites.	⅝	⅜	⅝
Bayuk Cigars .	43¼	43	43
Beechnut Pack	63	61¼	62
Belding Bros ..	37⅛	37¼	37⅛
Beth Steel	47	46¾	47
Beth Stl 7 pc	pr102	101½	101⅝
Beth Stl 7 pc ..	pr ..	116¾	116¼	116¼
Booth Fish ..	7¼	6¾	7⅛
Bot Cons M A .	40½	40¼	40½
Briggs Mfg Co	33⅝	3½	33⅝
Bkyn Edi 1	36	136	136
Bkyn Edi 1	36	136	136
Bkyn Man Tr .	56¼	56⅝	56¼
Bkyn M T pr .	82¾	83	82
Bkyn Un Gas .	77	75¾	76¼
Brunswick Co ..	37⅛	37⅛	37⅝
Bruns T & R .	10	10	10
Bruns Bros A .1	33	133	133
Bush Term 7 pc	88	87¾	87¾
Butte Cop	5½	5½	5½
Butte & Sup Cop	14	13½	13½
Butterick	23	22½	23
Caddo Oil	⅜	⅜	⅜
Calif Packing 1	43¾	141⅞	142
Cal Petrol	31¾	31	31¾
Callah Z Ld .	2⅜	2⅜	2⅜
Calu & Hec ...	14½	14½	14½
Cana Pac 1	47⅝	146¾	147½
Case Thresh .	70	69½	69½
Case Thresh pr	100	100	100
Cen Leather .	18⅝	18¼	18¾
Cen Leather pr .	63¾	63	63⅜
Cent of N J .	290	287	287
Cent Rib M ..	27	26½	27
Cen.R H pr ...	89	89	89
Cerro de Pasco	58⅜	57½	58⅜
Certainteed Prod.	46⅝	46¼	46½
Certainteed 1 pr .	105	105	105
Chandler Motor.	8	46½	43
Chand Mot pf	47	47	47
Ches & O ...1	16⅝	114½	116
Ches & O pr ...1	19½	119	119½
Chi & Alton ..	7¾	7⅝	7⅝
Chi & Alton pr..	13¾	12	12¾
Chi Gt West ..	10⅞	10½	10⅝
Chi Gt W pr ..	25¾	25	25½
Chi M & St P.	12	11¼	11⅜
Chi M&St P of 1	11⅝	11	11
Chi M&St P pr.	18¼	18¼	18⅜
Chi M&St P pr.	18⅜	18	18⅜
Chi & N Am.	73¼	73	73¼
Chi Pneu Tool.	13	111¼	111¼
C R I & P ..	57⅜	56	57¼
C R I P 6 pc pr	87¾	87¾	87¾
C R I P 7 pc pr	100	99¼	100
Childs Co	63½	62	62
Chile Copper	33¾	33	33⅛
Christie Brown	59¼	58	59¼
Chrysler Corp...	47	46¾	47
Coco Fuel I .	35	34¾	34¾
Colo & So	63	62½	63
Colo & S 1 pr .	66	66	66
Colum G & E .	35¼	34¾	34¾
Col G&E pr..	114	114	114
Colum Carbon .	56¾	56⅜	56⅜
Com Credit ..	35	34¼	34⅞
Com Credit rts.	¼	⅛	¼
Com Inv Tr pr	100½	100½	100½
Com Solv A ..	127½	127½	127½
Cong Naire ..	17¼	16⅞	17⅛
Cons Cigar Hld .	59½	58¾	59
Cons Cigar rites	1¼	1	1¼
Cons Distrib .	4¾	4⅜	4⅜
Consol Gas	98¾	97	98¼
Cons Textile ..	3¾	3¾	3¾
Cont Can	84½	84¼	84¾
Cont Ins 1	44	143	143
Cont Motors ..	12	11⅞	12
Corn Prod	40½	39¾	40¼
Coty Inc	56	55⅝	56
Crex Carpet ..	62	62	62
Cub Can Sug ..	10¼	10⅛	10¼
Crucible Steel..	78¾	7½	78¾
Cub Can Sug pr	46¼	44¾	45⅝
Cuba Co The ..	46⅝	46¾	46⅞
Cu Am Sugar ..	27¼	26⅝	27½
Cudahy Pack ..	92¼	92	92
Cushm Son, Ins	94½	93	94½
Cushm rites ..	⅛	⅛	⅛
David Chemical	39¼	39⅛	39⅛
De B Consol ..	29	29	29
Del & Hud 1	59	153¾	158¾
Del Lk & 1	48	143	146⅝
Den RG & W pr	42½	42½	42½
Detroit Edison	135	134	135
Dev. & R	98½	97¼	97¾
Dodge Bros A .	43	42½	42½
Dodge Bros pr.	85Z	85½	85½
Dome Mines ..	16⅞	16⅝	16⅞
DuP de Nem .	220½	218¾	220½
DuP de N deb.	103¾	103	103
East Kodak ..	108¾	108½	108¾
El P & L ctfs.	30¾	30	30⅜
El P&Lt pr ctfs	92¾	92	92⅝
El P&Lt 40 pr	106	106	106
El P&Lt full pd	107½	107½	107½
El Stor Bat ..	74	73¾	73⅝
Emer Brant	3	3	3
Emer Brant pr.	19	18½	18½
Endic Johnson .	68	68	68
Erie R R	35¾	34	35
Erie 1 pr	43¾	42¼	42¼
Erie 2 pr	40	39½	39½
Eureka Vac C	40	39¼	39½
Fairb Morse Co	55	54½	54¾
Fam Play Las.	105¾	104¾	105¼
Fed Lt Trac ..	36¾	36½	36
Fed Min Sm ..	93	90	90
Fed Min Sm pr	93	92½	92½
Fidel Ph Fire	199½	197¼	199
Fifth Ave Bldg	104½	104½	104½
First Nat Strs.	40¾	40¼	40½
Fisher Body ..	94¾	93¾	94
Fisk Rubber ..	28¾	28¾	28¾
Fleisch Co	52½	52½	53
Foundation Co	178¾	174½	178
Fox Film A	79¾	77¼	79¾
Freeport Texas	23	23¼	23¼
Gabriel Snub ..	38¾	38	38¾
Gardner Motor.	8½	8½	8½
Gen Am Tank ..	53½	52¾	53
Gen Asph	66¾	64	66¼
Gen Asph pr ...1	05½	103½	105½
Gen Cigar 1	10	110	110
Gen Cig pr ...1	14¾	114¾	114¾
Gen Elect 8	36¾	332¾	334
Gen Elec spl ..	11¾	11⅜	11¾
Gen G & E A ..	54¾	54¼	54½
Gen G&E 7 pc p	98½	98½	98½
Gen Motr 1	18	116	117⅞
Gen Mot 7 pc pr	114⅞	114⅞	114⅞
Gen Out A	52½	52¾	52½
Gen Out A pf.	30¾	29¾	29¾
Gen Petrol	57⅞	56½	57½
Gen Rail Sig ..	76	74½	75¾
Gen Refract ..	46	46	46
Gimbel Bros ..	71⅝	71⅜	71⅝
Gimb Br pr ...1	09	109	109
Glidden Co	24½	24	24
Gold Dust	45	45	45
Goodr B F Co .	61¾	60¾	61
Goodr BF pr ..	96¾	96¼	96½
Gdyr T&R pr .1	03¾	103¾	103¾
Gdyr T&R pr pr	105⅝	105⅝	105⅝
Gould Coup A .	20⅜	20½	20½
Gotham Hos pr	100½	100⅜	100⅜
Granby Min ...	19	18⅝	19
Gr North pr ..	73¾	73	73½
Gr N Ir O Pr ..	35¾	35⅝	35⅝
Gr West Sug ..	96⅝	96⅝	96⅝
Gr West Sug pr.	115	115	115
Greens Can Co .	18¾	18¾	18¾
Guant Sug	5¾	5¾	5¾
Gulf M & N ..	33½	32	32½
Gulf M & N pr	100⅞	100⅞	100⅞
Gulf St Steel .	87⅛	86¼	87
Hartman Corp .	34	34	34
Hayes Wheel ..	43	43	43
Helme G W Co	70	69½	69½
Hoe R & Co	34	34	34
Homestake	50	50	50
Household Pr ..	44¾	44¾	44¾
Houston Oil ..	65¾	64⅞	65¾
Howe Sd Co ..	29¾	29¼	29¼
Hud & Man	36¼	35¾	36¼
Hud Motor	109¾	106¾	108¾
Hupp Motor ..	25¾	25	25¾
Illinois Cent ..	118¾	118¼	118¾
Ind O & G	22¾	21¾	22¾
Ind Motor	21¾	19½	21⅜
Ind Ref	10	10	10
Inland Steel ..	42	41¼	42
Insp Cop	24¾	24	24
Int Rap Tr	28¼	27¾	28
Int Agri Corp.	26½	24	24⅝
Int Ag pr pr ..	91¾	88	91¾
Int Bus Mach .1	45	143¾	145
Int Cement	67¼	67½	67½
Int Comb Eng	55½	53¾	55
Int Harv Co ..1	26¾	124¾	125¾
Int Mer Mar ..	10¾	9¾	10¼
Int Nickel	41¾	41	41¼
Int Paper	57½	56¾	57½
Int Rys Ct Am.	28¾	28¾	28¾
Int Tel & Tel	124¾	121½	124
Inter typeCorp	25	25	25
Jewell Tea	26¾	26	26
Jones Br Tea ..	14¾	14¾	14¾
Jordan Motors	48¾	48½	49¾
Kan Cy P&L pr	108	107½	108
Kan City Sou.	46½	44¾	45¾
Kan C Sou pr.	61¾	61¾	61¾
Kan & Gulf ..	½	½	½
Kayser & Co.	43½	42½	44¾
Kelly Spg	17¾	17¼	17¼
Kelly Spg 8 pc	68¼	68¼	68¾
Kennecott Cop	54¾	54⅛	54¼
Keystone Tire .	2	2	2
Kinney Co	8	8	8
Kresge & Co ..5	45	545	545
Kresge & T ..	12¾	12¾	12¾
Lehigh Valley .	83	80	82¾
Lig & My Tob.	93¾	92¾	93¾
Lig & My Tob B.	92¾	92¾	92¾
Lig & My pr.	123¾	122½	123¾
Lima Loco	64¾	64	64¾
Loew's Inc ...	38½	37⅞	37⅞
Loft Candy ..	7¼	7⅛	7¼
Long B L A	47⅜	47⅜	47⅜
Lorillard Co P	37½	37	37
Louis O & Ref	17	16½	16½
Louis & Nash.	133	127⅜	133
Louis G & E A	24½	24½	24½
Ludlum Steel .	52	50½	52
Lyon & Healy ..	2¾	2¾	2¾
Mack Tk xr ...1	38	135¼	136¼
Mack Tr 1 pr .1	10½	1106	110½
Mack Tr 2 pr.1	06½	105	105
Mack Tr rts ..	6½	6	6¼
Mackay pr	72¼	72¼	72½
Mack R H Co.	96¾	95½	95½
Magma Cop ..	41¼	40¾	40¾
Mallison & Co .	24½	24¼	24¼
Manh I Sup ..	64⅝	62½	64⅜
Manh Ry m gt	40¼	40	40
Manh Shirt ..	30	30	30
Mara O Exp ..	25	24½	25
Market St Ry .	7⅝	7⅝	7⅝
M Sts Oil ctfs.	1	1	1
Marland Oil ..	56¼	55¾	55⅝
Martin Parry	20	20	20
Mack Rockwell..	29½	29½	29½
Martin Parry ..	20	20	20
Mathi Alki	96⅞	95	95⅞
Maytag Co	21¾	21¾	21¾
McCroy St B .	115	114	115
Mcint Por Min	24	24	24
Metro Gold pr	23⅝	23⅜	23⅝
Mex Seab Oil .	9¾	9⅝	9¾
Miami Cop	11¾	11⅝	11⅝
Mid Cont Pet .	33½	33	33
Mid Sts Oil ..	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
Mid St Pr pr .	125	123	125
Minn & St L .	3¾	3½	3⅝
Mo K & T	43⅝	40⅝	41½
Mo K & T pr .	91	90½	91
Mo Pac pr	37⅝	36½	37
Mo Pac pr	85⅞	84⅝	84⅝
Mont Power ..	79¾	78¼	79⅝
Mont Ward ..	73½	72¼	73¼
Moon Motors .	32¼	31⅜	31⅝
Mother Lode .	7¼	7	7¼
Motor Meter A	40¾	40¼	40⅞
Motor Wheel .	31	30¾	30⅝
Mo Pic Cap ..	20	20	20
Munsingwear..	35	35	35
Murray Body Co.	14¾	13½	13⅞
Nash Motors .	526½	522	526½
Nat Acme stpd.	11⅝	11⅝	11⅝
Nat Biscuit ..	87⅝	82	84⅜
Nat Clk & Suit	52¼	52	52½
Nat Clk&St pr.	90¼	90½	90½
Nat Dai Prod..	75⅞	74⅞	75⅞
Nat Dept St ..	41	40⅝	41
Nat Dist Pr	28¼	27⅝	28½
Nat Dist Pr pr.	67¼	65	67¼
Nat En & St .	36	36	36
Natl Cash ctfs.	50	49½	50
Natl P&L ctfs	34⅝	32	33
Nat Lead 1	63¾	163¼	163⅝
Nat Supply ..	56⅝	56⅝	56⅝
New Con Cop ..	13⅝	12⅝	12⅝
NN & H RG&E	110	110	110
NNH&RG&GEp	110	110	110
New York Can	76¼	75½	76¼
New York Cen	128½	127¼	127⅞
N Y Ch & St L	171¾	171	171½
N Y Ch & StL p	97¼	97¼	97¼
N Y Dock pr.	72¾	72¾	72½
N Y N H & H	41¼	40¾	41¼
N Y O & W .	27⅜	26	27⅜
Nia Fal P pr ..	28¾	27⅞	27⅞
Norf South ...	36¾	36¼	36¼
Norf & West..	153⅜	151½	152⅛
Norg & W pr .	85	85	85
Nor Am	64⅝	64	64⅝
N Am Edison .	50¼	50¼	50¼
Nor Am pr	50¾	50½	50¾
Nor Pac	72	71½	71⅝
Nor T & R ..	14¼	14¼	14¼
Nor T & R pr.	85	85	85
Oil Well Sup .	32¼	32¼	32¼
Oppen Col	56¾

RAIN TODAY WITH STRONG N. W. WIND

Norwich Bulletin

NORWICH, CONN., SATURDAY, JAN. 28, 1926

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DESPATCHES

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Saturday, Jan. 23, 1926

THE WEATHER

Conditions

The outlook is for fair weather Saturday and Sunday in the states east of the Mississippi river, with continued cold weather Saturday and slowly rising temperature Sunday.

Storm warnings are displayed along the Atlantic coast from Delaware breakwater to Eastport, Maine.

North of Sandy Hook: Strong northwest and north winds; weather partly overcast Saturday.

Forecast

For Southern New England and Eastern New York: Fair Saturday; Sunday fair, slowly rising temperature.

Observations

The Bulletin's observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Friday:

	Ther.	Bar.
7 a. m.	28	29.10
12 m.	20	29.60
6 p. m.	16	29.90

Highest 28, lowest 16.

Comparisons

Predictions for Friday: Snow or rain, colder at night.

Friday's weather: Rain in early morning, changing to snow; clearing with strong northwest wind, much colder at night.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES

Day	Sun Rises	Sun Sets	High Water a. m.	High Water p. m.	Moon Sets
18	7.11	4.45	1.00		10:16
19	7.11	4.47	1.53		11.24
20	7.10	4.48	2.57		mor
21	7.09	4.49	3.58		0.29
22	7.09	4.51	4.59		1.34
23	7.08	4.52	5.58		2.37
24	7.07	4.53	6.53		3.31

Six hours after high water it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

GREENEVILLE

The annual parish meeting of St. Andrew's Episcopal church was held this week in the guild room at the church, with William Banfield, senior warden, presiding.

The reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and approved. Favorable reports were heard from the Womens' Guild, the Church School, Womens' Auxiliary and new heating plant fund.

The following officers were elected for 1926:

Senior Warden, William J. Banfield; junior warden, James Johnson; treasurer, Arthur Fitch; clerk, Charles Erwin; missionary treasurer, James Johnson; vestrymen, John McKinley, Joseph Wooley, William Andrews, William Taft, Fred Fitch, Benjamin Morgan, Alfred Bruckach, Albert Andrews, John T. Evans, Albert Turner.

Delegates appointed for diocesan convention are William J. Banfield, James Johnson. Alternates John McKinley, Chas. Erwin; delegates to New London Archdeaconary convention, Arthur Fitch, William Andrews; alternates, Alfred Bruckach, Fred C. Fitch.

A rising vote of thanks was given to the treasurer and church societies. The house committee reported on various improvements in the rectory.

A letter received today from the Rev. John Reed Jones of Andover, New Brunswick, Canada, states that he expects to leave on the 13th of Feb. to come to St. Andrew's church, as their new rector.

A meeting of the Womens' Guild of St. Andrews' church was held at the home of Mrs. Fitch Dolbeare with a very large attendance, the meeting was opened by the president. Reports from the secretary and treasurer were read and accepted. The guild has had a very very prosperous year, the treasurer's report showing the $5.65 was realized from different sources of which the greater portion was given to the church. New China and silver were added to the China closet.

The election of officers resulted as follows: Mrs. Fitch Dolbeare, president; Mrs. Howard Gordon, vice president; Mrs. Charles Erwin, treasurer; Mrs. William Taft, secretary. Appointed on the sick committee: Mrs. H. Gordon, chairman; Mrs. E. Risley, Mrs. W. Mabny, Mrs. W. Banfield, Mrs. C. Evans, Mrs. J. Telford, for the work Mrs. W. Taft, Mrs. W. Winterbottom, Mrs. A. Bernard.

Plans for an English tea party to be held in February were discussed.

TAFTVILLE

Eugene Lavalle of South B street has been suffering from an attack of neuritis.

Rev. U. O. Bellerose, pastor of the Sacred Heart church, entertained the trustees, choir members and pew collectors at supper in the Parish hall Wednesday night.

SEWED FOR HOSPITAL IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Sewing for a hospital in Greenwood, South Carolina, was carried on by the missions department of the Woman's Guild of the United Congregational church at the meeting held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Community house on Church street, where there was an attendance of about 40. At 6:15 a cafetaria supper was served under the direction of members of Charitable Circle, King's Daughters, about 70 enjoying this part of the meeting and the social hour which followed when an interesting moving picture on Near East Relief was shown.

Chelsea Thrift Poster Exhibition

Special hours from 3:30 to 4 this (Saturday) afternoon are to be observed at the Chelsea savings bank to give opportunity for school teachers generally and for the pupils and teachers from the suburban schools to visit the exhibition of thrift posters, made by school children, which are on display in the lobby of the bank.

There will be music during the exhibition hours and while the time has been made to accommodate pupils and teachers, the general public will be welcome. The exhibition has excited much interest during the past two days and the many visitors have found much upon which to make favorable comment in the work of the school children.

Mrs. Leila Gardner Sings

In New York Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Mrs. Leila Troland Gardner, formerly of Norwich, broadcasted negro spirituals from WGBS. Mrs. Gardner will not have many more opportunities to broadcast this season, as she is sailing on the 30th for a trip abroad.

New London Curios

In the sailing and whaling week exhibits at a big New York department store, curios are shown from the collection of T. Leroy Hardwood, of New London.

East Hampton Postmaster

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 23—The president has nominated Harlan G. Mills for postmaster at East Hampton.

TALKS IN SCHOOLS BRING TO END NORWICH THRIFT WEEK OBSERVANCE

The local program for Thrift Week is being brought to a close by addresses in all the schools having the seventh and eighth grades throughout the town by prominent ment of Norwich. Those who accepted assignments to speak to the children in the schools most of which was done on Friday, Walter F. Lester, chairman of the school board, addressed the pupils of the academy, Attorney Chas. V. James, St. Mary's school, Arthur H. Dale, the Broad street school; Attorney Edward G. McKay, St. Patrick's and St. Joseph's schools; J. C. Macpherson, Greeneville school; Prof. H. A. Tirrell, Broadway school; Edwin Hill, the Bishop and Laurel Hill schools; Adelard Morin, the Occum, Wequonnoc, and the Sacred Heart schools in Taftville; Henry D. Johnson, secretary of the Building and Loan association, the Elizabeth street school; L. M. Crandall, the Town and West Town street schools. The speakers urged the children to practice thrift and to acquire the habit of saving. In some instances it was considered advisable not to visit the schools on Friday because of the storm. In such cases the visit will be made next week.

National Thrift Week has a nation-wide scope and is celebrated each year in hundreds of cities throughout the United States. Thrift Week has for its purpose the education of the general public regarding methods through which much can be accomplished in the economic condition of the individual or the family. Systematic savings each week or each month places one on the road to success and happiness. Thrift enables one to watch the expenditures, to spend wisely, and to buy those things which will bring maximum satisfaction. Owning one's home is regarded as one of the first steps towards success and has a large place in the thrift schedules. Placing one's savings in sound and safe investments rather than in highly speculative ventures will greatly reduce the millions of dollars that are now lost annually in get-rich-quick schemes. To pay one's bills promptly in order to protect one's credit is another feature of the thrift educational movement. The moral obligation for providing for dependents through insurance, home ownership, and sound investments, is incumbent to every thinking man or woman who has a serious purpose in life. One of the first places to educate people along thrift lines is in the schools and the talks to the school children by prominent men of the community will no doubt bring good results.

THEATRE PATRON SUES; HIT BY FALLING CEILING

Papers in a $25,000 damage action have been served by Deputy Sheriff J. H. Tubbs on the Walter T. Murphy Amusement Co., of New London which is made defendant in a suit brought by George W. Babcock of that city.

The suit arises out of alleged permanent injuries received by the plaintiff when on June 26, 1925, a portion of the ceiling in the Crown theatre fell during a show, and struck Babcock's head as he was sitting in the balcony. The plaintiff alleges that he received cuts and scalp wounds, besides bruises and injuries to his body, from which he claims to be permanently injured and thereby prevented from working and earning a livelihood. He also claims to have expended large sums of money for medical care and attention. The amusement company is covered by liability insurance.

Following the accident the playhouse was closed for a considerable period until extensive repairs and alterations were made. The theatre was completely gone over at the tim.

W. F. BROWN STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE AT UNCASVILLE

Waterman F. Brown of Uncasville, president of the New London Horticultural society, suffered injury to his right leg Thursday at Uncasville, when struck by an automobile operated by Max Koletbusky of Chappell Hill. X-ray pictures were taken Friday to ascertain whether any bones had been fractured.

Mr. Brown was waiting for the 6:40 trolley for New London when struck. Apparently Koletbusky, driving toward Norwich, did not see Mr. Brown until too late and the car struck the man a glancing blow knocking him several feet. The trolley car was approaching and Mr. Brown could not cross the track. The motorman stopped the car and with the conductor gave what aid was possible to Mr. Brown, while Dr. J. J. Donohue was summoned. The injured man was carried to his home nearby where he is now confined.

He complained of intense pain and suffered much during the night, but was reported as slightly improved on Friday at his home.

LICENSES RETURNED AT AUTO DRIVERS' HEARINGS

At the automobile hearings conducted at the court house in New London Friday afternoon before Inspector Melvin E. Snow of the motor vehicle department the following decisions were rendered:

John Bartblucci, of New London, speeding, license returned; John A. Heikel, New London, no appearance, evading responsibility; Rudolph Gulbe, New London, operating while under the influence, given O. K. slip, (can regain license); Morris D. Cohn, New London, unregistered car, allowed to keep license; Gino Montali, New London, conference, warned; John Connors, New London, conference, warned; Harold F. Lewis of Groton, evading responsibility, license returned; Joseph F. Flannery of East Lyme, operating while under the influence of liquor, license returned; Joseph A. Morse of Norwich, unregistered car, allowed to keep license.

SUIT FOR INJURIES BY AUTOMOBILE WITHDRAWN

A suit for $5,000 damages brought against William E. Kenyon, of Waterford, by Joseph Rutberg, of New London, has been withdrawn without costs from the superior court.

The plaintiff, who is a junk dealer, brought the suit on the ground that his right knee was broken and he was otherwise injured when he was struck by Kenyon's automobile on Aug. 30 1925, as Rutberg was standing talking to J. Tarnapol, who was sitting in an automobile that had stopped opposite the main entrance gate of the Jewish cemetery on the Boston Post road in the town of Waterford. Rutberg claimed that the Kenyon automobile was operated at the time of the accident, at a reckless rate of speed, had defective brakes and steering geer and that the driver failed to sound his horn or give warning of his approach.

TRIED TO SLASH THROAT— SENT TO NORWICH S. H.

William C. Reinmuth, 50, was committed to the Norwich state hospital Thursday as the result of attemptins to take his life Monday afternoon. A hearing was held before Judge John E. Fahey in Rockville probate court. Upon recommendation of Dr. Thomas F. Rockwell Reinmuth was taken to Norwich by Captain Stephen J. Tobin.

He made two attempts to cut his throat and when he failed he sought medical aid. He appeared at the office of Dr. Rockwell about 5:15 o'clock and asked to have some patchwork done. Doctor Rockwell found his throat slashed in two places, but neither gash proved serious. Reinmuth has been in poor health for a long time.

Cow Makes Record

Angeline No. 2641 owned by Oscar A. Leonard of Rockville and Tolland, has completed an official record as a producer of milk and butterfat. The cow has just completed an official record of 16,022.6 lbs of milk showing 568.6 lbs. butterfat, with an average per cent. of 4.169 under ordinary farm conditions on two milkings a day during her entire year. This makes her one of the leading cows of the state.

KEEPING TRAFFIC OPEN DURING ROAD CONSTRUCTION

Road conditions and detours in the state where highway work is in progress are reported this week by the state highway department as follows:

Greenwich—Boston Post road is under construction at Cos Cob. No delay to traffic.

Fairfield—Post road is being widened. No delay to traffic.

Waterbury-Cheshire, Waterbury-road is being graded. No delay to traffic.

Westbrook—Patchague river bridge is under construction. No delay to traffic.

West Haven and Milford—Oyster river bridge is under construction. Temporary bridge provided.

Torrington—Goshen road is under construction. Open for traffic.

Waterbury-Watertown, Watertown—Thomaston road is under construction. Shoulders incomplete.

Bethel—Newton road and bridge are under construction. No detours necessary.

Roxbury—Southbury road, surface is in good condition. Shoulders and gutters uncompleted.

New Milford—Gaylordsville bridge, work on the new bridge and approaches are under way. No detours necessary.

Washington—Grade crossing elimination, road and bridge construction are under way. No detours necessary.

Chaplin-Willimantic—Hampton road is under construction, open to traffic.

Killingly-Norwich—Putnam road is under construction open to traffic.

Bozrah—Bozrah street is under construction, open to traffic.

Norwich-Montville, Norwich—New London road is under construction. Through traffic between New London and Norwich should use road on east side of Thames river.

Franklin-Norwich—Willimantic road is under construction, open to traffic.

Cromwell—River road is under construction, open for traffic.

Suffield-West Suffield—East Granby road is under construction, but is open for traffic.

Southington, Cheshire and Meriden—Waterbury turnpike is under construction, but is open for traffic.

Middletown, Middletown-Hartford—Road is under construction, but is open for traffic.

Plymouth and Harwington—The Poland brook road is under construction, traffic passing through.

GRANTS FIVE DIVORCES IN SUPERIOR COURT

Five divorces were granted by Judge C. L. Avery in the superior court here Friday morning, all on the uncontested list.

Ella Pickett Dunlap of New London received divorce from Frank Dunlap, now of parts unknown, whom she married October 32, 1918. She alleged desertion on April 10, 1922 and was granted change of name to Ella Pickett.

On the ground of desertion Dec. 5, 1908, Rebecca Fraser LaPage of New London was given divorce from Arthur LaPage, who is now of parts unknown. The plaintiff could not give the exact date of her marriage, which she claimed was when she was 14 years of age. She said she was 37 now and that she and her husband had been separated for 20 years.

Divorce and custody of a minor daughter, aged 9 years, were granted to Bronislawa Gornka Hobowska of New London from Walter Hobowska now of Newark, N. J. The couple was married Jan. 4, 1915 and the petitioner alleged intolerable cruelty since June 1, 1917. She testified that he beat her every two weeks and that he always got drunk. She said that her husband beat her so that "it made her face black."

James Ennis of New London secured divorce on the ground of desertion on Jan. 30, 1922 from Emma Fox Ennis of New London. They were married Jan. 28, 1922. Ennis, according to his testimony, said that his wife wanted him to buy her a home, but he refused "because he could not afford it." Two days later she left him.

Divorce was granted to Grace Benton Cookson of Norwich from Earle E. Cookson of Cherryfield, Maine, formerly of Norwich. They were married June 16, 1909, and the petitioner brought the divorce suit on the ground of adultery since Jan. 1, 1921, with various persons to the plaintiff unknown. Her husband was formerly a clergyman and is now selling law courses for a Chicago extension school on the grounds of a statutory offense. The plaintiff was given the custody of one child, and alimony of $125 per month.

The case of Florence Spencer O'Neill of New London, who seeks a divorce from Maurice O'Neill, went off. According to the papers, they were married on Nov. 26, 1918, and desertion was alleged the next day.

Workmen's Compensation.

Two workmen's compensation agreements as follows have been approved by Commissioner J. J. Donohue:

Amable Delander, Taftville, employer, and Charles G. Proulx, Taftville, employe, hand lacerated, Dec. 18, at rate of $15.

Thames Tow Boat Co., New London, employer, and William E. Patterson, employe, loss of half of finger on right hand, 10 weeks at $16.35 for specific injury.

Wooden heads should produce burning thoughts, but they don't.

Announcement

The OAKLAND-PONTIAC MOTOR SALES announce the opening of their Salesroom and Service Station located at 319 Main Street, Norwich, Conn.

All models that are available for immediate delivery are being displayed.

The Oakland car is thoroughly up to the minute in every detail as it embodies such new and proven features as:

AIR CLEANER	FOUR WHEEL BRAKES	FISHER BODY
OIL FILTER	BALLOON TIRES	TRANSMISSION LOCK
HARMONIC BALANCER	DUCO FINISH in colors	HEATER

This completeness of equipment gives the Oakland Six a standard of performance, apppearance and economy not achieved in any other car of similar price.

Models and prices are as follows: DELIVERED IN NORWICH

Touring	$1,125.00	Landau Coupe	$1,225.00
Coach	$1,195.00	Landau Sedan	$1,425.00
Sedan	$1,320.00	4 Pass. Roadster	$1,295.00

The new Pontiac Six, companion car to the Oakland Six, which was shown to the public for the first time at the New York Automobile Show, is priced as follows: DELIVERED IN NORWICH–

COACH ..... $915.00 COUPE $915.00

WE ARE READY TO SERVE YOU. OPEN EVERY EVENING.

Oakland-Pontiac Motor Sales

TELEPHONE 683.

HI-Y INDUCTION CEREMONY USED ON 9 MEMBERS

The Hi-Y club held their regular meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Friday evening with the largest attendance for over three years. Thirty members, three leaders, and two visitors gathered around the supper table. The meeting was opened by the singing of one verse of America, following which General Secretary Edwin Hill returned thanks. Elliott Graham and James Bradlaw acted as song leaders while Edward Smith and Edward Moore assisted on the piano and saxophone respectively. Immediately following the supper, the secretary's report was read and accepted. The standing of the six teams in an attendance contest within the club was announced as follows:

Harry Waters, Leader	12 points
Lester Armstrong, Leader	9 points
Otis Fellows, Leader	8 points
Elliott Graham, Leader	8 points
John Bell, Leader	7 points
Frank Mousley, Leader	5 points

For the first time in three years, the regular Hi-Y induction ceremony was used on nine new members. The ceremony was conducted by the four executive officers and Leader J. H. Graham. There were six more new members that were ready for the ceremony but owing to the lack of more time these men will have to wait until some future date. The candle light service proved to be a very impressive part of the service.

Announcement was made at this meeting that F. A. Stanley, state boys' work secretary, would be the guest of honor at the regular meeting on Friday, Feb. 12.

Gave Lecture on Germany

An illustrated lecture on Berlin and the cities of northern Germany was given by the pastor, H. Hunzinger on Thursday night at the parlors of the German Latheran church on Franklin street. In spite of the rainy night there was a large attendance. All enjoyed the beautifully colored slides and the interesting lecture. Pictures were shown of Berlin, Danzig, Stettin, Bostock, Luebeck, Hamburg, Bremen, Hanover, Gosslar, Elberfeld and Barmen and other cities. Miss Frieda Philipp presided at the piano. The committee of the Bible class: Alma Philipp, Edna Weisgraber, Edna Zeiz, Robert Gross, Frank Decker and Julius Hill did fine work. They were assisted by teachers of the Sunday school. At the close of the lecture refreshments were served by members of the class.

NORWICH FLAGMAN FELL FROM TRAIN IN WORCESTER

John A. Barry, flagman on the State of Maine express that passes through this city at 10:45 every night, was jogled off the train as it passed through Worcester Thursday night, was picked up unconscious and taken to the hospital.

The train crew did not know Barry was missing until they had reached Portland, Me.

Mr. Barry, who resides at 109 Roath street, married Miss Nora Warwick, of Bliss place, about a year ago.

CONTINUANCE IN DANBURY OF ILLINGER CASE

When the case of Alfred E. Illinger formerly of this city, but for some time employed as receiving clerk at the Mohican Co. store, in Danbury, was brought up in the Danbury police court Thursday morning a continuance of a week was taken at the request of attorneys for the company who could not be present.

Illinger is accused of embezzlement by agent, his arrest having followed the disappearance of $70 from the safe in the store.

According to the report in the Danbury News, Illinger denies any knowledge of how the money was taken and of where it may be now. He admitted, the authorities state, that he has taken money from the store over a period of several months since he has been in Danbury, and the embezzlement charge is based upon this admission it is stated.

The money disappeared between 7:30 p. m., New Year's eve, and the following Saturday morning. According to the authorities, Illinger, as receiving clerk, had access, it was stated, by J. W. Groom, manager of the store, to the money taken in by the various departments of the store, it being part of his duties to collect the receipts of the different departments.

The missing money, a part of the day's receipts, was in a money bag in the safe at 7:30 o'clock. Mr Groom told the police. Clerks were at work in the store, after it closed at nine o'clock, until midnight, taking inventory. It was during that time the money was taken and the authorities believe someone who knew the combination of the safe was concerned.

It is understood that every employe who was in the store New Year's eve, has been checked up. No arrest was made until recently and everyone was allowed to go and come as he pleased When Illinger was questioned, it is stated, he denied any knowledge of the loss of the money and he also denied, it is said, taking any smaller amounts, until he was confronted with proof of minor defalcations, when the authorities state, he confessed to "knocking down" small sums at various times.

Superior Court Assignments

Assignments for trials in New London, on Tuesday, and in this city on Wednesday of next week, were made here Friday by Judge C. L. Avery of the superior court. They are the following:

At New London, Tuesday, January 26th., Elizabeth P. L. Babcock vs. Horace H. Babcock; George A. Garrett vs. Eleanor Coates Garrett, appeal from probate.

At Norwich, Wednesday, January 27th., Elmire Sevigney Bullard vs. Ernest E. Bullard.

Unclaimed Letters

Unclaimed letters in the Norwich, Conn., postoffice for the week ending January 23, 1926: Mrs. Charles DeForest, Frank Henley, Miss Margaret Hoadley, Mrs. John Muchinstrum, Mrs. Fannie Swan.

FRANK BENT LEADING FLORIDA LAND "FLYER"

New York papers report Francis P. Bent, a former Norwich man, as the acting head of a Florida land speculation company in which ex-mayor John F. Hylan of New York is associated. Mr. Bent was chief of the bureau of contract and supervision under Mayor Hylan's administration at a salary of $7,500, but lost his chance of retaining the position when Mayor Hylan was defeated in the primaries.

GIVEN SURPRISE BY B'NAI BRITH AUXILIARY

Mrs. M. J. Solomon of Broadway was pleasntly surprised in her home Thursday afternoon by members of the Woman's Auxiliary of B'nai B'rith led by Mrs. Jacob Wechsler of Jewett City. Four tables of bridge were enjoyed after which refreshments were served by Mrs. J. Wechsler assisted by Mrs A. Curland and Mrs. Fred Herman. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. Simon Mandell and Mrs. A. Silverberg.

JUDGE GREENE'S ESTATE APPRAISED AT $142,310

NEW YORK, Jan. 23—Appraisal of the New York estate of Judge Gardiner Greene, who died last year at his home in Norwich, Conn., filed today with the state tax commission, shows a net estate of $33,431 taxable in New York, the entire estate was appraised at $142,310. Mrs. Louise R. Greene, the widow, is named executrix and sole beneficiary.

Dee's Cubeb Cigarettes

A pleasant, harmless, healthful smoke, death to disease germs and a specific for catarrh. Keep immune! Tin box by mail or druggists. 20c silver. The W. Dee Company, R. D. 2, Willimantic, Conn. An important certificate free in every box. If it won't make you it won't break you.

January Sale of furniture

NOW GOING ON AT

HOURIGAN BROTHERS

62-66 MAIN STREET NORWICH, CONN.

POETRY

Old Reliable

In the catalogue of friendship
Each of us has one name there,
One whose love has left an imprint
Clear, indelible and fair,
Old Reliable, let's call him,
Though perhaps yours is a she—
Sex is not a ruling factor
When true friendship holds the key.

Old Reliable—I have one—
Let me talk of mine to you.
Still, of course, you have one like him—
Just as sturdy, just as true,
He finds joy in your rejoicing,
Tears come, too, when you have tears;
He's the first to anchor near you
When a troubled sea appears.

Friend you go to in a crisis,
Staunch, uncompromising friend;
Flay you for your earthly errors—
Solemn duty, he'll contend.
But, let some one else upbraid you,
Then is when the fight begins;
Who are you to be my censor?
He's the sponsor for my sins!

When I need advice he takes me
Where nobody else can hear;
Slips me out around the corner,
Then commands attentive ear.
Doctor, lawyer, jury-fixer—
Oh, there's nothing you could name
He'd deny me if I whispered:
"Stand fast, Buddy! Play the game."

He's the fellow you will go to
When things break their worst or best
He rejoices when you're winning;
When you're losing—that's the test!
Old Reliable, you call him,
And a smile comes breaking through
As he whispers: "Ain't life funny?
That's the name I have for you!"
—William Herschell in Indianapolis News.

A Little Dutch Garden

I passed by a garden, a little Dutch garden,
Where useful and pretty things grew—
Heart's-ease and tomatoes, and pinks and potatoes,
And lilies and onions and rue.

I saw in that garden, that little Dutch garden,
A chubby Dutchman with a spade,
And a rosy Dutch frau, with shoe like a scow,
And a flaxen-haired little Dutch maid.

There grew in that garden, that little Dutch garden,
Blue flag-flowers, lovely and tall,
And early blush roses and little pink posies.
But Gretchen was fairer than all.

My heart's in that garden, that little Dutch garden;
It tumbled right in as I passed,
Mid wildering masses of spinach and daisies,
And Gretchen is holding it fast.
—Hattie Whitney.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

It is rumored that most of these "Go Home to Mother and Dad" songs were written by college deans.—Yale Record.

"I suppose you'll end your life if I refuse you?"

"That always has been my custom."—Sydney Bulletin.

Hardware Dealer: How d'ye come by that black eye, Si?

Farmer: That old brindle cow had a way o' flickin' her tail in my face, so I tied a brick on to it.—Good Hardware.

Wise Prof—How many sides has a circle?

Dumb Frosh—Two, sir.

Wise Prof. Name them.

Dumb Frosh—Inside and outside.

Father—"My son, it gives me much pleasure to present you with this $25 for your good behavior."

Son—"Why don't you give me fifty bucks and have an awful good time?"—Judge.

"Do you believe it is lucky to pick up a horseshoe in the road?" inquired the bore.

"Not as lucky as not picking up a nail or a tack in the road," replied the motorist.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

They had just sealed their engagement with a kiss.

"And, David, dear, I am a graduate in home economics," she whispered.

"Well, never mind that," he returned generously. "I suppose we can board."—American Legion Weekly.

"A great many women do not vote."

"Yet we must have votes for women," answered Miss Cayenne. "It is necessary to keep the men citizens well reminded that we are going to do precisely as we choose about this as well as other matters."—Washington Star.

KALEIDOSCOPE

Venus makes a rotation every 23.5 hours.

Mercury is the planet closest to the sun.

China imported 10,000,000,000 cigarettes in 1923.

The moon moves around the earth every 27.32 days.

An elephant can detect by scent the presence of man at 1,000 yards.

Seventy-nine years old, C. W. McPherson, of Fort Washington, O., hunts rabbits and kills them, too, with a musket more than a century old. The gun has been in McPherson's possession more than forty years. He killed four rabbits with it one day this season. The gun is a muzzle loader, with powder horn and ramrod.

A dog chased Elmer Brown's cat into the latter's antique store at Hobart, Okla. The cat made a leap for a dark corner and plunged headfirst into a small-necked vase. Its head stuck. After chasing the dog away, Mr. Brown was forced to break the vase to free the cat. Then he found something he didn't know he had. Gold coins to the value of $3,000 dropped to the floor.

The custom of hanging evergreens in the house during the yuletide originally had a purpose beyond that of decoration. In olden days each kind of evergreen was believed to confer special blessings on those who passed beneath its boughs. To pass under holly insured good fortune throughout the year, bay meant victory, while laurel was supposed to impart a spirit of beauty and poetry.

J. C. Williams, of Higbee, Mo., has his favorite "taw" back after fifty years. While wandering through the woods some fifty years ago Williams lost his taw while shooting at tree trunks and other objects in the woods. A diligent search failed to reveal the lost marble. Recently in chopping down a tree in the woods his ax struck a hard substance. Investigating, Williams found the "taw" imbedded six inches in the tree trunk.

The saving of little tickets thrown aside by passing motorists may make John G. Jeffress, sixty-five-year-old "newsboy," richer by $1,300. He sells papers where motorists, ferrying between San Francisco and Oakland, Cal., have to pay toll, and it was a poor day when he did not receive a hatful of rebate tickets. When he read that the Southern Pacific company had been ordered to make cash refunds on automobile ferry tickets he began counting. He had 3,643 tickets.

Norwich Bulletin

1796 1926

VOL. LXVIII—No. 21. POPULATION 29,865 NORWICH, CONN., MONDAY, JANUARY 25, 1926. TEN PAGES—70 COLUMNS PRICE TWO CENTS

CARDINAL MERCIER'S DEATH EVOKES TORRENT OF TRIBUTES

Messages Poured In From All Over the World—Rulers and Humble People Expressed Their Sorrow—Secretary Kellogg Sent a Message in Behalf of President Coolidge—Great Crowds Are Passing the Bier in the Archepiscopal Palace—The "Black Nuns" of Malines Will Maintain a Death Watch Until the Burial Thursday—The Funeral Will Be a State Affair of Great Pomp.

MALINES, Belgium, Jan. 24.—(AP)—Belgium mourned today at the bier of Cardinal Mercier, kindly, fighting priest, who in the dire days of German domination rose from comparative obscurity to give the country courage to resist and hope for deliverance.

Great crowds stood patiently outside the archepiscopal palace with teardimmed eyes, or filed slowly past the couch where the body of the cardinal lay, clad in robes of violet, with mitre upon the head and the cardinal's great gold cross upon his breast.

CARDINAL MERCIER

Many in that slow procession were wounded soldiers of the war, some limping painfully as they approached the prelate's resting place to pay him their last humble honors, and while thousands at Malines bode him farewell, messages poured in from rulers, the great and humble people of the four corners of the earth, some of them from Germany, expressing the sorrow which the world feels at the passing of the 'Apostle of Peace."

The American secretary of state, Frank B. Kellogg, sent a message in behalf of President Coolidge, which Ambassador Phillips has tendered to deliver to the king and the prelate's family gathered about the death bed. It made reference to the indomitable courage of Cardinal Mercier, his unfailing championship of the best interests of humanity, which had truly made the world better. It was only one of many similar messages which evoked a note of appreciation throughout Belgium.

Today there was an expression of profound peace upon the cardinal's face, but suffering of the last two weeks had left deeply graven lines and friends found a change almost beyond relief. Throughout the day the "Black Nuns" of Malines kept the death watch. They will be on duty until the burial Thursday. Until then also the great bell of Malines Cathedral will toll the funeral knell thrice daily, at 6 o'clock in the morning, noon and 7 o'clock in the evening. The bells of all the other churches will join in the solemn tribute.

While no formal action has yet been taken, it is considered certain that the funeral will be a state affair of great pomp, the members of the cabinet having decided to pay this high honor in recognition of Mercier's great moral services to Belgium. Only three Belgians thus far have been honored with a national funeral—Charles Rogier, father of the Belgian constitution, Baron Lambermont, noted statesman, to whom Belgium is indebted for the liberation of the Scheldt river and the independence of the Congo at the Berlin conference in 1885, and General Leman, heroic defender of Liege.

King Albert, the crown prince and the government ministers will follow the body to the crypt of the Cathedral of St. Rombolt (St. Rombaut) where it will be interred, and where it will rest beside former primates of Belgium Cardinal Frankenberg and Monsignor DeeCampes and Goosens. Although this form of interment has been forbidden in recent years in Belgium, exception will be made in this case at the request of Cardinal Mercier himself, who, after the armistice, asked M. Vanderveide was minister of justice, asked that it be permitted and M. Vanderveldt immediately agreed.

Pending designation of a new archbishop, Monsignor Le Graive, auxiliary bishop, has been nominated by the metropolitans board as head of the affairs of the archbishopric. He will officiate at the funeral services.

It is learned that Cardinal Mercier left a religious will addressed to the Anglican Archbishop of Canterbury. This was the document he wrote on Thursday late after the visit of Lord Halifax, president of the English Union church with whom he was associated at the Malines conference for union of the Anglican and Roman Catholic churches.

NORTH AMERICA PUT ON A RADIO ENTERTAINMENT

NEW YORK, Jan. 24—(AP)—For an hour tonight North America put on a radio entertainment with the world as audience, and then sat back and listened as South America and Europe took the spotlight in the opening of the third international broadcasting tests held in connection with Radio Week.

At 10 p. m. eastern time foreign broadcasting stations and those in South America shut down, giving the United States, Canada, Mexico, Cuba and Porto Rico rulership of the air.

During this hour Londoners were given an opportunity to dance to American jazz, imported direct by radio from Station WMCA, New York. At the Hotel Metropole, London, Eric Palmer, official observer for the tests, tuned in on WMCA with loud speakers in the hotel ballroom ready to amplify the music for the dancers.

International courtesy was observed by the Hotel McAlpin orchestra which provided the music through the inclusion of popular British tune in the program.

Another feature of the American broadcasting was a message to England, France, Germany and Italy paying tribute to their composers, broadcast by Walter Domroach, symphonic conductor, during the Atwater-Kent hour of music.

Promptly at 12 o'clock, the stations in North America suspended broadcasting and London, Bournemouth and Daventry, England; Barcelnoa, Spain; Lima, Peru, and Buenos Aires, Argentina, began varied and characteristic programs of music, vocal and instrumental, and addresses.

AUTOIST WHO KILLED MAN IS HELD FOR HOMICIDE

NEW YORK, Jan. 24—(AP)—A man was killed, two men and a women were injured and three automobiles were wrecked early today in a wild dash of a car through Broadway. Thomas J. Murray, alleged to have driven the "runaway," was arrested charged with homicide and operating an automobile while intoxicated, his companion, Frank Casey, was fatally injured.

Two policemen pursued Murray's car for several blocks emptying their revolvers, at 42nd street it crashed into the rear of a sedan, injuring Mrs. Loretta Campbell, a passenger, and nine blocks further north rammed a taxicab, breaking the leg of Joseph Rosenstein, the chauffeur. Murray's car was disabled in the second collision and he was relased from the wreckage by fire apparatus.

UNFAVORABLE WEATHER DELAYS SPANISH AIRMEN

LAS PALMAS, Canary Islands, Jan. 24—(AP)—The start of the Spanish airmen for Porto Praya, Cape Verde Islands, on the second leg of their trans-Atlantic flight, was postponed today because of unfavorable weather. Commander Franco hopes to continue his voyage tomorrow or Tuesday.

SOLVING THE DEATH OF MISS ANNA M. DIETRICH

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 24.—(AP)—Delaware county authorities announced tonight that they were nearing a solution of the mystery surrounding the death of Miss Anna May Dietrich, whose dismembered body was found Thursday near Media.

The announcement was made after a number of persons had been questioned in connection with the case. One of those under examination was David L. Marshall, a chiropractor, with offices in this city. He was said to have been a close friend of Miss Dietrich.

This was the second time Marshall had been questioned. On Friday he told the police he had not seen Miss Dietrich for ten days. He described her as a "delightful person" and declared that only a fiend could have murdered her.

Detectives today found another charred mound of evidence. About 100 yards from the spot where the woman's head was discovered yesterday lay the dead and partly burned form of a small terrier and nearby was a partly filled can of gasoline. The dog had been shot in the neck, evidence, the the authorities said, that the murderer had returned to burn the head and had shot the dog lest its barking lead to discovery.

Some articles belonging to Miss Dietrich also were found today. They included a heel from a silver slipper purchased on Tuesday, the day she disappeared, a string of beads and dress silk.

$50,000 RESIDENCE AT PINE ORCHARD DESTROYED BY FIRE

BRANFORD, Jan. 24.—(AP)—The home of J. Howard Marlin, retired manufacturer, formerly connected with the Marlin Fire Arms corporation, of New Haven, at Pine Orchard, was destroyed by fire this afternoon. Mr. Marlin, who was in New York at the time said tonight upon his return here that the damage to building and contents would reach $50,000.

When the fire broke out only Mrs. Marlin's mother, Mrs. Weles, and the latter's sister were in the house. An alarm was sent in from next door and all of Branford's apparatus responded. The flames which had gained a good headway burned out the stairway in the front part of the house and were roaring through the upper two stories of the structure when firemen arrived.

Several articles of furniture were removed from the lower floor, but nothing from the upper stories were saved.

After burning nearly four hours the fire was extinguished only the shell of the building remaining. Although it stood close to adjacent houses, firemen kept the latter from catching fire.

THREE BOYS DROWNED WHEN SLED BROKE ICE

IRONTON, Ohio, Jan. 24.—(AP)—Three boys were drowned here today when a sled on which they were riding broke through the ice of a small creek. A fourth boy was rescued.

Coal Conference in Philadelphia Tuesday

To Consider the Peace Plan Offered by E. J. Lynett, of the Scranton Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 24—(AP)—The anthracite wage conference will reconvene here at 3 p. m. Tuesday.

The call for the joint conference which was requested by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, to consider the peace plan offered by E. J. Lynett, publisher of the Scranton Times, was sent out today by direction of Alvan Markle, Hazelton, chairman of the joint conference.

The miners suggested the meeting be held either in a coal region city or New York, but left the selection to the operators.

While both sides were hopeful the next meeting would develop something that each could accept the correspondence leading up to the agreement to meet again held out no prospect that the coming session will end the strike.

The last work so far on the Lynett plan has been spoken by the operators. After a long meeting here on Saturday, Major W. W. Inglis, chariman of the operators' negotiating committee notified Mr. Markle the mine owners accepted the invitation to meet again but wished it understood that they did not want to be accused of re-entering the conference under false colors.

Before issuing his call, Mr. Markle notified Mr. Lewis of the operators' position and the latter insisted that the conference be held, information from Wilkes-Barre today was that the leader of the miners had no other proposition to end the strike to bring up except the Lynett plan, which he insists was accepted in principle by Chairman Inglis as a basis for negotiation.

Chairman Markle, who has no vote in the joint conference and who is ever optimistic of results, said he was glad that both sides are again coming together. He said he hoped they would "come down to common sense and brass tacks."

The Lynett plan contains five points. The first three provide for a return to work immediately of the striking miners, under a five-year contract at the old rate of wages unless changed by further negotiations. Mr. Inglis has announced these three points are favorable to the operators.

The fourth point provides the method for changing the wage rate. This method permits either party sixty days before two years of the contract have elapsed to call a conference to adjust wages. If no agreement is reached on this the old wage rate is to remain.

This point, it is understood, is the one which the operators refuse to accept as offered. They have been contending for arbitration in the event of this two sides cannot agree on readjusting wages during the contract period.

The first point reads: One year before the contract expires representatives of the coal operators and representatives of the United Mine Workers of America to meet to devise an arrangement where work may be continued at the mines at the expiration of the contract and during the negotiations for a new agreement.

In asking Mr. Markle to reconvene the joint conference Mr. Lewis said that he proposed to move that the meetings be open to the press. He would do this, he said, because of misleading statements of what occurred in the New York sessions and which "caused confusion and misunderstanding on the public mind."

SHIP IN DISTRESS OFF DELAWARE BREAKWATER

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—(AP)—All radio broadcasting along the east coast, including that of 35 stations taking part in the opening session of the International radio tests, was halted tonight while official radio stations attempted to get in communication with a ship in distress off Winter QQuarter light ship, Delaware Breakwater.

The distress call was heard at 10:15 p. m. just after the beginning of the American program, which opened international radio test week. Although the position of the ship was picked up, no details concerning the identity of the ship or what had happened to it were included in the first brief message.

At first it was believed that the international program would not be interrupted but within a few minutes of receipt of the S. O. S. radio week officials announced that they had stopped activity of all eastern stations in a desire to help the disabled vessel. Stations in the west, however, continued their broadcasting as their work did not interfere.

BOY WAS BLOWN FROM A COAL DOCK AND DROWNED

RIVERSIDE, R. I., Jan. 24—(AP)—Fourteen year old Russell Miller was blown dock and drowned in the icy waters of Narragansett Bay here this afternoon. His hands were so numbed that he was unable to grip the line flung to him by a 13 year old chum. The body has not been recovered.

PREMIER PACHITCH OF JUGOSLAVIA TO RESIGN

BELGRADE, Jugoslavia, Jan. 24—(AP)—From authoritative sources it is learned that Premier Pachitch, who is eighty years of age, feels unequal to the strain of remaining in office, and is about to resign.

OBITUARY

Alphonso Benjamin

LYNN, Mass., Jan. 24—(AP)—Alphonso Benjamin Bowers, whose invention of a centrifugal hydraulic pump and dredger resulted in 30 years of litigation over the patent rights, died at his home here today in his 96th year.

Known as an inventor, civil, mechanical and hydraulic engineer of wide reputation, Mr. Bowers came of an old family which traced its ancestry back to revolutionary and Norman stock.

In 1853 he went to California, where he was later to become widely known as the man who dredged San Francisco harbor. While in California he invented a cheap means of transporting earth by a stream of water over a down grade in an open flue. The method was used by many engineers on dam and embankment projects.

In 1864 he began a series of 60 patent infringement suits on his dredging invention studying law of become his own attorney. His fight won him a favorable decision in 1897. He leaves two sons and a daughter.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

Mrs. Emma Kirk, 80-year-old recluse, was found bound, gagged and strangled to death in her home in Washington.

The New York State Bar association placed itself on record as favoring the entrance of the United States in the world court.

The Italian Premier Mussolini's ill health and the cause of his illness continued to be the subject of discussion throughout official Europe.

John D. Plummer, former publisher of the Springfield (Mass.) Union died at Pinehurst, N. C., yesterday of arterio sclerosis and heart disease.

A drink of water from a glass that contained a poisonous cleaning fluid cost Mrs. Ann Moran, a 19 year old bride of two months, her life in New York.

Philo C. Blaisdell, one of eight brothers who went from Winterport, Me., in their boyhood and made good in the business and professional world, died at the old homestead in Winterport, Me.

One servant was killed and many art treasures destroyed in a fire early which burned two-thirds of Crowe hall, the home of Sarah Grand, novelist, at Bath, England.

Cardinal Mercier was the guest of Yale university during his American tour in 1919 and on October 2 received the honorary degree of doctor of laws in the presence of a notable gathering.

Sentence of death, rarely passed against a woman in France was adjudged against Marie Casoli, 46 year old, convicted of inciting her lover, Andrea Campanella, to kill her husband.

The Princeton Alumni association will celebrate the 140th anniversary of its founding at the alumni week-end to be held at Princeton, N. J., February 20 to 22.

Barbara LaMarr, motion picture star, who has been ill at Pasadena, Calif., for several months, is said by her father here to be steadily gaining in her fight for health.

An oil soaked wooden cross was found blazing on the wooden steps of St. Peter's Roman Catholic church, Provincetown, Mass., about 9:30 Friday evening.

Henry Berenger, the new French ambassador, informed Secretary Mellon today that he was prepared to meet with the American Debt commission at its convenience to discuss French debt funding.

Contrary to expectations the elections for representatives of the council were held yesterday throughout Syria amid complete calm. No untowered incidents are reported.

Eight persons were killed in automobile accidents in Massachusetts last week, the same number as in the previous week and one less than in the corresponding period last year.

The Peoples Bank of Ozark, Arkansas, capitalized at $25,000 was closed by the state bank commissioner on the grounds of discrepancies between its statement of Dec. 31, and its actual condition.

The death yesterday of E. F. Brightbill of Lebanon, Pa., increased the number known to have lost their lives in the fire that destroyed the Lafayette hotel at Allentown, Pa., early Saturday to twelve.

Showing of news reel motion pictures which depicted the capture, arrival in Chicago, questioning and detention of Martin Durkin, slayer and automobile thief, was forbidden by Chief of Police Morgan Collins.

William H. Draper, president of the William H. Draper Land company and the United Land company, and treasurer of Ivan Players, Inc., a New York motion picture concern, died in Providence, R. I., in his 66th year.

Governor Alvan T. Fuller of Massachusetts was asked to speak 1,800 times in 1926, a tabulation of invitations revealed. He accepted 381 of the invitations, but in 1926 he will greatly curtail his activities along this line.

Kenneth Hoge, aged 18 years, is in the county jail at St. Clairsville, O., charged with killing his stepmother. The woman's body, with a bullet hole in the head, was found in the kitchen of the home by the husband, a prosperous farmer.

The army's "no profit" stores, at which officers and enlisted men are sold many kinds of merchandice at cost, will be closed on March 31, but an exception probably will be made to permit continuance of such sales at posts overseas.

A pet collie vainly tried to save the life of Mrs. Virginia Beaumann, in New York by trying to snuff out with his teeth, the flames that enveloped her body. The dog was so badly burned about the head that it may be necessary to shoot it.

A motion to dismiss for lack of jur-isdiction a complaint against the American Association of Advertising agencies, charging unfair methods of competition has been denied by the federal trade commission with Commissioner Humphrey dissenting.

Gerald Chapman's appeal from the decision of Federal Judge E. S. Thomas denying him the right of a writ of habeas corpus to return to Atlanta prison as a mail robber and escape hanging as the murderer of a New Britain policeman, will be filed in New York today.

The body of Edward Yeamans, 23 year old Northeast, Md., taxicab driver, was found coated with ice in a gully near Elks Mills, Md., by three schoolboys. Officials said premilinary examination indicated Yeamans had been killed by a blow on the back of the head.

Professor Clarence W. Mendell, dean-elect of Yale college, left New Haven yesterday on a 10 weeks' trip to study educational methods in 20 universities, private schools and public school systems of the south and west. He will address nine Yale alumni associations en route.

While walking near the railroad sta-tion yesterday, Charles H. Kilberg, 55, a machinist, slipped on the ice and fell down a bank at Danbury. He was found unconscious and taken to the General hospital, where it was said he had sufferpd a skull fracture which would possibly be fatal.

Senate Windjammers To Fight World Court

Cloture Rule May Be Invoked Today Limiting Each Senator to an Hour.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24—(AP)—With leaders on both sides in the senate world court fight stancing pat, there appeared to be little prospect tonight of an agreement to limit debate on this issue.

Unless such an agreement is entered into before 1 p. m. tomorrow, the senate at that hour will vote on the question of invoking the cloture rule, under which no senator could speak for longer than an hour on the resolution of adhesion to the court and the score of amendments which have been offered to it.

Some conversations among court opponents looking to a possible agreement were held today and will be continued during the forenoon tomorrow. After the senate assembles at noon, there still will be an hour in which the two sides may get together on an unanimous consent agreement.

Those leading the fight for ratification insist they can muster the two-thirds majority necessary to invoke the cloture rule. This rule has been adopted only once before and, singularly enough, that was during the long fight over the league of nations covenant.

Pro-court leaders believe the substitute resolution of adhesion introduced yesterday by Senator Swanson, democrat, Virginia, has brought into line a number of senators who were listed as doubtful. The substitute contains reservations which go much farther than the Harding-Hughes-Coolidge reservations. These leaders believe they will have many votes to spare over the two-thirds necessary to adopt the resolution.

They now count only 16 senators definitely against adhesion, twelve republicans; three democrats, and the one Hampshire; Schall, Minnesota, and this list are:

Republicans, Borah, Idaho; Brookheart, Iowa; Fernald; Maine; Frazier and Nye, North Dakota; Harreld and Pine, Oklahoma; Johnson, California; LaFollette, Wisconsin; Moses, New Hampshire; Schall, Minnesota, and Williams, Missouri.

Democrats: Read, Missouri; Dill, Washington; Blease, South Carolina.

Irrespective whether cloture is adopted or an agreement is reached, the tax reduction bill will be called up in the senate this week. If cloture should be effected, the vote on the court undoubtedly would be only a few days away, at the most. If an agreement should be reached to limit debate, it would carry with it an understanding giving the tax bill right of way except when some senator wanted to talk on the court.

While the court and tax revision questions are occupying the senate, the house will pass the annual naval appropriation bill and then proceed to the consideration of the first farm relief bill, the Haugen measure embodying the administration's plan for a division of co-operative marketing in the agriculture department.

With this measure out of the way—and a vote is expected by Thursday—the annual agriculture department appropriation bill will be called up.

The house agriculture committee will continue consideration of farm relief bills during the week and the interstate commerce committee will begin hearings on the Watson-Parker railroad labor bill.

The senate judiciary committee will resume Tuesday the inquiry into the investigation made by the department of justice respecting the Aluminium Company of America and the interstate commerce committee will hold further hearings on the railroad consolidation bill.

ABRAHAM H. HUMMEL DIED IN LONDON LAST WEEK

LONDON, Jan. 24—(AP)—The body of Araham H. Hummel, whose death occured last week and was known generally only yesterday, will be sent to New York for burial there. This announcement was made today in behalf of his two sisters, Mrs. Kaffenburg, and Miss Berthe Hummel.

The inseparable trio had occupied an apartment in the fashionable Portman Square neighborhood since the war. The former New York lawyer had not suffered fro many particular complaint lately, except such as might be incident to old age, and is said to have smiled to the end.

Hummel came to London with his sister nearly twenty years ago, and though he was a prominent figure as a first-nighter in the American metropolis and was conspicuous in many ways, he held himself more or less aloof from the public here. His death had been kept secret, friends said, because he had declared, "I do not want publicity when I die, I have had enough in my life."

HARTFORD MAN INJURED IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

HARTFORD, Jan. 24—(AP)—Edward C. Acheson, jr., of 419 Farmington avenue, assistant Sunday editor of the Courant, and son of Suffragan Bishop E. Campion Acheson, of Middletown, narrowly escaped death early this morning when the roadster in which he was driving from Middletown to Hartford collided with a roadster driven by Walter Peterson, of Station 15, East Hartford, on the Berlin turnpike near Berlin. Acheson was cut severely about the head and was bruised about the legs and body but under X-ray examination made by Dr. A. N. Sweet, of Middletown, today, was found to have no fractured bones.

Harry L. Brown, of East Hartford, who, with R. R. Larsen, of Silver lane was riding with Peterson in the small roadster the boys had taken for a ride without knowledge of Peterson's father, the owner, according to state police, was taken to the Hartford hospital for treatment of cuts on the hand but left later for his home.

FAVORS JERUSALEM FOR WORLD COURT STRUCTURE

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—(AP)—Removal of the world court headquarters to Jerusalem and erection there of an international court of justice on the site of Solomon's Temple was advocated today in a sermon by Rabbi Marius Hanson, of Albany, N. Y., at Temple Beth-el.

Passages in the books of Isaiah and Micah are susceptible of translation as forecasting such a world court at Jerusalem, he said, and this factor would draw the support of many people now antagonistic.

COMPROMISE TAX BILL NOT ACCEPTABLE TO THE HOUSE

Chairman Green of the House Ways and Means Committee Will Oppose Provision to Repeal the Inheritance and Capital Stock Taxes—Action by the House Might Block the Plans to Have the Bill in Effect Before March 15, When the First Installments Are Due.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24—(AP)—The compromise tax reduction bill reported by the senate finance committee encountered new troubles today, with notice from house leaders that it was unacceptable there.

Already facing serious opposition in the senate, the measure was assailed by Chairman Green of the house ways and means committee, which drafted the bill as approved by the house, because of its provisions to repeal the inheritance and capital stock taxes.

In addition, he declared in a statement, the senate measure would reduce taxes, when in full force, by more than $467,000,000 annually, instead of $352,651,000, as estimated by the senate committee for the calendar year, and $330,000,000, as approved by the house.

Although the treasury has given tentative approval to the increase in reductions voted by the senate committee over the amount provided by the house bill, Representative Green stated that, "even making the very largest allowance for any increase in revenue, it was plain that the house bill reached the maximum figure in reductions that was consistent with safety to the treasury and that anything further would be risking a deficit."

House opposition to prospective senate provisions in the bill was viewed in many quarters as placing an important stumbling block in the wya of plans to have the bill in effect before March 15, when first income tax installment are due. Chairman Smoot of the finance committee, plans to call it up in the senate this week in the hope of getting it off to an early start, with a fight against repeal of the inheritance tax and others in sight.

The statement issued by Mr. Green severely criticized estimates given by the senate committee of reductions expected to result from changes it made in the bill, describing some of these as "very misleading inferences."

Referring to the estimate that repeal of the inheritance tax and a retroactive reduction in this levy would reduce revenues only $20,000,000 this year, Mr. Green declared "it is too plain for argument or discussion that the final outcome will e a loss of $150,000,000 annually instead of $20,000,000."

"Another very misleading inference, to say the least," he said, "arises from taking the loss occasioned by the repeal of the capital stock tax in 1926 as the full extent of the reduction which will be caused by the proposed repeal."

While the revenue reduction in this calendar year from repeal of this levy will amount to only $68,000,000, he contended, that it would total $93,500,000 annually thereafter.

GREECE HAS PROCLAIMED A FORCED INTERNAL LOAN

ATHENS, Jan. 24—(AP)—The Greeks awoke this morning to learn that they all find become creditors of the government by virtue of a decree issued last evening proclaiming that a forced interna lloan of 1,250,000,000 drachmas will be raised by reducing the nominal value of banknotes in circulation by 25 per cent except in the case of money deposited in banks and notes in circulation amounting to 25 drachmas and under. (The drachma nominally is valued at about 19 cents).

From now on all notes above that amount must be cut in two unequal parts: The larger part will be worth three quarters of the original value and the smaller will constitute a share in the new loan, which will bear interest at six per cent. from February 1. These will also be annual drawings with prizes amounting to 10,000,000 drachmas.

BOYS IN NEW YORK HAD "BURGLARY SYNDICATE"

NEW YORK, Jan. 24—(AP)—Discovery of a boys "burglary syndicate" was announced today by the police following the arrest of three lads, each 16 years old. Two were captured, the arresting officers said, in the act of attempting to force an entrance to a cigar store in Columbia street, and the third at his home on information derived from them.

Frank Cofferi, who "celebrated" his 16th birthday today by being arraigned on a charge of burglary, was declared to be the head of the syndicate. The police assert they received confessions of a score of small robberies all occurring in the last month.

POSSEMAN WAS KILLED BY FLEEING BANDITS

NEW ALBANY, Ind., Jan. 24.—(AP)—Five bandits escaping from Lanesville near here, where they had tried to rob a bank early today were intercepted in the streets of New Albany by a posse formed after police had been advised of their approach.

In a gun fight which ensued, Daniel Mayfield 58, a deputy sheriff, was shot and killed, a bullet fired by a member of the posse struck the driver of the first of two cars in which the men traveled. It swerved sharply colliding with a tree. Two men jumped from it into the second bandit car and escaped toward Indianapolis.

SCIENTISTS TO STUDY CAUSES OF BALDNESS

NEW YORK, Jan. 24—(AP)—The causes of baldness and other deteriorations of the human thatch are to be sought scientifically. An initial donation of $5 000 toward establishment of a "college on hair research" was announced today by Charles Nessler, president of the American Master Hairdressers' association. A member of the faculty of physicians and surgeons of Columbia University will be in charge of the proposed laboratory.

Hair is too important a factor "in the life, health, and happiness of humanity," the donor declared, to longer suffer the results of haphazard handling.

DENIAL THAT THE BANK OF MONTE CARLO WAS EVER BROKE

LONDON, Jan. 24—(AP)—Monte Carlo casino officials are responsible for reports about the bank being broken, doing this for advertising purposes, and there is no truth in the old song, "The Man That Broke the Bank at Monte Carlo".

Such is the conclusion reached here from reports that Arthur de Courcey Bower, who recently died in London and was widely heralded as having been the man who really broke the gaming house, was merely a publicity man for the famous casino.

CALVIN COOLIDGE HAD REPUTATION AS HUMORIST

NEW YORK, Jan. 24—(AP)—President Coolidge is one of the cleverest and wittiest men of the present day, according to John Erskine, author of several humorous books accounted successful by the publishing trade.

"I went to Amherst in 1903 as a teacher," said Mr. Erskine, "and the reputation of Calvin Coolidge as a humorist was still a favorite recollection of the campus. Later I met him and I can say he possesses humor in an unadulterated form."

SWEDISH SCHOONER OPERATED BY PIRATES

SETTIN, Germany, Jan. 24.—(AP)—Sebaun has the imagination of baltic skippers and sailors been inflamed to such a degree as by a story brought here by an old Finnish sea-dog, on his way from Amsterdam to Hernoesand, Sweden, who asserts that he has been charged by men believed to have been dead since November to bring greetings to the home folk and tell them that they are now jolly pirates getting big money.

The Finlander declares that they transformed the Swedish schooner "Rapid," believed to have been sunk in November into a buccaneers' vessel.

A veritable pirate chase is to start on the Baltic, as every steamer and sailing vessel is on the lookout for the sea raider. Last November the "Rapid" left its home port of Hernoesand to call for a cargo of lumber from a Finnish port. On leaving this port the vessel encountered a storm, and nothing has been heard of it.

Though suspicions were aroused, as not even wreckage of lifeboats had been found, the insurance companies were compelled to pay for both the lost ship and the crew.

Since the visit of the Finnish skipper here various other seamen claim they saw the vessel, which, despite its partial reconstruction and camouflage, they recognized as the Rapid.

TWO MEN LOST WITH NORWEGIAN FREIGHTER

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—(AP)—Two men were believed drowned and the rest of the crew of the Norwegian freighter Solvang were saved tonight when the Solvang sank off Winter Quarters light ship, Delaware breakwater after a collision with the oil tanker Vacuum.

A radio message from the Vacuum picked up by the independent Wireless Telegraph company reported that the tanker was cruising in the vicinity of the collision in the hope of picking up the two missing men, details of the collision were not included in the message.

The Solvang was bound from Cuba, with a cargo of sugar. Records here did not show how large a crew she carried. She is a steamer of 1,401 net tons. The Vacuum was bound for New York from Texas City.

All broadcasting including that of 35 stations participating in the international broadcast tests was shut down while communication was kept open between the shore and the Vacuum.

TAKING PICTURES OF HARVARD AND STUDENTS

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 24—(AP)—Under the chaperonage of the student council, Hollywood cameramen today were circulating about Harvard square taking "shots" of students and their favorite haunts which will be used in the picturization of the stage play "Brown at Harvard", which a west coast company plans to produce.

A request has been filed with President A. Lawrence Lowell for permission to film the Harvard yard dormitories and, if it is granted, active work on the film will be started in the spring.

The Harvard Crimson, student daily, has served warning on the producer to make his film a truthful version of university life and reminds him that the stag play, "Brown at Harvard", was hissed off a Boston stage 20 years ago by Harvard students because they objected to its untrue presentation.

FRANK STELLA DIED AT RHODE ISLAND HOSPITAL

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 24.—(AP)—Frank Stella, 28, shot during an argument in his boarding house on Christmas Eve, died today at Rhode Island hospital. Pasquale Fidele, who was jailed in default of $40,000 bail on charges of shotting Stella and Frank Russo, 28, who recovered, will probably be charged with manslaughter as a result of Stella's death. Fidele was caught in Woonsocket a few hours after the shooting.

WARNING GIVEN OF A STORM WITH HEAVY WIND

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—(AP)—The following storm warning was issued today by the weather bureau:

"Change to northwest storm warning at noon; Delaware Breakwater to Eastport Maine. Wind will shift to northwest this afternoon and attain gale force at times."

WILLIMANTIC

Office, 854 Main St. Telephone 1121-2.

NEW COTTAGE TOTALLY DESTROYED BY FIRE

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WILLIMANTIC, Jan. 24—A one story and one half brick cottage on Holbrook avenue owned by David Mannick, which was under course of construction, was badly gutted by fire which broke out from an unknown cause about 2:10 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Mr. Mannick had built the building practically without assistance. He started work last summer and with the exception of plastering one more room the structure was completed. There were seven rooms in all. When the recall was sounded at 2.45 o'clock the entire cottage had been gutted leaving but the brick walls and the charred timbers standing.

Mr. Mannick was much grieved at his loss. When completed he valued the cottage at about $6,000 including land. He stated that he had a buyer who was awaiting completion. Insurance of $1,500 to cover a mortgage was carried on the structure.

Following a telephone alarm a bell alarm was sounded from Box 14 at the junction of West Main street and Columbia avenue. The pumper and hook and ladder trucks of Engine company No. 1 responded. Fanned by a stiff breeze the cottage was a mass of flames and smoke when the firemen arrived. Three lines of hose were quickly connected and the regular firemen, assisted by the call members of Montgomery Hose company No. 2, did creditable work in fighting the blaze. The roof was covered with fireproof shingles which served in a measure to keep the flames within the structure. Mr. Mannick resides on Holbrook avenue, about 100 yards from the scene of the conflagration. When informed that the new building was afire he at first believed that it was caused by an improvised stove which he was using in the cellar to heat and which was to be used finishing the plastering. Investigation however showed that the fire apparently started in the upper floor of the building. Due to the location of Holbrook avenue, which exposes that section to high winds, the firemen were forced to work in frigid temperature.

WILLIAM H. PHILLIPS DIES AT WILLIMANTC HOME

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WILLIMANTIC, Jan. 24—William H. Phillips, 74, well known lumber dealer of this city and former state representative for Chaplin and Hampton, died at his home, at 78 Oak street, here at 6.30 o'clock Sunday morning. He was born in Jewett City, June 25, 1851, a son of William A. and Sarah F. Howe Phillips. Surviving him is his wife and six sons: Charles H. Phillips, of Plainfield; Dwight T. Phillips of Hampton; Orin W. Phillips of Willimantic, Elmer B. Phillips, of Plainfield; Frank A. and Merton E. Phillips of Willimantic. He also leaves one brother, George Phillips of Rockville, R. I., and four sisters, Mrs. Fannie Smith of South Coventry, Mrs. Elsia Maynard of Mystic, Conn., Mrs. Eva Brown of Saylesville, R. I., and Mrs. Anna Smith of Norwich.

The deceased had been forced by ill health to give up active part in his lumber business. He had been successfully engaged for years in sawing and hauling timber for various uses. He was representative of the town of Chaplin in 1905-1906 and at one time served as selectman. In 1911-12 he represented the town of Hampton in the legislature. He came to Willimantic about ten years ago.

The man who committed suicide by hanging from a tree on the Charles Korner property in West Willington early Friday afternoon was identified late Saturday forenoon by Mrs. Lena Stoughton of Perkinsville, Vt., as her son, Norman Stoughton, 25 years of age. Although no definite reason for the fatal steps could be established the mother said that her other son, Paul Stoughton had become insane within the past few days and she believed that this misfortune so affected the brother that he decided to end his life. Tolland County Coroner John M. Talley of Rockville held an inquest at Stafford Springs Saturday afternoon, after which the body was shipped to Perkinsville, Vt., for burial. State Policeman Harrison J. Hulburt of Stafford Springs who had been assigned to the case conducted a thorough investigation of the suicide to clarify various mysterious aspects which had developed in connection with the case. It was found that the young man had gone to East Orange, N. J., leaving Perkinsville at 6.30 o'clock Wednesday morning to drive back a Ford automobile which was the property of Paul. It was said that the machine was parked on the highway since Thursday night at 8 o'clock. Others informed the authorities that at 8 o'clock Friday morning, seven hours before the finding of the body, a man answering the description of Stoughton had been seen sitting in the machine. Mrs. Stoughton, who knew of no trouble until notified to come to Stafford Springs, said that her son was a chauffeur by occupation.

Resolutions on the death of the late leader, Mrs. Nellie A. Gager were adopted at the regular meeting of the local W. C. T. U., held at the home of Mrs. Clarence A. Bowen Friday afternoon. The resolutions were presented by a committee composed of Mrs. Mary L. Stearns, Mrs. Marietta Stone, Mrs. Jennie R. Scripture. Rev. F. C. Williams, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church gave a talk on the privileges of franchise with the duties attendant thereupon.

The pretentious residence now owned by Dr. Louis I. Mason and which was built about 1880 by the late Colonel Barrows at one time agent of the Willimantic Linen company, has been entirely repaired to efface the results of a disastrous fire which swept it on the night of September 30, 1924. The building was purchased by Dr. Mason in 1907 and in 1911 a hospital annex was erected. Due to the valiant work of the firemen the hospital section of the building suffered only from smoke and water and the fire in the original residence was confined to some of the upper rooms. The restoration of the building has been as nearly as possible along the original lines. Much of the expensive woodwork in the twenty rooms of the main bulding has been reclaimed. There are seventeen rooms in the hospital section. Some of these are equipped as an office, consulting and operation rooms. Others are arranged for radio work where Dr. Mason devotes all of his spare time to his great hobby, the study and manufacture of radio sets. Among the notable losses during the fire was that of all but ten pieces of a 200 piece set of original design which was secured by Dr. Mason in Lemoze, France, during his service in the world war. The physician announced Saturday that he would soon remove his private apartments, to be occupied by he adn Mrs. Mason, from the hospital annex to the main building. The rooms they will occupy include the beautiful and spacious hall in the center of the building, a large music room, dining room, receptions hall, library, two bed rooms and bath rooms and closets. Ten rooms on the upper floor, in part, will be used as apartments.

Salvation Army services were conducted in connection with the regular 10.45 morning worships at the various Protestant churches in this city and South Coventry Sunday forenoon. Major Thomas C. Seaver, with Mrs. Seaver and the headquarters staff from the divisional offices in Hartford, arrived in this city Saturday night to assist in opennig the local Salvation Army campaign. Major Seaver is in charge of the army activities in this state, western Massachusetts and Vermont. At the Congregational church Rev. Arthur S. Wheelock introduced Major Seaver, who gave a brief talk on the Salvation Army work. The Salvation Army band of South Manchester figured prominently in the musical program during the service. Commandant Charles Abbott, who is in charge of the Salvation Army in South Manchester, addressed the congregation at the Methodist Episcopal church on invitation of the pastor, Rev. A. S. Murihead. He was accompanied by an instrumental quartet. Mrs. Seaver, accompanied by Mrs. Adjutant Mehling, soprano soloist, and the divisional staff quartet of Hartford, participated in the service at the South Coventry Congregational church.

The Mansfield Library association staged the first of a series of annual entertainments Friday evening at the Mansfield Center Congregational church before a large audience which had braved almost frigid weather. Miss Dorothy Berry Carpenter of Boston, Mass., talented reader and elocutionist, appeared as the artist for the evening, assisting her were Mrs. Henry Dorsey, soprano soloist, Mrs. Frank Tenney, accompanist and Edward F. Walford, violinist of Storrs. Miss Carpenter gave eight numbers which were well received. R. L. Hahn was in charge of the program for the evening. The arrangements committee for the series comprises Mrs. R. L. Hahn, Mrs. Robert Stearns, Mrs. G. H. Wyman and Miss Elsie Marsh.

Funeral services for Arthur S. Potter were held at the Windham Center Congregational church at two o'clock Saturday afternoon. Rev. James G. Graham officiated. Burial was in the Windham Center cemetery. The bearers were Fred, George, William and Adelbert Potter. Arrangements were by the J. C. Lincoln company.

The funeral of Mary Insalaco was held at eleven o'clock Saturday forenoon at the home of her parents on Windham Road. The remains were placed in the receiving vault at St. Joseph's cemetery. The Hureau-Bosse Corp., had charge of the arrangements.

Decision was reserved in the civil suit Saturday of Luigi Rosalie against Mrs. Nicolena Melo, brought to recover damages of $100 as the result of an alleged assault on the 15 year old plaintiff, by the defendant on September 20, 1925, the case was heard before Justice of the Peace Curtis Dean Saturday forenoon and the evidence of several witnesses was heard for both sides.

Mayor John C. Tracy and other prominent citizens of the city and town were guests of honor at a concert given here Sunday afternoon by the South Manchester band of the Salvation Army. There was a large and appreciative audience. Many local citizens listened to the band which broadcasted from Station WBZ last Thursday night. The band was organized 33 years ago and is considered one of the best in New England. There are 33 able musicians in its roster and also a male chorus. Vocal numbers during the concert were by hte chorus and Mrs. Adjutant Mehling, soprano soloist who sang two numbers. Sunday evening Major Seaver and staff and the band conducted a service at the Salvation Army hall.

Mortimer Smith of Andover pleaded guilty to a charge of breach of the peace and use of abusive language in the Andover town court Saturday mornnig. Justice of the Peace Charles A. Faulkner imposed a fine of $1 and costs in each case, the total of $16.45 being paid. An additional charge of assault had been lodged against Smith but this was dropped by Grand Juror George T. Platt.

In the Windham probate court, Saturday morning, a hearing was held on the matter of admitting the will of the late William H. Harris to probate. Judge Otto E. Robinson was not considered eligible to preside and Judge Llewellyn J. Storrs of Mansfield was summoned. He decided that the domicile was within the town of Windham where the will should be probated and so admitted the will to probate. The deceased leaves an estate valued at about $20,000 to be divided among seven heirs, grandnephews, grandnieces and one nephew living out of town. William A. Buck is executor of the will. Mr. Harris died in this city November 1, 1925 at the age of 72 years.

Miss Dorothy C. Moxon has resigned her position as substitute in the medical department of the American Thread company, under Dr. H. C. Little, to receive an appointment as assistant dietitian at the New London Memorial hospital. Miss Moxon is a graduate of Lasalle Seminary, Auburndale, Mass., and Newton hospital, Newton, Lower Falls, Mass. Since coming to this city Miss Moxon has been an active worker among the younger people of the First Baptist church parish. Her many friends wish her success in her new position.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. E. Carpenter were delightfully entertained at their home Friday evening by 20 of their friends who arrived in fancy costumes. Dr. and Mrs. William E. Hendry won the prizes for the best costumes. Mrs. Harry W. Standish and George F. Stiles received first prizes for the euchre. At bridge Mrs. Clifford E. Williams had highest score, Mrs. H. W. Standish second and Mrs. Homer M. Harrington, consolation. The men's prize were won by William A. Dawson, Clifford B. Williams and Lyndon E. Little, respectively.

On behalf of the selectmen of the town of Windham, Ernest P. Chesebro, Charles Larrabee and David P. Ahern, Town Clerk Frank P. Fenton has issued a call for a special town meeting to be held at the town hall to lay a tax on the grand list of 1925 and to defray the expenses of the town for the fiscal year ending September 15, 1925.

Engine Company No. 1 was called out to a chimney fire in the residence at 53 Meadow street owned by Alphonso L. Gelinas and occupied by James Shea about nine o'clock Saturday morning. Three gallons of chemicals were used.

Sunday, January 24, was the first anniversary of the total eclipse of the sun which was a matter of such wide interest. It will be remembered that first of all the weather was bitterly cold and that from vantage points in Willimantic thousands witnessed the phenomenon. Five thousand people, including over 1000 from Boston went to Hosmer Mountain. Willimantic's popular natural grandstand and chanced frozen feet and hands to see the moon hide the sun.

Mr. and Mrs. Gedeon Cote observed their 25th wedding anniversary at their home on Maple avenue Friday evening. Many of their friends called and Mr. and Mrs. Cote were the recipients of many well wishes and gifts.

A chime of seven bells being transported by auto truck to the St. George's Episcopal church, in Central Falls, R. I., were viewed by local people when the truck stopped here for a few minutes Sunday afternoon. The idea that tunes are played on such cumbersome instruments occasioned much comment.

Bert P. More and George C. Waters, local young men, have embarked in the tobacco business.

Workmen were busy Saturday replacing two large glass doors which were broken in the mad rush for seats on the opening night of the new Capitol theatre, last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Dwight W. Ide entertained the Friendly Circle of the Methodist church at her home Friday afternoon. Nine members and three guests were present.

Mrs. Daniel Shea and two little daughters, Betty and Eleanor, who have been guests for the week of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Moriarty, were joined by Mr. Shea over the week and motored to their home in Providence, R. I., Sunday.

John Killourey, Archie Langlois, Fred Delude and Raymond Carter were among local basketball fans to attend the Plainfield-Jewett City game in Plainfield Friday night.

NOANK

Gurdon Wilcox of Westerly is visiting his brother for a few days.

Walter Willis has returned from Ledyard after a short visit with relatives.

Clarence Spink of Fall River, Mass., was at his local home Friday.

A fishing boat from Nantucket came into the town dock recently to ship her fish to New York. The boat was coated with ice from her deck to the mast and looked like a big iceberg coming up the river.

Schooner Reliance of Noank went into the Stonington harbor with 27,000 pounds of cod and some haddock. The catch was shipped from there to New York.

C. Jensen of Watch Hill is home, for a few days visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Johnson have returned to their home in Philadelphia, after a visit in the village.

Charles Ellis spent the week end at Fishers' Island.

Earl Bogue is visiting friends in Providence for a few days.

The fire engine recently had a test at the town dock. The men were in charge of Foreman Walter Palmer. Men from Norwich and New London hooked the engine over and found it in good condition. The men inspecting the engine were Dr. Thompson, Chief Stanton and Dep. Chief Shipman. One line of hose was laid and the test lasted for two hours.

The show given by the Daughters of America at their hall on Friday was a success. The sum of $12 was cleared. Those on the committee were Gertrude Tourjee, Mrs. Harold Fox and Mrs. Frank Hobart.

Kenneth Butson completed his year with the United States coast guard at Watch Hill and returned home on Saturday.

COLUMBIA

A poultry meeting under the auspices of the Tolland County Farm bureau was held at Columbia town hall Tuesday evening, Mr. Tucker, county agent, presiding. There was a large attendance, the largest ever present at a poultry meeting in Columbia. The neighboring towns were well represented, chief among them being North Coventry, Hebron and Andover. Mr. Jones of the farm bureau, spoke on "Raising Clean Chicks". Mrs. Walter Haven of North Coventry, Mrs. Gilchrist and Mrs. Benton of Andover, spoke on "The Best Method of Feeding Baby Chicks."

The sudden thaw has put a stop to ice cutting for the present. Some have filled their ice houses, but there are still many who haven't as yet procured their next summers supply, and they are hoping for a drop in temperature.

Several of the members of Columbia band met at the home of Lawrence Hutchins on Chestnut Hill Tuesday evening, for practice. At the close of the evening light refreshments were served.

Columbia Grange held its regular meeting Wednesday evening at Yeomans hall. A very interesting programme was presented by the lecturer, Mrs. Lillian Rice, the most interesting feature being the reading of a poem written by her about the work of the past year. The application for membership of Miss Dorothy Wright was voted upon, and an application from Miss Anna McMahon presented, which will be voted on at next meeting.

The carpeting for the church aisles was put down Thursday by the firm receiving the contract.

LEONARD BRIDGE

A surprise party was tendered Miss Ruth E. Maynard, teacher of the Goshen Hill school, at the home of Miss Clara Gillett, Tuesday evening, in honor of her birthday. There were twenty five present, including her pupils and several neighbors. In behalf of those present Edward W. Jones presented Miss Maynard a ring, set with a garnet (birthstone) and pearls. Although completely surprised Miss Maynard responded thanking them for their gift. Refreshments consisting of cakes, cookies, a birthday cake, and coffee were served.

Kissing as a theory is far less satisfactory than a practical example.

WESTERLY

DEPARTMENT CALLED OUT FOR CHIMNEY FIRE

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WESTERLY, Jan. 24—An overheated stove pipe, in the kitchen of the home at 44 Canal street, occupied by Donato Doffo, was the cause of a fire alarm being sounded from Box 71, Canal and Pleasant streets, shortly before 7 o'clock on Sunday evening. When it was thought that the overheated pipe had set fire to the chimney a whole bag of salt was thrown into the chimney and the smoke filled the rooms. The big pumper of The Cyclone, the Alert Hook and Ladder truck and the R. I. Ones hose wagon all responded to find that their services were not required.

Recorded in the office of the Westerly town clerk are the following transfers:

Jan. 20. Frank Capalbo to Natale Corina and wife, Antoinette, a certain lot or parcel of land with buildings and improvements at Bradford on the east side of Main street.

22. John J. Dunn to Peter Sacco, five parcels or lots of land Nos. 172, 173, 174, 175 and 176 on Plat of Weekapaug Terrace, bounded on the north by Ritter street, on west by lands of Coy and Welch, southerly by Winapaug Pond and easterly by Ward avenue.

Peter Sacco to George Montalto and Cosimo Montalto the certain parcels or lots of land, Lots Nos. 175 and 176, Plat of Weekapaug Terrace.

23. J. Herbert Macomber to Alfonso Gulliscio and Mary Gulliscio, husband and wife, a certain lot or parcel of land on the east side of High street and adjoining land of Maio Uzzo.

At her home, 25 Washington street, Pawcatuck, on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Mrs. Lydia H. Palmer was united in marriage with Charles Walpole of Providence. In the presence of the immediate family the wedding ceremony with single ring service was performed by Rev. Byron U. Hatfield, pastor of the First Baptist church. Following the wedding ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Walpole left on a short wedding trip and on their return will make their home in Providence.

On Sunday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Miss Anna Stillman, in Plainfield, N. J., were held the funeral services for Mrs. Louisa A. Gardiner Stillman, for many years a resident of Ashaway and the widow of Rev. Horace Stillman. Mrs. Stillman died Friday morning in Plainfield and the body will be brought to Westerly for interment in the First Hopkinton cemetery. Besides the daughte at whose home she died, Mrs. Stillman is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Floretta Yaeger, of Rocky Hill.

Mrs. Polly Boyle, 47, of Sweeney's lane, died suddenly about 7:45 o'clock Sunday morning, while busy with housework. Present at the time was Dan Baptist, who resides on Sweeney lane, and who notified Dr. Charles P. Randall. Medical Examiner Dr. Michael H. Scanlon was called and gave heart trouble as the cause of death.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Marr of Millinocket, Me., arrived in Westerly Sunday afternoon, being called here by the death of Mrs. Marr's mother, Mrs. David F. Stillman, who died at her home, 16 Dixon street, late Thursday evening.

Robert Stanton, of Providence, formerly of Westerly, and son of the late William C. Stanton, was the guest of Westerly relatives and friends Saturday.

William Brennan, of East Greenwich, R. I., arirved in Westerly Saturday afternoon and will be employed in Pawcatuck.

Leo Joseph, employed for the past three years in Pawcatuck, left Westerly the first of the week for New Britain where he will reside in the future.

Mrs. Annie A. Noble left Westerly Sunday morning for a visit with relatives and friends in Providence.

Arthur McClellnn Weeden was in Kingston, R. I., on Sunday, the guest of relatives and friends.

Francess W. LeVaughn of Westerly has been the week end guest of relatives and friends in Norwich.

The Misses Edith and Elsie Campbell, of Groton, formerly of Norwich, were the week end guests of their brother, Harold D. Campbell and wife, in Westerly.

William C. Smith, of New York, was the week end guest of relatives and friends in Westerly.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Thorp, of Potter Hill, left Saturday night for St. Petersburg, Fla., where they will spend several weeks before returning home.

Westerly Town Solicitor John Ferguson, Jr., went to Rutland, Mass., Sunday morning to be the guest of his brother, Dr. Alexander Ferguson.

Miss Alice McGrath, of Providence, was a week end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. McGrath, in Westerly.

Charles B. Price, of Wheeling, West Va., arrived in Westerly Sunday morning to be the guest of Alexander M. Blake's family and relatives before returning home.

Lieut. Harold E. MacLellan, U. S. N., stationed at Portsmouth, N. H., has been the week end guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander C. MacLellan, in Westerly.

Mr. and Mrs. Addison S. Archie and Dr. and Mrs. John Cahmplin, Jr., leaves Westerly today (Monday) for New York, where they will sail on a 27 day ocean trip to the West Indies and Panama.

The locomotive attached to the Ocean State Express of the New Haven railroad, due at the Westerly station at 11:57 a. m., Sunday, became stalled at Wickford Hill, near Wickford Junction, R. I., and the train was an hour and a half late in leaving Westerly station. A relief locomotive was called upon.

The condition of Westerly Ticket Agent George A. Golden, at a New London hospital, where he underwent an operation a week ago, is reported as improving.

Miss Katherine E. Clancy will leave Westerly on the Everglades Limited Express one week from tonight (Monday) for Miami, Fla., where she will pass the remaining weeks of the winter.

Nicholas Ferranova returned to New Haven Sunday night after a week end visit with relatives and friends in Westerly.

Allan A. Palmaton, of Providence, formerly of Westerly, a charter member of the Westerly Cycle club, received a telegram of congratulation on Friday from the club, the day being his 36th birthday anniversary.

STAFFORD SPRINGS

John Comfort, 84 year old fiddler of Stafford, has entered the state fiddling contest at Hartford. Mr. Comfort carried off second prize in a contest at the Palace theatre in Rockville last week. He is the oldest wielder of the bow in eastern Connecticut and it is doubtful if there are any in the state who have been playing the fiddle and longer than he has. Fifty years ago he played for practically all the dances in this section. About six months ago he sold the old fiddle which had been his companion for many years. His fingers were beginning to get stiff and he did not think he would need it any more. There seemed to be no demand for his kind of music. The recent revival of fiddling however has made the old gentleman take on new life and it is expected he will cop a number of prizes in contests which are now being arranged.

Raymond H. and A. S. Boutelle have purchased the civil engineering equipment of George Towne.

Mrs. Philip Barton and son, Fred, are visiting relatives in Plattsburg, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rhodes of the Hollow, who have been ill with the grip, have recovered.

Miss Irene Belcher of Hartford has been spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Belcher, in Staffordville.

The town school committee holds a meeting at the library this (Monday) evening.

MYSTIC

The First Church of Christ Scientist, on Gravel street, was taxed beyond its seating capacity by relatives and friends, Sunday afternoon, when they gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to Charles Henry Latham, one of the most highly respected residents of Mystic, who passed away suddenly last Thursday morning. It can be truly said of him he was an upright Christian gentleman during his entire life, holding many offices of trust and responsibility. The services were conducted by the First and Second readers of the church according to their custom of worship. After the services a long procession wended its way to Elm Grove cemetery where burial took place. A large delegation from the various orders of the Masonic fraternities of which he was a prominent member and past officer, were present and the Masonic ritual service for the dead was carried out at the grave. Mr. Latham will be greatly missed in the village, in his homelife, which was ideal, by the church he has liberally supported by work and in generous giving and regular attendance.

The Monday club meets today with Mrs. G. Albert Thompson, 12 Ashley street. The subject this week is the study of Quebec and French Canadians followed by a discussion. Mrs. Edna B. Colby will read a paper.

The local branch of the W. C. T. U. will meet in G. A. R. hall Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. R. Scott Dunkin, national publicity director, is sending out monthly valuable information and facts to show that prohibition is gaining in some parts of the world. Since Mrs. Ella A. Boole of Brooklyn, N. Y., was elected national president she has received hundreds of requests to speak at functions of every description.

At the Baptist church Sunday evening, Rev. J. G. Osborn, pastor, had for the topic of his sermon "Halfway". He brought out many spiritual helps. The topic for the regular weekly prayer meeting on Wednesday evening is 1st Corinthians, 3rd chapter, 16th verse.

Jack Wheeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Wheeler of Cliff street, resumes his studies at Stonington high school today (Monday) being home all last week owing to illness.

Mrs. George E. Tingley and daughter, Mrs. Harold Main, spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Lamb at Poquonoc Bridge.

Nathan Bendett has been confined to his home with a severe grip cold.

Herbert Chapman has sold his house on Baptist hill to Mr. and Mrs. Welch the tenants who occupy it.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Denison and daughter, Myra, Miss Evelyn Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Davis attended the North Stonington grange meeting Friday night. The officers were installed, Mr. Davis, as secretary having served in that position for some time.

Mrs. C. C. Dodd, Mrs. J. W. Chapman, Mrs. W. W. eKigwin and Miss Edith Burrows were recent visitors in New London.

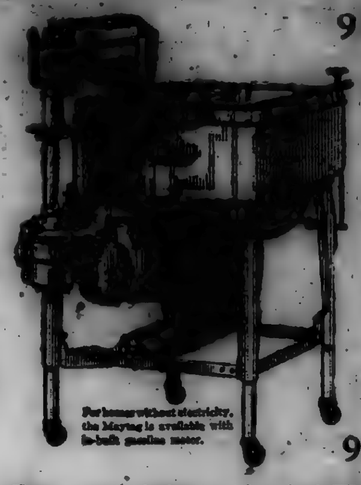
The Boy Scouts of St. Patrick's church recently held a meeting in Columbus hall, Scoutmaster and the assistant scoutmaster are active in this work and when the warm weather arrives they will be a wide awake organization.

At the Methodist church Sunday much enthusiasm prevailed over the coming of Lewis E. Smith, who is to start a series of evangelistic meetings on Wednesday evening to continue through to February 7th. For the past 12 years his time has been spent in New England engaged in the evangelistic work.

Mrs. J. C. Crandall, Mrs. L. E. Kinney, Mrs. A. O. Colby, Mrs. G. F. Costello, Mrs. G. B. Leonard, Mrs. A. W. House, Mrs. Charles Holmes, Mrs. W. H. Lathrop and Miss Lorinda Dudley attended the whist given by the Groton D. A. R. chapter at the home of Misses Rachel and Betsey Larrabee on Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Kinney was awarded a prize for high score in bridge.

The 35th anniversary and roll call of Mystic Encampment, No. 17, I. O. O. F., was held in Odd Fellows hall, Friday evening with a large number in attendance. Preceeding the meeting a turkey supper was served by Mystic Rebekah lodge, No. 56. A social time followed the business session.

The knowledge that you are unable to do a thing is next best to being able to do it well.



For homes without electricity, the Maytag is available with its built gasoline motor.

9 Outstanding Maytag Features

1 Washes faster.
2 Washes cleaner.
3 Largest hourly capacity. Tub holds 21 gals.
4 Most compact washer made—takes floor space only 25 inches square.
5 Cast aluminum tub—can't warp, rot, swell, split or corrode.
6 Easily adjusted to your height.
7 Clothes can be put in or taken out with the washer running.
8 Tub cleans itself.
9 All metal wringer. Self adjusting. Instant tension release.

9 Reasons for World Leadership

Test the MAYTAG in Your Own Home

RIGHT in your own home—by doing a week's washing—let the Maytag prove conclusively that it washes cleaner—faster—easier—quieter than other washers.

That tubfuls of clothes are washed in 3 to 7 minutes. Washed so clean that hand-rubbing is not necessary—even on collars, cuffs, neckbands.

No obligation—no expense. Phone any Maytag dealer for a demonstration.

If the Maytag doesn't sell itself don't keep it.

Deferred Payments you'll never miss!

Maytag Aluminum Washer

Call one of the authorized Maytag dealers listed below

C. M. SHARPE
55 FRANKLIN STREET.
PHONES—NORWICH 2820—PUTNAM 245-2.

STONINGTON

Miss Lois Brown, whose engagement to R. Culler Chesebro, of Mystic was recently announced was tendered an aluminum shower at her home Friday evening by a number of girl friends. Games were played and refreshments served. Those present were, Miss Dorothea Hewitt, Miss Caroline E. Ide, Miss Helen Chesebro, Miss Jennie M. Hittonhouse, Miss Evelyn M. Briggs, Miss Mary Kelley, Miss Constance Delagrange, Mrs. Edward Potter, Mrs. Wilfred Brown, Miss Lois Brown, and Miss Laura L. Brown. Miss Lois Brown received many useful and practical articles in the aluminum shower.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Edgar and son, Robert, Jr., spent the week end with Mrs. Frederick Nugent and family of Westerly.

W. H. Brown and daughter Beatrice were callers in Westerly Saturday.

The total of births, deaths and marriages in the town of Stonington for the past three years was as follows:

Births, 1923, 168, deaths 109, marriages 101; 1924 births, 179, deaths 100, marriages 108, 1925, births 162, deaths 109, marriages 84. During December there were 13 births, 10 deaths and 2 marriages in the town.

Miss Luella M. Gager is visiting in Jackson Heights, N. Y.

Burgess Henry O. Muller is home from the Westerly hospital, and is at the home of his sisters, Misses Barbara and Mary Muller of High street. A number of the invalid friends have been in to cheer him up a bit and he enjoys seeing them very much.

Judge J. H. Stivers of New London was in town on business Thursday.

Miss Ella Merritt is staying with her niece, Mrs. Edward Monjo of Trumbull street. Miss Merritt has been ill.

J. T. Dwyer of Providence, a representative of the Eureka Hose Company of New York, was here on business Thursday. He inspected the Stuts fire engines. He was surprised at the up to date equipment here.

The St. Michael's basketball team of Westerly played the American Velvet Co., team at Arion hall, Friday evening. The Chesebro Snappy Five played the Y. M. C. A. of New London at New London Saturday afternoon.

Edgar F. Wood of Alton, R. I., was a caller here Saturday.

Miss Anna Perry was a recent caller in Mystic.

Deacon Charles B. States celebrated his birthday Friday.

GOSHEN

An event long to be remembered was a surprise party given Elisha L. Waterman at Woodland Stock farm, on Friday evening, January 22nd. Friends and neighbors to the number of about 75 came to tender Mr. Waterman their congratulations for his recent appointment as county commissioner by the state governor. The guests on arriving at the old homestead found the "latch string" out. Guests came from many towns in New London county including Willimantic, Colchester, Lebanon, Bozrah, Franklin and Norwich. The evening was spent in a social time and there were numerous musical selections. A sumptuous oyster supper was served and after dinner, speeches were enjoyed, blended with humor, but in a deeper sense, expressing brotherly love and esteem for the host.

Food Dislikes

The bureau of home economics of the United States department of agriculture is making a study of the causes and remedies of food dislikes of children. Facts are being collected from the mothers of such children by means of a questionnaire circulated through the Merrill-Palmer Nursery school of Detroit and the American association of University Women. This association was selected as a cooperator because it has organized among its members groups for the study of problems of the preschool child, and these mothers are therefore in an excellent position to further this research of the bureau. From the summary of the experiences of a large number of mothers the bureau hopes to work out suggestions that will aid in preventing children from forming food antipathies and will help in overcoming them once they become established.

The Most OBSTINATE COUGH

—will often begin to improve with the first dose of PERTUSSIN.

With persistent use, your cough should entirely disappear.

PERTUSSIN has a remarkable remedial effect upon the chronic coughs of bronchitis and asthma. It helps nature to clear the air passages of the germ-laden mucus, controls the cough and soothes the irritated tissues.

PERTUSSIN may be taken freely, as it contains no "dope" (such as narcotics, chloroform, cannabis or any injurious ingredients). It is absolutely harmless.

Known to physicians for more than twenty years and sold by all druggists in large and small bottles

PERTUSSIN
Safe for Every Cough

THE TEXTILE STORE
MAIN STREET, WESTERLY, R. I.

(A retail store operated by The Westerly Textile Company of Westerly, R. I., manufacturers of cotton and rayon materials for glass curtains, overdrapes and bed spreads)

ANNUAL SALE

50-inch RAYON CREPE DRESS GOODS, yard 98c
SUNFAST 50-inch REPPS, in all colors, yard 89c
MONKS CLOTH .....36-inch, 69c — 50-inch, 89c
SUNFAST RAYON OVERDRAPES—From, Yard .. 79c up
SUNFAST COTTON OVERDRAPES—From, Yard 44c up
SUNFAST RAYON GAUZES, in all colors, 36", 52c; 50", 71c
Rayon Crinkle Bed Spreads, in all colors, 81x108 ..... $5.49

MANY OTHER WONDERFUL VALUES. MAIL ORDERS SOLICITED.

DANIELSON

PAYS HIGH TRIBUTE LATE CARDINAL MERCIER

(Special to The Bulletin.)

DANIELSON, Jan. 24—"I regard him as the outstanding man of the century," said Rev. Leonard R. Richards, rector of St. Alban's Episcopal church, discussing on Sunday the death of Desire Cardinal Mercier, primate of Belgium. Rev. Mr. Richards was in Belgium during the World war as a member of the Church army recruited in the British Isles from among the clergy and lay membership of the Church of England.

During the course of his sermon he discussed the cardinal as a scholar, as a philosopher, as a great churchman, as a man of tremendous courage and vision. Pre-eminence among the scholars and philosophers of the age was universally accorded Cardinal Mercier by his contemporaries in scholarship, Rev. Mr. Richards indicated, because of his many brilliant accomplishments including his revision for modern days of the works of St. Thomas Aquinas, an achievement only possible by such a great scholar as Cardinal Mercier.

Belgium's stability as a kingdom after such a cataclysmic upheaval as the World war was due to the marvelous character and influence of Cardinal Mercier, Rev. Mr. Richards said. While other nations of continental Europe have undergone varied and extraordinary political upheavals, the Belgium kingdom has remained during the post-war years as stable a government as ever before. No dictators have come into power there, there have been no financial storms, no great national unrest, no thought of revolution, no threat of national calamity. Belgium, scourged almost beyond the limit of human endurance as an occupied territory during the war, has emerged from that frightful period and has passed through the most critical period of reconstruction era without losing its poise or sense of proportion. "Only the ghosts of the Kingdoms of continental Europe prior to the World war remain" said Rev. Mr. Richards, "Belgium being an exception." This applies, of course, to combatant nations of the World war period. "Cardinal Mercier's personality saved Belgium from the fate of other nations."

A striking comment of Rev. Mr. Richards was: "Cardinal Mercier was not great world-wise—he belonged to the wrong church to be plausible. He was too profound a scholar to be small. He was not all things to all men, as is one preacher I have in mind in this great land."

Rev. Mr. Ricards also stressed the efforts of Cardinal Mercier for the reunion of the Church of England and the Church of Rome, the consummation of which he believes will eventually come about.

A new epidemic is rampant in Danielson. No one will be quarantined on account of it. This epidemic has to do with fear of earthquakes. Every fakir that predicts one sets the town by the ears. The latest occasion for these dire forecasts is based on an earth tremor recorded in the greater Boston district the past week.

Scores of scientists have popped up in this territory. They know more about earthquakes and when they are going to happen than any seismologist that any university boasts. When did they acquire all this knowledge? The past ten days, it may be said.

Good advice from Harvard university is not to believe what anybody tells you about when an earthquake is to occur. Scientists who have made a lifetime study of earthquakes and things pertaining to them do not know when one is to occur. So it's a safe bet that George or Sam or Harry does not know and cannot not know. They are peddlers of fear and disturbers of the public's peace of mind.

Last fall publicity seekers forecasted the most terrible winter experienced since back in 1700. It has not put in an appearance. The forecasts, nevertheless, gave the credulous a scare for the time being. Then they forgot all about it. Then came the weather prophets with predictions of a great blizzard in early January, and a heavy snowstorm in November. All wrong again. But the public—some of it—was apprehensive. Now the earthquake prophets are having their innings. Forget them!

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dragon on Railroad street the death of Mrs. Dragon's mother, Mrs. Bridget Keenan, occurred Sunday morning at 8 o'clock. She had been ill for some time. Mrs. Keenan, resident here a number of years was a native of Ireland. In addition to her daughter, Mrs. Keenan leaves two sons, Thomas, of Danielson, and Peter, a resident of Rhode Island.

Wauregan people are having a good laugh over prowlers of the night who made a house to house distribution of a publication making absurd and outrageous attacks on a religious faith. Practically without exception the articles were so vicious and so unbelievable as to defeat their own purpose. Wauregan people feel that the papers might as well have been distributed in the day time as under cover of darkness for no intelligent person would pay any attention to them either day or night. "The interesting sidelight on the distribution is that it was made by alleged Christians," remarked one resident," and by people who must have heard of the Christ-like teaching 'Love Thy Neighbor as Thyself.' God must be proud of them."

At the Main street plant of the Paco Manufacturing company, artisans are at work putting the fourth story of the mill in condition for occupancy. Painters and electricians will be busy there this week preparing the place for use by the curtain manufacturing department of the mill. While many thousands of pairs of curtains are made in the Main street plant every week, the concern also has been manufacturing other curtains in Boston. This end of the manufacturing is to be concentrated here. The change will mean a very considerable increase in the number of employes in Danielson, where 400 people already work for this concern, operating two mills here and one at Putnam.

Mrs. Cora D. Page, president, has appointed the following committees of McGregor, W. R. C., for 1926:

Auditing committee, Ella M. Palmer, chairman, Edith Jordan, Sarah A. Birch.

Relief committee, Lillian Bailey, chairman, Elizabeth Burnett, Elizabeth Potter, Lena Chase.

Flower committee, Catherine W. Wood, chairman, Lettie L. James, Annie D. Bill.

Conference committee, Cora Page, chairman, Lucy Grover, Mary Bedard, Hattie Bailey, Annie L. Page.

Child welfare committee, Nellie Moran and Carrie Smith.

Kitchen committee, Hattie R. Bailey, chairman, Lucy Grover, Sarah Wilde.

Executive committees for year 1926:

February, Yvonne Boyd, chairman, Ethel Kings, Mary Bolton, Mary Clements, Ida Watson, Ella Palmer.

March, Sarah Birch, chairman, Melvina Bedard, Carrie Cady, Sarah Wilde, Miriam Keene, Doris Boujaile.

April, Mary Bedard, chairman, Grace Shefield, Amy Buffington, Mary Lague, Catherine, McCormick, Minnie Heselton.

May, Ida Thomas, chairman, Hattie Franklin, Mamie Kennedy, Lena Wood, Clara Nadeau, Estella Darorwa.

June, Fannie Brown, chairman, Lizzie Withington, Geneva Rider, Mrs. Idella Rapp, Adrianna Potter, Eva Bassett.

July and August, Flora Kennedy, chairman, Ethel Ingalls, Nellie Moran, Jessie Smith, Lena Shippee, Frances Hallowell.

September, Elizabeth Burnett, chairman, Sarah Brearley, Mary Whitman, Elizabeth Dawson, Clara Peake, Myrtice Blanchard.

October, Estella Talbot, chairman, Harriet Wood, Florence Wood, Bessie House, Lillie Robertson, Mabel Walters.

November, Lucy Grover, chairman, Agnes Lehrer, Isabel Thompson, Eva Shoales, Laura Bowen, Helen Grover.

December, Lillian Bailey, chairman, Ella Chase, Ellie Bailey, Annie Page, Marion Cook, Lena Chase.

Henry Nadeau, second son of Mrs. Clara Nadeau of School street, on Sunday morning, at the Day Kimball hospital, in Putnam, underwent a double mastoid operation. He was reported during the afternoon as resting comfortably.

Mrs. L. S. Ingalls, of the West Side, will have the members of the Fortnightly club at her home for a meeting Tuesday afternoon.

Many a Danielson radio fan is a bit sleepy if wildly enthusiastic this morning after sitting up late Sunday night to hear the first international broadcasts of the week.

Snow flurries Sunday afternoon added variety to weather that was windy and uncomfortably cold.

Mid-year examinations will be a special feature of the week for students at Killingly High school.

Walter A. Patterson of Worcester was a visitor with friends in Danielson over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Carl Witter were visitors in Thompson on Sunday.

Miss Katherine T. Thayer of Putnam spent Sunday with her cousin, Miss Helen E. Aylward.

Fire Chief A. P. Woodward has received certain data pertaining to diaphones. Such device will be suggested before the annual borough meeting to be installed on the central fire station here.

There will be no dearth of dances prior to the Lenten season. A rush of these affairs is scheduled for the next few weeks.

Very considerable interest is being manifested in the plan to raise a fund here with which to provide band concerts on Davis park next summer.

A crowded house greeted old-time fiddlers who displayed their abilities at the Friday night charity affair in Wauregan. The evening was a delightful one.

Philip Armington, captain of the Killingly High basketball team last season, is a member of the Connecticut Aggies freshman basketball squad this winter.

Miss Laura B. Wilson of Springfield was a visitor with friends in Danielson on Sunday.

Rev. Harding W. Gaylord, the new pastor of the church, will preach at the Westfield Congregational church on February 5, opening his pastorate.

Property owners ten percented for failure to make sworn returns of taxable property added $28,899 to the grand list of the town of Killingly.

PLAINFIELD

Joseph Barry, of New Village, while walking along Plainfield street, in front of the ice pond owned by Frank Evans, was struck by a Chevrolet car owned and driven by Mr. House of Wauregan. Barry was cut about the head but after being attended by Dr. Arthur A. Chase was taken to his home.

At the annual meeting of the parent teachers association, held at the community house recently, Mrs. George Eastham of 28 Lawton avenue, relinquished the office of president, which position she held during the years of 1921, 1923 and 1925. The officers elected for the ensuing year are: President Mrs. Cecil L. Butler; vice president, Mrs. William Southworth; secretary, Miss Celia Israel; treasurer, Mrs. Henry Fontaine. Following the business meeting, an address was delivered by Dr. Mary Haskins of the state board of health, on the subject, Health and Hygienic Conditions of Working Girls. A musical program was rendered by a trio composed of Emelda Vincent and Grace Flynn, violinists and Helen Krauss, pianist. A good attendance was recorded.

Rev. Richard P. Morrissey, pastor of St. John's church and Rev. William A. Keefe, of Norwich, formerly of Plainfield, left Sunday night on a three weeks trip to Florida and the Bahama Islands. During the absence of Rev. Morrissey, the parish will be in charge of an assumption priest from Worcester.

Samuel Thornton, who for the past six months has been swimming instructor at the community house resigned the position to take effect last Saturday night. Mr. Thornton has accepted a position in the engineers office of the New Departure company, at Elmwood. Greater opportunities for advancement in his new position was the reason given for leaving the community house. He will continue to play on the community association basketball team on which he is a regular.

George Dodge has returned home after an absence of four months, working in New York city. Mr. Dodge will leave again next week for Walpole, Mass., where he is accepted a position with a firm of machinists.

Larry Baldwin was a week end visitor at the home of his parents, Mr. Baldwin is employed in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Mary Moffitt has returned to her home at Wauregan after spending two weeks with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moffitt, of Gallup street.

Miss Dorothy Pike has been in Boston for the past few days, visiting her friend, Miss Ruth Loring.

Bumstead's Worm Syrup

"The children's pet specific." Worm directions are followed. IT NEVER FAILS. Despite scarcity and enormous cost of SANTONIN, it contains full dose. Sweet as candy. Price, 60c at druggists or by mail, 60c a bottle.

Dr. C. A. Voorhees, M. D., Philadelphia

PUTNAM

MEETING FAVORS ADDING TO TRADE SCHOOL B'LD'G

(Special to The Bulletin.)

PUTNAM, Jan. 24.—Between forty and fifty interested citizens and tax payers attended the meeting held Friday evening at the study room of the High school, to consider the project of building an addition to the State Trade school. Byron D. Bugbee was the chairman of the committee named by the Board of Education, to inquire into and report on the desirability of making this addition. The other members of the committee are Alexander Gilman, Col. Henry J. Thayer, Silas M. Wheelock, William P. Warren and John Bulger.

Mr. Bugbee presided and stated that it was the desire of the committee to obtain all the information possible about the project and also get an expression of opinion as to the way in which it was regarded by the citizens of the town. J. F. Trinder, of Hartford, member of the State Board of Education and head of the vocational schools of the state spoke at some length about the growth of schools of this kind and of their value, especially to those who were not destined for a collegiate education. Probably the best evidence of the way they are considered, he said, was that in eight years the number of them in the state had increased from three to thirteen. At the time the Putnam school was built there were only two other, one at New Britain and one at Bridgeport. They had become an important factor, he declared, in the scheme of modern education, the practical benefit that they conferred could be found in the fact that such a large percentage of their graduates were engaged in trades or business that brought them in substantial incomes.

If an addition to hte school is made here he thought that two of the new subjects that should be taught are masonry and training in the silk textile industry. There are not enough men who know how to construct the foundations of buildings or the steel and stone edifices that are supplanting the wooden blocks of former times. Cotton textile mills seemed to be shifting towards the south, whether to remain there or not, he did not know, but was inclined to doubt it. But in any event he thought that a thorough knowledge of the silk making industry would be valuable to everyone who wished to become connected with that branch of textile work.

Ralph C. Jenkins, superintendent of schools, said that the students of the Trade school had encroached on the space of the High school to such an extent that it was necessary to have more room there, by having them vacate, or removing the eighth grade from the High school building, or building an addition. To add 12,000 square feet of floor space to the High school and have it conform to the present structure would cost, he said, approximately $120,000, but that much space could be added to the Trade school at an outlay of $25,000. He strongly favored the latter plan.

H. E. Ellis, superintendent of the Trade school went into the details of the cost, as well as to the need for more room, and the benefit it would be to the town in a material way. The plan that he approved was to build two wings to either side of the present building. Because it is of standard mill construction, and because the present heating plant would be adequate for this addition he estimated the cost at about $2 per square foot or $25,000 for the 12,000 square feet.

Since the establishment of the Trade school here eight years ago he said that the state has paid for its construction and upkeep more than $240,000 that the proposed addition would mean an additional annual expenditure of from $10,000 to $12,000; that during the past five years the enrollment at the school had grown from 232 to 443, including those who took the summer courses, and the number is still increasing.

Postmaster Archie Macdonald, who was one of the strongest advocates of establishing a trade school here, spoke in favor of the addition, as did Charles L. Torrey, a member of the state as well as the Putnam board of education, and Mrs. Jane Warner, who is chairman of the Putnam board. Everett Packard, who said that he might be considered biased because he was formerly an instructor in one of the departments of the Trade school, indorsed the plan from all angles.

There were others who spoke for it and finally when a vote was proposed everyone at the meeting went on record as favoring the project. It is probable that the committee will ask for a special town meeting at which they will report in favor of it and recommend that the building be ordered, and that an appropriation be voted to pay for it.

Some misguided marauder broke into the offices of the Bradley theater Saturday evening evidently thinking it would afford an access to the receipts of the evening's entertainment. These were locked in a huge safe and there was no attempt to get into it. Three doors had to be forced; two of them have glass panels which were broken, and a trail of blood ran through the corridor to the office door indicating that a hand had been unskillfully used in smashing them. Desks and cabinets in the office were rifled but nothing of value was obtained.

From the broadcasting station at Webster, Mass., Monday night, Herbert Mayotte, 43 years of age, but still an expert fiddler, will play old time melodies. Aside from the natural interest that a musician of his age would arouse in this position, people in Putnam know him as the father of Rev. Anselm Mayotte, former curate of St. Mary's church of this city, who lost his life in service overseas in the late war and for whom the local post of the American Legion is named. Rev. Fr. Mayotte is held in affectionate remembrance by the people to St. Mary's and by the people of Putnam generally and the majority of local radio fans will be tuned in to WKBE to hear his aged father. The latter also formerly lived here and is well known to many residents.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Raymond Gilpatric drove up from New Britain Saturday afternoon and spent the night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Gilpatric.

The boys' basket ball team of the Putnam high school defeated the teams of the Plainfield school Friday night in the gymnasium of the local school by a score of 29 to 15. After the conclusion of this contest the girls' team of the two schools played and Plainfield won by 23 to 15. Both games were well played and interesting.

The Swarthmore Winter Chautauqua closed a three-night entertainment here Saturday. Although the attendance was not as large as it was hoped it would be the engagement was a success financially and the program for each evening was of a high order. Friday night there was a comedy drama, "Give and Take," which was very creditably presented, and the "Magic and Art" entertainment by the E. S. Henry company Saturday evening was very enjoyable.

Rev. J. R. Miller, of Moodus, Conn., is a patient at the Day Kimball hospital. He was for several years pastor of the M. E. church at East Thompson, leaving there this spring for Moodus.

John R. Brown of Fitchburg, Mass., has brought suit in Worcester county for the annulment of his marriage to Josephine Fenton, of Worcester. He alleges that at the time they were married she was the wife of Alexander Wright, of Sydney, Nova Scotia. They formerly lived in Putnam where he was employed at one of the textile mills.

Mrs. Vincent Girardi, of Powhattan street, is a patient at a Worcester hospital.

The complimentary dinner to be given by the Windham county bar to Hon. George A. Hinman of Willimantic, who took his seat last week as a justice of the supreme court, is to be held at the Putnam Inn Monday evening, February 1st. The committee in charge of the affair consists of Arthur S. Macdonald of Putnam, Judge Frank H. Foss, of Willimantic, and Sabin Russell, of Danielson.

The funeral of Mrs. Lillian C. Cadell, who died at a Worcester hospital, Thursday, following an operation, was held here Saturday conducted by Rev. J. F. English, pastor of the Second Congregational church; burial was in Grove street cemetery. She was the mother of four children. The youngest, a daughter only a few months old, died three weeks ago. Mr. Cadell is an ex-service man with a very creditable war record. He saw service overseas and he has been ill for a long time, and incapacitated from doing much work due to ailments contracted while he was in the service.

Michael R. Joy, 10, a pupil at the Israel Putnam school broke his leg while playing with some companions after school Friday afternoon. He is the son of Mrs. Alta Joy of Grand View. His father, Michael R. Joy, who died a few years ago, was one of the best known business men of the city.

Frederick Hrigan, 4, son of Sylvester Hrigan, of North Grosvenordale, fell down stairs Sunday afternoon and broke his leg. He was taken to the Day-Kimball hospital.

JEWETT CITY

OFFICERS GET NINE FOR LIQUOR LAW VIOLATIONS

(Special to The Bulletin.)

JEWETT CITY, Jan. 24.—Like the swoop of an eagle that had been keeping his quarry in sight, waiting for the moment to strike, County Detective Lewis, with Federal Prohibition Officers William S. Congdon, Stanton L. Briggs, Harry W. Avery of Willimantic, Joseph Fitzpatrick of New London, Officers Hinman, Raffile and Holtz of New Haven, Walter Kernan of Hartford and Deputy Sheriff George Hoxie of Lebanon, assisted by the local police, Henry Vegiard, Harvey (Cap.) Manard and Alfred Bacon, cleaned up the most flagrant of the Borough's bootleggers on Saturday night.

For a period extending over two months they have been steadily going on with the securing of evidence, that will be found to be practically indefensible.

On warrants issued by Prosecuting Attorney Richard Dudkowski, Saturday evening's raid resulted in nine arrests for violations of the liquor law, all of whom furnished bonds of $1,000. Those arrested in the raid which continued for three hours were Charles Morrisy, proprietor of the Jewett City hotel; Mary Negrelli, of Green avenue; Rose Beinike, of Matheewson street; Mary Kozlowski, of Brown avenue; John Parzych, of the Polish club, in the L'Heureux block on Main street; Josephine Choiens, of North Main street; Lakasz Supa, Brown avenue and Felix Stefczynski, alias Felix Manki, of Russell street, in the Belvidere section of Brown avenue.

This (Monday) morning these Volstead violators will be presented for trial by Prosecuting Attorney Richard Dudkowski before Judge John T. Barry.

In a raid at the Jewett City hotel the evidence of actual sales and a small amount of liquor was secured and the proprietor, Charles Morrissey a previous violator, was placed under arrest. Sales charges will be entered against all nine defendants. At the Polish Corporation on Main street, two gallons of liquor were seized and the home of Mary Kozlowski, one gallon of alcohol and two quarts of hooch were taken. The remainder of the raids were all in the homes of foreigners. Evidence was found in every place. The series of raids is one of the largest since the advent of the Volstead act.

Mrs. Catherine Curran died Saturday at the home of her brother, James Walsh, on Green avenue, after an illness of several months. She was the wife of Bartholemew Curran, who died in New London last October, and has lived with her brother since then.

Elaine's this Tues. and Wed., Mary Pickford in "Little Annie Rooney."—adv.

The engagement of Allen C. Prior, of Bridgeport, to Miss Constance Burdick, of Hartford, has been announced by Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Burdick. The young man is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Prior, Jr., formerly of Hartford and Jewett City.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Robinson and son, Earl, were week end guests at T. A. Robinson's in Boston.

Whatsoever circle of the King's Daughters, meets at Mr. Nelbert Mycott's, on Tuesday evening.

The flag at Fanning Park was at half mast Saturday to honor the memory of David Hale Fanning, whose burial took place in Worcester in the morning. Among those who went through Jewett City to attend the funeral was J. B. Caron, of Norwich, who was not only Mr. Fanning's business representative in Norwich, but his personal friend. From Jewett City those who attended were Warden Matthew Geary, Borough Clerk and Treasurer E. M. Gray, Burgesses E. L. French and John McDermott, and Slater Library trustees, Dr. G. H. Jennings, A. D. Tripp, E. A. Faust and Alex McNicol. Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Fanning and Mrs. G. A. Haskell also attended and had with them at the grave Miss Ella A. Fanning, of Norwich. Flowers were sent by the trustees, borough, and the friends.

At the Baptist Sunday school on Sunday Earle Palmer was appointed assistant superintendent, and Albert Franklin will take Mr. Palmer's position as recorder.

A number of interested parties from the borough went to Crooked Hill on Sunday to witness the renewed attempts of the contractors to negotiate the rise with the big 30 ton boiler, bound for Glasgo. During the 24 hours preceding sunrise Sunday morning, the ground had frozen hard. Two big Mack trucks, augmented by the pulling power of 6 span of horses drew the 60,000 pounds of steel up the long hill, to a point in front of the John C. Hawkins house. To understand the enormity of the feat performed, it must be understood that not only was the elevation properly named Crooked Hill, but, in perpendicular height, the lift was close to 150 feet. Near the Rojeske farm, known as the Deacon Samuel Barber place, a broken axle on the big carrying truck, halted a further advance until repairs are completed. Neither the Ashland nor Slater bridges would carry the weight of the great boiler, hence this long detour to Hopeville, then to the Glasgo road to Pachaug by way of W. R. Palmer's and Victor Campbell's.

Prentice W. Chase Saturday at Norwich Y. M. C. A., passed the Red Cross life saving tests, which he has been taking under their official examiner Captain Carol Bryant. Mr. Chase is now a qualified life saving examiner, under the requirements of the National Red Cross.

Through the schools and churches several truck loads of clothing for the Near East Relief were taken by trucks from Aspinook Co., to the freight car at Norwich on Friday afternoon. The collection was made under the direction of Mrs. Walter Richardson who acted as the agent for the borough.

SUDDEN DEATH SUNDAY WILFRED ROIREAU

(Special to The Bulletin.)

DANIELSON, Jan. 24.—Wilfred Roireau, otherwise known as Wilfred La Libertie, 61, dropped dead at his home on Carter street, Sunday afternoon about 3 o'clock, after having worked about an automobile that he purchased a few months ago and carrying in an armful of wood.

Mr. Roireau had been in poor health for several years. Last July while employed as a sexton of St. James' parish, he collapsed, with an attack of heart disease and fell into a grave that he was digging in Holy Cross cemetery. Since then he has not been very active, remaining at home the greater part of the time. He leaves three sons, Alcid and Omer of Danielson, and Theodore, of Putnam; a daughter, Marilda, of Danielson, and a daughter, Mrs. Dorilia Bedard, of Moosup.

On leaving work one day not long ago two miners in England found a newly born baby lying in a sheltered pit. One of the men took the baby home to his wife. On removing the child's wrappings the woman found bank notes to the amount of $6,000, together with a letter asking that the child be baptized Victor and be well cared for.

THE PORTEOUS & MITCHELL CO.

THIS IS CLEAN-UP WEEK

A Clearance of Remnants and Broken Lines

Beginning Today and continuing throughout the week, we will have a Sale of Remnants, Odd Sizes, Broken Lines, Etc.

During the January Clearance Sale a lot of short lengths and odd sizes have accumulated. All these will be offered this week at prices which must move them quickly.

Every Department in the store has something to offer in this Bargain Event, and the chances for economy are such that no one can afford to ignore them. Come any day this week—Come Today if possible.

THERE ARE REMNANTS —

Of Silks, Dress Goods, Cloakings, Percales, Ginghams, Outing Flannels, Table Linens, Toweling, White Goods, Cottons, Ribbons, Laces, Trimmings, Etc.

THERE ARE ODD SIZES —

In Men's Overcoats and Suits, Boys' Overcoats and Suits, Sweaters for Men, Women and Children, Women and Children's Winter Garments, Men's, Women's and Children's Winter Hosiery and Underwear, Odd lines of Corsets, Etc.

THERE ARE BROKEN LINES — of Men's Neckwear, Women's Neckwear, Napkins, Towels, Table Cloths, Blankets, Comfortables, Dinnerware, Kitchenware, Etc.

DANCING

State Armory

DANIELSON

FRIDAY EVE.

JAN. 29

Benny Conn's Collegians of Worcester Playing

Admission 50 and 75 cents

THE LAUREL

MAIN ST., DANIELSON

NEXT TO PUBLIC LIBRARY

NOW OPEN

Your meals splendidly served.

Delightful surroundings, reasonable prices.

ORPHEUM

DANIELSON, CONN.

MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY
THE IRON HORSE

THURSDAY ONLY
EVE'S SECRET
With Jack Holt and Betty Compson

FRIDAY
VAUDEVILLE

SATURDAY
THE KNOCKOUT
With Milton Sills

SUNDAY
LOST, A WIFE
With Adolph Mengou

SCHOOL OF NURSING

The school of nursing connected with the W. W. Backus Hospital, Norwich, Conn., is now registering applicants for the February classes. This school is registered in Connecticut and the course of instruction is two years and four months given in a general hospital of 90 beds. Students must be graduates of grammar school and have one year of high school work. Students have the advantage of a new residence for nurses where every comfort and convenience is afforded them. For circular of information address Supt. of the Training School.

CHECK THAT COLD NOW

TAKE FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE

ALL PURE FOOD

OVER 70 YEARS IN USE FOR COLDS AND COUGHS

POETRY

Reading Beyond the Veil

"Eye hath not seen,
Ear hath not heard,
Nor hath it entered into
The heart of man"—

Strange that the good St. Paul
Could promise sweeter song
Than wood thrush note at dawn,
Or singing sparrow's joy upon her eggs;
Or that his words could mean
That some time far away
From gardens made by man
A thing more lovely than
The rose could be,
Or fragrance of the mignonette.

Did he in wildest bliss of hope
Expect to outdo in its glory
The sunset on the sea
Where Heaven and ocean
Meet in one great symphony
Of radiant color—
The rainbow broken into every shade
And tint of dancing lights—
Transcendent beauty?

Oh, thou great Prophet of
The World to Come!
How didst thou dare
To play with present Good
Unless within thy Prescient heart
—Like Moses—
Thou didst but speak
For God,
And told a larger truth
Than thou thyself
Could't dream!
—By Mabel Hill.

Sunday Sand

The singing of a meadow lark
Flings back the velvet portals
As night beckons silence
To release the carrier of dawn.

Daybreak, arms filled with
Primrose garlands,
Marches across the timid blue
Of a new-born sky.

Morning clasps her hands
To hold imprisoned
The struggling rays of sun
That leak out thru her finger tips.

Noon like a soaring bird
Flys upward
To swoop to earth
With broken wings
Molested by the crimson light
Of evening sunset.

Night's slim gray sister—Rest—
Prowls the moon-lit halls
And stumbles
O'er the silver lyre of yesterday
Whose strings of fading color
Snarled and broken
Are cast aside—to die alone.
—Elsie Chamberlain in Boston Transcript.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

Obie—I ran into a friend of yours yesterday.

Josh—Did you apologise?—Kentucky Cardinal.

Joe: My brother is a kitchen oculist.
Moe: What does he do?
Joe: Takes the eyes out of potatoes.
—The Progressive Grocer.

"Mabel, you grow more beautiful every day."

"Oh, Jack, you do exaggerate."

"Well, then, every other day."—Columbia Jester.

Judge—"Have you decided to have a lawyer?"

Prisoner—"No, but I could do fine with a couple of good witnesses."—Life.

"My wife wants me to go to dances all the time."

"Doesn't she realize that you require some sleep?"

"She seems to think I ought to get that at the office."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Jerry—"I like to hear that prof. lecture on chemistry. He brings things home to me that I have never seen before."

Tom—"That's nothing; so does the Student Laundry Agency."—Vassar Vagabond.

"Pity the poor blind, mister."

"Go on! You're no more blind than I am."

"No, mister, it's me pal dat's blind; But he's too proud to beg, so I has ter do it while he stands at de corner an keeps an eye out for de cops."—Boston Transcript.

"But," protested the new arrival, as St. Pete handed him a golden saxophone, "I can't play this instrument. I never practiced while on earth."

"Of course, you didn't," chuckled the old saint. "That's why you are here."—Zion's Herald.

KALEIDOSCOPE

Brazil uses convict labor in much of its road construction.

In England 22,000 women are employed as electrical workers.

Switzerland depends on other countries for its egg supply.

The earth receives less light and heat from Mercury and Venus.

The city and county government of Denver, Colo., is combined.

During a tug-of-war test between an electric locomotive weighing 821,000 pounds and two steam locomotives weighing 861,700 pounds, at Rockdale, Wash., the electric locomotive vanquished the two steam engines and slowly pulled them up a 2 per cent grade.

Newark, a town with a population of 1,000 people, situated near Oakland, Cal., has never had a doctor, dentist, undertaker, ambulance, drug store, or a cemetery. Mayor Louis Ruschin, authority for this statement, attributes the health of the community to home cooking. Newark also is without a restaurant.

On a tombestone near Dijon, France, is this epitaph: "Here lies, mourned by his family and lamented by his patrons, Pierre Mercier, restaurant manager 1846-1903. He was the inventor of the famous Mercier omelette, of the receipt for which his son, living in the Rue Dijon, this city, is the sole proprietor."

Tuberculosis in the Irish Free State is gradually lessening, statistics show. In 1919 one in about every seventy of the population was affected by some form of the disease while in 1923 the proportion had diminished to about one in every ninety. The decrease in deaths from all forms of tuberculosis in five years was 1,921. In 1923 the tuberculosis death rate was 1.41 a 1,000.

Women have had much success in England as masters of fox hunting packs. One reason is the fact that by their tact and charm they have been able repeatedly to placate surly farmers when men have failed. One of the best known women masters is Miss Kathleen Styles, of the West Kent fox hounds, which is one of the favorite packs of Prince Henry. At present, there are at least eleven women masters of fox hounds, eighteen women honorary secretaries of clubs, and about twenty women masters of harriers and beagles.

An authentic fossil tusk of the woolly elephant of the glacial or postglacial period, with gold filling like a modern tooth, has been presented to the museum of the University of Washington by Edward Squires who discovered it on a mining claim on Dominion creek, forty miles from Dawson, Yukon territory. The tusk is ten feet long and weighs 350 pounds. The theory of Nathan Kromm, museum caretaker and former Alaskan, is that the relic was there when tons of earth with pay streaks settled down, so that gold nuggets were forced into the cracks of the tusk, giving the effect of gold tooth fillings.

1791 1926

Norwich Bulletin and Courier

130 YEARS OLD

Printed every day in the year except Sunday.

Subscription price 12c a week; 60c a month; $6.00 a year.

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich, Conn., as second-class matter.

Telephone Calls:
Bulletin Business Office, 480.
Bulletin Editorial Rooms, 35-2.
Bulletin Job Room, 35-3.

Willimantic Office 864 Main St. Telephone 1121-2.

Norwich, Monday, January 25, 1926

Member of The Associated Press

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

All rights of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

Daily Average Circulation

WEEK ENDING JAN. 23, 1926:

12,726

VOTING IN THE SENATE

After certain members of the United States senate have wasted valuable time in their studied efforts to delay action on the adherence of the United States to the world court, their hopes being to defeat our joining the court, a real show down can be expected today as to whether the senate is going to get anywhere with this proposition.

All this delay, with waste of time, has come from the group of senators that is believed to represent less than a third of that body. Unless indications are wrong their effort has been directed to preventing a two thirds majority of the senate from taking action. They have been proving the existence of those conditions about which Vice President Dawes has had much to say. If they represented sufficient strength to defeat adherence to the court there's no doubt that they would be willing and anxious to have the matter voted on. Their efforts to prevent an expression by the senate thus indicates that they have not enough votes to defeat the project but are determined to have their own way by preventing the others from taking favorable action.

Confidence that the time will be fixed today for final vote on the world court indicates that the senate has grown sick and tired of the conduct within its membership and is prepared to exercise such authority as it possesses for ending the situation. Through cloture, or a restriction of the debate, this can be done. It is gratifying to note that Connecticut's senators are on record as favoring such a step if it is found necessary.

In the last session of congress the senate made a poor impression. It is unfortunate that there are those in the present congress who desire to so brand the present senate, but there is cause for satisfaction in noting that those making up the much greater part of that body are not disposed to be made helpless by the obstructionists. Those who unite for the purpose of ending the rule of wee minority are rendering an excellent service. A vote by agreement is best, but if that cannot be obtained let it be forced.

PASSPORT APPROVALS

Under the auspices of the league of nations a conference of nations has been called for the purpose of giving consideration to reforms concerning passports. It is a matter which concerns all nations and therefore it was to be expected that an invitation would be extended to this country to be represented at the gathering. What this country is going to do has not been announced, but this is apparently going to be an excellent opportunity for the elimination of the annoyance which has for some time accompanied the visaing of passports.

During the period of the war this was brought to its height. It was impossible to move from any country in Europe without a very careful scrutiny of passports and every time approval was attacked by officials it meant a new tax. If one did much traveling and boundary crossing the visa charges were considerable. The war is over but not the visaing of passports. It has been possible to come to understandings with certain countries concerning this matter but there is good reason why there should be a general understanding. The annoyance is of course the same when subjects of other countries come here although the visas are few on this side compared with those in Europe. Much time as well as money is involved in meeting visa requirements abroad, and because there is a high charge made for such service on this side of the Atlantic the European countries have not been reluctant to follow our footsteps, and each country makes sure that it gets its share. Thus the American pays many times in visa fees to tour Europe what the European does to tour America.

But aside from the onesidedness of the charges the conditions which called for the visa no longer exist. It is therefore time that the practice was abandoned and an authenticated passport be accepted as sufficient assurance that tourists are entitled to travel. If this cannot be brought about there can be no reason why the existing high visa fees should not give way to merely nominal ones.

CROSSING THE ATLANTIC

There's a fascination about the trying of new stunts by airplane quite the same as there is for accomplishing the hazardous and the unusual otherwise. It is in keeping with progress in many directions.

Perhaps it isn't absolutely necessary that the Spanish aviators who have set out to fly from Spain to Buenos Aires, thus crossing the Atlantic at a new point, should do this, but until someone accomplishes it there will always be those who will be eager to try and a full appreciation of the honors involved in such an accomplishment.

This flight has been attempted before without success. It involves water jumps to the Canary Islands, Cape Verde Islands, the long jump to Fernando do Noronha Island off the coast of Brazil and from there in easy stages down the coast to Buenos Aires.

Keen interest is bound to be displayed in the undertaking, quite the same as there was in crossing from this continent to Ireland, the non-stop flight that was attempted to the Hawaiian Islands and the flights that have been made across this country and for long distances on other continents, to say nothing of the flight around the world.

It is some time since Columbus set out to discover a new world. It is not for the purpose of discovering new territory that the Spanish aviators set out from the same point of departure centuries later. They go for the purpose of proving their ability to fly over prepared to successfully combat they are going, where they will find landing places and what they will find if they are able to reach their destination. Their aim is to succeed where others have failed.

They recognize the dangers involved in their effort and believe that they ar prepared to successfully combat them. Naturally the hope is that they will succeed in their flight.

CARDINAL MERCIER

Cardinal Mercier was one of the great figures of Belgium that was brought out by the world war. He was not numbered among those who took up arms and yet he made a strong and telling fight against the conditions which were imposed upon the people of that country by the invading Germans. Cardinal Mercier made a careful and thorough study of the horrors and wrongs committed by the invaders, and as the result of what he gleaned he not only directed the Belgians to be obedient to the military authorities directing affairs for Germany but he told it to the world. He was instrumental in presenting a picture which it was next to impossible for Germany to decry. He held to his statement regardless of the demands for retraction and through the long and terrible struggle was a source of great inspiration for the people of Belgium and France. Although cognizant of the attitude of Germany as strongly opposed to him, he nevertheless saw and did his duty unflinchingly. His name will ever be an outstanding one in connection with the great war. He was given the opportunity for great service and he never sought to dodge it. As a worker for humanity and as an exponent of truth and righteousness he has left an ineffaceable record.

He was a man of great determination, possessing the courage to do what he believed was right and he was not only greatly admired in Belgium and Europe but throughout the world. His death marks the passing of a great man whose name will hold high place in world history.

RADIO RESTRICTIONS

In the dispute which has arisen over the use of a wave length by a Chicago broadcasting agency which had been assigned to a Canadian station, there is demonstrated the need of federal regulation of radio, if in fact there isn't enough law already to deal with this matter.

Because of the need of regulation in order to avoid the interference of stations, it has become necessary for broadcasting stations to take out licenses, this even extending to amateurs, and to each station is assigned a certain wave length to be used so as not to conflict with others. This country likewise has an understanding with Canada so that each country respects the broadcasting regulations of the other. To a Canadian station a certain wave length was assigned. That station is not operating, so its wave length was appropriated by a Chicago station without federal permission, and its own wave length was abandoned. This was brought from the government a warning to return to its own wave length or expect prosecution.

Why under these conditions the Chicago station did not make application for the wave length of the Canadian station which was not being used is not made clear, but certainly if regulations are going to amount to anything the prompt calling of the Chicago station to account is the proper procedure. When stations get so that they intentionally disregard regulations, which are established for the good of all, it is time to call an effective halt and the idea of the Chicago station thinking of making a test case of the matter seems ridiculous. It is just such an attitude as that which makes for a constantly increasing number of restrictions.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Have you begun to study the straw hat styles for 1926?

These are fine days for a study of the always attractive catalogues of the seed growers.

Much has been said about Mosul oil but it doesn't seem to have been put on the market as yet.

It must be a relief for Philadelphia to know that its sesquicentennial is to be observed as planned without added delay.

The man on the corner says: It is hard work to get harmony in the choruses of "Giddap, January!" and "Whoa, January!"

Those who are preparing their next summer's bathing suits don't intend to get caught napping, or to be delayed by the moths.

There are indications that resolutions in various stages of perfection might be obtained in considerable quantity about now.

From the progress thus far the impression is gained that the Pennsylvania legislature isn't in sympathy with Governor Pinchot.

Senator Borah says he has not filibustered during all the 13 years he has been in congress. How much has he done to stop others from doing it?

That unknown man who has paid the federal treasury $200 for a selfish act during the war has set an example which if followed by all others in his class might go a long way toward paying off the national debt.

WOMEN IN LIFE AND IN THE KITCHEN

SUGGESTIONS FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

If mixed with milk instead of water, mustard will not get dry, but will keep nice and fresh until it is used up.

Served with either sausage or chops, buckwheat cakes and maple syrup make an ideal breakfast for a cold morning.

Clean bran can sometimes be purchased at a nearby feedstore, put several times through a food grinder and used in the cooking.

To prevent milk set in an outside ice box from freezing, tie an old magazine around the bottle. This will prevent milk freezing in the coldest weather.

Fill small tart shells with fresh ripe blackberries, top with sweetened whipped cream and garnish with a few extra berries.

A small box of lime kept in the pantry will help to make the air quite dry and when it should be renewed occasionally.

Ground coffee loses strength rapidly and should be kept in a closed container as nearly air-tight as possible. It is highly desirable that coffee be freshly ground as well as freshroasted.

Stained soft wood floors which show worn places should be touched up with the same stain and the whole should be shellaced with some first-class floor shellac.

The liquor from any canned fruit may be made into a fruit jelly. Served with whipped cream it makes a nice dessert. Chopped nuts stirred into jelly as it begins to harden are a worth-while addition.

To find out whether handkerchiefs or other goods you are buying are really linen, moisten the tip of the finger and press on them. If the wet penetrates the handkerchief at once it is linen, but if cotton it takes some seconds to wet through the thread.

To cover any wooden roof, such as on dog kennels and summer houses, tack down a large piece of strong brown paper. Make sure there are no holes in it for rain to get under. Then give it two coats of paint. This will last several years, is as good as tarpaulin, and much cheaper.

SODA RATHER THAN LYE

When drains or pipes are clogged with grease, boiling water and washing soda will do the trick; but avoid lye. The lye is apt to form soap of the grease and clog the drain more than ever.

SCRUBBING BRUSHES

After using the scrubbing brush, rinse in cold water and then turn bristles downward. The water will run out and the brush will dry quickly. If allowed to dry on its back the water will soak into the wood and loosen the bristles.

TO KEEP DRAIN CLEAR

A buttonhook can be utilized to clear the laundry tubs of accumulated lint from a weekly wash. If the drain is probed out each week there will be no stoppage.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY

Never leave medicine or any kind of drink uncovered in a sick room.

It is essential to health that one should eat leafy green vegetables, such as lettuce, cabbage, celery or spinach, every day.

Baby's eyes should never be exposed to the direct rays of the sun. A rattle or other toy hung from the top of the baby carriage is a common cause of eyestrain, as this practice directs attention to a moving object close to the child's eyes.

If the burn is extensive send for the nearest doctor without delay. In the meantime if you have any carron oil apply it at once. Carron oil is an old-fashioned remedy which many women keep in the house all the time. It is an emulsion made from lime water and linseed oil. If you have none apply olive oil, vaseline, butter, cold cream, even thick cream off milk. This is to protect the burned surface from the air and to lessen pain.

Bedrooms should be well ventilated. If an open window makes too much of a draft on the bed, fit a board six or eight inches high and just the width of the window below the lower sash. This gives a constant exchange of air between the two sashes, slightly warming the air as it passes in.

CLEANING LEATHER

A bandbox or satchel of undressed kid, when soiled by usage, may be easily cleaned. The secret of restoration is a piece of sandpaper rubbed over the surface. A very fine grade of sandpaper is required. When this is used with care the effect is magical, and there is no injury to the material. Many kinds of leathers without polished surfaces—for example, suede, undressed and ooze calfskins—may be cleaned in the same way.

HOME BAKER'S HINT

Before you begin to make any cake take care that all your ingredients be all ready at your hand. Beat up your eggs well and then do not leave them to go about anything else till your cake be finished, as the eggs, by standing unmixed, will require beating again, which will contribute to making your cake heavy. If you intend to put butter in your cake be sure to beat it to a fine cream before you put in your sugar, otherwise it will require double the beating.

WILL KEEP BETTER

Put the leftover soup in a china or earthenware bowl. Do not keep it in the aluminum or metal vessel in which it was cooked. It is not wholesome and is very apt to change the flavor.

A REAL POLISH

Soiled furniture will never take a good polish. Wring a cloth out of warm water and wipe off the wood well. Dry carefully and then polish as usual. You will be rewarded with a splendid luster.

CURDLED CUSTARDS

If a custard curdles in cooking, you have only to place the saucepan over cold water and beat it with an egg beater till smooth.

DICTATES OF FASHION

Sweaters and wool hose to match are an indispensable part of the flapper's sport wardrobe.

Silver and cross fox are the best for scarfs this season, though a few red fox are seen.

Extremely decorative are bags of gold kid entirely covered with a design worked out in coral beads.

Pale yellow chiffon dripping with rhinestones makes a very lovely dance frock. It has a wide, circular skirt.

A smart Viennese woman in New York is wearing a nutria coat of slim lines, with a lipstick red felt hat, matching a red crepe dress.

An ensemble for a little girl consists of a dark blue velvet coat with short cape and a blue velvet bonnet lined with red.

A case for one's nightgown is made of black moire lined with blue silk which also appears as a tiny piping around the edges.

Black satin slippers have gold threads running through the fabric in a spider web design.

Very smart are squares of printed French silk, which are used for handkerchiefs worn about the neck so that two points appear in front.

Long earrings are once more the vogue. The newest ones reach almost to the shoulders. They are set with colored stones in designs copied from antique jewelry.

Dress designers are insisting now that evening wraps should always match the dress with which they are worn in color. Thus an evening wrap of a contrasting color should be lined in the same colored satin or same as the dress.

Printed chiffons in pastel shades, appliqued on pale pink chiffon are proving unusually popular for southern wear. The long full sleeves tied in at the wrist, which is the latest touch of fashion, is seen in nearly all these models.

LIGHT COLORS RULE IN CLOTH DRESSES

Cloth dresses are being made in the colors such as bois de rose, new tans, light greens and blues, also a few in navy. All the satin dresses bought now are being ordered in black, as they are always relieved with a little color trim.—Dry Goods Economist.

HAND-BLOCKED CUSHIONS

Handblocked linens in individual designs by one of the most famous French artists are used for odd little cushions of different sizes to be tucked into corners of the chaise-longue or divan.

BETTER AND BLONDER BLONDS

Blonds are back in the limelight if, indeed, they were ever out of it. The hair dressers hold that blond tresses go much better with the present vogue for the pastel shades in evening frocks than do the darker locks. Consequently they are putting patrons through elaborate shampoos.

SEWING HINTS

Did you ever try sewing on hooks and eyes with a buttonhole stitch? You will find it the most secure method you ever tried.

When darning Turkish towels use white darning cotton rather than ordinary thread. The mended places will not show so much and the darn will last longer.

When patching underwear, try slipping the worn places over a magazine. You will find that it will serve as a very satisfactory lapboard, just stiff enough.

If you make all your own underwear, it is well to cut out of inexpensive cambric the patterns you use most. These can be cut to fit exactly and are in no danger of being torn with frequent handling.

Nothing will darn the nasty tear in the good dress like ravelings from the material. If you have patches from the dress, by all means ravel out thread or silk enough to use for darning. The darn will scarcely show if carefully mended.

A POINT IN SEWING

Shirring is a widely used method of securing the new movement and fluidity of silhouette. But, simple as it seems the amateur often achieves results far from perfect, says Vogue. The first rule is to put in more rows of shirring than you will need in order to hold the material correctly. Then pin it to the straight edge by inserting the pins vertically between the gathers, not horizontally across them. Be very, very careful not to stretch this straight edge, because the resulting ripple takes away from the professional look.

BRAN WATER BRIGHTENS CRETONNES

Cretonnes, chintzes, embroidered table runners and cushions are usually thought to be ruined by laundering. They can be restored to their original hues and at the same time properly cleaned by the use of bran. Containing three distinct qualities, it is especially adaptable for cleansing purposes. It is a good substitute for soap as it contains mineral salts and fat, its vegetable acids fix and brighten colors, and the starch content stiffens the fabrics to the right consistency.

Bran is easily used and is very inexpensive. Take about enough to half fill an ordinary size pillowcase, tie and place in a boiler full of water, bring to the boiling point and boil for half an hour. Drain off the water and repeat the process twice, using the first water for washing and the last two for rinsing. Transfer the first bran water to a tub and cool with clear, cold water. If the materials are very soiled or smoky, they should be rinsed in cold water first. Immerse in the bran water and wash by kneading and squeezing. It may be necessary to add a little soap jelly, but care should be taken not to put in too much or the action of the bran will be destroyed. Fabrics with a white background need to be rinsed in two bran waters. Shake out carefully and dry in a shady place or with the wrong side exposed to the sun. Iron with a moderately hot iron on the wrong side.

TO MEND UMBRELLA

To mend a small hole in an umbrella take a small piece of black court-plaster or adhesive tape and soak it until it is quite soft. Place under the hole and let dry. This is better than darning.

CONCERNING WOMEN

A recent decree of the Russian soviet government orders women to wear their dresses low at the bottom and high at the top.

Mrs. O. H. Sturbergh, of San Francisco, makes wax figures from living models, thereby enabling her to guarantee the life-likeness.

Princess Mary, in the daytime, rarely wears any rings except her wedding ring and the emerald ring Lord Lascelles gave her on her engagement.

A $150,000 community theater is being erected in St. Charles, Ill., by Mrs. Delora Ancell Norris, who inherited the millions of the late John W. Gates.

Miss Cora Rubin, who for 18 years has been secretary to Senator William A. Borah, of Idaho, handled the senator's campaign in the recent election.

SHARPEN THE BREAD KNIFE

So many people forget to sharpen the bread knife. Sharpening really means economy, as a sharp knife means thinner slices and neater slices.

SHELL LAMPS

A most decorative lamp is made of a large, delicately tinted conchshell which rests on a gold stand and conceals a tiny electric bulb.

RECIPES

Currant Buns: Sift 1 quart flour with 4 teaspoons baking powder and 1 teaspoon salt, rub in 2 tablespoons shortening and add just enough sweet milk to make a dough. Place on floured board, roll into thin sheet, spread with butter, sprinkle with 1-2 cup sugar, dust with cinnamon and sprinkle with clean, dry currants. Roll up, cut in slices, place in pan with space between each and bake in moderately hot oven.

Creamed Oysters on Toast: Mix 1 tablespoon flour very smooth with little cold milk or cream, stir it into 1 pint boiling cream and allow it to cook 10 minutes, but take care not to let it burn. Let oysters come to a boil in their own liquor, strain and add oysters to cream. Salt and pepper to taste. A flavoring of onion and mace may be added to the cream if desired. Serve in buttered toast.

Today's Birthdays

Antonio Scotti, the world-famous operatic baritone, born in Naples, Italy, 59 years ago today.

Charles Curtis, of Kansas, the republican leader in the United States senate, born in Shawnee county, Kas., 66 years ago today.

Dr. Simon F. Tolmie, former Canadian minister of agriculture, born in Victoria, B. C., 59 years ago today.

Ernest F. W. Alexanderson, celebrated American electrical engineer and inventor, born in Sweden, 48 years ago today.

Dr. John L. Seaton, president of Albion college, born at Manchester Iowa, 53 years ago today.

IN THE PUBLIC EYE

Dexter S. Kimball, who has been chosen to succeed ex-Governor James Hartness, of Vermont, as president of the American Engineering council, the executive branch of the Federated American Engineering societies, is one of America's best known engineers and has been active in promoting a closer union of engineering organizations. A native of New Brunswick, he was graduated from Leland Stanford university, in 1896, and then secured the practical training for his profession by nearly ten years of work in shipyards and mines in the far west. In 1898, he became an assistant professor in the College of Engineering of Cornell university and is now dean of that institution. He is the author of several standard technical works. In his new post Dean Kimball will direct the activities of the largest professional organization of engineers in America.

Today's Anniversaries

1759—Robert Burns, the famous poet born near Ayr, Scotland. Died at Dumfries, July 21, 1796.

1819—Virginia legislature passed the law establishing the University of Virginia, at Charlottesville.

1826—Henry Chambers, United States senator from Alabama, died in Mecklenburg county, N. C. Born in Lunenburg county, Va., in 1785.

1876—Extensive forgeries of E. D. Winslow, of Boston, were discovered, and he fled the country.

1898—National Monetary convention at Indianapolis to devise a plan for currency reform.

1905—George S. Nixon was elected United States senator from Nevada.

1915—German armored cruiser Blucher sunk in North Sea, by British squadron in a running fight with the German fleet.

1924—Thirty-two miners died in a coal mine explosion at Johnson City Ill.

1925—The tomb of King Tutankhamen at Luxor, Egypt, was reopened.

Stories That Recall Others

Government Regulations Fail

There are post offices where it becomes necessary to establish rules that mail will be given only to persons to whom it is addressed. Frequently a wife is unable to obtain her husband's mail, and vice versa.

A middle aged woman stepped to a post office window and asked for her mail. She gave her name and was told there was no letter there.

"Is there a letter for my husband Timothy?" she asked.

"Yes, there's a letter here for Timothy, but he'll have to come for it himself," the clerk said.

"Well, he can't come," she replied.

"Why not?"

"Why, he's outside holding the horse."

Question of Law

The law—that is, law books—has been responsible for many queer happenings, but a little incident adds to them.

A janitor at a public building was not what the job required and found himself out of work. He told of what had happened and someone began talking to him.

Finally one of the "boys" said to him: "Why, he can't fire you."

"Who said so?" the deposed janitor replied, "He's done it and I haven't any job."

"Well, I tell you he can't fire you," the informant replied, "because I have just looked up the law and there it is in black and white. Go back to work."

The deposed janitor, convinced by the legal light, returned to his job and held it for two weeks until his superior discovered that he had not "stayed fired." Then the superior took the joke good naturedly, paid the man for the extra work and administered a "real firing."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

"On The Whole."

Mr. Editor: "A Student," who questions my use of the phrase, "on the whole," may be a professor, but he is not on the whole, a student, for he evidently makes statements without consulting authorities.

I have not had the same opportunities for schooling that some have enjoyed (?), but have desired and diligently sought knowledge. When my use of the phrase was questioned, by one claiming to be a student, I thought, knowing that whole means entire, that I might be misusing the phrase, so consulted my Standard Dictionary, which says adv. phrase meaning "taking all things into consideration." Now this is an English standard and might be confirming the error of one of English parentage. I went to the library to consult Noah Webster, an authority, which you expect a Yankee student to consult. First, I found the Century, another English authority, which says: "upon the whole, taking all things into view."

"Waller, with Sir William Balfour, exceeded with horse, but were, upon the whole equal in foot." Clarendon.

Webster goes even further and says: "On the whole; considering all things; in view of all the circumstances or conditions."

Considering all things (upon the whole) prayer to me is futile.

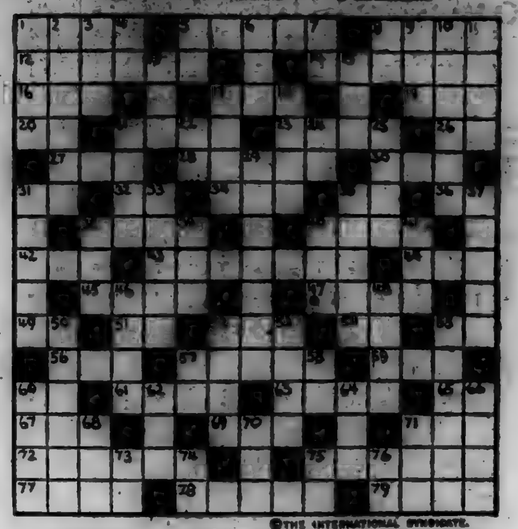
I may make mistakes, and am willing to learn, but must be shown.

ALBERT BOARDMAN.

Norwich, Jan. 23, 1926.

Men and women may get too old to love, but they never get too old to want to be loved.

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE



©THE INTERNATIONAL SYNDICATE.

HORIZONTAL

1-Frozen or chilled
5-The trunk of the human body
8-Man's name (abbr.)
12-The head (colloq.)
14-Discount
16-A unit of work and energy
17-Possessive pronoun
18-"And so forth" (abbr.)
20-Zinc (chem. sym.)
21-Girl's name
23-A forearm bone
26-By
27-French for "water"
28-The last emperor of Brazil
30-Craw of a bird
31-Newspaper notice (abbr.)
32-Southern State of U. S. (abbr.)
34-Part of verb "to be"
35-Prefix—"with"
38-Interjection
39-A bullock (Prov. Brit.)
40-Firmly fixed
42-Spanish for "one"
43-Perplexing question demanding settlement
44-Existed
46-To pound in a mortar
47-A Greek philosopher; founded Stoic school
49-Interjection—questioning
51-Man's name (short)

HORIZONTAL (Cont.)

52-A drink
54-A musical note
55-Ever, always
56-Possessive pronoun
57-Catkin
58-Force
60-Suffix of nouns of agency
61-Therefore
63-To map out, as a plan (slang)
66-Printer's unit
67-Consumed
69-Word of assent
71-Prefix—"three"
72-Broken pieces of earthenware vessels (obs.)
75-Ancient region N. E. of Macedonia
77-A beginner
78-To pull off the covering from
79-First home of Adam and Eve

VERTICAL

1-Girl's name
2-Preserved in brine
3-To incite
4-"By the grace of God" (Latin-abbr.)
5-A heavy weight (abbr.)
6-Decay
7-Conjunction
8-Tiberius (abbr.)
9-Scotch for "have"
10-Large Canadian city
11-A denomination
15-Girl's name
16-Contraction of "ever"

VERTICAL (Cont.)

17-Motion
18-Certain
21-Maid
22-Opposed to down
24-Behold
25-A Hebrew minor prophet
28-To drip
31-Sharp-pointed
33-A varnish resin
36-Desert animal
37-Quick-tempered
38-To cry convulsively
39-Attempt
40-Turkish cap
41-A number
46-Scarce
48-Hub of a wheel
50-Regent of Hungary
52-A treaty port in S. E. China
53-Extremities
55-To punish by an assessment
57-Latin for silver (abbr.)
58-Toward
60-Point of compass
62-A color
64-Interjection—contempt
65-Manner
68-An organ of the head
70-Ever (poet.)
71-Gamin (Local U. S.)
73-A square land measure (abbr.)
74-A kind of ship (abbr.)
75-Township (abbr.)
76-Prefix—"back"

From Small Beginnings

Giovanni Viotti, the Great Violinist

Up in the mountain region of northern Italy there was a village blacksmith, Guilio Viotti, who hammered out the music of the anvil all day long. Occasionally, however, he stopped in his work, took up a horn and played on it simple music. It rested him to turn tunes from hard muscular work to the pleasure of music. His little son, Giovanni, played in the shop and listened alike to the anvil and the horn. Like all boys, he imitated his father, clanking with a hammer and trying to play the horn.

"Here, little one, I will teach you," said the blacksmith as he put the horn to his son's lips. "Now do as I tell you."

After a time the blacksmith could gain his rest by listening to the small boy play simple tunes. The boy picked up the art in a wonderfully short time. He had an ear for music and the father at once foresaw a future for the boy. He induced one of his friends to see that the lad was taught the violin. The boy again did so well that he gained the opportunity of having one of the best teachers—and this only at 11 years of age.

From his father young Giovanni had inherited a natural love for music and he did so well once again that he won his way to still better instruction. By the time he was a youth he had made himself known throughout the region. By the time he was a young man he was known beyond Italy.

Catherine the Great of Russia, heard of him, as she heard of all that went on in Europe, and she welcomed him at her brilliant court. Wherever he went he won applause, for he could produce from the violin rich music that carried the beauty and charm of the Italian mountains, and the sweetness of a happy life. He drew almost human notes from the strings. He became the leader of a famous orchestra and exercised a deep influence on the music of his day. Meanwhile, like his father, he was a lover of work. He found time to write much music for the violin—sweet, delicate, inspiring music that is heard even today. At one time or another he travelled throughout Europe, spreading, as it were, far and wide, the echoes of the music that had taken its start in the little blacksmith shop off in the hills of northern Italy.

He died in 1824 at the age of 71. In all his long life he had carried out to the full the instruction and the inspiration his father had given him at the humble forge.

CHILD TRAINING

ONE HUNDRED PER CENT MOTHERS

Helen Gregg Green

"Mother, why must I not steal the robin's nest?" asked five-year old Jimmie, as Mother shifted her cake in the oven.

"Because — O, ask your father, dear," Mother replied crisply.

And then a few minutes later, "Say, Mother, I found a new kind of tree today. Want me to tell you about it?"

"No, Jimmie, not now! Mother's busy and hasn't time to hear about the new tree."

"Well — all right." Jimmie looked disappointed and pattered from the kitchen.

At that moment, Hilda, the privileged maid, cut in with, "Say, Mrs. Robins, why don't you talk to Jimmie and learn him things?"

"Teach him, Hilda. Why, what do you mean?"

"Well, I'd know more, Mrs. Robins, if folks had talked to me and given me a little encouragement. I was anxious to learn, really but nobody seemed to want to take the time and patience to help me."

"Do you mean, Hilda, that you think I should stop and answer all of Jimmie's questions? Why, I shouldn't have time for anything else."

"Sure, I think so. The more you answer his questions the more he learns," and Mrs. Robins heard her add to herself a moment later, "Besides, I should think you'd like to get chummy with him like his father is."

"I have so much to do," the mother sighed to herself, "but I'm not sure but Hilda is right. Perhaps I've given too much time to clubs and outside work and not enough to Jimmie."

"Mother," a small voice interrupted her meditation, "could you come out in the garden for a minute? I want to show you something."

"Yes, dear, Mother will come!" And Mother and Jimmie hurried toward the garden, hand in hand.

"Gee," gleefully gloated Hilda, "I'm glad I had a chance to open her eyes!"

Perhaps there are more of us, mothers, who need our eyes opened. Let us take an inventory. Are we answering our children's questions in an intelligent, satisfying manner? Are we giving them as much time as they need? Are we taking an interest in their interests? Are we helping them to grow, mentally as well as physically? Are we developing a beautiful and lasting camaraderie between mother and child?

If not, then we are not one hundred per cent mothers.

Little Talks on Thrift

Thrift Practices

The newspapers recently have been giving considerable space to the outlines of various welfare and thrift plans made use of by business organizations for the benefit of their employes.

It is constantly becoming more apparent that one of the best ways to help others is to offer them practical encouragement in thrift practices. This idea is being carried out in various ways. Some organizations are helping their employes build and own their own homes; others are encouraging them in the ownership of stock in the organization where they are employed, and still others are carrying out plans by which employes are able to save a considerable sum of money as they go along.

It is an encouraging sign of the times that business interests are taking an increased interest in the personal progress of the members of their organizations.

To be happy and successful in business requires happiness and success in the home.

Thus business organizations which encourage thrift among their employes are in turn reaping the rewards of greater efficiency.

But this is not to be viewed from the standpoint of selfishness. While the company secures benefits from the thrift of its employe, the community, the nation and society in general are likewise benefitted. The establishment of a thrifty family in a community is always an added force to the progress of that community.

It is to be hoped that, with the development of the new year, a growing number of business organizations will see the wisdom and value of encouraging thrift among their employes.

If this could become a generally accepted practice throughout the business world, it would make 1926 the greatest year for progress in the history of our country.—American Society for Thrift.

Through the generosity of Abram Speike, Stamford, Conn., found some amelioration in its parking problem. For a rental of $1 a year he will allow his property, almost in the center of the city, to be used as a parking space. Almost 500 cars can be accommodated.

NO MORE SHINY NOSES

A new French process powder that is not affected by perspiration—will not let an ugly shine come through; stays on until you take it off; fine and pure; makes the pores invisible; looks like beautiful natural skin; gives a soft velvety complexion. Get this new wonderful beauty powder called Mello-glo. At all toilet goods counters.

MOTHER!

Child's Harmless Laxative is "California Fig Syrup"

Hurry Mother! A teaspoonful of "California Fig Syrup" now will thoroughly clean the little bowels and in a few hours you have a well playful child again. Even if cross, feverish, bilious, constipated or full of cold children love its pleasant taste.

Tell your druggist you want only the genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother, you must say "California." Refuse any imitation.

STOMACH UPSET GAS, HEARTBURN INDIGESTION!!!

Chew a few Pleasant Tablets, Instant Stomach Relief!

If you feel full, sick or uncomfortable after eating, here is harmless stomach relief. "Pape's Diapepsin" settles the stomach and corrects digestion the moment it reaches the stomach.

This guaranteed stomach corrective costs but a few cents at any drug store. Keep it handy!

THE 49th ANNUAL MEETING OF

THE UNITED WORKERS

Will be held in Park Church Parish House on Tuesday Afternoon, January 26th, at 3 o'clock.

Everyone is cordially urged to attend as this meeting is of interest to the community.

IN 52ND YEAR AS NIANTIC STATION AGENT

Since July 1, 1874, Charles Leonard has been station agent at Niantic, for the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, a period so long that, so far as he knows, there is no one in the active services of the company today who was working for them when he started at Niantic. He came to the place a total stranger, then 23 years old having been born in Boston, May 26, 1852. He was married in Niantic in 1875 and his children were born there, his love for the quiet village so beautifully situated on the bay has caused him to relinquish chances of promotion in the company which he has served so long. The patrons of the road have fully appreciated his services, efficiently and graciously administered. His uniform courtesy, his earnest desire to be obliging and useful to the public in every way, his strict attention to the duties of his office, have characterized his long tenure in official capacity.

From a small hamlet Mr. Leonard has seen Niantic grow to a large village. When he came Main street contained about 15 houses, Pennsylvania avenue and the Pattaganasett road had but few dwellings and the cross streets had not been developed.

On May 26, 1876, Mr. Leonard was united in marriage to Miss Belle Wheeler of Niantic. They celebrated their golden wedding May 26, 1925. They have two daughters who reside in Norwich, one is the wife of Hibbard R. Norman and the other is Mrs. Frank W. Clapp. A son, Dr. William W. Leonard, also lives in Norwich. Another son, Charles, died several years ago having graduated from Yale and from the Philadelphia Medical college and was serving a year in hospital work when he was stricken with a fatal illness.

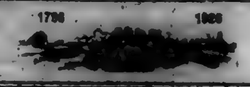
TWELVE ARRESTED IN RAID MADE AT OCCUM

Four state policemen arrested Timothy Riley, 20, about noon Sunday as proprietor of an alleged gambling place at Occum and took in eleven men who were found in the place. All the men were booked at Norwich police headquarters where bail was given for them, $100 for the alleged proprietor and $25 for each of the alleged frequenters. Those charged with being frequenters gave their names as follows: Henry Parr, Leo Grabusky, William LePage, Victor Dugas, William Gorton, John Sylvia, William Lester, all of Versailles, William Evans, Eugene Baisville, Edward Florence, of Occum, and Washington LePage, of Taftville.

The officers making the raid were Caron Watson, Kulouski and Sisson.

CUT THIS OUT—IT IS WORTH MONEY

Send this ad and ten cents to Foley & Co., 2835 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive a ten cent bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for coughs, colds and hoarseness, also free sample packages of Foley Pills, a diuretic stimulant for the kidneys, and Foley Cathartic Tablets for Constipation and Biliousness. These wonderful remedies have helped millions of people. Try them! Lee & Osgood Co Jan26d



Norwich, Monday, January 25, 1926

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 5:34 this evening.

The length of the day has now reached nine and three-quarter hours.

The three act comedy, A Street Boy's Honor, is to be presented by Mocsup Boy Scouts.

Today, Jan. 25th, the Episcopal churches will note the feast of the conversion of St. Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Barber of Escoheag recently observed the 65th anniversary of their wedding.

The carding and spinning rooms of the Pawcatuck Woolen Mills at Potter Hill are running overtime.

During the afternoons, the sun gets high enough to help soften the ice on walks and roadways a little.

A Hampton correspondent mentions that Miss Bernice Donahue of Baltic was at her home there over the week end.

Joseph Cassidy, of Voluntown, who has been employed in Rockville, R. I., has moved his household belongings there.

The Shetucket river is well frozen over and except where the current is very swift, there is little sign of any free water.

Sunday afternoon Miss Maxie I. Stanton was in charge of the reading room of the Otis library. There were 74 visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Clyde Burdick of Bradford, R. I., were recent visitors with relatives and friends in Jordan Village, Waterford.

Samuel Morrow, recently in business in East Killingly, at the station, has given up business and returned to his home in New Jersey.

At the Home Time at the Community House Sunday evening, James L. Case gave an inspiring talk on "What's Doing in Norwich."

Saturday was a snug winter day, sending buyers to the stores for heavy apparel and making the condition of coal-bins a serious consideration.

Everett J. Potter, of Greene, R. I., who is driver of one of the new railroad busses, has been transferred to the route between Norwich and New London.

In the Catholic churches of the town Sunday prayers were asked for the repose of the soul of Cardinal Mercier, the Belgian hero-priest of the World war.

At Saybrook Point work has been resumed on the bulkhead at Fenwick.

About 20 busses and coaches a day now run through East Oneco from and to Providence.

Tuesday next the new officers of Brooklyn grange are to be installed by Worthy Assistant Steward of Connecticut State Grange, Charles M. Adams of Groton.

The Old Saybrook board of assessors notified all property holders by postal, the past week, of increased valuation of their property. Increases average from $1,000 to $3,000.

Sunday morning at the First Baptist church, the organist, Miss Dorothea C. Tucker gave Holloway's "Song Without Words" in a very pleasing manner.

Mrs. Elisabeth Mathewson and Miss Ruth Mathewson who are spending the winter with relatives in Norfolk, Mass., have been in Central Village at the home of George Loring the past week.

The 49th annual meeting of the United Workers Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock. Park church parish house. You are urged to attend.—adv.

There was much noise from the direction of Fishers Island at the week end and inquiry from Stonington revealed that blasting was being done on the big golf course under construction there.

There is to be a United States civil service examination for the position of radio electrician's helper in the United States Veterans' hospital, New York, at $1,440 a year.

Novelty patterns, including stripes, plaids and figured effects in mogadores, failles, moires, crepes and other weaves, have been favored in the brighter shades of men's neckwear, local dealers say.

Mrs. Phoebe Robinson of Moosup, who reached her 99th birthday January 15th, and her brother, Christopher Lyon with whom she makes her home had a birthday on the 5th of January, when he was 86.

Men of the state highway department have earned the thanks of motorists by their liberal sanding of the nearly continuous icy tracks through the northern part of this county and in Windham county towns.

The following directors of Central Village Fire company were elected at the annual meeting: John Greenhalgh, William Thompson, Stuart Ellsworth, Harry Dean, Clarence Reid, Lewis King and Amedie Bourque.

At Haddam Neck cards have been received announcing the wedding of Miss Mildred MacVeagh and Jerome Alfred Cahn, Jan. 13, in Brooklyn, N Y. Miss MacVeagh with her parents has spent the summer at Haddam Neck each year.

Worsted mills report that blues, greens and grays are strongly competing with the bois de rose shades. The important blues include powder, periwinkle, porcelain, Chinese, royal and navy. Chartreuse, Lanvin and mint greens lead.

The offertory which made such a favorable impression at the morning service of the Central Baptist church Sunday was Dudley Buck's "The Lord in My Light," sung in fine harmony by Mrs. William Crowe, Jr., and Fred J. Maples, Miss Fuller accompanying.

STRUCK BY TROLLEY AT MARKET ST. CORNER

A new Ford touring car driven by Walter Zyarski of Montville was struck and badly damaged by a trolley car at the corner of Main and Market streets Sunday evening as Zyarski was driving his machine out of Market street to make the turn up the Main street hill.

The trolley, which was the 9.45 trip due in Franklin square, was coming down the hill slowly at the time and Motorman Harold Moran brought the car to a stop within two feet, it was reported, after hitting the automobile.

Mrs. Zyarski and her son William suffered cuts and bruises and were taken to the Backus hospital in another machine by Joseph Collins. Others in the Zyarski machine were Mr. and Mrs. William Kachuk.

REPORTS ARE FAVORABLE FROM MISS DOROTHY PRENTICE

Sunday evening very encouraging reports came from Miss Dorothy Prentice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Prentice, of 121 Washington street. Sunday was the third day after the operation for a serious attack of appendicitis which Miss Prentice had undergone at Backus hospital, her condition being considered very favorable.

PERSONALS

Victory Comstock has returned to Hadlyme from a visit with friends in Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hubert Griswold of Old Lyme are in New York attending the Motor Boat show.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. M. H. May of St. Patrick's church is registered at Pancoast hotel, Miami Beach, Florida.

Rev. A. F. Parker, chaplain at the Submarine Base read the morning service at Grace Episcopal church, Yantic, Sunday at 10:30.

Mrs. Walter S. Garde and daughter, Marjorie, of Neptune Park have left for Palm Beach and Miami, where they expect to spend the next four weeks.

Mrs. Charles Rogers of Fitchville, who fell on Christmas morning and broke her hip, is still confined to bed but is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Percival C. Woodruff of New London have returned from Grand Rapids, Mich. They were called there by the death of Mrs. Woodruff's father, Alfred H. Apted.

Miss Clarissa Lord, of Hebron, was among Connecticut College students, a party of 25, visiting Providence during the week, to inspect the Ladd observatory at Brown University.

Rev. William A. Keefe, of Greeneville left Sunday evening with Rev. Richard P. Morrissey, of Plainfield for several weeks' vacation, which will be spent in Florida and at the Bahamas.

Grand Master Alfred Lillie of Hartford and Grand Secretary William S. Hutchison of New Haven, officers of the grand lodge of Odd Fellows, are expected to visit Fairview lodge, No. 101, I. O. O. F., Groton, tonight (Monday).

FUNERALS

Mrs. Daniel Shields.

From her late home, No. 56 Cliff street, the funeral of Mrs. Daniel Shields was held Saturday morning at 8:20 o'clock with a solemn high requiem mass in St. Mary's Memorial church at 9 o'clock. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends and there were many beautiful floral tributes. Rev. Frederick M. Coholan was celebrant of the mass, Rev. Myles P. Galvin deacon and Rev. William A. Keefe sub-deacon. Mrs. William A. Murphy presided at the organ and as the offertory hymn, Edward T. Connelly sang Pie Jesu. As a waiting hymn Mr. Connelly sang When Evening Comes and at the recessional, Lead Kindly Light.

Burial took place at St. Mary's cemetery where Rev. William A. Keefe and Rev. Fr. Galvin conducted a service. The bearers were William Murphy of New London, James Murphy, Jr., of New Haven, Patrick Smith, Hartford, Thomas J. Mara, James C. Mara and Timothy Gallivan of this city. Relatives and friends from New Haven, Hartford, New London and other cities were among those present at the funeral Hourigan Bros. had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Friday evening, a large delegation from the Rosary society of St. Patrick's church, Miss Annie G. Stanton, president, met at the home of Mrs. Shields, to offer prayers for the repose of her soul, and to express sympathy for the members of her family in their great bereavement.

Irene Trantalys

The funeral of Irene Trantalys, six months old, was held Saturday from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Trantalys, No. 54 Central avenue and burial took place in Maplewood cemetery. Rev. Sisyrtotis Tantelelimon, pastor of the Greek church, conducted the service. Undertakers Cummings and Ring had charge of the funeral arrangements.

The child died Friday after an illnes with measles. She is survived by her parents and eight brothers and sisters.

Cecelia Mary Glacken

At 2 o'clock Friday afternoon the funeral of Cecelia Mary Glacken, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Glacken, was held from the home of her parents, No. 41 Golden street. Relatives and friends from Philadelphia and Byberry, Penn., were among those present. There were a number of floral tributes, including a wreath from L. M. Hartson employees. Rev. William A. Keefe officiated at the funeral service and the body was placed in the receiving vault at St. Mary's cemetery. Undertakers Cummings and Ring had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Bessie Koslowsky

Funeral services for Mrs. Bessie Koslowsky, formerly of Norwich, who died Saturday morning in Hartford, were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of her brother, Israel Hankin, on Fairmont street. Burial was in the Norwich Benevolent Association cemetery, Brewster's Neck.

Samuel DeGenaro

The funeral of Samuel DeGenaro was held Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock from the rooms of Undertakers Cummings and Ring, with a large attendance of relatives and friends, including a delegation from the United Italian society. At 9 o'clock there was a requiem mass at St. Patrick's church with Rev. John Reilly officiating. Henry J. LaFontaine presided at the organ and Roderick Sullivan sang Pie Jesu at the offertory and Lead Kindly Light as the waiting hymn.

Members of the United Italian society acted as bearers and burial took place at St. Mary's cemetery. Rev. Myles P. Galvin conducted a service at the grave. There were many beautiful floral tributes.

NEIGHBORING COMMUNITIES HELPED IN BUNDLE DAY

Perhaps enough credit has not been given to the workers in the nine localities near Norwich for their help last Friday in making "Bundle Day" for the Near East Relief the best ever carried through in this state as to general good quality of clothing contributed and second only to one other city in quantity, which amounted to about 13 tons. Among the most valuable donations was the gift of two dozen quilts from the Fitchville mill. Several truck loads of clothing remain to be packed and forwarded and this will be undertaken today (Monday) by the Scouts who have already done much hard work in this connection. In Fitchville Mrs. Frank Palmer was in charge of the clothing collection, in Lottingwell Miss Alice Bishop, in Taftville, Mrs. Edwin G. Crowdis, in Baltic, Mrs. Charles Barnes, in Jewett City Mrs. Walter Richardson, in Hanover Mrs. William G. Park, in Preston City, Mrs. George V. Shedd, in Preston, Mrs. Appleton Main and in Gales Ferry Mrs. Walter M. Buckingham.

In the public and parochial schools of these towns the teachers directed the efforts of the pupils, who did good service of many sorts. Transportation of the clothing bags from the mill villages was afforded through the courtesy of the owners and agents.

Sunday Morning Gale.

Early Sunday morning the wind blew a gale, slamming shutters, blowing down sidewalk signs and threatening to do serious damage. By breakfast time, however, the wind had subdued. The day proved cold but pleasant.

FINDS MENTAL CONFUSION FROM HEAT BROUGHT ON MAN'S DEATH

An award of workmen's compensation has just been made by Commissioner J. J. Donohue in a Middletown case which presents some unusual features. The commissioner finds that the widow of Julius C. Dumeer, who was a fireman employed by the Middletown Gas Light company, is entitled to workmen's compensation, because her husband, who was drowned in the Connecticut river, met his death from causes that are traceable to his employment.

Dumeer left his home on the morning of June 4, 1925 to go to his work. He did not reach there, but on June 7 his dead body was found in the Connecticut river.

The possibilities of murder or criminal act were eliminated by the investigations of the corpner and medical examiner and the question to be determined by Commissioner Donohue was whether Dumeer's death could be attributed to suicide, and if so, whether it could be traced to his employment or whether it resulted from causes wholly disassociated from his work.

It was found by the commissioner that there was nothing in the life of Dumeer, who was 63, outside of his employment which would occasion any cause for his committing suicide. It was further found that on June 3rd, which was one of the hottest days in the summer, Dumeer shoveled about 2,000 pounds of coal into the boilers and worked about two hours inside a boiler cleaning it out. When Dumeer's son took him home in an automobile, the man was in an exhausted condition, and had to have assistance in removing his clothing which was soaking wet with perspiration, and complained that it was the hardest and hottest day he ever worked.

All these facts were sufficient according to the expert medical testimony introduced, to cause a state of mental aberration or confusion which would account for Dumeer continuing in a straight line and falling into the river, instead of making the usual turn and the proper turn at the corner of Pleasant and South Main streets to arrive at his place of employment. In connection with the case it was found that the work he was doing was too heavy for him and he had been offered lighter employment. In the opinion of the medical experts the mental confusion was probably coming on for several days and was attributal to the heat and the conditions under which Dumeer had been working.

The man suffered from brain oedema caused by heat exhaustion and his heavy work. It is probable that death was due to either accident or suicide. His mental confusion produced a lack of ability to appreciate properly the character or consequences of his act, and it is found by the commissioner that his death was due to causes traceable to his employment and compensation is therefore awarded.

A claim made by the respondent insurer in disputing the claim was that it is the rule that employes who have definite limits of employment are not regarded as in the course of their employment while going to and from work while upon the public highways. In reply to this the commissioner's finding states that it is not claimed that Dumeer met his death as a result of any accident while going to or from his work upon the highway, but he did meet his death as a result of the conditions which were brought about by his employment. "Dumeer might have been found anywhere because of his mental confusion attributable to his employment. He might have met his death in many ways, if we were to delve into that feature of the case, but we simply have to deal with the actual facts as they are presented to us."

In disputing the claim the respondent insurer also raised the point that the compensation commissioner had no jurisdiction of the case because it was within the admiralty and maritime jurisdiction of the United States since Dumeer's body was found in the Connecticut river, navigable water.

In his finding Commissioner Donohue overrules this claim, stating that the case is purely one concerning the contract of employment between Dumeer and the Middletown Gas Light company and the fact that he was drowned in a navigable stream does not change the terms of the contract nor change the tribunal to which defendant should go for redress. The contract of employment was in no way related to a contract connected with commerce or navigation upon the high seas or in navigable waters of the United States. His death did not arise from causes connected with maritime employment. In this case there was neither maritime work being done neither was there a maritime contract.

The compensation award to the widow, Mrs. Louise A. Dumeer, 47 Hunting Hill avenue, Middletown, is for $12.50 a week for 312 weeks, accrued payments from June 4 to be made in a lump sum, and for the usual $100 towards funeral expenses.

INSTALLATION PERFORMED BY OFFICER FROM WOONSOCKET

Lafayette concil, No. 807, L'Union St. Jean Baptiste, had its officers installed Sunday afternoon at Pulaski hall with ceremonies that were the most elaborate in the history of the council. The exercises were carried out with due impressiveness under the arrangements that had been made by the committee in charge.

The afternoon opened with an overture by the orchestra consisting of Edgar Caron, violinist and director; Mr. Egan, piano; Mr. Dion, saxophone; Mr. Hendrick, cornet; William O'Brien, banjo and Mr. Budnick drums.

Arthur Roy of Willimantic accompanied by Miss Laramee, rendered the solo Mon Reve in excellent voice and with interpretive ability and was followed by the violin solo, La Berceuse from Joclyn by Edgar Caron, accompanied by Miss Blanche Lafleur. Mrs. O. Bessette was heard in the finely rendered soprano solo Celebrons Le Seigneur.

The installing officer and the speaker of the afternoon was Lucien Sansouci, an attorney and an editor of Woonsocket, who had as aides Pierre Laramee of Willimantic, Arthur Cote and Philippe Cardin, of Baltic. As master of ceremonies, Frank Rochette assisted by Mary Savard, escorted the officers to their places in fine form.

Mr. Sansouci made an eloquent address, speaking for about an hour, and seldom has it been the pleasure of the council to listen to such an able orator. Remarks by Rev. F. X. DesSureault were heard with great acceptance by the council and J. C. Marsan addressed the meeting in an interesting way.

The officers installed were the following:

President, J. E. Rochette; vice president, D. Dufresne; treasurer, P. H. Ethier; financial secretary, Leodore Gladue; recording secretary, Eugene Sabourin; assistant recording secretary, J. B. Caron; inner-guard, Adelard Ravenelle; master of ceremonies, Alfred Leblanc; honorary president, H. P. Beausoliel; deacon, O. Bessette; first sentinel, O. Dugas; second sentinel, P. Miciette.

JAIL SENTENCE SUSPENDED FOR MOTHER OF INFANT

Mrs. Victoria Kusak, 32, mother of half a dozen children, the youngest two months old, was fined $200 and costs and given a sentence of 10 days in jail on a liquor law violation charge by Judge Arthur F. Libby in the city court Saturday morning. She did not have to go to jail however, as the jail sentence was suspended later in the court session. Mrs. Kusak was arrested Friday night by the local police at her home on Yantic street.

In court Saturday morning, her attorney, Thomas M. Shields, entered a demurrer to the complaint, which was overruled. The fine and jail sentenes were then imposed by Judge Libby. Attorney Shields then brought to the attention of the court the fact that the woman is nursing a two months old child and that the child would have to go to jail with her. He stated that if the child and mother were kept apart it would be a hardship on both.

Judge Libby communicated with Dr. John W. Callahan who was the attending physician at the time of the birth and was informed that the child was being nursed by the mother and needed her. Judge Libby then suspended the jail sentence and the woman paid the fine.

A Jewett City man paid $5 and costs on an intoxication charge.

In the Kusak liquor case it was Walter Kubat whob rought about her arrest and conviction. He told the police that he had bought liquor from her and could do it again. Kubat, who is about 15, purchased some liquor for the police and the arrest followed.

Small Chimney Fire

Sunday evening at 8:15 o'clock the fire department responded to a telephone call for a chimney blaze at the residence of Flint Brayton, No. 26 Lincoln avenue. A fire had been kindled in the fire place and soot in the chimney took fire. There was no damage. Engine No. 3 and Squad A responded to the call.

Short Circuit Causes Fire

Saturday morning at 11:27 o'clock a telephone call was received by the fire department for a small fire at the Pall's company's power station off Sherman street. A short circuit in the motors was the cause of the blaze which was quickly extinguished.

DAVID HALE FANNING PAID FINAL HONORS SATURDAY

Led by His Honor Mayor Michael J. O'Hara, citizens of Worcester Saturday united in paying signal honors as their final tribute to the long and beneficent life of David Hale Fanning, 95, a native of Jewett City. Funeral services were held at the First Unitarian church, Worcester, at 11 o'clock. This church is an imposing gray, brick edifice on Colonial lines which stands next to the city court house, on Lincoln square. Its auditory is large and ornately but chastely finished in white and soft tones of gray. Four massive Corinthian pillars of white against a background of cardinal red are at the rear of the desk, which is so high that when seated the clergymen who conducted the services were not visible. They were the pastor, Rev. Dr. Maxwell Savage, and Rev. Dr. Charles Brown Elder, the former pastor of the church of the Unity of which church Mr. Fanning was a member before its merger with the present church. While the Unitarian ritual was followed, there were numerous and tender references to the ministry and consolation of the love of Jesus Christ, the entire service being one of great beauty. Each clergyman wore his silk robe.

The organ loft is at the rear of the auditory and while the assemblage was being seated the organist, Walter L. Magnuson played the Chopin Funeral March. The gathering included present and former employes, former business associates of Mr. Fanning, representatives of the Royal Worcester Corset Company throughout New England, from Chicago, New York, the middle west, delegations from other mercantile plants, from the Hahnemann hospital, Girls' Trade School, city departments, banking houses, and others.

In accord with the aged millionaire's known wishes and simple tastes the plain but rich casket was without even the customary floral pall, bearing only a great wreath of long-stemmed Spring violets and lilies-of-the-valley with maiden-hair fern, this from the family. But covering the pulpit platform and on standards right and left were magnificent tributes to the sleeping captain of industry, ascension lillies, hyacinths, orchids, American beauty roses, sweet peas, massed buds and blossoms, many of them ordered by cable to florists in Worcester, New York and Boston by friends and business representatives in foreign lands, as well as in distant American cities, coming with messages of affection and esteem and sympathy.

As Dr. Savage read the service, following his quotation of Bryant's "Thanatopsis" and its closing picture of the clean-hearted warrior, who, at sunset, gathers his cloak about him to lie down to pleasant dreams, the clergyman paused, while there was a most affecting interlude during which Mr. Magnuson played softly, "Abide With Me," with subdued obligato of the organ chimes. The service then went on, and later Dr. Elder paid his tribute as friend and pastor to the city's "Grand old man," who had taught the rising generation the worth of indomitable will, lofty ideals, honest living, generous giving, who had come to see the distant points of the earth and the islands of the sea bringing tribute to the great enterprise which he had founded.

The honorary bearers were his neighbor, President Wallace W. Atwood, of Clark University, Paul B. Morgan, William D. Lucy, Dr. Louis N. Wilson, George I. Rockwood and Edwin J. Seward.

Burial was in Rural cemetery, in the Fanning family plot, where a simple Scotch granite sarcophagus marks the resting place of Mr. Fanning's wife, his daughter and infant son. Here the service of committal was read by Dr. Elder, Dr. Maxwell pronouncing the benediction.

The model plant which Mr. Fanning founded over sixty years ago remained closed the entire day and officials and employes sat in a body during the church services. Among other sincere mourners were the colored clergymen of the city, who had often known Mr. Fanning's beneficence. Those nearest to him in his family life and who manifested deep grief included the two maids of his household, one in his employ twenty-four years, the other twelve. His funeral was as rare as his busy life had been, every person attending being present in genuine mourning; as the long line passed the uncovered casket where the kindly and gentle friend of humanity slept in eternal peace, many of his long-time employes were in tears.

The nearest relatives in attendance were Mr. Fanning's daughter and his grandchildren.

The remarkable mental strength which characterized the final years of his life was strikingly manifested in what proved his last words. As his devoted nurse expressed the hope that he was to have a night of good, restful sleep he called her back, and in the significant, whimsical tone which his friends all knew so well he declared that he had made a little rhyme which he must first repeat to her. Then in low but clear voice he summed up the philosophy of his exceptional career:

"Deny it if you can,
I die an honest man."

OBITUARY

John T. Clark

John T. Clark, 86, who for 64 years had made his home at the Wauregan hotel, died Sunday morning about 9 o'clock following an illness of about two weeks. Mr. Clark tripped and fell at the hotel fracturing his hip and was taken to the W. W. Backus hospital. He failed to show any improvement, gradually becoming worse, death coming about 9 o'clock Sunday morning. For several days past he had been unable to recognize his visitors. Mr. Clark was born at East Great Plain, Dec. 12, 1839, at the family homestead, which later became the home of John H. Ford.

Oct. 1, 1861, Mr. Clark first registered at the Wauregan hotel and with the exception of about a year when he resided on Broadway, Mr. Clark was a life long resident at the hotel. He undoubtedly held the world's record for long residence in one hotel.

It was as a clerk in Norris & Week's men's hat store, then located at No. 154 Main street that Mr. Clark secured his first job, the salary being $150 a year. Out of this amount he had to pay his hotel expenses. Within a few months he became the senior clerk and on the death of Mr. Nichols he became owner of the business.

JOHN T. CLARK

Mr. Clark learned the matter of financing when he took up his residence at the hotel and how well he learned may be judged from the fact that since 1893 he had lived a retired life. He enjoyed regular vacations to distant points in the country and had visited practically every state in the union to hunt and fish. Mr. Clark had the reputation of owning the finest horses in Norwich during his day. He took great pride in being a friend of President Lincoln and used to often speak of President Lincoln's visit to Norwich. Mr. Clark met President Lincoln several times in Washington and speaking of these visits Mr. Clark said President Lincoln's greeting to him always was "Here's Mr. Clark from the Rose of New England."

Mr. Clark made several trips to the Pacific coast and visited Yellowstone Park where he fished a great deal. He carried his years lightly and always took great interest in public matters. He was a staunch republican and was always a worker for the interests of his party.

About 34 years ago Mr. Clark was united in marriage with Miss Georgie Cottrell in this city. She died August 17, 192. Mr. Clark had no near relatives.

Mr. Clark was the oldest member of the Arcanum club in point of length of membership. He had a host of warm friends throughout the city and this part of the state and was highly respected by all with whom he was acquainted. The news of his death will occasion deep regret throughout the city in general.

Miss Jennie L. Spencer

Friends of Miss Jennie L. Spencer learned on Saturday with much sorrow of her death which occurred that morning at the Eliza Huntington Memorial home, No. 98 Washington street. Miss Spencer had been in her usual health up to Saturday morning when she was suddenly stricken.

Coming to Norwich in her girlhood, she had made her home in this city for the greater part of her life. For over forty years she was a teacher in the public schools of Norwich, the larger part of that time at Broadway school, retiring about seven years ago. She will be remembered with affection by a host of young people with whom she formed strong friendships in their school life. She was a member of the Central Baptist church and was intensely interested in the church activities and she leaves a large number of friends who deeply regret her sudden passing into the life beyond.

Mrs. Alphonse F. Fournier.

Aldea Lariviere, wife of Alphonse F. Fournier, died Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock at her home, 270 West Thames street, following an illness of three weeks. She was born in Canada on Oct. 10, 1881, and was the daughter of Joseph and Mary Grenier Lariviere. In Greenport, L. I., on December 12, 1910, she was united in marriage with Alphonse F. Fournier, and for the greater part of her life she was a resident of Moosup, but for the past four years she has made her home with her husband in Norwich. She was a member of St. Patrick's church.

Besides her husband she leaves two sons, Alphonse, Jr., and Rudolph Fournier and three daughters, Evelyn, Leona and Margaret Fournier, who live at home. She also is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Joseph Gagnon of Taftville, Mrs. Teodel Ethier of Norwich, Mrs. Eugene Belleau of Holyoke, and a brother, William Lariviere of Moosup.

William H. Barton

The death of William H. Barton, 71, of Occum occurred Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in this city. He was born in Millbury, Mass., June 23, 1854, but for a number of years made his home in Occum. Besides his wife, Cora Briggs, he is survived by three children, Louis and Isadore Barton of Occum and Howard Barton of Worcester, Mass. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. C. O. Smith of Woonsocket, R. I.

Andrew F. Kelly

Following an illness of about two weeks, Andrew F. Kelly, 77, died Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of his son, Charles Kelly, No. 36 Convent avenue. He was born in New York but most of his life had been spent in this city. He was a machinist by trade. Surviving Mr. Kelly are one son, Charles Kelly, and a grandson Donald Kelly.

For Academy Prize Speaking

The eight boys at the Academy who are to contest in the Perkins prize speaking have been chosen by Raymond Congdon as the result of the preliminary tryouts. They are Clarence Brewer, John Counihan, Harold Disco, Otis Fellows, Lawrence Gilman, Edwin Land, Ledlie Pitt and Raymond Woods.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

The Trefoil met Saturday afternoon with Miss Louise Robinson, of Sachem street.

The Red Star liner Lapland, on which Mrs. Charles Henry Osgood and Mrs. Tyler Marshall are passengers, on a Mediterranean trip, reached Madeira Friday.

Members of Faith Trumbull chapter, D. A. R., will send greetings and congratulations today, the 25th to a member of the chapter, Mrs. George A. Haskell, of Jewett City, on her birthday.

THE BURNING QUESTION IS ANSWERED!

Try our low Volatile Run of Mine Bituminous Coal for household purposes. You will be convinced that it is a satisfactory and economical substitute for Anthracite. We furnish instructions for burning it with every order.

SAFE HEAT

The Edward Chappell Company

Telephone 24.

Piles Disappear

No painful cutting or greasy salves now needed to cure piles in any form. Dr. Leonhardt's HEM-ROID frees the blood circulation in the lower bowel and removes the cause. It's brought quick and lasting relief to thousands—it must do the same for you or money refunded by Lee & Osgood Co. and druggists everywhere.

What Skinny Men Ought to Know

Gain Weight and Strength in 30 Days or Money Back

You probably know that Cod Liver Oil is the greatest flesh producer in the world.

Because it contains more Vitamines than any food you can get.

You'll be glad to know that Cod Liver Oil comes in sugar coated tablets now, so if you really want to put 10 to 20 pounds of real healthy flesh on your bones and feel well and strong—ask Lee & Osgood Co. or any druggist for a box of McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets.

Only 60 cents for 60 tablets and if you don't gain five pounds in 30 days your druggist is authorized to hand you back the money you paid for them.

It isn't anything unusual for a person to gain 10 pounds in 30 days.

"Get McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablet."

Colds Stopped in a day

Hill's does 4 things at once—and in the sooner you start, the quicker the cold will end. All druggists sell Hill's 24 hours. It stops the cold, opens the bowels, checks the fever and grippe tones the system. And without the ill effects of most treatments.

Hill's is the quickest, surest, most complete help known for colds.

A cold means a serious germ attack. Don't neglect it for an hour. Nobody knows where a cold may lead. Over 150,000 deaths yearly result from causes due to colds.

Don't take chances. Don't employ some inefficient help. Get the genuine. At all druggists.

Be Sure It's HILL'S CASCARA QUININE Price 50c

Get Red Box with portrait

Feel Glorious! Nicest Laxative, "Cascarets" 10c

Don't stay headachy, bilious, constipated, sick! One or two pleasant, candy-like "Cascarets" any time will gently stimulate your liver and start your bowels. Then you will both look and feel clean, sweet, refreshed; your head clear, stomach right, tongue pink and your skin rosy.

Because cheery, harmless "Cascarets" never grips, inconvenience or sicken, "Cascarets" has become the largest selling laxative in the world for men, women, children. Buy a box at any druggists.

AGGIES LOSE TO UNION COLLEGE IN GAME MARKED BY FAST PLAYING

(Special to The Bulletin.)

STORRS, Jan. 24—Playing against Union college at Schenectady, N. Y., last night, the Connecticut Aggie five lost its second game of the week by a 23-25 score. Connecticut's record in the four games played to date is two victories and two defeats.

Union got away to an early lead, and at half time was in front by a 13-7 score. Play grew fast and rough in the second half, many personal fouls being committed by both teams.

The game brought two brothers together as opponents, Captain William Makofski, Aggie center, and Sigmund Makofski, Union forward. Both tied for their evening's work in the number of points scored with a total of 11 each, though the Aggie captain led in the number of field goals, connecting for 5, as compared with 4 by his brother.

Schofield contributed some sensational playing for the Aggies, his cleverness in dribbling and passing outwitting the Union defense. He made two long shots from mid-court.

Allard and Bitgood, Eastern Connecticut's representatives on the Aggie five played their usual strong game at guard. The summary:

Union	G.	F.	Pts.
Ripton, rf	2	0	4
Makofski, lf	4	3	11
O'Neill, c	4	0	8
Fink, rg	1	3	5
Bednowitz, lg	3	0	6
	14	6	33

Connecticut Aggies	G.	F.	Pts.
Eddy, rf	1	2	4
Schofield, lf	3	1	5
Makoski, c	5	1	11
Bitgood, rg	0	0	0
Allard, lg	1	0	2
Watson, lf	0	3	3
	9	7	25

Score at half time: Union 13, Connecticut Aggies 7. Referee, Tilman; fouls committed, Union 5, Connecticut Aggies 9; time of halves, twenty minutes each.

MICHIGAN DOWN TO 3RD PLACE IN BIG TEN RACE

CHICAGO, Jan. 24—(AP)—Defeat of Michigan by Illinois and victories of Wisconsin and Ohio over Northwestern and Iowa, respectively, have put the Badgers and Buckeyes into the leadership of the western conference basketball race. Michigan leader at the start of the week, has been relegated to third position.

The rise of the Hoosier teams, Indiana and Purdue from second division places to a tie for runner-up position was a feature of a hectic week. Indiana took an advantage by downing Purdue, 37 to 34, after Purdue had beaten Chicago and Indiana had trounced Northwestern earlier in the week.

Ohio's 35 to 21 win over Iowa yesterday made it a party to the split with Wisconsin for first place. The Badgers took a 35 to 27 victory over Northwestern in whirlwind gnish, sending the Purple to the cellar position with no triumphs in four starts. Chicago and Illinois retained their standings in the fifty-fifty division when Chicago annexed a 19 to 14 win last night over the Illini and the Illini upset Michigan early in the week.

COLUMBIA HOLDS LEAD IN EASTERN BASKETBALL

NEW YORK, Jan. 24—(AP)—Columbia, with an undefeated team, leads the Eastern Intercollegiate Basketball league with three victories with Dartmouth second with two victories in three starts. Three teams, Princeton, Pennsylvania and Cornell are deadlocked in third place with Yale hopelessly at the bottom of the pack with defeats in all its four starts.

Captain Loeb of Princeton continues to lead the parade in the quest for individual scoring laurels with 12 field goals, 13 accurate tosses from the 15 foot marker for a total of 37 points.

The team and individual standing follows:

Team	w.	l.	pc.	pts. o.	pts.
Princeton	3	1	.500	94	100
Columbia	2	0	1.000	107	62
Dartmouth	2	1	.667	73	75
Pennsylvania	2	2	.500	97	91
Cornell	1	1	.500	49	51
Yale	0	4	.000	65	106

IDAHO FARMER WANTS TO FIGHT JIM CORBETT

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 24.—(AP)—W. J. Rankin, 73, a farmer of Nampa, Idaho, wants to fight Jim Corbett, former heavyweight champion of the world.

Rankin declared here today that Corbett had once issued a challenge that he would fight any man in the world 66 years of age when he himself reached that age. The former heavyweight pugilist will be 60 in September and Rankin says he is ready for him.

"I have known Jim Corbett for many years and I have sparred with him," said the Nampa man. "I don't say that I can beat him, but we ought to be able to put up a good boxing match as Corbett has taken good care of himself."

Although 14 years older than Corbett, Rankin is not worried. He is 6 feet 1 inch in height, and weighs 200 pounds but claims he can reduce to 180 pounds, "his fighting weight."

LOCAL "Y" TEAM LOSES TO U. S. COAST GUARDS

The local Y Seniors matched their skill against New London's best the Coast Guard Cadets, at New London Saturday night, when the Seniors were defeated by the score of 21 to 36.

Owing to the strict interpretation of the rules, it was plainly evident that the locals were unable to extend themselves, fully although both teams played hard and the Cadets, especially, demonstrated their ability as an unusually fast team.

The Y's were represented by Al Pidcault, Al Crebe, Rolland Harris, A. Brauman, Milton Adnopoz, David Blinderman, Niel Finlayson, and Ben Bunnick.

The Cadets are scheduled to play a return match on the Norwich floor, Monday, February 1st, providing suitable arrangements can be made in regard to officials that will be satisfactory to both teams.

BELMONT STAKES OF 1923 ATTRACT WORLD WIDE NOTICE

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—(AP) — The Belmont futurity stakes of 1923 not only will offer the richest turf prize of all time with its estimated value of $130,000 but it has attracted an international entry of unprecedented proportions in this country.

Noted breeders of England, Ireland, Canada, France, Venezuela and Argentine, as well as all of the best known horsemen of the United States, have filed nominations for the historic two-year old classic two years hence, according to Victor E. Schaumburg, secretary of the Westchester Racing association. Receipt of the last of these foreign entries, he announced today, has increased the total to 1,952, a record which eclipses the high mark established last year, when 1,707 entries were filed for the 1927 race.

British breeders in the list include the Earl of Carnarvon and Basil Jarvis, who brought the English Derby winner, Papyrus, here in 1923 to race Zev in the $100,000 international special at Belmont park. Pierre Wertheimer, whose Epinard carried France's colors here in 1924, has filed fourteen nominations.

In money value the futurity has grown from a stake of $40,900 in 1888, when it first was run at Coney Island to its prospective mark of $130,000 in 1926. The previous record, however, was set in 1890 when the race was worth $67,675. Last year, it had a value of $64,229.

MATCH BETWEEN MISS WILLS AND MLLE. VLASTO POSTPONED

Cannes, France, Jan. 24.—(AP)—Rain and cold wind spoiled the hopes of a horde of enthusiasts who had gathered at the Metropole hotel courts today to see the final contests in the Metropole tennis tournament. The feature, of course, was to have been the struggle for supremacy between Miss Helen Wills and Mlle. Vlasto, whom the American champion defeated in straight sets in the Olympic finals in 1924.

The match had to be postponed until tomorrow, much to the disappointment of Miss Wills, who wants every possible days practice before meeting Suzanne Lenglen, the French champion early in February.

The California girl came through to the finals in the tournament without the loss of a single set in her four matches, scoring 48 games to her opponents 15 and 253 points to her opponents 155. She was not once taken into extra games in any set. She defeated Mrs. Green 6-0, 6-0; Mrs. Sanders 6-2, 6-1; and Mrs. Aeschlimann 6-2, 6-2, and Mlle. Contostavor 6-4, 6-4.

ST BERNARD WINS FEATURE STEEPLECHASE AT NICE

NICE, France, Jan. 24.—(AP) — The running of the Grand Prix De Nice, a steeplechase over two miles and a half worth 150,000 francs, took place today. The winner was St. Bernard, a six-year-old owned by Arthur Vell-Picard. He was at odds of 5 to 2.

Solid footwear was needed to protect the dainty feet of women spectators, on the cold and rainy day, which transformed the paddock and lawns into a kind of swamp, and reptile skins for women's shoes—crocodile, alligator, lizard and snake pelts—were much in evidence. The fashionable attire of the women was hidden under great fur or leather coats, the attendance resembling more a gathering of people to watch winter sports at Chamonix or St. Meritz than racing on the Riviera.

AGGIE GIRLS BEAT WILLIAMS MEMORIAL FIVE

(Special to The Bulletin.)

STORRS, Jan. 24—The Connecticut Aggie Co-ed basketball team broke into the victory column here Saturday afternoon at the expense of Williams Memorial Institute from New London, winning easily by a 17-11 score. It was first home game of the season for the Aggie girls.

The only casualty in connection with the contest came in the first half, when Dorothy Tonkin '29, of Ansonia, sprained her ankle while leading cheers, which necessitated her removal to the college infirmary. The summary:

Golf Match Postponed.

DALLAS, Texas, Jan. 24.—(AP)—Play in the final thirty-six holes of the Dallas open golf tournament was postponed today because of bad weather. A light snow covered the links most of the day.

British Football Results

LONDON, Jan. 23.—(AP)—Results of league soccer football games today follow:

ENGLISH LEAGUE

First Division

Bury, 5; Birmingham, 2.
Bolton Wanderers, 2; Notts County, 1.
Burnley, 2; West Ham United, 2.
Huddersfield Town, 3; Cardiff City, 1.
Leeds United, 1; Leicester City, 0.
Liverpool, 3; Arsenal, 0.
Manchester City, 6; Manchester United, 1.
Newcastle United, 2; Aston Villa, 2.
Sheffield United, 4; Sunderland, 1.
Tottenham Hotspur, 1; Everton, 1.
West Bromwich Albion, 1; Blackburn Rovers, 1.

Second Division

Chelsea 3, Barnsley 2.
Bradford City 2, Darlington 0.
Derby County 5, Blackpool 2.
Fulham 2, Oldham Athletics 1
Swansea Town 2, Middlesboourgh 0.
Southampton 2, Nottingham Forest 1.
Portsmouth 3, Wolverhampton 0.
Port Vale 3, Hull City 1.
The Wednesday 3, Preston North End 0.
South Shields 5, Stoke City 1.
Stockport County 3, Clapton Orient 1.

TODAY'S SPORTS

RACING

Meeting of Louisiana Jockey club, at New Orleans.
Meeting of Miami Jockey Club, at Miami, Fla.
Meeting of Tia Juana Jockey Club, at Tia Juana.
Meeting of Havana-American Jockey Club, at Havana.

GOLF

Annual Lake Worth tournament opens at Palm Beach, Fla.
Women's January tournament opens at Bellair, Fla.

FOOTBALL

Annual meeting of National Football League, at Detroit.

YACHTING

International Star Class races begin at Havana.

FIELD TRIALS

National Field Trial Club trials at Union Springs, Ala.

BOXING

Jimmy Goodrich vs. Solly Seaman, 10 rounds, at Milwaukee.
Bobby Garcia vs. Babe Herman, 10 rounds, at Philadelphia.
Joey Ross vs. Willie Davies, 10 rounds, at Philadelphia.

AT THE ARCANUM CLUB

Arcanum

Browne	94	89	113	296
Pierson	89	96	91	276
Anderson	109	147	103	359
Crowe	87	—	—	87
Sturtevant	94	106	92	292
Phillips	83	96	89	267
Durnan	—	106	116	222
	563	629	605	1789

Duwell Club

Woodmansee	113	128	102	343
Williamsen	88	87	86	261
W. Pedace	113	92	106	310
Boyens	89	112	107	308
Barber	89	77	84	250
D. Pedace	92	94	105	291
	582	590	591	1763

B. D. A. TEAM STILL HOLDS LEAD IN PAWCATUCK VALLEY

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WESTERLY, Jan. 24.—Battery E was again defeated in the state armory on Dixon street, Saturday night, when they were taken into camp by the Westerly Sanitary Corps, by the score of 51 to 28. The first half of the game was rather close, but in the second half the Sanitary Corps forged ahead, when Left Forward Blake with six field goals, in addition to one caged by him after fast pass work, led his teammates. Capt. Bamford also had seven field goals, while R. Mitchell was given credit for an excellent jump shot at the first of the game.

Right Forward Lamb for the Battery also had seven field goals and Left Forward Maxwell received a fine hand for his long distance clean shot.

Score by quarters:

Sanitary Corps	9	8	13	21—51
Battery E	7	7	6	8—28

In Stonington on Friday night St. Michael's five were defeated in Arion hall by the Stonington A. V. A. A. basketball players by the score of 23 to 11.

The standing of the Pawcatuck Valley Basketball League including Saturday evening's game in the state armory, Dixon street, Westerly, is as follows:

	W.	L.	Pct.
B. D. A.	3	0	1.000
Westerly Sanitary C.	2	0	1.000
Stonington A. V. A. A.	2	2	.500
St. Michael's Legion	1	1	.500
Delta Club	1	2	.333
Battery E	0	4	.000

Basketball games in Westerly and vicinity the coming week will be:

Wednesday—At Champlin hall, Westerly, Sanitary Corps vs. St. Michael's.

Friday—At Arion hall, Stonington, Stonington A. V. A. A. vs. Battery E of Westerly.

On Saturday night next at the Rhode Island State Armory on Dixon street, the Plainfield Speed Boys will be the opponents of the Battery E. players

AGGIES TO PLAY HARVARD AND SPRINGFIELD THIS WEEK

(Special to The Bulletin.)

STORRS, Jan. 24—Two strong basketball teams will be met by the Connecticut Aggies this week, when Springfield will be played at Storrs Wednesday night, and Harvard at Cambridge Saturday night. Following the Harvard contest, Connecticut will play no more games until after the mid-year examination period, meeting Trinity at Storrs Feb. 9 in the first of the second semester games.

COLLEGE RESULTS

Basketball

Penn 32, Army 31.
Duquesne 35, Navy 33.
Cornell 25, Princeton 18.
Colgate 25, Brown 24.
Ohio State 25, Iowa 21.
Stevens 29, Muhlenberg 24.
Bordentown M. A. 26, Pingry 9.
Savage 37, Arnold 33.
Savage Girls 33, Arnold Girls 24.
Yale Freshman 35, Union City H. S. 31.
Choate 13, Yale Jr. Varsity 12.
Princeton Freshmen 40, Hill 26.
Lawrenceville 29, Poly Prep 21.
Clinton 40, Pawling 24.
N. Y. M. A., 50, Geo. Washington 25
St. Paul's 32, Adelphi 15.
Xavier 29, De La Salle 21.
McBurney 33, Ethical Culture 20.
Manlius 53, Newark H. S. 21.
Bloomfield Theo., 34, Pennington 28.
Collegiate 28, Hackley 13.
Manhattan Freshmen 13, Trinity 8.
Stevens Jr. Varsity 22, Stevens Prep 12.
Commerce 26, C. C. N. Y. Freshman 18.
Fordham Freshman 33, Regis H. S. 20.

Hockey

Boston College 7, Army 3.
New Utrecht 6, Erasmus 0.
Stuyvesant 0, Boys 0.
Newton H. S. 7, Yale Freshmen 0.
Kent 2, Berkshire 0.
Lawrenceville 3, Jamaica 2.
Hackley 3, Riverdale 2.
Boston University, 1, Cornell 0.

Swimming

Penn 41, Army 31.
Yale 46, Brown 16.
Mercersburg, 51, Baltimore City College 11.

Wrestling

Brown 15, Penn 11.
Army 21, Yale 8.
Penn State 26, Alfred 5.

Polo

Yale 22, Essex Troop 5 1-2.
Army 18, Governor's Island 3.

Fencing

J. Sanford Saltus Club 10, Army 7.

A Challenge For Nutmegs.

The Majestic basketball team of Westerly again issues its challenge to the Nutmegs, for they have heard nothing of their previous one. In fact, they go so far as to say if they are not afraid of their aggregation, let the Majestics manager know some date when a game can be arranged. George Winterbottom, manager, Majestics, 29 Prospect street, Pawcatuck, post office, Westerly, R. I.

TUNNEY HAS TAKEN PLACE OF WILLS AS CONTENDER FOR DEMPSEY'S CROWN

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—(AP)—Gathering signs that Jack Dempsey will return to the ring next summer after a three-year period of inactivity and defend his title against the soldier-boxer, Gene Tunney, are linked with the apparent shelving of Harry Wills as an opponent for the champion this year, if not for all time.

This is the view of the fistic fraternity which has analyzed the past week's conflicting developments in the heavyweight situation and which apparently is convinced that Tunney and Dempsey will clash next summer, probably in September, somewhere in the metropolitan district before another million-dollar "gate."

This belief is held in spite of the indignation of the state athletic commission over even the suggestion that Tex Rickard is negotiating for a Tunney-Dempsey match instead of giving the first title chance to Wills, the patient ex-stevedore who has been shuffled about in the pugilistic deck for five years in his efforts to get into the ring with the champion.

The commission is insistent that Rickard, since his business interests center here and since Dempsey is now in its ineligible list cannot consider staging a championship match in his Jersey City arena, Boyle's Thirty Acres without incurring official displeasure and possibly discipline, but the promoter equally as firmly, has asserted his right to operate where he pleases without interference.

In the minds of not a few observers, the whole situation simmers down to a case of politics with New York and New Jersey officials equally desirous of gaining the first heavyweight "plum" in three years, with its consequent financial return to the state. Rickard's apparent move to hold the bout in Jersey is construed to be one of the preliminary gestures in a well-laid plan which eventually will find the match signed and delivered to Manhattan, probably at the Yankee Stadium.

So far as Wills is concerned, the same "insiders" hold, political considerations also have combined to prevent the possibility of a mixed championship match being staged in either state, in spite of Wills' recognized claims to a bout with Dempsey unwillingly or not, it is pointed out, Wills damaged his own case when he refused to accept last August Rickard's offer of $150,000 for an elimination test with Tunney.

As a result of this strategic move, the "build-up" of Tunney as a "logical contender" seems well rounded out to those who have followed the rise of the ex-marine to heavyweight prominence within the past year. Lacking qualities of aggressiveness as a fight heavyweight champion, Tunney has stepped into full-fledged heavyweight ranks and fought himself steadily upward, his main accomplishments being knockouts over Tom Gibbons and Bartley Madden, neither of whom previously had taken the count of "ten."

Scottish Football Results

GLASGOW, Scotland, Jan. 23.—(AP)—The first round of the Scottish Football Association cup competition played today, resulted as follows:

St. Johnstone 4, Nairn County 1.
People's Rovers 7, bona s.
Alloa Athletic 1, Royal Albert 0.
Arbroath 8, Berwick Rangers 0.
Hamilton Acads 2, Cowdenbeath 2.
Celtic 5, Kilmarnock 0.
Bo'ness 2, Dunfermline 0.
Hibernians 1, Broxburn 1.
Bathgate 5, East Stirling 4.
Queen's Park 4, Clydebank 2.
Dumbarton 1, Buckie 1.
Third Lanark 7, Moor Park 0.
Solway Ewar 3; Johnstone 2.
Partick Thistle 3, Motherwell 0.
Aberdeen 3, St. Bernard's 1.
Albion Rovers 6, Nithsdale 11.
Leith 2, Civil Service Strollers 0.
Rangers 3, Lochgelly United 0.
Dundee United 1, Heart of Midlothian 1.
King's Park 5, Peterhead 3.
Montrose 4, Clachnacuddin 0.
Forfar 4, Douglas Wonderers 1.
Stenhouse Muir 1, Vale of Leven 1.
Queen of South 0, Airdrieonians 0.
Brechin 12, Thornhill 1.
Raith Rovers 3, Ayr United 1.
Arthurlie 5, Armandale 4.
Falkirk 10, Breadalbane 0.
St. Mirren 4, Midd Annandale 0.

Golf Cup Site Named.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24—(AP)—Manhasset Bay, on the north shore of Long Island, again will be the scene of the gold cup regatta, August 21 and 22, the American Power Boat Association Racing commission announced today.

American League Soccer

At Tiverton, R. I.: Fall River, 3; J. and P. Coats, 0.
Providence, R. I.—Providence 3, Boston 1.

American Basketball League.

At Washington — Washington 26, Ch[illegible] 16.

Hockey Results.

At Fitchburg, Mass.—Nashua 2, Fitchburg 0.

SPORT WORLD BRIEFS

Walter Leverenz, veteran left-handed pitcher, has been sold to the Buffalo Club of the International League, by the Portland Club. He has been in the Pacific Coast League for a number of years, playing with Los Angeles and Salt Lake before joining Portland. Before going to the Coast loop he was in the American Association. Leverenz was a member of the St. Louis Browns at one time.

Hal Brokaw, an infielder and a good one, until his arm went bad last spring, has been undergoing treatment at the hands of Bonesetter Reese at Youngstown, O., and is back in Kansas City where he announces he is again fit and ready for a new fling at the game this year. Brokaw has seen service in the Western Association, Western League, New York-Pennsylvania League, and was with Toledo of the American Association, for a time.

Bill Sherdel, left-handed pitcher of the St. Louis Cardinals, underwent an operation for removal of his tonsils in St. Louis last week. Manager Hornsby and President Breadon had been after him to have the job done since late last season when his health was none too good and Dr. Robert F. Hyland, club physician, said his tonsils were poisoning him. Sherdel went all the way from McSherrystown, Pa., to St. Louis for the operation.

Dave Altizer, a veteran of the game who saw service with the Chicago White Sox, Washington and Cincinnati, is said to be in line for an umpirical post in the Three-I league. Dave wound up his playing days with Minneapolis in the American association and since that time has been umpiring. His only organized ball experience came in the Dakota league, but Dave used to fool the umpires enough in his day to qualify him as fool-proof as any arbiter now.

The Boston National league club, according to announcement, will operate a professional football team at Braves' field next fall. On top of this came indications that a number of other National league clubs would attempt to operate football teams, thus giving hint of an organized effort on the part of major league moguls to get behind the professional gridiron sport. Most observers believe professional football on a large scale has a short life before it.

Frank G. Menke, sporting editor of King Feature Service, New York, a contributor to Universal Service, and one of the best known of sport writers, was married in Great Falls, Mont., last week to Miss Mary Kingsbury. The wedding was the outgrowth of Menke's visit to Montana a few years ago to "cover" the Dempsey-Gibbons bout. After the wedding, Menke and his bride left immediately for Vancouver where they departed for Australia, where Menke will assume general editorial supervision of the Hugh McIntosh newspapers in the Antipodes. He is to inject American ideas and customs into the papers as far as possible. A few years ago he undertook the same task with success. When he returns to the United States in about six months, his old jobs will be waiting for him.

"CHILDREN OF THE KINGDOM" ARE WARNED BY PRIEST

Kneeling in long rows at the sanctuary railing and crowding out into the three aisles, men, women and children in St. Patrick's church, at the 9 o'clock mass Sunday, who were receiving communion following confessions on the previous day gave evidence that the two curates are laboring zealously during the absence on a brief vacation in the south of the rector, Rt. Rev. Msgr. M. H. May, who will return this week. The low mass was read by Rev. John J. Reily, who was assisted in giving communion by Rev. Peter P. Galvin. A similar sight was witnessed at the 7:30 mass, when Father Galvin and Father Reilly gave the Eucharist, among others, to a large representation of the Holy Name society. At 9, the Junior choir, Henry J. LaFontaine accompanying, sang the communion hymn, "Oh, Lord, I am not worthy that Thou shouldst come to me."

Father Galvin preached from the gospel for the Sunday—the third after Epiphany—Matthew 8, 1-13, applying to his hearers the concluding passages, "Many shall come from the East and the West and shall sit down with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven: but the children of the kingdom shall be cast into exterior darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

The Jews were God's chosen people; to them were given the laws and the prophets, the temple and sacrifice. Theirs was also the promise of a Messiah. Instead of making them more worthy children of God all these favors left them puffed up with pride. Catholics in their turn are the chosen people of God, having been showered with favors culminating in the greatest gift of all—faith. Theirs, too, must be the penalty which awaited the self-sufficiency and arrogance of the Jewish people unless they put that faith into practice, through application of God's laws in their daily lives, through manifestation of real love toward neighbor, by patience, humility, imitation of the virtues taught by Christ. The practical faith of the centurion of the day's gospel in recognizing the Saviour's divinity and supernatural power and beseeching Him with humility to cure his servant, yet declaring "Lord, I am not worthy that Thou shouldst enter under my roof" was contrasted sharply with the arrogance of Jairus in another gospel in his insistence that the Lord come down unto his house. The warning was uttered against pride and against neglect of the supreme gift of faith, lest the children of the kingdom repeat history, meriting the fate of being cast into exterior darkness, while strangers inherit the kingdom.

COSTS $10 to $1,000 FOR NEW YORK BIRTHS

The cost of being born in New York city varies from $10 to $1,000 depending on the circumstances of the parents. While these figures represent the high and the low in the scale, the price for the child, born into the average family, ranges from $200 to $300, provided no abnormalities of labor occur.

These figures were arrived at in a study being made by the Statistical Division of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company to determine the dollars and cents value of an individual. It is recognized that a monetary value cannot be set on a human being, yet it is realized that during part of his life a person is a very definite asset, and that he is an equally definite liability at other periods. Like any other productive machine, according to the Metropolitan's Statistical Bulletin, man has a first cost and every parent knows that a child comes into the world by no means as a gratuitous gift.

The official figures of New York city for 1924, in which year there were registered 130,436 births, were taken as the basis of this study. Of this total 104,579 births were attended by physicians, and about one half of them took place in institutions; the remainder occurred at home and under the care of a private physician.

"The least expensive type of maternity care is that provided by the outdoor hospital service maintained by a few hospitals," says the Bulletin. "Sometimes a flat rate of $10 is charged and sometimes service is absolutely free. This method of treatment, however, accounts for only a small proportion of confinements and is apparently diminishing in popularity, as shown by the declining number of births.

"The minimum average maternity cost, when care is given in the hospital ward, is about $150. This estimate allows $50 for hospital expenses (the average amount charged in the wards) $70 for service (hiring a working housekeeper), $25 for the baby's layette, and $5 for incidentals, such as hospital fees for prenatal care, the cost of which is very small. As only 25 cents is charged for each clinic visit.

"For a more adequate type of hospital service, a minimum figure will be in the neighborhood of $250. Keeping the price of service, layette and incidentals as before, the extra $100 will provide care in a semi-private hospital room instead of a ward. This is probably the type of treatment most commonly selected by families in the $2,500 income class.

"Costs for home confinement on a scale comparable in quality to ward treatment will usually run somewhat higher than the minimum hospital rate if the same amount of service is employed. The extra supplies which the mother requires in such cases can be bought for about $10 and additional nursing care can be procured for around $20.

"Those who insist on the service of a skilled obstetrician must be prepared to pay much higher fees. Two hundred dollars is considered a minimum fee for the service of a specialist and the other necessary items then mount proportionately higher to a total of not less than $500. Among the well to do, the resulting costs probably do not fall much below $1,000.

"In round figures, we may say that for the rank and file of the community, provided no abnormalities of labor occur, it costs from $200 to $300 to be born. This outlay may not be a big item in the cost of a man, since it occurs but once for each individual, and may therefore be distributed over the mean length of life, say 55 years. But the fact is that this item has actually to be met at one point of time, and, coming thus as a lump sum, it is in most families of moderate means felt as a considerable burden for the parents. In fact, it is undoubtedly the anticipation of greatly increased expenses, the sudden demands made on the family exchequer when a child is born and for some time after, that causes many people of limited income to favor the policy of the restricted family."

$4,924,124 SPECIAL TAXES ON INSURANCE COMPANIES

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24—Insurance companies doing business in the state of Connecticut were required to pay special state insurance taxes for 1924 amounting to $4,924,124.65 in addition to normal tax assessments, according to a bulletin issued today by the insurance department of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. Less than 1 per cent of this sum, collected in the form of insurance licenses, special taxes and fees, was used for the expenses of the state insurance department, and the remainder went into the general state funds.

As pointed out by the Chambers insurance department, the levying of special imposts upon insurance companies is a direct burden upon policy holders as the insurance companies include the amount thus paid to the states in the costs of insurance. The attitude of the National Chamber toward the question of special state insurance taxes is summed up as follows:

"Special state taxes now levied on policyholders through insurance companies should not be considered as a source of general revenue but should be reduced to the total in each state which will adequately support such state's departmental supervision, and a uniform principle of taxing the holders of insurance should be adopted throughout the states."

According to the figures in the bulletin American policyholders carried more insurance in 1924 than ever before, the premiums paid being 6.5 per cent larger than the preceding year. The special insurance taxes collected by the states during the same period, the bulletin says, were 13 per cent greater than in 1923. These imposts, it is stated, do not include the taxes paid by insurance companies in common with other forms of business.

After pointing out that the federal government abolished the special imposts levied upon policyholders in the form of a premium tax in 1921, the bulletin goes on to say that there is increased tendency on the part of the states to levy special insurance taxes.

The known amount of these special insurance taxes collected by the various states in 1924 amounted to $67,731,570.46, which was an increase of $8,000,000 over the amount collected in the preceding year, according to the bulletin. This sum, it is pointed out, would pay an annual premium for more than four million ordinary life insurance policies issued at the age 25 for $1,000 each or would have bought fire insurance covering for one year on $7,500,000,000 worth of property at the average rate of 89 cents per $100.

It is the contention of the Chamber's insurance department that when policyholders are singled out for special taxation, the amounts collected should be used for their benefit. Actually this is not the case. The amount expended by the states for the maintenance of insurance departments in 1924 was less than four per cent of all the money collected in the form of special taxes. In other words, out of every dollar paid to the states by policyholders, more than 96 cents was used for general purposes, none of which was so closely related to insurance as to justify taxation of policyholders for its support.

MORE THAN 5,400 DISPUTES DECIDED IN FILM INDUSTRY

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—(AP)—More than 5,400 disputes in the motion picture industry were decided in 1925 by its boards of arbitration, according to a report issued today through the arbitration society of America. About $1,350,000 was involved in the controversies, the statement said, but only 17 cases were carried beyond the award of the boards, which, almost without exception, was rendered within 30 days of filing.

That Luther Burbank's statement "Religions are on a tottering foundation everywhere" could be answered in one sentence was the opinion of professor William Lyon Phelps of Yale college. Professor Phelps frequently preaches from Baptist pulpits. "I think the Christian religion will survive Mr. Burbank's attack upon it" he said.

THUMM'S
HOME MADE
PORK SAUSAGE
TRY THEM FOR YOUR NEXT BREAKFAST.
Thumm's
Delicatessen
Store
40 Franklin Street.

Copyright 1926 The Picture Advertisers Inc. Oregon City Oregon
The Picture Tells The Story

GLASS — PUTTY — PAINT
HARDWARE — TOOLS — CUTLERY
Examine our line of Aluminum Ware
THE HOUSEHOLD
ICE SKATES
With or Without Shoes.
KEEN KUTTER
AXES
With or Without Handles.
THE HOUSEHOLD
Bulletin Bldg. 74 Franklin Street

NOTICE!

My wife, Armina Senecal, having left my bed and board without just cause, I hereby give notice that I will not be responsible for any bills or charges contracted by her after this date.

ALBERT SENECAL.
Westerly, R. I., Danielson, Conn., January 21, 1926.

BURGESS BEDTIME STORIES

Danny and Nanny Meadow Mouse Get a Great Shock.

We cannot always surely tell
If all be ill, or all be well.
—Danny Meadow Mouse.

You will remember that before the setting in of winter Danny and Nanny Meadow Mouse had moved up to Farmer Brown's barn. They liked that barn; it was a good place in which to spend the winter. The only ones living there at that time were Robber the Rat and his family and Nibbler the House Mouse. Danny and Nanny were afraid of Robber, but they were not afraid of Nibbler. In fact, Nibbler was afraid of them. As for their big cousins, the Rats, Danny and Nanny knew that all they had to do was to keep out of their way.

Danny knew all about that barn, for this was not the first winter they had spent there. He found everything much as he had expected. Nanny soon decided where she wanted to live and it was almost no time at all before they had a snug nest ready to be occupied. They had no worries. Robber the Rat couldn't get at them there if he tried, and he wasn't likely to try.

"You see," explained Danny, "Robber and his family have all they want to eat over here in this barn. Yes, sir, they have all they want to eat, and so they are not likely to bother us. Of course, we must watch out for Black Pussy the Cat. But Black Pussy is stupid. If you ask me, I she hasn't caught Nibbler the House Mouse yet, and Nibbler isn't exactly my idea of one who is really smart."

Nanny Meadow Mouse began to giggle. It was a squeaky little giggle. Danny looked at her very hard. "What are you laughing at?" he demanded.

"I am laughing at the good opinion of yourself you seem to have," said she. "You must think you are a whole lot smarter than Nibbler."

"I do," declared Danny promptly. "All Nibbler has to do is to keep out of the way of Black Pussy. You and I have to keep out of the way of Reddy Fox and Jimmy Skunk and all the members of the Hawk family and all the members of the Owl family, not to mention Blacky the Crow and Shadow the Weasel, and a few others. Of course, we are smarter. But we are going to have a very easy winter here. You must admit, Nannie, that I did well when I thought of coming up here instead of spending the winter down on the Green Meadows."

Nanny was quite ready to admit this. In fact, she was highly pleased with her surroundings. So she and Danny made themselves at home and were more pleased with each succeeding day. In fact, Danny used to tease Black Pussy by showing himself, just by way of having a little excitement. He knew all about the ways of Robber the Rat and all the members of the Robber's big family. It was no trouble at all to keep out of their way. There was plenty to eat without the trouble of hunting for it. It was as easy Mrs.

"What do you suppose has happened?" she whispered.

And then one day, as Danny and Nanny were peeping out to make sure that Black Pussy was not about, they heard a great squeaking among the Rats. They heard the scampering of many little feet. Danny looked at Nanny, and Nanny looked at Danny. "What do you suppose has happened?" she whispered.

And before Danny could whisper that he hadn't the slightest idea, there appeared and almost at once disappeared a slim, white form. It was almost like a ghost—a little, slim ghost. But had it been a ghost, and had Danny and Nanny believed in ghosts, they wouldn't have been any more frightened than they were. They had received one of the greatest shocks of all their lives.

"Shadow the Weasel," whispered Danny when at last he got his breath.

(Copyright, 1926, by T. W. Burgess).

The next story: "Danny and Nanny Make Up Their Minds."

CITY MANAGER HOLT, NEW LONDON, HAS IDEA SERGT. MURPHY WAS BEING 'FRAMED'

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Jan. 24—The information supplied City Manager William A. Holt a week ago by Councilor Edward L. Streeter that Police Sergeant Patrick Murphy had been guilty of violation of the rules and regulations of the police department on the morning of Sunday, the 17th inst., by entering a house of shady repute on Richards street and remaining there indefinitely, had the expected result Saturday when City Manager Holt concluded his investigation and then notified Councilor Streeter that the information purporting to allege the violation of the rules and regulations of the department had not been founded upon fact and that the officer had been entirely exonerated of any charge of failing to violate the rules and regulations.

In his communication to the councilor City Manager Holt recited that on the night of the 16th inst., fire attacked the four story wooden building at 363 Main street, and that Sergeant Murphy was on duty there. During the progress of the fire, Chief Charles Rose, of the fire department, reported to Sergeant Murphy that the former suspected that the fire was of incendiary origin and requested him to make a search for Sigmund Malahewski, a baker. Sergeant Murphy suspected that Malahewski would be found at the Richards street house and went there, accompanied by Sergeant David Marks, of the force of special agents of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad. Murphy went to the front entrance and was informed that neither Malahewski nor any other Polish person was in the place. Murphy then returned to the scene of the fire and later Patrolman John Foley picked Malahewski up on Main street. No evidence was found the following day that the suspected person had caused the blaze, for he was in Norwich when the fire broke out.

City Manager Holt also stated that about 1:35 o'clock Sunday morning a telephone message was received at the police station from a man who stated that his name was "Warner" and asking if Sergeant Murphy was supposed to be on duty. When a reply was received in the affirmative, the speaker declared that Murphy was in the Jackson house and had been there 30 minutes. Lieut. Smith went to the residence of Herbert Warner, Richards street, and was informed by Warner that he had not telephoned to the police and that the telephone had not been in use since early in the evening. Mr. Warner also declared that he had been watching the fire, but that he had not observed any officer in the vicinity of his home, which is within two doors of the Jackson place.

City Manager Holt also told of interrogating Mrs. Willard Moon, Huntington street, who was at the corner of Richards street and Mather court about at the time that the telephone message was received by the police, where she was in conversation with Forrest Lewis, a resident of Richards street. Mrs. Moon declared that she had not seen an officer on the street and that she did not know Sergeant Murphy. Lewis, who is a salesman, could not be located. Louis Olbreys, 36 Richards street, was queried as to whether he had observed an officer about the Jackson house and he gave a negative reply, although he stated that he sat in the window of his home watching the progress of the flames.

